WISCONSIN TOWNS TOTALLY DESTROYED BY FOREST FIRES

Four Thousand People are Homeless—Hundreds Had to Flee for Their Lives and Escaped With Difficulty—Other Settlements Are Threatened

RHINELANDER, Wis., Sept. 21.—The towns of Gagen and Woodboro were destroyed by forest fires yesterday, and as a result nearly four thousand persons are homeless. Men, women and children fought valiantly to save their homes, but without avail and at last were forced to flee for their lives. Women carrying children in their arms and men and boys with packs on their backs ran toward Rhinelander, many falling prostrate in the heat, only to be helped by the stronger refugees.

Nearly all of those barred out at Gagen reached Rhinelander last night are being cared for, but few of the Woodboro people are here and it is not known what has become of them. The fire is fresh and not a continuation of the first which did so much damage last week. When the blaze started the wind was from the west and it was feared Rhinelander, with its homes for 1,000 persons, was doomed also, but a change in the direction of the wind probably has saved the city. The town of Gagen and Woodboro are on the Soo railway. Reports from the refugees who came to the city say nothing is left of Gagen. Citizens have decided to ask the governor to order out the militia to assist in fighting the fires, which, because of the condition of the woods, threaten to destroy the forests. It is feared the wind may again shift and the mayor and chief of police believe the danger to Rhinelander is not yet over. Hundreds of men have gone out from this city to fight the fires.

THE EMPEROR REGRETS LIUT. SELFIDGE'S DEATH

Discusses the Wright Aeroplane Accident—Lovers Not Yet on the Right Track

BERLIN, Sept. 21.—When the news of the accident which occurred to the inventor Wright at the destruction of his aeroplane, and his majesty added that he could not help feeling that mishaps in aerial navigation would unfortunately continue for some time to come and that inventors were not even so far as to navigate the air regardless of sudden changes of the wind. His sympathy went out to inventors, who he said, perhaps obtained no fresh experience from their falls, but only discovered that success did not lie in a certain way and that the suitability of their plans must again be due to the test at the risk of their lives.

The emperor said that he could well understand the grief of the tireless inventor Wright at the destruction of his aeroplane, and his majesty added that he could not help feeling that mishaps in aerial navigation would unfortunately continue for some time to come and that inventors were not even so far as to navigate the air regardless of sudden changes of the wind. His sympathy went out to inventors, who he said, perhaps obtained no fresh experience from their falls, but only discovered that success did not lie in a certain way and that the suitability of their plans must again be due to the test at the risk of their lives.

Several Killed When Police Charged a Mob

VIENNA, Sept. 21.—Anti-German demonstrations, in which a large body of Slovaks have been taking part for several evenings, culminated last night at Lissabach, in an attack upon the police, who were making the mistake of firing upon the crowd with live ammunition, and other missiles. Finally the police fired a volley, killing two of the rioters and wounding four. They then charged the crowd with drawn sabres, and succeeded in putting them to flight. Later the rioters wrecked the German Consulate.

FOUGHT WITH POCKET KNIVES ONE MAN WAS KILLED

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Sept. 21.—In a fight with ordinary pocket knives, Charles Dandfield, of Pennsylvania, was killed this morning by Sam W. Ray, of Tennessee, as the culmination of a quarrel. The men were employed on the Hot Springs Western Railway and came to the city last night. Dandfield, unprovoked, fought at first with his fists, and then with knives. Ray was cut about the face and Dandfield was slashed on the right arm, a vein being severed which caused him to bleed to death. Ray escaped.

REDMOND IN BOSTON

BOSTON, Sept. 21.—Representatives of the state and city government united in welcoming to Boston today John E. Redmond, M. P., Joseph Devlin, M. P., and John Fitzgibbon, delegates from Ireland to the National Irish League, which opens in this city tomorrow. The former, welcome on the part of the commonwealth and municipality was extended at a dinner given by Mayor Hibbard to the Irish envoys, to which had been invited Governor Guild and other state and city officials.

CHARLOTTE CO. FIRES NOW UNDER CONTROL

Three Hundred Men Worked Hard All Night

Blaze Said to Have Been Caused by a Farmer Burning Brush—A Lot of Damage Has Been Done.

ST. STEPHEN, N. B., Sept. 21.—The forest fires in this vicinity, that on Saturday threatened great damage, are at the present time under control, moderate winds having prevailed for forty-eight hours. Saturday great clouds of smoke were passing directly over the town from a fire between the Basswood ridge road and Hanson settlement. Three hundred men fought it stubbornly all day Saturday, during the night and during Sunday. This fire approached to within a half mile or less of our beautiful cemetery, which was only saved from destruction by stupendous exertions. The blazes in a bush back of Wm. Dugan's farm house and is reported to have been the result of that man's determination to burn brush in spite of the protests of neighbors. It had burned over a section of land three miles long by one mile broad, and was burning and has reached, and owned by the estate of Hugh Thompson on which a smaller fire had been burning for some days.

Another stubborn fire is doing much damage on woodland down at Walweig and has been fought since Saturday by a large crew of men. It is believed to have been set by sparks from a New Brunswick Southern Railway engine. All the people from that section who were in town Saturday were summoned home to fight it. It was started over land owned by Albert Davis, Wesley Berry, the estate of B. Ripley, James Clarke and others, and has wrought great damage, though no houses have been burned. The tract covered by the flames is three miles long by a mile wide.

On the American side of the river, fires are burning back of Red Beach near Woodville.

At the present time there are clouds in the sky that give welcome promise of a rain which cannot come too soon.

REPORT THAT C. P. R. IS BUYING GREAT WESTERN

Stories of More Huge Swindles in Copenhagen.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—A special despatch to the Tribune from Minneapolis says that the Chicago Great Western Railway and the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, seem to be a certainty, according to official information from headquarters of the Great Western in St. Paul.

POLICE COURT

In the police court this morning four drunks were dealt with in the usual manner. Barth DaCosta, a Portuguese, who is employed in the Police Court, was charged with assaulting Mary Bashaik who conducts a boarding house on Lombard street. The complainant gave evidence that the prisoner owed seven dollars and she sat on his trunk to prevent him from taking it until he paid what was owing. To get her off the trunk he caught her by the waist and threw her violently into the kitchen.

All this the defendant denied with the exception that he owed seven dollars. He was allowed to go with Foreman Bradbury on the understanding that the board would be paid.

Francis Cavanaugh, a 16-year old boy, was charged with being drunk on King Square Saturday night. He said he had been to the exhibition and an unknown man gave him liquor. The police informed the court that the boy had been in company with colored men who were much older than him. The magistrate said he did not fully believe the boy's story, and remanded him to jail to give him a chance to tell who gave him the liquor.

Schooner Captain Was Drowned Down the Bay

MONCTON NEWS

MONCTON, N. B., Sept. 21.—Olof Larsson, charged with stealing a get of corn, was arraigned in the police court this afternoon, and the case adjourned till this afternoon. It was near 8 p. m. or two months ago, when a large quantity of various kinds of articles had been stored. The harness was identified as belonging to Mrs. John Alexander, of Irichtown.

Moncton Liberals will hold a rally tonight at which Hon. Mr. Osman, Hillabero, H. F. S. Paisley, Sackville, and others will speak.

