With Deep Emotion They Take First Formal Step Towards Accepting Defeat

Metal Workers.

SERIOUSLY AFFECTED

cation of Hon. Gideon
Robertson.

The latest phase of the metal workers' strike is the possibility that the marine trades federation may take a hand in the movement and join the ranks of the strikers. Such a move would involve several thousand more men throughout the province. Today a mass meeting of the strikers is being held at the Labor Temple to consider a possible extension of the strike to provincial centres. The trades and labor council has also added its quota to the ranks of the strikers for the eight-hour day, having voted unanimously to urge every trades council in the Dominion to support the metal trades in this fight.

Touching upon the number of men out on strike, it is important to note that out of the 1500 boiler-makers belonging to Toronto not more than 300 are out. A thousand are members of Local 123, of the shipbuilding industry, 800 belong to Local 637, and these are engaged on contract work and are practically all out, and 200 belong to Local 528, all belonging to the railroads, none of them joining forces with the strikers at present. J. Higgins, a member of the strike committee, stated to the World that the boiler-makers on the railroads might join up forces with the strikers if circumstances forced the issue. The ship-builder boiler-makers, however, were not expected to join as a body, although most of those from Poisons yards were already out.

Below is appended a side-by-side statement of strikers and non-strikers as to the number of men out and the demands under consideration:

Appoint Gen. Currie to Overseas Militia Council

London, May 1.—It is announced that Gen. Currie has become a member of the militia council at the overseas ministry. It is also stated that the demobilization of the Canadians from France has now reached a stage which renders it unnecessary for the general's presence there. He will now carry out his work from London. The overseas council was announced about twelve months ago with Sir Edward Kemp and General Turner Hogarth, Thacker, Foster and Ross and others as its members, but nothing much has been given out as to its doings as a body. Lieut.-Col. Thomas Gibson has also been added to the council.

ARE CLOSING IN ON BAVARIA'S CAPITAL

Government Troops Surrounding Munich, and Other Cities Have Been Taken.

Berlin, May 1.—Reports received here from Bavaria say the government forces are steadily closing around Munich, Wasserburg, Erding, Freising and Starnberg already have been taken.

When Wurtemberg troops occupied Starnberg the civil population was in an angry mood against the communists, and acts of violence were committed upon them. The populace attacked prisoners in the hands of the government troops, and 13 of the communist leaders were shot.

AN ARMISTICE REFUSED

Copenhagen, May 1.—Munich dispatches say the Bavarian Premier Hoffmann has refused another request for an armistice, and insists upon the unconditional surrender of the communist forces within the city.

QUIET MAY DAY IN BRITISH ISLES

London, May 1.—May Day in England was celebrated peacefully. There were processions by laborites and meetings in various industrial centres in London and also a big parade of Socialists thru the west end, to Hyde Park, where many speeches were delivered.

The only untoward demonstration of the day was when Sylvia Pankhurst, the militant suffragette, and a score of women supporters, tried to force an entrance into the house of commons. The police prevented their entry and Miss Pankhurst was arrested.

In Scotland the miners took a holiday. In Dublin business was generally suspended and the theatres and moving picture houses were closed. There were no meetings or processions, which were prohibited. Railway services in Ireland were tied up except in Ulster.

Business in Belfast proceeded as usual, the workers having ignored the request of the Irish Trades Union Congress to declare a general holiday.

PLENARY CONFERENCE MAY BE HELD TOMORROW

Paris, May 1.—Information coming from French sources tonight is that a secret plenary session of the peace conference probably will be held Saturday and the meeting with the Germans for the handing over of the peace treaty Monday afternoon.

THE SITUATION IN EUROPE

The Associated Press issues the following:

The peace congress at Versailles has formally begun its sessions. The eventful day which the world had awaited since the signing of the armistice on Nov. 11, last year, has at last arrived.

The German peace delegates have met the representatives of the allied and associated powers, and across the green baize table have carried out the first preliminary which probably will mean a return to actual peace in the not far distant future.

This preliminary was the handing to representatives of the allied and associated powers by the Germans of their credentials, certifying their right to act for Germany in accepting the peace treaty which later is to be given them, outlining the terms which the peace conference in Paris has decreed. Germany shall meet in order to secure that peace and a return of normal conditions which Germany has professed she desires so ardently.

Official credentials of the allied and associated representatives then were handed to the Germans.

Scarcely five minutes was taken up with the procedure. The formality of addresses was entirely dispensed with. The brief ceremony ended, the Germans immediately left the Trianon Hotel for their place of residence.

Premier David Lloyd George did not attend the function. Neither did President Wilson. Clemenceau, nor President Wilson, who were represented respectively by Jules Cambon and Henry White. Lord Hardinge represented Great Britain and Ambassador Matsui, Japan. The Italians were unrepresented.

No official information has yet been vouchsafed as to the exact date for the tendering of the peace treaty to the Germans. Friday, Saturday and even Monday have been unofficially mentioned as the probable momentous day.

The Japanese question having been settled, and neither side to the controversy over Italy's claims to Fiume and the Dalmatian coast having evinced any intention of seeking to continue discussion of them, Thursday in peace conference circles was relatively quiet.

Numerous small details of the peace treaty, including the disposition of the German cable lines, were discussed by the council of three in the morning.

On the afternoon there was a meeting of the French foreign ministry, of the council, the foreign minister and members of the war council.

Both houses of the Chinese parliament have protested against the award of Kiaochow to the Japanese and requested the unconditional return of this strategic seaport to China and likewise the abrogation of concessions on the Shantung peninsula. China's delegates to the peace conference have asked for an official statement of the Kiaochow decision by the council of three.

An appeal has been made by the Hungarian government for a cessation of hostilities by the Rumanians, who recently have been making their way rapidly towards Budapest. A similar proposal has been made to the Jugoslavs, with an offer of territorial concessions for acquiescence.

TRADES COUNCIL SUPPORT STRIKING METAL EMPLOYEES

Urges Councils Thruout Dominion to Take Similar Stand.

UNANIMOUS VOTE

Shows Organized Labor's Sentiment Against Alleged Exploitation.

A resolution to instruct the district trades council to get into touch with all the trades councils in the Dominion to support the metal trades council in its fight for an eight-hour day passed at a very hot rhetoric session of the Toronto Trades Council held at the Labor Temple last night, the resolution finally carrying by a unanimous standing vote.

James Stephenson, of the Painters and Decorators' Union, upheld the resolution. Tom Black regretting any delay in the trades council's support of labor men, upheld the resolution, and further expressed his opinion that the entire council should adjourn immediately to the arena to give the solidarity labor on the question. Leo Braithwaite also strongly favored the resolution, expressing the opinion that the question was not one of an eight-hour day or increased wages but rather of a general study of combating a huge, well organized system of exploitation. Unemployment and penury were the greatest curses in the history of world economics.

Amendment Proposed. Arthur O'Leary, president of the trades council, pointed out that the amendment of Delegate Black to immediately adjourn to the arena would have to be ruled out since it would constitute a direct violation of the constitution. He then proposed that the delegates be asked to support the Metal Trades Council in the fight for an eight-hour day was unanimously passed. The amendment to adjourn to the arena with this message being lost.

Sir Adam Beck, chairman of the Hydro-Electric Commission, wrote to point out that the metal trades council had accepted a United States tender for two railwags cars, because despite the 42 per cent duty payable by United States manufacturers they had tendered at $3,000 less than the lowest Canadian tenders. It was pointed out that as many employees in this industry were in the metal trades it was remarkable that the United States firms were able to compete so ably against Canadian firms. It was further stated that the metal trades council Canadian manufacturers must be proven guilty either of paying very low wages or of making huge profits.

The executive of the council will meet delegates from both the G. W. V. A. and the G. A. C. to discuss matters of mutual interest on Wednesday, May 14.

BLOODY RIOTING ON PARIS MAY DAY

Mobs Clash With Troops, and Many Are Wounded on Both Sides.

Paris, May 1.—Serious disorders occurred today in Paris on the occasion of the celebration of "May Day." French blood flowed in the streets of Paris and weapons that so lately had been used against the foe were turned against friends, brothers and sisters. It is providential indeed that numerous deaths did not follow the attacks and counter attacks by the mobs on the one hand and the police and cavalry on the other.

