"That the deceased, Martha Jenken, came to her death at her late home, lot 19, concession 7, London Township, shortly before noon on Friday, July 30, 1909. The jurors find that death was due to injuries sustained on the head by the deceased. How or by what means the said injuries were inflicted the jurors are unable from the evidence to determine."

The above open verdict was brought in by the jury which, under Coroner Ferguson, investigated the death of Mrs. Martha Jenken at Arva last night within half an hour after the evidence

Port Stanley, Aug. 12. - Some time Toronto, Aug. 11.—The insurance at during the night some malicious person removed some of the bars governmission. The damage was not discovered till the engineer arrived in the morning to make up his fires. A careful search was made to try and locate the missing parts, but the miscreants had evidently taken particular care that they should not be located, as no trace of them could be found. The parts could not be replaced at the village, and it was necessary to send to St. Thomas. At present men are rushing the work of repair, but it is not expected that the damage will be repaired till late in the afternoon. The nature of the trouble seemed to point conclusively to the fact that the damage had been willfully done to prevent the elevator running on the occasion of one of the biggest picnics hall circles. The Bargain Harvest Continues

And the rearranging of departments has begun. LINENS, COTTONS, WASH GOODS, MUSLINS and STAPLES are now on the main floor-West side in new section.

RIBBONS, LACES, EMBROIDERIES, VEILINGS, HOSIERY AND UNDER-WEAR will also be found in this section, some of these having to be moved temporarily while the new fixtures are being placed in the east side; but while these finishing-up jobs are going on, the harvesting of bargains will be continued, and since the dividing partitions have been cleared away, besides having more room and floor space to wander around, you will find this one of the best-lighted and best-ventilated stores, not only in Canada, but in America. Even on the hottest days you cannot help looking around and wondering what makes it so cool here.

Though we are not equipped as thoroughly as we will be when everything is completed, you'll find it a pleasure even now to do your shopping in this new, bright and airy

Ladies' Lace Coats Have Dropped to Almost Half Price---Ten Only

You will be fortunate if you are one of the ten to secure one of these beautiful Coats—this season's importing—at such a price. Perhaps you have had your eye on one of these; if so, now is your opportunity. These Coats we imported direct from Paris, and have only an odd one or two left in the different lines, which we do not propose to keep longer. Note the reductions:

STRANGE REVELATIONS IN MONTREAL MYSTERY

Advantageous Tenders for Public Works Were Turned Down by Aldermen.

Montreal, Aug. 11.-Further remarkable evidence was adduced before the royal commission today as to the manner by aside by the road committee and contracts given to the highest-priced tender ers. The agents of a number of paving companies that had submitted low tenders which were not accepted, were examined as witnesss.

One witness, whose company has a twayear-old cement sidewalk in front of the postoffice without a crack in it vet, said his company tendered for a similar side walk at $1 86 a vard, whereas a tender at $2 22 a yard had been accepted.

In connection with this tender to the city, the royal commission has among the exhibits produced a copy of the city survevor's letter to the road committee, recommending that the tender, being the lowest, should be adopted. A second agent, who had also tendere low this year, but had not obtained the contracts, was Graham L. Dobbin, of the Warren Asphalt Company. He had tendered at $25.75 a ton for Acme cement but the contract was awarded at $29 75

Miles of Acme pavement, the latter witness said were laid in Toronto, with five-year guarantee. He had offered to take the aldermen of the road committee on a trip to Toronto to show them this pavement, and he also offered to give them a five-years' guarantee, whereas they were only asking for two, but this was not considered an inducement by the aldermen, according to Mr. Dobbin's test-

Discipline, as it exists in the road department, was touched upon during the examination of City Surveyor Barlow, who was recalled in the afternoon. There had been delay in furnishing lists to the commissoin by the latter department, but Mr. Barlow said he had instructed his glimpse of a pallid face as it rose to OR. E. PARDEE BUCKE, 207 QUEEN'S clerks to prepare them. Counsel asked the surface of the water; eyes were him what he did to his clerks for not beying orders, and Mr. Barlow replied: They give me an excuse, and what can breast. He had also no control over the mination of inspectors, but could discharge them.

