A TEMPERANCE CAMPAIGN.

The Famous John H. Roberts to Visit Kent and Perhaps Northumberland Counties.

A FAMOUS SPEAKER

Will Open an Engagement at Harcourt on August the Twenty-Third

A movement has been afoot for some time towards starting a temperance campaign in Northumberland and Kent Counties. The District Division of the Divisions of the Sons of Temperance for Kent and Northumberland which inaugurated the movement are pleased now to announce to the public that they have been fortunate enough to secure the services of a man who is almost world-famous—Mr. John H. Roberts, "One of Britain's foremost temperance advocates." Mr. Roberts has addressed and held large audiences in all the leading cities and towns of England and Scotland and during the last year has been engaged in temperance campaigning in the United States. It is seldom that the people in these counties have the opportunity of listening to a man of such high rank, so no one should miss the opportunity of hearing him.

Leading newspapers give pictures of Mr. Roberts as follows: "His voice is clear and penetrating. His matter, spoken in pure English, is simple and convincing. He possesses eloquent powers of no mean order" in the denunciatory, he is forceful and vigorous, in the pathetic he excels."

"Mr. Roberts is a man of sound argument, ample and vivid illustration, a remarkable fund of irresistible humor, and, above all, a heart all aglow for the love of his fellows. His past experiences have given him sympathy and insight that draw the drunkard irresistibly to him. His heart beats with love for the drunkard, and the drunkard knows it."

"He is argumentative, and appeals to reason, judgment and conscience. There is no playing to the gallery nor pandering to the emotions."

Certainly Mr. Roberts is not of the "manly-pamby" order, nor sensational. The temperance campaign under the leadership of Mr. Roberts is to be started at Harcourt, Kent Co. on August the 23rd, where mass-meetings are to be held morning and evening. Afternoon meetings for women and mass evening meetings will then be held at Richibucto, Rexton, Buctouche, Bass River, Nicholas River, Mill Branch, etc.

The campaign may then be extended into Northumberland County. The exact dates and places of the various meetings in Northumberland will be given later.

B. C. Sufferers In Great Need.

Six Thousand People Homeless and Many Destitute From Forest Fire — Loss of Life Very Heavy.

FERNIE, B. C. Aug. 3.—Reports from the districts outside Fernie swept by the disastrous forest fires of Sunday, are coming in slowly as telegraph and telephone communications with the towns and districts burned over have been destroyed. The number of lives lost and the property loss is appalling. The number of people reported killed is 70 or 80; the number homeless is 7,000; the district swept by fire is from near Cranbrook B. C. to within four miles of Frank, Alberta, a distance of fifty miles. The towns destroyed are Fernie, Coal Creek and Hosmer, and Michel is partially destroyed. The total loss in Fernie is $2,000,000; in other towns $3,000,000. The towns and cities appealed to for aid are: Nelson, Vancouver, Toronto, Hamilton. The origin of the fire was in a bush fire in the slashings of the Cedar Valley Lumber Company across the river from Fernie. In the insurance practically every company in Canada is interested, but no details are available to-day.

ASSAILANT OF EDITOR FINED

Councillor J. F. Andrew of Campbellton Fined $12.00 and Costs, or

TEN DAYS IN JAIL,

Wednesday morning Councillor J. F. Andrew, of Campbellton, was fined $12.00 and costs or 10 days in jail for having assaulted Mr. Crockett of the Tribune in front of the town council building on the evening of June 29th. Councillor Andrew was unrepresented. Mr. W. A. Mott acted as counsel for the plaintiff. The accused on being called upon to answer the charges preferred against him pleaded "guilty." His Honor, Judge Matheson, after calling the Councillor's attention to the serious charge preferred against him then imposed the above sentence. Councillor Andrew paid the fine.

TERRIBLE DISASTER IN GOAL MINES.

FERNIE, B. C. Saturday.—By a fall of coal in the mines a number of men were cut off and it is feared many lives will be lost.

LATER

FERNIE Saturday.—About eight o'clock this morning a search party came across the unconscious body of D. Powell, who was still alive but he died as soon as he got outside.

A miner named Colwell is still very bad from only being kept alive by morphine injections. Beaver's body is not yet out. Hitchough is not yet found. The rescued miners admit that if the air pipe had not broken on the other side of the fall not one would have been got out alive. As it was gas was overcoming them and many gave up and laid down to sleep and die.

GIRL DROWNED FROM BOAT.

