It is not difficult to discover the secret of Bryan's popularity. He is a man. So many individuals fall short of this standard that a good, honest, well-rounded and vigorously active person, with sympathies wide enough to give them points of contact over the average with the people around him is a rare find.

It is the average man that William Jennings Bryan appeals to, and there are such a lot of the average man he can carry the consumption of his type a long way towards fame.

Physically, Mr. Bryan is a prince of men, with a splendid voice, an engaging presence, a radiant eye, a firm but velvety hand-clasp, a general air of being a mighty good friend in trouble, ill, or fortune well.

Mentally he does not get too far above the people's heads to bewilder them, and when they find that they know the same kind of things that he knows and considers important, they are willing to follow him to the hilt.

Mr. Bryan is the commanding force which steers integrity, conscientiousness and consistent conviction, and a self-respect wholly lacking in any improper emphasis always impart.

Beyond these things Mr. Bryan has the subtle spiritual quality which sympathizes all the others and gives him the dominance he has attained.

His Day in Toronto.

His appearance yesterday in Toronto enabled local observers to understand both his popularity and his defeat, so far, in the presidential struggle in which he has engaged. But Bryan is more concerned with the success of Bryan's ideas than with the success of Bryan.

It is a genuine self-assertion to always be relied upon in the long battle. It is here that his politics lie to one of the dominant chords of his religion.

Toronto has to thank Rev. J. A. Macdonald for Mr. Bryan's visit, which was the result of the invitation of the National Club, and will conclude at 5 o'clock this morning, when he leaves for Buffalo, Grand Bend, Indiana, and the west.

The Canadian Club entertained him to lunch, and he afterwards paid a visit to the legislature, where he met Premier Whitney, Hon. A. G. MacKay and other members, and also sat for a short time in the press gallery. Visiting the Grange, he spent half an hour with Goldwin Smith, and then proceeded to Government House, where another half hour was spent with the lieutenant-governor.

Afterwards he met the members of the Ontario Ball Chapter of the Delta Chi Fraternity at the National Club, and spoke to his fellows, for he is also a member of the "frat," on the good fraternalties do, emphasizing the necessity of striving to maintain by fraternal relations the high standard of the profession. He was introduced by Wallace Nesbitt, K.C., and among those present were: J. McD. Mowat, K.C., Premier Whitney, William W. Buck, Washington; John Wood, Sudbury, and R. E. MacGregor, Buffalo.

Addressed Press Club.

At 6 o'clock the Press Club entertained Mr. Bryan at dinner, and he more than entertained the 150 newspaper men present with a series of the brightest, most interesting, and best-told anecdotes ever put into a half-hour's talk in Toronto. This informal gathering was held at the University Y.M.C.A., in connection with the 8 o'clock meeting at which Mr. Bryan spoke for an hour and a quarter.

This is but a sample day in the life of a man whose vigor and vitality are able to repeat such an experience day after day. He must be almost abnormal, Mr. Bryan doubtless attributes his robust health to his total abstinence from alcohol, coffee and moderation in all things but bread and butter, it has been stated, constitute

NINE MEN BLOWN TO ATOMS BY AN EXPLOSION

Nitro-Glycerine and Mixing Mills Obliterated Twenty Miles From Montreal.

MONTEAL, Feb. 11.—(Special)—Nine heads of families crushed and burned beyond all possible recognition, and one so seriously injured that he may die, is the sum total of the result of the terrible explosion which took place at 1 o'clock this afternoon on Ile Perrault, opposite Vaudreuil Station, 20 miles from this city.

It was the nitro-glycerine building and the two mixing rooms of the Standard Explosive works which occurred the dreadful fatality, which so cruelly exercised the entire community, this afternoon.

The dead are: Pierre Menard, Arthur Legault, Ugeal Lauson, Joseph Cayen, Joseph Rousin, J. B. Robillard, N. Rousseau, S. Trepanier and Thos. Dunberry, while John Leduc seems to have been the one man badly injured.

The explosion occurred at noon, when most of the employees were outside the building, otherwise the loss of life would most likely have been much greater.

Were Blown to Atoms.

The nine victims of the explosion were inside the building, which was blown up. Their bodies were literally blown to atoms, and when recovered were so frightfully mutilated as to be beyond recognition. Several of the other buildings were damaged and the workmen who were in them in many cases had narrow escapes from death.

Several doctors from Vaudreuil were quickly on the scene and they rendered aid to those who were suffering, while the more fortunate who escaped with slight wounds, assisted in the work of searching for the bodies of their companions in the debris of the wrecked buildings.

All the victims of the accident resided in the neighborhood of the factory or in the little Village of Vaudreuil, across the river. There were 300 of them were away at dinner at the time of the explosion. The shock was so great that it shook houses in the Village of Vaudreuil and caused many of the inhabitants to rush from their houses in alarm. Windows were broken in many places and the ground for half a mile around shook as though an earthquake had occurred.

Relatives Rush to Scene.

When the people of Vaudreuil realized what had happened there was a rush of friends and relatives of the workers of the wrecked plant. Women and boys hurried down the road to the scene of the explosion to learn the fate of their loved ones. The names of the dead were obtained by taking a census of the living and getting the names of those who were in the building when the explosion occurred.

