RAIN DRENCHES AND CHILLS THE HOMELESS; STARTING TO REBUILD; ANOTHER EARTHQUAKE

San Francisco, April 23.—The San Francisco that will rise from the ashes of the old town was in its first stage of rebuilding. After five days of confusion and almost superhuman effort on the part of the citizens of California's metropolis in the great task of sheltering, feeding and otherwise caring for the homeless thousands complete order has been established and attention turned to the future.

Through the great business quarter where the devastation by fire was the most complete, dangerous walls were razed, buildings that had not been disintegrated by fire were inspected with a view of re-occupancy and ground was cleared for the immediate construction of buildings in which to resume business at the earliest possible time.

Confidence has been restored. The assurance of insurance companies, the measures taken by the financial institutions, the prompt and generous words that have reached the business men of San Francisco from eastern financial centers—all these things have dispelled the feeling of uncertainty.

Feeding the Homeless An Enormous Task

Homeless persons were fed today in a systematic manner. On the water front where the best kinds of provisions do not come from an endless procession of carts and drugs carrying food to scores of institutions established throughout the city. At these stations food and drink, comprising bread, coffee and canned goods, milk and a limited amount of hot coffee and tea fruit were served to all those who applied. About 3,500 tons of provisions moved daily from the waterfront.

Large supplies of blankets, tenting and other material, to provide coverings for those who have been scantily supplied, are reaching the supply station rapidly. Dracks have been completed at several points and in these many people have found comfort and shelter against the inclemencies of the weather.

The situation in the congested camp, such as Golden Gate Park, and the various public squares throughout the city has been considerably relieved by the departure of many people for points on the other side of the bay. While the number of people leaving the city is nothing like the vast crowds that packed the streets during the first two days following the earthquake, the number was sufficiently large to satisfy the relief committee that its task will become less difficult from day to day.

General health conditions are satisfactory. While the number of cases at the various hospitals has increased each day, sickness is mostly due to exposure and poverty. The most encouraging feature is the absence of anything like contagion or an epidemic disease of any nature whatever. The somewhat unsatisfactory sanitary arrangements in the various camps, due to a scarcity of water and the exposed situation of so many people, especially developments in the various places where there have been a few cases of such diseases as measles and chickenpox, but probably not more than would develop under ordinary circumstances in a large city.

Homeless Thousands Drenched With Rain

"Hillman! Hillman!" lustily called the brakeman, thrusting open the car door as the train slackened.

"It isn't Hillman!" said the man decidedly. "What station is this?" he asked as a railroad employe came out of the depot.

"This is Rolling!" "Hillman is six miles beyond—next stop, except the siding."

"Then we must drive there, I presume there is no livey here, but there must be some one who will drive us over."

"I have some good news for you. It seems our train meets the western express three miles from here and that train is reported late, so we can overtake our train and continue our way as we started."

"What's his name?" demanded Polly, looking up interestedly.

Table with columns: Yesterday's Closing, Today's Closing, Change. Lists various stocks like Amalg. Copper, Am. Sugar Ref., etc.

There was little or no change worthy of comment in the business world. Copper still continues in strong demand, and mining producers sold up into the summer, and practically no spot copper offering for early delivery. Analyses of the metal with the general list, although the price was retarded to a considerable extent by the declaration of 1 cent extra dividend in addition to the regular quarterly 1 1/2 per cent. Other copper shares were inclined to show weakness, though there was fairly good support on the decline.

In an unforeseen calamity of this kind the worst fears seem to meet with instant recognition in the markets. As a general proposition matters do not usually run out quite so badly as expected, though in this case matters do not seem to be improved. It looks through the San Francisco disaster would remain a dominant influence on prices for some little time to come, and to that extent positions of the present, the anticipated spring boom, is prevented.

THE COAL STRIKE. New York, April 23.—Representatives of the anthracite coal operators today announced that they have received the following letter from President Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers of America, in reply to the operators' declaration of intent to all the differences between the operators and the miners to arbitration.

"I am yours truly, (Signed) 'JOHN MITCHELL'."

The following, entitled 'statement' on behalf of the anthracite operators, but not signed, was also given out: "When Mr. Mitchell presented his plan of arbitration on April 12 the operators informed him that there that it could not be accepted. They also notified him that a detailed reply would be made on April 17. The affairs of a rival industry, however, demanded Mr. Mitchell's attention in Indianapolis on April 16, and it was not until April 21 that he could even acknowledge the operators' letter of the 17th."

