GEE MISSION CIRCLE
Holds Annual Meeting and Election of Officers

THE DOINGS AT DOVER

Vestry Meeting of St. Paul's Church Held

Change of address, News items or requests for insertion of names on subscription list, should be sent to Courier Agency, Box 311, Simcoe, or phone 356-3. The Courier is stored at 2 cents a copy, payable strictly in advance, or may be obtained at Jackson's Drug Store at 2 cents a copy.

Simcoe, April 18.—From Our Own Correspondent.—The funeral of the late John Hooker was held at Oakwood cemetery, yesterday afternoon at 2:30. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved family.

Messrs Dr. Tidale and Jas. Lynn, of Lynedoch, motored over to town this afternoon and report the roads fairly good for auto traffic.

Another runaway, down Robinson Street came to grief against the West end of the Armoury.

Word has been received here that Lieutenant James Mitchell Souter, of the former 133rd is missing.

The annual business meeting of the Gee Mission Circle was held in the Church parlors of St. James last evening. The Circle had a successful year and will hand over to the W. M. S. a good balance. The following officers were elected: Hon. President, Mrs. R. Edmonds; President, Miss M. Thompson; 1st Vice-Pres., Miss Gladys Derickson; 2nd Vice-Pres., Miss Lillian Wyckhoff.

Secretary, Miss Irene Marshall; Treasurer, Miss Hattie Yeager; Supt. of Systematic giving, Miss Doris Cousins.

Work committee, Mrs. Woodward, Misses Inez Olds and Gladys Derickson.

There will be another lecture on war time gardening early next week. So much has the gardening idea taken hold of the community, that it has been said that lovers of 50¢ at cards take most chances on a spade bid.

DOINGS AT DOVER.
Port Dover, April 18.—From Our Own Correspondent.—St. Paul's Church Vestry meeting was held on Monday evening. The Rector, Rev. J. H. Johnson, read a most exhaustive and encouraging report bearing on the various phases of church work and finances during the seventh year of his incumbency. In part he said: "One outstanding evidence of the blessing of God upon the congregation is to be found in the annual report which the wardens will present to you in due course, while in the past the liberal response of the parishioners to the financial calls of the church has enabled the wardens of other years to present good reports, that of this year, all things considered, is not only remarkable, but it is not the best ever presented to the vestry. Mr. Hobbs and Mr. Cook are to be sincerely congratulated upon the satisfactory account they are able to give of their faithful stewardship."

The report spoke in the highest praise of the work of the Women's Auxiliary which has contributed to missions alone during the past seven years $701.50 and of the Women's Guild "that quietly working but persistently faithful body" who have expended to the permanent improvement of the church property during the same period $2,000.00. The A. V. P. A. merged later into the Willing Workers as the years progressed, was not overlooked in the report nor their financial aid neglected mention.

The Sunday school has since 1914 been self-supporting. The choir has evidenced and maintained renewed vigor and has added much to the sincerity and solemnity of church services.

The increased devotions kept pace through the years with increased giving. Though the church population has been practically constant, the average attendance at church has for the past five years been 74, 76, 78, 76, 86. The total enrolment in Sunday school, 94, 91, 92, 101, 111, 111.

Largest number of communicants on any one day, 51, 56, 58, 74, 99. During these years, there were 44 private celebrations of Holy communion; 41 Baptisms, 5 Confirmations, 42 members added to church of whom 13 were adults.

The report closes with a recapitulation of extensive addition of church property enlargement of accommodation. The purchase of a rectory, extensive external renewal and repairs, and interior decoration and installation of appointments, all of which "speak volumes for the loyal and loving devotion of the people of this parish to the cause of Christ and the church, and are good and sufficient reasons for all to thank God and take courage." The report will be printed in full and circulated to the members with the Wardens' report.

Lay delegates to Synod, Messrs. Tibbetts and Hobbs. Substitutes, Dr. Cook, W. M. Buck.

Votes of thanks were passed for the work of Choir, Women's Guild, Willing Workers, and Wardens, and votes of appreciation for the Rector, organist, and work of Women's Auxiliary.

Messrs. Tibbetts and Buck were appointed auditors. Marine News.

Capt. J. MacAulay bought the fishing tug Archie W. from Geo. Van Order, of Port Burwell and brought the vessel into port a few days ago. She is now at work, manned by the "Webb's" crew and the latter is lying at the dock as an emergency vessel. The latest addition to the city's shipping is not quite so large as the City of Dover.

The City of Dover cleared for Erie, Pa., yesterday morning and is expected back this afternoon. Recent catches have been somewhat lighter, but the price of fish is easing off somewhat.

Capt. Robinson was not aboard the "Webb's" yesterday. The patrol has moved down the slip and has taken stacks and interior of the boiler rooms. The first officer is looking for a cook and steward and four or five seamen, and other members of the crew.

Another car load of fish boxes, K. D. from Midland, was unloaded yesterday at the fish house siding.

W. M. Buck and family returned from Hamilton on Saturday night, and are already getting things in order at the Beach.

W. S. McCall, and W. C. McCall, and E. Austin, of Simcoe, were callers in town yesterday.

Dr. Cook and Rev. Henry Brand are the last victims of the auto microbe, and there are still others with symptoms of the ailment.

PARLIAMENT IS TO REOPEN THIS WEEK

House of Commons Reassembles on Thursday Next

Ottawa, April 18.—An advance guard of members of Parliament has already arrived here in anticipation of the reassembling of the House of Commons on Thursday after recess begun on February 7th in order to permit of the attendance of the Prime Minister at the Imperial War Conference. Among those who have come to the capital are members of the Imperial army who desire to prepare a programme for the celebration of the semi-centennial of the Canadian Confederation. These will hold their preliminary meeting today. The Senate will reassemble on Tuesday next, and will likely be adjourned again until such time as there is business from the Lower House for their attention.

Sir Robert Borden and his colleagues, Hon. Robert Rogers and Hon. J. D. Hazen, are not expected to arrive in Canada for several weeks after the re-opening of Parliament. Until the Prime Minister's return the most important items of the session's program will hardly be taken up. However, there will be business of importance to be done by the members. Hon. Dr. Roche's resolution setting forth the Government's plan for free grants of land and loans of money for veterans of the war will be taken up.

A meeting of a special committee of the city council, consisting of Ald. J. S. Dowling, chairman of the Finance Committee, Ald. John English, Chairman of the Board of Works, and Ald. John Kelly, was held in the City Hall last night to inquire into the administration of the Works Department of the city. For some time past a feeling has existed this department of the city was not operated as well as might be expected, some friction having existed between the two divisions, and it had been felt that the various matters under the jurisdiction of the department could have been conducted with more economy and efficiency. It was decided last night that the heads of the various departments under the control of the Board of Works, should be requested to be on hand at the City Hall on Friday night, as well as the employees themselves, when suggestions will be made, and an endeavour made to solve the difficulty. When interviewed to-day by a Courier reporter, Ald. M. M. McBride, of the Board of Works, stated that in his opinion the matter was not a very serious one, and that he believed that the misunderstanding would be cleared up with little trouble.

Accused of calling the President of the United States "a yellow English dog," and expressing the wish that he be assassinated, besides giving expression to various lurid pro-German epithets, John Wehnau, of Brooklyn, is held for trial in $10,000 bail. SMITH FISH STORY DENIED

Officers of Destroyer Insist That They Sighted Sub. TORPEDO WAS FIRED But Missed the Vessel; Sub. Disappeared

Boston, April 18.—The war was brought to the shores of this country yesterday when the United States destroyer Smith reported by radio that an enemy submarine had tried unsuccessfully to torpedo her 100 miles south of New York at 3:50 yesterday morning. Additional reports were received from the destroyer last night, and were forwarded to Washington. Nothing of an official nature regarding the additional reports was made public here. A suggestion in shipping circles that the lookout on the Smith had perhaps mistaken a large fish for a torpedo in the uncertain light of the early morning met with the reply that the Smith's officers "stood by their original statement."