Particular efforts were made by the mobs to invade the Place de la Concorde and reach the chamber of deputies and the war ministry, where demonstrations had been planned. It was in these attempts that the casualties occurred.

"Long live the poilu," the crowd shouted at the Madeleine and in the Place de la Concorde, as they surged toward the soldiers and with pale, drawn faces the infantry withdrew and allowed the mob to reach the Place de la Concorde against a wall of pitiless police and determined cavalry.

Then shots rang out. One policeman fell, moaning, slightly wounded, trembling with fear. The crowd, drawn back to the Rue Royale, the mob wavered back toward the Madeleine Church. Here and there a man or woman staggered, fell and remained motionless. Horses, falling eight or ten outstretched forms littering the street from the Rue St. Honoré to the Madeleine Church.

Finding that the mob had reached the chamber of deputies and the war ministry were futile, speakers begged the crowd to turn to the Place de la Republique and De la Bastille. The Republic obeyed, singing the "Marseillaise."

At the Place de la Republique the most populous quarter in Paris, all guarded, cavalry charging repeatedly and the firemen using their hose to spraying the crowds, already wet from the rain.

Here a blind soldier, wearing the war cross with two palms, entered a stalled automobile. The crowd was silent and the soldier delivered a speech.

"We are the weakest," he said. "Let us not shed French blood. I cannot see you, but I feel that you are honest workmen and women. Let us disperse."

"Don't mind the police. The soldiers won't hurt you. I'm on your side. I am not sorry for it; it has served my country and yours." But I would regret eternally if French blood flowed today."

The crowd followed the blind soldier, who was borne on the shoulders of the enthusiastic crowd.

During the course of the day eighty policemen were wounded in the riots and fifty arrests were made. Among those slightly injured were Leon Jouhaux, general secretary of the Federation of labor, and Deputy Poncet. A young man was killed in the opera district. Fifteen persons were wounded, several of them seriously, in the neighborhood of the Gare de l'Est when crowds stoned the cavalry and many shots were fired.

ESCAPED LIONESS CAUSED A PANIC

Killed Her Keeper in Woodbury, N.J., and Was Finally Slain in Nearby Woods.

Woodbury, N.J., May 1.—Pandemonium reigned for an hour in Woodbury this afternoon when a lioness on exhibit in a circus sideshow killed her keeper before a small crowd of spectators. The escape, from her cage and bounded into a small clump of woods which adjoins the town.

A posse of men and boys armed with guns, pikes and stones, pursued the animal into the woods and finally killed her with a fusillade of more than 100 shots, 12 of which took effect.

The "big show" was in progress before an audience of several hundred men, women and children, when John Henry, keeper of the lioness "Lucy" and her two cubs, entered the show cage, and escaped to a woods nearby. Compartment Henry carelessly swung shut the separating door and stopped to fondle the cubs. The enraged animal then burst through the door, bursting it open, and with one leap closed her jaws about Henry's neck, crushing the bones and killing him instantly.

Attendants in the tent shouted for help and seizing iron bars, hooks and tent-stakes, began to belabor the animal in an effort to compel her to release her grip on the dead man.

Infuriated further by the blows the lioness threw herself at the outer door of the cage, which Henry had failed to lock, and escaped to a woods nearby. Circus attendants, accompanied by men and boys of Woodbury, invaded the wood and after a thrilling chase cornered her and ended her life.

ITALIANS SUPPRESS DESIRE OF ISLANDS FOR GREEK UNION

Procession in Rhodes, Claiming Annexation, Was Dispersed by Troops.

DRASTIC MEASURES

All the Notables on One of Dodecanesus Islands Were Imprisoned.

Paris, May 1.—Despatches received here from Athens by persons in Greek peace conference circles concerning the proclamation issued by the people in the Dodecanesus Islands of unions with Greece, announce that general manifestations in favor of such annexation were held during the Easter fete April 20 in all the islands occupied by the Italians.

At Rhodes, capital of the island of Rhodes, the people assembled in church and proclaimed annexation to Greece, after which a procession was formed to escort the archbishop home when they again acclaimed a union with Greece.

The despatches assert that Italian troops intervened to disperse the procession. It is added that at Villavieva a priest and a woman were killed and two persons wounded by Italian troops. It is alleged that in other places, the Italians employed strong pressure to compel the inhabitants to sign a petition in favor of Italy, on the island of Symi all the notables were imprisoned and the inhabitants of all the islands threatened with a stoppage of food supplies if they persisted in giving exposure to the desire for a union with Greece.

The foregoing report was carried from Rhodes to Athens by a courier, who sent it by telegraph to Paris. A most rigid censorship on letters and telegrams is being maintained in all the islands, where martial law exists.

SAYS A REVOLUTION BREWS IN MANITOBA

D. A. Ross, M.L.A., Declares Ukrainians Plan to Establish Bolshevist Government

Winnipeg, May 1.—That Ukrainian settlers in Springfield and adjacent districts of Manitoba are openly holding a revolution in their minds, is planning an uprising this spring with the intention to establish a Bolshevist government and that the priests of foreign churches are deliberately preaching sedition from their pulpits, with the intent to inflame the foreign population against established government was asserted today by D. A. Ross, M. L. A., for St. Clement's.

Reiterated statements contained in a letter which he wrote to R. L. Richardson, M.P., March 24, which formed the basis of Mr. Richardson's statements in the house of commons Wednesday evening. Mr. Ross believed that Mr. Richardson had been misled in some respects, but emphatically reaffirmed the sentiment that revolution was brewing in Manitoba and that authorities are taking no precautionary action.

St. John's, Nfld., May 1.—Weather conditions late today again prevented the start of the Atlantic airplane flight. Conditions at sea were favorable during most of the day, and both Harry Hawker, Australian, and Capt. Frederick P. Raynham, British, hovered over their machines, constantly watching for the first signs of a fair breeze for a pop off. A cross wind finally swept down late in the afternoon and killed all hope for a start.

Later reports from wireless from the ship in mid-ocean led to the possibility of departure tomorrow, however, and orders to keep both Hawker's Sopwith and Raynham's Martinside planes in constant readiness were renewed tonight.

All afternoon Raynham tested the air devices, while Hawker kept himself informed of his rival's operations, with the Australian intent on starting if Raynham did. Conditions were not ideal locally, but both aviators were ready to take advantage of the slightest breeze to make the big "hop off" with the hope of reaching better weather at sea.

Capt. Morgan, Raynham's navigator, spent the day trying out some smoke bombs for departure tomorrow, however, and a signal pistol for use in case of emergency during the flight, the one for day and the other for night. These were announced as the only signaling devices for Raynham's ma-

LITTLE BLOODSHED IN U. S. CELEBRATIONS

Riots in New York, Boston and Chicago Caused by Radical May Day Paraders.

New York, May 1.—Comparatively little bloodshed marked radical celebrations in the United States on international labor day. In Boston there was a battle between the police and paraders, during which two paraders were shot and many arrests made. The riot call was sounded in Chicago when radicals attempted to hold a parade which had been prohibited. Several arrests were made, but there were no casualties.

Soldiers and sailors in this city broke up several meetings at which ultra-liberal sentiments were expressed and also raided the offices of The Call, a Socialist labor newspaper. They made no attempt to wreck the publishing plant, but destroyed a large quantity of Socialist literature and roughly handled a dozen employees of the paper. A small army of service men tried persistently tonight to break up a meeting at Madison Square Garden, but were beaten off by 1,300 patrolmen mobilized around the building. Scores of men in uniform were beaten with nightsticks.

BRITISH HOUSE DEBATES COLONIAL PREFERENCE

London, May 1.—The house of commons occupied the whole of today's session discussing the budget, especially the question of colonial preference. J. Austen Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer, reiterated that the government had no intention of placing new duties on food. Sir Donald MacLean, the Liberal leader, argued that the policy was impossible without giving preference on wheat, meat and wool, and affirmed that his party must fight this proposal to the utmost. It was a question, he said, on which the house was bound to take sides on the matter of principle.

Several members of the house, mainly of the Labor party, advocated a levy on capital as a means for reducing the huge national debt.

VOL. XXXIX.—No. 14,051 TWO CENTS

GERMAN DELEGATES OFFER CREDENTIALS, IMPRESSIVE SCENE

First Formal Step in Peace Negotiations --- Head of Delegation Almost Fainted From Emotion--Rain Spoiled Original Plan To Make Germans Walk to the Meeting Place As Was Done In 1870 By French Emissary.

