LONDON, June 26.—Henry M. Stanley and his fiancee, Miss Tennant, attended the commemoration day exercises at Oxford University yesterday. The undergraduates gave Stanley a most uproarious reception. They cheered and chaffed him, and when he was formally presented they sang, "He's a Jolly Good Fellow," following up the song with more cheers for the explorer and finished with "one more for the bride." The degree of doctors of civil law was conferred upon Mr. Stanley and upon Prof. Godwin, of Harvard University.

A Roman Row.

ROME, June 26.—There was a heated debate at a meeting of the Municipal Council last night in regard to the bill introduced into the Chamber of Deputies by Prime Minister Crispi, to assist in re-organization of financial affairs of the municipality. At the conclusion of the discussion all the members of the Council, except Menoti Garibaldi, resigned as a protest against the Premier's measure. Signor Garibaldi declared he would retain his seat. His friends cheered him heartily, but others in the audience hissed. The reporters in attendance interfered on behalf of Signor Garibaldi and an altercation with his opponents in the audience ensued. It was found necessary to call the police to quell the disturbance.

Mr. Caine's Address.

LONDON, June 26.—The election address issued by Mr. W. S. Caine, the Union member for Barrow-in-Furness, who resigned his seat and is seeking re-election on an anti-compensation platform, is of a character that has caused surprise among all parties. Mr. Caine was foremost among those who seceded from the Liberal party because of their inability to support Mr. Gladstone's home rule scheme, and being one of the ablest of the dissidents he took a leading position in the Unionist party by common consent. Of late he has become restive under the Conservative domination of the Unionist organization, and developed traits of independence incompatible with his position as the whip of his party, and demoralizing to the Tory-Unionist coalition, but no one was prepared for the extreme movement he has undertaken. From the tone of his address to his constituents, it is evident that Mr. Caine is paving the way for his return to the Liberal fold, where he will be heartily welcomed. He expressed his conviction that the errors into which the Liberal party were led by their desire to do justice to Ireland have been remedied; that the defective portions of the plan of home rule have been eliminated from the scheme, and that the principles of that programme will be accepted by the people at the next general elections. Nothing stronger than this declaration of Liberal principle could be expected from one of Mr. Gladstone's most steadfast followers, and this, together with his consistent opposition to the Government's compensation scheme, should secure to him the undivided Gladstonian vote in his district.

The Conservatives will nominate a candidate to contest Mr. Caine's seat, and the Unionist leaders have decided to support the Tory. It is certain, however, that many of the Unionist electors will adhere to Mr. Caine in spite of the decision of the leaders.

The Queen at Balmoral.

LONDON, June 26.—The Queen's life at Balmoral is exceedingly simple. She breakfasts in her apartments between 9 and 10. Sometimes Princess Beatrice and other members of the family who may be staying at the castle take the matutinal meal with her, but oftimes she breakfasts alone, and her family have a movable feast in the large dining-room. The suite have a special dining-room set apart for them, and there they can take their meals together, except on particular occasions, when they are invited to her Majesty's table. These invitations, however, are never issued for breakfast, for the Queen prefers to be alone, in order that she may reflect over the programme of the day. Shortly after 10 the Queen begins to devote herself to the affairs of the nation, runs through the despatches which are sent to her daily by the Ministers, and, with the help of Sir Henry Ponsonby, jots down replies, Sir Henry acting as secretary The work is usually over by 1, about which time the Queen's messenger starts for London with the Queen's dispatches to the Ministers. At 2 o'clock the Queen lunches. Afterwards she goes for a drive or one of her vigorous walks, which are so trying to the less energetic of her ladies-in-waiting. The dinner hour is not till 9. After dinner the usual practice is that the Queen makes a few observations to her guests, and at about 11 retires to her private apartments. Of late, however, there have been changes in the evening programmes in the direction of greater gaiety.

CRITICAL OPERATION.

Tracheotomy Successfully Performed on a Child for Membranous Croup.

DETROIT, June 25.—A critical operation was successfully performed at the Grace Hospital on June 10 at 6 p.m. by Dr. J. B. Kennedy, assisted by Dr. John Wilson and the house staff of the hospital. Lorenz Hillicker, the 9-year-old son of Mr. James Hillicker, of 533 Twenty-third street, was taken suddenly ill with membranous croup, and though every known treatment was resorted to, he rapidly grew worse, breathing became almost impossible, and as a last resort the parents submitted to the proposition by the physicians to remove the patient to the Grace Hospital for an operation. The ambulance was called, the child hurried to the hospital, and tracheotomy immediately performed. The little fellow rallied well from the operation and gave hope to all that the one chance for life he had taken would be successful. A continuous spray of limewater was kept playing over the wound in the throat and the tube in the throat was removed and cleaned every hour. His improvement was noticeable each day, and on June 12, at 10:30 a.m., the stitches were removed. On June 16 the tube was finally removed and all danger was considered past, though no relaxation was made in the careful nursing. The incision in the throat closed rapidly, and on June 18 he was allowed to leave his room and be wheeled in the corridor, and on June 19, at noon, he was discharged entirely cured.

"KIDS" MARRIED.

A 15-Year-Old Groom Marries a 16-Year-Old Bride.

NEW ORLEANS, June 26.—The youngest couple ever united here were married before Judge Price of the First City Court this week, the contracting parties being Annie Reary, aged 13, and Frank Martinez, aged 15. They were really boy and girl, looking so young for their ages that the judge declined at first to unite them. But as they had a marriage certificate with them, and as their mothers were present and gave their full consent to the marriage, no valid objection could be raised, and the ceremony was performed. The marriage seemed all the stranger when it was developed that the couple had known each other only a short time.

Young Martinez is well-to-do in his own right, having recently inherited some $25,000 from his father. The laws of Louisiana provide that a minor who owns property can be emancipated and obtain control of it when he is 18, by order of court, or when he marries, marriage acting as an emancipator. To get possession of his fortune, therefore, young Martinez had to marry, which explains why he did not wait until his bride and himself had reached the high school.

WORK AND WAGES.

Prospect of Many Roads Being Involved in the Illinois Central Strike.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 26.—There is danger that unless the Illinois Central strike is settled soon it will spread to other roads. The Big Four, which has a trackage agreement with the Illinois Central, finding its business obstructed by the Illinois Central strike, has made an agreement with the Chicago and Eastern Illinois road to handle its business. The strikers suspected that the Illinois Central was also using the Chicago and Eastern Illinois tracks and sent warning to the switchmen of that road not to handle any Illinois Central traffic. The request was complied with, and the Eastern Illinois switchmen refused to handle any more Big Four cars. Thirteen cars of perishable freight are side-tracked at Kankakee. Committees of trainmen from several roads, including the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul and the Chicago, St. Paul and Kansas City Railway offered to make the strike general unless the trouble was settled at once.

NO FREIGHT MOVING.

CENTRALIA, Ill., June 26.—The Illinois Central strike is now in full blast. All the crews on the main line between Centralia and Dubuque went out yesterday. Those on the Cairo division are now all out and not a wheel turns except to carry mails. Train Master Higgins attempted to take out a train in the afternoon yesterday, but the cars were uncoupled and the engine taken to the round house by the strikers.

TOENAILS AND HAIR.

A New Orleans Man Voodooed—The Remedy.

NEW ORLEANS, June 26.—The voodooism is not wholly dead in New Orleans is proved by a suit recently brought against John Sandmaker, a railroad man living in this city, who has been in bad luck and bad health lately. A friend induced him to visit a fortune teller, who declared that he had been voodooed by an enemy. The charm was in a certain tree, she said, and until that tree was cut down, or the charm discovered, he (Sandmaker) would continue to suffer. Sandmaker went at once to his home at the corner of Claiborne and Fourth streets and began work on the tree. It was a tall magnolia. In the very heart of the tree, in the center of a mass of wood, the gri-gri charm was discovered—toe nails and hair of the exact color and character of Sandmaker's—these being the materials usually employed by the voodoos in bringing bad luck on an enemy.

The discovery created great excitement among the neighbors, particularly among the negroes.

Next morning he was served with a warrant from the First Recorder Court, charging him with malicious mischief, sworn out by Mrs. Burke, who owns the house in which he lives. The case, however, was settled in court without further proceedings. Sandmaker offered to make good any loss he might have caused, and Mrs. Burke withdrew the charge.

TAKING DOWN THE BARS.

Blaine's Suggestion for Tariff Legislation Aiming at Reciprocity.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 26.—The Evening Star says: "An informal conference has been held by a number of Western Senators and members of the House who are pleased with Mr. Blaine's suggestion for tariff legislation aiming at reciprocity between the United States and the other American republics. The subject was very generally discussed and Mr. Blaine's proposition was unequivocally indorsed. Senators stated that it was rapidly growing in favor in the Senate and expressed confidence that the Hale amendment could be adopted. They seemed to have no doubt about this. There was another proposition in the same connection that they thought was sure to develop great strength in the Senate and would finally prevail. This proposition is to abandon the McKinley Bill and all attempts at a general revision, and to adopt amendments to the present law reducing duties on or admitting free of duty certain products of American nations whenever reciprocal action is taken by the governments of other nations. The idea is to admit sugar, wool and other products free and to make a considerable cut on lumber, in return for which our products are to be admitted free in the ports of the countries so favored by us."

BRITISH METHODISTS.

General Conference of the B. M. E. Church.

TORONTO, June 26.—The General Conference of the British Methodist Episcopal Church of Canada began its quadrennial session here yesterday morning. Rev. Mr. Hawkins, the general superintendent, occupied the chair, and Rev. N. T. Minter, of Guelph, was elected secretary, with Mr. W. L. Berry, of London, as assistant. Revs. T. H. Slater, H. M. Cephas and G. R. Blount were named a committee on credentials. On their report the delegates present were formally received.

Mr. W. F. McBain, a young student from Jamaica, was introduced, and spoke of the work in the West Indies in a most encouraging manner.

In the evening Rev. W. R. Drake, of Brantford, preached to a large audience. This evening Rev. H. M. Cephas will preach. On Monday afternoon from 4 to 5 the Sunday school will be present, and will be addressed by Rev. Messrs. Hawkins, Minter, Ellsworth, Cephas and Mr. W. L. Berry.

—The new Walkerville electric street railway is progressing. The only difficulty yet to be surmounted is the purchasing of a strip through two farms, the owners having combined and refusing to sell the necessary 200 feet for less than $1,500—said to be a very high price.

