Witness Does Not Fail Under Cise Fire of Cross-Examina- tion—Says He Never Betrayed Haywood.

CRIPPLE CREEK STORIES MUCH INSISTED ON,

BOISE, Idaho, June 7.—Counsel for Wm. D. Haywood continued their attack on the testimony of Harry Orchard at both sessions of the trial today. They made their strongest assault on the witness' connection with events beginning with the explosion in the Vindicator mine and ending with the earlier meetings of the Western Federation of Miners in Denver. To the extent that traffic with "the other side" in the war between labor and capital in Colorado was discredited, they succeeded in discrediting the witness. Taking up the admission that Orchard made in direct examination that he was treacherous to his comrades in Cripple Creek by disclosing a train-wrecking plot, they developed that Orchard entered the employ of D. C. Scott, who had charge of the railway detectives. Orchard said that, with Scott, he met K. C. Sterling, a detective in the employ of the mine owners. He said that Scott paid his expenses and accompanied him to Denver on the trip when he first met Moyer and Haywood. He said that he had agreed to report to Scott, but that he led to him, never intended to report to him, and never did report. The defence also tried to show that Scott, because he stood well with the mine owners, Orchard was never molested by the militia in Cripple Creek during the strike. Orchard admitted that he interfered with him by sending for him, and that the militia did not interfere with him on that account.

Orchard said he went to Scott first because he had not been paid for his work at the Vindicator mine, and he was jealous because he was given hard work like the Vindicator mine job, whereas other men were assigned the simple job of train-wrecking by attaching rails. More evidence, small, was added to Orchard's record today. The Cripple Creek woman with whom he committed bigamy had three sons; Orchard stole high-grade steel from a messmate; he stole two cases of powder from the Vindicator mine; he stole powder to make one of the bombs thrown into the Vindicator coal pile, and he led.

The defence endeavored in various ways to throw doubt and improbability upon Orchard's whole Vindicator mine story and the alleged connection of W. F. Davis and William Easterly with the affair, and the circumstances under which Orchard testified that he met Moyer and Haywood, and was paid for the commission of the crime. It also tried to discredit Orchard's story that he was sent back to Cripple Creek with unlimited credit and orders to commit any act of violence that he cared to. The defence endeavored to show that Orchard was not a man of honor, and that he was a man of honor, and that he was a man of honor.

Suddenly toward the close of the day the defence took up the trip Orchard made to Southern Colorado with Moyer in the early part of 1904, and showed that Moyer feared to go south unguarded because "mine owners' official thugs" had beaten up innocent union men, and that he sent for Orchard to aid in protecting him.

It was agreed that they should carry cut-off shotguns and sit in the center of the train. Orchard said that he attacked them could defend themselves. Attorney Richardson, in questioning the witness, made it very clear that this was an entirely straight-forward arrangement, "free from any fake."

Counsel flared up several times during the day, and in the last episode at the trial, Mr. Hawley said that Mr. Richardson told a falsehood when he intimated that Orchard was a fixed witness. The trial will go on to-morrow, and cross-examination of Orchard, who has been on the stand three days, will be concluded.

MRS. STEUNENBERG HOPES HUSBAND'S ASSASSIN WILL REPENT ATROCIOUS CRIMES

SEATTLE, Wash., June 7.—A despatch from Walla-Walla says: "Harry Orchard has done many wrongs, but I hope that he has repented, now that he understands their magnitude, and that he will be given a chance to lead a good, true and honest life after the present ordeal has passed."

This is the statement of Mrs. Frank Steunenberg, who is attending the annual camp meeting and conference of the Seventh Day Adventists at College-place. She seems to be above hatred of the man who killed her husband. As to Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone, she expressed no opinion, saying she had not thought of their connection with the case.

She is leading a secluded life, spending most of her life reading the Bible and other religious works. She said yesterday: "The trial of Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone is the commencement of a national struggle between the United States Government and organized labor, and will eventually lead to rebellion."

When the Coeur d'Alene trouble arose, Mr. Steunenberg was greatly worried, and one evening after he had reached his final stand, he told me he thought it would cost him his life.

ORCHARD'S EVIDENCE RECALLS INCIDENTS TO MANY.

DENVER, June 7.—Following the testimony of Harry Orchard in the Haywood trial, interviewers here with several persons referred to are printed to-day. Supreme Justice Gebbert, who, Orchard said, was the intended victim of a bomb, says that Orchard's testimony fits in with the incidents connected with the killing of Wally.

Orchard Wolfe, thru whom Orchard said he communicated with Pettibone, vehemently denied the truth of the story. Max Match says that Orchard told him he would kill Governor Steunenberg because the latter had prevented him from becoming a millionaire.

HIGHER STIPEND FOR MINISTRY

MONTREAL, June 7.—(Special.)—At the close of a heart-searching debate on the necessity for making adequate provision for the ministers of the church, Rev. Dr. Lyle declared this afternoon in the Presbyterian general assembly that it was the happiest day he had ever spent in a church court.

He saw visions of larger things in the action taken, which was to fix the minimum stipend for augmented charges at $300. It was expected that other churches, as on a previous occasion, would follow the example.

The temper of the assembly so far has been directed towards a practical effort to deal with pressing administrative questions, and to bring the church into line with changing social conditions. The morning was spent on the theory up-to-date matter of employing women in the work of the church.

An overture from Toronto, supported by Principal MacLaren, Dr. J. A. Turnbull and A. MacGillivray, suggested some method by which graduates of the Ewart training home should be specially designated. Winnipeg Presbytery asked the assembly to set apart an order of women to be known as deaconesses to serve as nurses, visitors and in other ways.

Dr. Gordon (Ralph Connor) did not know how the assembly felt on the large questions of Christian philanthropy, but he assured them the church had lost much by handling over to other societies and brotherhoods work that should have been done by the church. In Winnipeg they had a sick nursing mission, and his own congregation supported a race track.

