Edison Predicts Great Possibilities For Nova Scotia Coal STRIKE IN GERMAN CAUSES BATTLE

COAL MINES TO GENERATE ELECTRICITY

Electrical Wizard Sees the Work Day Cut to Four Hours.

GIVES AN INTERVIEW Edison Says Naming Ford President Will Spoil Good Man.

(Canadian Press.) New York, Oct. 18.—Thomas A. Edison, electrical wizard, in one of the first interviews he has ever given newspapers, said yesterday that within a very few years coal would be transformed into electricity at the mines and distributed throughout the country in high power transmission lines, doing more quickly and efficiently the work now performed by the fuel after long haulage and many handlings. Transportation costs and the various other charges now connected with getting fuel energy to the consumer would thus be obviated, he said. He added that he recently had discussed the problem with a group of Nova Scotia power men.

Reduce Work Day to Four Hours. He then turned to the prediction made recently by Charles P. Steinmetz, inventor connected with the General Electric Company, that electricity eventually would reduce the working day to four hours. With this opinion Mr. Edison agreed.

The interview was an impromptu affair, held after Mr. Edison had appeared as guest of honor at a luncheon. Commenting on the unpopularity of new ideas, Mr. Edison declared that it took from seven to forty years from the initial demonstration of a beneficial device to its ultimate acceptance. Ford Spoiled If President. As to the presidential possibilities of his friend, Henry Ford, he declared that it would "spoil a good man" if the nation sent him to the White House.

THINKS HE'S LAST OF LIGHT BRIGADE

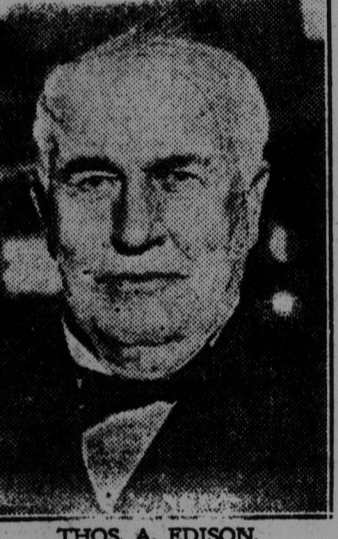

Sergeant in New Bedford, Mass., Tennyson Right About It.

New Bedford, Oct. 18.—Sergeant William T. D. Taylor, of Elm street, this city, believes he is the only man alive today who took part in the world famous "Charge of the Light Brigade" at Balaclava, during the Crimean War. Tennyson wrote that the brave 600 rode into "the mouth of Hell." Sergeant Taylor agrees that England's immortal band was not far out of the way in his description of the charge in which he and his comrades participated. On the famous dash through the enemy lines, when men died on all sides in the rain of lead and iron, Sergeant Taylor was unscathed. Sergeant Taylor was also through the Sepoy rebellion and was severely wounded while rescuing his captain under gun fire. On another occasion he lay seven days on the field before being picked up. He is now 83 years of age and very active, his only infirmity being near-sightedness. For 44 years he was employed as a laborer in this city by a well known family. In 1922 he met with an accident which prevented him from working in his usual active manner and since that time he has been retired.

WILL BE HEARD OF IN FRENCH CHAMBER

Paris, Oct. 18.—President Millerand's speech at Evreux on last Sunday, in which he advocated a revision of the French constitution to increase the stability of the government, will have a repercussion in parliament. The president's address has caused the powers of the chief executive should be increased. Paul Aubriot, a deputy for the department of the Seine, has served notice in order to apply the program elaborated by the president of the republic, notably the part dealing with revision of the constitution. The president's address has caused much comment in view of his expressed opinion when nominated that the powers of the chief executive should be augmented. The Socialist and Communist parties are raising the question of "dictatorship" while those of the extreme right endorse the president's policy.

Inquiry Opens At Fredericton

Fredericton, Oct. 18.—The Royal Commission in pulpwood opened its hearings here at the Court House at 10:30 a. m. There were very few in attendance. The first witness who gave evidence before the commission was Gordon Grant of Fredericton, a pulpwood buyer for the Eastern Pulp Co. who, in response to the usual inquiry from the chairman, said he was opposed to an embargo. His reasons were similar to those given elsewhere that it would seriously affect many small farmers who make a considerable part of their income from pulpwood.

FOUNDER'S DAY WELL OBSERVED

Special Exercises at Mount Allison University, Sackville.

DEGREES GIVEN

Oration of the Day Delivered by Dr. H. A. Powell of St. John.

Sackville, N. B., Oct. 18.—Founder's Day ceremonies at Mount Allison today proved to be of unusual interest. An outstanding feature of the excellent programme was an oration by H. A. Powell, St. John, who dwelt at some length upon progress which had been made through the ages by the human race. He pointed out many reasons for optimism and stressed the important part played by education in development of civilization. Mount Allison had contributed largely to the public life of America. Mr. H. A. Powell paid a warm and scholarly tribute to the founder of Mount Allison. Dr. Powell also eulogized those who have contributed to the worth of the university, and spoke wholeheartedly in support of the new president, Dr. Geo. Treisman, whose inauguration will take place this afternoon. Dr. Powell in tracing the history of Mount Allison remarked that in January 1858, C. F. Allison proposed to the New Brunswick legislature that a site be purchased and that a college building be erected thereon for an academy, four years later the suggestion having been acted upon by Mount Allison College. The building was opened. That was the beginning of the institutions that now adorn College Hill. In 1854 Mt. Allison female branch was opened. Rev. George J. Bond of Halifax, was chairman and those taking part in the programme were Rev. George A. Ross of Hampton and Rev. Dr. Watson of Sackville. Many visitors were present and the ceremonies were most impressive and inspiring. Following Dr. Powell's oration, a procession of regents, faculty students and visitors proceeded to the grave of the founder, Charles F. Allison, where evergreen was placed upon the grave. At a special convocation this afternoon honorary degrees were conferred as follows: Doctor of Laws, Arthur Stanley MacKenzie, President of Dalhousie University, Halifax; Raymond Clark Archibald, Brown University; John Clarence Webster, Sheldale, N. B.; Doctor of Divinity, Douglas Blis Henneon, Wolfville, N. S.; Samuel Howard, Murray Harbor, P. E. I.

Lloyd George To Continue Speeches

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Recovered from the slight cold and fatigue which kept him idle yesterday, Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George, was time Premier of Great Britain will resume his activities today, going to Springfield for a visit to the tomb of Abraham Lincoln. He was to give an address there. After his speech last night to an audience of ten thousand in the International Amphitheatre at the stockyards, the British statesman immediately returned to the hotel suite in which he had been immured all day, and retired.

Teachers Institute Meets In Newcastle

Newcastle, N. B., Oct. 18.—The opened here at ten o'clock this morning President H. Sterling Wood in the chair. G. H. Harrison, reading by Dorothy Nicholson; the ethical problem in education, by Rev. L. H. McLean of Newcastle. No doubt I shall be taken to task by certain members of my party, but I consider it is the duty of both Progressive and Labor to join hands, especially at present, and break this iniquitous party machine which the government is making wrong use of.

Opposes Muzzle For Politicians

Winnipeg, Oct. 18.—Both the Progressives and the Labor party wish the people to be properly represented at Ottawa, and "not have their mouths muzzled by a party machine," declared Miss Agnes MacPhail Progressive member for Southeast Grey, in an interview here yesterday. Miss MacPhail spoke here last night in support of Ald. A. A. Heaps, Labor candidate in the North Winnipeg election, and left later for Toronto. "The party machine," said Miss MacPhail, "must be broken. That is why I, a Progressive, am supporting Mr. McFarlane; composition of an order to task by certain members of my party, but I consider it is the duty of both Progressive and Labor to join hands, especially at present, and break this iniquitous party machine which the government is making wrong use of."

Toronto, Oct. 18.—A Globe news item says: The unexpected return of Graham A. Bell, deputy minister of railways, to Canada for a short stay has caused quite a stir among the Toronto officials of the C. N. R. The vice presidency in charge of the railway has been vacant since Mr. Bell returned to the department of railways, and reports now indicate that he has been asked again to become Sir Henry Thornton's financial adviser. Mr. Bell has had a large share in Canadian National Railway affairs.

RUSSIA IS GETTING SOLDIERS IN TRIM

Call To Arms For Training as Significant Cartoon Appears in Official Paper

Moscow, Oct. 18.—Soviet Russia yesterday called up the three military classes of 1898, 1899 and 1900 for territorial army training. Simultaneously there appeared in the official newspaper, Izvestia, a striking cartoon depicting a stern-visaged red soldier watching the Polish border, with the caption: "They are risking it to pass the frontier of my patrie." The calling up of the territorialists is in line with the long contemplated military training plan and probably has no particular significance, but it is obvious from declarations made on all sides that the Moscow Government, while seeking to avoid participation in the German struggle, nevertheless is taking no chances that it will be surprised for eventualities. This party got work near Carol, Man. Tell of Experiences. Speaking of their experiences there he did not think that any man of ordinary physical stamina has any complaint to make. He shocked 12 acres of grain a day, and some of my men did as much as 16, and are none the worse for it. The treatment on the whole was fine. Of course we had to look after our own interests but that was to be expected. The captain added that coming down on the train there were 12 harvesters each with one hundred dollars in his pocket, who had complained about the difficulty of securing work, and had got their passage home. Moreover they were boasting about it.

IS AFTER DEMPSEY

Canadian Pugilist is Contender For Crown of World's Champion.

New York, Oct. 18.—A Canadian contender for Jack Dempsey's crown may arise from a series of elimination tests expected to take place during the winter season. The first important encounter having a bearing on the heavyweight ring situation is likely to be between Floyd Johnson of Iowa and Jack Renault, the Canadian champion. Johnson has been improving steadily since his knockout at the hands of Jess Willard last May, while Renault has added several victims to his list. The winner of a Johnson-Renault bout probably would be matched with the victor of the proposed contest between Georges Carpentier and Tom Gibbons.

Cases In Court At Newcastle

Newcastle, N. B., Oct. 18.—In the County Court here today before Judge McLatchy the case of William Stewart and Lazarre Lebrton, alleged theft of a horse from Bertha Harding, Tabusinat, is being heard. This case arose over the seizure of a horse under execution. The horse was locked in the barn but Constable Stewart, broke the lock on the barn and seized the horse. The execution was not in court this morning and the sheriff was sent to Tabusinat for it and the court adjourned until 2 p.m. In the case of John Cinisich alleged theft of nets the jury were unable to agree on a verdict and the prisoner was released on bail.

8 THOUSAND HARVESTERS GIVEN JOBS

Robb Says All Men Who Came to Harvest Will Remain.

NO COMPLAINTS Men Reported as Saying the Conditions Here are Fine.

(By Canadian Press)

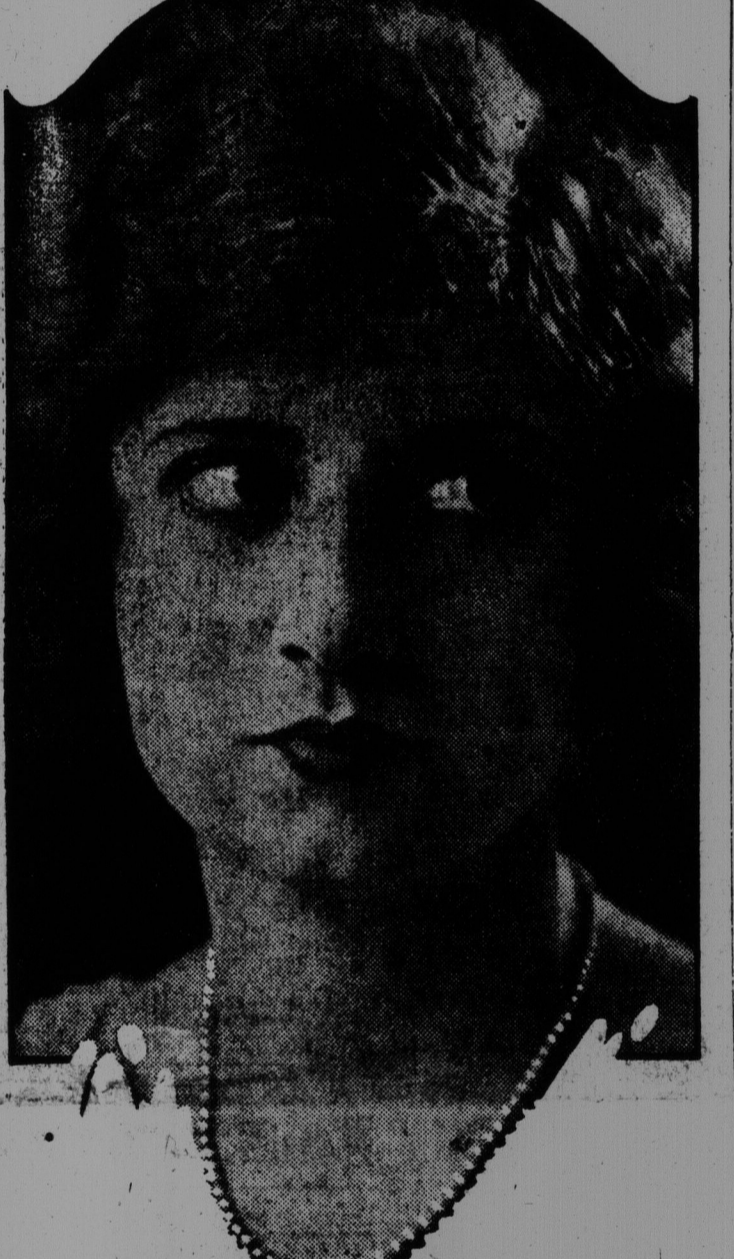

Ottawa, Oct. 18.—The announcement by Hon. J. A. Robb that about 8,000 openings for winter employment have already been found for British harvesters evinces that the great majority of these men can work in Canada throughout the winter, if they are prepared to take ordinary chances. As it is believed that 12,000 harvesters came from the British Isles, it will thus be seen that jobs have been secured for two thirds of them, to say nothing of others who have secured employment through their own efforts. "All the men I brought out have got jobs and will stay in Canada said Captain Northcote-North of Birmingham, a writer and lecturer, who brought out 23 harvesters men of his old company, and who passed through the city on his way home from England. This party got work near Carol, Man. Tell of Experiences. Speaking of their experiences there he did not think that any man of ordinary physical stamina has any complaint to make. He shocked 12 acres of grain a day, and some of my men did as much as 16, and are none the worse for it. The treatment on the whole was fine. SET FALSE CLUE

Two Auto Bandits Reported at Calgary Probe to Be Myths.