The Navy Department's version of the original statement was: "Reported from Fire Island Lightship to the naval stations at Boston and New York at 3:30 on the 17th an enemy submarine was sighted by the U.S.S. Smith, running apparently submerged. Submarine fired a torpedo at the U.S.S. Smith, which missed her by thirty yards. The wake of the torpedo was plainly seen crossing the bow. Submarine disappeared."

Whether the swift destroyer dashed for the spot where the U-boat was thought to be lurking was not made known by officers who had seen the Smith's report of the incident. Neither could it be learned here whether there was a chance for the Smith's quick-firers to come into action. It was learned, however, that another destroyer passed near the position mentioned in the Smith's report without sighting anything unusual.

Ten survivors of the schooner M. D. Cressy, wrecked in mid-ocean, have been landed at New York. The mate and two seamen were washed overboard and the cook died of exposure in the lifeboat in which the survivors, including Mrs. H. B. Nelson, wife of the captain, were aloft for thirty-three hours. They were rescued by a British steamer.

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK, CROSS, FEVERISH

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative"; they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 30-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

THE SITUATION.

The French still continue their brilliant assaults upon the foe and have taken many more trenches and villages. The total number of prisoners thus far recorded is 13,500, and the great offensive is still extending between Soissons and Rheims and also to the Champagne region.

Bad weather has interfered with the British advance, but progress has been made in the Lens sector and also between St. Quentin and Cambrai. Three million men are now stated to be engaged in the Western front struggle and Bonar Law stated in the British House that the success of the Allies thus far had been beyond all expectations. It is said Lens can be taken at any time but that Haig has other plans.

A well known German paper "The Frankfurter Zeitung," says that the people and the Imperial Government desire peace, but will not permit outside interference. Well the interference is going to continue until the Hohenzollern outfit are willing to talk peace on the Allied basis.

At Westminster yesterday a bill was passed further extending the life of Parliament. The Nationalists objected on the ground that no solution had yet been announced of the Irish question, but there was an overwhelming majority for the measure of 286 to 52.

A BIG SWALLOW ACT

The Expositor absolutely refuses to attempt to square its present attitude that a war election would not be unseemly, with what it said in 1915, when it was rumored that the Dominion Government might go to the people.

Like the Globe of the same period it viewed the precipitation of such a struggle as "a crime" and during the course of a leading editorial published on Friday, March 12th, 1915, under the caption "Let the Election Wait," the organ said among other things:

"There is no possible justification for bringing on a general election until the present parliament has run its full course, and if the constitutional difficulty can be overcome, there should be NO ELECTION UNTIL THE WAR IS OVER, AND THE MEMBERS OF THE DIFFERENT CANADIAN CONTINGENTS ARE HOME and in a position to exercise the franchise."

In Great Britain the political truce has been honorably observed by both political parties. The Liberal Government which is in control over the war measures of the Empire could undoubtedly overwhelm its opponents and secure a snap verdict by appealing to the electors at this time for an endorsement of its war policy. It contemplates nothing of the kind, because it knows that no such endorsement is necessary.

The Borden Government also needs no endorsement for what it has done, because the Liberals have supported it in every war measure it has taken. To make the war a pretext for an appeal would mean the surrender of Sir Robert Borden to the men whose dirty tactics brought upon the country the disgrace of the Macdonald election and if he values his present standing or future reputation the Premier cannot afford to become their instrument and tool.

Well the "constitutional difficulty" was overcome and now the Expositor is stultifying itself by helping to urge the party wire pullers to force a political struggle and that too, during the very crisis of hostilities.

The organ talked of "men of dirty tactics" whom it alleged to be trying to force Premier Borden to an appeal. What about the "men of dirty tactics" for whom it is now holding up both hands?

SOME VIEWS REGARDING FREE WHEAT.

Comments of various newspapers with regard to the latest fiscal change vary as a matter of course. Liberal papers make the taunt that the wisdom of Reciprocity has been admitted, ignoring the fact that under the proposal in question Canada would have merged control of her own tariff, something which she still possesses in its entirety. Here are some extracts from various newspapers on the subject.

Mail Empire.—Now that the United States has embraced the same cause, the two neighbors can accommodate their war arrangements to a common plan. Ocean tonnage on the Atlantic must be used in the most economical manner if it is to suffice for the transportation of supplies to Britain and other Entente Powers. North America's farm lands are a great granary for the nations that are arrayed against Germany.

Toronto News.—The Daily News has no thought that this reversal of policy will benefit the Western Canadian wheat growers to any such extent as they expect. At times Canadian prices have ruled below American, and at other times they have ruled much above. From henceforth they will be on a level. In years when the United States has a great surplus the Canadian market may suffer, and vice versa. Canadian No. 1 Hard may lose its identity in the Liverpool market, and so cease to advertise Canada. The flour mills of Minneapolis and St. Paul may draw off wheat that has heretofore gone to build up the Canadian milling industry. The by-products may go to feed American instead of Canadian live stock, and so to enrich American instead of Canadian land. American railways may benefit at the expense of Canadian railways. But all these objections have to stand aside in face of the long continued insistence of the Western farmers for a free market. They must know what will suit them and for years they have not wavered in their demand. Except for the highest national considerations no great section of the community can forever be denied what it most persistently demands. If the free wheat agitation had been ephemeral it could have been ignored. It only grew with the years, and in order to avoid a division of the Dominion into two hostile territories it was the policy of wisdom to make the concession.

Hamilton Herald, (Independent):—"As a measure of justice to the western farmer, and in a less degree to the farmers of the east, reciprocity in wheat and its products can easily be defended. But we must not mistake about it; the Canadian consumer will have to pay for this measure of relief to the farmers. Already as a direct result of the order-in-council the price of wheat has jumped up twelve cents. This increase will be speedily followed by an increase in the price of flour, and we shall have to pay more for bread. Even this morning the bakers were predicting that it will soon be necessary to put bread up to 20 cents for the three-pound loaf. Every time the housewife buys a batch of bread-tickets at the enhanced price she will have the satisfaction of knowing that she is contributing to the prosperity of the Canadian grain-growers."

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

London had its first meatless day yesterday and the Provinces follow suit to-day. As for the meal which the Huns were going to make of the British forces, the same has been indefinitely postponed.

An envoy of the Turkish Sultan has presented the Kaiser with a sword of honor. No known means exist for the forging of one which would do justice to his honor.

Schwab the U.S. steel magnate states that he was offered $100,000,000 by a German emissary to cease making munitions for the Allies. That's a mere flea bite to what the Huns would give if they could only go back to the days before they decided to boss the world.

In the Fatherland General Hunger is daily adding to his forces against Prussianism.

The official report of the devastation by the Germans in France fully bears out previous statements. The acts were manifestly not isolated incidents of irresponsible soldiers but part and parcel of a concerted and authorized plan of deviltry. No words can adequately sum up these parlous of the world.

