THOUSANDS FORCED TO TAKE STRIKE

SIXTY THOUSAND DUBLIN WORKERS PARADE STREETS IN ANGRY MOOD; CLASH WITH SOLDIERS IS FEARED

Constable Is Shot Dead by an Unknown Demonstrator — Mountjoy Prison Is Surrounded by Indignant Mob As Protest Against Treatment of Hunger Strikers—Gen. Sir Neville MacCreedy Assumes Control.

RELEASE HUNGER STRIKERS. Dublin, April 14.—All the hunger strikers among the political prisoners in Mountjoy jail, who are considered in danger by the prison doctor, will be released today, it was announced today. The doctor, in addressing a crowd this afternoon, said the victory had informed him. It is understood that the strike will be declared tonight.

It was reported that four prisoners had collapsed and that deaths among them might be more than expected. A procession of labor men marched through the streets today, and a large number of demonstrators gathered outside the prison, however, the police did not act on the action of Archbishop Walsh, who had urged through the newspapers that the people stay away and expose themselves to the gas and profane danger.

The Panchestown races have been abandoned because of the strike at the Thurles School, the children joined the strikers, refusing to attend the school sessions.

Dublin, April 14.—The general strike today, which has been in progress since the treatment of the Irish hunger strikers in Mountjoy prison continued today, with added intensity and increased fears of serious developments. Sixty thousands workers in Dublin alone are on strike, and a feeling of pronounced excitement prevailed throughout the city.

The day was marked early by a fatality. Constable Harry Keilly being shot dead while on plain clothes duty in Camden street this morning. The constable's assailant was an unidentified young man. He fired two shots from his revolver and ran away from the scene before he could be apprehended.

The shooting added to the general excitement. Thousands of people are attending the vicarage, and the military are feared to be in a state of readiness.

There have been rapid developments in connection with the strike. Viscount French, the vicar of the vicarage, and later the military was withdrawn from the vicinity of Mountjoy prison. One of the reasons for the withdrawal of the military was the hunger strikers were removed to the city hospital in a state of collapse.

Another development was the arrival in Dublin of Gen. Sir Neville MacCreedy, the military commander of the forces in Ireland, who is expected to assume his duties as commander of the forces in Ireland, with regard to the hunger strikers, based upon last night's debate in the House of Commons, in London, is that the Government, although it has not been in a position to follow suit.

New developments in the street railway situation hinge on the action of the men when their agreement expires April 21. They have asked an increase of 21 cents an hour, but active negotiations are not likely to be commenced yet.

The fact that the company last year refused a 9-cent increase to the men until an increase was granted by the city council, is taken as an indication that they will refuse to meet this further demand, if it is so the men are almost certain to strike.

LABOR MEMBER WANTS ANNUAL ELECTION OF POLICE COMMISSION

Proposal Is Defeated in Municipal Law Committee. LONDON M. P. P. SPEAKS

Dr. Stevenson Would Have Alderman, Not Judge, On Board.

Toronto, April 14.—Legislation to permit municipalities to elect police commissions annually, encountered a stormy reception in the municipal law committee of the legislature today. The legislation was sponsored by Thomas Tooms, labor member for Peterboro, and took the form of an amendment to the municipal act. The bill was laid over, and will probably be amended so as to give municipalities control over the members of the police commissions, without providing for an elective commission.

The present system of electing police commissions," declared, Mr. Tooms speaking in support of his bill, "is nothing more than a relic of bygone days. The cities should have control of the expenditure of the police department."

Mayor Church of Toronto, and others, strongly opposed the bill, declaring it to be utterly wrong in principle. There was, he submitted, no demand for such legislation.

"These days of unrest are no time to upset what has been the law for 50 years," said Mayor Church, "and I do not believe for the city council of that place, declared in support of the bill, that it was a relic of bygone days."

The bill means that policemen would have to get into politics to hold their jobs, and the law would be continued.

Mr. Nixon, chairman, said the bill would be a demand for 177, demanded Hon. Walter Rolfe, springing to his feet and advancing toward the table, "if that's the way you're going to run business we might as well stay away from the committee."

Mr. Egan of Niagara Falls pressed for a vote.

"Why tinker with such legislation, when there is a demand for it?" persisted Mr. Canningham of St. Catharines. "Perhaps not in Toronto, but elsewhere."

"This province is bigger than the city of Toronto, don't forget that," added Hon. Walter Rolfe, "and this bill would open the door to a vicious principle," said J. W. Curry of Toronto.

"There are other independent men in a city besides the judges and magistrates," said Hon. Walter Rolfe, "and you can't say the mayor of a municipality is out of politics. If the mayor had not been in politics he wouldn't have his job and the same may be said of some judges."

Mr. Rolfe was not in favor of a commission elected yearly, but contended that the present law, which judges and magistrates might be appointed, is a better method than the present one, which is a relic of bygone days.

On motion of J. A. Pinar, East Ottawa, the bill was laid over, and the law clerk instructed to draft an amendment to give municipalities control over the estimates of police commissions.

UNIONISTS WITHDRAW. Londonderry, Ulster, April 14.—The Unionist members of the Londonderry city council withdrew from the session today, when a resolution of sympathy with the hunger strikers in Mountjoy prison was proposed. Appeals greeted the statement of Mrs. Morris, a Nationalist member of the council, who stated that the Unionist members of the council were withdrawing from the session because of the sympathy with the hunger strikers.

Another development was the arrival in Dublin of Gen. Sir Neville MacCreedy, the military commander of the forces in Ireland, who is expected to assume his duties as commander of the forces in Ireland, with regard to the hunger strikers, based upon last night's debate in the House of Commons, in London, is that the Government, although it has not been in a position to follow suit.

New developments in the street railway situation hinge on the action of the men when their agreement expires April 21. They have asked an increase of 21 cents an hour, but active negotiations are not likely to be commenced yet.

SOMEBODY'S TRYING TO GET US

Irish Volunteers to Get Land From British Gov't.

Dublin, April 14.—Government officials are negotiating for 2,000 acres of land, which will be apportioned among Irishmen who volunteered for service at the front in 1915. Viscount Field Marshal French, lord lieutenant of Ireland, promised in 1918 that land would be given to those who joined the colors, and in 1919 parliament passed a bill carrying the lord lieutenant's promise into effect.

Up to the present, however, only 71 men who volunteered for the offer have been provided with homes. Four thousand applications for holdings have been filed, and nearly 6,000 soldiers have asked for cottages.

SIX TRAIN CREWS ARE LAID OFF ON THE GRAND TRUNK

Local Yards Will Not Be Closed As Result of the American Strike.

Six train crews and several spare men, amounting in all to approximately 30 men, have been laid off by the Grand Trunk as a direct result of the embargo that has been put on all points of entry into the United States because of the American strike.

No through freight trains have passed through this city for a week as a result of the embargo of all freight trains, and the Grand Trunk is desirous to cross the border. Because of the great reduction in freight service, the Grand Trunk is desirous to operate traffic in this division both on the Grand Trunk and the C. P. R. It is expected that the men will be laid off for only a few days, as the Niagara frontier, where the strike will last much longer.

All talk of closing the local yards and the Grand Trunk is desirous to operate traffic in this division both on the Grand Trunk and the C. P. R. It is expected that the men will be laid off for only a few days, as the Niagara frontier, where the strike will last much longer.

A great number of freight trains are being received with the Grand Trunk, and that brought in by the branch roads from the surrounding district. The Grand Trunk is desirous to operate traffic in this division both on the Grand Trunk and the C. P. R. It is expected that the men will be laid off for only a few days, as the Niagara frontier, where the strike will last much longer.

There will be no further reductions unless the strike lasts for weeks," said the Grand Trunk spokesman, "and we do not look for that."

Five shipments arrived in this city from points in the United States this morning, but it was not known whether they had crossed the border before the embargo was set or not. A message was received at the local office that a carload of cattle had been shipped from Chicago, and it will pass through this city within the next few hours on the Grand Trunk.

Loaded freight cars consigned to points over the border are piling up all over the local divisions of both the C. P. R. and the Grand Trunk. Over five hundred cars are reported to be on sidings in this division on the C. P. R. and close on fifteen hundred cars are piled up on the Grand Trunk, chiefly at Mimico.

Empty cars are not daily piling up in this city as it has been reported. On the contrary, according to officials on the Grand Trunk, great difficulty is being experienced in securing enough empties to supply the local shippers.

Passenger service has not been interrupted on either railroad, and trains are running fairly well on time.

CURTAIN PURSES AND RAISE FEES TO MEET $10,000 PER DAY TAX

Ontario Jockey Club At Toronto Will Be Hit Hardest.

$80,000 IN PURSES Secretary Foster of Association Considers Provincial Levy As Prohibitive.

Toronto, April 14.—By the Canadian Press.—What procedure would be followed by the various Canadian race-tracks as a result of the tax placed by the Provincial Government, could not be ascertained this morning. Various deductions have been drawn, some assuming that the tax would be doubled, while others proffer the suggestion that the purses would be curtailed. Under the new legislation made public yesterday, by Hon. Peter Smith, provincial treasurer, in his budget speech, all mile races in Ontario will be taxed $10,000 for each day's racing. Half-mile races will pay half this amount for each day's operation.

The Ontario Jockey Club has the premier racing organization in Canada, with headquarters at Woodbine Park, will be seriously handicapped, as it is not fully acquainted with the provisions when seen this morning.

Large lists of names of jockeys and trainers who are expected to be affected by the new tax, were received by the Ontario Jockey Club at about 10 o'clock yesterday. The club is expected to make preparations for the spring meeting, which will start about the first of May. Preparations for the spring meeting, which will start about the first of May, are expected to be completed by the end of the month.

Mr. Fraser stated that the tax of $10,000 a day on mile tracks, under which the O. J. C. falls, was probably "What action the directors will take I cannot say," said Mr. Fraser, when asked for an opinion.

KRUPPS DEMAND THAT THEIR GOODS BE PAID FOR IN GOLD ONLY

The Former French President Speaks Optimistically of Future Trade.

GERMAN METHODS BARED Regard It As Insult If Marks Are Offered in Settlement.

Paris, April 14.—Former President Poincare, writing in the Revue des Deux Mondes of the financial situation in France, speaks optimistically of the future of export trade. He emphasizes the need of shaking off industrial torpor, and of an adequate supply of coal for the nation's industries.

"We need not dispute to ourselves," he writes, "the credit of having done our best to bring about a settlement of the German debt, but we must not be misled by the fact that the German people are dying with cold, beside their hearthstones, that no smoke is issuing anywhere from their factory chimneys. These are serious matters which easily impress our allies the more."

Polmer lays bare the methods the Germans employed toward manufacturers in the French devastated regions. He says that the German government in marks they take it as an insult to write, some insisting on payment in Swiss francs and others in French francs. Krupp goes even further by demanding payment in French gold, but that is not all. The former president declares that the German government is not satisfied with the payment in French gold, but that it is desirous of seeing the French gold converted into marks, which are thus transported at the entire risk of the buyers, with no guarantee of reimbursement admitted on any grounds.

There are other guarantees as to date of delivery, price or quality.

GOVERNOR LOWDEN HEADS POLLS IN PRIMARIES IN STATE OF ILLINOIS

Chicago, April 14.—According to latest returns today, Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois won the Republican presidential preference primary in his home state yesterday by a plurality of 6,574, on returns from all but 420 scattered precincts, although Major-General Leonard Wood carried Cook County (Chicago) by 27,443, and Senator Hiram Johnson of California, whose name had been written on the ballot, surprised political leaders by running up a vote of 45,123 votes. There were no Democratic candidates on the list, but a number of names were written in by a few hundred voters.

Mayor William Hale Thompson of Chicago, Republican national committee-man for Illinois, carried every ward except one for committee-men, thereby gaining complete control of the Cook County organization for four years.

100,000 FACTORY WORKERS IN DETROIT THROWN OUT OF WORK DUE TO SWITCHMEN'S STRIKE

Insurgent Railwaymen Are Returning To Work At Several Points in Central West—Industrial Situation in Ohio Grows More Serious—Every Coal Mine in State Is Closed Down—Fight Likely To Be Prolonged.

160,000 MICHIGANERS IDLE. Detroit, April 14.—Michigan's unemployed, created by the walkout a week ago of railroad switchmen continued to grow today. Conservative estimates place the number forced into idleness in various parts of the state at approximately 160,000 this morning. Approximately two-thirds of them are out in Detroit.

Chicago, April 14.—Improvement of freight traffic conditions in the Central West continued today, with insurgent railroad men returning to work at several points, but the industrial situation in Ohio and Michigan reaches a crisis as a result of the stoppage of fuel supplies, and in the far West, where a dozen passenger trains were reported stalled in Southern California, the situation became increasingly serious.

Both insurgent leaders and railroad brotherhood officials said the fight had evolved into a "hanging affair," but the insurgent men declared the line surgents gradually were losing strength.

Roads in the Chicago area concentrated every effort on moving freight, which is about 50 per cent of the switch engines in the district are still operating. The roads announced a further influx of "toys" switchmen from other cities.

The American Federation of Labor, through its railway department, which represents 700,000 members of right railroad crafts, placed its stamp of disapproval on unauthorized strike, and urged all members of affiliated organizations to refuse to obey the walkout.

In Detroit 100,000 factory workers were reported idle, and between 40,000 and 50,000 in Cleveland. In other parts of Michigan had been thrown out of work, with predictions that more men would be jobless by nightfall. The strike situation in Michigan was reported virtually unchanged, with the exception of the return to work of 150 men at Bay City and 35 at Ludington. The industrial situation in Ohio became more ominous today, with more than 100,000 men out of work in Columbus, and virtually every coal mine in the state closed. A growing scarcity of food supplies was reported in many cities. A mail train was reported to have been abandoned at Toledo, and the mail returned to the postoffice. Hope of ending the switchmen's strike in Columbus faded, as a resolution voted not to act as strike-breakers.

Slight progress was made by strikers who went out at Toledo, and the railroads announced. Cincinnati, the railroads announced.

Coal in Cleveland, Ohio, was being confiscated under a federal court order to maintain operation of street cars and heating and lighting today. The federal order instructed that 40 cars be confiscated daily. There was no weakening of the picket line at Toledo, and several large industrial plants announced that they would be forced to close unless fuel was forthwith available.

Several roads reported additional men at work at Cleveland, with some freight moving, but the strike of stockmen remained virtually unchanged. Warnings to travelers attempting long trips east, were issued by the railroads.

St. Louis reported a strike of stockmen was reported at Kansas City, and at St. Louis the situation was pronounced unchanged. A strike of stockmen at all roads at Wichita, Kansas, was set for today.

Seven-five freight conductors and brakemen went out at El Paso, Texas, last night.

