FINE COURSE

Mr. Gardiner, the enterprising representative of a large Lyceum Course bureau, is in the city to-day, completing arrangements with Manager Briscoe of the Grand, for next season. The result has been the selection of an exceedingly promising course, a perspective of which was courteously shown The Planet. The series is, perhaps, the heaviest and best ever booked for the Maple City and the numbers are exceedingly well balanced.

The schedule of dates and arrangement of the series has not yet, of course, been completed, but it is understood that the first number will be booked for about the middle of October. The course comprises the following:

Double Star Attraction, the Wilson-Frye Co., "Something new under the Sun."

The Hawthorne Musical Club, of Boston, five artists in descriptive work.

The Bostonian Ladies' Quartette, a vocal organization of exceptional merit with the McGarh brothers, instrumental specialists.

Melvin Robinson in David Garrick or David Copperfield.

The celebrated Roney's Boys, of Chicago.

Johnson Swiss Bell Ringers, novelty entertainers of great merit.

Park Concert Co., five lady artists.

Judge Houston says that in Turkey a man can have as many wives as he can keep, and in this country if a man were allowed the same privilege, he would only have half a wife.

SAXONY'S KING IS NO MORE

His Majesty Passed Peacefully Away at the Castle Last Evening.

Last of the Generals who Commanded German Army in 1870.

Dresden, Saxony, June 19.—King Albert died at 8:05 p.m. to-day. His Majesty passed away peacefully at the castle of Silesburg.

King Albert of Saxony was the last of the generals who commanded the German army of 1870. As His Majesty grew older he shared in the idealization which influenced the group of great statesmen which surrounded William I. His sober life produced few incidents, and his unobtrusive support of his own church, the Roman Catholic, never caused a conflict with popular opinion. The vast majority of the inhabitants of Saxony are Protestants. Emperor William always referred to King Albert as a fatherly friend.

It is understood that the Emperor will at once suspend his tour of the Rhine, and return to Berlin to take part in the funeral of the dead King. The death of King Albert will certainly limit the regatta festivities at Kiel the latter part of this month, when it was proposed to hold a series of regattas. It is now not regarded probable that Emperor William will attend the Kiel regatta.

OFFICERS ELECTED

At the regular meeting of Chatham Encampment No. 10, I. O. O. F., held in the Oddfellows Temple on the evening of June 18, 1902. The following officers were elected for the ensuing term:

H. P.—B. K. Harper.
S. W.—W. J. Pickert.
Scribe—E. E. Wing.
F. Scribe—A. M. Lafferty.
Treasurer—John Turner.
J. W.—J. E. Oldershaw.
Trustees—W. W. Smith, Thomas S. Smith, Hugh Garrett.
Representatives to Grand Encampment—H. Winegarden and H. W. Smith.

DROPS HORSES

"Umbrella Bill" McGuigan in Politics, but Still Sticks to Rain Protector.

"Umbrella Bill" McGuigan, struck town this morning and half a dozen with his old friend Ed. H. Gillman. Mr. McGuigan, once a familiar figure on the race course, is out of the racing game now. Politics is now ab- gine, who is a member of the Arkansas legislature, and his name is prominently mentioned for the governorship of Arkansas. Even in these days of his political affluence, he refuses to discard his umbrella, and this morning he had it in his hand while sitting with his friends.

Mr. McGuigan is a brother of Chas. McGuigan, of Coates Springs. He was visiting here last week.

BITTER DEBATE

London, June 20.—The House of Commons spent nearly all of last night, up to midnight discussing the case of the Irish member, Patrick A. McHugh, who yesterday was committed to jail for three months, for contempt of the special court which assembled at Sligo, Ireland, June 6, under the Crimes Act. A number of bitter denunciations of this act were made from the Irish benches.

A. J. Balfour, the government leader in the house, finally agreed to appoint a committee which it is customary to nominate in the case of the arrest of a member of the House of Commons to inquire into the facts of Mr. McHugh's apprehension and report to the House.

