WILL FIGHT TO THE BITTER END.

Russia Will Continue War Until the Japs Are Driven From Asia-- The Pope May Mediate.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 8.—Replying to the statement of Count Okuma, leader of the Japanese progressive party, that the war with Russia would be long, but that the Japanese would win in the end, the Novoye Vremya declares this morning that the idea of a possible compromise with Japan has been abandoned and that the war must be prosecuted by Russia in such a way that there can be no possibility of Japan's renewing the struggle. Europe for thirty years was under the menace of revenge for Alaska. If we conclude peace with Japan, all our efforts in the Far East will be valueless and we shall have to spend enormous sums to keep up our armament there. The Japanese once and for all must be driven off the Asiatic continent. It is now accepted here that the reported naval fight off Port Arthur was purely imaginative. The naval experts of the newspapers dwell on the difficulties which the Port Arthur squadron has experienced in breaking off after the disastrous sortie of August 19. The general opinion is that the squadron could not venture out unless something had happened to the Japanese warships of which there is no knowledge here. In any case the ships could not go to the port of Chefoo, but must head for Vladivostok.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The Russian agent accredited to the Vatican, Mr. Kariskino, has been in frequent conference recently with the cardinal secretary of state, says a World despatch from Rome. It is said that the cardinals have been on how to end the war in the Far East. It is asserted that the Pope consented to act in the interest of peace at the solicitation of the German emperor, who, being informed by his principal advisers that it would be improper for Germany to undertake this task, urged the Pope to tender his good offices. So far the Vatican has confined itself to negotiating with Russia, but it is said that if Russia consents to the head of the Catholic church making a declaration of neutrality, the Vatican will open direct negotiations with Japan. The fact is commented on that the Pope, who only "severely" excluded from the peace congress at "The Hague," has been now selected to make proposals of peace to the promoter of "The Hague tribunal."

POLITICAL COMPLICATIONS.

Fugsley is Pulling Wires at Ottawa.

Liberal Discontent Over the Management of the Primaries is Growing Every Day.

The news that Attorney General Fugsley had not returned to the guests of the Russell banquet, but had gone to Ottawa on political business is generally accepted as confirmation of the report that he has not yet given up his aspirations for the federal arena, in spite of the knockout his hopes received at the recent Liberal ward meetings.

Those Liberals who are not favorable to Mr. O'Brien say that the very extent of his triumph in the primaries will hurt him to a considerable extent in the convention and still more on election day. In packing the meetings and the lists of delegates Mr. O'Brien and his friends went too far, they claim. There was no necessity of brutally turning down so many old and tried Liberal workers simply because they would not pledge their support to Mr. O'Brien before the convention.

It is not pleasant to the friends of M. H. Hillyard, D. J. Purdy, M. F. E. and other strong and influential party men to find themselves refused a place in the convention. Rejection by a majority of more than two to one in favor of a straight O'Brien ticket is not pleasant medicine to take. Some of the rejected, though not those mentioned, are exhibiting a list of the delegates for Lansdowne and other wards and suggesting that it might have been more fully representative of the party in these districts. It is remarked that Mr. Lantulum is the only member of the legislature who has secured a place in the convention. Mr. Lantulum, however, was not on the O'Brien ticket. He was the only Kings ward man not on the ticket. A singular feature of the King's ward election is the circumstance that "slumpers" were voted. It is stated that Mr. Lantulum was saved in that way.

Though Mr. O'Brien's nomination for the city is probably assured, there is promise of either a warm row in the convention or else of the absence of those who were turned down and their supporters. In the latter case, though the convention may be "enthusiastic and unanimous," the candidates will suffer more on Nov. 2nd.

OLD GENERAL'S FAREWELL.

KHARKOFF, Russia, Oct. 8.—A touching scene was witnessed here when Gen. Dragomiroff, former governor general of Kieff his father-in-law, did on the Danube. He also advised the soldiers to stand by each other and sacrifice their lives for their comrades. The general's words were frequently interrupted by the tears of the troops and the vast crowd of people present also wept. Dragomiroff then kissed the soldiers and bowed low to each battalion, murmuring "Farewell, God bless you and bring you back safely."

POPE MAY MEDIATE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The Russian agent accredited to the Vatican, Mr. Kariskino, has been in frequent conference recently with the cardinal secretary of state, says a World despatch from Rome. THEATRE FIRE CURTAINS ARE NO PROTECTION.

In Spite of One, a Swiss Theatre Was Burned Today—It Was Empty at the Time.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The destruction of the theatre at Basel by fire this morning, strangely resembles the burning of the Iroquois Theatre at Chicago, says the Geneva correspondent of the "Times." The fire occurred at two o'clock in the night, when, naturally, nobody was inside. Only four black walls remain of what was once the finest theatre in Switzerland. Modelled on the Neues Theatre in Vienna, it seated 1,500 persons, contained the latest fire-proof appliances and possessed exits everywhere. After the performance of a Strauss operetta everything was left in order and supposed safety, the fire curtain being lowered. The fire began, as in Chicago, behind the stage and within a short time the safety curtain melted. The fire spread to the stalls and galleries. The roof fell in within half an hour. Two firemen were injured seriously and were carried to the hospital. This disaster demonstrated that human foresight and the latest fire-proof appliances are powerless to check a fire and that the safety of theatres is a myth. The safety curtain ought to have stopped the fire, according to the builders, architects and managers. A valuable library and the musical instruments and costumes were completely destroyed. The cause of the fire was a short circuit.

AUTOMOBILE RACE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Promptly at six o'clock this morning the first car shot away from Westbury, Long Island, in the three hundred mile automobile race for the Vanderbilt Cup. There were sixteen starters. A G. Vanderbilt's machine did not start in the race. It got out of order at Garden City before starting for Westbury and could not be repaired in time to enter the contest. C. E. Dues's car broke its main driving wheel passing Queens and its chauffeur had to take the machine out of the race. Before the first machine went off on its three hundred mile journey the grand stand was packed with spectators and thousands of people lined the course eager to catch a glimpse of the whirling machines as they dashed by.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—A. the end of the fifth round Heath was in the lead. He had covered 151.20 miles in 3.01.50. Chicago will have six movable school houses next fall to take care of the city's shifting population.

HOME FROM THE BANQUET.

Mr. Russell's Guests Enthusiastic in Praise.

Best Ever in Canada—Resolutions of Thanks Passed to C. P. R. and I. C. P. Officials.

The St. John guests at the Russell banquet returned home today at 11 o'clock. All looked pleased with themselves and the world in general. They unanimously declared that the banquet was the greatest ever held in Canada, and they were lavish in their praise of Mr. Russell's hospitality. In the words of John J. Storey, it was fine. The sumptuousness of the viands, the thorough preparation of the reception of each guest, and the unstinted arrangements for entertainment, and general good times, caused the guests to imagine themselves multi-millionaires for the time being. Their stay in Montreal was also particularly pleasant, and the drive around the city was delightful.

