ABOUT RHEUMATISM

What Thousands Have Found Gives Relief From This Painful Trouble.

Rheumatism is a constitutional disease, manifesting itself in local aches and pains, inflamed joints and stiff muscles. It cannot be cured by local or external applications. It must have constitutional treatment.

Take a course of the great blood-purifying and tonic medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla, which corrects the acid condition of the blood on which rheumatism depends, and gives permanent relief. This medicine combines, with excellent alteratives and tonics, what is generally conceded to be the most efficient agent in the treatment of this disease.

If a cathartic or laxative is needed take Hood's Pills. Purely vegetable.

MEETING RE STRATHCONA TRUST TONIGHT

Brigadier-General A. H. Macdonnell, general officer commanding Military District No. 7, Lieutenant-Colonel H. C. Sparling, general staff officer, and Lieutenant-Colonel A. B. Snow, organizer and inspector of cadet corps of this province, left this afternoon for Fredericton to attend a meeting of the Strathcona trust this evening.

This trust was created in 1908 by Lord Strathcona and consisted of $230,000 for the encouragement of military training and physical culture in the schools of the provinces of Canada. In 1908 Lord Strathcona increased this trust to $300,000 and later increased it to $500,000, the interest of which amounting to $20,000, is to be given in prizes in the various provinces throughout the Dominion for the encouragement of physical culture and military training in the public schools.

For the purpose of administering this trust the executive council of the federal government has appointed local committees in each province, consisting of the senior military officers, as chairman, three military officers, three civilians and the superintendent of the board of education as ex officio. The New Brunswick committee is composed of Brigadier-General A. H. Macdonnell, chairman, the military officers, Lieutenant-Colonel S. B. Anderson of Moncton, C. G. Sturdee of St. John and Major F. A. Gordon of Fredericton, and the civilians, Dr. H. V. B. Bridges, Dr. B. C. Foster and Dr. Philip Cox, all of Fredericton, and Dr. W. S. Carter, superintendent of education for the province.

The Strathcona trust was administered in this province in 1919 and 1920 by the local committee, which took place in prizes for competitions in physical culture in the public schools.

There will be competitors for military training and physical culture among the following schools in this province this month, at the armories in this city. LABOR GETS INTO POLITICS IN THE STATES
(Associated Press)
Washington, Feb. 9.—Organized labor, 2,000,000 strong, has thrown its hat into the political ring in the United States. Vigorously denouncing congress, which it was stated "has failed to do its duty," the American Federation of Labor today announced a national non-partisan political committee, which will mobilize trade unionists and "all lovers of freedom" in an effort to defeat candidates indifferent or hostile to labor, and to elect "true and tried friends of the trade union movement."

Samuel Gompers, president of the federation, Frank Morrison, secretary, and a number of other prominent labor leaders were appointed an executive committee to obtain such assistance as necessary. Four women are included in the national committee.

A national crisis, threatening the free institutions of the country by the "reactionary" attitude of congress, it was said, impelled organized labor to apply this year the non-partisan policy formulated in 1908 and used in several subsequent campaigns.

RE-ORGANIZATION OF THE ARTILLERY

The Canadian garrison artillery which formerly was designated as the 8rd New Brunswick regiment C. G. A., will be known in the future organization, as the 8rd New Brunswick heavy brigade. The former organization consisted of three companies, with headquarters at St. John, No. 1 company at St. John, No. 2 at Carleton and No. 3 at Portland. The new brigade will consist of three batteries with headquarters at St. John but each battery will be designated by overseas numbers. There will be a battery at St. John, the designation of which has not yet been decided, 4th battery at Carleton and the 6th battery at Portland. These batteries are both well known units with marked overseas records. The 4th battery was commanded, taken overseas and brought back by Major L. W. Barker, of this city, while the 6th battery, formerly the 17th siege battery, was recruited in St. John and taken overseas under the command of Major Lawrence T. Allen, but rected by Eli Boyaner, furnished music was brought back by Major Cyrus Mac Millan, at Major Allen was invalided home some time before the armistice was signed. The strength of these units is not yet known but it is presumed that each unit will be composed of more men than before the war, yet not be composed of war strength. Where they will be trained is also undecided, as the military authorities of this district have had no word.

Healthy teeth cannot live in diseased tissue. Gums tainted with Pyorrhea are dangerously diseased. For not only the teeth are affected, but Pyorrhea germs seep into the body, lower its vitality and cause many ills. Pyorrhea begins with tender and bleeding gums. Then the gums recede, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the poisonous germs that breed in pockets about them. Four out of five people over forty have this disease. But you need not have it. Visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection. And keep Pyorrhea away by using Forhan's For the Gums.

Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress—if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums hard and healthy, the teeth white and clean. If you have tender or bleeding gums, start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has already set in, use Forhan's according to directions, and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment. 35c and 60c tubes in Canada and U. S. MUCH WORK ACCOMPLISHED DURING YEAR

Much of Interest in Secretary's Report Presented at Royal Standard Chapter Meeting.

The following is the report of Mrs. D. Mullin, secretary of Royal Standard Chapter, which was presented at the regular meeting last week. Madam Regent, Officers and Members of Royal Standard Chapter I. O. D. E.

I have the honor to submit the report for the year just ended. We have a membership of thirty-five with seven honorary members. Ten regular and nine special meetings were held.

With the cessation of hostilities following the signing of the armistice, though peace was not officially proclaimed until recently, the activities of our organization were diverted into a different channel from that followed in wartime.

During the past year our energies have been employed participating in reconstruction work, assisting in the betterment of hospital conditions, welcoming our returning soldiers and visiting the sick and wounded. We have more particularly identified ourselves, however, with the cause so dear to the hearts of the Daughters of the Empire, viz., the War Memorial Fund, and with all that pertains to the advancement of child welfare work, more especially from an educational standpoint regarding the children of those who made the supreme sacrifice.

Early in February, after having been engaged in taking charge of the Red Triangle canteen and assisting in the reception of incoming women at the C. P. R. piers at West St. John, extending to these temporary duties a hospitable welcome, we turned our attention to furnishing a recreation room and library for the patients of the East St. John County Hospital. We sent out an appeal for magazines and books, which was met with so generous a response that we collected the donations from all parts of the city in automobiles, etc.

The sum of $39 was realized from the sale of some basket work of the soldiers, the money being forwarded to them. Assistance was given to the Navy League campaign on Saturday Day, $1,000 being collected by members of our chapter. Miss Mary Travers also having secured $200 of the amount.

It was also given in the Free Kindergarten tag day, Viny Day and the War League campaign. Many of our members have at different times sent magazines and newspapers to the government hospital.