HALL OPENED

The young men of St. Joseph's Literary Society met last night for the first time in their fine new hall. The officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

Chaplin—John Herman.
President—John Kehoe.
Vice-President—John Brennan.
Rec.-Secretary—Jos. Robert.
Financial Secretary—Ed. Casey.
Treasurer—John Conway.

Executive committee—T. J. Doyle, Farnell, Welsh and Wm. Marshall. The club proposes to conduct a series of debates during the summer. They also have connected with their society a club room and gymnasium and a concert hall with a capacity of seating 700 people.

BRAVE CANUOKS

London, June 19.—A supplementary issue of the Gazette announces that the following Canadians who participated in the South African war have been recommended for meritorious conduct: Surgeon Fiset and Capt. Burdall, of the Royal Canadian Regiment; Troop Sergeant Carly, of the Strathcona, now a lieutenant in the Imperial Yeomanry; and Private E. F. Walde, of the Canadian Mounted Rifles.

WERE DINED

Members of B Company Entertained to Splendid Banquet Last Evening—Col. Speaks

"B" Company, of the 24th Regiment, was banqueted last evening at the Grand Central Hotel by Captain Bell and Lieutenants Sutherland and Chase. Lieut.-Col. Rankin was an invited guest.

After drill all the company marched down the street to the Hotel, where a splendid luncheon had been prepared by Mine Host John Pleasant. After ample justice had been done to the viands, speeches were indulged in. The Colonel opened with a very complimentary address to the company, making special mention of the non-commissioned officers.

Capt. Bell responded and Messrs. Chase, Sutherland, Drill Instructor Larnsworth and Col. Sergeant L. Reid followed with short addresses. The gathering broke up with "God Save the King," "Auld Lang Syne," and cheers for the Colonel, the Captain, and the Company.

LOOKS SURE

Strike Almost a Certainty on the Toronto Street Railway—Men Meet To-day.

Toronto, June 19.—A strike of the street railway employees as the result of a meeting to be held to-morrow (Friday) night, to hear the report of the committee which conferred with Manager Keating, is almost a certainty.

A statement was issued to-night by President A. E. Ames, and the Board of Trade committee of mediation, stating that the men's committee will not take the responsibility of recommending the company's offer for acceptance, and adding that after a further conference with the railway officials this afternoon, they are assured the terms are the best that can be had.

This means that the issue remains with the men who are expected to vote to-morrow night by the necessary two-thirds majority for a strike. (Both sides are getting ready for a struggle, and the company is bringing in men from all over the country. It is said also that non-union strikers are being engaged in the provisions of the alien labor law.)

The company to-night issued a statement to the public, the purpose of which is to throw the responsibility of a strike upon the men. The company admits the usefulness and good intention of the Board of Trade, but says it has firmly but courteously declined to allow the Board to arbitrate as to the relations between the company and its employees. In conclusion, the company says that if its employees decide upon a strike, everything possible will be done to give the public an uninterrupted service.

It is said that the Winnipeg car employees have offered to strike also when the trouble begins in Toronto.

PROMISED REWARD

The accompanying note, written by a small boy, was seized in transit by a city teacher to-day:

"If you lend me your Blotter I will take a back dive of the dock to-night."

A TRIBUTE

Bishop Baldwin, in his annual charge to the members of the Synod of Huron, in referring to the resignation of J. M. McWhinney, secretary-treasurer, said:

"You will all deeply regret to hear that the esteemed secretary-treasurer of the diocese is about to retire. The kindness and sympathy of his nature, the energy and zeal displayed by him in the discharge of his official duties, together with the extraordinary ability and consummate skill evinced by him in the management of the various trusts committed to his care, will long endear him to the members of this vast and growing diocese. Most earnestly do we wish him every blessing in his new sphere of duties, and trust that ever over him and his may be outspread the wings of our covenant-keeping God. We assure him that whatever new friends he may gather in Toronto they will not be more true and loving than those he has left behind."

