FOUNDER OF HOME FOR AGED COLORED WOMEN VISITS CITY

Mrs. Mary Slaughter of Williamsport, Pa. is visiting her son, Mr. W. C. Slaughter of 753 Grey Street and tells a very interesting story of her activities of the past twenty years or more.

About twenty-four years ago in the city of Williamsport, Mrs. Slaughter became imbued with the thought that a home for the aged women of her race was a much needed institution and immediately set about to put into operation her idea. As a result of this ambitious woman's untiring zeal to bring about the realization of her plans, others united with her and brought into existence the beautiful home.

Since the establishment of the home about twenty women have been given shelter and the comforts of life and have been made to feel that they were not friendless nor forsaken in the declining years of their life. While Mrs. Slaughter is recognized as the founder she is also the matron of the home, having assumed these duties some twenty four years ago, working with unceasing zeal and devotion to convince the community of the value of this home in their midst. Several worthy Anglo Saxon persons who have deceased, bequeathed large sums toward the home for its upkeep and maintenance. The state board of charities also makes a contribution to the institution according to the inmates confined therein during each year.

Donation Day Once a Year in Nov.

Once a year an appeal is made to all the citizens of Williamsport on behalf of the home. It is remarkable, said Mrs. Slaughter how the folks of our city respond to our appeal. Even the children of the public schools, both white and colored are anxious that they shall have a part in donating something to the home and together have contributed as much as ten bushels of potatoes. The store keepers have also been very generous, having contributed four barrels of flour and one hundred pounds of sugar thus far for the home. Canned fruit of every description is also among the many donations.

The home faces one of the large parks, said Mrs. Slaughter and during three months of the year all denominations unite and hold services in the park and attract many to the gospel meetings. A band concert is also given each Sunday afternoon during the summer in the park.

Religious services are also held during the week and on Sunday. In the vicinity of the home there is a seminary where young men are preparing for the ministry. These students take their turn in bringing the gospel to the inmates of the home. We have a regular chapel in the home which will seat about seventy persons and many visitors worship with us at these services. Our home is a very valuable piece of property and could easily be sold for ten thousand dollars today if offered for sale. Mrs. Slaughter who has reached the grand old age of eighty-nine, in a reminiscent mood recalled the days of slavery when she and her family were forced to steal away with their dogs for protection, to pray to God for deliverance.

God heard and answered those prayers and eventually gave us freedom. When I was converted said Mrs. Slaughter, I knew it and did not have to guess about it. "The Old Time Religion," is what we need today, it is our only hope in this troubled age.

Mrs. Slaughter thinks that she has served her time as matron of the home but her many friends have prevailed upon her to continue the work she founded and successfully carried on for a quarter of a century, feeling that her services to the community are indispensable.

A remarkable feature of this aged woman's life is the fact that for forty years she has not suffered an ache or pain, nor has she required the attention of a physician during these years.

Mrs. Slaughter is more active both in body and in mind than the average woman many years her junior.

Hard Boiled

The waitress, very much out of sorts, sailed haughtily up to the table at which sat the grouchy customer. She slammed down the cutlery, snatched a napkin from a pile and tossed it in front of him.

Then striking a furious pose, she glared at him. "Watcha want" "Couple of eggs," growled the diner. "How ya want 'em" "Just like you are."

Vignale Bros. Win With Floral Exhibits At Toronto Fair

At the Canadian National Exhibition the Vignale Bros. of Toronto and Lakeview Beach were again successful in their flower exhibit, taking a first in asters and a second in the gladioli group.

The older brother, who for some years was a student of art in Europe and at present is a very able artist, seems also to have the ability of producing beauty in nature. That Mr. Vignale puts the touch of the artist into his work is evidenced by the beauty of his gardens, which in time are a sight worth seeing.

It was Mr. Vignale's intention to exhibit some of his painting and sculpture work but unfortunately the work was delayed.

Another brother, who is a graduate of Toronto University in agricultural science devotes his time to research work along plant breeding lines, but is not connected with the brothers of Lakeview.

This shows us that there are indeed many lines of commercial activity open to those of our race when there is the necessary amount of effort applied.

DETROIT MINISTER WEDS LONDON GIRL

The pretty wedding was solemnized at the Hill St. Baptist Church at five o'clock the afternoon of September 3rd, when Miss Matilda H. Malott, sister to John Malott of this city was united to Rev. Bennett of Detroit.

Rev Hamilton performed the ceremony. Mr. John Lucas played the wedding march. The bride came in on the arm of her brother John. Her gown was of white crepe de chine and silk lace. The beautiful, embroidered tulle veil was arranged about her head with a rope of pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Miss Maud Walters and Mrs. Maud Cabrera, bridesmaid and maid of honor. The bridesmaid wore a gown of white voile and lace and ribbon, with a hat and slippers to match. The maid of honor was dressed in pink silk and lace with hat and slippers to match. Each carried bouquets of pink and lavender asters.

The two little flower girls were Burrel Johnson of Brantford and Ruth Washington, wearing dresses of net and silk and carried bouquets of flowers. Rev. Robertson was the best man.

During the signing of the register Mr. Andrew Moxley sang "Love Coronation."

A reception at the home of Mrs. A. W. Smith, Grey St. followed the ceremony.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with gladioli, pink and white asters and other cut flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett motored next morning to Detroit where they will reside, the bride wearing a blue tailored suit, grey picture hat and gloves to match. Out of town guests were from Brantford and Detroit.

A WORTHY CAUSE.

At the second meeting of the Canadian Association for the Advancement of Colored People, President J. W. Montgomery delivered a most timely and far reaching address. He said in part: "The Negro of today is facing an even larger and worse crisis than he has ever faced in other years and if we, the older people, do not alter it the condition will be worse for the next generation. We do not work for our own good alone but for the little ones that are to come and who will follow in our footsteps, and as long as we have the backing of the men that we have our organization will grow, because when they see the importance others will."

