SATURDAY EV'NG, JAN. 6, 1872

Town and County News

On the windy Saturday a new Episcopal Church going up at Joyce's Corners, Luther, was blown over. The frame will easily be put to rights again.

THE Annual Meeting of the West Guelph Agricultural Society will be held at Hannah's Hotel Douglas, on Monday next, at 1 o'clock, p. m.

ALMOST A FIRE IN ELORA.-On Saturday night the chimney in Fraser's grist mill took fire. It was easily got out, however, and this fine property saved.

CURLING MATCH.-A curling match played on Wednesday afternoon at Galt, between the Ayr and Elora Clubs, resulted in the victory for Elora by 18 shots.

NORTH RIDING AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.-The annual meeting of the North Riding Agricultural Society will be held in the Village of Harriston, on Wednesday, the 17th inst.

PRESENTATION.-On New Year's day Mr. Quirk, the most popular conductor on the Great Western Railway, was presented by Mr. J. Saunders, of Guelph, with one of his handsomely carved canes.

BEVERLY ELECTION.-For Reeve, Mr. Clement was returned; for Deputy, Messrs John Bennett and Thomas McQueen; and for Councillors, Messrs Jas Smith and Wm Mezier.

TORONTO ASSIZES.-At the Assizes in Toronto, which opened on Monday, there are five cases of murder, one of arson, one of bigamy and two of perjury, besides about 20 other criminal ones.

FIRE IN DURHAM.-Between 10 and 11 o'clock on Wednesday night, the pump factory of Messrs McConnell & Nelles, of this village was discovered to be on fire, but by timely assistance it was extinguished without doing much damage.

DRAYTON.-The Elora Times says:-The little village of Drayton is making great strides since the Railway was opened, already there has been quite a number of new stores opened and others in prospect. Grain and produce of all kinds is purchased largely, over one hundred tons of freight were shipped from that station last week.

FIRE.-Early on Thursday morning, fire was discovered in one of the bedrooms of the Hotel (late Powell's) on the Elora road kept by Mr. Joseph Doragh. Fortunately by the timely assistance of neighbors, and a plentiful supply of water, it was got under without much loss or damage. It originated, we learn, from carelessness on the part of the Hostler, the sole occupant of the room.

TO DRIVE OFF RATS.-Take a bunch of matches and soak them over night in a teacupful of water; then take out the matches, and thicken the water with Indian meal to a thick dough, adding a teaspoonful of sugar and a little lard. Lay about the premises where the rats are and nothing else will get it. It is decidedly the best exterminator extant. Give it a trial.

ACCIDENT TO MR. WILKINSON.-The Hamilton Spectator learns that Mr. Wilkinson, proprietor of the Morning Standard met with a serious accident on Friday morning. Workmen were employed in fixing up the bridge over the hall, a large opening was made in the floor. Mr. Wilkinson, not being aware of the fact and on going into the house hurriedly, fell through into the cellar and broke his collar bone.

SPELLING.-The Waterloo Chronicle gives the report of the Board of Examiners for that County. With regard to spelling, the Board says:-Very few of those who failed were really good spellers, and in the papers handed in by a large proportion of them such glaring errors as sentence, existence and the like, were exceedingly common. One individual managed to score late magnificent total of 64 different errors in spelling, in a very moderate amount of writing, and was surprised at not being awarded a certificate.

SOCIAL PARTY.-Last (Friday) night Mr. J. McNeil, of the Montreal and St. John's Road, gave his employees their annual supper, which was laid in the Factory over the store. An excellent spread was provided, to which the party did ample justice. The evening was pleasantly spent in dancing, singing, reciting, &c., and at a late hour the party broke up highly pleased with their evening's amusements, and with sincere wishes for the continued prosperity of their enterprising employer.

