FRESH PROGRESS IN HAIG'S DRIVE

British Take Two Villages; Repulse Counter Attack

MAING AND VENEGIES-SUR-ECAILLON CAPTURED BY HAIG

German Counter Attack Repulsed--Fighting Was Resumed Along Front of Offensive This Morning--Americans Share in Gains Being Made

By Courier Leased Wire.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The British have captured Maing, southwest of Valenciennes, Field Marshal Haig announces. The British have also captured Venegies-sur-Ecaillon, on the front below Valenciennes.

A German counter-attack was repulsed, and fighting was resumed early this morning.

The statement follows:

"Yesterday afternoon our troops attacked and captured Venegies-sur-Ecaillon, and made progress on the high ground to the east of the village. A counter-attack in this neighborhood was successfully repulsed. The fighting was recommenced in this sector at an early hour this morning.

"At the close of the fighting yesterday, the enemy's resistance in Maing was overcome, and the village remained in our hands.

"On the remainder of the battle front our advanced troops pushed forward at different points."

BRITISH ENTER GERMAN DEFENCES

With the Allied Armies in France and Belgium, Oct. 5.—(By the Associated Press.)—Fighting which compares in fierceness to almost any in the war continued through the night on the field of the great battle north and south of Valenciennes. Related reports indicate that the British have entered the German defences, gaining considerable ground and pressing eastward slowly but most surely.

FIGHTING PARTICULARLY FIERCE

PARIS, Oct. 25.—(Havas.)—The fighting along the American front on both sides of the Meuse is particularly fierce. The Germans appear to be making a despairing effort to hold their positions in this vital sector. Information received here gives the impression that they cannot resist much longer in their present positions.

HUNS BOMBARDED HOSPITAL

PARIS, Oct. 25.—(Havas.)—In the town of St. Amand, north of Valenciennes, which has been captured by the British the Germans left 11,000 inhabitants and 1,000 sick persons from that region who were in a hospital in the centre of the town. On the following day, October 2., the Germans bombarded St. Amand, directing particular attention to the hospital. A large number of patients were killed.

COL. E. M. HOUSE AND STAFF IN FRANCE

By Courier Leased Wire
Washington, Oct. 25.—Colonel E. M. House, personal representative of President Wilson and spokesman of the State Department, and Admiral William S. Benson, chief of naval operations, have arrived in France to represent the United States in the armistice and peace negotiations.

Col. House, President Wilson's confidential adviser, was sent to Europe as the personal representative of the President on an official mission. This announcement is authorized officially, but further information is withheld.

It is understood, however, that the visit of Col. House to Europe at this time is connected with Germany's plea for an armistice and peace, which now is before the Allied governments for decision. Col. House very probably is authorized to represent the President in discussions with the representatives of the Allied Governments.

The fact that Col. House left for Europe several days before President Wilson's final reply to Germany was dispatched, is further proof that every step of the President's negotiations with Germany has been taken in full accord with the Entente Governments. It also is taken to indicate that decision to transmit the German plea to the Allies under certain conditions, was reached even before the last note from Berlin was received.

Col. House has long been recognized as the logical selection by the President to represent him in such conferences as are now to be held.

Not only is he closer to the President probably than any living man, but he is believed to be peculiarly fitted for the task at hand. He has made frequent trips to Europe since the war began in 1914, conferring with leaders in the leading belligerent nations, and more than a year ago he was charged by the President with gathering data for use at the peace conference.

WILSON APPEALS TO PUBLIC TO ELECT A DEMOCRAT CONGRESS

By Courier Leased Wire.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—President Wilson today issued an appeal to the people to return a Democratic Congress in the November elections if they approve of his course in this critical period.

Return of a Republican majority to either House of the Congress, the President said, would be certain to be interpreted on the other side of the water as a repudiation of my leadership.

The President said he would accept the country's verdict without cavil, but that if it was adverse, the power to administer the great trust assigned to him would be seriously impaired.

After referring to the critical period the country is now facing, the President says in his appeal. I have no thought of suggesting that any political party is paramount in matters of patriotism. I feel too deeply the sacrifices which have been made in this war by all our citizens, irrespective of party affiliations, to harbor such an idea. I mean only that the difficulties and delicacies of our present task are of a sort that makes it imperatively necessary that the nation should give its undivided support to the government under a unified leadership, and that a Republican Congress would divide the leadership.

Peace Sought by Turkey

TURKEY WILL ACCEPT PEACE BASED ON PRINCIPLES LAID DOWN BY WILSON, SAYS TURKISH GRAND VIZIER

New Government Approves President's Terms - Sharp Criticism For German Policy Passed By Reichstag Recently

By Courier Leased Wire.

BASEL, Oct. 25.—Havas.—Turkey will accept peace based on the principles of right and justice laid down by President Wilson, which the new Turkish government approves, the grand vizier, Tewfik Pasha, is quoted in a Constantinople dispatch as having stated in parliament.

The grand vizier's speech was made on the occasion of the presentation of the new ministry to the chamber. He said the government would grant without delay to all elements not only political rights without distinction as to nationality or religion, but the right to participate in the administration of the country.

Negotiate With Czechs

Basel, Oct. 24.—At a conference of the party leaders of the Austrian lower house, held recently, Strassky, one of the Czech chiefs, declared that in future all negotiations between the Austrian government and the Czech-Slovak Government must be carried on with the Paris organization. Declaring that he was speaking on behalf of the Czech Union, he said that the Czech deputies did not consider themselves qualified to open negotiations with the Austrian government or with other nationalities in the country, according to Vienna advices received here.

Jugo-Slav deputies made a similar declaration, it is said.

The Vienna correspondent of The Frankfurt Gazette was quoted on Wednesday by that newspaper as saying that Austria is not disposed to enter into negotiations with the Czech-Slovak organization at Paris, but would deal only with those in Austria.

Vote of Confidence

Copenhagen, Oct. 25.—The German Reichstag has given Prince Maximilian, the imperial chancellor, a vote of confidence, the ballot standing 132 to 52, according to Berlin dispatches received here. Twenty-three of the members did not vote.

POLICY CRITICIZED

By Courier Leased Wire.

New York, Oct. 25.—German newspapers received here show that sharp criticism of the German military policy was voiced in debate during a sitting of the main committee of the Reichstag late in September. Deputy Adolph Groeber of the Centre party; Philipp Scheidemann, the Socialist leader and now secretary of state without portfolio in Prince Maximilian's government; Deputy Hasenbeck for the People's Progressive party; and Dr. Gustav Stresemann of the National-Liberal party, were the chief critics. The keynote of their remarks was that the military policy reduces the civil government to the role of a puppet.

According to the Vorwaerts of September 26, the address of Herr Groeber was the greatest surprise of the day. In the past he has been a strong supporter of the militarist forces. During the debate he turned upon Chancellor von Hertling and also General von Stein, Prussian war minister, accusing the latter of having forbidden meetings in favor of the peace resolution passed by the Reichstag in July, 1917.

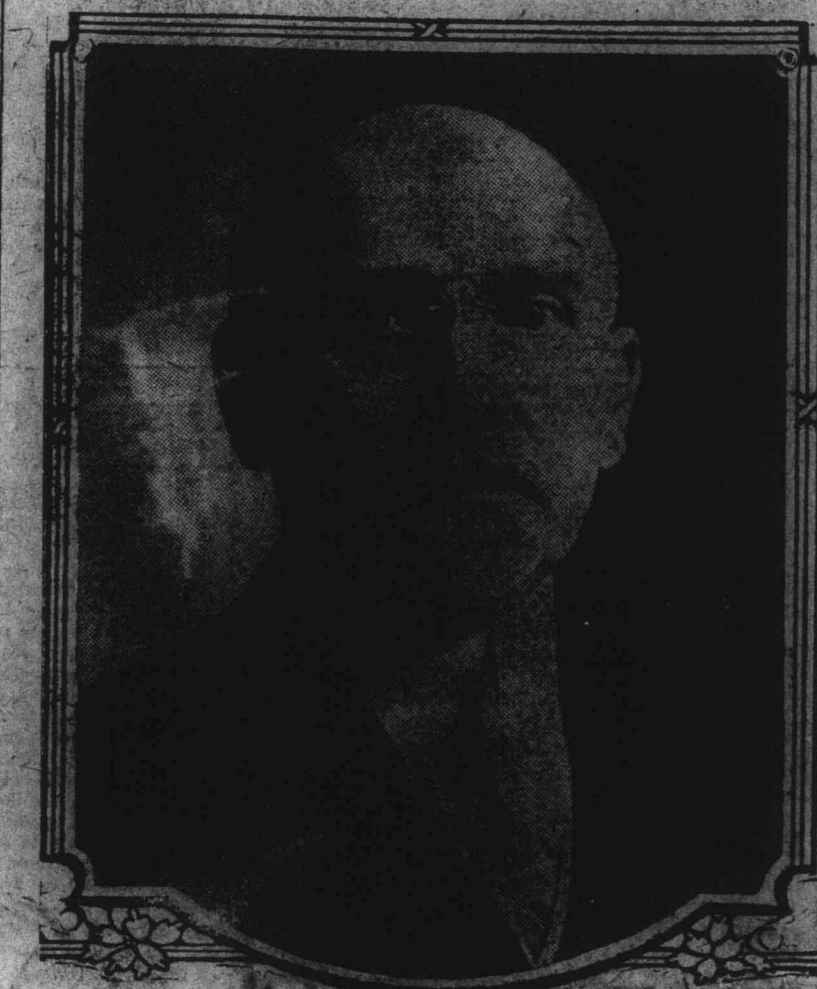

Philipp Scheidemann was unparalysed in his criticism of conditions which have arisen during recent months. He said, in part:

"The last year has been the worst ever lived by the German people. It was believed that following the conclusion of peace in the east a military superiority had been created in the west. In that we have been deceived. Authoritative circles have underestimated the enemy and this under-estimation has been communicated suggestively to them.

"It has not been possible as a military thought to crush the enemy. We will on the contrary be compelled to do our utmost in avoiding being crushed ourselves.

"Vice Chancellor von Payer endeavored, in his speech at Stuttgart, to justify Germany's policy in the east. He even tried to harmonize his address with remarks recently made by Dr. W. S. Eoff, the secretary of state for colonies. This was a difficult undertaking, for Dr. Eoff probably would have spoken quite differently if he had been acquainted with the treaties supplementary to the Brest-Litovsk question. It is very characteristic that Dr. Eoff as a member of the government, knew nothing of these treaties.

