VOL. XXXIII—No. 12,020

ENGLAND TO ASK PROTECTION IN MEXICO

British Government Intends to See That Its Interests There Are Looked After and Germany Also Is Anxious on Account of Damage to Property.

Special to The Toronto World. EL PASO, Tex., June 28.—There is a strong belief among all classes on the border that early in July Great Britain will ask the United States to announce some policy or take some steps to insure protection to British interests in Mexico.

This belief is based upon well defined rumors, the source of which is only conjectural. The protest of the British-foreign office to President Hertz last week strengthened it. The undeniable fact that for a year certain British interests have been clamoring for it in London and the general British policy combine to help. There are many representatives of British property owners in Mexico at El Paso now. They have had daily conferences, but they refuse to talk. It is noticeable that their presence and the reports have inspired a more hopeful feeling among Americans who have holdings across the Rio Grande among mine representatives, machinery men, cattlemen, general merchants and railroad men than there has been since Porfirio Diaz went out of power.

Germany Also Threatens. The Balkan situation and a reluctance to take the responsibility of sending the United States into Mexico have delayed action by Great Britain so far. It has also deterred Germany, which is third in foreign holdings. "You must wait until the situation becomes uncertain," has been the official reply. The Europeans say it has now reached that stage.

The most active factor of those seeking to bring about this situation is undoubtedly the Carlson interests. Dr. Pearson, a Canadian, has been busy in British capital, the investment of which in Mexico aggregates about $50,000,000.

They are in about everything. Their complaint is that not only have they suffered an actual loss of $5,000,000 by the destruction of property, but that their entire investment is idle, unproductive and in danger. One instance is their Mexico Northwestern Railway, which has forty miles of track between Juarez and Chihuahua, tapping their 3,000,000 acre lumber tract. Their lumber mill, the largest in the world, supplies among other things knuckdown crates and boxes for California fruit growers, Arizona and Texas staple vegetable raisers and even Michigan grape men, besides house finishing for the southwest. All that is now idle, entailing an immense prospective loss.

Their railroad is divided between the rebels and the federals. They have had 800 bridges burned and many stations, their rolling stock has been confiscated and their telegraph lines put out of commission. Pearson representatives feel that the powerful interests in England which are back of the strike doing everything they can to invoke protection from their own government. Secretary Bryan was told that last week at Washington.

JOHNSON NOW ON WAY TO FRANCE With Wife and Two Automobiles, He Is Safely Afloat For Havre.

MONTREAL, June 28.—(Can. Press.)—Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, accompanied by his white wife, Lucille Cameron Johnson, sailed for Havre on the Allan line steamer Corinthian at 3 o'clock this morning. Johnson boarded the steamer last night in the presence of the Canadian immigration officials who will watch his progress Europeanward until he is beyond their jurisdiction.

Just before going aboard the Corinthian, Johnson reiterated the declaration that he had no intention of jumping his bail bond in Chicago, and was merely going to Europe to retrench the losses he has sustained in his trials. He declared he would be on hand when his appeal is argued in November. Johnson took with him two automobiles—a limousine and a high power touring car.

The Horse Parade The promoters of the Open Air Horse Show and parade will meet tonight at the King Edward Hotel to put the finishing touches on the great program which is to be the morning feature of the Dominion Day celebration in Toronto.

DUKE OF CONNAUGHT WILL RETURN IN FALL FOR ANOTHER YEAR'S STAY

OTTAWA, June 29.—(Can. Press)—His Excellency the Administrator has received a cable from the secretary of state for the colonies, informing him that Field Marshal, His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught has accepted an extension of his term of office as governor-general for one year. The cable also states that His Royal Highness is likely to return to Canada during the autumn, when it is hoped that Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Connaught will be well enough to accompany him.

SYLVIA PANKHURST'S FORCES TRY TO BESIEGE CABINET MINISTERS POLICE ARE GIVEN HARD BATTLE

Many Dock Workers Who Marched to Downing Street With Women Wee Clubbed and Arrested Before Invaders Admitted Defeat—Sudden Onslaught Followed a Public Meeting.

LONDON, June 29.—(Can. Press.)—Miss Sylvia Pankhurst, daughter of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the suffragette leader, led an attacking party to Downing street this afternoon, for the purpose of imprisoning the cabinet ministers. The expedition was unsuccessful. The attempt to capture Downing street failed, but the victory of the force was not without a series of fierce scuffings in which both policemen and women were injured.

Miss Pankhurst appeared at a demonstration in Trafalgar Square, in favor of free speech. She denounced the Right Hon. Reginald McKenna, the home secretary for "killing my mother." Then she invited the crowd to go to Downing street and "imprison the ministers in their own houses."

Countdown Break Cordon. Suing her action to her words, she jumped from the wagon, organized a large body of sympathizers, many of whom were dock workers, and marched at their head, down Whitehall, with the flag of the Women's Social and Political Union, surrounded by a liberty cap.

The police, however, had been apprised of the intention of the demonstrators and had thrown a strong cordon around Downing street. The dockers tried to break thru and some of the women went to their aid, but were severely handled. In the fighting women were thrown to the ground and the dockers were clubbed. Many of them were arrested. Meanwhile, some of the husky dockers had thrashed a policeman here and there. Finally mounted police came to the rescue and dispersed the crowd.