Judge Forbes remarked that Protestants had no institution where first offenders could be sent, such as the Roman Catholic convent of the Good Shepherd.

A motion approving the principle of the employment of women in church work was adopted by a large majority, and appointed to report at next assembly.

On the motion of Rev. E. Smith, D.D., Middle Market, in the name of T. C. James, Charlottetown, the augmentation report (augmented section) was adopted. The receipts were $9388.

The grants made to churches and societies were $7500. The resignation of Dr. Smith, convener of the committee, was marked by a resolution of regret. Dr. Tafts, was suggested as his successor.

Rev. Dr. Lyle (Hamilton) presented the report of the committee for the western section. During the year twenty-seven augmented charges had been added to the augmented list, thus increasing the list of charges by 12. There are 260 charges in Alberta and British Columbia, in Manitoba and Saskatchewan the committee had to draw on the small reserve fund to the extent of $347 in order to pay the minimum stipend of $200.

NOT STRONG

ANXIOUS POLITICAL MOTHER: "Do you know, Richard, I'm afraid Allen Aylesworth here will never be the strong prop for our political old age we once thought he'd be."

PRODIGAL SON RETURNS TO HIS DYING MOTHER

CINCINNATI, June 7.—(Special.)—A broken-hearted lad, in the custody of a detective, boarded a train at the Central Union Depot this afternoon, bound for Kingsville, Ont. There, his mother is dying, and it will be the detective's object to get there with his charge in time that the woman may see and forgive her son before death comes to her.

The boy is Russell Loundsberry, aged 18. His custodian is Detective C. A. Campeau of the provincial police of Ontario, from Windsor, Ont.

Loundsberry was taken into custody months ago by Detective McDermott and Kincaid, who found him broke and hungry. His father is one of the wealthy citizens of Ontario and several months ago sent the boy to Windsor to attend college. The lad was supplied with money and soon fell in with fast company.

He claimed his attention and he then began to make acquaintances among the fast set in Detroit. He said to have forged his father's name to a draft for $330. Most of the money he spent in Detroit. Then he came to Cincinnati where the rest was dissipated. Now his mother is at the point of death, and the boy is begging that he be hurried to her side that he may beg forgiveness.

WHAT AMERICANS THINK OF OFFER OF FRANCE

WASHINGTON, June 7.—While the American government admits receiving a French tender of good offices to promote a stable understanding between the United States and Japan, the practical use to which such a tender can be put is not regarded as apparent at the present time.

The only negotiations between the United States and Japan which can be said to be pending, or likely to be the subject of intercourse in the near future, relate to the terms of a possible immigration treaty.

Nothing whatever has arisen between the two nations to preclude the most straightforward and direct dealing on this question, and consequently the point at which the offer of France could be availed of in this connection is not apparent.

From a diplomatic viewpoint, the San Francisco incident is closed. The way has been pointed out whereby those Japanese who were injured as the result of a mob attack can recover damages from the City of San Francisco. It is pointed out that the one regrettable reminder of this incident is the use which a portion of the press has made of the making of it to create hostile sentiment.

With diplomatic relations between the United States and Japan not only untroubled, but with nothing on the horizon which leads to apprehension, the French offer is accepted as it was extended, as making a most happy addition to the cordiality between the two nations.

BODY OF THOMAS GURNEY IN MARKET STREET SLIP

Engineer at Firstbrook Box Factory Had Been Missing Three Weeks.

The body of Thos. Gurney, 53 years, 217 East Front-street, was found in the West Market-street slip by Capt. Charles Black of the stonehocker Mary E. Ferguson, at 5.45 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The body was badly decomposed and had evidently been in the water for some time. It was removed to the morgue and Coroner Johnson was notified. An inquest will be held.

Gurney had been engineer at the Firstbrook Box Co's factory, East King-street. He had left there about May 17, on which day he had pawned his watch for $5. He had been drinking heavily.

The World traced the man's identity thru a card of the Rhodes Metallic Co. bearing the name of Joseph S. Dawson. Mr. Dawson was taken to the morgue, where he identified Gurney, as did A. H. Vanderburg, clerk with the Firstbrook Company. Positive identification was only possible thru the fact that the man's left thumb was missing.

He said that he had been missing three weeks and was very drunk when last seen. She scouted the idea of suicide, saying that his home life was happy, save for periodical sprees. Gurney's wife was not told of his death last night, as she was in a nervous state. His son Edward, 23 years, was married last Monday, said Mrs. Thomas. "Mother was only told a few days later and now this will drive her mad."

MANZANT GUILTY OF IMPROPER CONDUCT

LACK OF DISCIPLINE SHOWN BY ENQUIRY

Governor Vanzant of Toronto Jail has been dismissed because of the charges which were brought against him, and which were investigated a couple of months ago by Mayor Judd of London, acting as a commissioner at the request of the Ontario government.

It was, known some days ago that Mr. Judd had his report prepared, but it was not until yesterday that his finding was received by the government. The commissioner finds himself compelled to say that he believes that Mr. Vanzant was guilty of improper conduct, with female prisoners, of incompetence, of irregularities, and of favoritism.

In addition to this the commissioner declares that the discipline of the jail has been extremely bad, and while he excuses Mr. Vanzant, from taking bribes, he considers that in every other respect almost he is unfit to be the head of such an institution.

Mr. Vanzant's dismissal was announced yesterday afternoon by Hon. W. J. Hanna, after a cabinet meeting, in which the whole question had been thoroughly thrashed out. It was decided that the governor should only be retained until the 15th of the present month, but it is quite probable that his successor will be named to-day. The man who seems to have been selected by the government is Rev. Dr. Chambers, pastor of the Parliament-street Methodist Church, whose name has been connected with the position for some time past.

