TARIFF PROPOSALS

Labor is Resigned to Loss of Many Seats in England.

BY HARRY N. MOORE (British United Press.) London, Nov. 29.—The British election campaign is growing more and more like the Canadian reciprocity campaign of 1911 in all parts of the country, first one and then another life-long Conservative is announcing his disagreement with the policy of protection while in some constituencies the Liberals are saying that protection is the only cure for domestic industrial depression.

Practically all these changes of view can be traced to the industrial interests of the candidates or those of his electors. The Liberals continue to make a great deal of capital out of the rise in the price of certain commodities since the tariff proposals were announced by Mr. Baldwin at Plymouth.

Food Prices Go Up Sugar has gone up a penny a pound, butter three pence a pound, cheese a penny a pound, while flour, fruit, eggs and tinned milk are also higher than they were before the announcement of the fiscal change. Several of the largest wholesale houses also have announced an immediate increase in prices.

Information at the dispatcher's office was that Engineer Evans had run past a red light signal. The Southland had stopped to cross over the Albany line, according to the dispatcher's office. The Kansas City special, it was estimated, had slowed down to 20 or 25 miles an hour for the railroad crossing where the wreck occurred.

Boy Dies In Cellar; Man Held For Death

Moosomin, Sask., Nov. 29.—Charged with manslaughter in that he failed to provide necessities for John R. Boyas, 19-year-old English lad, who died last March of pneumonia in a bed in the cellar of his employer, George M. Ford, Boosomin farmer, was placed on trial in the King's bench court here yesterday.

Medical evidence adduced was to the effect that the care necessary for the recovery of Boyas was not given to him and his death thus accelerated. Three doctors declared that if Boyas came up from his basement bedroom only a few hours before a doctor found him dead in an upstairs room, as alleged by Ford, that this climb in the condition that Boyas was in at the time would have been immediately fatal. The physicians admit the case depends upon medical testimony.

Ex-Convict To Go Back To Life Term In Italy After Freedom In United States

New York, Nov. 29.—More than five years ago on a lonely road near Menlo, Italy, Brasca Artico, his wife and young daughter were found murdered. This week Giuseppe Buscemi, 52, was arrested in his butcher shop at 166 Elmy street, Brooklyn, charged with complicity in the crime. He will be turned over to immigration authorities and probably be deported at once to Italy, there to serve the sentence which has been pronounced on him.

Buscemi was taken into custody by Detectives Inella and McCarty of the homicide squad on a warrant issued by the Department of Labor. He admitted knowledge of the crime, though protesting his innocence, and told authorities of his trip to America and the existence he has led since.

After being held in jail for sixteen months without trial, he said, one night in June, 1913, men from the prison in which he was confined took him aboard a ship, gave a uniform to him and put him to work. Days later he was told by a man from New Jersey and one dark night he was smuggled ashore. With what money he was able to scrape together he opened his butcher shop in Brooklyn. He has kept in constant touch with his wife in Menlo. He knew, he said, that he had been convicted of complicity in the murder and sentenced to life imprisonment, but believed he was safe in America. He never had his own admission. Buscemi never landed at Ellis Island and never has been examined by immigration authorities he will be turned over to them at once.

FRIEND LEAVES TEACHER $50,000

Charity Patient Was Best Man at Wedding of Her Grandmother. New York, Nov. 29.—Miss Rosalie Wurthmann of 26 Reservoir avenue, Jersey City, had known Louis C. Lehmer, 40, for many years, and she knew that he had been a friend of her parents and her grandparents, but she always considered him a poor man, and when he recently went to the Metropolitan Hospital on Welfare Island as a charity patient she visited him often as she could. No one could have been more surprised when she learned that he had left her $50,000 in trust until she is 33 and the residue of his estate, which is estimated at about $100,000.

Lehmer was 92, and in all the years that he lived alone on the top floor of the house in 305 East Fifty-fifth street his neighbors and his friends learned almost nothing about him. They did not even know that he owned the house. He was best man at the wedding of Miss Wurthmann's grandparents in Mainz, Germany, and he had been friends with the family ever since. The Wurthmanns tried to have him removed to a private hospital when they learned that he had gone to the Metropolitan as a charity patient, but his doctors would not permit this.

As chief beneficiary of the estate Lehmer eventually will inherit about $50,000, it is thought, after her bequests are paid. She is a graduate of the Montclair Normal School, class of 1923, and intends to keep on teaching for the present in Public School No. 2 West New York, N. J., despite her new found fortune. Eventually she wants to travel, but she does not expect to leave home until next summer.

With his right leg torn off just below the knee, his right thigh fractured and several ribs on his right side broken, George Avarad, of Lower Belleisle, was brought to the St. John Infirmary by motor car this morning between 8 and 9 o'clock and died from the shock and loss of blood a few minutes before eight. He received his injuries in a mill near Upham last evening about 6 o'clock.

Just what caused the accident is not definitely known. Mr. Avarad was on duty with others in the mill and as he was getting dusty, he was carrying a lighted lantern. The first indication of anything wrong was when the lantern was suddenly projected into the air. One of the men immediately stopped the machinery and an inspection found Mr. Avarad with part of his body wound around a spindle and bleeding freely from the badly injured leg. He was rushed to Hampton in a motor car and after attending to his wounds Dr. A. T. Leatherbarrow brought him to the city. The mill in which Mr. Avarad was working was operated by a man named Lewis.

INQUIRE ABOUT MONCTON SCHOOLS

Evangelical Alliance Delegation Ask About the Catholic Buildings.

For twenty-five years, says the Moncton Transcript, complete agreement was reached to the use of the school by the Roman Catholics and the Protestants has existed, and the mere fact that the buildings have been changed would not seem to alter the situation in the least. Such was the statement of Trustee Edgett at a meeting of the School Board with members of the Evangelical Alliance at the City Hall on Tuesday night. The board is saving approximately $21,000 annually by the rental of the school in Church street, and the school in Wesley street, say nothing of the Mary's Home building. If the board did not spend the $20,000 or $40,000 that would be necessary to accommodate the pupils at present attending classes in those schools, what assurance would the board have that those pupils would attend those schools? They would in all probability continue attending classes in those buildings and would in a short time have the three teachers which are permitted them with a separate school board in control of them. Mayor Edgett, who is chairman of the Finance Committee of the board, made these statements in a report to the trustees of the Evangelical Alliance as represented by Dr. Huntley and Rev. E. H. Cochrane. Rev. Dr. Huntley said they had come before the board for information. The members of the alliance were all law-abiding citizens and camp with no ulterior motives. They had come frankly and directly to the point. Trustee Edgett declared that he believed that there were other motives than that of mere edification about scenes behind the visit of the delegation. There was, he was assured, the matter of creed and class. There had not been absolute frankness on the part of the members of the alliance. Trustee Edgett stated that he would be in favor of the expenditure of the money when the financial state of the city favored it, and when it was believed that all classes and creeds could be induced to go shoulder to shoulder into the same building and the same classes.

The schools are entirely under the control of the school board and there is no supervision of any sort by the Catholic Church. The Roman Catholics made up two-fifths of the population, and they were entitled to 37 of the 53 teachers. They did not have them. How many Protestants would permit their children to be taught by Catholic teachers, he asked. The Protestants were complaining because the Catholics were having teachers of their own creed. Dr. Huntley said that he was surprised at the host shown by Trustee Edgett and declared that the members of the alliance had come to get information and they had obtained it. They

MIX-UP OVER 3 LAMPS CAUSED Hydro Workmen Cut Company's Wires Due to a Misunderstanding.

Quite a mix-up developed yesterday afternoon over the lighting of the three lamps at Reed's Point, two connections having to be made before they were able to perform their usual function. Early in the afternoon the workmen of the Civic Power Commission cut the wires of the New Brunswick Power Company and connected the city hydro system to these lights as a part of the street lighting system. To ward night the Power Company were notified by the office of the Marine and Fisheries Department that when they turned the switch they got no light and they wanted to know why. A man was sent down and found the hydro wires connected and so informed the department. At once the order was given for the company to reconnect their wires, which was done. M. A. Pooler, manager of the company, said last night that for years they had a contract with the Marine and Fisheries Department for the lighting and upkeep of these three lights and had received no instructions from them that the contract was to be terminated. An amendment which would have charged officers of secret records with responsibility for keeping accurate membership lists which would be produced upon court orders, was rejected.

TILDEN SHAKES OFF ANOTHER INFLECTION

Philadelphia, Nov. 29.—William T. Tilden, 2nd, who lost part of a finger on his playing hand last winter and showed better tennis form than ever during the past summer, is recovering from an infection of a finger on his left hand. He said that because of his trouble last year he feared competing in tennis and took no chances. Prompt medical attention arrested the infection and in the meantime he had made several engagements to appear in amateur theatricals. The champion said he thought he injured the finger at the substitution. A little boy visited his father's office and after examining the typewriting machine, asked his mother: "What do they take those to the theatre for?" "My boy," replied the mother, "they do not take them to the theatre." "Well, it's mighty funny, then, I heard Pa telling a gentleman that he took his typewriter to the theatre." "James," said the father sternly, "I will see you privately after we get home."

COUN. FRINK MAY KEEP A DIARY

That and Photographs to Help in Public Works Matters. The Lewis Boulevard, a request for a retaining wall and the sale of the car formerly used by the chief of the fire department were matters discussed by the City Council this morning. Mayor Fisher presided and Commissioners Wigmore, Thornton and Frink were present. Commissioner Frink presented a letter from S. W. Palmer calling attention to the fact that the fence across the Lewis Boulevard had not been removed by the Exhibition Association, and asking what steps the council intended to take to have it removed. The common clerk said the order-in-council had been forwarded to the association. The matter was referred to the Commissioner of Public Works to see that the order-in-council was carried out. A communication from W. E. A. Lawton & Son, agent for Simmons, was read. The speaker said that the lot, which they had under lease from the city, as it was intended to construct a new building, and the wall was needed to hold ashes which had been dumped by the contractor. The speaker said he had been informed that the ashes had not been dumped by the contractor, but that they had been dumped by the contractor. The communication was referred to a report. Commissioner Frink said the great difficulty in dealing with matters of this kind was that the contractor had had taken place in former years and announced that he intended to do this kind of work. The speaker said he was an indispensible record. The common clerk said he had given authority to sell the car formerly used by the chief of the fire department to F. Kelly for the sum of $250. Council adjourned.

