FOR

BENTON'S FATE STILL UNKNOWN

Little Satisfaction Can be Secured From Villa.

Strong Feeling is Engendered in Great Britain.

[By Special Wire to The Courier]

EL PASO, Tex., Feb. 27.—George C. Carruthers to-day admitted that he had postponed his departure for Chihuahua and while he was silent as to his reasons, it was assumed that the arrival here of the British emissary, Charles Arthur Perceval, to participate in the Benton investigation and the receipt by Carruthers of a dispatch from the Mexican accountfor the delay. The presence of Perceval, who came here from Galveston, where he is British consul, was believed to mark the beginning of important developments in the Benton case. Official news of the killing of Benton, a British subject, was made public just a week ago to-day.

Generals Hugh L. Scott, Carruthers and Perceval, maintained complete reserve as to their plans. Perceval, who received a bulky package, which he said contained his instructions, expected to be aided by General Scott in his official actions. It was believed, however, that when the commission to examine Benton's body departs for Chihuahua where General Villa says it is buried, the British official would accompany the investigators.

Meanwhile anxiety over the disappearance of Gustavo Bauch continued although his case apparently was not involved in the Benton investigation.

Rebels of Juarez and Chihuahua, both denied that they have him, and belief in the report that the German-American, was shot as a spy last Friday was still general on this side of the Rio Grande.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Circumstances surrounding the death of William S. Benton, British subject at Juarez, Mexico, nearly two weeks ago were again a subject for cabinet council to-day.

President Wilson and Secretary Bryan were able to lay before the cabinet meeting the promise of Gen. Villa, that a complete examination of the body would be permitted by a commission to consist of two American and two British Government representatives and a medical examiner. To the two requests that Villa surrender the body of Benton, the Washington government had no satisfactory reply, the Constitutional General maintaining "that it would be improper" to remove the body from the city of Chihuahua to which place it now develops, he had removed it on a special train the very day news

MILLIONS OF ACRES REDUCED TO 2,000

Lloyd George Getting Into More Trouble Every Day.

LONDON, Feb. 27.—Chancellor of the Exchequer Lloyd George seems to be getting into more trouble every day. A letter from a lawyer drew from him to-day an apology for assuming that a man who interrupted his speech at the recent Glasgow meeting had entered the hall with a forged ticket of admission.

The Earl of Portsmouth and others have urged the Duke of Montrose to sue Mr. Lloyd George for libel because the Chancellor of the Exchequer made a statement recently that the Duke had sold some of his property for the erection of a public school at a high price. It developed later that the Duke did not own the property referred to.

In another speech the Chancellor said that "millions of acres" of cultivated land in Scotland had been converted into deer forest. The Marquis of Tullibardine, Unionist heckled the government regarding this statement in the House of Commons yesterday, and drew the virtual admission that the total number of acres so converted was 2,367.

Bishop of Oxford on The Word "Obey"

Contained in Any Service Except That of Church of England

LONDON, Feb. 27.—The Bishop of Oxford, as the result of researches in the marriage service in the Christian churches of the East and West, says he found the word "obey" is not contained in any service except in that of the Church of England, where it first appears in the fourteenth century. The bishop claims that this proves that the use of the word "obey" in the English service is unwarranted.

GOVERNMENT TO TAKE ACTION RE EVANTUREL

Announcement Made in the House by Acting Premier Foy.

TORONTO, Feb. 27.—Gustave Evanturel, member for Prescott, who tried and failed to sell his political influence to the Ontario Hotelkeepers Association, must answer for his insult to the dignity of the Legislature.

The French-Canadian member in calmly admitting the authorship of the remarkable letter read in the House on Wednesday by T. Howard Ferguson, of Grenville, proved that he does not realize the enormity of his action. When the Government gets through with him—if the tone of the statement made to the Legislature last night by Hon. Mr. Foy, Acting Prime Minister, is an indication—Evanturel will be fully aware of the extent of his offence. The Prescott man declared in the corridors yesterday that he would not resign. It is doubtful if even his resignation or his expulsion from the House will be sufficient to deter him.

Hon. Mr. Foy's statement came just before adjournment, and followed a stormy half-hour started by a last-minute explanation from Mr. Rowland O'Connell, the Opposition leader, regarding his erring colleague.

"I have just one word to say with reference to the letter of the member for Prescott read in the House yesterday," said Hon. Mr. Foy. "The member may have made an explanation to the caucus of my honorable friends, but he has not given any explanation to this House, although it was publicly stated that he would have the opportunity of doing so to-day. I would like to have heard this explanation, but in default of any I wish to say on behalf of the Government that the serious matter involved in that letter will engage the careful attention of the Government, and they will take such steps as they think necessary after calm, careful consideration of the matter to deal with it properly, and to save the dignity of the House, which has been intimated by that action."

That the Government in proceeding against Mr. Evanturel will have the hearty support of the Liberal leader was shown by Mr. Rowell's comment. "The Acting Prime Minister," he said, "has referred to a statement from the member for Prescott. I had expected myself that the honorable member would have been here this afternoon, and I presume he still will make a statement to the House. I quite concur in the observation made by the Acting Prime Minister that the matter is one of great importance and serious import, and should engage the serious attention of the Government. The Acting Prime Minister will find that we will facilitate any action his Government may think proper in view of the matter that has been brought before the House."

The Evanturel letter did not figure in the House until a few minutes before six o'clock. During the morning the Prescott member was about the corridors, and freely admitted that he had written the letter. His chief regret seemed to be that "another man" had got the job, and when questioned he declared that he would not resign. The members generally expected that Evanturel would be on deck when the House opened, but there was no sign of the dark, dapper little gentleman when the speaker took his place. Nor did he appear during the afternoon, and the members took it for granted that there would be no fireworks.

IS GRAND MASTER

WINNIPEG, Feb. 27.—W. T. Edgcombe, of Winnipeg, was last night elected Grand Master of the Manitoba Orange lodge, succeeding James Willoughby. John Goldwell of Winnipeg, was chosen deputy grand master and Sam Larkin, Winnipeg, grand secretary.

Dr. McMeans Reaches City From Mexico—He Knew Mr. Benton Well

Murdered Scotchman Not a Quarrelsome, But a Down-right Good Fellow—Shot Down By Villa Personally.

Dr. Andrew A. McMeans, a former Brantford boy, arrived in the city last night from Monterey, Mexico, having been called home to attend the funeral of his father, the late Andrew McMeans, which takes place this afternoon.

When seen by the Courier to-day in regard to the Mexican situation, Dr. McMeans had some interesting observations to make.

"I knew Benton, the Scotchman, whose murder has caused so much trouble, quite well," said the Doctor. "Reports that he was of a quarrelsome nature were not in accord with my acquaintanceship with Benton. He was a hail-fellow-well-met, a prosperous ranchman, and it is pretty well believed that he was shot down by Villa personally and not by a court-martial. Otherwise Villa (pronounced Vee-ah) would not have hesitated to exhume the body and show the nature of the shots which killed Benton."

It was the opinion of Dr. McMeans that there would be a speedy termination of the trouble, although untold damage had been occasioned. When Monterey (his city) was attacked 684 railway cars, 18 locomotives and shops were razed to the ground by fire. The damage to the American Refinery and railway construction in general would not be covered by 150 millions.

Dr. McMeans left Mexico the day of Benton's death, and knew little of subsequent developments. In fact, he said American or foreign newspapers were not allowed to come into Mexico, the country being cut off from the outside world in this regard.

"I am going right back to Mexico," said the Doctor, "and do not care to say anything inimical to either of the militant parties. I have staunch friends on both sides. Mexico is a wonderful country, although it has been devastated by internal strife. It is one of the richest countries in the world."

MONETARY TIMES IN SHADOW OF THE GALLOWS FOR 13 YEARS

Government Assistance is Case of Per Cent. and Service to Company.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] TORONTO, Feb. 27.—The Monetary Times, under the heading "Canada and the C. N. R.," says:

"The opposition to railroad aid by Governments federal and provincial arises chiefly in Western Canada. By the time, however, that the Dominion has its Canadian Northern and Grand Trunk Pacific coast-to-coast systems the entire country probably will have become solid in opposition to land grants and loans, regarding also with some disfavor further bond guarantees."

Referring to Sir William Mackenzie's statement, the editorial continues: "Sir William, we feel sure, does not seek to perpetuate the threadbare theory that Canada's financiers have built railroads purely as philanthropic enterprises. That assertion, which worked pretty well in olden days, when railway charters and financing were the subjects of discussion in the House at Ottawa, is just as absurd as the assertion that the British investor is lending money in Canada because of his philanthropic character. Both are matters of per cent. and service."

It is difficult to understand why opposition should arise now to further assistance to the Canadian Northern Railway. The railway wants a little aid from the Dominion Government (at least that is the general impression, not officially contradicted). Western Canada wants a railway. The Dominion should see to it that its three transcontinental railways in operation. The railway does not want opposition to its desired assistance. Western Canada does not want to inspect its bond guarantees at close range. The Dominion does not want any more government built or government operated railroads. This brings us to the eternal question: "What are you going to do about it?"

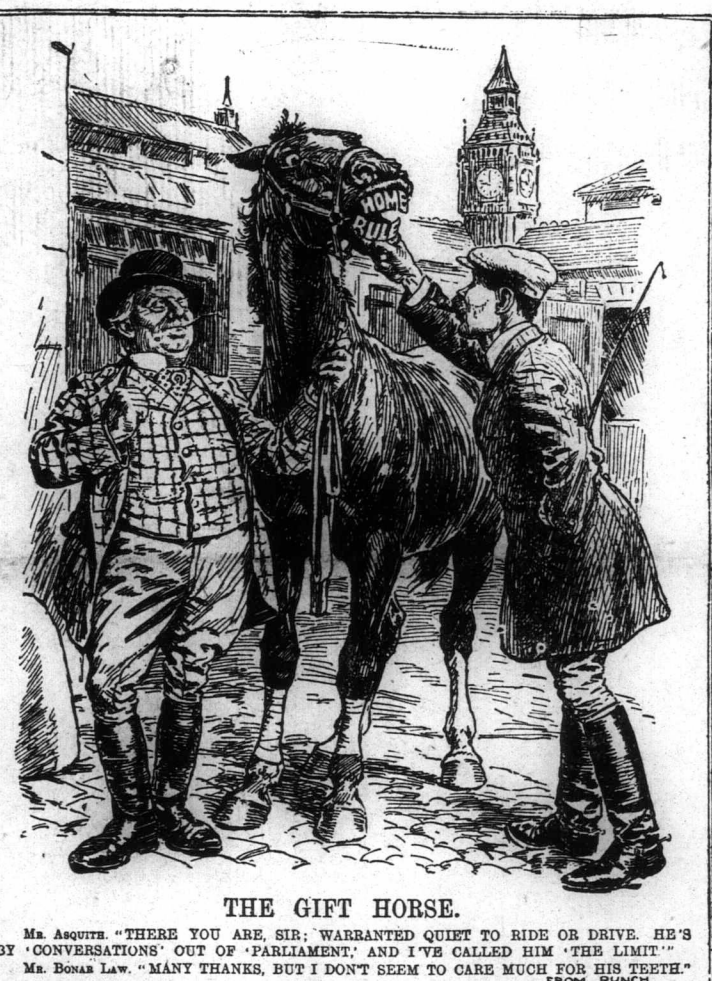

HIS TOOTH GAVE HIM DEAD AWAY

Expert Thief Caught at Paris by Very Unique Identification.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] PARIS, Feb. 27.—An expert criminal, Julien Lemas, was caught here to-day in an ingenious manner. The specialty of Lemas was robbing dentists. To-day he called on a fashionable dentist and asked that a gold crown be fitted on one of his teeth. The dentist took a cast of the tooth and a few moments later when he went into his laboratory with the mould Lemas pocketed a costly gold set of teeth, which had been left for repairs by an old Marquis and also $100 worth of shot gold.

Lemas was arrested shortly afterwards and taken before a magistrate. He strenuously denied being the man sought and was about to be set free, when the Magistrate decided to send for the cast taken by the dentist. When this was brought into court it was found to fit Lemas tooth exactly, and the thief was held for trial.

Brantford Man's Name Mentioned in Connection With Murder Trial

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—William Cheney Ellis, accused of murdering his wife, Mrs. Eleanor Hosea Ellis, in a Chicago hotel last fall, to-day before Judge Petit resumed his narrative of the incidents which preceded the crime. He spoke in a low monotone and exhibited the same calmness which characterized his testimony yesterday.

In the first questions asked Ellis' attention was directed to his statement that discord in his marital life came through meeting Fred Caudwell, a merchant of Brantford, Ontario, when Ellis and his wife were taking a vacation in the Canadian town, and that he came to Chicago to watch his wife, after he had found what he believed to be a copy of a telegram his wife sent to Caudwell, saying that she would be in Chicago for a week.

"When I reached Chicago," said Ellis, "I called up my wife at the home of Morris Ebersole, in River Forest, where she was staying. She said: 'Is this you, Will, or are you fooling me? You are in Cincinnati and not in Chicago, are you not?' I told her I was here and asked her to come to the hotel."

"When she met me at the hotel," continued Ellis, "she acted queerly, and I asked her: 'Don't you love me any more?' She said she didn't know."

He then told of learning that his wife was down town alone the afternoon before his arrival, and that he was disturbed and tried to "study out some plan."

Ellis said that he was surprised that his wife did not ask about their children nor refer to a telegram he had sent to her.

ELECTION BILL IN OLD LAND

Second Reading Given To Measure in Commons To-day.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] LONDON, Feb. 27.—The House of Commons to-day passed by 215 votes against 152 the second reading of a bill providing that all parliamentary elections be held on the same day. The bill was introduced by Sir Harry Verney, a Liberal member and the Liberal party argues that it will largely mitigate plural voting and the disturbance of business by prolonged general elections.

The Unionist party opposed the bill, but as the government has taken it under its wing, it is generally considered probable that it will be pushed through the house.

