MARK TWAIN'S FORMER SECRETARY RETURNS From Honeymoon to Find Out Why He Sued Her

NEW YORK, July 17.—Mark Twain's former secretary, Mrs. R. W. Ashcroft, returned yesterday on the Campania from a somewhat tardy wedding trip to find out why Mr. Clemens had attached for $4,000 a house in Redding, Conn., which he had repaired, so she thought, on the understanding that she should make repairs as soon as she was able.

Mrs. Ashcroft lays the whole thing at the door of some unmentioned enemy working through Miss Clara Clemens, who says Mrs. Ashcroft is especially susceptible to that kind of influence because she is the possessor of an artistic temperament. Miss Clemens is a contralto soloist.

Mrs. Ashcroft, when she was Mr. Clemens's secretary was Miss Isabel Van Hook. It was she who spotted the burglars when they invaded Mark Twain's house at Redding last fall. For some years she was the literary secretary of the humorist and saw to most of his correspondence as well.

"I loved him as a daughter loves a father," she said yesterday. "For seven years I relieved him of every care I could."

Last March she married to Ralph W. Ashcroft, who had been serving Mr. Clemens as a financial secretary. They left for Europe early in June. A few days afterward the sixteen-acre farm at Redding, with the house, was attached in a suit to recover $4,000. It was asserted at the time that Mrs. Ashcroft had used more of Mark Twain's money in fixing over the house than he intended her to use.

Mrs. Ashcroft said that Mr. Clemens had not asked her for payment of the money he had lent her. On the contrary, she said, he had often suggested that she regard the outlay as a gift.

She is going up to Redding this morning to see him and get things straightened out if she can.

EDMONTON, July 17.—Another epoch in western development was marked yesterday when the rails of the G. T. P. were laid into Edmonton. The last piece was driven at Clover Bar bridge, from where the line was previously laid as far as the big packing plant. Ballasting of the road will proceed as rapidly as possible, and the company hopes to be able to put on a regular service early in the fall. The gang will resume operations west of Edmonton tomorrow.

N. B. RAILWAY CO. GETS AWARD OF $3,000

Railway Company in the dispute with the International Railway Company. The arbitrators' expenses and costs total $4,500 and are also charged to the International Railway.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 17.—Young Corbett enters the ring of the Mission Area against Johnny Frayne today in an endeavor to prove to the local fans that he has regained some of his speed and stamina that enabled him to stow away Terry McGovern. CHICAGO, July 17.—Jas. J. Jeffries and Jack Johnson have promised to meet in Chicago today and settle terms for a fight for the world's heavyweight championship title. The latest expressions from Jeffries was that he surely would be on hand, and Johnson's representatives said that the automobile accident at Crown Point, Ind., Thursday, would not prevent his coming.

NEW ORLEANS, July 17.—Pecky McFarland is to box Ray Bronson tonight here some time in September. The weight will probably be about 130 pounds.

Nominations are Pouring in and Hosts are Hustling for Votes—Still Lots of Time to Enter Candidates will bear in mind that The Sun and The Star cannot be sent by mail in the City of St. John.

And still they come. Over the telephone, through the mail, and in person, the news continues to arrive that many new nominations may be expected every day and for many days to come in The Sun and St. John Star.

Intense interest already manifested in the Contest continues to grow steadily day by day, and many votes have already been polled by the various candidates in the Contest for the rich prizes offered by these papers.

The valuable prizes offered by The Sun and St. John Star are so liberal in nature that the most ambitious and wide awake men and women in the vicinity are rapidly seeing that it is to their interest to get in and make a painstaking effort to win.

Those who have no direct interest in any one in the contest generally make it a point to vote for their leader in the contest, and it is a good idea to vote for the man who is nearest the top as possible and let it be talked about, and incidentally get some of the easy business above mentioned.

Anyone who is taking one of these publications at the time this Contest is in progress, should be sure to send in a subscription to the paper at once, as a subscription will be counted as new if it is simply transferred from one member of the family or household to another.

There is a little misunderstanding as to where votes can be gotten in this contest. Subscriptions may be brought or sent in to The Sun and St. John Star office from any place in the Maritime Provinces or the United States or any other part of the world. No matter where the subscription comes from, if the money accompanies the order the votes will be issued.