A very successful rummage sale was held at St. Andrew's Rink on May 19th, with Mrs. Allen and two other ladies, and $209 netted. Another rummage sale was held at the same place on October 10th, dear Mrs. Macneil was the efficient convener. This realized $194.85.

A distinguishing honor was conferred in the early part of the year with Mrs. Ernest Bowman as president and Mrs. Shirley Peters, secretary. During the summer as most of our members were out of town we did not hold our regular meetings, but the ladies occupied themselves in the preparation of fancy articles for the sale to be held before Christmas.

On July 15th we held an informal reception at our rooms in honor of Mrs. David B. Pilgion, who was about to leave with her family to reside in England. A travelling bag was presented to Mrs. Pilgion with a few words of farewell. Early in the autumn a similar function was held to bid farewell to another esteemed member, Mrs. E. C. Macneil, who has moved to Montreal.

Our capable knitting committee, Mrs. P. A. Peters and Mrs. Harding, performed faithful work and succeeded in sending four dozen pairs of socks to the military hospital and two dozen pairs to the East St. John County Hospital.

In the autumn our shield, which has since the beginning of the war, adorned the ward endowed by the Royal Standard Chapter at No. 2 Canadian Stationary Hospital, France, (the first Canadian military hospital in that country), located at Le Touquet, later moved to Outreux, near Boulogne, was returned through the kind efforts of Mrs. G. Ernest Harbour, formerly Nursing Sister Margaret Hare.

A small contribution was also sent towards prize for returning soldier in the graduating class at the University of New Brunswick and $1 sent to Mrs. Bruce towards purchase of badge for

A very successful rummage sale was held at St. Andrew's Rink on May 19th, with Mrs. Allen and two other ladies, and $209 netted. Another rummage sale was held at the same place on October 10th, dear Mrs. Macneil was the efficient convener. This realized $194.85.

A distinguishing honor was conferred in the early part of the year with Mrs. Ernest Bowman as president and Mrs. Shirley Peters, secretary. During the summer as most of our members were out of town we did not hold our regular meetings, but the ladies occupied themselves in the preparation of fancy articles for the sale to be held before Christmas.

On July 15th we held an informal reception at our rooms in honor of Mrs. David B. Pilgion, who was about to leave with her family to reside in England. A travelling bag was presented to Mrs. Pilgion with a few words of farewell. Early in the autumn a similar function was held to bid farewell to another esteemed member, Mrs. E. C. Macneil, who has moved to Montreal.

Our capable knitting committee, Mrs. P. A. Peters and Mrs. Harding, performed faithful work and succeeded in sending four dozen pairs of socks to the military hospital and two dozen pairs to the East St. John County Hospital.

In the autumn our shield, which has since the beginning of the war, adorned the ward endowed by the Royal Standard Chapter at No. 2 Canadian Stationary Hospital, France, (the first Canadian military hospital in that country), located at Le Touquet, later moved to Outreux, near Boulogne, was returned through the kind efforts of Mrs. G. Ernest Harbour, formerly Nursing Sister Margaret Hare.

Butter Is Artificially High

Creamery butter has recently been quoted wholesale at 68c. a lb. The natural law of supply and demand has been interfered with by speculators and the most effective weapon to restore normal prices lies in the hands of the consumers through the extensive use of butter substitutes. If every reader of this paper would turn for two weeks from Creamery Butter to Margarine we would see prices tumble like the proverbial house of cards.

No better time ever presented itself for you to get acquainted with SWEET-NUT, that premier substitute for High Price Creamery. Churned from Cocoanuts and Milk, it is absolutely free from animal fats, tastes like the finest fresh churned Creamery—but it costs only half as much.

TOWN-PLANNING.

There is to be a discussion of town-planning this week by the housing committee of the Board of Trade and Commercial Club, with the St. John branch of the Engineering Institute of Canada. This question is now attracting attention in Montreal, and Mr. Thomas Adams, town-planning adviser of the Commission of Conservation, whose assistant will be one of the speakers in St. John, is urging that a town-planning bill be introduced in the Quebec legislature to empower Montreal to deal effectively with its problem. He says no city in Canada is more in need of a town-planning scheme. Mr. Adams is particularly interested in the zoning system, which prevents the mixing up of factories, residences and stores. In this connection he recalls, in a letter to the Montreal Star, the visit of a delegation from Chicago to Montreal last September. In the course of a study it was making of the planning of cities. It represented the real estate, manufacturing, commercial and professional interests of Chicago. Later Mr. Adams was invited to go to Chicago to attend the conference on city planning and he says: "The whole evidence produced at that conference from cities like New York, that have prepared schemes for the control of their building development, showed how valuable city planning was in stabilizing real estate values, although primarily intended for protection of health."

The Chicago delegation reported on its visit to Montreal, and said: "Montreal is a very striking example of a city that would have been greatly benefited had a system of zoning been in operation to prevent many of the encroachments that have blighted our own city. A beautiful public square surrounded by the building of stores in front and along the sides of a deserted church, the stores built out to the sidewalk line, and the roofs covered with billboards. Rows of houses with store fronts jutting out to the sidewalk line ruined what once a desirable residential district."

The city of New York has adopted the zoning system, and Mr. Adams says: "It was estimated by the chairman of the Zoning or City Planning Committee of New York that they would save $1,000,000,000 in the next twenty years by the scheme they had adopted, principally in conserving real estate values that would otherwise be destroyed by the indiscriminate mixing of factories, commercial buildings and residences. The greater saving would be effected by having these properly grouped, so as not to injure each other."

This is very interesting and profitable information for other cities. St. John fortunately has a town-planning commission, which is in close touch with Mr. Adams, and has the constant benefit of his knowledge and views on the whole subject. This city is due to have a period of expansion during the next few years, and the matter of town-planning is therefore one of present and vital interest to the citizens. A later generation should not be compelled to correct the blunders made by this one, as has too often been the case in the past. A vision of the future, as well as immediate utility, should govern the expansion of St. John.

PROVINCIAL PROGRESS.

Now and then somebody casts a look backward and discovers that we are making progress. Take the case of the Post, who went from a St. John newspaper quite a number of years ago to take charge of the Sackville weekly paper of which he has made a semi-weekly journal. He was asked last week to speak at a banquet given by the town council to the members of the board of trade. In a reminiscent vein Mr. McCready said:

"When I think of the town as I first saw it—without any water or sewerage systems, with only a few board sidewalks and these pretty well worn out, with an electric light service that nearly always went off the job at 12 o'clock at night, with a school building over on Squire street that was wretchedly inadequate in every way, with no laundry nearer than Moncton or Amherst, with no police protection, fire protection, nor any civic organization whatever—when I think of the Sackville of those days and compare it with what we have today, I think I am quite justified in maintaining that Sackville has made substantial progress. We might have made greater progress perhaps, but our growth has been fairly steady and what is more to the point it has been healthy."

