The War Situation

A big battle has been raging around the River Aisne in Northern France since about Sept. 12th. The Germans on being pushed back to this point firmly entrenched themselves, and the river coming between them and the French and English troops, gave the Germans a decided advantage in their defensive plans. Nevertheless, the Allied troops have succeeded in gaining much ground, and at this writing there is a possibility of the Allies left wing turning the right wing of the German army commanded by General Von Kluck. Large numbers of killed and wounded have been reported.

In the eastern section of the war zone the Russians and Serbians have been gaining important victories over the Austrians. The Russians are also said to have cut telegraphic and telephonic communication to Breslau, and are now getting ready for their march to Berlin.

The British fleet in the North Sea met with an accident when three cruisers were sunk by German submarines, 1174 officers and sailors are missing and 1067 officers and men were saved.

The German losses so far in the French campaign is estimated to be 213,000 men. The Russians have captured Karolani in Austria and taken 25,000 prisoners, much ammunition supplies and 64 guns.

Further offers of help in men and money to Great Britain is coming from India. Maharejah Gwalior donates $100,000 for motor cars and transports, and $25,000 for the relief of Belgian sufferers.

Britain's Appeal

"England Expects That Every Man Will Do His Duty!"

The British Empire is at war. She did not desire war. She did not promote, provoke or encourage war. Through King and Parliament she worked unceasingly for peace. But her efforts for peace were rendered fruitless by the unyielding attitude of the German Military autocracy, which was determined on war. The fact is abundantly proved by numerous statements by the Kaiser and leading Germans, by the way in which Germany blocked all attempts at peace, and the almost unanimous opinion of neutral countries that Germany was the aggressor.

It is a struggle for LIBERTY against military rule and despotism; the fulfilling of international obligations; the protection of the weak against the strong; and finally a struggle for self-defence and self-existence.

For generations Britain—the "Grey Old Mother"—has freely and unostentatiously shed her best blood, opposed to her hard-earned treasure for our protection. Like every true Mother she has never complained of the sacrifice, never asked any returns. But now in her hour of need, she looks to all her lusty children for succour. Britain expects that every man will do his duty.

Shall we, base with craven cowardice fear or seize ingratitude, unworthy of the stock from which we sprang, undeserving of all our glorious heritage, shed dishonour upon the sacred dust of our forefathers, or shall we respond wholeheartedly, even as they would were they in our places?

If we cannot go, we can give. Last year every individual in Great Britain paid over $3.00 in gold cash to ensure the present absolute safety of your fishing vessels, coasters, coastal steamers and Atlantic liners. To-day they pay in rivers of blood to save you from the fate of looted, devastated Belgium. Multiply that amount by the number you have in your family. The total represents what Britain paid last year alone for your protection. Then ask yourself how much of that debt you are prepared to pay back. Then hand your amount to one of the following: Mr. Geo. Jardine, Rev. G. H. Field, Rev. H. L. Pike, Rev. W. Grimes, Mr. D. G. Fraser, Dr. McLeod, Dr. Atkinson, Mr. James O'Neill, Mr. James Norman, (Coley's Pt.), Mr. John Bažock (Shearston), or at the Guardian Office. All amounts will be acknowledged through The Guardian and forwarded to the General Committee at St John's.

Died.
On Friday, Sept. 18th, Elizabeth, widow of the late William Russell, aged 76 years. Funeral took place to the Methodist Cemetery on Monday afternoon last, Rev. Wm. Grimes officiating.

Obituary

There passed peacefully away on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 24th, at her residence, Coley's Point, Priscilla Fradsham, widow of the late Joseph Fradsham, leaving to mourn their loss two sons, Horace and Henry James, residing at Coley's Point, and two daughters, Mrs. John Moore of Bay Roberts, and Mrs. John Batten, Salmon Cove, Cupids; also 13 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon to the S. A. cemetery, Adj. Higdon conducting a funeral service at the old Bethel. He took for his text a verse from the 5th chapter of Job, "Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in his season." The text seemed very appropriate, as deceased died at the ripe old age of 77 years, and for more than two-thirds of that time she had taken her stand as an out-and-out Christian. Being converted in her early days, she persevered, proving all along the path way of life the sufficiency of God's grace to keep under all circumstances. And then when it came down to the last day of her life, even to the valley of the shadow of death, there was no fear of evil, for with the Psalmist she could exclaim, "Thou art with me; Thy red and staff they comfort me."

