A MOST BEAUTIFUL SUMMER RESORT

....Preface....

BELIEVING that there is no better place for the army of summer visitors which annually invade the shores of the great inland waters of Canada, than the beautiful Bay of Quinte and Hastings County, we seek to convey to the reader an idea of the many enjoyable trips in the fishing and hunting district of Belleville, and as far as possible demonstrate with pen and picture that nowhere else are there to be found such beautiful, such healthful and invigorating climate, such satisfying sport for rod and gun. Come and spend the summer holidays with us and your longings will be satisfied.

Belleville on the Bay of Quinte

BELLEVILLE city is situated on the Bay of Quinte, an arm of Lake Ontario, at the Southern extremity of Hastings county. It is the centre of trade for a large agricultural and mining district. The Moira river, which passes through the city, furnishes power for mills and manufacturing.

Belleville's population is about ten thousand. It is noted for its handsome residences. It is pure and clean, as well as beautiful, and has the lowest death rate recorded in the province. From its beautiful surroundings it has become very popular as a summer resort. The Bay of Quinte is a paradise for the angler, the yachtsman and oarsman, while the district to the north is a veritable hunters' elysium.

Belleville is the centre and point of entrance for the ever growing mining industries of Eastern Ontario. It is 220 miles west of Montreal, and 113 miles east of Toronto, on the main line of the Grand Trunk Railway. A branch of this road runs north to Madoc, crossing the C. P. R. at Ivanhoe. There is daily steamboat communication with Rochester, Thousand Islands, Kingston, Trenton, Deseronto, Picton, etc. Steamers of the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Co. call regularly going west and east; and innumerable excursions during the season to favorite resorts on the Bay.

H. M. KING EDWARD VII.

Belleville is connected by a steel bridge with the rich county of Prince Edward to the south, making it practically the county and market town of two counties.

The city is beautifully situated and substantially built. It can boast of Victoria Island Park (the prettiest spot in Canada); a large number of handsome churches, schools, Albert College, institution for deaf and dumb, hospital and home, Y. M. C. A., Belleville Business College, Ontario Business College, chartered banks, daily papers, opera house, good hotels, etc.

The Central Ontario Railway furnishes the most direct communication with the mining centres of Hastings. At Trenton it forms a junction with the main line of the Grand Trunk Railway. It crosses the main line of the C. P. R., twenty-five miles north of Trenton at Central Ontario Junction. The road then runs directly by the gold and arsenic mines at Delora, Malone, Bannockburn, the iron mines at Eldorado, Millbridge, Coe Hill, Bancroft, Belmont gold mine and Ledyard gold and iron mines. The C. O. R. does an immense business in freight and passenger traffic to the thriving mines and villages along the route, and especially in conveying sportsmen to the magnificent hunting and fishing district of the North. Mr. Geo. Collins, Trenton, is General Superintendent of the road.

J. H. MILLS is one of Belleville's most energetic, go ahead business men. His location is one door south of Campbell Street. The establishment is the finest and largest between Toronto and Montreal. His stock is composed of the very best imported tweeds, worsteds, trouserings and overcoatings.

Mr. Mills' reputation for smart and good fitting custom clothing not only gives him a large city and local trade, but brings business from all parts of Canada, in fact Mr. Mills enjoys a steady and prosperous trade. He is an active member of Forest and Stream Club; enjoys an afternoon fish on the bay; is an active member of the A.F. & A.M., I.O.O.F., and a member of the city school board.