ASKS ABOUT CITY APPOINTMENT

Query and Answer Relative to District Commissioners' Work. The Times has received a letter asking for certain information in regard to the duties and salary of the district commissioners and has much pleasure in imparting the information asked for. The letter follows: St. John, Nov. 27, 1923. Editor of Times-Star: Sir—Would you please inform the public through the medium of The Times, just what are the duties of the district commissioner that is to be appointed by the Common Council? How many are employed by the city, and what is the remuneration attached to office? In discussing the appointment, Commissioner Frink recalled the days when the office was one of the perquisites of the aldermen that represented the wards. It does not call for a great stretch of memory to recall the days when the commissioner's present salary would pay all the aldermen and councillors of the City Hall. These were the good old days before the advent of sinecures at City Hall when the average working man's taxes were only about one-fourth of what they are at present. Respectfully Yours, CHAS. P. NAYLOR. The number of the commissioners is five, giving all their time to the work and one, for Stanley Ward, giving part of his time. Three of the five men are receiving $1,400 a year and the other two, including the latest appointment, $1,200. The man for Stanley Ward receives $200 for his work. The duties as defined in section 88 of the St. John City Assessment Act are as follows: "The district commissioner, appointed in and for any district within the city shall personally visit every tenement, store, shop, office, factory or other building in the district; he shall also take and record the names of all persons of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, liable to taxation, resident having a place of business or employment within his district, together with the age, occupation or profession, place of residence, place of business or employment of every person in his district liable to taxation, and such other information as the assessors shall direct. He shall also take and record the name of the owner or landlord of each place visited by him, whether such place is a dwelling or place of business, and if a place of business, the nature of the business there carried on; also the rent reserved in respect of each tenancy, together with such other information as may be lawfully required by the Board of Assessors."

He was in the employ of the I. C. R. and C. N. R. for forty-six years, starting to work on one of the shunters in the old I. C. R. yard in 1877 the year of the big St. John fire. Four years later he was promoted to a conductor and since that time has been faithfully serving the travelling public. He has been the Halifax run for more than twenty years. When asked today regarding the report Conductor Brown said he was not certain whether or not this would be his last trip.

Sir George Hunter Pleased With Dock

(Continued from page 1) "The work that the company has already been getting to start with is, in my opinion, a very good beginning and the success of the undertaking depends to a great extent on the development of the port." "There is nothing like it on the other side." Although the distinguished visitor is nearly eighty years of age, he is quite active and took a keen interest in what he saw here today. Pocket Picked; Wallet Returns

Boston, Nov. 29.—Thomas A. Scott, editor of a Spiritualist paper, is one of those who believe in a kindly feeling for his offender, and he might Scott, who rooms in the South End, is a kindly man. He was in North Acton, was pulled in a crowded car on Tremont street early last Saturday evening. When he was presented with his pocketbook, nothing was found in the pocketbook, but a garage and a meal ticket, but no money. Scott's first elation came when he found the $90 in bills he carried in his front trousers' pocket intact. A second pleasant surprise was due him when he went to the garage for his car Sunday afternoon. Here he was presented with his pocketbook, nothing missing. The postman had found it on a letter box and traced its owner by the garage receipt in the pocketbook. THEFT IS CHARGED. A woman named Lora S. Mignault was arrested this morning by Sergeant Detective Power and Detective Biddiscombe on a charge of theft. It was expected that her case would be taken up this afternoon in the police court.

MINE IS SEARCHED FOR MISSING MAN

Prisoner Says He Forgets Where He Handcuffed and Left Victim.

San Francisco, Nov. 29.—Authorities in the vicinity of Jackson, Calif., are searching for an old mining tunnel in which Philip Olson known as "Sonora Red" is believed to have lain for ten days, handcuffed and bound according to a message to the Examiner here.

James Kennard, a prisoner in the county jail, at San Andreas, has confessed to Sheriff Joseph Swing that he manacled and tied Olson ten days ago and left him in an old tunnel, the location of which he has forgotten, because Olson owed him money the message states.

Kennard is said to have made a fruitless attempt to locate the tunnel yesterday. Many mine shafts dot the hillsides and Kennard is quoted as saying that he placed Olson in the tunnel at night, and now is lost in the maze of old mine workings.

The prisoner is said to have attempted to commit suicide the day after his arrest on a charge of passing spurious checks when he realized he would be unable to release Olson as he had planned.

London Finds Women Can Keep a Secret

London, Nov. 28.—Election canvassers in Great Britain have found that a woman can keep a secret after all. They are complaining that while it always has been and still is possible to draw from the men some idea of how they are to vote, it rarely is easy and in most cases is impossible to drag this secret from the women, consequently the canvassers cannot frame anything like a close estimate of the result of the polling on Dec. 6.

THE EVENING TIMES-STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1923

SON OF F. W. JAMES WEDS IN MONTREAL

Marriage to Miss Everett of Interest in St. John.

At half-past four o'clock Tuesday afternoon, at the home of the bride's parents, 64 de L'Espece avenue, Outremont, the marriage took place of Miss Edith Bertha Everett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Everett, to Charles Kenneth James, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic W. James, both formerly of St. John. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. M. F. McCutcheon, of the First Baptist Church, and the wedding music was played by Mrs. W. G. Webber. During the signing of the register, Miss Frances James, sister of the groom, sang "For You Alone." Yellow chrysanthemums and palms were used to decorate the drawing room where the ceremony took place. The bride, who was unattended, was given in marriage by her father, and wore a gown of brown velvet, cloth, with touches of brown moiré and gold, with a French model hat of brown velvet trimmed with hand-made flowers of an am bouquet of gypsophila roses. Immediately after the ceremony a reception for the immediate family and friends was held, the decorations in the tea room being carried out in pink roses and greenery, and later Mr. and Mrs. James left for Halifax, whence they will sail for Bermuda to spend a few weeks. Going away the bride wore a Hudson seal coat. On their return they will reside at 447 Davern avenue, Outremont.

of the most prominent and active men in the shipping business here—the leading members of the firm of Scammell Bros.—and he moved to New York in 1878, where for a long time his firm was much to the front in shipping affairs. Mrs. Scammell had a very large circle of relatives and friends who will hear of her death with deep regret. Her remains will be brought to St. John by train on Saturday, and interment will take place immediately afterwards.

Miss Dorothy L. Weston.

The death was announced on Monday of Miss Dorothy L. Weston, aged 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Weston, at the Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston. The parents of the young woman reside at 27 Bowdoin street, Medford, Mass., but have lived in St. John. Relatives of Miss Weston live in St. John and Fredericton. The body was taken to Medford for the funeral, which took place Tuesday.

Gordon Christie.

A notice this week in one of the Campbellton papers told of the illness and consequent operation of B. Allan Christie, but this was an error. The operation was performed upon the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Christie, Master Gordon Christie, their eldest child, a bright little fellow of seven years. He was taken to the Soldiers' Memorial Hospital, where an operation was performed last Friday for adenoids and for serious nasal trouble. Just when the little chap seemed to be recovering spinal meningitis set in and he died last evening about 10 o'clock. Mr. Christie telephoned his aunt, Mrs. George Dishart, last evening immediately after the little boy died. Mr. and Mrs. Christie lived here with Mr. and Mrs. Dishart for two years, after their marriage, and have many friends in the city who will sympathize deeply with them in this sudden bereavement. Gordon was a great favorite with the friends of the family. He leaves besides his parents, a younger brother and sister and a large circle of relatives and friends who will regret the loss of a bright child.

TWO ARE INJURED.

Miss Mary O'Keefe, of Rodney street, West St. John, is suffering from scalds caused by falling with a teakettle in her hand. Philip Carter, aged 15, of Amherst, is in the city for surgical treatment. He fell recently and injured one knee while chopping Christmas trees near Woodstock.

Low-Bishop.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized last evening in the Tabernacle Baptist church at 7:30 when Miss Irene Nurie Bishop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bishop, of Chipman, N. B., was united in marriage to Frederick Harris Lowe, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lowe, of New Germany, Lunenburg county, N. S. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. L. Tedford. The bride was given in a navy blue traveling suit with hat to match and carried a large bouquet of sweethearts. She was attended by Mrs. John Galbraith, who also carried a bouquet of roses. The groom was supported by John Galbraith. The ushers were Claude Golding and William Ross. Miss Mary Owens was organist. A large number witnessed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Lowe will reside at 228 Charlotte street. The good wishes of a large circle of friends will follow them.

Somerville-Parise.

Rev. Hugh Miller, M. A., pastor of St. David's Presbyterian church, yesterday performed the marriage ceremony of Leslie N. Somerville and Ada Elias Parise, both of The Narrows, Queens county, at his residence, 68 Queen street. The bride and groom were unattended. They will reside at The Narrows.

McDonald-Levine.

On Nov. 26, at eight o'clock in the evening at Mr. and Mrs. Churley's, 190 Union street, her son, Roderic J. McDonald was united in marriage to Miss Emily Levine by Rev. H. A. Goodwin, in the presence of a number of friends. The bride looked charming in a dress of Canton crepe with corsage bouquet of carnations and maiden hair ferns. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served. The bride received a large number of presents including silver and cut glass and china. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald will reside at 190 Union street.

A MATING IN THE WILDS

OTTWELL BINNS
ILLUSTRATED BY
-RANK-ATFIELD-

BEGIN HERE TODAY

After Hubert Stane, discharged convict, rescues Helen Yardley when her canoe drifts toward a dangerous waterfall, the two are forced to flee on a raft from a forest fire. They find a deserted cabin and take possession. Stane means to return Helen to the camp of her uncle, who is a governor of the Hudson Bay Company.

Trooper Anderson of the N. W. M. P. visits the cabin. After he leaves, an attack is made by Indians on the cabin, and Mikodeed, an Indian girl, is killed while trying to shield Stane. Helen is abducted. Stane, seemingly dead, is revived by Benard, a trapper.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

"Out! m'sieu! We must hurry! ma petite Mikodeed!"

"I will help you, Jean. And then you will help me."

"Non! m'sieu. Help I do not need. I weel myself do see las' duty for ma pauvre Mikodeed. You, m'sieu, shall say see prayer, for I had not see religion, but—"

"Call me when you are ready!" interrupted Stane, and turned away, finding the situation intolerably poignant.

He went to the hut, and hauled himself with the meal which the trapper had been preparing, and presently Jean Benard culled him.

The man had swathed the dead girl in a blanket and had bent the tops of a couple of small spruce, growing close together, almost to the ground, holding them in position with a sled thong. To the trees he had lashed the corpse, and he was standing by with a knife in his hand.

"See ground," he said in a steady voice, "see too frozen to dig. We bury Mikodeed in see air; an' when see spring winds blow an' the ground grow soft again, I dig a grave. Now see m'sieu see ready we will haf see words of religion."