Versailles, May 1.—In a session beginning at 3.10 o'clock this afternoon, and lasting barely five minutes, the German plenipotentiaries to the peace congress presented their credentials. It was the first step in the peace negotiations. The German credentials were presented to representatives of the allies and the United States.

Paie and almost fainting from emotion, Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, the German foreign secretary, and head of the delegation, passed thru what evidently was one of the bitterest moments of his life. He was barely able to sustain himself thru the brief ceremony and reach the waiting automobile, which had brought him to the gathering.

The meeting took place in the room of the Trianon Hotel previously used for the sessions of the supreme military council. Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, on entering, was accompanied by Herr Landsberg, Prof. Schuchting and two secretaries, and waiting for him the allied representatives were grouped around Jules Cambon, the former French ambassador at Berlin, who is chairman of the commission. Other members of the allied party included Lord Hardinge, Great Britain; Ambassador Matsui, Japan, and Henry White of the United States.

Presented Credentials.

M. Cambon immediately addressed Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, stating that he was chairman of the commission entrusted by the allied powers to receive the credentials of the German delegates as the first step in a conference which, it was hoped, would lead to peace.

"Here are ours," continued M. Cambon, "extending, as he spoke, the formal credentials of the allied commission as plenipotentiaries to the congress."

Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau surrendered the German credentials with even less of a formal address, his emotion being too great to enable him to deliver an extended discourse.

After these brief ceremonies, the Germans turned and left the hall, walking a few steps to the cars in waiting. They were followed immediately by the allied representatives. The whole ceremony was over at 3.20 o'clock. The allied delegates then rode to the chateau to inspect the hall of mirrors, where the treaty will be signed, and eventually returned to the hotel for tea.

The setting for the preliminary meeting was dull and unimpressive.

Rain Spoiled Original Plan.

The skies were overcast and there were occasional bursts of rain. This caused abandonment of the original plan, which contemplated having the German delegates walk from the Hotel Trianon to the chateau, as the French delegates did in 1870. This would have followed the involuntary precedent set by Louis Thiers, the French delegate, in discussing peace with Bismarck in 1870. He, like the Germans, resided at the Hotel des Reservoirs, and made his way afoot to the Hotel Trianon, occupied by Bismarck then the world's diplomatic centre.

Automobiles, instead, were provided. M. Cambon was the first to arrive in his car, accompanied by William Martin, chief of protocol of the foreign office, Lord Hardinge, accompanied by Secretary Henry Notman, Ambassador Matsui, with his secretary, and Henry White, with Secretary Christian Herter, followed in quick succession and immediately entered the conference room to await the arrival of the Germans. The latter were delayed for a short time owing to the fact that insufficient instructions had been given to the French gendarmes controlling traffic along the route to the hotel. They halted the car to see the chauffeur's permit.

Count von Brockdorff at the entrance to the hotel raised his hat to a group of photographers, corresponding officers who stood outside the building, then passed directly to the conference room. The arrangements for the ceremony provided for strict privacy and the exclusion of all not immediately concerned from the precincts of the hotel.

The Official Statement.

The French official statement on the ceremony of the peace congress today says:

"The president of the committee on verification of credentials of the inter-allied conference, Jules Cambon and the other members, Henry White, Lord Hardinge and Baron Matsui, received at 3.15 o'clock today at Trianon Palace, Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, president of the German delegation. The latter presented the credentials of the German plenipotentiaries to the peace congress."

on verification, Herr Landsberg, minister of justice, and also Herr Simons, director of justice in the foreign office, and Herr Ganss, councillor of the foreign office.

The German credentials were given to M. Cannon, who handed over in exchange the credentials established by the allied and associated powers. The German delegates then retired. The respective committees will now examine the credentials submitted to them.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM BULL AT STOCKYARDS

J. A. Coughlin, of the firm of Corbett, Hall and Coughlin, cattle dealer, had a very narrow escape from serious injury on Wednesday, when he was attacked by an infuriated bull at the Union stockyards.

Mr. Coughlin had entered the pen in which the bull had been placed in order to give the animal some water, and while his back was turned, the bull made a rush at him, with its deborned head. Mr. Coughlin turned in his effort to escape, when the bull attacked him a second time and drove him against the wall.

Losing his balance, he fell back into the trough.

His cries for help brought a number of cattlemen to his assistance. With the aid of Victor Rowntree succeeded in keeping off the animal, while his brother, Garnet, rescued Coughlin from further danger.

Coughlin was rushed to his home, 264 Dovercourt road. Dr. R. Rowan of Dundas street, who was called, pronounced the bull as being suffering from severe shock.

BID GODSPEED TO LORD READING

CABLE FROM THE KING
Looks Forward to Enduring Brotherhood Between Great English-Speaking Nations.

New York, May 1.—Cablegrams exchanged by the Pilgrims of the United States and King George on the subject of the departure tomorrow of the Earl of Reading, retiring British ambassador to the United States, were read at a farewell dinner tendered Lord Reading by the pilgrims here tonight. "American Pilgrims and their guests," said the pilgrim's message, "assembled at a banquet to bid Godspeak to your majesty's ambassador, offer a tribute of affectionate respect and grateful goodwill to this country's most tried and loyal friend, Great Britain's sailing king, who has so warmly placed in every true American heart."

"I rejoice to think," said King George's message, "that at the close of my ambassador's special mission, the clouds of war which at its commencement overshadowed the world are now disappearing, and I look forward not only to the assurance of a lasting peace, but to an enduring and abiding brotherhood of our two great English-speaking nations."

Distinguished Guests
The Godspeak dinner was presided over by former United States Senator Chauncey M. Depew, and the list of 600 members and guests present included Sir Conyngham Green, K.C.B., G.C.M.G., British ambassador extraordinary to the United States, minister of Greece, Gaston Liebert, French consul-general in the United States; Marcel Knecht of the French high commission; Sir Thomas Lipton, Frank L. Polk, acting secretary of state; Maurice Casanave, counsellor of the French embassy; Major General Thomas H. Barry, U.S.A., and scores of prominent Americans in nearly every walk of life.

Cablegrams from the Duke of Connaught, Secretary of State Lansing and the British Pilgrims were read. Mr. Depew paid a high tribute to Lord Reading's work in the United States, and asserted that he believed he was expressing the "united wish of the American people" in wishing that his recall could be definitely postponed.

To Try Ex-Kaiser.
Paul D. Cravath, another speaker, predicted that Lord Reading when he resumed his office as lord chief justice of England would be named by Great Britain as the representative on the court which is to try William Hohenzollern.

"The outstanding event at the peace conference," he declared, "is not the adoption of the covenant to enforce peace, but the harmony and sympathy with which the nations of the British empire and United States of America have worked together to protect France from her implacable foe and give to Europe and the world a just and lasting peace. That is the sound guarantee of that world peace for which all nations so fervently long."

DR. CODY SPEAKS TEN TIMES IN ST THOMAS

St. Thomas, May 1.—May Day will long be remembered in St. Thomas, not because of any labor disturbances, for there were none, but on account of the visit of the Hon. Dr. Cody, minister of education, who won the hearts of the citizens of St. Thomas by his eloquence and tact, and endeared himself to the school children by granting them all a half holiday.

As St. Thomas has not been visited by a minister of education for over ten years, this neglect was made up by Dr. Cody, who made ten heart-to-heart addresses, which included speeches at Ladies' Alma College and Holy Angels' Separate school.

Montreal, May 1.—Five men were arrested this afternoon during a Socialistic parade for distributing I.W.W. propaganda. Despite a warning from the police that if the red flag was carried it would be confiscated, quite a number of Bolshevik flags appeared in the parade. These were taken away by the police in touch with the whole parade on motorcycles.

Up in Ottawa.

Ottawa, May 1.—Twenty workers in the building trades unions in Ottawa went on strike at 7 o'clock this morning, and say they will remain out until their demands are met by the builders' association. These demands are for an average increase of 30 per cent. in wages, with the payment of a weekly wage, and in most cases an eight-hour day. Three thousand men are out.

Building is at a standstill. The parliament building is among the structures held up.

The minister of public works in a statement given to the press says that as the men refused the offer of the contractors, which he considers more than fair, work on the parliament buildings will be closed down permanently until the men wish to go back on the employers' terms.