Last summer the powder house of the Standard Company exploded, but that occasion no lives were lost. There are eight widows and 30 orphans as the result of the accident.

Leighton G. McCarthy Brings Question Up in House—Member for South York Supports Development of a Great National Industry in Canada.

OTTAWA, Feb. 11.—(Special)—The encouragement of the shipbuilding industry of Canada was brought to the attention of the house to-night by Leighton G. McCarthy, (Simcoe). The item under discussion was an ice-breaker to be built in England for Northumberland Straits.

Mr. McCarthy said the industry was suffering from the policy which permitted ships to go into U. S. ports for repairs and sail back absolutely duty free. If we were to have Canadian shipping we must have Canadian produce carried in Canadian bottoms. Without discriminating against Great Britain we could say to our shipbuilders that we will rebate on every part that goes into a ship.

To Mr. MacLean (P.E.I.) he said he would support a bonus to shipbuilding.

Mr. Sinclair (Guysboro) said the government ought to adopt a policy of protection for Canadian shipbuilding. Dr. Dains (St. John) hoped the government would admit free articles used in shipbuilding.

Decadence of Industry.

Mr. Kemp (Toronto) also drew attention to the decadence of the industry in Canada. This industry was prospering in the United States, and the government ought to seriously consider a policy of development. He thought the minister of customs should tell the house what he thought about the question.

Mr. Peterson pointed out that foreign ships of British register were subject to a duty of 25 per cent, but British-built ships were duty free. Recently also the coasting privileges of Norwegian vessels were rescinded, but strong representations had been made that this action of the government was finally removed when certain interests. He claimed that there had been encouragement to the industry.

Long Advocated Encouragement.

W. F. Maclean (South York) said he had long advocated a policy of greater encouragement to shipbuilding, and he was glad to hear the expressions of opinion of several gentlemen along this line. If we were to have a shipbuilding industry in Canada we must go to work to that end.

His suggestion was that we should make arrangements for the transportation of British goods to the coast of Britain to Canada. The cost would be great, but he believed it would pay well. We should have in view the building of our own ocean liners. The C.P.R. had embarked largely in this business, and purposed having one of the fleet fleets on the Atlantic, and he understood it was the intention of the G.T.P. to inaugurate a steamship service on the Atlantic.

Adopt a National Policy.

"Let us, then," said Mr. Maclean, "go into the industry wholly and build our own ocean ships. I venture to say that Canada can afford the cost, and that it will be one of the best paying industries in Canada. But there is only one way to do it, and that is by adopting a national policy with respect to this industry."

Mr. Maclean would first give a bounty on ships. "Put the responsibility on my shoulders," he said, "and I will find a policy to do it."

ANGLO-JAPANESE COALITION IS FOR PEACE

In Spite of the Ottawa Forebodings of a War Peril in the Pacific These Nations Say Nay.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—I. N. Ford, the London correspondent of The Tribune, writes as follows:

Mutual insurance against aggression is valueless unless it diminishes the risks of war. When Lord Lansdowne negotiated the revised agreement of 1906 with Japan he justified it as a measure for preventing hostilities in the far east. It was true that the original pact of 1902 had not warded off the campaign between Russia and Japan; but it was also probable that it had restricted hostilities to those powers, and to that extent had been a safeguard of peace. If there had been no Anglo-Japanese agreement, France might have been drawn into the complications for the sake of supporting her ally. The certainty that her fleet would be exposed to attack from England kept her out of the conflict in the east; and when the risks were most serious there were the strongest possible motives for improving the relations with the strongest naval power. While it is an elastic assumption that without the original Anglo-Japanese agreement both France and England would have been dragged into the war over Manchuria, it is a reasonable inference that the movement for a tentative cordial headed by King Edward was stimulated by the risks of a second conflict in Western Europe over sea power.

To Keep the Peace.

When the convention, which had limited the war in the east if it did not prevent it, was revised in September, 1905, the diplomacy was described as entirely pacific. In place of a pact operating against the first and fourth powers out of the theatre of hostilities, there was a convention for restraining the martial ardor of first and second powers, and in the interim virtue claimed for it by optimists, who contended that it was something more than a mere insurance policy against Russian aggression on the Indian frontier or against Korea and Manchuria, or disturbance in China from any source. It regarded it as a genuine concordat for enforcing peace in India and Eastern Asia and preventing a breakdown of war. If half that was said about it two or three years ago was true, it is a more effective peace measure than the most complex arrangements for arbitration tribunals and international prize courts devised at The Hague.

Won't Reduce Armament.

There is one fact which seems to impair public faith in the efficiency of this and other diplomatic safeguards against war, and that is the constant increase of naval armaments. The Russian navy has been destroyed; cordial relations have been broken up; the navy; bluewater mariners have to invent an imaginary and fantastic combination between America and Germany in order to obtain a limitation standard to be surpassed by the British admiralty; India has been secured against the possibility of a war; and war has been absolutely prevented in Eastern Asia by the Anglo-Japanese agreement.