Stane, almost choked at the poignant irony of the thing then shaped his lips to the great words that would have been strange if not unmeaning to the dead girl.

"I am the resurrection and the life. He that believeth in Me though he were dead yet shall he live."

For the comfort of the man, who stood by knife in hand, he recited every word that he could remember, and when he reached the words, "We therefore commend her soul to the grave," the keen knife severed the moose-hide thong, and the trees, released, bent back, carrying the girl's body to its windy sepulchre, amid a shower of snow that scattered from the neighboring trees. Stane pronounced the benediction, waited a few moments, then again he put a hand on the other's shoulder.

"Benard, we have done what we can for the dead; now we must think of the living."

"Oui, m'sieu!"

"You must eat! I have prepared a

A PUZZLE A DAY

Everyone who has seen a huge dirigible in flight realizes how difficult it is to determine the speed of the balloon, which often appears to be moving quite slowly, although its actual speed may be as high as 70 miles an hour. Suppose a dirigible, an eighth of a mile in length, were flying directly over a skyscraper (as shown in the drawing). How could an observer determine its speed?

He Walked With the Trapper's Pistol in the Small of His Back.

nothing more that he can tell. I am sure of dat, an' we waste time."

"Yes! Let him go."

The trapper nodded and then addressed the Indian once more. "Thou wilt go back to thy lodge now, but this is not the end. For the evil that hath been done the price will have to be paid."

"I know nothing," mumbled the Indian, shaking with fear and cold. "It was Chigmoek—my sister's son—who did the young man away."

"So! But thou hast seen the rifles and the burning water, the blankets, the seal and the molasses which see the price to be paid. I know that thou hast seen them."

Chief started a little, then he made a numbing admission:

"Yes, I have seen them. They are a great price."

"I know not. The rest is known to Chigmoek alone."

"Whether has the white maiden been carried?"

Chief George waved his hand to the

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

For some distance, then leaving his surprised face they turned abruptly eastward, following an unbroken trail through a country which began rapidly to alter in character. The great woods thinned out and the way they followed took an upward swing, whilst a steady wind with the knife-edge cold of the North began to blow in their faces.

The trail was not an easy one, and the dogs whined as they bent to the collars, but Jean Benard, with a frame of iron and with muscles like steel-springs, marched steadily on, for what to Stane seemed hours, then in the shelter of a cliff crowned with trees he called a halt.

"We rest here," he said, "an' wait for see daylight. Den we look down on see lake' see LITTLE MOOSE. We mak' fire behind see rock."

CHAPTER XIX.
The Cold Northland dawn had broken.

Stane ate his breakfast quickly, and when he had finished, accompanied Benard a little way up the trail, which, running along the base of the cliff which they had camped, made a sudden turn between the rocks and unexpectedly opened out a wide view.

Your Health

BY DR. CLIFFORD C. ROBINSON

BACKACHE

Thousands of persons are afflicted from time to time, and many others almost constantly, by what is commonly called backache. It is a favorite theme of the patent medicine hawkers. You are almost convinced by their literature in spite of your own good common sense, that something is surely the matter with you.

There are times when certain wasting diseases, severe attacks of colds or the nerves, muscles and ligaments seem to be so tired you can hardly stand, that something is surely wrong. It is usually the strain of the sacro-lumbar joints (the joints of the hip bone and sacrum, at the base of the spine) that causes a large number of backaches, and not rheumatism, sciatica (whatever that is), kidney trouble or locomotor ataxia.

Pain in the back, lumbago, rheumatism and "miserable" may be due to bad sitting or posture. In correct standing learn to acquire a poise so that your line of gravity will be nearly a straight line. The body should be held erect, with heels about six inches apart and toes straight forward.

The weight-bearing line should pass from the hips, through the knee caps, shin, ankle and between the second and third toes. If you learn to stand and sit in a real hygienic posture, you will lessen your trouble of backache and back strain to a marked degree.

Ignorance and slavish following of fashions and footwear often cause severe backache by the wearer being compelled through foot strain and pinching pains to walk in a most unnatural way. This causes intense nervous strain in the upper leg and back.

It is no wonder such a person, wearing such shoes, exclaims on reaching home, "I am ready to drop, my back is killing me."

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

By Olive Roberts Barton

MRS. HEN MAKES A GOOD GUESS.

"Make way! Make way!" cried Dick Red Cap. Here comes the Riddle Lady. She has another riddle for everybody to guess."

Just then there was a clattering of hoofs and a large coach drew up.

Yet when you stop, your voice stops
We wait till you begin it.

"Sometimes you've two legs, sometimes four," drawn by six black horses.

Happily Dumpty opened the door, and Nick bowed low, while Nancy made her best courtesy.

"How do you do, children?" said the Riddle Lady kindly. "How do you do, everybody! I'm very late today because I was at a teaparty and the ice cream didn't come and we waited and waited. And finally when it did come it was so cold we couldn't eat it in a hurry, so there you are, you have the whole story."

"We hope you had a nice time," spoke up a tall gentleman in a yellow velvet suit and black satin spats.

"Splendid, thank you! But speaking of time reminds me of my riddle. I'll begin at once. I wrote it and then learned it by heart!" So she began—

"A diller, a dollar, a twelve o'clock scholar,
With face as round as the moon,
You count and count from noon till night,
And then from night till noon.

"You never rest the rear around,
To labor you must like,
Yet though you work so faithfully,
You're always on a strike.

"You mutter, mutter as you work,
You're never dumb a minute,

And sometimes none at all,
You stand on mantel, shelf or floor,
Or hang upon the wall.

"No matter where you make your home
(You live in many lands),
You never use your feet at all,
But run with both your hands.

"You tell folk when to go to church,
Or when to start a war,
Or boil an egg, or run a race,
For that's what I — are for."

"My, my, my! That's a hard one!" said the tall gentleman in the yellow suit, wagging his head till his ears flapped.

"A very hard one!" agreed all the Riddle Landers solemnly.

At that very minute a speckled hen began to tell the world that she had laid an egg. "Clock, clock, clock, clock, clock!" she cackled loudly.

Nancy called out, "That's it! The hen guessed it. It's a clock, isn't it?"

"That's right! It is," nodded the Riddle Lady. "Happily Dumpty, please give her a handful of corn for being so smart. Nancy and Nick, you may drive home with me and help me make up tomorrow's riddle!"

CHRISTMAS GIFTS
Fancy Tray

Every housekeeper finds a great deal of use for a fancy tray, and the most useful are those with a decorative value as well as a utilitarian one. Perhaps the cheapest way to assemble one is to buy an inexpensive picture in a plain wooden frame. Then remove the picture and insert in its place a decorative piece of wall paper. Then paint the frame to match the high tone of the paper and add a couple of brass handles, and you have a distinctive gift.

If you use a paper with a flashy colorful design, it will make a nice spot of color in the dining room when placed against the wall.

The programme of the afternoon tea included a recitation by Miss Margaret Stout; a chorus by six members of the mission band, and a reading entitled "The mission of the mite box" given by Mrs. William McArthur. Maniac, Speeding With Girl, Kills Hartford Schoolboy

FOUR AUTOS ARE HIT IN WILD RIDE

Boy Struck as He is Crossing Street With His Brother.

GIRL IS INJURED

Geo. K. Whiteside, Driver, Taken Under Care for Observation.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 28.—George Kenneth Whiteside, 30, whom New Haven physicians were preparing to confine for mental derangement, left New Haven with Miss Willford E. Wheaton, 20, also of New Haven, dashed up to Hartford at sixty miles an hour, knocked down and killed John Fedora, aged 8, sped north in Main street, on the wrong side of the street, at about fifty miles an hour, and crashed into four automobiles.

The four automobiles into which Whiteside crashed, as well as the couple he was driving, were badly damaged. Motorists who were passed by the car on the Berlin turnpike say it was going at least sixty miles an hour. Police man W. S. Wadsworth, who was on traffic duty at Park and Main streets, had turned his sight to hold up traffic and let school children cross Main street. Many children were going to Peter's Parochial School and St. Ignace's School, Public School at the time.

John Fedora and his older brother Stanley, 13, were crossing the street hand in hand. Stanley says that he saw the automobile speeding and tried to pull his brother out of danger, but could not move quickly enough to escape.

The guests were received by Mrs. Flowers and Mrs. Miller. The former wore a corsage bouquet of red roses and Mrs. Miller was in black satin. Mrs. H. S. Estabrook poured, Mrs. James Stephenson replenished, Miss Mildred Estabrook, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. W. S. Edgar and Mrs. Allan Lingley ushered, and Miss Marjorie Christie attended the door.

New York, Nov. 29.—Disquieting reports that Pancho Villa, world's flyweight champion, had twisted an ankle while training for his bout against Carl Tremaine, Cleveland bantamweight, to be held tonight in Madison Square Garden, were found to be exaggerated by Matchmaker Frank Flournoy. The Garden official announced that Villa had sustained a slight injury in his training, but that Frank Churchill, manager of Villa, had advised him that the injury was not serious and that Villa would enter the ring against Tremaine in top-notch physical condition.

Irrigation to Transform Desert Area Of Sind Into Immense Granary

Barrage Indus Will Produce Annual Yield of 2,000,000 Tons. Bombay, Oct. 29.—A mighty irrigation project was inaugurated recently when Sir George Lloyd, Governor of the Bombay Presidency, laid the foundation stone of the Sukkur barrage in Sind, now a vast, arid tract, unexampled in the world. The project, which will usher in an era of unexampled prosperity for the province, is the result of a series of schemes which have been put forward and discarded. M. A. A. Musto is responsible for the present project and is superintending engineer in charge of the construction of the barrage itself. The barrage is a great masonry structure spanning the whole width of the River Indus, and is a series of great sluiceways which can be raised or lowered at will to control the level of the river above them. The barrage will carry one high level and one low level bridge, each just under a mile long. On each bank of the river, immediately above the barrage, seven great canals of this great project 10,000,000,000 cubic feet of earth excavation is to be carried out, which is equivalent to four complete Suez Canals, and in order to complete this in 10 years it will be necessary to employ continuously as many as 60,000 laborers.

Not only is the scheme vital to the future of Sind, and of indirect benefit to the whole of India, but it is expected to be a sound commercial proposition. The whole of the money is being found by the Government of Bombay, and the final capital cost of the scheme will be 183,600,000 rupees. It is expected to bring in a final net annual return of 14 1/2 per cent. or a net profit to the Government, after paying all interest charges, of 8 1/2 per cent. on the capital outlay, or a net annual surplus of 15,800,000 rupees. The great project has come into being through the determination and energy of Sir George Lloyd, and for that reason the Sukkur barrage is to be called the Lloyd Barrage.