Hamilton Moulders Threaten.

Hamilton, Ont., May 1.—May Day found Hamilton practically without labor troubles, except in the case of moulders and coremakers, who threaten to walk out on Friday unless their demands are granted. Four hundred men will be affected. The men demand an increase from twenty-five cents an hour to an eight-hour day.

May Avert Car Tie-up.

All men employed in the building trades numbering more than 2,000, are out on strike today.

Bolshewiki Out.

St. Catharines, May 1.—May Day brought no change in the labor situation here. The Neckwear Section of Engineering and Machine Works, who went out Monday afternoon, are still out, but there were no strikes today, although there had been a rumor that the moulders would walk out today.

Kingston, Ont., May 1.—

There was a walk-out today of carpenters employed on the new railway building. They are for an increase from 70 to 75 cents per hour. Contractors refuse to pay the increase. They gave up the strike at 10 o'clock. This year they did not anticipate an advance and consequently were out only for a few hours.

WOMAN APPEALS FOR THE SOLDIERS

Before Mathers' Royal Commission Warns of Time When Gratitudes End.

Vancouver, May 1.—An eloquent appeal for the soldiers was made before the Mathers Royal Commission today by Mrs. Walter Grossfield, the only woman to appear before it during the Vancouver hearings.

"Our boys are making the streets without work," she said. "Many are living on their gratuities, and when these expire there is going to be something on your hands which you cannot handle." She denounced profiteering and high food prices, and urged immediate action to secure relief and work.

The afternoon and evening sessions were devoted exclusively to the case of the worker, and at the conclusion the commission left for Calgary.

There was a general acknowledgment that there was unrest, not only in British Columbia, but universally, and the speakers held out no hope that industrial councils or other form of co-operation between employer and employee would do more than alleviate the situation.

STOP IMMIGRATION OF THREE CLASSES

Governor-General Signs Order Barring Doukhobors, Hutterites and Mennonites.

Ottawa, May 1.—From tomorrow and until further order, immigration of Doukhobors, Hutterites and Mennonites is prohibited. An order-in-council to this effect was signed by the governor-general this afternoon. It was passed under the provisions of the existing immigration act which gives authority to this end. The order recites that owing to conditions prevailing as a result of the war, a wide-spread feeling exists throughout the Dominion and more particularly in western Canada, that should be taken to prevent the entry into Canada of all persons who may be regarded as undesirable because of their peculiar customs, habits, modes of living and methods of holding property, they are not likely to become readily assimilated or to assume the duties and responsibilities of Canadian citizenship within a reasonable time.

The order adds that numerous representations have been received from Doukhobors, Hutterites and Mennonites of this class and character.

LANDLORD RAISED RENT NINE TIMES

Riverdale G.W.V.A. Report Veterans and Families Without Shelter.

EXPEL HUTTERITES
Is Unanimous Resolution of Veterans, Who Also Condemn Bolshevism.

Among the many interesting matters discussed at a well attended meeting of the Riverdale branch G.W.V.A. held in Oddfellows' Hall, Broadview avenue, last night were the housing question, the formation of a juvenile branch, arrangements for the big drive and the expulsion of the undesirable alien from western Canada.

J.V. Conroy, secretary pro tem, reported the result of the deputation of the G.W.V.A. to the board of control and Sir William Hearst at Queen's Park, and stated that good results could be expected, "but the committee appointed to look after the housing of the veterans and their families will not cease their labors until something definite is accomplished," said Mr. Conroy.

A member pointed out that his rent was raised nine times, the last advance recently made by the landlord being $4 a month. "There are thousands of returned men in the city at the present time who cannot find a roof shelter for themselves and their families," declared the member who denounced in scathing terms the iniquity of land sharks and real estate agents.

Comrade Marshall sounded a note of warning to the members of the branch at present out on strike, urging them to use legitimate efforts and to avoid Bolshevism. He stated that he secured the expulsion of a Russian Bolsheviki who was distributing "red literature" in the streets in the early part of the day and trailed two others from Spadina to York street before a police constable could be found to place them under arrest, when it was found that their pockets were crammed with seditious pamphlets.

Regarding the Hutterite immigration into western Canada, Secretary Conroy read a lengthy resolution of the G.W.V.A. and the branch requesting that the Hutterites and other alien enemies be expelled from Canada, and that they should be taken to the United States.

A discussion took place regarding the adoption of a juvenile branch, in which Comrades Stalford, D. Moncur, J. Marshall and others took part.

Comrades Conroy and Smith are at present only proposed to be brought before the provincial and Dominion conventions, and the age limit for membership was decided to be from 15 to 18 years of age, it was decided to leave the matter in the hands of the committee.

Comrade Stalford reported progress in connection with the big drive to take place on Tuesday next, when the branch would be well represented in the spectacular exhibition of trench warfare and bombing, to be held at the west end of the city. He stated that arrangements were made for the torch parade.

A communication was received from George Baldwin offering members lots for sale.

The meeting expressed satisfaction that the $5000 grant for land in the city had been approved by the council and granted at yesterday's meeting.

An address was delivered previous to the meeting by the Rev. R. J. Roberts, Rev. J. A. Cameron, C.E.F., returned chaplain, Floor Street Baptist church, secretary of the Riverside Rasputzys' Association, who in the absence of R. J. Roberts, presided.

CLEAR THE WAY TO EXPORT WHEAT

U. S. Authorities Grant Permits for Canada's Grain to Reach North Europe.

Ottawa, May 1.—The impasse which has been reached in the exportation of Canadian produce, particularly of wheat and grain, thru United States ports to the northern European markets, has been satisfactorily overcome. The Canadian trade commission, Ottawa, placed the matter before the Canadian war mission in Washington, by whom representations were made, with the result that the United States authorities decided to grant permits for export to these northern neutrals on submission of particulars of cases in which shipments cannot be made thru Canadian ports. The arrangement, however, will only apply to shipments due to leave immediately, as the transportation department of the grain corporation at New York can give no assurance as to sailings a month in advance. The trade commission is taking up further the matter of intranasit shipments. It is reported that several shipments of wheat and flour have been placed in the order of the United States food administration cancelling the general operating certificates for consignments from Canada, without which the United States railroad administration could not accept for shipment. This meant that a sixty-day embargo had been placed on the export of Canadian produce, as there are no steamship lines running from the Dominion to any northern neutral port.

FLUME FOR ITALY, IS CRY OF TORONTO ITALIAN COLONY

Magistrate Kingsford Calls President Wilson's Stand "an Outrage"

AFTER SIXTY YEARS

Allies of England Refuse to Be Robbed of Heritage.

"Flume appartiene all'Italia." Put into plain English the above phrase means, "Flume is for Italy alone," and was the keynote to an enthusiastic meeting of Toronto Italians held at the St. George's hall last night.

A collection was taken up in the hall and the resolution is to be forwarded by telegram to the King of Italy, Premier Orlando and Premier Borden in Paris.

Magistrate Kingsford was the first speaker in English. He said that on this occasion he felt himself an Italian. He was with them from the day over the Flume business and he believed the sensible people of the United States have the right to be satisfied in the matter.

At the month of January, 1859, the King said in his speech from the throne, "I have heard the cry of Italy. It was the beginning of the war. Today the whole world hears the same appeal. Be patient and you will keep what you have got in your hand now. The world is with you."

Mayor Church, who received loud cheers on entering the hall, advised the Italians of Toronto to be moderate as he thought that in a few days a way out of the trouble would be forthcoming. Italy had always been the friend of Britain and would continue to be for generations to come.

The Italian vice-consul, Dr. G. Gilonna, gave an interesting history of Flume from its discovery to the present day. The Rev. Father Ylanti, Capt. Caccianotte of the Italian army, G. Nicolletti and others also spoke.

The meeting was organized by the following committee: H. De Luca, A. Gommassini, B. Garramone, C. Cirra, M. Visconti, and C. Asconiet.

SIXTEEN CHURCHES BANQUET VETERANS

Methodism Has Glad Reunion With Her Returned Heroes.

To convey in some measure the thanks which are due to them, Toronto Methodism last night opened its arms in eager welcome to some 2000 returned soldiers boys in Methodist churches in the city.

The occasion was the reunion dinner given by the "Men of Methodism" to the returned heroes, and all the centres where the dinners were held were gay with bunting, flags, pennants and flowers, a pleasing reminder of the happy flowerlike days to come, and a pleasant contrast to the dark and grim days just left behind.