"The time is irretrievably passed when the peoples are willing to spill their blood for dynastic reasons. It has been impossible to bring our full force to bear upon the western front because as a result of our eastern policy, German troops must be kept in great strength in the east."

MR. E. R. WOOD, Chairman Dominion Executive, Victory Loan 1915 to whom the Minister of Finance has entrusted the raising of a $500,000,000 Victory Loan.

DAILY IMPROVEMENT SHOWN IN SITUATION

The situation is distinctly better, Dr. Bragg, M.H.O., announced at noon today with regard to the influenza epidemic. The number of new cases reported is dwindling daily, while many patients are being discharged from the Emergency Hospital as recovered, or at least out of all danger.

When are the schools, the churches and the theatres going to reopen? These are queries which are being asked more frequently every day. The decision rests entirely with the Board of Health, and will probably be considered at tonight's meeting of the board. In any event, the schools will not reopen next Monday, J. W. Shepperson, Chairman of the Board of Education, announced today. Whether they will remain closed all week is as yet a matter of conjecture.

WILSON BRINGS SINCERITY OF GERMAN PEOPLE TO FINAL TEST

London Press is Unanimous in Support of President's Reply to Latest German Overtures—Just Peace Will Be Enforced, if Necessary, by Violence Says The Times.

By Courier Leased Wire
London, Oct. 25.—Commenting upon President Wilson's note to Germany, the Daily News says:

"The imperial chancellor's note left matters in suspense, but the President takes them where they should be. The sincerity of the German people's desire for peace is today brought to the final test. If the Germans accept the President's terms there is no reason why fighting should not end in less than a week. Mr. Wilson, beyond question, speaks for every Allied nation."

President Wilson must win the hearty approval of plain men everywhere, says the Telegraph. "This sort of language becomes necessary when one has to deal with a people who insist on being swayed and tricked in treating with a plain issue and suffer the unpleasant political malady of being too clever by half."

Enforce Just Peace
The newspaper commends President Wilson's "correct attitude toward the Allies," and especially welcomes his reference to the matter of desiring an armistice to the military leaders.

The Times says: "If the Germans will not accept a peace of justice without violence, then violence will make them accept a just peace. The difference between German violence and the force without stint which President Wilson proposes if necessary to employ, is that German warfare is violence in the service of

The Retort Courteous
Under the caption, "The Retort Courteous," The Post says:

"President Wilson's note is a masterpiece of diplomacy. It rivals the German Government to an unqualified acceptance of his peace terms. In what may be called the President's ultimatum, he again offers the German people an opportunity to set themselves as nearly right as may be provides at the same time some guarantee of good faith."

The Express describes Mr. Wilson's note as the greatest of the series of his masterly papers. "It is supremely great," the newspaper says, "because it is simple, straightforward, unequivocal, and candid. No man can quite tell what Dr. Eoff and Prince Maximilian understand when Mr. Wilson means."

An Admirable Statement
After welcoming the note of President Wilson as "an admirable statement," The Times expresses satisfaction that it reveals the closest possible agreement between American and British views. The newspaper thinks that, at the moment there is no more than a chance that the Germans will ask an armistice. It insists that the naval and military arms of the service must be ready for such an emergency and most adamant in imposing adequate terms to make secure the policy of which they are the instruments. The Times is gratified at the manifest signs of close co-operation between the military commanders on the western front, while the presence of Col. House, who has arrived in France, will make for political as well as naval and military co-ordination.

The paper further contends that the question of an armistice concerns not only the western powers, but Italy, Serbia, Greece, Czech-Slovaks, Poles, Jugo-Slavs, Roumanians and Russians.

Handy Words?
The solitary adverse criticism of Mr. Wilson's note appears in The Graphic, which complains of the length of the document, adding:

"At such a crisis handy words suggests a lack of dignity and creates a loophole for further diplomatic wiggling."

The Graphic, nevertheless, prints a cartoon of John Bull holding a copy of the note and saying to President Wilson: "That's the sort of stuff to give 'em, sir."

The Daily Mail says: "President Wilson states the terms with a composed dignity worthy of the greatest masters of our language. Autocracy must surrender or take a beating and here we may leave the peace offensive without forgetting to thank Mr. Wilson for the mastery with which he exposed its insincerity."

NORFOLK NEWS

FLU STABILIZED AT SIMCOE TO-DAY

Many Cases Still Serious, But No Deaths Occurred Yesterday

PLENTY OF NURSES

Simcoe, Oct. 25.—(From Our Own Correspondent).—There were no patients admitted and none discharged from the hospital yesterday. It is thought that three may leave to-day. Most of the twenty under treatment are progressing favorably. But outside there are still many severely afflicted and some quite severely so. Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Green are both down. Mr. Green was unable to attend on Wednesday here the funeral of a younger brother, who died of the disease in Hamilton. Mrs. A. N. West was better yesterday.

The West and Peachey plant is practically out of business temporarily and all other factories are feeling the shortage of help freely. Mrs. Sherer spent a rather bad day yesterday and early in the afternoon her recovery was despaired of, but at last reports late last night, the afflicted lady was still baffling the disease. The management reported last night that there is no shortage of help for the immediate future at the hospital.

Time for Action. A certain element in town has been endeavoring to prevent volunteer nurses from continuing at work at the hospital. "You are a big fool for going there," is their solution. It is not about time the Board of Health took cognizance of this element and had a few individuals of this type made examples of? A tar and feather brigade of indignant citizens would possibly bring these snobs to their senses. A tent on that town property east of Brook's Mill Pond would be voted a fitting location for the tribe.

Every new volunteer for service is one more paragraph of condemnation of this abominable set. For their benefit be it known, the Pt. Rowan evaporator is calling for apple peelers. Simcoe will give them willingly extended leave of absence. Take one way tickets, please, and stay.

Things are at a pretty stage if the very best women and young ladies we have for the emergency are to be called "fools" at the present moment.

Old Ends of News. The town tractor came to grief yesterday forenoon when it dropped into the trench up Norfolk street made by the gas company in laying their larger pipes. The company left the roadway throughout the entire length of their operations in a very unsafe condition for heavy traffic through their neglect to tramp in the earth.

Later we learn that the passenger bus got hung up in this ditch down the highway and that on at least three other occasions a cartage team has come to the rescue of stranded traffic.

Thousands of barrels of apples of fall and winter varieties are going to waste throughout the county. Apples which last year would have brought one dollar a bushel or more may now be had for the gathering of them. Much of the crop is already Hospital cash contributions now amount to almost $50. The treasurer of the board, Mr. B. B. Ballie, has no intention of closing the list for a day or so anyway.

One case of aliphtheria has developed on the extreme south-easterly limit of the town. For days forecasts of some such outbreak there has been predicted.

Carloads of turnips are arriving at the evaporator and the plant is running at what capacity the limited number of employees available permits.

Warder J. P. Buck was in town yesterday on county business.

Up to yesterday morning there were five deaths from influenza at Port Dover. Convenient quarters have been fitted up there for the treatment of those who could not receive proper care in their own homes.

BATTLEPLANE CAPTURED. By Courier Leased Wire. With the American Army Northwest of Verdun, Thursday, Oct. 24.—(By the Associated Press).—American captured an immense German armored battleplane Wednesday north of Brieffles. The machine was virtually intact, but the pilot and gunner made their escape. Just when the machine landed is unknown, infantry forces found the monster.

From east of the Meuse German artillery endeavored to protect the plains, but the American guns let down a counter-fire on the enemy gun emplacements. When a half dozen American troops hauled the plane to safety.

A number of valuable instruments and two machine guns were captured. The battleplane was equipped with a bomb-dropping device and had a gun and a signaling arrangement so fixed that the gunner could shoot directly beneath him.

This gun was firing on roads. So far as known this is the first plane of this type captured by Americans. Half the fuselage was covered with quarter-inch armour.

HOSTAGES SHOT. By Courier Leased Wire. Amsterdam, Oct. 25.—From the time that Mose Urtzky, communist for elections to the Constituent Assembly of Russia, was assassinated late in August, up to October 1st, 65 hostages, including five priests, were shot by the Bolsheviks, according to Petrograd despatches quoting the newspaper Pravda.

ITALIAN OFFENSIVE. By Courier Leased Wire. London, Oct. 25.—(1.15 p.m.)—Italians troops have begun an offensive between the Piave and the Brenta. In the Monte Grappa sector Thursday they advanced across the Orto River and captured Monte Salaric, part of Monte Prassolan and Monte Pertica.

In the Flavio River the Italians have captured the islands of Grave Pattadopol and Magiore. The weather on the front is unfavorable.

Fearing death from influenza, Miss Gertrude Mayo, Brooklynton, killed herself by cutting her throat.

Captain "Eddie" Grant, ex-third baseman of the New York Giants has been killed in action.

DECORATIONS AND WINDOW DISPLAY

The Publicity, Decorations and Window Display Committees enlist the hearty co-operation of storekeepers, shopkeepers, manufacturers and citizens of Brantford generally in giving the maximum publicity to the Victory Loan Campaign.

Here Are Some Ways You Can Help

FIRST—Emphasize the patriotic spirit by decorating homes, houses, shops, stores, warehouses, factories and other buildings with

FLAGS AND BUNTING

There's inspiration in the bit of color. The British Flag first, then group the Flags of the Allies, and add the bunting.

SECOND—Citizens having dead walls or fences will be doing a patriotic thing in placing them at the disposal of the Publicity Committee, on which to place posters, placards, signs, banners, and cooperate with your neighbors in getting streamers across the streets.

THE WIFE

BY JANE PHELPS, AUTHOR OF "MARGARET GARRETT'S HUSBAND," AND OTHER NOTABLE STORIES.

Claude Beckly Arranges a Surprise for Ruth and Brian.

CHAPTER LVII.

By the time they reached home, Ruth had made up her mind what to do. Had it not been for Claude Beckly joining them, she would have said something about "her money" and then have been sorry afterward. She was grateful she had not mentioned it. That was the one thing she never must do if she and Brian were to live happily. Suppose he had spent it for Mollie King? If he hadn't had it, he might have run in debt again, might have borrowed it from that man Clark. So when they were getting ready for bed she remarked:

"I wish you'd ask me to lunch the next time you ask Miss King. I'll not interrupt, if you talk business, and I would so enjoy it."

