RED COAT vs. RED SHIRT.

Not long since, a convivial party, at which Mr. Webster and other distinguished lawyers were present, the conversation happening to turn on the legal profession, Mr. Webster related the following story. We do not pretend to give it in his own peculiar and delightful style:

"When I was a young practitioner," said Mr. Webster, "there was but one man at the New Hampshire bar of whom I was afraid, and that was old Barnaby. There were but few men who dared to enter the lists against him. On one occasion Barnaby was employed to defend a suit for a piece of land, brought by a little, crabbid, cunning lawyer, called Bruce. Bruce's case was looked upon as good as lost when it was ascertained that Barnaby was retained against him. The suit came on for trial, and Barnaby found that Bruce had worked hard, and left no stone unturned to gain the victory. The testimony for the plaintiff was very strong, and unless it could be impeached, the case of the defendant was lost.

"The principal witness introduced by the plaintiff wore a red coat. In summing up the defence old Barnaby commenced a furious attack upon this witness, pulling his testimony all to pieces, and appealing to the jury if a man who wore a red coat was, under any circumstances, to be believed. "And who is this red coated witness," exclaimed Barnaby, "but a descendant of our common enemy, who has striven to take from us our liberty, and would not hesitate to deprive my poor client of his land by making any sort of a red coated statement."

"During this speech, Bruce was walking up and down the bar, greatly excited, and half convinced that his case was gone, knowing, as he did, the prejudices of the jury against anything British. Whilst, however, Barnaby was gesticulating, and leaning forward to the jury in his eloquent appeal, his shirt bosom opened slightly, and Bruce accidentally discovered that Barnaby wore a red under shirt.

"Bruce's countenance brightened up. Putting both hands in his coat pockets he walked the bar with confidence, to the astonishment of his client and all lookers on. Just as Barnaby concluded, Bruce whispered in the ear of his client, "I've got him; your case is safe;" and approaching the jury, he commenced his reply to the slaughtering argument of his adversary."

"Bruce gave a regular history of the ancestry of his red coated witness, proving his patriotism and devotion to the country, and his character for truth and veracity. "But what gentlemen of the jury," broke forth Bruce, in a loud strain of eloquence, while his eye flashed fire, "what are you to expect from a man who stands here to defend a cause based on no foundation of right or justice whatever; of a man who undertakes to destroy our testimony on the ground that my witness wears a red coat, when gentlemen of the jury—when, when, when gentlemen of the jury!"—Here Bruce made a spring, and catching Barnaby by the bosom of the shirt, tore it open, displaying his red flannel. "When Mr. Barnaby himself wears a red flannel coat concealed under a blue one!" The effect was electrical; Barnaby was beat in his own game and Bruce gained the cause."—N. O. Picayune.

Agricultural Fairs.—State Fairs seem to be fast growing into the Great Annual Festival, in many of the States eclipsing all other gatherings by their comprehensive character, bringing in contact and communion men of all occupations and tastes, from the most remote portion of the State and by the great aggregation of stock, vegetables, fruits and implements for exhibition, illustrating the perfection to which, by skill and care, and observance of physiological and mechanical laws, animals, vegetables and fruits, and the rude implements of the farmer can be brought. They cleanse the scales from the eyes of ignorance. They sweep away the film of prejudice like cobwebs. They infuse into the mind of the young farmer an ambition to excel in his profession. They teach the money loving votary of the profession, what fearful wastes, what exhaustion of his soil, what deterioration of his crops and stock, have been the consequence of persisting in dogged, and selfish, and unnatural courses, because his father did before him. They impress ten thousand different ways, the superiority of intelligence, over mere brute labor, and tell with ten thousand illustrations, that a sharp intellect is as necessary at one end of the plough as a sharp coultter at the other; in a word the supremacy of mind over matter.—Toledo Blade.

A Chinese American Citizen.—To-day there was issued by the State Department, a passport for Yang Wing, Esq., who has just graduated at Yale with the highest honors. Mr. Wing is a young gentleman of fine talents and great learning for his age, and has been eight years among us. He is about returning to China to see his friends for the first time.—Wash. Star, 26th.

THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE.—New York Implicated.—We apprehend that it is pretty generally known that most of the fast sailing vessels engaged in the African slave trade are built either in Maine, Massachusetts, or New York. They bring good prices, and are ever ready for a good profitable cash business, though it may occasionally embrace the shipment of negroes from Africa to Cuba. Of late several slavers have been captured, said to have been built in New York or some other Northern port. At present we are informed that, acting upon certain discoveries recently made, our vigilant District Attorney, Mr. McKeon, in prosecuting an investigation before the Grand Jury, the results of which will astonish the unsuspecting Quakers living in this community. Only think of a slave ship, with all the necessary fixtures, materials, supplies, provisions, papers in several languages, &c., being fitted up and despatched from this port, as if the traffic were a legitimate business. The law declares it piracy—a capital crime—and we should not wonder if the results of the present examination were to involve the personal safety of various enterprising individuals.—The public may rely upon it that the District Attorney will sift the matter to the bottom.—N. Y. Herald.

A Curious Recovery.—A letter received here from ship Logan, of New Bedford, states that a sailor lost overboard a sheath knife about 5 o'clock on the morning of the 23d of August. At 1 o'clock on the same day two dolphins were caught from the ship, and upon opening one of them, the same knife, known by the name upon it, was taken out!

Sydney, C. B., Sept. 23.—We learn that directions have been transmitted to the Sheriff of this County, relative to Mr. Martin, who our readers are aware has remained in custody since his late trial, awaiting the decision of the Executive as to his future disposal—the purport of which decision and directions, we understand to be, that he is for the future to remain in custody, either in the County Jail, or some other safe place, during the pleasure of the Crown.

Fugery Case.—A man of high standing in Williamsburg, well known as a gentleman of science, was taken into custody yesterday by officer Patterson, of the lower Police Court, on the complaint of Mr. John Steadman, a resident of the province of New Brunswick, who charges the accused, with forging his (Steadman's) name to a receipt for two hundred and fifty shares of stock in the Asphalt Mining and Kerosene Gas Company—the same being in full of his share of the stock in said company. The defendant who denies the charge in toto, was conducted before Justice Osborn, when he gave bail to appear for examination. The complaint will be investigated some day next week.—New York Express.