The world is steadily becoming more peaceable than it is, and British prestige was never greater than under the reign of Edward the pacifist. Yet little faith has a Liberal government in these various policies of insurance against war that it does not venture to reduce, or even to diminish. The power must be made more formidable, cost what it may and necessary as retrenchment may be, when income tax payers are weighed with war-time burdens and social reforms are to be financed by hook or by crook under the free trade system. If this be done in the green tree of Radicalism, what is to happen in the dry tree of tariff reform utopianism?

Canada's Attitude.

Skepticism also increases when the policy of insuring against war risks is so easily and so constantly misunderstood in the colonies. Laurier has attended imperial conferences in London he has been eloquent and emphatic in refusing to allow Canada to be drawn into what he described as "the maelstrom of European armaments"; but when it is necessary to bring strong pressure to bear upon British Columbia how easy and convenient it is for him to magnify the risks of war for the mastery of the Pacific! In place of the magic working concordat, which was identified two years ago as an absolute safeguard against war, he speaks ominously of an entangling alliance with Japan, offensive as well as defensive, which is likely to bring into Vancouver fleets under two flags for operations against "a common enemy" and for the protection of British interests in the Pacific! How violently out of tune with the optimism which has been prevailing about the past for peace is this war talk from Ottawa!

Vancouver is Safe.

Fortunately the text for the revised agreement has not been altered, although it has been corrected for the mistakes of the printers. There is a preamble reciting the objects for which the coalition was formed, and that does not bear out the assumption that Vancouver will be converted into a naval base for operations against "a common enemy" if Japan be suddenly involved in war. The alliance has been formed for the maintenance of peace and territorial rights in India and Japan and for the protection of the common interests of the powers in China through the preservation of the integrity of independence, and of the principle of equal opportunities for commerce and industries. It is when

LONDON, Feb. 11.—A band of militant delegates from the Parliament of the lobby, however, was frustrated by the police, who had a sharp skirmish with the shrieking women, two scores of whom were arrested for disorderly conduct.

The attacking party was trying to deliver to the house of commons a resolution protesting against the "un-constitutional action of the government in refusing a vote to women taxpayers."

The delegates secreted themselves in furniture vans in the vicinity of the buildings and were thus enabled to get close to the point of attack before being discovered.

Ormsby and Wheeler, However, Have Paid Back the Money Received.

Justice Mahee reserved sentence in the case of Albert Ormsby and Alex. E. Wheeler, both of whom pleaded guilty in the jury assizes yesterday on three counts of conspiracy, arising out of the investigation made into the matter of the roofing of the St. Lawrence market, when it was alleged that Ormsby and Wheeler, two contractors, had each been paid $500 by Thos. Douglas, another contractor. The words in the third count of the indictment, "unlawfully conspire," were changed to "unduly conspire" in consent of the crown. The indictment to defraud the city of $1000 was also struck out.

James Baird, K.C., appeared for Ormsby. He stated that the $500 received had been paid back to the city and contended that the city had not been deceived or defrauded in any way. He thought that by this arrangement there was better profit for both these men and also the city.

Norman Semerville, for Wheeler, said that there was no conspiracy among all the dealers. Ormsby's tender was not altered in any way. The advance of $500 was taken from Douglas as a matter of profit, and it was a fact that Douglas lost money in the deal. His client did not know he was committing an offence under the act of 1902, but as the offence was technical a plea of guilty was made.

CONCORD, N.H., Feb. 11.—Action looking to the collection of approximately $200,000 in back taxes from Mrs. Mary Baker E. Eddy was taken by the board of assessors of Concord today. While all the city officials deny it, it is generally thought this action is taken to show their disapproval of the moving of Mrs. Eddy from Concord.

LIBERTY THRU ERROR.

Daly Recorded Jailed Three Days Before His Arrest.

Crown Attorney Cogley has received an explanation of the liberation of J. J. Daly, who was released from the Central Prison Jan. 11, after serving five months of a six months' sentence placed upon him by Magistrate Denton in police court last August.

The explanation comes in a letter from Deputy Attorney-General Cartwright, and it is that the order of commitment was the bottom of the trouble. It bears the date of July 12, instead of Aug. 12.

The court records show that Daly was arrested July 15, and that he was not convicted till Aug. 12.

It would appear that a clerical error was the cause of the mistake.

Daly comes up in the police court Friday morning, being on remand charged with vagrancy.

OTTAWA, Feb. 11.—(Special)—On motion to go into supply to-night W. F. Maclean (South York) again called attention to the state of the order paper. Under the new rules public bills and orders could only be reached on Mondays and Wednesdays after notices of motion had been disposed of. These were very numerous and every one of these days had been taken up with the rules on Thursday for the first four weeks; the first order was questions and public bills and orders. If he could accommodate Mr. Maclean he would be glad to arrange a date for bringing on his railway bills, and there would be no objection to setting them down for some day next week.

R. L. Borden pointed out that all of four weeks in the early part of the session were not available, and it might be well to make it four clear weeks.

These are: James Black of St. Thomas, engineer of the passenger train, hurt about the head and shoulders while jumping on the passenger train, leg sprained in jumping.

