The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Library of the Public
Archives of Canada

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

La bibliothèque des Archives
publiques du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

ABSTRACT, &c.

IN GEORGIA,

THE Estates, Real and Personal, of British Subjects, including DEBTS due to them, are confiscated, and vested in the King.

IN SOUTH CAROLINA,

BRITISH Subjects are restrained from recovering their DEBTS, otherwise than by Instalments of One-fifth Part thereof annually, for five Years.

IN NORTH CAROLINA,

PERSONS owing Allegiance to the King of Great Britain, are adjudged guilty of High Treason against that State, and shall suffer Death and Forfeiture of Estate.

IN VIRGINIA,

THE Estates of British Subjects, adherents to the Cause of Great-Britain, are sequestered, and Debtors indemnified against such their Creditors, on paying the DEBTS by them owing into the Loan Offices. And in 1787, by an Act of the same Legislature, certain British Subjects are prohibited from entering into the State, under the Penalties therein mentioned. Notwithstanding by the 5th Article of the Definitive Treaty, it is agreed, that they shall have Liberty to go to any Part or Parts of the said States, and therein to remain Twelve Months unmolested in their Endeavours to obtain the Restitution of their Estates, Rights, and Properties.

IN MARYLAND,

ALL British Property is confiscated, and a Mode pointed out to collect the DEBTS due to British Subjects.

IN PENNSYLVANIA,

THE Property of British Subjects is confiscated, and Debtors indemnified, on paying the DEBTS they owe to such Subjects into the Treasury of the State.

IN NEW JERSEY,

THE Commissioners of Forfeiture are empowered and directed, to take Possession of the Estates, Real and Personal, of the Adherents to the Crown of Great Britain, and to receive the

DEBTS due to them for the Use of the State.—
All Payments of such DEBTS are declared valid, and bar the Creditor from any Recovery.

IN NEW-YORK,

THE Estates, Real and Personal, of the Adherents to the Crown of Great Britain, are confiscated to, and vested in the State. And British Subjects not attainted, who were resident in Places within the Protection of his Majesty's Troops, are precluded from recovering any Interest on DEBTS contracted before the First of January, 1776, till the First Day of May, 1786.

IN RHODE ISLAND,

ALL the Estates and Interests of such Persons as joined or took Protection under his Majesty's Forces, are forfeited to the Use and Benefit of the State.

Under these Laws, the Estates of his Majesty's faithful Subjects, particularly the American Merchants, have been seized, confiscated, sold, and Debts due to them have been paid into the respective State Treasuries; and Creditors are indemnified against their Creditors, and the Loyal Subject is thereby thus precluded from any Possibility of recovering the Debts due to him before the American War, or receiving any Compensation therefor, but from the Justice of the British Nation. And

These Laws being unrepealed, are in their Operation directly in the Face of the Treaty of Peace. By the 4th, 5th, and 6th Articles thereof

A R T I C L E I V .

It is agreed, That Creditors on either Side shall meet with no lawful Impediment to the Recovery of the full Value in Sterling Money, of all bona fide Debts heretofore contracted."

Two Actions have been commenced and tried, one in North Carolina, the other in Pennsylvania.

Fird

First.

The First wherein George Rome and Richard Rome were Plaintiffs, and Mary Dalling, Executrix of Samuel Dalling, deceased, Defendant.

This was an Action of DEBT on a Bond executed by the Testator, on the 12th November, 1775, and tried in the Court of Common Pleas in Chowan County, in June Sessions, 1788.

The Defendant pleaded in Bar, the Plaintiffs' Disability to recover their DEBT, as they had left the State in the Year 1777, without taking the Oaths required by the Act of Assembly, and that therefore the said Bond was void and of no force in Law. To this Plea the Plaintiffs, in their Replication, stated the 4th, 5th, and 6th Articles of the Provisional Articles of Peace between Great Britain and the Thirteen United States.—And further, that by an Act of Assembly of the said State of North Carolina, passed in the Year 1787, the Articles of the Definitive Treaty between the United States of America and the King of Great Britain, were declared to be the Law of the Land, and that the Courts of Law and Equity were in all Causes and Questions cognizable by them to judge accordingly.

In

In this Suit the Court gave Judgment for the Defendant, in the Words following: " Wherefore the Record and Matters aforesaid having been seen, and by the Worshipful the Justices here fully understood, and all and singular the Premises being examined, and mature Deliberation being had thereon, for that it seems to the said Justices here, that the said Plea of the said George and Richard Rome before pleaded, and the Matters therein contained, are not sufficient in Law, to have and maintain the Action of the aforesaid George and Richard Rome against the said Mary Dalling, Executrix aforesaid; THEREFORE it is considered, that the aforesaid George and Richard take nothing by their Writ aforesaid, but that they, and their Pledges of Prosecuting (to wit) John Doe and Richard Roe, be in Mercy for their false Complaint; and that the aforesaid Mary, Executrix aforesaid, go thereof without Day, &c. And it is further considered, that the aforesaid Mary, Executrix aforesaid, do recover against the said George and Richard, the Sum of Five Pounds Currency, for her Costs and Charges by her about her Defence in this Behalf sustained, adjudged by the Court here to the said Mary, with her Consent, according

Secor

“ cording to the Form of the Act of Assembly “ in that Case made and provided ; and that the “ said Mary may have Execution thereof, and “ that the Clerk of Court do issue Execution “ accordingly, &c.”

The Plaintiffs, who were Merchants, are Natives of Great Britain.—George Rome resided at Rhode Island many Years before the War, and Richard Rome in North Carolina.—They were both Loyal and faithful Subjects, firmly attached to his Majesty and the British Government ; and have Debts due to them in North-Carolina, but by this Determination they are precluded from all possible Hope of recovering any Part of those Debts.