TEETHING TIME A TIME OF WORRY

When baby is teething is a time of worry to most mothers. Baby's little gums become swollen and tender; he becomes cross; does not sleep well; is greatly troubled with constipation; colic or diarrhoea and sometimes even convulsions seize him. During this period nothing can equal Baby's Own Tablets. They regulate the bowels and stomach and make the teething so easy that the mother scarcely realizes baby is getting his teeth. Concerning the Tablets Mrs. Arthur Archibald, New Town, N. S., writes: "I used Baby's Own Tablets when baby was getting his teeth and I found them an excellent medicine." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

AT HALF MAST The flags on the Massey-Harris and Verity Plow Company buildings in the city were at half mast yesterday, in honor of the late Sir Lyman Melvin Jones.

For passing a bottle in a Peterboro hotel a Douro man was fined $200 and $8.75 costs. The police caught him red-handed.

Laid at Rest

Sir Lyman Jones By Corrier Leased Wire. Toronto, April 18.—The remains of Sir Lyman Melvin Jones were interred in Mount Pleasant cemetery this afternoon following services New St. Andrew's church, King St., which were preceded by a service for the family at the house. The honorary pallbearers were Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Sir John Gibson, J. W. Flavelle, Sir William Mulock, Sir Mortimer Clark, Sir Edmund Walker, Senator Edwards, Judge Riddell, Col. Massey, Mr. Chester Massey and J. N. Shenstone. The Massey-Harris plant here was closed down for the afternoon and branches of the works everywhere were closed for ten minutes as a mark of respect.

R. Junck The funeral took place of Robert Junck, from the residence of his sister, Mrs. A. Holly, 71 Dundas street. The remains were shipped on the 9 o'clock train to Hespler for interment. The service was conducted at the house last night by the Rev. Mr. Smyth of Sydenham St. Methodist church. The pallbearers were members of the Masonic order.

POLICE COURT

As a consequence of the accident that occurred on Sunday morning on Dalhousie Street, in which a young lady narrowly escaped serious injury, Reg. Mott, was charged in the police court to-day with a breach of the traffic by-law, the specific complaint against him being that he had been driving at an immoderate rate of speed. He agreed to pay the costs of the damage to the bicycle, amounting to $3.50, and the witness fees, $2.25, and the charge was dismissed. Edmond F. Burns was charged with passing a forged check for $2 on Mr. W. D. Coghlin, a Market street merchant. As it was his first offense, Burns was allowed to go on suspended sentence, on making restitution, and paying the costs of the action, amounting to $7.85.

Little Elsie Gingle, nearly three years of age, was drowned in the race-way which crosses Thorold road at St. Catharines.

At Fergus on Monday last the colors of the 153rd Wellington Battalion were placed in St. Andrew's church, following a banquet at which the officers and men of the Fergus platoon, the resident clergy and prominent citizens were present. A young girl from the home in Peterboro, was found wandering along the tracks in that town and Wated, whose special office is to inquire into the possibilities of the bacon industry was held yesterday afternoon at the Carls-Ritz Hotel, Toronto. Facts were presented in regard to the campaign for an improved supply of and better market for hogs by Mr. H. S. Arkell, Assistant Live Stock Commissioner Professor G. E. Day, who has accepted the responsibility of chief director of the movement, and other representatives of the live stock industry. Mr. J. E. Brethour, of Burford, said with regard to the packers, that all of the best of them are in favor of the idea of a graded high-class curbing of hogs for their manufacture at their plants, and are willing to see the farmers get right treatment as far as payment in accordance with quality is concerned.

215TH PREPARING FOR DEPARTURE No Further Word as to Date of Leaving Received OTHER NEWS OF 215TH Several Transfers to Flying Corps Are Made The members of the 215th are still awaiting further word regarding their departure for overseas, but as yet, nothing further has been heard from headquarters in connection. The Battalion Quartermaster, Captain Ferguson is busily engaged in packing up the effects of the unit that are to be transported overseas, and practically everything is being prepared for departure at a moment's notice. Route marches, physical training and close order drill are being continued, and the men are making use of the market square for games, finding it adaptable for football in particular. The members of the C. E. F. are not allowed to cross over into the United States in uniform, even though our neighbor to the south has entered the conflict in support of the allies. Battalion Sergeant Major V. Salvaneau has been discharged from the 215th to enable him to accept an appointment with the Royal Flying Corps, and this morning Lt.-Col. H. E. Snider wrote to the A. G. recommending the discharge of Lieuts. Frank Wood and William Moyle, that they also might be taken on the strength of the Royal Flying Corps.

NOTHING MORE TOWARD FLOOD PREVENTION Government Has Already Apportioned Sum For Investigation MAYOR SENDS LETTER To City Engineer of Kitchener on Subject The following letter has been sent by his Worship Mayor Bowly:—

Dear Sir:—I am in receipt of yours of the 5th inst. in reference to flood prevention on the Grand River, and am advised by Sir W. H. Hearst, that an apportionment of some $200,000 was set aside for the purpose of further investigating flood prevention on the Grand river, and with what had been done, he was of the opinion that this would meet the requirements for sufficient investigation for the location of levees and form a complete system by which to proceed with the work when deemed advisable, but from the present state of the labor market, that there would be little hope of accomplishing very much until the war is over and the labor market ceased to have the congestion that now exists. Under the circumstances, there is nothing further to be done in the premises.

I have the honor to be, Yours truly, J. W. BOWLEY, Mayor.

Hot Water for Sick Headaches Tells why everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it before breakfast. Headache of any kind, is caused by auto-intoxication—which means self-poisoning. Liver and bowel poisons called toxins, sucked into the blood, through the lymph ducts, excite the heart which pumps the blood so fast that it congests in the smaller arteries and veins of the head producing violent, throbbing pain and distress, called headache. You become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish and miserable, you meals sour and almost nauseate you. Then you resort to acetanilide, aspirin or the bromides which temporarily relieve but do not rid the blood of these irritating toxins.

A glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, drunk before breakfast for awhile, will not only wash these poisons from your system and cure you of headache but will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary canal. Ask your pharmacist for a quarter pound of limestone phosphate. It is inexpensive, harmless as sugar, and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant.

If you aren't feeling your best, if tongue is coated or you wake up with bad taste, foul breath or have colds, indigestion, biliousness, constipation or sour, acid stomach, begin your system of hot water cure to rid your system of toxins and poisons. Results are quick and it is claimed that those who continue to flush out the stomach, liver and bowels every morning never have a headache or know a miserable moment.

THE GRAND Two large audiences were in attendance at the afternoon and evening performance of the old time farce "Uncle Tom's Cabin" at the Grand Opera House yesterday, all being delighted with a first class rendition of Harriet Beecher Stowe's masterpiece, to which the plot of the play adhered most faithfully. The Safeguard

THAT the strong arm of protection is ever about those we love, is a beautiful—a comforting—an inspiring thought. Every man—if he is a man—has an ambition to shield his family from the consequences of what may happen to him. He knows it is a duty he owes to those dependent upon him.

It would be easy by means of an Imperial Monthly Income Policy for you to build about your loved ones a strong and rugged safeguard—a safeguard which, after you are gone, will remain a permanent, tangible evidence of your affection.

PERILS OF WAR ALL

Motorists and Far From Fr Risks in the R Which Canno

Canadian Headquarters, Mar. "The closest call I ever had," the young Manitoba engineer does his part to win the war by starting a motor car, "way up in salient." One day near Ypres, driving a General to the front, a 5.9 shell passed through the corner one side to the other, hit the front and rear seats. It is in the road after smashing of the car doors, and the explosion followed. When the front of the car was destroyed one of the wheels hurt nobody. When the shell passed through the car we were going and I reckon that either the General or I escaped death by the narrowest part of a second."

