HOLIDAY ANNOUNCEMENT!

It is perhaps a little early to talk about Holiday Goods, but when you consider that Christmas is but a few short weeks off, we consider this an opportune time to call the attention of prospective Christmas shoppers to the fact that this store will be pre-eminent Holiday Headquarters this season as never before. You can form no idea of what the Christmas stocks of merchandise we've been gathering for almost a year from the great Toy and Fancy Goods centers of the world, mean to you who have friends, old and young, to remember on the most joyful of all days in the whole year. We'll be ready early in December to show you the grandest assortment of useful, ornamental and child-delighting presents ever shown under one roof in C'ton. We'll tell you later through the columns of "Events" what we shall have to offer our patrons in the way of Holiday Novelties.

THE NEW ROAD

Inspection of the First Twenty Miles on Monday

GOOD ROADBED

Work is Now Being Pushed on the Third section
The New Bridge

On Monday Hon. C. H. LaBorde, chief commissioner of public works and H. F. McLachy, M. P. P., accompanied by Contractor Malcolm, went over the first twenty miles of the International railway on a tour of inspection. The party left Campbellton with an engine and passenger car and ran over the eighteen miles of splendid road laid with heavy rails. They walked two miles over the unfinished part of the second section where they saw several hundred men at work who are completing the twenty miles to reach the Upsalquitch River where the concrete piers are placed awaiting the superstructure. The steel work is on cars at the J. C. R. station here and will be placed by the Dominion Bridge Company in a couple of weeks. This structure is the largest that will be found on the whole route from Campbellton to the River St. John. Its length is about 225 feet and will cost about $250,000.

Contractor Malcolm has commenced work on the third section. He has had considerable trouble to keep men at the work. With over 1,100 men employed since 1st August he has only been able to count on 400 men working.

The members found everything satisfactory and were much pleased with the roadbed. Contractor Malcolm states that the International will have one of the finest roadbeds of any railway on the continent.

When completed the trip from Campbellton to the St. John river will be made in but three hours. Mr. Malcolm has leased the Upsalquitch River for a period of ten years and intends putting up a hotel near the Upsalquitch iron bridge next year for the comfort of anglers and sportsmen.

WEDDING BELLS.

A very interesting event took place at St. Francis church on Wednesday Nov. 23rd when John Callahan of Charlott was united in marriage to Miss Mary Murphy of Jacques River. The bride looked charming in a navy blue suit and hat to match. The groom was supported by H. P. Doyle of Charlott. The bridesmaid was Miss Ella Murphy, sister of the bride. Breakfast was served at Mr. John Hogan's after which the happy couple left for a trip to Montreal where they will remain for a short time.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE

Bark Valona Arrived Safely
Last Week

TERRIBLE VOYAGE

Twice Her Doom Seemed
Sealed—The Captain's
Graphic Story

(Newcastle Advocate)

With at least two hair breadth escapes to her credit and looking more like a big iceberg than a vessel the little bark Valona, 799 tons, Captain S. W. Burnley reached port on Wednesday last after a forty-three days passage from Liverpool the latter part of which she was almost entirely at the mercy of the elements.

Last Monday and Tuesday, Capt Burnley's friends here were a bit anxious. The most severe storm of the season had just bade adieu and it was felt that if the Valona was in the Gulf of St. Lawrence it would fare hard with her. But they counted on her commander bringing her through in safety. They believed that if anyone could handle her in such a gale it was Capt Burnley and on Wednesday they learned that they were not mistaken.

TWICE ESCAPED HER DOOM
Twice the Valona escaped her doom as if by a miracle. On such occasions her officers and crew remained calm and intrepid.

The Valona struck the Gulf on the 5th and then, when within twenty-four hours run of the Miramichi, began her terrific battle with the elements which lasted for ten days without intermission and taxed to the utmost the skill and strength of her officers and crew. On the 7th, with her sails frozen to the yards she was driven by a strong nor' easter towards Bryon Island. Her captain feared that she was doomed. He was powerless to direct her course. But suddenly in the face of doom the wind veered around to the westward and the Valona and her crew were saved.

MET IT OFF SHIPPEGAN.

The bark struck the big storm off Shippegan on Sunday the 13th. Capt Burnley in the face of a binding storm endeavored to make the Miramichi but got a bit too far Monday morning he anchored when the storm was at its height, one and a half miles off Sapin Reef.

It was here that the most extraordinary occurrence of the whole trip took place and one which probably has few parallels in the annals of shipping. At 5.30 in the afternoon the anchor chain snapped and away it went through the hawse pipe. As if by a miracle it became clogged and held. Another chain was quickly secured and shackled to the end in the hawse pipe. If the cable had got entirely away nothing could have prevented the vessel from running onto Richibucto Reef.

CAPTAIN'S GRAPHIC STORY

Capt Burnley, when seen by a reporter for the Advocate, with some reluctance gave an account of the remarkable voyage. The Captain said:—"We left Liverpool on Oct. 3rd, but owing to bad weather it was ten days before we got clear of the Irish coast. We met very good weather across the Atlantic and made fairly good time. It was after we struck the Gulf that the trouble began. We passed St. Paul's Island on the 5th and were then within about twenty four hours of the Miramichi. But for ten days we were buffeted about the Gulf almost entirely at the mercy of the elements. We encountered snow and sleet which completely blinded us and with it all was a strong nor' easter which

TRAFFIC GOOD

The I. C. R. Sidings Filled
With Loaded Freight Cars

LOCOMOTIVES SHORT

Some Changes to Remedy
the Difficulty. Lighter
Hauls for Winter

Freight traffic on the I. C. R. has been exceptionally heavy of late. All the sidings on the line from St. Flavie to Bathurst are about filled with the loaded cars. There is a shortage of motive power which is responsible for the situation.