NEW BEDFORD, Saturday.—Miss May Maguire 18 years old a member of a sailing party of four young people, was drowned off Fort Rodman this afternoon. The body has not been recovered. The members of the party in the twenty six foot sloop included Murray Barrows, Charles Neild and a girl said to have been named Seguin and the young woman drowned.

In attempting to make a tack the boom swung over and knocked Miss Maguire from the boat. Barrows made an attempt at rescue, but when he reached the spot where the girl went down she had disappeared. She never reappeared on the surface. Neild knew nothing of the handling of the boat and could not turn back for Barrows who swam ashore and the two on the boat continued on out into Buzzard's Bay. They landed at Nonquit where they were taken ashore off Bridge Rock.

STRIKE AMONG G. T. P. WORKERS

Men Demand Raise of Wages From $1.50 to $1.75 Per Day.

CARRIED RED FLAG.

MONCTON, Sunday.—Demanding an increase in wages from one dollar and a half to a dollar and seventy five cents per day, three hundred foreign laborers employed on the G. T. P. section adjacent to this city went on strike yesterday afternoon and for a time it was feared violence would ensue. The arrest of three ring leaders who are now in jail awaiting trial on numerous charges broke the back of the strike, although it is unlikely that the men will go back to work tomorrow.

The trouble began at Contractor Corbett's No. 3 station, a few miles from Moncton where the foreigners whose nationalities include Italians, Austrians and Bulgarians, yesterday quit work. Headed by one of their number bearing a huge red flag they visited the other sections of the work and forced the contractors to join in the strike. Many of these workmen were content with existing conditions and showed little inclination to join in the strike but were forced to join the procession.

The strikers carried clubs, in several instances threatening to use them on those who refused to join the strike. After gathering a large band Saturday afternoon the strikers marched to the G. T. P. offices in this city and for a time their actions looked threatening. They gathered in small groups talking excitedly and a half dozen big policemen hovered on the outskirts of the throng ready to put down any trouble should there be any outbreak. The presence of the police seemed to have a quieting effect and there was no violence.

Later in the afternoon three city policemen went to the G. T. P. camp where thirteen of the ring leaders were taken in charge. These are John Welch, aged 32; Frank Lowell 19; and Tom Carich 20; the latter two being Italians. The men did not offer resistance. A red flag was also taken from Lowell. They will be arraigned in court tomorrow.

COUNTY COURT CLOSED THURSDAY.

O'Toole Sent Back to Penitentiary. Buckley and LeBlanc Settle

The session of County Court closed Thursday. Patrick Donovan was found guilty of common assault, fined $10 and bound over to keep the peace for one year. Thomas O'Toole of Nelson, charged with stealing $63 from James Maroney of Nelson was found guilty and sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary. O'Toole was released from the penitentiary last Spring after serving two years. Buckley and LeBlanc settled their case out of court.

SAD DROWNING ACCIDENT.

Two Young Men Lost Their Lives While Swimming In Napan River.

EACH AN ONLY SON,

Geo. Beigman, A Norwegian Drowned In Mira. River Monday.

Frank Robertson, only son of Rev. John Robertson, and Frank Dickson, only son of James Dickson, went into Napan River, near the old creamery, Monday forenoon, for a bath. Neither could swim. The tide was up and the water was eight to ten feet deep. Clement Dickson was having near. For about ten minutes he was in a hollow which hid the bathers from sight. When he again came in sight of the river, the young men were missing. He and Harry Wilson and Andrew Dickson at once made a search, and finally found both bodies in eight feet of water and about a yard apart. It is supposed one got beyond his depth and the other went to his assistance.

Frank Robertson was 24 years old and leaves two sisters, Maggie, Jessie, at home. Frank Dickson was 22 years old and is survived by two sisters, Lizzie in St. Louis, and Belle at home. A great deal of sympathy is expressed for the bereaved families. The funeral of Frank Dickson took place Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock from his father's house and interment was made in Riverside Cemetery Chatham. Frank Robertson's funeral takes place this morning at 10 o'clock, at Black River.

Geo. Beigman and another Norwegian waded into the river above the Miranichi foundry, Chatham Monday and Beigman got into the deep channel. His companion tried to save him but was in great danger when Edward MacLean jumped in and seized him, bringing him to shore. Beigman lost his grip of his friend and drowned. The body was recovered.

AUDITOR MILLER SUBMITS REPORT.

Claims That Hon. L. J. Tweedie Owes Province $8.10 Interest.

