British Drive Off Attacking Huns

Repulse Them at Hill No. 60 and Near St. Julien

Germans Again Use Poisonous Gases—Threat of Invasion of Switzerland if Italy Goes to War—Enemy Submarines Are Active

London, May 3.—A British official statement dated May 3 says: "At 7 p. m., May 1, the Germans attacked Hill No. 60, south-east of Ypres, and last evening they attacked in the neighborhood of St. Julien. These attacks were both repulsed. We lost no ground, and we inflicted heavy casualties on the enemy in spite of the fact that he again used poisonous gases emitted both from tubes in the trenches and from especially manufactured shells.

Paris, May 3.—As soon as Italy declares war, Germany will invade Switzerland with two army corps, occupying Zurich and the country around it. This assertion is made positively in the Liberte. Information from Berlin shows the German plan as follows:

When Italy intervenes, the Kaiser will inform Switzerland that he no longer feels under obligation to respect her neutrality, alleging that Italy already has violated it by flying over Swiss territory.

Germany also will assert that she feels bound to protect her interests in the Gotthard railway, which is under German and Italian control.

While one corps enters Basle, the other will march from Constance, the two joining at Zurich, whose important industrial machinery would be invaluable to the German army.

GERMAN SUBMARINES ACTIVE

Aberdeen, Scotland, May 3.—Travelers today declare that a German submarine sunk two trawlers within fifty miles of Aberdeen on Sunday. The crews, it is believed, lost their lives. It would appear as though the submarine ran amok among the Aberdeen fishing fleet. In addition to sending two to the bottom, it chased three others for twenty miles. As a patrol boat appeared the submarine submerged.

London, May 3.—The Exchange Telegraph Company has a despatch from Copenhagen saying the Swedish steamer Ellida, timber laden, from Helsingborg for Hull, was torpedoed in the North Sea by a German submarine. She went to the bottom in less than three minutes. The steamer men and two women on board barely had time to make their escape in one of the small boats.

MORE ZEPPELINS RAID ENGLAND

London, May 3.—A German aeroplane coming from the direction of Ostend, scouted over Dover and Folkestone at noon today. It was driven off by gun fire.

London, May 3.—It is reported that a Zeppelin airship is traveling in the direction of England from the island of Vlieland, which is the northern coast of the Netherlands. The airship passed over this island at ten o'clock this morning.

Von Kluck's Recovery

Amsterdam, Holland, via London, May 3.—General von Kluck, the German commander who was wounded in March, is now so far on the road to recovery, according to the Hamburg Nachrichten, that he is able to appear in the garden of his villa, which has been converted into a hospital.

(A. M. Belding) In yonder shady grove the happy birds are calling. Aiders and herons the rippling stream; Whispering winds and showers, and shafts of sunlight falling. Wake earth from winter's dream. ENGLISH BLOCKADE-FIRM

French Minister of Marine Says It Would Be Dangerous For Germans to Try to Force it—Cheerful About Dardanelles

Bordeaux, May 3.—"The English blockade remains as firm as ever, and it would be a dangerous experience to attempt to force it," said Victor Augagneur, French minister of marine, today on the subject of the German bombardment of Dunkirk by a German fleet.

London, May 3.—A remarkable response has been made by the public to the appeal for respirators to protect the British soldiers in the field against the gases employed by the Germans.

First Hand Tale of Atrocities Committed By The Germans

Refugees Reach Toronto—One Woman Tells of Her Father Being Murdered Before Her Eyes—Six Hundred Villagers Killed

Toronto, May 3.—Three men, one of them wounded, four women and seven children, arrived in Toronto last night to the care of Archbishop McNeill. They are Belgian refugees.

What is probably the first authenticated story told at first hand, in Canada, by an actual eye-witness of atrocities in Belgium, was told by Mme. Philomene Justine, a daughter of a Belgian merchant, who was murdered by the Germans before her eyes. She was living in the little village of Arceat. Although the inhabitants of the village were consumed by the flames, her father, who was needed in the latter's garden and shot down and bayoneted by the Germans. There had been absolutely no interference with the German occupation. The care of the village, which is now a desolation, was left to the Germans.

SUN ALMOST A STRANGER TO US

The Rain Keeps up, or Rather Keeps Coming Down—Some Speculation

Amateur weather prophets are busy arguing whether the rain is to continue without any possibility of change until May 9 or May 12. The moon will change into the last quarter on the sixth and some weather sharps maintain that this may bring a change in conditions.

Others are equally firm in their opinion that it will not be until the new moon arrives, on the thirteenth. Meanwhile the meteorological department, being in charge as observers and not as prophets, stands aside from any argument as to what the weather will be more than a day or so in advance.

Pessimists say that a new moon may mean a change in the weather, but the optimists assert that there is every chance for fine weather now that moving-day has passed and the maximum of damage has been done.

The present spell of wet weather may seem long, but it is only ten days since we had two fine days, on April 21 and 22. The 23rd was wet, the 24th was fine for a little while, there was snow on the 25th; then more rain; last Wednesday gave the sun a chance to peep out for a few hours and since then it has been one rainy day after another.

While the rain is usually regarded as an unmitigated nuisance around the city, it may be remembered that there are other places where it is welcomed. The lumber operators are viewing the steady downpour with considerable complacency and the farmers have no objections to make.

STRICKEN AVEZZANO AGAIN IS SHAKEN

Avezzano, Italy, May 3.—Since the last great earthquake, the shocks have continued with more or less frequency. This morning the vibrations were so great that they caused alarm among the whole population, who are camping in the fields owing to the fact that almost the entire town had been levelled.

The shocks today were strong enough to cause some of the old walls to collapse.

BURIED TODAY

The funeral of Mrs. Mary A. Whorton took place this morning from her late residence, Main street, to St. Peter's church where requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. E. Walsh, C.S.S.R. Interment took place in the new Catholic cemetery. A large number of beautiful floral tributes were received.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary A. Whorton took place this afternoon from the residence of her son-in-law, John Sweet, Collins street, Fairville. Burial services were conducted by Rev. Walter Dunham and interment took place in Cedar Hill.