FIVE MILLIONS OF DAMAGE DONE IN GREAT PARIS FIRE

CHelsea Dreads Another Big Fire

Box Factory Destroyed Along With Several Houses

Flames are Still Beyond Control and are Sweeping Towards Large Establishments—Help Asked From Boston

CHELSEA, Mass., Sept. 21.—The destruction by fire of the large box factory of Atwood and McManus on Vale street, at 8 a. m. today, and the extension of the flames to the lumber yard of Pope and Cottle on Carter St., in a district which was not reached by the general alarm in the city, and a call for help from both Boston and Everett. At ten o'clock ten wooden tenements occupied by the poorer class of people, were on fire, and the flames were sweeping unchecked towards Powder Horn Hill.

The Chelsea Bottling Works and Lee Brothers Shoe Factory also caught fire and it was believed would be destroyed. At 9.30 a. m. the large wooden building occupied by the Eastern Storage Company and situated near the Boston and Maine tracks was in flames and the fire had just reached the Standard Oil Company's station, where a large supply of gasoline and naphtha were stored.

CHelsea, Mass., Sept. 21.—Nearly an acre of wooden buildings on the north side of the Boston and Maine count of the volume of black smoke and the pungent fumes from the burning gutta percha. In a short time the flames enveloped the entire five stories and were bursting through the roof, leaping skyward like a blast furnace.

At 2 a. m. the fire was still burning, but the firemen were beginning to get into control.

Sunday was a record day in the history of the fire department, the men being out all morning and afternoon for a big fire in a department store in the Faubourg St. Denis. Damage to the extent of $800,000 was done here, but the loss is covered by insurance.

The firemen were greatly impeded in their work by the huge crowds which the few police in the locality were powerless to hold back. Missengers were dispatched for reserves and troops, who eventually were forced to charge upon the spectators before they cleared the scene of operations. It was not until two o'clock Monday morning that the fire was gotten under control. When the officials were able to make an investigation as to the extent of the damage it was found that 20,000 lines in Paris, comprising all the lines in use by the various ministries, the newspapers, banks and commercial houses and all the provincial and international trunk section of the plant had been completely destroyed.

After the fire had been practically extinguished, the salvagers worked up to daylight in an endeavor to prop up the buildings, which showed signs of collapsing owing to the warping of the iron frames.

The fire chiefs report that there was no loss of life and that no one was injured. Only the regular Sunday night shift of men, numbering 30, instead of 60 as on ordinary nights, was on duty.

MAINE FIRE FIGHTERS ARE STILL VIGILANT

Fires However are Well Under Control—Blaze at Scarborough Last Night

AUGUSTA, Me., Sept. 21.—Although practically all of the forest fires which have swept the timber lands throughout the state during the past three days, threatening homesteads and property on every side, were under control today, vigilance was maintained everywhere lest a change of the wind should bring the flames in a position to successfully challenge the fire fighters' efforts to check them. Throughout the night, under the influence of the heavy night air and the increasing dew and moisture, the fires apparently lessened and no serious outbreaks were reported. The only blaze which remained as a threatening menace to property when nightfall fell in last night was that at Scarborough, but this was reported today to have been checked by the firemen so that there was but little possibility of its getting beyond their control.

RELIGIOUS PROCESSION BROKE UP A STREET CAR

Chicago Motorman Tried to Run Through the Ranks and the Marchers Got Angry.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—A street car was demolished and its crew injured yesterday, when a religious parade of 12,000 persons, led by Bishop Paul Rhodes, became a maddened mob in Chicago Heights. It was with difficulty that the bishop, who was on his way to dedicate a new cemetery prevailed upon the marchers to restore order. The riot took place near the city hall of the suburb, when the motorman of the car attempted to pass through the line of the parade. The marchers became offended when the ranks were disturbed and in an instant the air was filled with flying stones and missiles. The windows of the car were smashed, the woodwork broken and the crew hurt. The passengers in the car fled in terror and several suffered slight wounds from broken glass and crowding.

Four boys, Raymond and Percy McLeod, with Walter and Edward McCann, of Erin street, have been reported to the police for stealing lumber from Alfred E. Hamilton, of Brunswick street.

At five o'clock Saturday afternoon a man named Richard Adams fell from a street car while it was in motion and was badly bruised and shaken up. He was taken to his home, where he received medical attendance.

The song service at the Seaman's Institute last evening was well attended. Rev. R. A. Armstrong, pastor of Trinity, delivered a very earnest address, which was listened to with marked attention. Mrs. H. S. Cruickshank sang in beautiful tones for the table. The manager reminded the citizens that the institute was in need of funds to complete the new building.

The death occurred in this city at an early hour this morning of Mrs. Mercy L. Richey, widow of the late James Richey. Deceased was was in the 83rd year of her age, had been ill about two weeks. She leaves four sons and two daughters. The sons are James and Samuel of this city, Robert, William and Lorenzo of Boston. The daughters are Mrs. Catherine of this city and Mrs. R. D. Scribner of Hampton.

A crowd of boys who were raising a disturbance near the corner of Germain and Harding streets last night were arrested by the police. Officer McClelland arrested a boy who appeared to be one of the gang, but was afterwards released, having proven that he was not connected with the crowd or had anything to do with the disturbance. The boys have caused much trouble and the police are determined to make an example of some of them.

Moses Cowan, one of St. John's most respected residents, passed away at his residence, 15 Cedar street, last evening. He was in his seventy-third year and is survived by a widow and three children. The latter are Mrs. E. A. Whipp, North Sydney; Mrs. Theodore Hayward, St. John's; and Mrs. Edith Golding at home. The late Mr. Cowan was a native of St. John, and has resided here all his life time. His occupation was a lumber surveyor. Several brothers and sisters survive him. Notice of the funeral will be given hereafter.

The Calvin Austin took away about 600 packages on Saturday evening on the direct trip to Boston. The rush is expected to continue for two more Saturdays. The season's travel on this line has been most gratifying. The Governor Cobb docked at the Prince Rupert wharf about 4 o'clock and landed her passengers. She went out to the island agents to allow the Rupert in and returned again as soon as the Austin had left.

"A Modern Crusade" was the subject upon which Commissioner Cowan lectured yesterday afternoon to a great audience in the Opera House. The lecture abounded in illustrations, but no more vivid illustration of the effectiveness of the methods pursued in the Salvationist crusade could be secured than the fact that last night at the meeting held by the commissioner in the Opera House officers had to be stationed at the doors to turn people away because all room was occupied.

At all the services in the Cathedral yesterday it was announced that on Sunday next a collection would be taken for His Holiness Pope Pius X., to be forwarded to him on the occasion of his golden jubilee. At the nine o'clock mass, Bishop Casey paid a most fitting tribute to the sovereign pontiff and urged his parishioners, children included, to give as generously as possible. His lordship referred to the great deeds accomplished by the Pope, and said that many seemed to think that his holiness had accumulated much wealth. This was not so, as the Pope sent several priests to foreign countries to work among the heathen.

The Borden Club will meet at 7:30 o'clock this evening in Milton Fry's office, Prince William street.

Rev. B. D. Webber, for the past six years pastor of the First Baptist Church of the Wollaston district, Quincy, yesterday read his resignation, to take effect October 25, in order that he may accept a call to the Baptist Church at Wolfville, N. S. Many students of Acadia College attend the Wolfeville church, and this pastorate offers an opportunity for work among young men which is especially attractive to Mr. Webber.

Archbishop McCarthy, Bishop Wollaston and the heads of the other religious denominations in Halifax, have issued a call for a meeting to be held on Tuesday to form an electoral party league, and urging the formation of similar leagues throughout Nova Scotia. They appeal to citizens to join this league and to sign declarations pledging themselves not to use any corrupt methods at elections, and suggesting that steps be taken by every legitimate means to convict those who may break the law in this respect.