ACCIDENT.-We regret to learn that Leonard Harland, Collector of Taxes, Guelph Township, met with a somewhat serious accident the other day from being thrown out of his cutter, whereby he sustained a fracture of the collar bone. The accident arose, we understand, in consequence of his horse taking fright at the exceedingly reprehensible practice of "tobogganing," which is now carried on to such an extent as to become a source of nuisance and danger; and most certainly calls for the interference of the proper authorities, so that at least it shall not be carried on in thoroughfares of much traffic.

THE TABLEAU.-Last night there was a larger attendance at the Tableau Vivants than the preceding evening. The tableaux produced, such as Ruth and Boaz, Jessie of Lockwood, Mary Queen of Scots, Faith, Hope and Charity, &c., besides an extra one, "The Heathen Chinese" from Bret Harte's well known brochure, were greatly admired and applauded. Excellent music was furnished by Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Jacob, Miss Wright and others, and some beautiful songs were rendered by Mrs. Howitt, Mrs. McNider and Miss Bond. The entertainment on both nights were a great success.

SUDDEN DEATHS.-The Listowel Banner gives the particulars of two sudden deaths.-On Tuesday, Mr. D. C. Wier, of Elms, was riding in a sleigh in company with Mr. Wm Foster, of Moulton, apparently in the best of health and spirits when his head dropped and he fell lifeless from his seat and rolled over into the snow. Mr. Foster immediately happened to the relief and found him perfectly dead, cause, disease of the heart. On Friday Mr. H. Grey, of Wallace, started to go from his house to a neighbor's, and he had scarcely entered the house when he had fallen dead. It seems he had been drinking to a considerable extent during the previous week, and was just getting sobered off.

SOIREE AT ARKELL.-On Thursday evening, a soiree was held in this village, for the purpose of raising funds to assist in the erection of a chapel for the Wesleyan Methodists in that vicinity. There was a large attendance, and the speakers, the Rev Mr. Wardrop, Rev Mr. Stafford, and Dr. Curry, Rockwood, gave interesting and entertaining addresses, which were greatly appreciated. The music was supplied by the Wesleyan choir from Guelph, under the leadership of Mr. Wheatley, whose services, it is almost superfluous to say, were, as usual, of a high order. We understand that a considerable sum was realized on the occasion, which must have been highly gratifying to the promoters of the entertainment.

RUNAWAY.-On Wednesday, whilst the teamster was loading a barrel of salt on to his sleigh at Mr. McElderry's store, his horse suddenly took fright and dashed with great fury round Risk's corner-meanwhile steering clear of a considerable number of sleighs that were in the immediate vicinity. Having manifested so strong a dislike to the back, they seemingly were determined to pay every attention to the front premises of Mr. McElderry, and were only prevented from carrying out their kind intention by the off horse springing violently into a sleigh tied to the door, to the great astonishment of its contents-animals and inanimate. Of course the pedestrian occupants of the footpath in the neighborhood were nearly as furious in their "skedaddle" as were the equine runaways in theirs.

It was then moved by Mr. Parkin, seconded by Mr. Smith, and resolved, that as it appears this meeting is not composed of a full representation of the members of the Central Committee, representing the various municipalities in the Riding, the Corresponding Secretary be instructed to notify all members to attend a meeting on Tuesday, the 10th inst., at Dryden's Hotel, Fergus, at 12 o'clock noon. The meeting then adjourned.

Alexis at Chicago.

Chicago, Jan. 5.-The Grand Duke and party left Chicago for St. Louis this m. Previous to leaving, Alexis handed Mayor Medill $5,000 for the benefit of the poor. He also passed over some thirty or forty letters received by him while here, all from females asking assistance in some shape. One young lady from western New York begged through six closely written pages for a sum of money to enable her to marry a widower whom she loved dearly. They were both so poor that they could not marry without money.

