HON. SIDNEY FISHER DEAD

Was Member of the Laurier Cabinet
Prominent As a Successful Farmer As Well As In Political Life—Had Spoken in St. John.

Ottawa, April 9.—Hon. Sidney Fisher, minister of agriculture in the Laurier administration, died this morning, at his residence, No. 4 Range Road, at half past two o'clock. He had been ill for a long time.

The Hon. Sidney Arthur Fisher was a son of the late Arthur Fisher, M. D., L. R. C. E. (Edin), and Susanne Corse Fisher of Montreal.

Returning to Canada, he devoted himself to farming, and the Alva Farm, Knowlton, Que., owned and cultivated by him personally for many years, has long been known as one of the finest and best managed farms in the entire province.

He served on numerous public bodies and royal commissions, and in politics he was a well known figure for many years.

He unsuccessfully contested the constituency of Brome, Que., in 1880 for the federal house, but was elected in 1882, and represented the constituency from that time to 1891, when he was defeated by a majority of one vote.

Recruiting for Defence In Labor Crisis; Railway Men Not Unanimous

SOME CHALLENGE EXECUTIVE RIGHT TO CALL STRIKE WITHOUT BALLOT

Two Hour Conference With Lloyd George Brings No Announcement—Press Views of Coal Strike Situation.

London, April 9.—The government proclamation calling up army and navy reserves for service during the strike invited "loyal citizens," including those serving with territorial forces, capable of bearing arms and between the ages of eighteen and forty to report at the nearest territorial drill hall for the purpose of being commissioned or attached to temporary military service with the regular army.

London, April 9.—Recruiting of volunteer workers and "safety units" was eagerly begun by the government today, and other plans were perfected to meet the threat of a widespread industrial tie up next Tuesday growing out of the miners' strike, and involving directly approximately 2,000,000 workers.

Meanwhile, however, reports from various parts of England, Scotland and Wales indicate that the Triple Alliance executive board may have more to do than the mere issuance of its strike decree in order to bring about a general cessation of work by the railwaymen and the transport workers, who with the miners make up the membership of this big labor organization.

From Glasgow, Liverpool, Cardiff, Edinburgh and several other important localities of the National Union of Railwaymen comes word that the rank and file are challenging the right of the railwaymen's national executive body to call a strike without balloting by the men. Some of these local bodies of railway workers declare the miners' resistance to the cuts in their wages, which brought about the strike in the coal industry, is justifiable, but they do not consider that they have anything to thank the miners for, and therefore should not be stampeded into a sympathetic walkout.

The general purport of these messages from important centres was that the railwaymen and transport workers do not present a solid front on the strike issue. This, it was commented on by observers of developments, may account for the silence which the labor leader maintained after a conference which they had this morning with Lloyd George.

After two hours spent by the delegates of the railwaysmen and the transport workers with the premier, their only statement for the press was that a deputaion might return to Downing street later in the day.

Some of the new units called "defence units." They were asked to bring uniform, if possible, one day's food, blankets, mess kits, and other service gear.

There was no sign of a panic in the stock exchange yesterday, and the market being quietly firm, and there being no selling of importance. All army reservists have been called to the colors, with the exception of those residing in Ireland and men serving on civil police force.

Revolutionary Tide? The Daily Graphic says United States citizens in England are flooding steamship companies with applications for tickets to the United States.

A revolutionary tide is surging up and carrying it with it, one of the leading figures of the Triple Alliance of labor told the Daily Mail's special labor correspondent last night.

The newspaper declares this may be taken as an explanation of the miners' point blank refusal of Lloyd George's proposal first to discuss the safety of mines affected by the strike, although many responsible labor chief personally profess anxiety to arrive at a peaceful solution of the situation.

Apprehension as to the effect of a nation wide strike on the chances of the labor party at the next general election is expressed, and it is suggested that this year may play a part in the conversations to be held between government officials and leaders of the workmen.

Press Opinions. "We see no hope to save the nation from disaster," declares the Daily Telegraph in an editorial commenting on the fact that the triple alliance will call its men from their posts on Tuesday at midnight if the controversy is not settled before that time.

Other newspapers, however, express the opinion that calm reflection and a respite of four days may reveal new possibilities in the direction of peace. It is said in some quarters that the actual calling of the strike was deferred until Tuesday night so that it might be possible to bring about resumption of negotiations.

S., April 9.—Charged with misappropriating funds of Local Union No. 4 of the United Mine Workers of District 25 to the extent of $500, George Hillier, financial secretary of No. 4, was arraigned in the police court in Florence yesterday afternoon. The case is adjourned pending an audit of Hillier's books.

R. K. WILLS OF ST. JOHN TO BE U. N. B. VALENTINIAN

(Special to Times). Fredericton, N. B., April 9.—R. K. Wills of St. John has been elected valetudinarian of the 1921 class of the U. N. B. Joseph Sears of Barkers Point, York county, declined the honor. Mr. Wills is an engineering student. He was graduated by St. John High School and entered U. N. B. in 1918. Two years later he enlisted with the 9th Siege Battery at St. John and was wounded at Arma, while serving with the 12th Siege Battery.

QUEBEC VETERANS PLAN MEMORIAL

Quebec, April 9.—The Great War Veterans of Quebec have been granted permission by the city council to place a memorial cross in Montcalm Market Square, close by St. John's Gate, as a tribute to Quebecers who fell in the great war.

It is intended to place beneath it a quantity of earth from Ypres and Vimy Ridge.

It is hoped to get Gen. Foch, if he comes to Quebec this summer, to turn the first sod for the memorial.

FOUND IN POOL OF BLOOD ON FLOOR

Hungarian in Fredericton With Throat Cut

Told Strange Tale of Killing Man—Capital Assessment is Increased By $38,000 to $248,000.

(Special to Times).

Fredericton, N. B., April 9.—John Matajow, a Hungarian, aged about fifty years, was found in the York Hotel last night with his throat cut with a razor. A fellow boarder named Charles Kelch, found him lying on the floor in a pool of blood. Dr. Vanwart gave first aid and the man was taken to Victoria Hospital. It is reported that he will live.

An investment of $300 made by the man had caused him considerable anxiety recently and he had engaged a lawyer to try to recover the money. Matajow had been telling confused stories about himself. One was that last winter while employed with Fraser Companies Limited in the lumber woods near Magaguadavic he had murdered a man and buried the body in the snow. Little credit is given to his story.

The Fredericton assessment for 1921 has been fixed at $248,000, an increase of $38,000 over last year. To prevent the increase being any larger much work intended this year will have to be curtailed or abandoned. Over expenditures last year accounted for much of the increase. The valuation will have to be increased substantially to keep the rate within reach of that figure.

LABOR MEETING IN FREDERICTON

Messrs. Tighe and Varley on Lengthening of Work Day.

Fredericton, N. B., April 9.—(Canadian Press)—J. E. Tighe of St. John, president of the N. B. Federation of Labor, and William Varley of Toronto, general organizer for the American Federation of Labor, addressed a mass meeting of the mill men last evening at the Victoria Mills here. They said it was the object of the employers to lengthen the hours of work, which, they said, was absurd, and they urged the employes to resist to the limit any extension of the working hours.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram" said the reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "they have dug up two temples in Thessaly more than two thousand years old."

"Yes," said Hiram, "and I suppose them old fellows was as bigoted in their own minds as we be today."

"No doubt of it," said the reporter. "It is one of man's privileges to believe that he knows it all. Why should he not avail himself of it, and be happy?"

"Well," said Hiram, "I s'pose it won't make no difference to the generation that digs 'em up his work after a few thousand years an' wonders what it was all about. Still, I would think that after a feller had nosed around the ruins of some of them old civilizations for a spell, an' thought it all over, he'd kinda feel as if maybe the last word hadn't been said yit."

ONLY FOUR TEAMS ENTERED SO FAR

Expect Ten for the Bowling Tournament

Rickard May Tell Today When Big Fight Will Be Staged—Wamby's Understudy Also Out of Game—Late Sport News.

Fredericton, April 9.—Only four formal entries have been filed for the New Brunswick and Maine candlepin championship tournament which will open here on Tuesday, April 26, but it is expected there will be at least six and possibly as many as eight or ten teams when entries close April 11.

The four teams which had entered up to today were Black's alleys and Y. M. C. A., of St. John; Calais, Maine, and Miss Winifred Gigey of Washburn, Maine, were married in the George street Baptist parsonage on Friday night.

They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hallett of South Devon.

BASEBALL PLANS IN FREDERICTON

(Special to Times). Fredericton, N. B., April 9.—At a meeting at the Y. M. C. A. to consider the local baseball situation it was decided that there would be two teams from Fredericton. Last season there were three, but the available players were hardly numerous enough to give all teams the required training. The two teams this season will be Y. M. C. A. and Imperials. They, with Devon and Marysville, will form the York County League. The Fredericton city team drops out. Fred McLean, who was prominent in the Fredericton hockey team of the N. B. H. L., last winter, will play with one of the Fredericton teams. He was with Imperials last year.

NEW BRUNSWICK HAD TWO FAILURES

Dun's Report Shows Forty-one in Canada This Week; Increase of Five.

Toronto, April 9.—An increase of five is shown in the number of failures throughout the dominion by R. G. Dun & Company's weekly report. The total for the week ended yesterday was forty-one, as compared with thirty-six last week.

Ontario has nineteen, the greatest number of any the provinces, followed by Quebec with ten and Saskatchewan with seven. Alberta is fourth on the list with three, New Brunswick had two, while Manitoba, British Columbia, Nova Scotia and P. E. Island have clean sheets.

PUTS LIMIT OF HUN ABILITY AT 15 BILLIONS

Estimate of U. S. Reparations Commission Chairman—Conditional Cancellation of Inter-Allied Debts.

Washington, April 9.—Fifteen billions, as the sum Germany is able and probably willing to pay in reparations is estimated by B. M. Baruch, chairman of the U. S. reparations commission. Mr. Baruch, who took a large part in drafting the economic sections of the peace treaty, also suggests, with terms, a conditional cancellation of inter-allied indebtedness.