MILLIONAIRES DON OVERALLS, FIRE LOCOMOTIVES TO BREAK STRIKE

New York, April 14.—Civilian volunteers to break the strike of rebellious railroad workers here were drilling in New York and New Jersey terminals today, and railroad officials announced services of several hundred men, probably would be utilized to operate suburban trains.

"The Millionaire Special" from Monticello, N. Y., to Erie terminal after a 45-minute run.

Mayor Charles Martens of East Chicago, Ind., announced that he had donated a train from South Chicago to the Erie terminal, and that the train would be operated by the Erie terminal. The train was expected to arrive at Erie terminal today.

Motor trucks were in use by many merchants, and some of these arrived with portable engines, and were used to haul coal to the terminals. The Erie terminal was expected to be in operation today.

Freight service last night was virtually paralyzed. The Erie terminal was expected to be in operation today.

Carson City, Nev., April 13.—First indication of the exact time of the filing of suit by the state of Nevada looking toward the annulment of the divorce decree of Mary Pickford from Owen Moore was given today by Attorney-General Leonard B. Fowler.

"We hope to have the suit in readiness for filing Thursday at Minden, in that it is to finance bonds in our favor having nothing more to say about the matter."

The attorney-general refused again today to make public correspondence between Gavin McNab, counsel for Mrs. Pickford-Fairbanks, and himself bearing on the case.

"I received from McNab a sentimental message, which has, as I see it, no bearing on the case, and for that reason I know of no good cause for making it public."

FATHERS AND SONS COMPETE IN WEIRD GYMNASIUM STUNTS

Boys and Parents of St. Andrew's Get Together.

AN ENJOYABLE BANQUET

"Just Do What Dad Says," Is Advice Given by the Pastor.

Fathers and sons of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church spent a delightful time together last evening, the occasion being a father and son banquet. A number of the fathers are nursing physical aches and pains today, it is scarcely to be wondered at, for they finished the evening in the gymnasium, and the boys saw to it that they performed many weird and unwanted stunts. It is hard to say whether fathers or sons received the greatest benefit from the proceeds of the evening, but one thing is certain, and that is that everybody present had the time of his life.

Among other things (the proud parents learned in the course of a toast by one of the boys, Stanley Gemmill, that the ideal father should be developed along the four-fold idea as taught in the Y.-M. C. A. He should not only be an athlete physically, but he should be developed intellectually as to be able to answer any question his boy might ask. The latter requisite was heard with gasps of dismay by some of the fathers present, and evidently the speaker was pessimistic about fathers in general, for he concluded by remarking that the only ideal fathers were those who had no children of their own.

The Fathers' Inning.
The fathers had their innings when Ward Casselman rose to reply to the toast, "A Father's Impressions of An Ideal Son." He had ideas about the doing of chores around the house, etc., which left an impression among his young hearers that he wasn't exactly the ideal father they had been looking for. Nevertheless they listened patiently to some very sound advice he had to offer them to the effect that boys should be four-square, and develop that rugged personality, which leads to strong character, the only thing in life that remains.

Gordon MacFar had a word to say on behalf of the St. Andrew's Young Men's Club, the members of which were striving, he stated, to become worthy citizens of London, and a credit to St. Andrew's Church. He thanked the members present for the spirit of fellowship shown them.

The minister, Rev. D. C. MacGregor, when called upon for a brief address had words of help and encouragement for both fathers and sons. "Just do what dad says, and you'll come out all right," was the essence of his advice to the boys. He reminded the fathers of their great responsibility because he stated, "as a matter of fact a boy gets his first idea of God from his father." To those who lead busy lives in the business world he propounded the question: "Is your business worth your boy? Make a job of your boy and get to know him." He advised, adding a warning not to screw down the safety valve too tight, because boys and steam engines were very much alike and if there were no safety valve for the outlet of superheated energy an explosion was inevitable.

A Real Treat.
A real treat was provided the boys in the fact that there was present as a guest Rev. Dr. Cartier, who for many years has been a writer of thrilling tales in the Boys' Own Annual under the pen-name of J. Chatterton Wood. He recounted inimitable bits of some of his own adventures as a lad, and also had something to say of his travels in many lands and amid peculiar peoples. He expressed the hope that Canadian boys would develop the spirit of teamwork which was so potent a factor in the winning of the Olympic Games. He reminded the boys that their minister was their best friend, and urged them to put their fullest confidence in him.

The program was interspersed with by a number of musical events, commencing with a lively song led by C. E. Wheeler, after which the Rippas gave their famous yells in hair-raising style.

Ed. Webster favored with two excellent solos and Frank Ashpiner also delighted those present with two musical numbers.

A Jazzy Novelty.
The musical sensation of the evening was a selection of choice jazz music by the Mace Jazz Band. Nothing quite like it had been heard in London before.

Bernie Smith made an ideal chair-

STRIKES EXPRESSED BY THE POST OFFICE MEN

At Ottawa Announcement of Civil Service Amendment.

General satisfaction was felt by all local civil service employees as a result of the announcement from Ottawa that a bill to amend the civil service act had been introduced in the House by Hon. N. W. Rowell. The bill provides that the re-classification of civil service jobs shall not take effect from April 1, 1919, instead of April 1, 1920, as provided in the act last session. The move was not unexpected by the local men, as a promise to this effect was made by Mr. Rowell some time ago, and an order-in-council was passed to back the promise up. The move was the result of agitation on the part of the different associations of civil service men throughout the country, who claimed that because of low wages many of the men were forced to suffer hardships during the past year.

GOING TO SEEK RE-ELECTION AS G. W. A. PRES

Announcement Follows After Verbal War Between the President and Devlin.

After a heated argument, which resulted from a statement by Comrade R. Devlin that former officers should not be at the head of the local branch, Comrade W. G. Coles, the president, announced that when he had fulfilled his term of office he would not contest the position again. Devlin was of the opinion that Comrade Coles did not have a veterans' memorial because the executive of the local branch was composed entirely of officers. He claimed that if rank and file men had served in the ranks were in charge of the association a greater interest would be taken in it and a memorial probably would have been built. Until the city council notified men interested in the veterans' memorial would be done in the matter.

Simple Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid acid from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single grain and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.—Advt.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD, TAKE SALTS

Says Backache Is Sign You Have Been Eating Too Much Meat.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Most forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach aches, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effective lithia-water drink.

SUGAR REFINERY AT CHATHAM SERIOUSLY MENACED BY STRIKE

Delay in Arrival of Material Would Throw 700 Men Out.

CHATHAM, April 13.—Approximately 700 employees of the Dominion Sugar Company may be idle within the next few days as a result of the strike of railroad workers in the United States. Large shipments of raw sugar from points in Southern America are tied up as a result of the strike, and many thousands of tons lie in boats at New York awaiting transportation. To keep the local refinery humming there must be a steady importation, and any delay will seriously interrupt its schedule.

MEDICAL AID JOINS HIGH COST OF LIVING IN BORDER CITIES

WINDSOR, April 13.—Effective Thursday, physicians of Essex County will charge a new scale of $2.50 for day and $4 for night calls, according to a new scale adopted by the Essex Medical Association. The doctors claim increased cost of all commodities used by them, and in spite of higher wages, reluctance of patients to meet bills, has rendered this action necessary.

BITTER FIGHT IN PUBLICITY OF ELECTION FUNDS

Farmers and Liberals Favor Letting Voters Know Facts.

UNIONISTS OPPOSE

Storm of Criticism From Government Heaped on Farmer Member.

OTTAWA, April 13.—In speeches bitter with invective, the House tonight fought over publicity of campaign funds. For several listless hours non-contentious clauses and amendments to the franchise bill had drifted through committee with scarcely more than a perfunctory nod. Then, on campaign funds, members of the new Agrarian party contested with members of the older parties seated on the Government side of the House, and exchanges were thick and fast.

Hon. Mr. Mowatt (Parkdale) read a statement which appeared in the Review and in the Examiner under the heading of the expense to the farmers' organization of the election in Assiniboia in 1917. The total of $3,973.43 was made up of such headings as "Smith," "Gould," "Sundries," "General," "Party Accounts." The latter, for instance, said Mr. Mowatt, amounted to over $800. Mr. Mowatt said that all employees of the organization of the farmers' organization.

Hon. Hugh Guthrie, solicitor-general, brought it to a climax with the retort that a clause passed without opposition earlier in the day provided more than Mr. McMaster asked. This clause stipulated that within two weeks of the official agent of every candidate shall transmit to the returning officer an account of all money received, securities and equivalent of money received, or promised to, the official agent of the candidate, or any other person, naming the person from whom the same may have been received.

Farmer Party Objected. The clause which raised the trouble was the one which the Farmer party objected when first it came before the committee. It prohibits incorporation of unincorporated associations of companies, unless incorporated for political purposes, from contributing to campaign funds and other expenses of candidates.

Mr. McMaster proposed to amend, but while the official amendment came from Mr. McMaster, the fight was primarily between Farmers and Government members.

Mr. Gould, the Farmer member for Assiniboia, in supporting the amendment, had told of how his campaign fund was raised by popular contribution. Contributions were received and expenses $5,573. He told of an agreement with a committee of fifteen in his constituency, providing if necessary for his recall as a member of the House.

When Mr. Gould had concluded he was subjected to a storm of criticism. Unionist members charged that he had given names but had not stated what purpose the money was paid. "It is that not corruption of the vilest and rankest kind," demanded Mr. Sewankoski of Peterborough, and his words were echoed by other ministerial members.

Mr. Guthrie speaking on the clause later, declared that it was not aimed at the grain growers' movement of the West or the United Farmers of Ontario. It was designed to stop corruption, subscriptions for election purposes. In the clause the Government simply proposed to re-enact the clause of 1918.

Hon. W. S. Fielding declared that the day was not far distant when the legitimate expenses of a candidate would be a direct charge on the treasury of the Dominion, and then all such talk as this would have no place. There was no reason, he declared, why many members of the House should not be elected.

The clause providing for the abolition of the post of clerk of the crown in chambers, on which there was extended debate last week in the House, was adopted without further debate just before the House rose.

The House adjourned at 11 p.m. until tomorrow at 2 p.m.

There was much discussion upon the clause which provides for taking in advance the ballots of electors who will be absent on polling day.

Mr. Fielding contended that the machinery was elaborate and expensive. The few absences might as well vote by proxy; secrecy was not so important.

Mr. Pedlow (Renfrew) suggested commercial travelers, etc., might vote by mail, as was done in the Argentine Republic. Mr. Duff (Lunenburg) said the clause was not adequate for taking the vote of sailors, and if sailors could not be put on equal terms with commercial travelers, he advocated abolishing the advance poll altogether.

Mr. Menion (Port William) said the advance poll had been of great value in his constituency in the last election and satisfactory to the electors themselves. The clause was finally allowed to stand, but No. 101, the last one in the bill, which makes the bill apply to elections under the Canadian ten-percentage act, so far as it can be made applicable, was carried.

A number of schedules of forms attached to the bill, which are to be used at elections, were passed.

Mr. Guthrie told Mr. Euler that the amendment to clause 29 (the qualification clause) would be ready by the time the committee was ready to take up this clause again.

Prohibits Contributions. The remaining schedules having been adopted, the committee turned to the contentious clause of the bill beginning with clause 10, which prohibits any company or association, unless incorporated for purely political purposes, from contributing to political funds.

The solicitor-general told Mr. McKenzie that the changes made in this clause, as compared with the previous version, were intended to remove ambiguity.

Levi Thomson (Qu'Appelle) said the apparent intention of requiring incorporation was to insure publicity, and that he proposed that any association that had a memorandum of its place of business and its officers, and that particulars of their contributions for election purposes should be filed with the chief electoral officer, and be compelled to publish such contributions in the newspapers or elsewhere.

Mr. McMaster (Brome) who said that Parliament had been lowered in the eyes of the public owing to the belief that members were elected by funds supplied by their friends, and that the big interests had a hand in their election, introduced an amendment which would forbid any incorporated or unincorporated company or firm contributing to campaign funds. Subscriptions by individuals should be permitted, but with requirement of the fullest possible publicity.

Sick of Machine. Mr. Gould said the people in the West were sick of machine politics. They felt that the big interests were behind the government. He described the action of the electors of the western provinces in subscribing small amounts—50 cents to $1—to support their candidates as purity in politics, which drew derisive laughter from the Government benches.

John Best (Dufferin) deprecated the practice of a house-to-house canvass a year or two ahead of election time. In the West, he understood, organizers were going from farm to farm, urging the people for money when they did not know yet who would be the candidates. He had heard that Mr. Gould's election had cost $1,000 for printing the member for Assiniboia had declared that brains and not money were necessary to get a candidate elected. Four thousand dollars for printing would mean a total bill of $12,000—to elect a man with brains. It had not cost him (Best) one-twelfth of that amount. He would prohibit all contributions if he produced any.

Restrict Amount. Mr. Sewankoski (Peterborough) would do away with all campaign contributions and restrict the amount which might be spent on an election in any constituency. As a farmer he was ashamed of the methods of farmers' organizations in politics.

Mr. Gould defended the system of small contributions. It stimulated interest in the cause. The allegation about a $12,000 election was ridiculous. His own organization had collected just $6,077, and much of it was still in the treasury.

Mr. Best said he had based his $12,000 estimate on the printing bill of $4,000, and Mr. Gould denied that he had ever stated that this amount was spent on printing.

H. M. Mowatt (Parkdale) read a statement which appeared in the Review and in the Examiner under the heading of the expense to the farmers' organization of the election in Assiniboia in 1917. The total of $3,973.43 was made up of such headings as "Smith," "Gould," "Sundries," "General," "Party Accounts." The latter, for instance, said Mr. Mowatt, amounted to over $800. Mr. Mowatt said that all employees of the organization of the farmers' organization.

FINGER PRINTS USED TO CONFIRM RECORD OF MYSTERY MAN

Had Been Convicted Under Several Aliases.

TORONTO, April 13.—The identification of "Frank Hall," the mysterious individual who secured a free passage from England to Canada as a shell-shocked Canadian soldier, and who appeared in Toronto within two weeks of the memory, was completed today in the jail here. It was begun yesterday when a multiplication inspector James Mitchell of this city revealed "Hall's" record as that of an ex-convict who had served terms in several prisons for theft, and confronted the stranger with photographs and Bertillon measurements, and with what the inspector regarded as additional confirmation of his belief that "Hall" was Clyde Denham, a native of Exeter, England, who had been deported to England in 1915.

Today in the presence of the authorities and Mayor M. M. MacBride of Toronto, two employees of the Massey-Harris Company, Brantford, G. McKlin and A. Lundy, positively identified "Hall" as Clyde Denham, former fellow-employee. Mrs. Nellie Diamond of Brantford at the same time recognized "Hall" as Clyde Denham, whom she had known in Exeter, England.