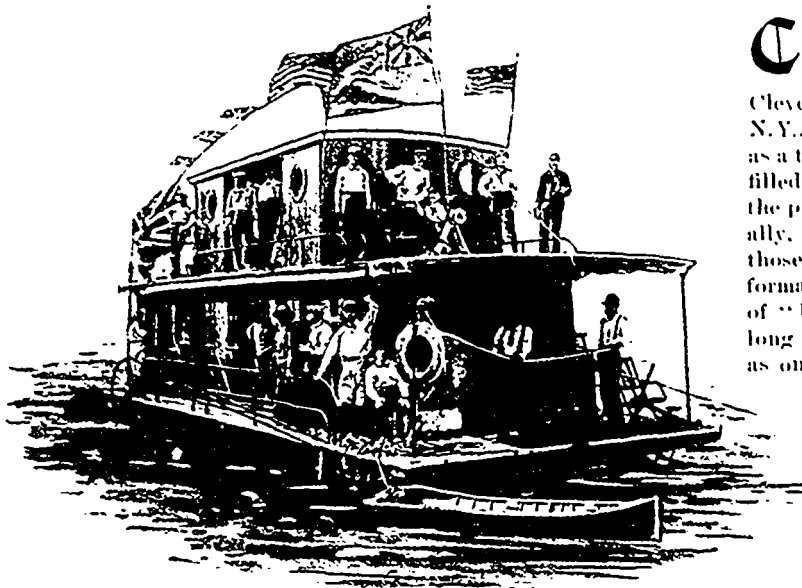

N.B. - There is no bad points about the suits he makes, they fit well and are fashionable, and are ready when he promises them.

AMERICAN FRIENDS ENJOYING THE SUMMER ON THE BAY OF QUINTE WITH THEIR HOUSE-BOAT.

COL. M. J. HENDRICK, United States Consul, for Belleville and Bay of Quinte District, was appointed by President Cleveland in 1893. He was born in Penyan, N. Y., where he was for years a merchant, and as a tribute to the efficiency with which he had filled the position, he was continued in office by the present Republican administration. Officially, Mr. Hendrick is always willing to give those who transact business with him all the information possible. He is a good representative of "Uncle Sam." Mr. Hendrick has lived so long amongst us that we almost look upon him as one of our citizens. Mr. Hendrick is a kind and generous gentleman, always ready to assist in any charitable work, is fond of a sail on the bay, a spin on the wheel, or a good fish he enjoys very much.

Do you want good markets, good food and good times generally? Come to Belleville, behave yourself, act squarely between man and man, and you will "laugh and grow fat."

BELLEVILLE ON THE BAY

W. FLINT JONES,

280 Front St.

THIS is the largest musical ware-room in Belleville, occupying a commodious sales-room, well stocked with fine instruments and storage room in connection.

In pianos his specialties are the Gerhard Heintzman and Newcombe (both of Toronto), and both high-grade instruments, combining all the latest improvements, and sold from $255 to $600. These are each shown in nearly a dozen different styles. Their Concert Grand is the finest, and is sold at $1,500, being specially furnished to order. Samples of the upright styles are constantly on hand.

In addition, Mr. Jones handles the Mendelssohn piano of Toronto, and the Craig of Montreal, both excellent makes, sold from $350 up, while in organs his specialties are the Doherty of Clinton, Berlin organs of Berlin, and the Thomas organ of Woodstock, all of which have a first-class reputation, with prices ranging from $50 to $150. Special orders for church organs are also filled when required. A full line of small musical instruments handled in connection, such as banjos, violins, mandolins, auto-harps, flutes, accordions, etc., while special orders are also filled for the Regent Zither, one of the latest introduced, and which is so simple that any child of ten years can play on it. Sheet music will probably be handled the coming fall. His trade in pianos, organs and other instruments extends west as far as Brighton, east as far as Napanee, north as far as Bancroft, with a good trade in Prince Edward county, and goods are delivered free to any address throughout that territory. In Belleville he has an excellent trade from all the best classes, and the business this season is fully equal to that of last year.

Mr. Jones first established his present business in 1899, previous to which he was engaged in handling dry goods for many years, having had long experience in general business, and has been a life-long resident of Belleville, enjoying a wide acquaintance throughout both counties.

His stock and business since its inception has been steadily increasing in extent, being now one of the largest in this line in the two counties.

A RELIABLE FIRM.

A. W. VERMILYEA & SON, Belleville, Ont., the reliable and reputable dealers in all kinds of boots and shoes. There is no gainsaying the fact that this firm has always been abreast of the times in the purchase of everything desirable in the way of footwear, and it is equally truthful that they have during the past and do now sell all goods in their line at remarkably low prices. They make no great outside show, but move steadily along, supplying a large custom and adding new patrons. They carry nothing but good goods, those that they are willing to guarantee and which they know to be good value at the prices placed upon them. Their stock is large and complete, being one of the heaviest in this portion of the country.

