London Correspondent Says Eight Battalions Wiped Out by British—Believes Enemy Will Make New Stand on Present Line

London, Sept. 28.—(New York Herald cable)—Telegraphing yesterday, Percival Phillips, special correspondent of the Daily Express with the army, says: "Let there be false optimism about the extent of the Prussian defeat. The enemy is not falling back to the Rhine. Indeed there is every reason to believe he will renew resistance with fresh troops and another formidable mass of guns on the line he is now taking up against his will. Eight enemy battalions have been wiped out in trying to stem the British flood between Lebaufs and Guendourt. Of the 22nd, 27th, 28th, 29th and 24th regiments, a mere handful of dazed men survive. Their fighting spirit was dead before Lebaufs and Merval fell. As far as I could ascertain today, practically no resistance was offered in these villages. "A wounded officer commanding the fragments of a battalion regiment said to his captain: 'My men would not stand. I could not make them fight. They had had enough.' This, remember, is the apology for soldiers possessed of ordinary courage and endurance, and in infantry work are accustomed to fierce warfare. They were not cowards. They had had enough. I think that fairly represents the spirit of the Prussian troops, who sit tonight in new trenches waiting for the next inevitable onslaught."

If You Are A Shrewd Buyer

You cannot afford to pass my stock of Men's Clothing without due consideration. After looking over my Suits and Overcoats, men are telling me I have the greatest values in town; and why should I not when others were having their sales I had inside information to sit pat and hold on to my stock. Hence my goods are at old values when my competitors have to sell at war values.

RECORD WINTER BUSINESS HERE

(Board of Trade Circular.) Two years of warfare have served to demonstrate the value of the port of St. John as an economic factor in the great European struggle. Through this port vast quantities of supplies have been shipped to Great Britain and her allies. Last year all previous records of the winter port were eclipsed, the value of our exports aggregating more than $120,000,000. So far this year the record has been well sustained. With the preparations that are being made by the federal government, the Canadian Pacific Railway and the city authorities for the coming winter's business, it is expected that the approaching season will be another record-breaker. The government is rushing the work on Pier 16 and on October 15 construction of a freight warehouse 70x150 feet will be begun on the new pier. The C. P. R. have provided yard accommodation for 300 additional cars, besides making other important extensions.

The railway department has been asked to hasten the re-building of the Intercolonial flour warehouse on the east side, recently destroyed by fire, so that it may be ready for this winter's traffic.

The natural resources of this locality are to be further developed by a plant for the manufacture of hydrated lime, which is being installed at Brookville by the engineering firm of Gandy & Allison, of this city. The plant, which is the first of the kind in the lower provinces, will be of the most modern type throughout. The kiln, which is composed of steel, is fifty-two feet in height, and is being manufactured by the St. John Iron Works. Grant & Horne are the general contractors for the erection of the plant.

Clearing house returns at St. John show an increase of $1,284,546 for the month of August. For the first three weeks in September the increase over last year was $892,791.

In connection with the provincial farm settlement scheme, the local government has appointed E. A. McCurdy of Moncton, and Allan B. Wilnot of Fredericton, as a committee to advise with the Farm Settlement Board in the matter of the selection of lands for settlement purposes.

Hot James A. Murray and F. W. Sumner, agent-general for the province, will leave for England next month to finance the settlement scheme and it is expected that "sample farms" will be ready for next spring.

The customs revenue at this port for the first five months of the current fiscal year shows an increase of $368,622 over last year.

THE WAR NEWS

Least there be too much elation over the recent great success of the Allies on the western front, and the assurance that they now have irresistible strength, let not the fact be overlooked that all the preparations are being made for a winter campaign, and that according to Mr. Frank H. Simonds, few people expect peace before 1918.

"No one expects to see a material change in the situation before the arrival of next summer. Few people now expect peace before 1918."

Of course the Central Powers may collapse next summer, but they are not at all likely to yield before that time. They have great defensive strength, which must be broken down by blow after blow until Turkey, Bulgaria and Austria are all beaten, and the Germans forced to defend their own soil.

There has been little news from the Russian front for some days. The expected new strategy of von Hindenburg has not yet been developed. Whether he is able to concentrate a sufficient force at any point to throw back the Russians remains to be seen, although it is obvious that any advantage he might gain would only be temporary.

Greco-Albanian hostilities have decided to join the Allies, and will be able to give very material assistance against the Bulgars and Turks. There should be very important developments in the Balkan area before the winter sets in.

There will also be much interest in the debates in the German Reichstag, which resumes its sessions today. We shall soon know whether the party in favor of a resumption of submarine warfare represented by only a few of the diehards of the von Tirpitz faction.

WELCOMING FLEMING
The Moncton Times says that Mr. Frank B. Carvell must have had a bad spell when he received the returns of Thursday's by-election, and it adds: "The Hon. J. K. Fleming will be Carleton's next representative at Ottawa."

There you are. The Carleton county result is regarded by the Conservative machine as a victory for Mr. Fleming, and he is accepted as a more desirable man to have in parliament than the man who exposed his political misdeeds. What does the better element of the Conservative party think of it? Is Mr. Fleming its ideal of a Canadian statesman?