"All right, I will. But I don't suppose I'll take her again for some time," Brian answered, mollified by Ruth's tone and the thought that it was only her (Ruth's) desire to be with him that had made her act as she had on the roof. She was jealous. Yet Brian Hackett knew he had done something that he had no right to do; and as a person who is in the wrong invariably does, he was cross and unreasonable both that night and the next morning.

"Shall you come home, Brian, or shall I meet you somewhere?" Ruth asked. "I might come down to the office, then you would not have to wait."

"Oh, I don't care what you do! I don't see what you accepted his invitation for. The sort of a dinner Beckly'll put up won't be half as good as Crawford could cook for us."

"I think it will be nice to go."

"Oh, I'll go all right; only you'll be disappointed. What time will you come down?"

"I'll be there by six-thirty."

All day Ruth thought of Brian and Mollie King. What right had Brian to object to her working when she took part of her noon hour and take what she earned and spend it on another woman? She would have a talk with him, she thought, mentioning Mollie. She would pay all the expenses of the flat, and that would give him his money to do with as he pleased.

The rent was due the next day, so she took part of her noon hour and visited the real estate office and paid it, taking a receipt. She would lay it where Brian would see it, then when he asked about it she would have a chance to tell him. It was too much, to have him use her money for Mollie. It belittled her—and him. That was really what hurt Brian more than the fact that Brian was with Mollie. That Brian, her husband, could bring himself to be unfaithful and to demean himself by doing as he had, hurt. Yet Ruth in her thoughts gave him all the benefit of the doubt. She never would believe him unfaithful until she knew beyond all quibble that he had gone from her. She still believed it was his hurt pride that she had taken her life into her own hands; and more than that, his jealousy of her earning power as opposed to his that had driven him to do things he never would otherwise have done.

And in this supposition Ruth was absolutely right at that time. Neither in word or positive action, had Brian been untrue to her, although it may have looked as if he were. Ruth dressed for the evening with the greatest care, although wearing a simple, plain, dark dress. But she was very attractive. She was so well groomed, so dainty in her clothes, shoes, etc., that more than one woman looked enviously at her; and a second look as she waited for the car to take her to Brian's office.

Brian was still grouchy, but Ruth pretended not to notice.

"Can you cash this check?" he asked her. "One of my clients came in to-day and instead of giving me the money, gave me that. It makes seven dollars. I suppose they think I am sending to the bank every ten minutes."

"Of course I'll cash it. You know I told you I got paid to-day."

"Well, I can't go down with the old bunch without any money in my pocket, even if Beckly is going to blow. If you couldn't have cashed it, I should have been obliged to set it somewhere—say that given a fellow away so darn bad. Getting a seven dollar check cashed before he can pay car-fare."

"How terribly he feels the question of money," Ruth thought. "I never must say a word about mine, what I earn."

"Come on!" Brian said after he had put the seven dollars in his pocket, and Ruth had taken the check. "The dinner will be better if we get there on time."

When they went into a basement door, then to the dining-room, the noise at first bewildered Ruth. Everyone seemed to be talking at once, and a young man with a shock of black hair was pounding the tin-panny piano as if by using his strength, he could make his music heard about the din of voices and dishes.

"Ah, here you are! So glad to see you. I caught Mollie, too, for to-night! I knew she'd entertain Brian and let us get better acquainted."

Claude Beckly said, "screamed," Ruth would have declared.

"Good evening," Mollie King said calmly to both Ruth and Brian. "Wasn't it good of Claude to ask me?"

Publicity For Victory Loan

An enthusiastic bunch of some thirty live wires, constituting the personnel of the publicity committee of the Brantford Victory Loan organization, met last night in the headquarters in the old post office building, to draw up plans for the publicity stunts which are to be carried out. Every phase of the organization received discussion, and sub-committees were appointed to look after the various phases of the work. One of the features of the campaign will be an auction sale of the first bonds, in front of the headquarters next Monday morning. This course has been adopted because a number of requests have been received for the first bonds. There will be special prizes offered for decoration of homes and store windows, also street cars and automobiles. The first alarms and all the city's bells and whistles will sound to mark the opening of the campaign. It is also planned to have a special gala day for the foreign population, on which speakers will address them in their own tongues. The publicity committee have got off to a late start owing to the flu and other handicaps, but they are losing no time in making things start to run.

SCIENCE AND INDUSTRY AID VICTORY LOAN

As an instance of how science and industry have co-operated in helping to win the war, it is interesting to note that Sir Thomas White, K.C.M.G., Minister of Finance, has made a special "His Master's Voice" record for the purpose of actually informing the Canadian Public in his own voice concerning the need of the second Victory Loan.

Science has thus made it possible for the voice of the Finance Minister to be heard in thousands of places in every part of the country at the same time.

The illustration shows Sir Thomas "caught in the act," as he made his special recording at the laboratories of the Berliner Gramophone Company, Limited, Montreal.

FOR THAT 'FLU COUGH

You are pretty apt to have a cough that is inclined to linger after the Flu.

The system now needs a remedy for that cough, and a tonic as well. The best preparation for this condition is Nyal's Tasteless Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites, Wild Cherry and Cresote. This preparation is not a cure-all like a great many other preparations, but a definite specific for lingering coughs and a tendency towards lung and bronchial trouble. This preparation fortifies the system, increases appetite, and improves the general condition.

THE SITUATION. "This morning our battlefield was extended northward as far as the Scheidt at Thiant. On the whole battlefield between the Sambre Canal and the Scheidt the enemy resistance was overcome and our advance continued."

In these terms Field Marshal Haig tells of the new drive which has already netted over seven thousand prisoners and many guns and villages. The operations are taking place at an important point of the old Hindenburg line and the main railway communications of the enemy in northern France are now threatened.

The speed with which the enemy has become harried out of Belgium is indicated by the fact that along the coast to Zebrugge he abandoned whole batteries with the shells intact. Examination has shown that in the heroic attack which British navy vessels made upon the mole at the last named place the channel was badly blocked.

The Italian Embassy at Washington yesterday received a dispatch from Gen. Diaz, Commander in Chief of the Italian army, which it is believed may indicate that the Italian army is about to, or has already launched a general offensive. On top of this the Frankfort Gazette contains a despatch from Vienna which asserts that the unconditional surrender of Austria-Hungary is an early probability. There is nothing official of course about this but a stiff Italian assault combined with the present disrupted condition of the people of the dual monarchy is quite likely to bring about a plea for terms.

A GOOD CHANCE TO COMMENCE THRIFT.

The approaching Victory Loan affords an excellent opportunity for Canadians to commence that habit of thrift which is a quality so very much lacking with most of us.

Suppose you run over a few of the names most familiar representing colossal fortunes of to-day. Note down, for instance, the names of a score of those on this continent and in the Old World that represent great wealth—thrift started them all. Almost without exception the living chief representatives of these great names in the roll of vast wealth could draw their checks for millions at a clip, and almost in every instance the founders of the fortunes laid the foundations in thrift, even as did Rothschild and Astor, the children of poor German parents; Carnegie, the bobbin-boy; Schwab, the juvenile, dollar-a-day stage driver; Girard, the poor French boy who amassed enormous wealth in Philadelphia in the early days of the American Republic; Wanamaker, who himself delivered, by wheelbarrow, his first orders in his first business venture; Jay Gould, whose beginnings were as a country mousetrap, map and notion peddler; Cornelius Vanderbilt (the commodore), ferryman between Staten Island and New York, before Fulton invented his "Clermont" and steam navigation by water, and scores, hundreds, thousands of other disciples of thrift. Out of early thrift habits came in all these cases, not only great wealth, but brilliant success as master-builders of institutions of public usefulness.

Not many, as far as this world's goods are concerned, can become Vanderbilts or Astors or Rothschilds—perhaps wouldn't be as happy if they did—but all can enjoy the freedom from monetary care which thrift ensures and Victory bonds are an excellent thing as a starter. They are safe and attractive with a good rate of interest and moreover are essential in keeping the wheels of commerce moving and helping to ensure the ultimate victory of the Allied cause.

LOCAL NEWS

POLICE COURT. In the police court this morning, Wm. Steedman was found guilty of a breach of the dog by-law, and was allowed to go after paying the costs of the court. Jas. McNaughton, who was previously arraigned on charge of French support and allowed out on bail, failed to turn up, and a warrant will be issued for his arrest.

AN EXPLANATION. Owing to the havoc wrought among its staff by the flu, The Courier has frequently found it necessary of late to abbreviate, or in some instances, to hold over, news items sent in for publication. This is never done unless absolutely unavoidable, and it is hoped that the public will understand. The Courier will be pleased to receive and publish personal items concerning any persons ill, but requests that these items be as brief as possible.

FOSTER PARENTS WANTED. Mr. Axford of the Children's Aid Society is in need of homes who will temporarily care for one or more small children, whose parents are ill with the "flu," also any one who will adopt one of these children left orphans by the epidemic. A special-ty fine healthy baby boy born at the Emergency Hospital on Wednesday is for adoption. This is a splendid chance for some childless home to render practical Christian service.

SITUATION

By Courier Leased Wire. New York, Oct. 25.—The Associated Press this afternoon issued the following:

As the Allied forces in Belgium and France continue successfully to storm the stubbornly defended German lines, Italian troops on the Italian northern front have begun an offensive against the Austrians. British troops to-day are smashing their way eastward on the sector between Valenciennes and Le Quesnoy, which is vital to the security of Valenciennes. Further south, the French, who have been gradually forcing the enemy from the pocket between the Oise and the Seine, have resumed their pressure and are reported to have entered Villers-le-Sec and surrounded La Ferte.

American forces have made further gains east and west of the Meuse despite strong enemy resistance. The Germans on the western end of the line are reported to be preparing to withdraw northward from Grand Pre, where their positions are outflanked by the French east of Yonkers.

General Diaz in his new offensive is reported to have driven the Austrians from important heights north and west of Monte Grappa, between the Piave and the Brenta. In the Piave the Italians have captured two islands.