What has been said of Sackville, which is a college town in a rich agricultural district, and has not made any strong bid for industries, although it has several that are flourishing, may be said of every centre in the province. There are some exceptional cases, such as Moncton, Edmundston and Bathurst, where the growth has been very rapid, but everywhere there has been progress. We think of Woodstock, of Hartland, of Centreville, of Fredericton and Devon, of St. Stephen, Chatham, Newcastle, Campbellton, Sussex and many other centres, and comparing conditions with those of twenty years ago, a steady and healthy progress is revealed. That progress continues, and the general outlook in New Brunswick is such as to inspire confidence and stimulate the energy of the people. Rich in resources, the province merely awaits the application of energy, fortified by capital, to expand and become still more prosperous. It is this feeling that should animate every citizen, and the more pronounced it becomes the fewer of our sons and daughters will go abroad to make their way in life.

INCREASE IN BUILDING.

Returns received from all the large cities of Canada by "Construction," a journal devoted to the interests of the building trade, show that in 1919 building operations in Canada more than doubled those of 1918. It is shown that from thirty-eight centres the total value of the permits issued in 1919 was $73,684,458, as compared with $35,454,980 in 1918. This is an increase of 107.62 per cent. In a summary given in the Toronto Telegram, those centres which have shown an increase of more than 100 per cent are Toronto 112.19, Hamilton 108.80, London 148.54, Guelph 607.16, St. Thomas 424.91, Stratford 221.82, Kitchener 388.41, Windsor 846.11, Walkerville 588.82, Kingston 104.82, Owen Sound 233.33, Sault Ste. Marie 274.63, Sudbury 215.46, Port Arthur 171.26, Quebec 185.28, Sackville 128.09, Edmonton 161.26, Medicine Hat 228.06. Toronto led in value of new buildings last year, the total being $19,470,000. It is added that according to the views of building inspectors and city engineers of the various municipalities the outlook for 1920 is one of activity, which may equal the boom days of 1910 and 1911.

The provincial government of Ontario grants fifty cents per day toward the care of indigent patients under treatment in hospitals for tuberculosis. In asking for an increase a delegation last week told the provincial treasurer that the cost of keeping such patients had increased from $1.16 per day in 1916 to $2.20 in 1920. They were able, however, to show that the disease yields to proper treatment. The case of the city of Hamilton was cited. In 1906 that city, with a population of 56,000, had 70 deaths from the disease. In 1916, with a population of 107,000, it had only 54 deaths. Other towns and cities were said to show the same decrease.

In an address delivered last week Premier Drury of Ontario said that the government had in view the development of a system of public appointments which would forever remove patronage from politics. If Premier Drury can accomplish his reform his province will have reason to be thankful for its farmer government.

It is said the policy of the new Ontario government will be to make motor license fees finance as far as possible the new highways to be constructed.

If walking is good for the health St. John people will be better able to ward off the influenza.

THE "DRY" SHIP WILL NOT PAY U. S. Ship Owners Up Against British "Wet" Competition.

Washington, Feb. 9.—John Barton Payne, chairman of the Shipping Board, has written a letter to President Wilson in which, in discussing the continuance of government control of passenger shipping, he reveals the effects of prohibition on profitable ship operation. Copies of the letter are available. It is understood that Mr. Payne is convinced that "dry" ships cannot compete successfully with the "wets."

It is said that practical illustrations are given in the letter of the effect on passenger travel of the closing of the ship's bar. It is stated that a party of travelers who had taken passage on two ships operated by the government between the United States and South America cancelled their bookings when they heard the bar was closed and made the trip on vessels that sold liquor. There are those who say that the determination of the Shipping Board to get out of the passenger carrying business as rapidly as possible is founded partly on a feeling that operation on a "dry" basis would not be a success. Ships of foreign ownership or register, running between the United States and various European ports are on a "wet" basis. Ships under the control of the United States Shipping Board are observing the prohibition strictly. Another situation arises when a vessel is sold by the United States Shipping Board and passes into private control, dominated by American capital. The internal revenue bureau may be called on to make a ruling as to whether the vessel in the latter case can sell drinks after passing the three-mile limit and keep liquor aboard under lock and key within the three-mile limit.

AFTER MORE COAL.

Halifax, Feb. 8.—With only thirteen tons of coal in her bunkers and short of provisions, the steamer Auburn, en route from Antwerp for Philadelphia, put in here last night. The steamer sailed from Antwerp on January 13, and Falmouth four days later. The steamer encountered head gales and high seas crossing the Atlantic.

Union Happenings of Other Days

THE TREATY OF PARIS

By the Treaty of Paris signed on Feb. 10, 1763, the wars that had raged in America for many years between the French and the English came to an end. By the treaty bringing peace France ceded to His Britannic Majesty Canada with all its dependencies. This was the formal recognition of the victory won on the Plains of Abraham by General Wolfe when by the force of arms he had wrested the key to the French domain along the St. Lawrence from General Montcalm. Minor fighting had taken place after the decisive battle at Quebec but the issue of the struggle was never in doubt after the battle in which the opposing generals were slain. When the fighting ended there were long negotiations overseas in order to reach a satisfactory settlement of all the questions involved. The English were anxious to form such a pact that the new subjects would not feel too deeply aggrieved by the result of the triumph of arms and so become a cause of constant worry for the empire. In the next year, in fact, an Indian chief took up the cudgels against the English in an attempt to stop them from the attempt to make a failure, although costing quite a number of lives before it was crushed finally. Ten years later new provinces were given the French and large territories were united to the province of Lower Canada with the appointment by the crown of a legislative council. So successful was the system of government that when Canada was attacked by the United States half a century later the French were among the most brilliant repellers of the invader and some of the most illustrious acts of the struggle were performed by the race that had lost their colonies by the Act of 1763.

THE CROWNING AGE

(Rev. George Scott.) These days of high endeavor that we prize, So lightly, and those hours we sleep in, Watching the minutes with our sleepy eyes, Waiting for slumber till the sunset glow, These be the fruit of high achievement, These be the crown of every by-gone age, Moulded with patience by immortal thought, Of patriot hero and of prophet sage.

The whole creation travelling in pain, And all the ages with beseeching eyes, And all the madrys tyrant kings have slain, Whose souls passed out in fiery agonies.

With strong desire desired to see this time, They traced their souls to sacrifice sublime, And wrestled on in want and weariness.

They died that we might live, they conquered as we sleep, And never flinching walked with firm strong tread, The Via Dolorosa of the years, And calmly suffered in our room and stead.