ST. JOHN Saturday.—The report of Auditor Miller appointed by the provincial government to examine the books of the crown land department was yesterday morning handed to the evening newspapers favorable to the administration. In regard to the suspense account it is claimed that there is due to the province from Lieut. Governor Tweedie $8,110 as interest due on the sum of $13,686.76 which was carried as suspense account from 1892 until October 1906, when Hon. Mr. Tweedie closed it out by personally handing the amount to the deputy receiver general. Notwithstanding the fact that his honor who endeavored to place at the disposal of Mr. Miller all the information in his power to facilitate the auditor in his work, emphatically denied that he was in any way responsible for the amount named and gave the assurance that his denial could easily be substantiated upon proper investigation, the report was rushed and given full and unfair publicity without setting forth some of the explanations made by the lieutenant governor. The latter in a letter to Hon. W. C. H. Grimmer, explains the matter at length and finally adds that if after a full and proper investigation Mr. Hazen should conclude that he is responsible he would pay the amount rather than bring up the names of those men who were concerned and who are now dead and give publicity to the transaction.

Last evening after the publication of the report the lieutenant governor was asked by the Sun if he would make any statement. He promptly denied responsibility and denounced the whole thing as a piece of political spite, decidedly unfair to him and calculated to make political capital. And Mr. Tweedie went further than this. He placed the matter in the hands of H. A. Powell an active supporter of the present administration and said that if Powell concluded that he was liable either legally or morally he would act accordingly.

His honor explained how he had paid more to the province than he should have paid. That he was anxious to act fairly and justly in the matter was shown, he thought by the fact that he was willing to abide by the legal opinion of one of the government's closest friends and supporters.

Tercentenary is Closed Revenue Still Falling

QUEBEC Friday.—With the best performance of the pageants this afternoon the tercentenary festivities which have attracted such widespread attention during the past two weeks, were brought to a fitting close. His Royal Highness suggested that the pageants be cinematographed and Earl Grey is endeavoring to have this carried out. The Prince was particularly impressed with the march past of the Armies of Wolfe and Montcalm, as it tended to emphasize the harmony existing between the two races and would teach an object lesson to the world.

Awaiting Those Who Enter the Union Advocate Bible Study Club

Only One Question to be Answered per Week. See Conditions Below

In order to encourage the study of the Bible, the UNION ADVOCATE has arranged to publish weekly a series of questions on the Sunday School Lessons. All who accept the conditions stated below will be members of the Northumberland County Club, and eligible to win the prizes provided.

Persons may join the club at any time during the year, but must, of course answer the 32 questions hereinafter explained, to qualify for the prizes. It is, moreover, desirable that the questions be answered as the lessons are studied.

The International Newspaper Bible Study Club is for the purpose of promoting, in an unfettered way among the masses, a wider study of the Bible, the basal truths of Christianity, and the problems which enter into every man's life. It is composed of all those who join a Local Club, and take up the simple course herein outlined, bearing only exalted clergyman. We have the sympathetic co-operation of the latter, but it is not considered fair to have them compete for the prizes. Sunday school teachers, Bible class scholars, and church-goers generally, may belong to this Newspaper Bible Study Club, also non-churchgoers, of all shades of opinion. All such who have not joined are warmly invited to do so and to compete for the prizes.

This paper has secured the right to publish the International Sunday School Lesson questions by Rev. Dr. Linscott, which have excited so much interest elsewhere, and they will appear weekly. One of these questions each week is to be answered in writing, and upon these answers the prizes are to be awarded.

This paper is authorized to form a Local Newspaper Bible Study Club for its readers, and guarantee to all who join and fulfill the conditions, that everything herein promised shall be faithfully carried out.

CONDITIONS OF THE CONTEST.

1. Each contestant, or his or her family, must be a subscriber to this paper, (paid in advance), during the continuance of the contest, in order to qualify for membership in the International Newspaper Bible Study Club and this Local Club.
2. Each contestant in this Local Club, must answer each of the written questions, for 32 consecutive weeks, commencing for Sunday, July 5, 1908, and the answers must be in the possession of this paper within two weeks of the close of this period, which allows two weeks grace after the close of the contest.
3. Each question must be answered separately, and the paper written on one side only. No answer must exceed two hundred words in length and may be less. It will be convenient if students will write their answers on letter paper, about 8 1/2 by 11 inches.
4. Each answer must have the name and address of the writer at the bottom of the answer; so it can be identified, given a number, registered, etc.
5. The answers from this Local Club must be delivered to the office, and they will be collated at the close of the contest, and forwarded to headquarters for independent examination by competent examiners. The prizes will then be awarded according to the highest number of marks won by members of The International Newspaper Bible Study Club, and prizes which may be awarded to members of this local club will be given out from this office.