At Sherbourne street church, where Rev. J. D. Patterson presided, Sir William Hearst made his first speech since coming out on the round to address other centres.

At Eaton Memorial Church, the premier, who had concluded his speech by making his way out amidst cheers when he was stopped by one of the returned soldiers, returned to the street hospital for his autograph.

The biggest surprise of the evening perhaps occurred at Wesley Church, where Mrs. Davis Belge, prima donna of the "Fiddler's Three" company, appeared at the Princess Theatre in the week, arrived early in the evening and fairly took the boys by storm when she sang "Marsellaise" and the Belgian national anthem.

At Euclid avenue the banquet room was graced by the whole evening, a special corps of ladies had been employed at this point, and that the men were well pleased with the service was evidenced when they insisted that the singing ladies come forward and sing.

Yonge street had one of the largest feasts, and among whom were the returned soldiers, who were the veterans of the war, and the returned soldiers, who were the veterans of the war, and the returned soldiers, who were the veterans of the war.

Charges of collusion between board of education trustees and the successful architect for the new school building, were brought before the board by Trustee C. A. B. Brown, yesterday afternoon.

Trustee Douglas considered that the charges should be gone into immediately by the board.

On motion of Trustee Mrs. Groves, the board placed itself unhesitatingly on record that the board had confidence that the trustees had been guilty of no irregularity.

Ward seven ratepayers placed the school needs of the northern part of the ward before the board of education for a new school to meet the growing needs of the locality.

ARMORIES BANQUET STRUCK NEW NOTE

Homely Feeling Engendered by Happy Family Tables.

Once again the armories have a night of splendid entertainment to their credit, when last night returned soldiers were dined at 110 tables, everyone with a separate host and everyone filled with men who enjoyed themselves to the limit as the menu for the occasion was a most satisfactory one.

At Trinity Church, where Capt. O. Hezlewod presided, some 400 men attended and Rev. In. Powell presided at the address of welcome.

In serving a new method was tried which turned out to be the "best yet." Every host helped his party in family style. Another feature that helped to the "homely" feeling was the passing round of the menu card for the purpose of receiving the signature of all at each table.

Principal C. Fraser, of the Manning School, was granted permission to arrange the staff work so that he would be relieved for teaching a class owing to the large attendance at the school.

A deputation from the Toronto board of trade addressed the trustees on a policy of conciliation towards the Ontario Association of Architects, with respect to the appointing of acceptable boards of judges for future competition of architects.

Col. G. A. Dodge requested the use of Crawford Street School for military purposes for a few months longer.

Has Your Wife a Trade?

"Impertinent question" you say! Well perhaps. But it brings to mind the fact that unskilled female labor is very poorly paid.

If your wife is ever likely to become a breadwinner, you should put her in training now. Then, should the necessity arise, she will be able to produce an income sufficient to support herself—and children, if any—in some degree of comfort.

There is only one other way to make sure that your wife and kiddies will not come to want after you're gone—that is, by means of adequate life assurance.

Before you forget, fill out the coupon below and mail it to us. Then we'll send you an interesting booklet about Imperial Life policies.

FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 2.

Canada and Trade Preferences.

Nobody can tell what the outcome of the new experiment of the British parliament in the way of trade preferences as between the mother country and dominions and colonies will work out; especially can nobody tell how it will affect the people of Canada both from an industrial and a farming point of view.

In the meantime let us get hold of as much information as possible in regard to the proposals; also the views of the various Canadian interests affected. We must have information before we have criticism, and certainly there has to be the fullest kind of discussion in the house of commons at Ottawa before we commit ourselves to anything.

May Day Menaces.

While a good deal of our May Day agitation may be credited to the uninvestigated impulses of spring fever, there are occasionally developments of delirium that threaten the safety of society. We can tolerate a great deal of wild talk in view of the difficult conditions facing civilization, but loudly applauded speeches in the German language, like that delivered at the Labor Temple yesterday, do not commend the feverish symptoms of the May Day movement to the people of Canada generally.

There was some talk of socialism as the only cure for the situation. There are about 57 varieties of socialism, and most of them lay more stress on dividing wealth than on producing it. We fear this is the weak point in the proposals. We are thoroughly in sympathy with the demand of labor that it shall not be exploited by capital, but with the experience of Russia and other parts of Europe before us, is it too much to ask the socialists, if not labor in general, to provide against the exploitation of any class by any other class?

In Canada we have a democracy whose laws and methods most of our foreign citizens do not understand. They can get all they want by proper electoral and legislative action. They must learn to co-operate and to follow the labor leaders of Canada, who are as intelligent and as loyal to their comrades as any men in the world. British methods are already following co-operative lines, and if any of our employers fail to adapt themselves to these principles we fear they will learn when too late that they have lost a great opportunity. It is a time for frank, straightforward, face-to-face discussion. The labor leaders are fair-minded, intelligent men. So we believe are the representative employers. Failure in production at the present time is a loss to the whole community—the common wealth is being reduced.

"Conciliation and co-operation may sound tame beside socialism, but real socialism analyzed means nothing more. Names amount to just nothing at all. It is the principle in action that counts. We trust Canadian workmen are too wise to sacrifice their real interests to mob guidance.

The Liberal Party's Blunders.

The Liberal party at Ottawa has thrown in its lot against public ownership of railways and has joined up with the Canadian Pacific. By this act it antagonizes Ontario, tho it gets for organ in this province The London Advertiser, the avowed enemy of public ownership of every kind. By this act, according to The Manitoba Free Press, it also "throws itself squarely against the interests and desires of the people" of the prairie provinces who are looking to the National Railways for needed branch lines.

The Montreal Star also has set out to antagonize and misrepresent public ownership of railways at every point. It is quite certain that if the headquarters of the National Railways was ever put in Montreal The Star and The Gazette would never rest until they had brought ruin to the enterprise. For the same reason these two papers with The London Advertiser would like to see Hydro-Electric power and radials a wreck. The Liberal party can finish itself by joining in against public power. The Globe is wise enough to try and get away from these entanglements.

The St. Lawrence Water Powers. Sir Adam Beck has raised a question of the vastest importance, not only to Ontario, but to Quebec and every other province in the Dominion. We in Ontario, however, are particularly and immediately concerned with the conservation of our water power. It is our sole means of generating power aside from our somewhat limited oil supplies and the fuel sources in peat or timber that we possess. Coal as a source of power becomes more precarious and more expensive in Ontario yearly. For the future we shall have to rely on our water power to its ultimate degree of development.

Sir Adam Beck speaks of the time when our population has doubled. It is from that point of view we must judge the disposition of our water powers at present. We are trustees for our children, and we must leave them in control of this master resource of their economic life.

Hence it is that the St. Lawrence water powers assume so much importance, and Sir Adam Beck is so fully justified in accentuating the importance of our control. The Ontario government should summon all its energies to the protection of our provincial rights as Sir Adam has defined them.

As to Titles.

There is only a trace of dissent, and that of a sentimental character, from the conclusions of the committee on the abolition of titles. It is encouraging to find one parliamentary committee with so much sense.

A title that represents what a man is doing is quite enough for any man to carry. Titles that represent what has been are not always lived up to, nor do they always stimulate.

Any man who feels that he cannot do without a title has only to join a friendly society—a fraternal organization, and participate in the activities. In a few years he will be decorated beyond anything His Britannic Majesty has in his gift.

OTHER PEOPLE'S OPINIONS

The World will gladly print under this heading letters written by our readers, dealing with current topics. As space is limited the letters must be longer than 200 words and written on one side of the paper only.

English Margarine.

Editor World: Your information, made known to the people of Canada in the World edition of April 28, under the heading "Would Continuing the Use of Margarine in Canada," is opportune. The margarine now manufactured in England under careful and strict inspection is void of oleo fats made from the stomachs of animals. British now uses in the manufacture of margarine a pure vegetable oil. This remarkable oil is raised by growing in British possessions, and is all needed for Britain and her dominions. The British minister of agriculture has secured for the people an unlimited quantity of pure milk, butter and margarine. The effect thereof will be, and is even now, noticeable. In fewer deaths among women and children. The Maypole Dairy shops are now selling pure margarine at 18c per pound. There will be no need for the Dominion government to import any oleomargarine. Act quickly, delay will be costly. The writer was an early upholder of the national policy, with no reason to regret it. E. K.