—The dimensions of the lake going craft continues to increase. The new steamer T. R. Kirby last week brought down 2,510 tons of ore, the largest cargo which has yet passed through the Sault Canal. If the water in the lakes continues to rise, the 3,000 ton mark may be passed this season.

—Charles Queen, a Norfolk man, bet that he could let a gallon of water drop on his hand from the distance of three feet, drop by drop. After 500 drops had struck him he yelled "enough!" and paid the debt of $50. He said that each one fell like the blow of a sharp stick, and a blister as large as a quarter was raised on the back of his hand.—[St. Thomas Times.

Tamed by Perfumes.

Wild animals are completely fascinated and can be tamed by perfumes. There was a Mrs. Lee in India who had a tame leopard that played in the house with her children, says John G. Wood in the New Book. He was very inquisitive, as all of the cat tribe are, and loved to stand on his hind legs on the window sill and look at the passers-by. When the children wanted the place for themselves they would all take hold of his tail and pull him down by that. He was generally very amiable, but sometimes, his claws being very sharp, the children were scratched. So Mrs. Lee taught Sal to keep his claws sheathed by giving him, when he did so, a little paper tray on which lavender water had been dropped. This would throw him into transports of delight. He would tear the paper into bits and roll over them on the floor. With nothing but a bottle of lavender water I have become the best of friends with a leopard, a tigress and a lioness in a menagerie.

Thanks to the untiring efforts of the energetic committee composed of Trustees J. B. Cook (chairman), E. H. Johnston (secretary), W. Yates and J. Stephenson, appointed by the Board of Education to superintend the affairs of the Dominion Day celebration, and to the co-operation of the citizens generally, everything is now in readiness for the arrival of the anniversary of Canada's federation, and the only essential that may be wanting to guarantee a successful issue will be fine weather. The school children will form at their respective schools at 9:30 o'clock in the morning and march to the Union School.

The processionists, under the direction of Mr. Barron, will sing patriotic songs on the march.

THE TRIGGER.

ON DOMINION DAY.

Tuesday next (Dominion Day) promises to be a red-letter day in the history of the London Gun Club, for on that day a match will be shot by teams representing the home club and the Ridgetown Gun Club. The latter is looked on as one of the crack clubs of the country, all the members being well known field shots. There will be fifteen men on each side, divided into three squads of five each. The London club squads will be captained as follows: No. 1, J. P. Evans; No. 2, Redpath; No. 3, W. Avey. The visitors' team will be composed of the following: D. Leitch, C. Thorold, H. O'Loane, W. Thorold, H. Ruth, H. Cathon, W. C. Rhodes, H. Scane, A. Vincent, J. Lang, J. A. Elliott, H. A. Mallory. At least 50 Ridgetownites will accompany the party, and many are expected from other places to witness the match. As a low rate of admission is to be charged, the club grounds on London West Heights will no doubt be visited by large crowds.

NOTES.

It is said that ten members of the Toronto Gun Club are about to make a tour through Western Ontario. The London club is in good shape now and will give them a hustle.

A match is being arranged between the married and single members of the London Gun Club. The losers will present 50 loaves of bread to the Protestant Orphans' Home and 50 loaves to the Roman Catholic Home. The benedicts will be captained by Mr. J. D. Wilkinson, of Birrell's, and those who enjoy a state of single blessedness will be led by Redpath.

CRICKET.

There will be a practice match on the London South Cricket ground on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock between London North and London Suth clubs. This game is not to count in the association series, as the proper notice of it is not given.

Among the pains and aches cured with marvelous rapidity with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, is ear-ache. The young are especially subject to it, and the desirability of this Oil as a family remedy is enhanced by the fact that it is admirably adapted not only to the above ailment, but also to the hurts, disorders of the bowels, and affections of the throat, to which the young are specially subject.

The sorrow of yesterday is as nothing, that of to-day is bearable, but that of to-morrow is gigantic, because indistinct.

ABOUT HAIR

Editor of the ADVERTISER:

Sir,—I have, as you know, for some time advertised in Canada and the States a preparation for the hair called "Dr. Dorenwend's Hair Magic." I have received some thousands of flattering testimonials from those who have used it as to its merits as a restorative of gray or faded hair; also as a promoter of the growth and a certain cure for dandruff.

A great many of my correspondents ask the questions: "Why is my hair turning gray so early? Why is my hair falling out?" As it is impossible for me to answer every one, I take the liberty of encroaching on your valuable space to make a general reply. A great many persons do not seem to be aware that excessive washing and rubbing is injurious to the growth of the hair; such is the case, however. Constant washing and rubbing the scalp and hair causes over irritation and removes the oily substance which gives strength to the hair; undue heat caused by the wearing of heavy headgear is also injurious. Anything that will tend to dry up the sap or life of the hair will cause dandruff, falling out of the hair, gray or faded hair and finally baldness. Of course there are other causes as diseases, hereditary tendencies, etc., but the first mentioned are the main and most common.

Dr. Dorenwend, an eminent German physician, has given to the world after years of toil and experiment his now famous "Hair Magic." The object of this preparation is to assist nature in the production of this oily substance absolutely necessary to the growth of the hair. It is now sold by all reliable druggists at $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5, or will be sent on receipt of price to any address. See that each wrapper bears the seal and signature of the manufacturer,

"ST. GEORGE'S."

Laying the Corner-Stone of London West's New Church.

The Ceremony Performed by Canon Newman—Details of the Interesting Incident.

The corner-stone of the handsome edifice to be erected by the congregation of St. George's Church, London West, was laid with imposing ceremonies last evening. A large number of people congregated to witness the proceedings which took place on the site of the proposed new building. The choir of St. George's Church, the ministers and the Building Committee were stationed on a large platform erected for the occasion. The singing and the addresses, with the associations of the occasion, made the ceremony an impressive one. A procession was formed at the Sunday school, headed by the committee, and proceeded to the site of the building. The ceremony was begun with prayer by the Bishop of Huron and a responsive service. Mr. H. A. Kingsmill then advanced and read the following document, which was deposited in the corner stone:

"To the glory of God, amen. This corner-stone of St. George's Church, in the village of London West, township of London, in the County of Middlesex, Province of Ontario, Dominion of Canada, was well and truly laid on the 26th day of June, 1890, by the Rev. Edward Edmond Newman, canon of the Diocese of Huron and first rector of this parish; the Rt. Rev. Maurice S. Baldwin, D.D., Lord Bishop of Huron; the Very Rev. George M. Innes, Dean of Huron; Rev. G. B. Sage, B.A., rector of this church; J. H. Lings and H. A. Kingsmill, church wardens; in the 54th year of the reign of Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and Empress of India (in India), etc., in the 24th year of the confederation of the Provinces of the Dominion of Canada; Lord Stanley of Preston, Governor-General of Canada; Rt. Hon. Sir John A. Macdonald, Premier of the Dominion of Canada; Hon. John Carling, Minister of Agriculture; M. P. for the city of London; Wm. Ralph Meredith, M. P. P. city of London; Joseph Marshall, Esq., M. P. East Middlesex; Richard Tooley, Esq., M. P. P. East Middlesex; R. F. Lacey, Esq., M. P. P. East Middlesex; Richard Tooley, Esq., reeve of the village of London West.

The following are also deposited in this corner-stone: Copies of the London Advertiser, London Free Press, Toronto Empire, Toronto Mail, Toronto Globe, Canadian Almanac for 1890, the Holy Bible.

Members of the Building Committee: Rev. Canon Newman, Rev. G. B. Sage, rector; J. Canon Newman, Rev. G. B. Sage, rector; J. H. Lings and H. A. Kingsmill, church wardens; Thomas F. Kingsmill, sen., George C. Jolly, S. Gibson, Thomas Ward, R. S. Rockett, W. W. Fitzgerald, Wm. Peters, Joseph O. Wade, J. E. Snow, R. A. Jones, D. C. Macdonald and Edward Edmunds. Charles C. Gower, vestry clerk.

After prayer by the Bishop and the singing of a hymn the corner-stone was adjusted. Canon Newman then advanced and was handed a handsome sterling silver trowel, with the inscription:

Presented to Rev. Canon Newman in Memoriam
of Laying the Corner-Stone
for St. George's Church,
London West.
June 25, 1890.

The Canon delivered a short prayer and after applying the trowel declared the corner-stone well and truly laid.

Bishop Baldwin addressed the assemblage and heartily congratulated the members and especially Canon Newman, who was the principal person in building up the church, and hoped he might long be spared to see his work prosper in the sunshine and blessing of God. The Bishop trusted that the church might be brought to a happy completion, and that it might also be consecrated on the same day as it was opened for services. In conclusion he said: "I trust that your dear young rector will be blessed abundantly, that his whole soul will be enriched, and that he may see his work crowned with success. May God bless this work to the glory of his great name."

Dean Innes gave a short history of the parish and detailed its remarkable growth. He trusted, by God's grace, that the help of, him who ever answered prayer, that the church might prosper and the members become living stones built upon the one foundation—Jesus Christ.

Canon Newman spoke briefly in reply, and seemed overcome by emotion. He said the enterprise in which they were engaged was no ordinary one, but one with which many had been connected from childhood. He thanked God that he had lived to see such a happy outcome of the work, and earnestly prayed that its future might be a grand and glorious one.

A handsome collection was taken up during the ceremony.

Following are the names of the clergymen present: Rt. Rev. M. S. Baldwin, Bishop of Huron; Dean Innes, Archbishop Marsh, Canons Newman, Smith, Davis and Richardson, Revs. G. B. Sage (rector), W. M. Seaborne, J. T. Wright, E. N. English, A. E. Edelstein, T. F. Kingsmill and Mr. Shore, of Walkerton. The building will be a handsome structure of brick with stone facings and will cost about $6,500. Mr. Fred L. Henry is the architect.

The Copetown Crash.

HAMILTON, June 26.—The inquest upon the death of E. J. Macdonnell was continued to-night. James Collins, baggageman, gave evidence similar to that of the other trainmen last evening. Chief Engineer Hobson said he was familiar with the track at the scene of the accident. He had not experienced any trouble with it. He went over that portion of the track on the morning of the accident and paid close attention to it on account of the men working there. Mr. Hobson was fully convinced that expansion, due to the great heat of the day—106 degrees Fahrenheit—was the cause of Monday's accident.

John Sullivan, track foreman, swore that his men had been working on the spot for about two weeks. On Monday morning the track was being ballasted and they had put in ten or twelve ties that day. There was fully three inches of ballast between the ties. Charles Johnson, trackman, corroborated Sullivan's testimony.