Frank J. Gould, New York millionaire, who with a party of friends visited St. John recently in his yacht Helesta, returned to the harbor on Saturday. Today Mr. Gould intends leaving on a hunting trip in New Brunswick and will return to St. John to rejoin the Helesta. Yesterday afternoon D. C. Dawson, of the Western Union Telegraph Company; Thomas I. Reed, of the civil service, and Mr. Taylor, of New York, were guests of Mr. Gould on board his yacht. After being hospitably entertained they were taken for a trip round the harbor and to the falls. Later in the afternoon, on the invitation of Capt. James Thompson, of the steamer Governor Cobb, Mr. Gould and his party were aboard the steamer. Mr. Gould was particularly interested in the turbine machinery.

CITY'S HORSES A MAD RUSH

A team of horses attached to one of the city wagons, which took flight about five o'clock on Saturday and before it could be stopped three people were badly injured and several others had narrow escapes.

The team was going down Richmond street when suddenly a wheel loosened on the wagon and the pole broke. The horses bolted and in a moment the wagon was overturned, throwing the driver to the ground. The horses continued to run at a desperate speed. They turned up St. Patrick street and thence to Union, running along Union street, they turned the corner onto Charlotte street at full speed. A carriage containing John Jackson, wholesale fish merchant, and his wife, was directly in front of the runaway team and before they could escape the pole came in contact with the wheels and the carriage was overturned. Both occupants of the carriage were thrown out onto the street and Mrs. Jackson received such injuries that medical aid was summoned at once. It was found that her collar bones were broken and that she was injured internally. Mr. Jackson was badly injured on the face and an ear was almost torn from his head. One of his eyes was also badly injured.

The team continued its wild career and ran into J. A. Clark, brother of Chief Clark, knocking him down and inflicting a severe scalp wound. He was also shaken up very badly and lay for some time unconscious.

While attempting to turn down Horsfield street the team collided with a telephone pole, one horse going on each side and in this manner they were brought to an abrupt stop. They were then secured and taken to the stable. The driver of the water wagon was uninjured.

TEMPLEARS HOLD ANNUAL PARADE

The annual church parade of the Templars of Honor and Temperance of St. John, together with the subordinate temples and sections, took place yesterday afternoon. Headed by the St. Marys Band they proceeded from Alexandra Temple hall, North End, to Brunels street Baptist church, where a service was conducted for their benefit by Rev. A. B. Cobbe.

The route of the parade was from Main to Mill street, Union to Brunels, and returning by way of Brunels, Union, Sydney, south side of King square and Charlotte street to Victoria Temple. The temples represented were: Victoria, Alexandra and Grand, and the sections of boys connected with each.

At the church they occupied the centre seats and the service commenced at 4 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Cobbe's sermon was a most interesting address dealing with the work, the membership and the benefits derived from an association like the Temple of Honor and Temperance.

ST. JOHN'S BANNER INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION CLOSED ON SATURDAY

After one of the most successful weeks in the history of exhibitions in this province, St. John's big international fair closed at ten o'clock Saturday night. The total attendance of the above table was 69,784, or 128 less than in 1907 and 504 less than in 1906. This, however, is hardly a fair comparison, for in 1906, for instance, season books of 12 non-transferable tickets, allowing one to enter three times each day were sold for one dollar while this year a dollar only bought a six ticket book, which were transferable. It will be seen that in 1906 three tickets of this kind only meant as much to the exhibition, so far as money was concerned, as one ticket this year. Figured out according to the number of season books disposed of, the difference amounts to several thousand. Therefore in reality a record was established this year, so far as actual paid admissions were concerned.

PAR AHEAD OF 1906.

The following comparative statement of entries in the various departments shows that this year's show was far ahead of that in 1906:

Horse entries.....	1906, 1508
Cattle.....	106 159
Sheep.....	283 504
Swine.....	112 249
Poultry.....	575 1000
Butter and cheese.....	40 70
Agricultural products.....	252 590
Horticultural products.....	234 394

The largest exhibitors in the livestock were: Stonycroft Stock Farm, St. Anne de Bellevue, Quebec, cattle; J. L. Lanes and P. H. Lanes, Charlottetown, P. E. I., sheep; F. S. Bowell, Parvle, P. E. I., sheep; Roper Ross, Charlottetown, P. E. I., sheep; Logan Bros., Amherst, Black, Amherst, cattle; J. E. Baker, Barnfield, N. S., H. S. Pigea, Amherst, cattle; H. W. Conroy, Charlottetown, P. E. I., sheep; Capt. Nunn, Winslow Road, P. E. I., sheep; McIntyre Bros., Sussex, cattle; Walter McKeen, Amherst, P. E. I., sheep; Robert Robinson, Sussex, cattle; S. J. Goodfellow, Sussex, cattle; George A. Symes, Milledge, N. S., sheep; Guy C. Taylor, Amherst, P. E. I., sheep; Logan Bros., Amherst, N. S., cattle; R. A. Snowball, Chatham, Black, and Josephine and Young of Simonds, fish.

A particularly pleasing part of the show was the entire absence of rowdyism. The crowd was a most polite one and it is indeed commendable to the management that not a single accident of any consequence occurred throughout the whole week. On Saturday evening before a few visitors started to make things lively, the fray was stopped before any great damage was done and the men ejected. Few intentional persons were seen on the grounds at any time.

To Manager R. H. Arnold and his staff of capable assistants must be given all the credit for the success of the exhibition. Mr. Arnold has made many friends since he assumed charge of the work here, and he has proved himself a capable and indefatigable worker. Mr. Arnold had a valuable assistant in Manager S. M. Westmore. It is not necessary to say much about that busy man, Secretary John P. Gleeson. He seems to be everywhere at once and he is the right man in the right place. Mr. Gleeson had a busy day on Saturday making up the amounts of prize money and distributing the same.

The others in the office staff, including Miss King, Miss Burnham and James McKeen, were instrumental in making the fair so grand a success. Miss King has been with the association since preparations started some months ago, and her willing services have been valuable to the management.

Speeches from the management lauding the press and replies from some of the gentlemen of the press, as well as most interesting remarks from several of the judges, tended to make the dinner given by the exhibition association to the newspaper men of this city on Saturday night a most pleasant and successful affair.

The dinner began shortly after nine o'clock, with the president of the exhibition association in the chair. One of the large tables was occupied by the gentlemen. The dinner was one of the best ever served on an occasion of this kind.

Mr. Justice had been done to the good things, Chairman A. O. Skinner called upon representatives of the Telegraph, Times, Globe and New Free-man, who responded in brief but fitting speeches. All the city papers, including The Sun and Star, were represented at the dinner.

Dr. Standish, the horse judge, and John Garhouse, judge of sheep, also spoke. The former gentlemen referred to the horse show as being a most creditable one. He stated that he had the honor of being present at previous fairs and hoped he would have the pleasure of attending in future years.

Mr. Garhouse said that this was the first time he had the privilege of visiting St. John, and had come from Ontario, where he acted as judge for the Toronto show. He could therefore make comparisons in his line quite easily. The former gentlemen referred to the horse show as being a most creditable one. He stated that he had the honor of being present at previous fairs and hoped he would have the pleasure of attending in future years.