"It should be very definitely understood that the delay in these negotiations is not caused by the operators. They handed their formal reply to the miners' original demand to Mr. Mitchell's committee on March 9. But an order to ready of the controversy with the bituminous operators, Mr. Mitchell had to leave New York on March 10, and he was absorbed with questions relating entirely to the soft coal fields until March 31. On March 29, with only a few days to spare, he returned to St. John, and he was absorbed with questions relating entirely to the soft coal fields until March 31. On March 29, with only a few days to spare, he returned to St. John, and he was absorbed with questions relating entirely to the soft coal fields until March 31."

"Now, once more, from April 22 to April 23, the affairs of the anthracite region must be neglected while the bituminous dispute is taken up. Each industry alternately waits while efforts are being made to settle the other. It is now more than three weeks, and only thirty-six days have been lost in those negotiations since March 9, by reason of the demands upon the miners' leader by the competing bituminous industry."

SAN FRANCISCO AND THE MARKETS

The Wall Street Journal in striking fashion traces the far-reaching effects of the San Francisco disaster upon the money market. While the city will be rebuilt upon a grander scale, and quickly, the Journal points out that it is easy to underestimate the damage inflicted by the earthquake and the fire.

THE KING AND CANADA

It is doubtful if the king will find it expedient to accept the invitation of parliament to pay a visit to Canada, says the Montreal Gazette. The duty such a visit would imply would be a serious one, involving much travel and fatiguing exertion.

REASONS FOR CONFIDENCE

The eloquent solicitor general of the Dominion, Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, in addressing the Canadian Manufacturers Association at Toronto the other day spoke of Canadians as a united people building up a world power. He marshaled a number of reasons for his confidence in saying that this century will definitely be ours and that in years not far distant, Canada will lead the world in progress.

465 millions; that it has more than doubled in ten years; that the Canadian manufacturers have an invested capital of 41 millions; that they exported last year $29,000,000 or $48,000,000, lumber included—employing in their 11,126 factories 306,000 hands, and paying in wages $88,000,000.

"Have we ever realized that our country has the largest wheat fields in the world—171,000,000 acres in extent—less than five millions or only three per cent. under cultivation?" "It is estimated that in ten years from now, ten million acres will be under wheat, yielding 200,000,000 bushels."

"If we remain true to ourselves, if we know how to learn from the Americans a lesson which they have been only too prone to teach us, we will give our Canadian farmers a home market that can always be depended upon without the uncertainties of a fluctuating foreign market."

A Boston journal calls Mayor Schmitz of San Francisco, "the fiddling mayor." He played in an orchestra before he entered civic politics; but he did not fiddle while San Francisco was burning, and he is making a first class record as a man with a sound head and a good heart in the day of disaster.

The aldermen know well enough that regulating valves are necessary for the new water system, yet they are going to ask the underwriters for their opinion. And after election, too, the simpler way is to order the valves. More than enough time has been wasted already.

There must be no playing fast and loose with justice in connection with these York Loan villains. Nothing more barefaced in its heartless recklessness has been reported in Toronto, and the Crown must not compromise with the man who played the game.—Toronto Globe.

THE HILL INVASION (Vancouver Colonist.) Respecting the Hill Invasion, the St. John Telegraph takes the same position as that of the Colonist—that it is necessary to Canadian interests that it be checked.

The very backbone of any such policy is transportation by all-Canadian routes, and so far as the Hill project is concerned, the country generally should now be thoroughly alive to the vital importance of this line of national development.

The very backbone of any such policy is transportation by all-Canadian routes, and so far as the Hill project is concerned, the country generally should now be thoroughly alive to the vital importance of this line of national development.

It is not easy at first to grasp the full significance of Hill's proposal to build or acquire 3000 miles of railway in Western Canada, tapping the whole region by strategic lines to feed the Great Northern system, and direct Canadian products from Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia, may well be regarded as sufficient to justify ourselves and alarm among Canadians.

It is so vital to the development of which is so vitally important to Canada, that it should be held by our own cities may be diverted in increasing measure to those of the United States, and the Hill line, of course, will carry back American goods to displace the merchandise of Eastern Canada.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS

Miss Louise Randolph
Miss Louise Randolph, of Proctor's Stock Company at the Fifth Avenue Theatre, plays a wide range of parts with the company, varying from emotional roles to adventures.