Are we unworthy of the garnered wealth Of all the ages? Has the lust of gold, Poisonous to the soul, by subtle stealth, Unmanned our hearts and left us hard and cold?

This is an age for heroes; this the time, The hour has struck in these our crowning days, For high strung souls of every creed and clime, During all things to judge our mortal ways.

This is an age for heroes! let us build Solid and true, with high aspiring sweep, Till come the day when all our tasks fulfilled, We win our fathers' fall on dreamless sleep.

This is the age of heroes! Let them eyes, Be firmly fixed upon the distant goal, And let not self with base futilities, Strange pride with arrogant control.

Not ours, not ours, this glorious heritage, And for the generations yet to be, We strive to write upon this passionate page, Words shall endow them with nobility.

IN LIGHTER VEIN. The laundress who for some weeks had been coming regularly, suddenly failed to appear. When sought by the harassed housewife, "Deed, ma'am, ain't gone' out to wash no more. My husband, he's carnin' a hundred and forty-five dollars a week, an' we've got a lady to wash and iron for us, so we has." And what pray, did the harassed housewife do when the former laundress in told all this? Why, she said the most natural thing in the world, for these days: "Oh, Mary, where did you find a laundress? Send her to me, won't you? I haven't been able to get hold of one since you left."

WHAT HIS MONEY COULDN'T BRING.

Here's an incident, now published for the first time, which makes one think. Henry C. Frick, some time before he died, was talking with a friend, a prominent business man of wealth, but more noted for his phenomenal popularity and his happy disposition. Said Mr. Frick very earnestly: "I am a very much richer man than you, but I would gladly exchange my wealth for yours if at the same time I could exchange what I get out of life for what you get out of it." Mr. Frick added that he envied his friend his great public popularity, his ability to make friends and to enjoy life. Mr. Frick indicated that it hurt him to think that his fellowmen regarded him as a cold-blooded man of affairs interested only in money-making. "Doesn't that spell tragedy, to your mind?" But Mr. Frick is not the only multi-millionaire who, towards the end of his life, has expressed to intimates a similar feeling. More than one ultra-rich man has confessed to me a like regret, says a writer in Forbes Magazine. They have been men who in their active days had been busied with the acquisition of their bodies and souls, and who neither had the inclination nor took the time to endeavor to win the love of their fellowmen. They sold the finest things in life for a mess of pottage. And when the end came they were left with the tragic character of the bargain they had made.

THE PRINCE AND OWEN.

Up in Ottawa, Canada, there is a bright little fellow, Owen Fagan by name, whose delightful personality has recently made a bit of sunshine for the whole continent. While the Prince of Wales was here Owen decided that he would get a glimpse of his royal highness if the opportunity came. It came one morning, long before dawn, when Owen was out in the pasture trying to catch one of his father's horses.

The Canadian Pacific special train, under which the prince was making his tour of Canada, was being held on at a station in the vicinity of Ottawa, and the good-looking young chap in civilian clothing, like Owen, seemed inclined toward early morning conversation.

Owen's attention, however, wandered a bit for he was thinking of the special train with the prince's eagle eye, vainly endeavoring to sight a young man in the uniform of a captain in the British navy, or a colonel in the British army or something else princely.

"I sure would like to see the prince—where is he?" said Owen. "Someone volunteered the suggestion that the prince was still in bed."

"Well, you bet he wouldn't lay abed mornings if he lived with my uncle," declared Owen. "Uncle is a regular bear about getting folks out of bed early. I'd like to be a prince so I could stay in bed when I feel like it."

The good looking chap in civilian clothing, Edward Albert Christian George Andrew Patrick David, Prince of Wales, led the hearty laughter that followed, leaped to the step of the Kilmorychy as the locomotive whistled "All aboard!" and light-heartedly brushed his shoulders for the duties of another strenuous day.—Forbes Magazine.

CRITICISM COSTS MONEY.

(Montreal Herald.) There is a theatre that caters to the lovers of the Arts. One night lately two gentlemen, of a cynical turn of mind, strolled into give the show the once over. The leading man was in the middle of a stirring passage from Uncle Tom's Cabin or something to which the two critics took exception. The passage was correct but they found certain shortcomings in the elocutionary powers of the actor and told him so in no unkind terms accompanied with tangible evidences of their disapproval.

Besides considering himself a good actor, the player was somewhat of a bad actor when he was roused for he had his two trapezes pitched. "What did you say to this tragedian?" asked the clerk of the two worthies. "Why we didn't say nothing harmful. We just told him that he was a ham actor and that he was rotten, and so he was, wasn't he?" asked one of the audience members. "Rotten ain't no word for it," promptly answered his partner. "He says that you threw things at him; is that true?"

"No it ain't; eggs is too dear." "Well, you mustn't interfere too strenuously with the Arts no matter whether they conform with your ideas or not. You conform with these days, five dollars and costs or eight days each."

FORD AND THE HORNET.

A big business man was telling Henry Ford this story about a coach driver of super-experience with his whip. The driver was telling a passenger how he could flick a fly off his horse's ear with his whip—and, a fly alighting just then, he promptly did so. Next he spied a grasshopper beside the road, and he flicked it off with equal dexterity. The passenger was becoming intensely interested. A little further along the road he noticed an insect on a bush, and nudged the driver to get him. "Not on your life," replied the master of the whip. "That fly I nipped had no friends and the grasshopper didn't have any either; but that insect is a hornet and he is sitting on his nest with an organization behind him. I leave him alone."—Forbes Magazine.

REV. FRED CLAY GETS CARNEGIE MEDAL.

Amherst News.) Carnegie honors were recently announced and many residents of Cumberland are pleased to note amongst the honored Rev. Fred Clay, pastor of the United Baptist church in Chester, a native of this county and a brother of Captain Clay, C. A. D. C. of this town. The Carnegie medal and a check for $1,000. The valiant act for which the award has been made was performed in the city of Pittsburgh about eighteen months ago. At that time Rev. Mr. Clay, while walking along one of the busy thoroughfares, witnessed a runaway horse, endangering the life of a lady. Without hesitation he seized the bridle of the horse and attempted to stop its wild career. In so trying he was thrown off his feet and dragged for upwards of 100 yards by the wild animal. He still, however, retained his grip on the horse's harness and horse-ship succeeded in throwing the now infuriated steed. The horse in falling had his bridle knocked out. The fair occupant of the carriage was saved, but her driver was badly hurt.

Moncton, Feb. 8.—Miles Steves, an aged resident, while smoking his pipe in bed last night, set fire to the bedding with the result that he was badly burned. He was removed to the hospital but on account of his serious injuries and his advanced age his recovery is doubtful.