Calgary, Oct. 18.—False reports circulated last night that two automobile bandits had escaped across the international boundary after killing two bank clerks in Calgary, shocked 12 mounted, provincial and city police to marshal their forces in a concerted effort to capture them. It later turned out, however, that the reports received from U.S. authorities referred to highwaymen who wounded Tom Connors, a pool hall manager at Nehalem, Ont., while attempting to rob him of his day's receipts.

Brooklyn Fire That Kills Six People Brings Fortune To Girl

New York, Oct. 18.—Miss Irma Andrews, 18, of 8417 Nineteenth avenue, Brooklyn, was visiting relatives when fire at the Andrews' home killed six persons, including her brother Charles and sister Marjorie. Her mother, Mrs. Lillian I. Andrews, is at Coney Island Hospital seriously injured. One of the dead was Francis L. Fowler, a mining engineer, distant relative of the Andrews family. His will, filed in Brooklyn yesterday, leaves his entire estate to Irma. The value of the estate was not given, but it is believed to be large. The will stated the testator was known in Mexico as Francisco L. Fowler and gave his address as Matamoros, Pa. He was a guest of the Andrews family at the time of the fire. He was 55. He owned oil lands and leases. The will made provision for the care of the girl's mother should she require it.

He invited him to get in, when he produced a revolver, saying: "It's not a ride, it's your money I want." The robber grabbed Lindsay's wallet and fled. Lindsay was fatally wounded.

8 ARE DEAD IN BERLIN FOOD RIOTS

Many Others are Wounded as Result of Mannheim Outbreaks.

WOMEN RAID SHOPS

General Strike Proclaimed as Police Battle in the Streets.

(By Canadian Press.)

London, Oct. 18.—A despatch to the Central News from Berlin says a general strike proclaimed at Mannheim was followed by disturbances which culminated in a street battle between police and strikers. It is added that three persons were killed and fifteen injured. WOMEN IN ATTACK. Gelsenkirchen, Russo Valley, Oct. 18.—A mob of women attacked and badly damaged the administration building of the Mannesmann Iron Works here today. The assault was in protest against the non-payment of wages due the women's husbands. The officials of the works pleaded lack of currency as the reason for their failure to pay the men's wages. The women also raided food shops and afterward visited nearby farms searching for food. In one instance, seizing a peasant's cows, pigs and chickens. Eight Reported Dead. Mannheim, Oct. 18.—Eight persons are reported dead and many others wounded as the result of yesterday's food riots, in Mannheim during which frequent clashes occurred between the demonstrators and the police. The trouble was the outgrowth of the high prices of food, resulting in a general strike and the cutting off of the water, electricity and street car service. A state of siege was declared by the police last night and the streets were cleared at nine p.m. Notorious One in High Position. Dresden, Oct. 18.—Among the notorious Communists who have been given responsible positions in the Saxon Socialist-Communist Government is Heinrich Brandler, late ally and chief aid of Max Hoel, Saxony's "Robin Hood," who is now serving a long term in prison. Hoel's looting and pillaging expeditions, in the course of which he held up banks and set fire to the dwellings of wealthy industrialists, formed one of the picturesque features of Saxony's red regime three years ago. Herr Brandler, who now is installed as chief of the Saxon chancery, was given a five-year term for complicity in Hoel's raids, but never served his sentence. (Continued on page 2, seventh column.)

Ku Klux Leader Ordered To Court

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 18.—Rev. Caleb Hittley, known as the Imperial Kludd, of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, has been ordered to appear in Federal Court here today to answer charges of being "drunk and operating an automobile." A motor cycle officer arrested the Klan official yesterday after, he said, he noticed the minister's auto straggling on Peachtree street, one of the main thoroughfares of the city. The traffic officer said the Rev. Hittley apparently was under the influence of whiskey and that he found two small bottles containing liquor in the machine. The minister declared he had a half pint bottle containing two table-spoons of liquor, and had taken one drink before his arrest.

POOR DOCUMENT M C 203

THE EVENING TIMES-STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1923

PRINCE OF WALES $2 BILLS HERE

First Reached City Today— Only a Few Were Received.

The Dominion Government recently made a new issue of $2 bills, bearing a representation of the Prince of Wales, and the first one to be run off the press was given to His Royal Highness. A small quantity of these new bills reached St. John this morning, and the first of the lot went into the hands of a Times reporter. There was this difference in the circumstances, however—the Prince got his for nothing and the reporter had to pay $2 for his.

The new bills are dated June 23, 1923, and are much more attractive and serviceable than the last issue. The denomination is more clear, the figures being somewhat larger. The face bears an excellent likeness of the Prince in the uniform of the Welsh Guards, while on the back is the Royal arms of Canada, typifying the union of the English, Irish, Scotch and French crests with the Maple Leaf, emblematic of the Dominion.

It was said at the office of the Assistant Receiver General that only a few of the new bills will be sent out until present stocks of the old issue have been depleted.

COP RESCUES DOG FROM HOUSE TOP

The police at times get some peculiar calls for aid or service, but seldom are they called upon to rescue animals from roof-tops. However, this was the nature of a task imposed upon Police-man Dykeman this morning.

The call came from Mrs. Baxter, 22 Richmond street, who said that a dog of unknown ownership had been marooned on the roof of a shed in the rear of her home since yesterday afternoon and was apparently unable to descend.

The policeman found the pup anxiously peering over the edge of the roof. He was informed that the dog was first noticed yesterday night. Patrolman Dykeman at first tried to get a ladder, but none was available on a roof to the shed and by crossing over two or three other buildings, he succeeded in reaching the roof on which the dog was imprisoned, and which was some five or six feet lower than the surrounding buildings. It is believed that the animal got on one of the higher roofs, and from the lower one was unable to return.

He showed his gratitude by following the policeman to Central Station. He bore no license tag, so it was impossible to ascertain his name. He was mangled type leaning toward the black and tan breed.

Man Acquitted of Assault Charge

Halifax, Oct. 18.—George Hutchinson, business man, Dartmouth, who was charged with attempted assault upon Mrs. Reginald Young, also of Dartmouth, on August 28th, just, was acquitted of the charge in the supreme court yesterday.

The jury returned a verdict of not guilty without leaving the court chamber. It was thought to have been a case of mistaken identity.

SHOES INTEREST PARISIENNE MORE THAN GOWNS And They're Not These Short-Vamped, Fancy Pumps Either

(By Marian Hale, NEA Service Writer.)

Paris, Sept. 23.—With the Frenchwoman, hats, shoes and gloves are of greater importance than gowns. It is because of her fastidiousness in the matter of these accessories that careful grooming.

She is willing to pay more for her hats than for her suits, and though much more thrifty than her American sister and much more careful about counting her pennies, she buys the most expensive shoes, having them carefully made to order by her own particular shoemaker.

Though we are accustomed to think of the very short-vamped, fancy shoe as typically French, you notice in Paris that the best dressed women wear very plain pumps on the street, though for evening there is no limit to the gorgousness of their footwear.

For afternoon you see quite as many long vamps in Paris as short ones. Two or three shades of leather are frequently combined in the same shoe. Tan and brown, gray and black, and black and white combinations are very popular.

Buckle Heaps.

There is usually some strapped effect that brings the slipper in closely about the ankle and the straps form the decoration.

The Colonial pump with the cut steel or wooden buckle is always popular in Paris, I am told, since the buckle may be arranged to flatter almost any foot. A short, clumsy foot may be lengthened and made to appear more slender, and a long foot may be shortened by the judicious application of the buckle.

For evening one sees slippers of satin, richly embroidered or jeweled or equipped with glittering buckles arranged in ocellus of ribbon.

DUBLIN HUNGER STRIKE SERIOUS

Several Deaths are Anticipated by Sinn Fein—Release Demanded.

Dublin, Oct. 17.—The proceedings of this, the second day of the convention of the Ard Phia, or Sinn Fein organization, covered the whole of the Republican programme in detail, and throughout the session the votes were unanimous, no divisions having been called for.

The foremost interest in the minds of the delegates proved to be the hunger strike of 485 prisoners in Mountjoy. It was urged that the strike was being used as a lever to force the Government to release the prisoners, many of whom have been in prison for twelve months and whose vitality is alleged to have been lowered through punishments inflicted. These punishments, it was declared included throwing water on the men with hoses and subsequently exposing them to the night air. Apprehension was expressed that shortly there would be numerous deaths among the prisoners. A strike of workmen and a cessation of public entertainments were suggested as means for securing the release of the prisoners. Hundreds of the Sinn Fein were told off today to assemble this evening for an all-night vigil outside the various prisons, where the rosary will be recited and hymns sung.

Altitude is Maintained.

The Government is maintaining its previous attitude on the question of prisoners. It denies the charges of ill-treatment of them. The Government has issued documents for the release of thirteen of the persons in Mountjoy prison, but their release cannot be made effective because all the prisoners are refusing to answer to the roll call of their names.

Among the important resolutions passed today was one protesting against the alleged injustice of the 19th Catholic Bishops toward the rosary, and especially their alleged refusal of the sacraments.

This resolution which was passed unanimously and will be telegraphed to Pope Pius tonight, also requested the Pontiff to exclude Catholics from the rosary. Another resolution passed condemned the alleged murder of officials and others by the Free State Government. It referred especially to the shooting of Rory O'Connor, and Erskine Childers.

Urge De Valera Released.

The immediate release of Eamon De Valera and all the political prisoners was demanded in still another resolution.

Friday week was fixed upon by the convention as a universal fast day among the Republicans as a protest against the further holding of the prisoners. It was decided that pickets should be immediately placed outside moving picture shows and all other places of amusement in order to indicate the seriousness of the situation. The suggestion was then adopted to appeal to the Labor party to lay down tools in order to secure the release of the prisoners. A deputation of eight, including Mr. McLaughlin and Dan Breen, both of whom were recently released from prison, were immediately dispatched to interview the leaders of all sections of the Labor party.

The convention ended this afternoon in order to leave Mansion House free for a concert in aid of prisoners and their dependents tonight.

Marry A Blond? Never! Judge Warns

Frisco Jurist Says Brunette Women With Big Noses and High Cheekbones Make Best Wives.

The news that the best women to marry are those with high cheekbones and large noses will creep into the minds of many a young woman of that type who will be of course delighted. But there may be other fellows to whom a large nose and high cheekbones might not make the most captivating picture to peep at across the breakfast table, says the New York Sun.

The inmost "sign" of a fellow's dream might have hitherto sported a Greek nose, for instance, and rounded cheeks. And one might be reluctant to change that idealized nose for the alluring type of a tapered nose implied by a large nose and high cheekbones.

A judicial divorce expert, however, lays down the dictum that only women of that formidable breed can be trusted to make good and faithful wives. He calls 'em "divorce proof," but doesn't make it quite clear that they're divorce proof because of a profound love of fidelity that is mysteriously associated with their large noses and high cheekbones, or because nobody tempts them into their connubial virtue is at least partly due to some superior effect of their rugged features exercise upon the home breaking class of male persons who are always to be found at the base of a triangle.