Peter Humphrey of Buffalo, Miss., a passenger, aged 78, critically injured. He was going home after visiting in the east.

Both engineers claim they had orders for a clear track.

Claims to Have Kept in Close Touch With Immigrants He Had Placed.

OTTAWA, Feb. 11.—(Special.)—A return moved for by D. A. Gordon (East Kent), embodying correspondence between the department of the interior and J. S. Waugh, immigration agent, subsequent to Dec. 1, 1907, was tabled to-day. The principal matter is a letter from Mr. Waugh to Hon. Frank Oliver, complaining of remarks made about him to the house by Mr. Waugh, West Kent, "when speaking on the immigration question," writes Mr. Waugh, "said that 50 per cent. of those that I had placed upon farms had left, 25 per cent. had not remained in the riding, and, for a wind-up, that you could not have known me or you would not have made an agent."

Mr. Waugh characterizes the first statement as "false," and says that as to the second he has written to Mr. Clements to know if he has been correctly reported.

Mr. Waugh's letter proceeds: "As to the immigrants, those which I have distributed during the year, I may say that I have kept in close touch with them, and they seem to be very grateful for any small favor they may receive, and as a whole are getting along wonderfully well, just one instance being a man and family who came out here last year, who, when a farmer asked him if he could milk, said no as he had never seen a cow, but to-day is engaged in the best farms in the country for another year as a first-class man."

Mr. Waugh signs this interesting communication with an official flourish.

His face is terribly torn by the charge of shot. He is partially blinded and it is feared that blood-poisoning will set in.

His son William, who was shot in the arms, is some weaker, but his condition would warrant his removal from the hospital. The family, who sought refuge with neighbors, two warrants are out for the dying man's arrest.

Had Palpitation of the Heart

EVER SINCE SHE WAS NINE YEARS OLD, MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS EFFECTED A COMPLETE CURE.

If you find your health failing, your food apparently doing you no good, your heart beating irregularly—now slow, now fast—skipping a beat now and then, palpitations or throbbings on the slightest exertion or exertion, pain in the region of the heart, face pale, dizzy and faint spells, these all point to heart weakness, to nerve derangement, to a state of health consequent upon those which, if not corrected and cured by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, will surely end in utter prostration and hopeless invalidism.

From the depths many have been raised by this remarkable remedy, as its power is beyond all question most marvellous; but why waste until you have gone so far? Taking these pills now will turn you out on the perilous path of sickness and put you on the highway to health.

Mrs. Mary Wilson, Toronto, Ont., writes: "It is with the greatest of pleasure that I recommend Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. Ever since I was nine years of age, I have been afflicted with palpitation of the heart, pain in my side and nervousness. As I grew older it kept increasing. After having tried numerous doctors' medicines, but to no avail, I was induced to try your pills, and after using several boxes I began to improve, so kept on taking them for some time until now I can truthfully say I am in perfect health."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cents per box or three for $1.25, at all druggists or The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

HAMILTON, Feb. 11.—(Special.)—At a meeting of the license commissioners this afternoon it was decided to wait until Feb. 18 for the sale of the Plainberg Hotel, the proprietor of which, J. M. No other licensees will be cut off by the board.

The license of the Turbina Hotel, James and Mulberry streets, was transferred this afternoon from P. McCullagh to Golden Bros. J. Orr McCullagh was chosen as chairman of the board.

Inspector Threatened.

Fishery inspector Kerr has summoned J. Garber, 137 South John street, on the charge of spearing fish illegally and of threatening to blow the inspectors brains out. The inspector says he caught Garber on York street last night, including twelve pounds of black bass. The inspector seized the bass.

The fire and water committee inspected the fire stations this afternoon.

Mrs. Berry, wife of William Berry, 158 Market street, the well-known pianist, died this afternoon after a long illness. She was 48 years of age, and leaves a family of three sons and two daughters.

Captain Gilbert of the central fire station was kicked by a horse this afternoon and was painfully injured. William Bearis, an employee of William Stroud, fell down an elevator shaft at the foundry of the Gurney street. He was taken to the City Hospital, but his injuries were not regarded as serious.

At police court this morning George Fisher and Arthur Solvinsky were fined $20 each for kicking up a row at a dance in Winona, and Fred and William Solvinsky were each fined $10 for the same offence.

The following officers have been elected by the Anglican Laymen's Missionary Association: Bishop Du Moulin, chairman; George C. Coppley, chairman; and H. E. McLaren, secretary. Another meeting will be held next Monday, after which representatives of all the churches will be asked to meet at the board of trade.

It is suggested that all the churches should double the amount given to missions last year.

Fined for Selling Papers.

Louis Birk was this morning fined $40 for selling papers on Sunday. His lawyer, H. A. Arlidge, Toronto, gave notice of an appeal. He asked the magistrate to reserve judgment or to make a stated case, but his wife pleaded that Mr. Arlidge argued that it was necessary to show that the paper had been imported by Birk before a conviction could be registered.

OPINIONS OF CANADA TO INTEREST CANADIANS

Biographer of Sir John A. Macdonald Returns From a Long Trip.

