

AST, TORONTO.
nced by all to
G. We show
S, All Styles.
ionable styles. WE
from all parts of
ng is the Largest OODS.

kerchief Sale!
RRER'S CONSIGNMENT OF DKERCHIEFS
one on Table for SALE TO-DAY,
this month.

GOODS.
LAKING BOOTS FOR DIES
and Dull Kid, attentions are carefully made, very
and are in great widths.

SHOES.
SUMMER
TOES AT COST.
STREET WEST.

DESIGNS!
ber Suites,
not procur-
d perfectly
city, and the lowest

COMPANY,
ST.
DERTAKERS
OBE & CO.
A STREET
ED TO NIGHT AND DAY.

MUMPHREY,
RTAKER,
E STREET,
E COMMUNICATION.

SITUATIONS WANTED.
A COMPANION BY A YOUNG LADY.
A ASSISTANT BOOKKEEPER OR OFFICE work of any kind, by a competent young man, with good references. Address 10, 108 Shuter street.

A YOUNG MAN, NINETEEN YEARS OF AGE, strong and willing to work with any firm, seeks employment. Address box 57, World office, Toronto.

A HOUSEKEEPER TO A SINGLE MAN, MAN or widow, with a good knowledge of household duties. Address 188, World office.

A RESPECTABLE YOUNG WOMAN WOULD be glad to do any kind of work, with or without references. Address 10, 108 Shuter street.

A YOUNG MAN HAVING HIS EVENINGS to spare, wishes to work with any firm. Apply Box 109, World office.

A REPORTER CORRESPONDENT OR AS-SISTANT REPORTER, with a good knowledge of shorthand and penmanship. Address 10, 108 Shuter street.

A YOUNG MAN WITH A GOOD KNOWLEDGE of shorthand and penmanship, wishes to work for any firm. Address 10, 108 Shuter street.

A HOUSEKEEPER TO A SINGLE MAN, MAN or widow, with a good knowledge of household duties. Address 188, World office.

PETLEY & CO.
Have received this Season, three First, two Second and one extra
Prize, for fine ordered Clothing, at the Toronto Industrial and Provincial Exhibition at London.

Gentlemen requiring fine Clothing should not fail to inspect our immense stock of new Winter Suitings, Trouserings and Overcoat-ings.

PETLEY & CO.,
GOLDEN GRIFFIN,
King St. East Toronto.

AMUSEMENTS.
GRAND OPERA HOUSE.
O. B. SHEPPARD, MANAGER.

TO-NIGHT AND TO-MORROW NIGHT,
OUR BOYS.
MR. LINDARD as FERDY MIDDLEWICK.

ROYAL OPERA HOUSE!
King Street, between Bay and York Sts.
JAS. FRANKLIN, Proprietor.

WREN'S NEW YORK COY
UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.
Special Prices this Engagement.

MEETINGS.
SPIRITUAL INVESTIGATIONS!
Parlor Seances held at 104 RICHMOND STREET WEST every Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings at 8 p. m.

A LEAGUE MANIFESTO.
HOW IRELAND IS SET DOWN BY ENGLISH RULE.
The Home Rulers Indemnify they ask that Irishland Control her laws.

DUBLIN, Nov. 8.—A manifesto addressed to the Irish people by the Home Ruler League despites the present condition of affairs in Ireland, and declares that the state of things which prevails in this country would be an eternal disgrace even to the worst and most uncivilized government on the face of the globe.

Failure of the Fisheries—Living on Glass and Potatoes—Treading the Island.
Respecting the distress in Antioch, one correspondent, writing from West Point, says:—"The excess of poverty prevailing is caused by the failure of the fisheries, which this season turned out a total failure.

THE TERRIBLE TYPHOON.
Two Hundred Churches Destroyed by it in China Six Thousand People Ruined—Great Distress.

AMERICAN TELEGRAPHIC FLASHES.
C. L. Sheppard, a breeder of Ayrshire cattle, was killed by a bull yesterday afternoon at Norfolk, N. Y.

THE MURDERER LEFROY.
He is Sentenced to Death—Protecting His Innocence.
MADISON, Nov. 8.—The trial of Lefroy for the murder of Mr. Gold closed to-day.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.
A. M. MACDONALD, BARRISTER, ATTOR-NEY, 101, Wellington Street, West, Toronto.