TOO MUCH CIRCUS IN NEW YORK SOCIETY DECLARES MRS. ASTOR

Noted Leader of Fashionable Life Declares Notoriety Seekers Have Hurt Its Good Name—Compares Conditions With Those in Europe.

"I hope my influence will be felt in one thing, and that is in discountenancing the undignified methods employed by some New York women to attract a following. They have given entrance to the most vulgar and degraded tent rather than in a gentlemanly house."

When our girls marry. They take up the management of establishments in town and country, they rear large families of children and personally supervise their education at home during the critical early years.

"Yes, I have heard that our young women smoke and drink, and go to other terrible things. I know very well, and I have known them since they were born and I am quite sure there is not one in my circle who is a cigarette fiend or who drinks to excess."

"They are few but active. Their sole object is notoriety, a thing that no lady ever seeks, but rather, shrinks from. Women of this stamp are few in New York, but, alas! they are so apallingly active! They have done untold harm to the good name of American society in the minds of foreigners."

"When a distinguished man arrives from the other side, he is seized upon relentlessly although possibly a total stranger to his hostess, and plunged into a mad whirl of extraordinary events. He enters upon them with much the same spirit that we would have as spectators of an Indian war dance. And thus he forms his opinion of all of us. I have never entertained a foreigner in all my life unless he came to me with a letter of introduction."

"The best women in New York society, those of the greatest influence, are almost unknown outside of their own circle. Society newspaper notices are interesting to them as it is to me, as a study, a very amusing one, but sometimes as one gains more information about certain women supposed to belong to us, but whom we never meet and do not know even by sight."

HER IDEA OF SOCIETY. Mrs. Astor's ideal of society, she said, was the old French salons in the heyday of its power and prestige. Then the political meetings, ever held in this town, took place on Saturday afternoon under the auspices of the Liberal party.

"The political hostesses of London have a much better chance of realizing such an ideal today than we women have in New York. Over there you find at the big balls and musicales a brilliant array of cabinet ministers, journalists, ambassadors, men and women of the stage, painters and poets, and the powers of the money world such as no leader in New York could bring together or would attempt to bring together. I have thought of doing it all my life, but I have never seen the possibility of success."

"In the first place we have too many girls in America who are in England they have statestman. Many of our senators and congressmen seem to base their title to public favor upon their uncouth manners and lack of refinement, upon the fact that they have landed social or other money bags. If they were all like Mr. Roosevelt, what a difference there would be!"

PRaise OF ROOSEVELT. "Mr. Roosevelt is a true American, but he should be at home in the most elegant court in Europe. He is not above paying scrupulous attention to his wardrobe and his manners. Any hostess in New York or Newport would be proud to entertain him; and the men in Washington like him."

"Many people seem to think I could have done a great deal in making New York society as democratic as it is in London and open to any one of intellectual attainments, as it is over there. But one can do only one's best under the conditions. English people all recognize a certain authority in social matters. The king in the leader of society, and hostesses who gather about them such brilliant men and women can be as independent as they wish to be without assuming the responsibility of an onslaught upon their own domains. The king's authority is never questioned and the authority of the great old families is never questioned."

MORE EXCLUSIVE HERE, AND WHY. "We have to be more exclusive in New York because in America there is no authority in society, and Americans in general are not inclined to admit its possibility. Each woman is for herself and trying to outdo the others in lavish display and mad extravagance, with little thought of any ultimate good or any ill."

"I can speak with authority about our young people. I have always kept my eyes on the young people. They are a new age and often have ideas different from my own, old conservative ideas. It is perhaps true that they are frequently to be seen in amusement, but they are not degenerate and they are not vicious."

"Our young women are easily trained in domestic matters, and taught to appreciate their responsibility towards their poor. There are no such barriers between the very rich and the very poor, as some newspapers would have you believe. All of my friends and daughters are brought up to look up to their parents as an important part of their lives."

WHEN OUR GIRLS MARRY. "When our girls marry, they take up the management of establishments in town and country, they rear large families of children and personally supervise their education at home during the critical early years. They are in love with their husbands and devoted to their interests."

"I have heard that our young women smoke and drink, and go to other terrible things. I know very well, and I have known them since they were born and I am quite sure there is not one in my circle who is a cigarette fiend or who drinks to excess."

"Although I have been in Europe a great deal I have always returned to my country with renewed interest in it. I believe in a republic, and I believe in a republic in which money has a good deal to say, as in ours. Money represents, with us, energy and character. It is acquired by honest means, and it is kept intact only by the same means."

"It were well if Europe were imbued more with the American class of money power—I do not say dollars—that is another thing. But American ideas about developing the national resources of the country and their common sense notions about work would be lost if things in Europe, Best of all, there is the American idea, demonstrated about us every day, that each man can bring happiness to himself and to those he loves if he will only set about it and that education, books, pictures travel are all within his reach."

RECALLS MALLASTER'S PROBLEMS. Mrs. Astor's criticisms are even more interesting in the light of a prophecy made 15 years ago by Ward McAllister, a man of good name, who, her priest friend, Mr. McAllister wrote: "The latest thing in social entertainment is a dinner, followed by a variety performance. This is a matter of vast importance. It is, I say, one of the most significant indications of the tendency of American society. It shows how steadily our society is advancing in the extravagance of its expenditures. The simplicity and modesty of American society used to be its distinguishing features and very agreeable to those who were invited. The simplicity and modesty of our society used to be its distinguishing features and very agreeable to those who were invited."

SHOT WHILE RESISTING ARREST FOR ASSAULT

Attacked the Constable With a Dirk and Was Shot by Latter's Assistant to Prevent His Escape.

PLYMOUTH, Mass., Sept. 20.—In resisting arrest on a charge of assault today, John Monte, a Cape Verde Islander, who has been employed as a cranberry picker, was shot and killed by Constable James B. Vaughan, in attempting to arrest Monte at South Street, St. John, N. B.

FREDERICKTON MAN DEAD IN NEW YORK

FREDERICKTON, N. B., Sept. 21.—A man who had been in New York for some time, died of heart failure, late tonight, Lewis W. Sherman, of New York, who was 57 years old and was engaged in the lumber shipping business for many years. Recently he has been in New York, and he is a brother-in-law of the late Joseph Myhrvall, of this city, three sons, Frank J. Sherman, assistant general manager of the Royal Bank, now at Havana, Ralph, an American divinity student at Bishop College, Lennoxville, Lawrence, at home, and three daughters, Myrra, of the Frederickton school staff, Mrs. Eusebia of British Columbia, and Stella, at home. Lawrence Sherman has left for New York to attend the funeral. Interment will be made there.

Rev. R. P. McKay, of Ontario, secretary of the Presbyterian mission board, western division, occupied the pulpit of St. Paul's church yesterday, preaching on Missions and warmly advocating the laymen's mission movement.

By this time the Hons and Cleps down in Africa are probably occupied in preparing an address of welcome for the United States fleet, New Brunswick News.

HOW SIN FOLLOWS IGNORANCE. (Buffalo Courier.) The dissatisfied voter had dropped out of his regular party and tried something else at the previous election. When he appeared to register for the present Democratic primary there was some hitch in the proceedings. "Didn't you vote the prohibition ticket last time?" inquired the clerk. "Yes," responded the voter, unabashed. "How do you explain that?" "Well, you see," he explained, with frankness, "I was drunk at the time and didn't know what I was doing." The clerk accepted the explanation as quite satisfactory and took him back into the fold again.

THE OUTLAW. I drank of the sunlight on the spruce, And the sunlight on the brook; I stretched at night on the gray, hard rock, And so it was the sleep I took.