That is the real issue in New Brunswick today. Mr. Fleming is welcomed back to the fold, with all his works. He is accepted as a sample of the sort of New Brunswick man the leaders of his party want in the parliament of Canada. He is congratulated on his "victory" and welcomed in advance to the inner circle of Ottawa. No doubt a reorganization of the cabinet is contemplated, so that he may have a portfolio and a chance to do in the wider field of Dominion politics what he did to the railroad contractors and lumbermen in New Brunswick.

How do honest Conservatives regard the situation? Do they want the Fleming conception of public honor and public duty to prevail in Canada? Does the Conservative press reflect the real feeling of the members of the party when it rejoices in what it regards as evidence that Mr. J. K. Fleming is to go as one of the party's representatives at Ottawa and possibly in the cabinet at Ottawa? Surely not.

ELECTION EXPENSES
In Maine the political candidates must make a statement of their campaign expenses, which is published. For example: "Peter Harmon of Thomdike, Democratic candidate for county commissioner of Waldo county, contributed $20 to the Waldo county Democratic committee and expended $20 for the Unity band at a rally, $8 for the transportation of the Unity band, $7 for automobile hire, $2.50 for stickers and envelopes, $2.25 for posters and $3 for a hall for a rally."

RECENT RECRUITS
Clarence G. Jewett, 18, Fredericton, son of ex-Alderman H. C. Jewett, will join the 6th Siege Battery at St. John. Charles W. Toner, 24, Fredericton, enlisted for the 280th Highlanders.

Quite different is the account of Col. Frederick Hale of Portland, the Republican candidate for U. S. senator for the long term, who expended $8,500, according to the statement of his expenditures which was filed at the office of the secretary of state. Col. Hale contributed $2,500 to the Republican state committee, and gave sums ranging from $25 to $100 to each of the county and town committees working in his interest, besides $50 each to a number of men canvassing, and nearly $1,000 for clerical work, printing and electrotypes.

Evidently a poor man cannot hope to become a Maine senator, although the statement of Col. Hale's personal expenses would appear very small beside those of some Canadians who have political ambitions. The whole system which calls for the expenditure of large sums of money in an election is vicious. The people should have enough public spirit to labor and to vote without any money except that required for unavoidable expenses. When they learn to manifest that degree of public spirit the grafters will go out of politics, for the representatives chosen will be men of the best type and no strings will be attached to them.

THE ELEVATOR
If Hon. Mr. Hasen had sent steps to have the grain elevator rebuilt immediately after the old one was burned, he would deserve whatever credit is due to a servant of the people who does what is his duty to do. But Mr. Hasen did nothing of the sort, and the Standard will not be able to convince the citizens that he deserves to be elected because at this late date he gives a free hand to Mr. Gutelius to erect the structure on an unsuitable site, in opposition to the wishes of the majority of the people.

The proposed structure will not be ready for use during the coming winter, and there is therefore no reason to rush the project. There is ample time to go thoroughly into the question of a site, and have it settled in a satisfactory manner. The truth is that Mr. Gutelius has chosen the site on the Water street side, and will have no other; and Mr. Hasen says Amen to Mr. Gutelius. The latter is very gracious when in Halifax, and meets the wishes of the citizens in every possible way.

St. John is a way-station on his railway map, and its people are treated accordingly. There are just two things to be said about the new St. John elevator. Its construction has been too long delayed and it is now to be placed on an unsuitable site. For these merces the Standard asks us to be duly thankful, and to exalt Mr. Hasen.

Once more Sir Wilfrid Laurier has made his eloquent plea to French-Canadians to enlist and prove that they do not approve of the Nationalist view of the war. He tells them plainly that the honor of the French-Canadians is at stake. "The Nationalist members of the Borden cabinet might well take note of Sir Wilfrid's appeal and lend a hand in a great recruiting campaign in Quebec province."

St. John, Kings and Queens must pay their debt to the men who are fighting for them in France and Flanders. The year must not end with a deficit in the Patriotic Fund from this district. It is a matter which closely affects the honor of every citizen, and most closely affects those who have the most money, for they have most at stake, and can give the most without making a real sacrifice. As Sir Herbert Ames says, the sight of a marching regiment ought to wake us all up to a sense of the sacrifice the soldiers and the soldiers' families are making for our benefit. We must pay the debt, as far as the Patriotic Fund can do it.

Because it is the only fair scheme. It is estimated that the maritime provinces have a total of males of service age of 161,987. The apportionment of these required to fulfill the government's promise would be 65,000.

The enlistments up to June 1 were 81,061. His leaves to be recruited 34,926. Suppose it were possible to find this number willing to enlist, it would simply paralyze every known industry, destroy its value and save many out of employment, because every factory and establishment has certain overhead expenses which it cannot get away from, and if it cannot get enough volume of business, from the fact of not enough output on account of not enough help, the manager usually hears a whisper from his banker.

This is really what would happen if 85,000 more males were taken out of the maritime provinces in the voluntary haphazard method. But suppose a selection could be made from the younger men, of which, as shown, there are 161,987 serviceable. Does this not sound more reasonable to the young men themselves, as well as to the country?

CANADA STILL SLOW IN DELIVERY OF SHELLS
Board May Have to Open Factory for Forgings; Even There a Dispute Arises
Ottawa, Sept. 28.—The warning and appeal issued by the Imperial Munitions Board two months ago with a view to hastening delayed deliveries of shells and shell parts has apparently partially failed in effect. It is reported that the greatest delay is in the delivery of forgings. To overcome this difficulty the board has now under consideration the immediate construction of a forgings plant. If the necessities of the hour are consulted, the plant will likely be located at Ottawa or Hull, where the operation can be constantly under the eye of the board, but if the railway and other interests are allowed to have their say the new plant is likely to be erected in the City of Quebec.