"Oh, may we triumph so,
When all our warfare's past,
And dying, find our latest foe
Under our feet at last."

The body of Thomas Mercer of Thomas, Mercer's Cove, who died at Indian Hospital, Labrador, on Sept. 11th, is being brought home on the Sagona. He was fishing at Holton this summer, and was not feeling well for some time previous to his death.

"The subject of interest at the Adventist Church Sunday night will be 'The Divine Hand in Human History.' This study is designed to show that a Divine Pilot has been at the helm of human history through all this world's stormy passage, and in the present Titanic struggle the living God is still at the helm. A welcome to all. Service at 7 o'clock."

Sept. 19th.—From S. E. Chafe, (South Head of Brigus to Bay Roberts Point)—The total catch is 1110 quintals and for last week 290. Fifty boxes, punts and stiffs are fishing. Frocods are not very bright. Herring is fairly plentiful for bait, but squid is scarce. The fishermen say if squid could be had some cod would be taken every day. The schooner Constance, Capt. Morgan, of Port de Grave has landed 200 qts. caught at Petty Hr. This is included in the quantity landed to date.

Amatite Roofing!
You'll Never Need a Paint Brush.

When you lay Amatite on the roof you're through with it. You don't have to paint it every year to keep it from leaking. It has a real mineral surface which does not need painting. Most of the old-fashioned, "smooth surfaced" or Rubber Roofing, which requires painting, costs more than Amatite and you have all the extra cost of paint. It looks easy now to give your roof an occasional coating in the future. But do you realize that in 1913 you must paint it, and in 1915 you must paint it, and in 1917 you must paint it, and in 1919—that far-away year—you must still be painting that confounded old Rubber Roof. Why, a new Amatite Roof will cost less than the paint alone. Send us for free samples and booklet explaining all about it. Ask your dealer for Amatite Roofing.

His Excellency the Governor in Council has been pleased to direct that the following Proclamation of His Majesty the King, superseding Proclamation of August 5th and August 12th last, relating to Trading with the Enemy, shall come into effect on the date hereof.

JOHN R. BENNETT,
Colonial Secretary.
Dept. of the Colonial Secretary,
Sept. 15th, 1914.

BY THE KING
A PROCLAMATION
Relating to Trading with the Enemy.

GEORGE R. I.

Whereas a state of War has existed between Us and the German Empire since 11 p.m. on August 4th, 1914, and a state of War has existed between Us and the dual monarchy of Austria-Hungary since midnight on August 12th, 1914;

And whereas it is contrary to law for any person resident, carrying on business or being in our Dominions, to trade or have any commercial or financial transactions with any person resident or carrying on business in the German Empire or Austria-Hungary without permission;

And whereas by our Proclamation of the 5th August, 1914, relating to trading with the enemy, certain classes of transactions with the German Empire were prohibited;

And whereas by paragraph 2 of our Proclamation of the 12th August, 1914, the said Proclamation of the 5th August, 1914, was declared to be applicable to Austria-Hungary;

And whereas it is desirable to restate and extend the prohibitions contained in the former Proclamations, and for that purpose to revoke the Proclamation of the 5th August, 1914, and paragraph 2 of the Proclamation of the 12th August, 1914, and to substitute this Proclamation therefor;

And whereas it is expedient and necessary to warn all persons resident in our Dominions, of their duties and obligations towards Us, Our Crown, and Government;

Now, therefore, We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue Our Royal Proclamation declaring and it is hereby declared as follows:

- The Proclamation of the 5th August, 1914, relating to trading with the enemy, and paragraph 2 of the said Proclamation of the 12th August, 1914, together with any public announcement officially issued in explanation thereof, are hereby, as from the date hereof, revoked, and from and after the date hereof, this present Proclamation is substituted therefor.
- The expression "enemy country" in this Proclamation means the territories of the German Empire and of the dual Monarchy of Austria-Hungary, together with all the Colonies and Dependencies thereof.
- The expression "enemy" in this Proclamation means any person or body of persons of whatever nationality resident or carrying on business in the enemy country, but does not include persons of enemy nationality who are neither resident nor carrying on business in the enemy country. In the case of incorporated bodies, enemy character attaches only to those incorporated in an enemy country.
- The expression "outbreak of war" in this Proclamation means eleven p.m. on the 4th August, 1914, in relation to the German Empire, its Colonies and Dependencies, and midnight on the 12th August, 1914, in relation to Austria-Hungary, its Colonies and Dependencies.
- From and after the date of this Proclamation the following prohibitions shall have effect (save so far as licenses may be issued as hereinafter provided), and We do hereby accordingly warn all persons resident, carrying on business or being in our Dominions—