Dramatic stories such as the young motorist, are heard many a mess at the front, and men face death daily in many forms. They are a feature of many of the letters sent from the more dramatic of the way into print. The inevitable public mind of the idea that it consists chiefly of similar incidents in which men risk their lives for a greater material reward, "world wonders."

The truth is so far removed from this conception that it is impossible to be impressed on people's minds. There are tens of thousands of men at the front doing their work within range of the enemy's artillery and contributing in a most important way to the winning of the war who have never had a war in their hands and have never seen a German other than the prisoner passing through to the rear.

Even the artillery men who hold the bigger guns and to whose swift and terrible death may at any moment, from a sudden miles away over a ridge on the line, seldom see the enemy.

The infantry who hold the trenches, who "go over" when a battle is made, and who follow to the modern battlefield to become more and more an wherein certain highly complicated engineering, industrial and transportation operations are carried out under abnormal conditions of fighting men who are well made as those of the Allies and Germans on the Western front, they must go to the combat with the greater material resources, guns, shells, lorries, available weapons, horses, food for man and—and the engineering and administrative skill to make full use of them.

We could not win the war with the fine type of fighting men in the trenches. To them all honor is due. They pay most of the price of victory. But we could not win the war with them alone. Behind them must be created and maintained great business organization far numerous in personnel than fighting units.

Some one has said that the Allies and Belgium would build a railway as great as the Canadian Pacific. A statement of possible verification, but it will be true. The work done of such a temporary nature so much of it has been destroyed that it is only by seeing it in progress from day to day any one can estimate its volume.

Without looking into statistics which are regarded by all good soldiers with marked aversion, I am reasonably certain that on a railway narrow front here there are as many men and vehicles engaged in carrying ammunition and food to the front from railroad as would do motor bus and taxi work of an

Canadian Headquarters, March 19. "The closest call I ever had," said the young Manitoba engineer who does his part to win the war by operating a motor car, "was up in the trenches. One day near Ypres I was driving a General to the front when a shell passed through the car from one side to the other between the front and rear seats. It landed in the road after smashing one of the rear doors, and the explosion that followed blew the front of the car and destroyed one of the wheels, but hurt nobody. When the shell passed through the car we were going fast and I reckon that either the General or I escaped death by less than the length of a second."

Dramatic stories such as that of the young motorist, are heard at many a mess at the front, where death daily in manifold guises. They are a feature also of many of the letters sent from this side and more readily do they find their way into print. The inevitable result has been the creation in the public mind of the idea that the war consists chiefly of similar incidents in which men risk their lives in spectacular fashion while "all the world wonders."

The truth is so far removed from this conception that it is well it should be impressed on people at home. There are tens of thousands of men at the front doing their daily work within range of the enemy's artillery and contributing in an important way to the winning of the war who have never had a weapon in their hands and have never seen a German other than the prisoners passing through to the rear.

Even the artillery men who handle the bigger guns and to whom a swift and terrible death may come at any moment, from some point miles away over a ridge on the skyline, seldom see the enemy.

The infantry who hold the trenches, who "go over," when a raid is made, and who follow up the ground is to be occupied, do come into actual physical contact with the enemy like the soldiers of former wars, but even among the infantry the number of men who have had hand to hand encounters with their foes is relatively small.

Instead of being a place for the display of personal strength and courage, the modern battlefield tends to become more and more an area wherein certain highly complicated engineering, industrial and transportation operations are carried on under abnormal conditions. Given fighting men who are well matched as those of the Allies and Germany are on the Western front, the victory must go to the combatant with the greater material resources—guns, shells, lorries, available railways, horses, food for man and beast—and the engineering and administrative skill to make full use of them.

We could not win the war without the type of fighting men in the trenches. To them all honor is due. They pay most of the price of victory. But we could not win the war with them alone. Behind them there must be created and maintained a great business organization far more numerous in personnel than the fighting units.

Some one has said that the Labor expended by the Canadians alone in France and Belgium would have built a railway as great as the Canadian Pacific. The statement is impossible of verification, but it may well be true. The work done has been of such a temporary nature and so much of it has been destructive that it is only by seeing it in progress from day to day any one can estimate its volume.

Without looking into statistics which are regarded by all good citizens with marked aversion, I am reasonably certain that on a relatively narrow front here there are as many men and vehicles engaged in carrying ammunition and food to the front from railroad as would do the motor bus and taxi work of any city

PHILLIES PROTEST GAME AT BOSTON

Object to Ruling of Umpire Declaring Lavender Out. GIANTS ARE WINNING Swamped Dodgers by Score of 8-3 Yesterday. REDS BEAT PIRATES

By Staging Ninth Inning Rally

Boston, April 18.—The Philadelphia Nationals have protested Boston's twelve-innings victory today. Manager Patrick Moran announced last night. A decision by Umpire Lavender, of the Philadelphia, out for running off the line between second and third bases in the third inning, when Philadelphia scored five runs, was the basis of the complaint.

Lavender had started to cross the diamond from second, apparently believing he had been called out on a play at that base, but turned and reached third base before the ball was thrown to that position.

Boston won from Philadelphia again yesterday in the first extra inning game of the season when Pitcher Mayer gave Chappelle, a pinch hitter, a base on balls with the bases full in the twelfth inning.

The Phillies Protested Bransfield's Decision Yesterday.

Smith counted with the run which made the final score 8 to 3. Score: R.H.E. Phila. . . . 005000000000—5 10 4 Boston . . . 200101010001—6 11 2 Batteries—Chum, Nehf, Rudolph and Gowdy; Lavender, Mayer and Kilmer.

Felt Hat Prices Due For a Jump

It may be well for the prudent men, when straw hat time arrives, to wrap up the hats they're now wearing and save them for next winter, for the prices of felt headgear are soaring, says the New York Sun. According to Orange, N.J., manufacturers, ordinary felt hats will cost from 35 to 50 per cent. more in the fall than they do now and really good ones 100 per cent. more.

Before the war, Belgium prepared most of the fur used in American felt, and Russia and Australia, shipping by way of England and France, most of the original pelts. The war and limiting of cargo space has cut off these sources. Good fur, when obtainable at all, costs 300 per cent. more than it did before the war.

Leather for hatbands is also away up and wages and transportation charges have risen. Ribbon bands and bows, are still obtainable at the old rates, but nothing else that goes into a hat except the wearer's head.

Two men were injured when the machine operated in a wood-making plant in Moncton caught in some way and threw the wooden drum into many pieces. Mr. Roy Morton, C.P.R., telegraph operator of Moncton, is dead. He was the largest man in the C.P.R. service and weighed about 400 pounds.

JOHNSON BEATEN BY YANK ROOKIE

New York Won Game, Although Securing Only Two Hits

AMERICAN RESULTS

Chicago Took the Third Straight Game From the Tigers

New York, April 18.—New York won from Washington in a game of few hits here yesterday. Russell, a Yankee youngster, defeating Walter Johnson by a score of two to one. Johnson permitted only two hits, but both were used by New York in scoring. Pipp's triple and Baker's sacrifice fly scored the winning run. R.H.E. Washington . . . 00000001—1 4 2 New York . . . 01000010x—2 2 0 Batteries—Johnson and Almsmith; Russell and Nunamaker.

At Philadelphia—Errors were responsible for all of the runs scored in the game here yesterday, which was won by Boston 3 to 1. Not a hit was made off Bush until after chances had been offered to retire the side in the sixth inning. The score: R.H.E. Boston . . . 01000200—3 5 3 Philadelphia . . . 10000000—1 8 5 Batteries—Shore and Cady; Bush and Meyers.

