Chinese in Torreon Fired on Soldiers and Extermination of Colony Followed—Another Airship Swoops Down on Spectators and Kills—Two Men Drowned

(Canadian Press) Eagle Pass, Tex., May 22.—A detailed account of the fighting at Torreon where nearly 250 Chinese were killed has just been brought here by W.T. Lamps, editor of the Torreon Enterprise.

Besides the Chinese, twenty-six rebels, fifteen federal and thirty-four non-combatants were killed in the fighting. The Chinese were firing on the troops from the city on May 15. These shots culminated in a concentrated attack by the insurrecto soldiers and ended in the practical extermination of the Chinese colony.

Dr. J. Lima, a Chinese physician who is in charge of the country's affairs at Torreon, counted 240 bodies in the Chinese colony. Mr. Lamps stated that the Chinese, twenty-six rebels, fifteen federal and thirty-four non-combatants were killed in the fighting.

GRAN COUNCIL OF THE EMPIRE IS OPENED

Imperial Conference Deliberations Have Begun IMPORTANT TOPICS

Imperial Cabinet and Fifteen Premiers and Ministers of Overseas Dominions Begin Discussion of Problems—Fiscal Question Likely to Be Brushed Aside by Others

(Canadian Press) London, May 23.—The Imperial conference, which has now practically assumed the functions of a grand council of the British Empire, opened the third series of its quadrennial deliberations today, under the chairmanship of Premier Asquith, at the foreign office.

Besides the members of the imperial cabinet, fifteen premiers, including Sir Wilfrid Laurier and ministers from the overseas dominions of the empire, settled down to discuss such knotty problems as the cooperation of the navies and land forces for imperial defence, the declaration of London, an imperial court of appeal, an "all Red" transportation line to encircle the globe, and a future constitution of the federation of the empire.

The Anglo-American relationship is likely to be discussed in connection with the question of imperial defence, as also is the part which the Australian navy is to play in that defence as Australia, since the visit of the American fleet to that continent three years ago has come to regard the defence of the Pacific.

The fiscal question probably will take a back seat in the discussion, as will the determination of the liberal government to keep the doors bolted against any kind of a tariff on goods imported from the meetings of the conference are held in strict privacy and the public will have to be satisfied with the news reported in official fragments of the proceedings as given out at the end of the day.

Canadian, English, Irish, and Scotch in Montreal School Celebration of Day Montreal, May 23.—Upwards of 1,500 school children took part in the Empire Day concert given at the Arena last evening, and the use of the chimes can be better understood when it is said that the whole north end of the building was filled by these youthful patriots, who, waving flags as they sang, voiced the imperial spirit which prompted the promoters of the celebration to teach the children the songs of their country.

Conners was taken into custody yesterday, as he was buying a ticket to Seattle. Parks was arrested in the home of Conners. There is no likelihood of any effort to connect J. J. McNamara, B. J. McNamara or Orville McNamara with the alleged attempt of Conners and Parks.

THE NEW CANADIANS

Twenty-six languages, or languages and dialects, are spoken in Canada. This fact indicates how varied is the population, chiefly of course in larger cities and in the west. It would perhaps surprise us, however, to learn how many different tongues, to speak in the city of St. John, for there has been a great change in the racial aspect of citizenship in the last twenty years.

The task of unifying the minds of so mixed a people with Canadian ideals may well seem a hopeless task. Canada is fortunate in that the immigrants coming to her shores are of a better class than a very large portion of those seeking the United States, and it is the part of wisdom to keep up the standard; for however, careful the authorities may be there is certain to be among the newcomers a proportion of the criminal class, and of persons not well fitted to become good citizens of this country.

The reciprocity agreement is having trouble in the United States senate, and the Democrats are beginning to wonder whether it will get through safely or not. This, however, is of no great importance to us, but it is of the utmost importance that the executive forces be enlarged and strengthened. The new-comers of course realize the moment they are settled that this is a country where the principles of individual liberty are highly valued, and where there is a universal respect for law. They are given every opportunity to establish homes for themselves, and to share in all the benefits of Canadian citizenship. But they have much to learn, and much, it may be, to unlearn. Hence those men of light and leading, whose voices are raised in warning and in counsel, seeking to impress upon the minds of the Canadian people the magnitude of the responsibility this influx of alien peoples lays upon them, are the seers and prophets of a dispensation of vast significance in Canadian and world history.

