EMPIRE DAY

It is the desire of the Board of Education of this Province, that the observance of Empire Day, which will be held this year upon Friday, May 21st, shall be more than usually emphasized, owing to the great crisis in our history now impending.

To this end, all teachers, school officers, pupils and citizens generally are invited to participate, and the co-operation of Canadian Clubs, Daughters of the Empire and other patriotic societies is requested.

Mrs. Geo. J. Clarke, vice president of the federated Canadian Clubs for New Brunswick is taking much interest in the matter and bringing it to the notice of the various Canadian Clubs throughout the Province.

Mrs. G. A. Kuhring, president of the Women's Canadian Club of St. John, has offered on behalf of that Club, to supply and distribute an Empire Day programme to all the schools of the Province.

It is expected that exercises of a patriotic nature will be held in each school room during the forenoon of the day, and that in the afternoon a public meeting will be held in each school or district, at which there will be given patriotic addresses.

His Honor, the Lieutenant-Governor has consented to preside at the public meeting in connection with the Provincial Normal School, and the Rev. Dr. G. M. Campbell will be the orator on that occasion.

ZEPPELIN MAKES ATTACK ON BRITISH COAST

Newcastle, Eng., April 15--Two men and one woman were slightly hurt, and one building destroyed by fire and three damaged, was the sum total of the destruction wrought by one of Count Zeppelin's aerial dreadnoughts in a thirty-five minute cruise over the Tyne district.

Eleven towns were attacked with explosive and incendiary bombs, according to information gathered by the Newcastle officials today. The Zeppelin hurled at least thirty destructive missiles, that tore great holes in the ground or spurted into flame, and then it fled eastward across the North Sea, while machine guns and rifles rattled harmlessly at the sky.

London, April 15--The Gazette states the losses at Neuve Chapelle as: Killed--officers, 190; others, 2,837; wounded--officers, 359; others, 8,174; missing--officers, 23; others, 1,278.

School inspector Geo. W. Mersereau has been in town during the past ten days in connection with the annual inspection of the schools. A conference of the teachers was held

Not Much Interest Taken In Election

Ald. Stothart Elected Mayor by Acclamation--Only Ten Candidates For Aldermen

Election day has come and gone, and the day was probably the most quiet civic day that Newcastle has had since the time of incorporation. There was not as much stir around town as there would be on a usual summer's Saturday afternoon. The day itself, however, was ideal, and the few who congregated around the clated the services he had rendered the town during the past year. He complimented the retiring Mayor, Mr. Morrissey, in the good services he had performed during his time of office, and he was also sure that the townspeople appreciated what he had done. Mayor Stothart then referred to the matter of patriotism

Town Hall enjoyed the sun-bath to their heart's content.

Just why this lack of interest on the part of the electorate would not be safe to venture an opinion. Never before has the temperance question been brought so forcibly to the minds of the people as in the few weeks previous to this election. Just how far the stand taken by the Improvement League in their plea for the selection and election of a temperance ticket had to do with this lack of interest does not show in the new ticket just elected. It does not seem that the electorate were influenced either one way or the other, for while practically the whole ticket pledged itself beforehand to support the Scott Act, taken as a whole, it is not what would be called a temperance ticket. And judging from the order in which the candidates were elected one has reason to think that pledges made have not been taken very seriously by the voters, as it will be noticed that two of the strongest advocates of temperance are last on the list. It might then be very well said that the voters this election cast their ballots, as in previous years, to suit themselves. This being the case the only conclusion that can be arrived at for the small amount of interest manifested, both before and on election day is that owing to non-payment of taxes fewer of the ratepayers were eligible to vote. Out of about 800 who are qualified to vote, only 317 took advantage of their franchise, a slightly smaller number than last year.

Just how far the new council will carry out these pledges will depend entirely on the support they receive from the people. It is said that a very hot place is paved with good intentions, but there are many obstacles which crop up in the way of all good intentions, and this may be the case with the new council at the board. It remains with the people to give the new council their very best support and assist them in every way that they may be able to live up to the promises they have made. If each individual voter will give his support to the candidates he voted for, for the full and true reason of why he voted for them, the ultimate result will be a change somewhere, one way or another, in the running of the affairs of the town.

SPEECHES IN THE EVENING

As is the usual custom the newly elected candidates, as well as the defeated ones, delivered speeches from the bandstand in the evening to a very large gathering of the town's citizens.

The band was present as usual and the music was also enjoyed, as well as the speeches. The younger element had their sport in the fireworks line.

After a couple of selections from the band, Mayor Stothart coming forward thanked the citizens for the honor they had conferred upon him. This was the highest honor the town could confer upon a citizen. He also felt honored at the large vote that had been given him last year when running as an alderman. He had not given the matter of running for Mayor much consideration until just before nomination. He felt satisfied to serve another year as alderman, and he felt sure the citizens appre-

DAVID RITCHIE

Mr. Ritchie who is a new candidate for civic honors, and who lead the pole, was given a hearty reception on coming to the front. He did not feel that the honor that had been conferred upon him was due to any particular ability he possessed, but through the influence of his father. He thanked the electors, however, for the handsome vote they had given him, and jestingly remarked that he thought the Mayor had spoken too long for an open air speech, and with a hearty applause he made way for

ALD. A. H. MACKAY

Ald. Mackay, who served last year at the board in a very acceptable manner, and receiving the second highest vote this election, said he was not used to public speaking. He thanked the electors for the support they had given him, and hoped that the performance of his duties would be found satisfactory. One of the main duties of the council was to practice economy. Some of the streets of the town were badly in need of sewerage, and people were asking to obtain legislative power to issue bonds. Ald. Mackay said he was strongly opposed to issuing any more bonds as the town was in debt enough. His idea was to set aside a certain amount each year and extend the sewerage accordingly.

ALD. MCGRATH

Ald. McGrath, coming forward, said he was pleased to appear before the electors for the fourth time to thank them for their support. His first appearance in public as an alderman was an unwilling one, perhaps was accidental. He said he could not now resist the temptation. He thanked those who supported him and those who did not. During his three years at the board he felt that every man had done his duty to the town, although some citizens might think different. Some laws are more difficult to enforce than others. The enforcement of the law depended upon public sentiment, and the relation of the aldermanic board or governing body to all laws was the same. If a man went into a store and stole a piece of pork, would the public expect the mayor and aldermen to hunt up the violator of the law any more than any other private citizen outside the board? Why should the aldermen be expected to prosecute an offense against the law had tried to get into the County Council to have this done, but being unknown in the lower part of the Parish, he had not succeeded. But in Newcastle town where he was known he was alright. The vacant blocks near the station should be filled up.

Ald. Miller seconded Ald. Kethro's motion. He remembered when there was a street, continuing that between Ald. Mackay's and Mr. Williston's. But the County Council had closed it up. The time had come to have these things rectified. A street to the north of the fall should run clear through to the Wireless. There was a grand site for a residential district. It was his intention to visit

R. H. Gremley's bill for horsehire for policeman sent to arrest some parties by the Police Magistrate was sent to the P. M.

Following election officers were chosen:

Returning officers--Wm. Irving, John H. Troy.

Poll Clerks--Edw. Keating, F. V. Dalton.

Constables--D. C. Smallwood, Thomas Fallon.

W. O. Chamberlain reported that there had been no Scott Act violations in March. His Police Court report was 8 arrests--5 for drunkenness, 2 for vagrancy, 1 for interfering with police in discharge of duty. Fines collected $40; Magistrates fees $24; balance $16.

Report was received and filed.

Ald. Stothart reported as follows from the Finance Committee who had been charged to enquire into the Police Magistrate's report:

"Your Finance Committee have examined the report and hold an interview with the Police Magistrate, and in result we wish to recommend the following:

"Owing to an arrangement found between our Police Magistrate and former Town Councils whereby he received a fee of $3 for each Police Court case, we recommend that the Magistrate returns to the end of 1914 be passed as submitted, but that from January 1st, 1915, a new arrangement be made whereby he be allowed a fee of $2 for each case tried under the Police Court Act, fees in cases tried under the Criminal Code not to be affected by this arrangement. Also, note this does not fix the magistrates' costs as we have no power to amend."