H. L. Perkins, and by a touching ceremony will be "deliberate bars." He added: "We want to see the Empire great but we don't measure greatness by bloody victories or the size of the army and navy."

NEPHEW OF DR. RAYMOND TO BE ORDAINED

Woodstock, Nov. 28.—A service of a kind not ordinarily held in Woodstock, will take place in St. Luke's church, on Friday morning next, (St. Andrew's Day), when the Lord Bishop of Fredericton will order to the diaconate Raymond Perkins, son of C. H. L. Perkins, and by a touching ceremony will be "deliberate bars." He added: "We want to see the Empire great but we don't measure greatness by bloody victories or the size of the army and navy."

A VISION

Hurrah for Better English! The campaign just begun. No more upon the campus. We'll hear "I ain't seen none."

On this, if fairly started, With patriotism freed, Ferchance we'll mend the Court House, That's been so much adored.

And then, with hearts elated, We'll take a turn or two Upon our lovely sidewalk, All wonderful and new.

Behold how great a matter A little fire may start! Dost see that brand new station, The pride of every heart?

And listen to the text— Just listen to him yell— "The Admiral, this way, Sir, To our big new hotel!"

Then with the biggest dry dock On which the sun has shone, Just tell me, who's the matter With little old St. John!

MRS. ANDERSON TELLS WOMEN

How Backache and Periodic Pains Yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Leslie, Sask.—"For about a year I was troubled with a distressing and wearing pain before and during the periods, and from terrible headaches and backache. I hated to go to bed, and as I knew several women who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with good results, I finally bought some and took four bottles of it. I certainly do recommend it to every woman with troubles like mine. I feel fine now and hope to be able to keep your medicine on hand at all times, as no woman ought to be without it in the house."—Mrs. OSCAR A. ANDERSON, Box 18, Leslie, Sask.

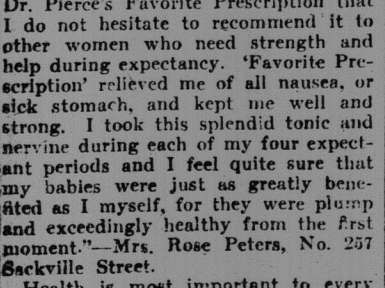

Mrs. Kelsey Adds Her Testimony

Copenhagen, N. Y.—"I read your advertisement in the papers and my husband induced me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to get relief from pains and weakness. I was so weak that I could not walk at times. Now I can do my housework and help my husband out doors, too. I am willing for you to publish this letter if you think it will help others."—Mrs. HERBERT KELSEY, R. F. D., Copenhagen, N. Y.

Sick and Ailing Women Everywhere in the Dominion Should Try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before they give up hope of recovery.

MRS. ROSE PETERS.

The "Kruschen feeling" is a feeling of bounding vigour and enthusiasm, born of good health. That's the secret of it—just good health. Consider these simple facts. For perfect health the body needs regular physical exercise in the open air. Yet this is just what most men and women cannot get. The nature of their daily duty prevents it. Week-end golf or tennis or walking is the most they can get, and this is not enough. It is far better than no exercise at all, but still not nearly enough for vigorous health. The body vitally needs open-air exercise not only to form supple muscles but also to keep the internal organs working actively. Good health cannot be yours unless the liver and kidneys are doing their work thoroughly, extracting full value from the food you eat, eliminating all waste matter, keeping the blood-stream pure and healthy.

Toronto Woman Advises Young Mothers!

Toronto, Ont.—"During all my years of wifehood and motherhood I have had such great comfort from the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription that I do not hesitate to recommend it to other women who need strength and help during expectancy. Favorite Prescription relieved me of all nervous, or sick stomach, and kept me well and strong. I took this splendid tonic and nerve during each of my four expectant periods and I feel quite sure that my babies were just as greatly benefited as I myself, for they were plump and exceedingly healthy from the first moment."—Mrs. Rose Peters, No. 237 Bevelville Street.

Health is most important to every woman. You cannot afford to neglect it when your neighborhood druggists can supply you with Favorite Prescription, in tablets or liquid. This Prescription is made in Dr. Pierce's Laboratories in Bridgeburg, Ont. Send 10 cents there if you wish a trial package.

Pimples Disappear

"You don't need mercury, potash or any other strong mineral to cure pimples and eruptions on your face. Take Extract of Roots—druggists call it 'Mother Snig's' Carative Syrup—and your skin will clear up as fresh as a baby's. It will sweeten your stomach and regulate your bowels. Get the genuine. 50c and $1.00 Bottles. At drug stores.

TO SHOW SOLDIERS' HANDICRAFT WORK

Miss Grace Brownell, of the vocational staff of River Glade, will arrive in the city shortly with a fine display of handicraft work from the river Glade Sanitarium. The work is all done by the soldiers and is of excellent quality, with exquisite designs well executed. Miss Ellen Keefe, of the vocational staff of the St. John County hospital soldiers' department, will also have a fine exhibit of handicraft work which needs no introduction to St. John people who have seen the beautiful work on show at the Red Cross headquarters. The Imperial Theatre has offered their ante-room for the exhibition next week and Miss Brownell and Miss Keefe are hoping they everyone will see what has been done and perhaps show appreciation in a practical manner, with advantage to themselves and the boys who have worked so well.

MOTHER! Clean Child's Bowels With "California Fig Syrup"

Yarmouth, N. S., Nov. 28.—No light has been thrown upon the mystery surrounding the disappearance of John Slaven, who has not been seen since he participated in a brawl at Walter Crisbie's saloon over a fortnight ago. Detective Donahue, of the Burns Agency, Boston, who was working on the case here, has returned home and it is understood he will institute a search for Slaven in Massachusetts. Today Walter Crisbie was taken into custody on the strength of evidence elicited at the preliminary hearing of William Elliott, charged with assault upon Slaven, and fined $300 with costs for violation of the Canada Temperance Act.

TO BUILD PLANT TO EXTRACT SEED

Fredericton, Nov. 28.—The Department of Lands and Mines has decided to proceed with the erection of the seed extraction plant in nursery plot of the University of New Brunswick, in connection with the re-seeding of burned forest areas. Some time ago tenders were called for the erection of a concrete building for this purpose but the project proved too costly and was not undertaken. A second call for tenders has been issued and in this case the material for construction of this plant will be wood.

That "Kruschen" Feeling

Now the liver and kidneys are especially sensitive to lack of open-air exercise. In ordinary conditions of modern life they become over-taxed. Impurities get into the blood. Tiredness, headaches, depression, lack of energy follow. You need something to counteract these trying conditions, something to keep the liver and kidneys working actively. In a word, you need Kruschen Salts. Put a pinch of Kruschen Salts in your breakfast cup of coffee or tea every morning, you can't taste them, but they do their work. They restore liver and kidneys to their proper state, clear away impurities that have been clogging your system, and send new, pure blood driving through your body. You become a new being, cheery, energetic, self-reliant. You are well, and you know it.

Good Health for Half a Cent a Day

A 7c bottle of Kruschen Salts contains 140 doses—enough for three months—while one cent's worth taken in your breakfast cup means bounding health for less than half a cent a day. The dose prescribed for Kruschen. Get a 7c bottle today.

BELAND INSPECTS THE SANITARIUM

Federal Minister Pleaded With Conditions at River Glade

An official inspection of the River Glade Sanitarium was made Tuesday evening by Hon. Dr. H. S. Beland, of Ottawa, Minister of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment and Health in the Federal Government who is on an inspection trip of the hospitals and sanitariums in the Maritime Provinces coming under his department.

Hon. Dr. Beland, who was the Deputy Minister, Dr. N. F. Parkinson, the Director of Medical Services, Dr. W. E. Arnold, and the Director of Administration, Major E. Plekman, arrived in Moncton on private car 101 attached to the Ocean Limited from North and left for River Glade on No. 17 express at 5:38 p. m. The party returned Tuesday evening on No. 30 express and proceeded east to Truro from where they go to Sydney, Halifax and Kentville.

Hon. Dr. Beland expressed himself as very much pleased with the conditions he had found existing at River Glade, which he considered an ideal place for a sanitarium site. The administration of the institution, he considered, was ideal and said it measured up in every detail to any of the other sanitariums in Canada coming under the jurisdiction of the Department of Health and Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment.

Fredericton, Nov. 28.—The senate of the U. N. B. would probably ask that the provincial grant to the university be increased in 1924 from $25,000 to $40,000, it was learned today. Members of the senate will appear before the Provincial Government, probably at the meeting here in December, and urge that the annual permanent grant to the university by the Provincial Government be increased, and it is understood the suggested amount will be from $25,000 to $100,000.

A Severe Attack Of Heart Trouble Was Relieved by MILBURN'S Heart and Nerve Pills

Mr. S. E. Barnes, Athens, Ont., writes—"Four years ago I had a very severe attack of heart trouble. I consulted my doctor; he treated me for some time, but I only seemed to be getting worse. I finally went to our druggist and purchased three boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and derived immediate relief from their use, and I can truthfully say they are a wonderful medicine. I always keep a box on hand, and if I feel out of sorts I take a few pills and feel all right again."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The J. H. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Avoid Bad Colds

DR. CHASE'S Syrup of LINSEED AND TURPENTINE

OLDs develop quickly and almost before you know it the bronchial tubes are attacked and the lungs threatened. While consumption is not so common as formerly, the number of cases of pneumonia has increased enormously, and it is more than ever necessary to stand on guard against these dreaded diseases.

Success in treating colds depends so largely on prompt action that it is impossible to over-emphasize the advantage of always keeping the treatment on hand.

It was this idea that prompted us to put on the market the large-size bottle of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. In addition to the better economy in buying

WAR EXPERIENCES CAUSED HIS DEATH

Captain Purdy, Formerly of Thomson & Co's Battle Line, Buried Yesterday

Members of the crew of the steamer Keith Cann, which was in port yesterday, brought news of the death this week of Captain George N. Purdy, one of the old-time deep water sea captains and formerly a resident of St. John. He was born in Plymouth, Yarmouth county, N. S., 57 years ago, and died when he was 77. At the age of 24 Captain Purdy commanded the full-rigged ship Vancouver and later was master of the ship Vanguard. Retiring from sailing ships Captain Purdy came to St. John to reside. Here he entered the employ of William Thomson & Co., Ltd. His ability as a master mariner induced the Thomson firm to send him to sea again and he commanded several of the large steamships of that firm with marked success. At the outbreak of the Great War Captain Purdy was in Hamburg in charge of two Battle Line steamers owned by the Thomson firm which were laid up at that port awaiting orders. From that time until his death he remained in the service of the Thomson firm. He was buried in Plymouth yesterday with Masonic honors.