THE PRIZES.

First Series—A gold medal to each of the first five contestants.

Second Series—A silver medal to each of the next five contestants.

Third Series—A Teacher's Bible, price $5.50, to each of the next five contestants.

Fourth Series—The book "The Heart of Christianity," price $1.50, to each of the next thirty-five contestants.

Fifth Series—A developed mind, an expanded imagination, a richer experience and a more profound knowledge of the Bible and of life, to all who take this course whether winning any other prize or not.

Each medal will be suitably engraved, giving the name of the winner, and for what it is awarded, and in like manner each Bible and book will be inscribed.

All who can write, and have ideas, are urged to take up these studies regardless of the degree of their education, as the papers are not valued from an educational or literary standpoint, but from the point of view of the cogency of their reasoned ideas.

Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson by Rev. Dr. Linscott for the International Newspaper Bible Study Club.

Aug. 9th, 1908.

David and Goliath.—I. Sam. xvii-38-40.

This lesson does not lend itself easily to a verse by verse discussion, hence the following questions are based upon the lesson story and its suggestions.

Does the fate of a nation ever materially depend upon one man, according to the teaching of history?

(This question is to be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Was David's conquest of Goliath natural or supernatural?

Could God just as easily have performed this feat, with a man who had had no previous experience with a sling?

Did God have in view this event of the slaying of Goliath, in David's previous training with the sling and stone?

Does God always arrange to give his children a suitable present training, for the work which he has in store for them in the future?

Does God always provide a way by which every enemy, or barrier, to the accomplishment of our life's work, can be vanquished?

May a strong man, in the long run, who has espoused a cause opposed to God, sometimes be successful?

Napoleon said that Providence was always on the side of the heaviest battalions, is this always or ever true?

What was David's view about God, always being on the side of the heaviest battalions? See Verses 45-47; Ps. xlv-5-8; Ps. xxxiii 16; Zec. iv-6.

Can a weak man on God's side be defeated?

What are the forces with which God will conquer the world and overthrow sin? I. Cor. i:17-28; Matt. xi:25.

Why is it that science, literature, painting, music, eloquence and war, cannot subdue the world and overthrow sin?

What is the greatest force in the world with which to overcome every evil influence?

Is it always right or wise to follow David's method of fighting, or that of any other good and successful man?

Is it ever right to discard scientific methods for simpler ones?

How may we be always sure as to the weapons we should use in overcoming enemies or difficulties?

Is any person ever vanquished who really fights in the name of God?

What are the greatest giants we have to fight who oppose our personal progress?

What are the greatest giants which oppose social progress?

What are the greatest giants in the way of winning the world for Christ? Lesson for Sunday, Aug. 16th, 1908.—Saul tries to kill David. I Samuel xviii-16.

THE UNION ADVOCATE

ISSUED EVERY WEDNESDAY MORNING BY THE ADVOCATE PUBLISHING CO. W. J. McNEILL, Manager H. H. STUART, Editor

A file of this paper can be seen at the office of Messrs. E. & J. Hardy & Co., 39, 41 and 43, Fleet Street, London England, free of charge; and that firm will be glad to receive news, subscriptions, and advertisements on our behalf.

NEWCASTLE, August 5th, 1908.

HONOR PETER MITCHELL

The large, thoroughly up-to-date, three story dwelling house, pleasantly situated on the bank of the Mirambich in the lower part of Newcastle, formerly occupied by the late Samuel Thomson, is for sale. If not sooner disposed of privately, it will be sold at public auction on the 22nd instant. Now is the opportunity for Newcastle to honor the memory of its illustrious citizen, the late Hon. Peter Mitchell, by establishing as a memorial of him a public hospital in said building. Let the house and its two acres of ground be purchased by the public, named after the Honorable Mr. Mitchell, and fitted up for the care of the sick and wounded. Such a monument would be much more sensible and appropriate than would be one of stone or bronze erected in our public square. Those natives of Northumberland County who truly admire the life and work of Peter Mitchell should subscribe at once to a fund to buy the Thomson premises and create thereon a first-class hospital. Money could not be put to a better use. The Union Advocate guarantees $25 to head the list.

A GOOD IDEA

Late dispatches indicate that the Fredericton express over the Canada Eastern may, next fall, be run to Newcastle, connecting at Blackville with fast train for Chatham and Loggieville. This will, while not at all interrupting Chatham's service, be a great gain to Newcastle and points north, passengers from which often miss the express for Fredericton at Chatham Junction and have to go to the capital by the freight train. The proposed change would also greatly benefit all the villages along the line between Blackville and Derby Junction. The change, if effected, will be a decided step in the right direction.