As one of the terms he suggests, for instance, instead of cancelling outright any part of the indebtedness, which U. S. conditionally cancelled the amount spent by Great Britain in the United States for munitions during the war, this sum to be a demand liability without interest and to be collected in case the United States becomes involved in a future war.

He also proposes that the cancellation of indebtedness might be made a means of levelling preferential tariff barriers.

CHECK CASE IN POLICE COURT

George L. White was in the police court this morning, charged with obtaining money under false pretences by passing a worthless check for $22. Herbert Dickenson, a commission agent, said he engaged the accused as a salesman and he had been employed only a few days when he said that he was waiting to have his account of $600 in the Bank of Montreal, Montreal, transferred and until he had a check for $22.

The witness said he advanced the loan and in a few days loaned him $10 and later gave him $1. Soon after this the accused presented to him a check for $20 for payment of the loan of $16 and asked for the balance of $16, which the witness said he gave him. The accused still said that he had an account in the Bank of Montreal in Montreal, but the witness at this stage wrote to the bank in Montreal and the accused signed.

On Wednesday Mr. Dickenson said he received a protest from the Union Bank, to which the check was attached and which was marked "no account." In consequence of what the manager of the local branch of the Bank of Montreal told him Mr. Dickenson reported the matter to the police. The case was postponed and the accused remanded.

A case against S. Levine, charged with having liquor unlawfully, was resumed when a fine of $100 imposed.

Three men charged with drunkenness were arrested during the night and two of them pleaded guilty while one said he was not drunk. The evidence of Police-man McNamee was given and the man remanded with the others.

GREEK NATION IS MUCH DEPRESSED

Men Slow in Rallying to the Colors

Some Flat Refusals Reported—Evidence of Feeling Against Constantine—Notes of Alarm and Pessimism Among the People.

Athens, April 9.—Reverses suffered by Greek forces in Anatolia, and the casualties inflicted upon them by the Turkish Nationals, have caused a great depression here. There is a decided note of alarm and pessimism noticeable here among all classes of Greeks. The news that the army is retreating toward the positions it held near Brusa sent the bourse tumbling, quotations reaching 14 to the dollar.

The first wounded soldiers arriving here would not speak, their lips having been sealed by the government.

Cabinet councils are held almost hourly, and King Constantine is reported to have abandoned his plan for a trip to the front.

Mobilisation is proceeding slowly, it being reported that only twenty-five out of every hundred men have answered the call to the colors. It is said that in many parts of Greece there have been flat refusals on the part of reservists to report for military duty. In some localities in Greece and in Crete pictures of King Constantine are reported to have been burned.

Confidential advices received by Allied legations here indicate that the Greek officers in Anatolia, the majority of whom are Royalists, who were reinstated in their commands at the instance of Constantine, showed lack of leadership, resource and initiative in the fighting. The supply service of the army is being severely criticized and the intelligence work is condemned as weak and inefficient.

DEFERRED TILL NEXT SESSION

Matter of New Pension Plan for New Brunswick Teachers.

Fredericton, N. B., April 9.—The N. B. Teachers' Association's plan for more adequate retiring pensions under a scheme whereby each teacher was to pay a percentage of their salary into the fund, has not been accepted by the government.

In a letter which Premier Foster has sent out the government's position has been outlined, and it is to the effect that some further explanations and information are required, which has caused a determination to have the matter stand over until the next session of the legislature.

"If the facts are as set forth by the teachers of the province, I have not the slightest doubt that your bill for teachers' pensions will then be readily agreed to," concludes a letter which the premier has sent to W. J. S. Myles, principal of the St. John High School, who headed the delegation which appeared before the government. Copies of the letter have been sent to all members of the legislature.

A COLD WAVE

BAD WEATHER FOR TAG DAY

But Willing Workers for Children's Aid Carry Out Their Programme.

The Local Council of Women were not favored with fine weather today for their annual tag-day in behalf of the Children's Aid Society.

When a Times man called at the Children's Home in Garden street at noon he found young girls drifting in with their banks and partaking of refreshments at a table presided over by Mrs. E. L. Rising, with Mrs. W. B. Tennant as head of the refreshment committee, and assisted by the lady members of the Children's Aid Society.

In the board room Mrs. W. Edmond Raymond, vice-president of the Local Council of Women, and Miss Alice E. Estey, treasurer and Mrs. Fickett with board members, were busy receiving and checking up banks. Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson was convener of the wards, was very busy receiving reports and trying to get all the ground covered by tags.

Ward conveners were in and out looking after their girls. Mrs. J. H. Doody had charge of the automobiles and those who responded and sent their cars were Mrs. F. Gregory, Mrs. I. Ready, Miss Maher, John Pugsley, Mrs. Frank Peters, Rosemary, Mrs. Corbett, E. Morrell, Mrs. Tennant, Mrs. Corr, Miss O'Cuiver, Mrs. Wilford Campbell and Mrs. Doody here.

The large dining table in the home was heaped up with dainty refreshments for all corners and despite the weather outside all were cheerful and hoping for good results of the day's work.

And this despite the report of one young lady that on one side of a short street between she got from all the houses only ten cents for the Children's Aid.

Miss Alice E. Estey, treasurer, will be at the Bank of Nova Scotia, Prince William street, Monday afternoon any time after two o'clock to receive banks not handed in today.

PLEASANT AND SUCCESSFUL. Dominion Lodge, No. 18, L. O. B. A., held a successful benefit concert on last Wednesday evening in Orange Hall, Simonds street. F. L. Potts acted as chairman, and in his usual fine manner welcomed all present.

Each number was heartily enjoyed by the large audience present. Fancy dances by six little girls, accompanied on the piano by Miss Muriel Hawker, were very much enjoyed. Master Norman and Mr. Magnusson were heard in two fine dialogues taken from Shakespeare, and the Silson family also delighted the audience with fine playing on guitar, mandolin, cello and mandolin.

Mr. Silson gave a fine rendering of a pleasing song, Miss Hannah Marshall, Mr. Redmond and Mrs. Thomas Draycott were also given hearty applause for fine recitations. The McEneaney male quartette and George Wallace were forced to respond to repeated encores, and Mrs. Brentnall and Mr. Brindle gave some fine vocal solos which were much enjoyed.

A Black, Mr. Wetmore, Mr. Orr and Mrs. Hamilton gave instrumental selections on banjo, mandolin, violin and piano.

A sale of candy helped to increase the proceeds. Those selling candy were Mrs. Brentnall, Mrs. Fayman, Mrs. Atkinson and Miss Martha Woods. A drawing of a quilt then took place. The quilt was donated by Mrs. John Shields for the benefit of the Provincial Memorial Home. Mrs. Acheson was convener of the refreshment committee, assisted by Mrs. Stacey, Mrs. Woods, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Thomas and others.

RECRUITING FOR DEFENCE IN THE LABOR CRISIS. (Continued from page 1) They only wanted a fair deal. Mr. Thomas concluded by saying he hoped nothing would be done to inflame or make more bitter the present situation.

MORE MILLIONS MAY BACK THE STRIKERS. London, April 9.—Parliamentary labor party leaders and the executive committee of the trades union congress held a conference in the House of Commons today for the consideration of the industrial situation. It was believed the conference would determine whether a special session of delegates of the congress should be convened, at which the attitude of affiliated unions, with a membership of more than six million workers toward the triple alliance strike might be decided.

OUR WHEAT ON THE MINNEAPOLIS MARKET. Minneapolis, April 9.—With navigation opening on the Great Lakes, Canadian wheat is again beginning to flow into the Minneapolis market at the rate of several thousand bushels daily and is causing speculation among grain men as to the possible effect on wheat prices.

Nearly fifty carloads of Canadian wheat was said to have reached here yesterday.

ONE MORE EFFORT.

Action to back up the city council in the demand that the new railroad bridge at the falls be raised to the height of the highway bridge will probably be taken early next week by the Board of Trade, Commercial Club and other organizations.

The Fidelity and Deposit Company of Baltimore has also made a survey of the country's economic conditions, and its findings, not quite as cheerful as the others, are thus summed up:

THE LEAGUE AT WORK.

The League of Nations continues to function, despite the attitude of the United States. The following summary of important work already under way of about to be begun as a result of a recent meeting of the Council of the League of Nations at Paris has been sent out by the general secretariat at Geneva.

Those who may be disposed to believe that the League of Nations is dead because there are still disorders in Central Europe and the near east do not pause to consider how momentous are the changes wrought by the war, and how impossible it is to bring immediate order out of that chaos.

Agriculture in Canada owes much to Hon. Sydney Fisher, whose death is just announced. He is best known as the minister of agriculture in the government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier from 1896 until 1911.

THE AMERICAN OUTLOOK.

The Journal American Industries has compiled a forecast of the trend of business from more than 8,500 reports received from all parts of the world. The dominant note so far as American reports are concerned is one of general confidence in the economic stability of the United States, and the view is expressed that the period of industrial uncertainty there is near an end.

The radio-chronicler we read, "is so sensitive that it will respond if anyone in its neighborhood should blinch. In the present state of society there is no great fear of its being overworked in this connection."

LAW OBSERVANCE.

In contributing $5,000 toward the enforcement of prohibition in Westchester county, New York, Mr. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., made some observations that apply in Canada, let us add also in St. John, as well as in New York state. He said:

The Grand Falls Company is given an extension of time for two years, on condition that it spend $150,000 in development work in that time. The government will hold it strictly to account.

HALIFAX MAYOR REFUSES INCREASE

Halifax, N. S., April 9.—Mayor John S. Parker of this city has come out flat-footed against a proposal to jump his salary from $3,000 to $4,000. He also refused to consider the payment of a salary of $1,500 a year to a deputy mayor and the employment of a male stenographer for the mayor's office at a salary of $1,500, when the scheme as a whole was laid before the city council at a recent session of that body.