Second.

In Pennsylvania.—Abiathar Camp, a Native, and formerly an Inhabitant of Connecticut, brought an Action against James Lockwood, in the Court of Common Pleas for the County of Philadelphia.—The Opinion of the Court, as to the Plaintiff's Right to maintain such Action, was delivered by President Shippen, in these Words :—“ The 4th Article of the Treaty of Peace, which directs that Creditors on either Side shall meet with no lawful Impediments to the Recovery of all bona fide Debts “ there.

“ theretofore contracted, is most certainly con“ fined to real British Subjects on the one Side, “ and the Citizens of America on the other, and “ has always been so construed. As to the Re“ stitution of Estates, Rights and Properties “ already confiscated, it is not required by the “ Treaty to be done, even to real British Sub“ jects : It is agreed indeed by the Fifth Ar“ ticle, that Congress shall recommend it to the “ several Legislatures to provide for such a Re“ stitution. As to those of another Descrip“ tion, they have Liberty given them by the “ Treaty to reside Twelve Months in the United “ States, to solicit a Restitution and Composi“ tion with the Purchasers of their Estates, and “ Congress is to recommend to the States that “ they be restored, on the Money being re“ funded which was paid for them ; but no Acts “ for those Purposes have been passed by the “ Legislatures, in Consequence of any such “ Recommendations. Indeed the ample Pro“ vision made for these People in England, “ seems to have been considered by the Go“ vernment there, as an Act of Justice, for not “ having been able to obtain a Restitution for “ them by the Treaty.—For these Reasons we “ are of Opinion that Abiathar Camp is not “ such a Person as has a Right to sue for and “ recover

“ recover this Debt, already vested by Confisca“ tion in the State of Connecticut.”

From these Adjudications, the Non Repeal of the Laws confiscating Debts, as well as other Property, the Debts due and paid into the Treasuries or Loan Offices of the different States, and the Indemnity that is by Law afforded to the American Subject, Debtor to the Loyal Creditor, it evidently appears that no other Mode of Relief can be obtained but through the Justice and Humanity of the British Nation, to whom the Sufferers now apply for that Relief which they are refused in the States of America.

Another Circumstance may not be unworthy of Attention, namely, that Gentlemen who during the late War, from their Loyalty and Attachment to his Majesty and the British Government, accepted Commissions in the King's Service, have been made responsible in their private Capacities for Property taken by the Army during the War, and when on Duty in an Enemy's Country.

Many Actions, by Attachment, and otherwise, have been commenced against the Servants of the the Crown in North Carolina, and particularly against Colonel John Hamilton, who commanded a Provincial Corps, for Property used, seized, or destroyed, belonging to the Subjects of that State, during the Time he was under the Orders of, and with the Army commanded by Lord Cornwallis and other General Officers; the Plaintiffs in such Actions have recovered Judgments against Colonel Hamilton, payable out of his confiscated Property, for Acts done in the Execution of his Duty, and in Obedience to the Orders of his superior Officer.

chap. 94.

By " *An Act to amend an Act entitled, " An Act
" relative to Debts due to Persons within the Enc-
" my's Lines ;" and another Act entitled, " An Act
" to explain and amend the Act entitled, " An Act
" relative to Debts due to Persons within the Enemy's " Lines, passed the 12th July, 1782 ;"*

Sect. 1.

It is Enacted, " That all Persons described " in the Fifth Section of the said first mentioned
" Act, and the Executors and Administrators
" of such Persons, indebted by simple Contract,
" Bill single or penal, or any other Obligation,
" Mortgage, Security, or Demand whatsoever, to " any Person or Persons described in the said
" Fifth Section of the Act aforesaid, or the Ex" ecutors or Administrators of such Person or " Persons, shall be and hereby are discharged
" from any Interest which may have become due
" upon any such Contract, Bill, Obligation, Mort- " gage or Securities, since the First day of Janu" ary, 1776, inclusively, to the First day of
" May, 1786."

Proviso, That this Clause shall not operate as a Discharge of any Interest which may have accrued on any Bill, &c. executed since the First day of January, 1777.

And

And it is further Enacted, " That the said Sect.
 " Persons so indebted as aforesaid, their Exec" cutors or Administrators, shall be obliged to " pay the Debts or Sums by them owing (after " such Deduction of Interest as aforesaid) to
 " the Person or Persons aforesaid, their Execu" tors or Administrators, in the lawful Current " Money of this State, in Three Yearly Instal" ments, and not otherwise, to wit, One-
 " Third Part thereof on or before the First day " of May, 1788. Another Third Part there-
 " of on or before the First day of May, 1789 :
 " and the other Third Part thereof on or " before the First day of May, 1790, with In" terest upon the Amount of such Debts or " Sums now due (after such Deduction as afore" said) from the said First day of May, 1786,
 " any Law, Contract, or Usage to the Con" trary thereof in any wise notwithstanding."

Proviso, That in case Default shall be made in the Payment of either of the said Yearly Instalments, and not sooner, it shall and may be lawful for the Creditor to prosecute for his Debt or Demand, but that there shall not be levied by Virtue of any Execution upon any Judgment, Sentence, or Decree thereupon obtained, any other or greater Sum than the Amount of the Instalment or Instalments, with the Interest thereon, in respect to which Default shall have been made, and no Foreclosure of any Mortgage shall operate as a Bar to any Equity of Redemption, till after the 1st of May, 1790; but it shall be lawful in every such Case for the Chancellor to direct a Sale of so much of the mortgaged Premises as will be sufficient to satisfy the Instalment or Instalments which shall have become due, and the Interest thereon.