"Ald. Miller wanted a permanent settlement. He wanted the P. M. to get all he was entitled to--no less--no more. Council had no right to accept his offer of $2 for cases he used to charge $3 for. This report was an admission on the part of both Council and P. M. that the past procedure had not been correct.

Ald. Kethro said that not till now had the facts been before them.

Ald. McGrath took it that the $2 arrangement had been in the nature of a salary. Now the P. M. had agreed to take $2 under summary convictions act. Under the Criminal Code Council had no power to adjust his fees. A criminal case might go on for days. So the committee had thought it fair to let him charge $2 for summary convictions.

Ald. Stothart said the committee could not have gone any further than it did.

Ald. McGrath said Council had no right to fix a Judge's fees. They had no opportunity of fishing out just what the charge should be in each individual case. It might be $5, it might be $1.50. The committee had done well to get a flat rate of $2 for civil court cases. If this report were not accepted a complete investigation would have to be made and a report made to the Attorney-general.

Ald. Miller said the committee had done well but not at all what they had been ordered to do.

Report was adopted.

On motion of Ald. Kethro the new street to the Station past he rink was named "George" in honor of the King.

Ald. Kethro moved that the incoming board be urged to open cross streets from Regent St. to the Wireless Street, in front of James street to the said wireless street.

Ald. Doyle said that there was no appropriation for new streets.

Ald. Sargeant--No cost, only to fence them.

Ald. Kethro said he had always had the laying out of streets in his mind. Before the Town's incorporation he

CHAS. J. MORRISSEY

Monetion the next week and take up with Mr. Gutfelink the matter of water and sewerage on the street that is on the government property. When Emmerson was minister of Railways he had looked on the proposition favorably. Now that the government are remodeling the station, the street should be attended to.

Ald. McGrath said that there was something in Ald. Kethro's suggestion. The Watt estate is now taxed very moderately. They are willing to give land free for cross streets. Then individual lots bought for use or speculation, could be taxed so as to increase the town's revenue. One lot would pay as much tax as an acre or two of Mr. Watt's block now. If he (McGrath) bought a lot for $150 to sell it for $200 or build a house on it, the town would derive more revenue from it, even if it did cost $200 to fence the new streets.

Ald. Kethro so declared he had no interest or graft in the matter. It was merely a fad he had had for years. This was the reason why he was coming into the contest again this year.

His Worship then made his farewell address. He said he was out of politics after that night. It had been very great pleasure for him to preside over the Council meetings. On the whole, they had been friendly. All had worked in what they had considered the best interests of the town. They could look back with pleasure and pride at the work that had been accomplished. He was proud of the good feeling in the Council. He was proud that so many citizens had come to him in the past few weeks to ask him to again offer as Mayor. He personally thanked the Secretary-Treasurer, who was well fitted to advise Mayor and Aldermen, and had given advice willingly whenever asked. He thanked the town officers, Newcastle had two of the best looking officers in the County. The aldermen had always treated him in a courteous manner. He wished the new Mayor to perpetuate the clean-up day. The County had advertised the Newcastle Ferry Slip for sale, but the advt. had been withdrawn. The county was going to ask for legislative powers to take the slip. It was up to the town council to look after the town's interests.

Ald. Miller said the Mayor had been one of the most useful and popular executives the town had ever had. He had taken special pains to do his duty, with much success. While he had served as Alderman (and he was willing to do it again or in any sphere that the people wished) he was sure that the Mayor had done more than many men would have done in his place. His activity re the Patriotic and Belgian funds was much appreciated by

Government Will Investigate Charges

Sir Robert Borden's Policy Equal Justice to All, Both Liberal and Conservative

Ottawa, April 15.—Sir Robert Borden made a strong pronouncement in Parliament today in outlining the action which his Government will take to insure an honest dollars worth of value for every dollar of public money expended for the public services.

The doors for complete investigation will be thrown wide open. Every wrong-doer will be prosecuted and restitution demanded in every case where any person, be he Conservative or Liberal, rich or poor, is found guilty of any of the grafting methods such as existed in the days of the old Liberal regime. The strong stand taken by Sir Robert Borden finds his colleagues in the Government and in the House heartily in accord, and prepared to give him their enthusiastic support.

SIR ROBERT BORDEN
Declares that Justice will be Meted Out to all Wrongdoers, Conservative and Liberal Alike

After Mr. H. B. Murphy had moved that the final report of the Public Accounts Committee be adopted, Sir Robert rose to speak. He pointed out that the Committee had been engaged in investigating matters not yet reported by the Auditor General to the House, and therefore were under consideration a year in advance of the time they would be considered under ordinary circumstances. Certain correspondence had been moved for and brought down in the House. It was suggested that it should be referred to the committee for investigation.

There were two courses open to the Government. One was that they might on technical considerations and rules declare to the House that such matters ought to be investigated in the usual manner. The other course, and the one they thought was the right course, was to throw open wide the doors for investigation and inquiry. They deemed it only right and their duty to investigate and to find out if any frauds had been perpetrated on the Government. They understood in so doing that there was one possible result. Because if any matters were brought forth the natural result would be that the facts would be magnified and the public would be excited. But these considerations should not weigh with any government, and they did not weigh with them.

"My directions," declared the Premier, "to the members of the Government on the Public Accounts Committee were to rake the fullest possible inquiry. That course had been pursued to the fullest extent."

Liberals Blocked Inquiry

Sir Robert said he would like to remark in passing that it was not the course followed during the sixteen years preceding their coming into power. From the time of the first inquiry in 1898 down to the last inquiry into the N. T. R., there was a refusal for proper investigation and a disposition to restrict investigation within the narrowest possible confines. Sir Robert drew attention to resolutions asking for further and fuller inquiry in the public accounts committee voted down by the Liberals at various times, and also quoted testimony before the committee to show they had blocked inquiry and shielded witnesses. In one case an important witness was protected when Hon. W. S. Fielding and the Minister of Justice were both present, and aided in preventing free and full inquiry. If there was any wrongdoing in connection with the public accounts the members of the Government, and particularly myself and the Minister of Militia, wanted to know it. I spoke to the Minister of Customs, a member of the committee, in the presence of the Minister of Militia, and he heartily endorsed my views that we wanted an inquiry of widest scope, and we proposed if wrong doing was discovered to compel restitution and to prosecute.

Shaver's Evidence not Believed

Sir Robert then quoted from the reports of the committee to show that time and again the Minister of Customs had repeated that these were his instructions and that he had pursued these instructions to the last. The Prime Minister, referring to the case of Young Powell, the clerk of the Carleton drug concern, first to the statement of the Chicago Drug Company that he was informed by Col. Jones, director of medical services, that the Government did not desire to purchase direct from the manufacturers and producers, but through middlemen. The evidence given by the directors of contract, the Deputy Minister, Quartermaster General and other officials of the Militia Department, all was that no such principle had been laid down in the department since this Government came in in 1911.

"Those officers do not believe that Col. Jones ever made this statement, and I don't think he ever said anything of the kind," said Sir Robert. "If he did say it, if he cannot deny that he made such a statement, he is no longer fit to retain the position he holds in the public service. I do him the credit, however, in the meantime, to say that I think he never uttered the statement attributed to him. He comes from my county, and is a son of Alfred G. Jones, once Lieutenant Governor of Nova Scotia. I refuse to believe that Guy Carleton Jones ever told Shaver what would be an untruth, that any such standard was laid down by the department."

To Met out Even Justice

Regarding all the transactions with the Government, Sir Robert added that he did not propose to shield either Liberal or Conservative, but to mete out just treatment to everyone concerned in any transaction."

The Prime Minister referred to the $9,000 profit that was going to young Powell, equal to ten years' salary at his present rate, and the restitution of the $6,300 that had been paid him by the Government. This happened after the resolution was introduced in the Public Accounts Committee to refer the matter to the Justice Department.