THE PEACE CONFERENCE

While warlike preparations are the order of the day, yet the cause of peace steadily gains ground. The seventeenth session of the Universal Peace Conference has since the 27th ultimo, been meeting in London. 16 nations were represented. The influence of this Conference is slowly but surely extending. It owes its origin to the Society of Friends.

THE LORDS ACCEPT IMPORTANT MEASURES.

The British Parliament adjourned on the first instant for the summer vacation. Of twelve important measures foreshadowed in the King's speech in January, only two have passed the House of Lords and become law—the acts providing for an old age pension scheme and the establishment of a Roman Catholic university in Ireland. Neither measure received any appreciable opposition in the House of Commons; but pensions were opposed by the Lords and the act amended out of shape. The Commons, however, refused to accept any amendments, and the Peers finally agreed to the bill as first sent them. The new university satisfies the demand of the majority of the Irish for higher education under the auspices of their own church. These two questions so happily settled, the arena is cleared for the battle over the remaining reforms contemplated by the British government.

LOST CONTROL OF ENGINE.

And Was Aroused With Difficulty When the Shock Was Over.

On Friday evening, Robert Adair was left on the working train engine at Newcastle and had instructions to run the loco motive from one part of the yard to another. He started the engine and then fell back in the cab. One of the switchmen saw him go by and called out receiving no response, and the locomotive continued on its way out of the yard. As it reached a curve a mile west of Newcastle the driverless engine stopped for lack of steam.

Driver Cool on number forty eight orders to run cautiously at this point and on coming around the curve at a reduced rate of speed saw the locomotive on the track in front but a short distance away. He applied the emergency brake but the pressure on his train of a number of cars without air brakes made it impossible to stop in a short space and his locomotive struck the other engine driving the latter back several yards. The train crew seeing no one about in the other locomotive ran quickly to the spot, fearing that the crew had met death but in the cab they found Adair still unconscious. He was aroused only with considerable difficulty.

NEW HEALTH ACT COMING.

At a meeting of the Provincial Board of Health, held at St. John recently, a resolution was passed making the provincial regulations apply to all cities and incorporated towns. The resolution must be approved by the lieutenant governor-in-council before becoming law. The regulations referred to are the same special provisions which were made to apply to St. John and Moncton at the time of their enactment and which among other things give the local board of health power to appoint sewerage and plumbing inspectors and to make it compulsory for any property in the city to be connected with the sewerage system. Some time ago the regulations were made to apply to the town of Campbellton and several weeks ago the local board made application to have the regulations come into force in Fredericton. The provincial board has also determined that it is time to have another public health act for the province. The present act has been in force since 1880 and is inconsistent in parts as well as being far from up-to-date.

PERJURY CASE FELL THROUGH!

GUYSBORO, N. S., July 29.—The trial of Rev. H. R. Grant on a charge of perjury brought by E. E. Aitkens of Mulgrave, was proceeded with yesterday before Stipendiary Magistrate A. H. DeBarrs. The case arose out of a seizure of liquor made at Mulgrave about two weeks ago under the Canadian Temperance Act. The stock seized was composed of rum, brandy, gin and wine nearly seven hundred bottles and flasks among which were a few bottles of ginger wine which is non-intoxicating. It was alleged that Rev. Mr. Grant when testifying at the trial at Mulgrave stated that all the liquor was intoxicating and because of the ginger wine being non-intoxicating the allegation was that he had committed perjury. It was proved that the ginger wine was not included in the list of liquors sworn to and the case was forthwith dismissed.

Broken in Health

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Restored Strength After Medical Treatment Had Failed.