CANADIANS WILL LEAD

Take First Place in the Big Colonial Procession on June 27.

Talk of Knighthoods for Canadian Cabinet Ministers Troops Reviewed.

London, June 19.—In the colonial procession on June 27 the Canadians will have the leading position. They will be headed by Gen. Hunter, followed by Chief Staff Officer Major T. A. Cooke, A. D. C.; the Canadians artillery and cavalry and the Australian cavalry. The first carriage will contain Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Premier Barton and their wives, and following them the Premiers and representatives of other colonies and their wives.

CORONATION HONORS.
The list of coronation honors has not yet been passed, and the proposals are most strictly guarded. It is whispered that Messrs. Mulock, Fielding and Borden may be offered knighthoods.

CANADA'S ARCH.
The Canadian coronation arch is almost completed. It is a magnificent emblem, in the heart of official and parliamentary England, and is already the centre of attention for crowds.

THE COLONIAL TROOPS.
Yesterday when the colonial troops were paraded before the Duke of Connaught, the Canadians, representing the premier colony, were given the pose of honor to the right of the line, and with their own brass and bugle bands, marched to the music of "The Maple Leaf Forever." The Canadian troops are now taking turn as guard of honor to the colonial premiers' quarters at the Hotel Cecil, to the great enjoyment of the crowd.

ENTERTAINED AT HATFIELD.
Lady Cranbourne and Lady Gwendolen Cecil to-day entertained a large number of Canadians and other colonial visitors at Hatfield, on behalf of the Marquis of Salisbury, who was confined to his town residence in Arlington street, owing to a chill.

B COMPANY

Receives Special Commendation From Commanding Officer for Good Work.

Last evening the regular weekly battalion drill and marenout took place. The march past was the principal feature of the evening, but the captains were given charge of their companies and company drill was gone through, after which the usual march down King street occurred, headed by the drum and bugle band under Bugle Major Plumridge. On returning to the drill shed, the Colonel glowingly complimented "B" company on its turnout and work. He also announced that the inspection of the regiment by the D. O. C., of London, would take place on Monday evening at 7.30 and that a good turnout of the companies was wanted. Drills for the non-commissioned officers take place on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of next week.

Ald. Mounteer and Dr. Charteris were delayed twenty minutes by the watch at the G. T. R. crossing on Locust street yesterday. A train crew left the crossing blocked with cars and went half a mile away to do some switching. Complaint was made to the police and only the fear that a charge if laid would cost the conductor his job, prevented the citizens named from seeking legal redress for the delay.

BAD CARACTERS

A couple of tramps on crutches are giving the people in South Chatham a good deal of trouble these days. When refused money at places, they have threatened to do bodily harm. They have been seen spending the money they receive in the hotels and are not deserving.

AGAIN ACTIVE

Fort de France, Island of Martinique, Wednesday, June 18.—A column of slime one hundred metres high has been ejecting from the volcano of Monte Pelee, and has fallen on Basee Pointe, enveloping the lower portion of the town, and completely raising twenty-two houses. No loss of life has been reported.

The volcano continues to throw forth cinders on the northern part of the island, which has been rendered uninhabitable.

Previous to the falling of the mass of slime or mud on Basee Pointe, that place and Lorraine had been inundated by torrential rains. The part of Basee Pointe, which suffered to-day is now covered to the thickness of about five metres with slimy mud. La Precheur also suffered from this latest eruption of Mont Pelee.

FRIDAY, JUNE 20.

THE BOER ARMY.