GRAVE SOCIAL PROBLEMS

There are some aspects of life in St. John which ought to arouse more interest than is at present manifested. Two women were fined in the police court yesterday for drunkenness. Yesterday afternoon a very little girl was seen steady the steps of her mother along one of the city streets, the mother being intoxicated. The observant citizen may see on any evening, and quite late in the evening, young girls of fourteen to sixteen years, loitering about with youths, and conducting themselves with something less of modesty than would be becoming to them. Some of these girls are in training, though they do not suspect it, for graduation into the ranks of the women who become addicted to the drink habit; for many women drink who retain sufficient caution to evade the police while under the influence of liquor. This is not a pleasant subject, but the right thinking people of the city should face the situation, trace the conditions back to their source, and make some effort to bring about such social conditions as will save our womanhood, however humble, from danger and the disgrace of drunkenness. In the course of some remarks on Sunday evening, Rev. W. Camp observed that, while many citizens relax their efforts in social and moral reform work in summer, the agencies of drunkenness and vice never slacken their pace. There is here a significant truth that it is well to ponder over; for there are peculiar temptations in the summer, and possibilities of evil that are much more dangerous than in winter.

It is true that so far as the young are concerned the primary responsibility rests with parents, but if parents drink, or disregard the welfare of their children, what should be the attitude of society? Obviously there should be organized effort for social betterment, seeking throughout the year to remove or counteract those temptations, which are so harmful to all and to many are even ruinous.

PUBLIC PLAYGROUNDS

The city of Chicago has been described as a very wicked city. The description is in a measure true, for there is much wickedness in Chicago. Yet that city has spent ten million dollars for city clubs and playgrounds. "These club centres" says a summary of an article by Frederic Howe in Hampton's Magazine, "range from two to sixty acres in size. They are provided with baseball and football fields and other opportunities for sports. Shaded benches surround the parks where mothers can watch their children at play. There are open-air swimming pools, which are converted into skating rinks in winter. In connection with the playgrounds are all-the-year-round club houses, planned for the entire family. They contain creches for the babies and kindergartens for children. There are reading-rooms, gymnasiums, bathing facilities for men and women and municipal restaurants, which supply good and simple food at cost."

Passing from Chicago to Cleveland, Ohio, we learn of that city: "Cleveland, too, throws open its parks to every sort of healthy purpose. It maintains forty baseball diamonds; it has twenty playgrounds and three all-the-year-round bath houses; it has bathing beaches, romping days in the summer and carnivals in the winter; it has choral societies, contests and games of all kinds in the parks; and the total expenditure for all these humanizing services, including the park department, is only about twenty-five cents per capita, or about the price of admission to the gallery of a theatre."

In St. John the city council has adopted the principle of municipal playgrounds, but no action has yet been taken in line with that policy.

Tomorrow, Victoria Day, the Times will not be issued.

The stage has been prepared, the advance notices have been of the most glowing character, and tomorrow the professional baseball drama will receive its first local presentation for the season of 1911.

Sanitary drinking fountains are to be installed in the schools of Toronto. They prevent the possibility of contagion through the agency of the drinking cup, which is entirely discarded.

The reciprocity agreement is having trouble in the United States senate, and the Democrats are beginning to wonder whether it will get through safely or not. This, however, is of no great importance to us, but it is of the utmost importance that the executive forces be enlarged and strengthened. The new-comers of course realize the moment they are settled that this is a country where the principles of individual liberty are highly valued, and where there is a universal respect for law. They are given every opportunity to establish homes for themselves, and to share in all the benefits of Canadian citizenship. But they have much to learn, and much, it may be, to unlearn. Hence those men of light and leading, whose voices are raised in warning and in counsel, seeking to impress upon the minds of the Canadian people the magnitude of the responsibility this influx of alien peoples lays upon them, are the seers and prophets of a dispensation of vast significance in Canadian and world history.

IN LIGHTER VEIN

The little city of New Westminster, B. C., has voted nearly five to one to follow the example of Vancouver by exempting all real estate improvements from taxation and raising its revenue by taxing land values only.

The minds of British subjects in all parts of the world turn to London at this time with an absorbing interest. The world has never witnessed a more significant assemblage of the representatives of a great free empire.

Parliament having adjourned for a time, the series of extraordinary triumphs for Mr. Borden, which the Conservative press have so faithfully chronicled, has also ceased—much to the relief of the readers of those journals of great imaginative power.