VOTES FOR WOMEN

TORONTO, Feb. 27.—Resolutions passed by the Ontario Alliance this morning favored votes for women; prevention of the manufacturer and consumption of cigarette and gratitude for the 100 years peace on the continent; Col. Sal. Hughes abolition of the canteen was endorsed in a resolution.

D. D. Muro urged that no further local or Canadian temperance act campaigns be brought on until after the next general election, because of political unrest at present. No action was taken in this matter.

WILL DEMAND REPARATION.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—That the American Government regards the hanging of Clemente Vergara, an American citizen near Hidalgo, Mexico, as a subject for reparation by the Herrera Government became known after to-day's cabinet meeting.

MAWSON ACHIEVES RESULTS

Greatest Polar Expedition Ever Accomplished.

For Thirty Days He Was Alone in Blindind Blizzard.

[By Special Wire to The Courier]

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—A cable to the Tribune from London says: A despatch from Sydney to the Daily Telegraph says that the Aurora, with Dr. Douglas Mawson and party, arrived at Adelaide yesterday afternoon, thus terminating work begun in December, 1911, when Dr. Mawson started on his first Australian Antarctic expedition.

Dr. Mawson's arrival is undoubtedly being received with intense pride and gratification throughout Australia. His perilous journeyings in the frozen south, including a heart-breaking interval of 30 days spent in absolute solitude, have not been undertaken without a death toll, and while Australia mourns the loss of two such worthy members of the expedition and brave men as Lieutenant Ninnis and Dr. Murtz, the fact of their tragic ends merely adds to the sincerity and warmth of the welcome home given to the other members of the expedition. Fuller particulars of the events culminating in the deaths of Ninnis and Murtz indicates that the former's end and his disappearance in a crevasse must have been terrible in the extreme. Dr. Mawson's dogged march of 300 miles, though nearly starving and blinded by a blizzard, was one of the finest acts of personal courage ever recorded in polar exploration.

The following thrilling narrative was told by Dr. Mawson himself in an interview had with him shortly after his arrival in Adelaide: "After picking up her party from its base the Aurora made an extended cruise to the west, pushing into the pack wherever possible in attempts to discover new land and at same time taking soundings and doing deep-sea dredging. This work was most successful and most pleasing. Indeed, I am sure that this collection of biological material is the best that has been obtained from the Antarctic."

"Our operations extended as far down in the sea as two miles, and some very valuable information, as well as animals of all kinds, were discovered. Very little had been done in the matter of deep-sea work hitherto, as this difficult work did not have much luck the first year, but Captain Davis, who was in charge of the heavy and complicated gear, became a thorough master of it, and the later results were exceptionally fine.

"The world is being worked out as regards new spots for exploration, but there is five times as much ocean as land, and this affords a wonderful opportunity for research and investigation."

Asked as to the character of the discoveries he had made, Dr. Mawson stated: "Nearly everything we got is new science, and on the whole it is really a splendid collection. I have no hesitation in saying that the scientific

Twelve Days Murder Trial in Quebec Has Already Lasted That Long.

STE SCHOLASTIQUE, Que, Feb. 27.—The people of this quiet neighborhood are excited in regard to the McGibbon murder trial as they have never been excited in years, and crowding into the court room this morning expecting to hear a verdict of the jury, now trying Leonard McGibbon, aged 22, for the murder of his cousin, John McGibbon, two years his senior. They were disappointed. The probabilities are that the jury will not pronounce a verdict until next Monday. The case for the defense is finished, but this morning the prosecution brought a number of supplementary witnesses whose evidence has no bearing on the actual killing, but whose object is to undermine the reliability of the evidence for the accused, who contends he shot in defence of his father. This is the twelfth day of the trial, and several members of the jury are showing signs of exhaustion.

NO RULING GIVEN

TORONTO, Feb. 27.—Honorable Speaker Hoyle declines to commit himself to an expression of opinion regarding the limits of the power of the legislature to deal with the Evanturel case, preferring that the Attorney-General, having taken up the question, action should be left at present wholly in the hands of the Government.

NO CHANGE.

TORONTO, Feb. 27.—A bulletin issued at one o'clock to-day by Dr. Goldie, physician attending Sir Geo. Ross says there is no change to-day in the aged statesman's condition.

ESTIMATES CUT

VICTORIA, B.C., Feb. 27.—The government has cut its estimates of provincial expenditures for the year beginning April 1, by over four million dollars, as compared with the year now closing.

British Laborites Give Banquet to Deported Leaders at Westminster.

LONDON, Feb. 27.—The Labor members of parliament gave a dinner to the deported South African strike leaders in the "Strangers" dining room" of the House of Commons last night. Many representatives of trade union organizations in addition to the Laborites members were present.

The incident of the dinner is greatly resented by a majority of the members of the Government. They regard the giving of the dinner in the House of Commons as an insult to South Africa and derogatory to the dignity of the House.

An attempt was made to induce the Speaker to prevent the dinner taking place but he had no power to take this action.

Gore Lodge "At Home."
Last evening Gore Lodge, No. 34, I. O. O. F., held a very successful "At Home" in the Masonic Temple. There was a large crowd in attendance, and the evening was very enjoyably spent in games and comic songs by Mr. Perrin of Toronto. Miss Whittaker of this city also rendered a number of solos. During the evening Mr. John Cole was presented with a 25-year jewel of the order. After a sumptuous repast had been served the floor was cleared and dancing was taken up. The crowd broke up at an early hour this morning.

Estimates Not Ready.
When asked by the Courier this morning as to the estimates, the Collegiate Board would ask for this year, Principal A. W. Burt said he had reason to think that they would be considerably lower than last year. There was not a complete meeting of the Board last night, and the exact amount could not be given. There is a matter of some $500 to add yet which had to be laid over for a later date.

Shrove-tide Social
A well attended Shrove-tide social was held on Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Ladies Guild of St. Luke's Church. The programme consisted of violin solos, Mr. Staley; recitation and reading, Miss Wilton, songs, Mr. Harradine and Miss Clifford; quartette, Mrs. Childs, Miss Clifford, Rev. Mr. Lester and Mr. Harradine. Several new members were enrolled for the guild. Refreshments were then served and an enjoyable evening closed with the singing of God Save the King. On Monday evening a very successful entertainment was given by the Girls' Friendly Society of St. Luke's church when the Rev. Mr. Lester gave an interesting address and spoke of the great advantages girls have in belonging to the society. The girls rendered several good tableaux motion songs, recitations and songs. A pleasant time was ended by the girls forming a tableau of the Union Jack and singing the National Anthem.

Unusual Assault Case.
An assault case was tried before Magistrate W. W. Paterson, Paris, on Monday, that seemed of more than passing interest to the public generally. Robert Hamilton, manager of the Arlington Park theatre, was charged by a 17-year-old boy named William Uren, with assault. It seemed that Uren and a young lady, both working in Dunville, had agreed with Hamilton to give three performances at the theatre, for which Uren was given $30 worth of 10c and 20c tickets in payment. The boy got the same. The latter got two friends to assist him in disposing of them, who apparently got too near the ticket office of the theatre in selling their wares. This Hamilton complained of and Uren had it stopped. Wednesday evening, Feb. 11th, the night of the assault, Uren not being able to get face value for the tickets, was selling them at cut rate prices. While the lad was getting ready in the dressing room, Hamilton is alleged to have entered and charged him with selling the tickets too cheap, to have grabbed the boy by the throat, flung him around and onto the floor of the room. Later Uren returned with unsold tickets he had, and leaving the theatre was compelled to obtain medical attention, his side and shoulder being injured. Hamilton was fined $5 and costs.

At S. A. Citadel.
The Salvation Army Citadel was packed to the doors last night to hear the lecture, "Thrilling Incidents in Atlantic Storms and Life Saving," by Rev. C. W. Rose. The address literally teemed with interest and was thoroughly enjoyed by the large congregation. Mr. Rose is the son of a deep sea captain, and has been an officer himself on a ship sailing to the West Indies. His recital of those early experiences were not without their touches of humor, while his narration of storms, shipwrecks and life-saving, in all of which he himself figured, made a profound impression upon all. Most striking among these was the rescue of four men in the Bay of Fundy. In recognition of this service Mr. Rose was presented with a medal from the Royal Humane Society, England, and a certificate from our present King, bearing his signature. A short musical program was carried out, including a selection by the Songsters, which was very effectively rendered; a violin solo by Master Errol Gamble was received with great enthusiasm and he was compelled to respond to an encore. Mr. Harold sang a solo, which was very appropriate and added greatly to the interest and effect of the meeting. Adjutant Hargrove presided, and in thanking those who had taken part said that for practical sympathy and support of all the Christian workers he had ever met, those of Brantford easily took first place. The service was concluded by the united singing of "Blessed Lord, in Thee is Refuge."

THE IRISH FAIR A BIG SUCCESS

Boy Knights Holding Event at Their Armories in East Ward.

The Boy Knights and their mothers have every reason to feel satisfied with the result of the Irish Fair so far. Big Crowds have been in attendance and the verdict has been that is something new and unique.

A great deal of work must have been done to have changed their Armories into the artistic and beautifully decorated building that it is. The prevailing color is green and tokens of Emerald Isle are to be found on every side. The booths are tastefully arranged and exhibits of leading food products are here displayed with attractive saleswomen and men to sell them, the result of which has been very satisfactory.

Among the ladies and gentlemen helping in the work, are: Mrs. Sterne, Mrs. J. Moore, Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Vansickle, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Hawke, Mrs. Felton, Mrs. Butts, Mrs. Gilkinson, Mrs. Hunt, Miss Goodson, Messrs. Robert Hunt, John Hawke, James Hawke, Scott, Frank Sears, A. Reynolds, E. Matthews H. Cockshutt and others. The Girls Companions are assisting the ladies.

A Boys Booth is run by Earl Johnson, A. Reynolds, Russel Miller and others.

Many prominent people visited the fair last evening. The place was crowded throughout, many being unable to get in. The Fair will be continued this afternoon and evening and Saturday night.

Leper Mission Thank Offering

The annual thank offering meeting of the Mission to Lepers was held at the home of Mrs. James Adams on Tuesday, Feb. 23rd, at 3.30, when a most helpful and interesting program was carried out.

After the singing of a hymn Mrs. Yeigh led in prayer. Mrs. Woodside in her usual very capable manner gave the Scripture lesson taken from several different passages in the Bible on the subject of giving, followed by a very excellent address by Miss Watt, B.A., of Toronto, the Dominion Secretary, on leper work with an urgent appeal to save the untainted children of lepers.

Mrs. Pequegnat and Miss Cornelius favored the meeting with a piano duet very acceptably. A recitation by Miss Jackson and a solo by Miss Chamberlain was much appreciated by all present.

The thanks of the society are due to Mrs. Adams for her generous hospitality in opening her home every year for this most worthy cause.

About seventy-five ladies were present and after dainty refreshments served the meeting adjourned.

The offering amounted to $73.25.

The next meeting will be held in the club room of the Y.W.C.A., the fourth Tuesday in March.

Music and Drama

At the Brant.

A very good change of bill was presented at the Brant Theatre last night, and as usual a good house was present. The bill was abbreviated somewhat, one act being omitted, but it was in line with the policy of Manager Moulie, which is bound to please the public in due course. Mr. Moulie discovered yesterday that one of the vaudeville acts was not up to standard and he declined to allow it to continue. The omission will be filled to-day by a new act. The singing and pianologue by Ivy Evelyn and company last night was the best feature and the artists delighted the audience.

The Misses Kathleen Wright and Kathleen Hogan entertained about 50 of their young friends Tuesday evening to a sleighride. The party drove to the home of Mrs. M. R. Baynes, at Burch, the drive being much enjoyed. On their arrival, three progressive euchre was played, the winners being Miss Edna Hazelton and H. Burrill, while the booby prizes were captured by Miss Jennie Klepper and Ed. Baine. Refreshments were then served, and the ride home commenced, the members of the party getting home at an early hour in the morning.

Villa at Last Gives Consent

[By Special Wire to The Courier] WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Consul Letcher telegraphed Secretary Bryan to-day that Villa would permit two Americans, two British representatives and two members of the family of William S. Benton to view the body of the dead ranchman. It is assumed that the body is at Chihuahua City.

Consul Letcher also reported that General Villa would permit two physicians to accompany the American and British representatives and members of the Benton family, and that he would furnish transportation and accommodation for all of them.

Secretary Bryan said just before entering the cabinet meeting that Consul Letcher's despatches also confirmed previous information that Benton's body was in Chihuahua City. He said arrangements would be made soon for the visit of the commission to Chihuahua to view the corpse and intimated that the disposition of the body would be settled after the medical examination.

WITHIN THE LAW

By MARVIN DANA
 From The Play of BAYARD EILLER

Slowly, very hesitatingly, Garson went back to the chair, and sank down on it in a limp attitude of dejection wholly unlike his customary postures of strength. Again, his feet fascinated eyes went to the row of cells that stood silently menacing on the other side of the corridor beyond the windows. His face was tinged with gray. A physical sickness was creeping stealthily on him, as his thoughts held insistently to the catastrophe that threatened. His intelligence was too keen to permit a belief that Burke's manner of almost furtive kindness hid nothing ominous—ominous with a hint of death for him to return for the death he had wrought.

Then, terror crystallized. His eyes were caught by a figure, the figure of Cassidy, advancing there in the corridor. And with the detective went a man whose gaze was sinking, craven, on the two cronies in crime. Dacey, one of his own cronies in crime, the prisoner stepped within, the door clanged to the bolts shot into their sockets noisily. Garson sat huddled, stricken—for he had recognized the victim thrust into the cell before his eyes. It was Dacey. A cell door swung open, the prisoner stepped within, the door clanged to the bolts shot into their sockets noisily. Garson sat huddled, stricken—for he had recognized the victim thrust into the cell before his eyes. It was Dacey. A cell door swung open, the prisoner stepped within, the door clanged to the bolts shot into their sockets noisily.

THE EVANTUREL INCIDENT.

In connection with the recent graft disclosures in Quebec, the cry went up from the Grit papers in that province that the whole thing was a dastardly Conservative plot. As a matter of fact the Tory party as such had nothing whatever to do with the matter, and the acceptors of bribes all belonged to the other flock.