Interviewed by The World yesterday, George Robert Parkin, C.M.G., L.L.D., director of the Rhodes scholarships, made some interesting comments on the imperial and Canadian situations, all the more instructive and valuable on account of his empire-wide experiences.

For a quarter of a century Dr. Parkin has been journeying to and fro, noting and observing and intent on the work of assisting in drawing closer the links that bind the British states and the English-speaking communities together.

Asked concerning the development of sentiment of the British people, Dr. Parkin remarked that in all he had observed a quickened interest and increasing knowledge regarding imperial and industrial state affairs.

Twenty years ago, for example, Australians referred to Canada as backward and unprogressive, but now the tone is completely changed, and close attention is paid to what transpires in the Dominion.

"While traveling in Australia," said Dr. Parkin, "I was repeatedly asked for information about Canada, and it struck me that a series of biographies, making a full and complete account of the rise of the Dominion and how it was federated would be of imperial use and value."

With the possible exception of New Zealand, Dr. Parkin considers Canada to offer the best field for emigrants of British stock, and he would draw from all classes. "Canada is most attractive, too," he remarked, "because it is the only one of the rising states that can boast of a natural abundance of resources. Canada was the theatre over which a war of world importance was really decided, and in his opinion, the British Empire has more than local or Canadian interest. Therefore every province should hasten to inaugurate a policy of national memorial. Such a possession is, and will continue to be, an imperishable asset."

Distress Nature's Lesson.

Talking of the distress prevailing in Toronto, Dr. Parkin made the comment that it was really nature's lesson and teaching the lesson of foresight and prudence to prepare in summer for the hardships of winter. "I regard Canada's climate," he went on to say, "as really the best of any in the world, and it would be in his opinion, the best place to live in, if one had to choose between the best of the world's climates."

Asked regarding the feeling in England towards Canadian investments, Dr. Parkin said the Englishman was not like the American. He did not personally set out to displace the Canadian, but sent it to people whom he trusted. Therefore, there should be a greater need in Canada for honesty and integrity. Dr. Parkin highly commended the report on "The Conditions of the British Empire in Canada," recently presented by Mr. Richard Greig, special commissioner of the board of trade.

Such a report, which will probably lead to the establishment of commercial agencies throughout Canada.

Dr. Parkin waxed enthusiastic over the success attending the Oxford scholarships established by the late Cecil Rhodes, and he pointed out the advantages as the number who pass through the university increases, and with their return to their home lands. In this way, British university men would find friends in all countries to give them information and assistance in making their way. Incidentally, Dr. Parkin mentioned that he hoped this year to have a Rhodes scholar from Alberta.

La Grippe Epidemic

La Grippe has Toronto, in fact the whole province, in its clutches again. Every one knows this dreaded disease is the forerunner of pneumonia and consumption, which carry away more people yearly than the Spanish-American war. A good recipe which acts quickly and is said never to fail to cure La Grippe, Colds, Coughs and Lung Trouble is: One ounce of Fluid Extract Licorice; One ounce of Compound Syrup White Pine; One ounce of Glycerine; One ounce of Turpentine.

This mixture can be procured at any drug store, and by adding three ounces of boiled water you have the mixture in right proportion to take a dose spoonful every two or three hours. This mixture is harmless, but sure.

COMPANIES WARNED TO AVOID PENALTIES

Compliance With Provisions of New Act Compulsory and Neglect Costly.

By the new Companies Act, which came into force on July 1 last, the following acts were repeated: An act respecting cheese and butter-making associations and companies. An act respecting co-operative associations.

An act to provide for the incorporation of co-operative cold storage associations.

All companies, therefore, incorporated under any of the above statutes are now within the provisions of the Companies Act, and are obliged to make annual returns to the provincial secretary's department.

The department has distributed forms to all companies, of which the names and addresses could be obtained, but there are many companies impossible to be reached.

Such companies should therefore apply to the department for forms and complete and file them at the earliest possible date, thus avoiding the heavy penalties imposed by the act for failure to comply with its provisions in this respect.

HIS $250 DISAPPEARS SWINDLE IS ALLEGED

Albert Bensingers is in the Toils on Complaint of A. M. Taylor.

Albert Bensingers has winning ways. Albert is 23 years old. He has been living at the Elliott House and he is accused for theft of $250 from A. M. Taylor, a clerk with the Queen City Oil Co., who lives at 21 Mackenzie-street.

Taylor says that he met Bensingers several weeks ago, when the genial German was seeking a position with the oil company. His story is that Bensingers outlined a good thing in the manufacturers' agent business. Taylor put up $250, which he deposited to Bensingers' credit in a bank. This was to supply the snags of the new concern and was not to be drawn till a given date.

Bensingers, however, drew it earlier and played poker. He told Taylor that he had been doped and robbed and asked $100 to go to Chicago, where he said he had a brother and where he had $10,000 invested in the stock yards. Later he got $15 more for the trip.

He told Taylor that the money had been sent to his (Bensingers') father in the country, but as a matter of fact he had not left the city. He then got $50 to take him to Montreal, where he said he could raise the money. He told of failure, but as a matter of fact he never went.