DON'T KNOW HIM.-We have heard of a man who owned a horse which had been for a long time afflicted with an chronic cough, and was otherwise in a poor condition; he at length resolved to sell him, and did so for a very trifling sum. Some 5 or 6 weeks afterwards, he met the person to whom he had sold him driving a beautiful horse, full of life, and concluded he had either exchanged him for this or purchased another; but judge of his surprise on learning that the horse was the same that he previously owned and considered of so little value. On enquiry as to what had effected so great a change, he was told that "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Balm" had done it. This preparation has effected some remarkable cures. Mr Scott's Speech to the Electors of Ottawa.

HE REPUDIATES THE CHARGE THAT THE GOVERNMENT IS A COALITION.

In the course of Mr Scott's speech to the electors of Ottawa on the 4th he said:-

The press that attacked him had asked these were his feelings why did he accept the position of Speaker. He would explain the reason. During the last session of the Parliament of Ontario, gentlemen on both sides asked him if he would take the chair. He had answered that if it were made the general expression of the opinion of both sides he would not object. He knew as a matter of fact that some of the gentlemen who were at present in the Government, gave their most cordial approval to the idea that he should become Speaker, and said they would heartily endorse it. Hon. Mr. Gow, at a banquet given in Toronto, at which members from both sides were present, proposed [Mr Scott's] health as the future Speaker. Some weeks before the House met he (Mr Scott) was in Toronto, when Mr Macdonald said his Government was anxious that he should take the chair. He said to Sandfield that he could not at that moment give his assent. Finally, before he (Mr Scott) left Toronto he told Sandfield that he would not accept the chair, but had a duty to perform on the floor of the House, and so he [Mr Scott] left Toronto. Though a member of John Sandfield's Government followed him to the cars and begged him to acquiesce in the general wish of the party he [Mr Scott] still declined. Only two days before the House met, the strong interposition of a personal friend-it was not necessary to mention his name-came in, and he [Mr Scott] was urged to accept the Speakership, as John Sandfield was in a much tighter position than before. (Cheers and laughter.) He [Mr Scott] replied that if John Sandfield would charge his policy he would consider the matter, but he [Mr Scott] would keep out of Toronto till the House met. He attended no caucus, and said he would not take the chair unless it were the wish of both sides of the House. It had now come out that the Opposition had also determined to propose him as Speaker, and John Sandfield knowing that he was unable to elect anybody to be Speaker, proposed him [Mr Scott] because he knew that he (Mr Scott) was in a far safer place, far as he [Sandfield] was concerned than if he were on the floor of the House. (Loud cheers.) Did John Sandfield carry a single motion after naming him (Mr Scott) as Speaker? Could he even adjourn the House without the consent of the Opposition? He (Mr Scott) now asked the electors if under these circumstances, he had compromised him, or placed himself under any obligation to John Sandfield by accepting the chair? - course which had reduced John Sandfield to a very serious difficulty and embarrassment. (Great cheering.) The electors knew the history of the ten days-the late Administration lasted after the House opened. It was one succession of defeats. Had the Government at first resigned they would have had some claim to honor left; but they persisted in holding on to office in spite of the reproaches of the Assembly, until at length they were forced to resign in spite of themselves. He might now state, though he did not state positively, that he inferred from the course taken that it was attempted to invoke the aid of the Lieutenant-Governor to prorogue the House until the elections to the contested seats were over. He thought this was a most unconstitutional policy to adopt. He did not hesitate to give his opinion against it, even if he were Speaker. (Applause.) He never lobbied, as had been charged against him, but let the gentlemen of the House in his own chamber day by day. He said fearlessly, here as elsewhere, that when John Sandfield Macdonald had failed to recognize the position of the 'big,' and when it was known that the Lieutenant Governor was to be invoked, that he did affirm it would be a dangerous precedent to set in this young country. A statesman should have the power to invoke the aid of the Crown to carry out his special views (Loud cheers.) It would be a dangerous thing to allow a Premier with a majority opposed to his policy to invoke the aid of the Crown. (Renewed cheers.) It became evident (Mr Scott) that it was impossible for the Government to keep their seats. No Government in this country ever died so ingloriously-unwept, unhonoured and unsung. The supporters of John S. Macdonald-a public man of thirty years standing-had dwindled down to twelve. Was there ever such a lamentable spectacle? (Applause.) Mr Blake was called to the floor after Mr Scott's speech, and he desired that he would lend his assistance. He (Mr Scott) must confess that he was not prepared for that interview, but after discussing the questions that were likely to arise during the next four years, and after discussing the policy of the new Government he found that it was more in accord with his sentiments than the policy of the late Administration. He found that as far as his own position in the Cabinet was concerned, there was no policy in which he could not heartily accord with the sentiments of Mr Blake. He saw no good reason in his not joining the Cabinet. He had long held Mr Blake in very high esteem, and in saying so he thought he was speaking the sentiments of the people of the country, for no man, for the short time he had been in public life, had earned a higher reputation than Mr Blake, and his private character was without spot or stain. As a chronic cough, and was otherwise in a poor condition; he at length resolved to sell him, and did so for a very trifling sum. Some 5 or 6 weeks afterwards, he met the person to whom he had sold him driving a beautiful horse, full of life, and concluded he had either exchanged him for this or purchased another; but judge of his surprise on learning that the horse was the same that he previously owned and considered of so little value. On enquiry as to what had effected so great a change, he was told that "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Balm" had done it. This preparation has effected some remarkable cures. Remember the name, and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Northrup & Lyman, New Castle, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.