- Not to pay any sum of money to or for the benefit of an enemy.
- Not to compromise or give security for the payment of any debt or other sum of money with or for the benefit of an enemy.
- Not to act on behalf of any enemy in drawing, accepting, paying, presenting for acceptance or payment, negotiating or otherwise dealing with any negotiable instrument.
- Not to accept, pay, or otherwise deal with any negotiable instrument which is held by or on behalf of an enemy, provided that this prohibition shall not be deemed to be infringed by any person who has no reasonable ground for believing that the instrument is held by or on behalf of an enemy.

- Not to enter into any new transaction, or complete any transaction already entered into with an enemy in any stocks, shares, or other securities.
- Not to make or enter into any new marine, life, fire or other policy or contract of insurance with or for the benefit of an enemy; nor to accept, or give effect to, any insurance of any risk arising under any policy or contract of insurance (including re-insurance) made or entered into with or for the benefit of an enemy before the outbreak of War.
- Not to directly or indirectly supply to or for the use or benefit of, or obtain from, an enemy country or an enemy, any goods, wares or merchandise, nor directly or indirectly to supply to or for the use or benefit of, or obtain from any person any goods, wares or merchandise, for or by way of transmission to or from an enemy country or an enemy, nor directly or indirectly to supply to or for the use or benefit of, or obtain from, an enemy country or an enemy, any goods, wares or merchandise destined for or coming from an enemy country or an enemy.
- Not to permit any British ship to leave for, enter, or communicate with, any port or place in an enemy country.
- Not to enter into any commercial, financial or other contract or obligation with or for the benefit of an enemy.
- Not to enter into any transactions with an enemy if and when they are prohibited by an Order in Council made and published on the recommendations of a Secretary of State, even though they would otherwise be permitted by law or by this or any other Proclamation.

And We do hereby further warn all persons that whoever in contravention of the law shall commit, aid or abet any of the aforesaid acts, is guilty of a crime and will be liable to punishment and penalties accordingly.

- Provided always that where an enemy has a branch locally situated in British, allied, or neutral territory, not being neutral territory in Europe, transactions by or with such branch shall not be treated as transaction by or with an enemy.
- Nothing in this Proclamation shall be deemed to prohibit payments by or on account of persons resident, carrying on business or being in our Dominions, if such payments arise out of transactions entered into before the outbreak of War or otherwise permitted.
- Nothing in this Proclamation shall be taken to prohibit anything which shall be expressly permitted by our license, or by the license given on our behalf by a Secretary of State, or the Board of Trade, whether such license be specially granted to individuals or be announced as applying to classes of persons.
- This Proclamation shall be called "The Trading with the Enemy Proclamation, Number 2."

Germany Must Place Loan at Home

New York, Sept. 14.—If Germany succeeds in placing the $250,000,000 war loan just announced, she will have to place it at home.

That is the unanimous opinion of leading New York bankers canvassed yesterday. To a man they asserted that with the money markets of Europe and the United States closed to her, Germany will find that the bankers boycott, for years a threat against German aggression which was ignored by the Kaiser's advisers, will have to be reckoned with now that the dash on Paris is checked and the advantage, for the moment at least, is with the allies.

The Situation in Hamburg Serious

Rome, Sept. 11.—The Giornale D'Italia declares that Hamburg is in a serious situation on account of lack of food and employment.

A return traveller brought the information and says that while he was in Hamburg eggs were selling there at ten marks ($2.50) a dozen, while fresh meat was priceless, all cattle having been requisitioned. The smallest quantity of fresh milk, butter and eggs is reserved for the hospitals, the remainder together with all other available food is taken to the army storehouse, where it is accumulated by the General Staff for the use of the army.

Traffic has practically ceased in Hamburg it is asserted, and 1,500 ships are idle.

