Canada is Still in the Ring.

When your liver isn't working right and you come down to work in the morning feeling down hearted and blue and you think business is all going to pot in Canada on account of the war, just take a glance at the following facts.

Canada's exports in the year ending May, 1916, were $320,000,000, nearly double the record for either 1915 or 1914.

The United States, with a population of 100,000,000, (about twelve times the population of Canada) does less than five times as much foreign trade as Canada.

In the United States there was a yield of about 10 bushels of wheat per head of population, while in Canada the yield was 44 bushels per head in 1915.

Canada's export trade in manufactured products was over four times as great in 1916 as it was in 1914.

Railway earnings for July, 1916, were over seven and a half millions of dollars ahead of July, 1915.

Bank deposits in Canada show an increase of $162,000,000 up to July 1st, 1916, over the same period of 1915, while Bank Clearings show an increase of 445 per cent. for the year up to July 1st, 1916.

Wheat shipped in July, 1916, was 28,201,369 bushels, while in July, 1915, only 3,195,242 bushels were shipped.

Looks as though Canada was still in the ring.

Who Am I?

I am more powerful than the combined armies of the world. I have destroyed more men than all the wars of the nations. I am more deadly than bullets, and I have wrecked more homes than the mightiest of siege guns. I steal, in the United States alone, over $300,000,000 each year. I spare no one. I find my victims among the rich and poor alike, the young and old, the strong and weak. Widows and orphans know me well.

I loom up to such proportions that I cast my shadow over every field of labor, from the turning of the grindstone to the moving of every railway train. I massacre thousands upon thousands of wage-earners every year. I lurk in unseen places and do most of my work silently. You are warned against me, but you heed not.

I am relentless. I am everywhere—in the house, on the streets, in the factory, at railroad crossings and on the sea. I bring sickness, degradation and death, yet few seek to avoid me. I destroy, crush or maim. I give nothing and take all. I am your worst enemy. I am carelessness.

Pointed Paragraphs.

Laziness is sometimes mistaken for patience.

There's nothing more unsatisfactory than an unkept kid.

A good printer is truly a man of the highest type. He attends to his own case and makes it a rule never to be out of sorts.

Tired and Discouraged.

Mrs. Warren Randles, Robesay, Kings County, N. B., writes, "I have three small children and had to stay in the house all winter. So when spring came I was all run down doing all my work and looking after the children I felt all tired out and looked on the gloomy side all the time. I decided to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and the results were most satisfactory. I feel fine now, and an enormous amount of Nerve Food to others."

A Frenchman was waiting at a railroad station in Ireland when a couple of natives sat down beside him. Said one:

"Sure, Pat, it's down to Kilpatrick I've been and I'm on my way back to Kilpatrick."

"Ye don't say," said the other, "It's well that's just after being down to Kilmenny and I stop here before I go to Kilmoor."

"What assassins!" exclaimed the shocked Frenchman, "Would that I were safely back in France!"

"I'm sush," said Chollie Saffeligh with a drawing flap, "that I don't know what I shall do when I get out of college. Mother wants me to be a ministerial, but I have leaned toward lithograph."

"Did you ever think of becoming an actress?" she asked cruelly.

The Curse of Germany.

The Emperor deceives his people. No "enemy Government," no neutral country, no man of sanity desires the destruction of Germany, but of that brutal, conscienceless wicked spirit of militarism represented by the Kaiser and the Crown Prince and their bloodthirsty advisers. The curse of Germany and of the world is the Hohenzollern rule. If the time ever comes when it can be broken Germany will enter upon a splendid future of peace and prosperity and the rest of the world will be at peace.

"Please sign your name there," said the post official to the woman who wanted to start a savings bank account.

"Do you want me first name?" asked the woman, as she picked up the pen.

"Yes; your full name, please."

"Do you want me husband's name?"

"Yes; his last name," explained the official patiently. "But your own first name, please."

"Oh, I see! You want me name before I was married."

"No, your christian name—Mary or Jane."

"But it's not either of them," said the woman with a toss of her head, "it's Gwendoline Rose."

"Very well, then. Write that down, please, and remember that there are others waiting."

The woman raised the pen thoughtfully.

"Oh, do you want me to put the Mrs.?"

"No, not that. Just your full name, please."

The woman laid down her pen and blushed.

"I'd do it at once, sir," she said weekly, "if only I could write."

