HUN ATTEMPT TO KILL WILSON; BRITISH WIN IN NORTH FRANCE

ALLEGED PLOT ON LIFE OF WILSON

Detectives Arrest Fritz Kolb, German Reservist From Mexico, in Hotel in Hoboken, N. J., Across From New York Harbor—Said to Have Confessed.

United States Government Carefully Guarding City of New York—Hotel Where Kolb was Arrested Same One at Which Lieut. Robert Fay, Formerly of German Army, and Hans Schiller Roomed Together.

Hoboken, N. J., Mar. 5.—An alleged plot against the life of President Wilson has been uncovered here, according to detectives who today arrested Fritz Kolb, a German reservist from Mexico. In a hotel where Kolb had engaged a room were found two bombs which, the detectives said, were to have been sent tonight to the president.

Kolb, questioned sharply at police headquarters here, is said to have confessed he conspired against the president's life, and that he took part in the Black Tom and Kingsland explosions.

According to members of the New York bomb squad, these two bombs were the "height of ingenuity." One is a time bomb and the other fitted to explode by the ignition of a fuse. The explosives were contained in tubing wrapped around with copper wire.

Upon information declared to have been given by Kolb, detectives arrested two other men, one here and one in Jersey City, and brought them to police headquarters as alleged accomplices.

The hotel where Kolb was arrested is the same one at which Lieut. Robert Fay, formerly of the German army, and Hans Schiller had roomed prior to their arrest nearly a year ago charged with conspiracy to destroy British merchant ships by placing bombs on them before their departure from American harbors.

Officials of the Canadian Car and Pouchery Company, declared there was a "likeness" between Kolb and a photograph of a former employe of the concern, for whom they had been searching since the explosion at Kingsland, N. J. They said they would have several workmen who knew the original of the photograph call at headquarters tomorrow to see whether they could identify Kolb.

Theodore Kemper, owner of a saloon in Newark, where Kolb was a bartender, told the police that the prisoner had represented himself as a chemist.

GREAT STORM HITS THE ATLANTIC COAST

New York, March 4.—A storm consisting of rain, sleet and snow here today was described by the weather bureau as one of the heaviest of the season, and also to be a record among March storms. Delay of an hour or more in the arrival of passenger trains was reported by the railways, while freight trains bringing food supplies, which were expected to relieve the food price situation were considerably retarded.

FREDERICTON MAYOR TO BE OPPOSED

Special to The Standard.

Fredericton, Mar. 5.—An eleventh hour opposition to Mayor Moses Mitchell, who is offering for a fourth term, developed in Fredericton this afternoon. The present mayor is to be opposed by Oliver Smith, who filed his nomination papers shortly before 4 o'clock this afternoon. He is a laboring man and is employed in one of the larrigan factories in this city.

Mr. Smith's candidature came as a great surprise and the air is buzzing with civic election talk tonight, the interest in this year's contest having lagged considerably. Four aldermen, all members of the present council, will be returned unopposed, namely, Alderman Reid in Kings ward, Alderman Shea in Queens, Alderman Walker in Carleton, and Alderman Baxter in St. Ann's. There will be a contest in Wellington ward. E. H. Horncastle and Alderman Judson Barker being the candidates.

CANADIANS MAKE GOOD

To Assist in General Advance
Canadians Launched Strong
Assault Against Formidable Hun Attack.

Toronto, Mar. 5.—The special correspondent of the Evening Telegram cabled today as follows:

Once again, after months of routine warfare, the Canadians have been in heavy fighting, the heaviest for them since the Somme offensive, though very local in extent, for in this latest "strafe" against the Germans several battalions only from one of the Canadian divisions were engaged.

The attack took place on Thursday. To assist in the general forward movement the British troops have been making, of late, over ground abandoned by the Huns in their retreat, the Canadians launched a strong assault against a particularly formidable German position on high ground, well fortified and heavily manned by the enemy.