ROMANTIC SUPERSTITION.—The Paris correspondent of the New York Times, one of the best in Europe, has the following:—

"Alexander Dumas has just received from an admirer in Russia, the most precious talisman known in Europe—a fragment of a hanged man's rope. This admirer was formerly, according to his own story, the most unlucky being alive; but no sooner was he in possession of the rope than his uncle died, and left him a large fortune, by which he was enabled to marry a lady with whom he was in love, and who had just given him an heir, the image of herself. Learning that Dumas was still poor, in spite of his fourteen hours of labor a day, he determined to cut him off a piece of his rope and reinstate him in the good graces of the blind goddess.—The way the Russian himself came into possession of the rope was singular. The father of the lady with whom he was in love, was governor of a city, and upon his daughter's imploring him to obtain for her a suicide's rope, he summoned the warden of the political prisons, and acquainted him with the young lady's desire. The warden said that there was certainly a great deal of hanging and suicide going on, but it was usually done with an old cravat or pocket handkerchief, not in a state to be presented to a lady. Besides the superstition is explicit—the instrument of suspension must be a rope.—The governor told him to drop a rope in the way of the prisoners, some of whom would doubtless put the occasion to profit. This direction was followed, and the young lady was soon in possession of an elegant new rope, from which had dangled an enemy of the State. She sent it to her lover, who was soon enabled by it to marry her. The piece sent to Dumas is three inches long. He says he hopes that it will have an effect upon the quarter's subscription to the Mousquetaire, for if it does not, he shall throw it into the fire."

NAUTICAL AMUSEMENTS.—Captain Gookin of ship Richmond, at this port yesterday from New Orleans, reports that on the 15th inst., lat. 31 deg. 10 min., lon. 79 deg. 50 min., he caught a large booby, with a tally around his neck, marked—"scl. Rose, Ruddle, from Matanzas for Halifax, 15th, 8 A. M. lat. 31 deg. 10 min., lon. 79 deg. 50 min., all well." Capt. G. tied a tally on the same bird, with the ship's name, latitude and longitude, and let him go on the 16th, after giving him a breakfast of Dolphin. The bird was again caught same day by barque Robert Mills, at New York, when in lat. 32 deg. 10 min., lon. 77 deg. 10 min.—Boston Daily Advertiser.

LORD ELGIN.—A report is current in Canada that Lord Elgin, instead of being appointed Governor General of India, will succeed the Earl of St. Germain as Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

CIVILIZING RUSSIANS.—A few Russian prisoners on board the Devonshire have shown, experimentally, the relief which Russian fare; they are to have two thirds of the A R allowance; a bill of fare comprising biscuit or soft bread, sugar, tea, or chocolate, oatmeal, mustard, pepper, vinegar, fresh meat, or fresh vegetables, salt pork or salt beef, peas, flour, suet, and currants or raisins, when fresh meat cannot be procured. They will be also furnished with washbasins, soap, towels, &c. Think Russian fishermen or peasants living on this fare! The prisoners on board the Devonshire have but one want—that their families could come to share with them English captivity on such terms. It is true that, if they were to penetrate into the land, they might discover Englishmen enjoying something less than two thirds of the A R allowance; but nowhere would they discover Englishmen, who slaves to a Czar or a landlord, are consigned to a Russian fare without power to use even exertion itself for improving their condition.—London Spectator

[FOR THE STANDARD.]
4th October, 1854.
Mr. Editor,
SIR,
HAVING pondered deeply on the communications of your talented correspondent "CIVIS;" and as you still adhere to the principles promulgated by the respectable party who first established the "STANDARD;" and which has made it so useful and beneficial to the town; (they are the only ones that can make a periodical advantageous to the community—that is—to give to all sides a fair hearing, so that the inhabitants may not make up their minds hastily, but maturely; I have been induced to send you the following:—

No one will attempt to deny that the frequent changes of the Boards of Directors are in more ways than one prejudicial to the interests of the Company. The parties that elect the Directors having little or no pecuniary interest in the undertaking, or few of them having paid any calls on their shares, they care very little who is in or who is out. To obviate this, which is the crowning difficulty the Company have to contend with, let the Board at home exert themselves to abolish the Directorate here; insist upon the calls being immediately paid up by those parties able to pay; see them if they refuse; those unable to pay, forfeit their shares. It is far better for the Company to have no shareholders, than have nominal ones, who have it in their power to injure the Company in various ways, without having any power to benefit it. How true "Civis" remarks about the Directors spending the money of the English shareholders. It is difficult to get mortals to take as much care of other people's money as they would of their own.

Were the above suggestions carried out, the result would be, £10,000 would immediately be raised on the Class B Stock, which would finish the road 35 or 40 miles into the woods, which I assert is all that is required at present; the traffic on the road would then pay sufficient profit to finish the line to Woodstock.

If such is not done, it appears to me the result must be deplorable; a winter or two more, with works in their present unfinished state, and you will require to put your spectacles on to find the track.

So yourself, Mr. Editor, if advocating the desperate remedies, would you will earn the gratitude of every lover of his country.

I am your obtt servt,
Z E R O.

FORGERIES.—There are counterfeit one pound notes on the Bank of British North America circulating in this community. We have been shown one of the notes, and it is a very good imitation. The numbers on the notes are partly printed, with a pen and partly lithographed (according to the original)—some of the letters in the words "New Brunswick" on the end of the note, when turned lengthways, are badly executed, and if examined closely must lead to detection. Any one desirous of knowing more about this counterfeit, will be informed where one may be seen, on application at this office.—The public should be put upon their guard, but at the same time there is no occasion for the least excitement.—Morning News.

THE LEGISLATURE OF P. E. ISLAND.—The Legislature was called together on the 26th ult. The Lieutenant Governor's speech contains as follows, in reference to the Elgin Treaty:—

"Two events have recently occurred, either of which, I feel assured, you will consider of sufficient importance to justify this early meeting of the Legislature. The one is the result of negotiations between Her Majesty's Government and the Government of the United States, in the mutual ratification of a Treaty which offers very considerable advantages to this Island, both in a Commercial and Agricultural point of view; in order to secure which, with the least possible delay, a measure will be submitted for your immediate consideration. The Legislature of this Province ought to be called together at as early a day as possible. The cost is nothing compared with the advantages to be gained by prompt action.—[15.]