Yours truly,

T. B. LAVERS, St. John.

A young couple were engaged to be married. "Mable there is something I ought to tell you about myself," said Tom soberly, as they were sitting in the moonlight. "What is it, Tom?" asked the girl. "Well, Mable—I have to tell you, but I don't think I would be doing right not to tell you, and I have promised to do so."

"I'll be glad to hear it," said Mable, "but I'm a nervous girl. Never mind, Tom," she comfortingly replied, "I'll be glad to hear it."

How to Live Long. Many ailments find their beginning in a torpid sluggish condition of liver, kidneys and bowels. As a matter of fact you can add years to the length of your life as well as comfort and happiness by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to keep those organs regular and active.

Portly Woman (pushing her way into a police station)—I see you have arrested a man whose mind is a blank. Officer—We have, madam. Portly Woman—Then please bring him out so I may have a look at him. My Henry didn't come home last night, and that's a fairly good description of him.

"You say this picture is worth $5.00 and you are offering it for $10?" "Yes." "Something wrong here, declared the policeman. "I'll have to take you in."

"Nothing wrong, officer," interposed the dealer. "He's the artist."

The Racking Pains of Sciatic Rheumatism

Were Well-nigh Unbearable—After Five Years of Suffering Cure Was Effected by Dr. Chase's Medicines.

For downright excruciating pain few ailments can be compared to sciatic rheumatism. Since this condition of the sciatic nerve denotes a lesion of the nervous system, the logical cure is found in the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to nourish the starved nerves back to health and vigor.

Reports are continually coming in to us regarding the splendid results obtained in the treatment of sciatic rheumatism by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food after each meal and Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills occasionally as a means of arousing the action of the liver, kidneys and bowels and thereby keeping the system freed of pain causing poisonous impurities.

Mr. W. J. Talbot, Edgewood, Sask., writes:—"It is a great pleasure for me to recommend Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and Nerve Food as a cure for Sciatic Rheumatism. The pain I have suffered has been well-nigh unbearable. It would start in the hips and run down the legs to the feet, gradually getting worse. The nerves contract until one is practically useless. My doctor tried many different treatments, but could only afford relief for a time. "For about five years I was subject to this trouble with severe attacks which would last about two months. The last attack I had was shortened to two weeks by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and Nerve Food. This treatment was continued until I was satisfied that the cure was lasting." This statement is endorsed by Mr. H. E. Woolley, F.F. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, six for $1.00. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills 25 cents a box, all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto, Limited, Toronto.

RED ROSE TEA "is good tea"

Editorial Brevities.

It is expected that there will be a meeting in the interest of the Patriotic Fund on Tuesday evening, Oct. 24th. Place and speakers will be announced later.

Owing to circumstances which we find ourselves unable to control we are obliged to issue THE ACADIAN in an abridged form this week. Our advertisers and readers will please excuse. Next week we trust our paper will resume its usual appearance.

Free Advertising.

One of the best articles on the subject of what may justly be termed gratias after the newspaper man's stock in trade appeared recently in The Editorial, the statements being credited to the Detroit Herald.

"Nobody ever thinks of going to the coal dealer and asking him to send a little coal up to the church or lodge room to heat up the building for a meeting or entertainment. Nor does one ask the ice cream man to donate ice cream, nor does one suggest that the electric light company furnish lights for the occasion. But people often express surprise and resentment when the newspaper man asks remuneration for an advertising notice relative to aforesaid meeting or entertainment.

If the coal dealer or the ice cream man or the electric light company should voluntarily donate said coal, ice cream or lights, the recipients thereof would be exceedingly grateful, and would probably instruct the newspaper man to run a free notice telling the public all about the generosity of the aforesaid coal dealer, ice cream man or electric light company. But nobody runs a notice eulogizing the newspaper man. For free advertising, especially of the reading notice brand—which by the way, is the most expensive in time and labor—is taken for granted, as the natural gift.

The editor very gladly gives a certain amount of complimentary space to charitable and other organizations weekly. He gives this freely to the exact limit of space available. This complimentary service means work for the compositor and work for the make-up man. It is work absolutely without hope of reward. And there is in this community persons so devoid of appreciation of courtesies extended that not only do they fail to express gratitude for favors shown, but on occasion feel it incumbent upon themselves to haul out the editor if perchance he does not allow them the quota of space they consider their natural right. If the butcher should present them with a fine juicy steak on Friday night, would these same persons visit his shop on Saturday morning and roast him to a turn because the steak was not sufficiently large for their entire families?