The coachmen in the depot seemed to be the only disgruntled people on hand, for "there wasn't a bloom" one in the crowd that would take a coach. The only one, referring to the late guests. The St. John guests while at McAdam this morning passed a resolution of appreciation of the courteous attention which the officers of the C. P. R. gave to them throughout the trip. The resolution was moved by James Kennedy and seconded by A. B. Copp, M. F. P. E. and unanimously carried. Addresses were made by S. S. deForest, Mr. Copp, Col. Tucker, George Robertson, W. H. Trauman, Silas Alward, A. O. Skinner and Aid. Bullock.

A CONSERVATIVE VICTORY.

Government Candidate Sustained in Last British Election Though by a Reduced Majority.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—Harry Marks, chief editor of the Financial News, of this city, and a former New York newspaper man, has been elected to represent the life of Thanet in the House of Commons, though by a greatly reduced majority, succeeding the late James Lowther, who died Sept. 1. The figures were: Marks (Conservative) 401; King (Liberal) 362. The campaign was marked by violent personalities throughout. The dissident Unionists vied with the Liberals in appealing to the electors to uphold the principle of the integrity of public life rather than party success. The Liberals, however, claim that though many of their party abstained from voting no great number of dissident Unionists voted for Mr. King.

FUNERALS TODAY.

The funeral of the late Daniel Knowlton took place this afternoon from the church, Rev. A. D. Dendrey and Rev. R. Mathers conducted the service. Interment was made in Fernhill cemetery. The late George Duval was buried this afternoon from his daughter's residence, 22 Somerset street. Interment was made in Fernhill cemetery, Rev. Dr. Gates officiating.

LIBERAL CONSERVATIVES.

Government Candidates in Westmorland and York Selected Today—Emmerson and Gibson.

(Special to the Star.)

MONCTON, N. B., Oct. 8.—At noon today there was little sign of any Liberal convention, but delegations from the east and west are expected on trains which arrive here about 2.30 p. m. and will at once proceed to the Opera House where the convention is to meet. A large attendance is expected as free tickets on the railway have been generally distributed. Though Emmerson's friends claim to be confident of the result in Westmorland they are piling men into the government shops and many applicants of long standing have received word from political leaders that jobs are awaiting them on application. Conservatives are not boasting but give a good account of themselves on polling day.

(Special to the Star.)

FREDERICTON, N. B., Oct. 8.—There is a fair number in the city this morning from the county to attend the Liberal convention which meets at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. hall, York street. It being market day there are naturally many farmers in town but politics is a second consideration. However, they will probably stay over to take in the proceedings this afternoon. The number in town up to one o'clock is not nearly as large as in former years. Mr. Gibson will be nominated as no one else is even mentioned.

RELIGION OF THE PEOPLE.

Japan Will Become a Powerful Nation of Materialists—Future of Commerce.

The Japanese are the best fighting breeds in the whole universe, but from what I saw of them I think that they are going to strangle the world as it has not been strangled since Mahomet preached his gospel of the sword and built a world-dominating power out of a number of reckless nomadic bands.

Japan was a nation without a God, a nation that possessed no real spiritual ideals. Then the mikado came, and in place of a priest he gave them a rifle; in place of a temple he gave them a tent.

Once let that spirit awake in the East—and I believe from what I saw, that it is awakening—that we shall see an army offered by Japanese that will shake other powers besides Russia to their very foundations.

To the Japanese Christianity is a shadow, not a substance; dead ashes, not a living fire. They have not taken the Bible of the civilized world; but they have taken the rifle, and when such a people preach the gospel of the gun they are going to make a deep mark in the world's history.

WHY FELL INTO MOLTEN METAL. Terrible Accident Which Occurred to Two Iron Workers.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—A disaster almost without parallel in the history of the iron industry occurred at the Clarence Ironworks, Middlebrough, yesterday, when two men were literally hurled to death by a furnace.

There was a cry of horror from the men, and at the same moment James Gallagher and Alexander Scott fell headlong into the seething mass of molten iron, slag, and limestone in the furnace.

A third man was injured by a piece of flying metal, and was taken to the hospital.

The awestruck workmen stood helpless within a few feet of the fiery tomb of their comrades. They would willingly have been lowered into the Yac, but it meant certain death, for the temperature was 800 degrees, and moreover it was too late to save the men alive.

A fear arose that the bodies would be utterly consumed, and a messenger was despatched to a clergyman to ask him to read the committal prayer over the furnace.

He obeyed the call promptly, but when he arrived a few charred remains had been recovered by means of grappling irons.

They were reverently born to a neighboring inn to await the inquest.

The manager of the ironworks stated that the men could not have suffered, for "a more painless death could hardly be imagined."

GREAT NEWS. "There'll be some great excitement in Russia before long," said the man with the campaign cigar, "but I can't say the exact time."

"Well, I can," spoke up the man with the newspaper.

"When?"

"Why, when the imperial baby cuts his first tooth."

THE KNOCKOUT PUNCH.

Fighters Lose It After a Few Years' Work in the Ring—McCoy, McGovern and Attell as Examples.

(By Robert Edgren)

One of the old things noticed in following the fighting game is that fighters lose their "knockout punch" after a few years' work in the ring.

Take Terry McGovern. In '99—the year in which he became famous through knocking out Pedlar Palmer—the "terror" knocked out 13 opponents, the pick of the little fighters, and took decisions over three. Most of the finishing blows were landed in the first or second round.

During the past three years a majority of Terry's victories have been won on decisions.

Abbe Attell was a wonderful finisher. His first 15 battles were all won with knockouts, and not one of the them went over four rounds. In all of Attell's fights of '02 and '03 he did not land a slumber-producing punch. His wins were all on decisions.

The only knockout that he has scored of late was in his fight with Harry Forbes. Still Attell is a grand little fighter and in his prime.

Tommy Ryan, the middleweight champion, furnishes the one exception. Ryan has done as much hard fighting as any man in the ring, and he never has hesitated to meet his toughest rivals.

Tommy has exactly reversed the usual order of things. When he began fighting he rarely scored a knockout blow. Gradually he increased his hitting powers, until he has become as great a "finisher" as Bob Fitzsimmons.

In the last dozen of Ryan's battles, he has taken the line with a final "wallop," averaging four rounds of fighting.

SHORT STORIES.

Representative Livingston of Georgia repeats a story that was told him by a physician on duty at a hospital in Atlanta.