THE London correspondent of the Liverpool Mercury furnishes this interesting bit of news: "While all England is continuing to fete Mr. Stanley, it is not pleasant to reflect that his great predecessor in African exploration, Sir Richard Burton, is lying very dangerously ill, neglected and alone, in London lodgings. Yet in his time and in his own way the elder traveler accomplished even more remarkable feats than the heroof the hour. His romantic pilgrimage to Mecca and Elahedinah in the disguise of a Moslem devotee, his journey through Berberah to the sacred city of Barah, where no other infidel foot has ever trodden, were but preliminaries to the great achievement of his life, the discovery of Lake Tanganyika. This discovery paved the way for all that has since been done in Central Africa, and but for the failure of his resources Capt. Burton would undoubtedly have reaped much of the honor which has gone to others."

The Hospital.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

Reading over the complaints of the nurses at the hospital, their hours must often be tedious while administering to the wants of the patients, even with kind hearts and willing hands of charity. I propose that a collection from workingmen be taken or given by them of 50 cents or $1 each, which might be dropped into the collection boxes or forwarded to the hospital.

How groaning hospitals eject their dead!
What numbers groan for sad admission there!
What numbers, once in fortune's lap high fed,
Solicit the cold hand of charity!
To shock us more solicit it in vain!
—[Night I.—Young's poems.

There have been many alterations in the building causing expenses, and now let the honest workingmen come forward with $1,000 or $2,000, and even in some of the churches collectious might be taken up for this purpose. In some of the churches there are collection boxes. It is no use writing much for many stand in need of help, one can help many and many can help one.

How many stand
Around the death-bed of their dearest friends,
And point the parting anguish. Thought fond man
Of these, and all the thousand nameless ills,
One scene of toil, of suffering, and of fate;
Vice in his high career would stand appalled,
And heedless rambling impulse learn to think;
The conscious heart of Charity would warm,
And her wide wish benevolence dilate;
The social tear would rise, the social sigh;
And into clear perfection, gradual bliss,
Refining still the social passions work, etc.

The City and London West.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

I was glad to see the steps taken by our Village Council in reference to amalgamation. I myself, am in favor of amalgamation and always have been, but when some cranks want to give the village away just for the sake of getting into the city, I, like the majority of ratepayers, will put my foot down solid. If the scheme as subjected by our Council can possibly be carried out, London West will be West London in a very short space of time. If the city gives us a differential rate, a few years will soon pass away, and then we shall all be on an equal footing. We are near the center of the city and do not need so much as other outlying wards. For instance we need very little police protection. We do not need a fire station, for our houses are all well isolated and can be insured at the lowest rates. The free ridges are naturally anxious to know what they will gain by the step about to be taken. The first result will be almost double taxes. The people are not to be led by the nose with men like D. C. Macdonald, who has not a cent of interest in the village and who can afford to amalgamate at any price, but those who will have to pay the piper want a fair understanding before the ball opens. I remain yours truly,

AMALGAMATION.

A Seasonable Hint.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

Just now when the plentiful supply of strawberries and the good promise of other fruits to follow are keeping the hands of all good housewives busy over preserving pots and pans, may I venture to put in a good word for the various homes of our city where such things, from not being positive necessaries, are not counted amongst the household economies, and therefore are not usually provided. It was suggested on behalf of the Convalescent Home that if its friends would each label a pot or two with its name and their own inscribed legibly thereon, not only would their kindness be much appreciated, the enjoyment of their own store enhanced, but the pots themselves could be safely returned to them, which, as all good housekeepers know, is no trifling consideration. I venture to pass on this timely suggestion to the friends of all our institutions alike as

A WORD IN SEASON.

London, June 25.

House Numbering—A Good Suggestion

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

Now that the city is enlarging her boundaries, would it not be advisable to change the present plan of numbering the houses, and to renumber them, so that citizens will have no difficulty in finding the location of any number? Owing to the interference of a prominent city official, at the time that the present plan had been adopted, the original plan proposed by the then city engineer (of numbering the houses from two central streets) was not adopted. In Philadelphia the houses are numbered in that way, and each block commences with either 100, 200, 300, and continued on adding 100 to each block until the boundary of the city is reached. So if a similar plan was adopted here and the houses numbered north and south from Dundas street, then if the location of a number was required, say No. 215, the number of hundreds would indicate the second block from Dundas street north or south (as either N or S was added to the number in the direction), and if the numbers were twenty feet apart, that is, two numbers in every twenty feet, one even number on one side and one odd number on the opposite side, the No. 215 would be found in the second block and 150 feet from the nearest corner of said block to Dundas street. Wellington street being the first wide street, the streets running east and west might be numbered from there in a similar manner as from Dundas street, so that when the two streets (in the city proper) are known, from which the blocks are numbered, there would be no difficulty in finding the location of any number. The same principle might be adopted in East and South London. Some departure from the principle might be made on some streets as the ability of the City Engineer may enable him to do, and any other changes that may be necessary to improve the above suggestions. As the present numbers are available the cost would not be much.

THE GOOD TEMPLARS.

Closing Meeting of the Grand Lodge—Speeches by Dr. Oronhyatekha and Others—Officers Elected.

GALT, June 25.—There was a good turnout of prominent citizens at the public meeting of the Grand Lodge of Royal Templars in the Town Hall last night. Grand Chief Templar McMullen occupied the chair, and with him on the platform were Revs. A. G. King, T. H. Carey, W. L. Scott, A. E. Cunningham, J. Johnston, G. Fessant, J. Maxworthy, Dr. Oronhyatekha and others.

Mr. Spence presented an encouraging statement of the progress of the temperance cause. In 1874 Ontario had 6,185 places licensed to sell strong drink. Last year there were only 2,445. But much remains to be done. Startling statistics of Canadian crime were quoted, and an earnest plea was made for the agency which the meeting represented.

Mrs. B. B. Keefer spoke of the history of the temperance cause and the great advance that had been made, especially since women had taken a share in the work. She did not think that women had yet realized their duty and strength. It was right for them to care for the babies, but they had to do this, not merely by training the little ones at home, but also by working for the removal of the temptations that clustered around the outside of the home.

Mrs. W. L. Scott spoke with much earnestness of the value of the juvenile department and the necessity for the sound training of girls and boys in temperance principles.

Dr. Oronhyatekha claimed to be the handsomest Indian in the Grand Lodge. The town of Galt on this hot night had given the Grand Lodge a warm reception. All that he was he owed to this order. He had been connected with it 33 years. It numbered 600,000 or 700,000 in its member ship, and to its support was annually contributed $250,000. He spoke at length of the growing strength of temperance sentiment as manifested by the action of Masonic and other grand bodies in proscribing liquor sellers. He desired to warn anyone present against offering him liquor, as the sale of liquor to Indians was punished by heavy fines and imprisonment, and he earnestly hoped that white men would soon come up to the standard of Indian civilization and receive the legal protection which their red brothers now enjoyed.

The benediction closed a meeting that was a pleasure to all who had the privilege of attending it.

The Grand Lodge resumed business this morning. The Committee on the State of the Order reported. Ontario is for working purposes divided into fourteen sections, in each of which it is proposed to maintain a district lodge to control local missionary work. For this purpose out of the general tax fund each district has appropriated to it 16 cents per year for each member in its jurisdiction. The report recommended that the Grand Lodge should control missionary work and the mission fund in each district until this fund amounted to $100, when the work should be handed over to a district lodge. The Grand Lodge decided to leave the work to district lodges wherever they existed.

A deputation from the W. C. T. U. presented to the Grand Lodge the now famous world's petition for prohibition, and a unanimous rising vote instructed the officers of the lodge to sign this document on behalf of the 13,000 Ontario Good Templars.

It was decided that the grand secretary's office should be moved to Toronto, and that a standing Central Committee be appointed to co-operate with local workers to make the order more effective in electoral work. The election of grand officers resulted as follows:

Chief Templar—James E. Wilson, Galt.
Vice-Templar—Miss K. Watson, Toronto.
Councilor—Frank Metcalfe, Blyth.
Superintendent of Juvenile Work—Mrs. W. L. Scott, Toronto.
Secretary—Thos. Lawless, Hamilton.
Treasurer—E. Burritt, Mitchell.
Auditors—John T. Dyson and George Hardy, Toronto.

Delegates to the biennial session of the Right Worthy Grand Lodge meeting at Edinburgh, Scotland, in 1891—F. S. Spence, J. B. Hay, Mrs. B. B. Keefer, F. E. Robertson; alternates, Dr. D. Albert Rose, John E. Wilson, E. Storr, E. Dawson.

Deputy of the right grand templar—J. L. Robertson.

Appointed officers—Chaplain, Rev. S. W. Maxworthy; marshal, J. H. Johnston; deputy marshal, Miss M. Mahoney; guard, Mrs. S. A. Mitchell; sentinel, D. J. B. Sawyer; messenger, W. A. Gordon.

The officers elected were then installed by Dr. Oronhyatekha and Mr. Daniel Rose. In the evening a stormy but good-natured discussion resulted on the Finance Committee's report. It was ordered that the per capita tax on subordinate lodges be 10 cents per quarter per member; one-half the amount to be handed over to district lodges for missionary work, and that the Grand Secretary's salary be $100 per annum.

A resolution was adopted inviting the Right Worthy Grand Lodge, the supreme body of the order, to hold its biennial session of the Grand Lodge will be at Peterboro, commencing on the fourth Tuesday of June, 1891.

London, Thursday, June 26.

BECAUSE the ADVERTISER is an authority on agricultural matters, the Hamilton Spectator nominates the editor for the Ministry of Agriculture in the Mowat Administration. Take time, fellow toiler. The editor could not think of undertaking such a task with his present slim knowledge of chicken breeding. When do the Hamilton classes on the subject resume?

THE Winnipeg Free Press, in a recent article to which the ADVERTISER referred, laid it down as the law in Ontario that a member of the Legislature cannot resign his seat till after the House meets, because until then there is no Speaker to whom he can address his resignation. This is not the case. The Ontario law provides that a member of the Assembly can resign before the House meets by addressing a declaration, etc., to any two members-elect, who shall forthwith address their warrant for a new election to the Clerk of the Crown-in-Chancery.