In placing stock they buy direct from the manufacturers, in large lots, take all the discounts for cash, and in turn give their patrons the benefits in the way of low prices. Their business is both wholesale and retail, a large trade being transacted in both departments. They are prepared to furnish everything needed for clothing the feet, and also carry a good assortment of trunks and valises. This concern is ably managed by Mr. S. W. Vermilyea. Personally young Mr. Vermilyea is a quiet, unassuming gentleman, and yet he is a hustler when it comes to business. He studies closely the wants of his patrons, and is watchful of their interests.

J. COLLIP, Florist.

ONE of the principal florist plants in this section is that of J. D. Collip, which utilizes two green houses. It is situated in second concession Thurlow, with salesroom on Market square, Belleville. The green houses are well equipped with every convenience for raising all kinds of flowers and bedding plants (both native and foreign varieties).

One specialty is in cut flowers for wedding and funeral decorations, which are prepared in all the latest designs and supplied to private parties, weddings and funerals in any part of the city or country. All kinds of bedding and market garden plants are also raised in large quantities, having an excellent trade in that line, and his business is both wholesale and retail, supplying dealers in the outside towns in Hastings and Lennox counties within a radius of twenty miles. His city trade in floral decorations is as large as any, and a good local trade is also enjoyed in fresh vegetables of all descriptions, keeping a full line on hand in salesroom on Market square. The business was commenced by Mr. Collip thirty years ago, who was succeeded about twenty years ago by his son, Mr. J. D. Collip, who has had a life-long experience in this line, and is an old resident of Thurlow township, well known throughout this section. His business this season is larger than ever, and mail orders from outside points receive prompt attention.

JAMES A. ROY, Esq., brewer and maltster, Front St., Belleville, Ont. Mr. Roy, manufacturer of beer, ale and porter, is well and favorably known throughout this district. His goods are made from pure malt and hops, and are recommended by the medical profession. Thirty-five years in the brewing business gives Mr. Roy a thorough knowledge of the manufacturing of No. 1 stock; also of the class of goods required by his many customers. His goods are shipped to all parts of the country daily. The increasing demand speaks volumes for the class of goods manufactured by him. Prompt attention is given to all rash orders. In fact Mr. Roy is alive to the wants of the people, is fond of a good horse, an active A. F. & A. M., etc. His residence on this page is one of the finest in Belleville.

AN OLD ESTABLISHMENT.

MR. J. J. HAINES, shoe merchant (of the late firm of Haines & Lockett) Front St., Belleville, Ont. (Established 1864), has had an extensive experience in the shoe business, being the largest dealer in boots, shoes, trunks and travelling goods in the district. He has three large stores—one at Belleville, Napanee and Trenton, his headquarters and wholesale department being at Belleville. The extent of the business enables Mr. Haines to deal directly with the manufacturers, thereby saving to his customers all middle profits and securing for his trade solid and reliable goods. The firm has a good reputation for honorable dealing. One price to all. Goods marked in plain figures.

Belleville possesses good schools, fine churches, excellent streets, and all the desired city improvements. It is a good place to make your home.

N. ALLEN.

THE office of this firm is at 148 Bridge Street, while his coal and wood yards are at West Belleville, on James Street, where his coal sheds have a storage capacity of 4,000 tons.

All kinds of hard and soft coal are purchased, principally in cargo lots, being brought in his own vessels from American points, making a specialty of the Lackawanna and Scranton Coal Companies' hard coals; also all kinds of steam and soft coal for blacksmithing and manufacturing purposes.

Special attention is given to supplying the domestic trade all through the city, using a number of delivery waggons for coal and wood, the latter comprising all kinds of hard and soft wood, well seasoned, and is cut and split to order, his wood-yard being equipped with suitable machinery for that purpose. In addition to his local trade in the city coal is also shipped in car lots to smaller towns north, including Madoc, Marmora, Tweed, Stirling and other points.

Galbraith, Walmsley & Co.

THE commercial importance of a city and a county depend alike upon the manufacturers and the manufacturers' agents.

These two factors create and control the trade, and as they are supported by the localities wherever situated, so is that place prosperous.

Loyalty to Belleville does not imply purchasing from outside merchants, either wholesale or retail, and if we "would to ourselves be true" we should take pleasure in patronizing home agencies.