MAJORITY FOR GOVERNMENT 17

Question of Scope of Committee on Railways and Shipping. Ottawa, April 9.—(Canadian Press)—Yesterday in the House of Commons Premier Meighen moved for the appointment of a select standing committee on government owned railways and shipping.

The government resolution was supported by Sir Henry Doyton, Right Hon. C. J. Doherty, Hon. J. D. Reid and Sir Robert Gordon on the ground that certain information on details of operation should not be made available to competitors.

Next week may see Great Britain in the throes of a great struggle in which the question whether labor unions can dictate to the rest of the people will be determined. That is now the real issue.

PRESENT CARGO OF HORSES FOR MISSIONS

Winnipeg, Man., April 9.—Short on cash, but long on stock, the parishioners of Rev. Hugh Nixon, Methodist church, Elm Creek, Sask., a farming and ranching district, presented to him a carload of horses for missionary purposes.

VAUDEVILLE ACTS WERE ENJOYED

Opera House Bill Has Cleverly Enacted Comedy Playlet, Good Acrobatic Feats, and Comedy and Classy Dancing.

The new vaudeville acts in the Opera House last evening had novel and interesting features, which proved popular with the large audiences in attendance at the two performances.

The Flottow Brothers in a clown pantomime acrobatic offering performed numerous balancing feats, and flips and they were rewarded by prolonged applause.

Grace and Hallo De Beers, in a dainty revue of vocal and dancing gems, were popular favorites. Both young ladies sang most acceptably and their dancing was dainty and pleasing.

FOR BOYS' CLUB

Isaac Mercer presided, Mr. Gordon looked after the stage properties and Miss Stella Earle supervised the production at the South End Boys' Club last evening of a delightful entertainment given for the benefit of the club by the Juniors of Carmarthen street Methodist church.

THE UNCARED-FOR

Segregation The Only Remedy — Should Begin With The Young—Some Startling Facts

Startling facts were presented in a recent lecture given by Dr. Eric Clarke (of the National Committee on Mental Hygiene) at the School for rural leadership, O. A. C. Guelph.

In recent years, said the lecturer, this caste involves the rural districts almost as vitally as the cities. General diseases and prostitution cost Canada $80,000,000 every year; over the border, with the greater population there, the cost is $225,750,000—and it is known that from 50 to 60 per cent. of these unfortunates are drawn from the ranks of the feeble minded. Some investigators say the estimate should be placed at 90 per cent. In one month in one hospital 18 children were born of unmarried mothers, and 15 of these mothers were shown to be mental defectives who, in turn, were the children of mentally defective mothers. A mentally defective child adopted into a home may grow up in good surroundings, but he will grow up a mental defective. The lecturer knew of one such case where the boy has grown up into an expert thief, lies and has the mental age of a boy of seven. Some homes are careless about letting such children go out.

Some of the girls who have become prostitutes are from the country, and had even been demoralized before coming to the city. Often a girl comes to town just before her child is born. In one case the parents took the child but refused to take the mother. The girl was a milliner. Of necessity she got into a cheap boarding-house. Another child was born, and the girl was deserted; two more children came and then the girl was put into an institution. She had a mental age of exactly 8 years.

Another girl had been left $1,000. She spent it all on silly little things, and finally took to washing dishes in a restaurant. Her fate was somewhat the same as that of the other girl. During the last month Dr. Clarke had visited a jail in which were 28 women, 21 of whom had been put in for immorality. Fifteen were infected with venereal disease, some were drug fiends. They were all serving for one year, when they would again be thrown out on the community. Seventeen were low grade defectives, 2 were high grade. All would go back to the same life.

There should be some place in which all such cases should be segregated. One of the women in the jail was 48 years of age and was serving her 19th term. She should be in some home.

In the hospitals in Toronto every week from 50 to 100 cases of venereal disease are admitted. The majority of the women are mental defectives, and they are victims. It costs a great deal to look after them, and there should be segregation centres for treatment, where they could be kept. At present prostitutes cost the Dominion $30,000,000 annually.

In reply to a question regarding institutions in Ontario, Dr. Clarke mentioned the Institution for the Feeble-minded, in Orillia, and the Belmont Home in Toronto, also another. More are needed. Segregation is the only remedy, and Dr. Clarke advised a strong resolution from Rural Leadership School, recommending that such institutions be provided.

Another question regarding what could be done if parents objected to the segregation of a feeble-minded child, Dr. Clarke said if the person could be proved to be anti-social, then the case was not for the parents but for the community.

One of the members of the Conference expressed the opinion that if we have to face this thing we must face it with the boys. He believed that in 7 cases out of 10 boys and men are to blame. He felt that much could be done by getting boys alone, and talking to them.

"This 'double standard,'" remarked another member "is a nuisance of the Money being Poured Into Sieve."

(Montreal Star)

Addressing the Canadian Club at the weekly luncheon yesterday, on the "Economic Aspects of Mental Abnormality," Dr. C. M. Hicks stated that there was a pressing need for the training of more mental specialists, for the earlier diagnosis of mental cases and facilities for their care, and of more intelligent and economic treatment of the problem generally.

This was a great national question said Dr. Hicks. From his three years' experience as Secretary of the Canadian National Committee for Mental Hygiene, during which time he had made surveys of goals, hospitals and asylums in British Columbia, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, he had been impressed with the illogicality of neglecting diseases of the brain, when all possible diseases was made for the treatment of even slight physical injuries. Mental abnormality covered a wide field, and included the insane, the feeble-minded, and the psychopathic. "The last were those who from some defect of character could not be regarded as normal. The common factor of all three classes was social inaptitude without intelligent supervision.

Defectives Numerous.

It was estimated that the number of mentally deficient in Canada was 160,000, and American statistics had shown that over 2 per cent. of the men offering as recruits for the American army had been mentally defective. Dr. Pierce Bailey, the famous mental specialist had stated as his view that mental disorders were no more serious obstacle to national efficiency than physical disorders. This was in fact the proper attitude with which the problem should be approached. One should think in terms of national efficiency. It was not merely a question of asylum costs, but the prevention of mental disorders. More patients could and should be placed on parole.

The asylum costs of the mentally abnormal to the Dominion were six million dollars. The cost of the administration of justice in these cases was several million dollars. The indirect cost to the state in the maintenance of hospitals, of institutions, in damage by fires and in the manifold other ways which could be mentioned, was incalculable. It was certain that the thirteen million dollars was only a fraction.

Still, asked the speaker were we getting our thirteen million dollars' worth? In his opinion the money was being poured into a sieve. The proper step for mental cases, as with tuberculosis, was early treatment. For this psychopathic hospitals were needed and more mental specialists to deal with the cases. Lastly immigration needed closer supervision.

It is clearly seen that what is needed is what will sustain the system, give vigor and tone to the nerves, and keep the digestive and assimilative functions healthy and active. Many persons from their own experience recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla for this purpose. It acts on the vital organs, builds up the system, and fits men and women for these trying times.

In cases where there is biliousness or constipation, it is well to take Hood's Pills. They are a thorough cathartic, a gentle laxative.

BOY SCOUTS WILL HONOR ST. GEORGE

A meeting of the scout officers and troop committee men was held last evening in the Boy Scout headquarters, with S. G. Olive in the chair. The subject of the meeting was to arrange a plan for the organization of troop committees. The meeting opened with a talk by W. V. B. Riddell, field organizer, on "Troop Committees and Re-organization," in which he outlined the organization, duties and relationship of the troops to one another and to the headquarters. Arrangements were made to have a new application form printed for the troop charters. The observance of St. George's Day, the birthday of the Boy Scout movement, was discussed, and on the suggestion of Commissioner Guy L. Short, it was decided to hold a church parade on Sunday, the day following St. George's Day, of all the troops to their respective churches.
Peter Clinch volunteered to take a class of scouts for the purpose of teaching them the many art of self defence. The matter of adopting a provincial emblem was discussed and the meeting expressed itself in favor of adopting a moose head with the arrowhead surcharged, which will be the distinguishing mark of the New Brunswick scouts. The question of summer camps was also discussed and it was announced that about 800 boys would be in attendance this summer. Mr. Riddell spoke on the co-operation and loyalty that should be evinced by the boys to the movement and he urged unity and loyalty among all branches. A vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Riddell for his interesting address. Those present at the meeting were Commissioner Guy L. Short, W. V. B. Riddell, N. R. Betts, W. S. Allan, J. B. Robinson, W. W. Allingham, William Allan, William Tippetts, O. J. Lawson, G. C. Elliott, C. G. Hoyt, Wilfred Maden, C. E. Upham, William Harrington, Edward South, John Kimball and V. C. Timberley.
St. Peter's Dramatic Club which presented "His Heart's Desire," a four-act Irish comedy drama, in St. Peter's hall, on St. Patrick's Day, repeated the performance last evening in St. Vincent's Auditorium, Cliff street, before a large audience. The play consists of a very interesting plot with considerable good wholesome comedy and it was very well received.

ON FORTITUDE.

(By the Chief.)
The knights were men who never said "die" till they were dead; they were always ready to stick it out till the last extremity. But it is a very common fault with men to give in to trouble or fear long before there is any necessity. They often give up working because they don't get success all at once, when probably if they stuck to it a little longer, success would come. A man must expect hard work and want of success at first.
In Japan, whenever a child is born, the parents hang up outside the house either a doll or a fish, according as the child is a girl or boy. It is a sign to the neighbors; the doll means it is a girl, who will some day have children to nurse; the fish means it is a boy, who, as he grows into manhood, will like a fish, have to make his way against a stream of difficulties and dangers. A man who cannot swim is hard work or trouble is not worth calling a man.
Some of you may have heard the story of the two frogs. If you have not, here it is:
Two frogs were out for a walk one day, and they came to a big bowl of cream. In looking into it they both fell in. One said: "This is a new kind of water to me. How can a fellow swim in stuff like this? It is no use trying." So he sank to the bottom and was drowned through having no pluck.
But the other was a more manly frog and he struggled to swim, using his arms and legs as hard as he could to keep himself afloat; and whenever he felt he was sinking he struggled harder than ever, and never gave up hope.
At last, just as he was getting so tired that he thought he must give it up, a curious thing happened. By his hard work with his arms and legs he had churned up the cream so much that he suddenly found himself all safe on a pat of butter!
So when things look bad, just smile and sing to yourself, as the thrush sings: "Stick to it, stick to it," and you will come through all right.
A very great step to success is to be able to stand disappointments.