Resolution Was Resented. The incident which led to the march to Downing street was Miss Pankhurst's objection to a resolution put to the meeting, because it contained no direct reference to votes for women.

"The men on this platform," she said, "have refused to put the question of women's vote in the resolution. That just shows you what democrats they are."

Then pointing towards Downing street she continued: "The ministers are just a handful of greedy cowards. They don't all go for week-ends, and we could imprison them in their own houses even this afternoon if we went down there. What are you going to do?"

Chorus greeted this speech, and there was general movement towards getting into line. Miss Pankhurst headed the march. Between 1000 and 2000 persons followed her, singing the Marseillaise. Having started the attack, the suffragette leader left the active direction of affairs to her supporters. The marchers gathered reinforcements and cordoned both ends of Downing street.

Following Religious Tradition in Connection With St. Peter's Eve and Went to Chapel.

ROME, June 28.—(Can. Press.)—Following the ancient tradition in connection with St. Peter's Eve, the Pope descended this evening to St. Peter's to pray on the tomb of the apostle.

At sunset all the doors to the basilica were closed to the public. Accompanied by his court the pontiff descended from his apartment to Raphael's loggia, from which he was carried in his chair thru the Chapel of the Sacrament into St. Peter's. Here the Pope was received by the canons, who paid him homage. For half an hour the pontiff remained kneeling in prayer.

UNITED CATHOLIC PARTY IS NOW FAVORED

Old Division of Liberals and Conservatives Should Be Abolished, Say Speakers at Roman Catholic Convention—Church Is Supreme, the Speakers Claim.

THREE RIVERS, Que., June 29.—(Can. Press)—The supremacy of the church in matters moral and religious, its rights to be sole director of the education of its youth and the necessity of a united Catholic party in Canada, instead of the old division of Liberals and Conservatives—these were among the doctrines reaffirmed at the opening of the congress of the Association Catholique de la Jeunesse Canadienne Française, which took place in the city hall Saturday evening, some two hundred delegates being present from various parts of the province. The hall was filled with citizens of the town, who are showing great interest in the congress and have decorated their houses for the occasion.

The meeting was opened by Maurice Gellinas, who welcomed the delegates on the part of the members from Three Rivers. Dr. George H. Bart of Laval University, Montreal, outlined the object of the congress and the subject of discussion in its meetings. The association numbers 4000 members, and has for its object the preparation of a general program of education for the Catholic religion and the Canadian nation. It chose to discuss the vexed subject of many education in the Province of Quebec because of the prominence of the question in recent discussion and because it is firmly convinced that the criticism adverse to the Catholic system is without any foundation in actual fact. Dr. Bart spoke of the public as the battleground on which were arrayed the conflicting forces of the church and the state.

FORMER LORD MAYOR OF MELBOURNE FATALLY HURT WHILE SLEEP WALKING

SHEFFIELD, Eng., June 29.—(Can. Press.)—Sir Samuel Gillot, who was formerly a member of the Victorian Parliament and was lord mayor of Melbourne, Australia, died here today. He was on a visit to relatives and recently suffered injuries to his spine by a fall while walking in his sleep.

TWO HUNDRED ARE HOMELESS BY EARTHQUAKES

MONTREAL, June 29.—(Can. Press.)—Two hundred persons were rendered homeless, thirteen horses burned to death, and a property loss of about $75,000, resulted from a fire late to-night in the block bounded by St. Genevieve, St. Antoine and Latour streets and Busby Lane.

A fire kindled in a yard by children communicated with the stable of Wm. Carter and spread to tenements occupied by Italians. While there were numerous narrow escapes, no human lives were lost.

SAYS SHE HAD A TRIAL MARRIAGE

Mlle Leopoldine Bonvard Claims Share of Modern School Founder's Money.

PARIS, June 29.—Mlle. Leopoldine Bonvard, who was formerly the wife of Francisco Ferrer, the Spanish founder of the so-called modern school, who was put to death at Barcelona as the alleged instigator of the Barcelona riots, is suing the estate left by Ferrer, claiming a part of the $20,000 discovered on deposit at the Credit Lyonnais in his name shortly before his execution.

The union of Mlle. Bonvard and Ferrer was a species of trial marriages and she bases her present claim upon the fact that she is the mother of a son by Ferrer. As the supreme court of Madrid practically reversed the judgment of the Barcelona court last year and restored Ferrer's property, most of which he inherited from Mlle. Mounier, an ardent pupil, there are likely to be other claimants to his estate, by having had several feminine associates in his work.

AUTO BANDITS ON NIAGARA BORDER

Abducted Two Men at Niagara Falls and Held Up Several Others.

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y., June 29.—(Special)—Auto bandits held up four men, tapped the till of a saloon on the Buffalo-Niagara Falls state boulevard late last night, and escaped. Frontier cities are searching for the bandits, but tonight say they have not the slightest clue to their identity. All the bandits got was $23.10 in cash and a gold watch, so far as the police have been able to learn. But they may have obtained more loot, as those who reported hold-ups said the bandits threatened to kill them if they told of their experiences. The police believe others may have been held up, and in fear of death, have refrained from reporting the affair.