When the Boer army was in its first phases the enemies of Great Britain delighted to sneer at Great Britain because it could not hold its own against a handful of "embattled farmers." The Boers were said to number variously from 20,000 to 40,000 men. It turns out now that there must have been over 80,000 Boers in their army. These men not only knew the country in minute detail, but were armed with the most modern weapons. It is no wonder that such a force of hardy irregulars fought so successfully against the British forces, the bulk of them unversed in war, and encumbered with tremendously long lines of communication which they had to keep open. After all there was not so much disparity in the numbers of men actually in the field opposed to each other.

SOMEWHAT SULTRY.

Here's a sample of the manner in which the Hamilton Spectator and Times wreck each other's systems: "Editorial blackguardism is bad enough in a newspaper; but such flagrant indecency as the Times was guilty of last night is an insult to the moral sense of the community.—Spectator."

The Times of course, regarded the above as a personal insult, and came back as follows:

"Having got off this precious piece of pharisaical falsehood the Spectator Holy Willie seized his pencil and followed it with this choice bit of Chesterfieldian English:

"The Grits may yap about protests till Hades freezes; but Whitney will go right along in his endeavor to rescue the goods stolen by the Grit party on May 29th."

ACTIVE OLD MEN.

The statement that a man of over 60 or 65 years of age is out of the race is not verified by the facts, points out the Brantford Courier. It is true that to a large extent the young and the vigorous supplant those who have passed the meridian of life but that is not absolutely the case.

Pope Leo XIII is now in his 93rd year, and he is still able to direct the affairs of the Vatican and to write Latin verse of purity and power. It is further pointed out that Bismarck at 75 ruled Germany with an iron hand; that Thiers at 80 ruled France; that Gladstone at 82 was still a power in Great Britain; that Oliver Wendell Holmes at 84 was as active as ever; that Neal Dow at 90 was full of fight; that Sydney Cooper at 90 painted pictures which were acceptable to the Royal Academy, and so on.

The truth of the matter seems to be that a man who is in good shape at 60 has no reason to conclude that he must regard himself as a "has been."

ALGOMA IS SAFE.

The evanescence of earthly pleasures is illustrated by the recent experience of Acting Premier Harcourt with the constituency of Algoma. At the general election Algoma was carried by Mr. Smyth, the Liberal-Conservative candidate. Why this accident was permitted to occur it is impossible to say. Probably the gentlemen who stuff ballot-boxes and spoil ballots were so busy elsewhere as to be unable to give the district the attention it deserves. But great joy pervaded the legislative halls on Tuesday. The Minister had discovered that Mr. Smyth, the elect of the people, was a postmaster, and that he was therefore disqualified to sit in the House. Before announcing this valuable find, the Government telegraphed to Ottawa to make sure. Mr. Smyth might have resigned in advance, and in that case he could hold his seat.

Had he resigned, or was he still the postmaster? Back came the message that the victim had not resigned; and, as some of the papers reported, there was at once jubilation in the Parliament Buildings from cellar to roof. It was assumed either that the minority candidate could now claim the seat on the ground that the elected member was not a valid candidate, or that there could be a new election at which the machine could repair the neglect of which it had been guilty in the former contest. Pleasure and hope inspired the Ministers, until some unnamed person suggested that the law be more carefully examined. A search was thereupon made in the Revised Statutes of Ontario, with the result that another discovery, to wit, a clause setting forth that while postmasters in cities, towns and incorporated villages could not become candidates, those elsewhere were eligible to stand as such, and if elected to sit as members. Mr. Smyth is one of the "elsewhere" postmasters. His village is not incorporated, and his election is thus perfectly valid. "Pleasures are like poppies spread, you seize the flower, its bloom is shed; or, like the snowfall in the river, a moment white, then melts for ever." This interesting incident indicates how severe the pressure is. The minority Government is grasping at But this is an excusable expedient under the circumstances. It is not half so objectionable as the policy of grasping at lead pencils and of defacing the ballots which the people have cast.—Mail and Empire.

COL. LYNCH'S APPEAL.