One day there entered the hospital a young colored woman badly bitten in the neck just back of the ear. The doctor who dressed the wound said to the patient:

"It perplexes me to determine just what sort of an animal bit you. This wound is too small to have been made by a horse and too large to have been inflicted by a dog or cat."

THE BISHOP'S KNICKERS.

Bishop Doane, of Albany, is the only prelate in the United States who appears in public wearing the clerical gaiters and knee breeches which are a part of the outdoor attire of a bishop of the English church.

What are those two, anyhow? demanded the foremost young rascal with a grin and a meaning glance at the Episcopal gaiters.

"He's Castab and I'm Albany," replied Bishop Doane, with a twinkle in his eye.

"Irrerent youngster snifled contemptuously. 'Blamed if you don't look it!' he declared. Then he moved rapidly off in the opposite direction.

SMOKING ON THE STREET IS AGAINST THE LAW. But Fortunately the Law is Not Enforced--St. John Has Many Such Dead Letter Enactments.

This city has never lacked by-laws regulating the conduct of its inhabitants.

Many of the civic ordinances, however, have become obsolete, while others are practically dead letters and seldom, if ever, enforced.

There is no doubt that some of the unenforced by-laws are impracticable and to enforce them would be exceeding the limit of reason.

Another by-law which is honored more in the breach than the observance is that relating to the dumping of coal and fire-wood upon the sidewalk.

European cities are not ahead of St. John in having a law forbidding the throwing of paper and other light refuse on the streets.

It is possible to enumerate almost indefinitely dead letter civic by-laws. Many of them, of course, will remain dead letters unless some one takes the trouble to enforce them.

Not long ago, said Nat Goodwin, "I was lunching with a friend and two grass widows, neither of whom had been divorced."

"One of the widows held up the wash-bone of the chicken."

"Let's see which will be married first," she said to the other grass widow.

"It seems to me," remarked my friend grimly, "that you'd better see which will be unmarried first."

MORE STANDARD BEARERS SELECTED ON BOTH SIDES.

W. A. Mott for Restigouche—Halifax Liberals are Blue--Nominations in P. E. I.--Foster's Opponent.

CAMPBELLTON, N. B., Oct. 7.—The first gun in the conservative campaign in Restigouche was fired today in Campbellton. This afternoon's convention was held for the purpose of selecting a candidate, and this evening a big meeting of the electors was held in the curling rink, the principal speaker being A. Powell, the conservative nominee for Westmorland.

At the convention every parish of the county was represented, and W. A. Mott, ex-M. P. P., was unanimously chosen as the standard bearer for the county. In accepting the nomination he pledged his best efforts and called upon the hearty support of the electors. Resolutions were passed expressing implicit confidence in R. L. Horden as the leader of the opposition and his policy respecting the trans-continental railway, after which officers were elected.

The proceedings were harmonious throughout, in the liberal camp here, where the party is divided, one faction favoring the nomination of Jas. Reid, the other that of William Murray. The meeting tonight was presided over by Hon. J. C. Barriere, ex-M. P., who made flattering references to the candidate, saying he was well qualified to take a position in any legislative body in Canada. He introduced Mr. Mott as the first speaker.

Mr. Mott, on being called, said that he had closed his political experience had the unanimous expression of his compatriots, and would seek to do them honor by the liberal platform. Referring to the liberal platform of 1898, he asked what plank had ever become crystallized into law? Not a single one, he claimed, and great credit for the property of the country, but he was of the opinion that it was due almost entirely to the well-defined and fair-minded policy of the conservatives, which the liberals had borrowed.

Touching upon the well-defined and fair-minded policy of the conservatives, which the liberals had borrowed. Touching upon the well-defined and fair-minded policy of the conservatives, which the liberals had borrowed. Touching upon the well-defined and fair-minded policy of the conservatives, which the liberals had borrowed.

In closing, Mr. Mott referred to Mr. Powell, who had been nominated in Westmorland, as one of the veterans of the conservative party, and hoped that he would have the pleasure of constituting him on Nov. 3rd on his election.

panion of trade. Where was the balance of trade? In dealings with the United States we paid $80,000,000 more than they paid us. Under the liberal rule taxation had increased from $5.45 to $9.33 per head.

The speakers were eagerly listened to in spite of the chilly atmosphere of the building, and cheer for the candidates were heartily given. John McAllister and George Moffat, who were mentioned as probable candidates, are actively supporting the nominee. With discussion in the liberal ranks and a strong united opposition, prospects are bright for the election of Mr. Mott on November 3rd.

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 7.—Hon. W. S. Fielding and Hon. H. B. Emmerson addressed a public meeting in Halifax tonight, which had been largely advertised by the liberals as the opening of their campaign in this riding.

It was attended by about 1,000 people, who less than half filled the building where it was held, and there was no manifestation of enthusiasm, a great contrast in this respect to the liberal meetings in Halifax on former occasions. The meeting was undoubtedly a disappointment to its managers. The liberal candidates, Carney and Roche, spoke first, followed by Emmerson and Fielding. The reception given to these gentlemen by the audience was commonplace, and when the meeting broke up at half-past eleven, there was no cheering.

OTTAWA, Oct. 7.—Nominating conventions were held by both political parties tonight. Thos. Birkett and the nominees, Nap. Belcourt and Robt. Stewart were selected by the liberal party. The conservatives are nominating Nap. Belcourt and Robt. Stewart.

HON. MR. SIFTON left today for the west on a Victoria left. Sir Adolphe Caron was waiting on today and tendered the conservative nomination for the county of Prescott. Sir Adolphe promised a definite answer in a few days.

Attorney General Pugsley of New Brunswick was in the city today and held an interview with Laurier.

EVERYTHING BUT A PEACH

Pugsley a Pearl, Diamond, Prince, Genius.

Our Own Attorney General Described by J. N. Greenfields—David Russell a Great Man.

MONTREAL, Oct. 7.—The Russell banquet to Hon. Wm. Pugsley at the Caledonia Hotel, Caledonia Springs, last night is the talk of the town today. Those who were there are unanimous in reporting it a great success. It must have cost $50,000 a banquet of money. The transportation of the maritime people in great style, giving each one not merely a berth but a whole section to himself. There were no upper berths.

It looked like rain here and Mr. Russell had provided 250 umbrellas for his friends, which were not needed, however. Cigars were liberally furnished and all other portions of the dinner were in keeping.

The only thing puzzling Montrealers is what it was all meant for. The maritime province men were entertained to drive about town this morning by Mr. Russell, leaving for home this afternoon by a special train and will reach St. John about ten o'clock Saturday morning.

