STILL TUGGING AWAY AT THOSE SUNKEN CARS IN THE THOROUGFARE.
ATLANTIC CITY, Nov. 6.—This photograph, taken yesterday, shows how the effect of the catastrophic refuse to be obliterated, in spite of half a dozen wrecking crews. The trucks of all the cars have been recovered, and none of them is broken. This apparently disproves the theories of the railroad men and backs up the first statement that the wreck was due to improperly locked rails on the drawbridge.

SMALL PAJAMAS.
4768—Mothers who are looking to the welfare of their children in the way of the most suitable apparel, have found the small pajamas exceedingly small boy or girl. Here is given an excellent model for pajamas, loose enough to insure every comfort and yet so constructed so as to be very warm. Unlike the nightgown, this cannot be kicked off so as to expose the small person to the cold. The pajamas shown are made of washing flannel and fastened with washable frogs which add to the attractiveness. A soft turnover collar makes a pretty finish for the neck. Any washable fabric such as madras, gingham or flannel may serve as material. These garments are very simply constructed requiring but a few seams to be sewed for completion. The medium size calls for 4 1/4 yards of 26-inch material. 4768.—SIZES, 4 to 16 years.

GIVES WIFE NAME OF OTHER WHOSE LIFE HE IS LIVING

Graduate of McGill and Member of Canadian Contingent in Boer War, Has Dual Life.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 7.—A remarkable instance of a man endowed with a dual personality, living the life of another person for many years, even marrying a young woman under that fluctuation and giving her the name of a supposed dead friend, whose life he was unconsciously living, has been made public here by physicians who treated the case.

Under the impression he was crossing the Atlantic to adjust his father's affairs, he wandered over the country. One man subsequently testified he thought him drunk, but since he had been in a hospital at Sayre, Pa. Doctors went to Sayre, but there no hospital there. Robbins was found in a neighboring town.

Then he gave the first story of his life—the first of a contradictory series. His home is in Musselburgh, Scotland, he said, his father an army officer who shot himself through grief, and he himself, the sole survivor of his family, emigrated to Canada and settled in a Canadian contingent for the Boer war, afterwards returning by way of England to the Dominion.

Subsequently going back to England, he said, he awoke one morning in an Edinburgh hospital, and when cured, went to New York for his wedding, but lost all his wedding presents.

ALL HIS LIFE LIKE A DREAM. This tale held good till his aunt, Miss Co., arrived from England and gave glimpses of his real history. His name was not Robbins but Horace Rowland, she said. He left England in 1884, and wrote regularly home to his friends until last summer, since which time all letters to him have been returned unopened.

Thus confronted, his true story was a puzzle to him, but after he had given his real name and gave out a second extraordinary narrative to explain having taken the name of Robbins. He and Horace Robbins, he said, now graduated from McGill University, Montreal, in engineering, went to Manitoba, where both were ill, Robbins dying and leaving him his property. Then he assumed the name Robbins, and henceforth lived Robbins' life, with different adventures.

But this story, on inquiry, turned out to be a flight of fancy, his friend Robbins being a myth, but he mixed the fiction up with several true incidents, such as his wedding.

As time wore on medical attention improved his health physically and restored his normal mentality. Then he committed to writing his final tale, a long narrative with the proviso, "I cannot vouch for all the statements, so I write them, knowing they may be either fact or fancy."

His name, he says, is Horace Rowland, born on March 25, 1879, at Pittingfield, Essex, and his mother, sisters and brothers, reside at Cedar Road, Hampton, Wick, Middlesex.

MANITOBA'S CLAIMS.

The Coming Conference to be Held at Ottawa.

Hon. Robert Rogers Says, "We Contest Every Claim"—Ontario Has None.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 7.—The premier, minister of public works and attorney general will attend the boundary conference next Monday and meet Premier Scott and Attorney-General Lamont of Saskatchewan, Premier Whitney and Attorney-General Fay of Ontario, and Sir Wilfrid Laurier and several members of the Dominion government.

"We contest every claim, Ontario has none," he defined his own boundaries. "We will help them in constructing a railway if they are willing to join us, and they can have connection with the Hudson's Bay similar to that which we now have with Lake Superior."

REORGANIZATION OF THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT People are Advised to Work Together for the Development of the Proposed Constitution

PEKIN, Nov. 7.—An Imperial edict providing for the reorganization of the government was published today in the Official Gazette.

The edict after referring to the providous command that the nation prepare for a constitution, outlines many changes in the administrative system, such as the consolidation of various boards, the creation and abolition of others and the establishment of a political council, whose duty shall be to gather public opinion. The edict says these changes are made in view of the foundation of a constitution. It found not to be good, they will then be changed again. It points out that the present situation in China is dangerous if both high and low are not made to obey the laws, and it calls on the ministers to act together in order to improve conditions, warning them that if they do not, the laws and regulations made by the ancestors were good for that time, but that now the superstitious must be abolished.

Another edict orders the viceroys and governors of provinces to consider what steps shall be taken to prepare the general mass of the people for self-government.

INTERESTING PAPER BY DR. DANIEL "Milk Supply and its Control," Was His Subject Before the Medical Society

Dr. Daniel M. P. read a paper before the Medical Society last evening on "Milk Supply and its Control." Dr. Daniel, who is a member of the Board of Health, told of the work the board was now doing to keep the milk supply pure by enforcing stringent regulations and by the operations of strict license.