faith in the leader of the Government, for that gentleman desired to give the people of Ontario in the broadest sense a true constitutional parliamentary Government, without which the liberties of the people could not be safe. He would allow Mr Blake to be the exponent of his own (Mr Scott's) sentiments, outside the Legislature of Ontario. He (Mr Scott) did not hesitate to say the Government was no coalition Government. He was not afraid to make this assertion, and he wanted his words to go over the wires that his sentiments as far as the Government of Ontario was concerned were in perfect accord and in perfect harmony with those of that Government. He was following a man in whom he had confidence and who was a giant in intellect as compared with Mr John Sandfield Macdonald. (He Mr Scott) had the approbation of the electors and that of his warmest friends in the course he had pursued.

Elora Correspondence.

Elora was all alive on Monday, but the contest was for the position of Councillor. Although nominated, the retiring Reeve declared that he was not a candidate for re-election to that position, and Hugh Hamilton, Esq., may be said to have walked the course. The following was the vote on the Reeveship: Hugh Hamilton, 148; J. M. Fraser, 13; Messrs R. Mitchell, J. Smith, Observer and J. G. Grier were nominated but did not receive any votes. For the four seats at the Council Board the contest was keen. Two tickets were got up, one representing what is known as the Upper Town, and the other Lower Town. Voting was briskly kept up until about 4 p. m., and at the close of the poll, the figures were as follows:-Robt. May, 151; John McDonald, 114; John Gohrey, 112; W. T. Smith, 106; John Bain, Jr, 104; Thomas Johnson, 74; James M. Fraser, 65; Ed. Farrow, 7; J. Muddell, 2; O. G. Hughes, 2; John Smith, 2.

PEEL.-Peel elected her Reeve, Sinclair Sutherland, (by acclamation) at the nomination, and the following gentlemen were the successful contestants for the remaining seats in the Council at the polls on Monday: Thomas McManis and John McJowan, Deputy Reeves, and J. Barrett, and William Brown, Councillors.

NICHOL.-Nichol avoided a contest this year, and exhibited her confidence in the old Council, by electing every member at the nomination.

PILKINGTON.-In this Township a great deal of interest was felt with respect to the Reeveship, although the result plainly showed that the old incumbent of the office still retain the confidence of a very large majority of the ratepayers. The following was the state of the poll at its close:-Reeve, Hugh Roberts, 211; Robt Cowan, 88; Deputy Reeve, Jacob Brohman, 150; Donald Wallace, 141; Councillors, Charles Allan, 232; John Hunter, 180; George Swann, 118; James Cunningham, 116; George Beale, 90. The Pilkington Council for 1872 is therefore composed as follows:-Hugh Roberts, Reeve; Jacob Brohman, Deputy Reeve, and Messrs C. Allan, J. Hunter, and G. Swann, Councillors.