Arthur Lynch, M. P., in a British prison awaiting trial on a charge of high treason, is scarcely playing the roll he anticipated when he left Paris for London. Assuredly he is not if the letter published in the London press, and purporting to be a copy of a letter which he addressed to the speaker of the commons, under date of Paris, June 4, is from his pen. After excusing his delay in appearing to claim his seat in the house while peace was not yet concluded, avowing that his course in the Boer war had not been determined by any base feelings, that a new era had dawned which all hope may be brighter and which he had expected should be attended by a general amnesty, he concludes:

"Be that as it may, I wish to place myself at your service. I had hoped that I would prove myself an unworthy member of the House of Commons; that I there could work at those great national, industrial and educational questions upon which the future of the British dominions depends, and that with the assurance of helping in the solution of the problems of Ireland I could say, in the words of the members of the House who were hostile to me: 'Do not strike me, but hear me.'"

Evidently Col. Lynch had hoped to make his appeal from the floor of Parliament to the British public. This has been denied him. He will, however, have the opportunity of making his defense in the British courts, where justice sits enthroned with veiled vision holding an even balance, and no right common to the humblest or highest subject can be refused to him.

PREFERENCE IN PROSPECT.

Ottawa Citizen.
Sir Michael Hicks-Beach having rejected his free trade prejudice and intimated that a preference for the colonies in the British markets might be secured, Sir Wilfrid might go him one better, recant his jubilee utterances and frankly admit that Canadians do want, and believe they are entitled to, preferential treatment in the markets of Britain.

WHO BENEFITS.

Toronto Telegram.
The Ontario Government is the only possible receiver of direct advantage from the ballots stolen in North Grey. The Liberal party will have to live after the Ontario Government is dead. Genuine Liberals must rouse themselves to the truth that a party cannot retain either life or virtue and be responsible for the proceedings which have disgraced Liberalism in North Grey.

"USED BY ROYALTY."

Mr. T. H. Estabrooks secured an excellent advertisement for Red Rose Tea, when it was selected for the use of F. R. H. the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York, during their recent visit. The mistaken impression has gone abroad that the Prohibition Convention to be held in London on the 30th of June is of a private nature. This is entirely a mistake. All friends of aggressive action to secure prohibition will be cordially welcomed. The Convention will be held in the "Auditorium," and further particulars, if desired, may be had by addressing D. A. McDermid, Secy. of Local Committee.

The first necessity of athletics is a sound stomach. Food is the source of all physical strength, but to extract and assimilate the strength from food requires that the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition should be in a condition of good health. What is true of the athlete is true of every man and woman; physical health and vigor depend upon the digestion and assimilation of food.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, and by enabling the perfect digestion and assimilation of food, builds the body up with solid flesh and muscle.

"I used ten bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and several vials of his 'Pleasant Pellets' a year ago this spring, and have had no trouble with indigestion since," writes Mr. W. T. Thompson, of Townsend, Broadwater County, Montana. "Words fail to tell how thankful I am for the relief as I had suffered so much and it seemed that the doctors could do me no good. I got down in weight to 105 pounds and was not able to work at all. Now I weigh nearly 150 and can do a day's work on the farm. I have recommended your medicine to several, and shall always have a good word to say for Dr. Pierce and his medicine."

The Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A RIVER OF LAND.

Astonishing Amount of Earth That Flows Down the Mississippi.

"The capacity of the Mississippi for filling up canals and old channels is something awful," says John Swain to Almsfield. "Government engineers have found that the amount of solid matter annually carried past Vicksburg in suspension is enough to make a block of earth 300 feet high and a mile square. Fifty feet off the top of this is spread around on the valley between here and the sea, and the rest goes out into the gulf of Mexico to build up more continent."