Certain Liberal papers in Ontario are following a very similar course in connection with the Ewanturel disclosures. It is intimated that Conservatives helped the liquor men to get that worthy into a trap, when as a matter of fact, it was Ewanturel himself who opened negotiations seeking to get $20,000, and what's more, he seems to be proud of the fact.

A PRIVATE OWNERSHIP ORGAN.

The Expositor knows where The Courier stands, and always has stood in regard to municipal ownership.

"Well, hardly. The Expositor knows that its local contemporary has at one time opposed the proposition to acquire a city lighting plant, and at another time supported such a proposition. It knows that the same paper has at one time thrown cold water upon the project for a municipal street railway, and at another time has given such a proposal its approval. Where The Courier stands to-day with regard to the question of the municipal operation of the Brantford Street Railway it is doubtful if even the editor of that paper has any conception."

When the Courier opposed a city lighting plant the project was to acquire so much junk. For Hydro-Electric this paper fought hard in connection with vote after vote while the Expositor was yelling for the continuance of a private monopoly and monopoly prices. Citizens now realize the kind of yoke which our contemporary did its level best to continue on their necks.

The Courier's attitude with regard to the Street Railway was that much would first have to be cleared up in the courts. That has been done and this paper is both hands up for municipal operation.

The Expositor's course with regard to these and other matters has been as tortuous as the Hampton Court maze.

It urged private ownership of the Waterworks while the Courier was fighting for civic control. Not long ago it declared that it had never done any such thing and when this paper proved the charge up to the hilt, made the plea that some other fellow was then editor.

Where was the same sheet when the Courier was fighting to help break the Bell Telephone monopoly in this city?

Why did it work so hard to keep Hydro-Electric out of this community, and to continue the residents in chains to the Western Counties Co.?

Why—but there is no need to extend the list.

Not long ago when the Courier quoted from the Expositor editorial columns an article endorsing the three-fifths clause with reference to Local Option, the excuse was that the responsible writer was touring it through the Orient and hobnobbing with rajahs and palanquins, and punkahs.

The "amusing" cuss" told of by Artemus Ward is not in it alongside of the vagaries of that organ. Meanwhile on more than one occasion our cotem. has shown that it loves private monopolies with all the intensity of a great yearning.

WELL KNOWN AT GUELPH GUELPH, Feb. 27.—Miss Schwalm and Miss Wilson, mentioned as being departed from Ann Arbor, Mich., are well known here. Miss Schwalm's home is at 250 Edwin street. Miss Wilson's home is at Scotch Line, Ontario. They graduated from MacDonald Hall in 1913, and both have good records.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Begins to look as if a few hundred scrub ladies should be hired to try and clean the Grit halo.

The thing which seems to be most bothering a gentleman named Gustave is that he didn't ask for more.

The Old Country Liberals have lost still another riding. The Asquith Government is evidently on its last legs.

Ewanturel is the product of a state of things which used to exist in this Province, but fortunately have now become practically extinct.

Toronto City Council will give $10,000 to help send the Mendelssohn Choir of that place on a tour of Europe. This is one more illustration of the fact that notes come high.

A telephone girl in Hamilton lost her job because she danced the tango. The next thing the rest of them knew they will be prevented from bringing any switches to the office on the score of competition.

When Brantford householders look at the shrinkage in their bills for lighting because of Hydro Electric competition, they should remember that this was something which the Brantford Expositor tried to prevent.

Toronto suffragettes have decided that in future they will not allow any mere man to give up his seat to them in the street cars. If they will only follow that up by refusing to tap hubbies pocketbook, this old world will commence to be worth while.

Hon. Frank Cochrane, because of ill-health, has been forced to leave on a European trip. As Minister of Railways and Canals, he is at the head of a very exacting department, and he has from the first been noted as one of the hardest working ministers ever seen at the capital. It will be the general hope that a needed rest will result in a complete restoration of his former vigor.

RICHES.

The more cold coin a fellow collects, the hungrier he gets for dollars. When he is young and short of troubles, he says "Some fifty thousand roubles will be a fortune quite imposing; when I have that I won't go nosing around in search of extra kroners, like some old greedy money loaders. By that time I'll be old and wheezy, so I'll sit down and take it easy." But when he has that bunch of guilders, he says: "Oh, chee! the fortune builders would laugh to scorn my paltry savings—methinks I hear their jocund ravings! So I'll go forth and I'll nail a million—I will, so help me Colonel Lillian!" Then through the clanging marts he wanders, and all the sunny years he squanders, and travels at a pace that's killing to get the koepke and the shilling. And when he's old and frail and battered, his heart worn out, his system shattered, from toiling up Gain's crooked trackage, he looks upon his handsome package, and sighs "It is a measly bundle, and my old bones I'll have to trundle until my meagre roll is padded with other millions to it added." Then Death comes in the solar plexus and in his shroud morticians wind him, and all his scads are left behind him.

AN INGENIOUS SUIT

NORTH BAY, Ont. Feb. 27.—David Pokki, of Cobalt was arrested by Provincial Constable Lefebvre at North Bay to-day. Pokki had in his possession concealed about his body in an ingenious suit of many pockets, seventy-five pounds of the finest leaf silver ever seen in North Bay. The preliminary hearing will be held before Magistrate Weegar to-day. Another man is under arrest charged with negotiating for the purchase of the ore.

Aaron Peer, aged 83, despondent over the death of his wife, committed suicide in his son's home at Burlington.

British News

Bluejacket Drowned.

Halibut for Officials.

At Monday's meeting of the Marylebone Board of Guardians the Workhouse Committee reported that they had decided to substitute halibut in place of turbot for the workhouse officials.

No Winter Gardens for Worthing. Led on the question of the purchase of the Beach House Estate as a site for winter gardens and other purposes, the burgesses of Worthing have decided by 1,956 votes to 857—a majority of 1,099—against the proposal.

Church Tragedy

Mr. Thomas Dykes, a man of seventy, had a seizure in his pew in the Congregational Church, Swindon, on Sunday, while the congregation were singing a hymn, and died in the vestry.

Workmen J.P.'s.

Mr. C. E. Hall, Mr. H. Morris, Mr. C. E. Taylor, and Mr. H. Watkins, who are workmen in the Great Western Railway Works, have been appointed justices of the peace for the borough of Swindon.

Archdeacon's Feast.

Archdeacon Fletcher, mounted the new spire of Tarleton (Lancashire) parish church on Monday to place the stone in position. A box arrangement with a pulley was used for the archdeacon's ascent.

Theatre Failure.

A receiver and manager were appointed on Monday by the Lancashire Chancery Court at Manchester for the New Theatre, Manchester. Counsel said the company was absolutely insolvent. The building is a new one and was opened in December, 1912.

Train Smashes Buffer Stops.

A heavy-laden goods train ran into buffer stops at Salfley, Birmingham, on Tuesday and swept the stops away. The engine then crashed into the buttress of a bridge and turned over. The driver and firemen escaped injury.

Military Notes

It appears that the military authorities and department of public works do not see eye to eye with regard to the new armories, which it is proposed to erect. The plans as they are at present are approved by the board but the militia want accommodation made for four more units, namely the Army Medical Corps, Army Service Signal Corps and the Engineering Corps. The added accommodation asked, is demurred against by the Public Works Department who claim that the addition would entail a great deal extra expenditure, which the present state of affairs does not warrant. A much larger building than the one at present planned would be required, and the Dept. is not inclined to stand for the expense. The militia state that the additions are necessary, and the two bodies are at the moment held to their opinions. The question is when will the militia and the public works come to a settlement.

Mr. W. F. Cockshutt, M. P., said that he was quite satisfied with the plans as they were. He did not see why the additions should be made at the present time when their cost would be so large. At the present stage too much ought not to be spent. That was the general feeling outside of the militia, and there the matter rests.

AT THE ARMORIES

Swimming At The Y.M.C.A.

The progress of swimming in Brantford was reviewed at a meeting of the swimming committee held in the Y. M. C. A. last night, when Geo. Mosley recorded the rise since the new bath was acquired with the modern building. Swimming was dead and there was not a capable artist in the water six months ago. Now this city held two junior Ontario championships. Now that the city was becoming eminent in the swimming world, invitations had been received to visit various towns while encounters were sought in other cities. Arrangements are under way for a visit from Toronto West End, and an answer from Toronto was awaited. After that visit had been settled, a visit to Galt was anticipated. In that city a swimming revival was needed, and a good presentation from Brantford would do much good in the way of revival. Offers have been received for a visit to Buffalo, and sportsmen of that metropolis had offered to pay part expenses, irrespective of gate receipts. It was decided that the visit to Buffalo be undertaken after the two cities, Toronto and Galt, had stated their intentions on the proposals. The meeting was then adjourned sine die.

Wrecked by Steam Roller.

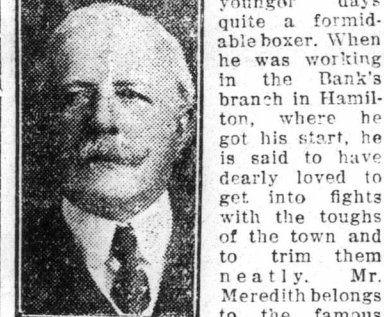

Running down the steep hill at the village of Baildon, near Bradford, on Monday a steam roller crashed into a milliner's shop and wrecked a fish shop and a public-house. The driver, named Stansbury, who remained on the roller, escaped injury.

Birthdays Note

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY TWENTY-SEVENTH

H. V. Meredith, president of the Bank of Montreal, who is sixty-four years of age to-day, was in his younger days quite a formidable boxer. When he was working in the Bank's branch in Hamilton, where he got his start, he is said to have dearly loved to get into fights with the toughs of the town and to trim them neatly. Mr. Meredith belongs to the famous Meredith family of London, of which Sir William Meredith of Toronto was the eldest son. All the Meredith boys were athletic and even to-day the president of the Bank of Montreal has the well-set-up and military bearing of a British army officer. He has risen to the premier position in Canadian banking by dint of steady and conscientious work.

Swimming At The Y.M.C.A.

The progress of swimming in Brantford was reviewed at a meeting of the swimming committee held in the Y. M. C. A. last night, when Geo. Mosley recorded the rise since the new bath was acquired with the modern building. Swimming was dead and there was not a capable artist in the water six months ago. Now this city held two junior Ontario championships. Now that the city was becoming eminent in the swimming world, invitations had been received to visit various towns while encounters were sought at other cities. Arrangements are under way for a visit from Toronto West End and an answer from Toronto was awaited. After that visit had been settled, a visit to Galt was anticipated. In that city a swimming revival was needed, and a good representation from Brantford would do much good in the way of reform. Offers have been received for a visit to Buffalo, and sportsmen of that metropolis had offered to pay part expenses, irrespective of gate receipts. It was decided that the trip to Buffalo be undertaken after the two cities, Toronto and Galt had stated their intentions on the proposals. The meeting was then adjourned sine die.

Wrecked by Steam Roller

Running down the steep hill at the village of Haldon, near Brantford, on Monday a steam roller crashed into a milliner's shop and wrecked a fish shop and a public-house. The driver named Stansbury, who remained on the roller, escaped injury.

WILL MAKE HIS STATEMENT TO HOUSE

Evanturel, M.P.P., Promised So Today—Called On 'Beloved Leader'

(By Special Wire to The Courier) TORONTO, Feb. 27.—"I will make a statement in the House, but I have not yet decided when that will be," said to-day Evanturel, M.P.P., for present, to-day. "I don't think I should say anything else."

"You claim that your knowledge of the English language is such that you do not understand that you were selling your influence as a member of the House to the liquor people if you obtained the position as organizer?" he was asked.

"That is perfectly true. I simply wanted to work for them, and selling my influence as a member was most natural."

"Have you heard anything from your constituents?"

"Not yet. I will hear from them in a few days and until I have heard from them, I do not know what I will do."

"Then you may resign?"

"I do not know yet what I may do, but I do not have been so hasty in resigning Mr. Howard Ferguson to proceed with the letter reading had he."

Mr. Evanturel explained that he knew that the letter in question was the one to a hotelkeeper. He understood to be one in connection with another matter.

Among the members there is gossip concerning the admission which Mr. Evanturel has made and the statements he has made about the alliance of the Conservatives with the liquor interests.

Mr. Evanturel, they say, assumed that he had a grievance when he was not given the position of provincial organizer for the province at $10,000 and immediately started to accuse them with arraying themselves with the Conservatives.

The Attorney General and Acting Premier Hon. J. J. Foy, had a short visit from Evanturel. The member for Prescott offered some explanation about the letters written, and the one read in the Legislature. This explanation was that he did not comprehend the English language sufficiently, and on account of his ignorance of the English language, he had compromised himself, which he had no intention of doing.

Mr. Evanturel also visited the lobby of his "beloved leader," Mr. N. W. Rowell, where he had a long confab with Demasse Racine, M.P.P., for Russell. Mr. Rowell was not in the humor for seeing visitors about the time Mr. Evanturel called.

While Mr. Speaker Hon. Mr. Hoyle declares a member can be by resolution of the House, he expelled from it, other authorities declare that this cannot be done and that a crime committed must be proved even though it be admitted before any action could be taken by the House. Those in whose memory the Gency charges against Hon. J. R. Stratton are green, declare that if it had been within the power of the legislature to expel a member, the man from Manitoulin would have gone into hasty contact with the monument of Sir John A. McDonald on the parliamentary sward in Queen's Park.

MAWSON ACHIEVES GREAT RESULTS

results of the expedition will not lose anything by comparison with any other that has ever gone into the Antarctic. When the British Association meetings take place in August, in Australia, I shall give the preliminary outlines of what we achieved. "The work of properly marshalling the voluminous results will be enormous. In addition to a large number of animals, we secured hundreds of birdskins, many of which have never been known before. These specimens will be distributed throughout the Australian museums gratis, and the Sydney museum has undertaken this task."

Dr. Mawson demurred to the suggestion that his prolonged journey was a blessing in disguise. He said: "Although our stay was prolonged, we had a trying time at Adelie Land. There is no place in the world with a climate as bad, yet not even the terrific storms which occurred stopped our scientific study. Still there is not one man who came back after that long and sensational sojourn there who would not commit suicide rather than not have participated."