RHEUMATISM
A Home Care Given by One Who Had It
In the spring of 1908 I was attacked by rheumatism and it has never returned. I tried many remedies, and doctor after doctor, but each time I received only temporary relief. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I am now perfectly satisfied with Rheumatism. I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatism to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send you a free trial. After you have used it and it has proved itself to be the best remedy for rheumatism, you will see the price of it, one dollar, but understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Just that fair. Why suffer any longer when positive relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today.

In the month of April last we placed an order for our Fall stock of Men's Shoes. We felt positive at the time that prices would be advanced, and we were desirous of being able to supply our customers with good shoes at practically the old prices. Had we not taken advantage of the situation at the time, instead of $6.00 we should be asking a very much higher price.

This price can only continue on present stock, and it would be wisdom on the part of our patrons to take advantage of it.

Edward R. West to Testify Against Gang; Will 'Accept Personal Humiliation' to Save Other Men and Women

Chicago, Sept. 28.—Announcing that he had concluded to 'accept personal humiliation' to save other men and women from being drawn into the black-mallers' trap, Edward R. West, vice-president of the C. D. Gregg Tea and Coffee Company of New York and Chicago, admitted that he is the 'A. R. Wesley' who was surprised in a New York hotel with 'Alice Williams' by representatives of the hand black-mallers, recently exposed by Federal officials.

BRITISH WOMEN ARE DEVOTED WORKERS

Helping French at Hospitals, Canteens, Clothing Depots and Refuge Homes

The kindness of the English women to help the French has not lessened. In 1914 (writes a correspondent in France) women of all ranks came over in large numbers to nurse the wounded, succor the refugees, feed the hungry, and give ready, generous help wherever it was needed. Under their hands, in face of many difficulties, hospitals, canteens, clothing depots and refuge homes sprang into being, and in 1915 these institutions are still in full working order and others have been added to them.

MUCH APPENDICITIS IN ST. JOHN

There are many cases of appendicitis in St. John hospitals. Much of this can be prevented with simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adlers. This simple remedy acts on BOTH lower and upper bowel, removing such surprising foul matter that ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. Adler's has easiest and most thorough action of anything we ever sold. J. B. Mahoney, druggist, corner Dock and Union streets.

A Simple Way To Remove Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring, use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the fingertips. By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have. You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

LUNACY; ITS CAUSE AND CURE

(The Belfast Christian Advocate). For several years the annual reports of the Belfast Lunatic Asylum, issued by Dr. Wm. Graham, have been strong indictments of intemperance and powerful arguments in favor of total abstinence, and the report for the past year, just issued, is not less valuable in these respects than its predecessors. Dr. Graham, who is a recognized authority on mental diseases, states that at the beginning of 1915 there were in the Asylum 606 males and 603 females, total, 1,209, against, at the beginning of the present year, 511 males and 566 females, total, 1,077. These numbers show a marked diminution, as compared with the average for the past ten years, and it is rather strange that this should have happened at a time when we are engaged in the greatest war of history, when agony and woe must have entered into many homes; yet, as Dr. Graham points out, insanity, like crime, has decreased since the war commenced, especially among women, and he intimates that the cause of this change has arisen from the fact that the war has emancipated women and given them new interests in life. His words are—"It has set them free from the benumbing conventionalities that threatened to stifle their psychic energies, and so far it has contributed to soundness of mind and nerve. Among the mighty sociological forces which the present world-conflict has set in motion not least will be the value set upon all sorts of good work and the new dignity which will crown the worker. With the ever-widening circle of woman's interests a new barrier against mental disorder has been erected."

PRESENTATIONS ON LEAVING

Yesterday Mr. Creed received a traveling bag from the teachers and officers of the Sunday school of the Brunswick street Baptist church, of which he has been the faithful secretary for many years. Mrs. Creed, who has been active in the work of the church, was also kindly remembered. She was made a life member of the Women's Missionary Aid Society, John T. Clark generously providing the fee of $25. Lady friends of Mrs. Creed connected with the church presented a dozen silver teaspoons and a pearl pendant. The presentation was made at the close of the after meeting in the vestry of the church on Sunday evening.

USE THE WANT AD. WAY

Not for the first time in these reports Dr. Graham condemns strong drink as being one of the most potent causes of insanity, and he urges that with greater leisure, more education, many of the temptations to indulgence in drink will vanish, but he forgets that many of the most noted victims of alcohol have been people who were highly educated, and had plenty of leisure. Witness Dr. Porson one of the greatest classical scholars this country ever produced. Neither leisure nor education is a cure for intemperance. Dr. Graham is on safer ground when he declares—"It has been said that 'you cannot make men sober by Act of Parliament.' The saying is smart but largely false. Drinking depends on two factors, the desire and the opportunity, and very often the opportunity excites the desire. Minimize the opportunities to drink, supply other objects of desire, and you go a long way in enabling men and women to achieve sobriety, and with the diminution of alcoholism will go hand in hand with the desire to drink. Intemperance does not, however, tell us what the other objects of desire are, and instead of following out to its logical conclusion

Sir Wilfrid Appeals To Men Of His Race To Fight For Empire

Montreal, Sept. 27.—About 15,000 people gathered in the open space on St. Joseph boulevard, between Fabre and Garnier streets, Wednesday night to hear the Liberal chieftain, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, Mr. Alphonse Verville, M. P., and others in an open air meeting arranged by Mr. Verville, the well known labor representative in Parliament. Sir Wilfrid's address was partially political and strongly patriotic. He made it clear that he still strongly favored the cause of Great Britain and her Allies in the war, and that he regarded it as the duty of French-Canadians to assist therein.