ELORA FAIR, on Tuesday, was dull. More than one hundred cattle were on ground, notwithstanding the slippery state of the roads, many of them were in capital order, but prices were low. Four cents were offered and taken in some instances and it was difficult to force up the price beyond 4 1/2 and 4 3/4. Higher figures will be realized when the holiday gig is over.

THE Prussian War Office authorities maintain a very threatening military attitude towards the people resident in the portions of the contested territory of France, where our soldiers and their numerous assaults are alleged to have been committed on German soldiers during the army of occupation. It is said, indeed, the Emperor William's officers will enforce the lex talionis of the war code against French prisoners, whether the individuals are guilty or not.

A CURIOUS FISH.-Prof Agassiz's has written to a friend, giving some of the results of his voyage of discovery. He tells the story of a fish that builds its nest in the drifting Gulf weed, and sends its eggs about in such a cradle, as may well be indeed; but Prof Agassiz's observations reveal stranger facts than these, and we are told that the odd fish has a fin like a hand, and walks rather than swims. The eminent name of this evan is needed to entitle his curious relation to the credence which it must now receive from the world.

SANDFIELD'S FATE.-The Woodstock Sentinel says:-With the Combination dies, politically, John Sandfield. That gentleman in '67 had the choice of forming a Reform Administration and continuing the united support of that party; or the other alternative of collaborating with the Conservatives and betraying his old friends, to whom he owed his political existence. He chose the latter and has now entered upon the reward of his treachery. Already his late followers have repudiated him and installed Mr Cameron as the leader of the new Opposition. Poor Sandfield despised and rejected by Reformers, forsaken and deserted by Conservatives, there is none left to do him honor. Let such a fate be a beacon of warning to all political renegades.

THE BURNING OF CHICAGO FELT AT SEA BY A QUEBEC SHIP.-It is possible that some portion of the wealth of Chicago that melted into thin air on the 9th of October was seen again before it reached ultimate dispersion. A paper recently read before the Royal Geological Society of Dublin stated that Capt. Edwards, of the ship Neptune, in a message from Quebec to Liverpool, found his vessel enveloped in the smoke and ashes, as he believes, of the burnt city. His report of the facts certainly indicates plausible occasion for his belief. On the 12th of Oct, at sea, in lat. 46 degrees N., long. 35 degrees W., at about p. m., wind blowing strong from W., he observed a dense cloud of fog arise on the western horizon, which gradually came up with and surrounded the vessel, and so continued until midnight. From that coming up with the ship until clearing off, there prevailed a very strong smell of burning wood; both the captain and crew felt their eyes irritated by the smoke, and the decks were strewn with the dust. At the time the ship was more than 2,000 miles from Chicago.

THE PREMIER ON HIS TRAVELS. ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION IN WELLINGTON AND SOUTH BRUCE.

The Hon. Edward Blake went up by the W. G. & B. R. on Thursday. At Drayton a large number of people met at the station to greet him, and an address was read by Mr. Hartney on behalf of the people of the village. On arriving at Clifford, he was met by a large number of people, who accompanied him to a band of music, had turned out to welcome him. He also he was presented with an address, to which he made a suitable reply. Mr. Gibson, M. P. P., of South Bruce also spoke. A large escort and procession was then formed, which proceeded to Midway, seven miles further, where Mr. Blake remained over night. The people adjourned to the Hall, where speeches were made by Mr. Blake and Mr. Gibson, and a resolution expressing confidence in Mr. Blake and the Government was passed.