EXHIBITS AND MUSEUMS.

(From S. M.'s Handbook, B. S. A.)
Troops sometimes maintain exhibits of scout badges, literature, forms of application, handwork, "stalking" (bird or animal photography), etc. This is a desirable means of reaching the public. The exhibit is sometimes placed temporarily in a show window if the scout movement is new in a town or if a special campaign is in progress. It may be kept at the office of the local association. Perhaps the best place of all for such an exhibit or "museum" is at the troop's own headquarters. Scout exhibits may be pro-training in loyalty, composition and history of the Union Jack was excellent groundwork for the Empire Day teaching; instruction given in preparation for the first class test in judging distance, etc., provided an opportunity for practical application of arithmetical rules and tables in use by all pupils in advance of grade six—many of the scouts had a very hazy idea of an "acre" until measured and staked off by the scouts at one of the scout meetings and they had a new interest in a "rod" after observing that three staves held end to end gave that distance exactly; the more or less dry subjects of health, physiology and hygiene were made more real by their instruction in bandaging, arterial bleeding, etc.; the lessons in knots and handicraft paved the way for more rapid progress in the Manual Training department.

One of the most definite gains was the training in mental alertness gained from scouting. Signaling, map reading, kins game, tracking, which all call for quick, snappy decisions on the part of the scouts, helped to develop a mental activity which was reflected in the classroom work.
One might mention also the habit of self-reliance and action of his own initiative with each scout develops. Teachers are all familiar with the boy who is able to carry on very well so long as his problem or task is precisely the same as one previously explained, but who makes a poor showing when some different phase is introduced into his work. The successful handling of each depends probably on the use of common sense or good judgment.
Training in obedience and discipline, the habit of carrying out orders carefully and cheerfully, have also tended to improve class-room deportment. Throughout the year on various occasions when scouts were asked to report to the principal as the result of some misbehavior, neglect, or violation of some school rule, it was found profitable to show each his fault in the light of the breacher of one of the scout laws as well as a breach of school discipline. A reference to such laws as: "A scout's duty is to be useful," "A scout is courteous," "A scout is a friend to all," "A scout is a friend to animals," "A scout obeys orders," "A scout is clean, enlarged on in reprimanding respectively an idle, disrespectful, a ruel, or disobedient pupil or one reported for profane or obscene language, was of great assistance in checking misbehavior.
A properly conducted scout troop, in which the principle of leadership of boys by boys is carefully carried out, furnishes a splendid opportunity for development of responsibility on the part of the older school boys. The relations between a scout officer and his scouts are essentially different from those between a teacher and his pupils. The patrol system with an active Court of Honor places the matter of troop progress and troop control in the hands of the older scouts under the direction and guidance of the scoutmaster. The Court of Honor has been found to develop the debating ability of the pupils to a very marked degree.
It is said that the school teacher who meets his pupils in the class room only, with no opportunity of observing their habits outside of its doors, cannot work to the best advantage. One can think of no opportunity for this association outside of school hours which would exist that offered by scouting. The spirit of good fellowship existing between scouts and their officers, their sharing in mutual experiences, in outdoor games, woodcraft, hikes, camps, etc., all tend to increase the teacher's knowledge of and influence for good over his boys. On the other hand, the scouts are not slow to show their appreciation of their teacher's interest in their welfare.

His connection with a scout troop provides a school teacher with just the proper amount of outdoor life, and furnishes an ideal form of recreation. In country districts the knowledge of the locality gained through scouting is also an advantage.
Teachers are frequently reminded that their influence should extend outside the four walls of the school house and are advised to identify themselves with some community interest. When one appreciates the possibilities in the scouting movement, its national importance, the training for citizenship, the opportunity for training to the best use of a boy's spare time, and largely widening his usefulness—surely no community interest could prove more attractive.
The Sussex Scouts.
V. C. Timberley, provincial secretary, and Mr. Reidle, of the Dominion Council of the Boy Scouts' Association, will be in Sussex on Friday, April 15, a meeting for Boy Scouts and all boys who would like to join the scouts will be held at the army at 7.30 o'clock and at 8.30 o'clock a meeting for boys and fathers will be held. Interesting addresses will be delivered by the visitors at both meetings.
EXHIBIT OF OLD FIRE POLICIES.
Two interesting exhibits appear in the window of C. E. L. Jarvis & Son, insurance agents. One is a policy of the Mutual Fire Insurance Company of St. John issued in 1847 and signed as president by E. L. Jarvis, grandfather of E. L. Jarvis, of the present firm. The other exhibit is a policy issued in 1886 by the Queen Insurance Company, signed by the late C. E. L. Jarvis as general agent and which company is still, after a period of fifty-five years, doing business through C. E. L. Jarvis & Son. In the St. John configuration of 1877 the Queen lost $282,000, and all losses were promptly paid.
The office of C. E. L. Jarvis & Son now represents five insurance companies with combined assets of over five hundred million dollars and conduct one of the largest insurance offices in the maritime provinces.
The camps of Frank Best, W. H. Golding, George Porter, David and Richard Colgan, K. Pedersen and others on the Sandy Point road were entered within the last week. The vandals secured entrance in various ways, such as forcing open doors, smashing panels in the doors and removing and breaking windows. Not satisfying with entering the camps and stealing whatever of value they could lay their hands on, the men seemed to be bent on a campaign of destruction. Portieres were torn down, upholstery ripped, furniture demolished, hanging lamps broken, and any goods that could not be easily injured were dragged outdoors and left exposed to the weather.

TELEGRAPHIC.

PORTLAND, April 10th, P. M. Steamship Belgian, with Liverpool dates to 80th, arrived. The London Times of the 8th says there is too much reason to fear that the peace of Europe is about to be broken by one of the least just and least necessary wars of modern times. The Times heartily trusts England may hold herself aloof. Half a dozen war vessels were preparing for sea at Plymouth, and it is reported that they were to go to the St. Lawrence. The 80th was Good Friday and a holiday. There is no late Commercial news. The language of the Prussian Press by evident dictation of the Government is also taking measures in anticipation of the coming struggle. Austria is said to have determined to put an end to the provisional state of affairs in the duchies, and if necessary will propose that the question be referred to a European Congress. The independence of the 29th, has been the King of Prussia has given his consent to certain military arrangements which, though only preliminary, indicate that a war is almost inevitable. The rate of discount on the Bank of England remains at 6 per cent. Consols closed on the 8th at 84 1/2. Gold 125 1/2.

IS MAYFLOWER A FREAK BOAT?

Captain of the Bluenose Questions Her Capacity to Pay Her Way on the Banks—Canadian Committee to Examine Craft.

Lunenburg, N. S., April 9.—(Canadian Press)—Bluenose, one of Nova Scotia's entries for the elimination races which will determine the Canadian challenger in the great international fisherman's schooner races for the Halifax Herald trophy to be sailed this fall, is rapidly being turned up for a trip to Halifax, where she will be thrown open for inspection, preparatory to a start being made for the Grand Banks about the middle of the month.

Immediately following her launching from the yards of Smith and Rhuland on March 26 the work of stepping her masts was begun. This was completed in big time without incident and the schooner was turned over to the riggers who are now engaged in applying the finishing touches to what all are agreed in language of the banks is a "right smart boat."

Captain Angus Walters, expert fisherman, master and part owner of the Bluenose, is enthusiastic over his new charge and confident that she will prove one of the high-liners of the great Lunenburg fleet of upwards of one hundred sail. He is not so optimistic concerning the fishing capabilities of the possible American defender, Mayflower, built at Essex, Massachusetts, and expresses the belief that she has not got the necessary carrying capacity to pay her way as a banks fisherman, which he holds should be the first qualification for entrance in the elimination races. Walters points out that in the preservation of a proper spirit in college athletics it was found necessary to rule that no man should represent his university unless he maintained a certain standard in his studies, and contends that a somewhat similar rule should be applied to fishing schooner racing, if the sport is to be saved from degenerating into a game for designers expert in creating freak boats. He holds that no boat should be permitted to enter the international fisherman's race unless it is able to demonstrate its ability to deliver the goods as a fisherman. "Of course," said Walters, "the proof of the pudding is in the eating and if the Mayflower can pay her way as a banks fisherman, I will be among the first to take off my hat to her." Yachting experts who have examined the plans of both schooners are inclined to agree with "Captain Angus." They say that in order to give her sufficient carrying capacity to prove a successful fisherman, it was necessary to carry Bluenose's beam well below the waterline, while in the case of the Mayflower a slightly lower beam at the deck loses itself almost immediately in the hull-lines of a racing machine. The consensus of their opinion is that the Bluenose will prove no match for Mayflower except in a blow or extremely light air. The respective merits of the two boats form the chief topic of discussion at present throughout the fishing communities of Nova Scotia. Members of the Canadian committee in charge of the event are more reticent, declining to be quoted for the time being. It is understood that a delegation representing this committee is proceeding to Massachusetts to inspect the Mayflower on the spot.

ENTERTAINED BY SAPPHIRE LODGE

President of Rebekah Assembly and Three Past Presidents Honored.

Sapphire Rebekah Lodge, No. 37, I. O. O. F., held a special meeting in I. O. O. F. hall in Simonds street, on Thursday evening, for the purpose of receiving the president of the Rebekah Assembly, Mrs. Barbara McKenzie of Yarmouth, N. S. After the lodge was opened, Mrs. McKenzie was introduced and welcomed. She gave a very interesting address along Rebekah lines. There were also present three past presidents, Mrs. Ellsworth of Woodstock, Mrs. Lindow of St. Stephen, and Miss S. Smith of West St. John, each of whom gave an interesting address. U. G. Staples gave a reading, and W. A. Sege sang a solo. After the meeting was closed, the remainder of the evening was passed sociably. Refreshments were served. A very pretty bouquet of daffodils was presented to the president by the members of the Rebekah Lodge, who wished her through their D. D. F., Mrs. C. I. Sege, much success in her work.