After vigorous bombardment of the Hun position by artillery, the Canadians turned on gas, following up with an infantry advance in waves. Owing to unfavorable atmospheric conditions (it has been damp and foggy) and the uncertainty of the wind, the gas clouds were not as effective as usual.

The Germans met our advance with a heavy fire, but the Canadians inflicted severe losses upon the enemy before returning to their trenches. Our artillery did particularly effective work.

HUNS REGRET RUPTURE WITH UNITED STATES

Berlin, March 2, by wireless to Sayville, March 5.—In the course of the Reichstag debate on the budget today Dr. Gustav Stresemann, a national liberal member, alluded to the rupture of diplomatic relations with the United States and to President Wilson, whom the speaker characterized as a "theorist."

Dr. Stresemann is quoted in the Overseas News Agency's report of the debate as saying: "The rupture was welcomed by no one, but in the case of the United States the unlimited possibilities of its neutrality had become apparent."

"I heard two congressional speeches by President Wilson. He is a theorist, remote from all the world. He looks upon it as does a chemist on his report. He does not know Europe, but he considers himself qualified to be her teacher."

"The German-Americans did everything they could to prevent a conflict between us and the United States. They fully understood Germany's struggle for existence. Persecuted by President Wilson they have maintained the idea of German-Americanism up to the present. President Wilson once greeted them as men who could be proud that Germany was their native land."

Herr Hausmann, a member of the people's party, declared that the noble traditions of America should forbid her becoming the eleventh adversary of a nation which already was engaged in defending herself against ten enemies.

INAUGURATION DAY AT WASHINGTON SERIOUS

New Government Faces Grave Problem—Shadow of War Overhangs Republic—United States Poised on Verge of Hostilities.

Washington, Mar. 5.—Woodrow Wilson, with the major part of the world at war, and America poised on the verge, consecrated his second inauguration as president of the United States today with a last message of hope for peace.

Standing in the shadows of the nation's capitol with his face turned toward the eastern war-scarred skies, the president renewed his oath of allegiance to the constitution, praying to God that he might be given wisdom and prudence to do his duty in the true spirit of the American people.

Defies Germans.

While trumpets blared and martial accoutrements rattled prophetically about him, the president pictured the deep wrongs the United States patiently had borne in the conflict of other peoples without wishing to wrong or injure in return. Asserting that the tragedies of another continent had removed provincialism and made Americans citizens of the world, and that the principles of this republic should be applied as a liberation of mankind, he resolutely voiced a determination that America, standing

ONLY 94 BRITISH SHIPS SUNK BY HUN PIRATES

Official Figures Made Public by British Admiralty at Office of Consul General of Great Britain in New York.

New York, Mar. 5.—Official figures from the British admiralty, made public here today at the office of the consul-general of Great Britain, show that during February ninety-four British merchant ships were destroyed by mines or submarines. Of this number sixty-one ships were of 1,600 tons or over, and thirty-three were under 1,600 tons. In addition to the merchant ships twenty-nine fishing vessels of British register were sunk.

It was also reported that during the month sixty-seven British merchant vessels were unsuccessfully attacked by submarines, as shown by reports on file with the admiralty up to and including March 4.

The figures show that the number of merchant vessels, of all nationalities, over 100 tons each and exclusive of local or fishing craft which arrived at and departed from British ports, were as follows:

Vessels arrived 9,463; vessels sailed 9,124; total 18,587.

The foregoing figures do not include losses of ships of Great Britain's allies, or those of neutral nations which, the admiralty stated, are not available. The number of German submarines captured or sunk, the admiralty says, will not be made public.

Indicative of the activity of Great Britain in replacing the losses it was officially stated that at the present time more than 2,000,000 tons of shipping is on the stocks in various shipyards, all in more or less advanced stages of construction.

"The general situation," the admiralty announced, "is considered quite satisfactory."