I woke with the morning on my face, And my heart was free from care; And my hands were free and my feet— as free.

As the red hawk wheeling down In the valley, And I thought of the little flowers That look so fair and small so sweet In the wake of the summer showers— Humphreys Park, in the September Anklest.

MODERN INSANITY.

We call ourselves civilized and educated; we think we are possessed of reasonable intelligence, and yet fifteen year old babies are permitted by us to roam about the country armed with double-barreled shot guns, aiming and firing at whatever comes in sight, and overheard with sympathy when they blow the heads of other children who chance to be standing near. There should be a law that no one may even touch firearms until he is thirty years of age, and not even then unless one is known to be mentally balanced and stands sponsor. The possession of a gun is conducive to insanity. Many men and boys perfectly sane under ordinary conditions, become dangerous lunatics whenever they get their hands on a revolver or rifle. They themselves do not appreciate the change which occurs in their brains, nor indeed do their friends realize the difference until idiotic carelessness has found its victim. A few days ago at Beaver Dam a young man shot his brother in mistake for a moose. He was affected with that insanity which the possession of a rifle creates. At Wood Point on Saturday a little boy killed a companion. He aimed at a crow and shot his friend. This child was not responsible for the fatality. He was mentally unbalanced by the power of life and death in his hands. The true criminal is the one who permitted that child to carry a gun into the fields.

HIS FINISH IN SIGHT.

From all indications Mr. George E. Foster is fighting his last fight in federal politics, as usual he is running again in North Toronto. He was successful there in 1904 by a majority of 112. But since 1904 several things have happened. Mr. Foster has, as he really is, become somewhat better known to the people of Toronto, as well as to those of the rest of Canada. His Union Trustness has not won for him many new friends, though it may have welded more firmly the bonds with which he is joined to Messrs. Fowler and Dear Lefurgy. He has been exposed as a sharp politician, one who uses his position not for the benefit of his constituents or the country, but for his own personal gain. In parliament and out of it he has endeavored to wrest from Mr. R. L. Borden the leadership of the Conservative party. In this he has made some slight progress, chiefly because of his nerve and his inexhaustible wind power, but even the slight advance which has been noticeable will tell against him. The people of North Toronto, even those who believe that Mr. Foster may be of some value as a member of the opposition, have no desire to see him in the leading position, and his ambition promises to work against him in the coming contest. Again, Mr. Foster is now opposed by Mr. George Shaw, a gentleman who is said to be a much stronger candidate in this particular constituency than was Mr. Urquhart. The Conservative majority of 112 is a small one in a constituency in which 8,732 votes were cast. In the last election Mr. Foster's record since that time has lost him many friends. It is evident that the end of the talkative one is in sight.

NEW TERRITORY OPENED.

Today a new territory is added to Canada. The Grand Trunk Pacific railroad this morning started its first regular trains between Winnipeg and Watwright, Saskatchewan. The distance is six hundred and sixty miles; the line runs through what is recognized as the very best wheat growing area in the Dominion, and the section which is now given facility of transportation promises to become even more valuable and more important than that reached by the main lines of the C. P. R. On this new railroad there are ninety-three stations between Portage la Prairie and Watwright, out as yet few of those stopping places are marked villages although the surrounding country is well settled. There are included two or three villages such as Watwright, Watrous, McVilvie and one of them, Watrous, appears in a newspaper which has already appeared four times. The remainder of the ninety-three are, however, little more than stations, with one or two divisional points assuming slightly greater importance. But what a change there will be in a few years. These stations, the majority of them, will, before the railroad has become familiar, have grown into bustling towns or villages, the boundless golden wealth of the vast territory, larger than all New Brunswick which is now thrown open, will pour in to the sleeping centres. A great impulse will be given to the work of development and Canada by next autumn will feel the influence of this added territory on her increasing exports to foreign markets. The opening of the new railroad is an important incident in the history of the Dominion.

STRONG MAN FOR YORK; PUGSLEY ANS WERSHAZEN

FREDERICTON, N. B., Sept. 20.—Nelson W. Brown, B. A., late inspector of schools, was yesterday nominated unanimously by the Liberals as their candidate for parliament, and accepted in a speech of great spirit and was most enthusiastically received. When the Liberal convention was called to order by Chairman J. D. Phinney, K. C., over 300 delegates, representing the Liberal party in the county were present, ready to choose the best man available for the honor. W. S. Hooper was elected secretary and in opening the meeting Mr. Phinney stated its object. Tories had suggested that Mr. Crockett might be given election by acclamation, but the time has not come for that in the Liberal party of York. (Applause.) We are here to nominate a candidate to carry our standard to victory on Oct. 28. (Applause.) And after certain resolutions had been moved the meeting would be open to receive nominations.

THE NOMINATIONS. The chairman announced that the convention was now open to receive nominations, and on motion of Geo. Brewer, seconded by Alex. Little, it was resolved that nominations be made in open convention. Hon. E. H. Allen in an eloquent address nominated Alexander Gibson, ex-M. P., whom he warmly eulogized. The party owed the nomination to Mr. Gibson, who had put up splendid fights in the past and who had proved himself an excellent representative in the legislature and in parliament. Mr. W. S. Hooper seconded Mr. Gibson's nomination and agreed with all the kind things Mr. Allen had said of the ex-M. P. There was no disposition to turn Mr. Gibson down. He had been waited on and asked to permit his name to be brought before the convention, but had not consented to that course. The executive, however, felt that he should have the first offer and it had been made to Mr. Gibson. The chairman then invited Mr. Gibson to come to the platform, and as that gentleman made his appearance he was very heartily received. Mr. Gibson said he was proud of the kindly reception extended to him by the convention, and prouder still of his nomination and the kind words that Mr. Allen and Mr. McLellan had spoken of him. For business reasons, however, he was forced to decline the nomination. While at Ottawa as York's representative he had done what he could for his constituency and got what he asked for. He would heartily support the choice of the convention, and if we stood shoulder to shoulder we could redeem York on Oct. 28. (Applause.)

UNANIMOUSLY CHOSEN. In concluding Mr. Gibson nominated Nelson W. Brown as the Liberal candidate for parliament, a gentleman well qualified for the position. (Applause.) Hon. W. T. Whitehead heartily seconded Mr. Brown's nomination and eulogized that gentleman as a man eminently equipped by education ability and energy to represent this constituency and to represent it worthily in parliament. (Applause.) The nominations then closed on motion of Geo. F. Burden, and the election of Mr. Brown was unanimous with the greatest enthusiasm unanimously elected Mr. Brown.

CANDIDATE SPEAKS.

Candidate Brown, who was received with great applause, said he was proud of the nomination unanimously tendered to him and he was proud of the fact it had been made by a gentleman who had formerly represented by the county the Liberal interest. He was also proud that he was seconded by Mr. Whitehead, whose withdrawal as a stand-bearer from the party was regretted from one end of the county to the other. Proud he would be to fight under the banner of the Liberal party, and he would have been proud to have fought under the banner of any other man the convention might have chosen. He thought he was done with politics two years ago, when he received the appointment of school inspector for several of the river counties. He had been present at Ottawa when the great Liberal platform was prepared which carried the party to victory in 1898 and crushed the hopes of the Tories. He had given up politics years ago and he challenged any man, woman or child to say that since that time he had moved on political matters one way or the other. When his dismissal was announced and he bade his friends good-bye on the inspectorate both Liberals and Conservatives had expressed regret that he was to be no longer with them. He did not propose to take up their time now by discussing political matters, but they would hear from him on nomination day. (Applause.) He would fight the battle for all he was worth, and with the help of Messrs. Allen and Gibson, he was confident that victory would perch on his banner. He did not fear his opponents any way, shape or form, and he waited for an opportunity to meet them on the public platform.

