Don't Chide the Children.

Don't scold the little ones if the bed is wet in the morning. It isn't the child's fault. It is suffering from a weakness of the kidneys and bladder, and weak kidneys need strengthening—that's all. You can't afford to risk delay. Neglect may result in a lifetime of suffering and misery.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

Strengthen the kidneys and bladder, then all trouble is at an end.

Mrs. E. Kidner, a London, Ont., mother, living at 499 Gray St., says:

"My little daughter, six years old, has had weak kidneys since birth. Last February I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Simpson's drug store. Since taking them she has had no more kidney trouble of any kind. I gladly make this statement because of the benefit my child has received from this medicine."

MISCELLANEOUS.

"Mr. B. Zz," asked the little girl, "don't you hate to have to go down to one of those low notes?"

"Not at all, Kitty," replied the eminent vocalist. "What put that in your head?"

"Why, you always look as if it hurt."

Destroys Worms.

Mrs. John Lowe, New Germany, N. S., writes: "I have given Dr. Lowe's Worm Syrup to my children with excellent results. They are fond of taking it and it acts perfectly, requiring no cathartic afterwards."

Minard's Liniment cures Dandruff.

Items of Catholic Interest in the Magazines.

(Sacred Heart Review.)

The December Century contains the following beautiful sonnet: MOTHER AND CHILD.

Mother and Child! There is no holier sight In all the realms of morning and of night! And all the meaning of that word, Divine, Shines in the tender glory of this sign. The world learns Worship here, it knells in awe, Seeing a mystery, knowing a mighty law. Sin cannot live in presence of this grace, No least unworthiness perplex the place. Here Good doth dwell, but never baneful Doubt, For Love and Loveliness would cast it out. Were prophet voices still, the heaven's brass, Here would a new Evangel come to pass; Out from the dark a res-leaf hand would leap, Close to the Eternal Throne the ancient world to keep.

CHRISTMAS CRIBS.

The same magazine contains an article by Emma Ernestine Porter on "Christmas Mangers," or, as we should call them, "Christmas Crib," in a collection gathered in the Bavarian National Museum at Munich. "The Roman Catholic Crib," says the writer, "is its constant appeal to the eyes and ears of its followers, has, through long centuries, invented some very beautiful methods of teaching little children, as well as those children of older growth, the unlettered and the untaught. Thus it is that the Holy Saviour is still built on Good Friday in many foreign churches, while on Christmas Eve the manger of the maiden and the little one who represented Mary and Jesus, as well as the animals, with holy water we all followed the kindly old rector to the chief entrance of the church. The scene there was one which I shall never forget. All the cattle and flocks of the village had been driven into the old churchyard, and stood there crowded together, in the silvery light of a full moon, around the open portal. Standing on the topmost step of the porch, with his acolytes and surpliced choristers around him, the venerable white-haired priest, who had had charge of the parish for close upon forty years, exclaimed: "God, in His mercy, my dear children, has sent me on this radiant night of the Nativity to bless your cattle and your flocks, because it is only right that the animals which constitute your greatest help and source of prosperity should participate in the joy which fills all our hearts. Now lead your flocks past me!" The shepherds and cattle herders then began to drive the animals past us, while the priest, dipping the sprinkler into the silver ewer of holy water, showered the latter upon the oxen and the sheep; and amid the clang of the bells around their necks, their lowing and their baying, as well as the words and cries of their drivers, ever and anon were heard the solemn words of the priest: "Benedictus es omnipotens Deus, Pater et Filius et Spiritus Sanctus," the choristers bringing the blessing to a close with a resounding "Amen." As I watched the animals vanishing one after the other into the night, it seemed to me as if I were carried back to the primitive times of the early Christians, and as if our matter-of-fact, prosaic, and materialistic nineteenth century was not a reality but only a nightmare.—New York Tribune.

Get the Most Out of Your Food

You don't and can't if your stomach is weak. A weak stomach does not digest all that is ordinarily taken into it. It gets tired easily, and what it fails to digest is wasted.

Among the signs of a weak stomach are: uneasiness after eating, fits of nervous headache, and disagreeable belching.

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia for years, and tried every remedy I heard of, but never got anything that gave me relief until I took Hood's Sarsaparilla. I cannot praise this medicine too highly for the good it has done me. I always take it in the spring and fall and would not be without it." W. A. NUGENT, Ballville, Ont.