EARLY ELECTION IS THE ATTITUDE OF ROGERS

Public Works Minister Does Not Give Date But His Remarks Are Significant—Some Early Flag Waving

Montreal, May 3.—Addressing the Liberal-Conservative Association of Montreal today, Hon. Robert Rogers indicated unmistakably the early approach of a general election, though no date was mentioned. Mr. Rogers violently criticized the action of the opposition during the last session, and particularly the opposition press which, he said, had descended to "the very lowest possible level."

He blamed the opposition and its press, with the aid of the irresponsible majority in the upper chamber, for preventing the government from carrying out its imperial policy two years ago. In view of this action the government had decided, he said, to appeal to the people last September, but their plans were changed by the outbreak of the war in August. He waved the flag some.

"This war," he said, "cannot be carried to a successful conclusion without money and without means. The opposition declared by their vote and by their votes that we must not have this money, and moved a vote of confidence in the government for asking for it."

He also charged the irresponsible Liberal majority in the senate, with tying the government's hands and said it was unfair to the government and to the empire, to permit this condition to continue.

To those who hold it would not be patriotic to hold an election during the war, Mr. Rogers said: "Let me ask you an individual question, which would be the most patriotic, to dissolve this parliament and have full and complete control, which any government must have, if they are going to render full service to Canada and, above all, do our full duty by our gallant soldiers and those dependent upon them, that should and must be expected from the government of our country in the great crisis of this solemn hour, or remain as we are, handicapped and crippled and interfered with at every turn, tarrying and disputing with an opposition that has not only already refused their support, but has declared by their vote and by their votes a want of confidence in our proposals for the providing of the necessary means that up to the present have been estimated as necessary for the carrying on of our part in this great conflict, and in view of our recent deplorable and heavy losses, it is evident that renewed and greater efforts have yet to be made."

He also strongly criticized the Liberal attitude on the soldiers' voting bill, and intimated this opposition was due to the knowledge that ninety-nine per cent. of the soldiers would vote for Sir Robert Borden's policy of closer British connection.

In addition to the press, Mr. Rogers severely attacked a few clergymen unnamed, who "are simple-minded enough to venture to re-echo from their pulpits some of the misrepresentation being published from day to day in the grip press of our country," and assailed Professor Bland personally as "a well known professional hypocrite, who has ever been ready to endorse, approve and applaud every crooked act that has ever been known to have been committed by any Liberal."

London Papers Suggest That Extra Wages be Held Back Until After War

London, May 3.—A "White Paper" on the drink question brings home to the nation, in an impressive manner, the gravity of the situation. What causes the greatest indignation in the newspapers is a fact, not heretofore realized, that drink is hampering the work in the ship building and transport trades.

Judging from the editorial opinion in this morning's newspapers, however serious as the situation is thus depicted, it is not regarded as justifying the chancellor of the exchequer in penalizing the whole nation by an excessive taxation of the liquor industry. It is said in the editorials that the trouble arises from the men earning much larger wages than they have been accustomed to, and the suggestion is made that some means should be found for deferring payment of this excess of earnings until after the war.

FULL ALLOWANCE FOR THE SPEAKER

Legislature's Consideration For W. B. Dickson, M. P. P., in His Illness—Clerk Also to Get Salary

(Special to Times.)
Fredericton, N. B., May 2.—The absence of Speaker W. B. Dickson, M. P. P. for Albert, who has been seriously ill for some time at his home in Moncton, will receive not only his seasonal allowance of $600, but also the speaker's full allowance of $400. Mr. Dickson's health was not so good as might have been during last session and the legislature has shown its sympathy and consideration for him by not reducing the amounts he would have enjoyed and earned had he been able to attend to his duties.

Mr. Melanson, M. P. P., from Shediac, has attended to the duties of acting speaker with much acceptance. He is to receive $200 for the additional work imposed upon him and his assistant chairmen, Messrs. Munro and Young, will get $25 each. They are both good chairmen and know the duties of that position by heart.

The acting clerk, Geo. Y. Dibble, who was down in the estimates for a salary of $700, was allowed only $25 additional. Henry Rainford, whose serious illness prevented his attendance as clerk of the house, will receive his usual salary of $1,000. G. Hudson, Flewelling who was promoted from chief sessional clerk to being clerk assistant in the house was allowed $75 more than he would have received on his regular salary.

As you know I was some pumpkins as a tailor before I went West, in fact I built up one of the largest tailoring businesses in St. John. When I left the West last fall for the East, I made up my mind to equip myself to be able to take the lead and build up a real first class tailoring business. Therefore, while in New York I took a special course in the art of designing men's clothing. You'll note I said designing. There's a vast difference between a cutter and a designer. A designer studies anatomy of the human form. The result is I find I'm turning out custom tailoring about 100 p.c. better than I have ever done before. I would like to have you call in and let me show you some of these beautiful English wootens and Scotch cheviot suitings that I'm making at $25, $28 and $30.

Since September 10 no fewer than 8,696 cases have left headquarters and supplies from parts of the Canadian Red Cross Society reached headquarters recently in the form of a scarf and three knitted wristlets, worked by Miss J. THE WAR NEWS

Three British vessels, including one trawler, and a Russian, a French and an American steamer were sunk by German submarines on Friday and Saturday. An old British destroyer, the Recruit, was also sunk, but two German destroyers shared the same fate.

The Canadian casualties in recent fighting are now said to have been far greater than two thousand. One London report says they may even reach six thousand.

There have been no great developments along either the eastern or western battle fronts for some days past. The lines of the Allies which were bent back by the Germans north of Ypres are being straightened again, and the force of the German offensive at that point appears to have been spent.

The cables bring many stories of individual bravery on the part of the Canadians and their allies, and of the savage methods adopted by the Germans to gain success at any price of honor or of men.