ROBBED HER MISTRESS WHILE SHE WATCHED
Servant Girl Carried off $5,000 Worth of Jewelry—Painful Surprise for Mistress When She Did Not Return.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19.—Under the very eyes of her mistress, who suspected nothing, a clever servant girl thief walked out of the house of John E. Marsden, in West Philadelphia, yesterday, with an apron full of jewelry valued at $5,000.
The girl came to Mrs. Marsden on Thursday and applied for a position on a domestic. She gave her name as Mary Kelly. Mrs. Marsden engaged her and she began work immediately. As Mrs. Marsden stood on the porch yesterday seeing her son off to school, she dressed in street attire, passed out of the house. Mrs. Marsden saw the apron tied in a bundle under her arm and asked her where she was going. She said she was going to post a letter. As time passed and the girl did not appear, Mrs. Marsden went upstairs and examined the safe, finding that all the jewelry was gone. There is no clue to the whereabouts of the girl.

THE FOREST FIRE SITUATION.

TILTON, N. H., Sept. 20.—The village of East Tilton was threatened with destruction today by a bush fire which ran dangerously near to several buildings. Energetic work by citizens stopped the progress of the blaze, and tonight it was thought to be under control. No buildings were burned.
ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 20.—Although New York state has one of the best equipped fire-fighting organizations in the country, forest fires are being reported daily from the Adirondack and Catskill regions and unless there is a heavy rainfall soon, the damage now approximate that of the destructive fires of 1903, when over 40,000 acres were burned over, containing a loss of $80,000 in timber, logs and pulpwood.

GLYDE LINER PASSED ABANDONED SCHOONER
GRAND TURK, Turk's Island, Sept. 20.—The Glyde liner steamer Seminole from New York, September 15, which arrived today, on Saturday evening rescued the crew of the abandoned schooner John A. Matheson, from Baltimore, August 25, 174 miles north of Turk's Island. The Matheson had a severe experience in the hurricane which has prevailed in these waters. She was damaged and, becoming water-logged, was abandoned by the crew on the 15th. The boats kept well together, although the sea was running high, and the Seminole was able to pick up all hands.
Early yesterday morning the Seminole passed a bark on fire in lat. 28° 30' N., long. 71° 30' W. The vessel apparently was Norwegian, although the name could not be made out. There was no sign of life aboard.

BIG PASSENGER STEAMER ALMOST ASHORE
ST. JOHN, N.B., Sept. 19.—The light-keeper at the Cape St. Francis light-house reports that a big two-funnelled trans-Atlantic steamer, apparently painted grey and crowded with passengers, almost ran ashore at that point today during a dense fog. The steamer was almost on the rocks when the fog lifted and the captain was able to realize his danger. She steamed south, and was presumably bound for a Canadian or American port.

HAD TO BUY LIQUOR FOR HIS SAILORS

CAMPBELLTON, N. B., Sept. 20.—An incident occurred on board the ship Annesley of Liverpool, on her arrival here from Australia Saturday evening. The crew refused to obey the officers unless they were furnished with rum, and they threatened them with violence unless their demands were complied with.

AYLESWORTH BACK GREATLY IMPROVED

OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 20.—Hon. A. B. Aylesworth returned to Ottawa this morning after a six weeks' absence in Europe, where he went for treatment of his neural malady. At Vienna, Mr. Aylesworth consulted one of the best specialists on the continent, and after ten days' treatment from him his hearing has already very much improved. To complete the cure will take some time, and the Minister of Justice was strongly urged to remain in Vienna and continue the treatment longer, with the probable result that his hearing would have been almost completely restored. He was, however, anxious to return to assist the government in the election campaign, and personal considerations were sunk in his loyalty to his party. He will be able to continue the treatment here, and has every reason to believe that the steady improvement which has been taking place for the past two or three weeks will be continued until the malady is permanently eradicated.

ANNAPOLIS VESSEL ASHORE SATURDAY

CHATHAM, Mass., Sept. 19.—The three-masted British schooner A. D. Hill, Annapolis, N. S., to Vineyard Haven for orders, went ashore on Bear's Shoals during rough seas, and before sunset, and after pounding heavily for a while she floated free through the jettisoning of one third of her deckload of laths. Crews from the Monomoy and Monomoy Point life saving stations started out to give assistance. The Monomoy crew reached there first, and before the Monomoy Point men arrived the schooner had floated and it is thought proceeded to Vineyard Haven with the Monomoy life savers on board. The vessel had pounded so heavily that it is thought she must have sprung a leak.

NELSON HOUSE DESTROYED

NEWCASTLE, Sept. 20.—Miss Margaret O'Brien's house, known as the Daley property, opposite the post office, Nelson, caught fire yesterday afternoon from a gas leak from a stove. The house was completely destroyed. Its contents were saved. It was occupied by Joseph Richardson, Miss Eliza Arsenau, Miss Mary Burke, who also kept a bakery, and Michael Dunna's grocery. Upstairs was an A. G. Hall. The loss is over one thousand.

CHILD BURNED TO DEATH

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 20.—Lena Connor, aged six years, while playing with matches in the yard of her home on Gratton street, this afternoon, was so badly burned that she died in the hospital five hours later. The child was terrified by injured from head to foot.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 20.—The city of Rhineland, Wis., is threatened by forest fires, and Milwaukee today was called on to aid in saving the city.

FULL CHARGE OF SHOT STRIKES YOUNG EDW. COOK IN THE FACE

SACKVILLE, Sept. 20.—Wood Point, five miles from here, was the scene of an awful tragedy Saturday afternoon when thirteen-year-old Edward Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Cook, was accidentally killed by a charge from a double-barreled shot gun in the hands of Edward Wood, aged fifteen. Young Cook was killed instantly, the charge tearing a gaping hole under the right eye. The accident took place near Allen's Creek, at almost half past five, when the two boys were bringing their parents' cows from the pasture. The two boys had set out together, secured their cows, and when almost equidistant of a mile from home they noticed a crow flying over their heads. Wood turned toward Cook to take a shot at the bird, and as he did so the gun was discharged. The full charge of shot struck Cook in the face, and he fell to the road. Assistance was soon at hand, but Cook was beyond all human aid. Corner J. M. Baird of Middle Sackville was notified and viewed the body. He decided that no inquest is necessary, as the tragedy was clearly accidental. Young Cook is survived by his parents, four brothers and three sisters. One of the sisters, Mrs. Baxter Brownell of Sackville, and one brother is John Cook of Joliffe. Young Wood has been named, prostrated by the heart-rending affair.

FINED FOR SELLING TEMPERANCE DRINK

MONCTON, N. B., Sept. 20.—A number of convictions for Scott Act violation were secured in the police court Saturday. A. J. H. Hodges, ex-Police man Fred Jones and Ben. Legere were each fined fifty dollars. In the Hodges case the conviction was made on sale of Nova Scotia stout. The stout beverage is put up in Nova Scotia for a temperance drink and which it is claimed is non-intoxicating. Analyst Paddock, St. John, who tested the beverage, gave evidence to the effect that it contained less than two per cent alcohol. Mayor Purdy, a member of the police commission, and Ald. Martin were called Saturday by the defense and gave their opinion that Nova ale and Nova stout samples of which had been submitted to them were non-intoxicating. Notwithstanding this evidence the magistrate entered a conviction. The case is to be appealed and the question fought out in the higher court. Eugene McSweeney of the Moncton Furniture Co., is to be married Wednesday morning next to Miss Eva McGinnis, daughter of John McGinnis of this city.