Information from the federal authorities in Ottawa to the effect that finger prints taken of "Hall" correspond to those taken of Denham in connection with his prison record was received here today. He will be deported.

A dispatch from Hamilton, Ont., states that Hamilton man Fred Taylor, has recognized the picture of "Frank Hall" as that of Clyde Denham, who in 1915 served in the military, and who went on a "silence strike" that lasted for several months, just to fool the "people." Another freaky action of Denham while in Hamilton, according to Taylor, was to announce that the dead body of his sister was being brought from England, then to pretend to go to New York to meet the body.

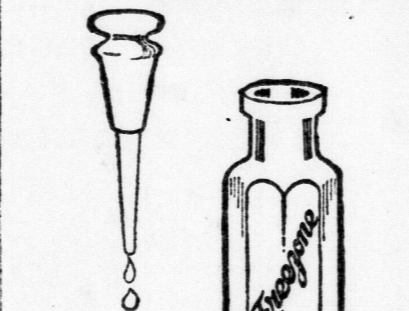

IDENTITY CONFIRMED. OTTAWA, April 13.—Confirmation of the identity and criminal record of Clyde Denham, who has been posing at Toronto as Frank Hall, the mystery soldier, has been established through the finger-print system by the federal authorities here. Finger prints taken by the Toronto police and forwarded to Ottawa yesterday, were examined by Inspector Foster of the criminal identification bureau, and found to be identical.

KNOWN AT ST. THOMAS.
ST. THOMAS, April 13.—Recalling some convictions made during the opening years of the war at the local police court, Chief of Police Armstrong finds a strong resemblance to a man who was convicted and sentenced to the Central Prison on a charge of theft in the features of the undiscovered soldier, "Frank Hall." Hall had then worked at the Monarch Knitting Company. It is alleged, under the name of Royce De Enson, and boarded with Mrs. Hollingshead, Lydia street.

Records of the local police court show that a man of this name was charged with stealing goods from the Monarch Knitting Company, and was punished. De Enson is remembered by several people in the city. Magistrate Maxwell, some time ago, received several inquiries as to the mysterious man, but does not remember their contents. The Toronto police have been advised, but so far none of the staff here have been called there to identify him.

EXPECT ANOTHER RUN OF SAP FOLLOW GOLD SPELL

INGERSOLL, April 13.—While there has been much faultfinding at recent weather conditions old timers declare that the crops will be much better than had the early spring weather continued. The grain crops are expected to be above the average because of the recent falls of snow. It is expected there will be another run of sap, and many who tapped their trees have left their buckets out.

Bower, general superintendent of the engineering branch of the department of soldiers' civil re-establishment, is leaving the Government service to take up the work of chief engineer with a large engineering and contracting company. He will also specialize as a hospital consultant. Mr. W. H. George succeeds Mr. Bower.

Nothing Pays Better Than Taking Care of Yourself

Men seem to care more for money than they do for health. They do not seem to realize that it pays better to take care of health than to take care of business. The best asset any one can have is healthy kidneys. The kidneys are more important than a bank account, for healthy kidneys will keep you alive, while a big bank balance won't.

The signs of bad kidneys are rheumatism, lumbago, neuralgia, dropsy, pains in the back, spots before the eyes, dizziness, sleeplessness and puffs under the eyes—all the results of poisons that the kidneys fail to filter out of the blood.

The cure is simple. All you need is something that will get the excess uric acid out of the system. Nothing does this so effectively and safely as Dr. Pierce's Anuric (anti-uric-acid) Tablets, which cost only 50 cents in drug stores. Anuric is an unusual medicine that dissolves uric acid much the same as hot water dissolves sugar or salt. It will pay you well to take care of your kidneys and health by taking Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets.

By writing Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., and sending sample, you can have urinalysis free of charge. Send 10¢ for trial package of tablets, or 50¢ for "Medical Adviser."

The Versatile Phonograph
Every Feature that Means Perfect Enjoyment.

OME good phonographs specialize upon one advantage, some upon another. It is possible for the maker, who in all sincerity desires to reach the highest pinnacles of accomplishment, to include many extra features that have proven their worthiness beyond doubt. That has been done to the highest degree in the

McLagan Phonograph

That is the reason the McLagan has been called the most complete phonograph ever made. First and foremost, nothing has been spared to produce that wonderfully rich, mellow, velvety tone which can come only from a sound chamber of wood delicately and correctly shaped, and insulated from surrounding parts. Reproducer, tone-arm and sound chamber are harmonized perfectly. The result is tone unsurpassed.

Tone Control—The control of the director over his orchestra—"from forte to pianissimo"—seems but a motion of his baton. You can similarly conduct a great orchestra at will by means of the McLagan's sensitive tone control.

Plays all Records—The commonplace phonograph too often limits you to one kind of record. The McLagan opens up the entire field of musical reproduction in disc records without any extra attachment. But a slight alteration in the reproducer is needed to adjust for a different type of record. On the McLagan you can play any disc record made.

McLagan-Fletcher Reproducer—This is the last word in pure tone reproduction. It eliminates all harsh, metallic effects, giving full, round natural tone to both vocal and instrumental records. No details of low tones or orchestral accompaniments are lost as in ordinary reproducers. High notes are rendered with full purity and freedom from "blast."

McLagan Cabinets are the aristocrats of artistic Period Designs, including the William and Mary, Queen Anne, Chippendale, Adam, Louis XVI, etc. Each is an original interpretation, a work of art such as is chosen to be in keeping with, and to enhance, the most finely furnished room in the land. Each is an unsurpassable example of true and sincere craftsmanship, showing its superiority in flawless cabinet work, fine lines, and perfect surfaces. In every sense it is the most beautiful of phonographs.

Accept this as a cordial invitation from your McLagan dealer to hear and inspect the Aristocrat of Phonographs.

MR. KING OPPOSED.

It is to be regretted that the U. F. O. found it necessary to nominate a candidate in opposition to the Hon. Mackenzie King. The policies of the Liberal and Farmers' parties are essentially the same. Mr. King has been fighting and will continue to combat the reactionary agencies at the capital that have hampered and handicapped the agricultural population of the country.

GIBBS ON WAR.

To help offset the activities of certain elements in Canada that would like to introduce what amounts to militarism, it would be well if everybody read Philip Gibbs' new book on the war, "It Now Can Be Told." When they have perused it they will be convinced that war is the most hideous, most debasing of all conditions. The work is based on the great war correspondent's experiences on the western front, and it is a terrible accusation of war. He gives the real facts. Instead of the "glory" we have a picture of the misery and the horror of the daily fighting.

SONORA SECEDES.

The great and rich state of Sonora, Mexico, is the latest recruit to the cause of self-determination, having dropped out from the rest of the Mexican Republic. Carranza and the rest of the world have been informed that Sonora will no longer recognize the Mexican administration at Mexico City as the governing body. The Sonoran Congress has attached a string to the move, however, by declaring that in the event the Mexican Government pledges Sonora the fullest state rights Sonora will return to the old arrangement.

PRICES OF FARM PRODUCTS.

The question whether or not agricultural prices will fall in the next year or so is a matter of interest both to the farmer as producer, and the city dweller as chief consumer. This is peace time now, not war time, though war-time conditions have so far carried over sufficiently to maintain prices of foodstuffs, and even go beyond what was realized in the years when fighting armies consumed such vast quantities of the products of the farm. There is a lot of foolish talk about the farmer's duty and the farmer's place in the scheme of things, all based on the type that disappeared years ago, "the old-time farmer by whom the hills that followed in the train of overproduction were accepted with much the heavenly grace or peevish resignation with which the old-time mother accepted the hard lot entailed by a too large family." It is a mistake to think that the farmer of today does not scrutinize his costs, or that he is so altruistic as to go on producing for society's sake at his own expense.

Moreover, there is an active campaign among farmers' organizations and through farm papers insisting that the laborer is worthy of his hire. "A good living and 10 per cent" is the slogan of one important paper, while almost all farm journals urge the giving up of lines that do not give proper return. The tendency today is first to find out the cost of production, and then, by association and co-operation, to make sure of receiving the proper return. Older country folk know what the conditions were prior to 1897, when agricultural products commanded low prices, and while they resigned themselves at that time to feeding and clothing others at less than cost, their sons and daughters of today will never do it again. There are enough brainy leaders in agriculture, and enough organizations of one kind and another, to fight the return of any such conditions today.

Low prices of the past are no longer possible, whatever may come. Machinery has advanced in price, and along with machinery have gone lumber, cement, nails, rope, twine, and everything else that has a place in production. Likewise, wages paid to farm labor are far beyond anything known in the past, and land itself is higher in price and rental value. Farms in Middlesex County are selling in some townships at an advance of 20 per cent over prices of two and three years ago. Knowing, then, what his costs are, the farmer is determined that the prices he receives shall accord, and he is developing the machinery to secure what he regards as the just price. Are there any factors that may upset calculations? For one thing, the demand from Europe is not as great as some have predicted. Great Britain and Italy are on rations, and likely to continue so. The European countries generally are doing their best to get their own agriculture in shape to supply their needs, and the rapidly with which the process of agricultural reconstruction is proceeding is amazing. The submarine campaign brought four million acres under the plow in England that had not been producing before, and there was bred into the English people a realization of their weakness in not producing more of what they need. This will hardly pass away with the end of the war. So much for the foreign market. Is the home market, then, likely to maintain its present level? Certainly not, unless industrial conditions remain as good as today. Foreign competition is also a factor to be considered, in dealing with foreign markets, particularly.

The situation, then, is this, that farmers everywhere are seeking to maintain the price levels achieved during the war, while on the other hand laws of supply and demand point to lower prices if the demand be decreased, while supplies are increased, remain stationary, or are not proportionately reduced. This is nothing new. It is, as a rule, as old as the barter of mankind, but there is necessity for constant readjustment. The farmer cannot maintain his prices if there are not enough buyers, or if the buyers are restricted in their expenditure; his plan, therefore, must be to see that costs go down in proportion to declines in selling prices. This means efficiency in production, co-operation in marketing, and constant attention to the tariff, to see that he is not being milked by protected interests. In Canada we still have vast natural resources to be developed; we have not exhausted our available lands, and have other lands yet to fall back upon when the time comes. We are in better position in these respects than the United States, and a proof of it lies in the tens of thousands of American farmers who have gone into the Canadian West and who are still entering the country in considerable numbers.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The striking switchmen are trying to run the union into an open switch. Nothing so mirrors this turbulent, uncertain hour as the trades unionists acting as strike breakers over the switchmen's walkout.

It is reported that the ex-crown prince of Germany may be placed on an island. They might send him to the Isle of Dreams—bad ones. A British newspaper says that prohibition is "humiliating to the self-respect of the American and Canadian peoples." It is "humiliating," yes, to be caught stealing a ride on a car, or helping yourself to something off the counter, or not to get a bit of opium when you want it, or not to be allowed to smoke and spit around in church, or to have a drink denied your whim when people all over the world are short of bread, and alcohol is known to be a dangerous poison. Some people need to be humiliated.

A PLOW SONG.

A grand time is a plow-team on the long, straight course. With a clear brain ruling the strength of man and horse; A fine sight is the plow-team on the hill-top together; A good time is the plow-time in the clear, cold weather! McKie worked the best team the countryside could show. When he put in his own crop, two years ago. As straight a back, as strong a hand as ever Had McKie, that's a criddle and a sick man now. A long day is the plowman's day, from winter's morn till night. A warm glow in the evening mists are homestead lamps alight. I looked in the hollow as the sun left the hill. And saw the plow lying and the team standing still; And always in the twilight I can see young McKie Lying in the furrow with his face to the sky!

PULLMAN CAR GRAFF.

Comment is free as to a newly discovered graft in Pullman reservations on limited trains. Ever since the government took over the railroads it has been harder and harder to secure reservations on fast trains between our great cities. This at first did not seem strange, since we were told that traffic has never been so heavy as it is today; but it soon appeared that those who were willing to pay the price could often get seats, no matter how near the hour of the train's departure. Going the ticket wicket and asking for a seat on a limited train out of this city, or even New York or Philadelphia or Washington, the applicant received the answer that everything was all sold. This was sufficient for the uninitiated, but to those who were "wise" there was still hope, for the lure of a $5 bill passed through the wicket sometimes brought from its hidden recess that much-desired pasteboard. It was during government control that this pernicious practice gained its start, when train service was curtailed, and accommodations scarce. Huddled travelers gave the head porter of some of our best hotels an extra inducement to secure reservations at the last minute. Finding that he could usually dispose of tickets up to the time of departure of limited trains at a substantial profit, he soon reached a satisfactory understanding with the ticket-sellers, and the practice grew. Today, under private ownership, this system still prevails, and adds to the ever-growing lists of money-grabbers. Our railroad ticket offices should not become the equivalent of theatre ticket-scalpers. Theaters are a pastime, travel is most often a necessity. The never-ceasing adjustment of wage scales among railroad employees should mean that they are adequately paid, and that outside remuneration is unnecessary. The public that raises its cry against profiteers of other types will not long be patient with this new style of graft.

UNAVOIDABLE DELAYS.

Nothing can be more mischievous than to indulge in futile and angry scoldings of the conference because it has not accomplished more. The only occasions in history when allied conferences have been expeditious in drawing up terms of peace have been when one or other had the will to impose his terms upon the rest by reason of the number of bayonets at his command. Is that what these ill-tempered critics of the conference would have wished to see, either in Paris or London? Of course it is not. Those who are so eager to censure the British Government talk as if the settlement rested in their hands alone. But it is an allied settlement, and opinions differ. Facts are read differently. Even when conclusion have been reached some of the parties have desired revisions.

From Here and There

WHAT ABOUT IT, GIRLS? (London Daily Express.) Why not make every year a leap year? These are the days of sex equality, of women's complete emancipation. Surely it is time to overthrow the fetish that man only must propose marriage. It is very unpleasant to be rejected. It is indeed a blow to the heart and a grave injury to self-esteem. But you will become as used to that as man will become tactful and even tender on the offer of alternative betrothal. And there shall be merry courtships which are liable at any moment to interruption by a proposal from either side.

AM I MY BROTHER'S KEEPER? (San Francisco Chronicle.) Why the United States should attempt to tell Europe and Asia, or any nation of Africa, how they ought to settle the affairs of Turkey, or must settle them, and recent history forces a feeling that the president will eventually get around to the "must" stage, is a question beyond ordinary logic. The United States is not a party to the League of Nations, it was not at war with Turkey, the state department is on record with a declaration to the Senate, in answer to a question, that the Turkish treaty is not an affair of ours.