The Standard this morning devotes a large space to the announcement of the large and parish meetings of the Conservative party in this city and county. The signs point to an early appeal by the Borden government to the country.

AN ELECTION?

The Standard this morning devotes a large space to the announcement of the large and parish meetings of the Conservative party in this city and county. The signs point to an early appeal by the Borden government to the country.

The impression is growing that there will be a general election in June, and it is stated in well informed circles that June 28 will be the date, with nominations on June 21, one week earlier.

That the "council of the Montreal Board of Trade notes with regret that the advisability of asking that the present parliament be forthwith dissolved is being discussed.

from a patriotic and a business standpoint. "That the political strife, inseparable from the holding of a general election, might at this time occasion such division of opinion as would seriously interfere with the provision of assistance that all Canadians are so anxious to give towards securing victory for the Empire and the allies.

The people of Canada do not want the bitterness of a political campaign while every morning the cables are bringing news of casualties to Canadian soldiers in the field. The real reason for an appeal to the people is the fear of further disclosures such as those recently made before the public accounts committee.

KEEP TO THE FACTS With its usual disregard for the facts the Standard this morning says:—"The government voted large sums of money for the prosecution of Canada's share in the Empire struggle. The Liberals supported the vote and blatantly advertised their patriotism in doing it.

One hundred square pianos and organs were distributed last week to poor deserving families in Philadelphia by a piano concern. Each year it is the custom to distribute at least fifty pianos in this manner through a memorial fund established by the present owner of the firm.

When sine baths are used they must be carefully dried after use to prevent them from rusting and iron moulding the clothes.

The suggestion that cheap lodging houses should be licensed and a register kept by them is one that should be carried out.

A White Paper brought down in the British parliament proves conclusively that the drink evil has been interfering seriously with the industrial and transport service. It is alleged that the greatly increased pay of the men has led to drunkenness and loss of time.

Belgian refugees arriving in Toronto tell horrible tales of German atrocities, in which priests, men, women and children were done to death without pity and without the slightest justification for any ill-treatment.

GILLETTS LYE EATS DIRT

LIGHTER VEIN. It is probable that many queens of the kitchen share the sentiment good-naturedly expressed by a servant recently taken into the service of a young matron of Chicago.

"Now, Lena," she asked earnestly, "are you a good cook?" "Ya-as'm, I think so," said the girl, with perfect naivete, "if you will not try to help me."

"Tommy, you mustn't go fishing with Peter; he's just getting over the measles. There won't be any danger, mother. I never catch anything when I'm fishing."

NEW CANADIAN DENTAL CORPS

Organization as Separate Branch—Will Treat Teeth of Men in Training Camps and at the Front

(Toronto Mail and Empire). Canada is taking the lead in the development of a new branch of the military service which, though the need of it never yet been formed in the British Army.

The idea of a dental corps distinct from the army medical service originated in Toronto in the Toronto Dental Rifle Association, and its necessity was shown last winter, when city dentists were engaged for some two months putting in order the teeth of the members of the second contingent. This work was practically a voluntary service on the part of many of the city dentists, who gave up in some cases several entire days to it.

A DOWNRIGHT GOOD BOOT

$4.00 a pair

We are living in a time when leather is scarcer and more generally used than ever. Every day finds the price of leather growing higher. There are many causes for this condition. The war, the immense amount of leather used in the make-up of automobiles, etc., less cattle raising, and the constantly increasing demand for foot covering.

From a long business experience, we realize that most men think that four dollars is enough to pay for a pair of boots. We are offering our customers a range of boots in button and lace at a price that are the equal of, and in many cases, superior to, shoes sold at a much higher price. Gurkhas Play Humane Part With Wounded Enemy

GALLANT SCOTISH RIFLES

Officer Hit Three Times—Accurate British Artillery Fire Breaks Up Enemy's Wire Entanglements—Then Trench Taking Easier

(London Morning Post.)

A good deal has been published already about the doings of the Gurkhas who took part in the Neuve Chapelle battles, but these additional details from the letter of a captain in one of the regiments, are interesting. Writing of the events of Wednesday, March 16, the officer says:

I was with our reserve D. C. with my Maxims, but I hear as our front companies came up and saw the regiment of the other brigade—they both let forth a lusty cheer. One of our men went single handed into a house and killed two Germans and took seven or eight prisoners.

In another part of the letter the writer tells of the counter-attack of the 11th March:

That evening a German wounded man crawled up to the trench; and my men say when he saw they were Indians he turned round and went into a British regiment. On the other hand a German officer, wounded, crawled up and they helped him and looked after him. I came up a bit later and saw him. Decent sort of chap. I should think next morning another wounded German crawled in. We didn't go out to help him, as we'd probably have been shot at, but we showed him the best way in, and helped him over. Quite a youngster. Our men are awfully good in that way. The bloodiest Gurkha you read about is a most courteous fellow at times. After the charge I saw a Gurkha helping a wounded man over one bar to our lines. Our men always go at once and get them water and food, and if wounded, start tying them up.

Buried and Rescued.

That brings us to the 18th, which was a most unpleasant day. We were bombarded by guns—"Big shells and small shells, and shells of all degrees." I should think—from daylight till dusk we simply had to sit as low in the trench as possible. On that day my two left guns had five men out of seven wounded, and these two remaining men stayed with the gun the whole time. As to the other team a shell fell quite close and buried the whole seven men. Luckily one of them was only buried up to his middle and got free and dug for another one out, and then they dug the lot out. Two had been entirely buried, head and all. The others only up to their necks. One of them was badly hurt, though one was defended and another was a bit squashed about the chest and tummy, so I sent them to hospital.

Coolness Under Fire

I had been all day with my right-hand guns. When things got a bit hectic, I went over to the left and found the two men of the one team with their guns and the other team quite calmly and bravely waiting for their ammunition belt boxes. I was very pleased with them all, and have sent their names in, and hope they will get something. We were relieved that night by another brigade, and very glad to get away. I didn't get marching till 2.30 a. m., and went very slowly. The men and officers were all pretty done. Practically no sleep since the previous Sunday; and except while we were being shelled, we were generally fighting or digging. On the way back here we came very slowly, and whenever we halted, held up by traffic or anything like that, everyone, men and officers, sat, or lay on the road and slept!

Great Day for Indians

In these words an officer attached to a Gurkha regiment describes his share and that of his men. Other officers of the Indian Expeditionary Force—whose letters have been sent to us—tell the same story, and it would weary our readers to print any more. This writer goes on:

It is not because I belong to them that I say they did splendidly, they did; but we feel that the despatches have not done justice to them. For some reason or other all the troops taking part were designated as "British" and people may have imagined that the Indians took but a small part—they took a very large part in the operations. We give credit for the capture of the village of Neuve Chapelle, but were brought up on the second day and took part in an attack on a wood beyond the village, and came in for the very heavy bombardment which followed on the third and fourth days, when the Germans had had time to bring up reinforcements in men and guns.

Of course, Neuve Chapelle was a great success. The German losses were too awful for words. In our attack on the wood I mentioned my double company, with another D. C., captured about 100 Germans and killed between 60 and 70. I can't say that I enjoyed it—in fact it was extremely nauseating work, especially as white flags were fairly common that morning. However, that emblem of truce is as extinct as the Dodo as far as this war is concerned, and we could do nothing except disregard it. The Germans, I know, are outside the pale, but it wasn't pleasant shooting them down like that.

German Bravery

We had quite a hot time that same day, as a strong German counter-attack developed against us early that morning; they displayed extraordinary bravery, but, with one or two exceptions, never got more than eighty yards from our parapet and left a ghastly heap of dead and dying when they retired, and were relieved on the 18th, and are now resting from our labors in billets a few miles from the firing line, and I am by no means sorry to get out of sound of gun and rifle fire.

We lost our C. O., and two other officers wounded, but our losses in comparison with some of the others are by no means severe, and the experience of really getting the Germans "on the hop" has brought our men up tremendously.

DISAGREED OVER CRACOW DEFENCE

Archduke Frederick and Von Hindenberg at Loggerheads

London, May 2.—The Daily Mail's Warsaw correspondent telegraphs, via Petrograd: "As a result of difference of opinion, such as caused the downfall of Przemysl, Archduke Frederick and General von Hindenberg are now declared to be at loggerheads as to the best method of conducting the defence of Cracow, which is anticipated may be threatened by the middle of June."

"The Prussians declare the city is more vital to German than to Austrian interests, and demand forthwith a radical thinning of the population, coupled with the subordination of everything to military requirements, including the destruction of certain parks and suburbs in the fear of a rising of the Polish population against Prussian domination."

"The archduke is declared to be in a state of great perplexity regarding what course to take."

A fierce assault took place on Sunday morning after a terrific artillery preparation all through the night. The Germans were met by a withering machine-gun and rifle fire, which swept them off in thousands. Finally they turned and fled in disorder, leaving the slopes of the hill piled with heaps of slain.

"The Russians in the Kosovska region are not confining themselves entirely to the defensive. On some sectors they are successfully assailing the enemy's positions, overcoming wire entanglements and driving him from his trenches with the bayonet, thus winning fresh peaks of strategic importance."

"In one of these assaults an entire Austrian battalion surrendered with its commander. In another, a machine gun and 150 prisoners were captured. In places the enemy fled in panic. During their flight a small body of Russians fell upon an Austrian trench and unexpectedly bayoneted nearly all the occupants."

The residue, twenty-seven men, were captured.

CENSORS FORBID PUBLICATION OF SUBMARINE LOSS

Letter From Scotland Probably Sheds Light on Cessation of Pirate Warfare

Saskatoon, May 3—A letter received by a local paper from Leith, Scotland, says: "Last night the town was roused by the sound of heavy firing, and a few minutes later the electric light was turned out at the power house. From every house citizens poured forth, gazing skyward, where, plainly visible in the glare of searchlights, was a huge Zeppelin, which, as it moved, made an escape. In a few minutes it rose to a higher altitude, evidently with the object of getting away beyond reach of the anti-aircraft guns and apparently got away, as no reports have come to hand from the bridge or the navy dockyards, and that the enemy's aircraft was brought down. The night was dark and it seems probable that it made an escape. No bombs were dropped and the theory entertained here is that the Zeppelin was making for the Royal naval base, just west of the Forth Bridge, with the object of dropping bombs, either on the bridge or the navy dockyards."

"Although it is officially denied that British aviators are working at night, the witness of a correspondent in Leith reports were heard which shook the windows of the houses near the shore due to the firing of the ten-inch guns. The correspondent has been informed of what has happened."

This is the third letter received by the paper from a correspondent in Leith in connection with destruction of submarines. The first, published about a month ago, stated that a submarine had been caught in a steel net at the Forth Bridge, and the second that a submarine had been sunk off Burn Islands. The correspondent has access to official information which cannot be questioned. The first two stories were later unofficially confirmed in a despatch from Toronto in which an arrival from Scotland related practically the same facts.

CANADA IN THE WAR

The steamer Missanah with Newfoundland soldiers aboard, has reached Liverpool safely.

A warrant was issued on Saturday for Major T. E. Powers, O. C. Canadian Signaling Corps, saying that he had been absent from duty without leave, after some time spent in the trenches.

That Dr. Dural of West St. John, wounded at Ypres, is now out of danger, was the good news received yesterday.

Because of the agreeable weather yesterday the outside church parades of the 29th and 53th Battalions were postponed. The 29th attended service in the armory conducted by the chaplain. A church parade of some 380 officers and men under Lieut-Col. McAvity was held in the evening to the Congregational church, where Rev. R. J. Houghton preached an able sermon on "Canada's Sacrifices for the Empire."

A memorial service for the late Private Rudolph F. McKel, of Fairville, killed in fighting France, was held yesterday in the Church of the Good Shepherd of which his father, the late Rev. J. C. McKel, for years has been rector.

The service was conducted by Rev. W. P. Dunham in the presence of a large congregation.

St. David's church yesterday a deacon and the Railway Construction Corps attended service. The sermon was delivered by the pastor, Rev. J. A. Macdonald.

Lieut-Col. Kirkpatrick, O. C. the 53th, returned on Saturday from Halifax, and his home in Debe Junction over Sunday.

Sergt. A. A. Leaman has transferred from the composite battalion at Halifax to the 55th, and has taken up his duties as orderly room clerk at the regimental headquarters here.

MORNING NOTES OF THE WAR

The French troops who made a landing at the Dardanelles, have returned after two days' stubborn fighting. The casualties of the British on the other side of the Straits were twenty-six.

Writer-Admiral Sir John R. Jellicoe has written a letter to the Admiralty expressing uneasiness concerning the labor outlook on the Clyde and the Tyne, and saying that his materials for ship supplies are being delayed.

The French have bombarded one of the German forts at Metz, the Lorraine agent says.

It is believed the French have put out of commission the big 283 mile gun with which the Germans have shelled Dunkirk.

The British destroyer "Recruit" was sunk by the German submarine on Saturday in the North Sea, but the British crewed the score by sinking two German torpedo boats which had accompanied the submarine on her venture.

Four officers and twenty-one men of the British submarine "Holland" were ready April 15th. This house is very pretty, properly laid out, and constructed of the best materials. ### APPEAL BY RED CROSS TO FARMERS

Asked to Contribute For Hospital Beds—Quebec Farmer's Daughter Sends $50 as First Response

The following appeal is made to the farmers:

"Our country, with its Allies, is waging a great war for justice, for the protection of small nations in the enjoyment of their rights, for continued and growing freedom, and for the maintenance of its pledged word of honor. Much destruction and desolation are being caused. Lives are being lost by the thousand. Canada's first contingent is now in the thick of it. Some will fall sick; many will be wounded; some will pay the last full measure of devotion to their country and its cause.

"The Red Cross Society exists to succor the sick and wounded in war. The need of Red Cross service is great and growing greater as the war goes on. The price of progress towards lasting peace is very, very dear. It cost lives, homes, health and much besides. Canada's part in the process of payment, through giving for Red Cross work, is necessarily light and easy, even when all have given to the extent of really feeling it.

"The soldiers and sailors pay the price exacted by the desolating struggle from week to week. What they paid in blood and did in sacrifice a month ago was not enough for them. Shall we say it is not enough for us? What they are doing and suffering and achieving have put aside, for the time, all their thoughts and plans for individual welfare, comfort and precedents. But they are proud of their heroic sacrifice for our country and its cause, for our principles and ideals that they may be upheld.

"Farmers, individuals as well as through their institutes, clubs, and cheese-and-butter factories, are in a position to help very greatly. Their business does not suffer from the war. Prices of nearly all farm products have gone up. While labor is scarce there is time to think of the boys at the front and to send the Red Cross Society a gift to be spent for the sick and wounded.

"Farmers are generous in sentiment and generous in giving when their hearts and heads point the way. This is a case when they do so point clearly, persistently and urgently. In this crisis, in the lives of nations and in the lives of stricken soldiers, none can pray too much, do too much or give too much.

"I appeal to farmers to send me sums from $1 to $50, during the first week in May. Every $50 provides one additional hospital bed with the giver's name over it. By sending me about $10,000, you would serve your country well, bring credit to yourselves, and make all of us very proud of you. For the sake of the wounded boys, make the gift substantial. It will be an investment towards the recovery of some

Canadian soldier who stood in our stead that our cause might be upheld.

"Faithfully your friend,
"JAS. W. ROBERTSON,
"Chairman,
"Red Cross Society at Ottawa."

P. S.—This morning, as I send this out, I have received, in advance of the date suggested, the first contribution, viz., $50, from the daughter of a Quebec farmer.

Where the farmers are in touch with a local branch of the Red Cross Society, it is desirable that their contributions should be sent through the local branch.

AGREEMENT WITH ITALY?

Terms Arranged by the Allies, Says Report From Rome

Rome, May 3.—From persons in close touch with the war situation as it affects Italy is obtained information which indicates that the government has arrived at an understanding with Great Britain and France concerning the terms upon which Italy will enter the war, if she eventually decides to do so. This information is unofficial. The agreement is described as follows:

First—A provision for concerted military action. Italy will refrain from hostilities during the present stage of desultory trench warfare, which would enable Germany and Austria to concentrate a large part of their forces against her. She will time her blow to synchronize with a general effort by all the opponents of the central empires now in the field.

Awarding of Territory

Second—An understanding concerning the territory to be awarded to Italy in the event of victory.

Third—A provision that after the war an alliance shall be formed between Italy and the present Triple Entente, of Great Britain, France and Russia.

It is intimated that at the outset Great Britain was not disposed to make terms with Italy, but that Italy finally declined to consider joining the allies without first having reached a definite agreement with them concerning boundary readjustments after the war and permanent assistance from the allies. Italy is said to have received powerful assistance from French diplomacy in reaching the desired understanding on these points.

Foreign Minister Sonnino is credited with the ability to hammer home as forcefully as any other man in the country Italy's determination to insist upon realizing her territorial aspirations. He is said to have resisted obstinately the diplomatic efforts of Prince von Burlew, the German Ambassador, while insisting that Trent and Trieste are Italian by race and history and must be returned to Italy.

When the blood becomes impure the first symptoms which manifest themselves are a breaking out of the various forms of skin trouble such as boils, pimples, abscesses, ulcers, etc., and the only treatment you can use is some sort of a good blood cleansing remedy which will put the blood into a perfect condition, and thus eliminate all the different poisons from the system which cause these different eruptions to occur.

The best blood cleansing remedy on the market to-day is Burdock Blood Bitters. All we ask you to try it and be convinced. Thousands have used it during the past forty years, and have nothing but praise for its curative powers.

Mrs. John Fitzgerald, Plantagenet, Ont., writes: "I am one woman who cannot speak too highly of Burdock Blood Bitters. I was covered with boils, and could not get rid of them. I was advised by a friend to try B.B.B. which I did, and I can truthfully say that it completely cured me. I have never had a sign of a boil since."

Tire Protection

Let the Fortified Tire Span Your Way Over Trouble

The Long, Hard Way

Years ago, when we were little and weak, we started building a super-tire at Bowmanville. It is now called the Goodyear Fortified Tire.

Those early years were hard. Some men doubted our ability to build the best in tires. But the top place, as you know, is never easy.

We made mistakes—what successful men don't? We knew our ideas on tire building were right. We forged ahead in spite of keenest competition. Our sales and prestige grew, as men learned of greater tire mileage.

To-day Goodyears hold the throne in Tiredom. From small beginnings we have grown to big production—the largest in Canada. Men bought last year in numbers, more than one Goodyear tire for every car in Canada. Think what a tire must do to dominate like that.

One saves needless blow-outs. Our "On-Air" cure prevents the countless blow-outs due to wrinkled fabric.

One—a patent method—reduces by 60 per cent. the risk of tread separation.

And one combats punctures and skidding. That's our All-Weather tread—tough and extra thick, flat and smooth running, sharp-edged and resistant.

All these features are in Goodyear Fortified Tires. Not one of them is found in any other.

Third Price Reduction Yours

For the third time in two years the price of Goodyears is lowered. These reductions have saved tire users an average of 37%. Yet this third reduction comes during war times.

But we determined to keep our factory wheels moving. In spite of the new war tax, we have just doubled the capacity of our plant.

And now comes this third price reduction. You can see what faith we have in the Fortified Tire.

It's a business policy with a rare precedent in Canada's manufacturing history.

Not Trouble-Proof

We don't claim the impossible—a trouble-proof tire. Mishap and misuse come to every tire some time. But Goodyears average best. They never could hold the lead unless they were true, as you know.

These are super-quality tires. Not in materials alone, but in features. We protect you in five exclusive ways. They cost us thousands extra yearly.

Tests which can't be disputed prove that these features save tire users tens of thousands.

Fortified Tires Five Exclusive Ways

Goodyear Fortified Tires protect you in five exclusive ways:

One combats rim cutting, in the most efficient way that's known.

One means safety. These tires are held on by an unstretchable tire base, in which we vulcanize four flat bands of 126 braided wires.

How Can You Hesitate?

Note the place which Goodyear holds here—the highest place in Tiredom.

Note its users and endorsers—more than any other tire ever had.

Note its growing prestige. The sales last year were 29 per cent. larger than the year before.

Note how they have averaged best. They mean less trouble, less cost per mile. The place they hold would be impossible without that. Our extra features would be folly.

Are you fair to yourself when you fail to prove out what is known to so many as the super-quality tire.

They will mean to you tire content. If you want these new prices and these better tires any dealer can get them for you.

TO MAKE THE PUBLIC PAY FOR INEFFICIENCY OF THE POST OFFICE (Toronto Trade Paper).

Under a warning just issued by the post office department, any one in Canada who sends a letter, circular or other printed matter on a customer, client or friend is liable to a fine of $20 for each offence.

The present postmaster general, Mr. Casgrain, has on more than one occasion publicly apologized, and disowned responsibility for the acts of his predecessors, Pelletier, and particularly Pelletier's action in dismissing men who had held the postal service for many years merely to make way for Conservative ward heeler.

In view of this and his defective intention to run his department on business lines, we doubt whether Mr. Casgrain has any knowledge of the issue of the notification referred to. In any event, we would advise institutions and business men to pay no attention to these announcements and to continue to deliver by their own messengers, in force the law. One may not leave a letter at a friend's house on his way to business in the morning, nor may the grocer's boy or any other messenger, leave an invoice when he delivers goods.

This is exactly what is to be expected from the post office department until business methods prevail. We will never have efficiency until there is a complete reorganization of the staff and system.

BRITISH NEWSPAPER MEN'S MESSAGE TO THEIR COLLEAGUES OF ALLIES (London Morning Post). The following message from British journalists to their colleagues of the allied nations was unanimously adopted at the annual conference of the National Union of Journalists, held yesterday at Sheffield, on the motion of the president, F. E. Hamer, seconded by the vice-president, F. Williams.

"The National Union of Journalists, assembled for its annual conference at Sheffield on April 2, 1915, desires, in the name of the journalists of Great Britain, to send a message of greeting to their colleagues of the allied nations."

"The National Union notes, with satisfaction the growing friendship and good understanding between the Russian and British empires. In the past the nations of western Europe have known too little of the wealth of Russia's material resources and the qualities of her literature, civilization, and art. As a result of the present alliance, the National Union looks forward to a fuller interchange of national sympathies and ideas and to a fruitful growth of intercourse between the commercial and industrial interests of the two empires."

"To our neighbors of France, long distinguished for their services to the cause of art, industry, and for their defence of intellectual and political freedom, the National Union offers its heartfelt congratulations on the successful defence of their country against aggression and trusts that by the cooperation of French and British arms—expressing at once the friendship of two free peoples and their community of interests and political sympathies—the blessings of security and peace may soon be restored to every part of France."

"In the heroic efforts of Belgium and Serbia to defend their territory and national rights the National Union honors two more conspicuous examples of the world's indeliblest to nationalistic spirit. It expresses, in particular, to the Belgian people its sorrow at the despoiling of their noble cities and beautiful monuments of the past, and its prayer for an early and complete restoration of Belgian liberty and Belgian fortunes."

"The National Union appreciates the co-operation of Japan in freeing the seas and the nations of the Far East from the peril of an aggressive and unscrupulous power. It trusts that the friendship between the two island races may long endure."