MACKENZIE KING'S SPLENDID RECORD

OTTAWA, Sept. 20.—A cable despatch from London published on Saturday stating that Lord Strathcona is anxious to resign the high commissioner-ship is discredited in government circles here. No communication to that effect has been received by the government. W. L. MacKenzie King, Deputy Minister of Labor, left last night for Toronto, where he will receive tomorrow an invitation from the Liberals of North Waterloo, his native county, to be their candidate in the coming election. Mr. King will, of course, say nothing as yet as to whether or not he will accept the nomination, but it is believed that he will yield to repeated requests from North Waterloo and seek in the commons a still larger opportunity for advancing the industrial welfare of Canada than has been open to him as a member of the civil service and as deputy head of his department. His splendid and uniformly successful record at Ottawa in various special missions which he has undertaken for the government during the past eight years leaves little room for doubt that the electors of North Waterloo will elect him in preference to his probably opponent Mr. Seagram.

DISORDER REIGNED AS BORDEN SPOKE

MONTRÉAL, Sept. 20.—The feature of the Borden meeting here on Saturday evening was an organized attempt made by some of the C. P. R. strikers to compel the opposition leader to take recognition of the strike. The meeting was a large one, the capacity of the Monument National being tested. P. D. Monk, M. P. for Jacques Cartier, was the first speaker and talked so long that the audience grew tired of him. So soon as Mr. Borden rose a group of men in the gallery began booing and uttering other hostile cries. Mr. Borden was plainly rattled and vainly endeavored, seconded by the chairman, to obtain a hearing. In this he was not successful, and finally walking over to the reporters' table, announced that if the audience would not hear him he could at least talk to the reporters. At this there was another uproar, which lasted until Inspector Leggett, at the head of thirty policemen, went into the gallery where the disturbance was located and quietly restored order. After this Mr. Borden was not interrupted, but his speech was lacking in fire and was a disappointment to many present.

BISHOP CARMICHAEL LIES AT DEATH'S DOOR

MONTRÉAL, Sept. 20.—Bishop Carmichael, of the Church of England diocese of Montreal, is lying at the point of death. His lordship, who only returned from London a week ago, where he had been in attendance on the Pan-Atlantic conference, preached this morning in the cathedral on the subject of the conference. In the vestry after the service he was stricken with an attack of heart failure and removed to his residence adjoining and medical assistance summoned. Attendance by physicians said there was no hope of his recovery.

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 20.—Capt. Richards of the Lunenburg schooner Cyril, which arrived here today, reports a suicide at sea. While fishing from a dory on the banks, Ronald Walford, aged 31, unmarried, of La Have set an anchor and leaped overboard. He had been despondent, and never came to the surface.

THE FESTIVITIES AT A FRENCH CHRISTENING

A Party of tourists, when making a trip in an automobile through the environs of Paris a few days ago, suddenly came upon an unexpected scene. It was the christening of a baby at the little village of Les Molieres, near Sevres. As the visitors seemed highly interested in the proceedings, they were invited to take part in the ceremony, which was held in a hall of the village of the kind to be met with at home. The following description of the functions, presided over by the women of the party, gives a good notion of how such matters are arranged in France. The guests were arranged in Les Molieres. His next little house has floors of polished elm. His garden is the biggest and brightest in the district, not excepting that of the cure. Pere Sineot had mounted a table in the village cafe that his wife was going to bring up his son's baby. Young Sineot, the baby's father, kept a sausage shop in Sevres, which he was about to sell a fortnight hence, and owing to this the christening was held on the following Thursday, a day which, with young folk in France, is a half holiday.

Then, the procession formed again, there began the round of visits to relatives which is obligatory in every properly conducted christening. The baby was presented in turn to aunts, uncles and cousins; the same admiring comments on the infant's appearance collected from each cottage in turn. It was nearly five o'clock when the party reached the Sineot dwelling. Shortly after the guests for the banquet assembled. Mere Sineot changed her gown and fled into her kitchen, and Pere Sineot descended to the cellar and brought up an armful of bottles of red and white wine. Then the fifteen took their seats. "What a feast it was! The sponsors were installed by side in the middle of the table, and, upon in hand, awaited with impatience the arrival of the first course. This was the soup, made with five pounds of beef, two large tows, cabbage, onions and carrots. Then came fine entrees provided by the baby's father, the Sevres pork butcher, in the shape of the choicest foie gras, and a piece of lamb that was a chef d'oeuvre. Then the fowls from the doup were brought on, served with a delicious white sauce, and when they were removed, a large piece of roast veal arrived garnished with green peas. Pere Sineot then descended again to his cellar and opened successively eleven bottles of Burgundy—all of which were emptied.

GODFATHER'S GIFTS.

In the week that preceded the ceremony the busiest persons in the village were Mere Sineot, the baby's grandmother and her neighbor, the mother of the godfather. As a French christening, the leading role is that of the godfather, but when, as in the present case, the part is to be played by a youngster of only eight years, the responsibility falls upon his parents. Both the sponsors of the Sineot baby were of the same tender age, and required a great deal of drilling. Pere's own father—Pierre is the name of the godfather—being in rather straightened circumstances, the customary distribution of bright new toys for persons to the village children had to be cut down to narrow limits, but, on the other hand, "dragées" or sugar plums, being fairly cheap, these were purchased on a lavish scale. Forty pounds of the large, white and pink sugar almonds were ordered down from Paris with plenty of blue and white paper bags, bearing the date of the festivity in beautiful silver lettering, in which to distribute the sweets to villagers and guests. The usual gala presents were duly purchased—a silver-handled ivory spoon for the baby and an embroidered handkerchief for the baby's godmother.

THE GREAT "CHIC."

On the other side of the garden wall the baby's grandmother, who had been a fine cook in her younger days, was getting ready for the gargantuan feast that would end the ceremony, and which would be talked of in the village for months to come. There would be the usual "chic" or banquet, and the gala presents were duly purchased—a silver-handled ivory spoon for the baby and an embroidered handkerchief for the baby's godmother.

WHAT A FEAST!

Then, the procession formed again, there began the round of visits to relatives which is obligatory in every properly conducted christening. The baby was presented in turn to aunts, uncles and cousins; the same admiring comments on the infant's appearance collected from each cottage in turn. It was nearly five o'clock when the party reached the Sineot dwelling. Shortly after the guests for the banquet assembled. Mere Sineot changed her gown and fled into her kitchen, and Pere Sineot descended to the cellar and brought up an armful of bottles of red and white wine. Then the fifteen took their seats. "What a feast it was! The sponsors were installed by side in the middle of the table, and, upon in hand, awaited with impatience the arrival of the first course. Then the fowls from the doup were brought on, served with a delicious white sauce, and when they were removed, a large piece of roast veal arrived garnished with green peas. Pere Sineot then descended again to his cellar and opened successively eleven bottles of Burgundy—all of which were emptied.

VALIANT FRENCHWOMEN.