As a subordinate of Sheriff Mowat, Governor Vanzant receives his dismissal from that official, and his successor will have to have his appointment countersigned by the same hand. This, of course, is simply the formal part of the procedure, but whatever the sheriff announces will be sanctioned by the government.

According to the commissioner's report, for a great many years there has existed a joint management of the jail, the governor and the sheriff, but the City of Toronto, which has the control of the government, under the present arrangement is one that is not in the best interests of the jail. The steward and engineer feel that they are not under the control of the government, and do not provide that the steward shall not interfere with anything affecting the discipline of the jail, which is a serious matter.

In no other city in the province, the report goes on, are there any officers in a jail who are not amenable to the jailer, and that this state of affairs may have had something, though not all by any means, to do with the lack of discipline which is evident. That there has been friction between the governor and the steward, and that the latter, in Mr. Judd's opinion, can only be remedied by having the whole management under one head.

In conclusion the commissioner speaks of the overcrowded and unsanitary conditions of the hospital ward and says: "I cannot too strongly call the attention of your honor to the totally inadequate fire protection at the jail. There is practically no fire insurance. Further than this, the report expresses the opinion strongly that the jail does not come up to modern ideas of jail construction, and is not in keeping with the progress and prosperity of the City of Toronto and the County of York."

The report declares the governor guilty of improper conduct, incompetence, irregularities, favoritism, and declares that there was a lack of discipline in the jail. Mr. Vanzant, however, made no personal report, the report states, out of the irregularities he committed in the jail. He had committed himself surreptitiously. In spite of this, however, the commissioner was of opinion that the usefulness of the government had passed, and that under the present circumstances his services had better be dispensed with.

GOVERNMENT TELEPHONE

Will Be Constructed in Brandon in Near Future.

BRANDON, Man., June 7.—(Special.)—It is the intention of the provincial government to proceed immediately with the construction of a telephone system in the City of Brandon within the next few days.

Hon. J. H. Howden, minister of railways, who has charge of the telephone construction of the province, will visit Brandon, accompanied by a department engineer, to look over the ground to decide upon various matters of importance in connection with the construction of the Brandon system.

It is probable that the first long-distance line for the government system will be built from Brandon to Victoria, and from there to Hamilton and Erie, connecting up with the various municipalities systems which will be in operation along the route.

The funeral of Francis Hart, the second victim of the Bay-street crossing accident, took place yesterday.

The parents of the deceased have been communicated with by cable and letter, and the proper legal papers to enable the societies to take any action necessary in the case of both Fraser and Hart are now on the way from Scotland.

The death of these two men as the result of such a fatality has caused widespread interest in Scotland, and there is a very strong feeling everywhere, that the accident should be probed to the bottom.

The coroner's inquest secretary will be asked if he can in any way assist in having a searching investigation held.

After Doctors Failed

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Cured a Severe Case of Anemia and Weakness.

Anemia—poor watery blood—is the cause of most of the misery which afflicts mankind. The housewife especially falls an easy prey to it. The long hours and the constant necessity in performing her household duties sap her strength. She becomes run down and often suffers extreme misery. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the housewife's friend. They make new blood—lots of it—and pure blood banishes all women's ailments. Mrs. E. St. Germain, wife of a well known farmer of St. John des Chateaux, Que., found new strength through Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as she says: "A year ago I was extremely weak. I could not stand on my feet. I suffered from dizzy spells; my head ached; my blood was poor; I had a bad cough and the doctors feared I was going into consumption. I followed their treatment for some time but without relief. I grew discouraged and finally gave it up in despair. I was strongly advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, so I procured six boxes. Before they were all gone I felt relief. The headaches and dizziness became less frequent and I felt a little stronger. I continued the pills for a couple of months at the end of which time I had gained in weight; the pains had left me; my appetite was good and I felt as strong and well as ever. I did not say too much in favor of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for I certainly owe my good health to them." The woman in the house, the man in the office, the boy or girl in the school will always find a friend in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills actually make new rich, red blood and good blood banishes rheumatism, general debility, kidney troubles and those aches and pains caused by overwork or overstudy; good blood builds up the tired unstrung nerves and makes pale thin cheeks rosy and healthy. The pills are sold at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by all medicine dealers or by mail from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville Ont.

but no man could achieve his best who was unable to buy books, to travel, to meet the best men, to be a leader among his fellows.

Rev. J. R. VanWyck, Hamilton, gave a notable instance of a man in the college class of 1902 who accepted a lucrative commercial position.

Some of the toasts were: "The Dominion Parliament," by Dr. Orr; "The Local Legislature," by Speaker Crawford; "The Honourable Mr. Justice," by Mr. G. H. and John Hewitt.

In speaking to the "Local Legislature," Dr. Godfrey referred to his recent campaign, and described his election to a three personal canvass, and the general faith of the people in the White Star.

The party was conveyed to Long Branch by private cars of the York Railway, and the closing of the speaker presented Mrs. Wright with a beautiful bouquet.

Congregational Union Favors It—Mayor Denies Carrying Lieut-Governor's Letter 6 Months.

HAMILTON, June 7.—(Special.)—The Congregational Union this morning declared itself in favor of continuing the movement towards church union, although several speakers objected.

Rev. W. W. MacLellan, Erie, Sask., stated that the decision of the Indians was due to tuberculosis, liquor and inter-marriage. He advocated the amalgamation of small bands and placing the remainder of the reserves under the care of a native preacher.

Rev. R. E. Foot, missionary from Korea, described the united work of the Canadian, American and British Presbyterians in Korea. The Koreans caught the idea of becoming self-supporting and built their own church.

Rev. John T. Taylor, a celebrated football man in his college days, now a missionary in India, represented the Presbyterians of that country.