The enologist of the large nosed women is Judge Graham of the San Francisco Superior Court, who has presided over a large number of divorce trials and continues to adjudicate them at the rate of 1,200 a year. His observations that you could hang your head in shame at a girl's face, who saves her money, passes up jazz, seldom or never goes to the movies, and refrains from going dippy over a movie star.

Predict Decrease in 1924 Oil Output

Independent Producers Confident That Overproduction About Ended.

New York, Oct. 18.—Recent developments in the oil industry have led to an interesting discussion as to what the industry may expect in the future. It is generally agreed among oil men that the present demoralized situation demands all the attention that the industry can give it. The latest developments in California crude oil have again focused attention on the midcontinent fields, which are at the disadvantage of having to compete with the cheaper California product through a further enlarged price or virtually withdrawal from the market.

Notwithstanding the oil flood of the last few months, California has come from the Pacific Coast wells, the so-called independent companies, including the midcontinent producers, are confident that overproduction has about reached the end and that 1924 will be a readjustment in their favor. In this connection a staff representative of the National Petroleum News says—

"Barrening the possibility of unforeseen factor complicating the situation, the latter half of 1924 will find California without a crude oil surplus of a character capable of exercising great influence upon the remainder of the domestic industry."

"Petroleum engineers and geologists whose duty it is to study conditions and their effect in the California fields, and especially those of the Los Angeles Basin, are generally agreed that Jan. 1, 1924, will find the three major producing pools in Southern California still giving up more than 500,000 barrels of crude oil daily."

"These and other conclusions were brought out in statements before the midyear meeting of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists in Los Angeles and are in a measure, at least, at variance with a statement recently issued by the chairman of the Proving Committee of the Southern California Oil Producers' Executive Committee. That statement gave to Long Beach, Huntington Beach and Santa Fe Springs fields, Jan. 1, next, a production estimated at 415,000 to 465,000 barrels daily, and the California State Mining Bureau, who read a paper before the association on California Oil Production and Reserves, takes the position that these three fields will show between 250,000 and 400,000 barrels daily as far ahead as Jan. 1, and he places a reasonable estimate at 350,000 barrels. He does not believe, he said, that the

RUM SEIZURES IN N. Y. NET $60,000

Six Autos Confiscated and Twenty-eight Prisoners are Taken.

New York, Oct. 18.—Liquor valued at more than $60,000, a quantity of alcohol, six automobiles and 28 prisoners were the results of two prohibition seizures here this week.

The first was by customs service men, who overhauled the schooner Clarendon off Montauk Point. The second was made by police, who surprised twenty-four men transferring liquor from the motor of George Adams, who was on shore at Throg's Neck. The "tip off" on the Mirage came when a patrolman noticed a speeding automobile in Pelham Parkway. He notified a motorcycle policeman, who followed the car to Letner's Dance Hall at Throg's Neck.

Reserves were called and surrounded the building, where 19 men were found. The crew of the yacht cut her adrift, but she piled up on the rocks about 300 yards from shore, where she was later hoisted by members of the crew of a police boat.

As the police were marshalling the 19 prisoners into patrol wagons five men drove up in a taxicab. As they failed to give adequate answers to questions, they were arrested. One of the prisoners, Elton MacBride, of 229 East Second street, Brooklyn, attempted to jump from a window when police broke in. He deared that he and George Adams, of 229 Garfield Place, Brooklyn, another prisoner, had seen two girls to their homes nearby, and were then forced into the dance hall by men who "looked like policemen."

On board the schooner the boarding officials found 500 cases of liquor and a quantity of alcohol in casks. The crew of four were arrested.

The same schooner was held up last May, but no liquor was found on board. The owners were fined, however, for not having proper papers. It is charged by customs officials that the Clarendon runs out to sea with water and returns with liquor.

EIGHT ARE DEAD IN BERLIN FOOD RIOTS

The radical cabinet members are receiving scant courtesy at the hands of the bourgeoisie parties in the Diet, and the result of a clash yesterday. Dr. Zediger was sharply called to order by the presiding officer, who rebuked the Premier for his attack on a democratic deputy.

Stines Stubborn

Dusseldorf, Oct. 18.—Hugo Stines, accompanied by Dr. Peter Kloetner and Dr. Albert Voegeler, called on the inter-allied engineers mission on his visit here yesterday. Director Franzen was absent, so the magistrate saw the assistant director, Mr. Neveland, whom he told in emphatic terms that he could not deliver the twenty per cent outlay of the Ruhr coal mine for the reparations account, as had been proposed by the French and Belgians, unless the Reich guaranteed reimbursement.

A two hour argument failed to move Herr Stines from his position and he left without reaching an agreement with the French official.

Quiet in Berlin.

Berlin, Oct. 18.—There was no recurrence yesterday of Tuesday's food riots in Berlin, in which at least one person was wounded fatally and many were injured when the police charged mobs which had gathered in the vicinity of the Rathaus to protest against excessive prices of foodstuffs and to demand relief from the municipal authorities.

The city authorities were quick to respond to the demands of the unemployed. In order to relieve the distress it was decided today that the fourteen feeding kitchens, at which 20,000 lunches are to be supplied either free or at minimum prices, and also 8,000 free meals are to be distributed daily.

Eighty-four persons arrested during Tuesday's riots are to be brought to trial, charged with breaches of the Government's emergency regulations. It was said yesterday that during the last week 47 bakers' shops in Berlin have been plundered by the unemployed.

Tense in Saxony.

Dresden, Oct. 18.—The Saxon Diet late last night rejected a motion of lack of confidence in the Government by 48 Socialist-Communist votes against 45 votes of the non-Socialist party. The Socialist-Communist Government tried to maintain its authority in Saxony, and General von Mueller, commander of the Reichswehr in the state, is demanding assurance from Premier Zediger that the excess of the military dictatorship will be respected. However, the Saxon Government seems inclined to go its own way and in one notable instance at least the edicts of Von Mueller, have been disobeyed. This was the meeting of the Saxon proletarian defence organizations, which was held against his orders.

Paraffin wax is obtainable in the process of making lubricating oils.

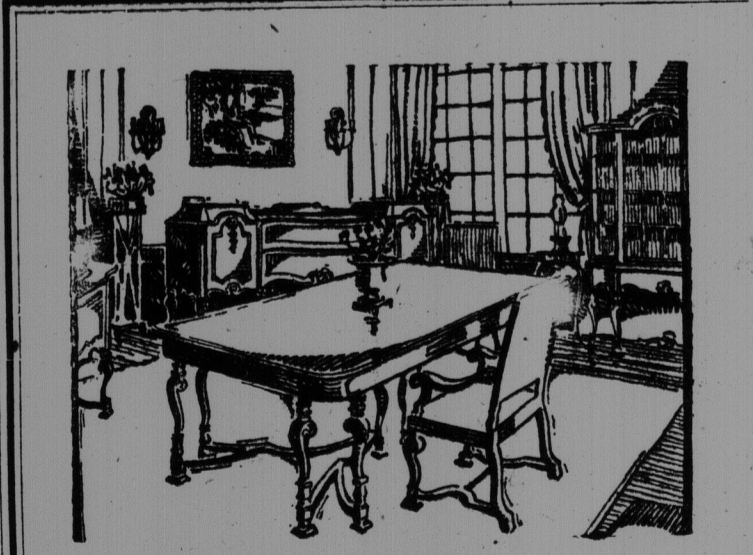

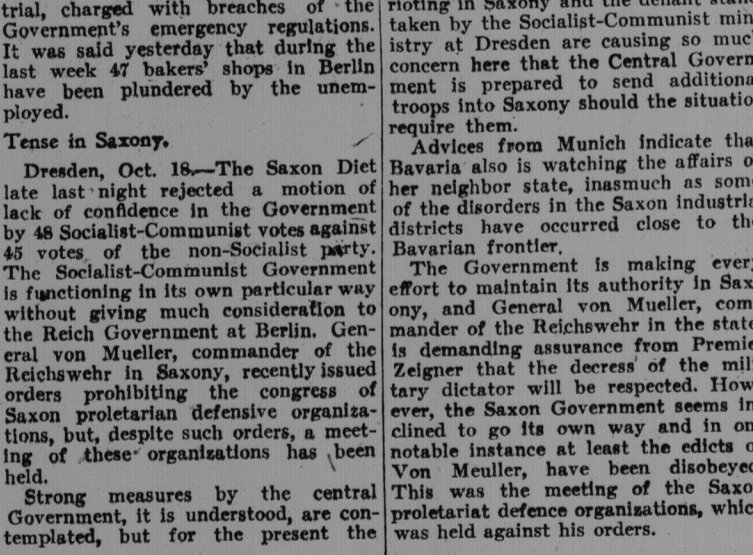

Until 1914 Germany produced the bulk of her own foodstuffs.

Army authorities intend only to utilize Saxon police, who, accordingly, have been placed under control of the military commander, with the warning that disobedience will entail dismissal from the service.

Berlin, Oct. 18.—The frequency of rioting in Saxony and the defiant stand taken by the Socialist-Communist military at Dresden are causing so much concern here that the Central Government is prepared to send additional troops into Saxony should the situation require them.

Havana also is watching the affairs of her neighbor state, inasmuch as some of the disorders in the Saxon industrial districts have occurred close to the Bavarian frontier.

The Government is making every effort to maintain its authority in Saxony, and General von Mueller, commander of the Reichswehr in the state, is demanding assurance from Premier Zediger that the excess of the military dictatorship will be respected. However, the Saxon Government seems inclined to go its own way and in one notable instance at least the edicts of Von Mueller, have been disobeyed. This was the meeting of the Saxon proletarian defence organizations, which was held against his orders.

PINCHOT DEMANDS THAT COOLIDGE END
WHISKEY REBELLION

Calls on Him to Put Down
Modern Insurrection
of "Wets."

Washington, Oct. 17.—Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania, as the chief speaker before the Citizenship Conference here, called upon President Coolidge to take personal charge of the enforcement of national prohibition, as President Washington had taken charge of law enforcement in the days of the whisky rebellion in Pennsylvania.

In his speech, which he read with deliberation, the Governor, who is making prohibition a leading issue in Pennsylvania, handled the subject without mincing words. He declared that Federal officials were encouraging the breaking of the law and that the Federal authorities were responsible for illegal liquor coming into the country, while some enforcement officials were acting as graft collectors. Governor Pinchot suggested that the law could not be enforced until the prohibition enforcement service was taken out of politics.

"Not only has the political hamstringing of the Federal Enforcement Service had its seat in Washington," he said, "but it is notorious that disaffection to the Eighteenth Amendment has been rampant in the capital. Stories are innumerable of the active practice and encouragement of law breaking by officials high in the Government of the United States. We cannot expect other communities to respect and obey the law if the Capital of the Nation itself is a leader among the law-breakers. Washington has set the bad example and it is for Washington to repair the damage."

As he ended this sentence the crowds rose to their feet and cheered. Some of those who listened to the speech read into it an appeal to the dry forces for the campaign which Governor Pinchot may make for the Republican nomination for President in the event that Mr. Coolidge does not emerge from the next Congress with a record which will assure his nomination. Governor Pinchot was told of this interpretation and asked whether he was a candidate for the Presidency. He smiled and denied that the speech had any bearing upon his political fortunes.

The Governor smiled here from Harbourside in his big gray motor car. He spent several hours in his Washington home, off Scott Circle. The Governor saw a number of men prominent in progressive politics, and chatted with others who are now demanding strict enforcement of prohibition.

As he drove up to the Central Hotel, where the meeting was held, he was cheered by many persons collected on the outside. When he walked down the aisle the audience gave him the Chautauqua salute.

With him on the stage were William Jennings Bryan, Henry J. Allen, Governor Farrington of Hawaii and Governor Carl F. Milliken of Maine. The audience numbered 2,000. Governor Pinchot read his speech, and did not depart from his manuscript except to pay several compliments to Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, Assistant General in charge of the prosecution of prohibition and tax law. At the end of his explanation: "We are going to clean up the United States."

TO MAKE IT THOROUGH.

Hon. Mr. Fielding expresses the view that it will not be necessary to appoint a royal commission to delve into the whole question of responsibility for the wrecking of the Home Bank, but evidently his mind is not wholly closed against such a course. Later developments may change his viewpoint, particularly if the authorities charged with the prosecution of the men now under arrest are content with trying these alone. It has been pointed out that while the first responsibility lies with the bank's officials and directors, there is also the matter of the representations made by gentlemen who secured tremendous loans on security which now turns out to be illusory or worthless. The depositors and shareholders are asking whether there was deception or collusion, or both.