When in Toronto last summer at the meeting of the British Medical Association the speaker said he attended the public health section, which treated of this matter at length, and this subject was receiving a great deal of attention throughout Canada and England at the present time, as its importance was beginning to be appreciated.

The speaker said that it was most essential that proper care should be taken of the cows, barns and methods of handling and transferring the milk. Upon the completion of the lecture the Medical Society passed a resolution that the address be printed in the morning papers. The Maritime Medical News will also publish the lecture in its next issue.

SAYS THAT LAWYERS INFLUENCED COUNTESS An Exciting Discussion Between Counsel Engaged in the Castellane Divorce Case

PARIS, Nov. 7.—The feature today of Maitre Bonnet's presentation of the Countess de Castellane's charge of the divorce case was the side that the countess's lawyers had poisoned her mind. Freed from outside influence, he insisted, she would have returned to her husband. He argued that an inquiry was now imperative to give the countess an opportunity to explain the flimsy evidence according to which she had been pictured as a cruel brute. Count Bonnet's only fault, according to his counsel, was his desire to have his wife realize her dream of becoming the queen of the French aristocracy and in his efforts to this end he had compromised his own as well as her fortune. Maitre Bonnet savagely attacked the countess's attorneys, but did not utter one word of criticism of the countess. In the course of the proceedings it developed that the countess had asked the court to grant him $30,000 a year after having rejected his wife's offer of the same sum annually and $200,000 down. Maitre Cruppi did not hesitate to intimate that it was the countess's purpose to prolong the scandal in order to bring about a reconciliation or secure better terms. Maitre Bonnet's charge of the bribery of witnesses may prove successful in forcing an inquiry, as a French court seldom overlooks such allegations.

NOT FAVORABLE TO LARGE BONUSES

The special committee of the Common Council which was appointed at a recent meeting, met yesterday afternoon in the mayor's office and conferred with H. B. Schofield and W. S. Fisher as representatives of the Board of Trade on the question of giving a land or money bonus as an inducement to the Mowry Nut Lock Co. to locate here.

The sentiment was expressed that the city should do its utmost to bring new industry to the city. This would be establishing a bad precedent to give any such large bonus as has been asked by the company. This probably was left to Mr. Schofield, the president of the Board of Trade, to correspond with the Mowry Nut Co. president to get a more definite offer from them.

WILL HAVE SMALL-POX INSPECTOR ON TRAINS VANCEBORO, Me., Nov. 7.—As a result of the recent small-pox epidemic in the province of New Brunswick, the Maine State Board of Health has decided to take active steps to prevent any persons from the infected district to enter the United States. With this in view Dr. L. M. Young, United States inspector at Vanceboro tonight received instructions to begin inspection of all trains at the border at once. This probably means that Dr. Young and his assistants will examine each passenger on the train and see that he or she is carefully vaccinated before being allowed to proceed, while anyone from any district where the disease exists will be turned back.

These steps are taken as a precaution against the spread of small-pox, and no very grave cause for alarm. The conditions will be practically the same as those which prevailed in the smallpox scare two years ago.

He has also represented his state in the fifty-fourth, fifty-fifth, fifty-sixth and fifty-seventh congresses. It is generally expected that Mr. Moody will retire from the Department of Justice the latter part of December.

ELECTION EXCITEMENT MAY LEAD TO MURDER Hotel Bouncer Charged With Slabbing an Energetic Horn Blower

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—William Broad, commonly known as "Kid" Broad, the pugilist, was arrested last night after Thomas Burns had been stabbed and probably mortally wounded. The stabbing occurred at a hotel at Broadway and 42nd street where the police said Broad was employed to keep the election crowds from blowing horns in the hotel. It is alleged that Broad attempted to prevent a party including Burns from entering the place, when Burns rushed into the ground bleeding from a knife wound. The crowd slugged at Broad, but he was rescued by policemen and locked up on a charge of felonious assault.

If all goes well they should arrive in Esquimaut on Sunday afternoon.

I. C. R. Conductor J. R. Fisher, Montreal, has received the sad news that his son, Harry Fisher, died at the residence of his uncle, George Gunn, Tacoma. This young man went West a few years ago and united with the mounted police, and was one of that body of troops who formed the body guard of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall when on their tour through Western Canada early this spring. He became ill, and while on the way to his home in Truro, became so sick that he was able to "only reach Tacoma, where he continued to grow worse until he passed away. Mrs. Fisher, who was with her son when he died, left Tacoma on the 3rd instant for Truro with her son's body.

ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., NOVEMBER 8, 1906.

TALK FIGURES.

There is one very interesting statement in the letter from Mr. H. M. Hopper on the gas question which appeared in yesterday's Star. This is the announcement that the dividends and interest paid by the company are not from the earnings of the gas alone but from the profits on all lines of business conducted. This lends color to the common belief that the car service has of late been a well paying branch, and that the down-in-the-mouth stories which have so often been told in the past are no longer to be accepted. It is currently reported that the company put away a neat little nest egg of a hundred thousand dollars from last year's business, and if this is the case the statement about the gas being the only profitable branch of the business is now played out.