"I can truthfully say Dr. Williams' Pink Pills did for me what one of the best doctors in Halifax failed to do—restored my health." This strong statement is made by Mr. Wm. J. Weaver, 172 Argyle street, Halifax. Mr. Weaver adds: "A few years ago I took employment in a large factory as fireman. I knew the work would be hard, and friends told me I would never stand it, but as I was a strong man, weighing 180 pounds, I laughed at the idea of not being able to do the work. Anyhow I started and found that it was a hard one indeed. There were a number of firemen employed and men were taking and quitting the job every few days. I kept at the work for two years and during that time I lost 50 pounds weight, and was a broken down man. I could not take my meals and often took my dinner back home with me without touching it. When I would be working on the night shift I could not sleep in the day time, and this added to my trouble. Finally I became a total wreck and had to quit the work. I could hardly drag myself about, and yet had become so nervous that I could not sit still and would walk about the house until a friend came to see me. The doctor came to see me every day, and changed the medicine time and again, but it did me no good. Finally he wanted me to go to the hospital, and I had to quit the work. I was reading the evening paper he came across the testimonial of a cure wrought by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. He said, "Why don't you try them, nothing else is helping you and they may do you good." He went out and got me a box at once. When this was done I got a half dozen boxes, and before they were all gone I began to feel like a new man. I continued using the pills for a couple of months when I was as well as a strong as ever. I had been in my life, and I have not seen a sick day since. I feel confident there is no remedy in the world equal to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for building up a broken down and nervous system, and for such trouble I would strongly recommend them." Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure such cases as Mr. Weaver's because they make the rich, red blood that feeds the starved nerves and tones and strengthens every part of the body. That is why they cure anemia, rheumatism, indigestion, neuralgia, St. Vitus dance, paralysis and other troubles due to bad blood and shattered nerves. Get a box at all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville Ont.

The Mood Of a Maid.

By CECILY ALLEN.

Copyright, 1908, by Associated Literary Trust.

The girl leaned forward after scanning the road in both directions and touched the chauffeur's arm. The great crimson car came to a panting, Mediterranean standstill.

The girl did not wait for the chauffeur to help her, but sprang lightly to the road and vanished into the woodland on the right. The chauffeur turned the car as if his thoughts were concentrated on the necessity of making the smallest possible turn in time of emergency, and then the great crimson car shot back in the direction from whence it had come.

Safely screened by the underbrush, the girl found a clearing in the woodland and sat down on a moss grown log. Deftly she unwound the swathings of chiffon from her hat, baring a face delicate and sensitive as the anemones opening at her feet.

She drew off her gloves and felt of like velvety moss on the old log, then stooped to gather flowers. Finally, with the blossoms forgotten in her lap, she leaned forward, her elbows on her knees, her chin propped in the palms of her hands, watching the woodland life around her.

Chipmunks and squirrels scampered along the edge of the clearing. Where the sun shone upon a tangle of fern and jack in the pulpit two robins perched pertly on dry twigs and discussed the troubles of May moving day. From the shadows of the wood beyond came the persistent hammering of a woodpecker.

Beyond the screen of underbrush automobiles and smart thoroughfares toward the race track, where the world of fashion was foregathered. An hour passed, and then at the distant wall of a peculiar siren whistle the girl sprang to her feet, dropped her lapful of flowers and ran to the roadside.

Bearing down upon her was a crimson car, twin of the one which had dropped her so unceremoniously an hour earlier.

But the resemblance stopped with the car. The chauffeur in the first car had worn a spick span uniform in tan color from the tips of his lightly polished boots to the crown of his heavy red cap. The man in this car wore a disreputable looking storm coat of English cloth, a shabby visor cap and a pair of goggles which had certainly seen more prosperous days.

He was scorching along at a fine pace. But the girl calmly stepped to the edge of the road and waved a detaining hand—a bare hand at that. The machine slowed down, and the man made preparations to descend, as became one hailed by a maiden in distress. But again the girl raised a detaining hand.

"My car met with an accident. I thought perhaps—I am very anxious to reach Dalton this afternoon. Perhaps you were going that way. Would you give me a lift?"

"I was—or thought I was—going to the races, but I am sure it will be much more pleasant to—er—was it Dalton you said?"

The man's accent was English. The admiration in his eyes was the sort that knows no nationality. The girl flushed beneath it and sprang into the car before the astonished man could assist her.

For a few minutes the car ran on in silence. Then the girl spoke abruptly. "Let us take this crossroad. There is a mile farther we will strike the old Dalton turnpike. There we will not meet."

"I understand," he interrupted gravely. And the great car swerved into the crossroad, running through a stretch of woodland.

Again the girl seemed plunged in thought. But at last the man remarked a bit lamely:

"Perfect day, isn't it?" The girl looked up at him shyly. Her eyes were soft and luminous.

"Oh, I have had the most beautiful hour there in the woods. I've never seen anything half so wonderful as those little creatures doing just as they pleased. Just as soon as the birds tired of one tree or bush or fern they flew off to another. They did not mind me nor each other. Just think of being like that all your life!"

The man looked at her curiously, as if she were a new specimen of the genus feminine and entirely worthy of deep study.

"It is all so different from what I've been used to. I wake up knowing that Marie will be right there with my chocolate. And then will come cards and mail and flowers and Aunt Margaret. Of course Aunt Margaret is a dear, but ten years of doing things right under Aunt Margaret's eyes are very tiresome. Don't you think so?"