The public was by no means satisfied with the outcome of the Merchants' Bank case, and the Ottawa Citizen suggests that as one reason why in the Home Bank matter the responsible authorities will be expected to dig deep. It senses a stiff public demand for a most rigorous prosecution in the present case. "At the present time," it says, "the Government of the province of Ontario, as well as the Federal Government, would seem to be bent upon a real prosecution to the utmost limits. But as the trial develops, it is just possible that so many interlocking interests may be threatened, fear may begin to operate in high places to moderate the enforcement of justice. It will be too late for politics to shield patrons on this occasion, however. The inspectors of Government policy in Montreal and Toronto, as well as the Government itself in Ottawa, need to observe well the signs of the times. Some deep furrows are being ploughed in this Home Bank affair."

CONDITIONS IN HALIFAX.

The formation of a Citizens' League in Halifax for the avowed purpose of helping Mayor Murphy to clean up civic affairs follows recent news of the placing on trial of one or two minor civic employees on charges of dishonesty. The Echo defends the city's credit, which can scarcely be in question, but speaks darkly of civic affairs having come "to the present lamentable pass." What is the situation? The Echo offers these suggestive remarks on the subject:
"The present situation in which the city finds itself, while bad enough, is not nearly so bad as the scandal mongers and sensation hunters would have us believe. It is, however, sufficiently bad to warrant the interest of every citizen in an attempt to remedy it and place the city once more upon a firm financial foundation. The publication of sensational rumors concerning the financial position of the city has already done untold harm, and no doubt will have its reflex action the next time the city requires to borrow money. What is needed now is calm, deliberate and wise thought-out action, with an eye single to the interest of the future welfare of the city. Party politics must be eschewed and policies must be worked out from the point of view of the city's best interests and not in the interest of partisans or sensation mongers."
The people of Halifax are too courageous and resourceful to be daunted by rumors about the city's financial position. There is no reason for thinking there is anything fundamentally wrong with the sister city. Its credit has never been in doubt. If for a time loose methods have crept into civic circles, that is no doubt due to the neglect of a busy citizenship to display sufficient interest and vigilance in connection with civic affairs. What remedy the conditions call for, we may be sure the public spirited people of Halifax will not be long in applying it.

PREFERENCES AND POLITICS.

The Canadian in London just now is witnessing some very lively politics on the part of a group of advanced Imperialists, who would like to be represented in the Dominion by representatives of Great Britain and those of the Dominions in refusing to dictate European policy on the one hand and in for an out and out protection policy on the other. Mr. John W. Dufco, editor of the Manitoba Free Press, who is in England to cover the Conference for his newspaper, gives a picture of the extraordinary devices resorted to by the men who are in a hurry to reform the Empire along lines of their own choosing, and whose favorite scheme is to attribute to Dominion representatives views and desires which are everything but authentic. The ultra-Imperialists are still dreaming of Imperial Federation as they were thirty-five years ago. There would be no great harm in that if they would not keep insisting, in the face of the facts, that the people of Great Britain and of the Dominions are with them.

Mr. Dufco finds Londoners reading daily assurances, wholly unfounded, that the Dominions want all sorts of radical changes and propose to drag the Old Country into their "A Canadian reading in the London papers about what Canada believes and wants is likely to suffer from vertigo," he says. "He cannot recognize his own country from the description. One finds among the ultra way of thinking certain firmly held beliefs acquired no doubt from a too faithful acceptance of the assurances which they constantly find in their favorite newspapers. Thus if you are from the Dominions it follows inevitably that you are an ardent believer in all round Imperial preference and are so disgusted and impatient at reluctance of the Englishman to clap on protective duties that you are ready to resort to strong measures to educate him to a due sense of his Imperial opportunities and obligations."

LLOYD GEORGE AND THE CHURCHES.

Lloyd George's new book, about to be issued, contains a strong and moving appeal to the churches of civilization, urging a combined movement for the spiritual regeneration of Europe, the abolition of old racial hatreds and the furtherance of world harmony. The volume is entitled "Where Are We Going?" and at the close of its first chapter comes the call to the churches, reminding them of their power and their responsibility.
What can the churches do? The former Prime Minister suggests that they can foster the spirit of brotherhood and world righteousness without which there will be no sound and enduring foundation for international concord. "There ought to be," he says, "an international movement of all the churches, Catholic and Protestant. It is difficult to see how this can be done. The divisions in Christendom are too often fatal to common action for the attainment of common aims. They ought to be overcome. In the days of Puritanism and in the days of the covenant the partnership between religion and politics was for us the two great boons of parliamentary liberty and liberty of conscience. When Methodism spurred the conscience of England its influence was felt in the

Grim Law In Our Farthest North

In a jail yard on Herschel Island, northernmost police post on the American continent, a gallows tree of new sawn lumber testifies once more that the Royal Canadian Mounted Police always get their man. "Thou shalt not kill," says the New York Herald-Tribune, on December 7, will be enacted the last grim scene of a conflict of love and passion, hatred and revenge, as cruelly elemental as any drama known to the sombre pages of the ancient Greek tragic stage. It began three years ago and a thousand miles to the eastward of Herschel Island in the Coronation Gulf district, where the tribesmen of the Copper Eskimo live on the dreary rim of the Canadian Arctic north of the Barren Land. It started with the quarrel of a white trader and a tribesman over the possession of an Eskimo woman.

The white man was Otto Binder, who for twenty years had traded and traded along the Arctic trails. His rival was one Ahkhaik, a noted "bad Eskimo" and Binder got the girl, whereupon Ahkhaik shifted the eyes of his desire to Pugnana, a married woman and primitive Arctic justice ruled that the bad man should be taken prisoner and killed. An aged sorcerer, Ekootuk, was the prime mover in this action, and two men, Amotuk and Ulpil, were her aids. The three seized Ahkhaik, who pleaded with the avengers not to stab him to death with their knives, because he dreaded the evil spirits who would send his dismembered body to the very material hell of Eskimo theology. He begged that he might instead be strangled with his own rawhide line, and they accordingly did so. Ahkhaik's wife, a trader, had also paid the penalty for his violation of the North's unwritten law, his wife being a sixteen-year-old named Aik Omiak, who with an Eskimo man, Tetamagana, had also, on nomination by the chief, killed still another tribesman.

With the first news of the outbreak of the vendetta and its trail of deaths, the Royal Mounted Police had been hurrying their dog teams over the ice-bound streams and lakes from their nearest post, Tree River on Coronation Gulf, three hundred miles to the westward. They arrived on the scene at this stage and rounded up the principals in the chain of killings. But when the tribesmen learned that the boy Omiak was to be taken to Tree River post to await trial, feeling was so bitter that the Eskimo, feeling that the weapon with which he returned to his tribe and then fled to strange tribes far to the eastward. A year of relentless pursuit resulted in the full story of the eventual capture of Omjak would make a tale in itself, so fraught is it with the adventures to warfare police work along the rim of the Arctic the most hazardous of duties.

A year ago this autumn, Amjak, Tetamagana and the other accused Eskimos were taken to the police post at Herschel Island, and held there through the long winter night, while the aurora flickered and rustled, until a judge and court could be brought from Edmonton, 1,600 miles to the south, to conduct their trials. As early last summer as travel became possible Judge Dabuc of the Alberta Court and also a stipendiary magistrate for the great Northwest territory, Irving R. Mowatt, an Edmonton barrister, a police guard and Special Constable Gill, the official executioner, set out on the long trek, over the endless waterways of the Northland, by way of Athabasca River and Lake Slave River, Great Slave Lake and the Mackenzie River. With them they carried lumber saved to dimensions for the building of a scaffold and gallows, and close behind the judicial party traveled another headed by T. L. Cory of Winnipeg, who had been selected to act as counsel for the defence. The post of Herschel, 69 degrees 35 seconds north latitude, is rudely built of logs. There in the big barnack room, a jury of steamboat captains, trappers, traders and whalers was impanelled and an Eskimo interpreter well versed in English was appointed to translate the evidence to them.

Half a dozen Eskimos, who only before them, were the only spectators, but they attended faithfully throughout the trials, at which every formality of an established court of justice was observed. A remarkable feature was the frank and honest evidence given by the Eskimo witnesses. All the accused became at one stage or another principal witnesses for the Crown, and as the roles changed each unhesitatingly gave evidence against the other and quite as directly admitted his own share in the bloodshed. The evidence was strong and unshaken, and Mr. Cory, their counsel, made no attempt to deny the facts, but insisted only that the time is not yet ripe for the just trial of Eskimo offenders in the courts of the white man's law. The jury found young Omjak, slayer of Corporal Doak, and the trader, Binder, guilty of murder, and reached the same verdict in the case of Tetamagana. Judge Dabuc, assuming the historic black cap of English criminal justice, sentenced them to be hanged on December 7. They heard their fate announced without a change of expression. The old

RECENT WEDDINGS

Yeomans-Fanjoy.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in Portland Methodist church at 6.10 o'clock last evening, when Miss Eileen Roberts Fanjoy, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. V. Fanjoy of King street east, was united in marriage to H. Lloyd Yeomans, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Yeomans of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. A. Goodwin, pastor of the church. The church was decorated with autumn leaves and red berries, the bride and groom standing under a prettily decorated arch.

The bride was attired in a traveling suit of Harding blue crepe with a grey hat and squirrel tie, the gift of the groom, and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. As the bridal party entered church the Lohengrin March was played by the organist, Miss Beatrice Price, and during the signing of the register Clyde Parsons sang "O Promise me." As the bridal party left the church, the choir, of which the bride was a member, rendered "O Perfect Love." Mr. and Mrs. Yeomans left on the Boston train for a trip through Maine, and on their return will reside at 108 Pitt street.

The bride was a member of the staff of W. Malcolm Mackay, Ltd., and the groom is a member of the Canadian Customs staff of this city. He served overseas in the Sixth Siege Battery. They received many beautiful gifts, including a silver flower basket and cut glass berry bowl from the staff of W. Malcolm Mackay, Ltd., and a substantial check from the firm.

The best wishes of many friends accompany them for a happy and prosperous married life.

Strayhorn-Clarke.

The marriage of Miss Huetta Frances Clarke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Clarke, of this city, to George Cutten Hamilton Strayhorn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Strayhorn, also of this city, was solemnized at the residence of the pastor of Tabernacle Baptist church, Rev. A. L. Tedford, 187 Waterloo street, at 7.30 last evening. Samuel Northrup was best man and Miss Jessie May Clarke, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Strayhorn left immediately for New York and other cities on their honeymoon trip. They will reside in the city.

Francis-Pierce.

Mrs. Albert Pierce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Macey, of this city, was married yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock to Ira D. Francis, son of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Francis, all of this city. Rev. A. L. Tedford performed the ceremony at the parsonage of the Tabernacle Baptist church in the presence of several relatives and friends. John McNeil attended the groom and Mrs. Hazel Pierce attended the bride. After the ceremony the bridal party went to the future home of the bride and groom, where a delicious supper was enjoyed by a large company of invited guests. Many presents were given to Mr. and Mrs. Francis, who will leave this morning for Fredericton and other places in the province for a week's honeymoon. They will reside at 137 Prince Edward street.

Coster-Watters.

The marriage of Miss Florence Watters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Watters, of West St. John, and Ora Coates, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Coates, of this city, was solemnized last evening at St. George's parsonage with the pastor, Rev. W. H. Sampson, officiating. The witnesses were Miss Janie Messenger and Herbert Aldouse. Mr. and Mrs. Coates have the good wishes of many friends. They will reside in Spring street.

RECENT DEATHS

Horace Wells.

The sad news was received by relatives in the city last night of the death of Horace Wells, of Glace Bay. Death was caused by an accident in the mines and no details of the accident were contained in the telegram which brought word of the tragedy. Mr. Wells held an important position with the Dominion Coal Company, although he was only about twenty-four years of age. He was a son of the late Thornton Wells and during the war he served overseas with a Nova Scotia battalion. He was a young man of splendid ability and sterling character and made many friends. Deep sympathy will be extended to his family in their sudden bereavement. He is survived by his mother, a brother, Avarad, and a sister, Ruby, both of Glace Bay. Mrs. J. S. Piogor, of St. John, is an aunt.

Isaac W. Ketchum.

The death of Isaac W. Ketchum, which occurred yesterday at his residence, 115 Water street, in West St. John, has occasioned widespread regret. Mr. Ketchum had been ailing for some time but was seriously ill for only a short while before his death. He had lived in West St. John for the greater part of his life and had been in the employ of Murray & Gregory, Limited, for several years. He was a highly respected member of the congregation of St. George's church of which he was a warden. He was active in undertaking the extension of the church building and the erection of the new hall which was first used last year. Besides his wife, he is survived by two sons, Harold W. and Clarence, of West St. John, and four daughters, Mrs. C. W. Walker, of Toronto, and the Misses Mabel, Ida and Ruth, at home. One sister, Miss Kate A. Ketchum, of Pasadena, Cal., also survives. Mr. Ketchum was a son of the late Tertellus T. Ketchum of West St. John. The funeral will take place on Friday afternoon from St. George's church and interment will be made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

Good milk for everything

Very often a woman will use Borden's St. Charles Milk for one recipe which has been recommended to her, or which she has proved out to her own satisfaction.