LEFT HELPLESS.

Peterboro, Aug. 12. - Unable to lift hand or foot, as the result of paralysis, Pierre Buttler, Perry street, was deserted by his wife, nothing being left in the house but the bed he was lying on. She packed up all the household effects, placed the several children with friends. and left her husband alone in the empty house, unable to toss his head on the pillow. The wife told Mr. F. W. Miller, agent for the charity board, that she intended to leave her husband by Tuesday, but he did not believe her. However, he visited the house on Monday evening out of curiosity, and found it empty but for the lone occupant and his bed, from which he was unable to move. Friends are working to help him, and he may be placed in a hospital for incur-ally was this so in the case of hay. It had been somewhat of a drug on the market for the past few days, but to-day the demand was considerably in large and the larg advance of the supply. One load went lambs, natives, $4 50 to $7 85; as high as $11.50, but the majority sold for $11.00, while some poor loads sold as low as $10.00.

Tomorrow is expected to be a big day for hay as it will be the last day this week, and the strong demand today will induce the farmers to bring in

There was practically no oats offered, though the demand was good and the price remained firm. The one load sold brought $1.57.

The supply of vegetables was very good. Corn, cabbage and cauliflower are becoming more in evidence and are finding a brisk sale. Tomatoes were somewhat easier again, selling as low as 70 per basket.

The supply of fruit was inclined to be limited and there was little change Butcher's meats were very slow i

The Stocks Were Hypothecated After Being Put Up As Security.

New York, Aug. 12. - With a second charge lodged against him, Donald L. Persch, the young note broker who was arrested, charged with the larceny of copper stocks belonging to F. Augustus Heinze, is still a prisoner, and while there were no additional arrests, the district attorney's office has ascertained that he was not alone in the transactions. The case will be placed before the grand jury today, and the evidence at hand, it is said, will reveal a systematic scheme, worked not only in this city, but in Philadelphia and Boston, whereby stocks supposed to be tucked safely in the vaults of banks have in reality been relinquished to individuals who placed them on the market at a profit; and though Mr. Heinze, according to Wall street's analysis of the affair, was at first thought to be the particular victim, it has come out through the district attorney's office that other men have suffered likewise.

One man at least was thus nipped. He is J. M. Everett, of Boston, whose New York bankers, Messrs. Cram, Milliken & Co., made the additional charge against young Persch. According to that firm, Persch negotiated a loan of $7,000 on stock owned by Mr. Everett, The stock in question was 100,000 shares of the Eclipse Oil Company, and the name of Henry F. Risborough, of Philadelphia appears as the man who furnished the money. Coincidentally, one of Mr. Risborough's references was Charles Katz, the Brooklyn broker, who has been mentioned in the Heinze loan. The method in the Everett case, according to the charge made, was simflar to that through which the Heinze copper stocks were put on that curbthat is, the stocks were hypothecated after having been put up as security. On the basis of the checks signed by Persch, which were unearthed, the district attorney's office estimated that the profits from the sale of Heinze's stock was approximately $52,000.

BALK AT PAYING

Special Committee's Surplus Is Rapidly Fading Away.

The surplus of the special hospital committee shows every symptom of fading away.

Some time ago it was triumphantly announced that the Isolation Hospital account had something over $1,000 remaining. The hospital trust have made suggestions to the committee for spending the money, and these suggestions will likely be carried out. At the meeting of the committee last evening, these suggestions were dealt with. One was to fence the grounds about the Isolation Hospital. The estimated cost was $410.

Ald. Saunders thought that the work should be done right, and moved that tenders be called for the fence. A ceiling was also discovered to be necessary for the laundry, and the estimated cost was placed at $300. Tenders will be called for that. It will have to be painted, the estimated cost of that being $150, and Ald. Garratt suggested that tenders be called for that work. This was agreed to.

Won't Pay for Walks. The committee balked on the suggestion of the hospital trust that the ommittee ray for the walks at the rear of the hospital. Since spring,