WHY THIS MOP GIVES SUCH EXCELLENT RESULTS THE satisfaction derived from the use of a Mop is dependent upon the Chemical with which it is treated. The O-Cedar Polish Mop is treated with O-Cedar Polish. There can be no finer Polish for any varnished surface. It may be used on any surface—even on your piano—with perfect confidence. The Mop is scientifically designed. Made of steel it is so constructed that perfect "centre pressure" is obtained—a feature important to good floor polishing. Use it on any floor—whether varnished hard wood, painted, oiled or stained soft wood—also on oilcloth and linoleum. Use it, too, for dusting and polishing wood-work and stairs—you may avoid much stooping, bending and reaching. O-Cedar Polish Mop (round or triangle) Price $1.50. The handle—54 inches long—is 2 1/2 lbs. O-Cedar Polish 25c. to $1.00 sizes. Both at your Hardware or Grocery shop.

DEATH OF WILLIAM W. POWELL IN MONCTON

Brother of H. A. Powell, K. C., of St. John, prominent in Railway Centre. (Moncton Times) Many friends and acquaintances, not only in Moncton but all over the system of Canadian Government Railways, will deeply regret to learn of the death of William W. Powell, which occurred about 9 o'clock last night at his home at 219 Bonaccord street. Mr. Powell was one of Moncton's leading citizens and had the confidence and esteem of those who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. For many years he held the position of foreman of the C. N. R. lumber yard in this city, and in his official capacity he commanded the confidence and respect of those under him. Mr. Powell was born at Richibucto on April 2, 1845, and was seventy-five years of age. He had been connected with the lumber business practically all his life. He was first associated with the late Edward Walker at Bass River, Kent county. In 1880 he went to Campbellton, where he was engaged with J. D. Severely about a year. In 1881 he entered the service of the old I. C. R., and removed to Moncton, where he had resided ever since. Following a severe illness last autumn, Mr. Powell retired from the C. N. R. service on Dec. 1, 1919, and since that time he had been in failing health. Mr. Powell was a highly esteemed member of St. George's church, and for many years served as vestryman, his wise counsel and sound judgment on matters pertaining to the welfare of the church carrying great weight with those associated with him. He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. John Pearson, Moncton; Mrs. David Olive, Big Valley, Alberta; and Mrs. Geo. A. Hutchinson, Richibucto. His only son, the late W. E. Powell, lost his life in the world war, being killed on April 28, 1917, after going through the battle of Vimy Ridge. H. A. Powell, K. C., ex-M. P. for Westmorland, the well-known barrister of St. John is a brother. Three other surviving brothers are Charles, Dalhouse; Clifford, Sackville, and Alfred, Rosbury, Mass. Dr. David Allison of Halifax, former president of Mount Allison University, is a brother-in-law of deceased. The funeral will be held on Monday afternoon. A private service will be held at the home at 2 o'clock followed by a public service at St. George's church. Interment will be made in Elmwood cemetery.

COFFIN PRICES UP. INQUIRY IS URGED

An investigation into the announced increase in prices of coffins by the National Casket Company will be demanded by Dr. Royal S. Copeland, health commissioner of New York, who said he would call the attention of the federal authorities to the matter. This is the card which the casket company sent out: "To the Trade.—Because of the sharp rise in the price of lumber of all grades entering into the manufacture of caskets, and the increase in cost and shortage of textiles, both cotton and silk, we are compelled again to announce an advance in prices. All prices are this day withdrawn. A new price list is now in the hands of the printer and will be forwarded to you in a few days." "Declaring that the notice made him 'most' clear through," Dr. Copeland dictated this statement: "I am very much grieved to have placed in my hands an announcement from the National Casket Company that there will be an increase in the price of caskets. It seems to me there is no excuse for a raise in price and I shall turn the matter over to the federal authorities for investigation, because it has been reported to me by undertakers that they have been assured caskets would be cheaper and it is commonly believed all the commodities used in the manufacture of caskets reached the peak long ago."

FUNERALS

The funeral of the late Harry F. Morton was held at Penobscot on Saturday afternoon, the services being conducted by Rev. Mr. Perry, pastor of the Baptist church, assisted by Rev. Mr. Stevens and Rev. Mr. Currie. In spite of the storm a very large number of people attended, testifying to the general esteem in which Mr. Morton was held. Burial was made in the Upper Baptist Church cemetery. In the published account of Mr. Morton's death in Friday's issue the name of his only sister, Mrs. A. B. Teakles, was inadvertently omitted from the list of relatives. At Penobscot on Saturday afternoon at 1:30 the funeral of Mrs. Teakles, an old and much respected resident of that place, was held. Mrs. Teakles died on Thursday morning after a painful illness following a fall which resulted in breaking her hip. Rev. Mr. Perry, pastor of the Baptist church, conducted the services which were largely attended in spite of the great storm. The deep sympathy of the community is extended to the surviving relatives in their sorrow. The funeral of Miss Emma Rose Duffy was held on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 from her parent's residence, South Bay, to St. Rose's church. Rev. Charles Collins conducted the services and interment was made in Holy Cross cemetery. The body was brought from Boston on Saturday. Relatives acted as pall bearers. In spite of the very bad condition of the roads there was a very large gathering of friends and relatives to pay a last token of respect to the dead. The funeral of Walter G. Hayter took place yesterday afternoon at 3:30 from St. Bartholomew's church, Coldbrook. The service was conducted by Rev. T. McKim and interment was made in Fernhill cemetery.

There were nearly 1,000 communicants among the Holy Communion Society at mass in the Cathedral yesterday morning.

Friends of Daniel Mullin, K. C., will regret to hear that he is confined to his home as a result of a sprained ankle. Mr. Mullin slipped in Princess street a few days ago and wrenched an ankle severely. His physician expects that he will be able to get out again in a few days.

It was said in a despatch from Ottawa on Friday that Sir James Grant, whose death was announced, was the last survivor of the first Canadian parliament, but one. This was an overstatement. W. Savary, of Annapolis Royal, N. S., who formerly practiced law in St. John and had been in the House of Commons several hours behind schedule.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

Canada's net debt was heavily increased at Ottawa during the week. It amounted to about $2,000,000. There is a possibility of legislation being introduced at Ottawa during the coming session of the house to provide for the manufacture of industrial alcohol as a motor fuel in Canada to be made from by-products of amber and pulp.

Word has been received at Halifax saying that the steamer Vancouver has lost her rudder at sea and is in trouble. A wireless despatch to Halifax yesterday said that the steamer Monmouth and Oxonia had picked up members of the crew of the steamer Bradbourne, but gave no particulars as to what had happened to her or to others of her crew. Twenty-five were reported rescued.