REMOVING AN INJUSTICE. (London Daily News.) The question of double income tax within the British Empire has for some time been a burning one. It will be admitted that in any sound solution of the problem regard must be had to the principle that when one tax is charged on the same income both in the United Kingdom and in a dominion, the total relief to be given should be equivalent to the tax at the lower of the two rates. Of tax imposed on the same income should not interfere with the basis of assessment made by any part of the Empire, and, further, that any adjustment should be made, as far as possible, in the country where the taxpayer resides.

AN EXPERIMENT IN GOVERNMENT. (London Daily News.) The league might do well to appoint a commission to administer Armenia and raise an international army to defend it. That is possible in theory. Is it possible in practice? To rule it out finally would be to go back to the days when the Armenians might so appeal to the chivalry of the youth of the different countries that the raising of an Armenian defence force would present no insuperable difficulty. In that case a most important step in international government would be put into operation. But the task is an almost unjustifiably heavy burden to lay on a body that has as yet achieved barely two full months of existence.

OLDEST LONDONER.

An old woman to whom fame arrived late in life has on this day celebrated her 100th birthday over two months ago, and for some years past she has been celebrated every January as the oldest Londoner. One thinks of the little baby who was born in London in the year 1600, and destined to hear the guns thunder as they drove air raiders from London in the great war a century later. She grows to manhood and childhood, and through middle age to old age with the same that was to be her one day still a secret of the future. But the fame did come at last, and for some years she was the most photographed and interviewed old woman in Great Britain.

CANADA AND THE STATES.

One of the most important functions of a British ambassador in the States will be spared to Sir Auckland Geddes by the excellent decision to allow Canada to maintain its own representative at Washington. The British ambassador in Canada has questions which crop up there, and it is natural that a British ambassador should not always understand them very thoroughly, and that there should be a representative in Canada who can deal with them. Dominion point of view as Ottawa wants it pressed. Just now there is a rather bitter feeling in Canada with regard to the objection in Washington to special representation of the Dominion on the League of Nations, and it is a question which can be handled more efficiently between the Canadian Government and the Washington Government than by any government of ours.

AS SHEEP TO THE SLAUGHTER.

Of course, it should be fairly admitted that the great bulk of the people in Australia are no exceptions to the general rule—have not yet reached the thinking stage. They are still in the mental servitude which repeats credulously and catchword—there are no exceptions to the rule. The noisiest leaders, though occasionally yelping at those leaders and changing them when the scent seems cold. No political party wants its rank and file to think, because its leaders would cease to be in the lead. The Labor party even goes the length at times of driving out from its ranks any who assert the right to hold an opinion differing from that of those who have made the various confusions and confusions. The party leaders think of the people as a mass, organize them as a mass without giving room for any diversity of view; and in doing so they rob political action of all the solid basis of individual conviction and enthusiasm.

DESIRE IN SPRING.

I love the cradle songs the mothers sing in lonely places where the twilight drops. The slow, endearing melodies that bring Sleep to the wearying folk; and, when she stops, I love the roosting birds upon the tops Of dusty hedges in a world of spring. And when the sunny rain drips from the edge Of mid-air, and the meadows lean one way, And a long whisper passes through the sedge, Beside the broken water let me stay, While these old airs upon my memory play, And slight changes color up the hedge.

THE DANISH CRISIS.

King Christian of Denmark has by arbitrary action in both an internal and a constitutional matter arrayed the best sense of the nation against him. However little importance we may attach to talk of a republic, the Radicals and Socialists are determined to force the issue in dismissing the Zable ministry. The bearing of the crisis on the Schleswig question will most interest the outside world. The nation was bound by the peace and the treaty of 1919. The second zone as decisive according to common sense. Nearly all the zone, including Plensburg, voted heavily for continued German sovereignty. The Zable ministry acted correctly in assuming that these conditions must be handed back to Germany. But the Conservatives and others cried out for the dismissal of Zable's ministry and the virtual repudiation of the plebiscite. It is an upsurge of evil passions which shows how difficult is the realization of the principle of self-determination, which which only makes insistence of the principle all the more essential.

THE TRIUMPHATE.

A banqueter tells this rather good story on himself. He was making a speech at a dinner, and in the course of the speech he said: "I have produced three great men—Washington, Lincoln and I myself." At this point a burst of laughter drowned the rest of his remarks. He had intended to say "I think Theodore Roosevelt." The laughing got his goat, and he sat down without saying anything more.

MONARCHISTS PLAYING 'POSSUM.

Boishevism, as vicious as it was in Russia in its earliest manifestations, is the common foe of all thinking and law-abiding Germans. Too late the monarchists who upset the cautious realize their folly. Only by giving their best aid to the government which they sought to destroy can they make partial atonement. Germany may be saved by the horse sense of the German majority. The salvation is thus won, bourgeois democracy will be stronger than ever, and Hohenzollern imperialism will indeed be moribund instead of merely shamming.

WORLD-WIDE PROPAGANDA.

Secret conferences are being held in Holland, Germany and France, in all the object is the same, the undermining of the national spirit, the stirring of strikes, which will interfere with any concerted movement for the suppression of Boishevism, and the opening of the way for the Red military forces through Western Europe whenever Lenin believes there is a prospect of success.

WHITE MAN

[By George Agnew Chamberlain.]

Andrea's shoulders ached from holding her arms before her face to ward off the interminably encroaching vines and branches that seemed to oppose the way, but invariably parted at her touch. Her tongue was parched, all her clothing laid hands on her every motion with a clammy grip, and her body quivered on the fine edge of exhaustion, but she hung on, her eyes above dark shadows casting agonized glances at M'ungo. If only he would reach for the big gun! If only he would really stop for even a fleeting rest!

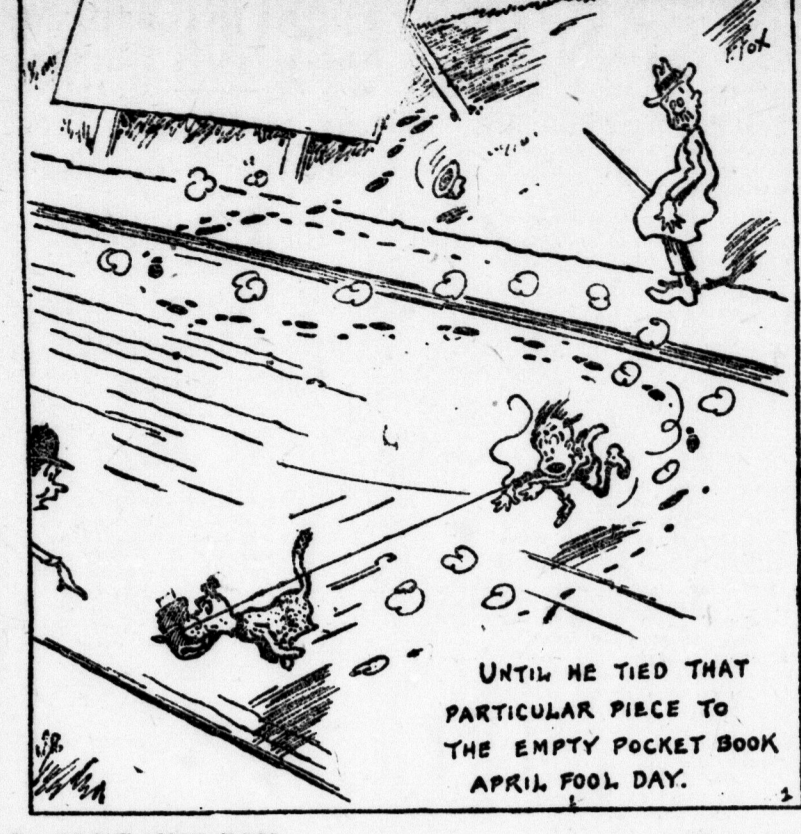

The next moment she found herself crowded into the halting group in front. They stood in the sparse shade of a big tree, their eyes sweeping the ground beneath their feet and rising to meet each other's gaze with swift, nervous glances and a swifter understanding. Here was a great reading, the anti-climax of suspense, the program of momentary final pronouncement. The three elephants had come together, they had milled beneath the trees, they were even now indubitably beneath the next they had encountered—for when a feeding elephant walks in a single file across a plain it is because his thoughts are entirely fixed on taking his noon-day nap promptly.

CHAPTER XIII. The tracker stood unbelievably erect, heels of the ground. It was as though by an effort of will he had suspended himself in the air, all his muscles wholly was his body consecrated to the act of listening. Suddenly his wide nostrils quivered with delicate fluttering, and distended till their outer rings showed white. A look of sensual and animal hunger spread over his face as he drew down into his lungs the breath of tainted breeze. He snuffed the air; the wind was right. Presently Andrea caught the odor and her whole body trembled as from an overmastering physical contact. This smell was unlike all others; it mingled in color and substance, it crept through the forest like a dark cloud, and it seemed to follow her, to get out of the way. She felt suddenly cold and glanced over her shoulder with a half-formed notion of retreat; then her eyes fell on M'ungo and she forgot all else in an absorption that was above fear. He had become filled with an essence of youth, as though years of life had rushed past and future to fill to overflowing the cup of this one transcendent moment. His face was tense but slight and his ordinary green was had attained to an unapproachable blue that seemed to deny measure to the depth of his emotion. This was the smile drawn in the crooked line of a fixed smile—a smile that struggled on the verge of the smile that she had seen in the eyes of the dead. Like a black monitor the tracker went before him. M'ungo suddenly aware that his weight of eleven pounds lay in his hand, he felt as though it were a weight of a hundred. She had not seen him take it, and there was something ghostly in the mere fact of his possession of it. She had seen him in a turmoil; she knew that upon the taking over of the big gun had hung some vital destiny. She had seen him in that primal moment of suspense, memory was an agonizing blank and nothing more than a faint impression of the cautiously pausing footsteps of the single gunbearer that crept before her, that was above fear.

Infinitely seemed to come and go before they had advanced twenty paces. Andrea was suddenly aware that she had rubbed past and future to fill to overflowing the cup of this one transcendent moment. His face was tense but slight and his ordinary green was had attained to an unapproachable blue that seemed to deny measure to the depth of his emotion. This was the smile drawn in the crooked line of a fixed smile—a smile that struggled on the verge of the smile that she had seen in the eyes of the dead. Presently she was rewarded; three shadows within the shadow slowly took form. Once seen, they advanced in distinction until they stood out to view as does the Coni Pit on a starry, moonless night. They were three clouds, ominous, dusky, thunderous. Suddenly from one of them came a rumble that rolled ponderously away through the silent world. Andrea, in the moment of the majesty of the intellectual connotations of the mightiest of beating with a deafening throb. She that somewhere beyond the barren sky a storm was brewing. The white man still stood, tense but immovable. Gradually Andrea's senses gathered to the fact that this was no pause. He was waiting—waiting, waiting for the one who stood fatally fascinated and paralyzed on the threshold of disaster. Her heart was beating with a deafening throb. She was sure the natives about her could hear it just as she was convinced she

Memory came to her. She remembered what he had told her to do. She hugged the tree in a great relief, while her eyes still followed the white man and the two black shadows, that he seemed to throw, one before, one behind. Suddenly the tracker paused with an unmistakable finality. His hands went up in an even swift gesture of warning. His body sank gradually lower and lower till it stretched flat and still as a log at the side of the narrow trail. With long-studied, cautious movements the white man passed over him and stood erect, at once steady and quivering, as heat waves quiver steadily in the air arising from parched soil. Not forty paces from where Andrea hugged her protecting trunk and sawer, by twenty in advance of M'ungo, the domes of two trees topped the even mass of the saplings about them. Into the shadows beneath these trees he was peering with an intensity that communicated itself to Andrea. She was peering with her gaze. Presently she was rewarded; three shadows within the shadow slowly took form. Once seen, they advanced in distinction until they stood out to view as does the Coni Pit on a starry, moonless night. heard the Day of Judgment right on top of me—I just had to give it a run for its money!" She dropped her head against him and sobbed. He put his arm around her and patted her awkwardly on the back. "There! There!" he said. "Don't. Please don't." Seemingly without his volition his arms tuckered closer and closer until he suddenly awoke to the fact that he was just plainly hugging Andrea Feller. He pushed her roughly from him. "Here," he said in quite a different voice, "what isn't my funeral. Come and cry on the elephant."

Now, Altogether, Let's Demonstrate What LONDON Can Do! The eyes of Canada are upon us; watching to see what success we will have with this demonstration of "Made in Canada" goods. London has introduced many progressive moves in the past; moves that the pessimists and "crepe hangers" predicted would be failures. But London always does what she sets out to do and comes through with flying colors. "MADE-IN-CANADA" WEEK - APRIL 19 to 24 - already gives promise of being a huge success. All that is needed is the co-operation of the manufacturers, merchants and the buying public during the week. Help London set the pace. If we are successful, other Canadian cities will take up the move and when Canadian men, women and children really insist upon getting goods that are manufactured in Canada the value of the Canadian Dollar will increase rapidly in foreign countries. FILL OUT THE QUESTIONNAIRE AND WIN ONE OF THE PRIZES! Every merchant co-operating in this move and exhibiting Canadian-Made Goods during the week will be supplied with questionnaire forms. These will be given to the women of London and district, and prizes awarded for the best answers to the questions. FOR FURTHER PARTICULARS APPLY TO T. B. Parkinson, Aetna Life; F. E. Darling of Oliver, when their eldest daughter, Eva May, was united in marriage to a young man of Almyer. The bride, who entered the parlor on the arm of her father, to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Conway, looked charming in a gown of white silk. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. LARGEST OFFERING IN W. M. S. HISTORY

Presentation to Miss Russen-holt At St. Andrew's.

The Easter offering given at Monday's meeting of the W. M. S. of the First Methodist Church proved to be the largest in its history, amounting to $400. In spite of the unfavorable weather there was a very large turnout of members who were privileged to hear the Rev. H. B. Burwell of China deliver an address on "The Challenge of Chungking." After the meeting tea was served.

At St. Andrew's. An address by Dr. Carter of India was the principal feature of a large and enthusiastic meeting of the W. M. S. of St. Andrew's Church held on Monday evening, Dr. Carter's address dealt largely with the conditions in India, and the relation of the church in making these conditions better. A report on the recent Presbytery held in Stratford was read by Mrs. George Macdonald, and a presentation of an umbrella was made to Miss Russenolt, the deaconess, who is shortly leaving the city. At the close of the meeting tea was served.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

Dear Miss Grey,—Here I come to bother some more. My husband wished me to write and ask for copies of "The Gypsy's Warning," and "The Answer to the Gypsy's Warning." He also wishes me to ask if you, or any of the boxites could supply him with the words and music or even the words of a song commencing like this:

"If a star should walk a flower, And from its home in the sky, Really Miss Grey, I do not know what we would do without your Mail-Box. It certainly is a help, and I have many a friend who would like to see it if you could. Since you are so kind, please send me a copy of the song referred to above. Yours, MRS. LUTHER HOLLING.

