He trusted that he would do nothing to reflect discredit on the position. He then alluded in a witty way to the female emigration proposed by the Marquis of Lorne, and hinted that he might yet act upon the suggestions of the Governor General, and do his part in one of the home industries. HYMENEAL.—We take much pleasure in announcing in another column, the marriage of Mr. James A. Elliott and Miss Annie Bell Smith, both well and favorably known in town. Miss Smith's talents was always highly appointed to the position at the January favorably known in town. Miss Smith's talent as a vocalist, was always highly appreciated in Goderich, and her role as an amateur actress always won applicated. Mr. Samuel Platt created quite as the string of the council of the position at the January who has studied the protectionist question as it affects himself personally, and the english during the is his conclusion:—"If bought a experience had a hard word with any of experience had a hard word with any of sation in the Rossin House, during his plentiful nowadays in Ontario that we clock from a merchant, and I had to the Council, and expected to get on all at visit to Toronto. In rising to respond to the toast of the Road Commissioners to inspect the bridge on the gravel road in the Village of Blyth, as it is considered unsafe, with ton, and which is greatly in vogue in Illinois. The demand for first class but-in England is unlimited. The speaker related the experience of a Canadian maker who had brought some choice samples of butter to the old country in tin boxes, and who sold his consignment at a very high figure after having shown it to competent judges. Farmers, too, should be careful how they used their soil. Mr. Rennie, an extensive breeder, had told him that from the time he had begun to raise cattle he never sold any coarse grains, but had utilized it all back in manure, and thus his soil was not exhausted. He did not believe in keeping cattle going round around straw stacks. (Laughter and applause.) One of the main sources of profit to the Canadian farmer is the saving of manure. Manure should be kept from the sun and rain, in order that it should not get dry or leached. The stabling should be so arranged that the manure could be well well caught and kept from exposure. The lands needs to be fed; the system of crop, cropping is suicidal. Farmers have ourselves to blame of their boys leave the farm. (Hear, hear.) The speaker eloquently alluded to the nobility of agriculture, and claimed that it could be made attractive to their children. If we' feel that dignity of our position, and live up to that dignity, we can make ourselves respected, and our calling honored in this country. Mr. McMillan concluded a forcible, practical caught and kept from exposure. The McMillan concluded a forcible, practical and eloquent address amidst hearty ap-

Hair Vigor, FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS

NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR. It is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use thin hair is thickened, and baldness often though not always cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to brashy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The Victor cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff; and, by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair The Vigor is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.

What a Cheap Cigar Will Do.

The moral Influence of a cigar is greater than that of the finest speech delivered since the days of the Roman Republic. No man should set out on a journey without providing himself with at least fitty cheap cigars. Those which can be bought for two cents each are as good as those sold for a dime, and thegift of one is rewarded with just the same courtesy. You are in a hurry to change trains and re-check baggage. The check-man doesn't care two cents whether you are left or not, and the chances are that you would be left but for the cigar. Edge up to him, drop the cigar into his fingers and aske him to re-check your baggage to Indianapolis and you are fixed in six seconds. Hours later when he comes to sit down for a smoke, he may remember your phiz and bless it but you are far away.

The brakesman on a passenger train studies gruffness. You can't offer him money nor ask him out to take a glass of beer, but if you want to know exactly how long you have to wait at Hanover junction and how long it takes you to run from there to Washington, just tender him a two cent cigar. His granite countenance will instantly melt and run all over his face, and he will feel himself bound not only to answer all inquiries, but to tell you how to save two shillings in getting your supper at Quantice,

Ticket agents in depots have stero breaks their necks to have a man come along and ask something new. The cigar dodge works beautifully on them. Approach them with a smile, extend the weed, and observe:

"Say, old fellow, when do I leave here to make close connection with the Erie at Elmira ?"