The coroner's jury to inquire into the death of Peter Bourgeois, a C. N. R. employee who was killed while walking across the tracks at Moncton, rendered a verdict that death was purely accidental. The Moncton police have been notified by the Chicago police to be on the lookout for Madame Rose Schweitzer, who is charged with forging checks for the sum of $1,975. It is understood that the woman is en route to Winnipeg and will be met in Montreal by a friend whose name is given as "Clyde Tristoe."

THE BUSINESS COLUMN EDITED BY MANSFIELD F. HOUSE

Men With 3 Wives Are Not Popular With Thoms. Beware the wives of your friend who has two. It cost Alonzo Thomas, manager of the Santa Fe Watch Co. in Topeka, Kan., $100 to be able to give this advice.

Thomas has an engineer friend living in a small Kansas town, who has been divorced twice and is married again. Not long ago a woman came to the store and wanted to buy a diamond. She told the clerk her name and stated she had a letter from her husband.

It happened that Mr. Thomas was very busy when the clerk asked him if it would be all right to sell Mrs. Blank a diamond on credit. She was the wife of his friend and he put his O. K. on the account. The clerk got the $100 first payment and the woman got the ring.

When the second payment came due and a letter was sent to Mrs. Blank an answer was received stating that she had not bought a diamond. The friend took it up with his friend. The friend brought his wife to the store, but sixty days had passed and the clerk could not remember if it was the same woman. The matter was taken up with the divorced wives, who were very indignant.

Mr. Thomas has the experience—some one has the diamond doesn't pay, he says, to be too busy to investigate installment customers. If he had spent a minute in meeting the woman he would still have his $100, because he knew her personally.

"Carelessness," says Thomas, "is the cause of virtually every loss. The credit man can watch like a hawk for 864 days in the year and on the 865th day miss and suffer a loss which will spoil his whole year's record. No credit sale is so small that it does not deserve the credit man's full attention. A moment's time may save the firm a considerable sum. If I had not been careless and neglected to go and see my engineer friend's wife, I would now be ahead $100. Carelessness is expensive and if persisted in is fatal in the installment game. Most people are honest, but you can't take it for granted. Very often you have to help them stay honest."

Store Secures Practical Assistance for Blind. To what extent may a retail store assist local charities and not practice hardships on the trade? Some very unexpected things happen sometimes. Certain institutions for the blind in and near the city, $1 in dire financial straits. But these institutions did not ask for money so much as they asked for outlets for their work. They could be independent if given half a chance.

The women gathered together some of the remarkable things made by blind workers and then wondered where they could be placed on view and on sale. Henry M. Shartenberg, proprietor of a large local department store was approached and readily granted permission for a special booth to be put up in his building on the first floor. He even assisted in arranging the goods and in decorating the booth. It was deemed unethical to advertise what was taking place in the full-page space used by Shartenberg, and the women of the town attended to this detail in their own way.

The result was the gathering of immense crowds at the store to see the exhibit. It brought people there who had never visited the building before and proved the finest advertisement Shartenberg's good possibly devise. Incidentally, the homes for the blind sold out their entire stock and received enough orders for mattress repairing, piano tuning, chair work, etc., to keep busy for a year.

Letter From "Missing Man" After Others. One morning, about the first of the month, the good customers of a Fresno, Calif., clothing store received a letter from a man in the town who could not come. The slip appeared to come, not direct from the man himself, but from one man in the town who could not come. And the sale was a success.

In the envelopes received by the patrons of the store was a six-page folder. On the cover was the printing: THE ONE MAN WHO CANNOT ATTEND WALTER HAMILTON'S SUMMER SALE.

As the man opened up the folder he saw on the first inside page a picture of a man in convict's uniform peering through the bars of a cell. Then opposite this portrait and on the remaining two inside pages was a letter with the following to say: "Dear Mr. Hamilton—My sorry, I can't come over to your annual summer sale. I hoped to come, but the warden insisted that I stay here as his guest. He had to break away from a man who is as hospitable as he is—you know Bill Gertson. I reckon, and understand how hard it would be for me to turn down such a hospitable man."

Walter Hamilton wanted to get a pair of those silk shirts you have on the counter at $6.75. I know that they are worth $8. And my straw hat is gone. I would like to get one of those you're closing out.

Underwear, too. I need a little of that. Wish I could come over to invest in a suit or two to finish the season. How about those suits, you marked down from $40 to $22.50—do you suppose you've got anything in nice stripes that would fit me? I'd like to get another suit and the way you got them marked it's a real steal. I'll be glad to make up my mind next Monday morning. What time will you be here? I'll be glad to see you. I suppose the early comers will get the cream of the picking. But you know how it is. Confidentially yours, AFTER-DARK BILL, Cell 456.

Even the Rain Answered "Mikehasit's" Ads. "Mikehasit" is the name which his customers and himself have hung on to Michael Mullin, a clothier of Great Falls, Mont. But if you were to ask the entire adult population of Great Falls if they ever heard of Mr. Michael Mullin—and did not give them time to ponder—about a score would tell you they did. Of course, if you gave them a few minutes to think it over the number out of the 40,000 population might be double that.

In 1910 Mullin, hereinafter known as Mikehasit, started a small store on a side street in a mere crack in the wall. What he lacked in capital he made up in willingness to serve and good nature. In the course of time when an article of men's wear was wanted folks would suggest going to Mullin's, saying "Go over there, Mike has it." And this remark so often that he decided to grab it as a slogan using it over the counter and at the bottom of his advertisements. From then on he has told his advertising story in rhyme—always over the signature of Mikehasit.

The interesting experiences that have had a share in making Mikehasit well known over the state was the power for rain. For the last three years Montana crops have suffered from the lack of rain. Therefore one day Mikehasit ran a prayer for rain. And the rain came—in generous quantity. People mentioned that wonderfully, for the first time in twenty-four hours. The news spread to Wolf Point, Mont. An editor up there clipped the poem after reading the comment, and inserted it in his paper. The result was a heavy hailstorm followed by a rain that was almost a deluge. That brought letters to the paper. A pair of farmerettes near Havre, Mont., wrote a special letter of thanks direct to Mikehasit.