In the matter of the binoculars, 166 glasses out of 2,175 were found to be inferior and not worth the money paid for them. The Department of Justice had been asked to take proceedings. Yesterday, said Sir Robert he received a letter from F. M. Burdett, Jr., asking for the earliest possible investigation before a judge or otherwise, of his contract with Mr. Ellis.

The Government desires to give an early hearing in all these matters," said Sir Robert. "If any of the charges are unfounded it is only fair that the truth should be known, but if there has been fraud, we want a thorough inquiry. I don't know if we propose through the binoculars department, or otherwise, to have the fullest, freest and most searching inquiry that can be devised, and we propose that prompt and energetic action shall be taken for restitution and punishment so far as the law will permit in all cases of wrong doing.

Inadequate inspection was partly responsible for the purchase of the inferior glasses, and the inspector on whom the Government had depended was appointed by the late Government. He had been suspended pending investigation.

The Purchase of Horses

Taking the purchase of horses in the Maritime Provinces, Sir Robert said that the system in vogue in the Militia Department under the late government was to pay the man who purchased horses a sum covering the cost of the horses, travelling expenses and remuneration, without any particular dividing line.

General Hughes decided to pay a distinct rate for expenses and remuneration so as to check the exact pay for the horses. A purchasing agent and a veterinary surgeon made the purchases and payment was made by check or order against a credit provided and each check had to be endorsed by the seller. This was an effective safeguard. The Prime Minister added that the member for Kings (Dewitt Foster) had been employed to buy horses in Nova Scotia and he bought 428.

"The member for Kings was appointed purchasing agent without the knowledge or approval of any member of the Government, and I would have prevented it had I known, and so would the Minister of Militia. He was appointed by Col. Neil, principal veterinary officer."

"I would like to add that nearly all other purchasers of horses in Nova Scotia were Liberals. Mr. Walter Crowe, in Cape Breton, is one of the strongest supporters of the Liberal party and has been for 25 years. He was not selected for political reasons."

Retail Merchants' Annual Convention

Held at St. John Was Successful—Some Important Matters Dealt With.

The first annual convention of the New Brunswick Retail Merchants' Association which was held at St. John last Wednesday, was well attended, and the interest shown in the work of the session indicated that the association has a long life ahead. At the business meeting which was short about thirteen resolutions were dealt with, all having a bearing upon the relations of the retailer with the wholesaler or his customer. One of the matters dealt with was the Bulk's Sale Act. The association approved the principle of the bill sent before the local legislature and turned down, but favored some amendments calculated to bring everybody wishing to sell to their property on an equal footing. It was said a farmer or merchant wishing to sell out should be obliged to notify his creditors and advertise in the papers, and that thereafter it should be left to the creditors to decide what they should do. The convention favored the adoption of a Garnishee Act such as they have in Quebec as a means of collecting small debts.

After a business meeting in the afternoon the members of the association were taken in automobiles to the sugar refinery which they inspected, and then to the Reversing Falls and other points in the city. Later they were entertained at luncheon at Bond's restaurant and from there they went to the Imperial Theatre where a special program was put on for their benefit.

Mayor Frink, on behalf of the city, extended a welcome to the delegates, and went to speak of the progress of St. John in recent years. Much of the progress of the city was due to the activity of the men engaged in commercial and mercantile pursuits.

On one point they had cause for congratulation—in spite of the depression of business and the desolation of war, St. John and the province stood up as a green oasis in the business world.

A. Murray of Fredericton made a short address, discussing retail problems, and urging merchants to trade with one another locally.

A business meeting was then held, at which resolutions were adopted, the purport of which was as follows:

To support the purchase of goods "Made in Canada" which would bear a profit now denied the retailers who handle Canadian made goods, providing that manufacturers did not allow the goods to be used for price cutting by others on lines not made in Canada.

Against smuggling goods across borders of Canada.

To provide if possible for taxation on mail order firms so as to equalize the taxation paid by local retailers.

In favor of a bulk sales act for the province.

That if it is deemed necessary to make any change in the assessments act of the province that the interests of retailers be safeguarded.

Favoring the change in the Lord's Day Act making the buyer of goods on Sunday equally liable with the vendor.

That the question of fire insurance department for the association and fire adjustment be referred to the executive.

In favor of abolishing all lottery and guessing competitions to include all premiums on manufacturers' products.

That when any change is made in the provincial laws that information be sent out from the Dominion board.

That the system adopted by some merchants in advertising a well-known line of goods at a low cost in order to induce customers to purchase their line of goods out of which they make a large profit is not in the best interests of the retail merchants and is deceptive to the general public.

That in view of the fact the Dominion government is spending large sums of money to encourage farmers to increase their acreage and also, in experimental stations in an educational campaign which money comes out of the common treasury of the Dominion and which is aided to a large extent by the merchants, that we greatly deplore the action of some farmers who evidently have not the welfare of Canada at heart in advocating the abolition of retail merchants by buying goods in carload lots for the purpose of distributing among themselves, thinking they are going to gain something, whereas they are doing an injury to themselves as well as the public at large, and we therefore recommend that this meeting ask the Dominion board to take this matter up, submit it to the other provinces and take such action as they deem advisable.

Delegates from Newcastle were E. J. Morris, D. S. Creighton, A. O. Demars, Fred V. Dalton, and J. D. Paulin.

MOTHER OF SCHOOL GIRL

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Daughter's Health.

Plover, Iowa.—"From a small child my 15 year old daughter had female weakness and she spoke to three doctors about it and they did not help her any. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had been of great benefit to me, so I decided to have her give it a trial. She has taken five bottles of the Vegetable Compound according to directions on the bottle and she is cured of this trouble. She was all run down when she started taking the Compound and her periods did not come right. She was so poorly and weak that I often had to help her dress herself, but now she is regular and is growing strong and healthy."—Mrs. MARTIN HELVIG, Plover, Iowa.

Hundreds of such letters expressing gratitude for the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished are constantly being received, proving the reliability of this grand old remedy.

If you are ill do not drag along and continue to suffer day in and day out but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a woman's remedy for woman's ills.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (continental) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

WAR REVENUE ACT

The Post Office Department, having given notice a week or two ago, in connection with the War Revenue Act, that all letters and postcards mailed in Canada for delivery in Canada, the United States or Mexico, and letters mailed in Canada for delivery in the United Kingdom and British possessions generally, or wherever the two cent rate applied, should in addition to ordinary postage carry a one cent stamp as a War tax, and also having notified the public that such war tax, while it should be paid preferably by the postage stamp marked "War Tax," could if such stamp were not available, be paid by an ordinary one cent postage stamp, is now issuing further notice to the effect that postage stamps may be used for the prepayment of war duties on bank cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, express money orders, proprietary or patent medicines, perfumery, wines or champagne, as well as upon letters and postcards, postal notes and post office money orders, the intention being to provide facilities in those portions of the country where excise stamps are not readily available.

This in view of the fact that postage stamps may be obtained at all points over the whole country, in many cases where there is no Collector of Inland Revenue and no Inland Revenue stamps could be obtained, is a distinct convenience to the public, and no doubt will be largely taken advantage of.

A New Questions and Answers Department of Interest to Shooters

Readers are reminded that this column is open to questions which should be sent to me in care of the Sporting Editor...

PLENTY OF INTEREST IN TRAP-SHOOTING

I have been receiving questions lately in great quantities relating to almost every possible department of trapshooting.

1. In trapshooting, which is preferable, to sight with one eye, or to shoot with both eyes open?

2. Would you advise a man to attempt to change his style if he has always been accustomed to sighting with one eye?

3. Which do you consider the preferable weapon for trapshooting, a rifle or a double gun?

4. Is the single trigger feature of some makes of double guns anything more than a novelty?

5. Providing nitro powder is always used, will the barrels of a shotgun suffer any if never wiped out?

6. Will teal ducks plunge headlong into decoys?

7. Do ducks rise from the water with or against the wind?

1. I have a .25 calibre rifle—rim fire—with a Rieky Mountain front sight and open sporting rear sight.

2. What is the range of a .25 long cartridge used in this rifle? Of a .25 short?

3. Which is the most powerful, black or smokeless powder?

4. Could you tell me where I could get a book on the shotgun and rifle, dealing with their history, construction, etc.?

5. There are a number of good books on the shotgun. "The Gun and Its Development" by W. W. Greener, published in England, is exceedingly good, but of course is somewhat biased in favor of Mr. Greener's own guns.