She will go out of her way to buy a can of Borden's St. Charles whenever she wants to make up that particular recipe.

If you have tried Borden's St. Charles Milk in one recipe and found it to your liking, why not try it for other milk dishes, too? It's just pure milk—but richer and creamier than ordinary milk because some water has been evaporated out of it.

Use it diluted half and half whenever the recipe calls for milk.

Letters To The Editor

THE ANIMAL RESCUE LEAGUE.
To the Editor of The "Times":
Sir—May I ask a little of your valuable space to call attention to the Animal Rescue League and its work and needs? Perhaps it may not be generally known that the League has recently moved into new quarters, after being homeless for months, and is now carrying on its work of mercy as heretofore, but greatly hampered by lack of funds, and the opposition of many who do not realize that this work is actually valuable in maintaining the health of the city. I am reliably informed that during the past week, no less than twenty-two diseased cats and dogs were taken to the which occurred yesterday at her home, 244 Prince Edward street, after a lingering illness. Mrs. Paddock was very highly esteemed by all who knew her. She was a life-long resident of St. John and had many friends. Besides her husband she is survived by one daughter, Mrs. John E. Sargue, of New York, and two sons, Charles A. and Fred T., of this city. The funeral arrangements had not been completed last night.

How You Can Remove Every Trace of Hair

Toilet Talks

A stiff paste made with some powdered delatone and water and spread on a hairy surface about 2 minutes will, when removed, take every trace of hair with it. The skin should then be washed to free it from the remaining delatone. No harm can result from this treatment, but be sure it is delatone you get and you will not be disappointed. Mix fresh as wanted.

TRAVELERS' AID WORK REVIEWED

Reports are Presented at the Monthly Meeting of the Y. W. C. A.

The report of the Travelers' Aid work of the Y. W. C. A. presented at the regular meeting of the board of directors of the association on Tuesday afternoon was a record of helpfulness and a chapter of human records that touched the members deeply.

The Travelers' Aid workers had been at the depot to meet 223 trains and had also been on hand for the arrival of 29 boats during the month of September. She had taken 128 travelers to the Transient Home and assisted 116 at the station and during the month she had found employment for four persons.

An American woman who was traveling to meet her husband in the United States and had her children with her was detained in St. John by the immigration authorities although her children were allowed to proceed to their destination. While she remained in the city the Travelers' Aid workers were her guide and friend and gave her all assistance and also arranged for the safe journey of the children.

Through the British emigration authorities the local Travelers' Aid committee received word of an English family of husband and wife staying near St. John. The British authorities asked that the wife receive some help and attention from the local workers. She had been head housemaid in influential families in England and was well qualified to assume a position of responsibility. The local committee members called on her and were able to accomplish some relief work in connection with her making her lot less lonely and they were at present endeavoring to find a position for her.

A family of six children was another case which came under the care of the Travelers' Aid workers and while two others were sent to relatives after having been cared for locally for two days.

A mother with two children who was unable to obtain work in St. John was helped to return to her home and while she was in the city the Transient Home was a place of shelter and comfort.

Those that are befriended by the Travelers' Aid are not lacking in gratitude. That is one of the very pleasant things about the work. One of the cases referred to in the report was that of a young girl who had been stranded in St. John without funds. The Travelers' Aid worker had loaned her sufficient money to get to her destination and promptly on her arrival she returned the money, expressing her deep appreciation of the kindness she had received in St. John.

ELABORATE PLANS FOR DOCK OPENING

Committee Preparing to Handle Crowds—Sub-Committees Report.

Preparations are being made by the citizens' committee organized to cooperate at the opening of the St. John drydock on Monday, Oct. 29, to handle one of the biggest crowds that has attended an event locally in recent years. The intense interest that has been caused locally and throughout the Maritime Provinces and Canada over the definite setting of the time for the opening ceremony and also the announcement that His Excellency, the Governor-General, and many of the most prominent leaders in the Canadian political and business world, will attend, has led the committee in charge to make elaborate plans for handling the crowds. Of course, should the weather be disagreeable, such precautions will not be necessary. No matter what kind of weather prevails, the drydock will be opened. The committee, however, is leaving nothing to chance.

Sub-committee reports yesterday indicate that the final details were now being arranged. Financial requirements for the various sub-committees were discussed quite thoroughly at the last meeting of the committee and it is expected that at Friday night's meeting the exact amounts needed for each committee will be decided on and the Common Council then will be asked to vote the necessary sum. As Friday night's meeting will be one of the final conferences to be held of the various sub-committees, it is expected that a complete representation will be present. It was announced yesterday that slides had been prepared for use in the various local theatres, giving information regarding the event, and having them to be present on that day and bring their friends.

Financial requirements for the various sub-committees were discussed quite thoroughly at the last meeting of the committee and it is expected that at Friday night's meeting the exact amounts needed for each committee will be decided on and the Common Council then will be asked to vote the necessary sum.

It is also alleged that the Indianapolis bank, while representing that the Governor was solvent, knew that he was "unable to meet his obligations then due; that he was insolvent and in sound financial condition." A judgment of $3,000 is asked.

The crew of laborers have completed the placing of poles from Sussex to Norton and have now moved their equipment to this village, where the poles are now being placed. The majority of the residences have been wired and four electricians are still at work. Jones Brothers' private plant which has furnished lights to their residences and two churches for several years will be discarded when the new Brunswick Hydro Commission's power is turned on. The installation and maintenance of street lights are being considered.

The beauty of this hamlet and surroundings are often remarked by strangers who pass this way, and during this season many improvements and repairs have been made which have added much to the appearance of the village on the banks of the Kennebec. Several residents have altered and improved their homes, which, with attractive styles of painting has added a lot to their appearance.

This village in general, has contributed quite liberally to the Japanese Relief Fund, in response to an appeal from the Red Cross which placed the work of soliciting in the hands of the Women's Institute, which society contributed $25; $10 from the institute treasury and the remainder given independently by the members. Two members of the institute collected upwards of $25 from other residents of the village and vicinity making in all more than $80, which has been forwarded to headquarters.

ABERDEEN WILL NOT BE REPLACED

Ottawa Despatch Says That Other Govt. Boats Will Perform Service.

An Ottawa despatch says that it is not expected that a new vessel will be purchased to replace the Canadian Government stamship Aberdeen, which went aground on Seal Island, at the southwest corner of Nova Scotia, last week. It is stated at the Department of Marine that the services that have been performed by the Aberdeen will be cared for by a rearrangement of the duties of the other Government vessels. There are now 27 ships in the lighthouse and buoy service, of which six are employed in the waters about Nova Scotia. The route of the Aberdeen was from St. John, N. B., around the Bay of Fundy and down to Seal Island. It is expected that this route will be provided for among the six ships now engaged in the service about Nova Scotia.

Middletown, N. Y., Oct. 17.—When a cartridge failed to explode in his rifle, Donald Kortright, 12, son of Donald Kortright, of Netherink, looked into the muzzle to investigate. An explosion followed and he fell to the ground dead, shot between the eyes. He had aimed at a squirrel when the gun failed. The report was heard by the boy's mother, who found the body. REV. E. P. WRIGHT WAS TRAVELER

Curate of St. Luke's, Going to St. Stephen, Had Business Experience.

Rev. E. P. Wright, who has been invited to Trinity church, St. Stephen, has accepted the call and will leave for his new field early in November. Rev. Mr. Wright is a man of experience in the business world, as well as in church work. Mr. Wright, when but a boy, was a soprano soloist in Trinity church, New York city, where he was born, and was imbued in his childhood with the desire to be a minister. His parents having died before he was five years old, the young lad was obliged to get out and bustle for himself, and took a technical course, early in young manhood in the Cooper Institute, New York, and later a course in classics in Columbia University. Rev. Mr. Wright traveled for a hardware firm, and had a splendid experience in meeting men as he went up and down the Atlantic coast from New England to Florida for several years.

In pursuance of his wish to become a minister, he came to Canada and took a theological course at Wycliffe College, from which he came to St. John where he has worked successfully at St. Luke's. Rev. Mr. Wright is very much in favor of work with children and has drawn to his Friday afternoon services throughout the four winters he has been here more than 800 boys and girls, who have listened to his teaching with keen interest. Mrs. Wright was Miss Anna Duggan, of Toronto, a thorough Canadian. She is in hearty sympathy with her husband's work and a constant companion and helper. Rev. Mr. Wright has absorbed much of the Canadian spirit since coming to Canada and is very fond of his adopted country, where he has made many friends among rich and poor alike. He is hopeful of his new duties bringing him fine results, in his work. "One thing a man learns if he attends to business in material things, is that results are all that count," said Rev. Mr. Wright last evening when approached about his career. "This is also necessary, if one would carry out the work of God," he said.

EVANGELINE BOOTH—UNDERGOES OPERATION

New York, Oct. 15.—Miss Evangeline Booth, commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, was operated on Sunday night at her home, near White Plains, for abscesses in the nasal passages which affected her mouth and throat. The operation will cause a cancellation of all speaking dates, notable in Chicago. Miss Booth is resting easily and no alarm is felt, according to a report issued by her physicians, Drs. Duncan MacPherson and Herbert L. Wheeler.

ARE RESTORING NELSON'S SHIP

Work Underway on Famous Victory—Accessible to Visitors in Dock.

London, Oct. 18.—The powers that be have done a wise thing in morning Nelson's old flagship from her moorings in Portsmouth harbor to her resting place in dry dock. As one enters the main gates of Portsmouth dockyard, her tall spars stand out over the roofs of sheds and warehouses, and from her main mast flies the St. George's Cross, the flag of the naval commander-in-chief. For one person who responded to the invitation of the ubiquitous boatmen on the old Hard and embarked from the greasy alleyway to pull across the harbor to see the Victory in her old billet, probably ten or a hundred will tread the ancient cobbles of the short walk through the dockyard to her present berth.

Here she lies, shored up in a huge steel cradle, holding her ancient timbers together. Already the work of restoration is going ahead. On board a man-of-war is evident from poop to hold. The latter was for years a stagnant place, kept clear of water by a modern and unsightly pump with an unromantic chimney, which reared itself between the old ship's masts. Now, well-lit and whitewashed, the ancient frames and timbers which have supported the stout hull for the past century, are clearly visible. On the main and lower decks many of the old guns have been restored with their white breechings, training tackles, round shot, and loading gear, workmen are busy replacing the worn-out and decayed planking where necessary, and the mouldings are in place, outlining the new bow which will store the fore part of the ship to its old appearance. There is no charge for admission.

Street Vendor Gives Wedding Gift $10,000

Dominic Losco, 70, Gives Savings of 34 Years to Niece.

New York, Oct. 18.—Mrs. Louise Pinta has been married about a month. The wedding was on September 12, and Mrs. Pinta has just received her best wedding present. Mrs. Pinta is living in Stamford. The wedding present was from an uncle in New York. When her friends heard about it they exclaimed: "Your Uncle must be very rich." The present was $10,000.

The uncle's name is Dominic Losco and he is 70 years old. But he owns no mansion, nor limousine. He may be seen any day at the southeast corner of Canal and Mulberry streets, sitting on the stone ledge of a building, his wares spread out before him on the sidewalk. He is a locksmith catering to the needs in his line of the immediate neighborhood.

AMERICANS HERE IN SEARCH OF GAME

A hunting party consisting of George Bixby, C. L. Stevens, Ray Troven, of Haverhill, Mass., and T. J. Jewett, Chesley, of Dover, N. H., arrived in the city yesterday and registered at the Royal Hotel. The party went away this morning for their camp at Seven Mile Lake, near Lepreau. The Americans own the camp and started out ten years ago with a party of thirteen. It is said that the party comes to New Brunswick every fall and Mr. Bixby is the only one of the originals who is here this fall, although others of the present party have made the annual visit for some time past.

LANDED IN N. Y. STREET

Aviator, However, Came to Grief on Wet Pavement

New York, Oct. 16.—A small patch of asphalt, slippery because it was wet, robbed Lieutenant Edwin Johnson, U. S. A., of the distinction of being the first pilot to make an airplane landing in New York streets. Undiscouraged, Lieut. Johnson will try again to park his airplane in Riverside Drive, near Grant's tomb.