BELIEVE SUTTON WAS KILLED IN A DUEL

Brother Officer the Other Party

Evidence Shows That Arrangements Had Been Made for Duel With Arms—Will Investigate Further.

NEW YORK, July 17.—An Annapolis, Md., dispatch to the American says that two persons of prominence who live in Annapolis and who prefer not to have their names mentioned, confirmed yesterday the existence of certain documentary evidence that Jas. N. Sutton, the young marine officer who met his death on October 12, 1902, was challenged by one of his fellow officers. The statement of Owens, the chauffeur, makes it probable that this is the explanation of the attack which the latter declares Adams made upon Sutton when the party alighted from the automobile. Owens has all along said that the affair had every semblance of being pre-arranged.

One of the men who saw the documentary proof said that it was a form of a letter found in Lieut. Sutton's effects and in possession of Mrs. Parker, his sister. The letter showed conclusively that an arrangement for a duel with arms existed between Sutton and another officer whose name was signed to the communication but which he could not remember. The letter closed, he stated, with these words: "Let's call the play off."

This evidence will likely be corroborated by best testimony, if the statements made by certain officers, and other acquaintances of Sutton can be taken. Owens is confident that something of the sort took place.

There are a number of witnesses who were not secured by either the military or the federal jury. One of these is a former employee of the Academy whose work he did near the scene of action that night. He does not wish to be connected with the affair if he can avoid it. He said yesterday that he heard part of the quarrel which preceded the shooting and also heard the actual shooting.

Among the remarks which he heard from the party was: "Let me get at him! Kill him!" "Who it was that he shot he does not know, nor can he identify any party."

GREAT FUTURE FOR COTTON IN UGANDA

Start Made in the Central African Protectorate

Prediction That It Will Become One of the Greatest Cotton Producing Lands in the World.

LONDON, July 17.—Sir Henry Hesketh Bell, K. C. M. G., Governor of the Protectorate of Uganda, has repeatedly declared his conviction that Uganda will become one of the greatest cotton growing countries in the world. In four years the export of cotton has risen in value from nothing to over £25,000, and it is believed that there is every prospect of the output increasing rapidly. Sir Henry, who is now in London on leave after three years labor in Central Africa, says that the quality of the cotton is so good that although grown from American upland seed it fetches from two to two and a half cents a pound more in Liverpool than American cotton.

Expert advice is given to the natives and a Government plantation has been started in which efforts are being made to discover by hybridization a variety even better adapted to the country than the American seed. In a report of Sir H. H. Bell, recently issued by the Colonial Office, some interesting particulars are given of a tour made by the Governor through the eastern provinces of Uganda.

Cotton is already cultivated in Baganda, the most settled and highly organized province, but it is probably in the vast Bukedi province, to the east of the River Aplogoma and Lake Kioga, that cotton growing will attain its greatest development. The area of the Bukedi country is about 8,000 square miles and the population is estimated at about 300,000.

Bukedi, which means the land of the naked people, is described as "a vast plain of very fertile soil, sloping gradually up toward Mount Kilgor. Pasture is good and all kinds of grain crops thrive to perfection. Most of the country is densely populated by primitive and warlike tribes, who possess no political organizations and who for the most part are absolutely 'naked and unshamed.' There is a fair water supply, and no country could present better conditions for cotton cultivation. There is no heavy scrub or brush, elephant grass is rarely met with and a plough is used from one end of the great plain to the other."

Sir Henry adds that he has no doubt that a very large area will be under cotton in Bukedi this year, and that everything pointed at the time of his visit to an immense development in that direction. In the experimental patches established at every station along the roads over which he travelled the cotton plants were thriving admirably and the natives were anxious to get large quantities of seed for the next season's sowing. They were keen to grow anything that commanded a sale, and with proper instructions will certainly raise large crops. The Governor proposes to station an agricultural instructor in the province, and says that none but the best selected seed will be used.