Since Wednesday morning the British armies fighting forward from a mile north of Valenciennes to east of Le Cateau have taken 8,400 prisoners and 100 guns. Field Marshal Haig, his troops having reached the western edge of the Mormal forest, apparently is striving to outflank that natural barrier on the north by advancing through Le Quesnoy toward Mons and Mauthouse. The Germans are fighting stily to prevent this, resulting in desperate combats in the villages and other vantage points south of Valenciennes. The British, however, are pushing steadily ahead and have taken Maing and Vendegies.

Fighting was resumed on this sector Friday morning with the British advancing from the hills east of the Escaillon river toward the railroad and high road between Valenciennes and Le Quesnoy. Immediately north of Valenciennes the British have taken additional villages and continue to approach the important crossing of the Scheidt at Cote. This town is six and one-half miles northeast of Valenciennes. French troops east of the Sambre-Oise canal in the region of Longchamps, have repulsed two German attempts to drive them back across the canal.

Along the Serre and Souche rivers the French Friday resumed their pressure, after having thrown back efforts south of Mont Cornet. In the region east of the Oise the French are reported to have penetrated Villers-le-See, and surrounded La Ferte to the northeast.

Your Problems Solved??

By Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D. (All rights reserved.) Dr. Linscott in this column will help you solve your heart problems, religious, marital, social, financial and every other anxious-care that perplexes you. If a personal answer is required, enclose a five cent stamp. No names will be published; if you prefer, sign your initials only, or use a pseudonym.

"Spanking a Boy"—Tommy B. You ask my opinion whether an aunt 19 years old should spank you, her nephew, 14 years old? If she were one and a half years older she would be twice your age, and if you deserve correction and she is acting in the capacity of guardian, I do not see why she should not give it to you. If you did not deserve the punishment you must be a sissy to take it. If your grandfather lets you do as you like he is not as good a friend to you as your aunt who corrects you when you do wrong. A boy eleven years old ought not to do anything that he does not wish to do. If he does he should have sense enough to take his punishment without whining. I know a boy, now a great grandfather, who at eleven years of age had to work for his own living, while you at the same age are cared for by your friends and have the opportunity to get an education to fit you to be a man when you are a man in life. Do right, study hard, play fair, and save your aunt the need of spanking you.

"A Penitent Person" inquires how she can atone for an injury she has done. Perhaps you can frankly and humbly confess your sin and apologize to the person whom you have injured. If your injury is of a nature so that you can make recompense then do so by all means. There may be some sins committed against others which it is not wise to confess and in such circumstances the matter is between you and God only. In future you will doubtless try to do the right thing to the one to whom in the past you have been unfaithful, and thus you may be enabled to more than atone for your sin.

"Perpetual Growth"—"Teacher" asks, "When are we free from the obligation to strive to increase our knowledge?" When the messenger of death calls us hence we shall be free from further obligation to increase our knowledge so far as this earthly life is concerned, but even then the obligation will be renewed to begin a course of studies in the new world and in new circumstances, and perhaps on a new class of subjects. The obligation to learn rests upon us here all the time, and he is a wise man who heeds and obeys. The treasure of knowledge is one of our chief means of enjoyment, as well as of edification.

WILSON APPEALS

Continued From Page One. "The leaders of the minority in the present congress have unquestionably been pro-war, but they have been anti-administration. At almost every turn since we entered the war, they have sought to take the choice of policy and the conduct of the war out of my hands and put it under the control of instrumentalities of their own choosing. This is no time either for divided counsel or for divided leadership. Unity of command is as necessary now in civil action as it is upon the field of battle. If the control of the House and the Senate should be taken away from the party now in power an opposing majority could assume control of legislation and oblige all action to be taken amidst contest and obstruction. The peoples of the Allied countries with whom we are associated against Germany are quite familiar with the significance of elections. They would find it very difficult to believe that the voters of the United States had chosen to support their president by electing to the congress a majority controlled by those who are not in fact in sympathy with the attitude and action of the administration."

Local News

NO QUORUM

The board of works did not meet last night, owing to the lack of a quorum.

GOES TO TORONTO

Mr. Geo. Mosley, of the local Y. M. C. A., is in Toronto to-day attending a committee meeting of the physical directors of Ontario.

NO HOLIDAYS

During the prevalence of the influenza epidemic, which has hit the fire department so hard, the men have done without their day off in order to ensure an adequate staff at the halls.

BONUS WANTED

There is considerable unrest among the Ontario Government civil servants regarding salaries and they are likely shortly to ask for an increase and war bonus. They point out that Premier Sir William Hearst has received a bonus of $1,000. The funds of the Civil Servants Association will likely be used for propaganda to set their cause before the public.

ARREST ON SIGHT

The anti-looting law has been amended in such a manner as to provide for arrest without a warrant. "Any peace officer," the amendment reads, "may arrest without warrant any person whom he believes on reasonable and probable grounds to be violating the provisions hereof, i. e., the anti-looting law and such peace officer is justified in making such arrest."

VICTORY LOAN SUNDAYS

For three Sundays the churches of Canada are being asked by the Minister of Finance to call special attention in their services to the Victory Loan. In addition to making a special reference to the campaign on Sunday, October 27th, the minister appeals to the clergy to make Sunday, November 3rd, a recognized Victory Loan Sunday throughout Canada with a service especially devoted to the need, and the following Sunday, November 10th, the last of the campaign, to invite laymen prominently identified with the campaign to deliver a short address in every pulpit that can be made available.

OUTING FOR NURSES

In Toronto an appeal has been issued that might be noted in Brantford by automobile owners. A letter in The Globe said: "I make a suggestion regarding the care of our nurses in the hospitals during this very trying time? Those of us who have friends training know how very hard they have to work, and how depressing the constant battle with death has become. When most of them come off duty they are too tired to enjoy a brisk walk in the open which is just what they need. Could you not make an appeal to the generous women of Toronto to arrange to call with their cars for some of these nurses and help them to carry on their part in fighting this serious epidemic in letting them enjoy an hour's refreshing drive?"

NO MORNING LECTURE

There will be no lecture at the Y. M. C. A. to-morrow (Saturday) morning, but a demonstration will take place at three in the afternoon.

BUILDING PERMIT

At the city engineer's office this morning a building permit was issued to G. H. Brown for the erection of an office at 213 Rawdon St., estimated to cost $325.

MAY NOT PLAY

The O. R. F. U. game between the B. C. I. and Woodstock scheduled here to-morrow cannot be played here. Woodstock is also in the grip of the epidemic, and it will be impossible to play there.

KILLED IN ACTION

Pte. James Grant Kerns, a former member of the 215th Battalion, was killed in action on Sept. 30. Official notification to this effect was received this morning by his wife, Mrs. Della Kerns, 54 Victoria street.

BINS BUILT

For the convenience of those who are engaged in the hauling of the city coal, a number of bins have been built at the city scales on the market. This greatly adds to the facility with which the work of hauling coal can be accomplished.

PATIENTS TO HOSPITAL

A bill has been received by the Brantford Township Clerk from the Brantford Fire Department for the conveyance of three township patients to the hospital in the motor ambulance. The matter will be taken up at the next meeting of the Council.

PROTEST INCREASE

A communication has been received by the city clerk from the city clerk of London, Ontario, urging action in the matter of protesting against the application being made to the Provincial Government by the Bell Telephone Co. It is purposed to send delegates to a meeting to consider action.

VICTORY LOAN INTEREST

Notice is given by the financial department at Ottawa that the books of the first war loan due in 1925 and of the Victory Loan of 1917, the semi-annual interest of which is payable on December 1, 1918, will be closed from Nov. 1 until December 1. Interest checks for these loans will be issued by the department to fully registered holders as of record November 1, 1918.

PUT CLOCKS BACK

Citizens are reminded that the daylight saving period ends sometime between Saturday evening and Sunday morning, and that they should put their clocks back an hour before going to bed Saturday night. It's just like finding an hour of perfectly good time, and if there's no church, every one will have an excellent opportunity to sleep in Sunday morning.

DEPOSITS INCREASE

Savings deposits in Canadian banks have increased by another twenty-two million dollars, says a dispatch from Ottawa. During September they reached a new high level with a total of $1,037,498,920. At the end of August they were $1,014,711,865, a figure which then constituted a record. Curiously, the increase during August was also approximately twenty-two million dollars. The September returns also show an increase in bank circulation and an increase in demand deposits. Current loans, both in and outside Canada are higher as compared with the previous month.

OBITUARY

MRS. BIGGS. The death occurred this morning of Mrs. Geo. Biggs, West Brantford. The deceased leaves to mourn her loss a sorrowing husband and five children.

MRS. COLLINS. The death occurred yesterday of Mrs. Charlotte Anne Collins, of 202 Murray street. The deceased was 41 years of age.

F. C. TARGETT. Pneumonia following Spanish influenza caused the death this morning of Frederick Charles Targett, aged 18 years, at his home, 38 Sheridan street.

INFANT PORUMBIA. The death occurred this morning of Marie Porumbia, infant daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. Sam. Porumbia, 49 McCormick street.

MRS. ELLEN WEAVER. The death occurred last night of Mrs. Ellen Weaver, a well known resident of the city. The deceased, previous to her illness, resided at 32 Main street.

INFANT GAGE. The death occurred yesterday of Helen Gage, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Gage, 74 Richmond street. The sympathy of their many friends is extended to the parents in their sad bereavement.

HUGH BROWN. The death occurred this morning of Hugh Brown at the Emergency Hospital. He was aged 39 years, and resided on Grand street.

GEORGE OSMAN. This morning George Osman of 88 Gilkinson street passed away at the Emergency Hospital. The deceased was born in England.

HACAK VARVARIAN. At the General Hospital this morning Hacak Varvarian, an Armenian, passed away. He was aged 62 years.

J. W. WILSON. The death occurred at an early hour this morning of a well known real estate and implement dealer of the city in the person of John Wel-ington Wilson, at his residence, 24 Fort street. The deceased leaves a son, Leroy, of Oakville, and one daughter, Ethel, at home. The funeral will take place to Simcoe.

MRS. GREENE. Spanish influenza caused the death of Mrs. Rose Alice Green, beloved wife of Mr. Brian Green, 88 Winnet street, this morning. The deceased leaves to mourn her loss a husband and three children.