Does the Government Mean Business?

(London Free Press, April 30, 1919) The government used closure to put thru its bill incorporating the Canadian National Railways. This was merely to expedite business. Opposition clatter was for party purposes, clearly. It gave opportunity for party newspapers to use big headlines about "Prussianism" and all that sort of thing. The pity of it is that we have not more closure. The member of parliament who cannot say all that he has to say that is worth saying in the time that the closure rules allow is quite the exception.

Importance is not so much to be attached to the passing of the railway bill as to what the government intends to do with the railways. Are we to have a real test in Canada of public ownership? Are the railways wished upon the Canadian taxpayer to be subjected to practical roadblocking, or are they to be the victims of incompetence and deliberate purpose to defeat public ownership? We ask these questions with some consciousness of the antagonism that exists in great financial groups against any recognition of the public ownership principle.

Much is said today of the enormous deficit which has been created in the government management of the railways of the United States during the war. Anyone may see with "half an eye" that the railroad companies are making the government's position more difficult, with the end in view of receiving back their railroads ultimately under a new deal. Are we to have the same experience in Canada? We have taken over the Grand Trunk Pacific and the Canadian Northern Railways under the most disadvantageous terms which might well be conceived. The day of these railroads has not yet arrived. They have been built thru territory that cannot sustain them. The cost of the roads has been enormous, and the profits from construction have gone into private pockets. It is hardly within the range of the possible that the roads can be made to pay their way perhaps for years to come. Are we to have public ownership brought into disfavor with

The St. Lawrence Water Powers. Sir Adam Beck has raised a question of the vastest importance, not only to Ontario, but to Quebec and every other province in the Dominion. We in Ontario, however, are particularly and immediately concerned with the conservation of our water power. It is our sole means of generating power aside from our somewhat limited oil supplies and the fuel sources in peat or timber that we possess. Coal as a source of power becomes more precarious and more expensive in Ontario yearly. For the future we shall have to rely on our water power to its ultimate degree of development.

UNIONISTS DISCUSS STEEL INDUSTRY

Caucus Goes Over Matter of Encouragement to Mills in New Ontario.

Ottawa, Ont., May 1.—The Unionists were in caucus this morning for a couple of hours. It was subsequently stated that there was a general discussion on a variety of matters including a proposal that encouragement should be given to the steel industry. This was made more particularly by members from new Ontario, it being pointed out that the steel mills at Sault Ste. Marie are operating only up to 40 per cent. of capacity. A variety of opinion was expressed as to what should be done to encourage the industry.

The government's shipbuilding program, it was learned, was also a topic of general discussion, members expressing various opinions as to what policy should be pursued. The sessional program also came under review at the gathering at which it was stated harmony prevailed.

On treeless boulevards hard maples and Norway maples are being planted and in Jackson park this afternoon, despite inclement weather, hundreds of citizens gathered to witness the inauguration of a memorial drive. Former members of the teaching staff specifically honored were the late Capt. W. B. Call, Capt. J. Frank, Wel- land and Lieut. Russell Williams, all of whom were killed in action. The day is being observed as a general holiday thruout the city.

THE PROMOTER'S WIFE

By JANE PHELPS.

A Confidential Conversation. CHAPTER LXXIV

When I asked Mr. Frederick what he thought of Blanche Orton my heart seemed to almost stop beating so anxiously did I await his reply. Would he think that she and Nell? "Mrs. Orton is hard up. She is the kind of woman we see occasionally in the 'year,' he interrupted my thoughts. "She is hard as nails, too clever to be wicked, knowing she is not, caring nothing what people say—at least I judge she does not."

"No, she never did." Even when Mr. Orton was alive. But then people only smiled at her actions; now they talk. "I see. I know very little of society folks. I know a good woman when I see her, and an honest man. I know, too, a clever woman like this Mrs. Orton. How long have your husband and his friends been going there?"

"A long time—nearly six or eight months. Ever since I refused to entertain those men here. I did wrong, didn't I?" "That's a question I can't answer. You certainly could not entertain that bunch at Mrs. Orton's last night. Perhaps you could have prevented her from getting mixed up with some of them if you had allowed a few like Scott to come here, I don't know. I doubt it, however. And it is too late to think of that. I would rather lose every dollar I have in the world than see you making free with those people I was with last night."

"You are so good to me, I don't see why?" I murmured, all the time knowing why—that he cared for me. Then before he could answer my tactless question I asked another: "How can Blanche Orton endure them? She is educated, accomplished, dainty. As I spoke I remembered what she had said her working around the house. Her best when she was going to be bored.

"If she wasn't all those things she wouldn't be the kind of a woman who could help in promoting. Add to what you have said, cleverness, need of money, love of luxury, and you have the typical woman aid to any promoter."

"Then you think that—that?" "That you have cause to fear her?" reading my thoughts unceasingly. "I do not think so—not in the way you mean. She is fascinating and very beautiful. But man with a wife like you would hardly allow himself to be duped by a woman of her type. In any sort of men and women are honest or dishonest, they seldom have love affairs also. They don't go together. I would not worry about that her working around the house. Her jealousy I felt—at least for the present."

"Then you think that what Mr. Powers and others said is true? That Nell, Mr. Forbes, is not quite—honest?" My face burned as I put the question, yet I must know. "I am afraid that all his schemes won't stand daylight as I said. He can't be entirely ignorant of the fact, as to the brains behind the things he goes into. There are usually three or four types in all promoting outfits. The society man, or the man with education and appearance, the bluff, causes confidence, the politician often and either some woman like this Mrs. Orton, or another man who is equally clever at entertaining. Wine and women sometimes play a big part if the deal is crooked."

"Do they blame Nell for being so—I was going to say generous, but instead I changed to 'extravagant'?" For this? "I refused to include house, everything. 'Yes. They say he uses other people's money to live as you do, instead of trying to make them the profits he promises. I am sorry. But you must tell you the truth!'" "No wonder Lorraine—and you also—discouraged my social plans. 'You are young, but put them off a while. I must go now. I shall be in town a few days. I am going to talk with your husband like a Dutch uncle, as we say. Then I will tell you of a plan I have.' "You are the only real friend I have in the world!" I said impulsively, giving him both my hands. He drew me to him, kissed me once on my forehead, as he might have kissed a child, then left without another word.

MANY ARE INJURED IN CLEVELAND RIOTS

Cleveland, May 1.—One man is dead, three policemen were shot, and probably 200 persons were badly injured, a score or more of whom are in hospitals, and more than 100 persons were arrested up to 3 o'clock this afternoon as a result of a Socialist I.W.W. May Day demonstration which ended in a riot in this afternoon. The first riot broke out when a parade of more than 500 Socialists, many carrying red flags, passed a liberty loan truck on Superior avenue, near East Ninth street.

Hatch, 25 Bedford street, for a visit, she was surprised to find her lying dead, with her head under the parlor table. Ten minutes before neighbors had seen her working around the house. Her husband is on his way home from overseas after three years service, and two little children are left.

THE DAY AT OTTAWA

By TOM KING

Ottawa, May 1.—That hoary hoax "fall session," is again in circulation. We hear that if Parliament will hurry up and go home there will be an extra session in October. The government would just as lief postpone a part of its legislative program to another session and may be anxious for an early prorogation, but if the parliamentarians once turn their backs on Ottawa, they may safely count on not being invited back until St. Valentine's Day or St. Patrick's Day, 1920. One session a year is all the constitution requires and is about all that the government can stand.

Last session parliament was fairly shooed away before it had time to tell what it came for. They gave ground for a grievance which Sir Thomas White, acting premier, made up his mind to redress. When the members arrived for this session they were told by Sir Thomas that they could talk as much as they liked and as long as they pleased on any subject. Hence the session opened leisurely and is now progressing at a snail's pace. There was a spurt of speed when the Canadian National Railways bill was put thru the house under closure already excluded was just for political effect and not to save time. Indeed the bill is still on the order paper and may be somewhat amended before it comes up for third reading. Since the late sitting on account of closure Monday night the house has fairly dawdled away its time in committee of the whole on the immigration bill.