Speaking of the Heir to the Hoop, which opens in Scotland on Monday night, a western critic says: "Nora O'Brien, as Mrs. Lacy, was good looking, as the weak-witted wife, but was sweet and womanly without." A large number of well known actors were in San Francisco at the time of the earthquake, including William Collier and his company, the Tivoli, Stock Company, The Ladies in Toyland, the Western Lion and the Moose company. Some of the players in the above companies, known in Montreal were George Nash, Mabel Taliferro, John Barrymore, E. G. Saville, Grant Stewart, Arthur Byron, Gertrude Ogilvie, Joseph L'Amour, and Florence Girard. The only Montrealer was Arthur Cunningham, who was engaged in stock opera. Four benefit performances for San Francisco sufferers are already arranged for in New York.

Florence Rockwell, who has impersonated many Shakespearean heroines with marked success, writes in the May Indicator of the importance of establishing a national theatre if for no other reason than to produce the splendid plays of Shakespeare. Miss Rockwell says: "The drama in this country needs some such representation, for the playwright as well as for actors, and what better could happen for the drama than to have standard productions of Shakespeare's plays. To the playwright they would offer an object lesson in dramatic construction and literary style and direct his work from the standpoint of play or dramatic musical comedy of today, thus raising the whole average of American dramatic authorship. For the actor, they would improve the public taste which would then demand a higher order of play and performance at the regular theatre. There is no institution calculated to have a further reaching influence for good upon the American stage than a properly conducted national theatre even if no American play were ever to be given there. Not only in the theatre is for high ideals, not only for those who write and act, but also for those who go to witness them."

MARGARET ANGLIN ACTS IN A PLAY BY A POET

(Boston Transcript.)
Last Thursday evening, in Chicago, on sudden impulse and after only five days and nights of preparation, Margaret Anglin acted for the first time on any stage "A Sabine Woman," a play by William Vaughn Moody. Miss Anglin is now the most justly distinguished of younger American actresses in parts of strong and fine intellectual and emotional fibre. She enters keenly and deeply into the characters that she plays, and she senses their traits and beats their feelings until she has fused both into a living being that in turn permeates and holds her audience. She has learned to take the day's work and opportunities as they come, but she is eagerly ambitious of parts that run deeper and cut more sharply into life than any she has hitherto acted. She not only did the reviews write adequately of the play. Then they are overmuch preoccupied with their own notions of bettering it rather than with the substance of it and Moody's judgment and achievement. If Miss Anglin acts in Boston next month, as she may, she is likely to give a performance or two of it.

FRANK HIGGINS NEARLY GOT FREE

Moncton, N. B., April 23—(Special)—Frank Higgins, the St. John boy murderer, and another convict named Thibodeau, made a desperate attempt to escape from the Maritime penitentiary Saturday night and were only caught as they were sawing off the iron bars on the outside window. The convicts had cut their way out of the prison cells and were making good progress on the bars of the outside window.

Frank Higgins, Slayer of Willie Doherty.

which stood between them and open air when night keeper, W. E. Lawrence, came upon them rather unexpectedly and put an end to their hopes. The prisoners were taken to prison officials and placed in the dungeon for the remainder of the night. Higgins is the notorious St. John boy murderer, who was first sentenced to be hanged for the murder of Willie Doherty in Rockwood Park, St. John, about two years ago and whose sentence was afterwards commuted to life imprisonment. Thibodeau is serving a long sentence for shop breaking and is also a young man. The two convicts had evidently been preparing for some time to make a break for liberty as they had provided themselves with tools for cutting the bars. Higgins and Thibodeau had been regarded previous to this as well behaved prisoners, but it is now known that their meanness and good behavior was all for a purpose. In future these two convicts will be closely guarded, after being liberated from the dark cells.

A Doctor's Cheering Words Will Interest the Mother.

An eminent physician, who has largely recommended Lactated Food in his practice, says:—"In several cases where the mother had little or no milk, I put the little ones on Lactated Food, and in every case they thrived as well as the mother's milk. In one case the child had green discharges, and it was evident the mother's milk did not agree with it, so I stopped all nursing and gave the Lactated Food and nothing else, and the child grows, is now well, and prospering as well as any child with a good breast of milk. I most cheerfully recommend Lactated Food to any mother who has to resort to artificial feeding for the little ones."
This should come as cheering news to every mother whose child is not progressing in health with other foods. Lactated Food is the only food that can keep a baby well and save it from the dire effects of prevailing infantile complaints. The Wm. & Richardson Co., Limited, Montreal, will send a free package of Lactated Food to any mother who has not tried it. Send in your full address, mother, and you will receive the food without fail.