Taylor also paid a board bill at the Elliott House of $100, and the last straw came yesterday with an effort to borrow another $100 for a trip to Chicago.

TIME. Time is too slow for those who Wait.

At the Woman's Art Association.

There was a great run on Canadian and Italian home-spuns at the exhibition of the Women's Art Association yesterday.

The present exhibit includes some rare specimens of English and Italian lace.

The new quarters on Jarvis-street, near the E. E. Shepherd apartments, were made to appear appropriately as if by the profuse floral contributions of Mrs. E. B. Oester.

The exhibition will continue for three weeks, during which period householders are privileged to procure curtains, cushions, lace, etc., as may appeal to their fancy.

A most successful concert was given last night to the inmates of the above institution by the Gaelic Society of Canada.

INVITE PARKS EXPERT TO GIVE AN ADDRESS

Means Cost of $150, But Special Committee Think It Will Be Worth the Money.

Opposition to the proposal that a park commission be appointed was expressed by Controller Spence at the meeting of the social parks committee yesterday afternoon.

The discussion arose out of Controller Hocken's tentative suggestion, that in the event of a commission being established it should consist of five members, three citizens elected by the citizens at large and two appointed by the city council.

It was decided after some discussion to invite Sylvester Baxter, secretary of the Boston parks commission, to address the committee on Monday next at 3 p.m.

In the hope that a joint trip over the proposed park route thru carleton place common will satisfy opponents that the project will not do violence to any objects of historic memory, the board of control and parks committee have invited the historical societies to have representatives accompany them on a visit of inspection this afternoon.

A Deserving Hospital. The request that the city's grant to the Sick Children's Hospital be increased from $100,000 to $125,000 was made of the board of control yesterday by J. Ross Robertson, representing the trustees.

A like assurance was given a deputation representing the Working Boys' Home, which is to be given the city's yearly grant of $500 to the institution.

The Toronto Relief Society was given a request yesterday to increase its library for Riverside.

A deputation of Riverside business men asked the board to have the new Carnegie library in Riverside.

The city architect is asking for an increase in his salary from $4,000 to $5,000.

One after another members of that committee entered the witness-box and declared themselves ignorant of the manipulation of accounts, and admitted that the committee passed such accounts merely as a matter of form.

Ex-Ald. Noble, chairman of the committee in 1905, said that he had commenced to make some enquiries, but finding that it took half of his time to get any answers gave it up.

Ex-Controller Hubbard, who, as a member of the island committee, had signed some vouchers, was called. He said that he had signed the vouchers upon the assurances of Mr. Chambers.

"You can't buy trees like you would buy a place of oysters," he said. "An appropriation is asked and often cut down. The park commissioner has to order his trees months ahead, so nurserymen can prepare them, and if his appropriation is cut down he must cancel part of his order or take part of it on credit."

Ald. McMurrich, chairman of the committee in 1900 and 1901, also gave evidence. The enquiry was adjourned until Monday, when the ex-commissioner will probably be called.

Masters and Mates. The Canadian Association of Masters and Mates began its annual meeting in the rooms of the Toronto branch yesterday. A good number of delegates were present.

Ex-Ald. Robert Fleming said that he had paid Mr. Chambers for anything received by him from the parks, and for any work done for him by city men.

Ald. W. T. Stewart, chairman of the committee from 1902 to 1904, admitted that the vouchers passed by the committee were not scrutinized. He had

Nearly all our little ills come through inactive bowels. Those days that you lose because you don't feel right—Cascarets will save them all.

In the old days, physic was dreadful—calomel, castor oil, salts or cathartics.

They acted much as pepper acts in the nostrils. They flooded the bowels with fluids. And a waste today means a lack tomorrow.

You secured relief, but you were actually worse off than without it.

It's different with Cascarets. Their effect is the same as that of laxative foods, or of exercise. They stimulate the bowels to natural action.

No gripping, no irritation. They act as a bowel tonic.

The old way, too, was to take large doses of physic. People waited until all bowels were clogged.

The new way is to take one Cascaret when you need it. Carry the box in your pocket or purse.

A MAN. Toronto has had within her gates for twenty-four hours A MAN.

The citizen of the United States, garbed otherwise than we, speaking with an accent and mannerism unusual to us, thinking from facts and impressions gathered elsewhere, yet he is kin to us in that he typifies our ideal of what A MAN should be.

Stripped of whatever may be theatrical about him, William Jennings Bryan is A MAN, and he has attained his exalted place in the affections of his people by reason of his disinterestedness and his steadfast advocacy of principles and policies for the betterment of his people.

It has not been easy for him to reach his present place in the estimation of English-speaking people. But one can easily imagine that it is not Bryan who has changed, but the people.

From the first Bryan has been what he now is, A MAN, and it has been by reason of his virile manhood, in which the chief ingredient is sincerity of purpose, that he has won the admiration of our public men.

Bryan, THE MAN, is worthy of emulation by our public men. Toronto is happy to have had the privilege of having A MAN within her gates.

THE COUNCIL AND LICENSES.