Asked for particulars of his achievement when, after the death of Ninnis and Mertz, he travelled for many lonely and hungry weeks, Mawson replied: "I would rather not say too much about that. I was for thirty days absolutely alone and had a most marvellous escape. In the end I was reduced to the last stages of starvation and was tramping along through deep snow when I noticed something black in front of me. It was a bit of food that had been dropped by the search party sent to ascertain my whereabouts. By the luckiest accident I saw it, and at that time was within twenty miles of the hut, in a place to which no previous expeditions had ever been. That was the big point about this undertaking of ours. We were for the most part travelling over new country.

"On that occasion I had the closest shave I have ever experienced, and, coming after the death of Ninnis and Mertz, it was a most melancholy journey even apart from the sufferings I was called upon to endure. I managed to get my wireless going very early. I heard of Captain Scott's disaster before the ship returned, and it was, of course, very depressing news, yet in a sense we expected it."

"With the exception of the death of Ninnis and Mertz, the expedition was very fortunate. These two died like heroes. Nobody ever lived a braver life than either of those two men. Taking into account the number of deaths and the number of men in the field, no expedition suffered fewer losses than ours, except two that came through without loss of life at all, namely, those of Shackleton and Amundsen. When you come to consider the risk which men take in these regions it is not surprising that disaster and death occur."

"The health of the whole party was remarkably good, indeed wonderfully so. Our experience in Adelie Land demonstrated emphatically the need of strengthening and revising our equipment. There was very nearly some loss of life at the start on this account."

Dr. Mawson stated that he purposes to visit England shortly in connection with the scientific results of the expedition. Regarding the winds in the Antarctic, he said they were terrific, adding:

"Very little sledging was undertaken this year. In the first place, it was late in the summer after the ship left, and I was in poor condition and couldn't have done the job myself. Then there was always the possibility that the Aurora might return, as Captain Davis left word he would try to come again with her. The winds had a velocity in one month of 63 miles an hour for every hour of the whole month. On one occasion we recorded 116 miles an hour. There were also puffs the velocity of which was two hundred to three hundred miles an hour. If one of these winds struck Adelie it would knock every building over. By the instrument we made down there winds recorded more than two hundred miles an hour."

A GAS EXPLOSION

At the Home of William Rice, Strathcona Ave., This Morning.

There was an explosion of gas at the home of Mr. William Rice, 42 Strathcona avenue this morning, followed by an incipient blaze which was quickly extinguished. Although not searching for a leak with a lighted lamp, the discovery was made innocently enough in this way by Mr. Rice. He went down cellar early and an instantaneous explosion followed. Mr. Rice had his hair singed but was otherwise unhurt. Mrs. Rice, who was ill in bed received a shock from the excitement. The fire department responded and extinguished the fire with a few pails of water.

With the City Police

Two vagrants were cleaned up by the police yesterday and they were disposed of by Magistrate Livingston this morning, both promising to return to their native cities without further ado.

Fred Clouse elected to be tried by jury when he was brought before the bench on a charge of stealing a gold watch valued at $25 from Isabel McCummings. She made a rambling statement and from it, it would appear that the watch was not the only thing Clouse had stolen. Defendant also had to answer another charge of stealing a bicycle valued at $25 and on this charge he pleaded not guilty and elected to be tried by jury. The police will be ready to proceed with the case on Monday and to that day an adjournment was granted.

BIG NIGHT FOR A. O. F. LODGES

High Court Officers at Victoria Hall Last Evening.

The Ancient Order of Foresters held a celebration last evening in Victoria Hall and it was quite a success. The occasion was the visit of several High Court officers in the person of High Court Treasurer Wilson of Toronto, High Medical Examiner Dr. Second and Organizer Butt. The affair took the form of a stereopticon lecture and entertainment, interspersed by speeches from the visiting officers.

Mr. T. H. Preston, a member of Court Success, acted as chairman in a tactful manner.

Organizer Butt operated the lantern in a highly satisfactory manner. A great many views were shown telling of the organization and work of this the oldest fraternal society doing business in Canada. It was ancient in name but progressive in its ideas. It was organized in 1871, and had branches in all parts of the world. A member could get a clearance and become a member in any other court no matter where he travelled. There were 6,000 lodges or courts with a membership of over 2,000,000. Since its inception it had paid out over $300,000,000 to distressed members or their families. The big feature of the A. O. F. was that it was the only fraternal society in Canada or the United States, with a legal reserve fund, it was not an assessment organization; they know what to charge and give it and could not raise their rates. They could sell a member any kind of a policy he wanted and had government support to back up the policy. There were no shareholders and all earnings went back to the policyholders. As one of the views exhibited depicted, it was as solid as a rock.

A great many views of a miscellaneous order, and some really excellent floral slides were shown, and it was explained that the originals were the work of the Permanent Secretary, W. Williams, who made a hobby of amateur photography. Excellent likenesses of prominent members were thrown on the canvas and came in for a hearty reception.

High Court Treasurer Wilson gave a bright short speech but made the best of his time. The A. O. F. was the best fraternal society doing business in Canada to-day, he said, because it was the safest, more especially in the insurance branch of its work. The society based its work on the parable of the Good Samaritan and did their best to carry it out to the letter. They paid each member a weekly sick benefit, supplied him with a free doctor and at death sufficient was contributed to give both the member and his wife a respectable funeral. The brotherhood spirit prevailed and this was not the least part.

High Medical Examiner Dr. Second took up particularly the insurance side of the society. The doctor is certainly popular with the local brethren, and justly so. He has done a great deal for the order and it is due to his careful selection of risks that they have an extremely low death rate. He supplemented the statements thrown on the screen by Organizer Butt. He said while the insurance branch was a big feature of the order, because it was the only fraternal society having a legal reserve and could not raise its rates, the other branches of the order were also worthy of special mention. There was the companionship of the Foresters for the ladies, and the Juveniles for the boys and girls; each one doing its share to benefit humanity. In each case weekly benefits was paid and insurance could be had. Insurance was insurance whether it was weekly sick pay or an endowment or straight life business. He emphasized the social side of the order. It had done great things for him. The doctor waxed eloquent and certainly delighted his hearers.

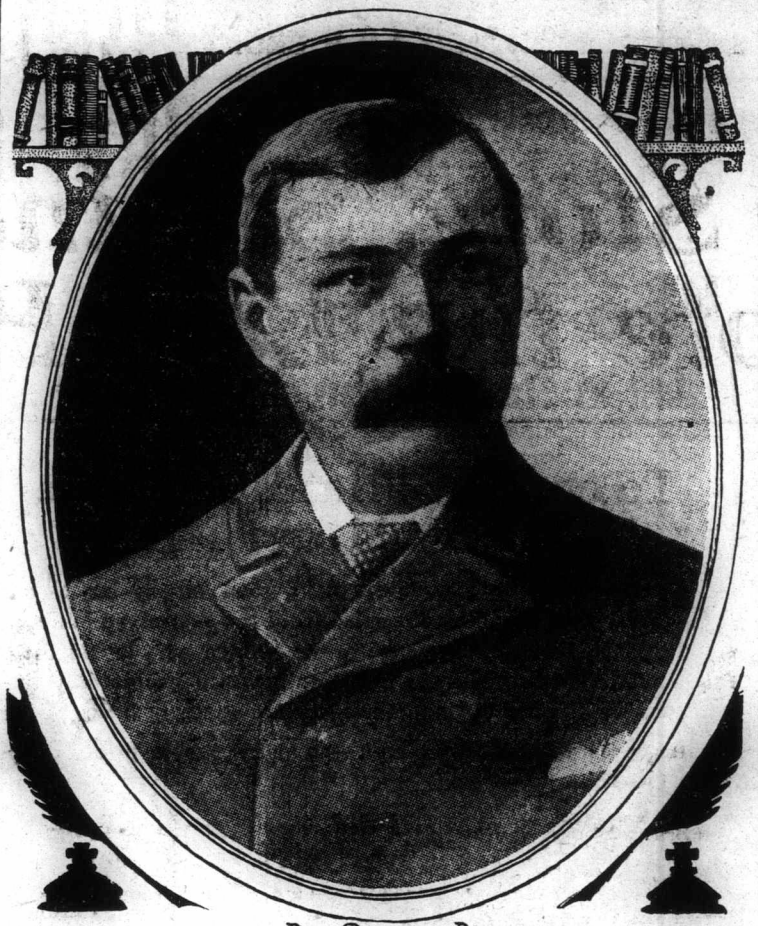

Organizer Butt made a good man to handle the lantern. He knew what to say and how to say it. There were no unnecessary delays and this added to the pleasure of the evening.

Bro. Farnsworth gave a number of solos and illustrated songs in ringing voice and his work greatly pleased the audience. Mr. Aldred who rendered several piano selections is certainly a splendid musician and demonstrated the fact to the entire satisfaction of the gathering.

IS YOUR BABY A GOOD BABY?

Mothers ask yourself the question: Is your baby a good baby? If not he is not well, for it is the nature of all babies to be good—only the sickly baby is cross and hard to mind. If baby is cross and cries continually give him Baby's Own Tablets and he will soon be happy again. The Tablets act as a gentle laxative, regulate the bowels, sweeten the stomach and cure all the minor ills of little ones. Concerning them Mrs. J. P. Richard, St. Norbert, N.S., writes: "I have found Baby's Own Tablets all that is claimed of them. My baby suffered from his stomach and bowels and the Tablets cured him." They are sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

BRITISH AUTHORS WANT BAN ON FAIR LIFTED

DR. CONAN DOYLE.

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle forwarded to Premier Asquith a petition from prominent British authors urging British participation in the Panama-Pacific Exposition in 1915.

The petition dwells on the small expenditure involved compared with the great harm from deterioration of the good relations existing between Great Britain and the United States.

The signatories include William Archer, Mgr. Robert Hugh Benson, Henry Arthur Jones, Miss Mary Braddon, John Masefield, Sir Arthur Pinero, Owen Seaman, Humphry Ward and Silas Hocking.

WEDDING WINE PROVES MOST POISONOUS DRAFT

Two Sisters Dead, Another Young Woman in a Serious Condition After Drinking Health of the Bride.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—Two sisters are dead and two other young women are in a dangerous condition as the result of what is said to be wood alcohol poisoning, contracted through drinking wine at an East Side wedding last Sunday night. The police believe that several other young women who accepted the invitation of the bride to attend the wedding have also been taken ill, a conclusion based on the circumstances that they failed yesterday to report for work with the concerns which employed them.

The dead are Helen and Madeline Dean, 30 and 22 years old, respectively. Marie Driscoll of Green Point and Anna O'Brien are both dangerously ill. A fifth guest, Mrs. Joseph Lonz of Brooklyn, was also taken ill Monday morning, but is reported to be improving.

An investigation of the case has been started by the police and coroner's officers.

WILL MAKE GRANT

TORONTO, Feb. 27.—That the Dominion Government would give a grant to good roads before twelve months have passed, was the assurance Col. Ponton gave to the good roads association this morning. The question must cease to be a political football. He suggested that hotel-keepers, who benefit by tourist traffic on good roads should be made to contribute towards their upkeep. The executive will arrange to hold the next congress in Toronto, in the summer of 1915.

A BOY STOLE SUM OF $50,000 And He Didn't Know Handbag Was Loaded With Cash.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 27.—A 15-year-old boy arrested yesterday in connection with the recent theft of a handbag containing $50,000 in cheques and money orders from the city post office pleaded guilty to-day and has given his freedom until Thursday, next when he will appear in the juvenile court for sentence. The cheques and money orders were all recovered in a laundry of the Canada Life building about a week ago and the boy's detection was effected through a scrap of note paper found on the floor on which the suspected lad had written a note to another boy. Comparison with specimens of his handwriting led to the arrest. It is assumed that he thought the bag contained money and that he discarded it on finding what he thought was worthless paper. The boy has a juvenile court record.

BENTON'S FATE STILL UNKNOWN

[Continued from Page 1] of Benton's death officially was announced at Juarez. That the United States will insist on the delivery of the body to the widow has been clearly emphasized by both the President and Secretary of State Bryan. There is a feeling among some officials here that when General Carranza, Chief of the Constitutionalists, and his friends get into closer touch with Villa, they may convince him of the necessity of abandoning whatever sentimental or religious reasons he may have for retaining the body.

LONDON, Feb. 27.—The Daily Telegraph in an editorial to-day referring to Foreign Secretary Grey's statement in the House of Commons yesterday notes with satisfaction that Sir Edward had last given expression "to the grave feeling in the mind of every British subject over the execution of William S. Benton. The newspaper declares that it was a pronouncement for which the country anxiously had been waiting. "The Daily News in an editorial advocating patience until the truth about the killing of Benton is ascertained, says: "No very keen eye is required to see that the shooting of Benton is being exploited by those who are very little concerned with the righting of the wrong, but are very much concerned in the possibility of financial returns profitable to their own particular interests."

The Daily Express says the British Government is helpless and impotent while the American Government will not or dare not move. "The Monroe doctrine and the timidity of Downing street block the way." The Express adds: "But what is the matter with the American Government? Its do-nothing policy is very injurious to British interests in all ways and most injurious to the interests of the United States."

U. S. Is Blamed. MEXICO CITY, Feb. 27.—Blame for the killing at Juarez recently of William S. Benton, a British subject, was indirectly placed upon the United States late last night in a memorandum sent by the Mexican Government to Washington. Copies of the document also were handed to the foreign legations here. Hope was expressed in the memorandum that the United States would recognize the evil following the act of permitting the importation of arms by the rebels and take steps to remedy it.

The repeal by the government of the United States of that decree, which prevented exportation of arms from the United States to the rebels, places the rebels in a favorable situation for committing outrages and prevents the constituted government from repressing as quickly as energetically as it would desire such excesses," said the memorandum.