THE RECIPROcity TREATY.—The Washington correspondent of the Journal of Commerce says:—

"It appears to have been supposed by Lord Elgin, that the Reciprocity Treaty would be carried into effect at once in regard to Canada, and that President Pierce would take the responsibility of issuing his proclamation accordingly. But the act of Congress by which the treaty was carried into effect, is dependent upon the required action of the four Provinces. The President has on discretion, therefore, even as to the trade with Canada; and New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island are yet to confirm the arrangement, before it can take effect as to Canada. The Legislature of P. E. Island, now in session, will assent to the treaty, and there can be no doubt that the other two Provinces will fall in with it, especially inasmuch as the part of the bargain beneficial to them is alone subject to their acceptance. While the provisions in regard to the fisheries have already taken effect."

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS, an Excellent Remedy for Impurity of the Blood, and General Debility of Health.—Many persons of robust habit frequently suffer from a dangerous determination of blood to the head, benumbed feelings in the limbs, heaviness and drowsiness, arising from the blood being in a bad state; the stomach in such cases is generally out of order, with little or no appetite. Such individuals should take a course of Holloway's Pills. Thousands who had been given up as incurable by the faculty, have been thoroughly re-invigorated in constitution, and restored to the uninterrupted enjoyment of good health by this admirable remedy.

MODEL CERTIFICATE.—Dear Doctor, I will be 175 years old next October. For ninety-four years I have been an invalid unable to move except when stirred with a lever; but a year ago last Thursday, I heard of the Granular Syrup. I bought a bottle, smelt of the cork, and found myself a new man, I now run twelve and a half miles an hour, and throw nineteen double summersets without stopping. P. S.—A little of your salve applied to a wooden leg reduced a compound fracture in nineteen minutes, and is now carrying the limb with a fresh article of white gum pine bark.—(New Orleans Delta.)

STEALING ONE'S OWN PIG.—Not long since a man employed in the mill of St. Ay, England, heard some one outside calling him by his name. He looked out and saw two men standing near a horse and cart, and was asked by them to come and give them his aid to place in the cart a pig which had fallen out. He descended, but the animal was so large they were unable to lift it. He then went and brought his master, and together the four men got the animal into the cart, and the two strangers, after returning thanks, drove off. The next morning, when the miller's man went to feed his master's pig, he found its place empty. He immediately gave notice of the loss to his master, and both were convinced that in the night they had unwittingly placed their own pig in the stranger's cart.

Wreck of Schooner Ontario, of Rockland—Four Lives Lost.—Schooner Ontario, Capt. H. G. Pennington, sailed from this port for Rockland, about 6 o'clock on Friday afternoon. The wind soon after blowing round ahead, Capt. P. put back, and at 10 P. M. owing to a defect in the compass, the vessel ran ashore on the "Devils Back," about three miles below Long Island. The schooner was going at the rate of seven knots and was driven high up on the reef. She hung by the middle, the bow and stern being afloat. After thumping heavily for three hours, she was struck by a heavy sea, which broke the vessel in two, and swept all on board overboard. They made out to regain the wreck, but all were again swept over, when two of the crew almost immediately perished. Two others, Mr. Beals, mate, and a seaman named Reed, clung to pieces of the wreck for about two hours, when they both dropped off and perished. Capt. Pennington held on to a portion of the wreck from about one to six o'clock, when he was rescued by a fishing boat, and landed on one of the islands where he remained long enough to dry his clothing, and arrived in Boston about one o'clock on Saturday afternoon.

When the vessel first struck, all on board could easily have saved themselves by the boat but they were in hopes that the vessel would float off with the rising tide, when they might either get into port or run her on the beach. A sea soon after filled the boat, rendering it useless. While his vessel was ashore, Capt. Penn n hailed an law-abiding topsail schooner, but she was on without rendering any assistance. The following are the names of those lost:—David Beals, of Rockland, mate, aged about twenty; Charles Reed, of New Orleans, about 23; George Kess, of St. George, Maine, about 19; an Irishman, name unknown, who shipped in Boston the day before the schooner sailed from Boston. The Ontario was a good schooner of about 93 tons, valued at $2,400, and is insured in Rockland for $1,200. She had a general cargo of flour, corn meal, groceries, &c., which was not insured. Capt Pennington, from whom we learn the above facts, is very much bruised from pieces of the wreck chafing against him; the sea was almost continually breaking over him, and his escape under the circumstances may be considered almost miraculous.—Boston Post

A SINGULAR WAGER.—A young woman had laid a wager she would depend into a vault in the middle of the night, and bring from thence a skull. The person who took the wager soon after hid himself in the vault, and as the girl seized a skull, cried in hollow voice:—

"Leave me my head!"

"There it is," said the girl, throwing it down and catching up another.

"Leave me my head!" cried the same voice.

"Nay, nay," said the heroic lass, "you cannot have two heads;" so she brought up the skull and won the wager.

LEARNED ELEPHANT.—That's a werry knowing banimal of yours! said a cockney gentleman to keeper of an elephant.

"Verry," was the cool rejoinder.

"He performs strange tricks and hanticks, does he?" inquired the cockney, eyeing the animal thro' the glass.

"Surprising!" retorted the keeper, "we have learnt him to put money in that box you see away yethere. Try him with a dollar."

The cockney handed the elephant a dollar, and was enough to be took it to his trunk, and placed in a box high up out of reach.

"Well, that is werry hextraordinary—hasn't he learnt to do that?"

"Nay, nay!" retorted the keeper, "we have learnt him that, and then turned to see up the monkeys and pance the hypanis!"—Spirit of the Times.

HENRY LIFE.—Ah! this beautiful world! indeed, I know not what to do, and I sometimes it is all gladness, and heaven is not far off; and then it changes suddenly, and it is dark and sorrowful, and the clouds shut out the sky. In the lives of the saddest of mortals, brighter days like this, when we feel as if we could take this great world in our arms. Then come the gloomy hours, when the fire will neither burn in our hearts or in our hearths, and all without or within is dismal, cold and dark.

Believe me, every heart has its secret sorrows, which the world knows not; and oftentimes we call a man cold, when he is only sad.—Longfellow

CONSCIENCE.—Bishop Taylor, has this striking image:—"Conscience is a clock, which, in one man, strikes loud and gives warning; in another, the hands point slightly to the figure, but strikes not; in a third, hours pass away, and death has come, and death comes judgment!" There is something unspeakably appalling in this image.

COMMUNICATION.

[FOR THE STANDARD.]

Mr. Editor.

SIR,

Your Editorial notice respecting my two former letters, encourages me to resume my pen on the subject of our Railway. It must be obvious to you that I take a deep interest in the welfare and progress of the undertaking, and I think it must be equally apparent that I have given my best attention to the various statements and circumstances relating to it, which have from time to time been made public.