Styles in men's clothing from 1922 to 1923 were exhibited by the National Clothing Convention in Chicago recently.

The United States had a flaxseed crop of 11,700,000 bushels in 1922.

NEED OF WORK FOR DISABLED VETS IS TOUCHED ON

Matter Comes Before Red Cross—Officers Chosen at Annual Session.

The necessity for obtaining work locally for the men employed in the Red Cross Memorial Workshops in Main street was brought forcibly to the attention of the Red Cross members at the annual meeting of the local branch of the Society held yesterday afternoon in the depot with Mrs. Alfred Morrisey, the president, in the chair.

these suggestions were to be put before Hon. Dr. Beland. Mrs. Morrisey and Mrs. Harold Lawrence spoke in deprecation of the fact that German made toys were sold in the city stores when the work of local disabled soldiers was ready to hand.

Reports Presented. At the meeting gratifying reports of a season of great activity were presented and arrangements were made for further undertakings. The sum of $85 was voted to the Health Centre, a similar amount to the fund for Christmas stockings for soldiers in hospital, and $100 to the funds of the Associated Charities. Arrangements were made for sending Christmas parcels to the families of soldier settlers, Mrs. Alfred Morrisey and Mrs. J. L. McAvity being appointed to take charge of the buying and the following members to do the packing of the parcels: Mrs. H. Lawrence, Miss MacLaren, Miss Jean White, Mrs. T. H. Estabrook, Mrs. H. M. Beard and Mrs. W. W. White.

Volunteer Services. Volunteers having been asked for to help the provincial sewing committee in cutting out garments to distribute for relief and emergency work, Miss Joe White, Mrs. A. Morrison and Miss MacLaren offered their service. A committee consisting of Mrs. Morrisey, Miss Ethel Hazen Jarvis, Mrs. H. M. Beard, Miss Stella Payson and Miss Alice Walker, with power to add to its members, was appointed to present a summary of the relief work done last season and to make suggestions as to the future policy of the society in this regard.

Officers Elected. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Alfred Morrisey; vice-presidents, first, Mrs. F. A. Stetson, second, Mrs. Harold Lawrence; third, Mrs. E. A. Schofield; secretary-treasurer, Miss Alice Walker; additional members of the executive, Mrs. Charles Miller, Miss Stella Payson, Mrs. J. L. McAvity, Miss Jean White, Miss MacLaren, Mrs. L. Isaacs, Mrs. W. W. White, Mrs. T. H. Estabrook, Mrs. C. F. Sanford, Mrs. J. H. Hood, Mrs. H. M. Beard and Miss Frances Stetson. A letter written by Miss Frances Stetson from the Grenfell Labrador mission last summer told of appreciation of gifts of hospital shirts. Miss Stetson was present and reported on the collections for Japanese relief in St. John which have amounted to $12,000, very nearly half of the total amount contributed by the province.

Miss Stella Payson reported that the Associated Charities had assumed the care of 30 cases which had appeared to the Red Cross Society during the year.

JUDGMENT LATER IN SUIT AGAINST NEVE

Counsel Argue Whether Property Legally Belongs to Wife

Hearing of evidence in the case against Dr. F. H. Neve and Mrs. Winifred Neve was completed in the Chancery Court yesterday morning before Mr. Justice Grimmer. Mrs. Neve completed her testimony and was followed by Mrs. Sophie Long, who told of the sale of a lot in West St. John on which Dr. Neve subsequently built a house. Argument of counsel was heard in the afternoon. J. F. H. Teed, for the plaintiffs, endeavored to show from the evidence that Mrs. Neve started a bank account and began to collect property in her own name only after her husband got into financial difficulties. He contended that when a husband owes debts he was not allowed to make gifts to his wife. B. L. Gerow, appearing for Mrs. Neve, argued that whatever property was in Mrs. Neve's name could not be touched to pay her husband's debts. The argument of counsel was completed about 5 o'clock and judgment reserved.

Active, scuffling, heedless little feet of boys and girls give rubber footwear its severest test. He has lived abroad for 10 years and was an official artist during the war for Canadian War Memorial pictures. He has recently had a most successful exhibit in Halifax.

You'll Get Rid of Blackheads Sure

There is one simple, safe, and sure way that never fails to get rid of blackheads, that is to dissolve them. To do this, get two ounces of peroxide powder from any drug store—sprinkle a little on a wet cloth and rub over the blackheads briskly—wash the parts and you will be surprised how the blackheads have disappeared. Big blackheads, little blackheads, no matter where they are, simply dissolve and disappear. Blackheads are a mixture of dirt and dust and secretions that form in the pores of the skin. The peroxide powder and the water will solve the blackheads so they wash right out, leaving the pores free and clean and in their natural condition.

LIFE SAVING DOG WALKS 1,500 MILES

Here, a dog that saved 92 lives by swimming out into an icy sea and bringing in a life line when the mail steamer Ethie was wrecked while on a trip from the Canadian Labrador Dec. 19, 1919, has arrived in Vancouver from Halifax with his master, Dennis Kane. They started in April to travel from Halifax to Vancouver via St. John, but after walking 1,500 miles the dog lost 24 pounds and Mr. Kane himself had lost 25, so they finished the journey by rail, visiting many Canadian cities en route. The dog wears a magnificent medal and silver collar, presented for bravery by the Starry Cross of Philadelphia, a silver medal from the S. P. C. A. of Nova Scotia, and a silver Maitre Cross from the returned men of Camp Hill Hospital, N. S.

A curious form of partial color blindness may come from excessive smoking.

For Meatless Days. It is economy to let the butcher drive past once in a while. Oxo Cubes take the place of butcher's meat in soups and savory dishes and open up a hundred and one dainty ways of using up today what was left over from yesterday. Oxo Cubes are time and money savers—more than that, they add nutrition to other foods. Tins of 4, 16, 32 and 100 Cubes.

Oxo Vegetable Dish. Cook 1/2 lb. hot beans overnight. Fry 1/2 lb. onions in saucepan, with little margarine or fat. When brown add 4 Oxo Cubes, dissolved in 1/2 pint of water. Grate or mince 1 carrot, add a little turpentine-pernial. Then add some barley or macaroni. Simmer for one hour. Serve with toast or mashed potatoes; a little thickening added improves it.

REACH $300-MARK IN MEMORIAL FUND

About $900 Left to Collect For Monument to Bonar Law

The Bonar Law Memorial Fund reached the $300 mark yesterday, when $90 was received in subscriptions. This means that one-quarter of the proposed amount already has been subscribed and there is still $900 to be collected before a suitable memorial can be erected to the late Rt. Hon. Andrew Bonar Law at his birthplace. It is felt that there has not been time yet for word of this memorial fund to travel much beyond the bounds of the province, but yesterday a subscription was received from Judge W. W. Wells, of Ottawa, who expressed his keen pleasure that New Brunswick intended to do something to honor the memory of its distinguished son. Two members of the committee are expected in the city today. Premier Veniot will arrive to attend the banquet in his honor and it is expected that Dr. J. Clarence Webster, the originator of the scheme, may also be here.

NO HIGHER WAGES FOR N. S. MINERS

Sydney, N. S., Nov. 28.—When asked with reference to new arrangements with the United Mine Workers and the prospects for increased wages in the coal mines, Mr. Wolvin, president of the British Empire Steel Corporation, said today: "Our officials and officials of the United Mine Workers will very soon be meeting to negotiate conditions of contract and the wage scale, but I very much regret that the present competition of market prices of coal and steel will not permit any serious consideration of an increased wage scale."

PAYS TRIBUTE TO REV. DR. RAYMOND

Rev. W. Lawson, of Little River Church Speaks of "Friend of All."

(By Rev. W. Lawson.) This appreciation on paper was made on Sunday evening by the writer in Little River Community Church before some who knew and loved Archdeacon Raymond. It has been my pleasure and profit to have had the friendship of this very good man. A friendship fostered by personal contact when he came to work in St. John, and by letter during his absence in several places, since he retired from his much loved ministry.

We have mingled in festive and solemn occasions very frequently, as we were working in similar fields years ago, he in one part of the city and I in another. This was truly a "Brother in Christ," who recognized as fellow-workers all who in sincerely loved and served the Lord.

Rev. Archdeacon Raymond was bigger than any one church or creed, and gave the glad heart of sympathy and hand of help to all workers in the Master's vineyard. He co-operated with his brethren of the various churches in every movement for the betterment of the people with a broad minded, cheerful heart and strong and ever-ready hand, in social, moral and religious causes. This disposition and fervor brought him into general prominence, and into prominent positions of leadership.

We were often in committees together as well as in the arena of strife, in all of which the same John-like spirit characterized conduct and words, and gave him fitness for the leadership to which he was called. While this noble servant of God always evidenced all claims of being an enemy in the usual acceptance of that word, or being eloquent by that same token, it will always be affirmed that the personality and eloquence of a true, sincere and faithful man, to God and his fellows, created an atmosphere and influence which carried the hearts of his hearers and lasted longer on their lives than the combined arts of oratory and eloquent periods. Hence he was always welcome on the temperance platform, the "White Cross" platform and the Bible Society platform where he stood with him in the battles for all those causes—real battles, not the toy battles of the present day.

The battle against drink meant more than can now be imagined by those not at the front in the old days. On every hand were saloons and unclean dens owned by men who set kid gloves in the house of God. The sentiment of the people generally was with law-breakers, sanctioning by vote a continuance of saloons, after signing a license, assuring the petitioner to be a very respectable man. So many were on the side of the "White Cross" now, that only a few comparatively will smile upon, or in any way condemn an unclean den either in private or public. The noble Archdeacon never flinched in the crusade, "The more creative force may be possible in the near future. He based his predictions on the success of the city summer schools, declaring that thousands of boys and girls are eager to attend the public schools during the summer months.

The all-year schools, according to the superintendent, would include four terms of 12 weeks each, the regular terms of the year to be completed in three terms. The fourth term would be extended into the summer months and would provide regular classroom instruction for pupils desiring to repeat work in which they have failed or to anticipate a certain amount of next year's work. The four periods would begin Sept. 1, Dec. 1, March 1 and June 1. Attendance for the fourth term would be voluntary for both pupils and teachers, and the schools would to a large extent be located in the congested districts. This type of school, according to Supt. Burke, is meeting with marked success in many sections of the country.