EL PADRE.
It is now thought that little Ernest Avey was abducted. The police have got a clue.

ATLANTA—MISCHIEF.
The Race for Today—The Trial of the Case for the Obedient Statutes.
NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The yacht Atlanta took a preliminary spin down the bay yesterday. They sailed up along the bay, yesterday, which pleased all on board.

NOVEMBER ELECTIONS.
BLOODSHED BETWEEN WHITES AND
NEGROES IN MISSISSIPPI.
Democratic Gains in New York—Republican Success in Massachusetts.
MISSISSIPPI.
Yesterday state officers were elected in Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Mississippi, Nebraska, New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia and Wisconsin; but only in Massachusetts, Minnesota, Mississippi, Virginia and Wisconsin were governors chosen.

MASSACHUSETTS.
The vote throughout the state was unusually light. It is estimated that Long will be elected Governor by a majority of 25,000 to 30,000. The vote in showing a republican gain of 4300 over last year.

PERSONAL CHIT CHAT.
Milla, the artist, is a famous angler.
Miss Parnell, the London World says, is now known as the "Sally Brass of the North."

THE AMAZONIAN SKIRT.
Their First Appearance in New York—The Merits
of the New Dress.
Last Sunday a well-known young leader
of New York fashion appeared at 8 o'clock
and walked from Twenty-ninth to Fourth street in an amazonian skirt, and then took
her carriage which was followed by a crowd
and rode away to a friend's house up-town.

THE AMAZONIAN SKIRT.
Their First Appearance in New York—The Merits
of the New Dress.
Last Sunday a well-known young leader
of New York fashion appeared at 8 o'clock
and walked from Twenty-ninth to Fourth
street in an amazonian skirt, and then took
her carriage which was followed by a crowd
and rode away to a friend's house up-town.

THE AMAZONIAN SKIRT.
Their First Appearance in New York—The Merits
of the New Dress.
Last Sunday a well-known young leader
of New York fashion appeared at 8 o'clock
and walked from Twenty-ninth to Fourth
street in an amazonian skirt, and then took
her carriage which was followed by a crowd
and rode away to a friend's house up-town.

THE AMAZONIAN SKIRT.
Their First Appearance in New York—The Merits
of the New Dress.
Last Sunday a well-known young leader
of New York fashion appeared at 8 o'clock
and walked from Twenty-ninth to Fourth
street in an amazonian skirt, and then took
her carriage which was followed by a crowd
and rode away to a friend's house up-town.

THE PROVINCE ROBBED.
Pecuniations at the Hamilton Asylum—A Supply Contractor and the Steward Under Arrest.
HAMILTON, Nov. 8.—Some time ago the authorities of the insane asylum here discovered that sums of money and stores disappeared from that institution at intervals.
The police were informed, as also Mr.
Laughran, who came to the city yesterday and conferred with the police. To-day the chief of detectives McKenzie, Gates and Cassidy, and Constable Campbell arrested John Shaw, steward of the asylum, and Walter Muirhead, the well-known butcher of this city, and two men employed by the latter, John Fraser and John Lanman.
Muirhead supplies the asylum with meat.
It is said that one of them has made a breast of his connection with the alleged crime, implicating all the others. The police are not sure as to what really has occurred, but the above facts have been learned on good authority, and can be relied on as the correct state of affairs so far.
It is said that Dr. Wallace, the medical superintendent, has suffered from petty theft for some time, and that he was continually missing money from his drawer.

AFAIRS AT OTTAWA.
RUMORED CABINET CHANGES.
OTTAWA, Nov. 8.—The latest rumors with regard to cabinet changes are that Sir Alex. Campbell will be given a judgeship and will be succeeded in the department of justice by Sir John Macdonald, whose place as minister of the interior will be filled by Hon. D. L. Macpherson; that Hon. John O'Connor will retire from the cabinet and be succeeded by Dr. Bergin, M.P.

THE CITIZEN AND THE N. E.
THE CITIZEN (Conservative) this morning concludes a long article under the heading "The Struggle Continued" with the following: "As the campaign is already fairly open, what is to be done cannot be done too soon. We say let the coming verdict in favor of the national policy be such a strong one that it will be a reformatory trial will be laughed out of court."