Political Discussion. Sir Wilfrid, at the outset, claimed that the Liberals fell from power in 1911 because of their devotion to duty, and the Conservatives had won because the public mind had been blinded by appeals to prejudice, distortion of facts, and by untruths. Touching on the navy bill, he stated that the Borden government had not changed it one iota, except to extend the principle after the war started, when Vancouver and Victoria became frightened and obstinate authority.

To Surprise the lord of the household—

SERVE him a dish of the newest food creation, NEW POST TOASTIES, for breakfast tomorrow.

It may be he hasn't cared for corn flakes; and you, too, may share in that belief from experience with the old-style, paper-thin kind.

But these new flakes are different. They don't depend on sugar and cream for their flavor. And they don't mush down when cream or milk is added.

NEW POST TOASTIES are made by a wonderful new process which brings out the true corn flavor. They bring you a new taste and a new breakfast delight.

TURKS UNLUCKY IN ARAB ALLIES

Back From Mesopotamia

Lieut. Lighthall Was With Relieving Force Which Got Within Sight of Townshead's Encampment

(Toronto Mail)

Lieutenant W. S. Lighthall, son of W. D. Lighthall, K.C., who has just returned home on sick leave till November, has an interesting experience in Mesopotamia, and is probably the first Canadian officer to return from that particular scene. Here, within twelve miles of the scene of General Townshead's surrender to the Turks, Lieut. Lighthall who left Canada early in the war, passed through the intense fighting at Postubert and Givency, and then obtained a commission in the famous Dorsets, which regiment was with Clive at the great battle which finally ended the Turkish advance. Landing at the British base at Basra, on the Persian Gulf, the force, amounting to about fifty thousand men, proceeded up the Tigris, through a very flat country, the heat of the season making the movement of troops and supplies exceedingly difficult. Lieut. Lighthall met with many Turks, some coming home with the impression that they are good fighters on the defensive, but inferior to the British in the open. They are, however, fair fighters and those with whom Lieut. Lighthall conversed bear not the slightest resentment toward Great Britain in the present war, evidently feeling that they were dragged into it by Germany and that even this will not preclude them from entertaining the pro-British sentiment of other days. He has very little use for the Arabs, who are no more loyal to the Turks than to anyone else. In one of the fights it was noticed by the British outposts that the Arabs who had been in front of the Turkish battle line had for some unexplained reason been transferred to the rear. Little was thought of this until the smoke was seen ascending from the enemy's lines, and upon investigation it was discovered that the Arabs had fired to the Turkish camp and were burning the supplies just by way of pasture. As this is not exactly the conduct of friendly troops it is apparent that the Turkish army does not present an effective front to the enemy.

Made Gallant Stand.

As for the surrender of General Townshead, Lieut. Lighthall could give no account of it, except to say that a gallant defence was made by the British commander, who is described by the Turks as the best general of the British army. The British relief expedition arrived at a place from which they could see the palm trees of Kut but in the meantime Townshead had been obliged to give up the garrison.

In a amusing story told about the Arab allies of the Turks he was offered made to a British officer that he would give him a head of the sons of the desert would bring in all the Turkish prisoners under their hands on in spite of this apparent friendliness to the British by the Arabs they are known to have tortured their prisoners and Lieut. Lighthall says the women are the most savage of all in this work. They capture Lieut. Lighthall's orderly, an English-speaking soldier, and everything and he had been put to death. Lieut. Lighthall compared the Arabs to the troops of the olden times in Canada, who would be contented for a whole day to get an opportunity to kill a French-Canadian habitant at work on his farm.

Lieutenant Lighthall was asked if the colonial officers were treated well by their British comrades. He replied in the affirmative, adding that when a man does his bit, there is nothing to complain of.

Allies Gain More Ground

Enemy, With Weakened Resistance, Forced to Fall Back How Lives Have Changed

The twenty-mile battle are running from the Ancre to the Somme is rapidly being transformed by the great offensive of the Entente Allies into an irregular triangular wedge in the German line with bases respectively in front of Thiepval and east of Peronne and the point projecting across the Bethune road and into the St. Pierre Yacht Wood.

On the British end of the line in the region of Thiepval and eastward, to the north of Fiers, the British in Wednesday's fighting gained further successes over the Germans, and likewise the French east and south-east of Rancourt drove their troops forward and entered the St. Pierre St. Yacht Wood.

To the south of this region from Bouchavesnes to the southern edge of the Bois L'Abbe Farm the French were compelled to face a violent attack by the Germans, which was beaten off, the Germans being thrown back in disorder, according to Paris. The British gains included German trenches on a front of 2,000 yards north of Fiers and a strong redoubt on a hill 2,000 yards north-east of Thiepval. To the northwest, across the Ancre, successful raids were carried out by the British opposite Bazemont-Hamed. Ten thousand prisoners have fallen into the hands of the British in the last fortnight's fighting on the Somme front, according to London.