TWO BOXES OF MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

Cured Mrs. Edmond Brown, Inwood, Ont., when she had almost given up hope of ever getting well again.

She writes: "I was so run down that I was not able to do my work, was short of breath, had a sour stomach every night and could scarcely eat. My heart palpitated, I had faint and dizzy spells and felt weak and nervous all the time. My husband got me a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills but I told him it was no use, that I had given up hope of ever being cured. He however persuaded me to take them and before I had used half the box I began to feel better. Two boxes made a new woman of me and I have been well and able to do my work ever since. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. per box, or 3 for $1.25, all dealers or THE T. MILBURN CO., Ltd. Toronto, Ont.

Minard's Liniment cures

Hagyard's Yellow Oil cures all pain in man or beast; for sprains, cuts, bruises, callous lumps, swellings, inflammation, rheumatism and neuralgia it is a specific.

"What a love of a book that new author has got out!" "Yes, yes. Such beautiful binding and a pink ribbon bookmark given away as a premium to every purchaser!"

Minard's Liniment relieves neuralgia.

That aching head can be instantly relieved by taking one of Milburn's Sterling Headache Powders. 1 powder 5c, 3 for 10c, 10 for 25c.

"Miss Charmington says she is very fond of animals," remarked Bliggen's sister. "Perhaps there's hopes for me then," said Bliggen, "she led me a brute the other day."

Chilblains.

Mrs. J. B. Rusk, Ruskview, Ont., says: "I have used Hagyard's Yellow Oil for chilblains, and found it most effective. It relieves the irritation almost immediately and a few applications made a complete cure."

"I can let you have this set bound, in Morocco, if you prefer," said the book salesman.

"No," said Mr. Ne'rich, "I believe in patronizing home industry, I'd rather have 'em bound right here in Philadelph'ia."

HAD OVER 500 BOILS.

This may seem an exaggeration to you, BUT IT IS TRUE.

All sufferers from Bad Blood should read about this miraculous cure by BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS.

CURED IN 1885.

Mr. David F. Mott writes us from Spring Valley, Ont., in 1885. He said: "I suffered from impure blood and had over 500 boils, but since taking BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS I am entirely cured, and can recommend it to any person troubled with bad blood."

CONFIRMED IN 1901.

Mr. Mott writes us from 62 Broad St., Utica, N.Y., under date of Dec. 31st, 1901. He says:—Some time ago I received a letter from your firm, saying that some years ago you received a testimonial from me, stating that I had over 500 boils. Yes, sir, I had, and I must say that I have never had the appearance of one since I took the course of your BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS. I think God that I have had good health ever since; for I was a great sufferer. I wish B.B.B. a world of success, which it surely deserves." For sale at Tux T. M.

A Breton Christmas Scene.

I remember in particular a mid night Mass which I attended one Christmas Eve in the church of an old Breton village where we were spending the holidays. The snow and storm beaten edifice, when we entered it shortly before midnight was filled to overflowing with kneeling and to one quietly arrayed peasants. On the right side of the altar a bower had been made of fragrant pine and fir branches, with great bunches of crimson-berried holly and waxy mistletoe glistening among the verdure. Under this canopy there sat on a low stool a young girl of great beauty, with her long black hair falling in silky masses on her loose white garments. In her arms she held an infant, beside her stood a young man, wearing a gold embroidered robe and leaning on a heavy staff, while an ox, a donkey and four sheep were quietly munching corn from a couple of manglers. The celebration of the Mass began. A small chorister sang the "Puer natus est nobis." (For to us a child is born). The deep bass voice of another grown-up chorister, hidden in a corner in the fir-branch bower above described, gave the response of "Ubi?" (Where?) A tenor chorister, concealed near the sheep added the word "Bethlehem," and then a baritone voice brayed "Emmas." (Let us go thither). Thereupon the priest, his acolytes, and the entire congregation formed into a procession and marched to the fir-bower where the representation of the Nativity had been arranged. The maiden and the little one who represented Mary and Jesus, as well as the animals, with holy water we all followed the kindly old rector to the chief entrance of the church. The scene there was one which I shall never forget. All the cattle and flocks of the village had been driven into the old churchyard, and stood there crowded together, in the silvery light of a full moon, around the open portal. Splendid Conservative Victory.

In a bye election for the Ontario Legislature held in the Northern riding of Renfrew County, on Saturday last, the Conservatives achieved a splendid victory, electing their candidate, Mr. Danlop, by a majority of about 600 over his opponent, Mr. Hay, the Liberal Government candidate.