"This government without discussing the right that the United States may have to observe the policy which most interests it in its relations with Mexico, believes the time has come to remind the government of our neighboring country that the rebels in all the regions, which they control, far from attempting the establishment of any institution that would characterize any governmental functions, are giving palpable signs of anarchistic tendencies and of absolute lack of respect of all interests that moral and international justice imposes upon civilized peoples.

On the other hand the constituted government not alone is dictating measures officious, so far as is possible to bring about submission of the rebels and to re-establish social and constitutional institutions in territory now removed from its jurisdiction, but in all towns where it is in power it is giving full guarantees to the interests of both of nationals and foreigners.

From this point of view it is believed that the government of the United States will not place in doubt the right that belongs to Mexico to expect its collaboration in a work, which it is doing in the interests of civilization and likewise that it will fix its attention on the grave consequences that come from revoking the decree that prohibited until recently the exportation of arms. "This government expects to comply with its high duty to humanity and with the functions of a representative that forms part of international society by soliciting by means of this note reflection by our neighboring country regarding the sad consequences, the arming of rebels, who do not respect life, honor or property, has brought and will continue to bring."

British Consul Is on the Scene

[By Special Wire to The Courier] EL PASO, Tex., Feb. 27.—Much interest was manifested here to-day in the mission of Charles Perceval, British Consul at Galveston, Texas, who arrived here last night to assist in the investigation of the execution by General Villa of William S. Benton, a British subject. Mr. Perceval declined to discuss his mission, but at his hotel, the British consul received a package containing his instructions. George C. Carruthers, special agent of the state department at Washington, expected to leave here for Chihuahua to make arrangements for the examination of Benton's body. He will make the trip on a railroad motor drive velocipede.

Becker Will Not Discuss New Trial

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—Charles Becker, former police lieutenant, was brought down from Sing Sing last night to a cell in the Tombs prison to face a new trial for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, and declined to discuss his case to-day. When told that the district attorney had announced that he would move for the second trial in April or May, he said that it would be useless for anyone to attempt to interview him in the meantime. "I cannot say anything further," he said, "than that I appreciate the good will of all those who have kept their faith in me. I appreciate their belief in my innocence."

Laid at Rest

The Late Thos. McCormick. The funeral of Thos. McCormick took place Thursday morning from the residence of his uncle, Mr. John Powers, Darling St., to St. Mary's Church, where requiem high mass was chanted by the Rev. Father Palladino, who also officiated at the grave. The very large offering of floral tributes testified to the very high esteem in which he was held. The following acted as pall bearers: Basil Hawkins, Harold O'Connell, Charlie Kerr, Peter Jones, Chas. Mooney and Jack Slattery. The relatives from a distance who attended the funeral were: Mr and Mrs Wm. Chamberlain, of Toronto; Mrs John Harrington and Wm. Harrington, of Battle Creek, Mich., and Mr Thos. Skinner and Miss Kate Skinner of Toronto.

The Late Mrs. McFarlane. The funeral of the late Mrs W. S. McFarlane takes place at Weston this afternoon. Beautiful services were held at the late residence, 11 Victoria St., this morning, by the Rev. D. T. McChintock, and when they were concluded the remains were entined on the 10.29 train for Weston. Numerous sorrowing friends were present and a great wealth of beautiful flowers testified in silent eloquence to the esteem in which the deceased was held.

The Late Andrew McMeans. The funeral of the late Andrew McMeans took place from his late residence 324 Dalhousie St. this afternoon to Greenwood cemetery. There was a large number of people present to pay their last respects to Mr. McMeans, who was held in very high esteem throughout the city.

Very Rev. Archdeacon Mackenzie, assisted by Rev. Mr. Jenkins, conducted the services at the house and grave in a very impressive manner. The floral tributes were many and very beautiful. The pallbearers were Messrs. Bowley, Simpson, Tapscott, Senn, John Fair and Major Heath, all old and close friends of the deceased.

A Boost for Hydro. Hydro-Electric received a good boost in Brantford last night when Mr. Axford was to give an illustrated lecture on Children's Aid and Shelter work at the Methodist church. A good audience had assembled, and all went well until the lecture was due to start. Then Mr. Axford discovered that the current was not strong enough to operate his lantern. Efforts were in vain, and the illustrated part of the entertainment was dropped, the lecture proceeding without his views. A sum of six dollars was realized and handed over to the funds of the Hospital Aid. Lamps and candles deputized for the fluctuating current.

The Legislature rejected an amendment favoring tax reform, and the debate on the address closed.

The Alliance At Toronto F. S. Spence Delivers a Strong Pro-Rowell Speech Today.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] TORONTO, Feb. 27.—The Ontario Alliance decided this morning after an enthusiastic debate, to stand squarely behind N. W. Rowell's policy of banish the bar in Ontario.

There was some opposition to the terms of the resolution presented by the political action committee, which was as follows: "That this convention hails with pleasure the adoption by the leader of the Liberal party, N. W. Rowell, K.C., of a policy aiming at the immediate abolition of bar rooms, the treating system and drinking in clubs and further restrictions and regulations for remedying the evils resulting from the liquor traffic, and that the policy deserves the hearty support of the temperance electors." G. B. Nicholas of Chapleau headed a small minority opposed to the resolution. He moved an amendment to strike out all reference to the Liberal party but only four delegates supported the amendment. F. S. Spence delivered a stirring address, declaring that they could not swallow the message. They could not do less than give Mr. Rowell their support after the stand he had taken. If the Conservatives would go further

Enquiry Starts In American's Death

[By Special Wire to The Courier] LAREDO, Texas, Feb. 27.—Friends of Clemente Vergara, the American, who was hanged recently by Mexican Federalists were aroused to-day by the reports made by United States Consul Garrett and Vergara's brother-in-law, S. J. Hill, who yesterday visited the scene of the rancher's execution near Hidalgo, Mexico. Vergara's friends assert they will press for the fixing of responsibility for the hanging and for punishment of the American's executioners.

Proposal for Macdonald Centennial Takes Step Forward [By Special Wire to The Courier] OTTAWA, Feb. 27.—The proposed celebration of the hundredth anniversary of the birth of Sir John Macdonald took a step forward yesterday when it was decided to organize national and provincial committees with a view to making the necessary preparations.

Dr. G. Sterling Ryerson, of Toronto, was in Ottawa yesterday conferring with members of the Government with regard to the project, in which he is deeply interested. It is also proposed to erect in Ottawa a national memorial to this event and of the semi-centennial of Confederation, to be celebrated in 1917.

TO FORCE HOBBHOUSE TO RESIGN HIS OFFICE

Militants to Strike Directly at British Postmaster Through Mails.

LONDON, Feb. 27.—"Major" Flora Drummond, in a speech in London last night, said the recent appointment of Right Hon. Charles Hobhouse as Postmaster General was a direct challenge to the suffragettes. Now was their chance, she said, to show him that there is a popular uprising such as he in an often quoted speech said had not occurred in behalf of female suffrage.

"Major" Drummond said the suffragettes would strike directly at Mr. Hobhouse through the mail boxes, and carry this plan to such an extent that the government would be obliged to find another job for him.

TRAINS DYNAMITED BY MOB IN LISBON

Railway Strike in Portugal Has Led to a Dangerous Situation.

LONDON, Feb. 27.—It is reported from Madrid that the railway strike in Portugal has led to a dangerous situation. It is stated that the Central Railway station at Lisbon is burning. Two trains have been dynamited, but no one was killed. Mobs hold some of the streets. The telegraph wires have been cut and there is nothing direct from the Portuguese capital.

MAYOR IS OPPOSED

To Reduction of $300 License Fee for the Theatricals

Like the laws of the Medes and the Persians, the by-law is immutable." This is said to be the attitude of Mayor Spence in response to a deputation of moving picture men who waited upon him yesterday afternoon, asking that the license fee of $300 per year for theatricals be reduced. The Mayor said that as far as he was concerned, personally, it was up to the council, which had made the by-law. He intimated that he was opposed to any reduction. It is likely a petition will be submitted to the City Council at the next meeting. It is said however, that the petition will not be unanimously signed.

Can't Shoot Rabbits. It may not be generally known that it is unlawful to shoot rabbits at this season of the year. Last week two young fellows were fined $5 and costs for having one rabbit each in their possession. Another was fined $20 and costs, he having four bunnies.—Paris Star Transcript.

Just a Conference. "It was just a conference to discuss matters in regard to the street railway by-law" said Ald. Charlton, chairman of the railway committee in regard to a meeting held yesterday afternoon. Plans were discussed but nothing definite was arrived at.

Said Farewell. A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Arskert, Northumberland St., gathered at their home on Wednesday night to say farewell to them, prior to their leaving the city. The evening was spent in music and games, after which a dainty supper was served. The party broke up at a late hour, all wishing Mr. and Mrs. Arskert God speed.

Communication Received. The city clerk this morning received a communication from City Engineer Manson of Stratford, asking for information as to the number of readings a bill or by-law may receive at one sitting of the council and the number or proportion of the council voting adversely necessary to prevent it receiving two or more readings at one sitting.

Woman's Tongue. Last evening at the Marlboro St. Church, a full house greeted Rev. A. I. Snyder to hear him give his lecture on a woman's tongue. The speaker sustained his reputation as a lecturer, and for an hour and 15 minutes he kept his audience in the best of humor. Miss Ham rendered a solo which was much appreciated. Mr. Wallace occupied the chair in an able manner.

Killed at St. George. Richard Morris, milk vendor of St. George, Ont., was killed at that place Wednesday, a limb of a tree which he had cut down and which he was trying to swing over, recoiling and striking him on the chest crushing it in. He leaves four sons and two daughters. Major Frank Morris, London, and Staff Captain Arthur of Toronto headquarters, both in the Salvation Army, are sons of the deceased, who was a very active citizen of that town.

Mourn the Lads. Lillian Edith Cole, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cole of 272 West Mill street, died this morning. The funeral has been arranged to take place from the sorrowing parents' residence on Monday, to Mount Hope cemetery.

Comiskey's Coming Will Aid Old Leagues in Their Seemingly Hopeless Battle With Federals

(By Hugh S. Fullerton.) Charles Comiskey's illness, coming at the critical moment in baseball history, may change the entire complexion of the sport. Reports from Rome and Paris are not as encouraging as the earlier dispatches, and Comiskey is coming home. Not only will his return mar the great reception planned for the returning world's champions, but it is certain to have a great effect upon the present situation in baseball. Comiskey is the master mind of the baseball and has been its directing genius for many years. Ever since the Brotherhood war his advice and counsel have decided the moves of the leagues. Both the American Leaguers who are his partners, and the National Leaguers, his sworn enemies, have been praying for the return of Comiskey. They declare that the world's tour, which was planned before the Federal League's assault, has been the most disastrous move ever made in baseball. They believe that had Comiskey remained in America this winter, the Federals would have been stopped almost before they started, and that their present success would have been impossible. If Comiskey returns home at once, and in good enough health to work, the chances are that the baseball tangle will be straightened out inside a fortnight. If he is too ill to assume charge of matters, the Federals will be in a much strengthened position, and the troubles that now beset the two major leagues will seem mere trifles. There is no doubt that Comiskey is desperately needed by the powers of organized baseball. For baseball is in worse condition just now than it has been since the adoption of the National agreement. The Federals have made gigantic strides forward in the last week, and the Organized Powers who gathered in New York to fight them were outgeneraled and beaten at every step. President Murphy's move in releasing Manager Johnny Evers at the wrong instant was a play straight into the hands of the rebels, and they took advantage of it. Further, the Federals knew two days before anyone else did what was coming off, and they were in New York planning a coup, and on top of the Evers sensation they announced their acquisition of New York grounds.

Berlin Beats Sarnia Five Goals On Round; Meet Orillia Next

BERLIN, Feb. 27.—Berlin completed the task of putting Sarnia out of the intermediate O. H. A. race by defeating them in a close game by 5 to 2, with the half time score 2 to 0 in the visitor's favor. The score is a fair indication of the play. Sarnia came here with the locals having a four goal lead and fought stubbornly every inch of the play, skating fast and checking close as well as rushing with good effect. Foster substituted for Storey who was hurt in the last game and showed great speed. Leseur, McCart and Todd also played a brilliant game. The work of Hainceworth in goal was superb, while Thuschinski and Boettger started. Play started fast on the face off, with both aggregations showing good team work, rushing from end to end fast with clever stick handling predominating. After 10 minutes of strenuous play McCart passed the defense and on a clean shot beat Hainceworth for the first goal. Two minutes later McLellan and Foster broke away, the former scoring. Berlin worked hard and tried to score in this period, but the half closed with the visitors in the lead. The Dutchmen came on with determination to come back. Ralling immediately and in 30 seconds Leroux passed to Boettger, the latter scoring on a clean shot in front of the goal. Berlin came right back with a second tally, 50 seconds later, this time Leroux scoring on a long shot. Both teams struggled to break the ice, and finally the local youngsters succeeded on a pretty three man combination, Boettger doing the trick. For a short period Berlin played five men against six when three men were fenced for tripping. During this period the play was exceedingly fast. The game closed with both teams going strong. Berlin enters the finals with Orillia, winning the round by five goals. There were few penalties handed out, although the game was marked by bad hooking and body checking.