There is still little news coming from the Russian and Austro-German war offices concerning the fighting on the eastern front. Petrograd asserts that aside from skirmishes at various points there is nothing to report. Berlin, however, records the repulse of a Russian attack in Galicia, near Ludova, with heavy casualties to the Russians.

On the Roumanian front battles are taking place at various points near the Transylvanian border. Berlin reports progress for the Teutonic allies near Hermannstadt, while Bucharest chronicles the defeat of the Austro-Germans in the Jiu Valley and their hasty retreat north and

If YOUR family were living in Belgium NOW

You'd Look on the Belgian Relief Fund As the Finest Thing in the World.

King Albert's war-worn soldiers, holding the line at the British left, certainly look on it in that light. It gives them courage for the fight, and hope for the future, for it is saving the lives of their loved ones.

The work which the Belgian Relief Commission is doing for humanity has never been equalled. For nearly two years now, from two to three million destitute Belgians have been fed, and horrible wholesale starvation averted. While the Relief Fund has only been sufficient to provide the barest necessities, these people, who have absolutely nothing else, have been saved by the three slices of bread and the pint of soup dealt out to each one daily.

Can it be kept up, on a steadily growing scale, till Belgium is free again?

That depends largely on Canada, and partly on YOU.

The demands on the Fund are steadily growing, as more and more Belgian families reach the end of their resources. More money must be given to keep up even the slender rations now possible. But the end of the war does not seem so far off now, and if we can keep up and even increase our giving for a little while longer, we shall be able to save the heroic Belgian people for a new and regenerated Belgium.

Will you do your part? Will you undertake to feed one—or several—Belgian families till the war is over, by contributing $2.50 per family per month?

Whatever you feel you can give, send your subscription weekly, monthly, or in one lump sum to Local or Provincial Committees or

AN AUTO AND A BEAR

Ralph Morrison, driver of a public auto, met a big black bear while returning to Calais from a trip to Dumbarston, N. B., Sunday night. Bruin was standing in the road and was apparently daunted by the headlights of the machine, which came to within a few feet of him before he started to get out of the way. Then he ambled along in front of the car until a blast from the auto horn caused him to literally tumble over himself to get into the protection of the woods.

Crimes Which "Will Stain Ger-

to Come"—See Copies All Around—Terrifying Tales

Confirmation from trustworthy German sources of reports of atrocities committed by the Turks against Christians in Turkey has just come into the possession of the British government through its censorship of the mails. The confirmation is in the form of a protest sent to the German foreign office by the Faculty of the German High School at Aleppo, Turkey. In it the German professors state that unless Germany acted to restrain the Turks that the crimes and outrages committed by the Turks
"will always remain a terrible stain on Germany's honor among the generations to come."

The translations of the protest and the names of the Times from official sources in London, with photographic evidence of the German originals. A copy of the protest was found in a letter written by Dr. Edward Graetner, one of the signers, from Basle, Switzerland, on July 7, to a distinguished German theologian in a neutral country.
Here it is:

Protest for Civilization.
"Aleppo, 8th October, 1915.
"We humbly beg to report the following to the foreign office."

and a wail of death.
"As-sim d' alman (the cult of the German) is responsible for this, the naives declare."
"It will always remain a terrible stain
on Germany's honor among the generations to come."
"The more educated inhabitants of Aleppo maintain that the Germans do not really approve of these outrages.
Perhaps the German people, too, are ignorant of these events. How would it be possible otherwise for the usually truth-loving German press to report the inhuman treatment of the Armenians of high treason? But it may be that the German government's hands are tied by reason of certain contracts. No-when it is a question of thousands of helpless women and children who are being driven to certain death by starvation the words 'opportunit' and 'Kompetenzverzug' can no longer have any meaning. Every cultured human being is competent to intervene, and it is, in fact, his sacred duty to do so. Our esteem among the generations to come is at stake. The more refined Turks and Arabs shake their heads sorrowfully when they see brutal soldiers bringing convoys through the town of women far advanced in pregnancy, whom they beat with cudgels, these poor wretches being hardly able to drag themselves along."
"There are, moreover, dreadful hecatombs of human beings, as shown in the enclosed decree of Djinnal Pasha."
"This is a proof that in certain places the light is feared, but people have not yet the will to put an end to these scenes, which are degrading to mankind."
"We know that the foreign office has already received descriptions of the local condition of affairs from other sources.
Surely, however, the procedure of deportation has in no way been ameliorated, we felt it more than ever our duty to submit this report for your perusal."

A Question of Expediency

"I am going to tell you more about the Armenian episode," Dr. Graetner says in his own letter, "for this time the question was not one of the traditional massacres, but of nothing more or less than the complete extermination of the Armenians in Turkey. This fact Talaat Bey's Turkish officials cynically admitted with some embarrassment to the German consuls. The arrangement first made out that they only wanted to clear the war zone and to assign new dwelling to the emigrants."
"They began by enticing the most wealthy and the mountaineers out of their rocky fastnesses. This they did with the help of the securities of the Turkish Empire, the headquarters of their own churches, of the American missionaries, and of one German consul. Thereupon began expulsions from everywhere, even from districts to which the war will never be carried. How these were effected is shown from the fact that out of the 18,000 people driven out of Char-put and Sivas only 800 reached Aleppo, and only seven out of the 1,000 from Erzerum. Once at Aleppo the poorest of these were by no means at the end of their troubles. Those who did not die here (the cemeteries are full), were driven by night to the Syrian Steppe, toward the Zor on the Euphrates. Here a very small percentage drag out their existence, threatened by starvation."
"I state this as an eyewitness. I was there in October of last year and saw with my own eyes several Armenian corpses floating in the Euphrates or lying about the steppe."