There were 16 Presbyteries with a membership of 6,000. The necessity of organizations, and the missionaries felt it to be a privilege to take the lead in proposing church union.

Mr. Wilson moved the resolution uniting the Presbyterian Churches in India. He thought the movement had occurred of the new patriotic spirit among the people. Consideration of the report was left over.

Dr. Hamilton had invaluable experience in these cases and found nothing so prompt in building up the young women as his vegetable pills of Mandrake and Butternut.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills begin by cleansing the system and purifying the blood; they also improve digestion and render food nutritious. Additional nourishment is quickly supplied and the patient is fast strengthened and invigorated.

ST. THOMAS, Ont., June 7.—(Special.)—Murray Stevens, the Wahab engineer who was yesterday committed for trial on the charge of manslaughter, as being responsible for the fatal accident near here on May 24 last, was to-day released on $2000 bail.

A pathetic little procession passed down Yonge-street yesterday morning to the waterfront. About 100 children from the Sick Children's Hospital were conveyed to the Ferry Co's Bay-street wharf in carriages and automobiles, and taken across to the Lakeside Home at the island on the Lucella. The children were in charge of Miss Brent, the matron, and she was assisted by a staff of nurses and students, and also by several doctors. J. Ross Robertson was also present, and helped many of the little ones on board. Relatives and friends of many of the children were on the wharf and brought lots of presents to cheer the sick ones.

"Rest Room" a Success.

The success of the "rest-room," opened by the King's Daughters at Queen and Yonge-streets, on Tuesday last, has exceeded the expectations of those who inaugurated it. The entrance is at 2 East Queen-street. The "rest-room" provides a pleasant place for girls employed downtown to have their luncheon. No charge is made for the accommodation and refreshments can be purchased if desired.

The Crown Bank of Canada's Women's Department at 34 West King-street, Toronto, is complete. It conveniences belonging to the women patrons of the bank and to their guests. The banking room is fitted up for the transaction of business and is also the office of the woman manager.

A private staircase leads to the rest-room above, where every detail of furnishing has been thought for the women who are to use it.

Leading down from a banking room is a waiting room. A lounge is there for someone overtired; a mending basket, cheval glass and all toilet accessories—and there is a maid in attendance.

These conditions have come because they were needed. They were created because the demand was there. No other women are cared for with so much kindly thought as are the women who bank at the Crown Bank—their privileges are their own—and they know and feel it.

Effects of Music Make Sick Well

That music has extraordinary powers as a relief and even as a cure for the mental and physical suffering, confirmed by his long experience in the charitable work of furnishing suitable music to Boston hospitals.

For ten years, says The Boston Herald, Dr. Dixwell has conducted his unique concerts, and the great success thereof has justified both the time and money expended. Last year 47 concerts were given at 47 different hospitals and other institutions, and most of the performances were superintended personally by the doctor himself.

"There is great need of a guiding hand in such work, he says, for music, taken as a medicine, needs to be administered with judgment. It is not enough to know how large a dose the patient requires."

"It often acts as a tonic," says Dr. Dixwell, "and does the greatest good to the patient who is suffering from depression or despondency. It often acts as a tonic," says Dr. Dixwell, "and does the greatest good to the patient who is suffering from depression or despondency. It often acts as a tonic," says Dr. Dixwell, "and does the greatest good to the patient who is suffering from depression or despondency."

"The popular idea of singing Psalm tunes and hymns to sick people is the most hateful thing that was ever invented. Such music makes the patient feel that he is in the last stages, and that everyone has given him up. He loses hope and courage, and has much worse chance of recovery. I have no objection to religious music, but the mournful, long-drawn-out kind is not good for sick people."

"The main thing is to prevent inspection. People in hospitals have too much time in which to think of themselves, the pains, how much worse these pains may become, what terrible things may happen, and how long it will take them to get well. If their minds can be turned aside from this dismal train of thought, they are in a much better condition for recovery. And this is what makes music such a valuable factor in hospitals."

"One case that I especially remember was that of an Italian who was dangerously ill. We were giving a concert in the ward out of which his door opened, and he asked that the door might be left ajar so he could listen to the music. Several operatic selections were given, and the sick man listened with growing interest. When it was over he asked if I would come to his room. I went, and he said, 'I had made up my mind to die, but now I know that I shall get well. And you did it.' I stated, Dr. Dixwell, with some indignation, that this was not his conviction."

"Then you think that music merely reinforces the thoughts of the patient, that there is no real physical effect?" the doctor was asked.

"Who can separate the mind from the body?" he counter-queried, with a thoughtful smile. "Surely no physician has ever been able to do it. The soul inhabits the body, and the body is matter in the centre of the brain, which, when analyzed, resolves itself into the universal element, salt. In every form of business and in all the styles of music are played, and by tabulating this and making comparisons with other experiments, they hope to arrive at some scientific results."

Dr. Dixwell has not gone deeply into scientific research in the matter, but is satisfied that his experience gives him an absolute knowledge of his subject. It is interesting to hear him tell of the individual cases that have come under his observation.

Woman at the Hague.
America's peace delegation to the Hague includes Miss Margaret A. Hanna, private secretary to Second Assistant Secretary of State Acheson, who has become known as the woman diplomat of the United States Government.

Miss Hanna, so far as is known, will be the only woman in official attendance upon the Hague conference. She is not a stranger to such missions, however, for she distinguished herself by being the only woman sent by any country to two other important conferences. She attended the Pius Fund Arbitration at the Hague in 1902 as the stenographer, and the Norfolk delegation, and acted in the same capacity with the American delegation to the Venezuelan Claims Commission conference at Caracas in 1903.

Miss Hanna studied the Spanish language when a mere child when she began to be felt in America. After this work she took up French and German, and has some knowledge of half a dozen languages. She went to Washington with her parents when quite young, and has lived there ever since, receiving her education in the public schools.