Tomorrow the people of the empire will recall the memory of Queen Victoria. It seems but a short time since she sat upon the throne at Westminster, yet her son has since reigned and gone to his rest, having earned the title of Edward the Peace-maker. Now her grandson reigns, and is beloved of his people. An exchange well says of him: "The King knows the Empire probably better than any living man. The over-sea Dominions feel a deeper personal interest in him as King than they have felt in any of his predecessors."

Mexico is to have a new president and try an experiment in reform. Those who for years have read the glowing reports sent to Canadian newspapers, concerning President Diaz and the admirable character of his administration, and the stability of the government, will perhaps suspect that promoters of Mexican investments had something to do with the rosy coloring of those reports. There is no guarantee that the new government will be of long duration. Apparently the country is not quite sure what it wants, and the new president may find his authority disputed ere long by some other ambitious gentleman with a panacea for Mexican ills, and a following of picturesque persons for whom fighting and looting have a peculiar charm.

Apropos of the great events in London the Victoria Colonist makes these inspiring observations: "Lately we have heard much of this by aliens. It has been fashionable with a certain set of English people to preach this Gospel of Decency, and a good many people in Greater Britain have come to think there may be something in it. We have heard of certain colonial statesmen and near statesmen, who speak as though the great Mother of Nations had become decrepit with age, and we have seen not a few evidences of a growing belief that it is we, who live beyond the seas, who make the Empire. Let us not forget that the United Kingdom is the greatest nation commercially in all the world, the greatest nation financially, the greatest nation industrially, the greatest in naval power, the greatest military nation when tried by the only true test—the ability to conduct military operations over-seas, the most progressive nation in every thing relating to the betterment of mankind."

WHEN BLOOD WAS IMPURE

The Old-fashioned Doctor Brought Relief By Bleeding.

To-day We Keep the Blood Pure By Using

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS

The doctor of a century or two ago was accustomed to free his patient of an excess of poisonous blood by the cruel process of bleeding.

We would stand for that heroic treatment today, because we understand the work of the liver and kidneys and how to awaken them to the duty of filtering poisons from the blood.

These are the organs of the body which filter poisons from the blood, and so cause pain, aches and dangerous diseases, and there is no way you can so bring the liver and kidneys into action as by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Don't imagine that quid medicine is necessary to purify the blood.

The supreme test is, does the treatment awaken the action of the liver and kidneys?

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are unique in their combined action on the liver, kidneys and bowels, and on this account wonderfully successful as a means of purifying the blood.

The whole digestive and excretory system is cleansed and invigorated by this treatment. The appetite is sharpened, digestion improves, and the tired, languid feelings of a poisoned system give way to new health and vigor. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edman-son, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

LIFE.

Life! I know not what thou art, But know that thou and I must part, And when, or how, or where we meet, I owe to me a secret yet.

Life! we've been long together, Through pleasant and through cloudy weather; 'Tis hard to part when friends are dear, Perhaps I'll call a sigh, a tear, —Then steal away, give little warning, Choose thine own time, Say not "good night," but in some bright clime Bid me "Good Morning."

—Anna Letitia Barbauld.

"TO READ THE FUTURE"

To read the future one must know the past.

For man is man, and God hath made him in his own image.

A little life time, yet the Earth's great span, And was it Caesar whom we spoke of last?

Conquering great worlds?—The fire of France, And Europe trembling in her terrible iranes.

Saw Alexander's tears and stood aghast.

We glean the harvests when we sow the seeds.

For Fate hath left no tale to us untold; Our lives are but a book of dead men's deeds.

—Edmund Spenser.

It is proposed to put emigrants in possession of as much knowledge as possible of local requirements, so that they will be less liable to be victimized by unscrupulous people who exploit the new "chum and tenderfoot" from the old world.

POURING OUT DOLLARS TO SEE CORONATION PROGRESSION PASS

One Estimate Says Americans Will Spend Million Pounds in London on the Great Occasion

London, May 23—The "splash" of dollars by Americans desirous of viewing the coronation procession bids fair to exceed all previous splashes.

"I never remember such a large amount of money changing hands upon such an occasion on the part of Americans and foreign folk anxious to get in comfort whilst the coronation procession passes," said the manager of one of the oldest-established London firms of house agents.