Why Representatives of German Districts Held Up U. S. Senate

It is understood that the apparently bitter fight in the United States Senate on Sunday, in which party feelings were supposed to be thrown to the winds, was not due to any personal sentiment. Most of the twelve senators, who opposed President Wilson's ideas, represent German districts and naturally they had to voice the sentiments of their constituents.

The Standard can say that the apparent dispute in the Senate was due to a rare anomaly. For instance, Senator LaFollette, Republican, of Wisconsin, where the German population is strongest in point of political influence, is supposed to voice the sentiment of his state. His colleague is Senator Stephenson, also a Republican, who, by the way, is a native of Fredericton.

BRITISH SUCCESSFUL IN NORTH FRANCE

In Vicinity of Arras and Near Ginchy Army of Britain Carries Out Successful Raid and Inflicted Many Casualties on Germans.

Except for the front in France, where the British and French are opposing the Germans, there have been only the usual outpost engagements and bombardments.

Around Arras and near Ginchy the British troops have carried out successful raids against German positions according to London. In the vicinity of Arras King George's men struck at two places, and inflicted many casualties on the Germans, made 42 of them prisoners and captured a machine gun. Prisoners also were taken near Ginchy. Near Bouchavesnes the Germans endeavored to wrest from the British the positions captured Sunday, but met with repulse.

The French counter-attacked north of Bois Caurleres, where the Germans had made a gain at one point in an attack delivered over a front of 1.34 miles and regained part of the captured elements. The French official communication says that elsewhere than in the Bois Caurleres the Germans were repulsed with heavy losses in their Sunday attack.

WASHINGTON STILL WAITING PENDING LEGAL DECISION

Washington, March 5.—Further action by President Wilson in the German situation was postponed today pending a decision by his legal advisers whether he has power to arm American merchantmen, in spite of the failure of congress to pass a resolution conferring such authority.

The question was referred to Attorney-General Gregor and Secretary Lansing, and probably will be decided in time for consideration at tomorrow's cabinet meeting—the first to be held in the new administration.

The inauguration ceremonies, which most of their time today, but members of the cabinet and officials found opportunity to discuss the subject.

A determination to arm the merchantmen, if a legal way to do so can be found, was generally apparent.

German Representatives.

The president has placed squarely before the senate the responsibility for changing its rules during the special session begun today, so that filibustering by a small group of senators cannot prevent action by congress. In the meantime he is preparing to take such steps as he can to meet the crisis and defend American rights. In his inaugural address today he declared "we stand firm in armed neutrality," and added: "We may even be drawn on by circumstances, not by our own purpose or desire, to a more active assertion of our rights as we see them, and a more immediate association with the great struggle itself."

While the arming of merchantmen is the step most considered, it is pointed out that the president has the right to convoy American vessels. This course has been opposed by the navy department, however, principally for strategic reasons.

Another step suggested is that the shipping board take over American merchantmen arm them as naval auxiliaries, and send them abroad. The president has been inclined to believe that certain old statutes still in force might prevent him from furnishing guns to merchantmen, but some of his advisers hold that a broader and truer interpretation of these laws will show that they have no application to the present situation.

Democratic Caucus.

A Democratic caucus of the new senate has been called to meet tomorrow and the possibility of following out the suggestion of the president, that the rules be changed, is expected to be determined in the near future.

Another name was added today to the list of senators who signed a manifesto in the closing hours of the session declaring they favored the armed neutrality bill, and would have voted for it if given the opportunity. Senator Lippitt, of Rhode Island, telegraphed to Senator Weeks asking that his name be affixed, making 76 signers.

BONAR LAW REPLIES TO CHURCHILL

London, Mar. 5.—In the House of Commons today, replying to Col. Churchill and other critics of the Saloniki expedition, including John Dillon, who asserted that Roumania had been forced into the war by Great Britain against her will and against the advice of Gen. Sarrail, the French commander, and Russian generals, Andrew Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer, while refusing to reveal anything that Germany would like to know, intimated that the government had no intention of withdrawing the troops from Saloniki.