Next day (Friday) Mr. Blake and his party reached Walkerton, accompanied by a string of teams nearly a mile in length, which was formed by the people east of Walkerton on their way in. The Hon. Mr. Cameron also arrived by way of Mount Forest. The nomination took place at 12 o'clock, when Mr. Blake, Mr. Cameron and Mr. Gibson were proposed. Mr. Blake in the course of his speech said the only object he had in going into the Ministry was to endeavor to carry out those principles for which, while in opposition, they had contended, and pointed out many of the subjects which would be included in their policy. He stated that, though not compelled to resign his seat in the House, he felt it but a matter of justice to his constituents that they should have an opportunity of pronouncing on his candidature in the accepting of office. He concluded with stating that he had every confidence of the result so long as he maintained the cause he had, and said that such was his confidence that he would be quite willing to go down to Toronto and leave Mr. Cameron to canvass the county in his own interests. Mr. Cameron spoke in support of the late Government, after which he and Mr. Gibson withdrew, and Mr. Blake was then declared elected by acclamation.

THE POLITICAL RECORD. Four of the ministers—Messrs. Blake, Gow, Scott and Mackenzie—have been returned by acclamation; Mr. Crooks will walk the course unopposed, Mr. Harman having positively declined to run; and Mr. McKellar will also doubtless be returned by acclamation. Such a clean sweep shows conclusively that the Blake Administration is everywhere popular and strong. Ministers in every section of the country have received flattering ovations, and the Premier's journey to South Bruce was like the march of a conqueror. Such thorough and hearty approval of the new Government cannot but be pleasing to its members, as well as to every true friend of the Reform party. At no period in its history has that party succeeded to power under more favorable auspices, and at no time has it had the prospect and opportunity of doing so much for the country. And we are satisfied that the anticipations thus formed will not be disappointed.

Mr. Scott's speech to his constituents—the most important part of which we give to-day—deserves a careful perusal. After explaining his position with regard to the Speaker'ship, he most effectually demolished the statements made by the Opposition organs, that the new Government was a Coalition. He said that "his sentiments, as far as the Government of Ontario was concerned, were in perfect accord and in perfect harmony with those of that Government. He did not hesitate to state that the Government was no Coalition." This we should think would put a quietus to the blatant assertions of the organs that the new Government is as much a "Patent Combination" as the defunct one.

WEST MIDDLESEX. MR. MACKENZIE ELECTED BY ACCLAMATION. The nomination for West Middlesex came off at Mount Brydges on Friday. Besides Mr. Mackenzie, Mr. A. P. Macdonald and others were nominated, but they all withdrew, and Mr. Mackenzie was declared elected by acclamation.

WEST NORTHUMBERLAND. At the close of the different polls in West Northumberland the voting stood as follows—Haldimand township, Mr. Fisher's majority, 67; Hamilton, Mr. Fisher, 15; Alnwick, Mr. Gifford, 46; Cobourg, Mr. Gifford, 143, making Capt. Gifford's majority 48. There was great excitement during the day, both sides working hard. Mr. Fisher is ahead in the three front wards of Haldimand, 70; in two wards of Hamilton, 55. Mr. Gifford, in Cobourg, had a majority of 149 at the close of the election.

OVATION TO MR. MCKELLAR.—The Hon. Mr. McKellar, on reaching Chatham on Saturday last received quite an ovation from his friends and supporters. A complimentary address was presented to him, a procession was formed, in which was a transparency representing the ex-grinder's dismay at the "Resolution" of the grindstone, and one or two other appropriate devices, occupied a prominent place in the procession, and was the subject of much merriment.

THE PRICE OF TIN.—An editorial in the London Times, with reference to the advance in the price of tin, says: Tin has now reached the highest price known to the oldest tin buyers in Cornwall, and there are a few whose experience extends over half a century. There is a general opinion in well informed quarters that at present every thing points to higher prices. Concerning copper there is now a great deal of excitement.

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES BY TELEGRAPH

Chicago Councillors in Trouble.

A New American Iron-Clad.

Railway Accident.

Death of Mrs. Laura Fair.