Agrees With Mother Carey Dear Miss Grey,—I agree with Mother Carey, and would not call the letters about town and country. "War" is a word which is used in the "Get Together and Find Each Other's View Point" movement. May be it is advisable to keep the closure, when the discussions have become too long drawn out, and perhaps a few of the writers might express their opinions more courteously, but much unparliamentary language should be forgiven women who have just obtained the vote, when even the speaker in the marble halls at Ottawa is kept busy calling on the mass of readers.

Here's Blue Eyes. Dear Miss Grey,—I have read your columns for some time and enjoy them very much. Will you please send me your famous stocking-foot pattern, and also mitt pattern.

One Cup of Dark Brown Sugar. One cup of dark brown sugar, two tablespoons flour, one tablespoon butter, yolks of two eggs (whites for frosting), one cup sweet milk, in double boiler and put in baked crust. It improves if left two days.

A Lover of Flowers. Miss Grey,—I have not called for some time, but am going to try to cheer someone. I have kept a callily as long as seven years, but it has a blossom at last. A lady I know was telling how many blossoms she had on, and I inquired how long she had had the plant. When she reckoned up she had it 28 years, so it all depends on the warmth of house. I always had a cold one until now.

Mother's Helper. Dear Miss Grey,—I saw in Saturday's paper where English Buttercup wanted the recipe for a three-layer light cake. I am 13 years old, and go to school every day. On Saturday, my mother made one, and it was very good. I am sure she's tried and tested. This makes a good sheet cake. I would like the words of the song, "My Love Is On the Ocean." Mama used to sing it when she was a girl, and doesn't remember all the MOTHER'S HELPER. Light Layer Cake. 2 cups granulated sugar, beat light 2 eggs, beat light 3 tablespoons baking powder, 1 cup sweet milk, flavoring. Sift the baking powder and the flour together. Bake the cake in three jolly tins.

BLUE EYES. Ans.—Blackheads are caused by the pores of the skin becoming clogged with dust and face powders. Keep the face clean by washing with soap and water, and a cold rinse. Never allow powder to remain on the face for too long an interval. A good way is to wash face thoroughly with hot water before retiring, then apply cold cream.

Comes for Help. Dear Miss Grey,—This is my first letter to your Mail-Box, but I have been a constant reader of it for a long time. I would like to get a leopard plant slip, would you please send me one when it is in flower. I have several varieties. I would like to get the mitt pattern. Am enclosing ten cents for Children's Hospital.

First Visit. Dear Miss Grey,—This is my first visit to your Mail-Box, but I always read it. I am sending mama's recipe that I use. I am sure it's tried and tested. This makes a good sheet cake. Call From Molly. Dear Miss Grey,—I have been a silent but interested reader of your page for some time, so thought you would perhaps like to find a little corner for me. Among the many valuable hints found in your column, I would like to say that I tried Farmer's Wife's bread, May Lizzie's Spang cake, and Peg o' My Heart's hard soap, with great success.

Good Little Freckles. Dear Miss Grey,—I am sending in directions for a buttery yoke. I see where you have been asking for one. You can print them on everyone's account. I would like to see it, or send it on to someone, just as you wish. This is the best I can do.

Think It a Great Idea. Dear Miss Grey,—Perhaps I come too often. But I saw where the song, "The Rose of No Man's Land" was wanted. I do not know by whom, I am enclosing it with 10 cents for the S. P. P. I think that is a great idea of helping the Sick Children's Hospital.

Best Page of Paper. Dear Miss Grey,—I have read your page many times, and have often wondered if it was really for my person, for I think you are. As I happen to be a farmer with a large sugar bush, this is one of the nights that I had all night to catch up with the run of sap. That made me think of writing to your page for something to pass away the time. It is the best page of the paper, for so many things are discussed that really mean something.

What Will We Do to Him? Dear Miss Grey,—Can you possibly make room for me for a few minutes? Perhaps, though, before those few minutes are up it will be too hot for me. Those returned soldiers are any place close by. But say to save my hide, please keep them out of the road till I get through and out of there.

THE STORY OF PATCHES. PATCHES TWAS A PAINT TWAS a dog who had become tired and long to sit down to rest. It was beautiful weather and he enjoyed his travels. But walking you know makes one hungry and soon Patches was reminded he had come away without first having had his dinner. Along came a strange dog. "Please, little dog, can you tell me where I can get something to eat?" asked Patches, but the strange dog just sniffed, turned up his nose and passed on. "My, what a mighty eater of a fellow he is," thought Patches to himself, as he looked after the dog. After all, it did not seem as if the other dogs of the world were any kinder than his own brothers and sisters who had treated him so meanly. Just then along came another dog. He was a trim-looking dog and when Patches caught sight of him, he knew at once that he would be friendly. It was the Irish terrier.

HOME ECONOMICS

MRS. ELIZABETH KENT, MacDONALD COLLEGE.

BABY'S TUB BATH. A full bath should not be given before a baby is ten days old. Many people advocate no tub baths for the first two months, but with care in regulating the temperature of the room and of the water there should be no ill effects after ten days or a fortnight.

The temperature of the room should be 70 degrees or 72 degrees F., and the baby should be protected from draughts. The temperature of the bath should be 100 degrees F., for early infancy, and be lowered gradually to 93 degrees F. By the time the baby is six months old, the temperature may be reduced to 95 degrees F., and at from one to two years it should be from 85 degrees to 90 degrees F.

In bathing a baby use a soft sponge for all of the body except the face. For the face use a soft cloth which is boiled often and kept scrupulously clean; do not use a sponge, because it may become dirty and infect the baby's eyes or nostrils.

A bath should not be given for one hour or longer after nursing. The nurse should have a soft wash-cloth on her knees, and lay the baby upon this. The face and head should be washed first and dried with little rubbing. The body should then be soaped.

Unromantic Hygiene. 3—The Harm Done by Physio. An adult who had suffered for years with an annoyance attributed to irritability of the bladder—an irritable frequency which at times became a handicap—discovered at last what was the matter. The patient had consulted numerous physicians and urologists, none of whom was able to determine the cause or cure of the trouble. Finally the patient's family physician happened to mention the untoward or by-effects of the physio habit, which remark prompted the patient to speak of a habit of taking every night an "herb" physio, a habit which had been followed for just about the duration of the bladder trouble. The "herb" tablets contain a good dash of aloes, together with the other home medicines which make up practically all "liver pills" and "herb" teas and such junk—salap, colocynth, a sprinkle of everything cheap. These drugs, unfortunately, are not specific in effect; that is, they do not merely produce congestion and irritation of the bowel—and consequently evacuation or cramp—but also cause irritation of the kidneys and bladder and of the other pelvic organs in both sexes. In this particular instance the withdrawal of the daily dose of "herb" physio promptly and permanently relieved the bladder trouble with which the misguided patient had suffered several years.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS. Rings. I have rings around my eyes and would like to know what causes them. I get from seven to eight hours' sleep every night. Thank you. A LEON BOY.

Any-night you want to thank me, my boy, take the pale and weigh only 21½ pounds every night. Also take a pint of fresh milk, with some crackers or bread and butter, every night before going to bed.

Pacifier Habit. My baby is a year old. While he eats well, he is pale and weighs only 21½ pounds every night. He has a pacifier. Are they harmful? LITTLE MOTHER.

Ans.—Pacifiers are harmful in many ways. You do not mention what the baby's diet has been. By all means feed him fresh milk, meat broths, fruit juices, and the pulp of stewed vegetables, strained through a sieve.

MFRS. BASEBALL LEAGUE TO MEET THIS WEEK

Two Sections, Down Town and East End, Likely For Circuit This Year.

Manufacturers' Baseball League will hold an organization meeting Friday night at the London Spalding store, 258 Dundas street. There are already a bunch of applications in for places in the league, and this year promises to surpass last in the class of ball put up and interest in the league. In all probability, the league will be run in two sections this year, one in the east end and one downtown, with a playoff for the championship of each at the end of the season. The play-off last year focused a lot of attention on the league. The Postoffice, last year's champions, will again be in the circuit, with most of the other teams of last year and, if the circuit is enlarged, several more teams in each section of the league. Secretary-Treasurer Tom Munn, particularly wishes a large attendance of the fans at the meeting, as there are a lot of matters to be cleared up, and in all probability some changes made in the constitution of last year's league.

THE BIG 'UNS ARE OFF TO YEAR'S CAMPAIGN TODAY

Eight Opening Games Are Scheduled in Two Leagues—Fair and Colder Weather Prediction Does Not Stop Advance Seat Sales.

Major league baseball teams open the season in seven National and American circuit cities today, weather permitting, in the initial games of what is to be one of the best pennant contests in the history of professional organizations. Forecasts indicate fair and colder weather, with high winds, for a majority of the baseball parks, but this will hardly check the enthusiasm of baseball fans, judging from reports of advance reservation sales at all the cities involved. According to the schedule of the two leagues, there will be opening games in two eastern and two western cities of each circuit today, and the visiting teams will, in turn, open the season at their own ball yards on April 22.

In the National League, Pittsburgh will play at St. Louis, Chicago at Cincinnati, Philadelphia at Brooklyn and Boston at New York. The American League program calls for New York at Philadelphia, Washington at Boston, St. Louis at Cleveland and Detroit at Chicago. Analysis of the strength of the various teams on the eve of the pennant races appears to indicate that there will be several changes in the standing of the clubs at the close of the first month of the season, as compared with that of a year ago. While it will be fully a month before an accurate line can be obtained upon the real strength of the teams, it would appear from the form displayed in spring practice that they can be grouped generally at this time as follows: National League. Brooklyn, Chicago and Philadelphia clubs appear to be stronger than last season, while New York, Pittsburgh and St. Louis are about equal in playing strength to the clubs shown early in 1919. Boston and Cincinnati are not judged to be as strong as they were last year, according to close followers of baseball. American League. Philadelphia, Washington and Cleveland are all expected to play a more impressive game this season than was shown respectively last year. St. Louis, Chicago and Detroit are classed as equal to their powers of twelve months ago, while Boston falls below the form of 1919.

London Y Annexes Junior "Hex" Championship For Canada

For Second Successive Year Local Athletes Take Highest Honors and Have Good Chance For International Title.

For the second successive year the London Y. M. C. A. has won the junior National Hexathlon championship for Canada, making this a banner year for the local institution, with third place in the senior national championship annexed as well. London juniors piled up a total of 13,408 points to win this year, against a total of 13,315 which was found sufficient for the same stunt last year. Halifax was second with a total of 12,547—431 points behind. Such consistent work in national events of this kind must be traced to the source—training, and to Physical Director David Allen and his associates must go the credit for a splendid achievement and continuation of the methods used in producing such results. On the figures the London Y would seem to have a splendid chance of still greater honors in the international championships. The winners of last year's junior championship were considerably behind the total gathered by the locals this year. The results of this event will not be known for some weeks yet.

LONDON AND BRANTFORD PLAY OFF IN M. W. O. B. A.

Arrangements were completed between the London and Brantford tennis bowlers for a home-and-home series of the Western Ontario League, which ended some time ago without declaring a winner with the above teams tied for the honors. London will play in Brantford on Friday night with the return game here on Saturday, April 24th. An added attraction of ten games will be staged in both cities between George Karrys, of the National alleys here, and Mr. Cocklin, of Brantford. The latter is a former Buffalo star and the coming match games are creating considerable interest.

If Cubs Beat Moran's Reds in Opener, It'll Be Pat's First Experience of Kind

Champion Leader Has Perfect Record on Opening Day Last Five Seasons—Cubs' Manager Is Next in Annexing Opening Day Games.

[BY ERNEST J. LANIGAN.] Fred Mitchell has a task confronting him a few days hence that, in the past, has proved too much for George Stalling, John McGraw, Wilbert Robinson and Branch Rickey. That task is to prevent the Phillies from capturing the Cubs should triumph over the Reds in Cincinnati on Wednesday, April 14, this being the first on Opening Day since over a Moran-managed club. In the four seasons Patrick J. directed the play of the Quakers registered a kayo blow at the expense of their opponents on opening day, and last year the Moran regime in Redland started auspiciously, Cincinnati winning in the eighth over St. Louis by assembling five runs. The score was 6 to 2. Branch Rickey's pitchers practically forced this game on the Reds, who got seven passes from Jake May and four from Bill Sheridan—a total of eleven. In 1918 the Phillies, even without the services of Grover Cleveland Alexander, got off on the right foot, Erskine Hayer pitching them to a 5 to 2 win over the Braves. Aleck pitched the opener for the Cubs and Lee Meadows the best hit 4 to 2. G. C. worked in the first games of 1915, 1916 and 1917 for Moran at the league committee to pick a team out of all the players in the league, will make known his selection. Many of the local league players have developed into volleyball experts, and no difficulty in picking a likely team to represent London in the big event will be found.

U. F. O. GOVERNMENT PLANS HEAVY TAX ON PROVINCIAL RACE TRACKS

Hon. Peter Smith Would Place Enormous Burden On Racing — Refuses To Be Called Unionist — Increases in Succession Duties and Corporation Taxes To Swell the Revenue.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
PARLIAMENT BUILDINGS, Toronto, April 13.—Evidently racing is to proceed in Ontario, but the Ontario Government proposes to place an enormous tax on its according to the announcement today in the budget speech of Hon. Peter Smith, provincial treasurer. Half-mile tracks are to be subjected to a tax of $5,000 a day and mile tracks $10,000 each day of the meet. He also proposed greater corporation taxes on banks and insurance companies.

"One matter I want to specially mention," he said, "where we expect to get reasonably increased revenue, and that is from the race tracks. Some people have felt that the Government should not allow gambling on race tracks. But for certain reasons which I do not care to mention today we are going to allow it to go on this year, and we are going to charge the half-mile tracks $5,000 a day and the mile tracks $10,000 a day. That will bring in increased revenue to the amount of three-quarters of a million dollars."

Refused To Be Unionist.
In opening his budget address Hon. Mr. Smith passed some comments on the turn of affairs which had brought the Drury Government into office. The new Government had been called coalitionists and coalitionists, but as for Hon. Mr. Smith, he "absolutely resented and refused to be called 'Unionist.'"

"I feel we are here simply on trial," he declared. "In the very near future there may be any amount of changes in the cabinet. Some of us in the cabinet today may measure up to the required efficiency, and others may not—so far as the prime minister is concerned he had measured up to what we expected of him and much more."

It was not the actions of the late Government which resulted in its defeat, Hon. Mr. Smith said, but rather from their inaction. The provincial treasurer declared that in his presentation of provincial statistics he intended being "perfectly frank and candid with both of the old parties in the House and with the people of Ontario." It has been some time, he advised, smilingly, "to grasp in the short time we have been in office all the different branches of the department. I am going to plead to this House my experience. I do not claim to be the possessor of any extraordinary ability—just common sense."