German Officers Bar Help

The Germans with a number of laudable exceptions witness these things quite unperturbed, holding out the following excuses:
"We just need the Turks, you see!"
"I know for a fact, moreover, that an employee of the German Cotton Insurance and one on the Bagdad Railway, were forbidden to help the Armenians. German officers have also raised a complaint against their consul for his sympathy with the Armenians, and a German teacher, although most capable, was not appointed to a school of the Turco-German Association on account of his having an Armenian wife.
They are afraid that the Turks might take offence at this. The Turks are less considerate."

Hungarians Decry Raids on England—
Holland Rejoices at Loss of Two Raiders

London, Sept. 27.—(New York Sun)—
According to the Budapest correspondent of the Morning Post, aerial attacks against non-military objectives, such as the Zeppelin raids on London, are de-ploreably resented by the Hungarians. He quotes a writer in the Hungarian paper,

As Unjas, commenting on the raid on England on Saturday night as follows:
"It is a deplorable thing to send men in a fragile airship for the purpose of bombarding places that they cannot distinguish objects upon the ground from such heights as the Zeppelin fly."

The Amsterdam correspondent of the Times says the Zeppelin raids on England always have been regarded with aversion in Holland. There is universal satisfaction among the people, although it is not expressed in the press, at the fate of two of the latest raiders. The newspapers speculate on whether these losses will cause the Germans to ask themselves whether the results are commensurate with the cost, though it is not supposed that any considerations of humanity could make the Germans discontinue the attacks.

DR. RAND PREDICTS VICTORY FOR ALLIES

Harvard Librarian Praises Britain's Work

Somme the Turning Point—Says the English, Rather Than the Germans, Are the Efficient Race—Calls Zeppelin Raids Failures

Dr. Benjamin Rand, an author and philosopher librarian in Harvard University, returned by the Cunard Andania, last week from England. He carried abroad and left with the Oxford University Press for publication the manuscript of a volume on John Locke, containing more than 200 unpublished letters of the great English philosopher. The Foreign Office, upon his arrival, granted him permission to investigate the work which the nation was doing in its determination to carry the war to a successful issue. A museum of the inventions made since the war began was shown to him. He also observed the treatment of 2,000 interned Germans in a great camp. "The vast munition works of the north were visited, and the foundries in which the ordnance for the army and the fleet was being made were inspected. The yards of one of the greatest shipbuilding concerns of England were seen under way in regard to the future of this great war which it would not be possible to gain in any other way. It strengthened me in the belief of the determination of the English and conclusive victory. Ample proof was given that the English, rather than the Germans, are the efficient race. The former have raised and equipped an army in two years with a perfection which exceeds what the latter has been able to do in a decade. The entire equipment of transportation from the munition plants to the front has been made with a thoroughness that must challenge the admiration of the most experienced."

"In the magnitude and the multiplicity of the problems which have been solved a task has been performed greater perhaps than has ever before been done in so brief a time. Financial problems have been met by the creation of a character such as has never before been dreamed of. "It is not alone the splendid equipment, the quantity of munitions, the maintenance of ordnance and the strength of the navy to be seen in England which spell victory for the allies. Far more is it in the morale of the British people united for one purpose. It is a nation and not merely a government that is at work. There is a settled and unalterable determination to carry this war to a conclusive issue. "Germany even today little knows the strength of purpose aroused in the English people. There is no outward excitement and no visible anxiety. One might even suppose there was lacking a consciousness of the tremendous issues at stake. Such is the English spirit that Germany will yet awake to discover how folly when she aroused the British into action. "It is a time which demands united action. There is a united and unmaking it. Nowhere is this more apparent than in organized labor. "The attack on the Somme may be regarded as the turning point of the war. The period of preparation will now be succeeded by a concerted offensive. The evidence is unmistakable that the war is entering upon a final and triumphant phase for the allies. The long and glorious resistance of the French at Verdun has been relieved. The Germans can no longer press the Russians in the east or the Austrians seriously threaten the Italians in the south. The big push is on."

Dr. Rand said that one of the striking incidents of the summer in London was the burning of the Zeppelin in the last raid. Its destruction by an aeroplane, he believes, will serve as a stimulus for future attacks by the cheap and lighter craft. The Zeppelin raids in England he regards as a conspicuous failure of a military way. Dr. Rand commented on the strength of the English patrol service. Discussing the question of retaliation, Dr. Rand said that while occasionally English writers advocated reprisals as the method by which the slaughter of the innocent on land and sea might best be prevented, the most prevalent opinion was against such procedure. In conclusion Dr. Rand said:

"One of the notes we frequently heard struck at the meetings held on the second anniversary of the war was to the effect that the individual guilty must not be allowed to escape, and that the

IS IT A MODERN JEKYLL AND HYDE?