Winging in from Mitchell Field, Mincola, L. I., the army pilot in a distinctive Sperry-Messenger scout plane, came over the Drive with conditions seemingly ideal for the test. He circled several times above the tomb of the Union General, and then started a long glide for the section of street kept clear for him. He made a perfect landing and scurried along with diminishing speed.

At the Drive and 123rd street, however, he came to grief. The tiny airplane struck a stretch of freshly wet asphalt and sidled. The machine was spun against a lamp post and the right upper and lower wings were torn off. Spectators ran to aid Lieutenant Johnson, but they found him clanking out, unhurt, but decidedly disappointed.

Shops are now being raised extensively in the Aluetian islands.

COUNT DIES A SANDWICH MAN

Wealthy Savoyard Nobleman Ruined by Insane Act of Wife.

Paris, Oct. 16.—There used to walk up and down a block in the Faubourg St. Honoré every day and every evening a rather pathetic old person, dressed in the seditious of clothes, who carried on his back a placard bearing a legend which, freely translated into English, told passersby that at the Restaurant Petit Pere you might get oysters and clams for a ridiculously small price. He was a sandwich man, a typical French sandwich man, with a long scraggy beard and bow legs. Nobody noticed him much, since sandwich men are now no more extraordinary phenomena in Paris than they are in Fourteenth Street or Bowling Green.

But this particular sandwich man happened to get run over by a large truck with an insignificant sounding horn. They took him to the hospital, where he died shortly afterward. The police commissary naturally had to make an inquiry into the cause of the death of this ancient and dilapidated fellow, whose name was given simply as Jean Ruffier.

And the commissary of police unearthed a number of surprising facts about him which would make the imagination of a Dumas or Pierre Benoit seem a bit thin. He found out that Jean Ruffier was in reality the Vicomte Jean Ruffier de Aimes, that he had once been wealthy and once the owner of a splendid high Renaissance chateau on top of a mountain in Savoy. He had had a beautiful wife and a beautiful child and never knew that there existed anything like the sandwich man's trade.

Then came the inevitable second act to the story. It was one which certainly few writers of the tragic drama could have encompassed. The child suddenly died of pneumonia. The fortune, stock certificates, deeds, all the contents of the strong box, and stuck a match under them. Then, in order to support his wife in an insane asylum, Ruffier had to sell the chateau and come to Paris.

Rather successfully, too, for the police learned he had saved quite a decent little sum which would take him back to Savoy and permit him to live, if not richly, at least comfortably for some time.

Scientists Are Ready For Antarctic Trip

Cleveland Museum Expedition Will Sail From New London This Week.

New London, Conn., Oct. 18.—(Associated Press)—While Captain George Finlay Simmons has been scouring the country for a staff and crew to take the schooner Blossom into the South Atlantic and Indian Oceans, the ship itself has been prepared for one of the longest cruises ever undertaken by a vessel her size.

The expedition to the Antarctic islands which will start from New London this week for the Cleveland Museum of Natural History, is said to be one of the largest ever undertaken for purely scientific purposes.

Every one of the sixteen men aboard ship, except the three ship's officers, is trained in some line that will aid in the collecting of animal and bird specimens and in taking notes on the geology, plant life, sometimes human life, and climatic conditions in the regions that will be visited.

At the head of the ship's staff is H. Gray, sailing master, who carries a certificate as master of sail and second mate of steam in any ocean and for any tonnage.

Captain Simmons will command both the navigating and scientific personnel of the vessel. Members of the crew are all college trained men, who will, in between their duties, carry their additional duties of surveyor, ship's clerk or whatever additional capacity they are selected to fill.

The Blossom is a three-masted, built originally for the coastwise cargo trade, but she was converted into an Antarctic summer in the South Atlantic, then cruise along the West African coast, visiting the islands of that region, and then make for the Cape Town, possibly a third Monday return voyage, and, at each stop, will ship home the specimens collected.

This Railroad Line Almost Runs Itself, Says Inventor

No Engineers or Crews Needed and Saving of 60 Per Cent., He Declares; Operation on Spiral By the Aid of Motors; Speed is Regulated.

London, Oct. 18.—It sounds like the realization of the dream of every railroad magnate:

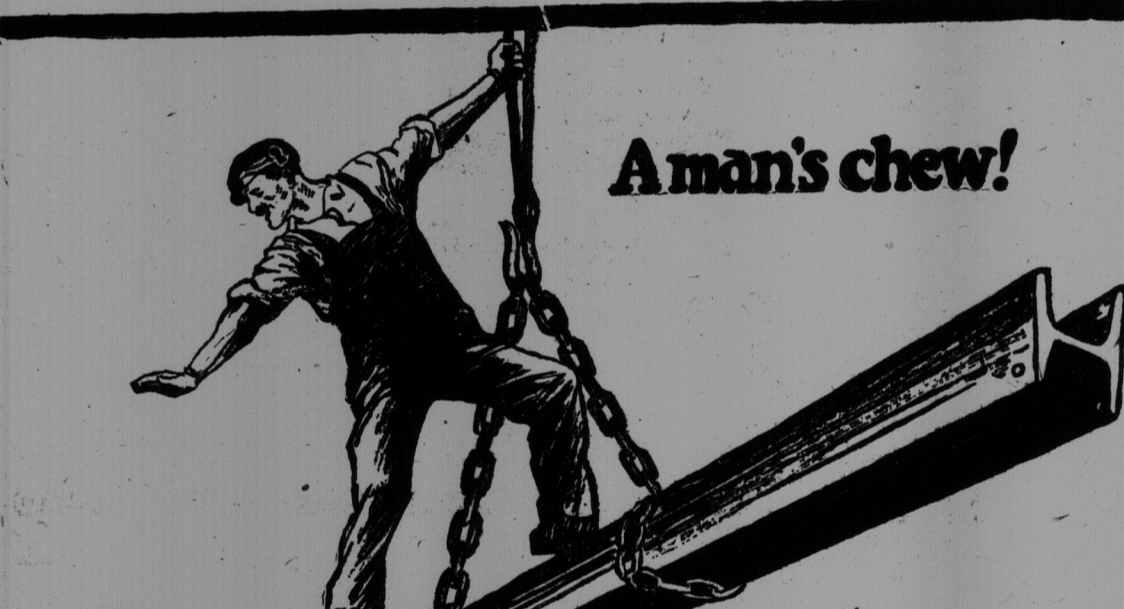

"This railway requires no engineers, brakemen, signal men or conductors, and can be operated at a saving in working expenses of from 50 to 60 per cent. over existing methods."

That is the claim of Captain R. Riall Sankey, past-president of the British Institute of Mechanical Engineers, regarding the never-stop railway which he is developing. Nor are his claims only paper ones, for he has built at South End, a resort at the mouth of the Thames, a quarter-mile section of his railroad, just to show that it can be done.

The basic idea of the new invention which is being developed with especial regard to its utilization in place of subways and streetcars, is this:

The motive power is supplied by gasoline motors, which rotate an endless screw between the two rails. Each coach is provided with wheels to engage upon this spiral, which has at intervals a much coarser pitch than at others. Quite automatically, as a train enters a station its speed is reduced from sixteen to two miles an hour. It is contended by the inventors that this slowing up for stations enables passengers to alight and board the train without difficulty, and that thereby the need for train personnel is greatly diminished.

MOVE TO RECALL
OREGON GOVERNOR

State Voters Stirred by Plan Attributed to "Big Interests" and Ku Klux

Portland, Ore., Oct. 18.—A movement for the recall of Governor Walter M. Pierce, attributed to "big business" and the Ku Klux Klan, is stirring up the voters of Oregon. It is declared that "big business" dislikes the Governor's attitude on bond issues, and that the Klan claims he has repudiated promises he made to it when he was seeking election. Klan leaders deny that their organization is behind the recall movement.

At the time Mr. Pierce decided to get into the last Governorship race there was a bitter Republican primary war on. Ben W. Olcott, then Governor, was a candidate to succeed himself against Charles Hall, Olcott, as Governor fought the Ku Klux Klan, which had caused trouble in Medford and other towns. A fiery proclamation somewhat after the style of Walton of Oklahoma, directed Klan forces against him. Hall was the Klan candidate. Olcott won the nomination.

The Klan vote was ready to swing into the Democratic column. Mr. Pierce was elected by a majority of 58,000. It was charged that to make sure of the Klan vote Pierce wrote a letter in the campaign endorsing a bill which had been placed on the ballot by initiative petition, which required all children in the State, between the ages of 8 and 16, to attend the public schools after Sept. 1, 1923. This hit all parochial and private schools. The measure became a law, and its enforcement will be tested in the courts.

In Trouble With the Klan
Governor Pierce had hardly taken office when his troubles with the Klan began. It is said that he became a member of the Klan at this time, but this has never been confirmed. It is also said that he told opponents of the school bill he had to write the letter favoring it in order to get elected, but that he really did not stand for it.

When it came to distributing patronage, Governor Pierce swung to the old line Democrats. His friends insist that he made no promises of patronage to the Klan, but did say that he would not make appointments which would be particularly objectionable to the order. The State Constitution says that religious qualifications shall not be considered in appointments to State offices.

The Governor made enemies. His advocacy of the public school bill, gross earnings tax and severance tax on lumber and fish, his gloomy forebodings regarding the future of the farmers and the State bonds, and particularly his irrigation policy, stirred up wide opposition. He became obnoxious to certain business interests and to the optimistic State boosters hunting for Eastern money.

The State guarantees interest on irrigation bonds and certifies them as legal investment for trust funds. The law says the price of the land and improvements shall be double the amount of the bonds. The hunger of the farmers in the dry belt for water on their lands, and the greed of land speculators had led to "wildcatting" and mushroom irrigation districts which are bonded at twice instead of half their value. Governor Pierce came down hard on this.

Irrigation Ends an Issue.
The recall agitation has at least served to call attention to the evils in some of the irrigation schemes, and it will be on this issue that the Governor will seek endorsement from the people.

Construction companies, men who sell cement to Oregon contractors, irrigation lawyers and others are credited with backing the recall. Offices were opened in Portland and more than 100 solicitors were sent out to get signatures at 10 cents each. A. E. Campbell appeared as chairman, but admitted that he was only acting for the "unknown."

Securing of signatures went along slowly in Portland, where the Governor is not popular, but it was felt that insufficient cause had been shown; that the recall should be used only in cases subject to impeachment charges.

Impetus was given to the recall movement two weeks ago by the gathering wrath against the prison methods of Warden Johnson Smith, who ran the prison on sentimental or humanitarian lines, as one chooses to regard it. He was "easy with the boys." During his term there were forty-two escapes, compared with two the previous year.

Smith permitted Lee Dale, a notorious murderer, to visit his home in Dallas every Saturday night. He allowed half a dozen convicts to go to the State Fair, where several of them were observed dancing with girls who did not know they were convicts.

The prison policy aroused some persons who had been apathetic regarding recall. Governor Pierce has not exercised the pardoning power much, but now advocates that the pardon and parole law be repealed.

The Governor promises the fight of his life against recall if the petition now said to carry 8,000 names out of a necessary 4,200—is filled. He probably would be a candidate on the recall election to succeed himself, and it is possible that he might be recalled and replaced in office at the same time.

MAINE REJECTS 48-HOUR LAW FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN
Portland, Me., Oct. 18.—Incomplete returns indicate that Maine has rejected a referendum for a 48-hour law for women and children in industry. The total vote of 149 cities, towns and plantations out of 620 in the State was 25,348 in favor of the proposed law and 31,126 against it.

The returns represent practically all the industrial centres of the State where proponents of the 48-hour law had their greatest strength.

Masonic Grand Master Lays Cornerstone in New York.

New York, Oct. 18.—While Shrine officers in colorful regalia performed appropriate rites Justice Arthur S. Tompkins, Grand Master of Masons in the State, laid the cornerstone of Mecca Temple Mosque, 124 West Fifty-sixth street. The ceremony was preceded by a parade up Fifth avenue from the present headquarters of Mecca Temple at 107 West Forty-fifth street.

The new mosque will be a twelve story administration building with a large auditorium. It is expected to cost about $2,500,000. The building will be the home of Mecca Temple, mother temple of the Ancient Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine. The temple was organized in 1872 by thirteen Masons of New York in the Knickerbocker Cottage, at Sixth avenue and Twenty-eighth street, a popular meeting place at that time. The order now has 155 temples in North America, with a total membership of about 650,000 Nobles.

Grand Master Tompkins said in his address that the building will be a testimony to the zeal, energy, enterprise and generosity of members of the Mystic Shrine. He spoke of the rapid growth of the order, and mentioned the temples recently established in Honolulu, Mexico City and Panama.

He discussed charitable work of the organization, which, he said, will not rest until every part of the country has an adequate hospital for crippled and deformed children. The Shriners have built six hospitals for crippled children and ten more are under construction. He said this work is "a practical application of the doctrine of Free Masonry in useful, human service."