"Recently four wealthy Americans paid without a murmur close upon £1,000 in bank notes for a double flat in the West End with a grand view of the procession. For a not much smaller accommodation a well-known South Carolina gentleman paid £750, although he intimated at first that £700 was his limit.

"What shall I place the total coronation accommodation output on the part of the Americans at? Well, half a million pounds would hardly cover it, in my opinion."

On the other hand, the foreman of a large stand gave it as his opinion that although seats were being "grabbed up" as quickly as on previous occasions, they were not commanding the prices hitherto realized.

THE WINDOW-CLEANING MAN. Whenever the wind is from the east, And it's cold and chilly and raw; Whenever your humor is bad, at least, And you don't care beans for the law, Whenever it's just beginning to feel In the office like people could work— Along comes the window-cleaning man, And throws 'em up with a jerk, Throws 'em up with a jerk, Till the raw east wind cowers, And the man who sits with a kink in his neck Gets up on his ears and snorts.

When the weather is sweet and mild, And we all could stand some air; Whenever the sun shines sweet and bright,

While the spots on the windows glare; Whenever you wouldn't object a bit To have the ozone come on— You bet there isn't a window man This side of the shores of dawn.

"Till it's chilly and raw enough To make you feel like pitching him out. Just the same as a low-down tout. He must be in league, and I've no doubt he is."

With the fellow who calls for rain, For that is the time that he makes his bid, To come and double the pane.

Deep in the winter when blizzards blow, And you've got the steam just right, Along comes the window-cleaning man, Till you're mad enough to bite.

As you watch his infernal grin As round the room in a sulphurous glow You curse the creature of sin.

TO MAKE NIAGARA FALLS WORK FOR ONTARIO FARMER

Officials Tour Europe to Learn About Use of Electrical Power on the Farm

London, May 23—P. W. Sotman, of the Ontario Hydro-Electric Commission, and W. B. Roadhouse, secretary to the minister of agriculture, are on a tour of enquiry through Europe in an effort to find out the best method of using electricity on the farm. How far the Falls of Niagara can be made to yield assistance to the farmer in his work, Mr. Roadhouse said.

"I am accompanying P. W. Sotman, chief engineer of the Hydro-Electric Commission of the Ontario government, with the object of gathering information as to the possibilities of electricity as related to agriculture. The idea is to learn from the experiences of people of the old world the extent to which electricity may be utilized in the different branches of work on the farm.

"In this connection we are to visit Germany, Switzerland and other countries on the continent, where we understand electricity has been utilized very successfully both for power and lighting in the rural districts. In addition we are gathering information both in England and elsewhere as to the experiments which have been carried on in the application of electricity as a means for increasing the crop production, but of course this phase is still very much in the experimental stage."

Daily Hints For the Cook

CURRENT COOKIES. Beat one cup of butter to a cream, then beat in 1 1/2 cups sugar. Add two eggs well beaten, then one level teaspoon soda dissolved in half cup hot water. Now stir in three cups of flour and one quarter teaspoon nutmeg, and lastly one cup currants or raisins. Bake in moderate oven till a nice brown color.

PUFFY EYELET. Beat the yolks of four eggs thoroughly, season with salt and pepper and add three tablespoons of water; beat the whites of 2 eggs stiff and fold the yolks into them. Melt a tablespoon of butter in the griddle pan, turn in the eggs, spread evenly over the bottom of pan and let stand on top of stove in a moderately hot place for two minutes. Now set the pan in the oven, moderately hot, until the middle of the omelet is set. Out through the middle of the omelet at right angles with the handle of the pan, fold the omelet and turn it onto the platter in which it is to be served. Serve immediately.

GERMS—a serious subject.

Twenty-two kinds of bacteria in the mouth; enough in a decayed tooth to kill a mouse. Think of it! The mouth is the gateway of the body, and you send into your system at every swallow a lot of unhealthiness. STOP IT!

HOW TO FIGHT MOSQUITO PEST

Simple Preventives Which May Be Tried in the Season Which is Close at Hand

(Ottawa Citizen).

With the approach of the mosquito season the question of combating the pest is once again to the fore. The Citizen has secured some valuable information on this subject, the remedies and preventives here given being those recommended by the department of agriculture at Washington, D. C. Dr. Howard, of the American department, who has made a scientific study of the pest, declares that science and home remedies get close together in curing the irritation of mosquito bites.

