INDIANA ELOQUENCE - At the recent pre source of a flag from the ladies of Cass county, Indiana, to the Democrats of Pulas-ki, the erator of the occasion is reported to have made a speech, of which the following is a part :-Fellow-Citizens,-Not alone in our district is Democracy with its head and ears erect like a greese, but the world is on fire with Lucofocoism, which is eight and a half per cent, worse than Millerium. In France, where the very bricks of the hu-man side-walk were down-trouden and her-ring-boned by the comming of Whiggery, they now glory in being free? France-glorious France, where celestial soups are clotions france, where celestial soups are distilled from discarded boot soler, and the epigrastum is tituated by the fragrancy of frogs stuffed with garlie; is now a free peo-ple! . Mr. G. fanned himself) Germany fiels the shock to the bottom of her beervats ; and the cry of freedom, roused the coiled up causages of Bologna, encompared indy with the links of therty !. The time of deepots is come !. The dianer bell of ty.

of depots is come ! The dinner bell of ty-ranny has rung the oppressors to their last meal ! Henceforth and forever our ances-tors snatched the burning brand of regene-ration from the hards of timid posterity, and planted it deep in the bowels of the future ! Let it grow. But the end is not yet, (the end of his speech.) The Sirece of a men-ied desolation sheds its crocidile tears over the infortated instincts of toot:less wretch-edness throughout all England, and the erv