Chicago, Jan 5.—The Grand Jury today brought in new bills of indictment against ex-Aldermen Montgomery, Walsh and McAdams, for offering to receive from the citizens named sums varying from $2,000 to $5,000 for putting pet schemes through the Common Council. Other members of the Council are to be served in the same manner. Washington, Jan 4.—Mahopac, the iron clad, was officered to-day. Other vessels will soon be placed in commission. It is supposed that the vessels now preparing are designed to strengthen the North Atlantic Fleet, so as to guard American ships from molestation by the Spanish cruisers, care being taken to select competent commanders, who will carry out the protection policy of the Government.

Philadelphia, Jan 5.—President Grant is enjoying a quiet visit here. A formal reception takes place to-morrow at the Commercial Exchange, when they say Boutwell will deliver his views on direct importation. Turners, N. Y. Jan 6.—At half-past six last night, as the Orange County Express train on the Erie Railroad was approaching the Junction one mile east of here it came upon a misplaced switch and ran off the track. None of the passengers were seriously injured, but a number of them were bruised slightly.

New York, Jan 6.—The Steven Battery, so many years in course of construction, is now finished so far as it can be in its present position, and is ready to be launched. A San Francisco despatch, dated Jan 5, and published in a Western exchange, says that Mrs. Laura De Fair, the convicted murderer, died in prison in that city on Saturday, Dec 30th. No particulars given.

Lawrence Gorman, of this city, has been fined five dollars for assailing the partner of his joys and sorrows. When people become partners in joy and sorrow the implied understanding should be faithfully adhered to. It is evident that when the male partner wallops the female partner he forces upon her a sorrow in which he declines to participate, and grasps a supreme joy from which she is usually excluded. It is proper that he should forfeit five dollars. In aggravated cases even six would not be too much.—San Francisco News Letter.

DIED.

NOTICE.—On the 5th inst, at his residence on the Elora Road, where he had resided for the last 30 years, John Norris, sr., aged 82 years. Friends and acquaintances are requested to attend his funeral on Sunday, the 7th inst, at 3 o'clock, p.m., without further notice. LOCKE.—In Guelph, on the 6th inst, of congestion of the lungs, Ella Francis Menzies, only daughter of E. A. and Maggie Locke, aged 1 year and 7 months. The funeral will take place from her father's residence, Cork Street, to-morrow at half-past 3 p.m. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend without further notice. ROBINSON.—At Guelph, on the 4th inst, Edward John Robinson, aged 29 years.

Betts's Capsule Patents. TO prevent INFRINGEMENTS, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that BETTS'S NAME IS ON EVERY CAPSULE HE MAKES for the principal merchants in England and France, thus enabling vendors, purchasers, and consumers, not only to identify the genuineness of the Capsule, but likewise the contents of the vessel to which it is applied. The Low Chamberlain, in his judgment, said that the Capsules are not used merely for the purpose of the ornament, but that they are serviceable in protecting the wine from injury, and ensuring its genuineness. CHAPTER X.
A NIGHT OF AGONY—A VISIT TO GLENFRUIE—A TALK OF SORROW.

There was no rest that night for David Bridgenorth. The place he had come to was a place where little rest was expected by him.

When looking forward to this visit to Kilman and the shores of the Holy Loch he had not thought it possible that anything could occur there which would enter as an influencing power upon the one overwhelming sorrow of his life, to which he anticipated
he would give himself up with a mournful bitterness which nothing could disturb.

He did not undress; but while the few hours of the darkness of the summer night lasted he lay on the bed tossing in his uneasiness. Then when the early dawn stole into the room, enabling him to see its limits and the objects it contained, he rose and paced it to and fro, relieved at least in this, that he could pass the first and worst hours of his new grief alone, undisturbed by the annoying presence of Jasper Jaquin.

USEFUL INFORMATION.—It is proved that olive oil administered internally is an excellent remedy for the gout, and is also beneficial in paralysis and epilepsy. It is also the best remedy for rheumatism, colds and colic, and the removal of generally, there is nothing like "Canadian Pain Destroyer." It is the most reliable remedy. For sale by Druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cents per bottle.