Dr. Howard says, and nothing better in his own experience than plain soap. Wet the soap and rub it gently on the place bitten, he says, and the irritation will soon pass away.

As to keeping mosquitoes away from the sleeper, the methods are mentioned, but it is frankly admitted that none can be regarded as infallible. Sprites of camphor, rubbed on face and hands, and a few drops on the pillow, will keep off mosquitoes until the odor of the drug passes away.

"The same is true of oil of penny-royal, oil of peppermint, and oil of citronella, and all are recommended by the department. The recipe which Dr. Howard regards as most effective was given him by C. A. Nash. This is it:

Oil of citronella..... 1 ounce.
Spirits of camphor..... 1
Oil of cedar..... 1 1/2
A few drops of this mixture, on a lump of sugar over the head of the bed, it is said, will keep mosquitoes away without fail, though if they are very abundant or troublesome it should be rubbed on the hands and face before retiring. The trouble with this mixture is that the odor disappears before morning, and it is in the early hours after sunrise that mosquitoes are at their worst.

E. H. Kane, of New York, recommends to Dr. Howard this mixture, which Dr. Howard says will keep the pest away while its odor lasts:

Caster oil..... 1 ounce.
Alcohol..... 1
Oil of lavender..... 1
This mixture is said to have the advantage of being pleasing to the olfactory senses of the sufferer while objectionable to those of the pest. From Austin, Tex., Oscar Samozet sends in this recipe for insuring sleep in a mosquito-infested section:

Oil of citronella..... 1 ounce.
Liquid vasoline..... 1
It is asserted that the vasoline prevents the evaporation of the citronella oil. The stickiness, however, makes it very objectionable. It has been tried, Dr. Howard says, and he found it to be all that was claimed for it.

If a few mosquitoes find their way into screened rooms, Dr. Howard says Japanese orange peel in bedroooms, saying that the odor, which is not unpleasant to mortals, is abhorrent to the pest.

CHANGE IN WOMAN'S LIFE

Made Safe by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Grantville, Vt.—"I was passing through the Change of Life and suffered from P. O. B. nervousness and other annoying symptoms, and I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me during this trying period a complete restoration to health, not other suffering women I am writing to make my trouble public, so you may publish this letter, I am, CHAS. BARCLAY, R.F.D., Grantville, Vt.

No other medicine for woman's ills has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine we know of has such a record of cures, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For more than 30 years it has been curing woman's ills such as inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains and nervous prostration, and it is unequalled for carrying women safely through the period of change of life.

Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

EXTRAORDINARY CONDITIONS IN ELECTION COURT

Procession of Witnesses Who Admit to Telling Lies on the Stand and Proceedings are At Stand Still (London Sketch).

An extraordinary state of affairs arose during the hearing of the East Notting-ham election petition against Captain Morrison (U. L.). The business of the court came to a standstill through the absence of witnesses. The proceedings so far have shown that there has been some first-rate lying by witnesses concerned in the case. Yesterday witnesses who had made declarations to the effect that they had been paid for taking part in a torchlight procession, denied their statements. They were examined by the judge and severely cross-examined, but adhered to their present assertion that the story as to participation in the procession was pure invention.

A laborer named Clements, who had deposited taking part in a torchlight procession, and being paid for, in the presence of Mr. Milner, one of Captain Morrison's principal supporters, and also becoming a witness, now declared that there was no truth whatever in any of his statements. He said that another man put him up to telling the lie. He afterwards told the truth about the matter to Captain Morrison's solicitor.

Four other witnesses also disavowed their original statements as to the part they took in the procession. One of them, named Walter Moseley, said he had heard that other people were getting "mooey for nothing," and he thought that he might as well have some.

Mr. Foote, M. C., (for petitioners): It is not for nothing, but for telling lies, which may land you in prison. It is cheating people.

Before the court adjourned for luncheon two other witnesses denied the truth of statements they had previously made.

An extraordinary condition of affairs then arose. Mr. Dickens (for petitioners) complained that matters had become intolerable. Witnesses were being hustled, and could not be put into court. No one entered the witness-box in reply to calls, and the business of the court came to a standstill.

After a lapse of about twenty minutes the court directed Mr. Dickens to prepare a list of witnesses, so that the police might take in hand the work of getting them to court.

After a long delay, Peter Bramley a hawker, entered the witness-box and denied that he took part in the procession or that he was paid for his services and treated to beer, as he had previously stated. He made a false statement in order to obtain money from the Liberals.