A few days ago orders were issued to reduce the tonnage of the trains from 1000 to 800 tons and it is thought that this will have the effect of moving the freight much faster. It has been a common occurrence for a freight train to be anywhere from 20 to 50 hours on a run in consequence of the heavy haul.

Mr. J. E. Price, the General Superintendent was in town this week in connection with the matter blew almost at hurricane force. Our sails became frozen on the yards and our men were compelled to take sticks up the masts and beat off the ice. Our masts were completely coated with white ice. Our main top sail was as hard and stiff as a sheet of iron. Yet the sailors suffered a good deal but they behaved like men and deserve the greatest praise.

FIRST NARROW ESCAPE

"We passed Bird Rocks on the 6th. On the following day a strong gale of wind almost drove us onto Bryon Island and I felt almost sure we would leave our bones there right enough. But almost in the nick of time the wind veered around to the west and we were saved. Yes if the wind had not changed we would have gone ashore sure. There is a bad reef there too.

A CRITICAL MOMENT

"Well, we were knocked about the Gulf for several days and on Sunday, the 13th when off Shippegan, we encountered the big storm which visited you. I tried to make for the Miramichi. When I supposed I was in the Bay I dropped anchor. Later I discovered I was six miles to the leeward—one and a half miles off Sapin Reef. At 5.30 in the afternoon the cable snapped. Fortunately as it rolled out it jammed in the hawse pipe and held. If it had gone through we would doubtless have landed on Richibucto Road. We quickly got another shackle and fastened the cable together.

We remained at anchor until 3.30 on Tuesday. Then we sailed up to Escuminac and anchored. On Wednesday the wind came in from the eastward and we ran up

BLOWN TO PIECES

Jas Gagnon Meets Horrible
Death

HANDLING DYNAMITE

Had Worked With Mr. Malcolm the Contractor for 25 Years

Between twelve and one o'clock on Tuesday word was received here that Joseph Gagnon, walking boss of the construction crew of the International Railway, had been killed by an explosion of dynamite. The unfortunate man had been thawing dynamite and had placed a quantity of it in a barrel which was then placed in a boiler or pot containing hot water. He had left a boy in charge and had just returned and he and the boy had removed the dynamite from the barrel and placed it in a bag. Gagnon was preparing to thaw another lot of the explosive and had sent the boy for some water. Before the boy got back the explosion occurred, Gagnon was literally blown to pieces, and portions of the body were found two hundred and seventy feet from where the explosion occurred.

The remains were conveyed to the shop of H. B. Matthey funeral director, Campbellton where they were viewed by Coroner W. W. Doherty, who deemed an inquest unnecessary.

The deceased was forty-nine years of age, was born in Quebec, and leaves a widow two sons and a daughter to mourn their loss. The cause of the explosion is unknown but is certainly was not carelessness for Mr. Gagnon had been engaged in railway construction for twenty-five years and had handled dynamite most of that time.

The funeral took place this morning from the undertakers' shop at 9.30. Service was held in the church of our Lady of Snow. Remains interred in R. C. Cemetery.

What the Saleswoman Said:

"Yes, we like to sell Stanfield's Truro-Knit Ladies' Underwear as we know our customers will be delighted with it. We feel so sure of Stanfield's, too. We guarantee it not to shrink. If it does, we return the money, and the makers reimburse us."

Stanfield's Truro-Knit Underwear

Is made of the finest non-irritating yarn. All the wool is of uniform length. So carefully is this underwear made that even every thread is tested before being woven. That is why Stanfield's "Truro-Knit" is so soft, light, warm and durable. We have Stanfield's "Truro-Knit" in such a range of sizes that we can perfectly fit every figure. And it wears so well that while a little more expensive to start with it is really the cheapest in the end."

MARTIN-SHEEHAN

The Lady of Grand River Church, Grand River was the scene of a very pretty and fashionable wedding on the 14th inst, when Miss M. E. A. Sheehan of that place was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Peter S. Martin of Campbellton, Rev. J. E. Oulter performed the ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion and filled with a large crowd. The bride was given away by her father.

The bride wore white crepe de chine with berthe of Duchesse lace and applique trimmed with pink panne velvet. Miss Minette Stairs who was bride's maid wore a gown of satin messaline with coat of white panne velvet trimmed with Irish lace. After the ceremony the young couple repaired to the home of the bride, Breche-a-manon, where the immediate relatives and friends had gathered where they partook of delicious repast. They were the recipients of many valuable and costly presents.

They left on the 16th November via S. S. Restigouche for their future home in Campbellton followed with good wishes from their many friends. Miss Sheehan was very popular in this vicinity and the people generally regret her departure.

WINTER FEEDING OF CATTLE

The Type to Select—Some Hints on Management

The fattening of cattle is carried on under such widely different circumstances that it is impossible to lay down any hard and fast rules, and say that these are right and all others wrong. There are, however, three conditions essential to success in the stall feeding of animals, viz., good cattle, an abundance of cheap winter feed, and good management.

Fifteen or twenty years ago the cattle required for the export trade were the heavy four and five year old steers weighing 1400 to 1800 pounds. At that time quantity of quality was in demand. Today we find that compact, well finished two and three year old animals weighing from 1250 pounds up will command the highest prices. Of course, if weight can be combined with quality, so much the better, but quality is of first importance. From the butcher's point of view the steer of best quality is the one which carries the greatest percentage of its weight in those parts of the carcass which give the highest price.