The Bukedi are of the physique both sexes being exceptionally tall and splendidly developed. A promising feature noted by the Governor is that both sexes work together in the fields. "Unlike the luxurious Baganda, who are content to lie all day long in the shade of their banana groves while their weary wives toil incessantly in the blazing sun, the Bukedi do their fair share along with their spouses. The men evidently do not consider agricultural labor beneath the dignity of a male, and it is probable that their women folk, whose muscles are admirably developed, would not hesitate in case of need to impress the fast upon them."

It is only four years since the administration of the Bukedi country was taken over, but it has already brought into a settled state by the capable Baganda chief placed in charge of it by Sir Harry Johnston in 1899. Good roads have been made consisting at this important centres. Up in these roads, which are bordered by shade trees and carried across swamps by substantial embankments, it is possible to travel comfortably by "moko, rickshaw and in some places motor cars. Goods and produce can be transported quickly and cheaply. A large trade is being developed at Mabele, the headquarters of the Elgon district, 59 miles from Jinja at the Nile outlet from Victoria Nyanza.

The shops here are well stocked, but the Governor laments that only 15 per cent. of this pioneer trade is British. "Practically the whole of the great and growing cotton goods trade of Uganda is supplied by German and American manufacturers. 'American' is a very cheap and inferior description of cotton stuff, which is the most popular clothing material used by natives throughout the Protectorate, is almost a monopoly of the United States manufacturers.

An attempt was made early this morning to enter the Fairville Drug Company's store. It appears that Mr. G. H. Allan sleeps in the store and about 1:30 he heard a noise in the cellar and upon investigating discovered that burglars had entered by the trap door. They had heard him moving and had taken themselves off. There being no telephone at Police-man Lawson's house or any means of notifying him, nothing could be done with the natural result that the burglars escaped with ease.

ALMOST RECORD TIME FOR GAME

Greeks And Tartars In Fast Game

Score 10 to 2--Familiar Faces Seen Among the Visitors

One of the fastest games on record was played on the Victoria grounds yesterday afternoon when the Marathons in just one hour and twelve minutes defeated the Fredericton team by a score of ten to two. Only once before, it is said, was there as fast a game played in the provinces and that was between the Portland, Me., team and the Alerts some years ago, and the fastest game ever played is said to have been between two National League teams, who finished the nine innings in an hour and ten minutes.

STERLING COLLAPSES IN FIVE MILE RACE

Runs Well for First Three Miles, But Pace is Too Hot. WINNIPEG, July 16.--Stirling of St. John ran the five mile race here yesterday at the C. A. A. U. games, but did not get placed. For the first three miles Stirling ran well, and was well up with the winner, Harold Parsons, of Niagara, but soon after he collapsed, the pace being too hot. This event was the only one in which westerners carried off a victory. Chandler of Vancouver and Schofield of Toronto ran well in the first three or four miles, but on the last quarter Parsons drew away from them and won handily.

TODAY'S RACE IS HELD UNDER NEW SCHEDULE

At Millidgeville this afternoon the B. Y. C. race in class A will be held under the new schedule of measurement. The Seawanhaka rule, which has always been followed, proved most acceptable to boats of the "skimming dish" style, heavy draught having the chance of winning. The Universal rule--under which this afternoon's race will be sailed--is based upon the displacement of each yacht and tends to more equal racing. Sir Thomas Lipton has expressed a willingness to challenge for the America cup under this rule.

Table with columns: Entries, No., Owner, Rating, Time Allowance, Min. Sec., Scratch. Rows include Canada, Louvina, Rena, Possum, Vagabond, and Y. Yacht.

ST. JOHN STAR.

TECHNICAL EDUCATION.

King Edward a few days ago, in a public address, intimated that the progress of Britain depends to a very considerable degree on the development of technical training.

A few days ago a great educational congress was held at Denver. The president of the National Association, Lorenzo D. Harvey, selected industrial education as the subject of his annual address.

Recently a new man, one who is generally regarded as progressive in his ideas, has been placed at the head of our educational system.

MORE BENCHES WANTED. If the public works or street department could manage to place a few more benches on King Square, Queen Square, in the burying ground, and in such other breathing places as the city possesses, the effort would be appreciated.