"I am quite sure it must be a terrible bore," replied the man gravely. "And then seeing the same people everywhere you go and being quite sure that you will see no one that Aunt Margaret has not seen first."

from any of the men I have ever met."

She paused, and the man at her side studied her with grave eyes. "Now, there was Bessie Stewart—she married Jack Coghlan. They'd gone to kindergarten and dancing school together. And then she'd gone to all his college 'proms' and the same cottolions. Why, it was just like marrying some one who had lived in your own family always."

"And now they're bored to death with each other. They had a honeymoon at Monte Carlo, where they had been the year before on the Borden-Jones yacht, and they came back to the same old round of teas and dinners and dances. There was no romance in that."

The man shook his head. "But Harriet, one of our parlor maids, married a nice way out west. She met him by answering an advertisement in a matrimonial paper. He came east after her, and she wrote Marie that they were awfully happy. He had never beaten her once."

The man flung back his head and laughed, and the girl laughed with him. Then suddenly she clutched his sleeve.

"You've passed the Dalton turnpike, and I must be at Stoneywold for lunch."

"We are not going to Dalton," said the man calmly. "I've been out this way before. Just two miles beyond we will cross the state line."

"But why? Oh, I must go on to Stoneywold."

The man ignored the remark. "And across the state line, I understand, there is no need of a license."

"Oh!" said the girl very softly, and the great car stopped beneath the arch of freshly leaved trees.

He flung aside his heavy driving gloves and took the delicate, sensitive face of the girl between his two hands. "Will you, dearest?"

Her eyes stopped dancing and turned wondrous tender.

"Oh, I hoped you'd understand, but I did not dream."

"Will you, dearest?" persisted the man.

She lowered her long lashes over the eyes into which he tried so hard to gaze. Later she murmured from the shelter of his arms: "But I want to see you the truth, Lester. I never loved you till just this minute. And I had made up my mind that if you did not understand I would just—"

He threw on the power. "Let us get across the line quick before you change your mind again."

"I'd like 't oblige you, but this ain't no Gretta Green, an'—well, I don't mind tellin' you that the girl looks under age."

"But I am twenty," protested the girl.

The girl and the man looked at each other; then the girl's troubled glance traveled to the table, and a smile brightened her face.

"Isn't that proof enough that my family are willing?"

"Gosh all hemeckles, you're Banker Claffin's girl, and he—he's—"

"Yes," said the girl, her eyes dancing. "He is Lord Gramston. But, indeed, he's very nice in spite of the fact," she added as Justice of the Peace Manning continued to stare incredulously at the man's slim figure in its disreputable motoring apparel.

"You wait a bit. I'll be right back," said the justice, with sudden accession of spirit, and he started for the door. The girl and man sprang after him.

"You are not going to telephone—to town—to the wretched reporters. Please, please, set us by married quiet alone, with just some of your family for witnesses," cried the girl.

"Yes," added the man nervously. "We've just run away from all that sort of thing—piffle, don't you know. Please let us get away quietly. Don't telephone, I beg of you."

"Telephone nothing!" exclaimed the justice heartily. "I'm just goin' to put on my Sunday suit. Never expect to marry a millionaire's girl and a lord again in my time."

AN IDEAL NEW ENGLAND PLAY.

When "Miss Petticoats" was first written the charm of its scenes, laid in a quaint whaling port, and parts of Paris made the success of the book and its admirers have been anxious since then to see the wholesome, generous-hearted folk of New Bedford with their spicily wit move upon the stage and "have their being" among us. The play was first produced at the Boston Theatre and received enthusiastic praise from the large audiences that crowded the immense house. The pet name of "Miss Petticoats" was given the heroine by her devoted grandfather who brought her up in an old-fashioned manner on board of an ancient whaler that was tied up to the wharf as a sort of house boat; and from the unique little house Agatha graduated to the "smart society" set as the companion of a rich old lady, and how she finally came into her own estates as the Countess Furnay, is a most charming and realistic tale. Old friends follow her fortunes and the four-in-hand dance of a quartette of merry old sea-dogs in the ball room of the Countess, is one of the laughing scenes that highly amuse the audience. The quick turn from pathos to comedy is one of the laughable features of "Miss Petticoats" and her scarlet cloak are followed with keen interest. The scenic effects are very elaborate and carry out the idea of the story in a most realistic manner. The company has been most carefully selected and the "New England play" which will be seen at the Opera House, Newcastle, on Friday, August 7th, for one night only.