HON. MR. RHODES, one of the members of the Quebec Government, only had a majority of 1 after the judge got through with the recount, and the Tory papers have been poking fun at him in consequence. The Colonel can stand it all. He knows that Hon. Mr. Mercier's majority in the House will be not 1, but from 25 to 30 in a House of 73. He has the satisfaction, too, of seeing Hon. Mr. Tailon, the Tory leader, defeated, and now Mr. Tasse, editor of La Minerve, who was to succeed him, has been defeated by the casting vote of the returning officer. A majority of 1 is enough when a man is in a tight place.

WE ARE sure the taxpayers of the city will approve of the public schools being connected with the telephone system, as is now proposed, and as is the case in other cities of Ontario. Though for no other reason than the added protection against fire, the improvement should be effected as speedily as possible. The interest on the investment of a telephone for each school is a mere nothing compared with the increased security from fire which the ability to communicate promptly with the Fire Department affords. No public institution or valuable building of any description, if in constant use, should be without a telephone. Indeed insurance companies stand in their own light if they do not give structures so safeguarded an advantage, in point of rates, over those that are not.

THE CHILDREN'S PARADE.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

Will you be so kind as to tell me the use or sense (if you can find any) of the children's parade which is to be enacted on July 1? Have we any means of preventing this cruelty to children, who are to be forced to march under the scorching midday sun? For what? To gratify some ignorant humbugs. Let the promoters of it march, and march to Jericho, or join Inspector Dearness in his very much needed rest in the shades of Muskoka, so our little ones may rest in their homes. Yours respectfully,
T. G. GORDON.

As we understand it, the object of the children's demonstration on Dominion Day is a good one. It is meant to be a gathering of all the school children with their parents, at a central point, for the purpose of getting the first groundings in Canadian patriotism. Our children cannot be trained too carefully to believe in the land of their birth. So far the object is such as to commend itself to every patriotic citizen. But there is such a thing as overdoing the business. That has been done in Toronto, where, to gratify the pomp of an egotistical school inspector and a few trustees who fell in with his absurd ideas, the children were marched several miles through the crowded streets in the scorching sun of a midsummer day. We have good authority for saying that the exposure and fatigue seriously affected the health of more than one of the juvenile participants in that procession. It was a cruel thing to drag the little ones all that distance at the tail of the Inspector's nag, when it would have been far easier for the children to take the shortest journey to the park where the demonstration was held, and which the little ones reached more dead than alive.

Now, we have no official intimation of the distance which the managers of the school children parade in London have stipulated that they shall travel before they reach the Collegiate Institute grounds. We believe, however, that the intention is to start from the Central School grounds, march down King street to Richmond, up Richmond to Dundas, along Dundas to Waterloo, and up Waterloo to the Institute. This route is an improvement upon that decreed in Toronto, but in view of the extreme heat, and the fact that all the little ones—even the wee tots—will be expected to participate, and will be required to stand while the addresses of notables are being delivered, it is desirable that the length of walk should be cut down. Why not let the march be direct from the Central School grounds to the Institute? We think our correspondent's warning in order, even though it is not couched in the choicest of terms.

THE POSSESSION OF $130,000.

To thoroughly understand the dispute as to the disposal of the $130,000 which the Legislature at its last session authorized the City Council to borrow, it is well to read the clause in the act regarding the matter. The terms of clause 17 are as follows:

Notwithstanding the provisions of any act or law, the said last mentioned corporation may borrow for any period not exceeding 30 years such sum not exceeding $130,000 as the Council thereof may deem meet, and the moneys so borrowed shall form a fund for and be applied in extending the system of waterworks of the said city, and so far as it may not be necessary to use the same for that purpose, the said Water Commissioners shall pay the same over to the Treasurer of the said city to be applied for the general purposes thereof; but such last-mentioned application shall not be made to any greater extent than $60,000, which represents the amounts paid by said Commissioners on capital accounts out of the revenues of the said waterworks.

Nothing, to our mind, could be plainer than this statement. The $130,000 is for the purpose of extending the waterworks, in accordance with the needs of the city as a whole, but with special regard for the agreement of the corporation with the taxpayers of South London, now Ward 6. The money remaining, after the needed works have been accomplished, is to be devoted to city purposes, but only to the extent of the $60,000 set forth.

It is explained, on behalf of the City Council, that the Water Commissioners said they would only require $70,000 for the new works, and that therefore the $60,000 should be handed over to the Council as soon as the debentures are issued. The reply of the Water Commissioners is that they mean to stick by the act. Though they were not consulted as to the exact terms of its provisions, they are satisfied to abide by them. They say, and their argument has force in it, that at present it is impossible to tell how much money will be needed to provide water for the added suburb and increase the supply in the city as the taxpayers may demand. The cost of land and springs to be acquired has yet to be submitted to arbitration, and it is therefore impossible to tell what the requirements of the Commissioners will be. Commissioners Davis and Essery therefore propose to abide by the act of the Legislature, have the debentures issued, the money funded and spent as needed for the special work now entered on, and the balance to be handed over to the Council.

Mayor Taylor, on behalf of the Council, asks the Commissioners to be contented with the $70,000, and to make over the $60,000 to the Council, to be spent in various ways, but principally in the purchase of an electric lighting plant. It is for this reason that, on second thoughts, it has been deemed wise to withdraw the bylaw passed, in accordance with the act of the Legislature, at the last meeting of the Council, which practically gave the control of the whole $130,0000 to the Commissioners, until such time as the extension of the waterworks is completed.

We are inclined to the belief that the Water Commissioners have the best of the contest. The people will hold them to their promise to have an ample supply of water provided for all parts of the city at as early a date as is practicable, and it is only reasonable that the Commissioners should take every necessary precaution not to be hampered for funds as the work progresses. We believe we interpret public opinion pretty accurately when we say that no matter what comes of the electric lighting scheme, the waterworks extensions must not be delayed. Though it is desirable that the city should control its own lighting system, there is really no hurry for purchasing electric lighting apparatus, especially in view of the fact that improvements are being continually made on the systems now in use. But the public health demands that the city shall have plenty of water for all who require it, and the Commissioners must not be thwarted if they keep that object in view.

THE AMERICAN ACADEMY.

The American Academy of Political and Social Science is in one respect like the typical newspaper, having, as we are officially informed, been "organized in answer to a long-felt want." But in most other respects it differs organically from the typical newspaper, and its main purpose is to offer to students of economics, politics and sociology, a society which may do in the general field of political and social science what similar associations are doing for natural science. Though the home of the academy is in Philadelphia, it already numbers in the list of its members the names of a few well-known Canadian students of political, economical and social science, and the General Advisory Committee contains such men as Prof. Ashley, of Toronto, and Dr. Bourinot, of Ottawa. To the latter gentleman is given the post of honor as first contributor to the journal of the academy, a handsome quarterly of 164 pages. The subject of Dr. Bourinot's paper which was read at the second Scientific Session of the Academy, held at Philadelphia in April last, is "Canada and the United States: A Study in Comparative Politics." The paper deals in some detail with the principles of government in the two countries as provided in their respective constitutions, but special reference is made to the points in which they differ—responsibility to the people's representatives and exercise of the veto power. And having carefully reviewed the two systems, it is Dr. Bourinot's opinion that Canada has been steadily working out her own destiny on sound principles, and has in nowise shown an inclination to make the United States her model in any vital particular. "It is quite clear," he says, "that Canadians who have achieved a decided success so far in working out their plan of federal union of the old Provinces, in founding new Provinces and opening up a vast territory to settlement, in covering every section of their own domain with a network of railways, in showing their ability to put down dissension and rebellion in their midst, are not, I think, ready, in view of such achievements, to confess failure, an absence of a spirit of self-dependence, a want of courage and national ambition, an incapacity for self-government, and to look forward to annexation to the United States as their 'manifest destiny.'" The gentlemen of the academy do not appear to have been disposed to discuss the issues presented by the paper, or perhaps they were not sufficiently well acquainted with the system of responsible government as it is worked out in the Dominion and Provinces of Canada to discuss them intelligently. One learned member took the ground that the system of ministerial responsibility which Dr. Bourinot seemed to appprove was unsuited to the American system of government, and that it had not been tried long enough in any purely democratic country for an ultimate opinion to be formed in regard to its merits. Another member thought that the test of modern governments was coming to be more and more their success in municipal government, and was curious to know how the Canadian system worked in that respect; to which a third replied by stating his conviction from a careful study of the facts that the cities of Western Europe are very much better governed than those of the United States. In Liverpool, he said, malfeasance in office was unknown, money appropriated for a given purpose was expended for that purpose, and public wants were fairly well looked after.

It is unfortunate, we cannot help thinking, that there was not present some one who possessed an intimate knowledge of the Canadian and United States systems, in so far as it can be said that they constitute two distinct systems. We think Dr. Bourinot went a little further than the facts warrant in drawing lines of distinction between them, and we think also that those who express a fear of the unsuitability of responsible government to a democratic country have not a little to learn of what the responsible system is in practice and what a democracy means. Nothing, for instance, can be more democratic than the system of local municipal government as it exists in England, and where it has prevailed for 1,000 years. In so far as systems of government go, the county of Essex might be attached to the State of Michigan tomorrow, and its citizens could hardly realize the difference in so far as the working of municipal, state and federal institutions might go. There are minor differences, to be sure, but they are of little account compared with the points of government. We venture to suggest to the academy the desirableness of all future sessions to secure the presence of one or more Canadians who could take part in the discussion of large questions of international interest; it would be a mutual gain.

Three or four other Canadian topics are referred to in this number of the Academy's Quarterly—one being a review of Prof. Munro's work on the Constitution of Canada and another on J. M. McEvoy's Ontario Township. The latter is the production of one of our Middlesex boys, and is very favorably noticed.

Constipation,

IF not remedied in season, is liable to become habitual and chronic. Drastic purgatives, by weakening the bowels, confirm, rather than cure, the evil. Ayer's Pills, being mild, effective, and strengthening in their action, are generally recommended by the faculty as the best of aperients.

"Having been subject, for years, to constipation, without being able to find much relief, I at last tried Ayer's Pills. I deem it both a duty and a pleasure to testify that I have derived great benefit from their use. For over two years past I have taken one of these pills every night before retiring. I would not willingly be without them."—G. W. Bowman, 26 East Main st., Carlisle, Pa.

"I have been taking Ayer's Pills and using them in my family since 1857, and cheerfully recommend them to all in need of a safe but effectual cathartic."—John M. Boggs, Louisville, Ky.