Out comes his time tables and railway guides, and he'll not only fix you to a second, but give you the population of every station on the road. A two cent cigar will stop any citizen of any city and make him feel happy to answer a dosen questions. It will direct you to the best hotel, point out the best sights, make street car conductors talk, give you the best seat in the omnibus, and accomplish all that gold or silver could do. No man should travel without them, especially for travelers. One brand should contain old rope, rags and scraps of leather and be sold for a cent. This A word to the wise is sufficient, and we brand would be for officials who are really good at heart, and whose sudden removal from earth would bring sorrow to large families. The other brand should have a torpedo in the centre, warranted to blow out six teeth and drive the end of the nose up at an angle of forty-five degrees. These could probably be sold for a cent and a half, apiece, and would be given out whenever it was necessary to teach an official that civility toward travelers benefits a road far more than the bursting of three trunks. The baggagemen in the Union depot is waiting for just such a cigar and its moral lesson.

No strenger warranty can be given for the merits of a cough medicine than we offer. We say to all who wish to use Allen's Lung Basam, that unless it gives entire, satisfaction than the control of the couples of the c it gives entire satisfaction they may re-turn the bottle to us after they have used it 48 hours, and the money will be cheerfully retunded. This same war-ranty has been offered from the day we offered the Balsam first for sale, and we have received nothing but praise in its favor from those who have used it.

Gentlemen:—For more than thirty years I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia and piles. I have been frequently under medical treatment, and have tried various preparations which have been recommended to me, but received no permanent relief. In January last I commenced taking the PERUVIAN SYRUP, and after taking three bottles of it I became perfectly cured of the dyspepsia and piles; and my general health is now all that I can desire it to be.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 3 1881.

THE admirable speech delivered by Col. Ross in the Ontario Legislature during the debate on the Address, attracted much attention, and has called forth encomiums from several newspapers. The Globe availed itself of one of the Colonel's arguments in a recent editorial on the Disallowance of the Streams Bill. and, acknowledging its indebtedness, paid the member for West Huron a deserved compliment for the ability evinced by him in his discussion of the subject, The watchful correspondent of the Seaforth Expositor at the Provincial capital thus alludes to the speech:-

Mr. Ross, of West Huron, was the next speaker. As all the others have done, he occupied himself mainly with consideration of the two leading questions the Disallowance and the Boundary Award. His treatment of the former was remarkable for the thorough ac quaintance he displayed of the law and authority upon the subject, and he strengthened the position taken by the Government not a little by his able handling of the question. He was quite as successful in dealing with the Boundary Award, and showed that the course of Sir John in refusing to accept the de cision of the arbitrators as binding, was unprecedented and inspired by the grossest partizan motives. Mr. Ross has established for himself the reputation of being, on many subjects, one of the best, if not the best, speaker on the ministerial side of the House outside of the Government benches. His knowledge of legal and constitutional questions is, for a layman, wonderful, while in his mastery of detail and ability to handle figures of every kind he is certainly unsurpassed by any member in the House. Mr. Ross will be wanted higher up before long.

THE editor of the Fermers Advocate at the Agricultural Dinner last week, urged the necessity of keeping American breeding cattle out of Canada, for fear of introducing virulent diseases. The matter was immediately taken up by Mr. John McMillan, Reeve of Hullett, who spoke the sentiment of the farmers present when he stated that if stringent restrictions were placed upon the importation of stock, we should be at liberty to imof stock, we should be at liberty to imported stock have already enhanced the value of Canadian bred cattle and horses, and high though our animals cable despatch from the Colonial Office therefore, is due mainly to the fact that announcing that the Imperial Privy he had the "cheek" to press himself forplaced upon the importation of American breeding cattle into Canada. Burns' Anniversary at Lucknow.

The Lucknow Caledonian Society celebrated the Burns' anniversary in that village on the evening of Wednesday, Jan 25th, by a ball and banquet. The attendance was large, and as many as sixty couple were in the dancing hall at the one time. Messrs. Lauchie Macintyre and D. E. Cameron divided the labors of floor manager, and between the sets a few choice songs were sung by Messrs. Dromgole, of London, the well-known vocalist, and Mr. D. E. Cameron, of Lucknow. The graceful man-ner in which Chief MacCrimmon tripped the light fantastic, was admired by all, for the chief is a "man of weight" physically as well as mentally. The number of ladies present was a feature in the proceedings, and it was pleasing to know that not a few exhibited the olors of the badge of membership of the Society. At 12 o'clock an excellent supper was spread at Pascoe's Hotel, partaken of by all present, and the usual loval patriotic, special and general toasts were duly honored. Our space, however, will not allow us to give in detail this interesting portion of the entertainment. The speakers on the occasion were Donald, and songs were sung by Messrs. Dromgole and Hunter. During the evening a handsome gold neck-guard The report as amended was again submitted to the council and adopted.