KING GEORGE A FAN FOR A DAY

His Majesty Sees the Sox De-Feat the Giants in Great Game. LONDON, Feb. 27.—The King of England as a baseball fan yesterday experienced the thrill that comes as the result of a spectacular hit which breaks up an extra inning game. Seated with a wire-enclosed box behind the home plate of a diamond that had been laid out on the Chelsea football field, His Majesty saw in the second half of 11th. inning Tommy Daly of the Chicago White Sox, meet with his bat a fast ball delivered by Faber, of the New York Giants, drive it far across the field and into the topmost bleachers for a home run and win the game for Chicago, 5 to 4. The King clapped his hands wildly as Daly trotted around the bases and the others of the 30,000 spectators followed his example. The game between the world touring American baseball teams had been widely advertised, and, having King George as a patron, it was the magnet that attracted to the field persons from all branches of British sports, members of the nobility, Cabinet ministers, diplomats and society leaders. The American colony in London was out to a man. King George, who was accompanied by Walter Hines Page, the American ambassador, watched with great interest and seeming intelligence the game that was closely contested 11 innings, applauding heartily brilliant field and battery plays. This was especially noticed when about midway of the game, Faber, pitching for the Giants, got himself into a hole, having three men on bases and only one man out. Steadying himself, the Giant twirler retired the White Sox without permitting a man to cross the plate. His Majesty's face was wreathed in smiles over the good work of Faber, and he applauded him wildly as did the American fans. So well did the King understand the game that it was seldom he had to request Mr. Page to explain any of the numerous quickly executed intricate plays. As an instance of his keen perception, King George led the applause at the end of the first inning, when, with three men on bases and only one man out, the Sox were retired on a clever double play. As for the average Britisher, however, as much cannot be said. Before two innings had been played many of them confessed themselves mystified. The remainder of the game they sat as though in a daze. It was field day for the baseball-hungry American residents in London, and they cheered and roared in the manner customary at games played in the United States. In the hulls of their exuberance they tried to explain the fine points of the game to their British neighbors, but their efforts were without much success. All in all, the game was a splendid one, despite the soggy field. There were frequent good hits made and much fine base running. In addition to Daly, whose home run won the game from the Sox, Crawford, of the Chicago, and Lobert, of the Giants, drove the ball into the stands for the circuit. Last night the American actors now playing in London entertained the baseball men at a supper which was followed by a variety show.

FEAR OF FEDERAL RAIDS AND RESERVE CLAUSE MAKES BEHAN WITHDRAW. CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—Fear of the Federal League raids on ball players and doubt as to the stability of the reserve rule and of the players contract itself, have combined with the question of ground lease to drive from the field the Chicagoans who wanted to purchase control of the Cubs. The Behan syndicate whose offer of $750,000 for Chas. F. Taft's controlling interest was accompanied by conditions he would not accept, withdrew to-day. The others, while not formally out of the market, gathered from the refusal of the Behan bid that Mr Taft was not prepared to guarantee the dissolution of the Federal League or alliance with them, nor grant the desired long lease on the Club field, of which he is said to be principal owner. Cincinnati reports said yesterday that Mr Taft had received a score of enquiries concerning the price of his stock and asking whether it was for sale. No new offers have been made public here.

De Palmer Wins Vanderbilt Cup Race For Second Time

SANTA MONICA, Cal., Feb. 27.—Ralph De Palma, who won the Vanderbilt cup race in Milwaukee in 1912, duplicated that performance by winning the Vanderbilt cup race of 1914, over the Santa Monica course yesterday. He beat Barney Oldfield by a narrow margin by a desperate speed battle over more than 100 miles during which but a few seconds separated the two drivers. De Palma's time was 3:53:41 for the 294.035 miles, or an average speed of 75.6 miles an hour, nearly three miles less than the course record. Oldfield was second, Carlson third and Cooper fourth.

JACK JOHNSON IN A PARIS STREET BRAWL

Mike Galvin, Johnson's Manager, Said Something About Jack's Wife. Jack Johnson doesn't break into print often now unless he is arrested or engages in some sort of a brawl. According to a cable to-day Johnson was probably saved from being mobbed in Paris last night by the police, after he had mugged up Mike Galvin manager of Jim Johnson, another negro fighter. Jack's wife took something Galvin said to her as an insult, and she called Johnson, who struck Galvin. The fight was staged in front of Maltrot's restaurant. A crowd gathered, which was extremely hostile to Johnson. Some one offered Galvin a gun, but the police interfered. Sam Langford, well known resident of Boston and white hope discouraged, has returned from Europe. Sam appeared in much better condition than when he last fought in New York, and Joe Woodman, his manager, said he would keep him hard at work, so a return of the fat which Sam was carrying around would be impossible. Langford is matched to meet Georges Carpentier in Paris May 16 for a purse of $25,000, to be divided 60 and 40. Woodman said Sam had another important match scheduled in London for June 30.

CHANCE HOPEFUL

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 27.—Frank Chance will leave to-morrow for Houston, Texas, to join the squad of New York Americans and begin the 1914 spring training season. This will be Chance's second season as manager of the Yankees, and he said he hoped to hoist them out of the lowly position in which the team finished last season. "I have spent the winter out of doors," Chance said, "and I feel fine." Sox Begin Work. PASO, ROBLES, Cal., Feb. 27.—The Chicago White Sox who arrived here travel worn, and dust laden, last night, began their workout yesterday under Kid Gleason, acting manager in the absence of Jimmy Callahan. The training squad was joined here by Ed Walsh, Red Kuhn, Ping Budge, Jack Fournier and Red Russell, who increased the number of players to 31. Billy Sullivan, Hal Chase and six players on the world tour of the New York Giants and the White Sox, will join the club here later. The report that Chase was a holdout was denied to-day.

SOME OLD COUNTRY SOCCER JOTTINGS

It is rumored that Joe Bache is retiring at the end of the season. Manchester City's present form will soon carry them out of danger. Preston North End will make things warm in the second division next season. Eight members of Sheffield United's present team are under twenty-three years of age. Notts County are getting better gates in the second division than they did in the first. Young Cummings, the ex-Maryhill lad, is a great favorite with the Manchester City crowd. Newcastle United have over forty players on their books this season. They have played twenty-five in the first team. Bookman of Bradford, who played for Ireland against Wales, is said to be the first Jew to play in an international match. Everton have offered Kilmarnock more for Cunningham than Blackburn paid for Shea, but there is no business being done. Kyle was absent only once from St Mirren's league team before addressing his portmanteau "Hamilton," so he has played twice against

Clyde at Shawfield and each time undertook a big part in Clyde's downfall. The league flag which was pictured flying at Tynecastle by the optimists, is gradually slipping away. It will soon be at half mast. Dame Rumor has it that Percy Dawson is likely to be transferred to Blackburn Rovers. If he goes there will be some fun at Elwood Park. Some people think that Andrew Wilson will have the honor of playing in the second division next season. When the new Clydebank club starts signing on players, look out for a few surprises. It is expected Queen's Park will play the English Wanderers in London in the spring in a return fixture. Will the power of the purse have any influence on any part of Queen's Park's present strong going team? Time will tell. Shea, of Blackburn, is a boxer of more than ordinary ability and when he was in London was a sparring partner of Jimmy Summers. A. Todd has played in all Queen's Park's games—league and cup ties. P. Pursell and E. S. Garvie have each been absent on only one occasion. Celtic have completed their league engagements without losing a goal to Clyde, Dundee, Dumbarton, Airdrieonians and Rangers. Philip is the seventh center forward tried by Dundee. His first game may keep him there, for not many players can score three goals in a game. He was the eleventh player to perform the "hat trick" this season. Vizard, who has been chosen to represent Wales against Scotland at Celtic Park had a curious and exceptional experience. He had only two months experience of league football when he was given his Welsh cap against Ireland in 1911. He was then 21 years of age. Of all the clever Scots figuring in English first league football just now none is more prominent than Andrew Jackson, the clever Paisley lad, in Middlesbrough, and the "buddies" generally are inclined to be rather proud of their townsman. It is exactly four years since he went from Paisley as a junior to Middlesbrough and since that time has never been challenged for the center half position in the English team. One English writer refers to Andy as a bona fide football player and strongly urges the selectors to keep their eye upon him this season. It may not be generally known that had St Mirren been at all energetic in the matter, the club would to-day have been at Love street. An important point in connection with the Scottish Cup competition of this season should not be lost sight of. It is that where two first league clubs draw, the replay is to be mid-week. The Scottish association and the Scottish league differ in respect that the former, according to its rule book, permits clubs to utilize two Saturdays for the deciding of one round. At last annual general meeting of the Scottish league, however, when the number of competing clubs in the first division was increased to twenty, it was decided that when two first division clubs draw on a Saturday, the replay must be mid-week. This was considered necessary in view of the four extra matches that had to be played in the league, and the difficulty hitherto experienced in getting the tournament concluded before the season finished, week-day matches often having to be resorted to. Jimmy Galt is leaving Ibrox. Of that there is no doubt, but where he is going is altogether a different point. He does not know himself yet but Bradford, Leeds and Liverpool, all are on the hunt. He wants away from Rangers, for it has been well known for some time past that Galt and the Ibrox directors have not been seeing eye to eye. He has asked to be placed on the transfer list, and the officials have acquiesced to his desire, matters having thereby come to a head. Galt does not like the idea of being regarded as a substitute. This has been for the greater part of the season, only playing when either Gordon, Logan or Hendry was not available. There is no doubt that Galt is a very clever and versatile player. He has been with the Light Blues for a good many seasons now, and is at present playing as well as ever he did. James should not be very long in getting a new club. There are a good few combinations that could be doing with the services of such a player as he is. James Gordon may also ere long be far removed from Ibrox.

Elliott, the Middlesbrough center forward, picked for England, is having a great season as pivot, although it was as an inside right that he first made his name with the Tees-siders. It was after Brown and Galt had both failed to give satisfaction in the early stages of last season that Elliott took up the leadership of the Middlesbrough forwards and scoring twice against Notts County in his first match, has never looked behind. Including that game, Elliott has played centre in 46 league games for the North Yorkshire club and scored 39 goals therein—a really remarkable record. Need England look any further for a centre. It has often been remarked that the English selection committee are respecters of names, judging by the way they swear by the old brigade when the internationals come around. On the other hand they could not have been paying attention to names when they selected Donaldson, Bolton Wanderers, for the Trial match. That player's name is as Scottish as Tobermory. Fancy the English selectors not knowing that Donaldson was a native of Barrehead! They did not find out their mistake before Donaldson had entrained for Sunderland, so that the Bolton lad had to receive the usual travelling expenses. The association treated him generously also in awarding Donaldson the Trial-match fee.

Canadian League Circuit Clippings

The Canadian baseball league got off in earnest at the schedule meeting at the Prince George Hotel Toronto, when eight enthusiastic club owners approved the playing dates for 1914. Immediately after the meeting Geo. O'Neill owner of the Erie club, left for the American city to complete arrangements with George Smith, and attend to many pressing matters incidental to the formation of a pennant winning team. To a representative of The Dispatch Mr. O'Neill said that everything was fine for Erie. "Don't ever think the American team," he said, "will be behind—the Canadians next September. We are going to take the Canadian pennant over to Erie for a year's rest in a big town. We have fourteen contracts signed up and the Erie people will not complain of the brand of baseball we intend to put up." The "International Spirit" which was very prominent to-day has given the Canadian magnates more enthusiasm than anything that could have occurred. This fact was evinced to-day when President James P. Fitzgerald intimated to a representative of The Dispatch that he would go to Erie for the opening game. He will be accompanied by representatives from all the Canadian teams and the backers of the various clubs. They have already signified their intention of seeing Erie trim Peterboro at the first game. On May 7 the whole eight teams will swing into action. Peterboro opening at Erie, Toronto at London Hamilton at Brantford, and Ottawa at St. Thomas. Each team will play 112 games in all, the last scheduled game taking place on September 7. Erie will have the Fourth of July and Labor Day at home and will share the Sunday games with Ottawa—Erie Dispatch. Highly recommended by Connie Mack, manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, world's champions, and Ira Thomas, catcher on the Philadelphia team, Dr. R. W. Yates of Philadelphia, has been appointed manager of the Hamilton baseball club for the season of 1914. Yates is a young ball player of considerable experience, and in view of the high esteem in which he was held by Connie Mack and the fact that he had that astute leader behind him, resulted in his appointment at the meeting of the provision- al directors of the local club held yesterday afternoon. Yates is a right handed pitcher who has seen service in the Texas League, the Pacific Coast League, and with the Philadelphia Nationals. For the past three years he has coached the Swarthmouth college baseball squad, and is said to possess the happy faculty of being able to handle and develop young players. He is also a college graduate with a dental degree. The misunderstanding that existed over the contract signed by Davy Rowan, who was engaged by John Burns to manage the Hamilton baseball club was cleared up yesterday. Rowan did not sign the contract until after George O'Neill had secured the option on the Hamilton club, and the contract that he did sign had a clause in it which prevented any chance of a comeback at the old owners or the new owners of the club in case it was decided to dispense with Rowan's services before the season opened. This was explained yesterday and Rowan wired to that effect this morning.—Hamilton Spectator. The attention of the club representatives was centered principally upon the matter of drafting the schedule for the season of 1914. President Fitzgerald will draw up the schedule from the data furnished him yesterday by the representatives of the various clubs. It was decided to open the league season on Thursday, May 7, and close on Labor Day, September 7, giving a playing season of an even four months and 112 games for each team, making the season one week longer than was the case last year. Sunday ball will be played in Erie and Hull. The Ottawa club has secured playing grounds on the Hull side of the Ottawa river, and will play their Sunday games in Quebec. Efforts to this end have been under way for some time, the baseball club having the support of the street railway company in the matter. According to information supplied to President Fitzgerald this week, there is no doubt as to the ability of the Capital club to play on Sunday. This means that Erie and Ottawa will be scheduled home on nearly all Sundays, while Erie will be home on all the American holidays and in the Canadian cities on the Canadian holidays.—Hamilton Spectator. The Toronto club will play at Toronto when the International league club is on the road. This means that the Torontos will be on the road for thirty days at a stretch and home for just as long a period. It is the opinion in Toronto that the Canadian league team will do well in the Queen city, especially as grounds are being secured on the mainland. This means that the team will not play at the Island stadium.—Hamilton Spectator. The majority of the club owners reported that they were in splendid shape. London is possibly farther advanced than any other club. President Stevely is more than satisfied with the new manager, Doc Keisling. He said, "Keisling is business all the time. He has fifteen players under contract at the present time, and believe me, we will be ready to start the season with a flying start. London will train at Marietta, Ohio, and will tour Ohio state for two weeks before going to London for one exhibition game before the season opens. St. Thomas will train at Charlotte, Mich.; Peterboro at Youngstown, Ohio; Brantford at Mt. Clemens, Mich.; Hamilton and Erie at home, while the Toronto players are being taken south to Marlin Springs along with the International League club. This is a pretty expensive outlay, and is indication enough of the manner in which the Canadian League has advanced.—Hamilton Spectator.