Further witnesses entirely disavowed the truth of the allegations which they had previously made. One of them, a pork butcher, named Ashley, said: "It is all a pack of lies."

In answer to Mr. Dickens, he said that he was in drink at the time he made the original statement.

Another witness named Smith, who also disavowed his original statement, admitted inventing a story that a man who was in the Guards at the same time as Captain Morrison had received from the captain £20 to be distributed.

The proceedings were again delayed by the failure of witnesses to attend, and Mr. Justice Channell intimated that if the witnesses did not attend they would be liable to commitment for contempt of court upon proof being given of the service of the summons.

Circumstances Alter Men

(Boston Herald)

Change a man's circumstances and the betting odds are ten to one that there is a corresponding change in his opinion on various matters and things. There is a story of a Massachusetts man who cherished wild-eyed theories on sociological matters. To express it mildly, he was a Pronounced Radical and had all the makings of a first class agitator, which to the mind of many would signify that he was something of a Dangerous Citizen.

One day he learned in an accidental way that he was a lineal descendant of one of the original Mayflower immigrants, and the sudden knowledge caused an immediate and astonishing shift in his personal character. From that date he was a Conservative of the most stiff-necked description, wore a seal ring on his little left finger, read Nabbes Oligue as his motto and talked most of the time about family traditions and the sanctity of the Constitution.

Let a rich man become suddenly poor and the poor man suddenly rich, and there will be two new men, in all but exceptional cases. Change the point of view and there will be new views. It is safe to say that the Socialism of almost any Socialist can be obliterated by giving him a comfortable share of his world's goods and making him a director in several good institutions. This does not seem to account for the Socialists who are already wealthy, but undoubtedly their Socialist ideas would as promptly evaporate if they were to lose their wealth. They would then have to get so busy earning an honest living that they would have no time for theories.

"Gives Any Woman A New Skin"

Lillian Langley in The London Fashion, (Eng.)

"Within the last three months, I have answered over 1,000 letters, from women asking me and the name question:—'What shall I do for my complexion?' and, although I dislike to write for publication, my knowledge of toilet articles will put any woman's mind at rest as to what she should use.

"After 25 years of study in the treatment of the face, neck and arms, I find that a few women know how to really improve their appearance. The usual treatment of the beauty specialist is a dangerous thing, as it is too harsh. It seems to have done good, but Oh, my! shortly hair starts to grow, and such a lot of wrinkles, and the skin soon becomes rough and red and is all dried up.

"The following recipe will practically give you a new skin: Dissolve an ounce of purest of mayonaise in 8 ounces of water. Massage the face, arms and neck with this solution twice daily. This will remove a dirty skin, prevent the growth of hair and is absolutely harmless even to a baby's skin. Most of the facial blemishes will soon disappear, and also the stray hairs."

Suffered Greatly From Heart Trouble.

NERVES WERE VERY WEAK.

Mrs. John Farrell, Rose Hill, P.E.I. writes: "It is with the greatest pleasure I write you stating the benefit I have received by using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

"About five years ago I suffered greatly from heart trouble, and my nerves were very weak. After seeing several doctors and using their medicine, I got no relief until a friend told me of your Heart and Nerve Pills. I took two boxes and they effected a complete cure. I can recommend them highly to all nervous and run-down women.

"I have advised many others and they have all been benefited. The proper action of the nerves is important to the well-being of the general system, and in this is the secret of their success in curing so many cases of heart and nerve trouble.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c per box, or 3 for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

DAVID RUSSELL WINS IN ONTARIO CASE

(Montreal Herald.) The case which David Russell brought against J. N. Greenshield, K. C., several months ago, was won yesterday before three judges of the High Court in Ontario. The question of jurisdiction was involved in the struggle. Mr. Russell contending that the case should be tried in Ontario, while Mr. Greenshield wanted to have Montreal made the place of trial.

The judgment of the Master in Chambers at Toronto, which was in Mr. Greenshield's favor, was overruled by Sir John Boyd, and when the case went to appeal, the judgment given was in favor of the plaintiff. And in consequence of this, the trial will be instituted at Ottawa. More than a million of dollars, which Mr. Russell claims from Mr. Greenshield, are involved in the case.

The more you are promised the less you may expect.