6. The consensus of opinion seems to favor a shotgun having one barrel, as it gives more clearly defined sighting and eliminates any chance of cross fire.

7. Is the single trigger feature of some makes of double guns anything more than a novelty?

8. Single triggers on double barrel shotguns are, of course, not so fool-proof as two triggers, but they will give satisfactory service.

9. Providing nitro powder is always used, will the barrels of a shotgun suffer any if never wiped out?

10. There is but one rule to follow in the handling of firearms—Clean the barrel when the shooting is over. Good results cannot be obtained by any other method.

11. Nitro powder in shot shells is not quite so destructive as black powder, but the barrel will certainly suffer if never cleaned.

12. Will teal ducks plunge headlong into decoys?

13. Do ducks rise from the water with or against the wind?

Ans. Ducks always rise from the water against the wind.

Ans. The .25 rim fire cartridge has an accurate range of about 200 yds.

Ans. The .25 short is accurate up to 50 yds.

HOME MAKING PROBLEM

Many women look to freedom to work side by side with man in whatever walk of life they may choose as an emancipation of their sex.

In these and many other ways, Dr. Robertson has given the farmers of Canada the best that was in him.

CANADIANS CALL FOR PUBLICITY

It is impossible to withhold from the Dominion of Canada at this time applause always deserved by the nation, as by the individual, that will neither be bullied nor intimidated into silence by shallow or subtle pleas in behalf of appearances.

Some of the revelations of the inquiry at Ottawa recall those of fifty years ago in the United States.

The sooner the exposure is complete the sooner will the evil be removed. The matter is not partisan.

SOME FINANCIER!

Having attained some little reputation—or perhaps notoriety—would be a more suitable word—as a newspaper writer upon whom no dependence can be placed, Mr. J. L. Stewart is now apparently seeking to earn a similar notoriety as a financial critic.

To begin with, Mr. Stewart's method of arriving at the total amount of the bonded indebtedness of the province will strike most people as going a long way round for the shortest cut. A reference to the Auditor General's report will not only show that this indebtedness amounts to exactly $8,178,567, and moreover it sets out in detail the different bond issues which go to make up this amount.

Then Mr. Stewart turns to the matter of interest paid on provincial bonds, and declares that the interest an investor receives on his purchase is the sole test of the security. He declares it to be immaterial and "does not matter whether the bonds are issued at par or not; the interest received by the purchasers is the only question."

Mr. Stewart is on the wrong track altogether when he looks at the matter of bond issues from the investor's standpoint only. When the province borrows money the first requirement is to see that it gets in loans exactly the amount it accepts liability for.

sons of their own, wish to sell at a price that will return purchasers better than the 5 per cent. the bonds carry, that is their own look out. It cannot alter the fact that the province got full value for its securities, anything Mr. Stewart may have to say, to the contrary.

A STATESMAN TO BE HONORED

That Sir Robert Borden intends to set up a new standard of political morality in this country is the only conclusion to be drawn from his impressive statement in Parliament on Thursday last. No gratters, not even members of the Conservative party in the House of Commons, whose names can be connected with irregularities are to be spared.

Had Sir Robert Borden followed the practice maintained by Sir Wilfrid Laurier throughout his long term of office, he would have caused all investigation into questionable practices to be blocked and any wrong doing there may have been to be covered up. In accordance with parliamentary procedure and practice as established under Laurier, he could have postponed enquiry until next session, and have gone to the country during the recess.

Local Man Who Is Making Good

Mr. Chas. Dickson, as an Optician Gaining an Envious Reputation.

When a young man takes up a certain line as a profession, one that he has selected as being best suited to his particular ability and fancy, and if he follows it up, giving his undivided attention to the mastery of it, there is one thing certain—he is going to succeed.

One great fault with the young men of today is that they are too ambitious in their desire to learn a trade, but do not give the question as to what trade they are best adapted for, enough consideration and the consequences are that by the time they have spent two or three of the best years of their life at a trade they fail to find interest in, they leave it and find themselves in an undecided state of mind as to what their future will be.

A member of one of Newcastle's young firms who is making good is Mr. Chas. Dickson, of Dickson & Troy, druggists and opticians. As an optician Mr. Dickson is gaining a wide reputation, his work being highly praised by all who have had occasion to require his services. Since graduating from the Canadian College of Optics, St. John, in 1905, Mr. Dickson has had a very successful business career. One chief reason for his success is the fact that he takes a very great interest in his work, ever obliging, and believes as a motto that a satisfied patron means one more new one.

It is not everybody who is adapted to this particular line of work, but judging from the success he has attained, and the deep interest he takes in his work, we feel we are safe in saying that his vocation is one extremely suited to his ability, and as an optician his fame will spread far and wide.

A NELSON MAN LAMENTS HIS LOSS

Fines for Drunken Only Extortion—Can Get as Drunk as you Like in Chatham.

The following letter, written from Nelson, appears in Wednesday's issue of the Chatham World, and by the tone of it we judge the writer of it has run up against the brass buttons, and also some of "the rotten rum" sold here, much to his discomfort financially.

"Please publish this in your valuable paper if you have space. In regard to the bridge across the river from Nelson to Newcastle, I wish to say that it is the best paying bridge that was ever built in the Province—that is, for the Town of Newcastle. In the first place, Newcastle gets all the trade from this side of the river, not only in merchandise but also in fines which they collect from the outsiders who go to their town to trade. If a man from Nelson goes to Newcastle and gets a few drinks of the rotten rum they sell there, and starts for home across the Morrissey bridge, the first thing he knows the police are after him, or rather his eight dollars, which they extort from him for what? To help the town out 'debt' or what? No one knows. Why not arrest some of the Town Hall hangers-out who are never sober or very seldom? Because they don't get eight dollars from them. Someone has to pay for the upkeep of the town, and why not outsiders? As regards to Chatham, the people that are running the town know their business. A man can go to Chatham and do business, and if he is so unfortunate as to get a drink too much they will give him a chance to get out of town. Not so in Newcastle. They were not satisfied in getting the trials to run there from Fredericton, for the trade that was in it, but they take advantage of the bridge to gain their ends. The County Council have enforced the C. T. A. in Nelson, but you can go to Newcastle and get all the whiskey you want. If this County is going to be Sevt Act why not enforce the law all over the County? This is not a law at all, it is only a farce as far as it goes in Newcastle. It seems that it is all that is keeping the town up. Take the outside trade away and where would they have been? The next thing that will happen will be the loss of a lot of trade for Newcastle if they keep on arresting people who get half shot, as the saying goes, and have more wit than those who arrest them. Hoping you will publish in your valuable paper, I remain yours, T. C."

SUDDEN DEATH OF KENT COUNTY MAN

Mr. John R. Girvan, a well known farmer of West Branch, Kent County, died very suddenly on Tuesday evening, the 13th inst., at the residence of Mr. Robert Hutchinson, Mous River. Mr. Girvan had been at Bass River, seven miles from his home, attending a meeting of the Presbyterian congregation, and was on his way home and when near Mr. Hutchinson's place he was seized perfectly justified in placing him under arrest. If "T. C." is in the habit of taking charge of Nelson every time he "gets over the bay" he will soon find out that such pranks do not go in Newcastle, and if pinched he should be sport enough to take his medicine like a man, instead of making a charge of extortion against the police officer. Moreover, if he does not like Newcastle's "rotten rum" he should not buy it, and both himself and the town would be better off if he didn't.

We are pleased to know that the Morrissey Bridge is a good paying bridge for Newcastle, and we are still further pleased to know the County Council is enforcing the Act in Nelson. It is also gratifying to know that there are many citizens in Nelson who will continue to trade in Newcastle after the sore-heads have transferred their accounts to another town. Newcastle will still continue to arrest people who get "half shot" or whole shot, whether they come from Nelson or the Klondike.