He said that Great Britain could not act independently and had to consult her allies. If the expedition were withdrawn Greece would be open and the whole Balkan peninsula would be in the hands of the Entente enemies.

With regard to the demands for a secret session of parliament to discuss the matter, Mr. Bonar Law declared the government could not frankly discuss the expedition, even in a secret session. The Allies now had a common policy, the main object of which was to insure that if their enemies advanced against them the Entente Powers should not run the risk they ran a few months ago of being attacked

THIRD CANADIANS IN ANOTHER BIG FIGHT

Ottawa, Mar. 5.—Indications that the Third Canadian Division at the front has been in another fight are furnished by cables received at the department of militia. In the action on Mar. 1st, in which Lieut. Col. Becket was killed, there were losses affecting Ontario battalions, but they were not heavy. A number of officers besides Col. Becket are believed to have gone, but the lists will be forwarded through the usual channels of the records.

STEAMER DRINA SUNK

New York, March 5.—The Associated Press today carried the following: "Advices received here from Rio Janeiro and London indicate that the Royal Mail Steamer Packet liner Drina, of 11,483 tons, with passengers and cargo from Rio Janeiro has been sunk between Lisbon and Liverpool, the passengers were landed. No details are available. The South American advices reported that the loss of the Drina after leaving Lisbon has been announced by the agents of the Royal Mail Steamer Packet Company in Rio Janeiro. Agents of the company here admitted today the receipt of a message from London, signed by the captain: "Drina passengers landed safely."

from behind. No threats, he asserted, were used to induce Roumania to enter the war.

Hamilton, Ont., March 5.—It is understood here that the annual statement of the Steel Company of Canada for 1916 is approaching completion and will soon be in shape to place before the board for its inspection before being passed out to the shareholders. It is possible that the board will be called soon after the middle of the month.

TIRED ALL THE TIME

It is natural to feel tired sometimes, when you have worked or exercised sufficiently to cause a healthy feeling of fatigue. But you should be refreshed by rest. A tired feeling that does not disappear even after a night's sleep is abnormal. It means that you are anemic—that your blood is thin and watery. It means that you need a tonic to build you up and fortify your system against such a condition. If you do not take prompt steps to improve the blood, you are inviting disease, because poor blood means that your power of resistance is lowered. This blood is largely the sufferer's own fault. It results from neglect, because the blood can be built up. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills supply the elements that the blood needs to make it rich and red and to enable it to carry more oxygen. That is why these pills change weak men and women into robust, healthy people. There is no spot in this great country where you will not find some former sufferer who has been restored to the blessing of good health through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. If you are feeling all out of sorts do not further neglect yourself, a fair treatment with these pills will give you new strength to meet life's duties.

WILSON SAYS REPUBLIC MAY ENTER WORLD WAR

Armed Neutrality, President Announces in His History Making Inaugural Address, is Position of United States at Present, But Immediate Association With War May Follow—President Enumerates Principles Upon Which United States Stands—Speaks of Responsibility Thrown Upon Him and Pleads for Unity of His Countrymen.

Washington, March 5.—President Wilson took the oath of office in public at 12:47 o'clock this afternoon and delivered his inaugural address before a great crowd which packed the plaza at the east front of the capitol. Vice-President Marshall had been inaugurated in the senate chamber a few minutes before.

The address was as follows:
My Fellow Citizens: The four years which have elapsed since last I stood in this place have been crowned with counsel and action of the most vital interest and consequences. Perhaps no equal period in our history has been so fruitful of important reforms in our economic and industrial life or so full of significant changes in the spirit and purpose of our political action. We have sought very thoroughly to set our house in order, correct the grosser errors and abuses of our industrial life, liberate and quicken the processes of our national genius and energy and lift our people's essential interests. It is a record of singular variety and singular distinction. But I shall not attempt to review it. It speaks for itself and will be of increasing influence as the years go by. This is not the time for retrospect. It is a time rather to speak our thoughts and purposes concerning the present and the immediate future.