There were three bandits beside the driver. Only very meagre descriptions of the robbers have been given the police, who have no description of the car, beyond the fact that it was a light-colored machine. One of the bandits was in his shirt sleeves, but the others wore blue suits of good quality and auto caps.

ITALY ALARMED BY EARTHQUAKES

FLAMES FROM MOUNT VESUVIUS

NAPLES, June 28.—(Can. Press.)—For the first time since 1906 flames were observed today shooting up from Mount Vesuvius. Three slight earthquake shocks occurred prior to this, and the uppermost crater of Vesuvius emitted a dense column of smoke, which frequently showed strong reflections of flames lower down, with an occasional eruption of fire.

WOMAN KILLED, OTHERS INJURED WHEN MOTOR CAR WAS STALLED AND TUMBLED DOWN HIGH BANK

Mrs. R. B. Harris, Wife of the Proprietor of The Hamilton Herald, Died Instantly, While Her Husband, Mother, Brother and Brother-in-Law Were Hurt When Their Car Turned Turtle Near Bronte and Fell Fifty Feet.

(By a Staff Reporter) BRONTE, Ont., June 29.—When the engine of a seven-passenger touring car became stalled while climbing the steep hill over the Twelve-Mile Creek at Tansley, a village directly north of Bronte on the Dundas road, the car backed over the 50-foot bank, crashed thru several trees, turned turtle and landed at the foot of the hill bottom up. Mrs. R. B. Harris, wife of the secretary-treasurer of The Hamilton Herald, was instantly killed, her neck being broken. Her husband, R. B. Harris, was badly injured, and three other passengers in the car were very badly shaken up and bruised. They were J. M. Harris, Mrs. Wm. Myles, Mrs. Harris' mother, and A. Myles, her brother, who was driving the car.

ON THEIR WAY TO MILTON. The party of five left Hamilton early in the afternoon for a spin to Milton, where they intended to have supper and return in the cool of the evening. It is said here tonight that they had had the car only a week, and that Mr. Myles was not used to the machinery. This fact, however, is only rumor.

At the Village of Tansley, over the Bronte, or Twelve-Mile Creek, is a very steep hill, and the road winds along the edge of a very steep embankment, being protected by a rail fence. The touring party reached this spot about 4 o'clock, traveling at an average speed. When the car went to take the steep hill Mr. Myles put on the low gear, and the car was half way up when it stalled. Before he could apply the emergency brake to keep it from sliding backwards, the heavy motor backed, struck the fence, and toppled over. The bank is 50 feet high, and heavily wooded. The large car tore thru the trees like so much paper, cut away the underbrush, and rolled completely over several times. It is a wonder that it did not go right into the creek with the five occupants.

PINNED BENEATH THE CAR. Mrs. Harris, who was killed, was pinned beneath the car, and her neck was broken. The others were thrown on the stones at the foot of the bank, and for a few minutes were too stunned to move. They extricated themselves, and upon finding that Mrs. Harris was dead they carried her body to a nearby farmhouse and awaited the arrival of an ambulance from Hamilton, in which the body and the four survivors were taken back to Hamilton.

Two reporters for The World arrived at Tansley on motorcycles as quickly as they could reach there from Toronto. The car is still at the bottom of the hill, and from the time of the accident until dark a large crowd stood watching it and discussing the accident.

The accident was directly due to the fact that the gasoline was so low in the tank that when the machine was going up the hill the gasoline could not reach the carburetor, and it was impossible to get any power.

President Wilson Approves Plan Which Provides For Ingenious Exchange of Securities.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—(Can. Press.)—President Wilson tonight approved the plan negotiated by Attorney-General McReynolds and the railroad generals for the dissolution of the Union Pacific merger under the Sherman anti-trust law, as directed by the supreme court of the U. S. To avoid a receivership by July 1 for the great combination, G. Carroll Todd, special assistant to the attorney-general, left tonight for St. Paul to represent the government and announce its approval of the proposition when it is presented to the district court there Monday.

While no official announcement has been made, it is understood that the plan as one step, provides for the exchange of $88,292,400 of Southern Pacific for the Pennsylvania holdings in the Baltimore & Ohio, which are approximately of the same value. The remaining $88,357,600 of Southern Pacific will be disfranchised and placed in the hands of a trust company as trustee and against this stock will be issued certificates, with no voting power, to the shareholders of the Union Pacific. The plan provides for the sale of these certificates within a definite time and their exchange for the stock under such conditions, it is declared, that it will be impossible for the stockholders of the Union Pacific to acquire a substantial proportion of Southern Pacific stock.

Hundred Thousand Dollars Worth of Gems Taken From Safe in a Fifth Avenue Store.

Special to The Toronto World. NEW YORK, June 29.—A safe in the store of Udall & Ballou, jewelers and silversmiths, at No. 574 Fifth Avenue, was opened Friday night or Saturday morning and robbed of jewels valued at from $100,000 to $125,000. There is nothing to show that the robbers had to do with the trouble of jimmying a door, much less blowing the safe. All that is known was that they got inside somehow and opened the safe.