A Work of Rare Merit.

A noteworthy book is that recently written by the Very Rev. Dr. Macdonald, V. G., of Antigonish, entitled "The Symbol of the Apostles." This work is one of learned research on the authorship of the Apostles Creed, and is one of the best treatises on the subject that has yet appeared.

red mysteries,—the sacraments &c. were religiously preserved from the wanton insults of the pagan populace. These mysteries were taught orally to the candidates for baptism, who committed them to memory, and in this way they were handed down without being committed to writing, until the great persecutions by the imperial rulers of Rome had come to an end.

All this, and a variety of other aspects of the question of the Symbol, are most exhaustively and lucidly treated by the learned author who abundantly and effectively cites the earliest Christian writers in support of his position. Indeed, we are aware of no other work of the kind in which is evidenced such discerning original research, or such well trained and effective erudition, and withal presented in so plain and intelligible a manner that the ordinary reader can peruse the work with genuine literary pleasure.

The English reading public is to be congratulated on having at their hands such a learned work on so fundamental a subject. The great regret should be that there are not many more such works in our language. Doctor Macdonald's book is one that should be read by Christians of all denominations. It will not surprise us to see in the very near future the work translated into many of the languages of Europe, where this and many kindred questions of the primitive Church are being actively investigated.

Our Ottawa Letter.

LIBERALS RAISE PRICE OF BINDER TWINE.

"Build up Canada" cry the Grits in unison. But how are they doing it? Hon. Wm. Paterson's reports of Trade and Navigation show that Canada is rapidly building up the United States. In the production of binder twine alone, this country has taken a seat so far back, that our importations of that article have more than quadrupled since 1897.

Table with 3 columns: Year, Pounds, Value. Data for years 1897-1903.

With the exception of a few thousand pounds this twine all came from the United States. In 1897 the duty on binder twine was abolished, and at once the imports increased and Canadian factories commenced to close.

But the Liberals promised that no duty would mean cheaper binder twine. Let us see? In 1897, 3,364,425 pounds of binder twine imported was valued at $180,164, or 5.38 cents per pound. In that year $22,195 duty was collected, and adding this, binder twine was worth in Canada 6.01 cents per pound. In 1903, 14,204,515 pounds worth $1,810,238, or 12.74 cents per pound, were imported into Canada.

That is a fair sample of what was accomplished by the Laurier policy. With a 12 1/2 per cent duty, under Conservative rule, Canadian factories flourished and Americans were willing to sell binder twine for 5.38 cents per pound. With binder twine free Canadian factories are closed and American twine costs the Canadian merchant 12.74 cents per pound.

ANOTHER DISASTROUS LAURIER LAW.

The Manitoba Grain Act has come in for much well-deserved criticism. It is based on the Minnesota General Railway Law and the Warehouse and Grain Law. At the instigation of Messrs. Davis, Scott and other western Liberal demagogues, however, changes were made in the Minnesota Act, by which, instead of cars being apportioned one to each farmer and the balance to the man with the most grain to ship, the superfluous cars are handed over to meet "the requirements for each applicant," "requirements" being taken to mean not the actual needs of each shipper relatively to the quantity of grain he has on hand or in sight, but the order of his application and the number of cars he chooses to call for.

This interpretation has practically sidetracked the elevators in favor of platform loading. The result is that whereas in Minnesota the elevators handle grain with despatch and enable it to be promptly laid down at Duluth or Minneapolis, in Canada millions of bushels are tied up to the great loss of the farmer, banks, railways, Canadian ports, and Canadian business men.

Not only that but the efforts of the Canadian Pacific to properly equip its road are nullified by the mischievous law. The C. P. R. have spent millions to provide easy transportation of western products, but the Manitoba Grain Act, as a result of political intrigues, has resulted in disaster so far as Canadian interests are concerned. It is just another example of the effect of the Laurier government's reckless legislation.

BRITISH BILLING FOR CANADIANS.

The Liberal plan of campaign has been announced and as has been repeatedly pointed out, there is to be a decided favor of reciprocity with the United States about it. Conservatives have frequently brought down upon their devoted heads the severest criticism, because they dared to say "what everybody knew, that the Liberal party, under its present leaders, has always been and always will be against British interests and in favor of good treatment of the United States."