In reviewing the facts, whether of the late or the present Board, and in examining the affairs and position of the Railway Company, so far as they have come to my knowledge, I have at all events formed my opinions independently—uninfluenced by any fear or favor from either party—and therefore in propounding those opinions through the medium of your columns, I may hope that they will carry the full weight of an impartial judgment, not only with the public at large, but also with that section of it more immediately interested in the consideration of all matters pertaining to the Road, either from their being Shareholders in the Company, or merely residents in this vicinity.

It is certainly very generally felt, and I believe also pretty freely acknowledged, that we must depend on the means of the Class A Shareholders, assisted by Government, as our only hope of ever having the line finished. It appears, therefore, of importance to consider, whether the construction of the Board here is such as to secure the confidence of these two important bodies; and this consideration has led me to examine and reflect how the present acting Members of the Board stand, or have been appointed—of the non-resident or distant Members I need not speak as they have, I believe, never been more than dummies.

After the General Meeting in June last, we find that the late President, and those that had acted with him, though proper to resign and I have heard it said, that one of our principal reasons for their so doing, was that Mr. Wilson stated, openly, at that meeting, that unless he came in again with a new Board, he would petition against the issue of debentures, memorialize the Home Government, and agitate in every way he could to injure the concern. This being the case, I think the old Board displayed great good sense in manifesting a different spirit; and determining, if the Shareholders thought proper to elect him after such a declaration, to let him have a fair trial at his own way, without any obstruction from them. This is, however, beside the question; my present object being, as I stated, to consider, the construction of the present Board, and to prove that Mr. Wilson "got it all his own way." The question will then be for the Class A and the Government to decide whether he enjoys their confidence, and is the fittest person to be virtually, if not nominally, at head of such an important undertaking.

The Board now consists, in addition to the old dummy Members, of Mr. Wilson, Mr. Hatch, Mr. Frye, Mr. Hill, Mr. T. B. Wilson, Dr. Gove, and Mr. Ed. Wilson. There are also the Government directors, but as they are nominated by the Executive, independently of the Company, they cannot on the part of the Government at least, be any want of confidence in them, and therefore it is only necessary to speak of the Shareholders' Directors alone named.

The four first were duly elected by the Shareholders; Messrs. Edw. and T. B. Wilson were nominated at one of the first meetings, and Dr. Gove has since been appointed. I think every one in the community is perfectly acquainted with Mr. Hatch's weakness of character, and how little able to cope with Mr. Wilson's superior shrewdness. Mr. Frye deserves severe reprobation for deserting the policy of the old Board, when he was, from having been a sufficiently frequent attendant at their meetings, have been perfectly cognizant of it; but his motives are, I believe, thoroughly well appreciated, and to require no remark from me. Mr. Hill has always been a member of the Board, but has rarely attended or taken part in its proceedings, and, being an old ally of Mr. Wilson's, it is easy to divine at whose instigation he has now so suddenly become such a prominent member, that within the last ten days he has formed one of a deputation to the Executive. Mr. Thos. Wilson's unstable disposition is certainly relieved by his dutiful submission at all times to the behests of his father; so I may dismiss him as the ready tool of his venerable parent.

Mr. Ed. Wilson has, I believe, never attended the Board, and is known to be of too independent a character to be a party to measures he does not approve; it is therefore probable, that he is absent from attending the meetings. I am at a loss to account for his having been appointed, unless it was to strengthen the family compact by the addition of his name; and I should like to know whether he was consulted on the matter before being appointed. I confess I have my doubts. These only remain the late nomination of Dr. Gove; and this I consider the most objectionable and improper of the whole if I am correctly informed as to his position with the Contractors. I understand, Sir, that he is the endorser of certain bills of Mr. King, which have been protested, and that he holds a mortgage on all the plant and some of the iron, belonging to the Messrs. Sykes & Co., as well as on some private property of Mr. King. Under such circumstances I conceive he cannot be interested alone for the Company, which as a Director, he ought to be; and though it may perhaps be very polite for him to accept a position which enables him to look after his own interest, I think the others are highly blameworthy for acquiescing in his appointment.

Now, Sir, I ask how can either the Class A or the Government have any consideration or reliance on a Board so constructed, and therefore I again say, that the sooner the present men yield up their offices and make room for better and firmer men, the better for our hopes of getting the Railroad finished. In my next I will give you an account of the statements which have reached me of the contradictory nature of some of the late transactions of the Board; and if I have time enter into an explanation of the policy which I think ought to be pursued.

I am your obt. servt.

CIVIS.

TRADE WITH THE BRITISH PROVINCES.—The trade with New England and the British Provinces is steadily increasing, and under the influence of the new treaty, will grow to great importance. The arrivals from the Provinces at this port only, for the past two days, number fifty-seven vessels, all of which bring cargoes of coal, lumber, wood, fish, plaster, &c., and in return they will take more or less of our productions. The trade is one of profit to both parties, and is yearly extending to new points of intercourse along the coast of New England.—Boston paper.

TERRIBLE DEATH OF A MOLDER.—We have already recorded the accident which befell Mr. John Brady, a moulder in Algier's Foundry, South Boston, on Thursday last. He, with a number of other men, was engaged in swinging a ladle of melted iron from the furnace to the mould, when the ladle was upset, and Mr. Brady, who was holding the handle, was, by some accident, thrown into the fiery fluid. He was burned in a shocking manner, and yesterday, after intense agony, he died. He was one of the best moulders in Mr. Algier's employ, a good citizen, and he leaves a young wife to mourn his untimely death.

CHURCH OF SCOTLAND.—The Rev. Wm. Donald has received by last mail—from Wm. Young Esq., W. S., Edinburgh, Secretary to the Church of Scotland's Colonial Committee, and Treasurer of the funds contributed by the Church in aid of the wives and families of the soldiers and sailors engaged in the eastern war—the following acknowledgment of the collection made for that purpose in St. Andrew's Church of this city: "Edinburgh, 13th Sep. 1854.—Received from the Rev. Wm. Donald, £65 2s. 2d. (79 11s. 7d. ex.) being a collection made in St. Andrew's Church, N. B. in aid of the wives and children engaged in the Eastern War. W. Young, Treasurer."

In his letter to Mr. Donald, Mr. Young says: "It will be gratifying to you to know that the St. Andrew's Church collection is the largest I have yet received."