W. G. BAILEY. Death called one of the best known residents of Brant county to-day in the person of Mr. W. G. Bailey, proprietor of Oak Park stock farm, who died of heart trouble at ten o'clock this morning. The late Mr. Bailey was sixty years of age, and had been in poor health for several years, having been in bed since August 1 last. He had been in possession of Oak Park farm for five years, coming here from Hamilton in 1913. He was well known throughout the county as a man of absolute integrity and sterling worth. In religion he was a Methodist, and had been for years a member of the Centenary Church, Hamilton. He leaves a widow and two sons, R. W.

Bailey and H. H. Bailey Kachig Bogosian, aged 42 years, died at the emergency hospital last night. His home is at 154 Market street. Other deaths at the hospital were: Bruce Dickson, 32 Murray Street; Charles Walker, 285 Sheridan street; W. H. Madie, Paris road; Alex. Derynyk, 20 Market street.

PERSONAL

Plumbing Inspector Geo. Broomfield is ill.

The condition of Mr. F. Blain, who has been ill for some time past suffering from Spanish influenza, is to-day reported as improved.

There was little change to-day in the condition of Mr. Clarence Buller, who is seriously ill from influenza. Mr. and Mrs. Buller of Peaseboro are at their sons' bedside.

Mr. George Trull, office manager of the Barber-Elle Company, is still seriously ill from influenza to-day. Little change is reported in his condition.

The Misses Helene and Clara and Pte. Carberry Doyle of Detroit were the guests of Mrs. E. Cahill, 506 1/2 Colborne street east, while in Brantford attending the funeral of their brother, Andrew.

Mr. Thos. Wood, Brantford Township assessor, who was yesterday reported as being in a very serious condition, is to-day improving, and it is expected that he will be around in a few days.

LAI D AT REST

STUART STEEDMAN
 The funeral of the late Stuart Steedman, who passed away on Oct. 22nd, took place yesterday afternoon and the body was tenderly laid to rest in Mount Hope cemetery. A short private service was held at the home of the deceased by Rev. Mr. Silmon, of the Shenstone Memorial church, who also officiated at the graveside. A number of floral tributes testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held, among which was a wreath from Brantford Typographical Union 375, of which deceased was a valued member.

The late Mr. Steedman was a most valued employee of this office, being connected with the ad. department of the paper, coming here from Owen Sound nearly two years ago. He was a faithful worker, a just and upright man in all his dealings, and was greatly liked by his fellow shopmates who will miss him very much. A sorrowing wife is left, together with other relatives, to mourn a fond and true husband and friend. The pall-bearers were six members of Brantford Typographical Union, No. 375, Messrs. W. Reeves, Clark Johnson, C. Whitehead, George Crooks, James Croper and George Moore.

ANDREW DOYLE
 Pte. Carberry Doyle of Detroit left this morning with the remains of his brother, Andrew, who died in the Emergency Hospital, after a very short illness. He will be buried in La Salette from the home of his bereaved parents. The deceased was a very popular young man and will be missed by a large circle of friends.

MRS. PRICELLA JOHNSON.
 There was tenderly laid to rest on Wednesday Pricella, the beloved wife of W. Anthony Johnson, 310 Marlborough street. The deceased was born at Earl Shelton, Leicestershire, England, and was in her 34th year. She leaves a sorrowing husband and one child, Frank, who will have the sympathy of the community. The pall bearers were Messrs. A. Snyder, B. Harlow, G. Smith, J. Patterson, E. Harris, T. Blower. The floral tributes included wreath, father and baby; sprays, from employes Hagan and Nott, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Froehorn, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clark and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cassels, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. Northall, Mr. and Mrs. P. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. T. Blower, Mr. and Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Suckling, Mrs. Belsay. A very impressive service was held at the house and the grave, conducted by the Rev. David Alexander of First Baptist Church.

SAMUEL DAVISON
 The funeral of the late Samuel S. Davison, eldest son of the late J. G. and Emily Davison, took place from his late residence, at Echo Place, to Mt. Hope cemetery. The services at the home were conducted by the Rev. C. E. Jenkins, and at the grave by Mr. A. H. Wallis.

The deceased was born in May, 1866, on the Mohawk Institute farm, of which his father was overseer. He was a man of few words, but one of the finest characters one could meet anywhere. He was a member of Harmony Lodge of Oddfellows, a charter member of the Ancient Order of Foresters, and also an honorary member of the Iron Moulders' Union.

He leaves to mourn his sad loss besides a sorrowing wife and two daughters, Marjorie and Beatrice, two brothers, and one sister, Mr. W. J. Davison of this city, Mr. James Davison of Hamilton, and Mrs. W. Blyborough of Toronto. Mrs. Davison and daughters have the sincere sympathy of their many friends in their sad bereavement.

His Best Work. At the coal yard the foreman was having a hard time on account of the shortage of labor, explains the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune. 'Say, you there,' he shouted to a loafer who was lounging at the gate of the yard. 'Do you want to work?' 'What kind of work?' asked the hobo, cautiously. 'Can you do anything with a shovel?' 'Yes,' answered the idle one, 'I can fry a slice of bacon on it.'

What He Was Getting. Thomas Atkins was fractious. His medicine was nasty, and he refused to take it. Two or three V.A.D.'s stood round him and urged him to be good. 'Come,' said one, 'drink this and you'll get well.' 'Androsy, too!' chimed in a second. Atkins brightened. He wasn't particularly keen on getting well, but to get rosy was quite another matter. 'Which of you is Rosy?' he asked, surveying the group.—Pearson's Weekly.

I spent half the night pounding on the wall to make the idiot stop. PUT OLD ENEMY TO UTTER ROUT. Tells how to kill off that touchy corn without hurting one particle. Hospital records show that every time you cut a corn you invite lockjaw or blood poison, which is needless, says a Cincinnati authority, who tells you that a quarter ounce of a drug called frezone can be obtained at little cost from the drug store, but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus. You simply apply a few drops of this frezone on a tender, aching corn and the soreness is instantly relieved. Shortly the entire corn can be lifted out, root and all, without pain. This drug is sticky, but dries at once and is claimed to just shrivel up any corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. If your wife wears high heels she will be glad to know of this.

Hard to Grasp. Dowies—What a grasping fellow you are, Smith. You've bothered me about this bill fifty times in ten days. Smith—You wrong me. I'm not grasping. I've bothered you about the bill, I admit, but I haven't been able to grasp anything yet.—Stray Stories.

Until We're Tired of Them. Dix—It is said that 'we shall pass away as a tale that is told.' Dix—But tales that are told don't pass away; they are forever being told over again.

Resented the Judge. Mrs. Carico, a middle-aged and talkative ruralist, was appearing in a suit brought by her husband. She insisted on fondly commenting on each answer given by the first witness. Repeatedly the judge requested her to keep quiet, but she persisted in audibly disputing the words of the witness. Finally the judge said: 'Mrs. Carico, the court demands that you keep quiet. Unless you do so, you will be held in contempt.' Giving the judge a savage look, the woman turned to her attorney and vociferously inquired: 'Who is that old guy who keeps buttin' in all the time?'

STAMPER RAN AMUCK. By Courier Leased Wire St. Catharines, Ont., Oct. 24.—The steamer Oatland, owned by the Montreal Transportation Company, bound from Kingston to Port Colborne, carried away two headgates of lock eight Welland Canal last night through a misunderstanding of signals between the captain and the engineer. The former states that he signalled for a reverse of the engine after the steamer had entered the lock. Instead the boat leaped forward at increased speed, tearing the gates from their fastenings. The steamer was hurled back into the lower level by the rush of released water from the level above, but escaped damage.

KITCHENER BETRAYED BY FORMER CZARINA?

Salvation Army Workers Says Ex-Empress of Russia Communicated by Wireless From Petrograd to Berlin

By Courier Leased Wire New York, Oct. 25.—Information which made it possible for German submarines to sink the vessel on which Lord Kitchener was lost, was furnished the German Government by the former Russian czarina, according to an assertion made here to-day by Henry W. Mapp, Salvation Army commander, who has just returned from Russia. Mr. Mapp declared he learned in Russia that the Czarina maintained a private wire in her apartments at the Winter Palace in Petrograd, over which she transmitted to the German government all information in regard to the military plans of the Allies which was received by Russia as an ally. Mr. Mapp includes former Premier Koresky with Lenin and Trotsky, and declared that the three were responsible for Russia's chaos. 'When Koresky first came into control of the revolutionary government he had the interest of Russia at heart,' Mr. Mapp said, 'but he

DRINK MORE WATER IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

Salvation Army Workers Says Ex-Empress of Russia Communicated by Wireless From Petrograd to Berlin

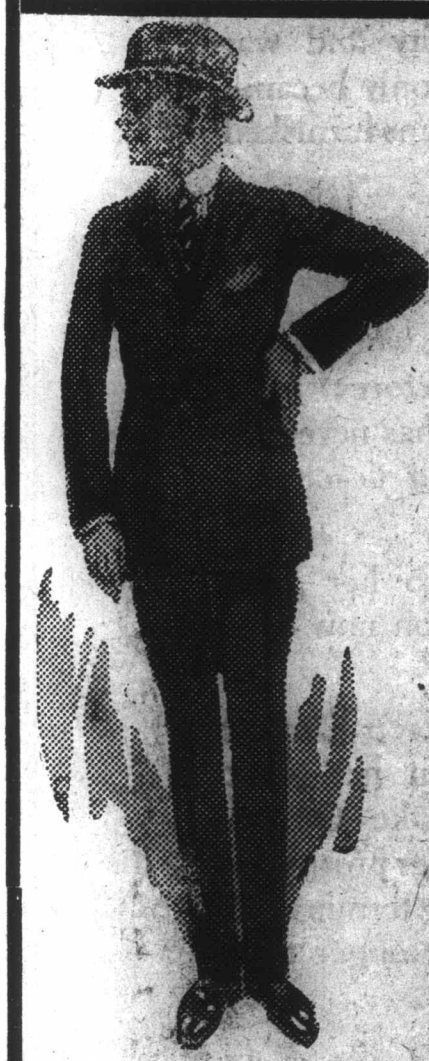

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys close you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad. Eat less meat, drink lots of water, also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clear clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clear and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

FERDINAND FOCH THE STUDENT WARRIOR PRACTICES WHAT HE TEACHES

Unknown Five Years Ago Outside of Military Circles But Now the Most Important Man in the World