Edmonton, Alta., April 8.—Introduction of the use of moving pictures into the public schools of all parts of Edmonton was decided on by the Edmonton Federation of Community Leagues.

Blackheads indicate your cleansing method is wrong

BLACKHEADS indicate that the method you are using is not the right method of cleansing for your type of skin. A skin specialist would tell you that blackheads are caused by excessive oil collecting dirt in the pores of your skin. To do away with the cause of blackheads and free your skin from this disfiguring trouble, use the following simple treatment:

APPLY hot cloths to the face until the skin is reddened. Then with a rough washcloth work up a heavy lather of Woodbury's Facial Soap and rub it into the pores thoroughly, always with an upward and outward motion. Rinse with clear, hot water, then with cold—the colder the better. If possible, rub your face for thirty seconds with a piece of ice. Dry carefully. To remove blackheads already formed, substitute a flesh brush for the washcloth in this treatment. Then protect the fingers with a handkerchief and press out the blackheads.

GET a cake of Woodbury's today, at any drug store or toilet goods counter, and begin this treatment tonight. You will be astonished to see how quickly your skin will improve in clearness. A 25-cent cake of Woodbury's will last for a month or six weeks. The Andrew Jergens Co., Cincinnati, New York and Perth, Ontario.

NORTH END KNIGHTS WERE THE HOSTS

The Pythian Castle in Union street was the scene of a gay and happy gathering last night when the St. John Lodge, No. 80, of the Knights of Pythias, the North End Lodge, entertained its lady friends and there were 450 persons present.

REVENUE MAN DREADED TO SEE NIGHT COME

Was so Rundown and Nervous It Was Nearly Impossible to Eat or Sleep, Says Deshaies—Tanlac Restores Him.

"When it comes to relieving a man of indignation and making him feel right this Tanlac is in a class by itself," said Georges Deshaies, of 92 Montana St., Montreal, a well known employe in the Internal Revenue Service.

need, for no matter how careful I was about my eating, everything seemed to disagree with me. After every meal I would bloat up with gas and be in terrible pain and distress. My nerves were on edge all the time, and everything seemed to annoy and worry me. I actually dreaded to see night come, for I was so restless that sleep was almost out of the question.

BRITAIN WILL NOT ADDRESS NOTE TO U. S.

London, April 9.—The London Times this morning publishes a reply of Sir Hamar Greenwood, the chief secretary for Ireland, to T. P. O'Connor, one of the Nationalist leaders in parliament, who had asked Sir Hamar whether the report of the American Commission of One Hundred on conditions in Ireland had represented British forces as killing, assassinating and torturing people and also with destruction in Ireland, and whether the British government would make representations to the United States government in reply to "this serious indictment."

Henwood Never Worries About Timely Sales.

A valuable suggestion for the retailer desirous of winning the trade of the rural districts, so often held in part or completely by the mail order houses, comes from Manager Earl C. Henwood, of the Hazle Drug Co. in Hazelton, Pa., who has worked out a calendar of be distributed to farmers and take the place of the old almanac so assiduously studied by the agriculturist.

At the top of every page is printed a list of seasonal suggestions with pictures appended. For instance, January features hot-water bottles, cough medicine is played up in February, spring tonic in March, and so on up to December, when Christmas suggestions for gifts are shown.

On the back of every page is a chart and table for farm and household records. These cover milk, eggs, butter, hay, land, timber, live stock, crops, poultry, feed, farm and household expenses and followed to the end of the year with the sign of the zodiac for each day is also suspended for every day of the calendar month.

Off and on through the summer transient residents of this town have been energetic in running up accounts at the "Reflection Shop."

Henwood declares that the plan already has paid for the expense of putting it into operation. The call for the spraying chemicals applied in winter to fruit trees developed in such proportions that he is confident his balance sheet for the year will show that the calendar idea has doubled the trade that he enjoyed from the farmers in 1920. He believes that as spring comes, he will see even greater results and the farmers' calendars will be a regular feature of the Hazle Drug Co. work for years to come.

A Simple Idea That Boosted Sales 36 p. c. Sales by clerks in the L. A. Barone in Plankinton, S. D., have increased as much as thirty-six per centuring the last year and the average increase per clerk has been nearly that much. The reason is self-kept clerk's records, devised and put into use by Mr. Barone.

There are all kinds of mark-down sales, ranging all the way from "pre-inventories" to "store's anniversary," but Franklin Simon & Co.'s New York department store has found a new way of wakening up the Fifth avenue shopping crowds. It has just held an "extemporaneous sale" in its men's furnishings department, with results that have conclusively proved the drawing power of the venture.

What was the reason? Baron says it is his system of self-kept records, and he has good grounds for his opinion. This system has put competition into the life of his store. The clerks every day know just how much merchandise they sold, because they check it up themselves. They find out what the other fellow sold. If they are behind they speed up, and if they are ahead they work harder to keep the cash for they know that the higher their sales the bigger the pay-check will be.

Two High Schools Are Basis of This Business When "Dutch" Busing started a confectionery and ice-cream parlor in Fowerton, Ind., a town of 2500 that was already endowed with one very excellent candy store and which had three drug stores, all equipped with modern furnishings and doing a good business, his friends went out of their way to tell him what sort of a tough proposition he was up against.

starter until he could establish himself. That was five years ago. Today Busing has young trade that is profitable and steady in school season and out of it, simply by making his store the town's headquarters for young folks.

With his 1500 customers, who regularly came for cigars, cigarettes and tobacco, as well as newspapers and magazines, Segaloff says the new lines added have given him a large number of transients, and the people who enter his store to use the telephone booths have proved to be another source of additional business. Despite the fact that a drug store on the opposite corner has taken that he has secured all the neighborhood trade in cigars and tobacco, and that these customers invariably purchase from him whatever toilet accessories they need, making the combined purchase at the one time.

Side Line of Books Now Runs the Store From being merely a dispenser of newspapers, magazines and writing paper and material, Tom Fletcher, a small stationer in a library town, twelve miles or so from London, has become a retailer of novels to nearly the whole of the local population of some 20,000 people.

Soon after the announcement was made in the local press the Fletcher store was inundated by booklovers, who were anxious to take advantage of the use of a library of several hundred books for the initial outlay of fifty cents.

Perfumes and Soap Team Well Together A side line that sells $100 worth of goods weekly is conducted by the cigar store of Segaloff & Sons, in Philadelphia—a full line of perfumes and toilet talcum powders, cosmetics, rubber goods and soaps.

There's Only One Thing in This Shop—Kewpies. If you don't think it's possible for a retail store to exist selling only one kind of article—identical in kind, style and color—you are invited to visit one of the most unique shops in New York.

Then he applied a bit of psychology to the matter. The salespeople cut up the bolts in two and three-yard lengths and then folded and fastened the separate piece at the corners, so that they could be displayed on the counters in neat piles. This work was done in the rear of the store out of sight of the customers.

Can you picture an artistic old rose shop, with cunning little doll tables and chairs of rose color set around and nothing but Kewpies as stock? Big Kewpie little Kewpies, Kewpies skating, Kewpies bathing. Kewpie heads, life size. Kewpie pictures, Kewpie soldiers, pirates babies, coy dantes — Kewpies of every size, shape, style, dress and color you can think of.

Where "Price" Failed. W. C. Hunter, Grand Rapids, Ia., recently was confronted with a surplus stock of print material, such as ginghams, calico and percale, which, on account of a falling market in these goods he was anxious to move from the shelves. Hunter advertised in the local newspapers in the usual manner, offering big reductions, and, although it helped some, the results were still far short of what was desired.

BURGLARS BLOW OPEN SAFE IN A NORTH END OFFICE

Cash Taken From New System Laundry

Pillows Used to Deadend the Sound of Explosion—Trail Points Towards Border, on Which Line Another Robbery is Reported.

This morning when R. C. Holt, proprietor of the New System Laundry, Ltd., arrived at his office he discovered the building shattered and the partition of his office dislodged. Sometime during the night or early hours of the morning the robbers broke a window in the rear of the laundry, which is situated in a somewhat secluded spot in Elm street and then moved back a large bolt attached to the door. They broke open a tool chest in the machine shop and selecting a large hammer and cold chisel started to open the safe. The combination lock showed evidence of the chisel's work and the outer casing showed signs of heavy blows with the hammer. These means evidently proved ineffective and they then proceeded to blow the door off. There was no sign of any attempt having been made to bore a hole in the door in which to place a stick of dynamite, but judging from the wrecked condition of the massive door with its large steel plates bent and shattered the yeg-men used nitro glycerine or other powerful explosive.

Those who viewed the wreckage were of the opinion that no professional would attempt to open a safe with a hammer and a chisel nor would they insert such a large charge of "soup," which would cause the main case to explode, pillows and mattresses to deadend the sound of the explosion, but even though the laundry is some distance from any houses it is thought that the report could have been heard at some distance. The safe is so badly demolished that it is beyond repair.

Mr. Holt was unable to tell exactly how much money was in the safe, but estimates that he had at least $275 in cash. He also had two Dominion government war bonds in one of the pigeon holes, but they were evidently overlooked. None of the books were disturbed although some of the edges were torn by the shattered steel.

Some residents of Elm street say that during the night they heard a noise, but did not attach any significance to it until this morning when they learned of the robbery. News of the daring break spread quickly throughout the city and this morning a large number of people visited the laundry to view the scene. The matter was reported to the police and detectives searched the premises for any clues that might have been left. About noon today Sergeant Detective John T. Powers, Detectives Patrick F. Biddiscombe and Kenneth Donahue and Provincial Constable A. Garnett, left by automobile in the direction of Dipper Harbor.