In the Chicago and New York markets, the most discriminating in the world, the rib and loin cuts command over four times the average price paid for the remainder of the carcass, and it is apparent that the prime beef animal must be good in these parts. They must be thickly and evenly covered with firm yet mellow flesh of uniform good quality and free alike from hard rolls and blubbery patches. Coarse, patchy animals will no longer be tolerated, much less those that are bony and bare of flesh on the back and ribs.

In addition to the general beef form, with good backs, ribs and loins, there is, says the eminent American authority Prof. Curtis, a certain quality, character, style and finish that constitute an important factor in determining the value of beef cattle. One of the first indications of this is to be found in the skin and coat. A harsh, untidy skin is an indication of a sluggish circulation and low digestive powers. A clear, prominent yet placid eye; clean-out features, fine horn, and clean, fine bone all go to indicate good feeding quality and capacity to take on a finish of the highest excellence, and consequently to command top prices. Coarse-boned, rough animals are almost invariably slow feeders and hard to finish properly. Besides these qualities, and above all, it is necessary to have vigor and constitution. We find evidence of these in a wide forehead, a prominent brisket, broad chest, well sprung ribs, full heart girth and a general robust appearance.

With the proper beef type in mind, it will not be difficult to recognize a suitable stocker. To find him is a more difficult matter. Owing largely to the great expansion of the dairy business during the past fifteen or twenty years, it is becoming more difficult to procure good stockers for feeding. To get satisfactory animals a farmer is almost compelled to breed his own. In case he does so too much importance cannot be attached to the selection of the sire. It should never be forgotten that he is half the herd. Good grade cows are all right to breed from, but the bull should always be purebred. It is poor economy to save fifty cents or a dollar in the first cost of the calf, and lose from ten to fifteen dollars when the finished animal is placed on the market. Besides this, the price at which purebred bulls can be obtained in these days leaves no excuse for the use of an inferior animal.

An abundant supply of cheap feed is essential to success in winter feeding. We can no longer finish our cattle on a ration of hay and grain with any margin of profit. We must have something that can be grown in large quantities and at a very small cost, and corn ensilage fills the bill. It is beyond doubt the best and cheapest winter feed at our disposal. The chief advantages of ensilage are its great palatability, the saving of labor which it effects, and the fact that it can be fed at any time of the year with equal satisfaction. While corn holds first place as a cheap winter feed, it has no monopoly of the field. The farmer who grows a large quantity of grain, and has consequently an abundant supply of straw, will find that by growing a

CONSTIPATION.

Although generally described as a disease, it can never exist unless some of the organs are deranged, which is generally found to be the liver. It consists of an inability to regularly evacuate the bowels, and as a regular action of the bowels is absolutely essential to general health, the least irregularity should never be neglected.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

Last week we heard a great deal about Thanksgiving Day. It is quite proper indeed at the fulfilment of the season of fruitfulness to set apart a day for gratitude and Thanksgiving, and to attend church on that day and join in the chorus of thanks to God for the dispensation of his bounties. Adhering to the custom of the Pilgrims—the founders of the day—the present age makes of the occasion one of feast as well as prayer. It will perhaps be maintained by some that Thanksgiving Day cannot be overdone. But we submit that it can—and is overdone, not so much in Canada as the United States. It is all very well for the man well off in worldly goods to lay aside his every day cares on that occasion when he is about to sit down before an ostentatious display of things palatable and seasonable. But how about the man who struggles about city streets and goes at night cold and hungry to a cheerless garret and an empty cupboard? Is he not reminded of the wretchedness of his condition—the barrier between the rich and the poor—on that day more than on any other? As he wanders past imposing residences the odor of fat roasts penetrates his nostrils and the sound of mirth and laughter greets his ears. It calls upon him. He realizes as he never realized before the infinite power of gold and as he gathers his limbs about him on a bench in the park he murmurs, "this day is not for me" and thinks sad and bitter thoughts. Let us have our day of thanksgiving, but let us have it with less ostentation than we do now and with more sincerity.

DISPLACED ZEAL.

"You can buy no more than you can sell to your customers—unless you go broke some day. Your interest and my interest are the same. If I treat you right and my firm does not you will follow me to another. If I treat you wrong, I lose both your confidence and my job."

The above observations were once made to a merchant by Mr. Charles M. Crewdson, a commercial traveller. Mr. Crewdson seems to be a drummer philosopher or a philosophic drummer. In the review of a series of articles in the Saturday Evening Post he talks inspiringly for the benefit of members of his craft and tactfully for the benefit of merchants. He illustrates his remarks with pictures of his own experiences. He really convinces one that if all travellers were like himself the mercantile community in general would be immeasurably benefited. Mr. Crewdson points out that too many commercial men are prone to "overload" their customers. We are inclined to agree with him. A traveller too often sacrifices the future for the present. In many cases he can become as much the buyer as the seller. If a traveller has a line of hats dealt in extensively by a merchant, he should take pains to sell his man just about what is required for the season and not a dozen or two more as is usually the case. If he adheres to the principle of selling the merchant all that he can persuade that individual to buy regardless of the quantity likely to be sold not only the merchant will suffer through his misplaced zeal, he will suffer as well.

Sir Alfred Harmsworth has at last purchased those Newfoundland timber areas. "The largest pulp mill in the world" is now in order.

OFF AND ON.