This is the case with the new railway route to Bala, which is the most popular of the new routes. It is the most popular of the new routes. It is the most popular of the new routes.

BALA NOW ON THE C.P.R. NEW TRIP FOR TOURISTS

Scenic Route to Muskoka Lakes and Short Cut to Western Canada.

On Thursday the trip to Bala was made with the intention of inspecting the road and taking it off the hands of the contractor on June 15. But the weather has been so backward and season in Muskoka this has been so retarded that it has been decided to delay the opening of the line to traffic till June 22. In spite of this, the official put out from Bala in a steam yacht and spent three hours winding in among the lakes of Muskoka, proving that the C.P.R. on June 22 will be able to accommodate all Muskoka traffic from Toronto to Bala by rail and from Bala to anywhere in Muskoka by water. The trip from Toronto to Bala is estimated will be made in 3-1/2 hours, and the timetable makes room for frequent trains daily in connection with the boats on the lakes.

Among those who took the trip Thursday were Wm. Still, general passenger agent, Montreal; J. O. Sullivan, manager construction, Toronto; George F. Ham, Montreal; A. J. Macdonald, superintendent of the line, Toronto; C. B. Foster, district passenger agent, Toronto; Wm. Walsh, Dominion Express Company, Toronto; W. J. Grant, commercial agent, C.P.R., Hamilton; A. M. Jones, resident engineer, Toronto; Daniel Wilkinson, roadmaster, Alliston; A. C. Harshaw, construction foreman, Toronto; H. F. McLean, Toronto, construction Co.; E. J. Melburn, advertising agent, C.P.R., Toronto; J. J. Ross, general traveling passenger agent, Toronto; and J. W. Porter, assistant engineer, Coldwater.

And if this article has not made you acquainted with Bala, The World suggests that you call on C. B. Foster, corner of King and Yonge, and get "next" before June 22.

MAY BE FOUL PLAY.
Prominent Murray Bay Merchant Found in Water.

CHARLOTTETOWN, June 7.—The body of J. Macdonald, aged 39, a prominent merchant of Murray Bay, was found last night about 30 yards from the bridge. He was last seen at ten o'clock on Wednesday night, when he left Ross drug store, saying he was going to the bank.

The doctor who performed the autopsy says Macdonald did not drown. There was no water in the lungs. There was a mark under the left eye. The bridge has a low railing, and it is thought that as the night was dark he may have fallen over, but some fear that there has been foul play, although there is no evidence to support this. An inquest is being held.

Further Details of the Train-Stopping Device Mentioned in Our Last Two Issues.
A World reporter got into conversation regarding the new train-stopping device yesterday with an experienced railroad official, who explained: "How will a freight train make a siding with a fast train standing on the main line, if approaching trains are subsequently stopped?" The reporter subsequently saw Mr. Johnson, superintendent of the Standard Signal Company, Limited, and we were informed that this is provided for by means of a signal-clearing device, operated by the trainman who opens the sliding switch, at the same time clearing the signal between the two trains, but the protection at the rear of the train is still in operation. This permits the approaching train to make the siding in the normal manner without delay, and when the switch is again closed the train-stopping apparatus is again in operation, protecting both trains at both ends; also, should the rear car of a freight train, too long for a siding, project over the main line, it will be automatically stopped before reaching the siding. Another point raised by the railroad man was: "What will happen if the new system is out of order?" To this Mr. Johnson said: "There should be no arrangement of the mechanism take place it would act automatically be notified to the engineer."

Bridal Parties Are Numerous—Lake and Rail Prospects For To-Day.

With the slight improvement in weather conditions the past few days, freight and passenger traffic over the railways has brightened very considerably. Large consignments of freight have gone out during the week from the wholesale houses.

As usual, bridal parties have been in evidence. Only the gatemen say the number of June brides is unusually large this year, and at least 100 parties have passed through the Union Station since June came in. The usually good-natured officials do some grumbling at the quantities of rice thrown over their floors, despite all regulations.

Unusually large numbers of passengers have entrained daily, the most being on June 22. Officials are making preparation for the transportation of at least 1000 persons to that city this afternoon, and at least 1000 to Hamilton Station daily, making a total of 128 to pass east and west each day.

Delayed Traffic to Muskoka.
The long-prevalent cold weather has affected the summer resorts in the Muskoka region to such an extent that the C. P. R. and Canadian Northern railways have deferred instituting special passenger service from June 15 to June 22. Officials of these companies say the season is three weeks later than ever before. The people have not seen fit to leave their city residences.

The Grand Trunk has not as yet announced the date on which its special service to Muskoka will be run. It will probably take effect June 22, as on previous years.

It was officially announced that the C. P. R. has 90 per cent. of the grading finished between Parry Sound and French River on the new line from Toronto to Sudbury. The construction department will begin to lay out the line on June 15. A number of the bridges have been completed, and two bridge companies are working on the construction of large spans at Seguin Falls, near Parry Sound, and the French River, which is 40 miles south of Rosford. The latter is said to be the largest span ever in Canada. The entire distance from Toronto is 228 miles. The company expects to have all the bridges and tracks finished before the winter sets in.

Marine Notes.
At 7:30 this morning the Niagara Navigation Co's big new steamer, Cayuga, makes her first regular trip to Niagara for the season. A big passenger traffic is expected, and at least 2000 persons will cross the lake, with four special excursion parties next, when she will take the York County Wardens' excursion to Lewiston.

The Turbina Co's Niagara leaves at 2 p.m. for Hamilton, touching at Oakville. The Turbina is scheduled to go into commission on Tuesday next, when she will take the York County Wardens' excursion to Lewiston.