Last Meeting Retiring Council

Ald. McGrath said that the rights of the County within the Town, and particularly in regard to the ferry, it might be well to make a recommendation to the incoming Council to take steps to guard its property in the ferry slip, etc. He moved, seconded by Ald. McCabe that "We recommend to the incoming Council the advisability of safeguarding the Town's interest in the streets and public utilities as against encroachments of the County in the past as well as for the future."

Ald. Miller also seconded the motion. The County had taken a street from the town, which we should get back. Ald. McGrath—The County owned, or presumed to own, certain properties within the town. One of those was the ferry wharf. The County had controlled and improved the wharf, but the Dominion Government had also something to do with it. When the town was incorporated, should not such things have become property of the town? If the town applied for, he thought it could get legislation to control it.

Ald. Miller—The question of the public square had come up some 15 years ago. The County claimed it. An individual cannot take public property by possession, but it had never been decided by a judge whether or not a town could take county property by possession. The Council should find out where it stood regarding these things.

Ald. McGrath said that all our streets opened before incorporation must have been decided at some time to the County. When part of the County became a town should not the latter own everything in the district cut off? The town had to pay taxes to the County—why should the County deprive us, in part, of the opportunity of paying those taxes? Ald. Mackay suggested that claims against the County be specified. He wanted to know what had been done about the old street in the upper part of the town that had been closed up.

Ald. Doyle replied that Mr. Fish had reported that it was too hard to search out.

On motion of Ald. Sargeant an unanimous vote of thanks was tendered the Mayor for the efficient services rendered by him to the town as its chief executive. The vote was presented to His Worship by the town clerk, who joined with the council in its appreciation.

Canada's Great Exhibit At Panama Exposition

"Complete Eclipses Exhibits of Every One of Our Individual States" says New York Journal.

That Canada is a great country and a wonderful empire, and being truly recognized as such, will be seen by the following which appeared, editorially, in a recent issue of the New York Evening Journal, in speaking of the Canadian government's exhibit at the great Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco.

"A wonderful empire is Canada," says the World, "not a part of England, but a greater England." What true Canadian breast would not swell with pride, for a government who could, by its magnificent capabilities, win from our American brethren such words of praise and patriotism as is given vent to by the World. Read what it says:

"Citizens of the United States who go to the great Exposition at San Francisco will return with increased respect for Canada and the Canadian Government, thanks to the great building and the extraordinary fine exhibit that represent Canada's power."

The difficulty of developing and governing a new country will bow reverently to the power that Canada displays.

The exhibition made cannot properly be described. It is your duty TO SEE IT.

It shows the beginning of man's work in a wild country, the forests, the animals, the wilderness. And it shows man conquering the earth, making his home of the forest, his fertile fields of the rough plains, his servants of the waterfalls, and of all his happiness in independence and free government.

A wonderful empire is Canada, not a PART of England, but a greater England. The people of this country should be grateful for the exhibition that Canada has sent to us.

See the Canada Building if you can and all the other wonders of the Panama Exposition, and all the wonders of this great country that lie between.

If you want to know the meaning of the word Canada, our great northern brother, make it a point, on your visit to the Exposition, either going or coming, to make a journey through the Canadian Empire."

Red Cross Appeal To The Farmers

Our country, with its Allies, is waging a great war for justice, for the protection of small nations in the enjoyment of their rights, for continued and growing freedom, and for the maintenance of its pledged word of honour. Much destruction and desolation are being caused. Lives are being lost by the thousand; Canada's first contingent is now in the thick of it. Some will fall sick; many may be wounded; some will pay the last full measure of devotion to their country and its cause.

The Red Cross Society exists to succor the sick and wounded in war. It needs more money to provide more beds at hospitals in Great Britain and France; it needs more money to pay more Red Cross Nurses; it needs more money, and more things made by women to supply to Clearing Hospitals, Base Hospitals, and Recovering Hospitals.

I appeal to farmers to send me sums from $1 to $50, during the first week in May. Every $50 provides one additional hospital bed with the giver's name over it. By sending me about $10,000, you would serve your country well, bring credit to yourselves, and make all of us very proud of you. For the sake of the wounded boys, make the gift substantial. It will be an investment towards the recovery of some Canadian soldier who stood in our stead that our cause might be upheld.

Faithfully your friend,
JAS. W. ROBERTSON,
Chairman,
Red Cross Society at Ottawa.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Murphy Jr. are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son at their home on the 15th.

Pains in the Side, Chest, or Back
Aching Muscles Cured Quickly

Even Doctors Marvel at the Penetrating Power of Good Old "Nerviline"

Pains anywhere—in the chest, neck, side, back or muscles—they are always a discomfort.

If the inflammation is severe, the pain will be intense. If allowed to continue, complications will follow. Physicians say one of the best remedies is "Nerviline"—it can't help curing, because it penetrates through the sore tissues, carrying healing properties that destroy every symptom of pain.

In case of colds, sore chest and pleurisy, there should be a good hand-rubbing with Nerviline, and of course to prevent the trouble coming back, it's advisable to put on a Nerviline Porous Plaster, which, by absorption through the skin, draws out all congestion.

For general household use, for curing the ailments of the young and old, for destroying all pain, outward or inward, nothing can excel Nerviline; thousands testify to this effect.

For nearly forty years Nerviline has been a renowned and trusted remedy in thousands of homes where practically no medicine is needed. Nerviline is safe to use. For children's coughs, colds and sore throat nothing can be used with more certain results.

Growing North Shore Industry

Woodburn Farm Conservatory at Chatham, Credit to North Shore.

Through the enterprise of Mr. Geo. E. Fisher of Woodburn Farm, a first class Conservatory has been established on the North Shore and it is now possible for the residents of the Miramichi and the North Shore to obtain their wants in the way of cut flowers, wedding bouquets, funeral designs and potted plants right at their own doors, ensuring freshness and beauty not always possible under former conditions. For this reason Mr. Fisher's enterprise deserves the hearty support as he has established a new industry on the North Shore and is doing his part in keeping business even better than usual. In his foreman E. Perkins, Mr. Fisher has an English gardener of long experience whose good work has been unstintingly praised by those who have already given orders to the Woodburn Conservatories.

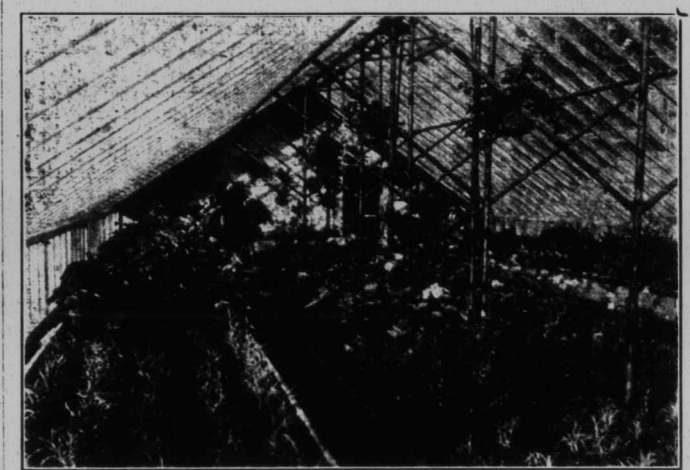

During the past fall Mr. Fisher has added over 4000 feet of glass to his conservatories and now has a splendidly equipped plant with which tending customers will have a splendid range to choose from next spring. Woodburn plants have always received a very fine name for hardiness and satisfaction and that reputation will be maintained.

Anyone wishing information regarding the growing of flowers will be heartily welcomed at Woodburn Conservatories where all possible information will be put at his disposal and he can see the plants growing under ideal conditions.