CHIEF AND MISFORTUNE.
James Davis was yesterday arrested on a warrant charging him with maliciously injuring some property of William Dowling.
Yesterday Henry Thorne and John Richardson, went to goal for three days for stealing about thirty bags from J.
Magraw. They were cautioned that the next time it would be a reformatory trial.

PERSONAL CHIT CHAT.
Milla, the artist, is a famous angler.
Miss Parnell, the London World says, is now known as the "Sally Brass of the North."

PERSONAL CHIT CHAT.
Milla, the artist, is a famous angler.
Miss Parnell, the London World says, is now known as the "Sally Brass of the North."

PERSONAL CHIT CHAT.
Milla, the artist, is a famous angler.
Miss Parnell, the London World says, is now known as the "Sally Brass of the North."

PERSONAL CHIT CHAT.
Milla, the artist, is a famous angler.
Miss Parnell, the London World says, is now known as the "Sally Brass of the North."

ABOUT CANADA'S FUTURE.
ARGUMENTS IN FAVOR OF THE INDEPENDENCE VIEW.
The Mail and Independence—Now that Journal
Years second—Sir Alexander Galt's Position.
THEIR WORK.—We all know at what
a low ebb the Mail's loyalty had fallen just
anterior to the last general election. It
had then in prospective a change in our
commercial and fiscal policy which it knew
to be entirely at variance with, and contrary to, the commercial policy of the mother land. But it hesitated not to sacrifice its loyalty for the sake of obtaining
place and power for its party. Canada
first was its continuum for. "If we succeed, so much worse for British connection,"
it had decreed, and

THEIR WORK.—We all know at what
a low ebb the Mail's loyalty had fallen just
anterior to the last general election. It
had then in prospective a change in our
commercial and fiscal policy which it knew
to be entirely at variance with, and contrary to, the commercial policy of the
mother land. But it hesitated not to sacrifice its loyalty for the sake of obtaining
place and power for its party. Canada
first was its continuum for. "If we suc-
ceed, so much worse for British connection,"
it had decreed, and

THEIR WORK.—We all know at what
a low ebb the Mail's loyalty had fallen just
anterior to the last general election. It
had then in prospective a change in our
commercial and fiscal policy which it knew
to be entirely at variance with, and contrary to, the commercial policy of the
mother land. But it hesitated not to sacrifice its loyalty for the sake of obtaining
place and power for its party. Canada
first was its continuum for. "If we suc-
ceed, so much worse for British connection,"
it had decreed, and

THEIR WORK.—We all know at what
a low ebb the Mail's loyalty had fallen just
anterior to the last general election. It
had then in prospective a change in our
commercial and fiscal policy which it knew
to be entirely at variance with, and contrary to, the commercial policy of the
mother land. But it hesitated not to sacrifice its loyalty for the sake of obtaining
place and power for its party. Canada
first was its continuum for. "If we suc-
ceed, so much worse for British connection,"
it had decreed, and

THEIR WORK.—We all know at what
a low ebb the Mail's loyalty had fallen just
anterior to the last general election. It
had then in prospective a change in our
commercial and fiscal policy which it knew
to be entirely at variance with, and contrary to, the commercial policy of the
mother land. But it hesitated not to sacrifice its loyalty for the sake of obtaining
place and power for its party. Canada
first was its continuum for. "If we suc-
ceed, so much worse for British connection,"
it had decreed, and

THEIR WORK.—We all know at what
a low ebb the Mail's loyalty had fallen just
anterior to the last general election. It
had then in prospective a change in our
commercial and fiscal policy which it knew
to be entirely at variance with, and contrary to, the commercial policy of the
mother land. But it hesitated not to sacrifice its loyalty for the sake of obtaining
place and power for its party. Canada
first was its continuum for. "If we suc-
ceed, so much worse for British connection,"
it had decreed, and

THEIR WORK.—We all know at what
a low ebb the Mail's loyalty had fallen just
anterior to the last general election. It
had then in prospective a change in our
commercial and fiscal policy which it knew
to be entirely at variance with, and contrary to, the commercial policy of the
mother land. But it hesitated not to sacrifice its loyalty for the sake of obtaining
place and power for its party. Canada
first was its continuum for. "If we suc-
ceed, so much worse for British connection,"
it had decreed, and