It is of these theatres now in operation; 5 more to be in operation by the end of 1920, and 10 more to be completed after in 1921—such is the scope of this new Canadian-controlled Motion Picture Theatre enterprise. THE ROUGHEST AND TOUGHEST VOYAGE EVER

Yarmouth, Feb. 7 - Captain Irvin Durkee, of Yarmouth, master of the United States bark Annie M. Reid, which a few days ago arrived in Ipswich, England, writing to friends in Yarmouth, says that his recent trip across the Atlantic was the roughest and hardest that he had ever experienced in the forty or more years he has followed the sea. Captain Durkee has sailed and navigated practically all parts of the seven seas experiencing typhoons and hurricanes, yet his trip from Panama to Ipswich, during December and the early part of January, surpassed all of his previous encounters in rough and heavy weather. The bark was on a passage from San Francisco to Ipswich via the Panama canal and Captain Durkee writes that from the time the bark left Panama until they got into the Atlantic the weather was bad but when on the edge of the Atlantic it became much worse and for many days it was one continuous heavy gale. On New Year's day the bark for sev-

WEATHER CHANGES CAUSE OF DANGER

System Exposed Must be Strong to Withstand Them - What "Liv-rite" Can do.

During the last few days the weather has made severe attacks upon the constitutions of all the people of St. John and surrounding centres. They have been exposed to various changes at the different parts of the system and their systems were in good condition they must have suffered from colds or other troubles. It is well to be prepared in health at all times against such exposure. The body should be strong and sound, the blood pure and the various organs performing their functions properly.

This can only be the case if the different parts of the system are correctly nourished. Oftentimes some little thing is wrong and troubles ensue whose source is unknown. In a multitude of cases this is due to the liver being out of order. As soon as the blood becomes weakened, one loses vitality, one's strength is depleted, headaches, salivary complexion, dark circles about the eyes, dizziness, constipation, and other ailments set in.

How is this to be overcome? Well, the Maritime Drug Co. recommend their "Liv-rite Tonic" to set the body well again. It has proved an unfailing remedy in many such cases and they have no hesitation in commending it. If your druggist cannot supply you, send his address to the Maritime Drug Co., 108 Prince William street, or send them a dollar and they will furnish you with a box of "Liv-rite Tonic" by return mail. You will never regret having used it.

Several hours was hove down on her beams and the cabin, crew's quarters and galley were flooded. A tremendous sea was created and the weather extremely thick, so much so, that at times it was practically impossible to see from aft to forward part of the bark. When the vessel was hove down the cook became impressed in the flooded galley and none of the crew could get to him until near night.

HON. DR. ROBERTS GIVES WARNING TO THE PUBLIC

In an interview, last evening, with Hon. Dr. W. F. Roberts, minister of health for New Brunswick, regarding the status of sickness of the citizens in St. John, the doctor said that the physicians and general public should not become too optimistic regarding the conditions existing. To become so would eventually result in patients who had been severely talking chances which no doubt ultimately would result in complications which might prove fatal. If there was a question in the mind of the physician or citizen as to whether the city was being visited by a contagious illness, that should be immediately settled as the majority of the fifty or sixty physicians in town some ten days or two weeks ago, were only ordinarily busy and immediately within two or three days practically every one of them became so busy that it has been found almost impossible to attend to all their cases. Fully-seventy-five percent of the patients at the homes to which doctors have been called, have been suffering from an acute condition beginning suddenly with a violent headache, general distention and pain of the muscles of the body and extremities, vomiting, abdominal pains, sore throat and chills. Something peculiarly characteristic is the fact that in many cases an entire family is stricken and unable to help themselves.

Dr. Roberts would further advise that those who are suffering from colds, whether it may be a gripe or not, should not frequent assemblies of any kind. If the public does not want the moving picture houses and theatres closed, those in charge of such places should have it definitely understood that the patrons remain away until their colds are better. If this point were made clear to the public it would prevent the closing of these places.

One death has already occurred in the city from complications caused by influenza and a death occurred last week at Bloomfield from pneumonia caused by influenza.

BITRO-PHOSPHATE IS GOOD FOR THIN NERVOUS PEOPLE

A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE

Frederick S. Koller, M.D., Editor of New York Physician "Who's Who," says that weak, nervous people who want increased weight, strength and nervous energy, should take 8-grain tablet of Bitro-Phosphate just before or during each meal.

This particular phosphate is the discovery of a famous French scientist, and reports of remarkable results from its use have recently appeared in many medical journals.

If you do not feel well, if you tire easily, do not sleep well, or are too thin; go to any good druggist and get enough Bitro-Phosphate for a two-weekly supply - it costs only fifty cents each.

Chew your food thoroughly, and if at the end of a few weeks you do not feel stronger and better than you have for months, if your nerves are not steadier; if you do not sleep better and have more vim, endurance and vitality, your money will be returned, and the Bitro-Phosphate will cost you nothing.

It is sold by the Ross Drug Co., in St. John and all good druggists.

Women who are in Mrs. Bowers' condition should not continue to suffer from weakness and pain - but try her experience and give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial.

For suggestions in regard to your condition write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of their 40 years experience at your service.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back is aching or Bladder bothers, drink lots of water and eat less meat.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood, and in 24 hours they strain from it 800 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water - you can't drink enough, also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for three days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with other natural ingredients. It is a stimulant to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the blood, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot be adulterated; makes an effective, refreshing, thirst-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

RETIRETS OPENED.

At both masses in St. John the Baptist Church yesterday morning Rev. John P. Walsh, one of the well known missionary priests of the Society of Jesus, New York City, gave instructions to the members of the congregations in regard to the retreats for both men and women which are to be conducted by him during the entire week. Father Walsh is a most accomplished missionary and a powerful speaker and large congregations filled the church to capacity both morning and evening. The retreat for the men began last evening when the church again was crowded.

Rev. Father Walsh delivered most forcible and instructive sermon on "Christianity" which made a powerful impression on those making the mission. The men's retreat will be conducted by Father Walsh, assisted by the pastor of the church, Rev. A. W. Meahan, D. D. Two masses will be held in the morning and a service will be held each evening. In the afternoon of each day the missionary priest himself will conduct the devotions for women only. Non-Catholics will be welcomed at these services.

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restores Health and Strength.

Lansing, Mich. - "After the birth of my child I was not able to stand on my feet. I was so weak I could not get up. I suffered such pains in my back I could not work or hardly take care of my baby. One of my neighbors recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash, and I got better right away and was soon a new woman and could work as hard as I wish."

Women who are in Mrs. Bowers' condition should not continue to suffer from weakness and pain - but try her experience and give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial.

For suggestions in regard to your condition write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of their 40 years experience at your service.

If you want healthy, sturdy children, you must provide them with the right kind of food. At the same time it must be food that they enjoy.

The value of Cocoa as a beverage for children cannot be too strongly emphasized. It is both food and drink. It not only provides the hot drink which children crave, particularly in the winter but it is rich in concentrated nourishment.

Often a child will refuse milk when it is essential to his health. Give him Cocos and he loves it, and gets far more of the requisite nourishment than he would in a glass of milk.