They took away 18 trays filled with a glittering assortment of jewelry of all kinds, including five trays of unset stones. There were diamond rings and earrings, stomachers, pendants, bracelets and pins, as well as a large quantity of pieces set with sapphires, rubies, pearls and other precious stones. Thirteen of the trays were made of mahogany and were two feet and a half long and nearly as wide. Trays and all were taken. The mass of loot must have weighed nearly 200 pounds.

THE WORLD'S SPECIAL CABLES

QUEEN OF ITALY AS HOSPITAL NURSE

Attends Operation on Little Girl and Takes Turn on Watch.

ROYAL WORK - WOMEN

French Writer Gives List of Accomplishments of European Crowned Heads.

Special Cable to The World. Copyrighted by The Toronto World and N. Y. World.

PARIS, June 29.—Queen Helena, who is a thoroughly trained nurse and earnestly desired to lend her services to her native country, Montenegro, at the beginning of hostilities in Montenegro, of the Balkan war, only being dissuaded by her husband's conviction that international difficulties would ensue, has been nursing patients in the children's hospital here. A little girl named Contucci reposed in Her Majesty's arms through a tedious operation upon an eye. Queen Helena also insisted on attending an operation for appendicitis upon another child, being assigned to perform certain duties as one of three nurses in attendance. Her Majesty donned nurse's attire on the occasion. She has signified her intention of frequently visiting the hospital and taking her turn watch in the ward.

Mme. Maziere, a widely known French author, recently asked in a Paris paper:

"Suppose the crowned heads of Europe should all lose their thrones in a grand revolution, could they earn a livelihood if thrown penniless on the world, all their wealth taken by the mob?"

In answering the question herself so far it concerns the queen, Mme. Maziere overlooked Queen Helena's superior skill as a nurse by saying:

"Any music hall would pay the Queen of Italy $3000 a week as a rifle shot or an artistic swimmer."

She forgot too, that the Czarina of Bulgaria served thru the war between Russia and Japan as a Red Cross nurse with Gen. Kurapatkin's army, and the new Queen of Greece, Empress William's sister Sophia, was active in organizing a corps of field nurses in the Balkan war, twice accompanying to London hospitals for regularly trained women.

What They Can Do.

In her interesting list of might-be self-supporting queens, Mme. Maziere stated their qualifications substantially as follows:

Queen Elizabeth of Belgium could practice as a doctor (she holds a Lelpic degree) or could manage to make ends meet as a violinist or a chauffeuse.

Queen Elizabeth of Roumania ("Carmen Sylva") already has a good income from the sale of her poems and prose and could teach languages or shorthand to keep the happy home together.

Queen Mary of England, with luck, would be able to keep the wolf from the door as a painter in water colors, a soprano, or a tailoress.

The German Empress would have to get along as best she could as a court photographer.

Queen Wilhelmina of Holland has painted some really good miniatures.

Queen Maud of Norway has published some works of considerable literary merit as "Graham Irving," and could set up as a milliner.

The unfortunate Czarina and the domesticated Queen Victoria Eugenie of Spain would have no means of earning a livelihood.

FRANCE FIGURING TAXING FOREIGNERS

Must Raise Huge Sum to Keep Pace With Rival War Budget.

Special Cable to The World. Copyrighted by The Toronto World and N. Y. World.

PARIS, June 29.—The police are examining the papers of all foreigners, including New Yorkers, who now live in Paris—ostensibly to see whether they are in order, but really with the ulterior object of taxation. France has to raise $150,000,000 for its new keep-peace-with-Germany war budget, and the government is at work on a scheme to tax all foreign doctors and students residing here and thruout the republic.

Of the 40,000 students now in Paris over 3000 are foreigners, about half of whom are women. Many of them come from New York. Among the 1398 students of science there are 950 Russians, who also form the majority in all other branches of study. Indeed, Russian worships at the shrine of Franco culture and science, as much as old Rome worshipped at the literary shrine of Athens.

After Russians come Turks and Roumanians, and then Egyptians, Germans, Greeks, Austrians, Swiss, English, Americans, Scandinavians, Belgians, Persians, South Americans and last of all Portuguese.

A general tax on foreigners who study trade or follow a profession in France is likely. So hard pressed is the government for new sources of revenue that the members of the chambers of deputies, who now get $3000 a year salary, are to be required to pay for what they eat and drink at the hitherto free restaurant at the hall of the national assembly.

The new conscription law will put French students at a disadvantage when compared with foreign students who intend to remain here for the foreigner have no military service while the young Frenchmen must give up three years to the colors.

Mme. Therese Humbert, the former "Cupid" of France, who was figured in a famous swindling case, has got so low in her finances and so economical in her habits that one day recently she bargained with the conductor of an omnibus over the question whether her fare was 5 cents or 3 cents.

A little mathematician, who survives all "lightning calculators," has been discovered in an asylum at Nantes. The doctor who presides over the institution states that the man has no education worth speaking of. He can barely read and he has trouble in writing down figures. But as a mental calculator he is a marvel and curiously enough he can count quicker when in a fit of madness than when he is lucid.

He gave correctly in less than half a minute the number of seconds in 29 years 5 months and 12 hours. In four seconds he told how many seconds there are in 29 years. He carries always at his tongue's tip the number of seconds in a year, and he uses that sum as a base for all his calculations.