This subject was handled differently to what some would have starting the flames spread with great rapidity, several people jumping from windows, and others escaping by ladders. An hour after the fire started, the Times and the World buildings were on fire. A colored woman employed as caretaker in the World building jumped out of a window, and is fatally injured. Her husband is missing. Another woman got on a window ledge with her clothes on fire, and jumped through the flames. At noon the fire had spread, extending to the post-office, the old Mail office, and numerous other buildings.

DUNGANNON CIRCUIT.

succe sful Convention of S. S. Workers Under the Supervision of Rev. Mr.

A convention of the S. S. workers of the C. M. church, on the Dungamon circuit, was held at Nile, on Monday, the 23rd of January, inst. The day was un-propitious, but, notwithstanding the innency of the weather, a fair representation of the different appointments was present. The Rev. Mr. Caswell occupied the chair. After devotional exercises, the morning session was taken up by reading the reports of the different schools, which appeared from the reports to be in a flourishing condition, excepting the one Sle pardton, which, owing to a scar ity of efficient workers, is unprogressive. After the reports were disposed of, an exwas heartily indulged in by those prosent. From the experience of the Sup-was behind in this very important branch.

Mr. John Dusto was then called upon to express his views on the "Great object to be aimed at in S S. work," which he ably and pointedly did, by encouraging the teachers to persevere in their noble work, and that their great object should be the conversion of the souls under their especial care. "What course is best to be taken to secure quiet, and meeting was closed by proper." good order," was next discussed in a very interesting manner, after which the ddresses of welcome were tendered those from the adjoining appointments by Messrs Dusto, Tiffin and Cantelon.

Each lesson should tend to impress some important truth. Mr. Thomas Morrow was then called. His theme was, "How can the home aid the S. S. in this important work?" He thought home influence would aid greatly by having the scholars attend regularly; by the preparation of S. S. work at home; by pecuniary assistance, and last, but not least, the prayers of those at home for the blessing God to rest upon the labors of S. S. work ers. Mr. Joseph Washington, on "How can the attention of the scholars be best secured." was well received. He stated that teachers, to interest their class, should be well prepared. He spoke of the failure of careless teachers, and recommended object teaching and black board exercises, the eve being a good interpreter. "The Superintendent's duty in and out of the school," by Mr. War-mer, was next called. He considered that a superintendent should be a man of exemplary character'; a total abstainer from beverages; to be times, particularly so when meeting any During and able to govern himself before he can sion on the habit of using tobacco, arose to the hilarity by "drinking" tivated by the use of proper literature.

Teachers are plentiful in supply! Seventy application were received by the Guelph School Board for vacancies in their schools; for a vacancy in Northumberland county nearly one hundred ap-plicants, and for eight vacancies in the Almonte High and Public Schools there were one hundred and forty one applicants! For the Orillia School, seventy replied to the advortisement! The result may be easily guessed at. Several School Boards are setting down the salaries and many good teachers feel their positions insecure. The applicants are chiefly yonths.

I would not see my further part. For Mercy veils it so; My present steps might harder b. Did I the future know.

It may be that my path is rough, Thorny and hard and steep;
And knowing this my strength might fail. Through fear and terror deep

It may be that it winds along A smooth and flowing way; But seeing this I might despise The journey of to-day.

Perhaps my path is very short And I might tremble at the thought Of ending it so soon. Or, if I saw a weary length

Of road that I must wend; Fainting, I'd think my feeble powers Would fail me ere the end. And so I do not wish to know My journey or its length:

Assured that through my Father's love Each step will bring its strength Thus, step by step, I onward go,

Not looking far before: Trusting that I shall always have Just light for one step more.

Not my Bustness.