Among the objects which Grand Master Tompkins placed in the cornerstone were a United States flag, a photograph of President Harding, photographs of the thirteen charter members of Mecca Temple and a copy of the New York Herald, clipping from the Evening Telegram and the Evening World and United States coins.

The grand master was presented with

TUGS DOCK AFTER ATLANTIC TRIP

Dry Dock Company Craft Have a Fierce Battle Against Elements.

The steam tug Ocean Eagle, Captain Timmuth, and Ballinhallock, Captain Newmark, arrived in yesterday morning after a very rough voyage from Southampton via Cardiff, Queenstown and Newfoundland, and docked at the McAvity wharf.

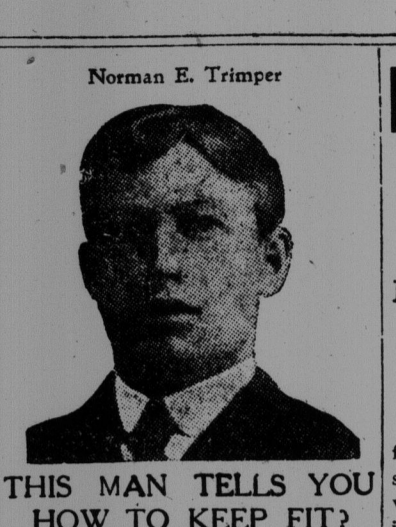

Yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock, when the two tugs started from the wharf to the Dominion Coal Company packets to replenish their bunkers, they were given a hearty salute from the many tugs in the harbor by the blowing of whistles. The newcomers acknowledged the hearty welcome with return blasts from their whistles.

The Ocean Eagle and Ballinhallock were purchased by the St. John Drydock and Shipbuilding Company. The former tug is about 30 tons gross and about 20 gross. The latter is about 30 gross. It is only four tons net and is about 20 gross.

Seldom if ever have two such small craft as these experienced such boisterous weather while making the voyage across the Atlantic. The little steamers have been more than a month making the trip and those on board had an experience that they will not forget in a long time. The Ocean Eagle, with the smaller tug in tow, left Southampton on Sept. 12. They put into Cardiff on the 14th and, after coaling, left there on the 16th. Heavy weather was met and in a raging storm on Sept. 22 the hawser parted and the storm was so bad that after twelve hours' manoeuvring it was decided to retreat, and the little steamers ran before the gale with the sea sweeping them fore and aft. They reached Queenstown on Sept. 23. Some damage was caused by the storm and after repairs and taking on new hawsers, the tugs resumed their voyage on Sept. 28. The weather continued very stormy and great care had to be taken. Never continuously smooth and it was only by very good seamanship that the tugs came through undamaged. The hawser held until the Monday following the departure from Queenstown when, due to heavy weather, it parted from the hook and it took several hours before it could be secured again. As the vessel was getting out of fact it was decided to call at St. John's, Nfld., to have the bunkers replenished. The voyage from St. John's was rather uneventful.

The tugs were purchased in England by the Dry Dock Company. The Ballinhallock will be used for harbor towing, while the Ocean Eagle will be used for salvaging purposes on the New Brunswick and Nova Scotia coasts. The Ocean Eagle has accommodations for fifteen men, and up to the time she was purchased by Mr. Ross was operated by the British government, and during the war was used for rescue work.

Captain Greenleaf, who has now taken charge of the Ocean Eagle, went across to look after the ship, and A. B. Ross, son of the purchaser, made the voyage to St. John on the tug.

THIS MAN TELLS YOU HOW TO KEEP FIT?

Bear River, N. S.—"My back was so bad I could hardly work. I was always tired out and had no ambition; was nervous and dizzy, and everything seemed to worry me. I also had terrible pains in my right side. I felt badly for about eighteen months, and could not do my work as it should have been done. I tried several doctors, and also bought about $20.00 worth of put up medicines, but I found no relief until I took Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Doctor Pierce's Anuric (anti-uric-acid) Tablets. I have taken two bottles of the Discovery, and four of the Anuric Tablets, and can say that I feel as well as I have felt for the last ten years. I advise any sufferer to give Dr. Pierce's remedies a fair trial. I cannot recommend them too highly for what they have done for me and shall be pleased to answer any one who cares to write me."

NAUWIGEWAWK MAN LOSES FOOT

Humphrey Lester is Badly Hurt While Working at Thresher.

Humphrey Lester, aged 46 years, a farmer residing at Nauwigewawk, was so badly injured yesterday afternoon while working with a threshing machine that his left foot had to be amputated above the ankle.

Dr. J. Newton Smith, of Hampton, was summoned and found Lester's leg below the knee, had been badly mangled. Dr. Lester rendered all possible treatment under the circumstances and ordered the removal of the injured man to the General Public Hospital. Mr. Lester was placed in an automobile and driven rapidly to St. John, arriving at the hospital about 7 o'clock last evening. On examination, it was found that the leg was so badly injured that an immediate operation was necessary and shortly afterwards Dr. C. M. Kelly performed the operation, amputating the left foot just above the ankle.

Eyes Strengthened 50% by Proper Eye Care, Says Doctor

Suggests Simple Home Treatment Which Quickly Relieves All Irritation and Sharpens Vision.

No longer is there any excuse for most of our eye troubles. For specialists have perfected a simple but amazingly effective treatment which not only quickly relieves burning, itching, smarting, aching eyes, but also banishes eye headaches, eye-strain and blurred vision.

This simple treatment is called the Bon-Opto system, and is now being prescribed by physicians and specialists everywhere. It is based on the latest scientific theories. Scientists have recently proved that 90 per cent of all eye troubles are due to weakness in certain little muscles which adjust the eye. Eyeglasses alone will not strengthen these muscles. But the Bon-Opto treatment seeps directly to them, heals and tones them, and soon restores them—and therefore the eyes—to their old-time strength and vigor.

Do not neglect your eyes. The discomfort felt after an automobile ride, a movie or any close work, are important danger signals. Yet every irritation and ache can be almost instantly banished by a Bon-Opto eye-lash, and more serious trouble prevented. Bon-Opto should be in every home. Your eyes are far more important than your teeth. As often as you use your toothbrush you should take your eye-brush. So get a package of Bon-Opto. Results guaranteed. Money back without question if you are not delighted with the improvement in your eyes and sight. Bon-Opto is sold by good druggists everywhere.

MIDGETS 15 YEARS IN WORK OF CHURCH

Lucy and Sarah Adams Say it is the Better Calling.

Martha's Vineyard, Oct. 18.—Fifteen years of evangelistic work, in the church of which they have assisted ministers of various denominations all over the country, has convinced the Misses Lucy and Sarah Adams of South road, Chilmark, that the calling is to be preferred to their former profession. Lucy is 49 inches in height and Sarah 46.

Lucy was bridesmaid at the wedding of Mrs. General Tom Thum to Count Magri in New York. Her husband is the count proposed to Miss Lucy and to her sister, but was rejected. Both Lucy and Sarah were once in General Tom Thum's company as well as in other companies.

In "Jack and the Giant Killer," "Cinderella," and other operas they toured the country. They also had offers to go to the Grand Canyon.

Recently the two Lilliputians left their own company, appearing in sketches, singing, reading, pantomime, opera, and other forms of entertainment.

While touring the Northwest, a minister friend of the family urged them to join in evangelistic work. They finally consented and for three years has been their calling. The most satisfying work ever undertaken, the two say.

Their home in Chilmark is 200 years old. The two began their professional career on Cape Cod. They were born on the "Vineyard." While they were playing in "Little Red Riding Hood," Mrs. Thum sent for them and they joined in company. They were always billed as "Lucy and Sarah Adams."

During the summer time they run a tea room in Chilmark, entertaining their guests with readings and singing. Their father was the late Captain Moses Adams. A brother, James Foster Adams, is living in Chilmark.

Help Came Just In Time, Declares Clark

"If I hadn't got Tanlac just when I did I believe I would have had to give up my business and go to the hospital," said C. H. Clark, 42 Craig St., Montreal, well known contracting painter.

"I don't believe a day passed in fourteen years that I didn't suffer. Every time I stooped to pick up my brush it seemed like my poor back would break. My kidneys had me up seven or eight times every night. I lost about twenty pounds in weight, and was losing three days from work out of the week."

"I've gained sixteen pounds by taking Tanlac and am so well my work is like play. I never have to get up at night, sleep twelve hours some nights, and get up feeling as refreshed as a school boy. Tanlac is priceless."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 81 million bottles sold.

FORGERY ALLEGED INCONTEST OF SISTER'S $95,000 WILL

Riverhead, L. I., Oct. 18.—When Surrogate Robert S. Pelletreau told Mrs. Anna Reubel of 695 Third Avenue, New York city, that her charges in the contesting of her sister's will would have to be heard before a jury she and her husband, Thomas H. Keogh of 27 William street, left the court room. Talemans were in the court house. The Surrogate dismissed the objections and the will was admitted to probate.

Mrs. Reubel was contesting the will of her sister, Mrs. Minnie Gray, who left $85,000 to her adopted daughter, Mrs. Minnie Gray Mundorf, of 22 East Twenty-seventh street, New York. She contended through counsel that her sister was incompetent when the will was drawn, in 1913, and that the signature was not authentic.

Mrs. Reubel's attorney said he would take the matter up with the District Attorney of New York County, where the will was executed.

R. D. Fudger, whose little son was killed in an automobile accident in Duke street on Tuesday evening, is on the Ocean Eagle. A telegram last night brought the word that Mr. Fudger had reached Toronto from Chicago and expected to be in St. John on Friday morning.

Judge And His Law Partner Indicted

Attempted Bribery and Extortion Charges Against Two Sir Schenectady.

Schenectady, Oct. 18.—The Grand Jury at the September term of the Supreme Court returned an indictment charging attempted bribery against County Judge John J. McMullen, and two indictments charging attempted extortion against his law partner, Arthur C. Ward.

The indictment against Judge McMullen charges that on or about July 6 last, he offered to give William W. Campbell, Republican candidate in the Republican primary for Mayor, $2,000 for his own personal use, and a further sum of $10,000 for the political campaign of Campbell. The indictment further charges that Clarence A. Whitmyre, an opposing candidate for Mayor, to withdraw from the campaign for nomination to the office in consideration of which Campbell, in the event of his election, would as Mayor, appoint Clarence A. Whitmyre, Commissioner of Public Safety.

Campbell's victory in the primaries was decisive and with declination, but three weeks after the indictments were caused a sensation in local political circles.

The first indictment against Ward charges that on July 16 last he attempted to obtain money from Harry Fraser, a hardware merchant, in the sum of $25, and that if this was not paid Ward would close up Fraser's place in the hardware business.

Ward is alleged to have paid Fraser a week later.

McMullen and Ward are paroled in custody of their counsel.

DRINK WATER TO HELP WASH OUT KIDNEY POISON

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You, Begin Taking Salts.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which helps to remove the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so you can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of good water—you can't drink too much. Get your water from a pure source. Take a glass of water with a pinch of salts, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before each meal, and try this for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they are no longer a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent, lithia-water drink, which everyone should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what a difference it makes in your health and backache. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

FEARS WAR ON RHINE AGAIN

Head of Princeton Sees Menace in Intense National Hatreds.

Princeton, Oct. 18.—Dr. John Grier Hibben, president of Princeton University, said in an interview here today that a corollary of the New York Herald that unless something can be done by America to relieve tension between Germany and France it will be impossible for the two nations to avoid war. It was his first interview on European conditions as he observed them in a tour during the past summer.

President Hibben said that the nations of Europe need the active cooperation of America in solving their problems and that if peace was not assured in Europe disaster inevitably would overtake America. "It is always a question," he said, "whether having entered the war and having made common cause with the Allies, we were justified in withdrawing from European responsibilities in the settlement of all the problems resulting from the war."

"Our own country can no longer look from afar in complacency security upon Europe and the inevitable tragedy towards which it seems to be moving. We are the only nation that can play the part of mediator amidst the conflicting claims and interests of the European states. The questions of reparations, of interrelated debts, of disarmament and of the safeguarding of the commerce and markets of the world are all bound together, presenting one tremendously complex problem which the United States can and must help to solve. We face a great opportunity as well as a grave responsibility to use our power and influence to free the world from the menace of another world war."

The attitude of France, he said, did not show such a violent hatred of Germany, but was rather fear for the future and of what may happen if Germany ever is in a position again to invade French territory. He found Hungary actuated by stingy hatred of Czechoslovakia and Jugoslavia, while in Austria the people seemed to have less such intense feeling than anywhere else.