Tells of Advantage. Supt. Burke says that boys and girls obliged to remain in the city would be immeasurably better off in cool, clean

What a faithful friend! The last evidence of his brotherliness was when in the Gethsemane of my life, he came to the paragonage and tendered his loving sympathy with such strong tenderness, that it lit me up! At the very next meeting of the Evangelical Alliance, he moved a resolution of sympathy with me and my family in our great loss, also of appreciation of one whom he held in highest esteem as a woman, and for her work's sake. He said "This is unusual I know, but Mrs. Lawson had been a servant of all the churches in her life, and she was a treasure to us all, therefore belonged to us all." So readily was his resolution taken up, that, being seconded by the late Rev. Dr. Flanders, it passed unanimously, and is still held as a treasure of kind thought expressed in golden words.

Archdeacon Raymond earned fully the Master's encomium "Well done thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." We missed him in the city, still he seemed to be with us in Toronto and now he is gone we shall miss him all the more, because we can neither see nor get a letter from him. Let us follow him as he followed Christ, and win the last battle man fights and gain the same crown.

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You, Begin Taking Salts

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which helps to remove the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grams of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

PREDICTS ALL-YEAR SCHOOLS

Supt. Burke Finds Thousands Attend Summer Sessions.

Boston, Nov. 28.—Superintendent of Schools Jeremiah Burke, in a report made public, stated that sessions in the Boston public schools during the entire summer may be possible in the near future. hygienic schools than in roaming about in the city streets. He adds that the all-year plan would eliminate much of the summer waste of school plants. As his report, the superintendent says: "Approximately 75 per cent. of children in cities where this plan is in operation avail themselves of the opportunity to attend these schools. In our own summer review schools the attendance is very regular. "Approximately 70 per cent. of those who attend summer review schools in Boston succeed in classes to which they are advanced. There is no question but that retardation and elimination are greatly reduced. Present living conditions demand a training and education for all normal children equivalent at least to the curriculum of the regular schools. The surest method of making this possible is through the lengthened school year."

FATAL FLOGGING COST THOUSANDS

Langdon, N. D., Nov. 28.—Payment of $90,000 has been made by the Pullman Lumber Company of Wisconsin to the family of Martin Tabert, of Munich, N. D., who died in a convict labor camp conducted by the company in Florida, following a flogging given by Walter Higginbotham, "Whipping Boss." This payment has been accepted by the Tabert family as a settlement of its claims against the company.

The superintendent states in the report that opportunities for review of school work were offered in the Roxbury high school, the continuation school and in 10 elementary schools. Average attendance at the high school was 685, and 4,482 in the elementary schools.

The all-year schools, according to the superintendent, would include four terms of 12 weeks each, the regular terms of the year to be completed in three terms. The fourth term would be extended into the summer months and would provide regular classroom instruction for pupils desiring to repeat work in which they have failed or to anticipate a certain amount of next year's work. Constant Headaches and Dizziness

It is hard to struggle along with a head that aches and pains all the time, and in nine cases out of ten the persistent headaches are due to some disarrangement of the stomach, liver or bowels.

Undoubtedly the cause must be removed before permanent relief may be had. Burdock Blood Bitters removes the cause of the headaches, as it acts on every organ of the body and strengthens, purifies and regulates the whole system.

Mrs. Peter Curran, 27 Morrison St., Sydney, N. S., writes—"I have been troubled for the last five years with constant headaches and dizziness. After trying several remedies, which I found to be of no avail, Burdock Blood Bitters was recommended to me. B.B.B. did me a world of good, and I cannot praise this remedy enough." ISSUES DRAFT OF "ORGANIC LAW"

King Will Reign But Not Govern in Irak—Religious Freedom.

London, Nov. 29.—When the Emir Feisal was declared King of Irak in July, 1921, it was stipulated that "His Highness" Government should be a constitutional, representative, and democratic Government, limited by law. After somewhat prolonged period of incubation, a constitution has now emerged in the form of an Organic Law, of which a draft has just been published in Bagdad.

Religious Freedom Guaranteed. Since the draft has been published, the situation has rapidly developed, and so far as the Organic Law is concerned, the mandate between Great Britain and Irak, which was signed in October, 1922. Under this treaty the Organic Law is to be drafted—the change is significant—by the King of Irak, instead of by the mandatory power, but it is to be so framed as to give effect to the main provisions of the mandate. It is, for example, to guarantee freedom of conscience and the free exercise of all forms of worship, the complete equality of all inhabitants of Irak before the law, and the right of every community to maintain its own schools. The Organic Law is also to "insure" the constitutional procedure by which decisions will be taken on all matters of importance.

It is on this last point that definite proposals have only now been formulated. The full text of the draft has not yet been published in London, but its main features are known. The King is to reign but not to govern. Legislative power is to reside with Parliament. There are to be two chambers—a nominated Senate and an elected Chamber of Deputies. The executive is to be responsible to Parliament on the approved European model. It will be seen that in general outline the Organic Law closely resembles the unwritten Constitution of Great Britain. How far the Infant Arab State will prove capable of working the delicate machinery time alone will tell.

The Anglo-Irak Treaty. Before the experiment is made the Organic Law will, in accordance with the Anglo-Irak Treaty, have to be submitted to a constituent assembly. It is expected that this assembly will be ready to meet within the next few weeks. Its first task will be to consider the Anglo-Irak Treaty, together with the protocol signed last April, under which the terms of the treaty is limited to a maximum of four years from the conclusion of peace with Turkey. Neither of these instruments has yet been ratified, and both are conditional upon their acceptance by the Irak Assembly.

If the treaty should be unexpectedly rejected, deadlock will result, and it will then be for Great Britain to decide whether it is to take Irak at its word and leave it to its fate. If, on the other hand, the situation develops according to plan, the next business after the ratification of the treaty will be the consideration of the Organic Law. If and when this has been approved, the Constituent Assembly will have discharged its main functions, and the next steps will be for Irak once more to go to the polls for selection of a Chamber of Deputies under the new Constitution.

CANADIANS BID FOR FIRPO BOUTS

Wire for Reservations on Schedule—Seamon May be Trainer.

New York, Nov. 29.—Maurice Seamon, Harlem manager and handler of boxers, has been suggested as a possible trainer for Luis Angel Firpo, South American heavyweight, who is scheduled to return here in the spring for a series of bouts which are contemplated to prepare the "Wild Bull of the Pampas" for another bout with Champion Jack Dempsey. Billy McCarney, who, with his partner, Hugh Garland, has again been delegated to arrange a boxing tour of the country for Firpo, yesterday announced that he had recommended Seamon as the position once held by Jimmy De Forest, veteran trainer of boxers.

Convinced that he required the services of a skilled American trainer, Firpo, according to McCarney, advised the latter to seek the services of an experienced trainer before the Argentine heavyweight left this country for his native land. It is for the purpose of having a trainer available when Firpo returns here that McCarney has recommended Seamon. The latter, though young in years, is recognized as a capable handler of boxers because of his association with the ring sport.

Seamon's greatest asset as a trainer has been his association with Benny Leonard, world's lightweight champion. The 138-pound titleholder always enlisted the aid of Seamon whenever training for an important bout. In announcing that he had recommended Seamon for the post of trainer with Firpo, McCarney denied reports that he had undertaken to supervise the South American's training. He stated emphatically that he is not associated in any respect with Firpo's conditioning plans.

McCarney's only interest in Firpo's ring activities is in connection with the South American's boxing tour. This interest is shared by Garland. They arranged the tour which preceded Firpo's clash with Dempsey at the Polo grounds and were engaged to arrange a similar tour in advance of Firpo's return to this country.

In one particular, however, the 1924 tour of Firpo will differ from the 1923 tour of the "stic." McCarney said he intends to arrange matches for Firpo against the most formidable heavyweights available in whatever section of the country the South American's services are sought. He added that Firpo has expressed a desire to avoid bouts against negro heavyweights, and that he would prefer to meet such as Harry Wills, New Orleans negro championship contender, unless such a match is forced by public opinion.

According to McCarney, there is a heavy prospect of another Dempsey-Firpo match to be held here around Labor Day next year. To prepare for this important bout, Firpo is favorable to the boxing tour idea, in addition to the regular training camp routine.

The South American, McCarney said, expects actual ring engagements as the best conditioning process. Accordingly, McCarney plans twelve or more bouts for the Argentine boxer. Firpo is expected to leave his native land about the middle of April. He should arrive here early in May. McCarney said he has been advised Firpo will be prepared to undertake his first American bout upon his return the middle of May if all goes well. A definite date for Firpo's initial bout upon his return will be established, however, when the South American sails for this country.

McCarney plans to arrange the proposed series of bouts so that ring engagements will keep the "Wild Bull" active through June, July and August and possibly through part of May. Bouts of the calibre of Jack Renault and Floyd Johnson are mentioned as prospective rivals for Firpo. The bouts in which he will engage on tour are expected to harden Firpo physically and improve his knowledge of boxing and his hitting ability.

As an indication of the widespread interest in the South American, McCarney announced that he already has received offers to handle Firpo from five different points here and in Canada. Toronto, Windsor and Winnipeg have wired for reservations on Firpo's bout schedule, as have also Grand Rapids, Mich., and Boston, McCarney announced.

ST. JOHN TEAM WINS FIRST GAME

Company Offers Cup for Bowling Championship.

The first of a series of three games for a cup, donated by the Canadian General Electric Company, Ltd., which is to be emblematic of the Maritime Province bowling championship of that company, was played last Saturday.

The first game was between a quintette from the St. John branch office and the Halifax district office. The local team bowled on Black's alleys, the latter on the Halifax Academy alleys. Harry Black officiated as referee, as the local match and certified the sheet, which was mailed to Halifax.

When the Halifax sheet arrived here yesterday it was seen that the local team had won by a large margin. There is a possibility that the winners of this section will seek more honors and will challenge the winners of the Montreal section in a hope to win the Canadian championship of the company.

JACK DEMPSEY TRAILING BIG GAME IN NEW MEXICO

Las Vegas, N. M., Nov. 29.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion boxer, is off for a week's hunting trip in the mountains of northern New Mexico. The Manassa mauler will stalk deer, mountain lions and bears. Dempsey took with him three huge wolf hounds, a stag hound and a bulldog.

He was accompanied by Jerry Lavada, his trainer; Mary Burke, his sparring partner, and Teddie Hayes, his secretary. No arrangements are being made for a bout with Harry Wills, New York negro, the champion said, as no promoter seems willing to take up the burden of planning the match. Dempsey expects to fight Luis Angel Firpo next summer, he said.