The subject of immigration is always important, but the immigration policy of the country will not be changed by the bill. Extensive powers are given to the governor-in-council to bar out from time to time this, that, or the other class of immigrants deemed to be objectionable. The extraordinary powers in that regard are already possessed, the ostensible purpose of the bill was to bar out alien enemies and especially the Mennonites and the Hutterites. The alien enemies already excluded by order-in-council under the old immigration act, and when the western members went after Hon. Mr. Caidler yesterday in so uncertain way he suddenly found that the government could keep out the Mennonites and Hutterites without waiting for any legislation to be passed. Indeed, the bill as amended gives no power to exclude from Canada the members of any religious sect.

However, immigration is an interesting theme, and the house discussed it all afternoon and for an hour or two after recess this evening. Everybody wants selected immigration. The immigrant must be physically perfect, of considerable intellect and education, a Bohemian and all political economy (Bohemian and all other people opposed to the existing social order are sternly excluded), must be sober, industrious, and have some money in his pocket. But even this paragraph may find himself turned back at Halifax or Montreal if in the opinion of the immigration department he is not a "suitable" person because of "climatic, industrial, social, educational, labor or other conditions or requirements of Canada." He must not be peculiar in his appearance or dress or give the slightest sign of eccentricity for he must be declared undesirable if he and his friends have "peculiar customs, habits, modes of life and methods of holding property."

Major Hume Cronyn, the thoughtful and studious member from London, has an amendment that is still before the committee which would exclude all Europeans south of the forty-second parallel of latitude and east of some other parallel of longitude. The area of exclusion takes in all of Portugal, most of Spain, all of Greece, all of the Balkan states, all of Russia, most of Austria, the southern part of Germany and that part of Italy south of a line drawn across that distracted country a little north of Rome. This amendment, if passed, would bar out the Pope, but let in the Kaiser. However, Major Cronyn's object is to debar immigration from southeastern Europe, and is probably headed in the right direction.

Late tonight the government brought on the bankruptcy bill. This bill, it is believed, will pass the house but will be thrown out by the senate. It seems to have been brought forward more for the purpose of killing time than anything else.

In short the government thru choice and the house of commons thru necessity are making time. There was a Unionist caucus this morning, which is said to have arrived nowhere in particular. The franchise bill was not presented for its consideration and nobody had a word to say about the tariff. Some of the New Ontario men wanted the government to bounty pig iron and steel produced in whole or in part from Canadian ore, but the western members are said to have shied at the proposition. The government is said to have intimates to the members that its ambitious shipbuilding program might be abandoned. There was some talk about disfranchising defaulters under the military service act, and to this proposal there was little or no objection. The caucus apparently accomplished nothing, and failed to speed up the work of the session.

MOST OF BOMBS MAILED HAVE BEEN LOCATED Washington, May 1.—Belief was expressed by post-office officials tonight that most, if not all, of the bombs mailed from New York as part of an anarchist May Day plot against the lives of public men has been found. Checking of reports from postal inspectors in various parts of the country showed that one of the internal machines, addressed to Senator Leo Sowers, at North Carolina, got thru during the past 24 hours, although press despatches, however, said two bombs, addressed to Senator William H. King of Utah and Frank K. Noberner, an attorney, had been intercepted in the Salt Lake City postoffice. The department tonight had received no report from Salt Lake City.

ARMISTICE INVALID IF POLES ADVANCE Berlin, May 1, via Copenhagen.—Mathias Erzberger, chief of the German armistice delegation, in a note to Marshal Foch, made public in Berlin, says that Germany has reliable information that the Poles are planning in the next few days an advance with large forces against German territory in Posen and Upper Silesia. He adds that, therefore, it is impossible for the German government to guarantee that the armistice between Germany and Poland will be maintained if the Poles attack German territory. After such an attack the German government could not permit the further passage thru Germany from France of the Polish troops of General Haller.

RED FLAG UNFOLDS AGAIN IN THE ARENA ON LABOR'S DAY

Socialists Call on Government to Release Political Prisoners. DOMINION-WIDE STRIKE If Request is Not Accorded to, is Unanimous Threat.

Yesterday's session of the socialists at the Arena auditorium unanimously passed a resolution calling upon the government to release all political prisoners and falling desired action that the workers should call a Dominion wide general strike. The meeting rose reverently at the chant of the "International" and the "Marseillaise." The national anthem was not rendered.

Nine-tenths of those present bearing the emblem of the Workers of the World Union, more than 3,000 wearers of the Red held a very orderly meeting under the eagle eye of E. A. Bales, Toronto, who presided over the day. Morgan, of the Machinists Union, Morgan expressed the opinion that the strike of the metal trades against the exploitation of the capitalist class formed the beginning of a new era in the history of Canadian labor. He believed that the propaganda distributed at the meeting would prove the influence behind the inevitable revolution.

Herbert Lewis, another machinist, also editor of The Ontario Labor News, was the next speaker. He anticipated a provincial-wide strike at the basic industries and their profiteers. The cry of liberty and democracy, he said, had sunk down into the hearts of the workers and would no longer prove a sham and mockery. He emphasized his opinion that workers should stand shoulder to shoulder with labor and take over the industries of the country. France was in the throes of a universal strike; Germany was no better off.

Continuing, Lewis referred to the elections with their packed ballot boxes. The worker, he said, had really discovered that his greatest power lay in the force of industrial rather than political action. Organized labor prohibited freedom of the press and assemblage, but it was the duty of the great mass of the people to see to it that they forced the government to grant them their just liberties.

Universal Action. The present strike, said Herbert Lewis, might be a metal workers' strike. The next one would prove to be a universal industrial action. Koshado Oshivo, addressing the gathering in a foreign tongue, expressed the opinion that the workers of all true countries of Europe, save of the workers throughout the world, were at last becoming real, and the 1st of May, the day so long held in reverence by the workers of the world, was at last becoming an occasion of marked significance to the lovers of real freedom and democracy.

The large audience at Massey Hall last night spoke for the interest taken in the annual concert of the Canadian Academy of Music with which the Toronto College of Music is affiliated. LABOR NEWS CHARNIE ARREST STIRS CARPENTERS Resolve to Inquire Into Reasons for Police Action. A serious factor in the labor situation is said to be the attitude of the Brotherhood of Carpenters in respect to Charlie Charnie, the Columbus student who was recently arrested on the ground that he was an alleged German, and for inciting to revolution. The district council last night passed a resolution to ensure the police as having induced Bolshevist tendencies may be.

DEBATE QUESTION OF INTERCHANGING PULPITS Rev. G. A. Kuhring at Anglican Synod Favors Opening Anglican Churches to Other Ministers. St. John, N. B., May 1.—In the Anglican synod yesterday Rev. G. A. Kuhring, of St. John, formerly of the Church of the Ascension, Toronto, who was a chaplain overseas, declared himself opposed to that part of Bishop McDonald's charge which advised against the opening of Anglican churches to other denominations and themselves preaching in other than Anglican churches. His remarks drew applause.

The bishop said he merely expressed his own convictions on the matter, the church had not finally ruled on this point. His remarks drew applause, but against free and general exchange without regard to the church rules. This matter came up on report of a committee on the bishop's charge and was disposed of finally by an amendment which did not commit the synod to the interpretation of the bishop's interpretation of the rules.

BUTTER PRICES GETTING LOWER

Present Drop is Anticipatory of Still Lower Figures.

Toronto housewives may rejoice—butter has gone down in price, and the wholesale houses who handle this necessary household requirement look for a further decline during the coming weeks.

From enquiries made by The World it seems that during the past week the price of butter has dropped between seven and eight cents per pound. At the present time the retail price is between 62c to 67c per pound, but yesterday one big retail firm was selling as low as 60c per pound.

At the present moment the production of butter is below the normal and has been for some time past. It is anticipated that butter will within the next few weeks fall to about 58c per pound, and a further decline is expected.

MENTAL DEFICIENCY COMMISSION SITS

Feeble-Mindedness Shown to Be a Fruitful Cause of Prostitution.

A special sitting of the Commission on Mental Deficiency, presided over by Mr. Justice Hodgins, was held yesterday. Dr. C. K. Clarke, in giving evidence, stated that of the three hundred cases of prostitution, it was found that many of them were young girls and a large percentage were feeble-minded.

W. D. Owen, manager of the Toronto branch of the Barnardo boys, said that since the inception of this movement, 35 years ago, more than 25,000 people had been brought to Canada, being boys and girls ranging from seven to seventeen years of age.