Although we have centred our counsel and action with such unusual concentration and success upon the great problems of domestic legislation to which we addressed ourselves four years ago, other matters have more and more forced themselves upon our attention, matters lying outside our own life as a nation and over which we had no control, but which, despite our wish to keep free of them, have drawn us more and more irresistibly into their own current and influence.

Effect of The War
It has been impossible to avoid them. They have affected the life of the whole world. They have shaken men everywhere with a passion and an apprehension they never knew before. It has been hard to preserve calm counsel with the thought of our own people swayed this way and that under their influence. We are a composite and cosmopolitan people. We are of the blood of all nations that are at war. The currents of our thoughts as well as the currents of our trade run quick at all seasons back and forth between us and them. The war inevitably set its mark from the first alike upon our minds, our industries, our commerce, our political and our social action. To be indifferent to it or independent of it was out of the question.

And yet all the while we have been conscious that we were not part of it. In that consciousness, despite many divisions, we have drawn closer together. We have been deeply wronged upon the seas, but we have not wished to wrong or injure in return; have retained throughout the consciousness of standing in some sort apart, intent upon an interest that transcended the immediate issues of the war itself. As some of the injuries done us have become intolerable we have still been clear that we wished nothing for ourselves, that we were not ready to demand for all mankind—fair dealing, justice, the freedom to live and be at ease against organized wrong.

In Delicate Position.

It is in this spirit and with this that we have grown more and more aware, more and more certain, that the part we wished to play was the part of those who mean to vindicate and fortify peace. We have been obliged to arm ourselves to make good our claim to a certain minimum of right and of freedom of action. We stand firm in armed neutrality, since it seems that in no other way we can demonstrate what is we insist upon and cannot forego. We may even be drawn on by circumstances, not by our own purpose or desire, to a more active assertion of our rights as we see them and a more immediate association with the great struggle itself. But nothing will alter our thought or our purpose. They are too clear to be obscured. They are too deeply rooted in the principles of our national life to be altered. We desire neither conquest nor advantage. We wish nothing that can be had only at the cost of another people. We always professed unselfish purpose, and we covet the opportunity to prove that our professions are sincere.

There are many things still to do at home to clarify our own politics and add new vitality to the industrial process of our own life and we shall do them as time and opportunity serve, but we realize that the greatest things that remain to be done must be done with the whole world at stake and in co-operation with the wide and universal forces of mankind, and we are

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

Look years younger! Use the old-time Sage Tea and Sulphur and nobody will know

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

making our spirits ready for these things. They will follow in the immediate wake of the war itself and will set civilization on again. We are provincials no longer. The tragical events of the thirty months of turmoil through which we have just passed have made us citizens of the world, there can be no turning back. Our own fortunes as a nation involved, whether we would have it so or not.

And yet we are not the less Americans on that account. We shall be the more American if we but remain true to the principles in which we have been brought up. They are not the principles of a province or of a single continent. We have known and boasted all along that they were the principles of a liberated mankind. These, therefore, are the things we shall stand for whether in-war or in peace.

The all nations are equally interested in the peace of the world and in the political stability of free peoples, and equally responsible for their maintenance.

The essential principle of peace is the actual equality of nations in all matters of right or privilege.

That peace cannot securely or justly rest upon an armed balance of power.

That governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed and that no other powers should be supported by the common thought, purpose or power of the family of nations.

That the seas should be equally free and safe for the use of all peoples, under rules set up by common agreement and consent, and that, so far as practicable, they should be accessible to all upon equal terms.

That the national armament should be limited to the necessity of national order and domestic safety.

That the community of interest and of power, upon which peace must henceforth rest, should be based upon the duty of seeing to it that all influences proceed from its own citizens meant to encourage or assist revolution in other states should be sternly and effectually suppressed and prevented.