At St. Louis—Allan Sotheron, a recruit, held Cleveland to one hit yesterday and St. Louis shut them out 4 to 0. Only 29 men faced Sotheron and but two reached second. Chapman in the first when Sotheron gave two passes, and Allison in the ninth when after reaching first on Lavan's error, stole second. The score: R.H.E. Cleveland . . . 00000000—0 1 2 St. Louis . . . 0200010x—4 6 2 Batteries—Bagby and O'Neill; Sotheron and Hale.

At Detroit—Chicago made it three straight yesterday, defeating Detroit 4 to 2. Ehme pitched well until the eighth inning when two triples helped in scoring two runs and gave Chicago the lead. Jackson's home run to deep centre was the batting feature. Reckless base running in the closing inning contributed to Detroit's defeat. The score: R.H.E. Chicago . . . 000001021—7 0 0 Detroit . . . 000010100—2 8 0 Batteries—Danforth, Russell, and Schalk; Ehme and Spencer.

DUAL ENTENTE AT BALTIMORE

International League Race Opened With Great Contest

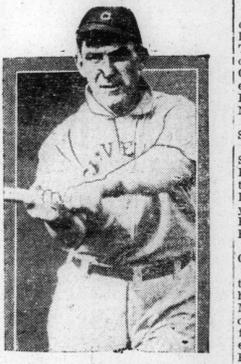

TORONTO LOST GAME

Orioles Defeating the Leafs By 3 to 2

WILLIAMS HIT HOMER

Results of Other International League Games

Baltimore, April 17.—Although the crowd was not as large as was expected the opening of the International League season here yesterday was all that could be desired from every other angle, for the Orioles after a desperate battle with the Toronto Maple Leafs, drove over the deciding run in the thirteenth session, the score being 3 to 2.

MANAGER NAPOLEON LAJOIE Who has made a brave start in an executive capacity as director of the International League team for Toronto.

the plate, which nipped Dan Tipple, the former Oriole in that thrilling last period and completed a double killing. It was a grand fight from the start and even the spectators were generous. They cheered for everything and they had cause for a large crowd. The Royals made nine errors, playing miserably behind Pitcher Duffy. Eays twirled a ball for the winners. The score: Montreal . . . 100 002 000—3 9 Providence . . . 301 300 10x—3 10 3 Batteries—Duffy and Madden; Eays and Gaston.

And it was noticed that "Lena" Blackburne, although playing beneath Canadian colors, wore an American flag across his breast. Men who once wore the orange and black of Baltimore did much to keep Toronto in the game, for in addition to twirling in splendid fashion, Tipple nearly put over a victory when he started trouble in the thirteenth. Then, too, the Birds might have won sooner had it not been for a pretty play by Jimmy Smith, in the tenth inning. Even Benny Meyer did his best to spill the beans but Jack Warhop and his supporting company overcame all the obstacles.

So, while Bues, Barber and Warhop became heroes, none had much on Alva Williams, the new first sacker, who did his best to put the contest on ice by hitting the pellet over the left field fence. After all, everyone played well and none disappointed the patrons save Lajoie, who has accomplished more than all others combined. It was Larry's boot which paved the way for the deciding tally of the contest, but he is the manager and he will have no one to quarrel with him, for the season is long and while the great Frenchman went hitless, he may live to clout some other day. The score: Baltimore . . . 0010010000001—3 Toronto . . . 1000001000000—2 Summary—Two-base hits—Graham, Shannon, Barber, Bentley, Home run—Williams. Sacrifice hits—Jacobson, Blackburne, Lajoie. Stolen base—Meyer. Double plays—Smith to Graham; Barber to McAvoy. First base on errors—Toronto 2, Baltimore 2. Base on balls—Off Tipple 4, off Warhop 6. Batters hit—By Warhop, Lajoie and Allen; by Tipple, Shannon, Struck, out—Tipple 4, by Warhop 6. Left on bases—Toronto 17, Baltimore 9. Time—2:15. Umpires—Carpenter and McBride.

Other Games

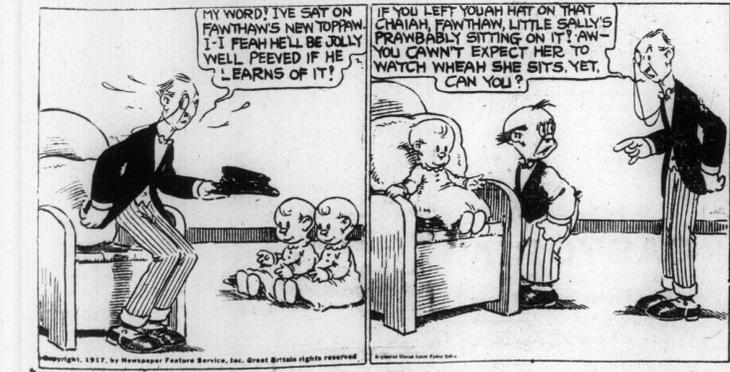

At Newark—Newark won the opening game in the International League season from Buffalo, 2 to 1. The Mayors of both cities saw the contest. Eldred's double, scoring Callahan, won the game in the seventh inning. The score: Buffalo . . . 000 000 100—1 4 1 Newark . . . 100 000 10x—2 4 1 Batteries—Gaw and Onalow; Smallwood and Egan. Long single by Schepner in the tenth inning enabled Rochester to win from Richmond, 4 to 3, in the opening game of the International League season here yesterday afternoon. The score: Richmond . . . 000 010 110 0—3 10 4 Rochester . . . 100 010 010 1—7 4 1 Batteries—Lea and R. Aids; Causey and Wendel.

A CHALLENGE

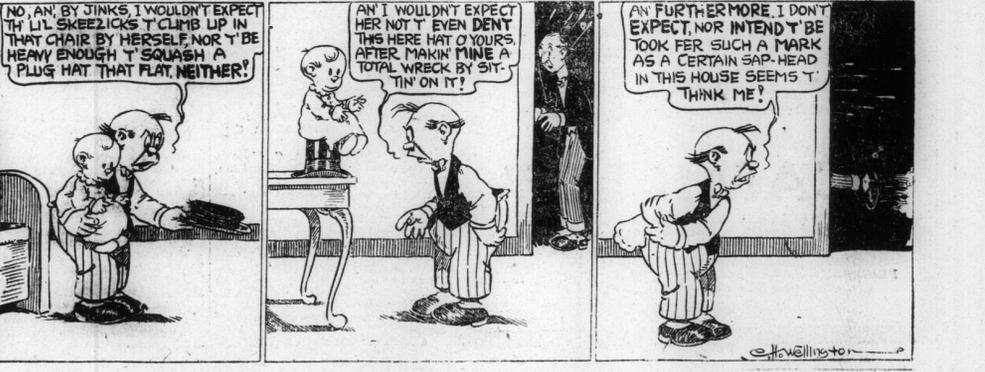

The Courier bowling team hereby challenge the Expositor bowlers to a series of three games or series of games to be played Saturday afternoon, April 21st, at the city bowling alley. BE SPORTS.

Twenty-six years ago Mrs. Susan Passett Woodward and Horace Ware, who resided near Watertown, N. Y., disappeared. Ware was suspected of having murdered the woman, but was never located. Yesterday the skeleton of Mrs. Woodward, identified by the teeth, was found on Ware's farm.