A communication from Masquash this morning early was to the effect that Mrs. Melanson's store was broken into during the night and it is believed that this was done by the same persons who perpetrated the daring robbery in the laundry. The police believe this act was done by the same persons and they are said to have left the city in a carriage and it is presumed they are making for the border.

EXHIBIT OF OLD FIRE POLICIES

Two interesting exhibits appear in the window of C. E. L. Jarvis & Son, fire insurance agents. One is a policy of the Montreal Fire Insurance Co. of St. John, issued in 1847, and signed as president by E. L. Jarvis, grandfather of E. L. Jarvis, of the present firm.
 The other exhibit is a policy issued in 1868 by the Queen Insurance Company, signed by the late C. E. L. Jarvis, as general agent, and which company is still active after a period of fifty-five years, doing business through C. E. L. Jarvis & Son.
 In the St. John conflagration of 1877 the Queen lost $732,000.00, and all losses were promptly paid.
 The office of C. E. L. Jarvis & Son now represents fire insurance companies with combined assets of over five hundred million dollars and conducts one of the largest insurance offices in the maritime provinces.

QUEBEC, APRIL 8—(Canadian Press)

Leut. Gen. Sir Richard Turner has just returned after a visit to the Bahamas and West Indies and urges the stimulation of Canadian trade with the islands, which will be made possible by the service provided by the Canadian government merchant marine. He said that the islands were a thriving hive of whiskey running and that, as a result, a heavy debt incurred during the war, had been converted into a substantial surplus.

JOINT MEETING BEING PLANNED

Fight for Higher Bridge Continues—Several Bodies Interested in Matter.

It is expected that a joint meeting of the executive of the Board of Trade, Commercial Club, Retail Merchants Association and Rotary Club will be called the first of the week to take action in a very important matter. A group of business men, deeply interested in the welfare of the city, held a meeting yesterday afternoon to discuss the question of raising the C. P. R. bridge at the falls. It was made perfectly clear from the plans they had before them that it was in the interest of navigation and necessary to eliminate the grade crossing at Douglas Avenue and make the best use of the Strait Shore road that the bridge should be raised to the height of the present highway bridge. The whole question was thoroughly discussed and, as members of the Board of Trade and Commercial Club were present and expressed very strong views on the subject, it is expected that the question will be brought immediately before these bodies and other organizations and strong resolutions adopted to back up the city council in a vigorous effort to have the bridge raised. The public works department, following the visit of the delegation to Ottawa, ordered a new survey and the question therefore is still open. Action to be effective, however, should be taken promptly and hence the decision yesterday to have all the facts clearly presented before the organizations named.

ROBBED HERO'S WIDOW.

Fake War-Widow Secured Money on False Pretenses. London, April 8—Cruel and heartless fraud by an elderly woman of the name of Alice Wakeford, was described when she was brought up at South-West London, charged with obtaining money from Mrs. Kirkpatrick, of Stratford, grove, Putney, by means of a trick. Prosecution told the magistrate that prior to her death, Mrs. Kirkpatrick, a widow, was in the habit of visiting her, and she also was one of her "sons," accused added, "was on the battlefield when your husband died." Witness invited her to the house to tea, and gave her £20—£10 to enable her to return home. Witness never heard any more from the woman and found her representations to be false. Other women were stated to have been similarly imposed upon. Mr. Banks described prisoner as a wicked old woman, and remarked that it was positively disgusting to use the war as a means of securing a charge of stealing a ride.

SAVING OF THE SOCIAL DERELICT

Practical Vocations Are Taught to the Prisoners in the Washington Jail.

(New York Times) An educational system is in full operation in the District of Columbia which presupposes not the budding mind of the child beginning schooling but adult experience; in fact, a past, a recorded past. For no one can get into the schools conducted by Charles C. Foster unless he has been passed upon by a public tribunal, or, in other words, sent to jail. Only those temporarily deprived of liberty are eligible to matriculate. Attendance is voluntary. They are, however, no truants. The terms vary according to the individual allotments, and some leave the institutions which house the schools before they have been graduated from the school classes. In cases of graduation, however, the school system has already proven its success as a penological experiment. The Foster schools began with the establishment of a school in the Jefferson County jail at Louisville, Ky., where Mr. Foster was jailer. It was the logical working of the idea that the lack of real education is the cause of a large percentage of minor crime in the United States. The jailer put the theory into practice. It worked so well that the records show that out of 300 graduates of the school only one was ever sentenced to the jail. When the Louisville man was appointed to the superintendency of the District of Columbia institutions, the work-realization that law-breaking does not pay. "The right kind of education" is the essence of the Foster school system. By it the profit of the method means training that will fit a man for his job in life and help him to find a job. Mr. Foster believes that the training should have come in childhood to the men and women whose lack of it has landed them in jails and prisons, and that the prison school is nothing but a repair shop, instead of a factory, that society should have furnished. "The jail school is only a stop-gap in the criminal problem," he says, "but it is a movement in the right direction, I am sure, since the prevention and cure of crime is largely a matter of education."

DO NOT WANT THE DOMESTICS NOW

Mrs. Harold Lawrence returned last night from Ottawa, where she attended the special meeting of the Canadian Council for the Immigration of Women which is an advisory council for the department of immigration. The meeting occupied two busy days and was taken up with many matters of vital importance to the immigration policy for women. Mrs. William Dennis, president of the executive, was in the chair. Mrs. Charles Robson, convener of the committee, tendered her resignation and several applications for the position were received but the meeting refused to consider them, believing that the vacancy had not been sufficiently advertised and Mrs. Robson will act until her successor is appointed. The council considered the offer of the British government to pay the passage to Canada of all untrained girls who would be willing to come to Canada to take up domestic service. The British government recommended that these girls should be given opportunity of training in the existing machinery in the dominion. A resolution was passed at the council meeting recommending that in view of the present unemployment the offer be not accepted until such time as the girls could be absorbed in the various provinces.

house at Occuquan and the reformatory at Lorton, Va., he again applied the theory, although the war conditions that existed then made the work of establishment of the schools at little slow. They are now in full operation and to them has been added a fourth, the school in the District of Columbia jail in the city of Washington, of which Mr. Foster is also superintendent. The Washington jail school, which has started with a voluntary enrollment of twenty-eight pupils, holds session in a high, whitewashed, blue-ceilinged corridor lighted by tall windows that, save by their bars, have a cathedral effect. Two rows of desks face the teacher's platform and a blackboard. Each desk is equipped with elementary text books, pencils, pens and paper. To some of the students the text books are not entirely necessary. One who enrolled is the secretary of a Congressman from a Western State. He is sojourning in jail for contempt of court and evidently joined the class to while away the dull hours. Most of the pupils, however, are illiterate. The jail teacher, acting under the guidance of the superintendent, has instituted the individual method. He is teaching a young colored man mensuration, so that the latter may be able to figure the cost of painting jobs when he is free to work at his trade. He instructs a former teamster in rudimentary accounting. He is laboriously showing a middle-aged man how to spell. He has found the goal of all those who have any, and is trying to get goals for those who have none. The teacher himself is a prisoner. His educational proficiency did not keep him out of jail, for he has an Atlanta record back of his sentence, but the superintendent is not discouraged about him or his apparent contradiction of the method he is using. "He had schooling," the founder of the Foster school says, "but not of the right kind. If it had been right, it would have trained and given him mind—for he has one—in the RUSSIANS ASK TO STAY IN GERMANY Berlin, March 28.—(Associated Press, by mail).—Continued exchange of Russian and German prisoners of war has developed the fact that many Russian soldiers have no intention to return to their homeland at this time if they can possibly avoid it. The Cossack prisoners are particularly reluctant to go back to Russia and shoulder guns in the Soviet armies, with which many of them are frankly unsympathetic. The men in one camp near Berlin asked the German government for permission to remain here. Under one pretext or another it is being made easy for these soldiers to remain in Germany, the supposition being that they will later establish residence here. There are still 100,000 or more former Russian soldiers in German internment or prison camps, although the number of Germans still held in Russia has been reduced to less than 10,000. Some of the Russian prisoners have taken advantage of the Soviet government's "open-purse" policy in favor of propagandists or agents who, it is considered, may be of use to the Lenin-Trotsky regime. One former Russian officer is reported to have recently received 75,000 German marks from Moscow ostensibly "for use in his home district in Russia." The officer, however, is still in Germany and has given no indication of eagerness to return. The lenient attitude of the German guards toward the Russian prisoners has caused a number of newspapers to complain that Victor Kopp, Soviet representative here, was taking advantage of the situation for propaganda purposes, but Kopp denied the charge. Many of the Russians have secured paroles. About fifty Cossack musicians are permitted to visit different cities to play in cafes and restaurants and at entertainments. These men were paroled in charge of a Young Men's Christian Association worker. The prisoners also are permitted to hold "fairs" and sell their handwork to raise money for use in the camps. The Russian prisoners generally appear well-fed, well-clothed and appreciative of the German hospitality.

Ford THE UNIVERSAL CAR Points about a Ford you should know WHAT does a Ford Touring Car cost? $675 f. o. b. Ford, Ontario (starter and electric lighting $100 extra). Is it economical of gasoline? The owner of a 1914 Ford Touring Car, from careful records kept, claims that in driving 50,000 miles, May 8th, 1914 to June 15th, 1920, he averaged over 24 miles per gallon. How much oil does it consume? The same owner claims over 500 miles per gallon of oil. Is it easy to operate? The special Ford planetary transmission combines ease of operation and smooth, silent running qualities. Only one lesson is usually necessary to learn to drive a Ford Car. Has it sufficient power? Perhaps the most distinctive single feature of the Ford is its simply constructed, easily operated and powerful engine. While its four cylinders are rated to produce twenty horsepower, the Ford has actually more power per pound of car weight than any other automobile made. Will it pay me to buy a Ford? Yes, millions of Ford car owners have proved that it is an aid to them in business and improves their living conditions. The Ford car, with its low cost, quality and simplicity of design is the car for all purposes. Wherever you go—Ford Service Ford Motor Company of Canada Limited, Ford, Ontario.