Possibly by this time the majority of the city council that decided so hastily to disregard the popular vote have reached the conclusion that thought and consideration should precede action, not follow it.

Had the question of license reduction been an issue at the municipal election, some excuse could have been offered for the action taken.

The question as it now stands has nothing to do with the merits, or the reverse, of license reduction, and nothing to do with the abstract power of the city council to regulate the number of licenses.

UNSUPPORTED BOASTS. To the inflated, flamboyant statements of circulation returns self-published, are a matter of amusement and wonder, amusement that the declarants take themselves so seriously and wonder that they can believe the reading public so innocent.

The newspaper that says it has the largest circulation in its city of publication must first of all know the exact circulation of its rivals, and, secondly, must have the report of an independent circulation auditor on its own circulation.

Among recognized circulations in Canada and the United States, free copies are not counted in making up circulation returns, for the simple reason that free copies to the number of 10,000 a day might be distributed for a period, in order to swell the circulation returns. But these 10,000 would not be circulation.

by the report of an independent, unpurchasable circulation auditor. It is for this reason that The Montreal Star's announcements of increased circulation carry conviction and weight.

HOME LIFE ASSOCIATION.

In another column will be found the annual report of the Home Life Association, which will form interesting and profitable reading to its five thousand policyholders.

This happy state of affairs, in a year that has been depressing in many ways has been brought about by careful management, in which a large reduction in operating expenses played no little part.

The report states that the assets of the association have been carefully examined and found to be in excellent condition. These assets total $58,772.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE HOME LIFE ASSOCIATION OF CANADA.

The Annual Meeting of the Home Life Association of Canada was held on Tuesday, February 11th, in the offices of their fine building, corner of Adelaide and Victoria Streets, Toronto.

There was a large attendance of shareholders and policyholders. The President, Hon. J. R. Stratton, occupied the chair, and Mr. J. B. Kirby acted as Secretary.

The Assets of the Association presented a good showing. In spite of the financial stringency, the interest on loans was, with a few insignificant exceptions, due to temporary inability, through isolated crop failures, met with gratifying promptitude.

The Assets of the Association, amounting to $869,772, have been carefully examined and found to be in excellent condition. The first mortgage account during the year ending December 31st, 1907, shows an advance from $166,375 to $266,815, the security in every case being first-class.

During the year an increase of $80,983.02 brings the figures of Net Ledger Assets up to $809,556.14. Net Outstanding Premiums and Agents' Balances have been reduced from $49,461.30 to $41,083.38, a ratio of 19 per cent.

The Cash premium Income of the Association totaled last year $193,154.15. The percentage of interest to Net Ledger Assets for the year is nearly double that of 1905, when the present Board assumed office.

The payments to policyholders last year amounted to $76,693. These consisted of death claims, which are well within the actuarial estimate authorized by the Dominion Government, amounting to $52,216.27, and the balance consisted of matured and endowment policies, annuities and cash surrenders amounting to $25,476.73.

The meeting regarded it as a cause for congratulation that the past year has been marked by a reduction of operating expenses of $25,144.73, in pursuance of the policy of the Board to keep expenses to the lowest point consistent with effective management.

As a whole, the Annual Report and Statement shows a sound and healthy condition of the affairs and interests of the Association. The business on the part of an excellent character, hardly susceptible of betterment. The all-round improvement in every department of the business of the Association, and especially in that of business management, must be very satisfactory to all concerned.

After congratulatory and explanatory remarks by the President, Vice-Presidents, General Manager and Shareholders, the Report was unanimously adopted.

OTTAWA, Feb. 11.—(Special).—On the orders of the day being called, R. L. Borden asked on what authority Mr. Brodeur stated in reply to a question that part of the expenses of Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper in England during the Behring Sea negotiations were paid by the British Government.

Mr. Crockert (York, N. B.) drew attention to the postmaster at Woodstock, N. B., who was alleged by a newspaper clipping to have taken part in a political meeting. He had sent the clipping to Mr. Lemieux, who had replied that he had written to the postmaster for an explanation. Later on, a question being put on paper, Mr. Lemieux had replied that his attention had not been called to the matter.

Mr. Lemieux said he meant that no "complaint" had been made. Mr. Emmerson fathered the circular, but there were exceptions. He had consented to a couple of employees at Stellarton running for the council, as it was represented that good men were scarce and the duties of office would not interfere with their duties on the railway.

and other members of the legislature, accompanied them. Hon. W. J. Hanna, Col. Clark, Joseph and T. H. Preston had heard him at the Press Club...

He spoke in the hope of touching some human heart for good. His address was for the one purpose of reaching young men, and to shame them out of the conceit that it was smart to be a "liberal"...

He quoted Tolstoy on several heads and said that the only religion rested on the consciousness that men do see God and come short of what they should do and do not want to see God.

There is a wide difference between the man who is trying to shape his conduct and the man who is trying to meet the approval. When public opinion is not what he wants, he is uncolored by other things we cannot rely upon it.

He thought it impossible to get rid of mystery. He did not wish to push God so far off that His influence was not felt in the most difficult to practice, love.