Ferdinand Foch stands to-day the greatest figure in the world, the most important man, a man in whose hands is held the fate of the greater portion of mankind for centuries to come. The most interesting and striking thing about Ferdinand Foch is that five years ago he was unknown outside of military circles in France, but in those circles was recognized as an authority upon the art of war. He was the teacher whose fate it was to prove that his theories were correct. The ideas which he once demonstrated on a blackboard with a piece of chalk in his hand he now draws over hundreds of miles of battlefield and in his hands are millions of men. Foch is the ideal leader in that while his swift movements are such as to baffle the keenest minds of the enemy the broad principles on which he works are so simple that a child can grasp them. They may be summed up in these words: The only way to make successful warfare is to attack. This was his favorite theory when he was lecturing his classes at the Ecole Supérieure de la Guerre before the war broke out. He had written several military text books, and this idea was constantly presented. He wrote: 'To hold positions is to prepare helplessly for defeat. If nothing further is attempted, if the offensive is not immediately assumed, if an army is being defeated, if it is giving way all along the line there is just one way, according to Foch, in which victory is to be maintained, and that is for the army to take the offensive. That is an easy thing to say. To do it is the most difficult task a military leader ever undertook, and yet Foch has the gift of being able to do it. It was by doing it again and again with armies that seemed beaten that he won his present position. These facts are made clear in a book by Charles de Goffie, called

GENERAL HAIG A GREAT LEADER

Has Proved His Ability in Trying Days.
HE RANKS SECOND TO NONE

An American Expert Pays a Tribute to the Commander-in-Chief of the British Forces and Thereby Helps to Explode Unfounded Criticism That Men in Our Ranks Have Been Handicapped by Their Officers.

RUMOR, probably baseless, has been circulated to the effect that Sir Douglas Haig is to be retired at his own request, and this gives the New York Times an opportunity to pay tribute to the British field marshal. "Modest and indifferent to fame," it says, "he will be reckoned among the great commanders of the greatest war in history." This is no more than the truth. Sir Douglas Haig has had a task that is one of the greatest ever laid on the shoulders of one man. Yet he has not weakened under it. So far as we may judge from the frequent photographs we have seen of him, his face shows little sign of the terrific strain he has been under since Lord French retired and left him in charge of the British armies. Often he is seen smiling. At 57 he is in the very prime of life, and looks younger. He has been described as FIELD MARSHAL DOUGLAS HAIG, a "consummate horseman," and his daily rides, which have been but rarely interrupted for many years, may probably explain the slight stoop of his shoulders. Correspondents say that he is as fit physically as any man in his army.

As the Times remarks the wonder is that he has gone through this ordeal with a sound brain and a strength apparently unimpaired. For since 1915, there have been three commanders of the French army. Rarely indeed does he permit any sign of emotion to escape him, and this made all the more memorable his message to the British army on Sept. 10, when he thanked it for its valor and devotion in these words: "The capture of 75,000 prisoners and 750 guns in the course of four weeks' fighting speaks for the magnitude of your efforts and the magnificence of your achievements." He said that the army had passed through many dark days, but, "please God, these never will return." It is not often that this great soldier speaks the name of God, except when he attends the little Presbyterian Church near his headquarters every Sunday morning. Anything more different than his orders to his army and those issued by the German Kaiser it would be hard to imagine. Haig never promises much, never indulges in threats. He performs and then tersely reports.

The Times says that with his fellow corps commander, Sir Horace Smith-Dorrien, Haig more than once saved the British army in the retreat from Mons. It was on that occasion, according to the historian, Major Ernest W. Hamilton, that 100 Victoria Crosses were earned for every one that was given. Haig and Smith-Dorrien vied with each other in fighting rear-guard actions, each one as desperate as any forlorn hope, and the final escape of the army was hardly short of a miracle. On one occasion Haig said: "We shall have to hold on here for a while if we all die for it," and hold on they did, those Glorious Contemptibles. On another occasion Haig and his little escort of the 17th Lancers rode back along a road, where the shells were falling thick and fast for no other reason than to encourage his men, the place of a general being behind the line. He stood with Sir John French near Cheluvy, after the order to retire had been given, and to him came the messenger that it was the Germans who were in retreat. This was the time when Sir Charles Fitzclarence with the Worcester Regiment stemmed the enemy's advance and turned the tide of battle.

"Lucky" Haig the marshal used to be called in the army, because of his rapid promotions, partly, and because he was a favorite at Court and in Mayfair. It was through the influence of the genial Duke of Cambridge that he secured his commission after he had been rejected through defective eyesight. Lord Roberts saved him from drowning in the Modder river. But luck does not explain his career. He is a great soldier, and more than that, a soldiers' soldier. It is said that when it became generally known in the army that Lord French, then Sir John, was to retire, there was but one name on the soldiers' lips when the question of his successor was discussed, and that name was Haig. He is loved by the men because he knows the men. Only such a commander would have dared to issue that famous "back to the wall" order. Only a British army could be trusted with the admission that the case was so desperate. What followed proved what British valor could do when called on for the supreme effort by a trusted leader.

DO YOU GET THEM RIGHT?

Various Causes Why Proper Names Go Wrong.

There is nothing a man is more particular about, and at the same time nothing he is more careless about, than his own name, and with those of others also. How angry we become when we continually receive mail clearly intended for us, yet with our names spelled every way except correctly. There may be various causes for this. It may be the correspondent spells the name the way he has heard it pronounced, and many crimes are thus committed phonetically. Blamark, Germany's iron Chancellor, so runs a story, refused to accept mail sent him when the writer left out the "r." We fame at the inability of others to get us right chirographically; then we register at a hotel in a hand no clearer than the signature to our business letters, and this letter is seldom written so it can be read, evidently being intended only as a mark of identification, customers becoming used to the outlines and associating them with the name of the signer.

A printed talk to guests of one of the large hotels in the country covers the hotel offence clearly. The gist of the talk is that a hotel can not give good service unless the guest writes his name so plainly that there can be no mistake. Right at the guest's arrival careless writing starts an endless chain of troubles. Mail is delayed; the information clerk reports "not here" to friends who call or phone; everything goes wrong for both the guest and the hotel. The guest has written his name so often that he cannot see in his signature anything except what he intends. But it will look to those not familiar with it? It is all sound argument.

We introduce one business acquaintance to another. We have known both of them for months, perhaps years. But we forget that neither is familiar with the name of the other. Yet our enunciation is often a mere mumble. For instance, we introduce Mr. McRoberts and Mr. Brown. Instead of saying, "Mr. Brown, Mr. McRoberts" distinctly, we pronounce the "Mc" as a mere catch in the breath. Mr. Brown catches only the Roberts, and days or weeks later, maybe at once, Mr. McRoberts, who is particular about his patronymic, finds it necessary to tell Mr. Brown that his name is McRoberts, not Roberts.

England's Richest Woman.
Emily Charlotte Talbot, the wealthiest woman in the British Isles, died recently in London, aged 78. She was the owner of 13,400 acres in the lower peninsula of Wales district, which includes the whole Rhondda Valley, where the finest steam coal in the world is mined.

Miss Talbot was the daughter of Christopher E. Talbot, who sat in the House of Commons for an unbroken period of 60 years. He was long known as the "father of the House of Commons." When he died Miss Talbot inherited real estate worth $7,500,000 besides being the beneficiary of trust funds for many more millions.

Margam Park, her country home, comprises 31,500 acres, and she owned as well Penrice Castle, which has been converted into a convalescent home for officers, she paying the expense of its conversion and maintenance.

Miss Talbot's Morgan Abbey residence is a magnificent estate, with a park running for seven miles around it. The park was famous for its orangery, which was planted as the result of a Portuguese ship with a cargo of orange and lemon trees being wrecked on the coast near the estate.

Miss Talbot spent a large portion of her income in philanthropic work, mostly donated anonymously. A few years ago she kept one of her cottages going at a loss of $500,000 in order to provide work for the miners.

INCREASE SCOPE OF BOARD OF TRADE

Preliminary Steps Toward Expansion of the Body Taken Last Night

Preliminary steps toward the expansion and rejuvenation of the Board of Trade were taken last night, when J. C. R. Foster, of New York, campaign manager of the American City Bureau, a organization which fosters the development of the civic spirit through the medium of Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce, addressed the council of the local board.

Mr. Foster outlined the aims of the City Bureau, telling of the work done elsewhere, and rousing the interest of all who heard him.

A membership campaign is generally the first step in the expansion of a Board of Trade. Mr. Foster comes here from London, where, as a result of the campaign he promoted, the membership of the board was increased from 250 to 800 and "an entirely new spirit has been roused, in addition to the successful reorganization and expansion of the board." London now has the largest membership and the largest revenues, per capita, of any city in Canada. The Brantford board's present membership is 300, and Mr. Foster suggested an energetic campaign to double that figure.

"The theory of our organization," he explained, "is that all development in the community must come from co-operative enterprise and team thinking. We endeavor to make the Board of Trade a civic body rather than exclusively a trade body. A project known as the 'Thought Survey' is used by the City Bureau. This consists of asking every member of the Board of Trade to write answers to two questions: What improvement in this city could you consider best for your own business? and what improvement would you consider best for the city at large? When answers from all the members are received, those improvements which are most in need will be clearly discernible from the bulk of other suggestions offered. The Board of Trade then proceeds to bring about these improvements one at a time, appointing to the committee in charge of each those who recommended it. Last night's meeting was merely a preliminary, and the data submitted to the council of the board will give them sufficient food for thought until Mr. Foster pays a return visit to the city. Mr. Foster states that the project which he represents is finding great favor in Canadian cities, the majority of which are inclining more and more toward American methods daily. In many places the name of the Board of Trade is changed to the Chamber of Commerce, which has a broader and more modern significance and application. The question of name changing is always decided by the members themselves, by a vote, on primary and final ballots.

UKRAINE'S DEMANDS.

By Courier Landed Wire
London, Oct. 24.—Before it resigned, the ministry of Ukraine presented to its chairman demands that the republic co-operate in future with those parts of Russia striving toward the resurrection of the country and assist in every way toward bringing about the fall of Bolshevism, as well as strengthening those sections of Russia which have been oppressed by the Polesheviks.