TOO MUCH PROFANITY. There are occasions—every man knows them—when the real reality "damns" without any frills or fixings.

THADDEUS

When Mohammed Ali, Shah Kojdar and Shah in Shah (King of Kings), ascended the Peacock Throne of Persia on January 5, 1907, he inherited a considerable batch of trouble without losing any of that which he himself accumulated during his thirty-five years of life.

The document was unsatisfactory to the Persian people, who were not supposed to have emerged from the "Dark Ages" stage of progress, developed early in 1906. The National Assembly met on August 12. The Constitution was framed in December.

CANADA WINS KOLAPORE CUP

BISLEY, Eng., July 16.—The Canadian team, after their great exhibition in the Mackinnon cup yesterday, was expected to win the Kolapore cup today, and lived up to expectations. They did not, however, have as easy a time as in the Mackinnon, the margin over Transvaal being only ten points. At that Canada lead at every one of the three ranges, though Transvaal did equally well at the 600. All of the members of the team, with the exception of Lieut. Smith, used the Ross rifle. The scores were as follows:

THOUGHT CRIES JOKE, LET GIRLS DROWN

Residents Near Ottawa Fooled by Former Jokes. Row Boat Turned Over—Occupants Cling for Hours But Help Came Too Late to Save Two of Them.

OTTAWA, July 17.—About eleven o'clock last night some of the residents at the summer resort near Aylmer heard prolonged cries for help coming across the water at Lake Deschênes, a wide stretch of water on the Ottawa river about nine miles above the capital. No attention was paid to them, however, as there have been many alleged practical jokes in boats out in the lake. About two o'clock this morning, however, some faint cries were still heard, some members of the Victoria Yacht Club put off to the rescue and a steam launch went out from Echo Beach. Some distance away they found an overturned boat with two young men, I. Loyer and E. Guertin, of Aylmer, clinging to it, and just ready to let go from exhaustion. Two others unable to cling longer to the boat had let go an hour or so before and gone down in the water had not been rescued. They were Dorothy Green, aged eighteen, and her sister Jennie, aged thirty-two, both employed at the Hotel Victoria, Aylmer. The party had left Aylmer in the evening and crossed to the Ontario shore. Returning about eleven o'clock their boat began to leak rapidly, and filling with water, capsized. Loyer, who is a good swimmer, succeeded in temporarily rescuing both of the girls, and the whole four, shouting for help, clung to the boat for a couple of hours. The girls then completely exhausted, gave up the struggle and sank. This morning the police are investigating the circumstances of the tragedy. It appears that before Loyer and Guertin left Aylmer with the two girls last evening they had some trouble with two other young men named Greville and Dixon, who, it is said, wanted the girls to go with them. Greville and Dixon followed the party later in a boat, and it is further stated all were somewhat under the influence of liquor.

SOVEREIGN BANK MAY MEET DEMANDS

No Likelihood of Call on the Shareholders. Liabilities Much Reduced—Satisfactory Report Presented at the Annual Meeting.