The company absolutely refuses to lower the price of gas until the present consumption is at least doubled. Agents of the company are now going about the city trying to secure customers for a certain burner which it is their business to boom, and which uses much less gas. The company thus evidently hopes to make more money out of the burners than on the gas which might be sold, though it is difficult to see how such is possible. The general introduction of these burners, if they are what is claimed for them, will of course prevent any increase in the consumption of gas for many years and thus postpone indefinitely that happy time when through a larger business the company will be satisfied with smaller profits. But what is the use in waiting so much time in generalities? If the St. John Railway Company can by any manner of means prove that the present prices are not extortionate let figures be presented showing the actual cost of production. This will be the only argument which can have any weight.

GET NEW INDUSTRIES.

There are citizens in St. John who, if they dropped a five cent piece into a catch-basin would parade their loss before the public and proclaim their belief that this town is no place for a man with money, but who having buried thousands of dollars in holes in the ground in California, Colorado, Montana or elsewhere, keep quiet about their affairs and go around looking for another mining shaft to swallow up more of their gold. If the St. John capital which has been squandered in foreign investments had been used for the establishment of home industries, there would be in this city ten times the amount of manufacturing which is carried on at present. Every business now in existence is doing well. One or two, it is true, are not earning excessive dividends but in these cases the trouble is due to an abnormal depression of the markets which, however, will be overcome in time. The majority of the industries are prosperous, and there is room for many more, not only of a different nature but in the same lines as those now found here, though of course competition is to be avoided as much as possible.

The purpose, or one of the purposes of the 75,000 club which it is proposed to form would be to interest St. John capital in home industries, as well as to draw to this city investors from other points. It would be necessary to create conditions sufficiently attractive to induce these investments. This can be done without any serious difficulty, and when the importance of the results is considered it becomes the duty of every citizen to interest himself in the proposal now placed before him. The interviews published in the Star yesterday and today show that the idea is regarded as an excellent one by men of all classes, that St. John has been in need of such an organization, and that the movement will likely become a success.

AGAINST MISREPRESENTATION.

The people of Great Britain have awakened to the fact that the glowing promises made by steamship agents and others who seek to induce emigration cannot be taken at their face value. They have learned of cases in which extraordinary and misleading inducements have been held out and which have resulted in no little suffering. In order to put an end to such cases an amendment has been added to the merchant shipping bill now before the house, which reads:—"If any person, by any false representation, fraud or false pretence, induces or attempts to induce any person to emigrate or to engage in a passage on any ship, he shall, for each offence, be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds, or imprisonment with or without hard labor for a period of three months."

TOMORROW NIGHT'S OPERA FAREWELL

hat the Pollard Children Will Sing

Review of All Operas—Tiny Singer to Make a Speech Where They Go Before Returning Here in 1908

The Pollard Lilliputian Opera Company give their last and farewell evening performance on Friday in St. John, on which occasion they will give the public one of the most wonderful and successful entertainments ever given in this city, and which has proved such a wonderful success in all the large cities in America. In addition to the most popular numbers taken from their long list of musical comedies, they will introduce many songs and dances new to St. John, and at the termination of the performance one of the children will make a farewell speech to the citizens of St. John and Miss Eva Moore will sing "Auld Lang Syne," in which the audience is requested to join in the chorus. The programme will be made up as follows:—

JULGING THE SIZE.

A new, inexperienced father, sent to purchase supplies for a baby, is apt to be handicapped in the open market. On the other hand, he may prove unexpectedly terse and comprehensive, says The New York Herald.

"I want a milk bottle for a baby," began a stranger, addressing a drug clerk. "How large?" demanded the clerk. "Fifteen pounds," replied the father, proudly. A drug clerk would hardly neglect this opportunity to emphasize his superiority over a customer in point of knowledge.

READY FOR THE WORST.

Thomas Watkins of Princeton, Ind., is engaged in the odd business of furnishing foxes to fashionable hunting clubs. Mr. Watkins was talking the other day about a certain master of the hounds.

"A strange man," said the fox purveyor. "A cool one and no mistake. He is claimed for last week fell ill and the doctor was sent for. The doctor, after he had seen the lady, said to the hunter:—

STUDIOUS INDIANS.

An Arrostook farmer recently approached two Indians from the Passamaquoddy reservation desiring to hire them to plant potatoes, offering $2.50 a day and board.

One of the Indians asked the farmer if he had an organ in the house, and being answered in the negative told the farmer they would not work for him, as they could not work for some one having a musical instrument so that they could practice evening.

WILL KEEP QUIET.

"Which candidate are you going to vote for?" "I ain't goin' to tell," answered Farmer Corbett, who was asked the question in election day generally.

REVENGE IS SWEET.

Patience—I didn't think you were on good terms with Polly? "Patience—She's dead."

THE MAIN OBJECT.

"I can't make anything out of that case," began the young doctor. "What?" exclaimed his wife. "What don't be scared. I mean I don't understand it. Of course I'm making money out of it."

WANT THE SCHOOL OF SCIENCE AT ST. ANDREWS.

Some time ago a representative of The Bacon suggested to the promoters of this Summer School of Science that St. Andrews would be a good place to establish the school in permanently. The only obstacle in the way seemed to be the matter of hotel accommodation. It was suggested that the subject be laid before Sir Thomas Shaughnessy and possibly the C. P. R. would be able to find a way of removing this obstacle. Correspondence was accordingly opened up with the C. P. R. and as a result the superintendent of the hotel service has asked for a report from Manager Allerton, of the Algonquin Summer School of Science and the Dominion biological station permanently established here it would mean the closing each season of a splendid class of people.

CIVIC CONTROL WAS A SUCCESS

Guelph Radial Railway Making Good Profits.