Norman Haggood contributes some remarkably entertaining editorials to Collier's Weekly. He endeavors to encompass two hemispheres with his range of thought. His treatises are not confined to any one subject in particular. His mental operations are performed on a very wide range of subjects indeed. He is not a specialist, therefore he sometimes argues superficially. Politics is one of his pet themes. In the last issue he dwells on "the triumph of Laurier" as he chooses to term it. He declares that the attitude of the people of Canada "toward the railway" was a business-like calculation of the relation of cost to value. "We are somewhat at a loss to know what he means by this observation. He does not attempt to explain it and doubtless could not if he would. If he has reference to the proposed government trans-continental railway we must confess that he is the only American of our knowledge who has ever appraised Canada at anything like its true value. But in the next breath Mr. Haggood comes nearer the general fitness of things. He observes—

"What is meant by the Democracy is a man as enthusiastic as Mr. Bryan, and as thoroughly convinced of the need of changes with a great deal clearer head."

Now that is a very sensible observation and one we are pleased to state which is in line with the majority of Mr. Haggood's arguments. He might have added, however, that the magnetism of Mr. Bryan is another requisite for the next Democratic nominee.

ANNEXATION? NOT YET.

Andrew Carnegie, that self-constituted oracle of the destinies of America, has been airing himself again about the probability, nay, certainty, of Canada becoming annexed to the United States. Apparently Mr. Carnegie imagines that the gift of millions of money carries with it the gift of prophecy and he undertakes to discuss what may happen before the year 3000. Undoubtedly, he was a far seeing man in business, but when he undertakes to pierce the veil of the future for a thousand years to come he is taking some undue liberties as a seer. He does not say how long before Canada will form part of the United States but inferentially it would seem the time is not far off. We imagine few Canadians will worry about Mr. Carnegie's views. At the present time the probabilities are all against what he foretells, but no one is wise enough to predict. The time may come when the Anglo-Saxon race under whatever flag may unite. In such an event the destinies of Canada and the United States would become common. The course of latter-day events, however, has all been in the direction of closer union with the Mother Country. Not only that, but the ties of material interest are becoming yearly tighter. These are represented by uniform postage rates, joint ownership in the Pacific Cable, mutual subsidies to trans-Pacific Steamship Companies, trans-Atlantic Steamship Companies and in a preference in trade matters. Later on we hope to see the idea of Imperial Unity take some definite shape. When that is finally accomplished and Canada and the colonies are made hard and fast by material and political interests in the Imperial fold, such a thing as annexation with the United States will be practically out of the question—in fact, impossible except by revolution—as impossible as the succession of one of the States of the Union south of us. The fact that Americans are pouring into Canada's Northwest is no more an indication that they are going to remain Americans than that the million or two of Canadians who went into the United States have remained Canadians or that they will exercise more influence on the general result.

IT IS ALL "SELF."

People are generally your friends for what they can get out of you. When you are no longer of any advantage to them they are liable—and even likely to thrust you aside with a kick. A fair illustration of the truth of this sententious observation is furnished by the Standard, a weekly published in Pictou, N. S. This paper observes—

"No Canadian statesman occupies a position so little to be envied as Hon. A. G. Blair. He stands a warning over the land as brilliant and startling as a danger rocket on a dark night. All eyes are attracted by the signal, and await the leader to come to the rescue of his country. Here is a patriot, the public think, sacrificing position and friends because he loves his country more. Day after day passes, and the people ask, why does Mr. Blair delay? His voice is silent. The crisis comes and the battle is won by the enemy. Blair has done nothing. The general opinion is that Blair had his price and got it. No public man is held in greater contempt by both political parties than Blair is today. He is regarded as an able statesman, whose policies is to look after number one. Indeed his whole record confirms such an opinion. His remaining years will be filled with bitterness. Rejected and despised by men his grey head will go to the grave, sweet, unhonored and unloving."

We judge that the standard is one of those rank partisan newspapers which seem to infest the Dominion. Its coarse invective is scarcely any more worthy of consideration than its apparent ingratitude. But its conduct is in an exaggerated form perhaps merely the reflection of that of others. Everyone who knows Mr. Blair knows that he has always been a self-seeking man. Some have wondered why. The Standard furnishes very good reason why. Mr. Blair knows the world far better than his so called friends. Apropos of the former minister of railways—he seems to have played his last political card—and he is still the Hon. A. G. Blair.

TRANSFER OF I. C. R.

The Montreal Herald seriously advises the government to lease the Intercolonial Railway. The government we feel certain will not give serious consideration to the Herald's counsel. It might be advantageous to the people of Canada as a whole to have the Intercolonial leased to a corporation. But it is doubtful if it would offer any advantage to the people of the Maritime Provinces. And we are positively certain that it would be of no advantage to the many Liberal M. P.'s residing along the route of that road. Quite the contrary! The transfer of the Intercolonial to a corporation we honestly believe, would result in the failure of a good many present M. P.'s to carry their constituencies at the next election. The I. C. R. vote is a big one and be assured the present members in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick will not sacrifice it for the sake of a corporation for the sake of the country either. Besides these members all have friends employed in the I. C. R. service. Some of these "friends" are generally regarded as incompetents. If a corporation secured the road they would all be weeded out. No, the transfer of the Intercolonial is an impossibility. It will never take place!

THE KAISER'S INDELICACY.

At a performance at the opera in Berlin, not many nights ago, at which the Emperor was present a number of ladies were turned back as they appeared in high-necked gowns instead of décolletées, in accordance with the royal command. Many ladies in order to gain admittance, improvised low-cut dresses by borrowing scissors from the attendants and cutting out the offending portions of their frocks. The London Graphic describes it as an amusing and painful scene. We might pardon this indelicacy of the Kaiser if it had occurred in any other place than the opera. You see His Highness never attends without a powerful pair of opera glasses.

Now that elections are the thing in Nova Scotia it is up to Mr. Spruille M. P., to make good his assertion that if Nova Scotia were dropped into the St. Lawrence the only memory that would be left would be the smell of bad whisky.