No Tears Nor Hills.

In the days when Rowley Hill was bishop of the Isle of Man one of his clergymen hearing the name of Tears came to say adieu to his bishop on getting preferment. The parson said: "Goodby, my lord. I hope we may meet again, but if not here in some better place."

The bishop replied, "I fear the latter is unlikely, as there are no Tears in heaven."

"No doubt," wittily answered the parson, "you are right that our chance of meeting is small, as one reads of the plains of paradise, but never of any Hills there."—London Queen.

Australian Bushmen.

Although the bushmen of Australia are the very lowest in the scale of intelligence, they possess a rare instinct that equals that of many animals and is in its way as wonderful as man's reason. It is almost impossible for them to be lost. Even if they be led away from their home blindfolded for miles, when released they will unerringly turn in the right direction and make their way to their nest homes, and, though these are all very similar, they never make a mistake.

He declared the city granted a sum of money to the exhibition and now they turn right around and give the firemen permission to leave the city when they are needed most.

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Mark's Church, Nelson, recently held a very successful tea and supper. The sale of work opened at 1 o'clock and was well patronized as was also the candy and ice cream stalls. The ladies were kept busy serving supper from five o'clock till eight. Those who have patronized the suppers in previous years know what to expect. The supper served this year was an exception. It was an excellent one and got up in a manner which left nothing to be desired. Great credit is due to those in charge. We understand that the net receipts were $120.

Monday afternoon, one of the town horses driven by Wm. McCullum, was tied in front of Joseph Ingram's barber shop while Mr. McCullum was busy near by. The horse was frightened by the noise of some boys and ran away down Pleasant Street, up Prince William, up New Highway, down Regent, and then around the Square. In front of George Stables' store it collided with a carriage belonging to Deputy Sheriff Irving, tearing off a wheel. It then ran against Clark & Co.'s store front, scraping the window sill, then against a tree, when the wagon behind it parted. The animal was caught having done no more damage than breaking its own wagon in two and putting the carriage out of business. Fortunately there were no people on the sidewalk it covered.

The new law allowing coastwise vessels up to 400 tons to sail without a certified mate went into effect on Saturday last. Formerly vessels over 200 tons had to carry a certified mate. The change will probably have the effect of swelling the Canadian registry. Under the old law stern schooners and other vessels over 200 tons were formally registered at Bridgetown, Barbados, where there is not restriction of this nature. These vessels will remain on the Canadian registry in future.

CONVENT EDUCATION.
One of the many excellent religious houses in the neighboring diocese of Chatham is the Convent of the Congregation de Notre Dame in Newcastle. The institution is situated on the main line of the Intercolonial and within easy reach of the pupils. While on a trip to the North Shore recently the editor of this paper had the pleasure of visiting this well-known place of learning. The buildings are pleasantly located, and in a commanding position; and the various rooms for the pupils' accommodation are well laid out. Parents and guardians who desire to give young ladies a solid and refined education will not make any mistake in entrusting them to the care of the members of this successful teaching Order. Classes will be resumed on the first Tuesday in September. — St. John Monitor.

A PROPER COMPARISON
During the recent panic a German farmer went to the bank in Camden for money. He was told that the bank was not paying out money, but was giving out cashier's checks. He could not understand this and insisted on money. The officer of the bank endeavored to explain, and after a while some intelligence of the situation seemed to be dawning on the farmer's mind and the president asked: "You understand now fully how it is, Hans, don't you?" "Yes," said Hans, "I think I do. It's like this, isn't it? Ven my baby wakes up at night and wants some milk, I give him a milk ticket." Philadelphia Public Ledger.

FINED FOR MERELY GIVING LIQUOR.
For giving liquor to a certain trainman on duty, Joseph Allain was fined fifty dollars, or one month in jail, by Magistrate Kay in the police court Thursday morning. Allain, who is twenty-four years of age, was arrested on the strength of a warrant sworn out by Mr. F. N. Hall, Manager of the Moncton and Buctouche Railway Company, charging him with giving intoxicating liquor to Joseph Collette, a brakeman in the employ of this road while on duty between Moncton and Buctouche yesterday. Allain pleaded guilty. The Magistrate in passing sentence said that it was an important matter that the law in this respect should be rigidly enforced, and in view of the fact that this was a first offence he would make the penalty as light as he possibly could. He then explained that a fine of one hundred dollars could be imposed, and that he could also sentence the prisoner to one month in jail without the option of a fine. Magistrate Kay then imposed a fine of fifty dollars or one month in jail.