$4,500 Added to Treasury—Road Has Been Kept in Excellent Repair—$3,000 More in Fares Than Last Year.

GUELPH, Ont., Nov. 7.—One of the most remarkable examples of progress undergone by public institutions which operated under municipal ownership was portrayed in a report presented to the city council tonight by Ald. G. B. Ryan. Years ago the Guelph Radial Railway Company was built by the present mayor, George Sleeman, and operated by him for a time at considerable loss. A little less than three years ago the ratepayers decided to purchase the road and run it as a municipal enterprise, investing therein for a considerable sum and assuming the burden of the bonded debt. A commission, consisting of Messrs. G. B. Ryan, J. W. Lyon, and John J. Drew, was appointed, and that their work has, together with Manager Hackney's, been satisfactory, is evidenced by the report presented.

The receipts for the year past were $28,004.57; disbursements, $20,189.03. This shows a net gain in operating of $7,815.54. From this is deducted $33.24 for legal expenses. Liabilities of $1,627.75 are provided for. The sum of $4,500 has been paid over to the city, which provides for payment of interest at 4 1/2 per cent on the capital stock of $100,000. The money was borrowed at 4 1/2.

The car fares from passengers reached $25,906, which is over $2,000 ahead of last year. Keeping the road in good repair has not been neglected, either, for a large sum was expended on equipment, track and line maintenance, etc. The net assets are $118,905.40. There is general satisfaction at a street railway being now on a paying basis, as this has been the only one of Guelph's municipal assets which was not yielding a revenue.

Brown Bros., who have been doing the work of repairing on the N. B. Coal and Railway Co. railway, have, at least temporarily, given up their contract. It was stated that not much work remains to be done on the road before the work is suspended for the winter, but what operations are now being carried on are being done by the commission. The results already made are said to have put the road in good condition, but when next spring opens up, considerable ballasting and other work will be done, and it is probable that Brown Bros. will then again assume charge of the work.

MANY OTHER CITIZENS FAVOR 75,000 CLUB

(Continued from Page 1) club as is proposed being organized. Mr. Maxwell also spoke of the interest of the scheme which is being discussed, and can say that had such a great number of Canadian cities would not be as large and progressive as they are today. The club will undoubtedly do much good, as others have been organized in other western cities. The west has grown very rapidly, and in my opinion, the great increase in its population is due to the efforts of residents of the towns and cities who advertise their homes. It is characteristic of a Canadian westerner that he always talks up his country. He will always tell you to go west and that is the greatest country in the world.

Mr. Maxwell also spoke of the large number of immigrants who are flocking to the West. They do not know which is the best part of the country, but simply go there because it is advertised on the other side. Mr. Maxwell says that Winnipeg does not possess a club such as is proposed to be organized here. The different societies, however, take a deep interest in the city and do all in their power to advertise it.

There is a very successful club in Vancouver and others in several western cities. Mr. Maxwell expresses himself as delighted with St. John, and said it was the smartest city he had visited in the lower provinces. He did not think it was very well advertised in the west.

FATHER CARSON, OF ST. GEORGE. Rev. Father J. F. Carson, of St. George, who is in the city, thinks favorably of the scheme, and said that if such a club was organized the city's population would undoubtedly be increased. He also thought that the organization might help in some way to keep the young men here, instead of losing them. It is just as important to hold what we have as to try and get more.

KEEP HER PROMISE

A Girl Agreed to Commit Suicide and Did So.

MARION, O., Nov. 7.—In the presence of a gathering of friends Miss Hilda Porter, aged 19, declared she would commit suicide. She then locked herself in a room and cried, "I am going to do it now."

"Go ahead; we are waiting," returned somebody, thinking Miss Porter was joking. The girl opened the door, swallowed a drachm and a half of carbolic acid and fell. In her agony she murmured: "I did it. For my sake, for his sake and for God's sake save me!" She died an hour later.

Walter Krouse, aged 30, her sweetheart, admitted that he had quarrelled. "She came over to see me last night," he said. "I first slapped her with a book, then I bit her on the arm, just to tease her. She lost her temper and went home. I have been out West and got back three weeks ago. During my absence I learned she flirted with other men."

Mrs. Farrell, with whom Miss Porter lived, said tonight: "Krouse wanted to marry Hilda, but only a few days ago she told me she would kill herself because she would wed him."

Several visitors to the city have been approached by the Star on the subject which is being discussed by a large number of citizens, regarding the formation of a 75,000 club.

One of these is James Maxwell, of Winnipeg, who is registered at the Clifton. To a Star representative, Mr. Maxwell said: "I have read with interest of the scheme which is being discussed, and can say that had such a great number of Canadian cities would not be as large and progressive as they are today. The west has grown very rapidly, and in my opinion, the great increase in its population is due to the efforts of residents of the towns and cities who advertise their homes. SHIPWRECKS.

Hurricane Causes Loss of Life and Great Damage—Many Die in Wrecks Along Provincial Coasts—Three Men Drowned on P. E. I. Coast.

CREWS FATE UNKNOWN.