It will also be gratifying to the friends of the Church of Scotland in this Province to learn that Mr. Young intimates to Mr. Donald, that the Colonial Committee have made two appointments of Missionaries to New Brunswick, namely, the Rev. Robert Stevenson, and the Rev. Peter Keay, and that Mr. Stevenson is now on his way out by the Europa, which was to leave Liverpool on Saturday last.—Nbr.

CAPTAIN COOK'S CLOCK.—United Service Institution.—To the many attractions with which this Institution abounds, one that will be highly appreciated, has lately been presented by Rear Admiral Sir Thos. Herbert, K. C. B. It is a valuable chronometer by Laurence Kendall, London, 1771, which was twice carried out by Captain Cook, on his voyages to the Pacific, and was taken out again by Lieut. Bligh, in 1787. When the Bounty's crew mutinied, it was carried by the mutineers to Pitcairn's Island. In 1808 it was sold by Adams to an American, Mr. Mass Fletcher, who sold it in Chile. It was purchased for 50 guineas by Sir T. Herbert from M. Goldclough, at Valparaiso, in 1840, and has now, owing to Sir Thomas's generosity, found its appropriate resting place among the valuable relics deposited in this institution.—British Army Despatch.

A POOR MAN'S WISH.—I asked a student what three things he most wished.—He said, "Give me books, health and quiet, and I care for nothing more." I asked the miser, and he cried, "Money—money—money." I asked a pauper, and he faintly said, "Bread—bread—bread." I asked the multitude around me, and they lifted up a confused cry, in which I heard the words, "Wealth, Fame and Power." I asked a poor man, who had long borne the character of an experienced Christian. He replied, "All that I wish is Health, Wisdom, and to have a constant Love for my Maker and Redeemer."

EVENHANDED JUSTICE.—In Sacramento recently a man was tried for the wilful murder of a Chinaman, and notwithstanding the testimony was positive against him, he was acquitted. A poor Chinaman, however, stole $200; the money was recovered, but he was tried, convicted, and sentenced to five years imprisonment at hard labor.

completed, and without a single misadventure, or the slightest derangement.

Arrival of the "Atlantic."

SEVEN DAYS LATER FROM ENGLAND.

The steamship Canada, which sailed from Liverpool on the 23d Sept., arrived at New York yesterday morning.

It is officially announced by the French and English Governments that on the 14th Sept., 58,000 of the Allied Forces landed at Eupatoria, without opposition, and immediately marched on Sebastopol. The transports at once returned to Varna for 14,000 more French soldiers.

It is reported that the Czar, at the last moment, had consented to terms, but it was not generally credited.

It is said the Russians have only 38,000 of a disposable force in the Crimea.

The Allied fleets were off Sebastopol.

The news from England is unimportant. Spanish affairs unchanged.

MARKETS.—Breadstuffs buoyant; Flour advanced 2s; Wheat 4d; Corn 1s. 6d. Provisions were dull. No change in fish. Tea had advanced. Consols 95.

MEETING OF THE LEGISLATURE.

We learn from St. John papers that the Legislature is summoned to meet on Thursday, the 19th inst. "for the despatch of business."

There cannot be a doubt, that the first business of the "Collective Wisdom" will be to decide on the acceptance or rejection of the Reciprocity Treaty concluded between Great Britain and the United States—but there are other weighty matters which demand attention—viz: the Election law.—The time has fully come, when a sound measure should be introduced not only for registration of voters, and vote by ballot, but also to extend the franchise. A majority of the new Members, pledged themselves at the hustings in the different Counties, to advocate some such measure, and we look forward to them trusting that they will redeem their pledges. There is no necessity to clog a bill with cumbersome machinery—we trust that Mr. Brown will take up the matter and bring it before the House without delay.

THE ENGLISH NEWS received by the Steamer Canada, which arrived at New York on Friday last, will be found in another column. It appears that the allied forces landed at Eupatoria without opposition, and marched on Sebastopol. In the course of a fortnight, news of an important nature will be received, as the season will not permit much more being done after that period.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—We again inform Correspondents that unless their letters reach our Office on Monday, their favors cannot be published until the following week. And further we beg leave to inform them, that we will not insert an anonymous letter, unless the writer sends us his name, which we may rest assured will be kept strictly secret. "Amicus" must give us his name, "Zero" and "Cris" will find their letters in our columns.

SHIP BURNED.—A fine ship of about 600 tons, ready for launching, at Red Beach, near Robinson's, was destroyed by fire, on Sunday night last, together with the shed containing the carpenter's tools. The vessel was owned by Mr. Lowe, of that place, we did not learn whether she was insured.—The cause of the fire is unknown.

LOSS OF THE ARCTIC.—The American Steamship which sailed from Liverpool on the 20th Sep., for New York was lost off the Banks of Newfoundland having run into a French steamer. A number of the passengers were lost, among whom were Mrs. Collins (wife of the owner), and six children.—The captain also perished with the steamer.

NEW YORK ILLUSTRATED JOURNAL.—Our thanks are due to Mr. B. O'Brien, of St. John for the October number of this popular work containing 80 pages and 40 illustrations.—As a work of Art, the Journal is not excelled on this Continent. Published by P. D. Orris, New York—price $2 per annum, exclusive of postage. Mr. B. O'Brien agent, St. John.—Specimen copy may be seen at the Standard Office, and subscribers forwarded to the agent.

England's Battles by Sea and Land, including the present expedition against Russian aggression in the East, by Lt. Col. Williams. We have been presented with part No. 1, of this interesting work, published by the London printing and publishing company—price 1s. 3d. each part, illustrated with two steel engravings. Subscribers names received at this office. Mr. George Gay, agent.

LABORER'S WAGES.—We notice by St. John papers that owing to the shortness of the days and the fall in the price of flour—laborers' wages have fallen to 4 shillings a day, in St. John, and on the Railroad at the Bend. Flour is also reported to be falling in price rapidly—only a few speculators who have a quantity on hand, are desirous of keeping up the price, viz: 88.

Arrival of our New Governor.—The Steamer Governor arrived on Thursday last at noon from Portland, having on board His Excellency J. H. Manners Sutton and Lady, with five children and suite. On the steamer's approaching the wharf, a salute was fired from the ships John Bannerman and Joseph Tarrat, belonging to the Black Ball Line of Liverpool Packets. His Excellency was received at the landing by the principal officers of Government then in the City, and a number of respectable citizens, and proceeded on foot to the St. John Hotel, escorted by the Hon. the Provincial Secretary, and Col. Gardiner, the senior Military officer in the Province, Colonel Hayne, &c. In the afternoon His Excellency visited several parts of the City and some of the Ship yards, and seemed to be much interested in what he saw. On the following morning His Excellency and family, with the Members of the Executive Council and other official personages, proceeded by steamer to Fredericton, where His Excellency took the oath of office at noon to-day.—Courier.