"Think what that means. Instead of a river of water this is a river of land. It would make a solid stream of earth five feet deep and nine feet wide, flowing night and day as fast as a man can walk, four miles an hour, all sliding down off the northern half of the country toward the sea. Year in, year out, that endless line of earth goes on. It would take a force of more than 50,000 men working in eight hour shifts to throw the dirt into the stream, supposing the river bed were rigid and an inexhaustible supply of dirt on the bank. It would make 25,000,000 wagon loads every year."

"But here—what are the use of such figures? Below Vicksburg—and above it, too, to an extent—we have the earth itself to speak for it. Except for the occasional fragments of the line of bluffs along the eastern edge below here which bob up at Port Adams, at Natchez, at Grand Gulf, at Baton Rouge, at Port Hudson, there is nothing about the level of the high water river except the artificial levees. These are in places miles back, great earthen banks, sometimes thirty feet high or more, sodded and free from trees, which protect the wonderfully fertile region behind them."

"And all this level country which the river overflows and fertilizes is constantly increased by this river of dirt which the Mississippi brings down from the inner region, gathered all the way from the Rockies to the Alleghenies. Sometimes the river starts to eat away this land that it has made. In a single summer, if it will, it eats away half a mile of it out of some bend. It cuts it out sometimes an acre at a bite and takes with it forests, houses, levees and all else."

"The river is not a uniformly moving stream. One side or the middle moves swiftly; the other parts are still or sluggish. Sometimes even these run up stream. The swift part is the channel current and runs in the deepest sections. It makes crossings whenever driven off shore by a promontory. These crossings are dumping places for the surplus earth the river has picked up in the bend it is eating."

One of Field's Crazy Jokes.

In his biography of Eugene Field Slason Thompson says that shortly after the humorist's arrival in Chicago it occurred to him one bleak day in December that it was time the people knew there was a stranger in town.

So he arrayed himself in a long linen duster, buttoned up from knees to collar, put an old straw hat on his head and, taking a shabby book under one arm and a paler leaf fan in his hand, he marched all the way down Clark street, ver, B. C., is visiting his relatives in Comber and vicinity.

When he reached the entrance to The Daily News office, he was followed by a motley crowd of noisy urchins, whom he dismissed with a grimace and the cabalistic gesture with which Nicholas Antony van Corlear from the battlement of the fortress on Rensselaerstein.

Then, closing the door in their astonished faces, he mounted the two flights of stairs to the editorial room, where he recounted, with the gleam of the boy he was in such things, the success of his joke.

Praise of Work Well Done.

Perhaps there is nothing else so productive of cheerful, helpful service as the expression of approval or praise of work well done, and yet there is nothing so grudgingly, so meagerly given by employers. Many of them seem to think that commendation is demoralizing and that the voicing of appreciation will lead to listlessness and the withdrawal of energy and interest. This evidence of a poor knowledge of human nature, which is always hungering for approbation. But how mistaken such views are is shown by the loyal and unstinted service given to those large minded men who treat their employees as members of a family committed to their care.

Her Consolation.

At a confirmation at Strassburg the bishop asked of a pretty sourette the usual question of the Heidelberg catechism:

"What is your only consolation in life and death?"

The neophyte blushed and hesitated. The first question was repeated, and then she stammered out:

"The young shoemaker in the next street."

Wise at Last.

Stockton Bonds—Poor Lambley! He never could get on the right side of the market.

Cutten Kewpons—Oh, but he has been for the last three months or so. Stockton Bonds—Really? What—Cutten Kewpons—The outside. He's quit.

Applaud the Heathen.

"Brother Highmore, are you contributing anything for the benefit of the heathen this year?"

"Yes, sir. I am having my washing done at a Chinese laundry."—Chicago Tribune.

THE GREAT POETS.

Do Not Study Them For Knowledge; Read Them For Culture.