FOR GREEK RELIEF.
By Courier Landed Wire
Athens, Wednesday, Oct. 23.—By royal decree, which was signed today, subscriptions to alleviate the condition of liberated Greek people in those portions of Macedonia which have been occupied by Bulgarian troops, will be received a commission under the presidency of King Alexander. The government has appointed a delegation charged with the work of securing evidence from the Turkish and Greek inhabitants of the country relative to atrocities and other crimes committed by the Bulgarians during the occupation there.

War Efficiency and National Prosperity

More than a billion and a half dollars distributed in Canada for exported agricultural produce and the products of labor in the fiscal year ending March 31, 1918, has kept Canada busy and prosperous in spite of the war.

CANADA'S production in such enormous quantities was made possible only by the money received through Canada's War Loans. Canada thus was enabled to assist the Allies in their purchases here by establishing financial credits for their use in this country.

CANADA'S war loans not only have sustained Canada's war effort, but they have kept the wheels of production turning as they never turned before.

This is the flood of cash which poured in to Canada's farms for their exports in the fiscal year 1918, for—

Butter	$ 2,000,000
Cheese	36,602,000
Eggs	2,271,000
Oats	37,644,000
Wheat	366,341,000
Flour	95,896,000
Meats	76,729,000
Vegetables	19,034,000

Over six hundred and thirty-six million dollars for exported farm products alone!

AND the workers of Canada also shared greatly in Canada's export trade.

For their products there was distributed in Canada, during the year—

Munitions	$450,000,000
Metals	92,083,000
Vehicles	22,776,000
Wood Pulp and Paper	59,599,000

These huge sums were spent in Canada by the Allies.

Canada's own war expenditure for the fiscal year 1918 was $342,762,000.

And the bulk of all these expenditures, the foundation of Canada's prosperity and war effectiveness, was made possible only because the subscribers to Canada's war loans furnished the working capital.

CANADA must keep this great work going—must produce as never before; must work, fight, save and lend as she has never yet done to bring victory and a lasting peace to a war ridden world.

But Canada to-day (thanks to her great export trade), is in a better position now than ever, to carry on.

The Victory Loan 1918 will keep Canada busy, will enable her to maintain her great export business; and it will make Canada more efficient than ever, because her prosperity will not be diminished and her determination to work, fight and win will be stronger than it has ever been before.

SPANISH INFLUENZA STRIKES SUDDENLY

Pneumonia Often Results Victims Seized Without Warning, Making Precaution Necessary

Much of the difficulty experienced by health authorities in checking the spread of the Spanish influenza lies in the fact that it strikes its victims without warning.

Although State and Federal authorities are taking every possible precaution in their effort to stop the spread of the epidemic, the disease in many sections of the country has gotten entirely beyond control and is claiming its victims by the thousands.

It is universally agreed by all well informed persons that the surest preventative is to get the system in the best possible physical condition in order to be able to throw off the infection.

As a powerful reconstructive tonic and system builder, Tanlac is without equal. This is a statement of fact and is fully supported by recognized authorities.

Tanlac restores health and strength to the weak and run down system by enabling every organ of the body to perform its proper function in nature's own way.

Tanlac is sold in Brantford by Robertson's Drug Store, in Paris by Apps Ltd., in Mt. Vernon by A. Yeomans, in Middleport by William Peddie, in Onondaga by Neil McPhadden.

Akron, Ohio, is using its armory for an influenza hospital. Gayle A. Dull, noted long-distance runner, is dead at Franklin, Pa.

Great Point in Lord Northcliffe's Favor.

HIS INFLUENCE IS FEARED

They Issue Paper Accusing Him of Using Trickery and Underhand Methods to Prove to the Teutonic Soldiers That Their Cause is Lost and That the Allied Cause is Right.

THERE are some parts of the British Empire where Lord Northcliffe is not greatly admired. People think that he possesses more power than ought to be given into the hands of a single wealthy and ambitious citizen.

The order is as follows: "The enemy begins to realize that we cannot be crushed by his blockade, his superiority in numbers and his force of arms. He, therefore, is trying by trickery and underhand methods of which French is past master, to induct in the mind of the German people doubts of their invincibility.

"Aviators are constantly distributing increasing numbers of leaflets and pamphlets. Letters written by German prisoners are telephoned in the most outrageous way. Tracts and pamphlets are written, to which names of German poets, writers and statesmen are forged.

"Lord Northcliffe forgets that German soldiers are neither negroes, Hindus, illiterates, French or Americans incapable of seeing through such machinations.

"Explain these infamous attempts to your young and inexperienced comrades. Tell them what the mortal enemy expects of them and what is at stake. Pick up the leaflets and pamphlets and give them to your commanders for transmission to the high command, which may be able to make invaluable deductions from them as to the aim of our enemies.

On them the Shadow fell

THESE, our little Canadians, born to freedom, to a heritage of happiness, Germany's greed would enslave!

For they were heirs to Canada's boundless wealth—our mines, our forests, our teeming fields—the Hun hungered for these riches of Canada.

In his plans for world power, Canada was not overlooked in the German scheme of plundering the nations.

Doubtless there are to-day in Berlin plans for the apportionment of concessions of Canada's natural resources, plans for the government of Canada, for the policing of our cities, the levying of taxes, for enforced adoption of the German language as was done in Lorraine after 1871, and all the other systems of government by German methods.

And a brutal German soldiery would have enforced those systems by which the people would have been enslaved and every vestige of freedom and independence destroyed.

If Prussian plans had carried the smile would have passed forever from the happy little faces in our homes.

Our boys and girls—heirs to Canada's riches—would have worked as slaves in their own mines, in their forests, their fields and factories.

The fruits of their toil, the wealth of Canada, theirs by right, would have been borne across the seas to fatten the German beast.

While the beast lives, his venom, his gall, his merciless, monstrous ambition threaten our homes.

Canada—young, high-spirited, independent—must stand firm.

Canada must use the wealth the Hun lusts after to crush him to earth.

Canada's strength, the united strength of each and every true Canadian, must raise the shield of protection for the generations to come.

The call will soon come for more of Canada's wealth. It is your money that is needed—every cent that you by cheerful sacrifice and loving self-denial can lend to your country.

BRITISH ADVANCE FROM SAMBRE TO THE SCHELDT

Have Taken 7,000 Prisoners and Over 100 Guns in Recent Fighting; Haig Announces Enemy Resistance Overcome

London, Oct. 25.—The British troops have overcome the enemy along the whole front between the Sambre Canal and the Scheldt and their advance is being continued, Field Marshal Haig reports from headquarters.

Since yesterday morning the British have taken 7,000 prisoners and more than 100 guns. The text of the statement reads:

NIGHT—This morning our battle front was extended northwards as far as the Scheldt at Thiant. On the whole battle front between the Sam-

FRESH RETREAT BY ENEMY IMPENDING

Anglo-American Inroads Drive Foe Eastward

Fresh Drive

By Courier Leased Wire

New York, Oct. 25.—The Associated Press this morning issued the following:

Inroads by the British and Americans against the German line south of Valenciennes continue, and it seems probable that the enemy will be forced to begin a new retreat toward the east.

Although the Allies have reached the Mormal woods, where the Germans have prepared a stubborn defense, the progress made just to the north of the extensive wooded section threatens to turn the enemy out of his positions there before he has an opportunity to meet frontal attacks along the western side of the forest. It would seem that the advance between Mormal forest and Valenciennes has shattered the German hope to stand on the defensive along this section of the line for any protracted period.

French forces, fighting their way eastward through the Oise, man trenches along the Oise. Serre front, have moved forward at three points. Opposite Longchamps they have crossed the Oise canal, a barrier which has held them up for several days, and further south have advanced near Origny-St. Benoit. Just around the bend in the line they have cut a deep notch in the German lines north of Villers-le-Sec. These successes are on a front which is quite important to the enemy, and will tend to hasten the German retirement from the bend in the line which remained after the evacuation of Laon was carried out.

The American divisions which are engaged in the tremendous task of tearing away the Kraenhid line between the Argonne forest and the Meuse, have once more advanced their front, especially near the western end of the sector. There in spite of desperate German resistance continued yesterday afternoon and evening on the battlefield south of Valenciennes. Our troops drove the enemy from Vendegies. Wood and captured the villages of Neuville, Salesches and Beaudignies, securing crossings of the Ecaillon River at the latter place.

At the close of the day the enemy counter attacked vigorously opposite Vendegies with infantry strongly helped with artillery fire, and was repulsed.

and repeated counter-attacks they have moved ahead during the past day and appear to threaten the rest of the German defensive system to the east. Near Bantheville, the Americans have gained important tactical advantages. East of the Meuse the Germans have been forced back more than half a mile on a front of nearly a mile and a half.

There are indications that activity along the Italian front, which has been at a low ebb since the final repulse of the Austrian offensive, has revived. Vienna reports violent artillery fire between the Brenta and Piave Rivers and in the Montello sector. This is the part of the line from which an Italian attack in force might be expected and interesting events may develop at any time there.

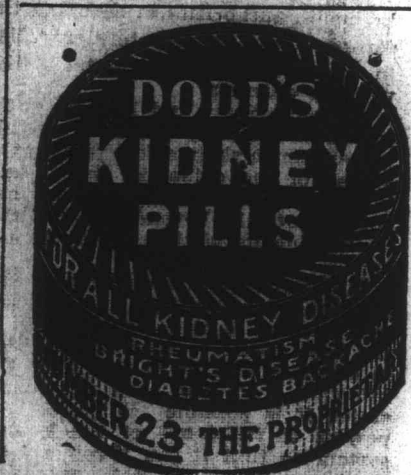

In Belgium there has been a comparative lull in the combat during the past few days, but it is probable that the Allies will be content to stand on the western bank of the Scheldt River and the Eschloo-

Zeebrugge canal after they have been able to bring up their heavy guns. In a country intersected with canals and streams, with bridges destroyed and roads mined at frequent intervals, the work of moving artillery is very difficult and this may be the reason for the temporary check in the sweeping advance which drove the enemy back from Neuport to within seven miles of Ghent.