"For eight years I was afflicted with constipation, which at last became so bad that the doctors could do no more for me. Then I began to take Ayer's Pills, and soon the bowels recovered their natural and regular action, so that now I am in excellent health."—S. L. Loughbridge, Bryan, Texas.

"Having used Ayer's Pills, with good results, I fully indorse them for the purposes for which they are recommended."—T. Conners, M. D., Centre Bridge, Pa.

THE FRENCHMEN VICTORIOUS.

Two games were played here yesterday afternoon, one at 4 o'clock and the other at 6:30 between the Montreals and Londons. The first was won by the Frenchmen, who warmed the delivery of Mickey Jones somewhat freely, but poor support by the London field was also in a measure accountable for the defeat. Latouche was the pitcher for the visitors and was hit freely but at inopportune times. A hit by Hiland, errors by Dowie and Latouche and a single by Connors yielded London two runs in the first. Although three or four good chances of scoring occurred afterwards they failed to materialize until the ninth, when Leighton secured first by forcing Hiland out at second and scored on Friel's three-bagger. For Montreal, in the third, errors by Leighton, Wright and Coughlin and Foulkrod's single yielded no less than three. Dowie made a double in the fourth and scored on Latouche's single. Hulin made a single and scored on Sales' double in the fifth. Jones was taken out of the box at the end of the fifth inning and Demaris was substituted. Score:

THE TABLES TURNED.

The second game was not as interesting as the first, owing to the fact that the Londons almost knocked Petty out in the first inning. Singles by Hiland, Friel, Coughlin and Wright, Leighton's base on balls and Petty's wild pitch gave the home team four runs—a lead which Montreal could not find its heart to overtake. Leighton's two-bagger and Friel's single caused the former to score in the second. In the fifth Coughlin got first on Sales' muff of a grounder, and got home on a badly mixed-up return from the outfield of Wright's single. In the seventh Reidy's sacrifice and Porter's single caused Wright to score after Sales' error had given him first.

For Montreal Fulmer knocked a fly to Friel in the second. He muffed it and Fulmer scored, after stealing second and third, on a sacrifice by Dowie. In the fourth Sales made a single, and scored on an overthrow by Friel and Foulkrod's sacrifice. In the seventh hits by Cartwright and Dowie and Coughlin's error yielded two runs. The game was called at the end of the seventh on account of darkness:

STILL ANOTHER STORY.

ROCHESTER, June 26.—It is reported on the authority of a prominent ball man that the Rochester American Association franchise and players are to be sold to Detroit, provided that city will pay $25,000 for them. It is believed that Detroit has offered $20,000. Gen. Brinker, president of the Association, and Treasurer McKay have gone out of town, and it is believed they are in Detroit. Secretary Bohacheck will neither confirm nor deny the rumor. If the franchise is sold it will be because of the legal action taken to stop Sunday ball playing. It is generally understood that, without the profit of the Sunday games, the management cannot make both ends meet. On the other hand, the Association counsel says he is confident that the right to play on Sunday can be established, and that he will make the present a test case.

DETROIT DENUDED.

The infield of the Detroit Baseball Club, the strongest point of the International champions, is broken, and soon will be seen here no more. Von der Ahe came to terms with Higgins yesterday, and with Campau, Wells and our erstwhile second basman started for St. Louis. However, the deal was not alone for Higgins. It included Wheelock and Virtue, and these two players will join the St. Louis Browns after July 4. Von der Ahe, as a feeler, first offered $1,000 for Virtue, Wheelock and Higgins, but Chris was finally compelled to put up $3,000 before the welcome "take them" greeted his ears. All three men will get $1,500 for the remainder of the season at St. Louis and contracts for next year, Higgins at $2,800, Virtue and Wheelock at $2,100. Von der Ahe was not satisfied with bagging our best players, and threw out his net for Manager Leadley, with every prospect that the cast will be successful. Leadley has agreed to go to St. Louis for $250 a month for the balance of the present season and a $3,000 contract for next season. The date of his departure is not yet set.

The Detroit directors continue to assert that they will go through the season.—[Detroit Free Press.

FLYS.

Exeter defeated Clinton Wednesday by 13 to 10.

Toronto will again play here on Friday and Saturday. There will be two games on Dominion Day with Saginaw-Bay City.

Joe Knight is hitting terrifically for Cincinnati. In Monday's game he got two singles and a home run off the famous Clarkson, of Boston.

"Con." Murphy, of Brooklyn, leads the Players' League pitchers with Keefe second. The average of earned runs off the former to a game is one and a half, and off the latter it is two.

The Maple Leaf Juniors of Mount Brydges visited Komoka on Saturday. The Komoka team was a picked one from among the Seniors and Juniors, among whom was a traveler noted for his remarkable talking powers. The score was: Komokas, 15; Maple Leafs, 17; batteries, Roland and McKellar, Wilkinson and Robinson. With two men out in the last inning and two strikes on the batter Robinson got his fingers smashed by a foul tip. C. Betts went behind the bat, and the striker was put out on the next ball.

THE TURF.

THE LONDON TURF CLUB'S JUNE MEETING.

All things seemed to conspire yesterday to make the first day of the London Turf Club's June meeting a success. The weather was all that could be desired. About 1,000 spectators were present and there was plenty of enthusiasm, the different winners being loudly cheered. With the exception of the first race all the events were well contested. The track was in splendid condition and was liberally sprinkled previous to each event, which greatly aided all to see the finishes. A very interesting event was the three-quarter mile heat, two in three, which was evenly contested, both heats being won by Mr. T. D. Hodgens' Kitestring, with Longshot a good second each time. The judges were Messrs. J. H. Brown, T. D. Hodgens, D. McMillan, with Mr. J. Vining clerk. Ald. Dreaney and Dr. Blackwell (Glencoe) officiated as starters, while Col. Tracy and W. H. Birrell acted as timekeepers.

There was considerable delay in getting the first race started, it being nearly 3 o'clock before the event was called. Meanwhile the sports passed away the time in criticising the points of the different horses as they trotted around the course, Grey Tobe, a grey gelding, being the favorite at long odds. It was whispered that G. T. was a "ringer," and the result of the race was claimed by some to give color to the rumor, the gelding stepping the last heat to the tune of 2:34½. Next to the gelding, Lizzie M., a neat little black mare, was favored with the confidence of the sports, but she showed signs of sickness and did not do as well as was expected of her.

THE 2:50 TROT.

The following horses were entered in this race: Lady Rooker, b. m., Jas. Cline; Annie Rysdyk, b. m., Sheppard Bros.; Sarah R., blk. m., F. Restorick; Lizzie M., blk. m., H. H. Evely, V.S.; Chester, g. g., M. T. Buchanan; Grey Tobe, g. g., T. S. Johnston; Tommy O., b. g., M. O'Mara.

Grey Tobe drew first place with Lizzie M., Annie Rysdyk, Chester, Tommy O. and Lady Rooker, in the order named. An excellent start was made in the first heat, Grey Tobe, Chester and Tommy O. getting away together, with the others close behind. At the first quarter Tommy O. crept up close behind the grey and took second, with Chester about a length behind. These positions were retained until the finish. Time 2:36¾.

The second heat was a trifle faster, Mr. O'Mara's gelding pulling away from Grey Tobe on the first 100 yards, but he broke and was overhauled again by the grey at the first post. On the home stretch the grey broke and was passed by Tommy O., who broke in turn and the grey passed under the wire a leader by a neck, Chester and Lady Rooker following in order on a gallop. Time 2:35¾.

Before the last heat was run the judges thought that Johnston, the driver of Tommy O, was not doing the horse justice, and had another man named Odell substituted. The horses got away in a bunch and continued to keep each other close company until the first half-mile, when Grey Tobe pulled away from the others, with Lady Rooker second, Tommy O third and Chester a good fourth. The finish was made in the same positions. Time, 2:34½.

Summary—First race, 2:50 class—(trotters and pacers) for a purse of $200, divided into 60, 25 and 15 per cent., best three in five:

T. S. Johnston's (Goderich) g.g., Grey Tobe	1	1	1
Martin O'Mara's (London) b.g. Tommy O	2	2	3
James Cline's (Orwell, Ont.) b.m. Lady Rooker	5	4	2
M. T. Buchanan's (Ingersoll) Chester	3	3	4
F. Restorick's (Watford) Sarah R.	4	5	5

Time, 2:36¾, 2:35¾, 2:34½.

THE 2:35 TROT.

By reason of its closeness this race was the most exciting of the day, six heats being run with the issue still in doubt. Dynamite was held pretty well in check for the first two heats, after which he was run for all he was worth. The following horses started in the first heat: Dynamite, b. g., T. Brown; Major Stanton, bay, John Fitch; Tommy Burke, rn. g., John Beacon; Ruby T., b. s., N. Sage; Lizzie Gibson, b. m., C. Lowell; Baldwin, ch. g., 8 years, R. Thompson; Louisa C., b. m., Neil Sullivan.

Tommy Burke secured first position with Louisa, Lizzie Gibson, Ruby T., Dynamite, Baldwin, and Major Stanton in the order named. In the first heat the horses got away together. After a lively clip for about 200 yards Lizzie Gibson took the lead but was overtaken by Beacon's roan at the half-mile. Baldwin and Louisa C. kept close behind the leaders, and the four made an excellent struggle on the home stretch, the roan giving place to Lizzie Gibson with Baldwin second, Louisa C. third, and the roan fourth. Time, 2:35½.

Louisa C. got an advantage on the start for the second heat and held it for the first quarter, when Baldwin put on a lively gait and gave the mare his dust. Baldwin kept his lead for the remainder of the heat and won by a length with Louisa C. second and Dynamite and Major Stanton together for third place. Time, 2:41.

Dynamite was given his head in the third heat, and although he made a poor start he continued to gain inch by inch upon his leaders until the last quarter, when he pulled up close behind Baldwin, and dashed under the wire with a lead of a length, Major Stanton taking second, with Baldwin and Louisa C in order.

When the start for the fourth heat was made the pole horse went off on a run, Lizzie Gibson going ahead for a short time, Baldwin crowding her out of the lead at the end of the first quarter-mile, Louisa C closing up the gap between herself and Baldwin. Dynamite finished ahead, making the heat in 2:39½.

The fifth heat was secured by Baldwin, who took the lead at the quarter-mile and finished first in 2:37½.

The sixth heat to decide upon the positions of the three leaders was run between Lizzie Gibson, Baldwin and Dynamite, and was close and exciting. Baldwin took the lead and held it until a few yards from the wire, when his driver began whipping his horse across the line. Baldwin broke and the heat was declared dead. Time, 2:36.