Galbraith, Walmsley & Co., not only at home, but afield, compete with the best in their line, and secure a large trade for Belleville. Their customers in Belleville embrace the live up-to-date grocers—men who are not hampered by freight, cartage, breakage or loss of any kind. Capital, experience, connection and situation all combine to enhance the importance of Belleville's Wholesale Grocery.

On the first is the general stock, the north side store being devoted to builders' hardware and house furnishings, such as cutlery, lamp goods, silverware and other goods for house use, while in builders' hardware they carry a complete line, including paints, oils, varnishes, glass, putty, etc., handling the Elephant brand of mixed paints from the Canada Paint Co.; also carry a full line of dry colors, white leads, etc., and a large stock of paint and machine oils, coal oil, etc. The house also carries a full line of farm tools, fencing wire, rope cordage and binder twine in season.

In the adjoining salesroom (south side) is the stock of stoves, tin and granite ware, gas stoves and fixtures, bath tubs, closets, marble wash stands, bicycles etc., the latter being the Cleveland make. In stoves and ranges their specialty is the Imperial Oxford, from the Gurney Foundry Co., of Toronto, carrying a complete line. Their tin shop on ground floor in rear is the largest in the city, giving employment to a force of over a dozen hands. They also do a large business in plumbing and gas fitting as well as hot-air and hot-water heating, having put in the sanitary plumbing and heating in many of the best residences, their plumbing trade especially being the largest in Belleville. In the different branches of their business a force of eighteen hands are employed.

R. J. GRAHAM, Esq., Mayor of the city of Belleville, has always taken an active part in municipal matters, being chosen by the citizens for a third term as Chief Magistrate of the city.

In politics a Conservative, and at present President of the Liberal-Conservative Association of West Hastings.

Mr. Graham was born in the Township of Sidney, 42 years ago, and is a son of the late K. Graham, Esq., M. P. P., who represented West Hastings in the Ontario Legislature for two terms. Mr. Graham is head of the Graham Company, Limited, the largest manufacturers of evaporated fruits and vegetables in Canada, shipping goods to the American, European and African markets.

Mr. Graham's straight-forward and reliable business methods has made him scores of friends, he is not only one of our best business men, but also one of the most prominent and popular of our citizens; one who is respected and esteemed by all who know him. An active A. F. & A. M., and in religion a Presbyterian.

The banking facilities afforded in Belleville are exceptionally good. The officers of the various fiduciary institutions are liberal in their dealings. They are inclined to "live and let live," recognizing that the ultimate interests of the community will be best conserved by a generous policy.

Eleven miles from Belleville to Trenton. Bicyclists consider it the best piece of road in Canada. In fact the whole County of Hastings is noted for its fine roads.

As a summer resort Belleville cannot be excelled, it is cool and healthy.

HENRY CORBY, ex-M.P., distiller, exporter, importer and wine merchant. Mr. Corby was born in Belleville about 49 years ago, and has seen the little town grow into a beautiful city. He is one of the most popular men in this part of Canada and represented the Conservative party in West Hastings in the Dominion House of Commons for 16 years, always carrying the riding by a large majority. Good citizenship is always shown by the interest one manifests in public affairs. This is a quality possessed by our townsman, Mr. Corby. Any thing that has a tendency to push the city forward always receives his support. He is a member of about all the benefit and charitable societies in the city, is in possession of more degrees than any man in Ontario. Mr. Corby is generous to a fault, at the same time we have no shrewder business man in our city. He admires a good horse, is fond of all honest legitimate amusement. Commodore Corby is owner of one of the largest and most complete steam yachts in Canadian waters, which he has fitted up in most luxurious style. Mr.

Corby is most unselfish of the good things he owns and many have enjoyed a spin around the bay on "The Skylark," which is a pleasure that is not soon forgotten.

Mrs. and the Misses Corby have also given hours of delight to many of their friends on this beautiful yacht and are as hospitable and attentive to their guests as is Mr. Corby.

HENRY CORBY, EX-M.P.