BOXER IS SUSPENDED

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 29.—Mickey Travers, of New Haven, junior lightweight, was suspended indefinitely at a special meeting of the State Boxing Commission, held here last night. The suspension comes out of Travers failing to show up at Norwalk last Friday night to meet Johnny Leonard in the star bout.

HAS GIVEN OPTION ON NEWARK CLUB

Baltimore, Nov. 29.—William Ashton of Baltimore, president of the Newark International League Baseball Club, has confirmed the report that he had given an option on the club to Mayor McConnell of Montreal, N. J., and a syndicate of Montreal men. The option expired November 29.

ASHTON SAID HE UNDERSTOOD THE MONTREAL GROUP WOULD TRY TO GET CASEY STENGEL, RECENTLY TRADED TO THE BOSTON NATIONALS BY THE NEW YORK GIANTS, AS MANAGER.

"RABBITS" TO BE BARRED IN BRITISH GOLF PLAY

London, Nov. 29.—There won't be any "rabbits" leading from bunker to bunker and otherwise cluttering up the fairways in the British open and amateur golf championships next spring. A "rabbit" is a duffer who persists in playing in the big events though every one knows he hasn't a chance to win.

Next year only those golfers having a national handicap of 4 or better will be eligible to compete in the amateur championship at St. Andrews.

INVENTS NEW GAME

National sports may be enjoyed at home in the form of "sport card" games as the result of an invention of a former St. John man, Herbert Dickenson. Mr. Dickenson, who is president of the Olympia Games, Ltd., Montreal, placed one of his games on the market. It is called "boxing" and should be interesting. It is played on the same principle as "rummy" and with the illustrated cards a complete boxing match may be staged on a table.

SOVIET LIFTS BAN ON STAGE ROYALTY TO LET CATHERINE THE GREAT APPEAR

Opinion Exists That Play Too Light to Justify Censorship.

Moscow, Nov. 29.—Catherine the Great won't be barred from the Russian stage just because she happened once to be the head of the Czarist regime. That was the decision announced after the private performance of Alexis Tolstoy's play, "The Golden Book of Love," a light comedy, where, in the great Empress played the part of the ex-empressina to put things right at the end, and which the Soviet theatrical censorship is expected to license owing to her presence.

Lumacharsky, Minister of Education, in whose department are the theatres, also saw the show, and evidently shared the general impression that the comedy was too light to justify censorship. The play was performed by the first studio at the Art Theatre and had been included in their tour in Prague and Riga eighteen months ago. It also was given in Paris by a non-Soviet Russian Company.

The plot is simple enough. The beautiful young wife of an old countrified prince receives a copy of a rather gallant book of love with a letter from the Empress Catherine, announcing the intention to pay an unceremonious visit. A handsome young guardian arrives as the Empress's vanguard and immediately begins to flirt with the girl Princess, whose imagination is stirred by the golden book. The husband intervenes, and a rather grotesque duel is cut short by the appearance of the Empress with one lady-in-waiting. The husband finds the latter's middle-aged charms so much more to his taste than those of the willful child he has married, that the course of true love would undoubtedly run smooth were it not that the elderly Empress cannot resist the temptation to captivate her young soldier. He, too, discovers imperial experience outweighs youthful naïveté and the poor little Princess is left lamenting.

But in the last act, while the Empress is resting after a hearty lunch, the young lady applies the maxims of the golden book to win back her admirer. The Empress is first piqued by the guardian's disloyalty, finally relents and pairs off the couple anew with a truly aristocratic disregard for marriage laws.

It was the general impression of the audience, which included all the leading figures of theatrical and literary Moscow, that the acting was below Art Theatre standards, and the play, taken as a whole, no less so. "Quite unworthy of the fuss made over it," was the comment of the critic who still retains the Soviet press the place he won under the former regime. "Which won't hurt the box office receipts, however," was the cynical reply of the manager of the theatre, which tries to outwit Stanislavski's "corrected training" by novelty of presentation.

Diploma Of Dramatic Art Is Established

Manchester University Honors London Actress—British Stage News.

London, Nov. 29.—With the formal recognition of the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art, the senate of the University of London have now definitely established a diploma in dramatic art. The diploma requires a special course of study, extending over two years, at an approved training institution, and ranges over a large number of subjects. There is also to be a more exacting test for candidates who want a teaching certificate. The University of Manchester has just granted an honorary degree of Doctor of Laws to Sjöbl Thorndike. The only other English actress to possess a similar distinction is Ellen Terry. The latest play-producing society to be established in London is the Shore-

Jackie Coogan

As he appears in the role of little Crown Prince of Lavonia in his first Metro picture, "Long Live the King."

At the Lyric Theatre, Hamersmith, "The Merry Wives of Windsor" is to be played twice daily for a short season during the Christmas holidays. Early in January a revival of Congreve's comedy, "The Way of the World," with Miss Edith Evans as Millamant, will follow.

The Players' Club of London has now been in existence for 35 years. Throughout the whole of this period it has met once a week to discuss a current play, when frank opinions are expressed by members and visitors. Many of these debates have been opened by distinguished speakers and publicists. A new session has now commenced with discussion twice a week. When Bernard Shaw visited the club he remarked that, as a professional dramatist, he strongly disapproved of it. Presumably for a reason, he explained that the premises were so comfortable that sensible members would much rather stop in them than go to a theatre.

Canille Deslys, a sister of the late Gaby Deslys, is one of the recent invaders of Hollywood. She left Paris for the world's movie colony, and is dividing her time between teaching the piano, dancing and French, and appearing now and again in pictures. Her husband, George Paoli, a former French singer, also is in Hollywood. He is teaching singing.

American Pep Is Yoked To Oriental Philosophy In New Movie Film

(BY JACK JUNGMEYER)

Hollywood, Nov. 29.—A motion picture made under metropolitan auspices; its physical development curiously interwoven with threads of oriental mysticism; done by a Hindu servant who hopes through it to stir America to realization of its spiritual energies and opportunities. Such is "Beyond the Veil," produced by A. K. Mozumdar and soon to be shown in a monopoly which greatly interested Hollywood in the making. Mozumdar, princeling of India's ruling caste, originator of a philosophy having thousands of American followers, and first Hindu to be granted citizenship by the United States, established a unique directorial method in this, his initial film venture.

Quiet, patience, inspiration, instead of the usual studio turmoil, fret and perspiration marked the making of "Beyond the Veil." After the players had been tentatively selected for type and ability, they were subjected to certain psychic tests by Mozumdar so that the whole company should prove in rapport.

Co-operative effort like the production of a picture, explained Mozumdar, requires a spiritual harmony among the actors, director and technicians which is more important than the usual professional equipment. There must be this attunement, not only to the roles to be depicted, but among those who work out the drama.

Instead of having lunch, Mozumdar had retired for the noon hour to his bare dressing-room for a period of quiet contemplation. His business suit was surmounted by a blue turban, dark face with the brooding eyes of the mystic. He had told me, however, having been born to a high military caste, he had bitterly disappointed his father's with a timidity wholly unbecoming the proud Mozumdar. He had come to America as a youth, doing menial labor, buffeted about in the sweeping tide of occidental energy; the thing we call "pep."

Once he had settled his own inner conflict, he told me, and had discovered to his own satisfaction that one must swim with, not against the cosmic current, he believed he might become instrumental in harnessing American pep to oriental philosophy for world betterment.

"Beyond the Veil" is Mozumdar's first step in that direction. A story of Hindu servant's influence upon the daughter of a wealthy American, who under his instruction, develops energetic spiritual qualities expressed in their place of residence after August 1 in any year permitted to play for the city or town club in which they are residing on Jan. 1 of the playing season, upon the production of an affidavit with his application certifying that his transfer to his present place of residence was not brought about by the bank with which he is connected, and also upon production of satisfactory evidence from the officials of the bank with which he is connected to the same effect.

Players who reside in one town, city or village and in another town, city or village in the town, city or village in which he sleeps, provided there is a road in the series in which he is eligible to play in that town.

Amendments are introduced to cover the changes in the playing rules made by the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association.

The goalkeeper's territory it to be eliminated, but no change is to be made in the rule adopted last year, as to the manner of stopping the puck.

Hockey sticks shall not be more than 36 inches wide at any part and not more than 64 inches in length to the heel and not more than 18 inches long at the blade.

The minimum width of the goalkeeper's pads while lying flat must not exceed 14 inches.

The following definition of a body check is proposed:

A fair body-check shall be when a player bodies an opponent with the hip or side of the body when standing still or skating at a slow rate of speed. If, however, a player is skating fast or uses his knees or elbows, he will be considered charging and be penalized accordingly. There shall be no body-checking within five feet of the boards.

If on any occasion it is found that a team is playing too many men, the said team shall forthwith be forced to drop those extra players and be penalized by the further loss of another player for the period of two minutes; and no goal shall be counted as scored by the offending team.

To eliminate the former city rule and substitute the following: "A player who desires to change his club or residence must first secure the written consent of his old club, and if this ten consent is not given, he shall forfeit the right to present his case in person to the O. H. A. executive for final decision. The clubs concerned will have the privilege of representation at the hearing.

In case of a junior player changing club or residence, he must, in addition to the foregoing, secure the written consent of his parent, parents or guardian to make such change."

"In case of a player residing in a rural district, village or police village, he must play for the O. H. A. club nearest to his residence having a team entered in the series in which he is eligible to play. It being understood that a junior player has the privilege of playing in the nearest place to his residence which has a junior O. H. A. team. The manner of determining the distance is to be computed by the mileage over a well-established highway, and not as the crow flies.

CISSIE LOFTUS' VOICE FAILS HER

Stage Star Denies Retirement Due to Squabble With Co-headliner.

New York, Nov. 28.—Cissie (Cedric) Loftus has denied a report that her absence from the Palace bill, when she had been announced to return after being off the programme for nearly a week, was due to a difference with Nora Bayes, co-headliner on the same bill. Miss Loftus had been staying in the apartment of Miss Bayes, who has been her benefactor and accompanied her here from London when she returned to the stage.

Miss Loftus explained that she had moved to the Hotel Embassy because the "palace" stay with Miss Bayes forced her to cancel her act after eight performances. She said her doctor told her if she rested a week longer her voice would again be in good condition.

Her place at the Palace was taken by a Russian troupe, Bekoff's Theatre Grotsek. Miss Bayes sang new songs with her usual éclat. A big hit was scored by Theodore Roberts in his return to the spoken drama after a ten-year absence in the movies. Roberts, who received a loud welcome from movie fans, played a German dialect role, that of a doctor who avenges himself on the betrayer of his sweetheart, killing him solely by the power of suggestion. He said it was "good to hear applause again."