He gave correctly in 48 seconds the age of a man who had lived a billion seconds. His mind, the brain experts say, contains a blackboard on which he does his tremendous arithmetical problems, every figure and erasure remaining absolutely distinct in his memory.

Belief is gaining ground among the superstitious of the lower classes at Viterbo, Italy, that Sister Mary Benedicta, known as the "Sun of Viterbo," who died May 10 last, has arisen from her grave. During the later years of her life there were many who asserted that she would never die. Born in Rome in 1835 she entered the convent of the Duchesse at Viterbo in 1858. In 1861 when twenty-five she became the victim of paralysis which spared her nothing but her intelligence, her speech and the use of her right hand.

Occasionally such damage to the vertebrae that it was necessary to support the head by a bandage, the ends of which were fixed by nails to the wall behind her bed. In that position she remained for fifty-two years until her death. Her resignation, cheerfulness and piety gained fresh lustre from the tales told of her supernatural predictions. She celebrated two years ago a kind of jubilee of her martyrdom.

Cardinal Casella carried to her an autograph letter from the pope, Cardinals, archbishops, bishops, prelates and people of all classes met in her cell. Queen Margherita visited her often, and she was attended by nurses from the royal household.

PRINCESS LEAVES GAMBLER HUSBAND

Wife of Prince Mirko of Montenegro May Sue For Divorce.

HE'S FOND OF POKER

Ran Away From Army in Order to Gamble With His Valet.

Special Cable to The World. Copyrighted by The Toronto World and N. Y. World.

CETTINJE, Montenegro, June 29.—Princess Natalie, the wife of King Nicholas' second son, Prince Mirko, has left her home threatening to sue for divorce and has taken refuge with her father, Gen. Constantinovitch, the acting chief of the Montenegrin army.

"If she wants to go let her; I don't care," is Prince Mirko's only answer to the royal family's efforts to persuade him to apologize to his wife for the conduct which has driven her away.

Mirko and Natalie were married eleven years ago and have three sons, the eldest of whom, Prince Michel, who will be five in September, is in line to be king some day, as Crown Prince Danilo, who married Duchess Jutta of Mecklenburg-Strelitz fourteen years ago, has no child. Natalie's second son, Prince Paul, is three years old, and the youngest, Prince Emanuel, named for his uncle, the king of Italy, is thirteen months old.

So fond of poker is Prince Mirko that he lost his wife's fortune long ago, and that is one of her reasons for leaving him. He has such a passion for gambling that he goes into the streets and plays with cab drivers when he can get no one else for a game. He has not inherited his father's intelligence or courage. His wife accuses him of running away from the army during the siege of Scutari and going to bed under a false plea of rheumatism, being away three weeks playing cards with his valet.

She also complains that he never goes home, spending all his time when not gambling in search of romantic adventures either in the villages or down at Cattaro on the Adriatic.

Twice Deserted Army.

During the war Prince Mirko twice left his army to go to Arkivari, where he has a villa. The army was so angry at his behavior that the king had great trouble in preventing the officers from making the incident of his desertion a public scandal.

Shortly after this the prince returned to Cetinje, under a plea of illness. Then the officers, especially his father-in-law, said it was better for him to remain as far from the army as possible, as his frequent desertions and scandalous conduct with nurses demoralized the troops.

King Nicholas, who controls the court, will not permit Princess Natalie to sue for divorce, altho he admits that her complaints are just. The whole royal family is said to be thoroughly disgusted with him, but all its members think the princess ought to forego divorce on account of her children. The archbishop, however, warmly sympathizes with her and favors that method of legal redress.

FAMOUS BEAUTY DIED IN PARIS

Mlle. Germaine Caught Cold While Dancing in the Nude.

Special Cable to The World. Copyrighted by The Toronto World and N. Y. World.

PARIS, June 29.—Mlle. Germaine, the most famous beauty model at the Ecole Des Beaux Arts, and for several years winner of the beauty contest at the "Quatrat" ball, has died of pneumonia, contracted at the earliest morning ceremonies after this year's ball when she bathed and danced nude in the classic fountain in the court of the Beaux Arts Studios, accompanied by cheering thousands of students.

That honor, sought for by all Latin center beauties as the highest recognition of an artist's charms, was Germaine's fourth time running. This year's triumph was an especially proud one for her because of the close competition. When she died at the Atelier where she posed, went into mourning for her, and the students quit work for the day out of respect for her memory.

Students say that never will such a perfect and beautiful model be found again, and old-timers familiar with the Beaux Arts for half a century declare that Germaine was the most beautiful woman known within memory.

Another dancer has run foul of the police. Adoree Villany, a Hungarian dancer, who usually performs nude, put a smooch among her waist and danced regularly at the Police headquarters. The police raided the place, seized post cards illustrating the dance and watched the performance. Then she issued another summons for dancing nude to the Beaux Arts students, who, needless to say, applauded her uproariously.

STENOGRS, BE ON WATCH FOR NEW JOB

Way Has Been Found to Do Away With Writing of Letters.

Special Cable to The World. Copyrighted by The Toronto World and N. Y. World.

PARIS, June 29.—An invention that threatens to do away with the stenographer is causing consternation and alarm among the shorthand experts here. This new correspondence device consists of phonographic records on prepared cloth, which may be mailed instead of a letter.