"What a dinner you are giving us, madame!" said the women as they placed their knives and forks on glass supports on the tablecloth and pushed back their empty plates. The men roared at Pere Sineot. "You are a lucky man," said the father of the godfather. "What a cook! Mon Dieu, mon Dieu!" but Mere Sineot had vanished again. This time she reappeared with a huge sign. "Ah, non," said the guests, with a shout of welcome to the leg of mutton and its bearer. "And prommes frites!" But no one refused to partake. They are valiant Frenchwomen in that district. The women began to look a little wistful at the splendid cake which stood in the middle of the table flanked by

TENDERS FOR DREDGING.

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the undersigned and endorsed "Tender for Dredging," will be received until Monday, October 5, 1908, at 1:00 p. m., for dredging required at the following places in the Province of New Brunswick: St. John Harbour, including Courthouse Bay; St. John River, eastern side of grassy island; at or near Shampier's Wharf; and at or near Dunham's Wharf. Tenders will not be considered unless made on the form supplied, and signed with the actual signatures of tenderers. Combined specification and form of tender can be obtained at the Department of Public Works, Ottawa. Tenderers must include the towing of the plant to and from the works. Only dredges can be employed which are registered in Canada at the time of the filing of tenders. Contractors must be ready to begin work within twenty days after the date they have been notified of the acceptance of their tender. An accepted cheque on a chartered bank, payable to the order of the Honourable the Minister of Public Works, for six thousand dollars ($6,000), must be deposited as security for the dredging which the tenderer offers to perform in the Province of New Brunswick. The cheque will be returned in case of non-acceptance of tender. The department does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender. By order, NAP. TESSIER, Secretary. Department of Public Works, Ottawa, September 16, 1908. Newspapers will not be paid for this advertisement if they insert it without authority from the Department. 21-3

THE TOURING AUTO WAS TOTALLY DESTROYED

Gasoline Caught While Mechanists Were Endeavouring to Make It Straight.

The big touring automobile that has for some time been advertised for the conveyance of tourists, or excursion parties, is no more. Last Friday night the car, in charge of Henry J. Harby, took a party of visitors on a tour of the country. It was on the return to the city that the car became unmanageable and leaving the road overturned in the ditch. One of the women in the party was somewhat injured and Harby was quite severely hurt, and had to be conveyed to the city to receive medical attendance. The car was left in the ditch, upside down. On Saturday afternoon workmen went to the scene of the accident to endeavor to right the car, and bring it to the city. In some manner while trying to put the car on its wheels the spark ignited with the gasoline and in a brief time the machine was a mass of flames. It is said to be practically a total loss.

LIVELY ROW AMONG SIDE SHOW MEN

Quarrelled Over $5.00 Bill While Gambling and Made Things Interesting in a Passenger Car at the Depot.

A lively row took place in a car in the depot this morning. A crowd of sidewalk men who had been here during exhibition week were leaving on the express for Point du Chateau and while waiting for the train to pull out, started gambling.

A dispute arose over a five-dollar bill and a local man named Howard claimed that he had been cheated out of that amount. In a few minutes the car was in an uproar while the disputants endeavored to settle the trouble by violent methods. Friends of both parties joined in and even some of the women of the party took a hand. The strength and vividness of the language which the crowd used in describing each other was a notable feature of the row. A hurdy call was sent for the police and Thos. Burchill, caretaker of the lockup, and I. C. R. Policeman John Collins and Scott Smith all came to the rescue. Eventually Howard got his money back and peace was restored.

SANDY GLOBE IS BACK FROM AFRICA

Times are Pretty Dull in the Colony, He Says

But Under Dutch Rule Better Conditions May be Brought About When Business Picks Up

Mr. A. R. Globe, familiarly known as "Sandy" to members of the first contingent to Africa, returned on Saturday from Cape Colony where he has spent upwards of six years. After G. James' back to St. John, Mr. Globe went south once again, enlisting in the Constabulary. A short time later he joined the engineering staff of the DeBeers Mining Co., and located at Kimberley. He is now done with Africa, and will leave in a few days for Cobalt, intending to remain permanently in Canada.

Returning to the Star about conditions in South Africa, Mr. Globe said that just now the country is in a pretty bad state, and there are a good many men, some Canadians among them, who are not getting along very well. The immediate cause of the present depression in the slump in the diamond market, for on this industry the prosperity of Cape Colony to a large extent depends. When hard times come the DeBeers Company could not very well cease all operations at once, as this would have been a very serious blow, but decided to reduce gradually. Mining was continued and the stock and still being on the floors, waiting for a brightening of the market. But this could not continue indefinitely, and in January last wages were reduced sixteen per cent. It was hoped that conditions would improve, but as time went on men had to be dropped and there seemed to be no prospect of better times, numbers left of their own accord. The whole colony is still in a rather unsettled state. The Dutch have regained control, but Mr. Globe thinks that this will eventually be the salvation of Africa, as this rule will counteract the influence of those selfish capitalists who have been influencing the British government towards injudicious administration. The day of Africa for the mine owner has passed, and Africa for the people is approaching, though the change is attended by complications which hinder natural development. In proof of the fact that many look toward Dutch rule as preferable, Mr. Globe tells that during election campaigns crowds of British residents paraded the streets with banners bearing the legend, "Get back to good old days of the Boers." It is true that in the farming districts the Boers are still very bitter against the British and the hatred engendered by the war is always in evidence. But among the more highly educated, loyal to Britain is everywhere noticeable, and while Dutch control is the desire of the people, it is as a colony of the British Empire and not as a separate nation. General Botha, who will be premier of the united colonies, is deeply loyal and there need be no fear of disaffection while he is in the field. It is time, says Mr. Globe, that the Dutch authorities are getting rid of many British officials, dismissing them without notice and filling their places with Boers. This is, however, looked upon as natural enough. After the war the British Government pitchedforked into positions of responsibility thousands of men who were in no way qualified for the work given them. It is these men, officers who are not capable of performing the duties imposed upon them in dealing with an alien race, who are now being dismissed. The Boers are giving the positions to their own people, and will undoubtedly obtain better results from this method. But Africa on the whole is still in a period of transition and it must of necessity be some years before the country can settle down to a steady and natural growth. Mr. Globe thinks it will eventually be very much better than it is today, but he is not particularly enthusiastic over its prospects as compared with Canada.

CANTON LA TOUR WILL VISIT LYNN NEXT YEAR

Canton LaTour, of St. John, has been invited to visit several United States cities next summer, and has accepted the invitation. A very pleasant gathering took place on Saturday evening in Oddfellows Hall when at a special meeting the Canton received representatives from Cantons City of Lynn, of Lynn, and Redkey, of Portland, who had come to return thanks to St. John members of the order for the entertainment provided during the visit of the cantons to this city in July. Major General Welch, of Lynn, and Captain Clark, of Portland, were the delegates. They brought a series of resolutions, prettily framed, which had been passed by their cantons, and ordered to be presented to Canton LaTour. Both visitors spoke in the highest terms of the treatment received while here. They invited Canton LaTour to visit Lynn on June 17th next, when a big gathering of Oddfellows is to take place, and promised to give the St. John men the time of their lives. The invitation was so hearty, and the visitors were so insistent upon having LaTour go, that Col. Fregan, on behalf of the local men, accepted it, briefly thanking the United States members and adding that St. John Oddfellows had been pleased to welcome their friends. George Pollock, captain of Canton LaTour, who presided at the meeting, also spoke.

The liberal electors of the city of St. John will meet this evening at eight o'clock for ward organization at their various ward rooms. Particulars will be found in our advertisement on page 6 of this issue.