Summary—Second race, 2:35 class (trotters only), purse $250; best three in five; 50, 25 and 15 per cent.:

R. Thompson's (Goderich) ch. g. Baldwin	2	1	3	2	1	dead heat.
T. Brown's (Sarnia) b. g. Dynamite	5	3	1	1	2
C. Lowell's (Galt) Lizzie Gibson	1	6	6	4	5	3
Louisa C.	3	2	4	3	4	drawn.
T. Fitch's (Hamilton) Maj. Stanton	6	4	2	5	3	drawn.
J. Beacon's (Clinton) Tommy Burke	4	5	5	6		distanced.

Time—2:35¼, 2:41, 2:37½, 2:39½, 2:37½, 2:36.

The final heat of this race is to be run this afternoon.

THIRD RACE RUNNING.

All those entered started in this contest, Kitestring being the favorite at long odds. The following were the aspirants: Topsy B., b.m., 4 years, Robt. Beattie; Nettie, c.m., T. S. Hare; Lady Bell, b.m., 5 years, Dean, V.S.; Colonist, b.g., F. W. Schwendiman; Glen Daly, br.s., F. Sage; Long Shot, b.g.; A. E. Gates; King Bob, br.s., Orkney Stables; Kitestring, br.m., T. D. Hodgens. A good start was made and Kitestring gradually got away from the others and finished in 1:20. Long Shot second and Colonist third.

In the second heat the horses got away together with the exception of Kitestring, who was several yards behind. But the brown mare settled down to work and caught up with the leaders when the half mile was reached without showing any exertion. On the homestretch all the jockeys used the whip freely but Kitestring shot ahead at the finish. Time 1:19.

Summary—Third race—Three-fourth mile, running race, for $200; best two in three; $125, $50 and $25:

T. D. Hodgens' (London) br. m. Kitestring	1	1
A. E. Gates' (Toronto) b. g. Longshot	2	2
S. W. Schwendiman's (Drayton) b. g. Colonist	3	5
Robert Beattie (Brussels) b. m. Topsy B.	5	3

Time—1:20, 1:19.

Colonist and Topsy to divide third money.

HUNT CLUB RACE.

The following horses started in the Hunt race: Terra Cotta, rn. g., 5 years, J. Fulcher; Metcalf, b. g., 3 years, J. D. O'Neil; Victor, ch. g., 5 years, H. R. Abbott; Surprise, b. g., D. H. Grand; Rosalie, br. m., 5 years, J. S. Brown. Victor and Terra Cotta took the lead, and were closely followed by Surprise, who, however, forged ahead and came in a winner by about a neck with Victor second and Terra Cotta third. Time 2:20.

NOTES.

Grey Tobe, Dynamite, and Baldwin have all been protested.

Martin O'Mara was fined $100 for abusing the judges when his rider was removed.

A. Furness who rode Metcalfe in the Hunt Club race was thrown and badly shaken up.

Surprise, the winner of the Hunt Club race was a competitor for the Queen's plate in Toronto.

The owners of the horses protested will have 30 days to satisfy the judges that they are eligible.

A prominent horseman said that he had seen Dynamite when he was known as Waiting, with a record of 2:22.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee last evening, the action of the judges in fining Mr. O'Mara was sustained.

THE SALVATOR-TENNY RACE.

SHEEPSHEAD BAY, June 26.—The interest in the races here centered in the match between Salvator and Tenny. Twenty thousand persons crowded into the grounds, and acted like crazy people when Salvator won. "Dead heat, dead heat!" the shout went up as the horses' heads went by the finish together. Salvator had won, however, by the shortest of short heads, and had the race been twenty yards further Garrison's magnificent riding would have landed Tenny a winner.

The record was broken all to smash. The record of 2:06½ made by Kingston was beaten 1½ seconds and the judges hoisted 2:05 as the time. The fractional times were as follows: First quarter, 25 seconds; half mile, 49⅔; five furlongs, 1:02½; three-fourths, 1:14⅔; seven-eights, 1:27¼; mile, 1:39⅔; mile and an eight, 1:52⅔; and the mile and quarter in 1:05. Mutuals paid $8 20.

THE OAR.

WILL ROW AGAIN.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., June 26.—Owing to the dispute over Monday's boat race, in which O'Connor was defeated by Stansbury, the two oarsmen will row again on Monday next.

QUOITING.

The London and Sarnia quoiters are to meet in a friendly contest Dominion Day at Point Edward, and a good day's sport may be confidently expected.

CRICKET.

Playing at Hammersmith on Saturday, June 7, against Old Kensington at West London ground, W. H. Bromham accomplished a remarkable bowling performance. He clean bowled four wickets with successive balls, took five wickets with six balls, and seven in eleven, all clean bowled, his analysis at the finish reading 11 overs, 5 maidens, 8 runs, 8 wickets. Hammersmith scored 85 and 61 (for six wickets) to their opponents' 37.

STRATHROY VS. ASYLUM.

A game has been arranged between the London Asylum and Strathroy cricket clubs, to take place on the grounds of the former to-morrow. Strathroy generally musters a strong team, and they will give plenty of leather-hunting. The eleven will consist of Dampier, Bishop, Armstrong, Thompson, Watson, Maitland, Cluff, Barker, Snell, Richardson and McIntosh. The Asylum team will be composed as follows: Butler, Heighway, O'Leary, Flynn, Thirling, Kingsland, Laird, Owens, H. Pope, Dr. Fairchild and Dr. Beemer. The visitors will arrive at 9:30, and the game will be an all-day affair.

LACROSSE.

At Tilsonburg the Lisgars played the Ontarios of Brantford and won four straight games.

The Athletics of St. Catharines crossed sticks with the Brantfords in Agricultural Park Wednesday afternoon, and Brantford won, 4 games to 1.

At Barrie on Wednesday, the first lacrosse match of the season in the Northern District champion series took place between the Barrie and Orillia clubs, Orillia won, 2 to 1.

THE RING.

PUGILISTS THROW UP THE SPONGE IN COURT.

PURVIS, Miss., June 26.—The cases against Muldoon, Cleary and Donovan were called in the Circuit Court here yesterday, when pleas of guilty were entered, each asking the clemency of the court. A fine of $250 was entered against Muldoon; Cleary and Donovan were each fined $100. The fines were paid.

John L. Sullivan was fined $500.

Kilrain was present and stated he had challenged Sullivan to a finish either with bare knuckles or light gloves, London prize ring rules, the fight to come off in Fort Worth, Texas.

EXTRAORDINARY SUCCESS
OF THE
MONSTER CLEARING SALE
AT
POWELL, ALLEN & BRICKENDEN'S, THE GREAT KID GLOVE HOUSE

This has been a busy week with us. Crowds of customers are visiting our store and buying largely from the wonderful bargains offered. Our customers and citizens of London, and those coming from surrounding towns, should keep in mind that we have gone through our stock and marked down the prices to such a low point that we defy any drygoods house in London to equal our prices. Don't forget that everything down to the value of 10c. has been reduced. No hieroglyphics used in marking our goods, but every article is marked in plain figures, so all can see what they are doing.

We wish everybody to remember that we have imported the bulk of our magnificent stock and personally selected it in the British markets, and now are determined to force the sale of the greater bulk of the stock, which is very much larger than we can afford to carry, amounting in value to some thing over $50,000 00.

N.B.—We respectfully urge all who have $1 to expend in purchasing drygoods to come and see for themselves, as we will be more than delighted to show everybody through our stock, as we know an inspection will convince all and amaze everybody how such elegant goods can be sold at such low prices.

Mr. T. F. Kingsmill and his son, Mr. Henry Kingsmill, left to-day for New York whence he will sail for England and European markets.

Mr. Sam Grigg, who has been paying his numerous friends in the city a visit during the past week, returned to his present home at Northfield, Mass., to-day.

Mrs. Deardon, of Fort Gratiot, and Mrs. Wake, of Point Edward, who have been the guests of Mrs. Ruse, York street, for the past ten days, returned home to-day.

James Ryan, the young man who broke into a G. T. R. freight car and was arrested on June 20, appeared at the Police Court this morning. He was discharged, the Magistrate considering his six days' incarceration punishment enough.

The band concert on the river last night was very enjoyable. A large number of people boarded the steamers and listened to the enchanting strains as they floated over the Thames, borne on the cool breeze of the beautiful evening.

A Mount Brydges correspondent writes: Charley Betts, son of John Betts, of the Commercial Hotel, has secured a position in the office of the Labatt Brewing Company, of London. We are sorry to lose Charley, as he is one of our best respected young men.

Mr. Robert Lewis, of the Ontario Stained Glass Works, has just completed six very fine windows for St. Peter's Cathedral, in this city. The Saviour and seven canonized saints are represented in a very artistic manner, and are excellent specimen's of work.

The R. O. Smith block, Chatham, was offered for sale by auction at the Rankin House, by James Whan, on Wednesday afternoon. It was not sold, but a lot in the rear across the alley on which is a machine shop was purchased by P. Mulkern, of London, for $1,600.

A large number of the brethren from the various city lodges attended the grand picnic at Thorndale yesterday, under the auspices of the Independent Order of Foresters. A very enjoyable day was spent, music, games and other amusements being provided in abundance.

Thomas Harris, the 14-year-old boy who appeared at the Police Court two weeks ago, charged with stealing toys from Burns' store, was up before the Magistrate again to-day charged with vagrancy. His parents are dead and his foster-father can do nothing with him. He was remanded for a week.

Two young men named Burns and Smith received a shaking up while driving yesterday. As they were coming down the hill on the Southern side of Clark's bridge the breeching strap broke and the phaeton ran upon the horse, scaring it and causing it to become unmanageable. When quiet was restored the phaeton was found to be badly damaged and the horse had a cut several inches long on one of its hind legs.

Mr. Hugh Skinner, of Hamilton, is in London at present completing arrangements for the appearance here on Sept. 19 of the world-famous Strauss Orchestra, which is to make a tour of Canada during the coming fall. Messrs. Robert and Hugh Skinner have the Canadian tour in hand, and no doubt under their energetic management the ovations which the orchestra has received in other sections of the world will be repeated here.

Trinity Church, Mitchell.