TORONTO, July 17.—It was made reasonably clear at the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Sovereign Bank that it will not be necessary to have recourse to the double liability, and that if the liquidation turns out as well as expected there may be a small amount for distribution amongst the shareholders. It is too early yet to predict just what the assets of the defunct bank will realize, but the outlook as presented was regarded as bright. There were only 40 shareholders present at the meeting, and all expressed appreciation at the manner in which the affairs of the institution had been handled. The liquidation of the assets during the year were quite heavy, with the result that the amount owing to other banks and other sources has been reduced from $9,088,000 to $4,842,750 less than at the last annual meeting. While $1,157,111 was written off or allowed for losses on assets during the year, there is left a nominal surplus of $1,823,883. The staff of the bank has been reduced from 25 to 2. THE NET RESULT. In the report of the directors it is pointed out: "The net result is that by the liquidation of assets we have paid off over a million dollars, which on 31st May of last year was due to correspondents, and have reduced our liabilities to other banks from $8,022,000 to $4,888,000. In addition to this we have paid off $15,000 of deposits and $181,000 of circulation. The deposits which we now hold are left for special reasons, and the greater part of them will probably be paid off within the next few months. Notwithstanding the fact that we have ceased to issue the bank's notes nearly a year and a half ago, we had on the 31st of May nearly $80,000 outstanding. The notes are still coming in for redemption regularly, but very slowly, the present rate being about $4,000 a month. "The point of most importance to the shareholders is doubtless the value which can be placed upon their remaining assets, but this unfortunately cannot at the moment be estimated. We explained last year that no valuation could possibly be placed upon certain large assets, and while some of these particular assets have since been liquidated without loss, the greater portion is still in an uncertain position, and for some months to come it will not be possible to place an intelligent valuation on them. A large part are secured by collateral, the value of which depends on the results of the reorganization of railway enterprises now in the hands of receivers. "If the results of these reorganizations are as favorable as is possible, then the returns will be fairly good, but if they are not carried through successfully, the recoveries will be very small. Certain other assets depend for their value upon the outcome of law suits, and while we have every reason to believe that the result of these suits will be entirely in our favor, you will be made of assets in such a position. All we can say about these unvalued assets is that everything possible is being done to bring them to a satisfactory conclusion as early a date as possible. ASSETS VALUED CLOSELY. "With regard to the rest of the assets, it is possible to value them fairly closely. During the last two or three months we have made a careful re-valuation of them, we have written off any amounts which we consider entirely bad, have provided in contingent fund the amount of the estimated loss on all debts from which some recoveries may yet be made, and have made a further provision in some cases where we hope to escape any loss, but where this is not certain. We have also made ample provision for loss in selling securities, for losses not disposed of, and for sales and office furniture. The amounts required to do this have, from time to time, been charged to profit and loss account, which now shows a debit balance of $1,571,117, this representing the losses ascertained and estimated on all assets except the special ones we have mentioned, and all costs and expenses up to date. "We have thus a nominal surplus of $1,823,883, out of which all losses on the unvalued assets, and all future expenses, costs and contingencies should be met. If the unvalued assets should turn out really well, there should be a small surplus for distribution. If very badly, there will be a deficit, and a consequent call on the double liability. The general manager told you last year that in his personal opinion there would be no call. With another year's experience to guide us, we have no hesitation in endorsing that opinion, and in saying that the prospects of good recoveries from these unvalued assets appear rather better than they did a year ago. But we must emphasize the fact that this is merely an opinion, that a great deal yet remains to be done, and that there are so many dangers to be avoided, and difficulties overcome, that any definite statement is impossible."

HALTS DAUGHTER, AT ALTAR WITH BOY, 13

Mother of Heiress, After Journey in Haste, Prevents Marriage.

WASHINGTON, Pa., July 17.—After a journey of several hundred miles, Mrs. Hetty Donnelly, of Mount Morris, near here, today dramatically stopped the marriage of her 17 year old daughter, Martha, heiress to a half million dollars, to 13 year old Robert Snyder, a resident of the same village. "When she walked into the office of the license clerk at Ovid, Md., an official was about to pronounce the youthful pair man and wife. She returned here this evening with her daughter, who admitted that she had fled the ceremony had been stopped. The children left Mount Morris at midnight. Mrs. Donnelly, a widow, who was left a fortune by her husband, learned that tickets had been purchased to Cumberland. She followed the girl there but was unable to locate them. Just in the nick of time she traced them to Oakland, Young Snyder returned with his sweetheart and her mother, having been promised by the latter, he says, that she will permit the marriage three years hence.

REVENUE SHOWS GOOD INCREASE

OTTAWA, July 16.—For the month of June the revenue of the Dominion was $7,578,886, an increase of $1,020,441 as compared with June of last year. For the first quarter of the current fiscal year the revenue was $21,852,372, an increase of $2,754,633 as compared with the first three months of last year. The customs revenue for the three months was $13,921,497, an increase of $1,132,188. Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux led today for a fortnight's holidays at Miramichi Bay. Mr. Lemieux may go to London in September to confer with the Imperial authorities in respect to the proposed question of cheaper cable rates between the mother country and the overseas dominions. The question is one which has been engaging the attention of the government for a year or more.