The big Canadian Lake Line freighter, A. E. Ames, was in from Montreal yesterday, sailing in the evening for Fort William.

A detachment of 27 men and horses of the R.C.D. left for Niagara yesterday morning to prepare camp for the militia. Capt Young was in charge.

The Macassa and Modjeska of the Hamilton Line are to make an extra trip between Hamilton and Toronto today. Large parties at the latter place are already using these boats for moonlight excursions on the lake.

Four good-looking and neatly dressed Pullman car porters dropped into The World office after midnight and submitted for publication the following account of what one described as "a bold 'throw-down' from the exclusive colored circle of 'The Ward'."

"Colored Young People's social club of Toronto held a birthday party on Centre-avenue, in honor of one of its members, which was so exclusive that three or four Pullman porters, who arrived in this city with a present for the event, were ejected and turned-down. If this is what you call society, excuse us; New York City for us in the future. 'Society.'"

PORTERS TURNED DOWN.

Four good-looking and neatly dressed Pullman car porters dropped into The World office after midnight and submitted for publication the following account of what one described as "a bold 'throw-down' from the exclusive colored circle of 'The Ward'."

"Colored Young People's social club of Toronto held a birthday party on Centre-avenue, in honor of one of its members, which was so exclusive that three or four Pullman porters, who arrived in this city with a present for the event, were ejected and turned-down. If this is what you call society, excuse us; New York City for us in the future. 'Society.'"

SIMPLE IDEA TO IMPROVE DON OUTLET

Various Suggestions for the Reclamation of Ashbridge Marsh Are Being Discussed.

Since September, 1888, when Messrs. Bevis and Brown made proposals to the city which if accepted would have led to the reclamation of Ashbridge's bay, and its ceasing to be a city in a couple of years' time, nothing has really been done towards a final disposal of this valuable city property.