Young men and young women actually go to college to take a course in Shakespeare or Chaucer or Dante or the Arthurian legends. The course becomes a mere knowledge course. My own acquaintance with Milton was through an exercise in grammar. We parsed "Paradise Lost." Much of the current college study of Shakespeare is little better than parsing him. The class falls upon the text like hens upon a bone in winter. No meaning of phrase escapes them; every line is literally picked to pieces. But of the poet himself, of that which makes him what he is, how much do they have to say? Very little, I fear. They have got to intellectual exercise and not an emotional experience. They have added to their knowledge, but have not taken a step in culture.

To dig into the roots and origins of the great poets is like digging into the roots of an oak or maple the better to understand your appreciation of the beauty of the tree. There stands the tree in all its summer glory. Will you really know it any better after you have laid bare every root and rootlet? There stand Homer, Dante, Chaucer and Shakespeare. Read them, give your soul to them, and master them if you are man enough.

The poets are not to be analyzed; they are to be enjoyed; they are not to be studied, but to be loved; they are not for knowledge, but for culture—to enhance our appreciation of life and our mastery over its elements. All the more facts about a poet's work are as chaff as compared with the appreciation of one fine line or fine sentence. Why study a great poet at all after the manner of the dissecting room? Why not rather seek to make his acquaintance of his living soul and to feel its power—John Burroughs in Century.

William Wirt's Reformation.

William Wirt, the great lawyer, attorney general of the United States and prosecutor of Aaron Burr when he was tried for treason, was stupefied and made senseless by liquor. At times he lost all self control and self respect. On one occasion while drunk he fell in the streets of Richmond. While lying there asleep Miss G., the most beautiful woman in the city, to whom he was betrothed, came along, saw him and placed her handkerchief on which was her name, over his face. He awakened, saw the name, learned the incident, and it reformed him.

MOOSE JAW. Centre of a Wonderfully Fertile Prairie District—Amazing Yields—Some Good Luck Farming Stories.

There was a time when the settlers at Moose Jaw, N.W.T., proposed to get then another name, in the belief that the prospects of the town were injured by such a back-in-the-woods title as Moose Jaw. There is no such idea now. The Moose name and all it is largely a railroad centre at present, being the divisional headquarters for a long stretch of the main line of the C.P.R., as well as the Soo line leading down into Dakota. It has 2,300 of as comfortable-looking people as there are in western Canada, the men tall and bronzed by exposure to the winds of the prairie, the women pretty and fond of fine clothes. Moose Jaw is essentially a home town, with a fine situation on the northern bank of the stream from which it takes its name, and which affords opportunity for boating at any time. How young it is, may be best learned from the statement of a gentleman of a statistical bureau, who said that when he came to the town in 1895 there were only eight unmarried young ladies above sixteen years, while there were between 400 and 500 unmarried men. The chief import for a long while was young ladies, and now in Moose Jaw, according to one of its merchants, it is necessary to carry a large line of baby carriages, children's chairs and similar goods. Moose Jaw is rather proud of its flour mill, which has 240 barrels daily capacity, and runs day and night. Mr. Donald McLean, the miller, had the distinction of so wetting the royal appetite when the Princess of Wales was at Calgary last fall and tasted some biscuits made from his flour that her Royal Highness specially ordered a barrel to be sent to the royal bakery. In connection with the milling of flour here it is to be noted that the bulk of it is produced in the west and is shipped to the west and into the mining camps of British Columbia. A portion of the wheat also goes west, so that there was very little of a wheat blockade last fall in the Moose Jaw district, including the town itself, and four outlying elevator points. The production was somewhat over a million bushels in the district, 200,000 bushels being turned into flour at home. Between the town and country trade the merchants are very prosperous. The greatest natural advantage is the wonderfully productive soil of the district. Granting the one thing needed, moisture, of which there has not been any lack in recent years, there seems to be no limit to the productivity of the land, which is a rather stiff clay, without the black surface mould of the Indian Head district. The average wheat yield last year in the district was 35 bushels to the acre, probably 95 per cent. being No. 1 hard, of a peculiarly bright color much sought after by millers, and produced, it is believed, as a result of the dryness of the air during the season of ripening. A yield of 50 bushels of this sort of grain in spots here and there means enormous profit to the grower. The return to the farmer, when everything is down to the lowest basis of cost, will be most gratifying. Even now there is nothing to grumble over. Here are some good luck stories. A farmer last spring bought a quarter section of land, agreeing to pay $1,920. He put 100 acres of it in crop, and got an average of 40 bushels, his money return being over $2,000. Another crop like that will more than pay for the land and leave a handsome surplus. Another man, an Englishman, near Drakwater, on the Soo line, bought some land last May, planted eighteen acres of flax about the first of June and got twenty bushels of flax seed an acre, worth over $1.00 per bushel. The crop gave enough net profit to pay for his quarter section. Another incident is even more remarkable. A farmer some little time ago, when things were not quite so good, offered his land to another for $1,500. The offer was refused, but the man who refused it said he would give the owner half the crop for the privilege of working it for the season. He paid $2,200 as the value of the half-crop grown in one year on land he had refused to buy outright for $1,500. These are instances that the reader may be inclined to think exaggerated and exceptional, and in some measure they may be so, but Mr. Annable and other reputable business men say that the three good crops in this district will more than pay for the land on which they are grown at the present price of good farm property.