Quite different in character from the millinery of early spring are the newest importations from Paris designed for midsummer wear. The new hats are even larger than those of a few months back, difficult as the fact is to comprehend, and yet the proportions of crown and brim are so well managed and more thought to good proportion with the increased width and height are, not conspicuous. Perhaps, however, the eye has become accustomed to the enormous dimensions, so that the present day hat no longer seems eccentric, or, again perhaps human eye is but mortal after all, and beyond a certain point finds it impossible to discriminate between an object of great size and one yet greater. But, whatever the reason, new adherents of the large hat are called daily, while the woman who has always prided herself on wearing hats of greater size than her sisters need only put on for a moment a hat of one or two summers back to realize how many inches she has added to the width and height of her brim and crown.

The New "Small" Hats.

Yet all hats are not of motor wheel proportions, and although a toque as one pictures it is not to be seen this summer, there are many hats so narrow of brim as to be quite comfortable for use in the windiest of weather, but what they lack in circumference they very nearly blue than if the costume is kept all to the one tone. There is an indefinite number of exquisitely soft or brilliantly effective color combinations this year, and the more daring the contrast the more beautiful will the costume often be, but it will be noticed that to the hat is given the color of creating contrast, there being frequently not the smallest suggestion of foreign color in the trimming of the gown itself. It is this which has kept all street costumes inconspicuous, almost dark in color, and has retained white in its long popularity for out of door country wear, but with a dark cloth or pongee suit or a sleek tulle or linen tulle the whole character of a dress may be altered according to whether the sun be bright or the sky gloomy, and one feels more in the humor for a gaudy or a sombre finish to a costume. It is astonishing how easy it is to thus fall into the habit of dressing and according to the temperature but to the weather. A bright pink or blue hat is as once cheerful and vivacious on a cloudy overcast day, whereas when the sun glintedly lit pale green or mauve or white is wonderfully refreshing to look upon.

In the French models wide brimmed shapes, with the left side turned up sharply, the crown, oval in shape, large funnel shaped hats, the deep brim having an even sharper decline than on the cloche shaped hats of a year ago. When a hat is not simply an extension of the crown of the hat this fact is disguised by a band of large variegated roses, which form a border, and above this a band of velvet ribbon about the narrowest part of the crown. This model is perhaps best worn with deep blue or black, but if that the lining is severely visible, which perhaps somewhat more, and it is the straw frame itself, with no staling plumes or stiff quills to give to it its dimensions. Masses of Hair Needed. Mushroom hats, with softly rounded brim down brims, must now take second place beside those of funnel shape, peach basket shape, with their down brims so straight and stiff. The lines of these hats are strangely angular—that is to say, straight up and down—but if funnel is round at each end, of course, there is no want of grace in the outfit given. With these shapes, however, everything depends upon the manner in which they are adjusted, and a hair that is not sufficiently wide to hold the brim just far enough up from the face will at once take away from any possible beauty in the hat. Not every woman blessed with the masses of hair the Dame Fashion would demand, and the who by the seaside cannot induce the straight locks to look soft and waving forming a pretty foundation for it. A hat which does not come too far down over the face, nor enormous brim which absolutely demands to be softened into a becoming fulness in the arrangement of the hair. Nothing short of a wig will solve the problem for certain qualities of soft, straight, thick hair, which requires a wintery weather to show to its true worth and no hat should ever be purchased in summer without strict attention being given to the everyday arrangement of a hair and the line which the knot or a gives to the profile.

HATS FOR MOTORING.

Practically speaking, the only small hats this year are those designed for motoring. With wide brimmed saliors of such tremendous proportions in vogue for everyday morning wear, a motor hat has become a thing of itself, not necessarily old fashioned nor ill-looking, but being worn, some of these being with brim bent down slightly at each side and most elaborately trimmed with lace and

A petition which has been circulated among the medical men of the city asking for a change in existing rules at the General Public Hospital, has been sent to the hospital commission, but as yet no reply has been received. Under the regulations of the institution all patients must be attended by doctors attached to the staff. None of the city medical men have the right to go to the institution to treat a patient of theirs who may go into the hospital, and the petition asks that the privilege be granted in regard to patients in private rooms. Some time ago the St. John Medical Society passed a resolution favoring such a change in the rules of the hospital.