RICHIBUCTO, N. B., Nov. 7.—Another day has passed without the fate of the crew of the wrecked bark Adona being known. One pilot boat got within three hundred yards of the wreck this morning and could see no sign of life on the wreck. It is a strange fact that every day before Monday, the day the boat was seen, some person could be seen occasionally during the day by Light-house Keeper Richard moving on the vessel. The pilot who got near the wreck this morning says that the houses on deck appeared greatly damaged. One theory is that part of the crew may have been killed by the falling spar or were washed over precipitous to the departure of the boat on Monday. The lighthouse keeper estimated as near as possible that five men got in the boat, while eleven composed the whole crew. Another feature is the fact that the two bodies recovered were the steward and a German student who was sent out in the care of the captain for a trip. If the captain remained on the vessel why did he allow this young man to leave and the same opinion prevails that the steward was washed overboard on November 1st and being caught in it for five days. She just escaped being caught in the Havana hurricane.

WHITE WINGS CREW SAVED.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Rescued when they were about ready to drop into the ocean from their swaying perch, six men, the crew of the Nova Scotia barkentine White Wings, and her captain, were brought to this port today by the German tank steamer Mannheim, which arrived from Shields. The men were: Captain M. J. MeLeod, Mate Alexander Lascombe, Mortimer Sewer, the cook, and H.H. Wade, Gustavus Brown, Monis Fuso and Sinclair Wilson. With bulwarks just awash and her cargo of 400,000 feet of lumber littering the ocean, the barkentine was discovered drifting across the steamship track 200 miles east of Nantucket at 4 o'clock on Tuesday morning by the flare of her signals of distress. Captain Schaus of the Mannheim at once bore down on the foundering vessel and made out a half-dozen figures crouching on the top of the forward deckhouse. A boat was sent out at once, although a heavy sea was still running. After a struggle the boat's crew brought back the survivors, whom they found drenched to the skin by the wash that continually broke over the deckhouse. The mainmast had gone by the board and the stern of the barkentine was stove in and partly under water. Only the cargo of lumber kept the barkentine from foundering. Captain McLeod reported to his owners, Hutchings & Co., that he had left Bridgewater, Nova Scotia, on Saturday last with a cargo for New York. On Sunday the wind strengthened to a hurricane, and at 2 o'clock on Monday morning the vessel struck a rock. The pumps were of no avail and the vessel sank until two and a half hours later the decks were awash. The few articles of food were gathered from the cabin and the crew huddled together on the deckhouse, the only island of refuge on the wreck. A day and a night were passed in the momentary fear that all hands would be washed off the deckhouse. The White Wings hails from Liverpool, N. S., and is of 430 tons burden. P. E. I. WRECKS.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., Nov. 7.—Within the past six days four vessels caught within the reacherous horns of the crescent northern coast of the island, carried out of their course by strong westerly currents and driven by fierce northeast gales, have gone to the shore to become total wrecks amid the breakers. On Friday it was the Turret Bell, stranded at Cable Head, and since condemned. On Saturday the schooner Grafton was wrecked at Campbell's Cove. Yesterday morning the bark Olga met her fate at Black Bush. Last night the bark Savindo finished her career at Priest's Pond, all within a distance of twenty miles along the coast. So far as is known the vessel was wrecked on the shore and the crew were saved. The Olga, an iron ship, 181 tons, left Port Elizabeth, South Africa, September 1st, bound to Campbellton, N. B., to load coal for Australia and was in ballast when she struck. A tremendous sea was on and it was not until three o'clock in the afternoon, after making futile attempts, that communication with the shore was established. A heavy cable from the ship was launched on the banks and the crew caught the ship's boat, with twelve men and one woman on board. An attempt was made to reach the shore with the assistance of the cable, but owing to the terrible sea, the boat broke away and after floating for some time, was finally dashed upon the rocks. Willing hands were there to render assistance and they succeeded in saving every one of the boat's occupants. The boat, however, was smashed to pieces. The Savindo, a Russian Flax bark of 1,550 tons, commanded by Capt. Wigland, was laden with deals en route from Campbellton to Melbourne, Australia. She broke in two soon after she struck and her men clung for hours to the sections while the boat on shore did not dare to launch a boat in the teeth of the terrible gale. In the forenoon, a life buoy came ashore on a life buoy terribly mangled. He was unable to speak English, and no one understood him. Later a boat was launched from the ship, but it was capsized and three men were drowned. Nine men were rescued from the wreckage, and at present six still cling to the wreck, one portion of which is three hundred yards from the other two hundred yards from the shore. They are in a most perilous position and will likely be swept to their death before morning, for the sea still rages furiously. All of the men who reached the shore were injured, and it is feared a number will die. Doctors have gone from Souris, the nearest town, eight miles away, to care for them. Tonight the Dominion government steamer Stanley was ordered to the rescue, but it is feared she cannot get close enough to be of assistance even if any of the survivors still cling to the wreck. The Norwegian bark Vikin, 800 tons, from Miramichi to New Brunswick, was wrecked on the Point Prim, south side of the island. A tug will be sent tomorrow to her assistance, and she is likely to be hauled off.

COMMERCIAL.

A BIG ENTERPRISE FOR HULL. OTTAWA, Nov. 7.—The Canadian Trust Company, capitalized at $2,000,000, is looking for a site of about ten acres, in Hull, opposite the Government mint, if possible, where many dealers are loath to speculate. The prices so far in the Old Country have been well maintained in view of the large visible supply available for export. The shipments to Germany will be curtailed this season owing to the imposition of a duty of 50 cents per barrel on apples from the United States and of about $1.50 per barrel on Canadian apples by the German Government. From present conditions, the shipments to the British markets from America this year will be heavy, amounting probably to 2,000,000 barrels. The total Ontario crop is estimated at approximately 500,000 barrels, or about 25 per cent. less than a year ago. The crop was damaged by wind storms in the fall and hail during the summer.