SIDELIGHTS ON THE STAGE AND SCREEN

"MILLION DOLLAR DOLL"

The plot of "The Million Dollar Doll" which will be presented at the Grand Opera House, matinee and night, Saturday, April 21, is a novel one and well suited to musical comedy. The guardian of a very beautiful young lady has invested her money in a wonderful smoke consumer, which does not prove a great success and they are about to lose all their money when they hit upon the plan of taking the young lady to the Panama Exposition and have her compete for a ten thousand dollar prize which is to be awarded to the most beautiful "Doll" in the world. They go to California by way of the Panama Canal, which gives opportunity for the great boat scene, which has been pronounced as the most elaborate ship scene ever offered the public. The last act of the play takes place on the "Joy Zone," at the exposition where Dolly wins the prize and is awarded the ten thousand dollars. One of the big features is the illuminated runway over the heads of the audience.

"FORTUNES OF FIF"

There is a new leading gentleman in Miss Clark's picture, "The Fortunes of Fif"—a leading man whom you have never seen—and he runs Miss Clark a close second for stellar honors. His name is Mr. Toto. We advise you to watch closely for this little gentleman.
One thing that will cause you to watch when you come to see this picture at the Grand Opera House the last half of this week, is the air of absolute realism which the entire picture holds. To gather together roomful after roomful of furniture from the time of Napoleon was no easy task, and yet every stick shown in "The Fortunes of Fif" is so realistic and true to life that it takes you back over 100 years in a few minutes.
Watch for the stage coach. When you see it, imagine yourself riding around in such a wobbly conveyance. We think you would rather have an automobile.

MYRNA SHARLOW

"Theoretically it would seem that to make any comparison between Miss Sharlow's 'Mimi,' and that of Mine. Melba would be inherently absurd. Practically such a comparison is not so preposterous after all. The heroine of Puccini's composition is a favorite one in the older artist's repertory, but it is far from being one of her most convincing roles. It is well suited, however, to Miss Sharlow's particular style. The latter singer too, possesses the voice and figure which lend illusion to the part.

Miss Sharlow appeared in Chicago on Christmas Day, 1914, with the Century Opera Co. and Pavlowa, as Gretel in "Hansel and Gretel," learning the part in five days with great success.
Ex-President Taft's first appearance at a theatre after leaving the White House was in New Haven at the Century Opera Company's production in which Miss Sharlow played a leading role. He expressed delight.
On January 20, 1916, Miss Sharlow appeared as the soloist with the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra in Orchestra Hall, Chicago. Miss Sharlow, like Alice Nielsen, is an American prima donna. She will be heard at the Grand Opera House, Thursday, April 19th.

MAY ROBSON

Miss May Robson has arrived at the determination to abandon, after this season, the unsightly bill boards as an advertising medium for her plays. Hereafter she will depend entirely upon the newspaper columns for the purpose of informing the public regarding the attraction presented by her.
This drastic innovation was determined upon by Miss Robson only after a thorough investigation into all phases of the matter. The decision to eliminate the billboards is said to be the result of her experience during the past two seasons.

"Billboards," said Miss Robson, "are excellent mediums for advertising laundry soaps and other articles for house hold use which, by their nature demand continual and persistent projection into the public eye, but it is ridiculous to imagine that a man or woman who has sense enough to be able to make enough money to buy a seat in a theatre will look to a poster for information about the stage. Imagine a man at dinner saying to his wife, 'Supposing we go to the theatre to-night,' and the wife replying, 'I would like to very much. Put on your hat and overcoat and run up to the corner and see what shows are mentioned on the fences.' It is absurd. If a man wants to go to the theatre he picks up his newspaper, sees what is in town, and selects the entertainment he wishes to attend. That's all there is to it. All the world reads a newspaper, and only a stroller occasionally glances at a billboard."
Miss Robson will be seen in her new play, "The Making Over of Mrs. Matt," at the Grand Opera House Monday, April 23rd.

"LOST AND FOUND" DEPARTMENT WORK

Every Big Railway Terminal Has Its Well Organized System

ARTICLES RESTORED

Estimated at Ninety-Five Per Cent. of All Found

For a reason wholly selfish in itself, that of competition, the modern railroad exercises more and more in these days toward the public the wholly unselfish attitude of benevolence. In no branch of the railroad service is this more conspicuously displayed than in the lost and found department in every big terminal.

The men in charge of the Pennsylvania and New York Central departments established to repair the effects of the public's carelessness are under the impression that every parcel of every kind is lost or leaves something on a train at least once in a lifetime, and perhaps several times. And the surprising thing is that so few lost articles remain unreturned to their owners.

Take, for instance, the record of the Grand Central "lost and found" department in New York during the year 1916. About 20,000 bundles and articles were handled during the year. Fully 95 per cent. of these have been reclaimed and restored to their rightful owners. It is estimated that about 99 out of every 100 articles reported lost at this office are eventually found.

At the larger terminals in New York most of the things left on trains are found in waiting rooms and stations are kept a stated number of months, and if not claimed at the end of the period are turned over to the persons, usually railroad men, who found them and turned them in. But it is to be noted that practically no articles of real value are unclaimed. In fact, an article is allowed to lie unclaimed the less value it possesses, as a general rule.

Millions of men and women to-day know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapiesin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.
If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Diapiesin which costs but fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

SWIMMING RECORD.

WOMEN OF ENGLAND DO A GREAT WORK

Corp. Wm. C. Murray Writes From the Front

The following letter has been received by Capt. "Duff" Slemm of the 215th Batt., from Corporal W. C. Murray, formerly of the 125th: Somewhere in France, March 16th, 1917
Dear Sir,—Excuse this liberty I am taking in writing these few lines. You remember me no doubt by being in your N. C. O. class in the first Brant Battalion and still remember the hard knocks and peculiarities which was confessed by the O. C. of the class at that time to be his habit of teaching. I was one of the pupils so excuse my familiarity in expressing myself in that manner. I am sorry to know that the 2nd Brants are having a tough time in reaching the required strength. What seems to be the trouble with the eligibles still left in Brantford? I think there could still be a little weeding done in the stores and banks and hunt out those who think more of staying at home than help keep up the reputation of the Brant County and her sons who have gone before and given the best that is in them. The least they can do is to come forward and fill in the leakage in the 215th and all credit is due to them, so that the 2nd Brant Battalion can say she was in at the finish. Believe me Fritz has still a little fight left in him and its up to those at home who can and are lacking in courage to pull themselves together and get into line with the rest of the boys. If you were in England and saw how the women folk were doing their bit it would open your eyes. It's wonderful, I believe myself when it comes down to the fine point, as far as regards courage and pluck, some of the women have it on the men. Why can't they allow girls and women to come forward and their bit in munition work and other branches of male labor in Brantford. I know they would only be too eager to come forward and show themselves capable of shouldering part of the burden of the Empire and help release at least a large amount of eligibles. I believe the 215th would attain their object in no time.
712106 Corporal Wm. C. Murray, 1st Canadian Entrenching Battalion, B. E. F., France.
Well lets hope that Brantford can keep up the reputation and honor roll that she has in her share of the Empire's burden. I must close now as time is short. I would like to be remembered to my friends in the 215th. Excuse this pencil scribble as pen and ink is a luxury in the line. Hoping the 2nd Brants can attain their object and get over and be in at the finish. Wishing you every success, I remain sincerely yours,
CORPORAL WM. C. MURRAY.