Bookkeeping Changes.
Hon. Mr. Smith proceeded to explain bookkeeping changes instituted under his regime. Under Hon. Mr. McGarry's system, Mr. Smith said, there would have been a deficit shown for this year of only $62,812. Last year, the provincial treasurer, reminded the House, Hon. Mr. McGarry had predicted a small deficit this year. "He was perfectly right in his prediction," commented Hon. Mr. Smith. But, so far as he was concerned, it would be a responsibility for men to stand up in the Legislature and foretell the financial events. He had chances from "ordinary revenue" to "capital receipts" certain of the revenues of the department of lands, forests and mines. "The amount put into capital receipts from the forests and lands branches," he said, "was arrived at by deducting the total cost of operation from the total receipts."

Hon. Mr. Smith proceeded to explain that the whole of the war tax had been placed in ordinary revenue, so that war expenditures and receipts might be kept separate. "There is nobody in this House," he commented, "who will find fault with the increasing amount of their war expenditures. The only comment there might be is that they did not spend enough. War expenditures of the late government he estimated at $102,490,000. Receipts from war tax, $8,186,984; war deficit, $1,813,225."

Hydro-Electric Expenses.
Last year's provincial proportion of the hydro-electric expenses, $302,537, had been put down in ordinary expenditure. "Whether the Government will spend, $1,077,860, he claimed to be capital expenditure. Improvement of highways, colonial roads also were entered in the budget as capital expenditure."

The government, he declared, had not got a cent out of the T. and N. O. Railway. "Although they have $22,000,000 tied up as a capital asset in the T. and N. O., I have my doubts whether they will do anything to get it back. It has no value, from which we get no return."

He told the House that the valuation of Ontario's natural resources was only "the wildest guess," and could be made only by the "most careful and careful in guaranteeing bonds; the government would not guarantee bonds for anything that might be considered a luxury."

Mr. Dewar—Is there any estimate of what the statutory expenses will be this coming year?
Hon. Mr. Smith—It will not be much this year.

Makes No Difference.
"It doesn't make any difference," he proceeded, "whether the Province of Ontario has a deficit this year or not. We show a deficit of a million and a half dollars. But when the Government goes on, we have to go on and do our duty by the Province of Ontario. We have to make the expenditures as going to be. They are increasing every year. "We made some changes in the revenue for this year," he said, "and got no return. The changes in the future may change this for the railway. There is no doubt it has the revenue-producing value because it opens up the north country and induces settlers to go up there."

The provincial treasurer took a serious view of the teachers' superannuation fund. "We stand in the position, 'today,'" he said. "We are assuming a liability with the superannuation fund that is going to grow very fast in the next few years. Today of the Government were to pay into it the money they owe that fund would cost them a little over a million and a half dollars. And it should be paid. If the amount had been paid out, they would have been a million dollars more."

Loans in 1919, according to Hon. Mr. Smith, totalled $1,800,000.
Corporations Too.
"We anticipate increased revenues from the corporation tax. We have increased the amount on the insurance companies and the banks," an act was brought into effect in October, which would give explanations of the amounts of the corporation tax. At this point Hon. Mr. Smith said that the Government policy with regard to race tracks.

In conclusion he declared that the Government had cut down capital expenditure in every possible instance. They were not building new buildings where they could possibly avoid it. "We cannot cut down very much on the institutions, except the cost of education," he said. "If anything, we have got to increase the education. It is one of the things that we cannot possibly make any change in only to increase it as the years go by. Any money that is spent on education or the health of this province, if it is wisely spent, is money extremely well spent."

The provincial treasurer was inclined to lament the passing of the mill on the dollar war tax, which he said, it would have been quite justifiable in the old Government to have continued, if there had been no such October 1st year, he believed it would have still been continued. This revenue, he said, could have been applied to the needs of the soldiers, which he expected would not decrease in the next year.

Ontario's Total Receipts.
Ontario's total receipts for the fiscal year ending October 31, 1919, will be $20,211,378.88, according to the estimates submitted by Hon. Mr. Smith. Extraordinary expenditure for the year is estimated at $17,044,830.23, while capital expenditure brings the total up to $17,932,830.23, which leaves a surplus of approximately $2,200,000. Further supplementary estimates to be brought down later in the session will consume between $1,800,000 and $2,000,000 of this amount.

EXPECT TRACKS WILL BE ABLE TO PAY HEAVY TAX

TORONTO, April 13.—The per diem tax of $5,000 on half-mile and $10,000 on mile tracks, announced by Hon. Peter Smith, provincial treasurer, in his budget speech today, is a jump from a rate of $1,250, which all tracks paid during the last year of horse racing in this province. It is not expected that the new rate will seriously affect operation in the case of any of the tracks. The gate receipts alone of the larger ones are supposed to be sufficient to take care of the tax which the track case represents $70,000 for a single meeting, while with the percentage from pari-mutuels and bookmakers added, there is no track so poor that it cannot take care of the enlarged demands of the treasury.

He declares that the percentage is much higher in Galt than in other cities, and suggested an investigation by the medical men.

ORIGIN OF MEDICINES.
The agents employed for the treatment of disease are taken from the three kingdoms of nature, the vegetable, animal and mineral. Most medicinal substances are taken from the vegetable kingdom and consist of leaves, flowers, seeds, bark and roots. The old-fashioned root and herb remedy, Louis J. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which owes its success to the vegetable kingdom, has constantly grown in popularity and favor until it is now recognized as the standard remedy for female ills.

If wages are to stay up in Canada there must be money to pay them.

Every time you buy an "imported" product in place of one made in Canada you are helping to build up "outside" industries and provide work and wages for "outside" labor.

The way to protect your job is to buy Canadian-made goods.

Be sure, too, that the machines or goods you buy are actually made in Canada.

Look for the C.C.M. trade mark.

It is the sure guide to a true made-in-Canada bicycle.

The frames, forks, axles, cranks and sprockets of C.C.M. Bicycles are made in Canada.

Also the handle bars, seat posts and front hubs.

And that is not all—

The pedals, chains, mudguards and grips are made in Canada.

The wood rims, spokes, nipples, cups and cones are made in Canada.

Yes, and the Hercules Coaster Brakes, frame pumps, and tires are made in Canada, too.

Only the saddles and the steel balls are imported. No one in Canada makes these lines as yet.

If the C.C.M. Company imported their parts and merely assembled C.C.M. Bicycles a much smaller plant would be required. Only about one-twentieth of the number of workmen would be employed.

By buying real "Made-in-Canada" Bicycles—C.C.M. Bicycles—you provide more employment for Canadians. You keep Canadian dollars working at home where they are worth one hundred cents.

And you get a better bicycle for your money—a bicycle with the new Hercules Positive Drive Brake—the Coaster Brake without a side arm.

Two Kinds of Economy in the Post-War Maxwell

THE Post-War Maxwell inherited from its 300,000 predecessors two traits that captivate the person who likes continuous, uninterrupted, comfortable and low-cost mileage.

One is its freedom from repairs. It runs on and on. Give it gas, oil, grease and water and it will deliver an amazing amount of mileage.

The second is the low price you pay per mile. Its thrifty engine with Hot Spot and Ram's-Horn, makes gas go a long way. Its 2000 pounds of weight assures long tire wear.

Such kinds of economy came from years of study and the experience which 300,000 previous Maxwells have taught.

The notable improvements and refinements to be found in this car have caught the attention of many who figured that high efficiency meant high price.

The public has served notice that it does appreciate value.

That is why 40,000 persons will have to go without a Post-War Maxwell this year though 100,000 are being built.

WHEN THE KIDNEYS NEED ATTENTION

Thousands of people scrub their teeth every day, and yet a large percentage neglect a more important part of the body, the kidneys. If we could only look into our kidneys and see the millions of tiny poison crystals deposited there we would probably pay more attention to keeping them just as clean as the teeth. But we don't, and all of a sudden we feel a pinching pain in the side or back. The bones all over the body begin to ache and we say: "Gosh, I must be getting rheumatic," when, as a matter of fact, it is only the kidneys calling for help. A test worth trying to keep the kidneys clean and healthy is to take a Solvax tablet regularly. Solvax is being used by thousands of people and many surprising results are reported. Good druggists always carry Solvax in stock because the demand is growing greater every day as people learn through the newspapers that this is the proper way to take care of the kidneys.

CANADIAN MEMBERS OF I. W. U. LEADING THE BIG RAIL STRIKE

Evidence At Washington Shows Men of I. W. U. Type From Canada Assisting in Attempt At World Revolution—President Wilson Calls Cabinet Meeting—Leaders May Be Prosecuted—Conditions Improve.

Washington, April 13.—Evidence is in the hands of the department of justice that help is being sent from Canada for the strikers participating in the unauthorized railroad strike, according to Assistant Attorney-General Garvin in a statement today.

Mr. Garvin did not know the extent of this aid. Labor leaders of the Industrial Workers of the World type, he said, had been traced from Canadian boundary cities to various trouble centers here. Their printing efforts seemed to be to break the ranks of local shop workers, reports of the department said. Officials admitted tonight that they saw signs of an attempt to expand the rail strike into "one phase of the world revolution."

President Wilson today issued a call for his cabinet to meet tomorrow morning. Prompted by the call, the strike situation was understood to have prompted the call for the meeting. In some quarters it was thought an announcement as to the government's policy would follow the cabinet meeting.

Propaganda of I. W. U. origin, calling upon all railroad workers to join in asserting their power and tempting them with the statement that "the hour has come for which you have been looking has arrived," has been found by federal agents. Officials said that the I. W. U. has been pushing the strikers forward and now threatened to expand the walkout into "months of industrial warfare."

Reports today told of inroads into the ranks of strikers in many centers of unrest in all the first line uncovered the nature of industrial propaganda of the world propaganda in process of distribution, some of which is being "as dangerous as the Communist literature."

Dispatches from New Orleans told of plans of the United States district attorney there to arrest leaders of a threatened strike of railroad yardmen there. Mr. Garvin, while declaring there had been no spread, no specific instructions sent to any attorney as to the strike, added that all of them were expected to deal sharply with specific violations of their own industrial laws. The New Orleans case, he said, indicated that a strike probably could not be called without violation of the Lever control act by the cutting off of food shipments there.

HUNDREDS OUT OF WORK AT WINDSOR WINDSOR, April 13.—While hundreds of workers employed in automobile and other plants across the river in Detroit were thrown out of work today when the Detroit Edison Co. cut off its supply of power to many factories, and thousands more men are threatened with unemployment as a result of a shortage of coal and raw material because of the railway strike, the Dominion fuel controller today sent a representative to Windsor to thoroughly investigate the local situation, pending the fulfillment of plans now under consideration for the shipment of a large quantity of coal here to relieve the situation, unless the tie-up in Detroit and local yards is immediately improved.

Not a car is moving yet on the M. C. R., the tunnel under the river is not in operation, and G. T. D. and P. R. tracks are congested with freight and passenger cars.

The Canadian Salt Company, which furnishes steam-generated power for the operation of the hydro street railway system here, and which is looking forward to closing down the latter part of this week, has ample supplies of coal on route, but is unable to have the fuel delivered here. Most of the fuel lost in the seizure of the freight traffic in Detroit yards, where the I. W. U. has taken control of the yards, representing the strikers, left tonight for a conference of the men at Jackson, Mich., while other delegates are in session with General Manager Shearer of the Detroit division of the M. C. R. across the river tonight. This second meeting will probably be continued tomorrow, when Mr. Shearer expects the employees to be unanimous in insisting on a scale of $1 an hour.

FREIGHT CARS HELD AT ST. THOMAS ST. THOMAS, April 13.—Hundreds of loaded and unloaded cars are lying idle on the local international lines between St. Thomas and both terminals of the railway with a far-off prospect for removal to their destination. A number of employees at both terminals of the railway are gradually being given "leave of absence." Few of the strikers in the northern and central divisions are in the act of returning to work, still they are fewer who would act as alternates for the striking switchmen in case they were called to the points of disturbance.

St. Thomas factories are not as yet suffering to any great extent by the shortage in freight transportation.

CENTRAL STATES SHOW IMPROVEMENT CHICAGO, April 13.—Reports from rail centers in central and southern states tonight indicated a general improvement in strike condition. Although leaders of the insurgent switchmen and yardmen strenuously denied that serious defections had occurred in their ranks, railroad heads and officers of the brotherhoods who are fighting the unauthorized walkout, declared the strike in western territory gradually was dying out.

Strikers in half a dozen cities and towns returned to work today; railroad men at other points voted not to join the walkout, and embargoes were lifted by several railroads.

Several railroads in the Chicago terminal district reported operations were virtually normal. Livestock celts today were 236 cars, including 4,000 cattle, 3,000 hogs and 1,000 sheep and lambs, and 4,000 truckloads of workers returned to duty.

sporadically in the east, centered tonight in Washington. Union labor leaders who have striven ineffectually to induce the strikers to return to work, say a ray of hope in the appointment today of President Wilson's labor board provided under the transportation act to deal with labor disputes.

Estimates Lacking. While official estimates were lacking, the number of persons who have been made idle by the strike, directly and indirectly, runs into the hundreds of thousands. In the middle west, 100,000 persons were reported to be out of work today with industrial plants in virtually every section continuing to suspend operations. In the mining district around Scranton, Pa., 5,000 mine workers have been idle for three days, and it is reported that their number will be increased tomorrow.

Switched to East. The main battleground of the strike, which centered for several days in the middle west, switched today to the east. Strikers of Greater New York, whose ranks were steadily augmented during the day, unanimously rejected the middle west situation, existing in Jersey City tonight. Further complications were injected into the situation by a strike of 2,000 Pennsylvania Railroad shop workers in Scranton, N. J., and reports of unrest among other shopmen in this district.

Moves to Prosecution. The department moved further today in the direction of prosecution of strike leaders by requesting the executives of the Pennsylvania and New York Central railroads to furnish it with the names of all men on strike, and to designate those who apparently were directing it. In discussing this action, Mr. Palmer explained that conditions were not the same on all roads and added that "the influence behind the strike must be ascertained."

Money is Available. The question of the source of the funds with which the strike is being carried on has been the most difficult problem before the department. Thus far agents have succeeded in determining only that sufficient money is available to finance the movement and to continue the spread of the "One Big Union" doctrine. It is believed, however, that some of this money was furnished by persons formerly connected with the Communist and Communist Labor parties against which the government conducted nation-wide raids last winter.

Dispatches from New Orleans told of plans of the United States district attorney there to arrest leaders of a threatened strike of railroad yardmen there. Mr. Garvin, while declaring there had been no spread, no specific instructions sent to any attorney as to the strike, added that all of them were expected to deal sharply with specific violations of their own industrial laws.