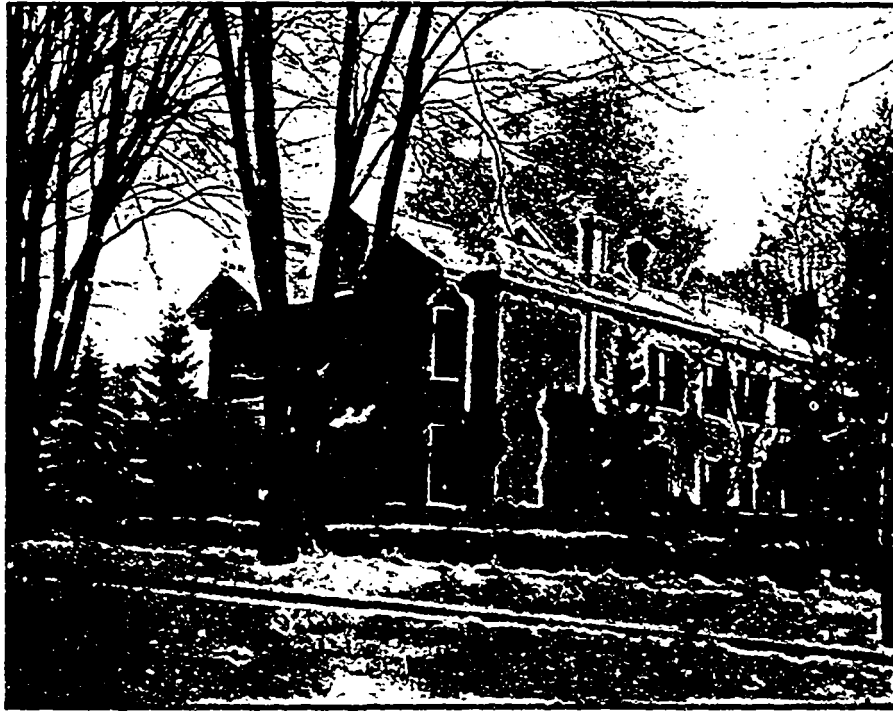

A careful examination of the residential portion of our city will convey to the average intellect the indisputable fact that from an architectural standpoint Belleville is not behind the most pretentious city in the province.

If you think of locating in Belleville for the summer send a little "Want" advertisement to the Daily Intelligencer or Daily Ontario, and ask for rooms, private board, hotel accommodation, or whatever you desire to obtain.

If you want big game you will find deer, bear, fox, wolf and rabbits within four or five hours drive of Belleville.

AS department after department has been added to this ever progressive and popular store, and, as every forward move on our part has been appreciated by this district and surroundings, we have added still another department, Ladies' Tailoring. Men designed and man tailored finished to the highest point of perfection. We feel justly proud in offering to our lady patrons this, "much to be desired" opportunity of having their garments tailored to that nicety of detail as in gentleman's custom tailoring. Our Mr. FLEURY who has charge of this department, is a man of unquestioned reputation as a high-class designer and cutter. This, coupled with our ability to procure our fabrics direct from manufacturers, insures to our customers, garments tailored to the highest point of excellence and at lowest possible prices. We enjoy the reputation of being the only establishment between Toronto and Montreal of employing an expert man designer and cutter. We solicit a trial order for your next suit, gown or wrap, and guarantee results to be highly satisfactory. "Once tried, always tried."

UNION HOTEL, TRENTON, ONT.

ONE of the principal one dollar per day hotels on the east side of Trent river is the Union, corner of Dundas and Ontario Streets, occupying a two-story building fronting 120 feet on Dundas Street and extending nearly the same distance back, with large yard and feed barn in rear.

The first floor is used for the office, sitting room and dining room, the latter seating forty persons, and is nearly always filled on regular days, this house having twelve regular boarders, besides a good transient trade from the surrounding towns and country, and as many as 230 persons have been provided with meals in a single day. An excellent spread is always ready, while suppers are prepared when required.

On the second floor are sixteen bedrooms and two parlors (both public and private), and both floors are lighted by electricity and heated by coal stoves. Mr. T. Ventress, the present proprietor, has been in control of this house for twenty-six years, being one of the oldest hotel men in this section. His trade this season is as good as ever, including a fine transient trade from sportsmen and others.

Muscalonge, black bass, brook trout, and all kinds of gamey fish are to be found near Trenton.