LAURIER WAS SIXTY THREE YESTERDAY

Lord and Lady Minto Send Farewell to Premier and People of Canada by Wireless

Ottawa, Nov. 29.—This is Sir Wilfrid Laurier's birthday. The premier is 63 years old. He received a large number of telegrams wishing him many returns of the day.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier received the following telegram from Lord and Lady Minto dated Rimouski Nov. 29.

"Cannot tell you how deeply we feel in saying good-bye to you and to so many friends and to Canada where we have been so happy. Hope to send you Marooni from Fame Point."

(Signed) LORD AND LADY MINTO.

The Maroonigram, which the Premier received from Fame Point is as follows—

"Must avail myself of Marooni system to express wish that prosperity may attend dominion and yourself."

A Moncton despatch says: The question of what was to be done with

I. C. R. locomotive No. 239, the ill-fated engine on which so many lives have been lost, has been settled by the management. The engine has been sent to the shops to be repaired and will be again sent out on the road. It is possible that the engine may be changed on her, as there is a great aversion to drivers and fire-

ARE YOUR KIDNEYS SICK?

Let your morning urine stand for 24 hours in a glass or vessel, and then if it is milky or cloudy, or contains a reddish brick-dust sediment, or if particles or germs float about in it, your kidneys are diseased. If the kidneys are well they filter just so much blood, but if they are sick or weak from any cause, they leave the poison in the blood, and this poison affects the entire system.

It is natural to pass urine three times a day, but many who regard themselves as healthy are obliged to pass water six to ten times daily and are obliged to get up frequently during the night. They have sick kidneys and bladder and don't know it. Smith's Buchu Lithia Pills cure Rheumatism and all Kidney and Bladder diseases, and make new, rich blood.

We will send you a generous sample post paid free, together with our large book on the above mentioned diseases. Address, W. F. Smith Co., 145 St. James Street, Montreal, Canada.

CHAPTER XXIII.

UNCLE TERRY and Albert had just seated themselves on the point that evening when Telly came in with a thick gray shawl and wrapped it around her father's shoulders. "It's a little chilly to-night," she said, "and I think you need it."

Then, turning to Albert, she added, "Wouldn't you like one, too, Mr. Page?"

"I would, thank you," he answered, "you have another to spare?"

"He would have answered yes if she had asked him to put on woolen mittens. She returned to the house and came back, this time bearing a white shawl, and handed it to Albert."

"I will bid you good night now," she said, "for I presume you will sit here long after bedtime."

Uncle Terry's eyes followed her back to the house, and then he turned to his guest.

"I suppose you'd rather be talking to Telly than me out here in the moonlight," he said bluntly, "now that you've got a little acquainted. It's the way of young folks."

"I've had a very pleasant visit with your daughter this afternoon," responded Albert. "She was good enough to go with me to where I got left yesterday. I wanted to finish the sketch I began there."

Uncle Terry made no answer, but sat puffing away at one of the cigars Albert had given him.

"Mr. Page," said Uncle Terry at last, "I've worried a good deal since last night about what you told me, and I've made up my mind to tell you the full story and trust you with what no one else knows."

To begin with, it's nineteen years ago last March when that war vessel got about of a ledge just off the point here in a snowstorm, and all hands went down—that is, all but a little yearling baby that came ashore tied up in a towel, and a little boy named Telly, who was then about two years old."

Lissy, my wife, had taken care of her ever since, and today she's worth a thousand times more than she was then. I think of me I'll let you judge by the way she thought about my comfort tonight. There was a few trinkets came ashore with her—pictures of her father and mother, we knew, and a locket and ring and some other things—so we know her name and what she was."

"Since then we have never heard a word from no one regarding her people, or whether any was living, till last winter I came across a notice in a paper saying information was wanted about an heir to an estate in Sweden, and I told the facts that made me sure Telly was the one wanted. The notice was signed by that lawyer, Frye, that I asked you 'bout, and I went to see him. He wanted proofs as to all that, and I gave 'em to him, and he wussed that he wanted money, and I gave that to him. He's kept asking for money ever since, and I, like a fool, keep sending it. In hopes if Telly had anything coming she'd get it—since I've sent him the locket and things that belonged to her, and all I've got so far is letters asking for more money and 'telling' 'bout expenses and evidence and witnesses' fees and bonds to be filed. Lissy and I know 'bout the case, but they don't know how much money I've paid out, and I don't want they should. That's the hull story, and now as you're a lawyer, and I believe an honest one, I ask you what's best to be done."

"I see now, Mr. Terry, why you distrust lawyers, and I do not wonder at it. To the best of my belief, you have been swindled in the most outrageous manner by Frye. He no doubt is acting for some law firm who have instructed him to find an heir, if there is one, to this estate, and they would naturally advance all expenses money. Do you know the vessel's name, where she sailed from and who her master was?"

"She was a square rigger, and the master's name was Peterson. In the newspaper piece the name was Nels."

RECKLESS COURAGE

Of Both the Russians and the Japanese

AT PORT ARTHUR.

Brilliant Charge and Counter Charge With Bayonets.

London, Nov 17.—The Daily Telegraph correspondent with the Japanese army before Port Arthur describing the attack of the Japanese on the eastern fortified ridges on Oct. 30th, says: "The terrific and continuous bombardment, night and day, from Oct. 27 to Oct. 30, culminated in wonderful practice, quite beyond criticism. With appalling rapidity countless bursting shells mingled their smoke into a dense oscillating mass of vapor, laden with earth and gleaming with flashes of fire, the climax being reached at one o'clock with a tremendous fire of shrapnel across the broken breastworks of the fortresses. Suddenly every gun ceased fire, and the Japanese infantry rushed out from their parallels on the hills had ceased reverberating with the thunder of the cannonade, from seven separate quarters against the Rib Lung, Ke Kwan and Pan lung fortified ridges. The attack was simultaneously developed. Without a single premonitory feint, fully 4,000 troops dashed out pell-mell with fixed bayonets, waving standards and rending the air with shouts of 'Banzai'.