THEIR WORK.—We all know at what
a low ebb the Mail's loyalty had fallen just
anterior to the last general election. It
had then in prospective a change in our
commercial and fiscal policy which it knew
to be entirely at variance with, and contrary to, the commercial policy of the
mother land. But it hesitated not to sacrifice its loyalty for the sake of obtaining
place and power for its party. Canada
first was its continuum for. "If we suc-
ceed, so much worse for British connection,"
it had decreed, and

THEIR WORK.—We all know at what
a low ebb the Mail's loyalty had fallen just
anterior to the last general election. It
had then in prospective a change in our
commercial and fiscal policy which it knew
to be entirely at variance with, and contrary to, the commercial policy of the
mother land. But it hesitated not to sacrifice its loyalty for the sake of obtaining
place and power for its party. Canada
first was its continuum for. "If we suc-
ceed, so much worse for British connection,"
it had decreed, and

THEIR WORK.—We all know at what
a low ebb the Mail's loyalty had fallen just
anterior to the last general election. It
had then in prospective a change in our
commercial and fiscal policy which it knew
to be entirely at variance with, and contrary to, the commercial policy of the
mother land. But it hesitated not to sacrifice its loyalty for the sake of obtaining
place and power for its party. Canada
first was its continuum for. "If we suc-
ceed, so much worse for British connection,"
it had decreed, and

THEIR WORK.—We all know at what
a low ebb the Mail's loyalty had fallen just
anterior to the last general election. It
had then in prospective a change in our
commercial and fiscal policy which it knew
to be entirely at variance with, and contrary to, the commercial policy of the
mother land. But it hesitated not to sacrifice its loyalty for the sake of obtaining
place and power for its party. Canada
first was its continuum for. "If we suc-
ceed, so much worse for British connection,"
it had decreed, and

THEIR WORK.—We all know at what
a low ebb the Mail's loyalty had fallen just
anterior to the last general election. It
had then in prospective a change in our
commercial and fiscal policy which it knew
to be entirely at variance with, and contrary to, the commercial policy of the
mother land. But it hesitated not to sacrifice its loyalty for the sake of obtaining
place and power for its party. Canada
first was its continuum for. "If we suc-
ceed, so much worse for British connection,"
it had decreed, and

THEIR WORK.—We all know at what
a low ebb the Mail's loyalty had fallen just
anterior to the last general election. It
had then in prospective a change in our
commercial and fiscal policy which it knew
to be entirely at variance with, and contrary to, the commercial policy of the
mother land. But it hesitated not to sacrifice its loyalty for the sake of obtaining
place and power for its party. Canada
first was its continuum for. "If we suc-
ceed, so much worse for British connection,"
it had decreed, and

THEIR WORK.—We all know at what
a low ebb the Mail's loyalty had fallen just
anterior to the last general election. It
had then in prospective a change in our
commercial and fiscal policy which it knew
to be entirely at variance with, and contrary to, the commercial policy of the
mother land. But it hesitated not to sacrifice its loyalty for the sake of obtaining
place and power for its party. Canada
first was its continuum for. "If we suc-
ceed, so much worse for British connection,"
it had decreed, and

THEIR WORK.—We all know at what
a low ebb the Mail's loyalty had fallen just
anterior to the last general election. It
had then in prospective a change in our
commercial and fiscal policy which it knew
to be entirely at variance with, and contrary to, the commercial policy of the
mother land. But it hesitated not to sacrifice its loyalty for the sake of obtaining
place and power for its party. Canada
first was its continuum for. "If we suc-
ceed, so much worse for British connection,"
it had decreed, and

THEIR WORK.—We all know at what
a low ebb the Mail's loyalty had fallen just
anterior to the last general election. It
had then in prospective a change in our
commercial and fiscal policy which it knew
to be entirely at variance with, and contrary to, the commercial policy of the
mother land. But it hesitated not to sacrifice its loyalty for the sake of obtaining
place and power for its party. Canada
first was its continuum for. "If we suc-
ceed, so much worse for British connection,"
it had decreed, and

THE CITY AND VICINITY.

THE DAILY ROUND OF LIFE IN AND ABOUT TORONTO.

What the People are Doing and Saying and Thinking About. — Edited by C. G. G. G. G. G. G.

The Philharmonic rehearsal last night was very largely attended.

The ever popular Lindard will open again the Grand to-night for a short season.

Mr. Littlejohn, one of the clerks in Mr. Ridd's office, will be discharged tomorrow.