RAPS OD BANKING SYSTEM.

Canadian is accustomed to bouquet on its banking system, but A. J. Frame, a Wisconsin banker, rasped up as follows: "Canada, it must be admitted has an elastic currency, but it has also three and one-half million square miles of territory, or about equal to that of the United States, including Alaska; her population is a meagre 5,000,000; her total banking power is not equal to that of little Massachusetts with only 8,215 square miles of territory; neither is it equal to that of Illinois, Pennsylvania or New York; she has thirty-four central banks with several hundred branches. They issue currency based on a 5 per cent. deposit and a first lien on assets in the case of banks

It's the price that counts. Other things being equal the price settles the matter at once. New Brunswick purchasers are intelligent. It is the CASH PRICE particularly that counts, because it always averages lower than the cash price asked. We sell as we buy exclusively for charge. THE CIRCULAR STUDY.

The Star's New Series of Short Stories. By Anna Katherine Green.

HIGH AND LOW.

At the foot of the stairs, Mr. Gryce excused himself, and coming in two or three men whom he had left outside, had the valet removed before taking Miss Butterworth back into the study.

"One very important thing has been settled by the experiment we have just made. Bartow is acquitted of participation in this crime."

"I thought—it seemed very probable—that the scrap of writing you found would inform you who these were. If it was important enough for the dying man to try to scrawl it, it certainly should give some clue to his assailant."

"Yes, as his own, if we can judge from the specimens we have of his handwriting recognized?"

"Well, mysteries deepen. And the retelling of this paper was so important to him that even in his death throes he thrust it into the hands of those men."

"Very true! I have said the same thing to myself."

"Yet, if not for him, for whom, then? For the old gentleman who came in last?"

"It is possible; since hearing of him I have allowed myself to regard this as among the possibilities, especially as the next words of this strange communication are: 'She is here.'"

"Very true; but why do you reason as if this paper had just been written? It might have been an old scrap, referring to past sorrows or secrets."

"These words were written that afternoon. The paper on which they were scrawled was torn from a sheet of paper lying on the desk, and the pen with which they were inscribed was found in the desk."

"We may call her so for the nonce. So melancholy a face may well suggest a name."

"They came before that injunction. 'Remember Evelyn!' They bespoke a resolve. 'Neither she nor you will ever see me again.'"

"Ah! but these few words are very significant, Mr. Gryce. Could he have dealt that blow himself? May he have been a suicide after all?"

"Madam, you have the right to inquire; but from Bartow's pantomime, you must have perceived that it is not a self-inflicted blow he mimes, but a maddened thrust from an outraged hand."

"I should not have enjoyed spending that special evening with you. But what an old-world elegance we are unearthing here! I declare—and the good lady actually rubbed her eyes—I feel as if transported back to medieval days."

"Some men are perfectly capable of bringing the medieval into Wall Street. I think Mr. Adams was of these men. Romanticism tinged all his acts, even the death he died."

"That's the act of another's hand, the result of another's superstition. That shows the presence of a priest or a woman at the moment he started to scrawl."

"Yes, I had already located that spot as the one. With the picture hung up on the other side, it would be quite indiscoverable."

"One needs to keep one's eyes moving in a case like this. That picture must have been drawn on several times while we were in this room. Yet we failed to notice it."

"The smile with which he acknowledged that parting shot and prepared to scorch her to the door and less of irony than sadness in it, was beginning to realize that years tell even on the most handsome of men."

"Premier Wekerle was on the point of starting to Vienna, but when the loss was discovered he postponed his journey and informed the police."

MORE CROOKED EVIDENCE GIVEN

And Another Perjury Charge Looms in Sight

Witness in London Election Case Tells Complicated Story of Record of Certain Purchased Votes

TORONTO, Nov. 7.—If the decision of Magistrate Denison is sustained another perjury charge loomed in sight when James McCormack stepped into the witness box to tell what he knew about the London election this afternoon.

Duvernay began asking about a certain book, which it was evident he believed had been used at election time to record the names and prices of certain purchased votes.

McCormack, divided for some time and then admitted the existence of such a book, which he said had since been stolen from him. Afterwards he alleged he had prepared the book a little over two months ago and left it around so his opponents would bring it to court.

"It was too much for the credulity of Magistrate Denison, who plainly expressed the belief that the witness was committing a deliberate perjury. James McCormack, chairman of division No. 6, Liberal committee, ward 2, gave the names of his committee, John O'Connell, Joseph Grammer and a man named Oliver.

"Did you," Duvernay asked him, "keep any records?"

"No."

"After election?"

"Yes, I admit I had."

"Now," said his worship, "tell us all about it."

"It was a small red memorandum book."

"You ever remember the color?"

"I have good reason to be sure."

"What was it kept for?"

"Nothing in particular."

"What in general?"

"Just some ideas of mine."

"Did it contain a list of the voters who were paid?"

"No."

"Did it contain a list of the names of voters who were paid and the initials of the men who paid the money?"

"No."

McCormack wanted to see the book. It was not produced.

"Why," he was asked, "did you make entries?"

"So that some one might pick up the book and take it to court."

"When did you do that?"

"Over two months ago."

Witness said Mayor Judd of London knew the investigation was coming.

"Who told you?"