Some Say "The Shielding Shadow" is an Imaginary Creation—Wonderful Serial Starts at Unique Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday—Arlington Orchestra

When Robert Louis Stevenson wrote his famous novel and play, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" or when Dumas created the character of "Monte Cristo," neither thought that a scenario writer for moving pictures would yield the pen and place both writers in the background. "The Shielding Shadow," the remarkable serial in fifteen episodes which the Unique Theatre has contracted to present, the first chapter to be shown next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, combines two factors of both Dumas' and Stevenson's above referred to works. Those who have seen advance showings of the first three chapters of "The Shielding Shadow" are impressed with the fact that the author was endeavoring to make Monte Cristo or Jekyll and Hyde live again, but then the next instant such thoughts give way as a new phase of the story presented itself. It is truly a mysterious spectacular production, each and every edition being characterized by something entirely new and different. It contains thrills, which are shown in such a manner that the ordinary pictures of this type are thrown far into the background. "The Shielding Shadow" is undoubtedly one of the best serial photo plays ever produced, and the introductory chapter should by all means be seen at the Unique next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. In addition to this the Arlington Banjo Orchestra will make their first appearance at the Unique on Monday afternoon, and will be heard at every performance thereafter. See the first episode of "The Shielding Shadow."

FINES STRUCK IN THREE AUTO CASES

Magistrate Ritchie disposed of three bye-law cases this morning. In the case of Captain L. M. Curran, M. D., reported for exceeding the speed limit in Douglas avenue, the court found that there was no exception for a physician. A fine of $25 was struck and $10 collected. The same penalty was meted out to William G. Dunn and H. FitzRandolph, reported by special constables for like violation.

Frank Bansa, a driver for J. S. Gibson & Company, reported for allowing his horse to stand without a foot strap, was fined but the fine was allowed to stand as Mr. Gibson explained that he had a special permission for this team from the commissioner of public safety to leave it without a foot strap. The team was used solely for delivering charcoal to small grocery stores. The magistrate remarked that a few years ago there were only about twenty autos in the city, today there were about 2,000 registered in the city and county. This big increase necessitated the enforcement of the laws and the police were only doing their duty for the welfare of the public at large.

VERY LARGE GAIN

The St. John bank clearings for the week ending today amounted to $1,784,864. Corresponding week last year, $1,801,200.

VISIT FROM MOOSE

This morning about 6:30 o'clock a large bull moose appeared on the brow of Moore's Hill, Manawagonish road, and before surprised residents could get a rifle, the big animal walked sedately down the road stopping to get a better view of several of the houses and finally turned into the grounds of John Sims. After a short stay there, Mr. Sims came out again, walked back on the road and took to the fields near the Tippet house and from thence went to the woods along the Gipsy settlement. It is said by those who saw the animal that it was considerably larger than most of its kind and had a few sore spots on its hind end and a few sore spots on its hind end and a few sore spots on its hind end.

HAS BEEN THROUGH THE BIG ADVANCE

Corporal Fred Storm Writes Interesting Letter

Speaks of Some Officers and Comrades; How T. A. McDonald Was Wounded; Battery Given Praise by Colonel

Corporal Fred Storm of the 97th Siege battery, writing to his mother, Mrs. A. M. Storm of 11 Pine street, city, says that he is taking part in the big advance and that shells are being exchanged continually with the Fritz. The letter reads as follows:

"We are still banging away and crawling forward like the turtle. I guess if we keep up this pace we will beat the Fritz."

CORPORAL FRED STORM

"rabbit" yet, although he started with such a grand flourish. Of course, I can't tell you where we are on account of the censor, but we have been in the big advance since July 1 and working very hard.

"The infantry, when passing our battery going into the trenches, joke at our shells which weigh 1250 pounds (one ton) for Fritz's, the ever present pills for all ailments.

"All the boys are looking well and sticking it first class. Leslie Patterson, Sergeant Preston and his brother are the only boys from St. John in my section; all the other boys are from Nova Scotia, Quebec and Ontario, but we all get along fine together.

"Captain Dobbie, who left Partridge Island with us, is still going strong and he is sure a pippin; he is sure not belong there. He has had some narrow escapes, but has not a scratch yet.

"Lieut. Compton, who left with us, was transferred to a French mortar battery. He was not with us when he got wounded. None of our officers have been wounded yet, but we have all had some close shaves. None of the St. John bunch have been wounded except bombardier T. A. McDonald, a Mount Allison man. He got a couple of nasty wounds and is enjoying life in England. I remember the afternoon he got wounded. I met him about an hour before he was sent to the hospital. Two men he had sent out to repair a telephone wire that was broken by a shell. As Old Fritz was shelling pretty lively they had taken cover in a hole and left the wire until the strafe let up. That didn't suit McDonald as the line was needed. He started off alone to mend it; he got the wire mended, and now the doctors are mending him.

"We don't get any chance at the guns to win V. C.'s the colonel of our brigade gave us a pretty good name. He said we surprised him as artillerymen for a lot of 'green horns'. What do you think of that now?

"We are getting cold weather now and we are preparing for a winter dig in the ground like a rabbit, but as I have lots of company I guess I'll be able to enjoy life with the rest of the boys. As I am supposed to sleep after being on duty all night, I am very hard to write a letter when the guns are firing and Old Fritz's coal boxes are bursting around everywhere."

The soldier's address is Corporal F. W. Storm, No. 9129, 97th Can. Siege Battery, R. G. A., B. E. F., Army Post Office, England.