A garden party was held by the ladies of this church Tuesday evening in the very pretty grounds of Mrs. Awty, which were most tastefully adorned with Chinese lanterns, etc. The night was all that could be desired, and the number of people attending was therefore large. Excellent music was provided by the glee club of the town, and was thoroughly appreciated. The congregation of this church is working in complete harmony, as was proved by the thorough way in which both the men and women helpers combined to make this gathering a success. The Rev. Mr. Taylor and Mrs. Taylor did their utmost to make all the visitors happy. The proceeds, after deducting expenses, were $45.

Death of Mrs. Wm. McKerlie.

One more of the old pioneer settlers of Westminster, Mrs. Wm. McKerlie, passed away yesterday morning after a long and painful sickness, borne with Christian resignation and meekness. The deceased, with her husband, settled in the township of Westminster 46 years ago, and by industry and enduring the hardships and privations of pioneer life made for themselves and family a comfortable home, on the farm upon which they settled. Mrs. McKerlie, who had reached her 73rd year, was a woman of sterling worth, an affectionate wife, a kind mother, and a good neighbor. Many friends and acquaintances mourn her loss, and her husband and family have the sincere sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement.

Guillot-Mackey.

A very pleasant time was spent at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. Mackey, lots 47 and 48, con. 9, Westminster, yesterday afternoon by a large party of friends. The occasion was the marriage of their youngest daughter, Miss Minerva, to Mr. William A. Guillot, of Kingsville. The ceremony was performed on the lawn at the side of the house, the contracting parties standing under a beautiful arch which had been erected for the occasion, the design being covered with flowers, a huge floral bell hanging in the center. Rev. Thomas Crews performed the ceremony. After the customary festivities had been indulged in and the many beautiful presents had been admired by the company, the happy couple left on the 4:35 train for Grimsby and other eastern points. The bride is well known in this city, and her many friends join in wishing herself and Mr. Guillot all things desirable.

Prisoner Peel's Perplexity.

A unique point of law came up at the Police Court this morning. On May 15 William Peel was sentenced to three months' imprisonment in the Central by Mr. Justice Street for an assault on P. C. Smith. When Peel was transferred to Toronto a mistake was made in copying the sentence, and March 16 substituted in place of May 16. Warden Massie, of the Central, accordingly discharged the prisoner on June 16, and Peel returned home. The authorities discovered the mistake, and steps were taken to have the prematurely-liberated man rearrested. The case came up before the Police Court on Friday last and was adjourned until to-day. Mr. E. T. Essery appeared on behalf of Peel and submitted that his client should be allowed his liberty on the ground that he had been discharged lawfully and had used no fraudulent efforts to procure his liberty. County Crown Attorney Hutchinson submitted that Peel should be rearrested, as the sentence had not expired. He should not be allowed to go free because the documents were copied incorrectly. Magistrate Parke decided to adjourn the case to July 2 in order that both parties might bring further evidence to bear on the case.

Married at Sarnia.

A Sarnia telegram says: "A large and pleasant party, including relatives and invited guests, assembled this (Wednesday) afternoon at the residence of Mr. Andrew Thompson to witness the marriage of his only daughter, Miss Beatrice, to Mr. Cyrus Sumner, of London. The bride was dressed in a neat traveling suit, and was attended by Miss Maggie Rutherford, of Detroit, as bridesmaid. The groom was assisted by Prof. Green, of London. Rev. Mr. Black, of the Congregational Church, assisted by Rev. Dr. Thompson, of St. Andrew's Church, performed the ceremony. The bride was kindly remembered by a large circle of friends and acquaintances, and as the result she was the recipient of many valuable presents. After ample justice had been done to the splendid dejeuner and a few pleasant hours were spent, the happy couple departed at 10:10 a.m. on the Erie limited, followed by the kind wishes of many friends. They will reside in London."

Sadly Missed.

In to-day's obituary record will be found the name of Miss Maude E. Edge, eldest daughter of Mr. W. T. Edge, of Dufferin avenue, one of London's best known citizens. Miss Edge passed away last evening after a prolonged illness, borne with remarkable fortitude and patience. The deceased was one of the most promising young ladies of this city, while her amiable disposition and excellent traits of character endeared her to everyone who had the privilege of her acquaintance. She was endowed with a remarkable fine voice and no pains or expense were spared by her parents to insure its successful cultivation. She had already spent two years of musical training in New York, and returned home a year ago for her vacation, when symptoms were first noticed of the insidious disease which ultimately claimed her for its victim. Her apparently slight indisposition was attributed to ever-exertion in her studies, but in spite of the best medical skill attainable in Canada and the States, Miss Edge's health steadily failed, until yesterday, when in the prime of a life of usefulness and unusual promise she was called away. Miss Edge was a member of Memorial Church and connected with the choir, and took an active interest in the various departments of church work. Her closing days were full of brightness, and she leaves behind her the fragrance of a pure and beautiful life. The bereaved family have the sincere sympathy of a large circle in this city and neighborhood.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 26.—A mob of 40 persons gathered at 12 o'clock last night at the house of Walter Squires, twelve miles northwest of Cameron, Mo., to tar and feather his son "Bud" who, it is claimed, ruined a young woman of the neighborhood. Forty shots were exchanged. Old Mr. Squires was shot in the stomach, but not fatally injured. Will. Noland, in the crowd, was also shot in the stomach and probably fatally wounded.

Train-Wreckers at Work.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., June 26.—The most dastardly attempt at train-wrecking ever known in this part of the country occurred last night about 10:10, just before the Detroit, Grand Haven and Milwaukee westbound passenger was due. Two men were noticed by two small boys carrying a heavy timber to the railroad track, and before their purpose could be divined the train hove in sight around a curve and the men ran. The engine struck the end of the timber and was derailed, together with the baggage car, but the two passengers and parlor remained on the rails. Engineer Wm. Ritchie stuck to his post bravely, but could not stop for 30 rods. As he slowed up the tender tipped from the trucks and went over to the ground. Herbert Nesser, the fireman, was squeezed to a jelly and expired five minutes later. His home is in Detroit, where he has a wife but no children. He was 28 years old. There were 40 passengers on the train, and those in the rear coaches knew nothing of the matter until informed after the train stopped.

—J. R. Hinkster, of Raymond, Nebraska, was married on Wednesday at Sarnia to Miss Emily Lucas. They will reside in Nebraska.

COLONEL QUARITCH, V.C.

By H. RIDER HAGGARD.

[Copyrighted by Rose Publishing Co., Toronto, Ont., and printed by special arrangement, through the American Press Association.]

This was certainly curious. Trembling with nervousness he took a pencil and wrote down the initial letter of every fifth word in the message, thus:

Do not grieve for me, Edward, my son that I am suddenly and wickedly done to death by a rebel murderers, for naught happeneth but ac-d
D E
-m a cording to God's will. And now farewell, Ed-
n
ward, till we shall meet in heaven. My moneys m
have I hid, and on account thereof I die unto a o u
this world, knowing that not one piece shall n
Cromwell touch. To whom God shall appoint t a shall all my treasure be, for naught can I comb o municate.

When he had done he wrote the initials in a line:

DEad mans mount abc

Great heavens! he had bit upon the reading of the riddle.

The answer was, "Dead Man's Mount," followed by the mysterious letters A. B. C.

Breathless with excitement, he checked the letters again to see if by any chance he had made an error. No, it was perfectly correct. "Dead Man's Mount." That was and had been for centuries the name of the tumulus or mound in his own back garden, the same that learned antiquarians had discussed the origin of so fiercely and that his aunt, the late Mrs. Massey, had, at a cost of £250, erected a mushroom shaped roof over in order to prove that the hollow in the top had once been the agreeable country-seat of an ancient British family.

Could it then be but a coincidence that after the first word the initial of every fifth word should spell out the name of this remarkable place, or was it so arranged? He sat down to think it over, trembling like a frightened child. Obviously it was not an accident; obviously the prisoner of more than two centuries ago had in his helplessness invented this simple cryptograph in the hope that his son, or, if not his son, some of his descendants would discover it and thereby become the master of the hidden wealth. What place would be more likely for the old knight to have chosen to secrete the gold than one that even in those days had the uncanny reputation of being haunted? Who would ever think of looking for modern treasure in the burying place of the ancient dead? In those days, too, Molehill or Dead Man's Mount, belonged to the De la Molle family, who had reacquired it on the break up of the Abbey. It was only at the Restoration, when the Dofferleigh branch came into possession under the will of the second and last baronet, Sir Edward de la Molle, who died in exile, that they failed to recover this portion of the property. And if this was so, and Sir James, the murdered man, had buried his treasure in the mount, what did the mysterious letters A B C mean? Were they, perhaps, directions as to the line to be taken to discover it. Harold could not imagine, nor, as a matter of fact, did he or anybody else ever find out this either then or thereafter.

Ida, indeed, used afterward laughingly to declare that old Sir James meant to indicate that he considered the whole thing as plain as A B C, but that was an explanation which did not commend itself to Harold's practical mind.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

BUT NOT TO BED.

Harold glanced at the clock—it was nearly 1 in the morning—time to go to bed if he was going. But he did not feel inclined to go to bed. If he did, with this discovery on his mind, he should not sleep. There was another thing; it was Christmas eve, or rather Christmas day, the day of Ida's answer. If any succor was to be given at all it must be given at once, before the fortress had capitulated. Once let the engagement be renewed, and even if the money should subsequently be forthcoming, the difficulties would be doubled. But there; he was building his hopes upon sand and he knew it. Even supposing that he held in his hand the key to the burial place of the long lost treasure, who knew whether it would still be there, or whether rumor had not enormously added to it proportions? He was allowing his hopes and his imagination to carry him away.