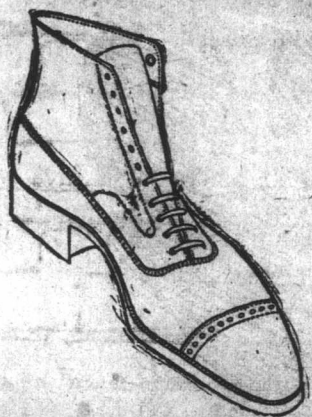

Allied detachments, which are holding the Dvina front in northern Russia have been forced to beat off heavy attacks by Bolshevik troops, but have succeeded in holding their ground and even moving their lines forward.

French and Serbian forces in Serbia continue to advance toward the Austrian frontier. Vienna admits that Austrian troops have retired to Jagodina, a village southeast of Belgrade, and about 40 miles from the boundary between Austria and Serbia.

EPIDEMIC IS WANING

Emergency Report on Flu Situation From All Parts of the Province

By Courier Leased Wire

Toronto, Oct. 24.—Encouraging reports from all sections of Ontario regarding the epidemic of Spanish influenza have been received here to-day. From many towns and cities, especially in the western end of the province, it is confidently believed that the disease has been checked and the epidemic is on the wane.

Proposals have been made to reopen schools and the public meeting places in some sections, but it is not anticipated that medical health officials will take this action until the mildly has been definitely stamped out.

Cases are decreasing in all the military camps throughout the province.

On Wane in Toronto.
The influenza epidemic is on the wane in Toronto is the opinion of the medical health officer. Doctors report that their calls have dropped off from quarter to half per cent.
The demand for hospital accommodation has also considerably dropped and it is possible that the Mossop Hotel, which was to have been fitted up, may not be utilized. Patients reported in hospitals to-day number 127 against 719 yesterday; nurses in number 146 and deaths reported 23 against 21 yesterday.

The slight increase over yesterday's figures is not taken as an indication of an increase in the epidemic.

Figures given out by the medical health officer to-day show that the influenza and pneumonia claimed more victims between the ages of 20 and 25 than other ages. Of children under ten only 85 deaths are reported for the month of October; from 10 to 19 years, 84; from 20 to 29 years, 266; from 30 to 39, 103; 40 to 49 years, 48; 50 to 59, 37; 60 to 69, 20, and 70 to 79, 12. The totals are:

From influenza, 514; from pneumonia, 239; a total of 753.

Males total 400 and females 353.

Nearing Crest in London.
London, Ont., Oct. 24.—The influenza epidemic rapidly approaching the crest here, having reached the stage where there are a larger number of deaths, but distinct falling off in the number of new cases. All the hospitals report improved conditions. Two deaths have been added to the 15 reported for Wednesday, the worst day of the epidemic.
The Board of Health ordered all public places, including churches, kept closed indefinitely.

Protests Church Closing.

Hamilton, Ont., Oct. 24.—While 79 additional cases of Spanish influenza were reported at the health office in the past 24 hours, it was explained that many of them were old cases which should have been recorded before. Five more deaths have occurred. A protest against the closing of the churches was received by the health board from the Bishop of Niagara. Consideration was promised.

Over 500 in Saskatoon.
Saskatoon, Oct. 24.—Three more deaths occurred yesterday through influenza in this city. There are now over 500 cases under treatment, but the majority are mild.

Crest Passed at Vancouver.
Vancouver, Oct. 24.—Medical authorities here last night expressed the opinion that the crest of the influenza epidemic has been reached and passed. The death rate fell off yesterday to ten and there were but 24 cases reported as requiring attention.

Fernie Closes Schools.
Fernie, B.C., Oct. 24.—Owing to the rapidly increasing number of influenza cases in communities adjacent to this city and approximately some forty cases within the city, the schools closed at noon yesterday and all other places covered in the recent order.

BEAUTY SPECIALIST TELLS SECRET

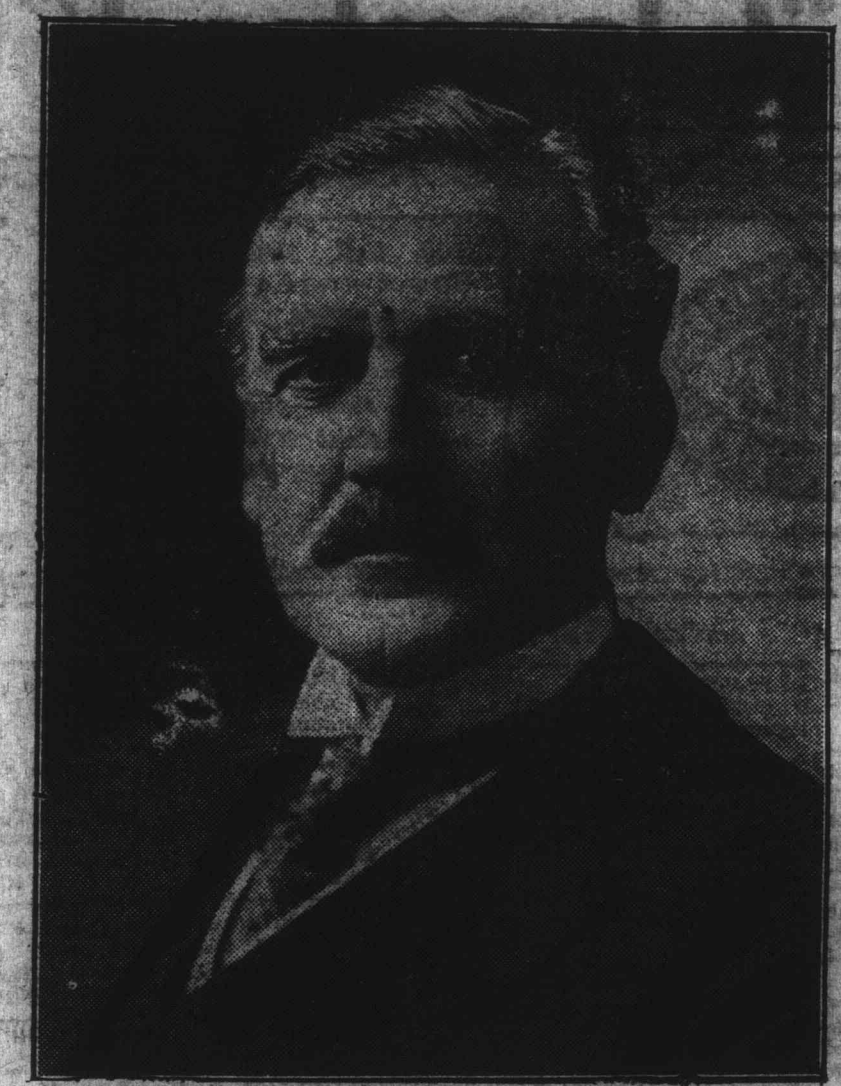

A Beauty Specialist Gives Simple
Home Made Recipe to Darken
Gray Hair.

Mrs. M. D. Gillespie, a well known beauty specialist of Kansas City, recently gave out the following statement regarding gray hair:

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home, at very little cost, that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Orlex Compound and quarter ounce of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost, or the chemist will put it up for you. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray haired person look twenty years younger. This is not a dye, it does not color the most delicate scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub out."

TO GO TO MANITOBA.

By Courier Leased Wire
Ottawa, Oct. 24.—At the Naval Department it is considered likely that Stefansson, the explorer, who left Seattle this week to make his report at Ottawa, will proceed to Manitoba to visit his mother, whom he has not seen for several years.

IT'S UP TO YOU TO HELP
Sir Thomas White, Minister of Finance, who is confronted with the task of raising $300,000,000 in order that Canada may maintain her effort in the war, and also maintain her prosperity.

IMPROVE OPERATION OF MILITARY ACT

Employers Must Notify the Registrars of Employes Seeking Exemption

By Courier Leased Wire

Ottawa, Oct. 24.—Several orders-in-council having for their object the improvement of the operation of the Military Service Act have been approved by the Government. One provides that in future every employer shall notify the proper registrar by special notice of every person exempted or having a claim for exemption pending who shall hereafter be taken into his employ. Such notices shall be given within three days and every employer who fails to comply with the requirements of this regulation shall be liable under summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding $100, or to imprisonment for a term of three months, or to both fine and imprisonment for each failure to make report called for.

The orders-in-council provides that the registrar who has issued a certificate of exemption may renew or extend the same if, in his opinion, it is desirable that the person concerned shall continue the work in which he is habitually engaged. Renewal or extension of exemptions by registrars will be subject by the central appeal judge upon application by a chief public representative or other officer exercising like duties.

Nothing in this new regulation affects the powers of any tribunal to determine an application for renewal or extension of an exemption which may be assigned to it by the registrar.

Sleeplessness. You can't sleep in the fittest night if your digestion is bad. Take Bilebe's Sarsaparil. It strengthens the stomach and establishes that condition in which sleep regularly comes, and is sweet and refreshing.

BLOOD-MAKING MEDICINE

It took centuries for medical science to discover that the blood is the life. Now, it is known that if the blood were always abundant, rich and pure, very few people would ever be ill. It was not until the end of the 19th century that an instrument was invented for measuring the red part of the blood. Then doctors could tell just how anemic a patient had become, and with medicine to make new blood the patient soon got well.

All the blood in the body is now renewed and kept rich and red by the food taken daily, but when, for any reason, a person is run down and cannot make sufficient blood from the food to keep the body in health, then a blood-making medicine is required. The simplest and very best of blood-makers suitable for home use by anyone, is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. When a course of these pills is taken their good effect is soon shown in an improved appetite, stronger nerves, a sound digestion and an ability to master your work and enjoy leisure hours. For women there is a prompt relief of, or prevention of ailments which make life a burden. As an all-round medicine for the cure of ailments due to weak, watery blood no medicine discovered by medical science can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.
You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A NERVOUS BREAKDOWN

Miss Kelly Tells How Lydia
E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored
Her Health.

Newark, N. J.—"For about three years I suffered from nervous breakdown and got so weak I could hardly stand, and had headaches every day. I tried everything I could think of and was under a physician's care for two years. A girl friend and nurse told me
of Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and she told me about it. From the first day I took it I began to feel better and now I am well and able to do my work at any time of week. I have been recommending the Compound ever since and give you my permission to publish this letter.—Miss F. O. Kelly, 478 So. 14th St., Newark, N. J.

The reason this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, was so successful in Miss Kelly's case was because it went to the root of her trouble, restored her to a normal healthy condition and as a result her nervousness disappeared.