Our Duty

The interest manifested in the Patriotic Movement in this section is not so general as one would like to see it. There are, perhaps, various reasons for this, but we are convinced that every true Briton, no matter what his opinions may be in reference to one question or another, should at this particular time know no party and no question. All should be for the State, the Empire.

It may be good policy on certain occasions and under certain conditions for men to assume a passive or negative attitude, but an occasion like this demands of every true patriot POSITIVE ACTION. Our motto should be the motto of Nelson when he flashed out the immortal watchword "England expects that every man this day will do his duty."

A law was passed at the spring session of the Legislature in reference to the picking of partridge berries. Owing to an error in the public notice published in the Royal Gazette, and the means taken by the Minister of Agriculture and Mines in letting the public know the date on which people could commence picking the berries—that of placing a small poster in a post-office—endless confusion resulted. Some persons claimed berries could not be picked until Sept. 15th; others claimed you could commence picking them on Saturday, Sept. 12th, while others said Monday was the right day. Still another report was circulated that no blue berries could be picked after Tuesday, Sept. 15th. The Dept. could have adopted better means than they did in letting the public know the correct time in which partridge berries could have been picked.

Educational Matters

A Frank Discussion

BY W. F. (Concluded.)

The irregular attendance found in many of our schools certainly does not help in making them progressive, and is detrimental to both those who absent themselves and those who are more regular in attendance. Not until compulsory education is brought about in Newfoundland shall we have made any step toward getting rid of this evil. Free and compulsory education we must have and are going to have sooner or later. The sooner the better for our more populous outports at any rate, and we believe for our smaller ones as well. For existing conditions in the latter are such as would make a foreigner smile. There two or three and even four denominations each employ a teacher, living on a salary that would frighten a scarecrow and with as many children around them as would constitute a happy family. Whereas, were our schools non-sectarian and attendance compulsory, all could be combined together and a good experienced teacher provided at a reasonable salary. School Boards, too, should be elected by the people in the community for which they serve; neither should a clergyman of any denomination be appointed as Chairman.

We have Inspectors which cost the Colony over $9,000 annually. But is our present system of school inspection of any benefit to us? Again we repeat as we have often done before: 'It is but a face, not even worth the paper on which their reports are printed.' Our inspectors visit our schools, but if what we have seen them do is what they call inspection, then we 'beg to be excused.' What! inspect a school with all its different classes and test the work being done in two hours or even less.

That which the inspector does is only what the teacher is doing every day of school life, and not even as much as that. He gives a few marks to be worked out by the pupils, hears them spell and read, notes one or two other subjects if he feels inclined, and the next thing we know he's gone through the doorway as if he were pursued by a pack of wolves.

The Inspector's duty is not only to test and examine carefully, but to criticize the teacher and the methods used. Where faults in methods are observed frank criticism should be made. Lessons should be taught for the teacher's guidance, and private discussion of how to improve existing conditions should take place afterwards. A wise teacher will feel grateful to a keen-sighted inspector who has the frankness to point out defects and the good sense to suggest the proper remedies.

It is hard for a teacher to see his own defects; he oftentimes needs to be lifted out of many a rut. We never yet saw an Inspector do this, however much it may have been needed. If our work will not stand keen criticism and friendly suggestion it is in great need of improvement. Under existing conditions we may as well have no inspection for the benefit we derive from it.

Our staff of inspectors should be increased and should consist of men who will not shrink from doing their duty nor work solely for the pecuniary advantage they receive.

It is about time that Newfoundland awoke to the responsibility she owes to herself and the coming generations in matters educational. We find a few of our professional men interested in reform but their number is small, indeed. Teachers, parents and citizens, let us be disinterested no longer regarding educational affairs, but realize now our situation and do all possible in order that mental darkness may be dispelled, and there be built up around our shores a nation of intelligent manhood and womanhood. Swerve not from what we know to be our duty. In the words of the poet Lowell:

'By thine own soul's law, learn to live; And if men thwart thee, take no heed; And if men hate thee, have no care; Sing thou thy song and do thy deed; Hope thou thy hope and pray thy prayer. Those love their truth best who to themselves are true, And who they dare to dream of, dare to do.'