The newspaper man's space is just as much his stock-in-trade as the coal dealer's coal, the ice cream man's ice cream, the electric light company's electricity or the butcher's meats. The average man never thinks of the hours of toil—sweating toil—it takes to get out a paper. He never thinks of the worries, trials and tribulations every editor must undergo. Every line of type in a newspaper represents labor that costs money and there is a lot of money tied up in type, presses and other equipment. Paper and ink, rent, heat, light, power and insurance must be paid for out of the income derived from the newspaper man's stock-in-trade.

Vice-Admiral Sir David Beatty, commander of the first British battle cruiser squadron, whose ships defeated the Germans in the North Sea, has made a stirring appeal for a great religious revival in England as a necessary step to victory in the war. In a letter read at the annual convention of the Society for the Propagation of Christian Knowledge, he writes: "Surely Almighty God does not intend this war to be just a hideous fracas or a blood-drunken orgy. There must be a purpose in it; improvement must come out of it. In what direction? France has already shown us the way and has risen out of her ruined cities with a revival of religion that is wonderful. Russia has been welded into a great part. England still remains to be taken out of the stupor of self-satisfaction and complacency into which her flourishing condition has stepped her. Until she can be stirred out of this condition, until a religious revival takes place, just so long will war continue. When she can look on the future with humbler eyes and a prayer on her lips then we can begin to count the days toward the end."

Mr. John Grierson, a former resident of Kentville and well known in this town also, died at his home, 51 Charles street, Halifax, October 3rd. He was a former city mission worker, and missionary at one time to Corea for the Presbyterian Church of Canada. Mr. Grierson was in the 89th year of his age. He is survived by two sons and two daughters. The sons are Frank, of the Finance Department, Ottawa, who had recently enlisted in a siege battery and is training at Valcartier, and Dr. Robert Grierson, who is a missionary at present in Corea. The daughters are Mary and Frances, both teachers at Albro street school. The funeral was held at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Grierson was a native of Kirkpatrick, Durham, Scotland, and came to Nova Scotia in early youth. He settled first at Kentville. On removal to Halifax he took up city mission work, later branching into home mission work among the lumber camps of the Province. Following that Mr. Grierson went to Labrador, and from there he was sent to Corea, where he remained for a year and a half in the mission fields. During that time he helped establish the mission of which his son, Dr. Robert Grierson, afterward took charge. At one time, for about eleven years, he was a superintendent of the Halifax Industrial School, and for a long time he was secretary of the Nova Scotia Sunday School Association.

In his death a striking figure has been removed from the Presbyterian mission work in Nova Scotia. Mr. Grierson was a man of great strength of character, always stood for what he thought was right, and was exceedingly faithful in his religious life.

Mr. Frank W. Barteaux spent Sunday with friends in Wolfville.

Rev. A. C. Borden will preach at Sheffield Mills next Sunday at 3 p.m.

Mrs. Gerald Baud spent the holiday in Halifax, returning to Wolfville Tuesday.

A Song Before Battle.

We, who have clung for long, long months To battered lines of knee-deep mud, Fixed targets for your slope-set guns To drench the ooze with British blood;

We, who have toiled through winter's rain With sandbag, shovel, plank and wire, Revetting marshy parapets, Building protection from your fire, We have weapons now, O Hunns!

Rifles, all yes, but worthier still How like you thrust and stab and blow?

And you shall find for all your guns (The earth is ploughed with ours, you know)

That we can job the silent sword With hands exultant, freed at last From digging, digging night and day, The months of holding on, O Hunns! We are coming now, O Hunns!

We, who have crouched as you sailed by Above our furrowed, pock marked soil Spitting our weakness for your guns, See no one of you now to spoil Our free enjoyment of the skies: You fire blindly from below; We force you to creep up the hills, And from the last prim crest you go, We are rising now, O Hunns!

We are rising now, a nation's tide, And you must dig and wire and crawl, Your turn at last beneath our guns, Your turn to find defence frail; We are bursting in, we are breaking through; The great sea sweeps your barriers down, You urge anew your claim on God, But He is silent as you drown. Look to yourselves, O Hunns! —The Somme Valley, Aug. 1, 1916.