MEETING OF THE LEGISLATURE.—We have just heard by telegraph from Fredericton, that a Royal Gazette extra was issued to day, containing His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor's Proclamation, summoning the Legislature to meet on Thursday the 19th inst. "for the despatch of business.—B.

Nearly all grades of flour are declining, notwithstanding the severe drought, and the prediction, that prices would reach $15 to $20 per barrel during the Fall and Winter. The receipts from the South and West are rapidly increasing; producers have become pretty well satisfied that present high prices cannot be sustained for any length of time, are pushing forward their stocks with considerable vigor. There is no demand for export, and each succeeding steamer from Europe confirms the impression, that not a single barrel of flour will be wanted from this country either in Europe or on the continent.

The best grades have declined $1.50 per barrel within a week, and holders can only make sales by continually submitting to lower prices.

Although the receipts of wheat are small, yet in the absence of any foreign demand, prices are gradually sinking.—New York Paper.

STORE BREAKING.—On Thursday night, no less than four stores in Dock Street, and on the North Market Wharf were entered by burglars, who ransacked the premises and broke open desks, &c. The stores entered were those of Mr. T. S. Magee, and Mr. A. Hastings, on Dock Street, and Messrs. Thorne & Lee's, and Mr. James N. C. Black's on the North Market Wharf. The robbers entered from the rear, and ransacked the several stores, their object being to obtain money; but with the exception of the change found in the drawers, which was very small, the thieves carried away nothing of much value.—We understand that they did not succeed in obtaining more than about five pounds altogether. Their attempts to open the safes, in which the money was deposited were unavailing. We believe that this city has been visited by a gang of thieves, and the people should be on their guard.—New Brunswick.

RECIPROCIITY.—A telegraphic despatch received at the News Room, from M. H. Perley, Esq., and dated Washington, Oct. 4th, says:—"The American Government cannot bring the treaty into operation without Colonial Legislation. Nothing else will do.—There is great desire here to put the treaty in force instantly, but the Colonies must act first. The question of Colonial produce in bond; to be duty free when the treaty is perfected, is under consideration to-day.—Ibid.

FRIENDLY ADVICE.—A lady desired Dr. Johnson to give his opinion of a work she had just written, adding, that if it would not do, she begged him to tell her, for she had other irons in the fire; and in case of its not being likely to succeed, she could bring out something else. "Then," said the Doctor, after turning over a few leaves, "I advise you, madam, to put it where your irons are."

BY ROYAL LETTERS PATENT.

THE HYDROMAGEN, OR WATERPROOF, ANTI-CONSUMPTIVE, CORK SOLES. Manufactured by HARCOURT, BRADLEY & CO., 44 MARKET ST. MANCHESTER.

Principal Warehouse, 102 Wood Street, Cheapside, London, England. American Establishments, 35 Ann Street and 102 Nassau Street, New York, United States.

The Hydromagen is a valuable discovery for protecting the feet from damp or cold, and there for a preventive of many Lung diseases, with out any factoring whatever. The Hydromagen is in the form of a sole, and worn inside the boot or shoe. Its medicated character is a powerful antidote to disease.

For Gentlemen it will be found agreeable, warm, and healthy, to wear in the coldest or rainiest weather, as the foot cannot become wet if the Hydromagen is inserted. Ladies may wear the lightest soled boots or shoes in the most inclement weather with impunity, while Consumption, so prevalent among the young of our country, may be thwarted by their general adoption.

As the Hydromagen is becoming more known, its sale is increasing to an almost incredible extent. Last year in London, Manchester, Birmingham, Liverpool, Glasgow, Leeds, Dublin, Paris, Antwerp, Hamburg and Berlin, our sales reached 1,732,450 pairs of Cork Soles. This year the number will far surpass that.

Ask the Faculty their opinion of their value as a preventative for COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, and CONSUMPTION.

For terms, apply to HARCOURT, BRADLEY & CO., 35 Ann Street, New-York.

THE CHEST. Sir Astley Cooper, Bart., M.D. THE EMINENT MEDICAL PRACTITIONER, HAS LEFT A VALUABLE LEGACY TO THE WORLD IN HIS GREAT PREVENTATIVE OF CONSUMPTION, AND UNFAILING CURE FOR PULMONARY DISEASES, WITHOUT THE USE OF MEDICINE.

PROTECTOR. To all persons of all ages and conditions, a certain and safe shield against those fearful diseases, Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, Coughs, Colds, and other affections of the Lungs, which arise from the exposed state of the chest, according to fashion, and the continual changes of our climate.

The Protector is simply a chemically prepared fur, lined with silk and padded, which, suspended from the neck, covers the chest, in so agreeable a manner, that, once worn, it becomes a necessity and a comfort.

The Protector, although but recently introduced into America, is making rapid progress through the United States, the Canadas, South America, and the West Indies. It has for a long time been a staple article in England and on the Continent of Europe, while it has grown in many countries to the position of an article of dress.

To demonstrate these facts, and the knowledge of the beneficial effects of wearing the Protector, without recourse to doctorying of any kind, the cost of wearing these articles is a mere trifle, and one will last some years. No one who values the health of himself or his family will be without them. The Hospitals in this country are not alone recommending them, but rapidly introducing them.

Harcourt, Bradley & Co. of London, and Manchester, England, were originally entrusted with the manufacture of the Protectors, by the invention of Dr. Cooper, and continue to manufacture according to his original instructions, and therefore recommend those who would wear "The Protectors," to see to their being genuine.

REMEMBER THIS IS A STAPLE ARTICLE, and no Patent Medicine. RETAIL PRICES. Gent's Size, $1.50 each. Ladies' do, 1.00 do. Boys' & Misses do, 75 do.

THE ALL-HEALING REMEDY!!!

Holloway's Ointment.

A most astonishing cure of Scrofulous Ulcers—a case certified by the Mayor of Boston. Copy of a letter from J. Noble, Esq., Mayor of Boston, Lincolnshire. To Professor Holloway.