Woodburn Farm has many other attractions that are interesting, and a walk through the large market garden during the summer months is a delight to lovers of good vegetables. Thousands of cabbage and cauliflower, celery and tomatoes are grown, and Mr. Fisher is making a feature of the Parcel Post Delivery in lettuce, radish, celery and plants and flowers. Before leaving the farm you want to take a run through the dairy barn and piggery. The herd of Ayrshires, headed by the noted bull Champion of Oranstown whose grand dam had the highest milking record of any Ayrshire cow in Canada are a fine looking lot of cows and grand producers. Every thing about the stables are kept clean and tidy, cows are cleaned daily, and an air of freshness and brightness pervades the building.

The piggery contains some fine specimens of improved Yorkshire and the demand for young pigs this year has been greater than ever.

Not Much Interest Taken In Election

any more than another? Ald. McGrath said he would favor any question which would prove of interest to the community.

ALD. JAMES STABLES
Ald. Stables thanked the electors for their support and said he was the proudest man on the ticket. He said he was elected because the people want the Scott Act enforced. He was told he could not be elected if he came out as a Scott Act candidate, but his election showed that those who had told him that were mistaken. He said the sale of liquor could be stopped but only by the help of the people. If everybody would help we would have a good clean town we would not be ashamed of. He would do his best to enforce the Act.

ALD. D. P. DOYLE
Ald. Doyle said he felt proud to be again chosen to represent the people at the board. He had done his duty to the town and hoped his conduct the coming year would win for him another election.

ALD. D. S. CREAGHAN
Ald. Creaghan, the youngest man probably who has yet sat at the board, was given a good support by the electorates, and coming forward he thanked them and said he felt very proud of his election. The town's best interests would be his, and he hoped his record would hold for him the confidence of the citizens of the town.

ALD. H. H. STUART
Ald. Elect H. H. Stuart thanked the electors for the confidence that, after the slight and temporary eclipse of last year's adverse vote, they had again placed in him with by far the largest vote and largest percentage of the total vote he had ever received. As the public had already known exactly where he stood and there had been no chance of anyone voting for him by mistake, and as the vote he had now received was 50 per cent greater than needed to barely elect him, he felt sure of the people's final endorsement. The result of the day he attributed largely to the influence of the Newcastle Town Improvement League and he urged every citizen to join that League, attend its meetings, and take part in its discussions. The League could be made a mighty factor in moulding public opinion. When anyone felt the Council needed advice or encouragement, let him make suggestions through the League, and they would be listened to. He felt proud of the associates elected with him and he saw no reason why the new Council should not get along harmoniously.

ALD. C. C. HAYWARD
Ald. Hayward, the fourth new candidate for honors, thanked the citizens for the vote given him. He reposed in him. He had no experience as an alderman, but he had learned what interests the town best. He felt that the 191 men who had voted for him wanted him and those were the men he wanted to serve. The united efforts of the citizens was wanted to make Newcastle a clean town—eight men could not do it alone. He was proud to be a member of the Improvement League, and if the League was given support, good to the town would be the result.

S. W. MILLER
S. W. Miller, who this year met defeat, was given a good reception, by the friends who had stayed by him. Mr. Miller thanked those who had supported him, and said that while he came before them a defeated candidate, his interests were still with the town, and he would visit the Council meetings, give advice to any and all who would consult him. Be it said to Mr. Miller's credit, he has probably held the confidence of the people for a longer period of time than any other citizen who has sat at the board. In years gone by he was one of the hardest men to defeat. He was never defeated, because he had the confidence of the people, and he knew how to hold it. Times seem to have changed, however, and like many another good man, he has fulfilled his sphere of usefulness, not, however, without still retaining a very high respect from even those who opposed him in Tuesday's election.

Refugee Baby

The friends, who so generously contributed toward an Easter gift for the first Belgian Refugee baby, born in Canada, will be pleased to see the following letter of grateful acknowledgment from the father of the little one—Elliце Courturier Poupert.

Vancouver, B. C.
April 5, 1915.
Mrs. A. Swinerton,
Box 265, Newcastle, N. B.
We have been very affected by the receipt of the money order of $15 which you and your friends have had the kindness to send as an Easter gift to our dear little baby. This money will certainly be of great aid to us, as we are not exactly starving, but in an awkward position.
We shall try and explain to you in a few words how it is we are so far away from our country. As you know already, we had to leave Antwerp owing to the invasion of the Germans in our city. After a stay of about six weeks in England with Miss Eliце Greys of Oxshott, Surrey, who by the way has been very nice to us, we decided to go out to Canada with the idea to get something to do, and on account of lots of nice promises and the condition of Canada being explained to us as being absolutely normal, we made up our mind and bought through tickets to Vancouver, B. C., with the aim of going in for poultry raising. Unfortunately, when we started making enquiries all over the place, we found that the situation out here was awfully bad, and we certainly could not risk at all to go on a farm with the little amount of money we still had in our possession. So we had to stop in town. I (J. Poupert) have been enquiring all over Vancouver for some work (I even had some letters of introduction given to me by Mr. Whitehead, our Consul, who is a very kind gentleman) and I must agree that there was no chance whatever to strike any job. You can imagine the situation alright when you notice there are thousands and thousands of people out of work, entirely broke, sleeping on the floor in some shacks, most of them nearly starving.

I succeeded in getting the assistance of the C. P. R. for a free transportation back to Quebec City, and with the financial help of Mr. Whitehead for buying some food on our way, we hope to be a little more lucky in the eastern part of Canada. This is surely a very hard thing to us to beg everywhere for assistance as we have never been used before to this, but once more we dare hope the best of it, as we have been told by the Emigration Commissioner that the emigration agent at Quebec will take care of us, and even try and get us something to do.

We again beg to reiterate our best thanks for your kind attention, and we shall only be too glad to let you have a photograph of our little Elliце within a very short time as a remembrance.

Yours faithfully,
J. POUPERT.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR
FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try it! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine.

If you care for heavy hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scour robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots fatten, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it.

Candidates Pledge to Enforce Scott Act

Candidates for Aldermanic Board Pledge Themselves in Favor of Strict Enforcement of Act.

The public meeting in the town hall on Friday night, held at the instance of the Newcastle Improvement League, was attended by about two hundred of the ratepayers of the town, and judging by the sentiments expressed Newcastle will, in the next year, experience a "dryness" such as it has not had in many a day.

The meeting was late in getting started, owing to the clergy being in attendance at the Mission services being held in St. James' Hall, but shortly after nine o'clock President Troy called the meeting to order, and asked the secretary to read the minutes of the last meeting, also the resolutions formed at that meeting, which appeared in last week's Advocate.

The president after explaining the particular reason why the League was formed, and explaining the many good results that will come from such an organization in Newcastle, asked the ratepayers present to endorse the resolutions read, which they did unanimously.

Continuing, the president said that no particular outline had been drawn for this meeting. The meeting had been called to obtain the views of the candidates offering for election as aldermen, in regard to the enforcement of the town's laws, and one law in particular, the Scott Act. Mayor Morrissy had said that during his term as Mayor, no interest had been taken by the people regarding town affairs, and the formation of this league would bring the electors in closer touch with the council, and what they are doing, and it would not only be a tab on their actions re the enforcement of the Scott Act, but would act as a check in all other matters pertaining to the welfare of the town. It is, however, imperative that the new candidates express an expression of their opinion regarding the enforcement of the Scott Act that the league may know better what to look for from the next council.

Ald. G. G. Stothart, who sat at the Council board during the past year, and who was elected Mayor by acclamation, was called upon to express his views re the Scott Act and the general business welfare of the town.

Ald. Stothart said he thanked the electors for this honor bestowed upon him, and he hoped their confidence would not be misplaced. He paid complimentary remarks to the retiring Mayor, C. J. Morrissy, saying he had done his work well. He said his idea was to build up the town. This could be accomplished by co-operation between the townspeople and the people in the country districts. We needed closer trade relations with the farmers. This would bring the country closer to the town, and by this unanimity between town and country, much would be accomplished towards the upbuilding of the town. Ald. Stothart is well versed in farming matters, and is good authority on the subject he brought up. As a member of the Improvement League, he would advise the ratepayers to become members and thus help its working power for good. Ald. Stothart said one trouble was that aldermen would go so far in the work, but further than that they did not feel like stepping out boldly. In the Scott Act matters and the enforcement of all laws Ald. Stothart said that as Mayor, he would not be hampered with and would utilize his best efforts in their strict enforcement. He considered that no alderman, pledged to the town to do his duty, should do otherwise than see that the laws, Scott Act and all, are strictly carried out. He trusted that when another year came round his work would be found satisfactory.