J. N. Greenfields' speech at the banquet was particularly interesting. He proposed the toast of the host of the evening, saying: "We all recognize the great contrast in this respect to the country. We all recognized that they had sent to the centre of this Canada of ours the brightest intellects in politics, in commerce and in law. (Hear, hear). We all recognized what the east had done for the country. We all recognized what the east had done for the country. We all recognized what the east had done for the country."

When Mr. Blair found Mr. Pugsley he found the greatest pearl and the most brilliant diamond he would ever possess in his life. They had heard of the name of Pugsley, but they had not known him at the forum, and at the bar, where it was a prince to speak, but it was due to Mr. Russell, who spanned the chasm, so to speak, and enabled them to stretch out across and shake hands with the intellectual genius of the east. (Cheers). There is a great country to develop, but the Dominion of Canada in the future, it might be fifty or it might be one hundred years, would control the substance of the North American continent. We could do it if we raised men like David Russell. (Loud cheers).

This afternoon Mr. Russell's friends presented him with a massive silver service. Hon. Frank Sweeney made the presentation.

ITALIAN DESPARADOES.

BREWSTER, N. Y., Oct. 7.—Two Italians working on one of the reservoirs belonging to the city of New York, were fatally shot late last night, and a third was so badly lacerated that it is believed he will die. As a result Sheriff Jacob and a posse are searching for a party of seven Italians, the ringleader of which formerly worked with the murdered men. Yesterday was pay day at the reservoir, and a pair of men known as "Big Frank," who conducts a boarding house, and demanded money of the dozen men who lived there. Before the victims could offer any resistance the brigands opened fire, and Genaro Trivoli was hit through the heart. The other two were shot in the legs and died. A third man was probably fatally stabbed. Before the robbers escaped they got several of the pay envelopes of the men. The men are now believed to be in hiding in the woods north of this place.

SHOT BY HIS STEPSON.

AUBURN, Me., Oct. 7.—James Hiltz, aged about 50 years, was shot tonight by his stepson, Harry Tobin, a boy 16 years old. A bullet from a 22-caliber revolver, pierced his left lung and his condition is critical. Tobin disappeared after the shooting, but later surrendered to the police, who had instituted a search for him in this city and Lewiston. The boy gave no explanation of the shooting.

TRAPPED, SHOT HIMSELF.

The End of an Outlaw Who for Weeks Stood Off the Officers.

EAST GLASTONBURY, Conn., Oct. 7.—John Whipple, the farmer who for two weeks has defied capture by the state police, was hemmed in and caught in a barn at South Glastonbury at 5 o'clock this afternoon. Finding himself trapped he put two bullets into his own head. He is being taken to Hartford, but may not live to get there. Since September 22 Whipple had defied the officers of the law who wanted him in the first place for shooting a neighbor, and later for setting fires which destroyed two sets of farm buildings, and since last Sunday on the additional charge of shooting State Officer Look. Almost every day for three weeks Whipple has kept in the woods, and although the man hunt has been kept up in all the surrounding country no attempt was made to beat the woods, in which it was thought Whipple had cover. It was known that he was heavily armed and that he would shoot anyone who attempted to take him, as was shown by his wounding Officer Look, who had surprised him at home.

LET WOMEN TO DROWN.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 7.—Coasting steamer Boscowitz, built in Victoria in 1881, ran on a rock Sunday night at Half-Blooded Island, 300 miles north of here. Among the passengers were 150 Indians returning home from the Fraser River canneries. When the steamer struck the Indians' behavior was disgraceful. Women and children were being lowered into a lifeboat when one of the Indians cut the falls into the water and were drowned. A disgraceful fight for life followed, but fortunately all were got ashore except the unfortunate children. A short time after landing the passengers the steamer broke in two and disappeared. She had six hundred tons of freight on board for the northern camp.

RAILWAY MEN MUSTN'T SLEEP.

No Possible Excuse for Negligence While on Duty—An Important Decision.

MOWWISTOWN, N. J., Oct. 4.—Judge Swartz in county court has refused to affirm a point in law that when a railroad employe falls asleep from physical weakness from illness or from weariness from long hours of steady employment and an accident happens, the employe should be acquitted. The case was that of John P. Fleischhut, an engineer on a Pennsylvania railroad freight train. The freight train and passenger train collided near Poynton last August, two persons were killed and a dozen injured. The crew of the freight train were held by the coroner's jury for criminal negligence. Fleischhut was the first to be tried. It was testified by the coroner that the freight train had been ordered to wait on a siding until four trains had passed. He said the crew had been on duty for 2 hours and that while waiting for the trains to pass had fallen asleep. Before the passenger train had passed the fourth train had gone by the freight train was taken from the siding. Before the case went to the jury Fleischhut's attorney made the point above stated. In refusing to affirm it Judge Swartz held that a man had a right to work on a railroad unless in fine physical condition and if he fell asleep no matter from what cause, he should lose his position.

PROPOSED ON IMPULSE, WEDDED.

Interesting Romance in Which Ottawa Hotel Man and New York Woman Figured.

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 3.—A romance is attached to the announcement of the marriage of P. X. St. Jacques, proprietor of the Victoria Hotel, Aylmer, to Mrs. Helen Parker, of New York. Mrs. Parker was staying at the Hotel Victoria. She was an old friend of St. Jacques, who met her first in New York. St. Jacques is impulsive. When he makes up his mind he acts quickly. At seven o'clock one evening he made a proposal of marriage to Mrs. Parker. "Do you mean it?" she asked in surprise. "Never meant anything more in my life," was the reply. "But when?" "That would be impossible." "No, I can fix that all right," replied Mr. St. Jacques. Mrs. Parker could not resist his persuasiveness and consented. Together they went to the rectory of Christ the King, where the knot was tied by the Rev. Rural Dean Taylor. Five minutes before he made the proposal St. Jacques did not know he was going to do it, and so was not prepared with license, ring and witnesses, which are usual at such functions. But with the assistance of the Rev. Rural Dean the matter was arranged.

SQUARE WAS UNROKEN.

The End of the Recent Fight Between Portuguese and Cuanhamas.

LISBON, Oct. 7.—In the chamber of deputies today, the minister of marine made a detailed statement of the recent fighting in Portuguese Southwest Africa, when a force of Portuguese operating against the Cuanhamas were ambushed by tribesmen as they were crossing the Cunene river. The minister said that when the attack was made the detachment formed a square, which was subjected to a heavy fire and at once moment had to defend itself with bayonets. The square was not broken, but their troops became panic-stricken and were thrown into confusion. A hand to hand conflict, unequal against bayonet, was the principal feature of the engagement. Reinforcements sent to the relief of the detachment only succeeded in saving a few of the wounded. The commander of the detachment re-crossed the Cunene river with his force and returned to Humbero, where he now is secure, having sustained no further losses.