WEATHER KEPT PEOPLE GUESSING THIS MORNING

Many Preparations for a Lively Out-Door Holiday But Dampness Threatened Disaster.

The enjoyment of the third half-holiday of the season will be marred considerably by the uncertainty of the weather. Numerous attractions have been planned, but during the morning it was feared that most of the outdoor events would have to be postponed. The city was enveloped in a heavy fog early this morning and at times rain fell in showers. The sun came out about 10.30 o'clock, bringing joy to many eager watchers.

Two base ball matches are scheduled to take place this afternoon. The Marathons and Tartars will cross bats on the Victoria grounds at three o'clock. The St. Josephs and St. Peters will clash on the Shamrock grounds in the third game of the championship series.

The yacht races on the river are attracting keen interest. The Royal Kennebec Yacht Club and Westfield Outing Association will hold a number of events.

PRaise FOR THE I. R. C.

MONCTON, N. B., July 17.—In his address to the Canadian Freight Association, in convention at Halifax, John W. Lord, freight traffic manager of the C. P. R., paid a neat compliment to the train service of the Intercolonial Railway, saying that he never travelled an equal mileage in any road with less discomfort from dust. He was simply astonished at the absence of dust and gratified at the complete measure of comfort. The objections to travelling in summer were all removed on the intercolonial, as shown by the train which carried the delegates from Montreal to Halifax.

MOOSEPATH RACES START ON THURSDAY

Prospects for One of the Best Series Ever Seen Here

Many Horses Now at the Park Training—Improvements Made to Track and Everything is Ready.

Moosepath Park has again been transformed into an up-to-date racing park. The grounds of the Driving Club have been the scene of great activity during the past week. A number of horses have been working out, while elaborate improvements were being made to the track and grounds. Everything was completed last evening and the repairs and additions have placed Moosepath in the best condition in which it has ever been.

With practically only four days to St. John's summer meet, the "speedy ones" are arriving for the events in large numbers and great enthusiasm is prevailing among the horsemen. Considerable rivalry is also being shown in the tri-outr.

Lady Kip, 2000, owned by A. E. Trice, of Salisbury, is already at Moosepath, and is working out in splendid fashion.

The trainers are predicting some excellent racing in the free-for-all event and the track record may be broken in any of the races. Simasie, 2084, one of Frank Boutiller's string, is also at the park and is travelling fast. A number are counting on Simasie's duplicating her previous wonderful performances on the provincial race tracks.

When Starter C. J. Dorothy "calls all ready for the horses" at Moosepath next week, he will send away no less than seven fast entries in the free-for-all. There are ten starters in the 215 class.

The fast Fredericton string reached the track yesterday. High O'Neill is again prominent with a fine entry list. Mr. O'Neill has entered Louis E. in the free-for-all; Daisy Wilkes in the 215 and Greyville in the 224. Burthe, 216 1-4, owned by W. B. Kitchen, of Fredericton, is also on the track. J. E. Sullivan has shipped Mona Garrison and Warren F. to Moosepath, while King Arion, owned by H. C. Jewett, of Fredericton, is also at the park.

There are at present thirty-three horses on the track. Frank Boutiller of Halifax, and F. Fox of Montreal, Mass., have all their animals at Moosepath. F. Parsons and Mitchell of Fredericton, and C. H. Fenwick, of Sussex, and others are working out their entries in anticipation of close contests.

Terrance Queen, 238, and Frank Patch, owned by Thomas Hayes of this city, as well as Fred Duncan's string are going nicely and should give a good account of themselves. Northern Star, owned by the Dufferin Hotel, will also be among the starters.

F. Hector, of Lewiston, and L. D. Morton, of Digby, will ship their strings to Moosepath on Monday.

Secretary John Ross is in communication with the large turf centres of the province and Maine, and he expects a record attendance at the meet. Every available space should be taken and only fine weather is needed to make the events the most successful in the history of the province.

A number of the old stalls have been improved and a new barn has been erected at the track. There are eleven splendid box stalls at the track.