The communication is simply dictated into the machine, the result is clothed and the recipient inserts the record in his typewriter.

The invention was originally designed for use as an exact record of testimony in legal cases; but with further development the discovery can now be used for all correspondence, and as the records can be put on the market very cheaply, the process is less expensive than the employment of stenographers.

The Value of Constant Cultivation

Success never comes accidentally in any walk in life. To reap a certain reward, one must labor constantly, and with some definite end in view. And in the gentle art of gardening the definite end in view, is the successful production of healthy blooming plants (where the plants are bloomers), or strong, thick-leaved, well-covered shrubs and vines.

It is often noticed that country gardens are the happy possessors of plants, whose magnificent luxuriance and color give to their owners a sense of well-being. The chances are that the most carefully tended varieties of the same kind in gardens where nothing that money and time and training can give, is lacking. Why is it?

Many of the old gardens, planted decades ago, hidden deep in obscure villages and hamlets, possess great beds and borders of flowering perennials, that have seeded themselves in the rich loamy earth, for more years than the ordinary amateur gardener in the city can remember. How did these perennials attain that perfection of form and color and perfume that make them the envy of all who are fortunate enough to be permitted to see them?

In these days,—and today, also,—there were no such aids to gardening as the spraying water, the hose, the long useful hose to carry water to the thirsty roots. "No ubiquitous hydrant, whose ever-open mouth pours out the sparkling water at the slightest touch." But the whole secret of the successful growth, lay in the constant cultivation that women folks were not content to give to their precious flower beds. Such a thing as a home without a garden was an unknown thing in those days. Where it was possible for the thrifty housewife to work with her own hands, among the flowers, she did so, and where this was not always possible, on account of the multitude of cares that every mother of a family had to attend to, those days, she at least had in her present knowledge of the necessities of care and cultivation of her plants, in a manner that bespoke an alert appreciation of their individual need and hidden possibilities.

Far be it from her mind, to neglect the weeding of her pansy beds, for the doubtful pleasure of a neighborly boue concerning the latest thing in garden.

Instead, her weeding fork in hand, down on her knees, back bent in honest toil, with what infinite satisfaction did she spend the grateful hour, cuddling the earth lovingly around each thankful little root and stem and stalk. Beside her may have been a watering can holding such a quantity of the precious fluid, as could safely be spared from the "well." But every drop was made to do more than double duty, by the simple method of conserving every minute particle of moisture already in the earth. And this was done by loosening the hardened particles of earth around each root. This time, by such means, the soil, in the evening, nearly always performed in the early hours of the morning, even while yet the dew was heavy upon the grass, reached a marvelous state of fertility, rivalling in richness, the blackest and finest of loam. But such constant work, together with the help of sun and air, and light.

Baltimore is the latest city to provide for women police. New York actresses are going to have a club with a billiard room and a bar.

THE NURSERY

Hot Weather Feeding

A baby who is nursed after he is a year old is rarely properly nursed. Nature gives him teeth for the purpose of chewing, and as a sign that he is ready for some solid food. If your baby's birthday comes in the middle of the hot season, keep on nursing for a little while. If the milk is poor and scanty, however, and the baby becomes fretful from lack of nourishment, I believe the dangers of weaning would be far less serious than those of continuing to nurse. Many a mother handicaps her own strength and undermines the baby's health by fearing to change the method of feeding during the summer. If you have brought up your baby carefully and regularly, one may guard him against the danger of diarrhoea, by attention to his digestion, you need have no fear of weaning during the summer, if you follow the plan I have already outlined.

Let me warn you once more against the habit some otherwise sensible mothers teach their children: to nurse all night. These mothers will feed the baby from a bottle or cup during the day, but they will not give up night-nursing until they have a sick baby. Nothing is so dangerous for a baby as over-feeding, and this is done often at night than at any other time. Nursing the baby between ten at night and six in the morning should be absolutely stopped after a baby is three months old. The stomach demands a rest, and if it does not get it, the whole digestive system is weakened.

WOMEN'S PRESS PARTY DIVIDED VANCOUVER'S MARVELS VIEWED

Cosmopolitan Aspect of New York of West Holds Interest of Ontario Newspaper Women—Small Groups Now the Rule in Writers' Tour.

VANCOUVER, June 23.—(Staff Reporter).—The character of the itinerary of the Canadian Women's Press Club has undergone a change. It is no longer of the nature of a royal progress during which everyone and everything joined to do homage to the body which represented the women of the press of the coast. They are now simply ordinary individuals traveling alone, or more often in small parties, according to inclination. The party of which the Toronto women are now a member, is a very pleasant and congenial group, consisting of Miss Van Norman, the capable, cultured and charming representative of the Bradford Courier; Miss Louise Stephens, the bright baby of the little coterie of The Owen Sound Sun; Miss Irene Wrenshall, dainty and artistic, also of the Owen Sound; and Miss Irene Wrenshall, dainty and artistic, also of the Owen Sound; and Miss Irene Wrenshall, dainty and artistic, also of the Owen Sound.