GALE INTERFERES

With Active Operations by the Japanese Fleet at Port Arthur.

Continuance of the gale which developed on Oct. 4 precludes active operations by the Japanese fleet blockading Port Arthur. The British steamer Slahon, with a cargo of cattle and flour from Shanghai for Port Arthur, has been seized by the Japanese. A detachment of the Finland Guard, which had been ordered to leave St. Petersburg for the East, is still raging, preventing communication with Port Arthur.

THE M'CALEER ESTATE.

Fight Over Will to Be Carried to Supreme Court.

The Boston Herald says: The contest over the will of John B. McAleer, the millionaire master builder, is to be tried by a supreme court jury. The question whether he was unduly influenced by John B. McAleer, Jr., his son, Judge Morton yesterday allowed the portion of the contestants' motion to have the jury try out whether the testator was or was not of sound mind when the will was made.

The will, which was allowed by the probate court, but which comes before the supreme court on the appeal of the three daughters (who are the contestants) Annie, Helen and Sarah McAleer—places the bulk of the property in trust and provides that the income shall be distributed among the contestants and John and Mary, the other children, and that on the death of the last survivor of them the trust property shall be divided among the grandchildren. John, the son, is the only married one of the children. The trial will probably be held next April.

BIG RAILWAY CHANGE.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—The Record-Herald tomorrow will say W.C. Brown, vice president of the New York Central and Lake Shore and Michigan Southern roads, is to be elected president of both roads, probably effective January 1, 1905. It is said that arrangements for the change have been completed and that W. H. Newman has expressed a desire to retire from the presidency of both roads and accept a position as chairman of the boards. It is said, according to the Record-Herald, that Senator Chauncey M. Depew, who is now chairman of both executive boards, will relinquish both positions.

WANT A CHEAPER RATE.

MONTREAL, Oct. 7.—(Civic authorities and the Montreal Light, Heat and Power Company are negotiating. The company desires a new franchise and the citizens want a reduction in the price of gas. The present price is $1.20 for lighting and $1 for heating, and it is likely these rates will be reduced to $1 and 50 cents respectively.)

WOMAN'S REALM.

HOUSEHOLD INFORMATION.

A Tested Method of Washing—The woman who does her own washing can save time and strength by using a wash ball prepared as follows: One can of potato, one ounce of ammonia crystals, one ounce of saltpetre, one gallon of boiling water. Pour the water on the potato, which has been placed in a deep receptacle; add the other ingredients, cover till cold, then set away in glass jars. The potato will boil violently when the water touches it, and great care must be taken to avoid burning one's hands.

To wash by this method, sort the clothes as usual, soap over night and wring. In the morning fill the boiler with water, and while it is heating have half a pound of laundry soap into a quart of water and boil till dissolved. When the water in the boiler is hot, add the dissolved soap and two-thirds of a cupful of the fluid; and when it has come to a boil put in the clothes in the usual order. Remove from the boiler to the rinse water. Rinse in three waters.

Pieces which will need to be rubbed, the others will be found clean and free from stains when removed from the boiler.

Clothes washed in this way will be white and clear, and last longer than if rubbed in the old-fashioned way. I tried this method on a farrow's wife, and have tested it for ten years.

Good Bread from Inferior Flour—Many housewives who think good white bread can only be made from high-grade flour. This is a mistake. The highest grade has so much of the food value of the wheat taken out by repeated bolting that the delicious nutty flavor is lacking. The second grade, while made from as good wheat, is coarser and darker, and if used in the same manner often makes dark, sticky bread, which is unpalatable.

Sticky bread, which is unpalatable, is made by using this flour and a bread which is white and light, of a nutty flavor, and more nutritious than that made from first-grade flour.

I set my yeast with a pint of tepid water, one cake of yeast foam and four cakes of a thin batter, which I beat thoroughly and set aside till foamy. I then fill my pan about half full of flour, and into this pour a quart of boiling water, stirring quickly to avoid lumping. Add a pint of water, let it stand till the yeast is warm, then add yeast and beat thoroughly. Let it rise several hours, or over night, add salt and knead with the hand, adding more flour as necessary. Knead until it blisters, cover and let rise in a warm place, and when risen to twice its size bake in a loaf pan.

The crust will be a lovely brown, and the odor which comes from the crisp finished loaf will make you hungry.

I have not had poor bread since making it in this way. My husband says, "No one could ask for better bread. It is better than that made from flour which costs more than gold."

A Nice Way to Keep Grapes—Select nice bunches of grapes, carefully picking out any that are unsound, having them perfectly clean. Warm a can of sealing wax; take each bunch separately, dip the stem in warm wax (not hot), lay back on table for wax to harden. Have a clean, dry barrel or box—a sugar barrel is nice if one wishes to put up so many, place a layer of paper on the bottom, then a layer of grapes, another layer of paper, and so on until the barrel is full. Then set in a cool, dry place; they will easily keep until Christmas.

The Bean Pot—I believe every household should have a bean pot. I had the misfortune to scald myself very badly. There was no oil or anything on hand to apply, and I was nearly frantic with pain, when someone suggested trying scraped potato. This was done, and it very quickly eased the pain. Scrape the potato and put a thick layer of it over the burned place. As soon as it turns brown, remove it and add a fresh layer.

A Plea for Dates—In some parts of Africa, Arabia and India dates form the daily bread of millions of people, as well as much of their wealth. In this country we use them now as a dessert, being nutritious and mildly laxative. Dates contain fifty-eight per cent. of sugar, besides a kind of gum. A liquor like wine is made from them by fermentation, also a kind of generally used in cooking, being so healthful, inexpensive and easily obtained. I have used them in pies, puddings and cake with good results. I even put dates in a rhubarb pie, in puddings instead of raisins. One can find by experimenting many uses for them.

When I speak of date pie several people have asked how I made it, having never heard of such a thing. This is my recipe, which is pronounced good: One heaping cupful of dates stewed and sifted, three cupfuls milk, two eggs, two tablespoonfuls brown sugar, vanilla to flavor. Bake slowly till firm, using one crust.

lettuce leaves, there is nothing more cool and refreshing in appearance for the summer luncheon table. Tomatoes form the basis of numerous palatable dishes, and are most acceptably used as a flavoring for soups and sauces. The following are merely a few suggestions, illustrative of the ways in which the tomato may be utilized, and which the housewife will have no difficulty in carrying out to suit her own fancy.

Raw Tomatoes.—Select good, firm tomatoes, pare and set on the ice to become thoroughly chilled. Slice and serve with shaved ice upon lettuce leaves.

Tomato Salad.—Pare the tomatoes, and cut each into about eight pieces, adding a little chopped onion if desired. Serve on lettuce leaves with mayonnaise. Many prefer to slice the tomatoes instead of cutting them in pieces.