With regard to miracles, he was satisfied that God would create a miracle if He thought it necessary to do so. He knew as little of life to-day as of the life of the world.

WIRES WERE HINDRANCE TO WORK OF FIREMEN

Had Difficulty in Getting Ladders Placed at Bay Street Blaze.

The volley of alarms sent in around 1 o'clock yesterday morning kept the firemen guessing for a little while.

A false alarm from 172 at Niagara and Tecumseh-streets took the west side sections on a useless run, while 254 took the east end companies hurrying to Queen-street and Broadview-avenue.

Great difficulty was experienced by the firemen in getting ladders to the rear of this building. There was a network of wires extending from one side to another up and down and sideways, making the handling of ladders a very difficult task.

The fire was a very difficult one to get at, extending thru the basements of three stories, and reaching its way to the floor above. Chief firemen were given a hard job.

Toronto Electric Light Coy's Annual Meeting.

The Twenty-fourth Annual Meeting of the Shareholders of the Toronto Electric Light Company, Limited, held at the Head Office of the Company, No. 12 Adelaide Street East, on Tuesday, the 11th day of February, 1908, at 12 o'clock noon.

Report of the President and Directors of the Toronto Electric Light Co., Limited

Your Directors beg to submit the following statement of the affairs of the Company for the past year. The income for the year has been $1,039,716.42, and the expenses (including interest on Debentures) have amounted to $651,925.57, leaving a balance of profit of $387,790.85, out of which have been paid four quarterly dividends at the rate of eight per cent. per annum, amounting to $245,503.39, leaving a balance of $142,287.46 to be carried forward to Profit and Loss, and bringing the amount at the credit of that account up to $160,344.89.

During the year a large proportion of the change has been made from the steam plant to Niagara power machinery. As both systems have been more or less used in operating, the percentage of expenses to gross receipts has been somewhat larger than would otherwise have been the case, but during the coming year an increased revenue may confidently be expected, and at less cost for operating.

The Company's steam plant is in good repair, and will be held in reserve as an auxiliary in case of accident at Niagara Falls or to the power transmission line.

Auditors' Report

To the President and Directors of the Toronto Electric Light Company, Limited. Gentlemen,—We have audited the Books and Accounts of the Company for the year ending December 31st, 1907, and have found them to be correct.

Statement Showing the Growth of the Business during the last Ten Years, as shown by the Gross Receipts:

Table showing Gross Receipts from 1898 to 1907, with values ranging from $316,174.88 to $1,039,716.42.

President's Address

Twenty-Fourth Annual Report. In submitting to the Shareholders the Twenty-fourth Annual Report of the Toronto Electric Light Company, I take the opportunity of presenting a short sketch of the operations of the Company during nearly a quarter of a century.

Statements of the Public Press. This is the more necessary because certain statements calculated to prove injurious to the Company have been made in the public press and elsewhere, which need for their complete refutation nothing more than a clear setting forth of the facts.

Inception of the Company. The Toronto Electric Light Company was incorporated in the year 1883—when electric lighting was still in the experimental stage—with a paid-up capital of $175,000, to operate an arc light system.

commercial headquarters being in the Company's new building on Adelaide Street. To carry out all these improvements, and at the same time extend the system to new districts in the City, most careful husbanding of the resources of the Company was necessary, and no dividends were expected or declared for several years.

To carry out all these improvements, and at the same time extend the system to new districts in the City, most careful husbanding of the resources of the Company was necessary, and no dividends were expected or declared for several years.

Table showing amount expended on Plant and extensions of lines during past ten years to meet demands of citizens for light and power. Expenditure from 1898 to 1907, totaling $2,837,096.37.

Table showing reductions in price of Gas during period of competition of the Electric Light Company. Price of Gas per thousand feet from 1882 to 1906, showing a total reduction from $1.75 to $0.75 net.

These facts in connection with this tabulated statement deserve special notice: 1. The statement made in some quarters, that there were issues of stock for which no value was received by the Company, is entirely without foundation.

2. The issues of new stock from time to time were made at par to the Shareholders of record at the date of issue. This method of placing the stock has been the universal rule in all Canadian companies, and was nothing more than fair to the Shareholders, in view of the small amount of dividend received by them during the early years, and the necessarily hazardous and experimental nature of the business.

Losses by the Company. In 1897 the Company had to face considerable loss in the destruction by fire of their principal building. The disaster, serious though it was, served to show the capacity of the Company and the excellence of its organization, by the rapidity with which the business was re-established.

Underground Conduits. At this time underground work was commenced in the city, and has been prosecuted steadily up to the present time. The work is carried on according to a systematic plan, which aims at providing eventually an entire underground system for the whole city.

Incandescent Lighting. In the year 1889, while the Toronto Electric Light Company was still engaged exclusively in a street lighting and commercial arc lighting business, another organization was established for incandescent lighting. This was a new development in the science of electricity, which was rapidly coming into favor in larger cities of the United States.

The Interests of the Public. That the interests of the public have not suffered—but on the contrary have greatly benefited—by this, as well as by the whole policy and administration of the Company, is shown by the following tables:
