PRESTON ASKED TO TELL OF OCEAN RATES

IMPERIAL SHIP COMMITTEE TO PROBE COMBINE

Investigation of North Atlantic Situation Friday

LONDON INQUIRY Plan to Go Deeper Than Report To Canadian Government

LONDON, July 7.—The Imperial Shipping Committee has requested W. T. Preston, author of the report to the Canadian government on the alleged North Atlantic shipping combine, to meet the committee on Friday, in connection with the question of the North Atlantic shipping rates.

The terms of the reference to the Imperial Shipping Committee, agreed upon between the British and Canadian governments, run as follows: "To investigate the question of the North Atlantic shipping rates and their effect on Empire trade, with special reference to the influence of the conference system and all other forms of association on these rates and on the service provided."

These terms obviously cover a much larger field than the matter contained in the report of Mr. Preston to the Canadian government, last February. Sir Halford John Macleider is chairman of the Imperial Shipping Committee. The question of W. T. Preston being invited to give evidence before the committee was broached in the House of Commons, on May 26, when, in answer to a query, Sir Robert Burt, head of the British shipping owners, stated that the committee had been requested to investigate the North Atlantic shipping rates and their effect on Empire trade.

It will be remembered that Sir William Peterson, well-known British shipowner, with whom the Dominion government had proposed to enter into an agreement for the control and reduction of Atlantic freight rates, following an investigation at Ottawa, as a result of the report of W. T. Preston to the effect that there was a North Atlantic shipping combine, died suddenly at Ottawa on June 12 last.

The day of Sir William's death the report of the committee which had investigated the ocean freight rates, as reported in the Preston report, was read in the House of Commons at Ottawa and was unfavorable to the proposal. Sir William Peterson's body was sent back to England, and it was accompanied by Mr. Preston, a personal friend of the deceased shipping magnate.

CROSS IS BURNED ON FORT HOWE SUMMIT

Witnesses Hurry to Scene But Find Nobody There—Blaze Seen Through Fog—No Report Made to Police Up to This Afternoon

CITIZENS proceeding along Kitchener, Barker and Somerset streets last night were surprised to see flames burst out on the top of Fort Howe Hill, in the northern section of the city, and soon take the form of a heavy cross. Several youths who were standing in Barker street, about 150 or 200 yards from the scene, saw the blaze and hurried there. When they reached the top of the hill they saw a large cross being partially consumed by flames, but there was not a person in sight, and as a result they were at a loss to know who were the perpetrators.

The cross was constructed out of scuffling, the main section being about seven feet high and the cross arm about five feet long. These were bound with excelsior and covered with bagging. The flames spread with such rapidity that it was thought some inflammable substance had been soaked into the excelsior. At the foot of the cross several large stones were placed to keep it in position.

Those who witnessed the cross burning said it was ignited about 10:30 or 10:45 o'clock. A heavy wet fog enveloped the city and this soon put the flames out. Despite the atmospheric conditions the burning cross could be seen for some distance. This morning the scuffling were still standing one side where the wind had carried the flames being quite badly charred. Up to 2 o'clock this afternoon no official report had been received by the police.

GREAT SEASON IN SHIPMENT OF POTATOES ENDS

More Than 2,850,000 Bushels Sent Through Saint John Port

76 ADDITIONAL STEAMERS CAME

Shipping Men Say Great Benefit Derived From Business

What is described as the greatest season for potato shipments ever experienced at the port of Saint John was completed on Friday, with the sailing of the Barrett for Havana, Commanding in September and continuing until last week the shipments passed through this port. More than 2,850,000 bushels were sent away, mostly to Cuban ports.

This trade alone resulted in 76 steamers being chartered to load out of this port while small shipments were also carried on other steamers along with general cargo. The steamers were handled here by Furness-Wilby and Co. Ltd. and L. E. Stone and Co.

Five of the steamers and several small shipments on regular liners were sent to England early in the winter and plans were being considered for more extensive export to the United Kingdom when the British Government placed a ban on account of the alleged presence of the Colorado Beetle.

BENEFIT TO PORT
The bringing of these additional 76 steamers to Saint John has provided more work for the longshoremen, meant sale of more ship's stores here while many of them have taken some business coal at this port. Shipping men say that every vessel leaves an average of more than $5,000 exclusive of coal purchased.

The huge shipments at times proved a heavy strain on the facilities at the west side potato warehouses and the shippers have been agitating for additional facilities. According to figures available the 71 chartered steamers to Cuba took 2,471,229 bushels of potatoes while the five to England carried 136,000 bushels. However, in the latter case, there were several shipments forwarded on regular liners the figures of which could not be secured.

Taking the season as a whole the year is declared a record one.

BETTER VESSEL SERVICES ARE AGREED UPON

The West Indies and other colonies, grant to Canada, substantial increases on such products as butter, cheese, lard, apples, potatoes, meats, cotton goods, canvas, lumber, boots and shoes, flour and cordage. These items are granted such increased preferences as it is hoped, when taken in conjunction with the new steamship services, will greatly widen the market and create a greater demand for the products of parties to the agreement. The preferences granted by Canada on bananas, sugar, coconuts, tinned pineapples, limes and other tropical products, should result in an increase of trade from the British West Indies, thus permitting the expansion of production in those islands and allowing them to buy more freely from Canada.

HARMONIOUS VIEWS

Throughout the conference harmonious relations existed, all the representatives present having the single aim in view of promoting better relations between the Dominion and the West Indian group of colonies.

BENEFITS MARITIMES

To enjoy the benefit of the tariff advantages conceded to the various colonies by Canada, the products of any of the colonies, shall be conveyed by ship direct to a port in Canada, without transshipment. This means that the trade of the Maritimes will be materially increased by reason of the greater imports and exports through the Maritime ports.

Imperial Shipping Committee Reports Further on Marine Insurance.

Saint John Under Disadvantage of British North American Warranty.

OTTAWA, July 6.—The details of the conclusions reached by the Imperial Shipping Committee in its second report on Canadian Marine insurance have just been made public. The conclusions are four: (1) The port of Saint John should have consideration given to it by British Marine Underwriters as it is at present under the disadvantage of the British North American Warranty which requires ships using the port to pay additional insurance premium.

PRINCE RUPERT TREATMENT. (2) Prince Rupert, B. C., had been treated "less favorably than circumstances would appear to require in the matter of the North Pacific Warranty, which requires additional premiums upon ships using certain ports.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., JULY 7, 1925.

CABINET CHANGES

Ottawa dispatches say that extensive cabinet changes are likely to be made in the near future by Premier King. The cabinet voted by Parliament to Hon. Mr. Fielding is naturally accepted as meaning that he will retire not only from the cabinet but from public life. Hon. Dr. Beaudry is said to be slated for the office of High Commissioner in Paris. Hon. Mr. Bureau, whose health has been poor, is understood to be desirous of leaving the Commons for the Senate. There has been talk also of the retirement of Hon. Messrs. Murphy and Motherwell.

There has been comparatively little cabinet reconstruction since the King Government came into power late in 1921. The original cabinet consisted of the Premier, and Hon. Messrs. Fielding, Gouin, Bureau, Lapointe, D. D. McKinnis, Robb, Lowe, Copp, Kennedy, Stewart, Motherwell, Murdoch, Sinclair and Dr. King.

Of this list all but three are in the cabinet to-day. Mr. McKinnis was appointed to the bench, desk removed Mr. Kennedy and Sir Lomer Gouin resigned. Sir Lomer's resignation the Government was attributed in some quarters to ill-health, and in others to his lack of sympathy with the course of the ministry, chiefly in connection with the tariff. It was reported some time ago that Hon. Mr. Graham would be Canada's envoy to Washington, but the Minister of Railways has declared that he has no intention of accepting that appointment, and it is inferred that it is his intention to remain in the Government.

Remorse continues to associate the name of Premier Dunning of Saskatchewan with federal office, and there is little doubt that it is the desire of the Ottawa ministry to enlist his services, but Mr. Dunning, with a strong majority at his back in the Saskatchewan Legislature as a result of the recent elections, is said to prefer the provincial field. It is taken for granted in Ottawa that there may be extensive cabinet changes within the next few weeks, if it is decided to bring on the elections in October.

NOT FOR SALE

Congressman Hamilton Fish, one of the New York members of the House of Representatives, still clings to the delusion that the United States can buy the West Indies. He is one of those who seem unable to understand that neither Great Britain nor other European countries regard the territory over which their flags fly as available for purchase by the United States merely because that nation has the money and is in a market.

Mr. Fish recently addressed a meeting of Spanish War Veterans in his state, and in the course of his speech he told them that their country was constantly threatened because of the lack of protection for the Panama canal. "What we of these United States should do at this time," he said to them, "is to buy all the islands owned by European nations in the Caribbean Sea." A little matter of this kind presents no difficulties to men like Mr. Fish. "It is a very easy thing to do," he assured his audience, "requiring only the cancellation of a portion of the war debts due by our other nations. It is necessary to persuade European powers to leave us the whole hemisphere; otherwise there will always be the dagger at our throat in the exposed position of the Panama canal."

"The whole hemisphere," is a rather large order. To do Mr. Fish justice he seems scarcely to have been aware of all that the whole hemisphere includes. He went on to say that if the United States bought the islands he would not ask that it rule them, but only that it have "paternal protection over them."

Soon after the war there was some loose talk in the United States about purchasing the West Indies. It was wholly unofficial, and it created some amusement in Great Britain. Mr. Fish should realize that the question of acquiring any of the islands is by no means so simple as he describes it. So far as the British possessions are concerned, Mr. Fish should know that Great Britain is not in the habit of bartering away Imperial territory, and that the people who live under the flag are not bought and sold as so much merchandise. There is also another consideration which would have appealed to Mr. Fish were he more concerned with international proprieties, and it is that Great Britain is paying the war debt to the United States and that example in that respect is being held up to other countries to-day by his government as one worthy of emulation.

The C. N. R.'s latest survey of the Western crops indicates that the outlook is better at this time than for many years past. To-day's prospects warrant the belief that an abundant harvest and good prices will give an impetus to the business of the whole country.

Odds and Ends

"You never know what you'll find among the odds and ends."—From "Notes by Wayland."

Treasure Trove

(Montreal Gazette.)
The fascination of the quest for treasure-trove will attract adventurous spirits so long as earth hides such riches or bears this reputation. Most of the localities known or rumored to be capable of rewarding the lucky finder have been mapped out. Ever and anon talk revives of Roman gems in the mud of the Iber or heaped doubloons submerged in Spanish galleons. Captain Kidd's hoard still stirs the imagination. But of all spots, probably none in this respect is more famous than the Cocos group of islands marked in seamen's logs as "Latitude 5 degrees 27 minutes north, longitude 87 degrees 15 minutes west," upon which cryptic formula hangs a long and stirring romance. Therefore Mr. John Williams Beach, a small merchant, long for a youngster of five years old, left Toronto recently, ostensibly to seek his fortune in a new volcanic action, which will likely be the best seller of the year if he succeeds in solving the lost secret of Cocos Island—which was treasure-trove for which many adventures have been searched in vain.

It is said to consist of gold ornaments, specie and gems looted from the old Spanish missions which from Lima to Pisco had large reputations containing a fabulous amount of stored riches. In 1874, Blackwood's Magazine had a story, certified to be true by a narrator who had names, dates and localities had been slightly changed in deference to parties there. Back in the sixties, ran the story, an old prospector, No. 18 in the ward of a Panama hospital, died of fever. A Dr. McGinnis and his assistant (who wrote the account), noted the patient uttering the formula above stated. They searched his trunk and found a rough map which impelled them to scheme and fit out an expedition to the Cocos Islands. Small marvel, too, for the document mentioned treasure which has been estimated at millions of dollars. They found the island and also the big tree mentioned in the document, and under its bark they found a copper bolt to which was attached a fibre of hemp, the remnant of a measuring line which had been used to find a spot for the cache. But they never found the precious stuff itself, although, like Crusoe, one of the party discovered the imprudence of being away from the island. They searched, poked and dug in every direction without success, and finally gave up. The story, however, is repeated in some other day. The statement that puffed them was the statement that on the 17th of a certain month the shadow of the big tree would fall towards the treasure, which was buried "not more than three feet deep." But each name of the exact month was wrong or torn from the map, and this fact complicated their efforts. The island kept and still keeps its secret, yet from day to day at this various times the island has been searched over again and again, and many expeditions have been organized to secure the grand prize. It may some day come to light, and again, the unimagined increment may have been disposed of. Mr. Beach is one amongst many who have elected to try their luck, and whether he succeeds in his razing fortune or no, he deserves all the joy of his romantic trip.

The Wonders of Telegraphy.
(Toronto Star.)
The transmission of photographs over a telephone or telegraph wire is just one more wonder of a wonderful age. The Star's pictures of the Santa Barbara disaster, transmitted in that way, were remarkable for their perfection of detail and were the subject of widespread comment.

Pictures can now be sent across the continent almost as rapidly as news. Photographs of a football game were recently sent from Los Angeles to New York and Chicago simultaneously in twenty minutes over Western Union wires. The distance is 3,644 miles. Under ordinary circumstances a large picture can be sent in an hour and twenty minutes.

The picture has first to be printed upon a metal plate, which is placed on the cylinder of a machine which is not so heavy as a typewriter in appearance. Electrically governed and synchronized with similar machines at different stations, the cylinder is made to revolve as a needle traces over the London Daily News objects to President Coolidge's Fourth of July speech in which he made reference to European conditions, saying that it contained merely "exaggerating platitudes." In other quarters Mr. Coolidge's reference to European affairs has been interpreted as giving support to the security pact which the British Government is now negotiating.

The new India treaty contains a provision that West India products, to enjoy the new preferential rates, must enter Canada direct through its own seaports. As it is expected that both imports and exports will be materially increased under the new arrangement Maritime ports should enjoy considerably more business after the improved steamship service has been organized.

The Railway Commission is to make public to-morrow or next day the policy to be adopted in striving to effect equalization of freight rates. It is announced also that the Commission will tour Canada in September, taking evidence as giving support to the working out of a new rate structure. It is evidently well advised that the question of acquiring any of the islands is by no means so simple as he describes it. So far as the British possessions are concerned, Mr. Fish should know that Great Britain is not in the habit of bartering away Imperial territory, and that the people who live under the flag are not bought and sold as so much merchandise. There is also another consideration which would have appealed to Mr. Fish were he more concerned with international proprieties, and it is that Great Britain is paying the war debt to the United States and that example in that respect is being held up to other countries to-day by his government as one worthy of emulation.

plate in much the same manner as the needle of the old cylinder phonograph moved over a record. The needles at distant stations thereupon record minute dots and dashes of hundreds of different sizes which represent all the various tones and shades of the photograph. When the needle ceases, the photograph is ready for reproduction, or can be copied and retouched in the usual way.

This process has tremendous possibilities. It means not only that new pictures can be "broadcast" from ocean to ocean, but that the escaping criminal has to cope with a new agent of detection. His photograph may be on his way to every corner of the continent ere his flight is an hour old.

Elroy for a Small Pilgrim.
(Kathryn Worth in New York Times.)
She ran away a hundred times. And where her feet would pass there was a crumpled larkspur bed. There'd be the broken grass.

We always knew which way it was. Her mimic feet had gone By broken thistle-downs at dusk. By scattered weeds at dawn.

It wasn't hard to follow where She stormed the lily beds. Or left a ruminous, bright trail Of dandelion heads.

But yesterday she ran away And in the morning sun There's not a larkspur crumpled down And not a weed unshown.

She always broke a yellow bowl Or something that was blue. There's not a larkspur crumpled down To make a call on you.

Her gentle little hands would stray Across a shining cup; Politely she would play with it, Politely break it up.

She'd be so very sorry, though, As she goes walking through. And she'd call her precious lamb, And catch her tight against your heart And give her bread and jam.

I think the angel folks won't mind, As she goes walking through. If she should climb upon a shelf And break a star or two.

On That Slow Train.
A man was riding on a train of the Atlantic coast. In the presence of the conductor, he kept saying mean things about the train. Finally the conductor lost patience and yelled out: "I would, but you see, the folks at my destination are not expecting me until several months to come. It is decided to proceed with the appointment of an inspector for a period of six months. There were four applicants for the position, all women. Upon ballot, Mrs. Marie Coleman, 378 Union street, was elected to the position and will enter upon her duties at once."

NOTABLE GAIN IN COMBAT HERE WITH DISEASE

Infectious Cases Greatly Decreased in First 6 Months of 1925

QUESTION OF MARSH CREEK DISCUSSED

Health Board Appoints Mrs. Marie Coleman as New Food Inspector.

The outstanding feature of the reports submitted at the regular monthly meeting of the Sub-District Board of Health yesterday afternoon at the Health Centre was a table of statistics submitted by Sub-District Health Officer Dr. William Warwick showing an amazing decline in infectious diseases during the first half year of the year 1925. The figures are as follows:

Year Diphtheria Scarlet Typhoid
1921 101 85 27
1922 44 33 27
1923 67 48 4
1924 65 85 10
1925 13 20 8

TWO-THIRDS DECREASE

As between the months of June 1924 and 1925 the following figures indicate a much healthier state amongst the people of this health district: Scarlet fever had 14 cases in 1925 and 5 last year; typhoid fever, 4 and 1; measles, 1 this year and 80 last year; tuberculosis, 15 and 15. There were no cases of diphtheria in the district this year but 11 in 1924. This year has also been free of whooping cough, mumps, infantile paralysis, whilst in 1924 there were 3, 4 and 1 respectively of these ailments. Briefly 1925, for the first time in the history of the district, has been free of all the major infectious diseases in this district, against 120 in 1924. Furthermore this is Saint John's second month without a diphtheria report.

MUST ICE MILK

During a discussion of the values of pasteurized and certified milk for infants as introduced by some city physicians talking with a Health Board member, it was brought out in the meeting that 60 per cent of all milk used in Saint John is sold through the medium of shops. Samples of milk from many of these places of business were analyzed and found to contain a much higher bacteria count than the milk privately delivered. It was suggested that the Health Board should insist upon a more rigorous inspection of the milk car from Saint John and Kings counties, the Health Board will seek to have that railway carrier thoroughly cleaned daily.

ANTI-T. B. FIGURES

Nurse Alice P. Hegan, in charge of the dispensary of the Saint John Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, reported a total of 349 cases under observation during the month of June, and nine re-admissions. Cases discharged were 28; discharged from the County Hospital, four, and as tuberculous, 11. One patient died. There were 11 clinics with an attendance of 69 patients. Seven cases received milk, six received medicine, 20 were X-rayed, 38 were fluoroscoped and visits of nurses amounted to 492 during the month of June, 16 of which visits had to do with contacts.

BABIES WELL WATCHED

In the Infant Welfare Department of the Health Centre, Supervisor Miss H. B. McKay, of the Victorian Order of Nurses, reported 337 little ones under care, 73 of whom were new cases during the month of June; 441 visits had been made to homes; 372 on health matters; 78 of an advisory character; 22 concerning birth certificates; three as to deaths, and two about milk tickets. The clinics in the Health Centre, North End and West End were busy during the month and five kindergarten schools, with the total of 134 children, had been visited regularly.

BACK YARD CLEAN-UP

Sanitary Inspector C. Hayden Kelly reported that he had made a successful clean-up of back yards, alleys and all unsightly places in Moore street, Rockland Road, Millidge, Harris, First, Kitchen, Barker, Ann and Sheriff streets. North End and West End were busy during the month and five kindergarten schools, with the total of 134 children, had been visited regularly.

Hegan, in charge of the dispensary of the Saint John Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, reported a total of 349 cases under observation during the month of June, and nine re-admissions. Cases discharged were 28; discharged from the County Hospital, four, and as tuberculous, 11. One patient died. There were 11 clinics with an attendance of 69 patients. Seven cases received milk, six received medicine, 20 were X-rayed, 38 were fluoroscoped and visits of nurses amounted to 492 during the month of June, 16 of which visits had to do with contacts.

BABIES WELL WATCHED

In the Infant Welfare Department of the Health Centre, Supervisor Miss H. B. McKay, of the Victorian Order of Nurses, reported 337 little ones under care, 73 of whom were new cases during the month of June; 441 visits had been made to homes; 372 on health matters; 78 of an advisory character; 22 concerning birth certificates; three as to deaths, and two about milk tickets. The clinics in the Health Centre, North End and West End were busy during the month and five kindergarten schools, with the total of 134 children, had been visited regularly.

BACK YARD CLEAN-UP

Sanitary Inspector C. Hayden Kelly reported that he had made a successful clean-up of back yards, alleys and all unsightly places in Moore street, Rockland Road, Millidge, Harris, First, Kitchen, Barker, Ann and Sheriff streets. North End and West End were busy during the month and five kindergarten schools, with the total of 134 children, had been visited regularly.

Head of Baggage Department Succeeds the Late W. B. Howard

Three Important Changes in Executive Staff of Road Announced

MONTREAL, July 6.—Three important changes in the executive staff of the Canadian Pacific Railway were announced today. J. O. Apps, head of the baggage and mail service of the railway, is appointed general executive, succeeding the late W. B. Howard. Brig-Gen. R. G. Parry, D.S.O., is appointed chief of the investigation department of the railway and A. H. Oudoux, who has been acting chief of that department since the death of R. G. Chamberlain, is appointed assistant chief.

Mr. Apps was born 50 years ago in Frank, Ont. He graduated from United States schools and was first enrolled in the service of the Canadian Pacific Railway when he was 15. He progressed rapidly and became general manager of the system in thirteen years. He took charge of the baggage and mail service.

Mr. Oudoux was born in Montreal in 1867. He graduated from the Montreal Technical School and worked for the Grand Trunk railroad in 1904. He held executive positions with that road until 1918 when he joined the staff of the late "Chief" Chamberlain as an investigator. He later became chief of the investigation department, and has administered the department ever since.

George E. Parker.
The funeral will be held Thursday morning from his daughter's residence to St. Joseph's church, Silver Falls, for requiem high mass.

AUSTRALIA MAKES
ANTARCTIC CLAIM

Commonwealth Challenge
Right of French to Administer Adelaide

SYDNEY, July 7.—Australia is beginning to interest herself in the Antarctic in much the same way as Canada is taking thought about her Arctic possessions. The Australian National Research Council has sent a deputation to Premier Bruce urging him to challenge the French claim to administer Adelaide Land in the Antarctic, and to seek sanction for Australia to administer the territory between 90 deg. and 108 deg. east longitude.

The deputation stated that the action of France was doubtless prompted by the success of the whaling and sealing industry in connection with the fishery rights on the Medianskik River.

The following agreement was made: Canada is to place a suitable wharf at the dam in Woodstock and place 100,000 fry in Marvin Brook yearly (the first 100,000 were placed by Paul (Pare) last week); the United States will put in a fishway at Hamilton dam, place 100,000 Atlantic salmon fry in that neighborhood every year and see that there will be no pollution of the waters on either branch of the Medianskik in the State of Maine.

Says Other Car Was Responsible for Crash

The case of Arthur Higgs, reported by Constable Hat, on the charge of exceeding the speed limit on Union street, at the junction of Waterloo, and causing a collision with a car driven by Miss Margaret Johnson, City Road, was taken up, J. McM. Truman appearing for the defendant. Mr. Higgs pleaded not guilty and stated that he was not going any faster than eight or ten miles an hour, that he was driving on the right side of the road and had to swerve out to prevent the Johnson automobile from running into him, faster than Miss Johnson acknowledged that she was in the wrong and had paid for the damage to his car. Mrs. Higgs, who was in the car with her husband at the time of the collision, corroborated the evidence of the defendant. At the request of the other case was adjourned until Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock to hear further witnesses to be summoned by the office.

BOY SCOUTS TO CAM

Trinity and Mission Lads Awakened; Trinity Cubs on Tuesday

The Trinity Church Boy Scout Troop, in charge of Scoutmaster C. Upham, accompanied by members of the Mission Church Troop, will leave Thursday morning for Matfield's Road Long Island, on the Kennebec River, to spend 12 days under canvas. On Tuesday next, they will be joined by several Wolf Cubs of the Trinity Church Troop under the leadership of Ronald Pastison. Clarence Hoyt, of the Mission Church, will also act as one of the camp officers.

The days at camp will be spent in usual Scout activities. The boys will be instructed in camp craft, pioneering, woodcraft, cooking, swimming and other things. At night council fire will be held and the Scouts will partake of sing-songs. Breakfast on the Kennebec will be enjoyed. Tri-camp officers are not taking a cool down with them as they expect to teach the ordinary art to the Scouts as have the boys prepare the meals.

The Wreck of the Ocean King

By A. Gordon Taylor, a Ellen B. Chubb
In the fair old city of Quebec, Along St. Lawrence side, As the waves washed upon its banks, Well worn by time and tide.

The lights of Chateau Frontenac Blazed out beneath the moon, While all along the waterfront Was dotted in deeper gloom.

And when the morn was washed around, The ball-room ceased to ring, For nine brave men had lost their lives Off the tugboat "Ocean King."

Run down by the liner "Marloch," But, alas! it was of no avail, Their lives, all others were naught, There was a watery grave.

And from one common port had come Three of those who had gone; Queen city, the "Ocean King," The famed port of Saint John.

Rescue craft, large and small, rushed out To try to save their lives; But, alas! it was of no avail, They're trapped, like bees in hives.

Till the early hours of morning, Many, watching, lie the shore, For the bodies of those whose spirits Were released through Death's dread door.

Let us hope they rest in Heaven, With their Heavenly Father, kind, And may those watchers on the shore Their ill-fated bodies find.

'Twas a sacrifice heroic, Let it through our souls ring, When Saint John lost her brave boys, In the wreck of the "Ocean King."

Gets Five Years For Post Office Thefts

NEWCASTLE, July 6.—Five years in Dorchester penitentiary was the sentence imposed today upon Richard Arbeau when convicted before Magistrate A. S. Demers of stealing from the post office at Blomidon. From the evidence adduced, it developed that Arbeau had been suspected of stealing from the office over a considerable period and the testimony given at the hearing today, the magistrate said, justified him in finding the accused guilty and imposing the penalty.

Represent Sackville At Economic Meet

SACKVILLE, July 6.—At a meeting of the executive of the Board of Trade Friday evening, Dr. H. Wigle, C. C. Avard and E. H. Richard were appointed delegates to attend a Maritime conference of the Boards of Trade and other societies to be held in Moncton Wednesday, July 10, to consider a national economic policy which will be fair to the Maritime Provinces and which the rest of the country might fairly be asked to approve.

CARS IN COLLISION

Provincial Constable Robert Crawford reported yesterday that he had investigated an automobile collision which occurred near Reddy's Point early Sunday morning, but had declined to take any action in regard to it, leaving the question of damages to the parties involved. Fables On Health

SET UP A HEALTH MARGIN
A SILLY old man dropped to his death near Chicago the other day. To please a young girl he attempted a boxing bout and a foot race, and his heart stopped beating. The incident was given wide publicity because of the peculiar conditions entering into the story. Deaths from similar causes are not uncommon, however. Nature exacts a heavy toll in death from men and women around 50 years who still think they possess the vigor and strength of youth. These men and women have forgotten or did not know that there is need of a health margin. An enlightened business man knows that a safety margin is essential in any business to meet sudden stress in finances. Banks always carry a reserve to meet a sudden and unexpected demand. Human bodies, like businesses, must have a margin to make life safe when an unusual stress comes. Whether this stress is in the form of vigorous exercise or disease, the result is the same—death, unless

Adventures of the Twins

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON. FIVE QUEER FELLOWS.

MI O MI began to laugh. "Hello here, Sunny Jim," said the prince. "What are you doing?" "My daily exercise," said the man. "I can stretch myself around the world, and I'm looking for work." "Come along," said the prince. And that made three. "The next man said he could see from end to end. The prince thought it sounded interesting but obscure. However he took him. And, lastly, he came to a man who stivered and shook even though he stood in the burning sun. The prince said, 'At last I have found someone who can't possibly be used.' "Oh, do try me," begged the shivering man. "You never can tell, I may have my use yet." "That's so," said the prince. "One must not judge too hastily. Come along then." "So the whole five followed the prince and he kept thinking. 'What on earth shall I do with this queer lot? They certainly won't impress the queen when she sees them. For the prince was on his way to ask for the hand of the princess.' "So he hid them behind a curtain," said MI O MI. "My daughter!" cried the queen. "Then earn her. Get me a red turquoise at once. I've wanted one all my life." "There is one in the Moon Man's well," whispered the sharp-eyed one to the stretchy one. The stretchy man stretched to the moon and got the red turquoise and passed it to the queen. "Of course, she was furious. 'You'll have to vote vera, I can't have thatswawl, have to do more,' she cried. "To be continued.

PAINS IN BACK AND SIDES

Ended by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

FULLER, Sask.—"For two or three days every so often I would have such pains in my back and sides that I could not do anything—could not even lie quietly in bed, and my head ached, too. I was this way about three years, but was worse after I was married. I was on a farm with not a house nearer than five miles and there was not a person to advise me, as my folks lived in Manitoba. My sister-in-law told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and told me to try it. I took her advice and have been thankful for it ever since. After taking the medicine for three months I can say I have helped me a lot and I am doing fine. I am glad to recommend the Vegetable Compound to others and you may publish my testimonial."—Mrs. HILLEN BALANOFF, Fuller, Saskatchewan.

Often some slight trouble will cause a general upset of the system. Such symptoms as nervousness, painful times, irregularity, backache and headache indicate some form of female weakness. Women so bothered should give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. This dependable medicine has helped thousands of women and it is reasonable to expect that it will help you. Try it today. Your druggist sells this medicine.

Novel Idea

A BIRD on the limb is worth any number in the hand, if you are interested in style rather than ornithology. Fashionable stockings show the bird motif embroidered rather close to the knee, but the skirts are so very short now, this does not entirely conceal it from view.

NOVICES

A couple were touring in Sicily. At a distance from one of the large towns the wife said: "Think, Albert, if the brigands should come now and take me from you!" "Impossible, my dear." "But supposing they did come and carry me away, what would you say?" "I should say," replied the husband, "that the brigands were new at the business—that's all."

CLEVER EXPLANATION.

A lady whose first husband was a minister, a delightful man, married, some years after his death, his brother, a successful lawyer. Now on her library desk stands a picture of the partner of her first joys and sorrows, and one day a curious caller asked who it was. "That," said the hostess with evident emotion, "is a picture of my husband's brother, who died some years ago and was very dear to us both."

Mother! Watch out for film on child's teeth

That's a danger signal. If the dentifice you are using doesn't successfully remove it, do this—the new tooth care children's dentists advise.

FOREMOST dental authorities now advise a new way in caring for a child's teeth. A way different in formula, action and effect from any other method.

At a nation-wide hygienic movement, a 10-day test is offered mothers free.

You are urged to make it. To see what modern science is doing for the better protection of children's teeth and gums. Simply use the coupon.

What film indicates. Why it must be fought several times daily.

Look at your child's teeth. If cloudy, dull, discolored, there's a film. And that film is often a danger sign. The child can feel it by running his tongue across his teeth.

Ordinary tooth pastes won't combat it successfully. Try the one you now use. See if the film does not still remain.

Film is a viscous coat that clings to teeth, gets into crevices and stays. It makes pearly teeth ugly, discolored—dingy. Many a naturally pretty child is handicapped in this way.

MOOSE IN GARAGE.
The large cow moose that attracted such attention on Sunday in Marble Cove is believed to be responsible for damage amounting to about $10 done in the garage of M. Bodowitch, Douglas avenue. The moose walked into the garage when the door was open, but instead of leaving that way, jumped through the rear window.

If Ever You Got a Furniture and Rug Bargain in Your Life, Here It Is!

DID YOU SEE THE CROWDS? Did You See What's Causing the EXCITEMENT?
That Sale at Everett's Already Town Talk

Do you need encouragement? Do you want to be absolutely sure that you are not making a mistake? That now is the time to buy furniture and rugs? Just set your foot in Everett's Furniture Store, now at this sale. Just see the crowds. Just hear the buzz-buzz-buzz of eager enthusiasm. Just see the way folks are buying. We say you will catch the contagion. That you'll be swept off your feet. That you'll be held speechless while you catch your started breath.

PEOPLE OF ST. JOHN—This is a sale. It is a sale beyond question. The sale bargains are so obvious that there isn't a chance in the world to mistake them. Mr. Everett himself, the manager, the salesmen, the office clerks, every living soul in this organization are behind this sale, heart and mind. They know how the goods in this sale are marked. They know what the people are getting, and they know that in no case has a special price been advertised just to make an impression that it is the cheapest article in that particular line. In most cases where specials are advertised there can be found several other pieces at much lesser price. But there are no baits. They are only 100 p.c. bonifide bargains and we will sell each one.

A Word About Specials
When a special price is advertised for a specified period, it means simply that we are trying to stimulate trade, and in nearly every case where a special is used it is selling at a price way below cost. Therefore, we must insist that the time limits shall not be extended.

FREE Delivery To All Parts of New Brunswick

CASH IS KING
You may attend sales where credit is the main workings of the whole sale, but it takes no magnifying glass nor even a common pair of eye glasses to see at one glance that when furniture and rugs are sold at prices lower than they can be replaced at, no credit can be considered. Therefore terms of sale are Cash.

LINENS The Greatest Sale Between the Oceans

1-3 LESS THAN REGULAR PRICE!

Table Naperies Extraordinary

We have been more fortunate in securing from one of the high class linen manufacturers of Belfast, Ireland, a large quantity of table linens and napkins, which we can sell at about one-third less than regular price because of very slight imperfections in the weaves, and in no case do these imperfections appear in more than one place in each cover. The napkins, although sold at one-third less than the regular price, are perfect goods, bought for the purpose of enabling customers who buy the table covers to get the napkins to match at a great saving. It is a rare opportunity that these special offerings come to Saint John, as the big firms of large centres are always on the watch for these great bargains. Table covers run in size from 1 1/2 yards to 4 yards in length, and are the usual full widths. The firm from which these were purchased only make high class linens, so you can feel assured that every piece in the sale is pure linen, no cotton of any percentage is found. You will do well to lay in a stock of table linens from this sale, because the price will not be any higher than you would pay for union or cotton goods. Bear in mind that the imperfections in the covers are so slight that in most cases they are not traceable, but because of the high standard maintained by the manufacturer, are not allowed to go out as perfect goods.

KIPLING SAYS PRINTING IS 11TH PLAGUE

In Humorous Address Tells of What the Press Has Done

MADE FREEMAN OF STATIONERS

Sir James Barrie Speaks of New Ladies' Shakespeare Soon to be Issued.

LONDON, July 7.—Rudyard Kipling, in the course of one of his characteristic speeches upon being made an honorary freeman of the Worshipful Company of Stationers, in London, referred to the printing press as the eleventh plague, and said no one could deny the world might have been happier if the printing press had never been invented.

"The printing press was the invention of some desperate soul, impatient of the slow and beautiful handcraft of the past," said Mr. Kipling. "The next step was to change the printing press into a machine, to improve the machine, to invent special ink for it, to create the business of publishing and distributing. Among them they have launched the eleventh plague upon humanity."

CRIBBE FOSTERED.

"Since that dreadful date there has not been a crime in the decade, from anonymous letter writing to the spread of malaria, which they have not fostered, facilitated and disseminated. Incidentally, too, they have turned life into the nightmare of a never empty waste paper basket. "It is true, however, that their ministrations have prevented or diverted authors from writing these words on the street corners, but I hold that with a little patience the increase of motor traffic would have accomplished this and for mankind quite as effectively."

RESPONSIBILITY.

"My responsibility as an honorable stationer, therefore, is a heavy one, for it must have been a member of your mystery, an original heretic stationer, who first discovered that if the leaves of the papyrus plant were soaked in the muddy water of the Nile and beaten upon with a mallet, the best stuff struck together and made what looked like paper."

SIR JAMES BARRIE.

Sir James Barrie, upon whom a similar honor was conferred, followed Mr. Kipling and introduced the stationers with a humorous impression of what "a ladies' Shakespeare" might be like in the light of modern terms of life. "I like to think I am among the chosen because I am a master of hard facts," said Sir James. "In Lord Balfour and Mr. Kipling you get eloquence, philosophy and poetry, but from me today you naturally look for facts."

LADIES' SHAKESPEARE.

"The most valiant name in the course of your records is that of Shakespeare, and the first fact I want to put before you is this: I want to propose to you that you should enter in Stationers' Hall one more edition of his works. "The other sex, if so they may still be called, have long complained about Shakespeare's women, glorious creatures, but too subservient to the old enemy for the later day. They think Shakespeare did not know what things were coming to women. Ladies and gentlemen be aware, but in his writing he had to write with knowledge. If he was advanced about women his plays would have been publicly burned in the garden of Stationers' Hall. "So he left a cipher note in a text where everybody has been looking for it, but in the cunning way of all stage directors, and the women of today, as he hoped, have had the wit to read the cipher right. And so we are going to have a new edition of his works called very properly, the 'Ladies' Shakespeare.'"

CAR FARES HIGHER.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 7.—An eight-cent street car fare, with a ride for 60c through the purchase of tickets, was ordered in effect in the Twin Cities August 1st by the Railroad and Warehouse Commission today. The present fare is 8c. "The order follows a study of property valuations of the Minneapolis & St. Paul Street Railway Companies, which has continued intermittently for four years."

MUSSOLINI BARS VACATION.

ROME, July 6.—There will be no vacation this summer for Premier Mussolini, and members of the Italian cabinet. The Premier announced today that he and his assistants had so much work to do they would be unable to take a rest.

A Few Needed Inventions.

A berry box that will prevent all the best berries from staying at the top. A telephone ring that will tell us who is on the other end of the wire before we answer it. A golf ball with gramophone attachment that will sing out "Here I am!" An adjustable ring that will fit the usual number of girls who become engaged during the summer. An angler's scales that will corroborate the fisherman's story. A piano that will sound the same to the girl playing as it does to the neighbors.—Boston Transcript.

Calgary Celebrates Jubilee of Mounted Police

1. Cowboys in the Parade. 2. "Bucking Sally." 3. Cowboys in the making. 4. The old coach resurrected. 5. Hoot Gibson and Sgt. Kendall, late of the R.C.M.P. 6. The Old Chief. 7. Roy Hutchinson does his stuff. 8. "Cowboy" Frank gets dumped. 9. The Covered Wagon.

THE Jubilee Historical Pageant and Stampede commemorating the 50th anniversary of the coming of the Mounted Police to Calgary and the birth of the city is an attraction of the West this week. Among the attractions is Hoot Gibson, well-known movie cowboy star, who is making special motion pictures of the celebrations, supported by 80 of a staff from California. In the Historical Pageant some 18 to 20 floats will be used representing different periods in the history of the West and Calgary's development. The plan for the pageant involves the representation of 30 episodes which show in colorful detail the history of the West before and after the coming of the white man. There is the pre-civilization Indian then the coming of the explorers, fur traders and adventurers of the 18th century, the arrival of the Catholic Fathers, the lawless period of the first settlers, the coming of the Mounted Police, the Klondike, the coming of the West, the Great War call to arms, and finally Calgary and the West as they are today. The high lights of the Stampede triumphant blast of the siren when he is on board a vessel homeward bound. "Forts of Call," the William Fox picture to be shown for the last time at the Gaiety Theatre tonight, deals with the adventures of a cowboy who wins his way back to his heartstone and into the heart of the woman he loves. Edmund Lowe is the star, the dramatic screen offering having been directed by Denison Clift. If you have never been across the blue Pacific, you will like this.

"THE MIRAGE" ENDS RUN AT THE PALACE

Screen Version of Famous Stage Play and Comedy Completes Bill.

"The Mirage," the screen version of Edger Selys's famous play of Broadway life, closes a successful run at the Palace Theatre tonight. Beautiful Florence Vidor is starred in the role which Florence Reed made famous on the stage. This is a characterization different from anything which Miss Vidor has done hitherto and displays a new side of her versatility. Her supporting cast includes Olive Brook, famous English actor, Alan Koscoe, Vola Vale, Myrtle Vane and Charlotte Stevens. C. Gardner Sullivan adapted the story for the screen and Walter Hiers directed.

SHAW WITH SAINTS

Portrait on Stained Glass Window in London Church Dedicated.

LONDON, July 7.—George Bernard Shaw has joined the saints—that is stained glass ones. The ethical church of London has dedicated a stained glass window wherein are represented Pope Benedict the XV, St. Michael and St. Joan of Arc and Bishop Beauvais. Half way down is a three quarter length portrait of Shaw and next to him the late Anatole France. No one knows why Shaw is there except that the title of the window is Joan of Arc. Shaw when asked his views on the unusual event, replied characteristically: "You'd better go ask Anatole France. If you can't get him then come ask me."

FEODOR WANTS COLOR

LONDON, June 7.—Feodor Chaliapin, the opera singer, is advocating dress suits in rich colors for men and the elimination of those "wretched collars."

MAN IS "LEADING LADY"

PEKING, July 9.—In China, most of the native theatrical troupes are composed either entirely of men or women. Men play the parts of "leading ladies," and vice versa.

"HER LOVE STORY"

MARY PHILBIN AT QUEEN SQ. THEATRE

Norman Kerry and Other Players in Cast of "Fifth Avenue Models."

Elaborate sets, eloquent of luxury; sets indicative of poverty; stunning gowns; beautiful women; fine acting by star and supporting cast. Such are a great motion picture of "Fifth Avenue Models." Universal-Jewel starring Mary Philbin, which opened a few days ago at the Queen Square Theatre. Other factors are fine photography, good direction and many intently human touches, and a good logical story.

It is the screen version of "The Best in Life," a best seller written by Marie Hine, and tells the dramatic love story of a girl who supports herself and father by working as a seamstress in the shop of a fashionable modiste. The love interest is between the girl and a young man of wealth, played by Norman Kerry.

HELENE CHADWICK SCORES BIG HIT

"Trouping With Ellen" Stars Lovely Player in Most Appealing Role.

Helene Chadwick is a delight to the eyes in "Trouping with Ellen," the screen version of Earl Derr Biggers' Saturday Evening Post story, which opened at the Unique Theatre last night. Never did she seem more beautiful and never has she had a better acting part. But Helene is only one of the many reasons why you should see this picture. The story, the cast, the clever titles, the beauty of the production are others.

"Trouping with Ellen" is a tale of the chorus girl as she really is, not as she is usually drawn; a Cinderella who is wise enough to know that long winter evenings at the palace would bore her and so, when the prince professes matrimony, she declines, even in the face of his seventeen millions.

Miss Chadwick's supporting cast is the most brilliant seen in many months. It includes Gaston Glass as leading man, Basil Rathbone, Mary Thurman, Tyrone Power, Zena Keefe, Ernest Hilliard, Kate Blinck, Esther Banks and others of equal note. The backstage stuff is accurately executed. The chorus is comprised of many beauties from the New York revues.

Imperial's Picture Features Prominent Stars of Screen

"Three Women" now being shown at the Imperial Theatre, shows how good a picture can be made under the supervision of a great director. Ernst Lubitsch, when made director of the picture that everyone will no doubt enjoy.

He has chosen an exceptional cast to work with, a cast worthy of a great director and an unusual plot. May McAvoy, Marie Prevost and Pauline Frederick share the tri-stellar honors. Lew Cody, Mary Carr, Willard Louis and Pierre Gen-dron are some of the other brilliant players.

May McAvoy, as the wife of a fickle husband, plays her part in charming sincerity, while Pauline Frederick, who takes the role as her mother and former sweetheart to her husband, seems to have been made for the part. Marie Prevost, as still another sweetheart, is the perfect vampire type. The plot has unusual complications, which all wind up to a very dramatic climax.

The settings in the picture are exceedingly artistic, but have a simplicity in their very magnificence. "Three Women" is a perfect combination of unusual plot, excellent acting, and great direction.

E. Clarence Girvan, baritone, sang two very fine numbers as special features in the Imperial's programme receiving well-deserved plaudits. Mr. Girvan's voice is a very welcome form of entertainment at all times and the Imperial is pursuing its commendable policy of bringing home talent to the front as often as possible. With Pathe News, Topics of the Day and an Aesop Fable the programme was well balanced and very enjoyable.

The same bill is announced for today and tomorrow, the three-day run of the big feature being considered necessary because of the quality of the feature and the acceptability of its all-star cast.

PERFORMS OPERATION
KWANTUNG, China, July 7.—Miss Beale, busy of London, Ontario, a nurse in a Presbyterian hospital here, successfully amputated the arm of a Chinese worker recently. The surgeon at the station was absent on a long trip and the girl performed the operation to save the man's life.

MAN FREED; CAR GUILTY
TOPEKA, Kas., July 7.—The Kansas Supreme Court recently handed down a unique ruling. It held that although a man may be acquitted of a charge of transporting liquor, the car in which he was moving it may be held guilty and confiscated.

TROPICAL SCENERY IN "POSTS OF CALL"

Edmund Lowe Featured by Strong Cast in Picture at Gaiety.

If you have sailed the Seven Seas you will recall those tropical ports where men wait for ships bearing news that never comes. To those men who have missed too many boats the word "home" is a torment that would turn to rapture if they could again set foot in their homeland. There is nothing more mournful than the wailing whistles of a departing steamer to a man who cannot return to his native shores; nothing more heart cheering than the

OBSERVE GOLDEN WEDDING TODAY

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick E. Trainor of Harrison Street Honored

Children and Many Relatives Assemble for Happy Celebration This Evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick E. Trainor of 24 Harrison street are celebrating today their golden wedding anniversary with a large party around them. Eight of their ten children are living and all are with them today, with several grandchildren and other relatives from Prince Edward Island and from the United States. A dinner will be served this evening at 6 o'clock and in the evening a happy time will be enjoyed by the family. There will be 80 guests, all relatives, including 29 grandchildren. Many friends called on the day and gifts of flowers and presents were also presented. Mr. Trainor said this morning, "We may be getting old a year ago, but my wife and I feel very young this morning."

FROM P. E. ISLAND. Mr. and Mrs. Trainor were born on Prince Edward Island in the picturesque district of Kincoora, where they were married 50 years ago by Rev. Father Doyle in St. Michael's church. Mr. Trainor was formerly Miss Rose Creighton.

The family all reside in the city and with the visiting nieces and nephews joined Mr. and Mrs. Trainor at mass, celebrated this morning at 8 o'clock by Rev. Joseph Butler, their grandson, from Buctouche. Two other grandsons, Master Edward and Edward, served at the altar.

The children living are: Mrs. James Butler, 194 Metcalf street; Mrs. John Kincaid, Main street; Mrs. Fred J. Buckley, Adelaide street; Miss Lavinia, at home; John T., manager of City Fuel Co., Ltd.; Patrick Albert Trainor, barber, Main street; Ambrose James, barber, King square; and A. E. Trainor of the City Fuel Co., Ltd.

From Haverhill, Mass., arrived yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Kelly and Mr. and Mrs. Malone, the ladies, both nieces of Mr. and Mrs. Trainor; also Miss Eva Trainor, another niece, and Mrs. Mary Malone, grand niece. Mrs. Malone and James T. Duffy, a nephew, from Kincoora, P. E. I., are here for the celebration and Mrs. Thomas Hamill, daughter of Mr. Duffy, is a special guest. Mr. and Mrs. Trainor came to Saint John 21 years ago and Mr. Trainor was in the boot and shoe business for some years, but has now retired. They have many friends in the city, especially in the North End, where they have always resided since coming to Saint John.

ARE AWAY TODAY ON 2 CHURCH PICNICS

St. Luke's Sunday School to Crystal Beach; Fairville Church to Grand Bay.

Undaunted by the fog, members of two Sunday schools set forth on picnics yesterday morning. St. Luke's children went to Crystal Beach on the 31st and another party left for a picnic on the Hampton. The D. J. Parry will bring them home this evening about 6 o'clock. About 200 went up this morning, comprising principally the juvenile portion of the school. The adults went in the afternoon.

Harry Finch, acting superintendent in charge and is assisted by Rev. W. E. Fuller, curate of the church, W. Craft and L. W. Mowry; Mrs. Ida Dunlop, general convenor; Miss Marjorie Porter and Miss Marie Thompson. H. Usher Miller assisted in getting the children away on the boat.

Fairville Picnic. Fairville United Church Sunday school picnickers left on the 8 o'clock train for Grand Bay, and in this case also the children predominated. Their clothes left on the 1.30 train and all will return in the evening. More than 300 were in attendance. David Linton, superintendent, is in charge and has for assistants the following committees: Mrs. Dane Crosby, general convenor; B. L. Wood, transportation and refreshments, assisted by Miss Rose Lester, sports; Mrs. H. M. Stout, advertising; Mrs. Lester, church sale; Miss Gertrude Masson and Miss Jean Kelly, tickets; Gray Townshend, tea and coffee; Mrs. J. Cheseman, supervisor of dinner and supper tables.

FAIR IS PLANNED Enterprise in September to Aid Protestant Orphans' Home Maintenance.

A "Fraternity Fair" in aid of the Maintenance Fund of the N. B. Protestant Orphans' Home is being planned. It was announced this morning by W. M. Campbell, who is organizing the committee. All the Protestant organizations in the city are being asked to co-operate in furnishing workers and committeemen. It is expected that the fair will be held in St. Andrew's rink in the latter part of September. The need for money to wipe out the deficit in the fund is the reason for arranging the enterprise, it was said by Mr. Campbell. He requested that the societies should communicate with him regarding their part in the fair as early as possible.

STALLED IN YARD. The incoming C. N. R. train due about 9 a. m. met with a slight accident in the yard this morning and the passengers walked up town from City Road, near Stanley street, instead of from the depot. Just under the overhead bridge at Stanley street, the two rear wheels of the tender left the track and the train was held up. The wrecking crew soon had the wheels back where they belonged.

DID NOT MEET. The monthly meeting of the International Longshoremen's Association, No. 278, was postponed last evening on account of the lack of a quorum.

FOR JULY 12. Mount Purple Lodge, of the L.O.L., at Lunenburg, has perfected plans for a July 12 parade on Saturday. The Lunenburg lodges will parade to Sea-view and addresses will be given in the evening, with a dance.

SINGS IN HALIFAX. Miss Kathryn Galloway of this city is singing in the Majestic Theatre, Halifax this week where a special production of "The Vagabond" is being presented. The Halifax papers speak very highly of the Saint John girl's singing.

W. C. T. U. MEETING. At a meeting of the W. C. T. U., held at 10, Belleville at the home of Mrs. O. J. Hanson, it was decided to use 25 meetings until September. Mrs. A. L. Bunnell, president, presided. Mrs. E. Bruce of Campbellton, provincial president, was read, urging the union to participate earnestly in the coming campaign for new members.

BIRTHDAY PARTY. Little Miss Marguerite Gibson, 78 Elmwood street, was the guest of honor last evening at a birthday party in honor of her 6th birthday at her home. She received many dainty reminders of the day. At the tea hour the table was decorated in pink, yellow and white and had as its chief ornament a large birthday cake filled with novelties for the guests. The time was spent in games and music. Those present were Frances Walker, Nora Hammond, Isabelle Currie and Masters Graham Gibson, Jack Gibson, David McIntyre and Donald Gibson.

NEWSPAPER VISITOR. Oscar L. Stevens, managing editor of the Patriot Ledger, published in Quincy, Mass., was a visitor to the city yesterday accompanied by Mrs. Stevens. They arrived on the S. S. Prince Arthur from Boston and spent the day enjoying the beauties of the city. Today was devoted to a call on the Saint John River and the visitors next to go to the Scotch Highlands to see places of interest there. They were much impressed by the dry dock and saw the chief engineer, Mr. J. G. McNeil, and the chief electrician, Mr. J. G. McNeil, especially the Reversing Falls.

APPRECIATION. Letters received from John F. Masters and Howard L. Allen and Mrs. F. A. Allen of Boston Canadian Club since their return after their visit to Saint John are filled with expressions of appreciation for the many courtesies extended to them during their stay in the city. They were much impressed by the dry dock and saw the chief engineer, Mr. J. G. McNeil, and the chief electrician, Mr. J. G. McNeil, especially the Reversing Falls.

ATTENDED LARGE AUTO CONVENTION. T. P. Regan Speaks of Change at Atlantic City—Many U.S. Cars in Montreal.