Aldermen A. H. MacKay and D. P. Doyle, who are offering for re-election, giving their opinions in the matter, both pledged themselves as being in favor of a strict enforcement of the Scott Act. If elected, they would continue to do their best for the town's interest and see that all laws were enforced.

Ald. McGrath, Kethro and Milles, who are also offering for re-election, were not present at the meeting. Ex-Ald. H. H. Stuart, who was defeated last election, has again offered this year. He is in favor of the principles of the League, and while he does not believe certain laws to be perfect, he does believe we should try and enforce them as they are until we can get something better. The Scott Act is good so far as it goes, and can and should be enforced. If elected he will do in the future as he has done in the past—all he possibly can to stop the sale of liquor. If the law as it is, is not satisfactory to the people, there is a way to agitate a change. Much good, however, can come from the Act if enforced. Mr. Stuart said his past record of three years at the board was before the electors. There was nothing he regretted except that he may have erred in allowing certain persons too long a time in which to straighten up and make good their promises to do their duty. He would be more cautious in accepting any such promises in future.

Mr. C. C. Hayward, who is a new man on the ticket, said it is now twenty years since he landed on the banks of the Miramichi, and that this was his first entrance into public life. He had never before felt the desire, but now he felt that his coming out might do some good. Newcastle, he said, was a model town if looked after. He felt that the Scott Act was not being properly enforced. It was a pure business proposition. By its enforcement it meant better times for the merchants and young men would grow up to a better degree of manhood and we would be proud of them. By close watching the finances of the town could be brought up to the level of other towns. Better inducements could be offered to new-comers to live here. If the expenditures and revenue of the town were watched with a degree of carefulness, the town would be a more prosperous one, and if he were elected he would do his share of the work to the best of his ability.

Messrs. James Stables, D. S. Creaghan and David Ritchie, the three other new candidates all pledged themselves as being in sympathy with the enforcement of the Scott Act, and said they would do their best to have the law enforced. After the new candidates had been heard, the President addressed the electors present, administering them to give their support by their vote to the candidates who have pledged themselves as favoring Scott Act. To the clergy great praise was due for the formation of the League. Further interesting remarks were made by Revs. Harrison, Father Dixon, MacArthur, Richardson and Capt. Forbes of the Salvation Army, after which the meeting adjourned.

In justice to Mr. Foster, I would like to point out that Mr. Foster's horses were purchased at the lowest price of any purchased in Nova Scotia. I say Col. Nell should never have appointed him and Mr. Foster should never have accepted the position. (Conservative cheers.) I have no hesitation in saying that no member of Parliament should have been appointed to purchase supplies for the Government. It was a most unfortunate and regrettable thing that he should have ever undertaken such a duty.

Rejoiced in Fraud

It developed upon him as a member of Parliament to see that he gave the most careful and scrupulous account, (hear, hear, from Conservative benches.) His own evidence convinces me that he did not have regard to the accounts he should have had. He was given $73,000 to buy horses and we have no proper accounting from him. It has been urged on his behalf that in the purchase of animals the animals themselves are receipts. I say no such procedure should be tolerated. No vouchers have been produced and very little attempt has been made to purchase them. The matter has been treated in the most casual manner. In the reports of Committee there was evidence given of fraud practiced upon Mr. Foster. In the evidence there are some of the most cynical phrases ever uttered before the public accounts committee. Some men frankly said they knew they were defrauding the Government and they even rejoiced in it. If the law of the country permits the courts to force restitution, that restitution will be enforced; if the walls of a penitentiary can encircle these men they will go there. (Conservative cheers.)

Duty of the Government

"The duty of the Government is to make the most determined inquiry. The duty of Government is to see that there is a proper accounting from all persons concerned for the $73,000. Our duty does not stop there. Horses bought in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and other provinces will be investigated."

Sir Robert said that these horses were bought and purchased under the greatest stress. After the urgency had passed away steps were taken to protect the purchasing of all horses. Sir Adam Beck, a man above suspicion, was appointed in Eastern Canada, and a man who was certain was thoroughly safeguarding the public interest was appointed in Western Canada. He pointed out that they had bought so far 30,000 horses. Notwithstanding all the clamor which had been raised and all that had been said, and without attempting to minimize what had taken place, it seems to him that under the circumstances very little had been brought forth.

Cured Both Stomach Trouble and Headaches

PALMERSTON, ONT., JUNE 20th, 1913. "I really believe that I owe my life to 'Fruit-a-tives'. Ever since childhood, I have been under the care of physicians and have been paying doctor's bills. I was so sick and worn out that people on the street often asked me if I thought I could get along without help. The same old Stomach Trouble and distressing Headaches nearly drove me wild. Some time ago, I got a box of 'Fruit-a-tives' and the first box did me good. My husband was delighted and advised a continuation of their use.

Today, I am feeling fine, and a physician meeting me on the street, noticed my improved appearance and asked the reason. I replied, 'I am taking Fruit-a-tives'. He said, 'Well, if Fruit-a-tives are making you look so well, go ahead and take them. They are doing more for you than I can'.

Sir Robert then referred to the resolution passed by the Public Accounts Committee at the instance of Mr. W. F. Nickle, asking that there should be an improved system of auditing, purchasing and accounting. He was thoroughly in sympathy with this resolution, although he would say that no legislation could prevent fraud where there were crooked men. As soon as this resolution was passed, he sent for Hon. Mr. White and asked him to bring together the Deputy Ministers and the Auditor General and see what legislation they would recommend.

ON PRINTING

FINE PRINTING IS AN ART

Do you know good printing?

Do you like good printing?

Do you know that it always pays to have the BETTER kind?

Perhaps you have been used to the one class of printing and know no other.

If this is so, it is time for you to have a look around and investigate and see what's what.

Do you know you do not have to go any farther away than Newcastle to obtain the BETTER class of printing.

Perhaps you have not given it a thought, but a great deal depends on the stock used in order to get a BETTER job. Investigate this.

Last, but not the least, do you know that The Advocate Job Department turns out only this BETTER class of work. If you will read on a little further, we will tell you how and why.

1st—We cater to that class of people who use only the best stock, and who know what BETTER printing is.

2nd—In order to give these customers the class of work they want, we have to keep in stock only the best grades of material. We do not handle cheap lines.

3rd—In order, again, to be able to turn out that BETTER class of printing, we employ only experienced and competent printers, who keep abreast of the times and watch the styles.

4th—What is as important as the above is equipment. If The Advocate Job Department was not fitted out as it is, with the most modern machinery and the very latest in type faces, it could not handle the fast growing trade, that has developed in the past year, of turning out that BETTER class of printing. Only the best inks are used, because this is necessary when high grade stock is used.

Now, Mr. Business Man, if you will read the above over carefully, see how your supply stands, then get in touch with this office, we feel sure you will become a customer. Give up that old-fangled notion that first class printing comes only from the large city printing offices. As a matter of fact, the reverse is the case, and prices are invariably lower.

REMEMBER THAT WE DO ALL KINDS OF PRINTING

For commercial use, we have superior grades of Letter, Note and Bill Head Stock, at prices and quality to suit any business and any purse. Our prices range from $2.50 to $4.00 per thousand for Letter Heads, and from $2.50 to $3.25 per thousand for Envelopes. Our Envelopes are the same material as our papers, and therefore match. We are always pleased to submit samples of stock, and prices, on application.

More Business IS WHAT WE WANT

You want the work—we want to do it for you. We have just the grade of paper you want, so why not let us get together in a co-operative way and make a strong pull for increased business—more business than usual.

The many friends of Major Randolph Crocker will be pleased to learn he is able to attend to his duties as commanding officer of the 28th Field Battery, after having been laid up in the hospital.