There are still 100,000 or more former Russian soldiers in German internment or prison camps, although the number of Germans still held in Russia has been reduced to less than 10,000. Some of the Russian prisoners have taken advantage of the Soviet government's "open-purse" policy in favor of propagandists or agents who, it is considered, may be of use to the Lenin-Trotsky regime. One former Russian officer is reported to have recently received 75,000 German marks from Moscow ostensibly "for use in his home district in Russia." The officer, however, is still in Germany and has given no indication of eagerness to return. The lenient attitude of the German guards toward the Russian prisoners has caused a number of newspapers to complain that Victor Kopp, Soviet representative here, was taking advantage of the situation for propaganda purposes, but Kopp denied the charge. Many of the Russians have secured paroles. About fifty Cossack musicians are permitted to visit different cities to play in cafes and restaurants and at entertainments. These men were paroled in charge of a Young Men's Christian Association worker. The prisoners also are permitted to hold "fairs" and sell their handwork to raise money for use in the camps. The Russian prisoners generally appear well-fed, well-clothed and appreciative of the German hospitality.

PROGRAMME FOR THE GOOD ROADS CONVENTION OUT

Meeting in Halifax in May Will be Busy One

T. P. Regan of St. John to Preside at One of The Sessions—An Outline of The Matters Arranged For Consideration

Montreal, April 9.—The programme for the eighth annual convention of the Canadian Good Roads Association, and exhibition of road machinery and materials, was sent out to every municipality in the Dominion this week by Secretary Geo. A. McNamee, with an invitation to attend the convention at Halifax on May 10, 11 and 12 next, to some 12,000 members of good roads, automobile, engineering and other organizations. Many municipal councils have already taken the necessary steps to instruct delegates to attend, for past experience of the conventions has shown them that their officials and members have gained a great deal of useful information from the technical papers that are delivered and the discussions that follow them, which has resulted in the saving of hundreds of dollars to the municipality. From so far distant a place as Vancouver, Mayor Gale has written that that city would be officially represented at the convention, while the Hon. S. J. Latta, Minister of Highways, Saskatchewan, and the Hon. James E. King, Minister of Public Works, British Columbia, are to make the long journey to the east for the gathering. Word has also been received that Premier J. H. Bell, of Prince Edward Island, and the Hon. C. W. Crosby, his Minister of Public Works, are going to attend the sessions, while Premier Y. A. Taschereau, of Quebec, has indicated his desire to also visit the Land of Evangeline for the convention, so that there is every indication that there will be more distinguished provincial government representatives than at any previous good roads convention. The full cabinet of the Nova Scotia government will be there, with the heads of the various Good Roads Associations of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Ontario and other provinces.

"A Prophet in His Own Country—"

You know the old saying. It is a fact, though, that people close to an enterprise often overlook its importance to the immediate community.

Few people perhaps realize that Fraser Companies, Limited, is New Brunswick's largest single industry; and that, in number of people and output, it is one of the greatest lumber industries in Canada and, indeed, in the world.

Yet these facts speak for themselves: 7,000 people draw wages or salaries from it every month; $6,000,000 was paid out in wages and salaries in 1920; In the past two years it has brought into the Province $16,000,000.

Fraser Companies is a primary factor in the industrial life of the Maritime Provinces.

It is for these reasons that the 8% Bonds of Fraser Companies, Limited, should appeal to you as a Maritime Province investor.

At 99 and interest, to yield 8.10%, they are not only a thoroughly secured, high-grade investment, but one that affords you an opportunity of supporting an industry essentially necessary to the welfare of the Maritime Provinces.

growth of motor transportation in the past few years and its still more tremendous potentiality for the future means that large sums will inevitably be spent on the highways to make them useful for longer periods and decrease transportation costs, and the Canadian Good Roads Association is seeking through its conventions held all over the Dominion to educate the public mind to the value of improved roads for the agricultural as well as the manufacturer and private citizens. delegates will have little spare time during the convention. The opening session is at 8.30 a. m. on May 10, the delegates registering previously at the entrance to the convention hall in the Technical College. After the appointment of committees the president, E. M. Desaulniers, M. L. A., will ask the Lieutenant-governor to formally open the congress, and after the Hon. McCallum Grant has spoken the visiting gentlemen, cabinet ministers and others will give addresses, to which S. L. Squire, chairman of the executive committee, will reply. Then the out-of-town delegates will be driven around the harbor, and the visiting Rotarians will be entertained to luncheon by the Rotary Club.

The second session, presided over by B. Michaud, deputy minister of highways, Quebec, will open with an address on the Progress of Federal Aid, by the Hon. P. J. Veniot, minister of highways, New Brunswick, followed by an address on gravel roads by B. M. Hild, provincial engineer, New Brunswick. Col. W. D. Solier, ex-chairman Massachusetts Highway Commission, always a popular figure at good roads conventions, because he always talks about something of particular interest to the district he is in, will speak on the Bituminous Treatment of Gravel and Sand Roads, and discussion of these papers will complete the afternoon session before the informal reception of delegates at the residence of the Lieutenant-governor.

The third session will be presided over by R. H. Murray, president of the Nova Scotia Good Roads Association, and the opening address will be a description by J. A. Churchill, deputy chairman of the Road Commission of Newfoundland, on the road situation in Britain's oldest colony. Chief Engineer E. A. James, of the York Highway Commission will inform the delegates of economical methods of rebuilding gravel and macadam roads, and then William Findlay of Toronto will tell the convention of different methods of financing, bonding and providing revenue for highway construction. There will be two or three other papers in this session which have not definitely been decided on, dealing with rights of way, road bed widths, and the organization of an efficient highway department. Just after noon the annual meeting and luncheon of the Canadian Automobile Association will be held.

At the fourth session, presided over by T. P. Regan, the president of the New Brunswick Good Roads Association, the Hon. C. W. Crosby will speak on the progress of road building in Prince Edward Island, while A. P. Sandes, of Columbus, Ohio, will let the delegates into the secret of how to preserve a macadam road. Transportation questions, drainage and the handling of modern road machinery will also be dealt with at this session, which will be followed by the annual dinner and entertainment.

The president of the Ontario Good Roads Association, T. J. Mahony, will preside at the fifth session, at which Prof. A. H. Blanchard, of Michigan University will speak on Asphaltic Concrete Pavements, after an address by the Hon. S. J. Latta, of Saskatchewan, Highway bridges and cement concrete roads will also be discussed at this meeting, while at the sixth session, presided over by Hon. S. J. Latta, P. P. Sharples, of New York, will speak on refined tar in construction and maintenance, and J. A. Duchesne, general manager of Outremont, on the general question of maintenance.

The complete road-making machinery of the Nova Scotia government will be on exhibition during the convention, and probably there will be demonstrations of road making. All the Good Roads Associations of the maritime provinces are whole heartedly co-operating to make the national convention an unqualified success.

SEVERAL BILLS ARE DEALT WITH

Fredericton, April 8.—The legislature this afternoon spent much time in committee, when several bills were advanced through the committee stage. Several sections of the Game Act were agreed to, and further consideration will be continued next week.

The house adjourned at 5:20 o'clock to meet again on Monday night at 9 o'clock.

Mr. Robichaud presented the report of the committee on corporations.

Mr. Hayes presented the report of the committee on municipalities.

Mr. Smith (Carleton) introduced a bill to authorize the town of Woodstock to issue debentures; also a bill to amend an act relating to the said town.

Mr. Richards introduced a bill to amend the Schools Act.

Hon. Mr. Foster introduced a bill to amend the Better Housing Act. He explained that certain municipalities, which had taken advantage of the act and erected houses were now seeking to dispose of the same, but because of decreased values, could only do so at a loss. They now asked authority to make up the difference by an assessment.

Hon. Mr. Foster introduced a bill to amend the New Brunswick Electrical Power Act of 1920.

Hon. Mr. Foster presented the annual report of the directors and chief engineer of the St. John and Quebec Railway Company.

The house then went into committee, with Mr. Young in the chair, and agreed to bills to wind up the Association of United Baptists of New Brunswick, to amend the Church of England Act and to incorporate the Sussex Amateur Athletic Club.

The house again went into committee with Mr. Hayes in the chair, and took up consideration of a bill to amend the Theatre and Cinematograph Act.

Hon. Mr. Foster replying to a question by the chairman, said that there was a provision in the law allowing an appeal from the decision of the board of censors, but it had seldom been acted upon. He presumed its object was to give some protection to theatre owners who went to considerable expense in purchasing films.

Mr. Hayes said he thought the right to appeal might very well be done away with. The bill was agreed to, and the committee reported on a bill to amend the Schools Act.

The committee next took consideration of a bill to amend the Highway Act. The committee amended the bill by inserting a provision requiring that notice of the regulations shall be published in a newspaper circulating in the locality affected.

The committee agreed to bills relating to land surveyors and the survey of land, and to amend the Probate Courts Act.

The Game Act.

The bill to consolidate and amend the Game Act was next taken up.

The committee reported progress.

Hon. Mr. Foster moved the suspension of rule 78 to permit of the introduction of a bill to provide for the construction of municipal buildings for the city and county of St. John.

Mr. Tracey introduced a bill to authorize and empower the municipality of Carleton county to assist Agricultural Society No. 41 with an annual grant, a bill to permit and authorize the town of Woodstock to assist Agricultural Society No. 41 with an annual grant, and a bill to exempt the debentures of Agricultural Society No. 41 from taxation.

An auto-truck, the property of Fred B. Haasen, ran wild in Burpee avenue shortly after noon, yesterday, and brought up against the stone wall, facing on the avenue. The driver of the truck said that the wheels locked and he lost control. The force of the impact caused the front axle to crumple up and dinged the radiator so that it was necessary to have the truck towed away. Fortunately, the driver was able to turn the truck inwards towards the wall as otherwise it would have gone over the steep embankment to the street below.