"I refuse to answer."

"Do you want to go down for a while?" asked his worship.

Here Curry, who had already objected that the evidence as to who told the witness would not be material, protested that McCormack could not be committed without a trial. Then he objected that any evidence as to the book was not material.

"I overrule it," said his worship.

"Besides, I believe the name of the witness was for a purpose at election and that the witness is committing perjury in trying to cover it up. Duvernay can go on."

"And the witness," said Curry, "can refuse to answer."

"Then I'll ask for a committal," said Duvernay.

McCormack said what he put in the book was true.

"Then you were making a truthful record for the purpose of assisting the court?"

"No."

"Why then?"

"For my own purpose."

Witness went on to explain that when he said what was in the book was true, he meant it was his writing.

At this stage the book was produced and identified by the witness. The first page contained the names of the committee chairmen in ward 2. Other items in the book were just names and initials, but the witness could give little information about these. Before he left the court the crown counsel asked for his committal, but the magistrate refused and McCormack was subpoenaed again for tomorrow.

A number of witnesses told stories of ballot switching and other crooked work in Brockville.

Robertson in the suit against the company, said he understood the defendant would not be able to go on tomorrow, and he had consented to the case being remanded.

CLAIM ACTION OF BRITISH WARSHIP'S CAPTAIN IS ILLEGAL

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Nov. 7.—A delegation of captains of American fishing vessels boarded the warship Brilliant in the Bay of Islands yesterday to learn if they could continue to hire Newfoundlanders outside the three-mile limit, the colonial government having posted notices warning coast-folk that the bait act rendered service aboard foreign vessels illegal. The captain of the Brilliant assured the delegation that under the terms of the modus vivendi the action described by the notices could not be penalized. The captain also notified the colonial fishery inspectors that he intended to frame rules for the conduct of the herring fishery along the shores. The colonial cabinet is protesting to the imperial government that both proceedings by the warship's captain are illegal, and alleged that his action belittles the colony's authority.

FOWLER AGAIN HEARD; MORE REVELATIONS

Mr. Foster Was a Partner in the Kamloops Lumber Deal.

Fowler Paid Men Sent by the Union Trust Co. to Value Property He Had to Sell — More About that $55,000 Rakeoff — Fowler Says the Documents Wanted Are Lost.

OTTAWA, Ont., Nov. 7.—The Insurance Commission had today its second examination of George W. Fowler, M. P. The examination began at half-past four in the afternoon and was continued by Mr. Shepley, who reminded Mr. Fowler of the deal in the Kamloops lumber deal, in which the Fowler and the Forsters were used.

The previous examination of Mr. Fowler and other witnesses showed that Mr. Fowler had obtained from Peter Ryan two options on the Kamloops lumber property, one for $225,000 and the other for $170,000. George E. Foster, Mr. Fowler and a number of others had organized the Kamloops Lumber Company, in which the Union Trust Company was to have 45 per cent, and Fowler and the others forty-nine per cent of the stock.

It was shown that the Union Trust Company put up all the money and that the Kamloops Lumber Company, with it, bought the British Columbia lumber properties. The one on which Mr. Fowler had the two options was taken over at the higher option, $225,000, by Peter Ryan, after he had been paid $225,000 by the Kamloops Lumber Company. This transaction was not the subject of direct examination, but was referred to several times in the discussion of the lumber property purchase.

Mr. Fowler said that he had been paid $225,000 by the Kamloops Lumber Company, along with the Shuswa lumber property and the Okanagan lumber property.

Mr. Shepley asked Mr. Fowler if he had been paid $225,000 by the Kamloops Lumber Company, along with the Shuswa lumber property and the Okanagan lumber property.

BISON FURNACE

Twice as much heating surface is covered by the fire in a Bison Hot Water Furnace as in any other.

The flames are drawn up through the side flues, then down and to the chimney through the middle flue.

Burns all the gas and traps all the heat against the top section.

In other furnaces the fire travel is practically a direct one to the chimney, and much valuable heat escapes, the important top section getting less than any of the others.

The Bison has more good heating points than all other heaters combined.

Don't you know that it was upon your report compiled from what Irwin and McCormack told you and upon the report of Irwin and McCormack that the Union Trust or the Kamloops Lumber Company bought?"

Mr. Shepley here produced a report made by Irwin and McCormack to the Union Trust and another made by the same men to Mr. Fowler.

Mr. Shepley—"You don't mind it going down in the minutes that the report to you is a great deal more complete than that to Mr. Foster?"

Mr. Fowler—"It seems to be fuller. It is more voluminous."

"Why should they report to you more fully?"

"I cannot say."

"You paid these men?"

"I paid McCormack a thousand dollars after the report had been made. Do you think it was proper for you to act as a vendor of the property to have a report from these men who had been hired by the purchaser to examine the property?"

Mr. Shepley—"You told me the other day you had received part of the $57,000 from Ryan. How much have you got from him?"

Mr. Fowler—"I cannot say."

Mr. Shepley—"I cannot say."

LOCAL NEWS.

Attention is called to our classified ads. for steel workers.

In the police court this morning Michael Hilland for being drunk on the east side ferry boats was fined $5. The same fine was imposed on Richard Walsh who was seen and taken to lock-up on a wheelbarrow. Two first offenders were fined $4 each.