ONTARIO BABY MADE STRONG

Mrs. Jarvis says Dr. Cassell's Tablets cured her delicate child when nothing else could.
Mrs. Jarvis, Box 286, Penetang P. O., Ontario writes: "It is a pleasure to tell you what Dr. Cassell's Tablets have done for my baby. When only five months old he fell ill, and though I had medical advice for him he got worse. I tried several special foods, but none of them would stay on his stomach, and he became so thin that he seemed just skin and bone. He weighed 10 pounds, and we never thought he could live. But chancing to hear of Dr. Cassell's Tablets, I got some for my baby, and an thankful I did. He is now a healthy, active child, and weighs 25 pounds at twelve months old."
A free sample of Dr. Cassell's Tablets will be sent to you on receipt of 5 cents for mailing and packing. Address: Harold F. Icthis & Co., 10 McCaul St., Toronto.
Dr. Cassell's Tablets are the surest home remedy for Dyspepsia, Kidney, Sleeplessness, Anemia, Nervous Ailments, Nerve Paralysis, Palpitation and Weakness in Children. C. P. R. REPORT.

By Courier Leased Wire.
Montreal, April 17.—The thirty-sixth annual report of the directors of the Canadian Pacific Railway company, covering the six months ended December 31, 1916, has been issued to the shareholders.
The accounts of the company show the following results:
Gross earnings, $76,717,965; working expenses, $45,843,199; net earnings, $30,874,765.
After all deductions have been made the net surplus for the six months was $13,684,504.
The working expenses for the six months amounted to 59.79 per cent. of the gross earnings, and the net earnings to 60.25 per cent, as compared with 55.43 and 44.57 per cent, respectively in 1915.

Mrs. Anne Riley, who died at Sunny Brae, N.B., in her 95th year, had descendants to the number of 120.
Police Chief McLennan, a native of Prince Edward island, was shot and instantly killed in Vancouver by a desperado.

FOOD SOURING IN STOMACH CAUSES INDIGESTION, GAS

"Pape's Diapiesin" ends all stomach distress in five minutes
Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did it damage—do you? Well, do better. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapiesin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.
Millions of men and women to-day know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapiesin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

CHAPTER XV.
Nelson Smith at Home.

The Countess de Santiago took her departing gifts a soldier like a soldier, too, her line both of attack and defense was of the sapping-and-mining order.

Once she had cared as deeply as she was in her to care for the man known to London as "Nelson Smith."
He was the type which calls forth intense feeling in others. Men liked him immensely or disliked him extremely. Women admired him fervently or detested him cordially. It was somehow not possible to regard him with indifference. His personality was too magnetic to leave his neighbors cold; and as a rule it was only those whom he disliked and wished to keep at a distance who disliked him.

As for Madalena de Santiago, for a time she had enjoyed thinking herself in love with him. There were reasons, she knew, why she could not hope to be his wife, and if he had chosen a plain, uninteresting woman to help him on in the world
she would have made no objection to his marriage.

But at first sight she had realized that Annesley Grayle, shy and unconscious of power to charm as she was, might be dangerous.

Madalena had anxiously watched the two together, and at breakfast
the day before the wedding she had disturbed the light in the man's eyes as he looked at the girl. It had seemed incredible that he should be in love with a creature so pale, so formless still in character (as An-nesley appeared to Madalena); that a man like "Don" should be caught by a pair of gray eyes and a certain softness which was only the beauty of youth.

Still, the Countess had been made to suffer, and if she could have found a way to prevent the marriage without alienating her friend she would have seized it. But she could think of no way, except to drop a sharp reminder or two of what Don owed to her. The hints had been unheeded.
The marriage had taken place,
and Madalena had been obliged to please him to play the part of the bride's friend and chaperon.

Afterwards, to be sure, she had been paid. Her reward had come in the shape of invitations, and meetings with desirable people. Nelson Smith's marriage had given her a place in the world, and at first her success and the admiration she received consoled her. Soon, however, the pain of loss and jealousy overcame the anodyne generously administered. She could not rest; she was forever asking herself whether Don were glad of her success for her own sake, or only because it distracted her attention from him.

Was he falling deeply in love with his wife, or was his way of looking at the girl, of speaking to the girl,
only an intelligent piece of acting in the drama of his new life?

Once or twice Madalena tried being rather cavalier in her manner to Annesley (she dared not be actually rude); and Nelson Smith appeared not to notice; but afterwards the offender was punished—by missing
some invitation she had expected.
This was very vague advice, I know.
But I cannot be more definite, because I am saying these things under guidance. I am not responsible for them, nor can I explain why the message is sent. Still, I feel that it is important, and I hope you may be able to make use of the suggestion.

If so, you must not mention that it comes from me. Nelson and his wife would resent that; and the scheme would fall to the ground. Do write and tell me what you do. I am interested. And I shall not be easy in my mind until your house party is over. May all go well, is my prayer.

Yours gratefully and affectionately,
MADALENA.

COOKING SPINACH
Take a nice basket (ought not to need washing or looking over), crum into a suitable sized pot, in which there is a very little boiling salted water, rather than the dash of soda, size of small pea. The cooking is a work of art. There should be great heat under the pot,
and a dexterous hand over it to keep poking down and turning over the delectable herb, that it may be evenly cooked. It may require ten minutes. The instant it is quite tender, drain in a colander, diligently pressing. Then dish up with tutens with a drainer or inverted saucer. Place in hot oven a few minutes, then drain. Chop finely, adding good lump of butter, a little dash of pepper and pour over what drained, heated hot. It should be of a rich green color, moderately moist, and of buttery texture. A dish for the gods!

FRIED PARSNIPS
Scrape, cut into strips, and boil until tender in salt water, drain and dip into water made with 1 egg beaten light, 1 cup milk, flour enough to make a batter, and fry
in hot lard. Season.

HOT SLAW
Slice with a sharp knife a solid
head of cabbage, put into a kettle and add 1-2 cup of hot water, or more if needed; cover closely and cook from 20 to 30 minutes; then add and stir through it quickly salt
and butter to season, with 1 egg well beaten, and last, 2 tablespoons of vinegar, and serve hot.

TO BOIL HARD PEAS
Put the amount of peas you require into a deep dish, cover with boiling water and let stand over night. When wanted pour the water off, tie the peas in a cloth and plunge into boiling water, to which has been added one small handful of salt and washing soda, the size of two peas. Boil for one hour. Season with salt, pepper and butter.

FRICASSÉE OF POTATOES
Place a layer of sliced raw potatoes in bottom of baking dish. Season with salt, pepper and bits of butter; then another layer of potatoes, and so on until you have the quantity desired. Then cover the whole with milk. Place in the oven and bake until a delicate brown.

WHY ARE SO MANY OF US BELOW
PAR? I asked the doctor the other day after vainly trying to think of a thoroughly healthy person of my acquaintance.

"Because," he said, "if you will pardon the quotation 'they have done
all the things they ought not to do'
and left undone all the things they ought to have done!"

"For instance,"

"For instance," he echoed, "well, let me see. I'll give you ten for instances."

And this is what they were.

"The average person," said the doctor—

"Doesn't drink water enough."

"Isn't outdoors enough."

"Isn't careful enough about keeping his bowels regular."

"Doesn't chew his food enough."

"Doesn't eat enough coarse food."

"Doesn't sleep enough."

"Doesn't laugh enough."

"Worries too much."

"Eats too much candy and eats it at the wrong time, that is when the stomach is empty and the appetite
for the next meal will be spoiled."

"Are these enough 'for instances'?"
finished the doctor.

"Quite," I said, "and yet, when you stop to think of it, they are all simple things to do. Nothing hard about them like dieting or taking a cold bath or special exercises."

"Exactly," said the doctor, "and let me ask you something,—what makes you commit the fool offenses we do against our health? What makes a girl eat a box of chocolates
in the middle of the afternoon?"

"Why," said I, "because she likes the taste of them, I suppose."