Toronto Owns a Paul Peel. Ex-Mayor Alexander Manning has presented to the city of Toronto a very fine example of the painting of the late Paul Peel. It is a large picture in oils, and has been hung in the City Hall, in the east corridor, which is the Council chamber door. The work is entitled, "The Return of the Harvesters," and depicts a Brittany peasant retiring from the fields, in the red glow of the evening, with his wife and child. The latter are seated on the back of a shaggy pony, the child in front, with its head thrown back, laughing into its mother's face. The mother is looking down at the child with a smile that is eloquent of maternal joy and pride. They are crossing a stream, and the father, a fine physical specimen of the rural laborer, is walking beside the horse, up to his knees in water, and he is looking at his wife and child with an expression of great satisfaction. Mr. Manning has carried a fork and rake. The right arm, with which he holds them, is bared to the elbow. It is a masterly piece of painting. The composition of the whole work is fine, the color is rich and glowing, and the technique is of that quality that has made Paul Peel a name highly prized in Canadian art.

WORLD OF SPORT

ANOTHER VICTORY.

Chatham was again victorious in lacrosse yesterday and succeeded in winning a game from Wallaceburg by a score of 3-0. The game was very exciting for the spectators, but very poor lacrosse was played at times. Sometimes the players appeared to be laboring under the impression that the game was a slugging match and seemed to overlook the fact that a ball was connected with the game at all.

Everyone of the Chatham goals, however, was the result of neat combination. But Wallaceburg has good material for a lacrosse team. Unfortunately the grounds were full of holes and it was with difficulty that the players could pick up the ball and a scrimmage was the result in each case. Mort Sheldon made a good referee and was impartial in his decisions. The following were the teams:

Chatham.
Goal—Richards.
Point—Elliott.
Cover point—Coupand.
3rd defense—Bennett.
2nd defense—Fetterly.
1st defense—Brundage.

BASEBALL

The game between "C Co. and the Grays did not come off, as the military men did not show up.

Miss Emily Beaton of Chatham, is visiting at the home of her brother, W. H. Beaton.

Boys' Wash Suits

Here's where we claim your peculiar approval, busy mother of five or six. Approval is the word, our careful work is fit in every way to take the place of yours. Every stitch as firm and sure as you'd take yourself; finish and style likely finer than yours would be, because you might make half a dozen suits in a season, whereas these skilled workers of ours make thousands and have learned to do every detail in the prettiest as well as the swiftest way.

And these garments are safe. Here you take no sweat shop chances—risk no lurking fever germs. Everything made by respectable men and women, in wholesome, airy rooms. Come and see if you'd like. Sample values:—