Sir Richard Cartwright, whom the Toronto Globe designates "The Nestor of Canadian Politics," has written a book that is one of the best and most useful that has been published in this country, and that is to use it as a stepping-stone to reciprocity. He coolly contends that Canada, in 1903, $131,202,321 worth of produce and sold us only $55,996,001 worth, is to be made the calypso to pull the trade chestnut for the United States, whose sales in this country last year amounted to $137,605,195, and whose purchases were only valued at $71,783,924.

Sir William Melick, whose name is among those mentioned as Sir Wilfrid Laurier's successor, introduced Sir Richard to the Toronto audience which received the mandate of the Minister of Trade and Commerce. This shows how authoritative were Sir Richard's words. But will Canadians tolerate such base ingratitude to Great Britain, their best customer, and the accompanying conspiracy to hand them over body and soul to the mercy of the United States trusts? The people of Canada, irrespective of party, should at once make Sir Wilfrid Laurier understand that the day is past when the American dollar is to be preferred to the English shilling.

MR. FIELDING'S RECIPROCAL VIEWS.

The advocacy of a policy of reciprocity with the United States by Sir Richard Cartwright and Mr. Cartwright, two of the leading lights of the Liberal party, recalls the utterance of another member of the government, Hon. W. S. Fielding, who not only attempted to force free trade and reciprocity on the country, but declared himself in favor of smashing the Canadian confederation, Mr. Fielding, in June, 1888, declared himself to be a Nova Scotian first and a Canadian second, and announced himself by heaping maledictions on the heads of the people of Ontario, Quebec and the West.

When Sir Charles Tupper says that Nova Scotia could not get a reciprocity treaty unless she obtained reciprocity and in six months a treaty would be signed and every kind of property in Nova Scotia would double in value and prosperity would once more abound Vote for Reciprocity!

A RAILWAY accident occurred at Summerside on Saturday forenoon last. Fortunately there was no loss of life, and beyond a shaking up and a few cuts and bruises, no severe injury was sustained. The accident seems to have been due to some defect in the semaphore. The main line express from Charlottetown, while passing the Water Street crossing collided head-on with the shunter which was coming up from the Railway Wharf with five box cars mostly empty and two flat cars loaded with stone. The engineer of the express did not discover the trouble with the semaphore until the shunter was almost immediately in front of him. The engineer of the shunter noticed the express was approaching and reversed his engine in time to prevent what might have been a very serious accident. As it was the two engines came together with tremendous force, and the shunter was driven back to the middle of the crossing. The engines were so tightly locked together that it took about half an hour to separate them with the strength of two extra engines. Both locomotives were considerably damaged. One box car was derailed and buried over on the street several feet from the track, another was also derailed and partly turned over. Tenders were also partly derailed and damaged. The engineers of both trains, stuck in their positions, the "brakes" of the express and shunter jumped to escape possible injury. D. J. McDonald, mail clerk, and some passengers on the express were considerably shaken up; but fortunately no injury of any consequence was sustained.

THE STYLISH OUTFITTERS.

A Happy and Prosperous New Year to all our Customers.

We likewise extend the same cordial greeting to all those whom we EXPECT to be customers during 1904.

It is scarcely six months since the New Firm started business, and although greatly hindered during the first few months, on account of a shortage in all lines of stock, which, of course, could not be replaced at short notice, we have succeeded past our most sanguine expectations. Our store is now completely stocked with a NEW and thoroughly reliable stock, and it will be our aim during 1904 to add to and improve upon it in every possible way. In a word, we will be satisfied with nothing less than a first-class store in every respect.

We have made several important changes in the store itself, having now a much larger and better ventilated office—a decided improvement in the Cash Desk—a complete renovation upstairs for the accommodation of our "Perfection Brand Clothing," and a magnificent system of lighting, besides several minor improvements.

Our Christmas Trade has been enormous, and we feel deeply grateful to our numerous friends in city and country who helped to make ours a Merry Christmas indeed!

Again wishing that the coming year may bring you one and all good health and material prosperity.

We are yours gratefully,

SENTNER, TRAINOR & CO.

Don't forget the old man with the fish on his back. For nearly thirty years he has been traveling around the world, and is still traveling, bringing health and comfort wherever he goes.

To the consumptive he brings the strength and flesh he so much needs. To all weak and sickly children he gives rich and strengthening food. To thin and pale persons he gives new firm flesh and rich red blood.

Children who first saw the old man with the fish are now grown up and have children of their own. He stands for Scott's Emulsion of pure cod liver oil—a delightful food and a natural tonic for children, for old folks and for all who need flesh and strength.