Much business was transacted at the annual meeting of the Automobile Association of America held last week at the Hotel Traymore, Atlantic City, according to T. P. Regan, K. C., president of the New Brunswick Automobile Association, who returned home from there, via Montreal, yesterday. The price charged, he said, were 200 delegates attended this important gathering, the sessions being devoted practically entirely to business matters. This was Mr. Regan's first visit to this famous summer resort in 10 years and he said he found a great change. Fully 50 per cent. of the tourists going there now, he said, were foreigners who had got rich quickly. Commissioner Talks of Using Granite in Construction if it is Undertaken.

Commissioner R. W. Wigmore expects the water and sewerage department may have to re-construct the Marsh Bridge aqueduct which controls the flow of water from the Courtenay into Marsh Creek. This bridge, built in 1870, was practically rebuilt a number of years ago with concrete material. It is said the strenuous action of the salt water increasingly has so undermined it that permanent repairs or a complete rebuilding is necessary.

The Marsh Bridge is one of the most important links in the heavy traffic of the city. If the work is done it is probable granite will be employed.

HAVE WORDY DUEL. Husband and Wife in Police Court Case and He is Fined.

Pleading guilty to a charge of assault on his wife on last Friday, J. H. Paddock was fined $20 or two months in jail in the Police Court this morning by Magistrate Henderson. There was a wordy duel between the defendant and complainant when Mrs. Paddock was waiting her trial. The husband said he had done everything possible to keep peace in his family but his wife had a bad temper and a loose tongue. "Well, it's the only thing I've got to protect me and I'll use it," interrupted Mrs. Paddock. His Honor remarked he could give her a certificate to that effect. By his own confession, the defendant admitted his guilt, the Magistrate said, and therefore, he would impose a $20 penalty or two months. He said he did not have any money and if his wife could stand his going to jail he could treat him better than me and the other two," was the defendant's parting shot as he went below.

RE-APPOINTED POLICE OFFICER

Clarence Tower Resumes Duties in Lancaster—Petition From 300 Received.

At a meeting of the Board of Management of the Parish of Lancaster, yesterday, the matter of police protection for Beaconsfield was under discussion and it was decided to re-appoint Clarence Tower as police officer for that district. A petition, signed by about 300 rate payers of the district, asking for the reappointment of Mr. Tower was laid before the board and after full consideration it was agreed that he should resume his duties. Mr. Tower undertaking to pay the costs of the suit, Tower vs. McLennan.

The petition pointed out that the district was assessed for police purposes and for some months now had been without police protection. Councilor Golding, chairman of the board, and Councilors O'Brien and Campbell were present at the meeting.

FATHER OF FRED C. WESLEY IS DEAD

Passes Away in Toronto, Leaving His Wife, Three Sons, Five Daughters.

Saint John friends of F. C. Wesley, head of the F. C. Wesley Co., engravers, were sorry to learn today of the death of his father, Charles L. Wesley, which occurred at his home in Toronto on July 2. The Toronto Mail and Empire says:

Mr. Charles L. Wesley, whose death after an illness of several weeks occurred yesterday at the residence of his wife, Mrs. Charles Callow, 189 Glendale avenue, was born in Belleville, Ontario, but had for many years been a resident of the Parkeville district in Toronto, where he was well known. Mr. Wesley was formerly in the service of the Street Company of Canada. He was of United Empire Loyalist descent, a veteran of the Fenian raid, a Liberal in politics and attended Holy and Park Methodist Church.

He is survived by his widow, three sons, Fred C., George G. of London, Ontario, and Norman D. of Toronto, and five daughters, Mrs. John Trepanier, Mrs. Charles Callow, Mrs. Russell Palmer and Misses Cora and Florence Wesley.

The funeral was held on Monday afternoon, from 189 Glendale Avenue to Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

An Opportunity to Earn 451% PROFIT ON AN INVESTMENT IN ITALIAN GOVERNMENT 5% BONDS

With an Attractive Interest Yield

AN INVESTMENT made to-day in Italian Government 5% Bonds (Consolidated Loan of 1920) presents an unusual opportunity for profit on any advance in the value of Italian money (lire).

Italian Government 5% Bonds, as a result of the depreciation of the Italian lire, can now be bought for $35.00 per 1,000-lire bond with the Italian monetary unit at its normal exchange value of 19.36 cents per lire.

International bankers believe that the Italian lire will rise to 100 cents before very long. It is not difficult to realize what this will mean to the investor who has bought these bonds.

These proceeds support our contention that (1) The most difficult thing in the world to do is to invest in Italy. (2) When the lire rises the value of these bonds will increase as follows:

Table of Present Prices and Future Values showing denominations and prices for 1,000 Lire, 2,000 Lire, 5,000 Lire, 10,000 Lire, 25,000 Lire, 50,000 Lire, 100,000 Lire bonds.

THE ABOVE prices include every expense. Sales are confirmed by registered mail immediately upon receipt of order with remittance. The order form below is for your convenience.

★Tax-Exempt Interest Income Each bond of 10,000 lire yields an income of 500 lire per annum.

At the present rate of the lire, holders of Italian Government 5% bonds, receive interest at a rate of over 5% per annum.

With the lire rising to 19 cents (or $190 per 1,000 lire) the holder of 10,000 lire Italian Government 5% Bonds will receive $50 in Canadian money for his investment of $35.00.

With the lire at par (19.36 cents or $193.60 per 1,000 lire) the ANNUAL INTEREST in Canadian currency will be $96.56 for every 500 lire invested. This return is equivalent to an interest rate of OVER 27 1/2% on the original investment of $35.00.

The investor can follow the trend of the lire through the financial columns of the press. He is thus constantly informed on the behaviour of his bonds.

As remarked elsewhere, the investor does not have to cash his interest coupons as soon as they fall due. Each interest coupon is valid for five years after redemption date. This enables the holder to dispose of them at any time during that period.

It is obvious that these high grade, attractive, gilt-edged bonds of the Italian Government will not be available at present prices for long. You must act quickly.

NEW YORK GIANTS AND PITTSBURG PIRATES IN CRUCIAL SERIES

GREAT FIGHT TO RETAIN LEAD IN PENNANT RACE

The American League Games Will Be In West

NEW YORK, July 7.—Inter-sectional hostilities in the major leagues are on again today, with the American League games in the west and the National League in the east. In the feature series New York meets the Pirates in a struggle to regain the lead in the National League.

Phillies Shutout. The Phillies suffered their first shut-out of the season yesterday in the first game of a double header, 6 to 0, but won the second game from the Giants 10 to 6, after an eight inning rally which scored seven runs. Virgil Barnes blanked the Phillies confining them to three hits.

College Recruit Wins. Boston made its three straight from Brooklyn by taking the final game of the series yesterday 8 to 4. Eshart succumbed before the Braves bombardment while Lefty Yargue, Boston college recruit, triumphed in his first big league start.

Cleveland Humbled Chicago in both sections of a twin programme, 9 to 1, and 4 to 3. Garland Buckeye stopped the White Sox in the opener, permitting but seven hits. Joe Shaefer twisted the final number. Joe Sewell, of the Indians, drove in five runs with four singles in the two innings.

Other clubs were not scheduled yesterday.

DISPUTE DECISION AND FORFEIT GAME

Saint Johns Refuse to Resume Play and Water Dept. Win.

Last night's City League game, which was played on the North End grounds, ended rather abruptly. With the score standing 6 to 5 in favor of the Water Department, umpire-in-chief Ramsay declared the game forfeited to the Watermen when the Saint Johns refused to continue play.

With the score standing 6 to 5 in favour of the Saint Johns the Water Department came in for their half of the seventh.

Corrigan fled to Kearney. A Snodgrass doubled. Gorman hit a long single to centre. "Eddie" Stirling intercepted Haselwood's throw to the plate. Stirling seeing that it was useless to try to get Snodgrass going, then threw to Capron at second in an endeavor to get Gorman. Gorman slid into the bag and was declared safe. Capron, apparently being dissatisfied with umpire Morrissey's decision, threw the ball into left field and Gorman completed the circuit of the bases.

The Saint Johns then left the playing field and the crowd swarmed onto the diamond.

Upon being informed that the Saint Johns would not continue play, Umpire Ramsay declared the game forfeited to the Water Department.

The following is the box score and summary up to the time of the forfeiting of the game:

Milltown Wins From Calais Team

ST. STEPHEN, N.B., July 6.—On the Milltown diamond tonight the home team lost out in the ninth inning to Calais by a score of 9 to 4. Milltown had the game by a score of 4 to 2 up to the eighth inning, but the Calais hitters got to Paul in the ninth and piled up four runs. Batteries for Calais were Rogers and Lampher, for Milltown, Paul and Lewis. Rogers and Paul divided the honors, each allowing nine hits.