When your liver gets sluggish and inactive, your whole health suffers. Your bowels become constipated, your head aches, your tongue is coated, breath bad, specks float before the eyes, you are bilious, have heartburn, water-brash, pain under the right shoulder, muddy and brown spotted complexion, etc.

Help the liver to resume its proper function by removing the bile that is circulating in the blood and poisoning the system.

Mrs. E. Bainbridge, 30 Maple avenue, Amherst, N. S., writes: "I take pleasure in writing you of the good I received by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills for headaches. I was so bad I had to go to bed, and could not sit up. A friend told me about your wonderful medicine, and two vials have made me as well as I can be."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are small and easy to take, do not grip, weaken or sicken, do not leave any bad after-effects. Price 25c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

The "Tone" Is the Pest of Quality in a Phonograph

STARR PHONOGRAPHS

"The Difference is in the Tone"

Music itself is an art of the ages, in fact, almost a necessity of life. If people went through life under the same routine all the time—eat, sleep and work, with no pleasure to break the monotony—how dull everything would be. Music livers things up, makes people more cheerful and gives a new aspect to life.

The STARR is the phonograph for the music-loving. In the STARR, clear notes and that "difference in tone" are immediately apparent.

Since the first musical instrument was made, steel and various kinds of woods have been used in an effort to get tonal effect, but from the time Stradivarius created his first great violin to the present day, nothing has been found to equal the tone-yielding qualities of Silver-Grain Spruce. The STARR Singing Throat, Tone Chambers and Sound Horn are made exclusively from this wonder wood, and to this fact it owes its great singing qualities.

Come to our demonstrating parlors any day, pick out some of your favorite selections and have them played on the STARR. You will immediately sense the "difference in the tone," which will aid you in the selection of a phonograph for your home.

Whole Vexed Question Likely To Be Reopened At Ottawa.

LEGAL IRREGULARITIES

Fate of Transaction in Doubt Since Reid Bared Deficit.

[Special To The Advertiser.]

OTTAWA, April 13.—The unexpected development with regard to the G. T. R. acquisition by the movement of the Grand Trunk Railway System, by which Parliament is now to be called upon to ratify the agreement made between the Government and the company, is the chief topic of comment and conversation in the corridors this week. The Opposition last session pressed for such ratification, but it was refused and the understanding was that to all intents and purposes the transaction would be completed after the shareholders had ratified it and the arbitration proceedings had been completed with regard to the stock. It would appear that there have been certain legal irregularities in the first place it is stated that ratification in London was by the members of the company and not actually by the shareholders, and that even then there was a minority of opposition. In the second place, Hon. Dr. Reid states that in the original draft passed by Parliament two small lines were left out. Just how far the first objection will weigh is not known.

With regard to the second objection it does not appear to be necessary to do more than to amend the act of last session to include the omitted lines, but the new bill calls for ratification on the whole proposition, and the title of the bill says so. One thing appears to be certain and that is that the whole vexed question will be reopened in the House under somewhat new and adverse circumstances, and that Parliament will not proceed as soon as had been expected. The bill last session had a narrow escape from destruction at the hands of the Senate, after having been opposed strenuously by the Opposition in the Commons, and if ratification by Parliament is to be looked upon as more than a mere formality upon which the actual acquisition of the system does not depend, then it may be said that the fate of the transaction is in doubt.

A Big Deficit.
Since the bill was passed in Parliament last session the minister of railways has announced a virtual deficit of forty-seven million in operation and interest charges on the national lines. This in itself will provide the opponents of further state ownership with ammunition for attack, and there is no reason for believing that those interested in the overthrow of the measure will be any more less active than they were last session.

Snap Up Lines.
It will be recalled that one of the main arguments advanced by the Government in favor of speedy action with regard to the acquisition of the system was the alleged fact that the Canadian Pacific was ready and willing to snap up the lines at the first opportunity. That argument was later exploded in the Senate where it was shown that the charter of the Canadian Pacific forbade such a move and that in addition the amended railway act made it impossible without consent. While there is little reason to believe that the Government has changed its mind on the question, and courts the ultimate defeat of the measure, the new development certainly raises such speculation and may have momentous consequences.

HELENE'S MARRIED LIFE

Copyright, 1920, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate. LII.—A Heroine.

Jim die—within an hour!
The doctor's word struck a cold chill to my heart.
"An operation?" I stammered.
"Not a serious operation, Doctor?" He frowned again.
"Yes, very serious."
"But—must he? Is it necessary?" I could not keep the foolish questions back.
"Who are you? His wife or sister? I don't remember seeing you here before."
The doctor eyed me keenly.
"She's just a visitor," cut in Alice.
"Unfortunately his mother went back to town this morning. I ought to have wire her—consult her—before you take any dangerous step."
The doctor gave a twisted little smile.
"Before our consultation will be concluded our patient will have died." His voice was just a little testy. "No, frankly, I believe it is my duty to go ahead and operate. I am not merely a general practitioner you know. I have done a lot of surgery, and this is the poor young fellow's only chance. In any case time is a severe pressure on the brain that only an immediate operation can relieve. While we stand here talking he may die to tell the truth."
"Oh, do everything you can, please." I cried at once, "and let me help you. Don't you want to telephone the hospital?"
"There is only one resident doctor there, and he is down with flu. It is just a little place. And there is no time to get a New York man down to help me, even granted he could come at once." He looked sharply at me.
"I'll need the nurse, and—yes—and you—if you won't faint or lose your head."
Something in me rose to the occasion. I was going to help this man to fight for my Jim's life.
"I won't faint or scream, I promise you," I answered quietly.
The doctor gave me a sharp look. "I believe you are made of the right

WORK STARTED ON $5,500,000 BLAST-FURNACES AT OJIBWA

Canadian Steel Company's Plant Will Be Biggest in Dominion.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
WINDSOR, April 13.—Work has just been commenced by the Canadian Steel Corporation, Canadian subsidiary of the United States Steel Corporation, at Ojibwa, on two new blast-furnaces to cost $5,500,000 each, and which will complete a series of four, the daily capacity of which will be 5,000 tons. Each of the furnaces will have an output of 5,000 tons of steel every 24 hours. The first two were completed last year, and the entire four will be ready for use immediately the corporation decides to commence operations here. Two hundred and fifty men are now busily engaged in construction work at the plant, which is rapidly nearing completion. It will be the largest steel plant of its kind in the Dominion when finished.

WINDSOR LANDLORDS DEMAND $10 A ROOM SAY COMPLAINANTS

Mayor Winter Wants Immediate Institution of Rent Courts.

WINDSOR, April 13.—"The sooner we establish the rent courts proposed by Minister of Labor Rollo, the better," declared Mayor Winter, after listening to a line-up of complaints all day today at the city hall.
One woman, whose husband is in a sanatorium, and who has several children, declared she had been ordered out of her home by a landlord who had threatened to put her chatties on the street. Offers of an excessive rent of $10 a room were made to her. Another resident told of having had her rent raised from $3 to $7 within a few months, while still another said he was paying $5 a month for a few rooms in a poor locality. One official of the board of health today attempted to secure lodging, and was asked $10 a week for an inferior room.

DRASTIC ACTION IS NEEDED TO CHECK KILLING OF SHEEP

Legislature Committee Discusses Dog Regulations.

TORONTO, April 13.—Some rather drastic action must be taken against the increasing destruction of sheep by prowling dogs, according to discussion at the agricultural committee of the Legislature today. The revenue from dog taxes in most townships, according to members, is away below the value of the sheep killed. Last year more sheep were killed than in any previous year.
J. M. McLeod of Stormont introduced the question to the committee. In his township the value of the sheep killed was $2,200, while the dog tax revenue was $254. To get the benefit of the dog taxes to the townships in which the sheep are killed, Hon. Manning Doherty suggested that the law be changed to permit dog tax money to be paid into the county treasury and the damages for sheep killed be paid out of that. The idea was favorably received, and Mr. Doherty promised to bring an amendment before the committee at a later meeting.
Some strange incidents came to light. One member told of a farmer having sheep killed by his own dog and yet be collected damages. It was suggested that all dogs be tagged. Hon. George Henry thought that would be left optional with municipalities.
An amendment to the noxious weed act does away with the giving of personal notice on owners of vacant lots in cities, towns and incorporated or unincorporated areas. It would be notified by municipalities.

ALBERT B. STEINER of St. Paul, Minn., who declares he is now able to do twice the work he could before taking Tanlac, and that his sister has gained sixteen pounds.

"Talking about things that help people, I have just received a letter from my sister in Waterloo, Iowa, telling me she has gained sixteen pounds in weight by taking Tanlac," said A. B. Steiner, 409 East Page street, St. Paul, Minn., recently.

"My sister was on a visit to me a short while ago, and as she was suffering from stomach trouble someone advised her to try Tanlac, which she did, and as I saw the great benefit she was getting from it I decided to try it myself, for I had been troubled with my stomach for the past two years. I had a very poor appetite, and the little I did manage to eat seemed to lodge right in the pit of my stomach and gurgled and would bleed terribly after eating and have the worst sort of cramping pains in my stomach, and at times I had such bad attacks of heartburn I would nearly go wild. My back gave me a lot of trouble, and I had such intense pains in the small of my back I could hardly bend over. To add to my other troubles, about two months ago I began to suffer with rheumatism in my shoulder blades and arms, which got so bad I could hardly do my work and could not even put on my coat without assistance. I was so nervous I could get but little sleep and would roll and toss from one side of the bed to the other all night long, and would get up in the morning all tired out. I was so badly run down and had lost so much weight I was so weak I could hardly get about at all.

"Well, while I have only taken five bottles of Tanlac in all my improvement is simply remarkable. I have such a good appetite I am hungry all the time, and my stomach is in such a splendid condition I can eat anything I want without suffering the least bit from it afterward. The pains have all gone out of my back and I never have the least sign of the rheumatism. In fact, I never have an ache or pain of any kind. I sleep as sound as a log every night and have gained in weight and strength until I can do twice as much work as I could before I began taking Tanlac. Yes, sir, I can recommend Tanlac after what it has done for me, and I know it will do the same for others if they will only give it a fair trial."

Tanlac is sold in London by Standard Drug, Limited, and by an established agency in every town.

IRISH WORKERS ASK BRITISH LABOR TO HELP

Trade Union Congress Appeals To Free Men For Support.

GOVT. WITHOUT MERCY

Coalition Refuses Request of Labor and Nationalist Members.

DUBLIN, April 13.—Two of the prisoners in Mountjoy have been released because the military authorities decided not to prosecute them. One of them was a hunger striker, but it is officially declared that this was merely an incident and does not affect the original situation.

The executive of the Irish Trade Union Congress issued an appeal to the workers of Great Britain urging: "If they have the spirit to free men let them prove it by resolutely supporting the Irish workers."

GOVERNMENT RESISTS.

LONDON, April 13.—(By Canadian Press)—indications that the Government will resist the appeal of the Irish hunger strikers, was the outcome of a debate in the House of Commons today, supported by John R. Clynes and other Irish members.

Earlier in the session Andrew Bonar Law, the Government leader, intimated that many of the Irish prisoners, both at Mountjoy Prison, Dublin, and in England, were being treated to special treatment. Sir Donald MacLean, Nationalist Liberal member, also supported the appeal, and with no plans to bring the Government to task.

Mr. Bonar Law was replying to questions without charges having been preferred against them, and with no plans to bring the Government to task.

Danger of Disturbance.

Luring the day's debate Mr. Clynes, pointing out the danger of the last disturbances in Ireland spreading to England, urged that the arrested men be either tried or sent to special treatment. Sir Donald MacLean, Nationalist Liberal member, also supported the appeal, and with no plans to bring the Government to task.

Mr. Bonar Law was replying to questions without charges having been preferred against them, and with no plans to bring the Government to task.

Bonar Law Refuses.

Ten thousand men, it is estimated, are no longer able to maintain order without the aid of the military, he declared, pointing out that in the course of a single night recently there were sufficient attacks on barracks in Ireland to indicate the existence of 25,000 men under arms.

Mr. Bonar Law reiterated that there was no possibility of the Government changing its decision, and that any sign of weakness in this matter would only aggravate the situation.

MAY GRANT DEMAND.

BELFAST, April 13.—The Evening Telegram's Dublin correspondent wires, "The cabinet is about to grant the demands of the Irish hunger strikers."

U. S. AMBASSADOR STANDS POWERLESS

LONDON, April 13.—Acting Lord Mayor O'Neill of Dublin, High Sheriff Muirwater appealed ineffectually today to John W. Davis, the American ambassador, after they had failed to persuade the American consul at Dublin to intervene for the Irish hunger strikers.

"My powers do not extend to an appeal on behalf of the citizens of the United States," he replied.

MODIFY TREATMENT OF IRISH PRISONERS, UNOFFICIAL REPORT

LONDON, April 13.—Decision to modify the treatment of Irish prisoners who were arrested under the defence of the realm act has been reached by the British Government, notwithstanding Andrew Bonar Law's statement in the House of Commons Tuesday, it is stated in unofficial, but well-informed quarters. It is stated the men now in Mountjoy Prison will not be released, but will be granted certain concessions, which, according to some reports, will take the form of privileges usually accorded political prisoners. These concessions will apply only to those who have not been tried, and those who have been tried and convicted will not be able to take advantage of them.

STRIKE COULD NOT HAVE BEEN MORE COMPLETE

DUBLIN, April 13.—(By the Associated Press).—The strike which began today in Ireland, except in Ulster, in sympathy with the political prisoners here and elsewhere was a general one. At first it was intended as a one-day demonstration, but it has become a strike today by the trades union congress and the labor party calls for its continuance indefinitely.

The manifesto exhorts all citizens to assist in preserving perfect order. It says the strike is a solemn protest on which the lives of men are dependent, and that no occasion should be given the military for an outbreak of violence.

The strike could not have been more complete. All kinds of business was suspended. The banks and the stock exchange here, which managed to keep open during the anti-conscription strike, were compelled to close. Even the officers of the government found it impossible to carry on their work.

Crowds of visitors who came to Dublin for the Punchestown races were marooned in hotels, where they were compelled to cook their own food and make their own beds. A few of the large hotels tried to keep open, but they were picketed and obliged to close their doors.

Up to a little hour this evening no disorders had been reported. Thousands of persons in Dublin still were carrying out their normal lives. During the day aeroplanes sailed over the crowds, at times almost touching the house-tops.

The Irish bishops at the eastern meeting in Maynooth today issued a statement condemning the Government's intransigent conduct.

FEAR STRIKE SOON IN BUILDING INDUSTRY

OTTAWA, April 13.—That a strike is certain to occur in May if the employees engaged in the building industry, embraced by the local trades and labor council, unless the latter body recedes from the stand which it has taken on two vital points embodied in the new agreement which is being negotiated as to working conditions, is the opinion of prominent officials of the Association of Canadian Construction and Building Industries.