The New York of the West. This city of the coast is something phenomenal. Twenty-six years ago the primeval forest covered the space on which Vancouver now stands. The New York of the West has been called by someone, and certainly its cosmopolitan character and the promise which lies within its 34 miles of magnificent waterfront and 40 square miles of the best harborage of the world, are ample ground for the name. Since arriving the members of the Canadian Women's Press Club have been the subject of a series of sensations—surprise, astonishment, delight being uppermost. In 1890 Vancouver had a population of 12,000, and the primitive character of a backwoods town. Now it is an up-to-date metropolis of 175,000 that has sprung up with the rapidity and growth of a luxuriant nature itself. Everything is here, skyscrapers, electricity in all its functions, extended street car service, automobiles, great departmental stores, numerous manufacturing and commercial concerns, the whole set down amongst what are without doubt some of the grandest mountains and most beautiful waters on the globe. The streets are wooded and here and there snow-tipped peaks, the wide waters of the swiftly flowing Fraser and the far distributed and ever extending houses and industries form a combination of majestic nature and intense commercialism at once striking and delightful.

Living No Higher There. Contrary to what was expected, living here is found to be no more expensive than in our own city, and salaries on the whole are said to be higher. There is, however, probably a much greater dearth of electrical and office work generally, employment to a great extent taking the lines of city construction and development. An altogether distinctive feature is the large number of who are here from the orient. The porters at the hotels, and red-caps at the station are from Japan. The Chinese have a large "quarter" in the heart of the city, and stranger sight still is the large number of bronze-visaged and white-turbaned Hindus, who form part of the population. Many Progressive Associations. The citizens of Vancouver are determined to make the most of their natural advantages, so in addition to the great strides they are making commercially, they have a City Beautiful Association, whose object is to increase in every way the artistic surroundings in which they live, and a Progress Club, which also has as part of its work the preservation and further development of the sources of the city and environs. The municipal body and a number of progressive citizens have the project in hand and already they have succeeded in preserving and enhancing much of what, but for foresight and care, might have long since fallen by the hand of the land-grabber.

The Vancouver Commercial Club is a great skyscraper, which dominates the city and whose tower is visible for miles. The block is owned by Dominic Burns, the popular brother of that cattle king of the west, P. Burns. Membership fee in the club is one hundred dollars, but the equipment and services are of the finest, and living at the club is said to be the best obtainable at moderate prices. The furnishings is luxurious, and at the same time, what is called home-like, and from the roofgarden, the "world" representative saw the most magnificent view of the city and surroundings possible to obtain anywhere.

The City's Beauty Spots. At Shaughnessy Heights, are the homes of the moneyed people. The houses are easily the largest and most costly seen in the west. Everyone different from every other in design, and some are so elaborate as to draw forth comment even from the city people themselves, as evidences of vulgar display of wealth on the part of their builders. Stanley Park with its outskirts of ten miles and giant trees, is one of the beauties of the community, as are also the great marine drive, the waters of the Fraser, Burrard Inlet and False Inlet, and the pier, Mrs. George Clapton, a few miles from the centre of things. A Toronto woman, Mrs. J. O. Perry, member of the Cashman family, is among those actively engaged in the public life of Vancouver. Among other interests, Mrs. Perry is convener of the City Beautiful Association and the "World" representative, having Mrs. Perry as an old friend, had the good fortune to be motored, walked and otherwise conversed to many things of interest. Among these was the public library, where Mr. Douglas, Vancouver's courteous librarian, brought out his most precious treasures for our inspection and pleasure.

Mr. Douglas is a collector and travels extensively in search of rare volumes. One of these a copy of Plutarch's lives of the twelve Caesars.

THE TRIPLE TIE BY A. H. C. MITCHELL (Continued From Saturday.) Smith had seen enough of his protégé to know that he would make good in any kind of company. His long career as a ball player and manager of ball players, he never seemed to get away from him. His marvelous speed, enabling him to cover more ground than two ordinary outfields, it was only at that that Smith had any doubts at all as to his ability. He wondered how the recruit would fare in the big leagues. The Southern League pitchers—Atchison, Wagner, Summers, Cass, Campbell and Parsons—were not to be feared. The major league clubs of the north.

NO OTHER WAY 25 25 By GORDON HOLMES 25 25 (Continued From Saturday.) The coroner permitted himself to look bewildered, and Waverton smiled. "May I make a statement in my own words, sir?" he asked. "It will facilitate matters greatly, and I shall, of course, be prepared to answer any questions subsequently."

temples of their Indian homes. When the Hindus had resumed their shoes on the veranda, they washed their hands at a tap nearby. The interpreter explained that they looked upon the leather in the shoes as unclean, hence their action. The Hindus were men of fine physique, straight and lithe, with mild intellectual countenances, and in the opinion of the lady who conducted us and who has formed the acquaintance of many of the tribe, they are a people having many excellent qualities. There are about two thousand Hindus in Vancouver, but only three women, and the question of Hindu immigration is at present a very acute one.

The Archbishop Remembered. On Sunday we went to the Cathedral of the Holy Rosary, which at once had the effect of connecting us very closely with Toronto, for this was the official church of His Grace Archbishop McNeil before his translation to Toronto. At Holy Rosary we heard an exceptionally fine sermon preached by Rev. Father O'Boyle, O.M.I., who many in the east will be glad to hear most popular out here. Archbishop McNeil is warmly remembered. "His grace was just the man for Vancouver," said some one, to which the response was "Yes, and he is just the man for Toronto."