The correspondent details how the various Japanese attacks were checked by the big moats and the terrible Russian fire which rapidly depleted their ranks, notwithstanding a clever covering fire of Japanese artillery, and says: "It was most remarkable, even incredible, but fully substantiated surmises of their ability to withstand the fire of the heaviest Japanese ordnance, how the Russians despite the previous bombardment, replied from their fortress guns, although 1,800 five hundred-pound shells had been fired that day, not counting thousands of smaller projectiles. It is estimated that the days bombardment cost the Japanese $20,000 representing nearly twenty per cent of the total cost since the opening days of the siege in August. Before half an hour had elapsed, the Japanese abandoned the attack against the south Ke Kwan fort.

'By four o'clock the Japanese fire had diminished in intensity

The letter of Miss Merkle, whose picture is printed above, proves beyond question that thousands of cases of inflammation of the ovaries and womb are annually cured by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Gradual loss of strength and nerve force told me something was radically wrong with me. I had severe shooting pains through the pelvic organs, cramps and extreme irritation compelled me to seek medical advice. The doctor said that I had ovarian trouble and inflammation, and advised an operation. I strongly objected to this and decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I soon found that my judgment was correct, and that all the good things said about this medicine were true, and day by day I felt less pain and increased appetite. The ulceration soon healed, and the other complications disappeared, and in eleven weeks I was once more strong and vigorous and perfectly well.

"My heartiest thanks are sent to you for the great good you have done me." Sincerely yours, Miss MARGARET MERKLEY, 275 Third St., Milwaukee, Wis.—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuine cannot be produced.

A MINE HORROR.

Fourteen Men Killed by an Explosion.

NEAR FERNIE, B. C.

One Man Escaped After an Awful Experience—Similar Disaster.

Winnipeg, Nov 19, (Special).—A Fernie, B. C., despatch says that fourteen miners were killed at Carbonado mines, near Morrissey yesterday afternoon, as a result of a terrible explosion of coal gas.

The disaster occurred in No. 1 mines, ten miles west of Fernie. The work of rescue was kept up all the afternoon, and all the bodies were recovered.

The dead are:—Mr. Jenkins, Lewis Carlin, Peter Kenny, Albert Johnson, Patrick Boyle, Wm. Platt, Mike Gustick, Anton Preysenck, Venesia Venerka, Martin Tomcsak, Anton and John Bronsdo, two brothers, Joseph Suchy and James Greenman.

The wife of the Jenkins, one of the victims, arrived from the old country only on Thursday.

D. Darcy was the only man to escape from the mine, and he had an experience he will never forget. He was a driver and was on the way out when the terrific shock came. Darcy heard a noise, in the interior of the mine, followed by a mighty rush of dust and gas. He made his way out to the tunnel mouth, where he was rescued by friends. He is suffering severely from the shock.

Mine manager Simister and General Superintendent Drimman were promptly at the scene of the accident, and everything was done expedite the work of rescue, though it was known that none of the entombed men could possibly escape. A similar disaster occurred at this colliery last year, when four men were killed.

FATAL ACCIDENT

To Son of the Late Rev. J. Barker.

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 16.—Charles H. Barker, one of Nanaimo's foremost barristers, is dying at his home in the coal city as a result of a misstep in the dark, which plunged him over a precipice fifty in height. He and Mr. John Teague spent last Sunday deer hunting, Barker getting a fine buck. Hampered with the heavy pack, night-fall found the hunters still on the mountain, and, missing the trail, Barker, with his deer, went plumb down a abyss. Teague made his way down to him, but found his companion unconscious. He stayed by him all night in a howling wind and rainstorm, and at daylight went in search of help. Barker was carried to town on Monday afternoon. His skull is fractured, three ribs are broken, his jawbone is smashed, and serious internal injuries are added to the total of his cuts. These, with the exposure which he has undergone, make his case apparently fatal. Barker was returning officer in the recent election, and the official count on Thursday was conducted by him.

Mr. Barker was a New Brunswicker, son of Rev. Joseph Barker, at one time Congregational minister Sunbury county, and at the time of his death Presbyterian minister at Escuminac Que. Mr. C. H. Barker taught in the Sheffield Academy when a young man, and went west twelve or fifteen years ago. He took up the legal profession in British Columbia and was doing well. He was about forty-two years old and had many relatives in this province. His wife was formerly Miss Bertie Russell, of Newcastle Northumberland.

If You Are Losing Weight

Your system is out of order and Ferrozone is needed to start a re-build-process. Ferrozone makes new tissues, forms wholesome blood, strengthens the nerves and keeps your physical condition up to the proper standard.

"I lost fifteen pounds through La Grippe" writes Cyril Lash of Hartford, "but soon regained my former weight and improved my health by using Ferrozone. It's the best re-builder and finest tonic I ever used." Use Ferrozone—it assures health. Price 50c at drugists.

WE OFFER $1,000

For a Disease Germ That Liquezone Can't Kill.

On every bottle of Liquezone we offer $1,000 for a disease germ that Liquezone does not kill. We do this to assure you that Liquezone does kill germs.

And it is the only way known to kill germs in the body without killing the tissues, too. Any drug that kills germs is a poison, and it cannot be taken internally. Medicine is almost helpless against germs. It is this fact which gives Liquezone its worth to humanity; a worth so great that, after testing the product for two years, through physicians and hospitals, we paid $100,000 for the American rights. And we have spent over one million dollars, in one year, to buy the first bottle and give it free to each sick one who would try it.