Yesterday the court of revision struck $27,127 off the assessment for St. James ward, two-thirds of the amount being on personal property.

Rev. Canon Carmichael last night delivered the opening lecture of the Y.M.C.A. course, his subject being "Lessons from the early forms of life."

Mrs. Laird of the Mercer reformatory was severely bruised about the head and shoulder by a fall from the door-step of that institution on Monday.

Charles E. Palmer, an old soldier who was wounded in the Indian war, and who now peddles for a living, was lodged in No. 1 station last night for vagrancy.

The inaugural meeting of the Yorkville Y.M.C.A. will take place in the town hall, Thursday evening at 8 p.m.

A farmer was patrolling Dundas street yesterday afternoon looking for his lost purse. He stopped a passer by, offering them the sum of $5 for the return of the purse which contained $25.

The license inspector was on the war-path last night. He had summons issued against ten keepers of unlicensed groggeries and houses of ill-fame in the ward for selling liquor without license.

The committee appointed by the city council on Monday night to confer with the Yorkville committee on the question of annexation consists of the mayor and Ald. Clark, Hewitt, Bousquet and Dennis.

Folis Johnson's liquor license case was enlarged yesterday for an indefinite period. Johnson's counsel, Dalton McCarthy, is engaged in a heavy chancery suit which will probably last all this week.

It is supposed that the reason the contractors have left large sections of the new sidewalk on Yonge street uncompleted is that they are waiting for a fall in nails.

Mr. J. Ross Robertson, was on his way to the World office last evening to inspect the coffin, when his cottage suddenly faired him and he took the 5.40 train for the west. He says he will explain all about it when he returns.

The hearing of the important but not particularly interesting case of Petrie v. the Guelph lumber company was held yesterday at the court of chancery.

Arrangements have been made by the lodges of the Toronto district of the I. O. G. T. for a series of lectures to be delivered weekly by District Deputy F. S. Spence.

Further discoveries were made yesterday in the World office. On pulling up a board in the floor "the branding iron," supposed to be used in the service of partition, was brought to light.

The proposition to open Osgode hall grounds to the public will come before convocation on the 21st inst., with small hopes of success.

A convalescent under the auspices of the Ladies aid society of St. James cathedral took place in St. James school house last night.

ARRESTED, TRIED, SENTENCED.

Spoony Trial of James Dilworth for Pilfering Money Letters.

The processes of law are sometimes speedy enough. On Monday afternoon James Dilworth, an employee of the Mail, was arrested for stealing money letters from the post-office, and on the following morning before twelve o'clock he had been sentenced to five years imprisonment in the penitentiary.

When first apprehended Dilworth protested his innocence, but subsequently confessed that he had pilfered from the post-office, and was charged with stealing a letter containing $2 belonging to the post-master-general.

The prisoner was utterly broken down, and pleading guilty with trembling voice. After sentence was pronounced he presented a sorry spectacle of human weakness, physically and mentally.

He was hardly able to walk away from the box when the case was terminated. The magistrate said that the penalty of stealing from the government was not less than five years and for life.

As the prisoner had given no trouble, but had at once pleaded guilty, money and his ticket to the penitentiary for five years.

The revelations now made known will give newspaper subscribers in the country some insight on a subject that to many of them must have been a mystery.

How was that their subscriptions were not acknowledged by the newspapers to whom they were sent.

The World dropped into a concert-room the other night, and having no car for music, amused himself by watching the various attitudes and expressions of the singer. He could always tell a base note from a tenor without hearing a note.

The tenor throws his chin into the air, raises his eyes and brows so as to give him an expression of mild surprise and stretches his mouth perpetually like a fish.

This expression is caused by his constant efforts to climb up to a high note. The base is always trying to get down, and consequently he digs his chin into his breast, casts down his eyes, knits his brows, and stretches his mouth horizontally.

Like him, we saw the man and woman who, whenever they finished a note, shut their mouths with a snap, and who said, "There, I've done it," and the man who holds his music about a yard in front of him and then throws back his head and utters an indignant exclamation.

The resolution of council passed on Monday night with reference to the mutilated contract was submitted to Judge Mackenzie. He thought that in its present form the resolution gave him power to deal with the matter, and appointed Thursday next at 11 o'clock to commence his investigation.