Shade Is Now Regarded as the Uncrowned Welterweight Champion

Along The Sport Trail

By RAY HANSEN

THE ALERTS professional baseball team will continue to carry on according to an announcement of their manager, Thomas Muller. Arrangements will be made to stage games with Montreal and other professional teams. Some of the best players who were with the Alerts will be added to the personnel of the team and it is expected the club will be then sufficiently strong to give any barnstorming aggregation a good run for their money. While it is true that the professional game this season has failed to attract large crowds this has undoubtedly been due to several reasons. However, fans will undoubtedly like to see some fast United States teams in action before the close of the season and will be ready to patronize the pros. when any attractive bill is arranged. The locals would do well to keep up their practice and develop team play for the fans are getting a classy brand of amateur ball and will expect big things from the pros.

GEORGE FIFIELD apparently came within an ace of knocking out Johnny McIntyre in Halifax in their recent bout. McIntyre's defensive work when he was in a bad way was said to have been a feature. There is no denying Johnny is a great defensive boxer, but lacks sufficient aggression to make him a popular fighter.

WHEN THE Calais team played local professional organizations here recently it was noticeable how hard and far they were driving the ball. Players and fans were suspicious that they were using loaded bats, but the former realizing that they were being out-classed kept their suspicions to themselves. Some fans heard some remarks from the visitors' bench and did not hesitate to inform members of the Alerts and Alerts. However, the incident was allowed to pass unnoticed. Sunday some residents of one of the Border towns were in the city and confirmed the suspicion. They said loaded bats are being used by practically all of the teams and the Umpires are letting them get away with it. The loaded or plugged bat is nothing new and in former years visiting teams were found using them. In those days the locals were playing real ball and were not prone to let outsiders put anything over on them. When a team is going well the players can afford to hold up a game and fight for their point but when they are not doing so well it looks as if they were "squealing" and rather than give fans that impression they take their beating and try to keep smiling.

FANS IN NEW YORK should be in for a great treat when the Pittsburgh Pirates and Giants clash in their five game series. The result will undoubtedly have a big bearing on the outcome of the pennant race.

WITH REFERENCE to a plugged bat fans may be interested to know that the rules do not specify any exact penalty. If the umpire is satisfied that a bat has been used which violated the rules of the game he can insist upon its removal from the playing field and upon refusal to do so he can forfeit the game under rule 26, section 5. In outlaw baseball, or leagues that do not come under organized ball, many players attempt to put "something over." In cases of this kind the umpire-in-chief has authority to deal with any violations. The fact that the league is not organized does not mean that the players can make rules for themselves. Many players are under this impression, but umpires should know better. The rules for baseball are supposed to be the same the world over.

CLAIMS ENGLAND HAS LOST CASTLE

Sporting Life Charges Wimbledon Tennis Committee With Shortcomings.

LONDON, July 7.—Sporting Life today charges the committee directing the Wimbledon Lawn Tennis tournament with shortcomings which, if not rectified, will lead to a decline in overseas entries and have other serious consequences. Aside from having "lost international supremacy at the game, it adds, England has "lost caste to a much greater extent than is generally supposed by those unacquainted with the lawn tennis affairs of other nations." The committee is charged with imposing vexatious restrictions and not meeting the demands for uniformity in gate receipts, with "unwarranted" and "unjustified" demands for the Westminister Gazette to see the 1925 Wimbledon meeting set a record in gate receipts, with "unwarranted" and "unjustified" demands for the Westminister Gazette to see the 1925 Wimbledon meeting set a record in gate receipts, with "unwarranted" and "unjustified" demands for the Westminister Gazette to see the 1925 Wimbledon meeting set a record in gate receipts.

Ball Games Tonight

The City League game for this evening is carried for the South End between the St. John Baptists and the Trojans, but in case of bad weather, it will be played at 100 yards on Moosapat Park, Wednesday evening, will be sent back about 10 yards and as he approaches the line a shot will be fired to start the race. The horse will only be allowed to get in motion, but will not be permitted a flying start. Eastman is said to be depending on his start to win out. Final preparations for the big event as well as other attractions on the programme were being made today.

Win By Default

In the City Intermediate League last evening the Martello defaulted to St. Peter's. Thomas Gosnell, who was officiating as umpire, awarded the win to the Martello by default.

Back-Seat Driver a Menace

(Boston Transcript.) There will be a sympathetic response among motorists everywhere to the campaign that has been undertaken by the American Automobile Association to "notorize the automobile passenger," which is a polite way of saying that the back-seat driver should be squelched. Every operator of a car who has suffered from the suggestions and comments of those he has with him, will agree with the slogan that "better passenger make better drivers."

Enjoy Your Shave

To enjoy the morning shave without a mourning rave is the luxury of the man who uses Williams' Shaving Cream. Heavier lather holds in the moisture that softens every hair instantly. A lubric quality in this lather helps the razor do a perfect job quickly. And it contains the precious ingredient that soothes the skin and leaves it smooth and flexible. Williams Shaving Cream with the temper-saving hinged cap gives the perfect lather. Aqua Veta scientific after-shave preparation keeps the skin soft, fresh and supple.

When Slattery Took the Count

When Dave Shade of California met Jimmy Slattery of Buffalo in the ring in New York almost every one took it for granted that Slattery would knock out Shade. Slattery was known as the boy wonder and was being groomed as the probable conqueror of Dempsey. But Shade ducked Slattery's terrific blows and in the third round knocked Slattery cold with a succession of uppercuts to the chin. Inset is an excellent close-up of Slattery as he was taking the count.

NEW MODEL YACHT

Was Built From Plans and Specifications Sent From Ayr, Scotland. Many have noticed a model yacht in the window of the American Dry Works, Union street, and have made inquiries about it. It is made of mahogany by George Wilson of the North End, who was a cabinet maker in England before he came to Canada. The yacht is the property of George Burton of the North End, and he intends to enter it in the races at Lily Lake.

Starter Here On Way to Woodstock

Charles Thompson, of North Sydney, Cape Breton, veteran starter of horses and a former owner of a racing stable, arrived in the city last evening in his way to Woodstock, where he will officiate as starter there on Thursday. Following the Woodstock meet, Mr. Thompson will proceed to Charlottetown, where he will be one of the officials at the races booked for there next week. While in the city, Mr. Thompson is registered at the Admiral Beatty.

IS CONSIDERED HERO BY FANS WHO SAW BOUT

Deliberate Battle Plan Resulted In Victory

A big fortune for charity, an "uncrowned" ring champion in Dave Shade, the slatter of a publicist (66), a intimation of why Jack Dempsey delay a meeting with Harry Wills and a go time by some 50,000 boxing followers—these are some of the things that came out of the Italian Hospital Fight bout last Friday night, at the Polo Ground. It was a card of boxing matches who will serve as a topic for discussion in days to come and will be remembered as one of the greatest in recent years. Incidentally, the affair projected in the pugilistic arena another promoter who plans to operate on a scale which will make him a rival of Tex Rickard. Humbert J. Fugazy, fired by the success of his initial attempt on a big scale, is well known that he may continue in the sport as a promoter of important matches.

Many See Bouts. Close to 40,000 spectators paid $25, 50¢ to see the four bouts according to the official statement made public by Promoter Fugazy. About 10,000 more witnessed the battle as amateurs, officials and guests. It was estimated that about $20,000 was realized on an official programme of the bouts. The expenses for the bouts and rental of the park will approach $25,000, and other expenses are paid. It is expected that at least $100,000 will be left for the Italian Hospital fund. This is one of the largest donations for charity ever realized from a boxing card.

Card Scheduled For Tonight at the Armories is Set Back

The boxing bout scheduled for tonight at the Armories has been postponed until later in the week, according to the promoter, Fitch, Canadian welterweight champion, feels that he can not do justice to himself against an opponent of quite the calibre so soon after his bout with Johnny McIntyre at Halifax. A further announcement as to the new date is expected within a day or two. Quill is said to be due here on Thursday.

SETS NEW RECORD

Lady Alehaire Trots Three-quarters Mile in 1:32 1-5 on Grand Circuit. Shads left his corner for the third with Flynn's consent to "try with you, right," and Dave did. "Right to the jaw topped one of the most promising horses developed in recent years. In the same token, it brought to the front with a rush a last who had always maintained that he measured up to championship timber, but who has never been afforded an opportunity to demonstrate his ability.

Brooklyn Robins Buy PITCHER FROM MINOR CLUB

ARDMORE, Cal., July 7.—Officials of the Ardmore Western Association baseball club have announced the sale to the Brooklyn Nationals of Arthur Brown, southpaw hurler. Brown has been on option with the local team from the Vichita Falls, Texas, League. Brooklyn gave a cash consideration of $18,000 and players, the number of which will be determined later. Brown will report to the Robins July 6.

TO HAVE TENNIS

William Summerville, president of the Y. P. S. of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Fairville, presided at the meeting last evening in the church hall, which completed the plans for the anticipated opening of the new tennis courts in the rear of the church grounds. The formal opening will be made a gala event among the young people, with a garden party, orchestra of the church and refreshments. The party will be held on Wednesday evening.