"In sending these words of greeting the National Union expresses the hope of all who represent that the present alliance in arms for the vindication of international honor and the defence of civilization against the ambitions of a tyrant may be succeeded by a concert of nations for the future peace and good government of the world."

There are thousands of wounded soldiers and patients just yet. The letter continues: "It really was rather good fun getting the hospital ready. I have never worked harder physically. We scrubbed

GAIETY Has a Bumper Program "Trey O'Hearts" Tuesday TWO REEL "The Sands of Fate" MAJESTIC FEATURE

A fascinating and exciting drama of adventure. It's a vivid, gripping, intensely thrilling and emotional story, in some very beautiful scenes. Commencing with a remarkable situation, it finishes with a terrific climax.

"THE CONDUCTOR" A simple and charming story full of heart interest; also a decided thrill in this Thanhouseur film.

"DASH, LOVE AND SPLASH" Another of those funny KEYSTONE comedies. See how the it's a treat for the girl they love.

"ARTY THE ARTIST" A comedy-drama you will like, fun and humor intermingled with pathos and tears.

SANTA CATALINA ISLANDS Interesting and attractive are the views of the celebrated marine gardens and their delightful surroundings.

KING-COLE TEA For You- if you enjoy a cup of Tea of a particularly rich mellow flavor.

KING-COLE will produce a lasting glow of satisfaction. "You'll like the flavor" everything from floor to ceiling, iron mattresses, bedsteads, &c. filled sacks with hay and straw for mattresses, in doing so getting absolutely devoured by heat.

"We struggled with endless packing-cases, which arrived at all hours of the day or night in strings of ox-carts. We felt about in the dark carrying splintering candles, and shipping pieces off our fingers in our efforts to open packing-cases. Luckily one of our doctors is a very good carpenter, and has fitted up the dispensary very well with shelves, &c., and we really have got everything looking quite nice."

The matron has secured a local cook, who is not so bad, but all we have such fearfully large appetites, and the Serbians live on next to nothing, so usually there is a good deal of murmuring among the men as to the short rations they are kept on.

Typus and Insects. I and another nurse are now installed at the Greek hospital in charge of a Greek doctor and a medical student, both down with typhus, poor things. Sides on night and I on day duty. They had not a single trained nurse in the hospital, and only four doctors for 400 patients. The only way the infection spreads is through lice, and then it has to be one that has bitten a typhus patient, so, provided you are careful not to get the creature on you, there is no reason for catching it. It is when you get a whole crowd of dirty patients that it is so difficult to keep them clean and to prevent the insects getting on to other people. There is a Greek doctor in charge, who, mercifully, speaks a Russian idiom, and two other Serbian doctors appear at moments, and I have to struggle with them in their orders, so you can imagine how bitterly regret not having worked more industriously with French. Inevitably they are a Russian orderly, who only speaks atrocious German, and I have to struggle to translate the doctor's orders for medicines, the few he has, and I have to get through thoroughly added.

A Pitiful Sight. I shall never forget a hospital on the Greek and Serbian frontier we went over 1,400 cases, with two nurses and two doctors, the men all lying about on matting, one dead, seven or eight dying half of them absolutely filthy, and looking like sick animals. It was not the fault of the staff; it had just simply got beyond them. Two of the nurses and one doctor were down with typhus, chiefly because they had been overworked; they simply could not take proper care of themselves or their patients. It seems to me it would be much more use to the country if, when

Red Cross missions are being sent out, the authorities would find out what help they most want, either surgical or medical. "Ebony Swells Ministre," l.f. In Washington a straphanger has recovered $1000 damages from the street car company because a motorman gave him a push to send him up front in the car according to customary orders.

Two Salem theatres have red-flags near the stage, placed there at the request of the Call Firemen's Association. These lights are switched on only when there is a bell alarm, and this constitutes a notification to any call firemen who may be present that their services are required at the fire house.

Snakes are said to be so short-sighted that they are unable to see more than one-quarter of their own length.

BACKACHE WAS SO BAD COULD NOT SWEEP THE FLOOR.

For backache, lame or weak back, one of the commonest and most distressing symptoms of kidney inaction, there is no remedy to equal Doan's Kidney Pills for taking out the stitches, twitches and twinges, limbering up the stiff back and giving perfect relief and comfort to all poor, suffering women who suffer so much from a weak lame back.

Mrs. Blackburn, R.R. No. 1, Fishburn, Alta., writes: "I take pleasure in writing you stating the benefit I have received by using Doan's Kidney Pills. About three years ago I was terribly afflicted with lame back, and was so bad I could not even sweep my floor. I was advised to try your kidney pills. Before I had used one box there was a great improvement as my back was much better. However, I kept on taking them until my back was completely cured. I highly recommend these pills to lame back."

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50c per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

When ordering direct specify "Doan's."

King's Colt Unplaced.

The race for the Two Thousand Guineas was run on Wednesday over the Rowley Mile at Newmarket. Sixteen horses ran and the winner was Sir Joel's bay colt Pommern. L. Neumann's "Tournament" was second, and Lord Carnarvon's "The Viceroy" third. King George's colt, Friar Marcus, experienced his first defeat in this race, when he was unplaced. He had won all his two-year-old engagements, and was the winter favorite for the Derby.

Penn. Star Will Specialize.

Howard Berry, a University of Pennsylvania lad, who recently electrified the athletic world with his prowess in the collegiate pentathlon at Franklin Field, and who is being heralded as the rightful successor of "Jim" Thorpe as the greatest all-around man, is to have a different future carved for him if Dr. George W. Orton, track and field coach of the Red and Blue, has anything to say about it.

While Dr. Orton is very well satisfied

Ypres

Frederick H. Lodge, 14th battalion, son of Frank Lodge, foreman with the Maritime Dredging & Construction Company, West St. John, is another local man who takes a place on the roll of honor among the wounded in the battle of Ypres. A message received from Ottawa announces that he has been wounded. It is hoped by his many friends that it is not serious. Before leaving for the front, he was a member of the Carleton Cornet Band.