The frequency of accidents on the N. B. Southern line and the miserable freight service given by the railway lead to another protest being sent to the railway commissioners by the business men of St. George. If no treatment was accorded them they would not complain, but the conditions seem to be getting worse instead of better.—St. Andrews Beacon.

A presentation to Frank Lingley, baggage master of the C. P. R. at Fairville will take place this afternoon. The summer residents of Westville and other resorts along the line are sending up to Mr. Lingley's home a complete dining set, as a token of good will. Mr. Lingley was married about a week ago. An address will accompany the present.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place in the city last night at 8.30 o'clock, when Miss Vera Burpee was united in marriage to Murray W. Long, son of Councillor W. Long, of Leinster. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's father, Thomas X. Burpee, 127 George Street. A large number of handsome and costly gifts were received. Mr. and Mrs. Long will reside on Prince street, W. E.

At the St. Andrew's Ballroom tonight there will be three races, the first between Hammon and Alward. This will be one of the most interesting races yet seen and will also well worth the price of admission. The second will be between Hamm and Campbell. The latter being last week, but Hamm fell, now Hamm wants satisfaction. The third will be between Hunter and Olive, these two fast and evenly matched boys. Olive won the last race but used racing skates, while Hunter used the rink kind of skates and it will be a great race. The rink is now being heated and spectators and skaters will find it a pleasant place to spend an evening. Tomorrow night is "ladies' night."

Interest is increasing in the programme for Monday night next when the new North End Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will be formally organized. There will be over thirty-four charter members, including some of the most prominent merchants of the Portland district and several professional men. Both the city lodges K. of P. will do the initiating, which is to be done through with in one long session. Usually degrees are given at fortnight intervals, but the exigencies of this case call for a thorough obligating at once. Therefore the Knights will meet at an early hour Monday evening, and until a late hour next morning it is expected the mysterious doings will go on. Refreshments will be served about midnight. It is stated, the new lodge's treat. Local Knights are making careful preparation for the unusual event, and Grand Officers will come from other provincial parts to take part in the ritualistic work.

SLIDING OF THE BANK DELAYS DREDGING

And Progress at No. 3 Site is Slow—Work at Long Wharf Begins Tomorrow.

The Beaver is at work at No. 3 crib site today, and is digging at the lower end, near Union street. If the earth continues to fall away from Union street, it is hard to tell when the job will be finished. The bank has been falling in for some days, and this has proved a great drawback to the work. On one occasion the Beaver cleared a large spot, and when the men returned to work next day they found that during the rise of tide, through the night, the hole had been filled up again.

Such occurrences have happened often, and the officials state that if the slides continue, the dredge may not complete its work at No. 3 for some days yet.

Dredging at the I. C. R. pier will commence tomorrow. The dredge Gardner has arrived and will be placed on a scow today.

She greatly resembles the Orange Peel, although she is much larger. The dipper used is a "clam shell." The Orange Peel is reported to be doing good work at Sand Point, and is being ably assisted by the city dredge.

Sleeth & Quinlan's building has not sunken much during the past two days, but if another slide should occur, it is thought that the shed will collapse.

HERBERT LEE JORDAN DIED THIS MORNING

Death the Result of an Injury Received Some Eight Years Ago in the West.

Herbert Lee Jordan, son of James G. Jordan, died this morning at the residence of his father, 251 King street, at the U. N. B., after a course of a lengthy illness.

Mr. Jordan, about eight years ago, left his home in St. John, after a course at the U. N. B., and engaged in surveying for the C. P. R. in the West. While at work he was thrown from his horse and had his shoulder painfully injured. This was attended to and in a short time he was able to resume his duties. But four years later having transferred to Montreal, the bone of his arm was broken while he was assisting a friend on a street car. Upon examination it was found that the bone had been eaten away by sarcoma, resulting from the old injury received in the West. An operation was performed and the arm was amputated.

After this it seemed that the injury was completely cured, but a year or so later Mr. Jordan was again troubled with severe pains in the shoulder and underwent another operation, after which he was assured that he was completely free from any disease. This was between two and three years ago, and his health remained good until some four months ago, when he again became noticeably ill. Treatment was continued, but he gradually grew worse, and after the professional skill of Montreal had proved unavailing he was taken to a specialist in Boston. Mr. Jordan's mother accompanied him to the latter city and remained with him for a time. No great improvement was, however, brought about and recently Mr. Jordan came back to his home in St. John. The disease had worked its way through the shoulder and down to his lungs.

Mr. Jordan was in his thirtieth year and had held an excellent position with the C. P. R. as divisional engineer on the eastern lines. He was a brother of Gilbert C. Jordan, manager of the Sun Life Insurance Co., and Fred E. Jordan of the Chatham Commercial.

FURNESS LINER'S STORMY TRIP

St. John City Encountered Heavy Gales, But Came Through Without Damage

The Furness Liner St. John City, which sailed from London on October 24th, arrived in Halifax at 5 o'clock Tuesday evening after a very stormy passage. The steamer encountered heavy southwest and northwest gales during the first part of the voyage and one day made only 8 miles. From Sunday last to port she met with a continuation of southeast and northeast gales with rain and fog, but by careful handling on the part of her captain she came through it all without damage. Since Sunday last the captain never took his clothes off, having to be continuously on the alert. The St. John City is this time in charge of Captain P. J. Henschel, who for some time has been chief officer of the ship, and who was formerly on the Florida and Damara. The steamer has 1,000 tons of general cargo to discharge in Halifax, after which she comes to St. John, N. B.