Tomatoes Stuffed with Peanuts.—Choose firm tomatoes, pare and slice out part of the inside, filling the space with a mixture of chopped peanuts and mayonnaise. Serve on lettuce leaves. The combination of tomatoes, peanuts and mayonnaise may seem a strange one, but if tried it will be almost sure to be liked.

Boiled Tomatoes.—Do not pare, but cut in slices, and broil to a delicate brown, under a broiler. When done, take up carefully, dot with butter, season with pepper and salt, and serve at once. These will be found good with breakfast.

Fried Tomatoes (1).—Like broiled tomatoes, these should not be pared, but cut in slices, and fry in butter, browned and serve on a heated dish with the juice in the pan poured over them as it is cooking.

Fried Tomatoes (2).—These are fried directed in the preceding recipe, dip into beaten egg, then into bread crumbs, which is made by dusting a little flour into the juice, which remains in the pan, and adding milk or cream till it is of the right consistency.

Fried Tomatoes (3).—Pare and slice as directed in the preceding recipe, dip in beaten egg, then in bread crumbs, and fry in hot fat. Take up carefully to avoid breaking, and serve at once.

Scalloped Tomatoes.—Having prepared the tomatoes by paring and slicing, place a layer of them in a baking dish, dot with butter and sprinkle with pepper and salt, and sugar. Cover this with a layer of bread crumbs, which, of course, must be stale, and alternate the layers till the dish is filled. Bake in a moderate oven, and serve in the same manner.

Baked Tomatoes.—Select solid, smooth tomatoes of uniform size, do not pare, scoop out a cavity in the center, make a filling of stale bread crumbs, salt, pepper and sweet marjoram to taste, chopped onion, and a little butter. Fill the tomatoes with this mixture, put a bit of butter on top of each one, and a little butter in the pan, and bake in a moderate oven.

Cream of Tomato Soup.—This, if properly made, is a most delicate soup, especially for summer. Stew the tomatoes (there should be sufficient to make a pint when cooked) with a sprig of parsley, a blade of mace and a bay leaf, allowing them to stew for fifteen minutes. Strain, and add a teaspoonful of sugar. Put a quart of milk on to boil, and when boiling thick with two tablespoonfuls of flour, and one good tablespoonful of butter, which have been rubbed together, stir into the soup, and when smooth, add to this the strained tomatoes. Stir until it boils, and then season with salt and pepper to taste.

Tomato Soup.—Stew sufficient tomatoes to make a quart when cooked, with a pint of stock, a small onion, a bay leaf, and a sprig of parsley. Stew ten minutes and strain through a fine sieve. Return to the fire, and when boiling thick, add two tablespoonfuls of corn starch or flour. Add a teaspoonful of sugar, salt and pepper to taste, and serve at once.

Tomato Sauce.—Stew enough tomatoes to make a pint when cooked, with a small onion, a bay leaf, a blade of mace, and a sprig of parsley. Stew gently about ten minutes and strain through a sieve. Melt a tablespoonful of butter, add to it a tablespoonful of flour, and when smooth, add to this the strained tomatoes. Stir until it boils, and then season with salt and pepper to taste.

Tomato Catsup.—Pare the tomatoes, stew one hour, and mash through a colander. To one gallon of juice add six tablespoonfuls of salt, three of mustard, three of black pepper, one-half teaspoonful of allspice, the same of cloves, one teaspoonful of cinnamon, one tablespoonful of sugar, three small red pepper pods, one onion, and a pint of vinegar. Boil four hours, and seal in air-tight bottles.

Chili Sauce.—Take four dozen large ripe tomatoes, sixteen onions, sixteen green peppers, twelve tablespoonfuls of salt, the same of sugar, four cupfuls of vinegar. Chop all together until fine, and cook two and a half hours. Just before taking off add two ounces of celery seed.—Kate L. Robb, in New York Observer.

of sand-paper as they are worn out. If it is very rusty it will be worth for a man.

Now wipe with a cloth dampened with kerosene and examine carefully. If nearly smooth, rub the rough places with some of the finer sand-paper, which will sometimes be successful when the coarser has not quite removed the rust spot.

Wipe with kerosene again, and wash with hot water and soap, rubbing the bar of soap over all the iron, and wash it, then rinse with clean hot water. Now, wipe dry, grease with clean lard, not kerosene, and leave over night.

Years ago a plumber told me (and fifteen years of housekeeping have proved his truth) that kerosene must never be left upon an iron sink, as it will cause the iron to rust every time, and the last state of that sink will be worse than the first. In the morning wash off the lard, and if upon examination any rusty places are found request the process of rubbing with sand-paper and greasing with lard till the sink is in perfect condition. Then, to keep it so, every time the dishes are washed, rub a piece of soap all over the iron work and wash off thoroughly. Rinse with clean water, hot if possible, and dry.

Never omit the process of wiping dry, as it will be impossible to keep the iron smooth and bright, and made for them. The crimson and scarlet skins make artistic wall decorations.

Coloring, velvet-finished sheepskins, lends admirably to applique work. Skins of this kind cost from $125 upward, and all sorts of beautiful things can be made from them. The crimson and scarlet skins make artistic wall decorations.

One of the most quantity decorative pieces last year of the day is square and mediæval in suggestion, made of dull-black iron. It has stained glass lights, and is secured to the side wall by means of iron bolts.

Barbaric ornament is sometimes very acceptable, for example, on dark corners, where their gay, bright colorings shine out acceptably. Brilliant scarlet, orange, gold, vivid blues, all play their part, but it is not wise to use them in masses.

Swinging davenport have appeared in many new styles this season; some of them with much lace, and look airy and cool; others are of heavier reds, split rear and cane settees are readily converted into these swinging luxuries by cutting off their legs, strengthening their joinings and hanging them in place by means of suitable hooks.

The handsomest and most substantial swinging seats are of dark, turned oak, with iron chains for suspension and the best condition unless this is done. It takes strong beams to hold this style of hanging davenport, for they are very heavy.

the oriental department of our largest shops one runs across real bargains in gay barbaric mats wrought in raised gold and silks, and edged with glittering gold fringes.

PURNISHING NOTES.

A first-class linoleum is after all the best covering for a bathroom floor that is not of the tiled variety. Linoleums and best-grade oilcloths showing a white ground and a small all-over figure in pale-blue or pale-green, look clean and wholesome. In front of the bathtub should be one of those raised rubber mats that hold any water that may be spilled from the tub or come from wet feet. Over this may be laid the Turkish cotton bath rug to stand upon after bathing. On a tiled bathroom floor there seems to be necessary some sort of wooden rug, as it is not wise to stand on warm, soft on to cold surface. The carpet samples that are sold twice a year at the carpet sales of department stores make very fine bath mats, and are quite inexpensive.