John Redmond's Manifesto

London, Sept. 17.—'The democracy of Great Britain have kept faith with Ireland and it is now a duty and an honor for Ireland to keep faith with them,' says John Redmond in a manifesto issued in which he calls on Irishmen to bear their share in the war in which the Empire is engaged.

'The Irish people,' Redmond continues, know and appreciate the fact fully that at last, after centuries of misunderstanding, the democracy of Great Britain have finally and irrevocably decided to trust them and to give them back their national liberty.

'By an overwhelming British majority the charter of liberty for Ireland has three times been passed by the House of Commons and in a few hours will be the law of the land.'

'A new era has opened in the history of the two nations. We have, even when no ties of sympathy bound our country to Great Britain, always given our quota and more than our quota to the firing line and we shall do so now.'

The Agricultural Societies

As we do not hear very much nowadays about the doings of the Nfld. Agricultural Board, nor the Societies connected therewith, it will be in order to enquire if the Board and the Societies are still in existence? While a great many people were opposed to the plans of the Government in connection with these societies, a large number favored them and took advantage of the benefits arising therefrom.

The Guardian took the position that the idea was an excellent one if properly carried out. But there was the hitch. There were faults, no doubt, on the part of the Government and the Board itself, but at the same time the management of the affairs of the various Societies was left in the hands of the people who comprised them, and if anything was done wrong, the people themselves were largely to blame. It's human nature, though, to want to throw the blame on somebody else.

We still claim that the societies should be continued, even if the people who are interested in general agriculture have to continue the management themselves.

Woman's Patriotic Association

Should any citizen of Bay Roberts, Coley's Point, Country Road or Shearstown be overlooked in the house-to-house canvass which is being undertaken for the Patriotic Fund of the Woman's Patriotic Association, Mrs. Richards would be pleased to receive even the smallest amount in cash or kind.

One old lady who has no money to give wishes to give a mat of her own handiwork. We have informed her to proceed with the work, and when the article is finished it will be auctioned. If there are others of the same spirit who have not the ready money to spare, any suggestion will be considered by the Patriotic Committee. Let no one feel, when this battle is fought and won, they cannot join with heart and soul in singing "Rule Britannia."

MAY RICHARDS, President Bay Roberts Patriotic Assn.

Armageddon

This word is frequently used and often attended with vague ideas. It appears, however, to be freighted with a tremendous significance when considered from the prophetic viewpoint. It was thus that Elder W. C. Young addressed an intelligent and appreciative audience Sunday night. Lack of space forbids a just report of a logical and convincing exposition of the present European war relative to Armageddon.

The times and bounds of nations have all been determined by the Lord, said the speaker, and men are as powerless to go beyond them as the sea is to pass its decreed place. To-day God appears to be left out of the reckoning. The ten divisions into which the Roman Empire was divided, said Mr. Young, will stand until God overthrows them and sets up His kingdom. Neither Napoleon nor the Kaiser of Germany reckoned with this prophecy.

Elder Young referred to the cry of peace when, as the scripture declares, there is no peace. On Aug. 2nd a number of clergymen had gathered at Constance in Germany to discuss plans for peace, when the sudden news of war sent them back home in a great hurry. 'The prophecy showed that in the last days men would be crying peace whilst God's command is to proclamate war.'

Mr. Young maintained that the crux of the European situation centers in Turkey. He showed the design of Austria and Germany, and also Russia's settled aim relative to the Balkan Peninsula, and said that Armageddon would be fought in Asia and not in Europe; that this battle would follow the drying up of Turkey which, according to present indications, is but a little time in the future. Prophecy was united with historic facts in following the history of the Ottoman Empire, and conclusive proof given that the inevitable end of Turkey and with it the doom of the world is drawing very near.—Com.

IN STERLING LIVES A GIRL

Who Suffered As Many Girls Do—Tells How She Found Relief.

Sterling, Conn.—'I am a girl of 22 years and I used to faint away every month and was very weak. I was also bothered a lot with female weakness. I read your little book "Wisdom for Women," and I saw how others had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and decided to try it, and it has made me feel like a new girl and I am now relieved of all these troubles. I hope all young girls will get relief as I have. I never felt better in my life.'—Miss Bernice A. Falgout, Box 114, Sterling, Conn.