Still he could not sleep, and he had a mind to see if anything could be made of it. Going to the gun room, he put on a pair of shooting boots, and an old coat and an ulster. Next he provided himself with a dark lantern and the key of the summer house at the top of Dead Man's Mount, and silently unlocking the back door, started out into the garden. The night was very rough, for the great gale was now rising fast, and bitterly cold, so cold that he hesitated for a moment before making up his mine to go on. However, he did go on, and in another two minutes was climbing the steep sides of the great tumulus. There was a wan moon in the cold sky—the wind whistled most drearily through the naked boughs of the great oaks, which groaned in answer like things in pain. Harold was not a nervous or impressionable man, but the place had a spectral look about it, and he could not help thinking of the evil reputation it had borne for all these ages. There was scarcely a man in Honham, or in Boisingham either, who could have been pursuaded to stay half an hour by himself on Dead Man's Mount after the sun was well down. Harold had at different times asked one or two of them what they saw to be afraid of, and they had answered that it was not what they saw so much as what they felt. He had laughed at the time, but now he admitted to himself that he was anything but comfortable, though if he had had to put his feelings into words he could probably not have described them further than by saying the he had a general sensation of somebody being behind him. However, he was not going to be frightened by this nonsense, so, consigning all superstitions to their father the devil, he marched on boldly and unlocked the summer house door. Now, though this curious edifice had been designed for a summer house and for that purpose lined throughtout with encaustic tiles, nobody as a matter of fact had ever dreamed of using it to sit in. To begin with, it roofed over a great depression some 30 feet or more in diameter, for the top of the mount was hollowed out like one of those wooden cups upon which the jugglers catch balls. But, notwithstanding all the encaustic tiles in world, damp will gather in a hollow like this, and the damp alone was an objection. The real fact was, however, that the spot had evil reputation, and even those who were sufficiently well educated to know the folly of this sort of thing would not willingly have gone there for the purpose of enjoyment. Soit had sufferd the general fate of disused places, having falling more or less out of repair and become a receptacle for garden tools, broken cucumber frames and lumber of various sorts.

She Didn't Object—W. Childers Kydd (looking for board)—Oh, I forgot to mention that two of my party of four are small children. I hope that will make no difference. Mrs. Hashton (sweetly)—Oh, not at all! I shall charge just the same as if they were grown up.

A man's wife should always be the same especially to her husband, but if she is weak and nervous and uses Carter's Iron Pills, she cannot be, for they will make her "feel like a different person," at least so they all say, and their husbands say so, too.

In the Minor—Mr. Sealove (at his sea shore cottage)—My dear, please tell our daughter to sing something less doleful. Mrs. Sealove—That is not my daughter, my love. That is the foghorn.

Saturday night a man boarded a freight train with the view of "sneaking a ride." He was comfortably well dressed and had upon his person a mouth organ and a small sum of money, which came to the knowledge of a gang of thieves who were also "stealing a ride." They had not traveled together long when the gang set upon the new recruit, robbed him of his wealth and property and pitched him overboard while the train was in motion, bruising him up in a painful manner. He was at St. John Monday to consult Prosecuting Attorney Merrill as to their arrest.

Salvation Army Notes.

Ensign Michael, of London, was in town on Sunday and participated in the services at the barracks. We regret very much to hear of the removal of Capt. Mutton, of the Salvation Army, from our midst. During his short stay in our town he has made very many warm friends, and they unite with us in wishing him every success in the London corps, which, we understand, he takes charge of this week.—[Strathroy Dispatch.

A Garden Party.

A successful garden party was held by St. John the Evangelist Church Guild at the residence of Mrs. Luard, St. James street, last evening. The grounds were illuminated by Japanese lanterns, and the Seventh band enlivened the evening with several selections of music. The tables were presided over as follows: Fancy table, Mesdames Dampier, Palmer, and Miss Connor; refreshments and flowers, Mesdames Manigault, Smith, Hudson and Fitzpatrick, and Misses G. Imlach, Manigault and Burwell.

Young People's Picnic.

The regular fortnightly meeting of the Young People's Improvement Society in connection with the Wellington Street Methodist Church was held Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. W. H. Winnett, corner Colborne and Gray streets. The young people spent a very pleasant evening, consisting of innocent amusements and an impromptu programme. In addition to the regular business, it was decided to hold the annual picnic of the society on Dominion Day at the petrifying springs near Komoka, when a good time may be expected.

May Come to London.

The Opera House season has been closed, but Mr. Kirchmer, the manager, is endeavoring to make arrangements to give the citizens and music loving public of London a chance of hearing one of the finest musical entertainments ever presented here, namely, Signor Liberati and his great military band. This band consists of 50 musicians, for which it is claimed that every member is a master of his respective instrument and a pre-eminent musician. Liberati, as well as being the bandmaster, is the cornet soloist. Felix Bour, the famous French oboist whom Theodore Thomas first brought to this country from the Grand Opera House, Paris, where he was for a number of years the rage of the gay French capital, will accompany the band and perform his marvelous solos on the oboe, the sweetest toned of all the reed instruments. Miss Ellen Pareppa, a prima donna soprano, a pupil of Murio Celli, and Miss Anna Russell, prima donna contralto, will be the vocal soloists at every concert. The programme which Liberati has arranged for his concerts are popular, dignified and thoroughly musicianly, and evidence even in this particular that he bids fair to rival the fame of Theodore Thomas as a programme-maker. If arrangements are completed they will be here on July 19.

London Aldermen in Hamilton.

Speaking of the visit of No. 2 Committee of London City Council to Hamilton on Tuesday, the Herald says: "A distinguished body of London gentlemen known as No. 2 Committee of the City Council—Ald. Boyd, Garratt, Bartlett, Heaman, Fitzgerald, Wallace, Shaw and Secretary Graydon, assistant engineer—loomed up in great force here, and, bearing down on Chief Aitchison, kept that official and his men busily employed until midnight demonstrating the great utility and rapid actions of the fire department and the various appliances. The deputation closely examined the appliances and watched with interest the rapid hitches. The Bay street hose wagon was brought to King street in front of the postoffice, and the London visitors were shown several rapid runs. The deputation also visited the electric light station and inquired into the workings of the system. The big party of London tourists came away for a big time, both as regards specific information on things scientific and the indescribable article known as "fun," and it is believed they got it in Hamilton. A London paper was thoughtful enough to remark that to avoid drinking any of the "vile" Hamilton water, each of the deputation left home with a pint of "pure" water in his lunch basket. Just like men from a backwoods town! After getting loaded up with sterling information, the London deputation went to Toronto yesterday to obtain a few filterings of information. To-day they are gleaning fire brigade and electric light facts from the Buffalo authorities."

Foresters' Strawberry Festival.

A very pleasant time was spent last evening by the members and the friends of Court Pride of the East End Circle, No. 55, Companions of the Forest, in the Horticultural Hall, Queen's Park. The cause of the gathering was a strawberry social with dancing and fancy drill by the London Juvenile Drill Corps. Dayton's string band furnished music during the evening and was appreciated by those present. At 9 o'clock the drill corps, under Drill Instructor John Brown, was marshaled in the center of the hall, and for the greater part of an hour, kept the audience deeply interested with its various fancy movements. The "Star" (varied) way, perhaps, the most accurately performed, and was certainly well worthy of the applause it received. Among other movements were the "Latin Cross," open and close squares, column march in fours with open ranks, circles and retreat. About 10 o'clock dancing was commenced, and was continued unremittingly until midnight, when the happy couples began to disperse to their homes, well satisfied with their evening's enjoyment. Strawberries and ice cream were served during the night to those desiring them. The success of the social was due to the following, who were on the Committee of Management: Mrs. Wm. Brown, Mrs. W. Richards, Mrs. F. Plant, Miss M. Toulett, Mrs. Gibling, Mrs. Head, Mrs. Homister, Mr. Le Seleur, Mr. Stead, Mr. W. H. Brown, Mr. W. Richards, Mr. T. Bartlett and Mr. Head.

News from Camp at Stratford.

An ADVERTISER correspondent writes: "Kindly correct the statement that a gunner in the London Field Battery was thrown from his horse and injured, nothing of the kind having occurred. Our men are too familiar with the saddle.

"Everthing is going on smoothly, and, barring the mud, there is not much fault-finding.

"The battery boys had a friendly game of baseball Tuesday with a picked nine from Stratford. It was to have been the school teachers, but only three teachers were on the team, the balance being made up of semi-professionals. The score was 16 to 8 in favor of Stratford.

"The D. A. G. has the brigade in readiness to turn out at a moment's notice, and will probably sound the assembly at midnight. The different corps have been sleeping with one eye open for the past two nights.

"Tuesday afternoon a route march was ordered at 2 p.m."

The camp breaks up on Saturday, and the M. C. R. will run a special from this city at 2:30 taking home the Leamington, Essex Center and Amherstburg companies.

The 27th battalion were at the butts Tuesday and furnish brigade duties Wednesday, while the 32nd took their place at the butts. It will fall to the 32nd to again furnish main guard on Friday, the last night in camp. Generally the main guard is kept busy on the night preceding breaking up.

W. Anderson will be tried by court martial this (Thursday) morning for assaulting Corporal Kettles while on guard. Lieut.-Col. Aylmer is president of the court and Major Beattie (27th), Major White (30th), Major Cowan (29th), and Major Hegler (22nd), constitute the members of court. Anderson joined "D" school for a term of three years, but has only served about twelve months.

The driving competition of the London Field Battery under the command of Col. Peters on Tuesday showed the men to be well trained. The test included a run around four stakes three feet high placed 40 yards apart, and then through two stakes three feet high and 6 feet 8 inches apart without touching them. When fifteen yards inside these two, the gunners dismounted and went through the firing exercise. Col. Peters is well pleased with the skill and quickness of the men. The following is the time of the different companies: No. 1 gun, 3:10; No. 2 gun, 2:45; No. 3 gun, 2:20; No. 4 gun, 2:08.

A PATRIOTIC SONG.

The following song, which has been specially composed for the occasion, will be sung by a choir of school children at the opening of the Toronto carnival:

Come, let us all unite,
To sing our country's praise;
For God, and home, and right,
Our voices now we raise.

Chorus:
Dear Canada to thee,
Home of the brave and free,
With heart and voice we now rejoice
To sing in praise of thee!

From sea to sea our land
Extends her vast domain
'Mid scenes sublime and grand
We sing this glad refrain:

We'll welcome with a cheer,
Each hardy son of toil;
For happy homes are here,
With fruitful virgin soil!

Let prairie, wood and field,
Re-echo this our song;
Our sons shall never yield,
What rights to them belong

Then wave our flag on high
The Maple Leaf and Rose,
For Canada we'll die
Or vanquish [illegible]

Sing Their Own Praises.

There are few, if any, in the great army of smokers who have not been, by experience, placed in a position to judge as to the merits of the "Norma" 10-cent cigar manufactured by H. McKay & Co., of London. In almost every cigar store and hotel in Canada this pet of all lovers of 10-cent goods has found its way, and is finding rapid and constantly increased sale. Unlike other similar goods, its fame is not of a transient nature. The "Norma" contains all the merits of the imported cigar, and has in many cases supplanted its more expensive rivals, and each successive season but adds to its host of admiring consumers.

The large establishment of H. McKay & Co. is kept continually engaged in supplying the demands made upon them for the "Norma."