Sales of carpet samples, neatly bound with leather at the edges, take place semi-regularly, say in May and January. At these sales one sometimes comes across lovely yard-and-a-half samples that make delightful rugs.

THE LAP OF LUXURY.

By RENE BACH. (Saturday Evening Post.)

Good clothes are an expression of money as applied to the human superficies, and it is not without reason that a well-dressed person is treated with greater respect even by strangers on account of his or her attire, which should be, so to speak, the outward and visible sign of an inward and spiritual grace. The pleasure of being perfectly gowned has been said to surpass the satisfaction derivable from the consolations of religion, and scarce anybody will deny that a more substantial joy is to be obtained from a sum of money invested in a handsome and becoming garment than from an equal amount of value in any other form whatsoever.

The sums expended in clothes by the very rich are astonishing. It is true that even the multi-millionaire, though his apparel comes to a pretty penny, is obliged to be severely simple in his own attire, but in the counting of his wife and daughters he has an opportunity to open wide his overflowing purse. For the cost of a woman's wardrobe has practically no limit, and a lady of highest fashion can hardly be comfortable on a dress allowance of less than $50,000 a year. Her husband is liberal, he may give her $25,000 without fear that he is encouraging her to indulge an undue extravagance.

SOME OF MILADY'S FROCKS. In order to be comfortable a woman of fashion ought to have at least sixty frocks a year. Five of these should be tailor-made suits for street wear. There should be fifteen evening gowns, ten dinner gowns, and six "little dresses," as they are called, of soft wools and silks, for informal afternoon wear. To these should be added five summer dresses of the French maillots, with much lace and embroidery, and half a dozen tailor-made linen suits, also for warm weather.

The street suits cost from $125 to $250 apiece. They are severely plain, and that is why they are so expensive, the glove-like fit being all-important. The finest tailoring is done on the simplest gowns, and that is for this reason: that the lines suit, above mentioned, come to $75 or $100 each. A fashionable dressmaker will charge from $150 to $175 for the evening and dinner gowns, $85 to $150 for the "little dresses," and $100 to $200 for the summer maillots, with their dainty trills and furberlows.

Of "tea gowns," in which my lady may receive her very intimate friends on occasions, she will have three or four (costing from $60 to $80), adorned with much lace, and one of them trimmed with fur, perhaps, and the others will be supplemented by an equal number of wrappers, of soft silks and batistes (fashionably known as "negligee"), equally expensive and trimmed with Valenciennes. She is not seen in a wrapper, and that is for this reason: that the lines suit, above mentioned, come to $75 or $100 each. A fashionable dressmaker will charge from $150 to $175 for the evening and dinner gowns, $85 to $150 for the "little dresses," and $100 to $200 for the summer maillots, with their dainty trills and furberlows.

My lady gets her shoes by contract—a method that saves both money and trouble. If she bought them in the ordinary way she would pay from $10 to $15 a pair for them; by contract they cost her only $5 to $12. Her last is kept by the maker, so that she has none of the bother of being fitted, and twice a year she receives from the shop six pairs of dainty boots. Of course, she has to have slippers to match each of her gowns in color, and when she wants them to correspond in respect to the material, she sends a bit of the brocade or other fabric to the manufacturer, paying $2.50 to have them made up. For lace slippers she gives $7.5 a pair.

Similarly, she has the kid for her gloves specially dyed and made up to order, and they cost her $8 to $15 for sixteen to twenty-button lengths. But for calling she uses only white gloves, which are never worn more than once. Her lace veils come to $8 each as $10 apiece, and her parasols (of which she must have at least a dozen, to match different gowns) run up as high as $100, being trimmed with chiffon and lace.

Now, in reckoning the cost of the millinery of which she is surrounded, one should not omit consideration of those articles of apparel which, while essential, are not exhibited to the public eye—corsets, for example. It is a common thing nowadays for women of means to buy their corsets, like their shoes, by contract. For $160 to $200 a year a dealer will guarantee to keep a customer well corseted, the smaller sum allowing for five pairs. Ordinarily the material is French Coutil, but for a payment of from $250 up until corset is supplied. In all cases the corsets are kept in repair without extra charge, as part of the agreement.

My lady must have at least a dozen petticoats—the cheapest of them $25 to $35 apiece, and the most expensive (French works of art in lingerie, trimmed with Valenciennes) running up to $150. She will require an equal number of corset-covers, at $50 each, hand-embroidered and lace-trimmed, and twelve chemises, at $75 each, will be none too many. Of nightgowns, the matter of which is "handkerchief-linen lawn," she will need a dozen, and, for wearing in the seclusion of her bedroom, she must have three or four dressing-jackets (more correctly known nowadays as "matiness") of accordion-plaited silk, pale blue or pink. Both nightgowns and jackets are elaborately adorned with real lace, each garment costing $100 or so, and the dressing-sleeves, when worn with petticoats to match, make quite half-dressed costumes.

Young Mrs. Millionaire, whose indulgent husband denies her nothing that money can buy, has half a dozen opera cloaks, which cost from $1,000 to $5,000, the less expensive ones being of light-colored broadcades and silks, lace-trimmed. The finest one is of sable and ermine.

Mrs. Millionaire has a muff and box of sable (the most expensive, and therefore most fashionable, fur today) which cost $5,000, and a sealskin jacket with sable trimmings worth $1,000. Her long coat of broadcades lined with Persian lamb is valued at $1,500, and she possesses other fur garments equally expensive. But all of her furs are made over again and again into various forms, to suit the changing styles from season to season, and her almost priceless laces, with praiseworthy economy, are transferred to material from one article of costume to another.

ACRES OF DIAMONDS. Not long ago one of the ladies of the diplomatic suite returned from Europe to Washington with $100,000 worth of gowns and hats, which she had purchased while abroad. The outfit, as described by a remarkable photographer of it were printed in the newspapers. But the expensive raiment of the foreigner has been thrown into the shade by the gorgeous apparel of another young woman of the National Capital, who was presented at the Court of St. James the other day in a dress that cost as much as all of her rival's costume put together.

As described by an appreciative fashion writer, pearls and diamonds were sprinkled over her gown as beads or sequins are strung on an ordinary frock. The white satin skirt, veiled in silver tulle, was "embroidered" from belt to hem with wheat-heads done in small pearls, and with spears of wheat tipped with small but pure diamonds to represent dewdrops. Diamonds and pearls were used to fringe the tulle drapery; the ostrich feathers worn in the hair were spangled with white pearls, and even the white slippers, which alone cost $2,000, were embellished with the wheat decorations. The corsage was trimmed by a stonacher of large diamonds and emeralds, and a tiara of similar stones crowned the wearer's head. The report is that the cost of the frock alone at $100,000, but the whole costume, including the jewelry, represented by her report, is not less than half a million dollars.