HANNA HAS FAITH IN C. N. RAILROAD

Orillia, Ont., April 8.—D. B. Hanna, president of the Canadian National Railway, addressed the Canadian Club here tonight. He spoke optimistically about Canada's railways, and said there were not too many of them, as some people claimed. While the Canadian National Railway had not paid, President Hanna said that if the people would only have patience the government railways would become an exceedingly valuable and profitable asset.

As to the "no politics" order issued some time ago by President Hanna, he said: "That order stands, and I believe that 90 per cent of the national railways' employes are with me."

ANOTHER VESSEL DESTROYED BY FIRE AT SEA

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
New York, April 8.—The United States schooner Conanville, from Mobile for Areibo, Porto Rico, has been destroyed by fire and her crew rescued by the British steamer Parthenia, a wireless message from the Parthenia received today here said.

The schooner was sighted about fifty miles off the eastern coast of Florida in flames and with her masts gone. The crew was picked up from life boats. The rescue vessel is en route to Tampa from Liverpool.

How to Meet the Shortage of Dwellings in America

When the call came to feed starving millions across the seas, American generosity, efficiency, and foresight were not wanting. Now comes a call to provide shelter for a great nation without homes enough for its growing population—and that nation is the United States. In the largest city of the country, 100,000 families are doubling up with one or more other families; there are places in the city where twelve persons live in three rooms; where four persons sleep in a kitchen every night; and hundreds of rooms in which four or five persons sleep. There is tuberculosis and there have been isolated cases of typhus. These conditions exist and this description appears in a report of a committee of the United States Senate which calls for government action to help build homes for our people.

In THE LITERARY DIGEST this week, April 9th, the leading article is devoted to the housing shortage and the steps that are being taken by Federal and State Governments, Builders' Associations, and other agencies toward alleviating the condition.

Among the other striking news-articles in this number of THE DIGEST are:

SIXTEEN FAMILIES RECEIVE FREE MILK

Sixteen needy families will receive milk free today, and tomorrow there will be twenty-five needy families supplied with milk according to their requirements. This has been made possible by the speedy action of the members of the committee appointed by the St. John local council of women to handle the fund for providing milk for needy mothers and children. The sub-committee on investigating and distributing through personal visiting has listed the names of the specially deserving cases and tickets for milk have been given to those who are in real need.

The tickets are to be presented at a dry where the milk has already been ordered and paid for. The number of tickets given to any family is only sufficient for one week and a visit will be made when they are used in order to make sure that more are required before they are given. A few more generous contributions to the fund were received yesterday and the first order for milk was given. It is hoped that the supplying of milk in West St. John will be commenced early next week.

Some of the cases which are receiving milk are pre-natal care. In some cases the father of the family is in hospital or is out of employment. In every case the need of the mother or the children is serious.

The final details of the arrangements for distribution were made yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the investigating and distributing committee held in the Red Cross depot with Miss Haslam, V. O. N., the convener in the chair. Others present at the meeting were Miss Grace Robertson of the Associated Charities, Miss Ethel Hazen Jarvis, secretary of the Provincial Red Cross; Mrs. A. M. Rowan, lady superintendent of the V. A. D's; Mrs. W. D. Forster and Miss Mary Flett, of the Patriotic fund; Mrs. A. F. Robinson, supervisor of the Free Kindergartens; Mrs. W. B. Tennant of the Children's Aid board; Mrs. G. E. Barbour of the Nurses Association, and Mrs. F. E. Holman, secretary of the fund committee.

Disposal of Surplus.

A gift of milk was sent by Centenary Church Sunday school to the Marsh Bridge Free Kindergarten yesterday morning and so abundant was the supply that it was more than the children could use. The two teachers rose nobly to the occasion. They did not wish to have any of the milk wasted when there were plenty of little children that would be grateful for it, so they set out with the big pitchers of milk and, calling at homes where they thought there would be small people who would like a drink of milk, they made a pilgrimage of delight and soon had empty pitchers. There are a great many little children in the city who would thank both those who distributed the milk and those who sent it in the first instance.

THREE SITES FOR WEST END SCHOOL

Two committees of the school board met yesterday afternoon in the trustees room in Hazen avenue. The committee appointed to consider the matter of a school site in West St. John submitted a report that will be dealt with at the regular meeting of the board. Three sites were mentioned. There was some discussion as to the kind of building which will be erected. The committee favored a two-storey building with an ample basement. The opinion was that the assembly room should be on the ground floor and that accommodation for vocational training classes might be arranged in the plan. The finance committee considered the matter of teachers' salaries and made some recommendations, as to the rearranging of the schedule so as to give more equitable division of the salaries. It was felt that some teachers were not receiving remuneration proportionate to that received by others.

17 GOVERNMENTS IN THE UKRAINE IN LAST 4 MONTHS

Revolutions By Peasants Against Four Different Forms of Government—Horror of The Soviet Activities

Prague, March 17.—(Associated Press by mail.)—Seventeen different governments have been upset and supplanted with entire changes of authority in the Ukraine since 1917, since the Volin, a Russian daily paper published here by Social-Revolutionists. The revolutions, it is said, have been due to the struggles of the peasantry against the successive rule of the Germans, the Cossack hetman, the land barons, and, finally, the Bolsheviks.

After telling about the revolts of the Little Russians against "authorities imposed upon them without their consent," the article says:

"A radical change has occurred in the psychology of the peasant masses. Change which may be termed 'psychological staminal.' It is as if the souls of the people were changed back to the times of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, the times of the Tartar invasions, the slave markets of Constantinople in the struggle for the right to live on the ground drenched with the blood of their forefathers.

"Starving north Russia has sent forth hordes of thousands of Soviet employes and base speculators (persons dealing in foodstuffs carried in bags on their backs) to the Ukraine provinces, in quest of food, while about 200,000 Soviet troops are stationed in the cities, towns and hamlets of the Ukraine.

Soviet Reign of Terror.

"Many families from North Russia are migrating to the south to escape death by starvation. At the same time, the Soviet authorities have taken steps to mobilize the male peasant population and send them away to the north and to the Ural, in an effort to combat the rebellion of the peasantry. The fear of the Austro-German period of occupation are as nothing compared with the horrors of the Soviet activities in the Ukraine.

"The earlier cruelties toward the peasant rebels, such as flogging, confiscation of farm implements and depletion of their resources, has been followed, the article says, by punitive expeditions, wholesale executions, hangings and shootings. The peasants in reprisal are reported as ambushing Bolshevik detachments, many of which disappear without a trace. Cases are on record, the newspaper states, where 'communists have been buried alive by the score'.

STOP SELF-POISONING BY REMOVING CAUSE

Internal Batching Reaches Source of Trouble, Cleanses and Purifies.

Buoyant spirits and a zest for the work of the day are never found in company with a constipated condition. Auto-intoxication, or self-poisoning results from the accumulation of waste matter in the lower intestine. Its ill-effects are manifested commonly in headaches, indigestion, piles, impure blood or sleeplessness, and particularly in hardening of the arteries and heart trouble.

Internal bathing is the one sure means of cleansing the intestinal tract, and keeping the system in the state which perfect health demands. Medicines only force nature, while internal bathing gently assists her.

The effects of the Internal Bath—the scientific application of warm water by means of "The J. B. L. Cascade"—is immediate invigoration of the entire system. It restores vim, confidence, and the glow of health.

Mrs. Robert Gordon, 422 Cadillac Street, Montreal, Que., writes: "I cannot speak too highly of the J. B. L. Cascade. It has saved my life. I have been troubled with constipation, piles and ulceration of the bowels for years, have only been using the Cascade for three months, and am happy to be doing my own work again after having been laid up for many months. I would not take one hundred dollars for my Cascade if I could not procure another."

The J. B. L. Cascade is the only perfect appliance for Internal Bathing. It is shown and explained at Clinton E. Brown's and F. W. Munro's, druggists, 25 John Street, Toronto.

THE CORRECT WAY TO TREAT ECZEMA

THE CORRECT WAY TO TREAT ECZEMA

The correct way to treat eczema and other skin diseases is through the blood. External applications of salve, etc., are not effective. Swallowing, taken inwardly, purifies the blood, tones up the system, drives out the disease and heals up the sores permanently.

THE CORRECT WAY TO TREAT ECZEMA

People from all walks of life afflicted with eczema and other diseases of the skin are laud in the praises of this wonderful remedy. For years they suffered untold agonies—in many instances physicians pronounced them incurable. But at last they found relief and were permanently healed through using Swatzena.

ALASKAN WOOD PULP.
Samples of the First "Run" Received From Juneau.
A new industry is being developed in Alaska. The manufacturing of wood pulp there will greatly alleviate the scarcity of newspaper paper throughout the United States. Samples of the first "run" from a new mill near Juneau, in the Tongass National Forest, have just been received by United States Forest Service officials, who say that this marks another milestone of progress in pulp production for the newspaper industry. The mill which produced this wood pulp is the first of its kind in the territory, and is operated by hydro-electric power. It has a capacity of twenty tons of pulp a day, with power resources available for increasing the output to 250 tons. While not equipped at present to turn out paper, it is the intention of the operating company to enlarge the plant so as to make a finished product. The sample received is high grade spruce pulp, but hemlock will also be ground in quantity for newspaper purposes.

The Forest Service has tried for many years to establish a pulp mill in Alaska, but the pioneering difficulties attending such an enterprise, coupled with the prevailing low prices for pulp and paper, have prevented development of the industry. It was not until the summer of 1920 that the first mill was built. The first run of pulp was made on Jan. 24.

"The Tongass National Forest of Alaska," said Chief Forester W. B. Greeley, "contains 70,000,000,000 feet of timber, sufficient to meet one-third of the pulp and paper requirements of the United States. There is also a tremendous amount of undeveloped water power, from which probably a quarter million horse power could be obtained. An area containing 2,000,000,000 feet of pulp-making timber will be placed on the market soon by the Forest Service in response to inquiries from prospective paper manufacturers."