The Prize Ring

Johnson and Langford Match in London Not Probable. Efforts in two directions are being made to bring off a Johnson and Langford contest in London. A purse of £6,000, with a winners and loser's end, is being offered by Mr. Charles B. Cochran, who proposes to stage the bout at Olympia, while the committee of the National Sporting Club announce that they are prepared to put up £3,000 for the two blacks to box for in a world's championship contest, the winner to take all, or the purse to be divided—as might be agreed upon by the men. The club will not entertain a proposition that the winner shall take a certain sum and the loser the remainder, so that disposes of Johnson's demands right away. The £6,000 offer for a bout at Olympia will sound more tempting to the Johnson ears, but in this, too, there is the hateful winner-and-loser stipulation. But even if Johnson should yield on this point, I am not so sure that the contest will be brought off, for the police authorities, while not antagonistic to boxing—in fact, they have shown their sympathy in many unobtrusive ways—do not regard kindly any proposition in which the big purse plays a prominent part. Shortly I do not think a meeting between Johnson and Langford has much chance of being brought off anywhere in England outside the National Sporting Club. There seems no present probability of Johnson accepting the terms offered by the National Sporting Club. He is very emphatic when he says he is not going to box for anything less than £6,000 as his end, no matter what the result; in any case, too, he could not box Langford until the autumn season at the club, because he is not due to meet Frank Moran until June, and is precluded from fixing up an earlier engagement by the state of his broken arm. It is said that after the plaster was removed Johnson's damaged "wing" began to swell so alarmingly that several music hall concerts had to be postponed or cancelled, and the big black will be unable to start training for another month or two. Meanwhile, Max Robert, the French heavyweight, is prepared to give Langford employment and giving him the chance of lifting £500 stake money if anyone will provide a purse that will satisfy the black. A Dusky Phalanx. If one is to believe a statement in one of the American exchanges, another negro is coming to join Langford in the dispute for justly earned. The new comer is Jack Blackburn, who about five years ago was one of the most formidable personages among the welterweights. There was a time, indeed, just about then, when the coloured boxers dominated all the classes, save one, and here are the names of the nice little lot who did it: Jack Johnson, Sam Langford, Jack Blackburn, Joe Gans and Young Pierce. Gans, it is true, lost his title to Battling Nelson, but he succeeded to the killing conditions imposed by the Dane's astute manager, for the men were not in the same class as boxers. The "Old Master" however wanted money badly, and he had to accept the wicked conditions of the starve. Gans had to take the ring a shadow of his real self, and the words were then shown of a disease, which carried him off years before his time. As to Pierce, he has long been "all in"—he was self-confessedly "all out" when he met Digger Stanley of the National Sporting Club between three and four years ago, and cannot draw after twenty rounds—but he was one of the best when at the height of his powers. He was also a most likeable little fellow, as were George Dixon—yet another famous name—and Gans, and all were "white men" even if their skins were black. Blackburn is now out on leave after serving nearly five years in gaol, and so it is said, intends to make his way to Europe, with the object of challenging Johnson for the world's title. No one knows anything about Blackburn's form yet, however, and it will be wise to wait and see how he shapes in a try-out before discussing his prospects in a match with Johnson. There is talk of Blackburn and Battling Levinsky coming together, so that the black may be given a chance of testing his ability after his long absence from the ring. Hon. W. T. White, Minister of Finance, stated that the Government does not intend to recoup the shareholders of the Farmers Bank.

What's In A Name? Brantford Directory

New Book Just Issued Shows Strange Conglomeration of Patronyms and Other Nyms as Well.

From time immemorial, man has been blessed, or afflicted with a cognomen, or name by which he was always made distinct from his fellow-men. The first Biblical man started the custom, for he was named Adam, and from such a simple beginning as Adam, Eve, Cain and Abel has sprung the vast conglomeration of names of which almost every member of every community, large or small, has his individual portion. Were it not so, who can imagine the confused state into which the world would soon lapse. The work of naming individuals would have to be begun all over once again, and as in the days of old, men would be named by some physical, or mental state, or any other peculiarity which manifested itself. Names are never mere arbitrary sounds, devoid of meaning. They may always be regarded as records of the past, rewarding or praising, perhaps deprecating the fame, good or inglorious of the bearer.

They are always capable of an interpretation. In many instances the original import of names has faded away, or has become disguised in the passage of time, but nevertheless the original meaning may be recoverable, by diligent research and prove itself to be full fraught with meaning which reflected upon the first bearer of the title. The name may reflect some hidden glory or it might shed light on an unpleasant incident during the life of its primeval holder. It is often determinative evidence as to the character of the former scions of ancient families. There are names which have floated down from generation to generation with less phonetic abrasion than most words are subject to, and there is no doubt that if we could transplant such words and live in the era when they were conferred, we would at once know the true import of their designation. Hundreds of present day names are the modern contortions of fine old titles which once were emblematic of the Celtic, Romance, Slavonic, Teutonic and Norman races, which all in their time had some bearing upon the British Isles and hence upon all white men who speak the English language. Names at all times, with their national characteristics, bespeak the race of their owners.

And the City of Brantford, with its mass of cosmopolitan population, is no exception to the rule, and has its numbers of names, significant and insignificant, good and indifferent, as indicated by the new directory issued by Vernon for the current year. In this useful volume we find names of almost all nations, with Europeans predominating. There are names of historical interest, names of places, colors, trades and articles and of almost everything, whilst many incorporate a remembrance of the great originator, Adam. "La Patree" On the Case

Says Eavanture Had Mistaken Idea About His Job.

MONTREAL, Feb. 27.—The La Patrie, commenting on the Eavanture case says:

In writing the letter which Mr. Ferguson has read to the Ontario Assembly Mr. Eavanture has committed a mistake which prudent politicians know how to guard against. Mr. Eavanture has always openly condemned the prohibition policy of his chief, Mr. Rowell, and has no less objected to the restrictions which the Ontario Government has imposed on the sale of liquor. Taking up this position it is clear that he has thought himself authorized to act as the paid defender of the liquor traffic in the legislature. He may have drawn this false conception of his duty as a member from the examples under his eyes. In every parliament one sees the representatives of the people who are retained to act for particular interests. The Quebec legislature for instance. How many deputies can be counted who imprudently place their private interests above the interests of the people? And are they asked to resign? It may be that Mr. Eavanture was not as clever as those whose methods and conduct he tried to copy. He is evidently not an expert.

MR. W.G. RAYMOND AT TRINITY CLUB

"Shakespeare" Was Theme of Patriotic Address Last Night.

In the men's club rooms last night a lecture on Shakespeare was delivered by Mr. Raymond. As the speaker explained, it was not from the standpoint of the drama and literature, he dealt, as from that of the national poet of England. Lack of understanding was the chief excuse of those who professed to ignore his works. With rare humor and a fund of anecdote, the speaker left his hearers with some new conceptions of Shakespearean works. It was the day of chivalry and romance, the day of Drake, Raleigh and the galleons of Spain that brought his genius most fully into play. Incidental with Canadian history, Gen. Wolfe, as he addressed his men on the Plains of Abraham, quoted the words which Caesar is represented to say as he spoke of the qualities of courage. Love of country and fervid patriotism are embodied in the stirring lines— "This England never did and never shall Lie at the proud foot of a conqueror." With these words and a deep felt appreciation of the Bard of Avon,

Mr Raymond sat down amid a hearty round of applause. The Rev. Mr. Latimer proposed a vote of thanks which the men voted, this closing a most entertaining evening.

Waiter Smiles At Sacred Process of Fizzing the Feet

[By Special Wire to The Courier] NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—Lady Constance Richardson's tooties, a bottle of club soda, a merry waiter and an angry husband, furnished the Great White Way its newest thrill on Tuesday. It all happened at the Cafe Boulevard in the wee sma' hours, when Lady Constance made her debut as a cabaret dancer—barefooted. At the sight of the little pink tooties everyone cheered. As the shapely feet, pained after an encore, her husband, Edward Stewart Richardson, took a bottle of club soda and proceeded to bathe them. A passing waiter snickered at this sacred process of fizzing the feet. The laugh angered Richardson and he hung crepe on the waiter's eye with a terrific wallop. Then the foot-washing was resumed and the dance went on. Among those dining in the cafe at the time were Mr. and Mrs. Amos Pinchot, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hapgood, Nicholas Biddle, Richard Harding Davis and Prince Troubetzkoy.

He was also a most likeable little fellow, and he had to accept the wicked conditions or starve. Gans had to take the ring a shadow of his real self, and the seeds were then sown of a disease which carried him off years before his time.

As to Pierce, he has long been "all in" the little fellow, as we might say when he met Digger Stanley at the National Sporting Club between three and four years ago, and came a draw after twenty rounds—but he was one of the best when at the fall of his powers. He was also a most likeable little fellow, and he had to accept the wicked conditions or starve. Gans had to take the ring a shadow of his real self, and the seeds were then sown of a disease which carried him off years before his time.

STRENUOUS WORK SOON TELL ON YOU

Business Men and Breadwinners the Victims of Nervous Exhaustion.

When worry is added to overwork men soon become the victims of nervous exhaustion—neurasthenia—the doctor calls it. Some have no reserve strength in their systems to bear the strain; others overtax what strength they have. If you find that you are nervous and not sure of yourself, that you sleep badly, and wake up tired and aching, your nerves are out of order. Other signs are inability to take proper interest in your work, your appetite is fickle, your back feels weak, and you are greatly depressed in spirits. One or more of these signs mean that you should take prompt steps to stop mischief by nourishing the nerves with the food they thrive on, namely, the rich, red blood made by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These Pills have cured thousands of cases of nervous disorders, including nervous prostration, neuralgia, St. Vitus dance and partial paralysis. Here is an example. Mr. James A. McDonald of Springhill, N.S. says: "In the summer of 1912, as the result, I think, of hard work, I was completely run down and found it necessary to quit work. I slept poorly, and what sleep I did get did not seem to rest me, as I was constantly tired. My appetite was poor and fickle, and my nerves unstrung. I had treatment from a doctor for some time, but it did not seem to help me, and having heard a great deal about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I decided to try them. In the course of a few weeks after beginning the Pills I picked up wonderfully, and was able to return to work feeling like a new man. I have not had a day's sickness since, and naturally am now a firm believer in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will work the same beneficial results in any other tired, worn-out worker if given a fair trial. If you cannot obtain the Pills from your dealer they will be sent post paid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

CAUGHT ON THE FLY

Baseball Cleanings Gathered From inter Quarters of the Great and Near Great.

A Sunday baseball bill is again up before the Massachusetts Legislature, but there is not much hope for it this year. It permits games after 2 o'clock in the afternoon on Sunday, in enclosed parks, with 25 per cent of the receipts from admissions to go to city funds for charitable purposes.

Now that Harry McCormick has left the Giants they are wondering at Marlin who will do the social leader and lead the parades in the dances given at the Marlin Hotel.

Another of the old guard died in Newark, N.J., on February 10 when Jack Farrell passed away. He was a member of the Providence team, champions in 1884, playing second base.

Ed Walsh of the Chicago White Sox is already at Paso Robles, Cal., the training camp of the Sox and down to work. The spit ball king says that hard work is what he needs to come back and that he means to have it. He will have a two weeks' start on the other members of Callahan's team.

President Dreyfus of the Pittsburgh Pirates happens along with an announcement that Hans Wagner's present salary will continue as long as he lives, no matter when he decides to quit active playing. Barney Dreyfus thus issues the first life membership ever presented to a ball player.

Norman (Kid) Elberfeld is a free agent. Neither Chattanooga nor New Orleans of the Southern League, after a controversy over his services have tendered him a contract by Feb. 1. It is reported he hopes to catch on in the International League, or failing there may try the Federals.

Third Baseman Bill Hopke, who jumped the Utica team of the New York State League last year to join the Federals, has had all he wants of that organization and has applied for reinstatement in organized ball. He played a few weeks with the Indianapolis Federals and then quit them in disgust.

The Boston Red Sox will have a real Indian in William Garlow, a pitcher whose release was purchased from the Hamilton Club of the Canadian League. He won fame at Carlisle in football and baseball and then playing in the Southern Michigan League and the Canadian League.

Walter Lonergan has signed a contract to play with Hugh Duffy's Portland Club in the New England League next season. Lonergan was taken South with the Boston Red Sox and subsequently turned over to the Jersey City Club, but he declined to report last year, preferring to play with the Maples of Salem, nearer home. Duffy purchased Lonergan's release from Jersey City.

There will be two George Kellys in the Northwestern League this year. One is a pitcher with Victoria, the other a first baseman, a nephew of Bill Lange, who has secured him a berth with Spokane, where there is no first baseman in prospect since Walter Holke is a hold-out and threatening to jump to the Federals.

Fred W. Turner, the first president of the Texas League—way back in 1888, is now a resident of Palatka, Fla., and looking forward to renewing his interest in the game when various major league teams get down into that section for their spring training. He is secretary-treasurer of a land company and prospering.

Al Newham has again been signed to manage the Chillicothe team in the Ohio State League. It will be his third season with this team.

Herbert Saler, brother of Vic Saler of the Cubs, has been signed by the Fort Wayne Club of the Central League. He is a second baseman.

Venue in the Coast League has purchased Catcher Jack Bliss from Sacramento and called off the deal for Catcher Jimmy Stephens of Buffalo.

Before selling Catcher Jack Bliss to Venice, the Sacramento Club offered him to Oakland for Catcher Honus

Justin Fitzgerald, the former Coast League speed merchant, whose arm went back on him last year and who, it was reported would attempt a come back at Spokane, will, it is now reported, get his re-trial with the San Francisco Seals instead.

The Federal League announces with some show of pride that it has signed the Western Union and will have ticker service this season just like the major leagues. Last year it threatened to sue the telegraph company because it would not give it the service desired.

Dwight Stone, released last fall by the St. Louis Browns to Oakland, where he failed to make good and was then turned over to Montgomery, is reported so disgusted with his prospects that he has cast his lot with George Stovall's Federal league team in Kansas City.