With rubies at $40,000 for a single stone, and pearls at $6,000 to $20,000 apiece, even the money of a multimillionaire does not carry him far in the purchase of jewelry. A necklace of pearls worth $300,000 is nothing extraordinary, and $100,000 is certainly not too much to pay for a tiara, while a "stonacher" to match may cost about $100,000. Here, be it noticed, is an expenditure of half a million dollars on three pieces of jewelry. The cost of a lady of fashion needs ornaments for the corsage, a few very costly rings, and a number of minor articles of bijouterie.

Most people are so ignorant about such matters as not to know what a jeweled stonacher is, though they are made to cover the digestive region. This, as a matter of fact, is not accurately descriptive, the article in question being in reality merely a somewhat elaborate ornament, of no prescribed shape or pattern, which, admiring attention to the neighborhood of the solar plexus, but which, if preferred, may be attached with security to the corsage. One of New York's most fashionable women possesses a stonacher that is made of gem stones, and is valued at $100,000.

Mr. Millionaire's raiment costs him about $6,000 per annum, the chief item of his wardrobe being suits of tweed. With this allowance he can always look as if newly emerged from a handkerchief, and being kept in perfect order by his valet, to whom they fall as a perquisite when discarded. He pays $15 for a suit of tweed, a frock coat, and $85 for a business suit. Each year he has a new dress suit, and a new "tux" about every five days, with yachting suits and white flannels for summer are incidental requisites.

A man of fashion changes his shirt three times a day, and wears six dozen of these garments as few as he can get long with comfortably. The laundry wears them out so fast that, as a matter of course, a complete new supply is required every year. He wants a dozen evening-dress shirts (with black bodies and linen bosoms and cuffs), which cost $15.00 apiece; also twelve Tuxedo shirts, of linen, at $10 each, and a dozen evening-dress shirts at $8.50 apiece. In addition, he must have a dozen plaited-bosom shirts at $2.50 apiece, twelve stiff-bosomed fancy shirts at the same price, and an equal number of silk negligee shirts at $2.50 each.

Mr. Millionaire's underclothes are all of silk. His raiment consists of 110 each of woxy ones at $20 each, twelve suits of medium weight at $35 each, and an equal number of light-weight drawers and undershirts at $25 a suit. This signifies an investment of over $1,800 in undergarments alone, and, inasmuch as he changes them every day, they wear out rapidly in the wash, and the supply has to be entirely renewed once in 12 months. In the same length of time he uses up six dozen stockings at $5 to $7 a pair, and two dozen suits of silk suspenders worth only $15 a pair, but the gold buckles cost $75 at the jeweler's. Frequently each buckle has set with diamonds or other precious stones. Mr. Millionaire's garters, too, have golden clasps. In fact, the minutest details of his attire are of an expensive far beyond the reach of men of moderate means, and the few little articles of bijouterie which the fashion of the day permits him to adorn himself are obviously the most costly articles of his kind that money can buy.

COMPARISON. Eva—Here comes Gussie Glucose. He reminds me of a Chicago river tunnel. Edna—Because you are struck on him? Eva—Of course not. Because he is always in the way and hard to get rid of.

THE BIG FAIR MADE MONEY.

The Exhibition Accounts Will Probably Show a Surplus

But Managers are Keeping it Dark —Previous Exhibitions, Except 1902, Generally Behind.

The accounts of the recent exhibition have not as yet all been made up. The bills against the association are slow to come in, and until they have all been charged up it is difficult to tell how the association will come out financially.

While no exact statement can be given at this date, the Star understands that this year's fair will show a surplus, probably about the size of that in 1902, or somewhat smaller.

This should be very gratifying to the present officials, who also managed to turn the record from that of deficits to one of surpluses in the first year of their management.

The accounts for the three previous exhibitions are as follows: 1902—Receipts $37,042.25; expenditures, $24,448. Balance $12,594.30. From this should be taken a total of $12,594.30 for outstanding accounts, leaving a surplus of $1,998.00.

The exhibition before that, in 1900, went behind to the extent of $6,788.64. The figures are: Receipts $20,863.18; Expenditures $27,651.82; Deficit $6,788.64.

The deficiency in 1899 was considerably smaller, both expenses and receipts being unusually low.

Receipts $19,472.80; Expenditures $20,863.18; Deficit $1,390.38.

BANK CLERKS CAN'T SMOKE.

Bank of Nova Scotia Issues a New Order to Clerks Under 21 Years.

The Bank of Nova Scotia has issued another circular in its endeavors to correct the morals and habits of its younger employees. Now all under twenty-one years of age are forbidden to use the filthy cigarette, to chew tobacco of any kind or even to indulge in the luxury of an after-dinner pipe.

This not only applies to office hours, but is supposed to be strictly adhered to by the young men when out of the office, at the club or even in their own homes.

The boys in the other banks are having a little fun at the expense of their Nova Scotia brethren, and affect the "mammoth" habit when out of the office, at the club or even in their own homes.

This order has been sent out from headquarters and the bank's branch in other banks have adopted any such rule, and declare it is nonsensical, and impossible to be enforced.

A FARMER, A PIG AND A DUCK.

A farmer in Queenstown had a cool evening yesterday. He had taken a large pig to the wharf at that place and was waiting for the steamer in order to ship it to St. John. When the steamer came, the farmer was tripped and fell into the water. His rubber boots and heavy overcoat were thrown about him, and he was unable to swim around the wharf to shore, but he finally got a footing on a log of the wharf, and he climbed up.

Afraid to leave his pig for fear of missing the boat he waited over half an hour in his wet clothes and was nearly frozen when the boat arrived. All this time the pig remained quietly on the wharf, as his kicking days had ceased a few hours before he left the farmer's barn.

A GOOD MOVE.

The football management are taking steps to have the Shamrock grounds properly fitted up for the playing of games. It has been decided to have a row of iron stakes driven in the ground about 15 feet from the side lines of the field, and a wire rope strung along. One will be allowed inside the ropes by officials, and the annoying running of these arrangements will materially aid in bettering the game, and the spectators should aid the management in their arrangements by doing what they can do to keep the field clear.

A drunken man aboard of her created some excitement on the trip down river; as the steamer neared the wharf, he stood by the open gangway, a sudden lurch of the boat caused him to lose his balance and he would have received a cold ducking but for the timely assistance of Dr. Gilchrist, who happened to catch hold of him as he was falling and draw him back to safety.