Acts Like Oxygen.

Liquezone is not made by compounding drugs, nor is there any alcohol in it. Its virtues are derived solely from gas—largely oxygen gas—by a process requiring immense apparatus and 14 days' time. This process has, for more than 20 years, been the constant subject of scientific and chemical research.

The result is a liquid that does what oxygen does. It is a nerve food and blood food—the most helpful thing in the world to you. Its effects are exhilarating, vitalizing, purifying. Yet it is an absolutely certain germicide. The reason is that germs are vegetables; and Liquezone—like an excess of oxygen—is deadly to vegetable matter. Liquezone goes into the stomach, into the bowels and into the blood, to go wherever the blood goes. No germ can escape it and none can resist it. The results are inevitable, for a germ disease must end when the germs are killed. Then Liquezone, acting as a wonderful tonic, quickly restores a condition of perfect health. Diseases which have resisted medicine for years yield at once to Liquezone, and it cures diseases which medicine never cures. Half the people you meet—wherever you are—can tell you of cures that were made by it.

Germ Diseases.

These are the known germ diseases. All that medicine can do for these troubles is to help Nature overcome the germs, and such results are indirect and uncertain. Liquezone attacks the germs, wherever they are. And when the germs which cause a disease are destroyed, the disease must end, and forever. That is inevitable.

Trainmen say that a device of this kind is very much needed and that this contrivance gives promise of working satisfactory and proving a means of saving lives of employees and the travelling public.

The patent was invented by a couple of I. C. R. employees in Quebec and has been tried successfully at Moose Park, between Levis and Montreal.

The I. C. R. authorities believe the apparatus will be a useful addition to the road and the general manager has ordered four more to be installed at different points on the eastern and northern divisions. Men are now at work installing the switch at Oxford Junction, Macan, Trois Pistoles and Millstream.

Resolutions endorsing the device

A NEW LIFE SAVING DEVICE

A Contrivance Designed To Prevent Accidents From Open Switches

A device for the prevention of accidents at open switches is being installed on the I. C. R. It is known as the "Hughes" electric switch circuit breaker." The idea of the new contrivance is that whenever a switch is opened at a station the semaphores are put up and cannot be got down until the switch is closed again. This it is claimed will make it practically impossible to have accidents from misplaced switches. No train shunting in a yard could get in until the switch was closed, unless no attention was paid to the semaphore signals.

It is said that rain, snow or frost will not affect it, and that it requires no attention, does not get out of order and any breakdown after five minutes instruction knows how to handle it.

Salves and Ointments No Good.

Eczema is one of the most torturing of the most itching skin diseases, and also the most prevalent, especially in children. The cause is bad blood, added by inactive skin, inflammation, etc. It manifests itself in small, round pimples or blisters, which later on break, and form crusts or scales. The skin has an itching, burning and stinging sensation. To get rid of Eczema, it is necessary to have the blood pure, and for this purpose nothing can equal

Burdock Blood Bitters.

Mrs. Florence Benn, Marlbank, Ont., writes:—"My little boy had eczema for six months. I tried ointments and salves, but they healed for only a short time when it would break out worse than ever. I then decided to give him Burdock Blood Bitters as a trial. I only gave him two bottles, and it is now two months since, and there is no sign of a return. I feel sure that as a blood-purifier, nothing can equal it. I cannot say too much for what it has done for us."

MEETS JAN. 11

Opening of Dominion Parliament Fixed for That Day

Ottawa, Nov 21 (Special)—At the cabinet meeting today an order in council was passed calling parliament for the despatch of business on Wednesday, Jan. 11.

The usual day for the opening of parliament is Thursday, but every new parliament is called a day earlier for the purpose of electing a speaker. The speaker will be elected on Wednesday, the 11th, and on the following day Earl Grey will deliver the speech from the throne.

There are only two other instances since confederation of parliament meeting so early. One was in 1880 when it was called to ratify the C. P. R. contract on Dec. 9. The other was in 1868, the year after confederation, when parliament met on Nov. 6th.

Besides 1896 the other years in which the house met in January were 1884, Jan. 17; 1885, Jan. 29; 1889, Jan. 31 and 1890, Jan. 15.

There should be no reason why the house would not get through all its work by the end of April or the beginning of May.

LITTLE PABOS

What has become of our Pabos correspondent. We have not seen any notes for some time.

We are all pleased to see Messrs George Sutton and Joe Bourget back from their trip to Port Daniel where they had been on particular business. Miss Marceline Shannon was the guest of Miss Grace O'Connor on Sunday last.

We are sorry to note of the illness of Mrs. Desjardine.

On the 10th inst. a very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. Mike Sutton, the chief amusement being playing cards for two turkeys. They were won by Messrs Geo Sutton and Simon Mauger.

Among the guests at Mr. George Sutton's hotel last Monday were Messrs L. and Chs. Tapp and Simon Mauger and Miss Modest Langlois.

Miss M. Langlois visited Mrs. William Sutton two days last week.

Salvation Army

To each and everyone a hearty invitation is offered. Come to the meetings which are held morning, afternoon and evening of Sunday, and every week-night. The officers in charge desire it to be known all over the district that they are here to serve God and the people. If anyone sick let them know, are you perplexed? seek their advice, are you unconvinced? seek the Lord while he may be found.