THE SHAMROCK GROUNDS IN FINE SHAPE FOR OPENING

Lieut.-Governor to Start St. John's Baseball Season Tomorrow Morning—Improvements Made on the Diamond and for Spectators

When Lieut.-Governor Tweedie opens the baseball season on the Shamrock grounds tomorrow by putting the first ball over at the morning game between the St. John's and Marathons, the public will be given the surprise of their lives when they see the great improvements made at the old ball park. Since the formation of the Maine and New Brunswick professional leagues and the certainty of good ball the gentlemen behind the Marathon club have spared no expense in providing suitable grounds for the games played in this city and they have succeeded, quite beyond the belief of those who can remember what the Shamrock grounds have been for years.

Rolling and draining have been carried on with such good effect that after the few final touches with a light horse roller today the diamond will be in first class condition and quite able to stand the effect of a wet season, if such should be the order of things. Five hundred loads of cinders have been hauled on the grounds and spread rapidly, while all the rotten wood has been replaced by new lumber. Space is also provided at the entrance to the grounds for refreshment privileges. In the front are three double boxes for private use, which will seat about thirty and will be occupied on opening day by Lieut.-Governor Tweedie and his staff, as well as the mayor and members of the common council, who will attend as guests of the Marathon Club.

The whole structure will be painted a dull red. To the left of the grandstand an entrance, two rooms for players have been added and every convenience added. One of the features will be the addition of advertising signs which are erected on piling driven into the ground at regular intervals all around the grounds. Already space on twenty of these large signs have been contracted for and when the other signs are erected they will be ready to go into the sale to see his son, and of the treatment which the son told him he had received.

WARREN'S DEATH. The report into the death of William McArthur was resumed in the court house last night. William McArthur, father of the deceased and William Beckett, a guard of the chain gang gave evidence. McArthur told of his not being permitted to go into the jail to see his son, and of the treatment which the son told him he had received.

WARM GREETING FOR KIRK BROWN AT OPERA HOUSE

New Faces and Favorites of Other Years in Company Heartily Welcomed— Promise of Very Successful Engagement

That Kirk Brown and his company continue to favorites with the theatre-goers of St. John, there can be little doubt. Last evening they opened a two weeks engagement at the Opera House before a large audience, playing Hall Caine's masterpiece, "The Eternal City."

Kirk Brown in the part of Hon. David Ross, the revolutionary leader, gave one of his most brilliant performances, and in her scenes last evening compared favorably with the best of the Roma which St. John has seen.

Miss Creighton, the new leading lady, has a beautiful stage presence, and in her scenes last evening compared favorably with the best of the Roma which St. John has seen.

Miss DeWale, who succeeds Miss Margie Dow, also made a most favorable impression. Miss DeWale was warmly welcomed, as was Mr. Fry and others who have been here before.

Of the new men, Clyde Franklin, who succeeds Henry Crosby, was seen as the Baron Bonelli and played it excellently. Mr. Clayton as Sir Evelyn Wise and Mr. Sargeant as Don Camillo also did good work.

Tonight and tomorrow night Sewing the Wind will be the bill. The production, which is an English comedy drama, written by Sydney Grundy, is said to be an excellent attraction, and should prove one of the best plays in the company's repertoire.

GOOD LIST OF ATTRACTIONS FOR HOLIDAY

Excursions, Visits to Suburbs, Theatre, Baseball Games and Other Ways of Enjoying the day

Victoria Day, as a holiday, is one which is generally looked forward to with more eager anticipation of pleasure, than almost any other such in the calendar, as it is the first with the summer sun in it, and is really the holiday which "starts the ball-rolling" in the path of summer pleasures for the remaining few months of warm weather.

Tomorrow will give many citizens an opportunity to visit suburban homes, and breathe them for the season of summer residence, and the number of those who will spend the day along the I. C. R. and C. P. R. in response to the various suburban resorts has vastly increased this year, and new homes have been erected this spring in many of the charming spots.

A MATTER WHICH CALLS FOR ACTION

Question of City Dumps is Much to the Fore—Complaint to Health Board About the Latest Filling Place

The matter of providing dumping grounds about the city for the disposal of refuse is every day becoming more serious, and the health of the city is confronted with a difficult problem in making a place for the people to dispose waste matter, which is not supposed to include garbage. At a recent meeting of the city engineer said that there were only two dumps which were open for use, and citizens will readily see that in a city the size of St. John this is not nearly enough, when it is considered how rapidly garbage and refuse accumulate.