Although the proceedings are nominally against James Craig, it is intended to sift the whole matter and find out if possible the perpetrator of the mutilation. The judge has no power in such an investigation to mete out punishment, but of course if the result is in point at the guilt of any person, a criminal prosecution will follow.

Mr. Fenton is to conduct the prosecution. The first witnesses examined will be the officials.

The Art loan exhibition of the ladies' work depository will open tomorrow at 14 King street west. Last night men were at work hanging the paintings in the picture gallery.

Yesterday's report should have read Miss Crocker, and not Miss Crocker, and the name of Miss Hamilton Morris, who has been added as one of the vice-presidents.

The Indian and Japanese departments under the superintendence of Miss Cunningham and Miss Crocker, and Miss Short, and is said to contain the largest collection of the curiosities and antiquities of those countries ever collected in one group anywhere in the Dominion.

THE CELEBRATED ITALIAN TRAGEDIAN

ERNESTO ROSSI.

The coming of the illustrious Italian tragedian, Ernesto Rossi, to this city, is the most important event of the present dramatic season.

He is everywhere idolized. He is eagerly looked for by the public in general, and lovers of true art and genius in particular, and there is no doubt that Rossi will receive as warm a welcome as that which was accorded last year to Salvini.

Ernesto Rossi is one of the grandest histrionic figures of the day. For the past seventeen or eighteen years he has been before the public in the different capitals of Europe, where he is everywhere idolized.

He has also made two visits to South America, and was under engagement to come to the United States in 1875. Just as he was on the point of sailing from France, however, the deplorable calamities caused by the inundation of the Garonne and Loire occurred, and Rossi, with the generosity which is such a leading trait in his character, gave up a trip from which he expected to win so much honor and substantial reward, and paying a large forfeit to his manager, set himself to work to give a series of performances for the benefit of the sufferers by the overflowing of the rivers.

It was at that time that he made his famous and successful attempt to popularize Shakespeare in Paris, and gained so signal a victory over the French prejudice against anything but the French dramatic style.

He was unanimously styled the Italian Titus.

On the occasion of Signor Rossi's appearance in the character of the Marquis of Venice in Boston, the eminent critic of the Advertiser wrote as follows:—

"Intellectual splendor, intense passionate heat, enormous vitality and force, are his chief characteristics. His acting is distinguished by realistic unity, simplicity and truth.

Other's utter trust in Desdemona at the beginning of the dialogue with Iago was never so well shown. His interest in Iago's insinuations is at first cautious, then merely curious. Even after Iago has urged upon him, and has suggested the loss of good name and the pang of jealousy he is only conscious of a wretched sense of gloom, and has fought, in a heroic and manly way, with the temptation which Iago offers.

Directly after he makes upon Iago, prostrates him, seizes him by the throat, and pours out the wild wrath of his demand for proof, while furiously shaking Iago's head between his hands, and moving at the same time with the action of a very savage, then spurning the prostrate man, he rises quivering in his hand with a quivering motion over his brow and eyes, as if he could neither see nor hear, and finally staggers to sea. It is all wonderful in its power and consistency.

Signor Rossi, with admirable good judgment, introduced the fourth scene, fragment of the scene between Iago and Cassio, where the latter laughs over his conquest of Bianca and displays the handkerchief—though we do not see why it is necessary to depart from the text—by making Iago actually take the napkin and show it to Othello aside; not that, according to Signor Rossi's theory of the part, anything was necessary to strengthen Othello's conviction, but that the actor wished to lead up to his brutality towards her in the scene before the embassy from Venice, which Othello goes filled with rage and disgust. The last act Signor Rossi plays wonderfully, showing both the brave tranquility of manner and speech belonging to one who means to make a sacrifice, and the delivers standing behind her couch and in her bed, as he ought; and at the last she stabs herself with a dagger, as the text requires him to do.

After that he crawls to Desdemona's side and 'dies upon a kiss.' A very singular point to be noticed in Signor Rossi's performance is the complete reversal of his countenance is Iago made to follow the latter's justification at the work 'thought' in 'I told him what I thought.' His performance of Romeo and Hamlet at New York is a matter of remarkably high rank. He has called forth the warmest encomiums from the press of that city. The Herald says he is by far the best Hamlet that has ever appeared on the American stage. In the scenes 'play scene' and the interview with the queen, his mother, Rossi evinced the most intense impression, and elicited thunders of applause from the vast audience.