Dr. Hibben gained the impression that Germany was not suffering unusual poverty or distress, and that its present industrial activity was the beginning of a great movement to ob-

LAND CASE DISMISSED

The case of Warman v. Fenton was concluded in the Chancery Court yesterday afternoon before Mr. Justice White. Further evidence was taken. Witnesses examined for the plaintiff were Gilbert Murdock and William McCutcher, while for the defendant James M. Scott, Joseph Lingley and A. F. Fenton were heard. At the conclusion of the plaintiff's case His Honor ordered that the case be dismissed with all costs against the plaintiff. The action was brought in connection with the sale of land in Queens county for alleged damages and misrepresentation in connection with sale on the part of the defendant.

Mrs. L. Whiting, 202 King St. West, Brockville, Ont., writes:

"I took very sick with my nerves and stomach, and seemed to be all right down. At times my heart would flutter and palpitate so and I would take such weak spells in the pit of my stomach that I sometimes thought I would never get better. I had almost given up hope when a friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I did not stop until I had taken twenty-five boxes. It has done wonders for me, and I want to recommend it to everyone."

EVERY FIFTH PRINCETON MAN EARNS PART OF HIS WAGE

Princeton, Oct. 18.—One out of every five undergraduates at Princeton University earned an average of $472 toward his college expenses last year, according to the Bureau of Student Employment. In other words, 400 of the 2,000 students earned either all or part of their way.

The total earnings for the year were $201,168.77, an increase of $39,639.77 over the preceding academic year. Included in the earnings is $87,331 paid to students through scholarships, remission of tuition and ministerial aid.

Waiting on the 1,200 underclassmen who eat at commons netted 150 student waiters a total of $89,771.78. During the Christmas holidays fifty-six men obtained employment which netted them $1,477.46. So successful has been the student management of the box of offices, gates and subsiding at the small athletic contests that entire charge of this business for all contests has been turned over to them by the Athletic Association.

EDMUNDSTON FORMS BRANCH OF R. M. A.

Edmundston, Oct. 17.—A meeting of the Retail Merchants' Association, held in the office of the Town Hall, this evening, resulted in the formation of a branch of the association in Edmundston. The Hon. J. A. Duval presided at the meeting which was addressed by Miss Frances P. Alward, from St. John, provincial secretary of the Retail Merchants' Association. Miss Alward spoke of the organization being not only provincial, but Dominion-wide. She explained the value of the benefit to merchants and the benefit which other towns had gained from its influence. The problems of merchants in Edmundston were discussed and it was decided to organize a branch there. All present at the meeting joined the association. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Hon. L. A. Duval; first vice-president, R. W. Hammond; second vice-president, Alphonse Michaud; secretary, Herbert La Jole, and treasurer, Isaac Kaner. It was later decided to hold a meeting the first Monday of each month.

As Young as the Youngest

The old boy is enjoying himself just as much as the young boy. His heart is as youthful, his spirit as boisterous, his energy as unflagging as his grandsons.

It's "that Kruschen feeling" again—the feeling that comes from sheer health and fitness, the feeling that expresses itself in infectious jollity and unvarying good humour.

And the cause of it? Just a tiny pinch of the magic Kruschen powder that can't even be tasted in a breakfast cup of coffee or tea. As much as will cover a 10 cent piece, every morning at a cost of half a cent a day — could there be an easier or a cheaper road to happiness?

A tiny, tasteless pinch—but it works wonders. It supplies the body with just the six salts, blended in just the right proportion, that Nature decrees for its well-being. Sedentary occupation, insufficient fresh air and exercise, worry, overwork, errors of diet — all or any of these prevent your system from extracting these necessary salts from your food. Hence the need for Kruschen—six salts in one.

What Kruschen does for you is to ensure that your liver and kidneys do their duty actively and efficiently, clearing the body of all the poisonous waste matter that has been clogging the system, and purifying the blood. At the same time it has a distinct tonic effect, invigorating you both physically and mentally, banishing depression, listlessness, headaches, indigestion and all the ills that arise from internal disorder, and filling you with a bracing sense of energetic health.

Tasteless L.I. Coffee

Put as much in your breakfast cup as will fill a 10 cent piece. It's the little daily dose that does it.

Kruschen Salts

Good Health for Half a Cent a Day

A 76 bottle of Kruschen Salts contains daily use in "as much as will fill a 10 cent piece" — enough for three months — which is taken in your breakfast cup of coffee or tea. Every druggist sells a cent a day. The dose prescribed for Kruschen. Get a 76 bottle to-day.

U. K. SAFEGUARDED

Looked After by Provisions of Commercial Treaty Between Canada and France.

Ottawa, Oct. 18.—The United Kingdom is safeguarded in every way by the provisions of the commercial treaty between Canada and France, according to government officials here.

A despatch from London, England, quoting a letter from Lieut. Commander F. W. Anthony, Conservative member for West Safford, in which complaint was made regarding certain concessions made by Canada in the French treaty, was shown to officials of the finance department here yesterday.

In reply, section five of the act which ratified the French treaty was quoted. It reads as follows:

"The advantages so granted to France, the French Colonies, possessions and protectorates by the said convention, shall extend to the United Kingdom with respect to its commerce with Canada so long as France, the French Colonies possessions and protectorates continue to be entitled to such advantages."

DIFFER ABOUT BOULEVARD

Question of Opening Street is Discussed—Who Owns It?

The Lewis boulevard matter was given a thorough airing before the City Council this morning and after citizens representing those who wished the street opened up and those opposed to it had been heard it was decided to get a report from the road engineer on whether the city really owned the street or not before taking any further action.

Abner Secord was heard in connection with his request that the boulevard be opened again. He said the fence obstructed his property. He also asked that the fence along the south side of the Exhibition Building be moved back to its former position to allow of the drive around to Wentworth street.

J. B. Jones said his recollection of the matter went back to 1909 when he was alderman for Sydney ward at which time a driveway was constructed around the Exhibition grounds. At that time the fence was taken down after an exhibition and he saw no reason why the same could not be done now.

S. B. Bustin, acting for Mr. Secord in the absence of S. W. Palmer, said his client had put up with the fence during the war because the grounds were used for soldiers. The fence was not only an obstruction but it was a menace to the public health as blind alleys were a breeder of tuberculosis. This obstruction was as much a damage to all citizens as it was to Mr. Secord and should be removed.

Thomas Killen said the commissioner of safety should have the street opened in the interests of public safety.

Commissioner Thornton said this was not in his department.

Mr. Killen said he thought it was all right to close the street for a month for the Exhibition and if the military wanted it they would have to have it.

E. J. Terry, president of the Exhibition association, speaking for his firm, who did business in the vicinity, said they had not been inconvenienced by the closing of the street and the Canadian Oil Co. said the opening of the street would be a detriment to them.

It would cost from $500 to $1,000 a year to take this fence down and put it up again and make good the damage done by opening the street. The directors had considered the opening of a picket fence in place of the present one.

Exhibition Manager H. A. Porter said the whole question hinged on whether it was a public street or not. The information he had gathered was shown that all these streets, Wentworth, Cornacoff, Pitt, stopped 100 feet from the south side of the Exhibition.

The objection placed there was put up by permission of the City Council and was to be maintained at the will of the council.

The main worry of the Exhibition Association was the fire hazard, and the obstruction complained of was a protection in this respect. The opening up of this would also mean increased police protection.

Military View. Col. John Houston said the military authorities objected to a public street because of the public access to the stores building.

S. B. Bustin said the Canadian Oil Co. was the very company which gave the boulevard in consideration of their lease to the shore lots.

Mayor Fisher said the matter would be taken under consideration, and the first thing to ascertain was the ownership of the street.

G. N. Hatfield said he was convinced this was a continuation of Wentworth street and had always been open to the public. He suggested that a picket fence be built along the south side of the grounds and a wire fence on the western side of Wentworth street, with several large gates in it.

Commissioner Thornton said he did not think it necessary to discuss the matter at the present time, as the ownership of the street must be first determined.

Commissioner Frink moved that further consideration be deferred until a report had been submitted by the engineer on the ownership of the street.

POWER CO. HAS TAKEN OVER LOAD

All Runs Smoothly in Lighting Service—Preference for Customers.

The customers of the hydro development at Musquash are being served today by the New Brunswick Power Company. The connections were completed at 2 o'clock this morning, and the Power Company took over the load.

About 11 o'clock last night the start to hook up was made and everything went like clock-work, the wires tuning in at the first attempt.

Preference for Customers. In connection with the linking up of the two systems it was pointed out this morning by M. A. Power, manager of the New Brunswick Power Company, that he had informed the engineers of the Power Commission on more than one occasion that the power given them must not interfere with the service of the company to its customers, who were entitled to preferential treatment and would be looked after by the company.

He had also warned them that it did not think it would be possible for the Power Company to supply any current during December and January, as that was their heaviest season, and it was the intention of the company to keep a certain amount of equipment in reserve for emergencies which might arise, as they did not propose to place themselves in a position where they could not serve their customers.

The Times has been given to understand from a reliable source that the agreement arrived at between the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission and the New Brunswick Power Company provides that the latter will supply current to the commission up to the limit that they can spare; that no definite period for the termination of the contract has been fixed, but that the Power Company will supply current so long as the hydro commission requires it, the agreement, however, being subject to cancellation by either party on giving seven days' notice.

It is understood the hydro commission members do not expect to be able to use Musquash power exclusively before the month of February or March unless weather conditions will bring sufficient water to permit them to do so before that date, as they desire to bring the storage up to tide them over the dry period of the winter.

DOUBT STABILITY OF BELL TOWER

Commissioner Frink to Report on Market Square Structure.

At a meeting of the City Commissioners today Commissioner Thornton said his attention had been called to the bell tower on Market Square which was reported to be in dangerous condition. Commissioner Frink said he would bring in a report on the matter.

Tenders Opened

Tenders for cloth for uniforms for the police and fire departments were opened this morning by the City Council, tenders were accepted for 100 yards of blue serge street sewer; a recommendation for several retaining walls was submitted to the council for adoption, and it was decided to have a report on the safety of the bell tower on Market Square.

Commissioner Wigmore reported that he had asked for bids for the timber for the Forest street sewer and the lowest offer received was that of J. A. Gregory of $44 a thousand feet for pine timber. His motion that the offer of Mr. Gregory be accepted was adopted.

On motion of Commissioner Thornton tenders for 475 yards of blue serge for police, fire and ferry uniforms were opened as follows: Manchester, Robertson, Allison, Ltd., $35 to $35.45; Scott Brothers & Co., $44.50; Scovill Brothers & Co., $44.50 to $50.00; Selick, cost $204; 18 Long Wharf, cost $209; 56 Portland street, cost $209; a total cost of $14,220, and he moved the report be received and the work carried out, payment to be by bond issue. In making the motion he explained that in three of the cases it was proposed to make them party walls and the owner of the property would pay half the cost and sign a release to the city from all liability.

Object to Party Walls. Mayor Fisher objected to the policy of joint walls, and said he would have to oppose the motion unless it could be shown there were special reasons for making such an agreement aside from the saving in cost. Commissioner Thornton also objected to the principle of party walls.

The motion to recommend to council was adopted.

PRISONER TAKES INSPECTORS ON A WILD GOOSE CHASE

One of the two men who were fined for drunkenness in the police court this morning was given a free automobile tour about the city today at the expense of the Provincial Government.

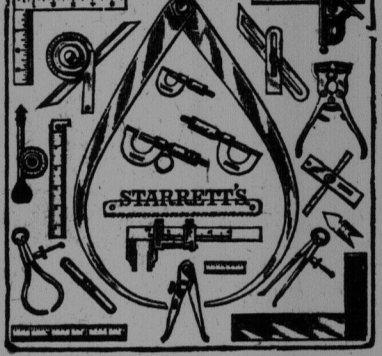

After his session in the court he volunteered to show the liquor inspectors the place where he got his liquor, describing it as a beer shop in Prince Edward street, with a kitchen in the rear, and stairs leading to the upper floor. The inspectors got a car and took him to every beer shop in the street, but he was unable to say which one was the place. He was returned to the jail to start on his two months' sentence.

As Hiram Sees It

"Well, sir," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to the Times reporter, "you folks here in town orto be perkin' up some now."

"You're gonto git that there breaker—an' you're gonto open that big dry-dock, an' you may 'git that there grain conveyor—an' the plans 'as been made fer wharves an' an elevator in Courtenay Bay. That ain't so awful bad. Looks like you was gonto 'git some wharves after a spell—don't it? An' you got that there hydro fixed up so's the lights won't be shet off. Things is never so bad but they might be wuss—what? I was talkin' to a feller from out west yesterday, an' the things he said about dull times made me mighty glad I got a good stake out to the Settlement. If we all lay hold an' take a fresh grip we'll be feelin' better in the spring. That's the way I size it up—an' you'll find I ain't fer wrong—nuthin'."