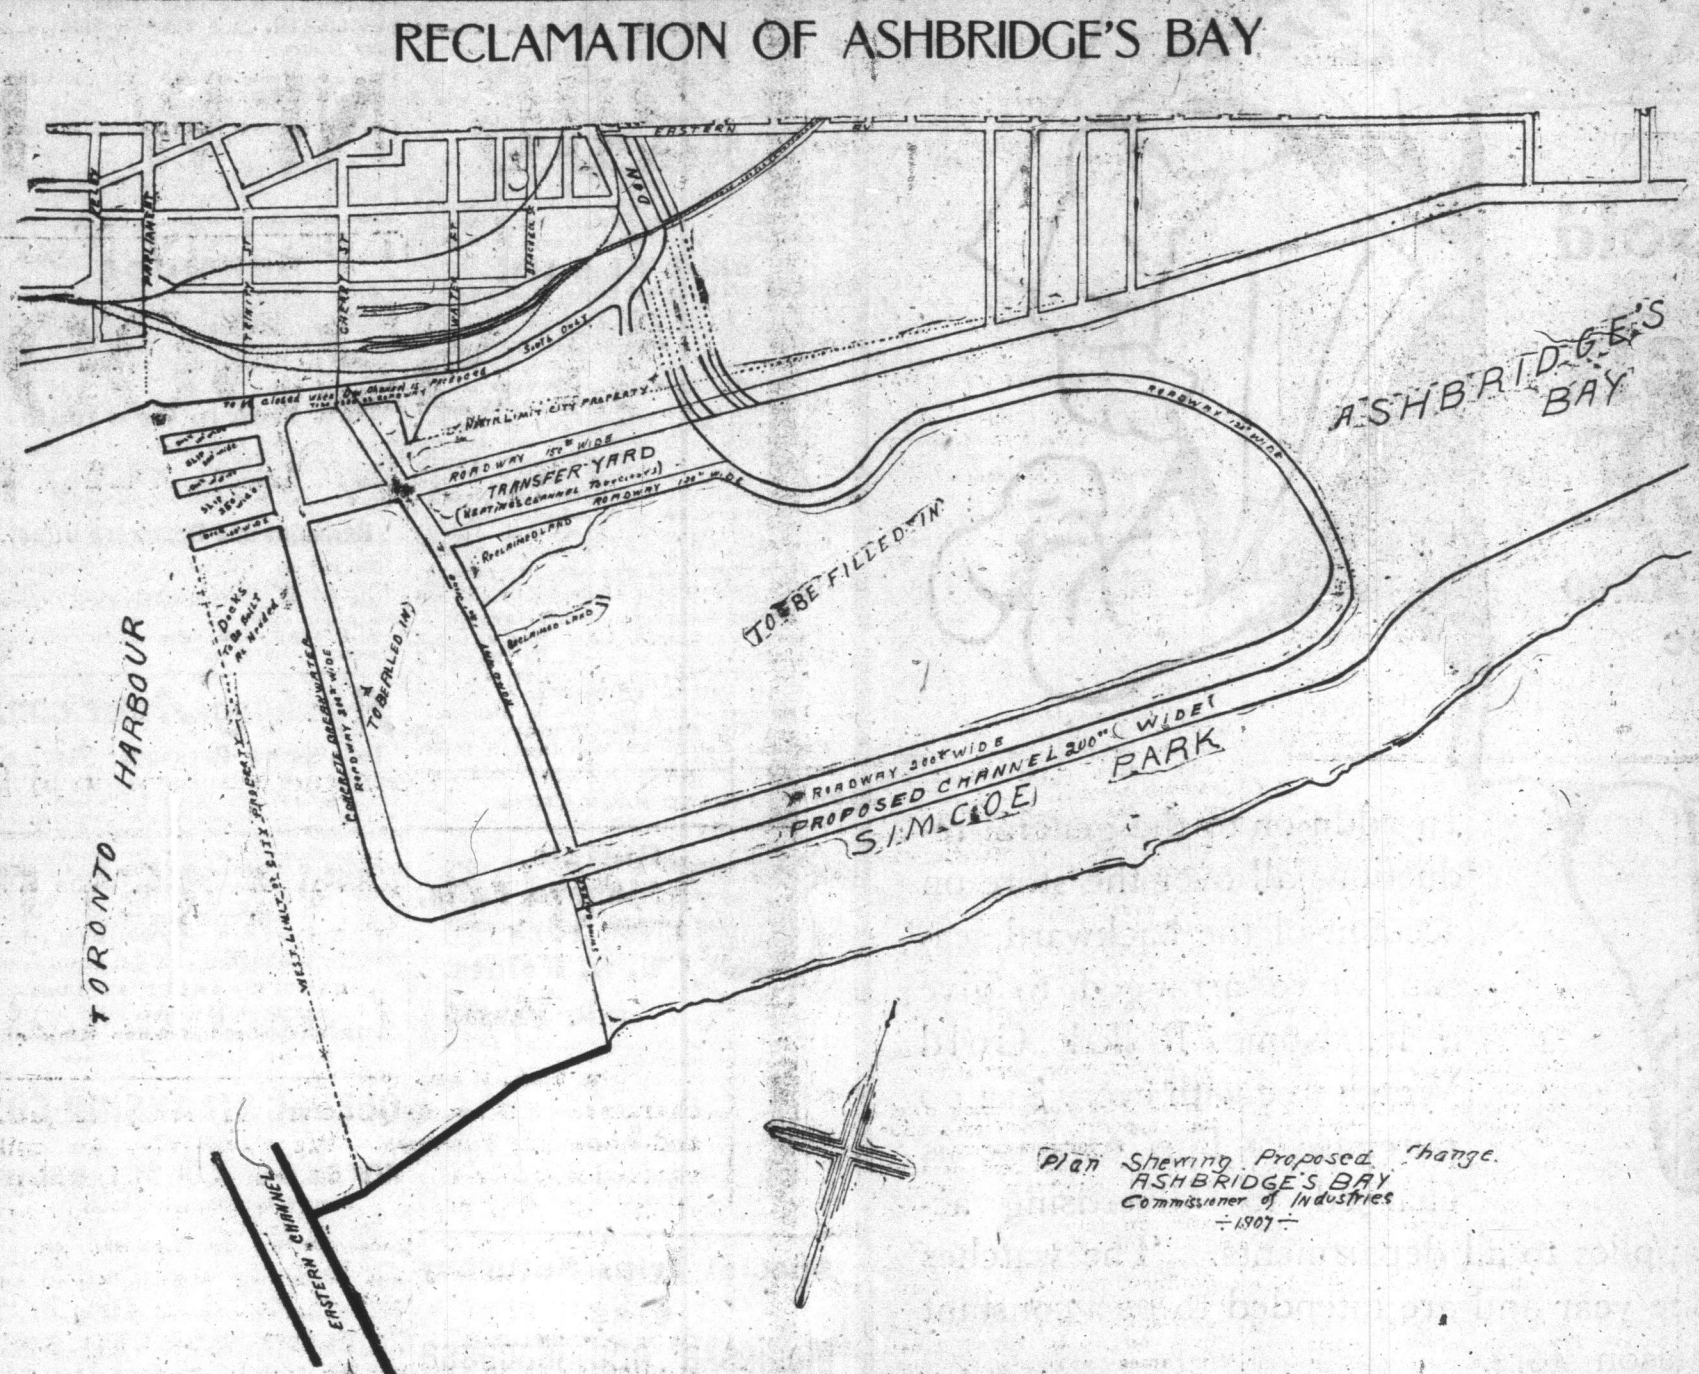

The suggestion made at the board of trade banquet earlier in the year by Messrs. Mackenzie & Mann that the Canadian Northern railway would build smelters, blast furnaces and rolling mills in connection with their Toronto terminals, has renewed the interest in Ashbridge's bay.

It has been pointed out that no industry could so quickly, so cheaply and so satisfactorily fill in the waste marsh lands of the district as a smelting plant, the slag from which furnishes the most admirable material for the purpose. No doubt a satisfactory arrangement could be come to unless the city falls, as the late Christopher Robson once remarked, to look thru any eyes but its own.

A plan which would alienate the whole or the more important parts of the property from the city would not, however, be a satisfactory one. A lease for a sufficient term could be given for the land to be reclaimed and enough of the land already made to establish works upon. This, however, need not interfere with the western end of the property.

Nothing can be done, either, until the problem of the Don channel is settled. Everyone who has gone into the matter is satisfied that the Don should cease to flow into the harbor. Reference to the accompanying plan will show what appears to be the simplest and most practical suggestion made on the subject.

Instead of carrying the stream west and thereby necessitating a series of bridges, at once costly and inconvenient, it is proposed to close the existing channel in this direction, and create a roadway on the new ground. This would obviate any possible disputes as to ownership and give access where it is most needed for traffic. The new Don channel would be carried south as indicated over the new 150-foot roadway, and east into the bay. From the bay, a channel would be cut west to the harbor of sufficient width for navigation, and serving at the same time to cut off the manufacturing area on the reclaimed marsh from Simcoe Park, access to which would be obtained by one swing bridge to the south, instead of a number on the north.

Simple and Practical Suggestion for the Diversion of the Don by Closing Existing Channel Thru the Marsh, and Carrying Stream South and East into the Bay.

GOOD CROP PROSPECTS BOOMS WESTERN REALTY

WINNIPEG, June 7.—Real estate is picking up. The chief feature of the local market during the past week has been a quiet strength, which according to the opinion of those in a position to know, is a forerunner of a strong, but steady movement.

Previous to last week more or less pessimism was displayed by those interested in realty, principally on account of fears that the crop might not be as good as in former years.