It required twenty minutes overtime to settle the lacrosse dispute at the island Saturday. In that last lap of a furious struggle Tecumsehs played circles around Torontos and got square by an 8 to 6 victory.

force for loosing. To be sure they played the blue shirts off their feet in this period, but Warwick and company caught them napping towards the end and from a scrimmage in front of the goal they evened the score.

Torontos must win in their game with the Irish at the Beach on Tuesday in order to have a chance for the flag, while the victory of the Tecumsehs and the loss of the league leaders on Saturday give Quebec's band an excellent chance to crawl to the top.

IRISH-CANADIANS LOST TO SPEEDY FRENCHMEN

Big Four Leaders Without Scott and Hogan Were No Match For Nationals in a Fast Game at Montreal—Score Ten to Three.

MONTREAL, June 28.—(Can. Press.)—The Irish-Canadians were defeated by the Nationals Saturday afternoon, 10 to 3. For two periods the teams were evenly matched, but the Nationals, who had a better batting average, came out on top in the final period.

Deceit was back on the National defence for the first time this year, and with Doc Lachapelle added strength to the team, he has not lost his propensity for mixing it up, however, and drew the first line of attack for rough work.

FIVE-TO-ONE SHOT WON GRAND PRIX

Bruleur, Who Finished Third in French Derby, Landed Big Event.

PARIS, June 29.—(Can. Press.)—The Grand Prix de Paris is the richest prize in the racing world, and was today won by F. De St. Alary's bay colt, Bruleur, which won the French Derby, Baron Gourgaud's Opote was second, and Vicomte d'Harcourt's Ecouteur third.

Several American owners figured in the race, but not in the money. The Grand Prix de Paris is an event for three-year-olds at one mile and ten furlongs.

The protest of Young Torontos against Lansdowns on Saturday has no foundation whatsoever, as rule 7, section 2, distinctly opens the way for a dispute.

Myer Here Tomorrow

Unless some unforeseen obstacle crops up that has not been heard of so far, Benny Myer may be ordered to report tomorrow. He might have been here today, but Boston and Pittsburgh held waivers on him and refused at first to let him go. However, President McCaffery has concluded arrangements with Boston, and it is believed that Pittsburgh will also come to terms today. Bradley, the new recruit, will play first base tomorrow, and Maxwell and Gaw will do the heavy lifting for the Leafs. Here's a chance for all revenge on those Bisons by taking both of them. The first game will start at 10:30 a.m., and the second at 3 p.m.

ROACH'S FUMBLE COSTLY TO BISON

Bailey Pitched Good Ball, But Providence Won Tussle.

PROVIDENCE, June 29.—(Can. Press.)—Bailey, after two bad starts against Toronto, tried it for the third time today at Rocky Point and made good for all his previous slips, holding the Bisons to five runs and striking out 12 men. Providence winning, 3 to 2. Holmes pitched good ball, but a bunching of hits in the fourth and fifth innings gave the Grays runs enough to win. Roach's error in the fifth when he let a return throw Jackson get away from him assisted Montreal in scoring of the winning run. Score: R. H. E.

Wanted to Talk to Spain's King Man Suspected of Being Anarchist Was Only Harmless Yokel. Special Cable to The World.—Copyrighted by The Toronto World and N. Y. World. MADRID, June 29.—(Wire)—King Alfonso was on his way back to Madrid after his recent visit to Paris the royal train stopped at the station at Va Villavieja. The police noticed a man trying to approach the royal carriage, and suspecting him to be an anarchist, seized him. The man made such an uproar that the king went to the car window. On seeing him he cried: "I want to speak to your majesty and these fellows won't let me." Alfonso invited him to come near and tell what he wanted. The poor fellow turned out to be a harmless yokel with an intense desire to see the king. Alfonso chatted with him a few minutes, making enquiries about the crops, the work he did, and then as the train was about to start, shook him warmly by the hand. The man's delight was boundless and Alfonso smiled as he heard his remark to the police: "There! I have seen the king, and what's more, have spoken with him in spite of you all."

Make Yourself at Home GET a room in a house like this and get a social life as well as a place to sleep. Man is a social animal. He needs something more than a lair to crawl into at night. The hermit is the man who is soured on the world. If you are cooped up in one little room, where your only importance is your room rent, why don't you join one of those happy groups that is like one big, happy family? The kind of people that have some interest in their fellow men, and who will welcome you with a cheery "Make yourself at home," and actually mean it. Now, if you are not a hermit, if you really care for the society of human beings, if you want to get in a home where there is laughter and friendship, and a good time once in a while, turn to the Room Ads in this paper. You'll find a list of rooms here, the possession of any one of which will put you in a circle of happy faces. These rooms are vacant now. But they won't be vacant very long. Good rooms never are. Start today to find one of these rooms. Read every Ad in the Rooms to Rent columns. Then go out and see a few of these rooms. There is no use being lonely when there are so many good rooms to rent—rooms with nice, pleasant surroundings in good neighborhoods, and with good companionship. All you have to do is read these Want Ads and answer them to get in touch with these friendly people, and they will tell you to "Come right in and make yourself at home." And every time you answer an Ad, please mention this paper.