QUEBEC ELECTIONS

Thirty-five Liberals Elected by Acclamation

ONLY ONE CONSERVATIVE

W. H. Clapperton and John Hall Kelly Nominated in Bonaventure

Nomination of candidates for the Quebec Legislature took place on Friday last. Thirty-five Liberals were returned unopposed and one Conservative, Hon. P. E. LeBlanc. Thirteen Conservatives have entered the contest in spite of Mr. Flynn's manifesto. In St. Louis division, Montreal a bitter contest is being carried out. Rainville, the Parent candidate, is being supported by Hon. R. Prefontaine and other leading liberals, while Langlois is backed by the Herald, Witness and several Liberal Senators.

In Bonaventure W. H. Clapperton the old member is being opposed by John Hall Kelly of New Carlisle and a vigorous campaign is being conducted.

Election takes place to-morrow.

BONAVENTURE COUNTY

To the Electors of Bonaventure County

Gentlemen:—You are called upon to elect a member for the Legislature. Several among you have asked me for my opinion in the choice you have to make and have even invited me to take part in the election which is now being carried on between Mr. W. H. Clapperton, former member and Mr. J. H. Kelly, candidate chosen at the Liberal Convention at New Carlisle.

The position which I have taken and which I wish to inform you of is the following:—

We have just emerged from a Federal contest, in which the Liberal party was defeated. It is a great victory in the history of the country, with the co-operation of an important group of independent Conservatives who joined us in the interest of the country.

I cannot, in justice for all our friends, on the morrow of this great triumph, take part on one side or the other, in a struggle between two political and personal friends who are both supporters of the Liberal government of Quebec.

This is the reason why I abstain from taking any part in election.

You are free to vote as you wish. No matter who is elected the Parent government will have a supporter.

It is for you to judge as between the two men who are before you. Which of the two is best qualified to represent you at Quebec.

Your devoted servant
Charles Macell

RIVER DU LOUP

"Thanksgiving night was the occasion of a magnificent banquet given in honor of the feast, which took place at the large room of the school house, and was a superb success in every respect. Twenty couples of the English speaking people were in attendance to do honor to the feast and at the same time manifest their appreciation of the many visiting strangers. The decorations and service furnished by the management was in keeping with the reputation of this well known committee under the personal supervision of Mr. Wm G. Binks, and his staff of very efficient assistants. A symposium supper was served. All full justice was done to the good things, the King was duly honored, every person present standing and joining in singing the National Anthem. The party broke up in the small hours of the morning everyone voting it the event of the season."

DOUGLASTOWN

The weather has a very wintry appearance, lots of snow and ice. We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Martin McCabe on the arrival of a baby boy at their home on Nov. 9th. Also Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mulrooney of a baby girl.

Rev. Father Gillis is expected home very soon.

A concert is to be held in the Rosary Convent of Douglastown next week.

CLOSES DEC 1

Full Returns From Big Game Season Will Show Large Increase

The big game season does not end until the first of December, so there are still ten more days in which moose, deer and caribou can be shot. Full returns of the hunting season cannot be had until after the last of the month, but it is a pretty safe guess that the province will derive from the sale of licenses about as much as last year. So far the revenue obtained is within less than $400 of the amount secured last year, and returns yet to come in will carry it beyond the record. It was thought that there might be some falling off this year, as the elections in Canada and the United States were expected to keep away some of the sportsmen. The total revenue from the game licenses will exceed $16,000.

WIFE FOR SALE—CHEAP.

Belmont Man Advertises His Marital Woes As a Warning to Others.

A young man of Belfast is anxious to sell his wife cheap, and has advertised the fact in a local paper. He says: "My wages average about 80s. a week, of which the wife gets 28s. leaving me the remaining 52s. to spend as I like. Four years have passed since I grasped her hand at the altar—it seems to me a life-time. I have failed in weight about 25 pounds since then."

"My wife—I have nicknamed her 'Evergreen'—is a stoutly built young woman of a very fascinating appearance, but, that is all. She can't wash a tub of clothes, sew on a button, or darn a pair of socks. She says she didn't marry me to repair my clothes, and that I should have looked out for a tailress."

"When I leave home in the morning I feel happy to get a breath of fresh air free from the clatter of her tongue. I don't trouble coming home for my dinner in case I might find a locked door, and before I could hunt her up lying brooding in some of the parts it would be time to resume business. Therefore I speculate on a cup of coffee and a bun out of my allowance. No wonder I'm failing."

"When I get home from 'bis,' and get my quantity of cold tea and the remains of her feeding, it takes me from then till bedtime pacifying the neighbors she has been quarrelling with all day, which seems to be her daily work."

"The neighbors tell me—as if I don't know—that she is the most temperamental, pettiest, and most difficult to get along with."

"Now for the selling point. Would any one like to buy her? A signature, clearing her from me, as I want. My sole desire for recording my married life is to remind reckless young men to refrain from allowing dressy gowns and pleasing looks to fascinate them into a speedy marriage and a subsequent life of awful misery."

"Perhaps it will help those in quest of a partner in life to know that I picked up this lady, expensive error of humanity at a dance four years ago in a historical little town in Ulster."

Sword Like Seward.

Secretary Seward was an Episcopalian, and this story is told: On one of the occasions when President Lincoln's patience was tried by a self appointed adviser, who got warm and used strong language, Mr. Lincoln interrupted him by saying, "You are an Episcopalian, aren't you?" And when asked why he thought so he said, "You swear just like Seward, and he is." That was Mr. Lincoln's way of getting rid of such advisers.

Almost Eavesdropping. Among the public men in England is a well known speaker whose remarks are inaudible twenty feet away, and of him a wit said, "No one admires Mr. X. more than I do, but I always feel that I am taking a liberty in over-hearing what he says."

Case For Fear. "I'm so afraid of lightning," said the pretty girl, who was a born flirt. "And well you may be," rejoined one of her masculine victims. "You have a heart of steel."—Philadelphia Inquirer.