Dear Sir,—Mrs. Sarah Dixon, of Liquorpond street, Boston, has this day deposed before me, that for a considerable time she was severely afflicted with Scrofulous Sores and Ulcers in her arms, feet, legs, and other parts of her body; and although the first medical advice was obtained, at the cost of a large sum of money, she obtained no abatement of suffering, but gradually grew worse.

Being recommended by a friend to try your Ointment, she procured a small pot, and a box of the Pills, and before that was all used, symptoms of amendment appeared. By persevering with the medicines for a short time longer, according to the directions, and strictly adhering to your rules, as to diet, &c., she was perfectly cured, and now enjoys the best of health.

I remain, dear Sir, your truly, (Signed) J. NOBLE. Dated August 12th, 1852.

An extraordinary and rapid cure of Erysipelas in the leg, after medical aid had failed.

Copy of a letter from Mrs. Elizabeth Yeates, of the Post Office, Aldwick Road, near Begoor, Sussex, dated Jan. 12th, 1853. To Professor HOLLOWAY.

Sir,—I suffered for a considerable period from a severe attack of Erysipelas, which at length settled in my leg, and resisted all medical treatment. My sufferings were very great, and I quite despaired of any permanent, when I was advised to have recourse to your Ointment and Pills. I did so without delay, and am happy to say the result was eminently successful, for they effected a radical cure of my leg, and restored me to the enjoyment of health. I shall ever speak with the utmost confidence of your medicines, and have recommended them to others in the neighbourhood similarly afflicted, who derived equal benefit.—I am, Sir, your obliged and faithful servant (Signed) ELIZABETH YEATES

A dreadfully diseased Ankle cured after being given up by the Faculty at Malta and Portsmouth Hospitals. The following important communication has been forwarded to Professor Holloway for publication, by Mr. B. Dixon, Chemist, King st. Norwich.

Copy of a letter from Captain Smith, of Great Yarmouth, dated January 19, 1853. To Mr. Dixon.

Dear Sir,—I send you the particulars of a cure effected by Professor Holloway's invaluable medicines.—Mr. John Walton, late in Her Majesty's Service, in the British fleet at Malta, had a very bad ulcerated ankle, and after being in the Malta Hospital for six months, was sent to England as an invalid to Portsmouth Hospital, where he remained an inmate four months, there, as at Malta, refusing to have the limb amputated, he was turned out incurable. He then came to Yarmouth, and was under a medical gentleman for about three months but his ankle became so much worse that all hope was lost. At this period, by my advice he tried Holloway's Ointment and Pills, which by unremitting application, healed all the ulcers, and restored him to perfect health and strength.

I remain, dear Sir, your's very truly, (Signed) JOHN SMITH. Albert Hotel, Great Yarmouth.

Surprising cure of a bad Breast, Nervous Debility, and general ill health. Copy of a letter from Mr. T. F. Ker, Chemist, &c., Lower Moss Lane, Manchester, dated Feb'y 12th, 1853.

To Professor HOLLOWAY. Dear Sir,—I have great pleasure in forwarding you the particulars of a very extraordinary cure of a bad breast, effected solely by the use of your celebrated Ointment and Pills. Mrs. Martha Bell, of Pea-street, in this town, had been for a considerable time labouring under nervous debility, loss of appetite, and general ill health, occasioned by ulcerated wounds in the breast. She had much experience in the use of all the known remedies for the cure of ulcers, but without any beneficial result, in fact she had nearly lost all faith and hope of a cure being effected. In this distressing and painful condition of body and mind, she was persuaded to have recourse to your invaluable Ointment and Pills, which she immediately did, and in the course of a very short time the effect produced was most astonishing; her appetite was speedily improved, the sores and ulcers in the breast gradually healed, and the nervous excitement of her system was wholly removed.

I remain, dear Sir, your's faithfully, (Signed) T. FORSTER KER.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases: Bad Legs, Chias-foot, Bad Breasts, Chillsains, Burns, Chapped hands, Bunions, Corns (soft), Bite of Moschetoes, Calluses, and Sand Flies, Contracted and Stiff Coco-bay, Joints, Elephantiasis, Fistulas, Gout, Glandular Swelling, Scurvy, Lumbago, Sore Throat, Piles, Tumours, Rheumatism, Ulcers, Anorexia, Sore Nipples, Yaws, Sore Nipples.

Philosophy of Marriage and the Secret Infirmities of Youth and Maturity. With fifty Coloured Engravings on Steel, in a Sealed Envelope, price 2s 6d. sterling.

SELF-PRESERVATION: An Analytical Investigation of the Physiology and Functions of Marriage, in all the bearings in which that important subject affects the health and happiness of man, with its disqualifications, and impediments, tracing their origin to the effects of juvenile debility, habits, youthful excess, tropical climates, or close study; followed by practical remarks, founded on twenty years experience in the treatment of impotence, nervous debility, local weakness, spermatorrhoea, syphilis, and all diseases of the urinary and generative system. Illustrated by fifty Coloured Engravings on the anatomy of the reproductive organs, and their relative conditions in health and disease. By SAMUEL LA MERI, M.D., No. 37, Bedford-square, London. Doctor of Medicine, Matriculated Member of the University of Edinburgh, Honorary Member of the London Hospital Medical Society, Licentiate of Apothecaries' Hall, London, &c.

The essential object of this treatise is to point out, the fearful consequences resulting from certain habits, irregularities and excesses, which have produced more misery in youth, degradation in manhood, and premature decay at all stages of life, than perhaps any other class of disease known to modern pathologists. Its perusal is particularly recommended to persons entertaining secret doubts of their physical condition, and who are conscious of having hazarded the health, happiness and privileges to which every human being is entitled. The contents embrace the origin, effects, prevention and treatment of the deplorable catalogue of maladies connected with nervous debility, exhaustion of the vital energies, prostration of mental and physical capacity, local and general weakness, acute and chronic spermatorrhoea, and their endless modifications. The treatment adopted is founded on experience gained in the most celebrated schools of medicine, and by the most eminent practitioners, both in Great Britain and in Continental Europe. Every peculiarity relating to the physiology, pathology and general treatment of the disease, which is incidental to the generative system is fully explained, and the means of immediate relief and ultimate cure are prescribed in detail. The professional reputation of Dr. La Meri, who has taken the most distinguished medical and academic honours, at home and abroad, is in itself a sufficient guarantee that those who may place themselves under his care will, in every instance meet with that delicate consideration and inviolable secrecy which are so requisite in the treatment of these cases.