Massena, N. Y.—'I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I highly recommend it. If anyone wants to write to me I will gladly tell her about my case. I was certainly in a bad condition—my blood was all turning to water. I had pimples on my face and a bad cough, and for five years I had been troubled with suppression. The doctors called it "menstrua and exhaustion," and said I was all run down, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought me out all right.'—Miss Lavina Myers, Box 74, Massena, N. Y.

Young Girls, Heed This Advice.

Girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion, should immediately seek restoration to health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

BAY ROBERTS, FRIDAY, SEPT. 25, 1914.

The Patriotic Association

A meeting of the Patriotic Committee was held in the Courthouse Monday night last, a small number being present. After the minutes were read and adopted, various matters were discussed.

The Finance Committee submitted a report of the amount of money subscribed to date, and the meeting decided that an appeal for donations be made to the general public through the columns of the Guardian. It was also decided that the name of every man in this section, 18 years of age and upwards, be added to the local Association. So now every patriotic Briton residing in Bay Roberts East and West, Coley's Pt., Conroy Rd. and Shearstown may consider himself a member of the Association, and is asked to actively associate himself with the movement.

It was also decided that a meeting of the Association will be held every Monday night in the Courthouse, to which every man who has the interests of the British Empire at heart is invited.

No Coercion of Ulster

London, Sept. 15.—Referring in the Commons to the postponement of the operations of the Irish and Welsh acts, Premier Asquith promised that the Government would introduce, in the next session of parliament, another amending bill with the best hope that, under new conditions something like a satisfactory permanent settlement might be reached.

He declared that any coercion of Ulster was absolutely unthinkable, and "SO FAR AS I AND MY COLLEAGUES ARE CONCERNED, THIS IS A THING WE SHALL NEVER CONSIDER OR CONSIDER," he said.

The Premier concluded by asserting that the Government was honestly desirous, at this time of grave national emergency, of acting fairly, reasonably and equitably to all the great interests concerned.

Three British Cruisers Torpedoed

London, Sept. 22.—The British warships Aboukir, Hogue and Cressy have been sunk in the North Sea by submarines, according to an announcement given out by the Official Bureau this afternoon. A considerable number of the crews were saved by H. M. S. Lowestoft and by a division of torpedo boat destroyers, trawlers, and their boats, which also aided in the work of rescue. The Aboukir was torpedoed first. The Hogue and Cressy drew in close to her and were standing by to save her crew, when they were also torpedoed. The Aboukir was a twin-screw armoured cruiser of 12,000 tons, was built in 1902 with horse power of 21,000, and speed 22 knots. She carried two 9.2 guns, twelve six inch guns and smaller armament. The Cressy was completed in 1901 and was of the same class as the Aboukir. The Hogue was also of the same class, each ship having a complement of 755 men, including officers and crew. The Aboukir had been stationed in the Mediterranean as part of a six cruiser squadron, previous to the war.

At Seldom on Sunday last a schooner was reported as having been seen by the people of Fogo Island about four miles off, and dismantled. The wind at the time was blowing in a southerly direction. The vessel though dismantled had a little canvas on, apparently to try and wear away and reach a place of safety. In the night the wind veered from the southwest. A whaling steamer was in Seldom, but whether she was subsequently engaged to look for the dismantled vessel we are not aware.

Women of Clarke's Beach Organize

On Monday, the 21st inst., an excellent, enthusiastic and fully attended meeting was held at the Central Academy Hall, Clarke's Beach, for the purpose of organizing a local branch of the Women's Patriotic Association. The meeting opened with the appointment of Rev. Dr. Whelan as Chairman. He was supported by Revs. E. C. Clench and O. Jackson. The Chairman delivered an address, which was illuminative, didactic and patriotic. Rev. E. C. Clench, who was in England when war was declared followed with a vivid speech on the sights and facts that had burnt themselves into his mind. All that was said was capital and inspiring. Of the two hundred women present, not one hesitated when asked to join the Association. The officers selected were:

President, Mrs. (Rev.) E. C. Clench. Vice Presidents, Miss Leary and Miss Ada Noseworthy. Secretary, Miss C. Casey. Treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Jerrett. Splendid donations came from the poorest. One could see the pinch in their white, set faces, but the love which inspires sacrifice shone from their eyes. Mrs. W. Noseworthy, who favoured us with patriotic music, closed a delightful meeting with the National Anthem.—O. J.