His address breathed the spirit of altruism. It will be remembered that Mr. Montgomery has not been blessed with any children. Another thing we might mention is that he is one of the few of our group who has a position which is both dignifying and remunerative, and thus it seems that he has no ulterior motive. He is seeking no personal gain.

As it is with the president, so is it with the other officers and members of the organization. A careful survey of the official staff will reveal the fact that it is made up of men and women who have risen beyond the mediocre stage, of men and women who are attempting big things. So far our membership comprises men and women who own their own homes and who are taxpayers. We mention these facts in order to emphasize the fact that the aims and objects of the organization are worthy.

That there will be critics who will accuse us of having selfish aims we are certain. That there will be others who will accuse us of being a band of agitators we know full well. Still we shall go forward, doing our work with spirits and head held high and undaunted. We shall do much to improve conditions of all the people and some of the very ones who knock us most shall be helped most, for it is they who need help most. To those who are already beginning to knock we would say this much. We need your help and co-operation if you are inclined to give it, still if you had rather knock than boost, very well, we shall proceed and succeed without you and in spite of you. For we are convinced that the hour has arrived to make an effort to better conditions, not only for the present generation, but for numberless colored boys and girls yet unborn. We are not demanding anything, but we are simply asking in the name of justice and fair play that our children be given an opportunity to work with their hands and with their brains wherever they can best fit into the social and industrial scheme.

N.B. If T.W.M. will send us his full name and address we shall be pleased to give his letter full publicity.

"LOST VIGOR RESTORED IN 24 HOURS"

"Glands Awakened in One Day," is the Amazing Statement of a 76-
Year-Old Veteran

Lost vigor, deadened glands and nerves, and that weak, worn-out, depressed and half-alive feeling need not be dreaded any longer since the discovery of a well-known chemist. Now it is possible for those who feel "prematurely old" to become "rejuvenated" and regain the "vital force of youth," often in a day's time, with Mando Formula, is the amazing statement of one who has taken the treatment. This famous discovery is bringing "renewed youth" and "strength" to thousands where everything else had failed.

"I want to say that my 'lost vigor' was restored and 'glands renewed' in twenty-four hours," says D. B. Peake, of Kansas City, Mo. "To-day I am 76, but I don't feel a day over 40. Before I started taking the treatment I felt I was an old, 'worn-out' man, but now I am enjoying a remarkable 'gland restoration' and am convinced my 'rejuvenation' is complete and permanent. May God's blessing rest on the discoverer of such a boon to humanity."

This wonderful formula, prepared by one of the largest laboratories in the world and generally known as Mando is easily used at home and seems to work like magic in its rapidity on people of all ages and sexes.

No matter how bad your condition, no matter what your age or occupation, no matter what you have tried, if you are lacking in "vigor" and the "vital force of youth," we are so confident Mando Formula will restore you that we offer to send a large $3.50 bottle for only $1.95 on 10 days' free trial. If the results are not satisfactory and you are not more than pleased in every way, it costs you nothing.

Send no money—just your name and address to F. L. Carlin, 679 Baltimore Bldg., Kansas City, Mo., and the treatment will be mailed at once. Use it according to simple directions. If at the end of 10 days you are not showing "wonderful improvement" and "rejuvenation," just send it back and your money will be refunded without question. This offer is fully guaranteed, so write to-day and give this "remarkable formula" a trial.

BRANTFORD NOTES

Rev. W. W. Adams held his first Quarterly Meeting in Woodstock on Sunday the 7th, accompanied by the choir and a number of others, about 25 in all from Brantford. The Woodstock people surely know how to make you welcome in their church and in their homes. The day on the whole was a grand success in every way.

Sunday the 14th will be Quarterly Meeting in Brantford, Rev. T. H. Jackson of Guelph will be with us for the day.

Those who attended the Bennett-Malotte wedding from this city were Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, Mrs. Isaac Johnston, Miss Bertha Johnston, Mrs. Clara Delfish and little Miss Burrell Johnston, who acted as one of the flower girls.

Mr. Lewis Jones motored a party from Chicago and is stopping with Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilson while in the city.

Miss Gladys Walker and Mrs. Evelyn Murray went to London Tuesday evening to assist in the Tag Day on Wednesday.

Miss Bertha Johnston is spending her holidays in London visiting relatives.

Mrs. Jasper Smith has returned home after visiting in Toronto.

Master Norman Goins is improving nicely after having met with a very painful accident. Being shot through the foot while handling a rifle.

COLLINGWOOD NOTES

Miss Dorothy Sheffield and Miss F. Cooper have returned from the exhibition at Toronto. While in that city they were the guests of the Misses Jackson.

Mr. Charles Duval was an Exhibition visitor. He was the guest of his niece, Mrs. Wallace Marshall.

Mr. Joseph Thomas came over from Midland Saturday evening and took charge of the Sabbath School of which he is Superintendent. We trust that work will look up in town soon again so that we can have our own Joseph back with us as he is greatly missed in the work of the church.

Mr. Milton Green has gone to Midland to work in the shipyard there, our yard having closed down here for an indefinite time.

Mrs. C. Lewis left for her home in Hamilton after a very pleasant stay with her mother and sisters.

We were very sorry to lose Mr. Woodbeck who since his stay in town has lent a helping hand in the work of the church. His boat sailed Saturday. We wish him a successful season and a safe return.

Rev. and Mrs. Plummer with their grand children and Mrs. Fanny Taylor of Owen Sound motored down to Collingwood on Friday and spent a few hours the guest of Mrs. W. R. Sheffield.