New Publishing By JOHN TALLIS & CO. LONDON THE LIFE AND TIMES OF THE LATE Duke of Wellington; By Lieut. Col. Williams; (a Companion to Arms, of His Grace.)

Comprising the Campaigns and Battle-Fields of Wellington and his Comrades, the Political Life of the Duke and his Contemporaries, and a detailed account of England's Battles by Sea and Land, from the commencement of the Great French Revolution to the present time, interspersed with Anecdotes, Personal Incidents, and Advantages, &c.

The earthly career of Arthur Duke Wellington has closed: one of the greatest men of the nineteenth century, the foremost military commander of his age has paid the debt of nature. The time has not arrived for giving to the world a History of the Great Captain—the Events of his Life and Times—a life marked by patriotism, probity and honour, and events the greatest which have ever agitated the civilized world, and whose influence will be felt upon society till the end of time. Such a work must appeal to the best and proudest feelings in the heart of every Briton—the glory of his country, the honour of his name and position among the nations—may his name and his deeds be recorded, and his exploits be recounted, and his name be placed on the highest pinnacle of fame and glory, and the victor's wreath in the brows of heroes decorated with the trophies of Italy, Egypt, and Germany.

To supply such a desideratum in English literature, the publishers of 'The Life and Times of the Duke of Wellington' have determined to produce a work which shall present to the reader, not only the details which a mere biographical sketch would afford, but a comprehensive work embracing the contemporaneous history of the period; exhibiting the circumstances which brought about the great events in which the Duke and his contemporaries were engaged, and giving to the reader a connected narrative of the lives and actions of the Warriors and Statesmen of the nineteenth century; and this from the pen of one who was a companion in arms of the great hero, and participated with him in many a well fought field.

In order to carry out their views, the Publishers have determined that the work shall be profusely illustrated by Portraits of the Warriors and Statesmen of the last half century who have shed a lustre upon the history of their country; also representations of the most important engagements by sea and land from the period of 1789 till 1852; so that the work, when finished, shall form an Illustrated Gallery of the Naval and Military Exploits of England.

It has been well said, "Character is the true strength of nations; true glory their best inheritance. When the time shall come that the British heart no longer throb at the names of Cressy, Poitiers, Agincourt, Blenheim, Ramilies, Oudenard, Malplaque; of Talavera, Salamanca, Tou-lon, Waterloo—the last hour of the British Empire will be struck." The promotion and elevation of national spirit and feeling is therefore the duty and interest of every true and loyal son of England. May Heaven inspire the hearts of every one of us with that spirit and feeling.

Conditions of Publication.—The work will be issued on the 1st and 15th of every month, in Parts at 1s. 3d. and Divisions handsomely bound at 9s. 4d. printed on Imperial 8vo. double column; each part will be embellished by two highly finished steel Engravings, and will contain 32 pages of letterpress. A beautiful steel Engraving 13 by 19 inches, the storming of Seringapatam, the first victory in which the late Duke of Wellington was engaged in India, to every subscriber to the work.

HEALTH RESTORED!! HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

Surprising Cure of a confirmed Asthma, after five years' suffering. The following testimonial has been sent to Professor Holloway, by a Gentleman named Middleton, of Scotland road, Liverpool. SIR,—Your Pills have been the means, under Providence, of restoring me to sound health, after five years of severe affliction. During the whole of that period I suffered the most dreadful attacks of Asthma, frequently of several weeks duration, attended with a violent cough, and continual spitting of phlegm intermixed with blood. This so shook my constitution that I was unfitted for any of the active duties of life. I was attended by some of the most eminent medical men of this town, but they failed to give me the slightest relief. As a last remedy I tried your Pills, and in about three months they effected a perfect cure of the disease, totally eradicated the cough, and restored tone and vigour to the chest and digestive organs. I am, Sir, your obedient servant. (Signed) H. MIDDLETON. Dated Jan. 1st, 1853.

A Permanent Cure of a Diseased Liver, of many years duration. Copy of a letter from Mr. Gamis, Chemist, York, to Professor Holloway. Dear Sir,—In this district your Pills command a more extensive sale than any other proprietary medicine before the public. As a proof of their efficacy in Liver and Bilious Complaints I may mention the following case. A lady of this town with whom I am personally acquainted for years was a severe sufferer from disease of the Liver and digestive organs; her medical attendant assured her that he could do nothing to relieve her sufferings, and it was not likely she could survive many months. This announcement naturally caused great alarm among her friends and relations, and they induced her to make a trial of your Pills, which so improved her general health that she was induced to continue them until she received a perfect cure. This is twelve months ago, and she has not experienced any symptoms of relapse, and often declares that your Pills have been the means of saving her life. I remain, dear Sir, yours truly. (Signed) J. GAMIS. Nov. 22, 1852.

An astonishing Cure of Chronic Rheumatism, after being discharged from the Hospital incurable. Copy of a letter from Mr. W. Moon, of the Square, Winchester, to Professor Holloway.

SIR,—I beg to inform you that for years I was a sufferer from Chronic Rheumatism, and was often laid up for weeks together by its severe and painful attacks. I tried every thing that was recommended, and was attended by one of the most eminent surgeons in this town; but obtained no relief whatever, and fearing that my health would be entirely broken up, I was induced to go into our County Hospital, where I had the best medical treatment the Institution afforded, all of which proved of no avail, and I came out no better than I went in. I was then advised to try your Pills, and by persevering with them was perfectly cured, and enabled to resume my occupation, and although a considerable period has elapsed, I have felt no return whatever of the complaint. I am, Sir, your obliged servant, (Signed) W. MOON. Oct 8, 1852.

An extraordinary Cure of Dropsy, after suffering for eighteen months. Copy of a letter from Mr. G. Briggs, Chemist, Glouce, dated February 15th, 1853. To Professor Holloway.

SIR,—I have much pleasure in informing you of a most surprising cure of Dropsy recently effected by your valuable medicine. Captain Jackson of this place was afflicted with Dropsy for upwards of eighteen months, to such an extent that it caused his body and limbs to be much swollen, and water oozed as it were from his skin, so that a daily change of apparel became necessary. notwithstanding the various remedies tried, and the different medical men consulted, all was of no avail until he commenced using your Pills, by which, and a strict attention to the printed directions, he was effectually cured, and his health perfectly reestablished. If you deem this worthy of publicity, you are at liberty to use it. I am, Sir, yours respectfully, (Signed) G. BRIGGS.