Get it Earlier
If you place your name on our mailing list you will get your paper at the 3 o'clock delivery, and more regularly than through the newsboys, who very often fail to call at your home. $1.00 per year.

Chance to Offer Suggestions
There is a department now running in the Advocate called, "How to Beautify Newcastle." Use of this department can very fittingly be made by the new Improvement League in the way of offering suggestions.

Red Cross Shipment
In answer to a notice in the local papers the Red Cross Society of Whitney, Strathadam and South Esk, on April 16th, shipped by way of St. John, two boxes containing 22 sheets, 72 pillows, 52 towels, 78 bandages, 336 hospital handkerchiefs, 24 men's handkerchiefs, 13 hospital shirts and 4 pillows, to be forwarded to the Duchess of Connaught Canadian Red Cross hospital at Clivedon, Eng.

This society is to be commended for their most generous contributions, and a vote of thanks is especially due Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Parker for their work and kindness to the Society, which met at their home during the past winter.

LET ME EXPLAIN

St. Stephen Dollar Day
St. Stephen, N. B. is holding a dollar day to-morrow.

Much Sickness
Much sickness is prevalent in town, the grip being the cause of the most of it.

Died Suddenly
Mr. Elijah Vye, I. R. C. section foreman at Nelson, died very suddenly Saturday forenoon.

Interesting Items
Items of local interest will always be found on pages two, three and six, with a good serial on page seven. Always look these pages over.

Came up Monday
The Str. Dorothy N. came up from Chatham on Monday, working her way, with some difficulty, through the broken ice.

Steadily Increasing
The classified ads. on page six are increasing with every issue. If you are looking for a good breed of poultry, or if you have any to sell, this page will do the trick.

Please be Careful
The Advocate respectfully calls the attention of the Moncton Times that several articles appeared in its issue of the 16th wrongly credited to this paper.

Moncton Boy Wounded
Word has been received in Moncton to the effect that Pte. Daniel VanBuskirk, who enlisted with Capt. F. R. Sumner and went to England with the first contingent, was wounded on the firing line and has been invalided home.

Prisoners Landed
Some three hundred German prisoners were landed at St. John Friday night, and were taken to Amherst on Saturday to be placed in the detention camp.

Social Dance
Invitations are being issued for a social dance in the Town Hall on Thursday evening, April 29th, given by the officers and staff at the Wireless Station. Dancing will begin at nine o'clock sharp, and Gelkie's orchestra will furnish the music. The chaperons are Mesdames E. W. Sawyer, J. Robinson, Jr., J. Morrissy, J. D. Buckley, R. H. Armstrong and C. D. Manney. Mr. D. A. Jackson, secretary. This is expected to be the event of the season. The invitations were issued from the Advocate job department.

NOTICE

This is to give notice that Mr. W. S. Caie is no longer authorized to transact business for The Miramichi Publishing Co.

Card of Thanks
Mr. and Mrs. Rae and family wish to thank their many friends for the kindness and sympathy shown them in their recent sad bereavement.

Woodburn Conservatories
An advertisement of the "Woodburn Farm Conservatories, Chatham, of which Mr. Geo. E. Fisher, is proprietor, appears in this issue. In another column also will be found an interesting write-up of this thriving industry, which we invite our readers to look up.

Sent up for Trial
Scott McConnell, of Blackville, and Gus McGee, of Moncton, brought before Police Magistrate Maltby on Thursday morning for preliminary examination, on a charge of stealing hides from the I. R. C., were sent up for trial. I. R. C. detective Harry Culligan was present at the hearing. Both men were arrested by Deputy Sheriff Irving and handed over to Chief of Police Chamberlain. McConnell made a clean breast of the affair to the Chief.

Received Response
At Christmas when a box was being prepared for shipment to the Queen Mary's Needlework Guild, a message from a local member of the Society placed in a parcel received response from Hon. Lady Lawley, through her secretary, in a letter of thanks for generous help and kind message to Her Majesty Queen Mary. Her Majesty is much touched by the response with which her appeal has been met by practically the whole civilized world, and the sympathy shown to Britain and her Allies in these sad dark days. The expression of loyalty and affection for herself, too, have touched Her Majesty deeply.

David McKenzie
The death of David McKenzie of Douglstown occurred yesterday. Deceased was a prosperous farmer, and an honored Presbyterian. He was 67 years old. His wife (formerly Miss Mary Wallace of Bartibogue) predeceased him by 22 years. He leaves two children: Mrs. Geo. Russell, of Rosebank, and Miss Rena at home. Two grandsons, P. rley and Arthur Roy, sons of his deceased daughter, Mrs. John Roy, also lived with him. John McKenzie and Mrs. Richard Anderson, of Douglstown, are brother and sister of the deceased.

Passed Resolution
Sunday afternoon, at the Mass meeting for men in St. James' hall, Evangelist Rev. Jas. G. Potter, spoke strongly on the need of personal temperance, purity and honesty. A resolution in favor of total abstinence and entire suppression of the liquor traffic for beverage purposes during the war was carried by a unanimous standing vote. A strong speech in favor of the motion was made by Mr. E. A. McCurdy, who cited Russia's and Britain's examples and made a strong appeal for total abstinence and the setting of a good example.

Let Me Explain In Opera House

Musical Comedy by Local Talent Under Red Cross Auspices

Posters are out and everything is in readiness for the musical comedy, Let Me Explain, which will be given in the opera house two nights, Friday and Saturday, April 23rd and 24th, under the auspices of the Red Cross Society, by Newcastle amateurs.

A chorus of fifty voices under the efficient directorship of Mr. A. H. Cole, will be heard to great effect, and it is expected to prove one of the best, if not the best, local entertainments ever given up in Newcastle. The very best local talent will be heard, and it is expected to prove a grand success in every particular. Tickets at 25, 35 and 50 cents are now on sale at A. E. Shaw's drug store.

Empire Day
Friday, May 21st, has been set apart this year as Empire Day.

House Cleaning

Painting is part of it—just as much as scrubbing and scouring. There are spots that water cannot remove, and discolorations that scouring will not take away. Use the paint brush in such cases.

THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS FAMILY PAINT

In small cans, is made to meet the thousand and one demands for a little paint about the house. It is ready to use. Dries quickly with a good gloss. Can be washed.

Other paints for special purposes that will come in handy during house cleaning time. Tell us what you want so we'll tell you the paint to use.

Happy Hour Patrons

Watch for sensational developments in the new serial, "The Twenty Million Dollar Mystery" (Zudora). James Cruze who is playing the leading masculine role, will be shown in dual character, playing the part of the hero and villain.

The portrayal of the hero will be one of the most sensational things in motion pictures. In this part, he will eclipse his best as "Jimmie Norton" in the "Million Dollar Mystery." The new sensations in Zudora, or "The Twenty Million Dollar Mystery" will come with such rapidity and such a multitude of thrills that you will be keyed to the highest pitch of expectancy.

Next Monday is the opening chapter of the "Twenty Million Dollar Mystery" and it will continue for ten weeks. It will carry suspense from each episode and many remarkable scenes are now being styled for this serial. All the actors and actresses, excepting Flo La Badie, who made "The Million Dollar Mystery" famous, will be seen in above photoplay, including Sidney Bracey who took such a wonderful part in the Thanouser serial. Remember next Monday and watch each week for spectacular events—melodramatic thrills and excitement galore. See ad. on page one.

Mrs. David Whitney
The death of Mrs. David Whitney took place at her home in Whitneyville yesterday. Deceased was 88 years of age. Her maiden name was Miss Margaret Russell, and she was a native of Whitneyville. Besides her husband she leaves the following children: James, of Sevogle; Mrs. Alex. Sherrard, Boom Road; Moses, proprietor of the Royal Hotel, Newcastle; Allan, of Whitneyville, and Miss Susan, at home. Peter Russell, of Whitneyville is a brother of deceased. The funeral will be held this afternoon, interment in Whitneyville Presbyterian cemetery. Mrs. Whitney was a respected member of the Presbyterian church.