The season was backward, and then after the fine weather came no rain was in evidence, but now both moisture and warmth have come, and with reasonable luck a good crop for 1907 is assured.

That the favorable turn conditions throughout the west have taken has affected the real estate market goes without saying—and they have affected it for the better.

Money Freer. The clearances which had to be made in May have largely been provided for, and investors are again in a position to commence buying. Enquiry shows that in a few instances deferred payments were not met promptly, but in most cases the delinquents required only a short extension, and gave promise of being able to fulfill their obligations on the expiration of their extensions.

ROSEDALE HEIGHTS OPENED UP.

It should be of interest to those in quest of high-class residence lots, either for building or investment purposes, to know that Frederick B. Robins has just opened up the new district in the northern portion of the city, to be known as Rosedale Heights.

This new district is admirably located on a ridge of land overlooking Lake Ontario and beautiful Rosedale. It comprises 65 acres of beautifully wooded land just north of St. Andrew's College.

The other district, known as Rosedale, is undoubtedly one of the finest residence districts in Toronto, and the great demand for lots in this section will undoubtedly stimulate very materially the sales of the lots in this new district.

Mr. Robins stated that arrangements would undoubtedly be consummated before long that would give the residents in this new district first-class street car accommodation. The property is well restricted, so as to permit only the erection of high-class buildings purposes over the second building.

TORONTO REAL ESTATE

The design of Architects Wickson & Gregg and A. H. Chapman, which gained the approval of the Public Library Board over a large number of competitive drawings.

The accompanying cut is taken from the accepted design for the new Carnegie Library which is being erected at the corner of College and St. George streets, from the plans of Wickson & Gregg and A. H. Chapman, associated architects. The estimated cost of the structure is $175,000.

The design is monumental in character of the modern French Renaissance style. The first storey will be built of Ohio grey stone dressed, and the upper storey of grey brick, with stuffed terra cotta trimmings, including the main cornice.

The main front facing College-street is flanked by two pavilions, the east or right hand one being the main entrance, giving access to the reading room, and the western pavilion giving entrance to the branch circulating library and first floor.

There is also an entrance from St. George-street which communicates with the secretary's offices, attendants' quarters, etc.

As the name chosen by the board intimates, the new building is for a reference library, so that its whole character is based on this intention. The point which differentiates this particular building from any yet attempted for library purposes in Canada and most of the cities of the United States consists, first, in the almost entire elimination of useless halls and passages; second, in the centralization of the whole of the work of the institution so that the attendants at the delivery desk have complete observation over the entire floor and at the same time are in touch with the cataloguing-room and stack-house, and third, that while the whole building is of fire-proof construction, the stack-room is entirely isolated from the rest of the structure in order to safeguard the books. The walls are of brick and stone, the different floors are of iron and cement, so that little wood is employed other than the furniture. The cataloguing-room is immediately over the bindery—which is supplied with a hoist—and has on one side the stack-house and on the other the rear of the card cataloguing case. The plan is also so devised as to admit of an extension without interfering with the light. The stack-house and reading rooms are calculated to hold about 300,000 volumes.

The ground floor will contain a small branch library of about 10,000 volumes which will communicate with the circulating library by means of a door at the western end. An ample reading room with railed divisions for teachers and children will be separated from the section set apart for the general readers. On the same floor on the St. George-street side offices and quarters for the staff will be located.

The first floor will be attained by an easy flight of stairs from the southeast corner leading into the main entrance hall to the reference library. The main reading room will be 136 feet long by 50 feet wide. Immediately back of the reading-room are the cataloguing and delivery rooms and still further back is the main building of the stack-house 72 feet by 42 feet. This apartment will comprise five storeys of iron and glass construction. This building is isolated as aforementioned from the rest of the building, the only entrance into it being from the rear of the delivery room.

On the St. George-street side are the offices of the board and librarian and a long gallery for the keeping and use of bound volumes of newspapers and art books. The second storey, reached by a staircase from the main hall, is composed of one long gallery facing St. George-street, lighted with skylights. The walls of this compartment will display rare maps and local pictures.

Well Constructed Houses

The houses are well built in every particular. We can vouch for the character of their construction in every respect. We are practical builders and know our business. We have our own millwork factory, our own galvanized iron plant. We do our own plumbing and our own mason work. In fact we have organized our business so that every part of the work is done by ourselves and only one profit is figured on. We save 20% in labor and materials, because of our perfectly organized system.

Every house is of semi-detached design, with brick fronts and cement floor in basement. The general lay-out has been carefully and thoughtfully studied so as to provide for every modern convenience. Sanitary enameled plumbing is used throughout and the hot water tank is connected with the furnace in the basement, thus eliminating the necessity of connecting the tank with the kitchen range. Side wall registers are used and the furnace is best made.

All rooms are tastily decorated with the latest artistic design in wall paper and the walls above the wainscot in bathroom are covered with an enameled paper.

The entire house is carpeted, and is piped throughout for gas with the latest design of fixtures.

The woodwork throughout is grained in imitation oak. Our knowledge gained from years of experience as builders has made it possible for us to design and build in these houses model homes.

Perfectly Furnished Houses

Every article of Furniture has been carefully selected and is most modern and cosy-like in arrangement and design. The fact of our buying our Furniture by the trainload permits us to give the greatest value for the least amount of money.

SUMMER VESTS

One customer said—"Your Summer Vests are so far away from the commonplace in the patterns."

Well, do you know that that very idea—sentiment, if you'd rather—has helped build up the splendid tailoring and haberdashery trade that was started away back in 1834.

We've made a feature of the "something different" and it crops up in everything we make and sell—whether it's a pair of clothes, a necktie, a suit of half-hose or our very superior line of summer vests, selling at—

- $.50, 4.00, 5.00, 6.00 and 7.00.