The twin girl babies born to Frank Baker and wife at Trappe, Md., died a few days after birth and the congratulations showered upon the home run hitter of the Athletics have turned to condolences. The sad news was first made known in a letter from Baker to Eddie Collins.

Pete Wood, brother of Joe Wood, will not be with Lowell in 1914. He has been released by that club. Wood started in last season with Brockton and from there he went to New Bedford. He wound up with Lowell. He failed to make good.

Harry (Issy) Hoffman who last season played with Hartford in the Eastern Association has been named

IF CHILD IS CROSS, FEVERISH AND SICK

Look Mother, If Tongue is Coated Give "California" Syrup of Figs.

Children love this "fruit laxative" an nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty bowels and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach aches, then your little one becomes cross half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother. See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour food and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

ed manager of the Reading team of the Tri-State League. He expects assistance in building up his team from Connie Mack, with whom he is on terms of close friendship.

Terre Haute of the Central League announces a trade by which it gives Outfielder Red Farrell and Infielder Spencer to San Antonio of the Texas League for Pitcher Rogers. Terre Haute has also traded First Baseman Miller to Cadillac of the Michigan League for Pitcher Mooney.

William L. Zinkand, a catcher reported as having signed with a Southern League club for trial, was killed at his home Indianapolis on February 9 while employed as a brakeman on the Indianapolis Belt Railway. He had made quite a reputation in Indianapolis semi-pro circles.

It may be of interest to those players who expect to perform in the Federal League this year to know who the umpires will be. President Gilmore announces them as Bill Brennan, Garnet Bush, Monte Cross, Barry McCormick, Steve Kane, Olie Anderson, Steve Cusack and Al Massachusetts.

Pitcher Drummond Brown, reported as signed with the Federal League, has, it develops, already accepted terms and advance money from Toronto Club of the International League. Furthermore he has asked when he shall report and asked permission to bring with him a pitching candidate he thinks will be good with Toronto.

Pitcher Cyril Slapnicka has had the Milwaukee Club Officials worried for a week past because of his booking an engagement to do his balancing act at a Brewertown theater. They fear he will meet with an accident that will cripple him, but Slapnicka says the stunt is not near as dangerous as it appears to be from in front of the footlights.

Burley Grimes, purchased from the Ottumwa Club in the Central Association and later turned over to Chattanooga in the Southern League by Detroit, broke his arm while hauling logs in Wisconsin last week. Grimes was a winning pitcher with Chattanooga last season and he has been looked upon as a good prospect for Detroit in another season.

The schedule for the Southern League as endorsed by the committee of the league that met in Memphis, calls for the opening on April 14 and closing on September 17. Northern and Southern divisions are created in the circuit, without regard to Sunday towns. The opening games are to be played in Birmingham, Montgomery, Chattanooga and Atlanta.

FALL THROUGH A HATCH RESULTS IN DEATH

Harry Knott, Chatham, Dredgeman, cumbs to Attack of Hemorrhage Result of Accident.

CHATHAM, Feb. 26.—Harry Knott, a well-known dredgeman, and for over 30 years connected with the Chatham Dredging Co., died very suddenly at his home Baxter street. His death was quite unexpected, as he had been in his usual good health up to the last moment that he succumbed to a hemorrhage. A short time ago he met with an accident when he fell through a hatch of the dredge on which he was captain, and it was thought that the injuries sustained at that time were in a way responsible for his death. He leaves a widow and one daughter, Mrs. F. White of Blackpool, England.

GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY

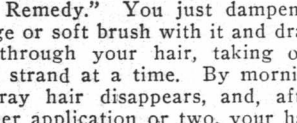

Kept her locks youthful, dark, glossy and thick with common garden Sage and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and trouble some. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Remedy." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger. Agent T. George Bowles.

Interesting Budget of Items for Courier Readers.

(From our own correspondent). A good congregation assembled at the Orange Hall Sunday afternoon to attend both Sunday school and preaching service. A sermon of deep thought and encouragement was delivered by the pastor, Rev. C. H. Emerson, the text being found in Prov. 28:13: "He that covereth his sins shall not prosper, but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy." Special emphasis was placed upon the constraining parts of the verse.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. Matthew Whiting who has been suffering from tonsillitis and quinsy has recovered sufficiently to come home to recuperate.

Mrs. N. Shaver and Miss Irene Shaver were guests at the home of Mrs. Chas. Blathway, Brantford, last Wednesday.

Mrs. Hazzard of Brantford, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Dutton, last Wednesday and Thursday.

The Baptist Sunday School entertainment will be held in the Orange Hall, burday evening, March 5th. The Cantata, "The Pillar of Fire" will be rendered by the choir and talent from the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Woltz were week-end guests of their daughter, Mrs. Theodore Burke, of Haw-well.

Mrs. Dandy accompanied by her daughter, Miss Libby Dawdy of Hamilton, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Norrie and baby Jean of Oakland were week-end guests at the home of his parents.

Mr. Alexander Clark of the B. B. N. A. staff, London and Mr. Mrs. Colcuhon, Brantford, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Hanley on Sunday.

The monthly meeting of the Womans Institute will be held at Tuesday, March 3rd.

Mr. Peter Greenwood of Echo Place, spent the latter part of the week at the home of her father, Mr. Dawdy.

The Teacher Training class met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sumler last Thursday evening and wrote on a test examination on the work already covered. The papers were examined by Rev. Mr. Morrow and the suits were highly creditable, some of the members obtaining a very high mark.

Miss C. Ferguson spent last Saturday in Brantford the guest of Mrs. C. Blathway.

Miss May Whiting spent a few days last week visiting her sister Mrs. Fawcett at Newburg.

Miss Lenton of Hamilton, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dawdy last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Sumler spent Sunday at the home of the latter's parents at Southcot.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Holstock of Buffalo, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hlet this week.

The Sunday services were conducted by our own pastors. Rev. Mr. Morrow preached a very practical sermon on The Three Cheers of Jesus; the first one being spoken to his disciples when he walked upon the sea to their boat, which was storm-tossed and calmed their fears by saying "Be of good cheer; it is I, be not afraid." Upon another occasion he wrought a miracle after which he addressed the benefitted one with these words: "Be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee."

Lastly, He used the word cheer when He said, "Be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." At the conclusion of this discourse Miss Norrie sang "Jesus is all the world to me," very effectively.

Rev. Mr. Cook had charge of the evening service and preached a very inspiring sermon based upon Proverbs 24, 30, 31 and 32.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hartwell of Brantford, and Mrs. Vibert, of Guelph were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dawdy.

Rev. Mr. Morrow was in Toronto Tuesday and Wednesday, attending the Temperance Convention.

The Misses Norrie went to Oakland on Tuesday evening to visit at the home of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Grantham.

League was held on Monday evening. Mr. Fred Sumler acting as leader. A paper on Talents was read by Miss Ferguson and a solo was very sweetly rendered by Miss Norrie.

After the League service the Teacher Training Class held its session. Miss Neelands acting in the capacity of teacher.

BURFORD

(From our own correspondent). Mrs. E. A. Burgis visited friends in Toronto last week.

Mr. E. Sharpe of Hamilton, spent few days with her sister, Mrs. Jas. Harley.

Mr. Henry Park of Norwich, was calling on old friends in the village last week.

Mr. J. W. Porter of Brantford has been the guest of Mrs. S. Jarvis.

Mr. James Hamner and family will move to Iowa next month. Their many friends will regret their departure.

Mr. R. C. Muir and family who have been living in Quebec for a number of years intend moving back to the old home in Burford in the near future.

Mr. Howe's young son had his finger quite badly hurt in the mixer at the bakery last week.

A number of Brantford C. O. F. members attended the local lodge and initiated a number of new members. Mr. Wilson the Organizer from Tilsonburg has been in the village for some time.

Mr. B. Lawrence of Hamilton, is visiting the parental home.

Mr. W. Poole has rented the Balkwell elevator and will deal in coal, grain, etc.

Mrs. Cunningham of Cathart, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Hitchmough.

On Wednesday the 18th inst., a pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Muir when their only daughter Ada Evelyn, was united in marriage to Charles Howey of this village. The ceremony was performed at ten o'clock in the presence of about sixty guests. The bride looked charming in a dress of ivory charmeuse with the usual bridal veil. The bridesmaid was Miss Coulbeck of Brantford, and the groom was supported by Mr. M. Vanhorne of Sanria. The happy couple motored to Brantford, where they took the train to London and points west.

One of our most highly esteemed young farmers passed away on Tuesday the 17th inst in the person of David J. Standing. Mr. Standing has been ill for nearly two years and the end was not unexpected. The funeral took place on Thursday to Fairfield and was largely attended. He leaves a widow and two young children and widowed mother, besides three brothers. The family have the sympathy of the entire community.

Mrs. Morley Messacar is visiting her parents in Brantford.

Mr. John Bonney was quite badly hurt while playing hockey on Saturday. He was accidentally struck on the head, but is doing nicely.

Burford hockey team played a team from Brantford on the local rink last Saturday. A good game was put on resulting in favor of Burford.

A surprise party was held for Miss Farmer on Wednesday night of this week, prior to her departure for her new home in Iowa. She will be much missed by her many friends.

VANESSA

(From our own Correspondent) Miss Nellie Ripley is visiting friends in Brantford for a few days.

A great many changes are taking place around Vanessa. Milton Proper has bought John Dunham's general store and David Arnold has bought Milton Proper's farm. He traded his in the village and Proper intends moving there.

George Lukes was visiting his parents on Saturday.

Isaac Roberts was in Burford one day last week to see his brother-in-law Mr. Wooden, who is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Roswell are visiting friends in Princeton.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Haverall of Newport spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Will Leonard.

Mrs. Hall and her mother Mrs. Doswell of Lyndock spent Friday with Mrs. Nellie Ripley.

Miss Letta Walker of Brantford, spent the week-end with relatives here.

Clark Roberts and his friend Mr. Kitchen, both of St. Thomas, are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Roberts.

HARTFORD

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Thomas were at Toronto this week taking in the motor show.

We have some of the coldest weather this week.

Sitting by the fire was more pleasant than going out to church Sunday so we had small attendances at both services. The morning text was from John 13:7, "What I do thou knowest not now, in the evening the text was Isaiah 27:13, "The trumpet shall sound."

Thursday night of this week will be the ten cent tea by the Ladies Aid, held at the home of Jno. M. Renner.

Next Sunday evening the Rev. H. R. McKay of Toronto will have charge of the service and will speak on Missions.

HOMESEEKERS' EXCURSIONS AND SETTLERS' TRAINS TO THE WEST.

Those taking advantage of above Excursions should bear in mind the many exclusive features offered by the Canadian Pacific Railway in connection with a trip to the West. It is the only all-Canadian route. Only line operating through standard and tourist sleepers to Winnipeg and Vancouver. All equipment is owned and operated by Canadian Pacific Railway, affording the highest form of efficiency.

Home-seekers' fares will be in effect each Tuesday, March 3rd to Oct. 27th inclusive, and round-trip second-class tickets will be sold via Canadian Pacific Railway from Ontario points (Azilda and East) at very low fares—for example from Toronto, also West and North of Toronto, to Winnipeg and return $25. To Edmonton and return $43. Other points in proportion. Fares from points East of Toronto will be slightly higher. Return limit two months.

Home-seekers' trains leave Toronto each Tuesday during March and April. Each Tuesday during March and April the Canadian Pacific will run Settlers' trains to Winnipeg and West and for the accommodation of settlers travelling with live stock and effects, a colonist car will be attached to the settlers' effects train. This car will leave Toronto on the regular train at 10.20 p.m., and on arrival at West Toronto it will be attached to settlers' effects train as mentioned above.

For those not travelling with live stock and effects, special Colonist cars will be attached to regular trains from Toronto running through to Winnipeg without charge. No charge is made for accommodation in Colonist cars. Tourist sleeping cars are also operated on regular train leaving Toronto 10.20 p.m.

Full particulars from any C.P.R. Agent or write M. G. Murphy, District Passenger Agent, Toronto.

DOCTOR H. FISHER GIVEN FOR S...

Allowed a Venetian Snake to Him.

Missed Treating Wound Inflicted by Reptile

By Special Wire to CALCUTTA, British India, Feb. 26.—Dr. Frederick Fox, an Australian dentist, who had devoted his life to the treatment of snake bites, was bitten by a snake, which he was using for experimental purposes.

Dr. Fox fell a victim to the snake while trying to prove the efficacy of his treatment. He had claimed that he had cured the snake just finished treating a patient who had been bitten and had succeeded in saving his life. The snake, which is peculiar to the region, is a very vicious and deadly variety of elapid, with its fangs perched behind the mouth, and its teeth behind the mouth.

The doctor, who had been submitted to a test to demonstrate his cure, smilingly incised his arm, but the first notice, later in the day, of poisoning developed. He made a good recovery, but it was too late and he died of the effects of the snake.

J. H. FISHER IS FIGHTING COMPANY

He Secured Promise for Abatement of Nuisance

OTTAWA, Feb. 26.—which has been created in Ontario towns and cities from the Tilbury fields before Hon. W. B. Nairne of Inland Revenue yesterday. Mr. Fisher of Brant, and chief of North Waterloo, should mean an end to the unpleasant condition which has prevailed since this gas vent about the middle of the town.

Just what action will be taken, was not announced. It is understood that the power that will compel the gas company to purify the gas or cease to use it. This is the assurance received by the two Waterloo members who waited yesterday.

Paris Patient Mr. Fisher presented a case of Paris. The people of Paris have been exceedingly patient, but the condition had not long since ceased to be a virtue. Mr. Weichel acting from personal knowledge, self a consumer of the gas in Paris.

Mr. Weichel, acting through illness, pointed out the middle of December was turned into the gas company but there was no other than a promise that as the company was had been asked by Mr. of Galt, to bring the matter to the attention of the minister to the violation with the request that should pass an order within which the company provide for the cessation of the supply.

Hon. Mr. Nairne, president of the department, best efforts of the department be exerted to secure the nuisance.

In response to the request, appeal for the Dominion Secretary of the Canadian Boy Scouts, who contributed, besides the aid of the late Lord