CONGRATULATIONS OFFERED TO NEW CHIEF JUSTICE

Barristers Society and Citizens Felicitate Judge McKeown on Occasion of Promotion

The September sitting of the Supreme court was resumed this morning with the new Chief Justice McKeown presiding. When the court opened on Tuesday, Justice Groulx presided in the place of the chief justice who was indisposed. On the chief justice taking his place on the bench this morning he was made the recipient of many congratulatory references on his appointment as successor to the late Chief Justice Landry.

"This was the first court for the new chief justice to preside over in this city since his recent elevation. Fred R. Taylor, president of the St. John Barristers' Society, on behalf of that organization extended to His Honor their heartfelt congratulations. He spoke of the very high esteem in which Chief Justice McKeown was held by the legal fraternity of this city and said that his appointment had been a most popular one. The fact that Justice McKeown's judgments always found confirmation when brought before the court of appeal bore testimony to the efficient manner in which His Honor discharged his duties.

"Mr. Taylor was followed by Attorney General Baxter, who endorsed the remarks of the president of the Barristers' Society and added his personal congratulations.

"F. W. Daniel then presented the following address on behalf of the grand jury:

To the Honorable Chief Justice McKeown:

Dear Sir,—

We, the members of the Grand Jury at present attendant on your court, wish to convey to you our hearty congratulations on your appointment as chief justice of this province. As citizens also we feel that in the present straitening times the world over, there is need, more than ever before, of exalting the honor of our courts and the laws of our land, and it is our belief that in you we may look for strict and wise justice.

It is our wish that your term of office may be a long and happy one with the satisfaction of duty well done.

Yours respectfully,

F. W. DANIEL (Foreman)
D. J. BROWN,
S. J. MEAVY,
HENRY REGAN,
D. McARTHUR,
D. A. SMITH,
HENRY DOBSON,
R. E. GORDEN,
A. M. PHILIPS,
F. E. WILLIAMS,
A. D. BOWEN.

St. John, N. B., September 27, 1916.

Following the address of the grand jury A. H. Hinington, K.C., extended his personal felicitations and His Honor replied to the tributes most feelingly. Not only was he delighted to hear the kind remarks of the legal fraternity, but he was also greatly pleased to receive the good wishes of his fellow citizens as expressed in the address of the grand jury. He said that he had not been solicited. He had worked for his appointment as judge in the first instance, but recent appointments had not been sought for. In his remarks, the new chief justice spoke in glowing terms of his predecessor, the late Sir Pierre A. Landry, and he said he would try to emulate the example which had been set by him. As a matter of fact, in an address to a jury, he said, Sir Pierre A. Landry had no superior. Following His Honor's address a further adjournment of the court was made.

A SURPRISE PARTY

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Farris, No. 1 Carleton street, when friends tendered them a surprise in honor of the 80th anniversary of their wedding. During the evening they were made the recipients of a beautiful ballroom. The presentation was made by George Fowler. The evening was spent in games, singing and with piano selections by Miss Clara Beveridge and Douglas Thorne. After a dainty supper was served the company broke up wishing Mr. and Mrs. Thorne many more years of happy wedded life.

My left knee, nothing very serious. We are in an imperial hospital. I am the only Canadian in our ward, all English and Scotch boys, and we are certainly used to go under examination tomorrow. I am in pretty good health, and I stand a chance to see old England for a while. I was nineteen hours on a hospital train before I reached my destination, but I tell you what, Mother, it was a great change from the trenches. Do not worry, Mother dear, I am lucky.

"P. S.—I forgot to tell you, Mother, I am sleeping in a real bed with snow white linen over me. Oh, what a treat from the 'old' ground!"

Letters Home From Private J. A. Whipple

Tells of Great Marching by Battalions, Including the 26th—The Joy of Sleep in Bed After the Trenches

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Whipple of No. 8 Whipple street, Lancaster Heights, have received letters from their son, Private J. A. Whipple, dated August 29 and Sept. 8. Some time ago he was wounded in his knee in a trench in Belgium. In his Aug. 29 letter written somewhere in France, he said he was then a lone way from the trenches, in a farm house with others for some engineer's training. The battalion did the march in three days. They had several battalions with them; the good old 26th had a great time. At the first stop he met several old Carleton boys; they were all O.K., but they were all stiff after the hard march. "Well," he says, "it will be some time before we see any fighting, and where we do no one knows, I guess it will be a long way from the western front division. I was glad to leave it; it was certainly a hard front. Good news has been received from other fronts which makes it all the better for us. We were complimented after our long march. There was not a man of the fourth company that had to be brought in on the ambulance, so that it very good. Our officers certainly did use us well all the way with good food and lots of it, and plenty of time.

In his Sept. 8 letter he says:

"At last I am able to write you a few lines. At night and day. I got within a few miles of our goal and I have been muddled here for away from the war in a hospital with an internal cartilage in

DO YOU NEED A MATTRESS?

If so, don't buy until you have seen the "Dixie No Tuft," the mattress which has revolutionized the bedding business. The absence of tufts does away with the hard spots which tufting inevitably produces, and with the depressions at every tuft which are gathering places for dust, dirt and germs.

Our space is too limited to describe in detail why the Dixie has twenty-five per cent. more elasticity than the tufted type; why it presents a better appearance at first, and why it keeps that appearance after other mattresses have spread and sagged out of shape. But if you will write or phone us for a circular which fully describes all these points, or, better still, call and let us show you samples, we feel sure that you will agree with us that it is the BEST ON EARTH.