BOTH FOG-BOUND

Halifax, N. S., April 23—(Special)—The mail steamer Victorian, which should have sailed at 10.30 tonight for Liverpool had not arrived in port at midnight. She has been off the harbor since the early afternoon, but has not attempted to come up on account of thick weather. The Pretorian, from Liverpool with the male, is also off the harbor. The government steamer Lady Laurier, which had been lying by, was out there keeping company with them for a while, but she came up all right this afternoon. It is not likely the Victorian or Pretorian will come up till morning. Countess Grey arrived this afternoon at 3 o'clock to sail by the Victorian. Three or four couples were married today in the expectation of proceeding by her at the usual time, are also waiting to go aboard. The Arranmore, due from Boston late Sunday night, has not yet arrived.
A new play, at present known as What's Good for the Goose has been written by Stanislaus Stange, for a new act on the West, Miss Florence Gale.

J. J. ENRIGHT IN "ROMANCE OF NEW FRANCE" EXCELLED

FOR SALE. APPOINTMENT TO A BARGAIN. FIRST CLASS. APPOINTMENT TO A BARGAIN. FIRST CLASS.

Frank Brown, who played point on the Montreal hockey team last winter, has returned from America, where he had been under an operation in the Highland View hospital.

The McAlpine directory tangle is likely to result in one of the most costly equity suits ever before the New Brunswick courts. If the matter comes to a hearing there will probably be in the vicinity of 300 witnesses examined, and that will occupy not a little time and not a little expense.

Considering the inclement weather, there was a good sized audience in Brussels street Baptist church last evening when J. J. Enright told his beautiful and highly interesting story of the Romance of New France.

THE ROMANCE OF NEW FRANCE. EXCELLED. The entertainment was given under the auspices of the Enright Club and consisted of a series of lectures on the Romance of New France.

Food for Starving Crew; Unusual Incident in Mid-Atlantic

From the Graphic

A correspondent of the London Graphic on board H. M. S. Cumberland writes: "While we were cruising by ourselves during the recent manoeuvres, we came across a sailing vessel, which we made out to be Portuguese, and as we approached she signalled to us that she had no food left on board, and asked for immediate assistance. We stopped when we got quite close to her, and she lowered her little cockleshell of a boat, with four men in her, who, after some difficulty, managed to row her to our sea gangway. The man in the stern sheets came on board and explained in broken English that the ship had left St. Thomas, Azores, in the West Indies, twenty-two days ago, with a cargo of beans and sugar for Lisbon. They had been driven south by adverse winds, and he said that for the last month they had been in practically the same place we found them, which was quite out of the regular track of ships of any sort. They had run out of their provisions for weeks, and had to live on the beans. One of the crew had died from scurvy. The poor fellow eventually hoped to arrive at his home. The boat's crew certainly looked very emaciated and none too hearty, but they retreated considerably when we lowered all kinds of provisions into their boat. Flour, potatoes, biscuits, preserved meats and other things were handed over, and they pushed off amidst showers of tobacco cigarettes and oranges from the sympathetic sailors, who were crowding at the gangway. The ship signalled her best thanks, and we proceeded.

HAPPY CELEBRATION OF ST. GEORGE'S DAY

St. George's Society celebrated the festival of their patron saint by a conversation in York Theatre last evening. A large and fashionable company were assembled and after speeches appropriate to the occasion, dancing and supper brought a most successful gathering to a close.

Judge Willich Thanks St. John People

The president then called upon Judge Willich, the United States consul, who spoke feelingly of the terrible calamity that had befallen the city of San Francisco. He had been busy himself, he said, in his humble way in raising funds to assist the sufferers, and was glad to take the first opportunity to thank the people of St. John for their open-handed liberality on behalf of the stricken people. During the week several entertainments were being organized for the most cases, and he hoped that a large amount would be realized. For himself, he felt he need not say how he appreciated the fact that he had been extended to him. He seemed doubly welcome because on his arrival as a stranger five months before, he received his first welcome from St. George's Society, and the impression would long remain with him. The judge's suggestion that although he did not claim to be much of a singer, he would do the best he knew how, was received with much enthusiastic feeling. Buy the GOLD BOND SHOE

As this is rubber shedding time, the old shoes will look just a bit off in appearance. The Lady or Gentleman who is fortunate enough to secure a pair of the shoe of shoes, Gold Bond, will realize that they are all we claim for them. A thing of beauty and a joy for a year. I am showing a fine assortment of "The Gold Bond Shoe" in the $3.50 quality. Good soles, heavy and light uppers, perfectly smooth inside. Unquestionably the best $3.50 shoe in Canada. Remember the store.