RED SOX WANT URBAN SHOCKER

Offer Pitcher and First Baseman For The St. Louis Star.

St. Louis, Nov. 29.—Every club in the American League, with the exception of Chicago and Detroit, has lines out for Urban Shocker, star twirler of the Braves.

Philadelphia has offered a pitcher and a third baseman and Boston has offered a pitcher and first baseman for the local moundman.

Shocker has an application pending before Commissioner Landis for a hearing to be declared a free agent. He is disgruntled with his local berth because of his suspension last season for failure to accompany the team East after being denied permission to take his wife on the tour.

HELD SOCIAL EVENING. The Young Men's class of St. Luke's church held an enjoyable social evening last night when the social committee, consisting of George W. Green, chairman, Ronald Morrey, Arthur Warwick and Cecil B. Williams, had charge of the arrangements. The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Ellsworth.

Mary Garden, the famous prima donna, has kept the same maid for 14 years.

Fined for Playing Mah Jongg Kuala Lumpur, Malay—Mah Jongg has taken the United States and Great Britain by storm. But authorities here frowned upon it. Eight Chinese, recently arrested for playing it at a private residence, have been fined $5 each. The householder was assessed $300. About $100 was on the table when the police broke in.

Lighter Golf Ball Coming Steel Shafts Also May be Made Legal.

New York, Nov. 29.—Rumors are floating around about a change in the golf ball and the restoration of the steel shaft. The ball will no doubt be made a trifle lighter, but will not be placed in use until 1925. The shaft will probably be declared legal because nothing has really been done against it.

When it first came out the confusion was increased considerably. That was exactly what the officials of the United Golf Association wished to dodge.

There was a feeling that it was entirely unnecessary toward the success of the game.

The steel shaft it has now been longer by the experts will not produce longer tee shots. It will serve two useful purposes, however, entirely of a non-decisional nature to the game. One is sending the ball straighter, a valuable asset; the other placing good shafts in everyone's hands. The bicolor shaft situation has become acute and relief is needed.

Shean Hears His Point Has Been Won

New York, Nov. 28.—Al Shean of Gallagher and Shean said that he had received a message from his lawyer, Tobias Keppler, who is in Albany, that a stay had been granted pending appeal from the recent decision of the Supreme Court that the Shuberts were entitled to the services of the pair. "We are going to appeal," said Shean, "and this decision means that we can go back to work at once." The pair were touring with the "Follies" in Philadelphia when they stopped work owing to the adverse decision.

Gossipy Notes of The Screen People

William Fox is getting ready to film "The Fool" and casting has already started for the picture.

Four carloads of furniture from the home of Mrs. George J. Gould, at Haman Island, Rye, N. Y., have reached Hollywood, where they will be used in future film productions.

Whitman Bennett's production, "The Hoosier Schoolmaster," is almost completed. It was adapted from Edward Eggleston's story, published in 1872. Henry Hull plays the title role.

Betty Blythe, with all the talk of the high cost of pictures, appears to be enjoying herself while working on "The Recollet." She has been acting in the interior scenes in Paris and has now left for Monte Carlo.

Clare Mac Dowell is to play the mother of Juan Ricardo, a young soldier, in Fred Niblo's production of "My Name Is Woman." This is the second time Miss MacDowell has worked with Mr. Niblo as a Spanish mother. She portrayed the maternal character in "The Mark of Zorro."

It is admitted by one director that there are styles in motion pictures, and that the prevailing fashion is comedy drama, written around the mad rush of the younger generations for excitement and pleasure. This man concludes that in every style series there is one picture which stands out from the others of its type, and he frankly admits that that is his picture.

UNIVERSITY YOUTH INSURES HIS LEGS

"Girl" in "Cotton Stockings" Values His Limbs at $25,000.

For the first time in the eighteen years that the undergraduates of the University of Michigan have been giving their annual "shows" the students of the western university will appear in Broadway. Their vehicle will be a musical comedy, called "Cotton Stockings," with the sub-title of "They Never Made a Man Look Twice" in which the young men among the students at that educational center of learning will take the female, as well as the male parts. The only New York performance is to be on the night of December 18 in the Metropolitan Opera House. The students will play in Philadelphia the following night.

The New York chapter in the long tour by the student players is prefaced by the claim that "in pulchritude this offering by men students will be the last word in good looks." The photographs of the cast bear out the boast. Furthermore, Lionel Ames, 24, of Rye City, the "leading lady" under the cast name of Suzanne, has had his comely arms and legs insured for $25,000. Inasmuch as the athletic character of the dancing by Mr. Ames carries with it the possibility of a broken rib, a dislocated shoulder or a dislocated neck, the figure is regarded by the University of Michigan Union as warranted, particularly as the production of "Cotton Stockings" at the western college players have been trained under the direction of Roy Hoyer, who is appearing with Fred Stone in "Stepping Stones" at the Globe Theatre. The tour is to start at Ann Arbor on December 8. After six performances there the troupe will tour to Toledo. From then on the tour will take in fourteen cities and end at Detroit with three performances, opening December 31.

Clare Mac Dowell is to play the mother of Juan Ricardo, a young soldier, in Fred Niblo's production of "My Name Is Woman." This is the second time Miss MacDowell has worked with Mr. Niblo as a Spanish mother. She portrayed the maternal character in "The Mark of Zorro."

Hooper is chairman. H. Holt will organize Grand Manan. F. T. Short has returned to the city from North Shore and will now complete the work in Albert and Kent counties.

Last night the organization meeting in Fredericton was addressed by B. A. Schofield and Leonard Tilly, of St. John, who are to go on to Woodstock to speak at an organization meeting there tonight.

H. Fisher Miller and J. W. Britain, of St. John, will leave today to effect the organization of Queens county and will visit the following circuit: Gagetown, Chipman, South Bay, Westfield, Westford and Grand Falls.

In St. John the various ward committees are being formed and work is going ahead splendidly. The chairman, which T. Moffat Bell is chairman, has the following list of captains: Rev. H. A. Goodwin, G. Short, H. E. Moore, F. W. Campbell and C. Alexander Christie. These team captains will enroll to work on the ward.

Prince and Queen's wards held organization meetings in Orange Hall, Germain street, on Tuesday evening and these meetings were very well attended. The complete roll of ward workers for Queen's ward will soon be ready. Stanley ward meeting was held last night and enthusiasm marked the proceedings. Each ward will have about 50 workers undertaking the canvass.

HAS GOLD BRICK FROM N. S. MINE

E. S. Romilly Smith, general manager of the Clark Gold Mines Corporation, brought into Halifax this week a beautiful gold brick from the mines, weighing about one hundred and fifty ounces, valued at about $35,000, also some fine specimens of ore from the "Sherry" lead, 100 and 400 feet levels.

The second shipment of arsenical concentrates will be made by this company at the end of the week, and negotiations are proceeding with the object of opening up a number of other properties to produce this product immediately, as there is an enormous demand both in America and in Europe for arsenic.

Romilly Smith left for Pittsburgh to attend a meeting of the directors of the company. The new four compartment shaft which the company has been sinking is expected to be finished some time this month. Work is proceeding rapidly in connection with the construction of the new fifty stamp mill and concentrating plant, which the company are installing at Montague, and the work should be in full swing by the first of the year.

GIVES TWO ADDRESSES. Large numbers were present both afternoon and evening yesterday to hear Rev. Canon G. Osborne preach at St. James' church. In the afternoon Canon Troop continued his explanation of the Book of Revelations. In the evening the subject of his sermon was "One Altar, One Priest, One Sacrifice, One Life." He spoke with much fervor and conviction. The large congregation was appreciative of his fine address.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "I suppose you are going to honor the request to buy your Christmas presents early?"

"I suppose it ain't a bad idea," said Hiram. "It would really be a kindness to the clerks in the stores," said the reporter, "for they are usually rushed off their feet the last week or two."

"Yes," said Hiram, "I suppose they be."

"And it is just as easy," said the reporter, "to buy the presents this week as next?"

"That's so, too," said Hiram.

"Besides," said the reporter, "you have a better choice when you are early on the ground. The best is not so likely to be snapped up."

"That's something in that, too," said Hiram.

"And then," said the reporter, "if you found you had some money left and had a particular friend—you might buy him two presents?"

Hiram eyed the reporter closely for a moment or two before he asked:—

"Was you figurin' you was a patikler friend o' mine?"

"I trust so," said the reporter— "you're and Mrs. Hornbeam's."

"Well," said Hiram, "I'm lovin' my enemies this Christmas. Aint that the Scriptur' way?"

SEMI-CONSCIOUS, HE MAY RECOVER

Seven-year-old Alfred Spencer Falls From Fort Howe.

Yesterday afternoon Alfred Spencer, seven-year-old son of Mrs. Mary Spencer of 107 Simonds street, who is employed at the Y. W. C. A., cafeteria, King street, fell 40 feet from Fort Howe to the foot of the iron railing in Main street. The little fellow was taken to the General Public Hospital.

At noon today the boy was still semi-conscious and it was impossible to say how badly he was injured, but hopes were held out for his recovery.

Several children were playing on the top of the high rocky hill after the schools had been dismissed for the day, and in some way the Spencer had fallen over the declivity, striking with fearful force in the gutter. The other children ran away from Fort Howe when they saw what happened their companion.

A large crowd soon collected in Main street and for several hours the identity of the unfortunate boy could not be learned. He was tenderly carried to the drug store of Robert W. Hawker, 223 Main street, by Charles O'Brien, of 27 Sherbrooke street, and shortly afterwards was taken to the hospital.

News of the accident spread rapidly throughout the North End, and mothers whose boys had not returned home had an anxious time, numerous inquiries being made to the police and hospital. Finally the list of those who had not reached their homes at supper time was narrowed down to two or three. The description of the accident victim corresponded with that of the Spencer boy, and the mother, who was the Detective Sergeant John T. Power at the hospital, identified him. Mrs. Spencer is a widow with five children.

MAIN IS CONNECTED

The work of connecting the new 24 inch main on the West Side with the reservoir and cross connecting it with the old 24 inch main was carried out last night with very little interruption to the service. The water was shut off at 7 o'clock and at 11 o'clock it was back in the old 24 and was in the new 24 this morning. While the work was being carried on there was only a drop of 10 pounds in the pressure and only three fire hydrants were without water. When the new main is completed, in about two weeks, the West Side will be completely gridironed with mains and in the event of anything happening to a pipe it will be necessary to shut off a very small part of the system to make the necessary repairs.