Dr S Jacobs, on Aphonia, or loss of voice.—Orange St., St John, N. B., 1869.—Mr Fellows.—Sir: I am bound to award the palm of merit to the preparation of Hypophosphites discovered by you. I had occasion to use it myself in a case of Aphonia, which would not yield to regular treatment, and am happy to say, it proved to be all that you claimed for it, having acted with expedition and entire satisfaction. I feel called upon to publish the fact, that the profession may avail themselves of a remedy in your "Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites." Yours, very truly, S JACOBS, M. D.

The Ven. Archdeacon Scott, of Dunham, Canada East, says that he suffered from Dyspepsia more than twenty-five years, but that three weeks use of the Peruvian Syrup (an Iron Tonic), has benefited him so wonderfully that he can hardly persuade himself of the reality, and people who know him are astonished at the change.

WORTHY OF NOTE.—An exchange says there is scarcely a day passes that we do not hear, either from persons coming into our office or in some other way, of the success of "Johnson's Anodyne Liniment" in the cure of coughs and colds, so prevalent about town just now.

BREAKFAST—EPPE'S COCOA.—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many a heavy doctor's bill.—Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. Each packet is labelled "James Epps & Co. Homoeopathic Chemists, London." Also, makers of Epps's Milky Cocoa (Cocoa and Condensed Milk).

FELLOWS COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES

All life-endowed bodies, whether they be Beasts, Birds, Reptiles, Insects, or even Zoophytes, and subjects of the Vegetable Kingdom are governed by vital force, which binds all the springs of existence, and as nothing can survive from destruction when this principle leaves them, the discovery of means whereby vitality may be sustained in the living body is in itself a boon to the world.

Modern Chemistry has ventilated the question and discovered the ingredients constituting the Brain, muscles, and nerves, and has by introducing these ingredients in proper proportions the brain and nervous system are strengthened.

Thus, then, substantially the basis on which FELLOWS'S HYPOPHOSPHITES is built, its direct action is upon the Brain, the Brain and Nervous System, and the Muscles, Strengthening the Nerves, it causes the rapid distribution of Vital Blood in the Muscular Organs of the Body.

It restores the Stomach, Heart and Liver, Strengthening the Action of the Stomach and Bowels, and enabling the Lungs to be fully inflated with Oxygen.

It is adapted for all cases of Weakness and Emaciation, whether arising from a Scanty Life, a tropical climate, from fever, or debility from any cause, and is efficacious in Pulmonary Consumption, many confirmed cases having been cured and all benefited, where its use has been continued over a fortnight.

In Bronchitis it is a remedy, and in Asthma it gives relief where every other remedy fails.

For Nervous Debility it stands unrivalled, and may be used with confidence in all cases.

As this is entirely distinct and different from every other preparation of Hypophosphites, be careful to ask for FELLOWS'S SYRUP, and take no other.

Wife to Husband—Charley, I wish when you are in the village to-day that you would step into the Drug-Store and buy a bottle of the Pain-Killer. Be sure and get the genuine made by Perry Davis & Son.

Husband—Wife, on earth do you intend doing with the Pain-Killer, my dear?
 Wife—Paddy caught a severe cold last night, can hardly speak, he is so hoarse, and George has had the toothache since yesterday morning, and yourself with the rheumatism. If what everybody says can be believed, the Pain-Killer will cure these complaints and such a house as this we are always in trouble, and it would be a perfect God-send if we could find something to cure our little troubles.

Husband—Well, Mary, anything for a quiet home, we will try the Pain-Killer.

The Pain-Killer is an internal medicinal remedy for pain. For internal pain, Croup, Spasms, Sudden Colds and Bowed diarrhoeas, a few drops in water will give immediate relief. As a liniment it is without an equal, it stops pain almost instantly. Be sure and get the genuine, made by Perry Davis & Son, and sold