George H. Tippett of Fairville received word from Ottawa on Sunday morning that Private S. B. Tippett, better known as "Bud", was seriously ill in a hospital in Cardiff. As he was on the firing line at Easter time it is believed his illness was contracted at the front.

Letters received from "Bud" from time to time and published in part, have always been eagerly read. He was one of the most popular young men in this section. Born and brought up in Fairville, his school life is well remembered by many today and his escapades and jovial disposition alike made him many staunch friends among the companions of his youth. At St. Joseph's College he played on the baseball team and developed some reputation as a pitcher. It is sincerely hoped that the illness may not prove so serious as the telegram would

Company Sergeant Major Arthur Adams, of the 15th Battalion, has been seriously wounded at the front, according to an official message received by his mother, Mrs. James Adams of Hampton. His sister, Miss Elizabeth Adams, is a school teacher in St. John, another sister, Miss Marguerite, is at the normal school, and a brother, James, resides in Hampton.

Private advices from London, received at Ottawa, state that the losses of the Canadians will reach nearly 6,000. Of these 800 have been killed in action and the remainder is almost equally divided between wounded and missing. The official list issued on Saturday contained 400 names, but none of maritime province men.

Xenos Tells of Attack Made Upon Him—Hit With a Hammer

James Kelly, William Petley and Robert Walker were arraigned for preliminary hearing in the police court this morning on a charge of assaulting James M. Xenos, a young Greek, employed by George Martin, Dock street, and doing him bodily injury.

The plaintiff testified that he was at work on Saturday afternoon repairing shoes when the three defendants entered. Petley asked him, "Then George was coming back, meaning Mr. Martin, and he told them he did not know. The three men, he said, then walked to one end of the store and began to speak in an undertone. Petley, he says, then approached and picked up a hammer, used an obscene expression and said, "Hit it, you." The witness said that as he looked up he was struck on the head with the hammer. The cut began to bleed freely and he rushed for the door to get a policeman. As he did so, he said, the other two men seized him and they him down while Petley again tried to strike him with the hammer. He managed to get outside the door and he hid it for a half hour waiting for the police to come. While he was doing so, he said, Petley got out another door and escaped. The police arrived a few minutes later and arrested Kelly and Walker.

To Petley, the witness said he had a hammer in his hand when the three entered and put it down and picked up his knife to cut the leather. He denied having threatened to stick the knife in the defendant.

Joseph Xenopoulos, another young Greek, said he was working in a barber shop across the street. He sought for about a half hour for a policeman, but failed to find one.

The prisoners were then remanded. Samuel Rayner, arrested on Saturday night on a drunkenness charge and also for using abusive language to policeman Ross, was fined 16 or four months in jail in the police court this morning. The policeman testified that he saw the man staggering along the street and advised him to go home. He used profane and abusive language and he took him in charge.

George Terrault was fined $40 or six months in jail for drunkenness and for interfering with the police. Policeman Dale testified against him.

One man arrested on a drunkenness charge was fined $8 or two months in jail.

Five Hour Trip Over Two Miles of Roadway—Same Troubles in the City

The continued rainfall is having a serious effect upon the roads in the vicinity of the city, and through the country districts generally, as they are being quite badly broken up and softened, and also through the frost coming through. A local resident returning to the city last night with his horse and carriage, was for five hours struggling over two miles of roadway. Automobile owners say that the protracted rain is making the roads very dangerous for machines.

About the city there are several concrete cellars in business houses where so-called water has caused the necessity of special attention to keep away the water. The cellars have been built below the sewerage level, much dampness has come through from the heavy rains, and extra caution has been required to keep the furnace area going. It has been noticeable also, in connection with ordinary delivery about town, that boxes have been improvised by grocers, butchers, etc., and to prevent leakage from the bottom of the wagons, layers of sawdust have been spread over the bottoms, thus protecting the articles in transit.

Presentation to H. Wilmer Young in Grand Opera House, Moncton

Friends in St. John will be interested to know that H. Wilmer Young of the Young-Adams Company, who played an engagement of several weeks here recently, was honored in Moncton on Saturday evening at the close of a successful stay there. At the close of the first act Mr. Young was called forward by the stage hands of the Grand Opera House, at which he had been playing, and in their behalf M. Moran presented to him a handsome gold-headed cane, with his monogram engraved. Heartiest wishes for his future welfare were extended, and kindly words spoken with regard to the esteem in which he was held by the men of the house, and others with whom he had come in contact. A warm welcome was always assured him on his returning to Moncton where he has just completed a satisfactory stay.

WM. PHINNEY LEFT NO WILL

Estate Totals $10,900—Matter of Jennie H. Bell Estate

The probate court today took up the matter of the estate of William O. Phinney, liquor dealer. He died intestate and without children. He left his wife, Annie L. Phinney, three brothers, Howard W., retail liquor dealer; George D., waiter, and Thomas J. Phinney, of Des Moines, Iowa, gymnasium instructor, and one sister, Catherine, wife of Martin Duffy, of St. John. On the petition of all of these, Martin McGuire of St. John, liquor merchant, was appointed administrator. Real estate is $7,800, subject to a mortgage for $5,000, personally $3,000. John A. Barry is executor.

The court also took up the matter of the estate of Jennie H. Bell, late of Boston, who died in 1914 in Provincetown, Mass. At the time of her death she held part of a mortgage on property in St. Martins given by Roy W. Bell to the late Minnie A. Thayer. Administration was obtained on the estate of the deceased in Boston and the mortgage being paid off, the Boston administrator, and the other mortgage, cancelled the mortgage. This being insufficient, on the petition of Effie Bell of St. Martins and Mary McWhinney, wife of William McWhinney of the same place, sisters of the deceased, J. Roy Campbell of St. John, barrister-at-law, was appointed administrator for the purpose of properly cancelling the mortgage. J. Roy Campbell, K. C., is proctor.