What method is adopted to ascertain the mental condition of these people before they are sent to Canada? was a question asked by the commissioner, to which Mr. Owen replied that each child was examined before being sent out.

None Sent. The average number of people handled each year, Mr. Owen declared, was about 950, except during the last three years, when none were sent because of the lack of transportation.

Dr. McKay, inspector of public charities, stated that there were not sufficient facilities for dealing with the feeble-minded in the province. He said the parole system was not the best, but believed that the institutional care of the feeble-minded was the best method of handling them.

He pointed out that by reason of a recent act in the legislature regarding industrial refugees the facilities would be improved when the act came into force.

A further sitting of the commission will likely be held.

CONTROL BOARD HAS PERNICIOUS INFLUENCE

"There is too much bluff at this board," said Mayor Church yesterday at a meeting of controllers and Controller Cameron followed with the confession that he had lost all his dignity since he became connected with the board.

These remarks were made when discussing the Metropolitan Railway. Controller McBride objected to the use of the word "bluff" in connection with the Harris-Bridshaw agreement. "A man who says I was in favor of it is an infamously liar," he said, and Controller Cameron joined in saying: "The man who says I favored it will have to have a show-down with me."

By three votes to two the board of control yesterday recommended to council that $5,000 be taken out of the unexpended balance for band concerts in the parks. A similar recommendation failed to get a two-thirds majority at last meeting of council.

CONFERRING WITH OTTAWA Mayor Church and other Toronto civic representatives are in Ottawa today conferring with the federal authorities regarding harbor improvements, shipbuilding, etc.

TORONTO

In the New Order

A NEW spirit is in being. Out of the strife is coming the new order.

SOME there may be who cannot yet see its advent. Pity them. They will be picked up by the maelstrom and buffeted like a butterfly caught in the tornado.

A NEW spirit is in being. It refuses to recognize schisms that have kept men apart. The gulf was bridged when that human phalanx drove back the German hordes.

THOSE who were links in that chain of sacrifice have been to the very bottom of things.

TORONTO promised these men that they and theirs should not suffer.

TORONTO must keep its word.

NEXT week more than one thousand men have pledged themselves to work to raise $1,500,000 for the "Big Four" Organizations, who will see that neither soldier nor civilian touched by the flame of war or misfortune, shall suffer needlessly.

AS you know, the "Big Four" represents the essence of unified community service.

ALL differences of opinion in regard to methods, creeds and origins have been subordinated to the one great aim, which is: Service.

WHAT would happen if the two hundred or more charitable organizations of this city were to close their doors at midnight? Who would carry on for them? It's all very well to say "Somebody" would, but who is that "Somebody"? Is it you?

Table listing contributions: The Federation for Community Service $600,000, The Association of Veterans 400,000, The Young Men's Christian Association 400,000, The Soldiers' Emergency Fund 100,000, Total $1,500,000

"SOMEBODY" must see that the Veteran gets his club houses.

"SOMEBODY" must see that the character building work of the Young Men's Christian Association among its 5,800 boys is continued.

"SOMEBODY" must provide for epidemic emergencies such as scourged the city last fall.

"SOMEBODY" must provide for the orphans.

"SOMEBODY" must provide asylum for the sick.

"SOMEBODY" must provide comforts for the dying.

"SOMEBODY" must watch over the unfortunate ones.

"SOMEBODY" must be big brother or big sister to everybody who needs "Somebody," as only lonely ones do need fraternity.

THEN "Somebody" must provide the money. Toronto must use all its genius and all its enthusiasm upon the work in hand.

EVERYBODY must give, and give to the limit.

THEN, only, will Toronto occupy its place in the new order.

HOUSEKEEPER WINS TEN THOUSAND CLAIM

In a judgment handed down at Osgoode Hall yesterday Justice Clute awarded Miss Lottie Maida Sheehan, of Hamilton, $10,000, out of the estate of Edman Brown, a Hamilton money lender, who died in November, 1915, at over 80 years of age.

Sheehan acted as nurse, managed most of the business, and acted as housekeeper. While the wife was ill Mr. Brown promised to marry Miss Sheehan. In 1910 he willed the income of $10,000 to Miss Sheehan, but at a later date cancelled it. In 1913 he gave her a document which read as follows:

WALL STREET HAS ANOTHER BIG DAY

Shipping, Oils and Motors Are Prominently Strong and Active. New York, May 1.—For the seventh consecutive full session, transactions on the stock exchange today ran considerably over the million-share mark with a preponderance of gains in numerous speculative issues. Traders freely threw off the restraints imposed by the suspension of the extra U. S. Steel dividend, although that stock was the only one to show marked heavy trading. After reacting another point, steel rallied, closing at a small fraction above its previous level.

Shipping, oils and motors, including subsidiaries of the latter group, furnished a very large percentage of the day's gains. Atlantic-Gulf leading at the new high record of 151. Texas Company, Royal Dutch and Mexican Petroleum closed at variable gains or slight losses. Accumulation of food shares was another prominent feature. Beet Sugar, U. S. Food Products, Corn Products, Cotton Oil and Wilson Company, registering extreme gains of one to three points. Equipment shares were retarded by pressure against U. S. Steel and conjecture regarding dividend prospects, but Stead, Foundry, Harvester, American Cigar American and Baldwin Locomotives, and Onigible Steel were firm to strong. Stocks held back until the final hour when buying of Pacific, Reading, Atchafalpa and low-priced issues, notably St. Louis and San Francisco, and Kansas City Southern, resulted in net gains of 1 to 2 points. Sales amounted to 1,300,000 shares.

Bonds derived their strength from the rise in secondary rails, Liberty and International issues showing firmness. Total sales, par value, aggregated $14,275,000.

NEW LOAN ISSUES. Newfoundland will float a new issue of $5,000,000, $5,000,000 of which probably will be sold in the Canadian market. Lincoln County $200,000 bond issues, bearing 5 1/2 per cent, and maturing in twenty years, were sold to the Dominion Securities Corporation at 102.774. At this yield is 5.27 per cent.

ADVANCE IS MADE BY DOMINION IRON

Maple Leaf, Tuckett and Other Recent Market Leaders Are Reactionary.

Some irregularity appeared in the Toronto market yesterday, and the volume of trading, leaving mining stocks out of the count, underwent considerable contraction, but advances were more numerous than losses, and one or two issues, lately in obscurity, sprang into prominence. Dominion Iron was the most outstanding instance, a good demand for the stock, here as in Montreal, bringing about a rise of 2 1/2 to 3. The movement was regarded as in sympathy with the proposed strength of Nova Scotia during the past few days, since there is a good deal of community of interest where these companies are concerned, although merger plans have not taken form. Scotia was quiet yesterday, but firm up half a point to 65. Steel of Canada was not stimulated by the holding of the annual meeting, and sagged 3/4 to 63 1/2 on light trading. Dominion Canneries rallied sharply almost two points to 42 1/2. Steamships preferred was the most active issue, ruling steady around 80 1/2. Other firm stocks included Toronto Railway at 45 and Dominion Bank at 20 1/2, each showing a gain of half a point.

DOMINION IRON LEADER IN MONTREAL MARKET

Stock Sells at Highest Point of Year, as Does Also Shawinigan.

Montreal, May 1.—Three stocks stood out prominently in today's more active market on the Montreal Stock Exchange. Dominion Iron, Laurentide and Shawinigan, with steel leading both in price and activity and strength. The stock advanced to 63 1/2, new high level for the year at 121 1/2. Laurentide and Shawinigan were also active at 20 1/2 and 20 1/2, with the latter price, a new high for the month. Tuckett led next in activity, with shares preferred sold again at the year's highest price, a new high for the month, unchanged at 83 1/2. In the bond list the war loans showed a tendency to firm with the exception of the 1925 old war loan, which was unchanged at 83 1/2. Total business for the day with comparisons for the corresponding day a year ago:

APRIL TRADING LARGER ON TORONTO EXCHANGE

Marked expansion in trading activity over last year is indicated by official totals of April trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange, business in stocks more than doubling the April 1918 year, while business in mining shares was four times as large, and bond business twelve times greater.

The month's record, with comparisons, follows: Stocks, Bonds, Mines. April, 1918... 56,736 3,522,860 11,661. April, 1919... 15,052 255,100 32,891.