His impersonation of Romeo is replete with beauty, interest and fire. It is in this character especially that he obtains the suffrages of the feminine portion of his auditors, from his manly grace and superior manner in making love.

Signor Rossi is a man of remarkably fine physique. Tall, athletic and handsome, he looks as well off the stage as on it. His dark eyes flash beneath a brow square and well defined, and his hair, slightly tinged with gray, is a curling blonde. He is strong and vigorous and fifty-two years of age. He takes his cold bath regularly every morning. In appearance and manner, as well as in his ideas he is a thorough Englishman, but perhaps five feet ten inches tall, of very graceful proportions, but with a strong emphasis, and is what might be considered the very opposite of the Booth-Iving style of tragedian. Of Shakespeare he is a most ardent admirer, and a representative of the Herald who met him in London some time ago spoke as follows:—

"I learned Shakespeare by ear. My grandfather, a Quaker, constantly studying a play before I knew how to read. He had a passion for Shakespeare which I inherited, and when a child I turned his heroes into leaden soldiers. Constantly studying Shakespeare, I determined to produce him in my own country. My first performance was Hamlet."

OAK HALL, 115, 117, 119 AND 121 KING STREET EAST, TORONTO.

OAK HALL'S prices are pronounced by all to be the LOWEST FOR CLOTHING. We show great value in OVERCOATS FOR MEN AND BOYS, All Styles.

RETAIL CLOTHING. OAK HALL. See our Superior Stock of SUITS, the most fashionable styles. WE GUARANTEE A FIT.

REMEMBER GRANT'S CELEBRATED SHIRTS. Are the best in the world. Have no other. To be had only at 283 QUEEN STREET WEST, G. R. GRANT & CO.

W. WINDELER, THE WELL-KNOWN, PRACTICAL BOOT & SHOE MAKER. STRICTLY HIS OWN MAKE. 285 Queen Street West, Opp. Beverley Street.

H. J. MATTHEWS & BRO., 93 Yonge Street. Golders, Importers Steel Engravings and other Fine Art Goods.

PICTURES, ETC., FRAMED TO ORDER. ELEKTRO BELTS, ETC. ESTABLISHED 1874.

Norman's Celebrated Electro-Curative Appliances. RELIEVE AND CURE spinal Complaints, General and Nervous Debility, Rheumatism, Gout, Nervousness, Liver, Kidney, Lung, Throat, and Chest Coughs, Sciatica, Sprains, Consumption, Sleeplessness, Colds, Indigestion.

BATHS. I have entirely refitted my establishment with marble and other baths, which are now the best in the city. A. NORMAN, 4 Queen street East, Toronto.

MEDICAL. DR. WATT. Has removed from his Berkeley street residence (690) to the Electro-Medical Institute, COR. OF JARVIS AND GERRARD STS.

EL PADRE. TO PRINTERS. For sale, 100 or 150 pounds of better type, in good order; 20 cents per pound. The World Printing Company, Toronto.

JAS. H. SAMO, 189 YONGE STREET. EL PADRE. We have some very handsome designs in PARLOR SUITS, DINING AND BEDROOM SUITS.

EL PADRE FURNITURE. NOTICE is hereby given that, under an Order-in-Council, Timber Berths in the undermentioned townships in the Muskoka and Parry Sound Districts will be offered for sale, by Public Auction, at the Department of Crown Lands, at TWELVE o'clock noon, on TUESDAY, the SIXTH day of DECEMBER next, viz: Townships of Mowat, Blair, McConkey, Harty, Patterson, Mills, Sinclair, Bethune, Proudfoot, Pringle, Murch, Strong, Joly, Laurier, Gurd, Lons, Mysing and Himsforth.

A MUCH DISPUTED QUESTION AND THE RESULT. A few weeks back, R. M. Wanser & Co. sent to their agent here a case of medals, principally gold, taken at all the leading fairs and exhibitions in the principal cities in the world during the last fifteen years—at Moscow, St. Petersburg, at Vienna, at London, etc., and finally at the centennial exhibition, Philadelphia, 1876, the last and greatest world fair.

EL PADRE FURNITURE. We have some very handsome designs in PARLOR SUITS, DINING AND BEDROOM SUITS. GIVE US A CALL BEFORE PURCHASING.