TRIP OF PRINCE OF WALES COSTLY

LONDON, April 13.—(By Canadian Associated Press).—It is officially stated that the Canadian visit of the Prince of Wales cost this country $4,000.

OFFICERS GET NO BENEFIT UNDER SOLDIERS' RELIEF BILL IN UNITED STATES

Commissioned Service Men Excluded From Measure Now Being Drafted At Washington—Men Who Received Civilian Wages Also Barred.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Commissioned officers in the United States military or naval service during the war will not benefit by the soldiers' relief legislation now being drafted, it was learned today. The tentative agreement reached by a House way and means sub-committee also excludes yeomanettes, shipyard workers who were in the army or navy, but who received civilian wages, and former service men who had their salaries paid by their employers while in the service.

Final agreement on the new rate of compensation to other service men and women is expected to be reached this week, and the bill is finally presented to the House. It is understood, will be a complete measure, carrying provisions for home building aid, extension of vocational training and priority in land settlement. Those not desiring to take advantage of these provisions will receive adjustment compensation at the rate of $1 a day. This payment is said to be the maximum amount which can be expected, the committee having abandoned the later proposal of the American Legion to pay $1.50 compensation.

WILL SENATORS BUY CHIMES FOR TOWER OF NEW BUILDING?

OTTAWA, April 13.—(By Canadian Press).—The Senate this afternoon gave assent to the $62,000,000 interim supply bill, gave third reading to the bill amending the industrial disputes act after advancing the witness fees for experts and discussed a proposal by Senator Bradbury that there should be a carillon installed in the tower of the new parliament buildings.

S Senator Bradbury had an idea that the cost of a suitable chime might not be much over $22,000, but Senator Turritt thought $200,000 would be nearer the figure.

Senator Boyer said the senators themselves might pay for the bells by contributing $100 a year each for three or four years. On suggestion of Sir James Loughheed a committee was appointed to consider the matter, and the resolution was withdrawn.

TO MEET RENOWN WITH PRINCE ABROAD

HONOLULU, April 13.—The cruiser Bradnigham and 20 destroyers left here last night to meet the British battle cruiser Renown bearing the Prince of Wales, on a tour to Australia and New Zealand.

The flotilla will escort the Renown to this port.

The Renown, according to a radio message received here today, will leave the Antipodes, daybreak Wednesday for the Antipodes.

INTRODUCES BILL TO PROHIBIT STRIKES

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Another bill designed to deal with railroad strikes was introduced in the Senate this afternoon. It would make it a felony to engage in a conspiracy or combination which would interfere with interstate and foreign commerce and would prohibit persons from quitting work when that would result in the tying up of transportation facilities. Penalties proposed are three years' imprisonment and fines of from $1,000 to $12,000.

Magistrate Declares Violation of Early Closing Bylaw "Not Proven"

SARNIA, April 13.—William R. Ray, charged before the police magistrate in the city police court today with a violation of the early closing bylaw was discharged by the magistrate after considerable consultations of duty lay tomes for the definition of a grocery store.

Defendant swore that his principal business was the sale of confectionery, fruit, cigars and cigarettes, and claimed that these articles did not constitute the stock-in-trade of a grocery business, and did not therefore come under the bylaw. His sale of groceries was very limited.

The court decided that the onus of proof that Ray had violated the bylaw lay with the prosecution, and that such proof had not been produced. The case was therefore dismissed.

Ingersoll Trap Shooters May Be Reorganized

INGERSOLL, April 13.—With all the branches of sport showing indications of flourishing during the year, trap shooters are once more turning their attention to the advisability of re-organizing. Several years ago this town had a flourishing club, and made a splendid showing in the Western Ontario Trapshooters League. The increased cost of ammunition, followed by the war, stopped the sport entirely, but at the present time there are a lot of trigger fingers that are itching.

Goody—Chocolate Bars!

NATURE and the doctor agree that the child's system needs a certain amount of sweets, and the wise mother very carefully oversees her children's diet in this particular.

Cowan's Chocolate Bars, in their many variations, are not only the children's favorites, but they constitute a perfect form of food.

The first essentials in their manufacture are quality and purity. Nourishing chocolate, milk, sugar, nuts and fruits skilfully blended, make a delicious and properly balanced confection. This has resulted in a tremendous demand for Cowan's Chocolate Bars from coast to coast.

A few leaders are:

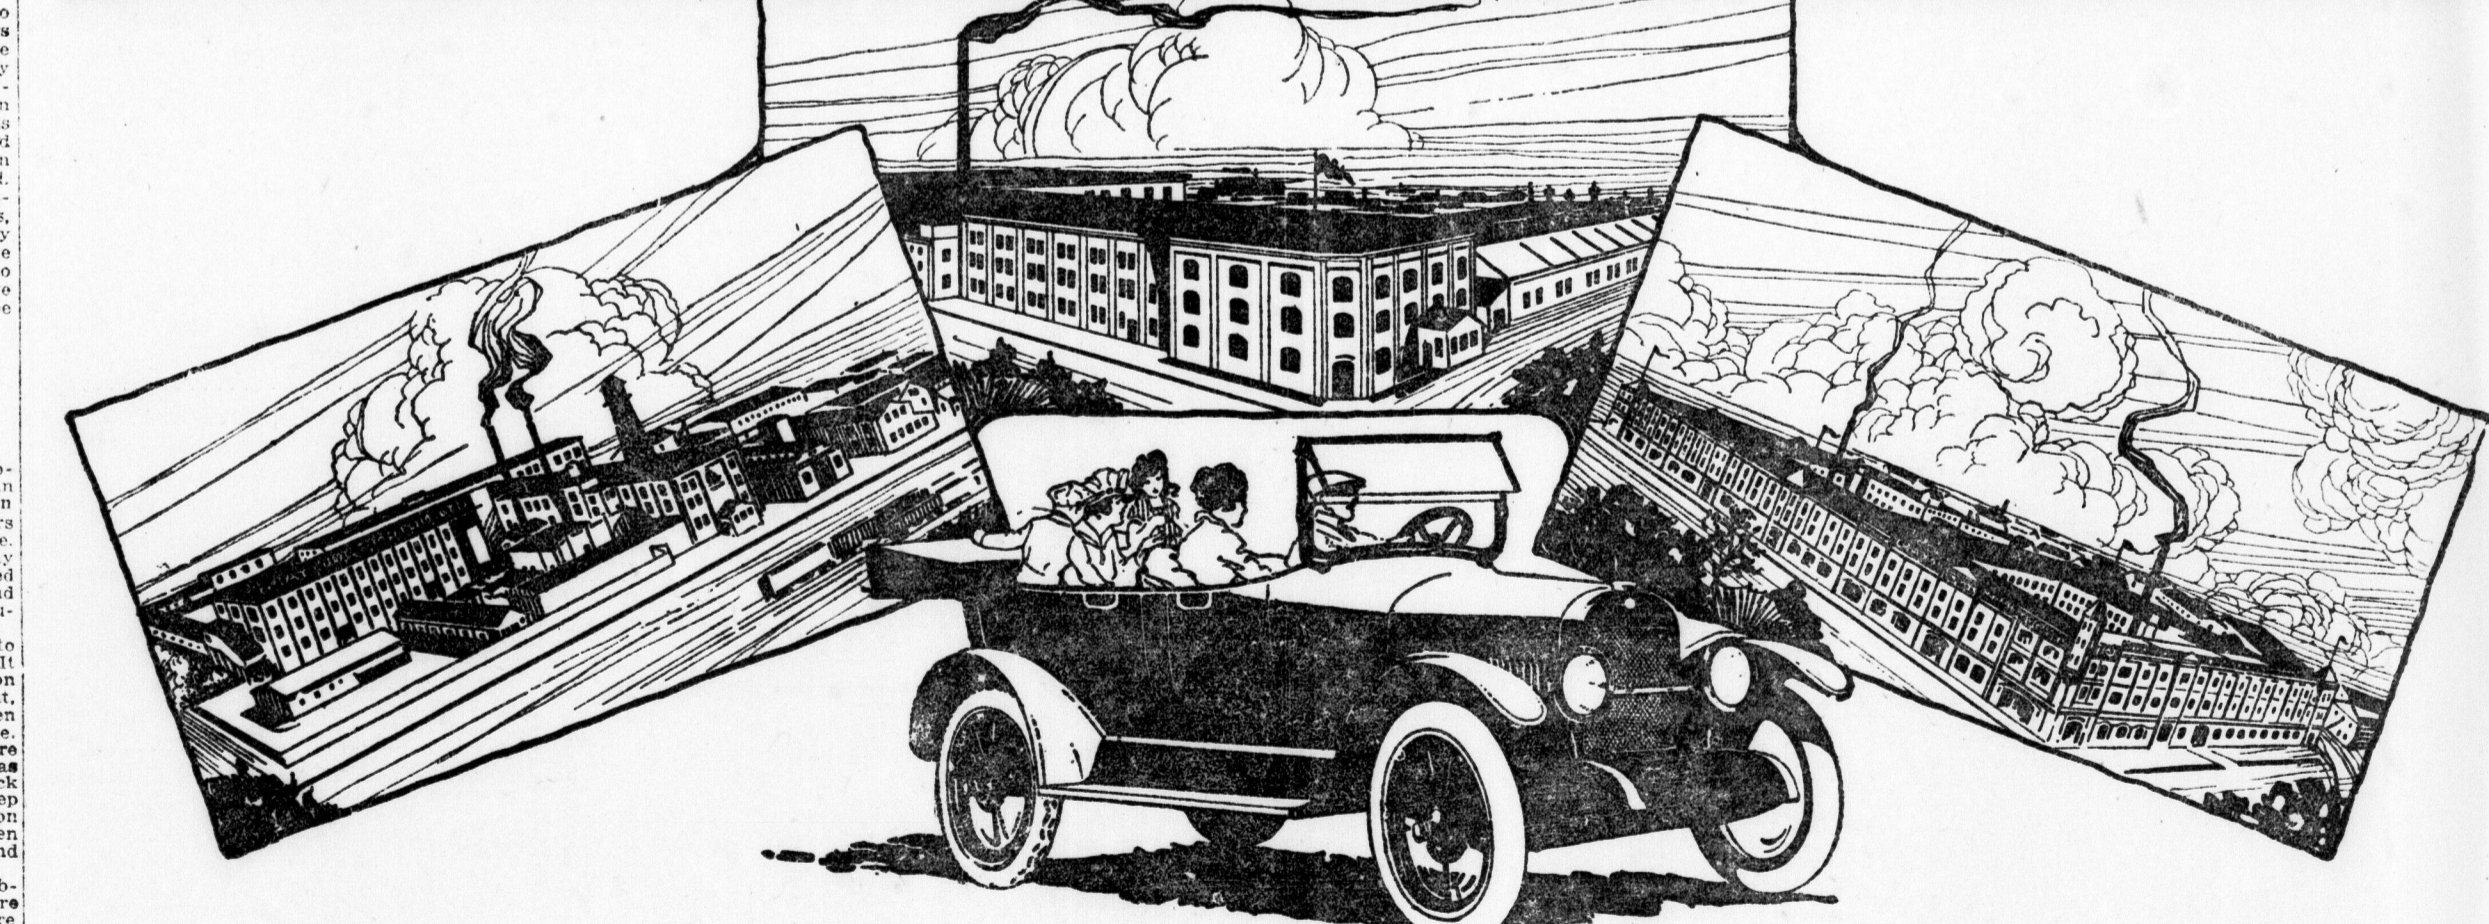

- Cowan's Almond Nut Milk Chocolate Bar.
- Cowan's Filbert Nut Milk Chocolate Bar.
- Cowan's Queen's Dessert Chocolate Bar.
- Cowan's Royal Milk Chocolate Cake.
- Cowan's Fruit and Nut Milk Chocolate Bars.

CHATHAM PLANTS OF GRAY-DORT MOTORS LIMITED—

You Can Buy the Best Gray-Dort Ever Built

THE Gray-Dort which your dealer has to-day is the best Gray-Dort ever built. More than that. It is the greatest Gray-Dort value. For $1,365 you get a Gray-Dort with ten major improvements and a dozen refinements.

With a bigger gas tank, placed in the rear, with a new, extra-heavy, extra-safe steering gear. With the emergency brake on a lever—and with Thermoid brake linings. A more convenient Gray-Dort, the side curtains opening with the doors, with very much more leg-room in the tonneau and with more in the driving compartment because of the shorter and smarter cowl. A Gray-Dort which has the good-looks of a smarter top, hand-tailored in our own shops, a smarter hood, with many long, narrow louvres.

There are many more refinements which you will find when you drive the new Gray-Dort.

Here you have the same powerful, finely-built motor with its big bore and long stroke. The same heavy crankshaft, many pounds heavier than on other light cars.

A rear axle built specially for us right here in Chatham. Long springs, built here, too. Westinghouse starting and lighting. Improved Carter carburetor. Every unit of motor and chassis is bigger and stronger and higher quality than is usually considered for light cars.

Gray-Dort production has been doubled for this year. But our dealers tell us that this will not be sufficient to meet the demand. It would be wise to see the Gray-Dort dealer to-day.

PRICES

5-Passenger Car—$1365, f.o.b. Chatham, war tax extra.

2-Passenger Roadster is the same price.

Gray-Dort Special—$150 extra on the standard.

Gray-Dort Ace—$255 extra on the standard.

MIDDLESEX TO GROW MORE SUGAR BEETS, CLOVER AND FLAX

Keen Weather of Past Week Harms Wheat and Clover.

STRAW SCARCE

Farmers Make $1,500 'Winter Wages' Gathering Muskrat Skins.

The following is a summary of reports made by agricultural representatives to the Ontario department of agriculture.

The keen weather of the past week did harm to some fall wheat and clover fields, but the extent of the injury will not be known until spring growth is more advanced.

The unpropitious weather also halted the work of spring seeding, which in some of the southwestern counties was becoming common.

Live stock as a class are thinner than usual, but in remarkably good health generally.

Stock through the winter have on the whole sold very well. Farmers feeding cattle are quite undecided as to what to do owing to the uncertainty of prices at the present time.

Prices for dairy cows vary greatly. Peel reports a decline in values for ordinary animals, which are now going at from $90 to $120.

Peel reports that grade Shorthorn cows in local selling at from $140 to $155 at auction sales.

CIRCUS REVEALS FEELING FOR DISCUSSION

At Meeting of No. 1 Committee This Afternoon.

London may be visited by a real circus this year, the first since war was declared.

The circus men claim that their show is a direct advantage to the surrounding country.

If aidemen are swayed by public opinion it is probable they will meet such a fate.

School children of the city are practically unanimous in favoring renitance of the circus.

It would be possible for the circus to obtain a lower fee if it did not bring such a large crowd of people.