Cowan's Cocoa, made in Canada, is prepared with an understanding of the requirements of Canadian children, and the mother who gives it to her children every day, is helping them to develop strong, healthy bodies and to withstand cold and illness.

An Extraordinary Subject!

To be the sole survivor of 500,000 Christians sacrificed in the months which followed a fateful day in 1915, is the experience of Aurora Mardiganian, the leading character in "AUCTION OF SOULS."

This most astounding presentation of fact was produced by Col. W. H. Selig for the National Motion Picture Committee of the American Commission for Relief in the Near East and

MATHIESEN WINS
WORLD'S TITLE

Defeats Bobby McLean of Chicago — Latter Wins 5,000 Metre Event.

Christiana, Feb. 8.—Oscar Mathieson, of Christiania, has won the world's ice skating championship from Robert McLean of Chicago. The final races of the series were held today and Mathieson captured both of them, the 1,500 meter and the 10,000 meters.

On Saturday McLean took the 5,000 event, while Mathieson defeated him in the 500 meter sprint. The contests were held in cloudy weather, but the ice was in good condition. There was enough wind, however, today to prevent new world records for the distances.

In the 1,500 meter event McLean started out like a whirlwind, making the first 500 meters in 40-5-16 seconds. This outdistanced Mathieson's world record of Saturday, which was 43-3-10 seconds. But McLean apparently overstrained himself in this burst of speed and Mathieson succeeded in passing him and winning by a fraction of a second.

In the last contest of the series, the 10,000 meters, McLean was badly beaten. He said that he was handicapped in this event by the air being too light, which interfered with his breathing. Mathieson's time for the 1,000 meters was 2 minutes and 27-4-3 seconds, McLean finishing two-fifths of a second behind. In the 10,000 meter race Mathieson's time was 18 minutes 39-1-10 seconds and McLean's 19 minutes 2-3 seconds. McLean's time in the 5,000 was 8 minutes 33 and 7-10 seconds.

Carpentier is to play the role of "movie" actor, but is said to be willing to take part in limited bout contests. He has no idea of meeting Dempsey in the ring sooner than Labor day. He probably would decline a match with Fulton, but he might be induced to box Moran, Al Hetch, Bill Brennan, or some of the heavyweights in that class.

It is said that as soon as Carpentier sets foot on American soil he will receive

SIXTEEN CASES OVER WEEK-END

Diet Kitchen Being Opened in Red Triangle Rooms — Condition of Roads Retards Doctors in Country.

It was announced at board of health headquarters for the city this morning, that since Saturday sixteen new cases of influenza have been reported. This makes a total of seventy-seven since a week ago today. The influenza is of a moderate type, still every precaution should be taken.

The scarlet fever and diphtheria situation is much improved and there are many cases of these diseases being reported, though the isolation hospital is filled.

In order more effectively to cope with the present outbreak of influenza a diet kitchen will be opened at the former Red Triangle rooms, Charlotte street. Citizens are asked to co-operate by furnishing empty bottles, which are essential in delivering soup. The committee in charge ask that all such contributions should be addressed to the diet kitchen and left at the entrance. One or more bottles will be acceptable.

Unless something is done soon throughout the country towards breaking the roads, the influenza situation may become a more serious problem. It is now almost impossible for the doctors on country practices to drive over the roads and make calls on their patients.

The crust is not hard enough to hold the horses yet, it is dangerous, as the horse would no doubt get badly cut or perhaps break a leg by breaking through. It has been suggested by some of the doctors in the country that the road supervisors employ crews with teams and sleds to break down the crust, using chains on the runners for this purpose.

VARIED MATTERS OF INTEREST AT COUNCIL MEETING

The matter of widening of the street at the corner of Paradise row and Main street was again before the council in committee this morning and on the recommendation of Commissioner Fisher a letter will be sent to the Bank of Nova Scotia, asking that what building plans are being prepared consideration be given to the reserving of a portion of land at the corner to provide for the widening of the street.

Commissioner Thornton reported that he had rented stables in Leinster street from Mrs. Mary E. Campbell, at an annual rental of $800, an increase of $60. His office rent in the W. J. Wetmore building, he reported, had been increased from $600 to $720.

A communication from J. A. Pugsley regarding taxes was again brought up, but action was deferred until some information was obtained from the board of assessors.

H. S. Gregory, tie-up privileges in Wiggins' slip, West Side, increased from $80 to $82.50 yearly.

R. P. W. Starr, Ltd., privilege of entry to North slip, increased from $85 to $100.

Geo. McKean, Ltd., tie-up privileges at Old Fort, West St. John, increased from $801 to $375.

Dominion Coal Co., Ltd., rental of property adjoining the ferry wharf, West Side, increased from $900 to $750.

The C. P. B. privilege of running a railway spur along Dunn's wharf, West Side, increased from $100 to $200.

Commissioner Thornton asked for authority to arrange for the making of summer uniforms for the police department. This was granted.

The application of L. P. D. Tilley on behalf of A. S. Hart for renewal of lease for two lots, at the corner of Mecklenburg and Carmarthen streets, and the readjustment of the line between the lots to conform with the buildings erected thereon, was on motion of Commissioner Bullock recommended to council.

On recommendation of Commissioner Bullock lot 908 in Gutz ward, 50x100 feet, was sold to John E. McLeod for $300. This lot had been under lease to him at $14 a year. The application was made by J. E. Brittain.

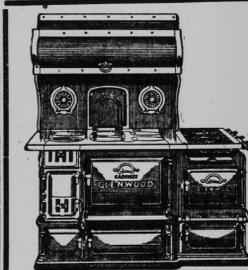

Commissioner Thornton brought up again a request from Alphonso C. Smith for a five-year renewal of lease of the hall in the City Hall, West St. John. Mr. Smith intended putting in a heating apparatus. Mr. Thornton moved that the request be granted on condition that the heating apparatus be put in as well as a new toilet, the annual rental to be $450; if the lease were not renewed at the end of five years the city to agree to take over the heating plant on paying one-half the cost of installation, in any case not to exceed $400.

Proper Appointments For The Cup That Cheers!

Men as well as women appreciate the true comfort and strengthening of the afternoon cup of tea, but only a woman can tell just what it is that makes tea in some houses so much more delightful than in others. For women understand to the full the philosophy of proper appointments, and know that the cup of tea served in attractive china from a dainty tea wagon is bound to be twice as full of savor as the same tea might have been, dispensed by a fastidious hostess.

The tea wagon in many styles has been appreciated for some time by women who know how to give to even the most unimportant and informal entertainment an air of refinement and festivity, but it seems as though there never had been such an attractive variety of wagons as are offering at present. The tea wagon takes precedence over all other vehicles for the dispensing of the "cup that cheers but does not inebriate."