"Precisely," said the doctor, "a great many of the offenses we commit against our bodies are simply a matter of sensation. But now figure it out, is there any sensation to compare with that of feeling perfectly fit? Think of some morning when you get up feeling perfectly well and strong and ready for anything. Wasn't that a more glorious sensation than you could get out of eating a box of chocolates? Everything you do when you feel like that is a pleasure, isn't it? Then why isn't it worth while to sacrifice some minor pleasures to feel like that?"

And in the light of the doctor's analysis, "worthwhile" seemed all too mild a word.

Good Night
Stories
By Gladys Silver

The Battle of the Roses.
One night while the little Fairies of Flower Land nodded their pretty heads in slumber a band of Aphis Bugs surrounded the garden and swarmed on the bushes in a black and green mass that was slowly crawling toward the blossoms. The trembling of the rose awakened the little Fairy that made her home in its petal, and she gave the alarm.
"Surrender!" cried the Aphis Bug generals, "If you will, we will not harm you." But the Land of Flowers seemed to awake in a breath, and thousands of Flower Fairies realized
the terrible disaster that threatened to wipe out their homes, for the Aphis Bugs were eating the plants as they went.

"What shall we do?" they cried,
running back and forth, for the advancing army was gaining on the blossoms.

Now Morning Breeze heard and hurried to the home of the Dragon Flies, and told them about the danger that threatened Flower Land.
The Captain of the Dragon Flies called his men together and they hurried into the woods and gathered their ammunition and flew in a body
to the homes of the Flower Fairies.

Off to the War, they cried.
"Hop upon our backs," they cried.
The little Flower Fairies did as they were told, and the Dragon Flies soared above the garden.

The little Flower Fairies found
the puff balls on the Dragon Flies'
wings, which they quickly hurled into the army below. When the puff balls struck the flowers they burst, sending out a great cloud of brown
dust, and the army of Aphis Bugs, becoming alarmed, threw down their arms and soon scattered.

The little Lady Bugs, hearing the fring of the puff balls, and seeing that a war was going on between the Fairies of Flower Land and the army of Aphis Bugs, offered their assistance. Before long there was not a bug in sight, for as fast as they were overcome with the brown dust
the little Lady Bugs carried them away.

The Flower Fairies were happy when the battle was over. They wrote the Dragon Flies and the Lady Bugs to have breakfast with them. Their beautiful garden looked quite sad, but if the help of the army of the Dragon Flies
and the Lady Bugs the army of Aphis Bugs would have destroyed
Flower Land.

WEAK ANAEMIC GIRLS

Bloodlessness is the trouble of many girls who ought to be full of life and good spirits. Instead they have no appetites, their digestion is poor, and if they walk fast either in the street or going upstairs they are so tired and out of breath that their hearts beat as if to burst.
Almost always such girls are thin,
flat-cheeked, and sallow, with notting attractive about their faces.
Do not get better they will have a cough in the winter and then, not unlike consumption, that most hopeless of all diseases will develop.
No girl should be like this. She should be plump, rosy-cheeked and full of life, able to walk fast and to stand exertion without being tired, and with a healthy, happy breathless and palpating. To be in this healthy, happy condition
she must have plenty of good, rich, red blood as it is only through the blood that the body can be healthy.
And the only medicine that will keep the blood supply rich and red and pure is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.
Their effect upon the pale, weak girl who gives them a fair trial is wonderful. They improve the appetite, backaches and headaches disappear, the glow of health tinges
the cheeks, the eyes sparkle, and the step becomes light and elastic.
Thousands of girls throughout Canada owe their health and attractive appearance to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and do not hesitate to say so.
You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50
from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Women's Institute

Moyle-Tranquility Women's Institute.

The April meeting of the Moyle-Tranquility Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Robt.
Crichton, St. George Rd., with an attendance of thirty members and friends.

The meeting opened by singing
"O, Canada," and repeating the moto, "Be just and fear not; Let all the ends thou aim'st at: Be thy country's, thy God's and Truth's."

Roll call was answered by useful suggestions on Spring cleaning.

The minutes of the last meeting
were read by the secretary treasurer, Mrs. E. D. Clump and she reported that last month 83 pairs of socks

HEAD STUFFED FROM CATARRH OR A COLD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Opens Air Passages Right Up.

Instant relief—no waiting. Your slogged nostrils open right up; the air passes of your head clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, sniffling, blowing, headache, dizziness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold or catarrh disappears.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply
a little of this fragrant, anesthetic, healing cream in your nostrils. It permeates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membrane and relief comes instantly.

It's just fine. Don't stay stuffed-up with a cold or nasty catarrh.

Red Rose Tea Ordinary Tea

DID it ever occur to you that all teas are not "just tea?" In reality, there is as much difference in teas as there is in silks.

There are many varieties of tea: Indian teas,
Ceylon teas, Java teas, China teas, etc.—Indians
and Ceylons being the choicest of all.

These teas are all just ordinary garden teas, while Red Rose Tea is a blend of teas selected from as many as sixteen different gardens, using largely Assam-Indian teas skillfully blended with Ceylons. The result is that rich strength and smooth flavor that has made Red Rose Tea so popular.

One level teaspoonful of Red Rose Tea goes as far as a heaping teaspoonful of ordinary tea—that proves
the true quality and economy of Red Rose.

Did You Ever
Notice That There Are Fashions
in Wall Paper as in Ever-thing Else? Of Course You Have!

Then you have noticed that some merchants are a little quicker than others to "catch on" to the trend of public taste and to be the first in the field with the latest goods on the market.
This is very evident with our Wall Paper: new, bright, up-to-the-minute designs and colorings which will cost you no more than less modish goods.
Come in and see them, and bring your friends.

The ladies were delighted with an address from Mr. Newell of Paris, on the care of the small fruits particularly strawberries and raspberries and also upon vegetable gardening. Much useful information was given that will aid greatly in the care of the vegetable garden.

The ladies voiced their appreciation in a very hearty vote of thanks to Mr. Newell.

Mrs. Passmore gave a very beautiful paper on "mothers."

Hair Coming Out

Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a 25-cent bottle of Danderuff at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it into the scalp. After a few applications the hair stops coming out and you can't find any dandruff.

END OF WAR IS IN SIGHT

Predictions of Speedy Victory Are General, Following Allied Successes

GERMANY IS DIVIDED

Torn by Internal Dissensions and Discontent

AMERICA IS OF ALIEN U. S. Entry Has Added Final Impetus to Allies

By Courier Leased Wire. London, April 18.—(New Sp. Cable)—Predictions of a speedy end of the war are general here today. They are helped along by news of immense victories on the British and French fronts and heavy German losses. The newspapers are full of such headings: "War drawing to a close," and "selling like hot cakes." Many correspondents bear out the feeling that the end is approaching. Germany not only has failed to address Russia to a separate peace, but the German did not reply, but he up his hands suggestively. He was taken prisoner soon afterwards. His case is typical of thousands. The German soldiers are deeply affected by America's adherence to the allies. The French and British are overwhelmingly superior in moral ammunition, supplies, numbers, and machinery. They are winning now without great losses. Renewal of the report that Turkey, Bulgaria and Austria are seeking a separate peace, the acute effect in Berlin and Hamburg anger in Bavaria because of the revival of reports that the German staff is deliberately sending Bavarian troops into impossible positions and sacrificing them recklessly contribute to this result. The carnage among the war. German reports of whole divisions swallowed up are confirmed from English sources. Maximilian Harden and other German radical leaders are open demanding speedy constitutional reforms. Giving Germany a responsible parliamentary government, are declaring that the allies are unwilling to stop fighting until Germany has a government that can make a real and permanent peace by the voice of the nation, practically telling Germany that the longed for peace is possible whenever the Hohenzollern are deposed.