I need not argue these principles to you, my fellow countrymen, they are the principles of your own native affairs. They spring up native among us. Upon this as a platform of purpose and of action we can stand together. And it is imperative that we should stand together. We are being forged into a new unity, amidst the fires that now blaze throughout the world.

In their ardent heat we shall, in God's providence, let us hope, be purged of faction and division, purified of the errant humors of party and of private interest, and shall stand for these in the days to come with a new dignity of national pride and spirit. Let each man see to it that the dedication in his own heart, the high purpose of the nation in his own mind, ruler of his own will and desire.

I stand here and have taken the high and solemn oath to which you have been audience because the people of the United States have chosen me for this august delegation of power and have by their gracious judgment named me their leader in affairs. I know now what the task means. I realize to the full the responsibility which it involves. I pray God I may be given the wisdom and the prudence to do my duty in the true spirit of this great people. I am their servant, and can succeed only as they sustain and guide me by their confidence and their counsel.

The thing I shall count upon, the thing without which neither counsel nor action will avail, is the unity of America—an American united feeling, in purpose and in its vision of duty, of opportunity and of service. We are to beware of all men who would turn the tasks and the necessities of the nation to their own private profit or use them for the building up of private power; beware that no faction or sly intrigue break the harmony or embarrass the spirit of our people; beware that our government be kept pure and incorrupt in all its parts.

United alike in the conception of our duty and in the high resolve to perform it in the face of all men, let us dedicate ourselves to the great task to which we must now set our hand. For myself, I beg your tolerance, your countenance and your united aid.

The shadows that now lie dark upon our path will soon be dispelled, and we shall walk with light all about us if we be but true to ourselves—to ourselves as we have wished to be known in the counsels of the world and in the thought of all those who love liberty and justice and the right exalted.

At the conclusion of his address, the president led the inaugural procession back to the White House, where it passed in review before him.

STOP DANDRUFF!

HAIR GETS THICK, WAVY, BEAUTIFUL

Girls! Draw a cloth through your hair and double its beauty.

Spend 25 cents! Dandruff vanishes and hair stops coming out

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you can not find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp.

Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.

CYRUS B. MC CREADY HONORED BY MANY

Special to The Standard.
Apohequi, March 5.—One of the largest funerals ever seen in the village was that of Cyrus B. McCreedy, which took place on Sunday morning. The service was held at the home, and many who attended were not able to get inside the residence, there being such a large representation from all the surrounding communities assembled to pay their last tribute of respect to a worthy citizen, whose passing is so deeply mourned.

The pastor then gave a beautiful and inspiring address, taking for his text, "I have rolled up like a weaver from the web of my life; He will cut me off from the loom." At the conclusion of the address and eulogy the choir sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." The long line of conveyances then formed into order, the clergyman leading, followed by the members of Court Kings, I. O. F. in regalia, after them the hearse, chief mourners and a long procession of friends and acquaintances followed the remains to the Berwick cemetery, where still more friends were found waiting to

TONIGHT'S THE NIGHT.

This evening the representatives of the New Brunswick opposition club will gather in convention in this city in an endeavor to compose their differences and settle troublesome questions. It is probable that they will have a busy session before they reach a decision on the important matters which daily grow more pressing.

It is reported that, after all, there may not be an attempt to seat Mr. Foster. The opposition, it is intimated, now believe it easier to get a new leader who is already placed than to find a place for the gentleman upon whom the tone of leadership was pressed when no one else wanted it. Such a solution of the problem is, however, hardly fair to Mr. Foster, but it is thought to be the one the opposition will adopt, and the indications this evening were that Mr. Robinson might again grasp the sceptre which once he cast from him in disgust. Mr. Carvell is also reported to be looking for an exit from federal politics easier than that provided by the ballot box route. When it comes to finding easy exits Mr. Carvell is in a class by himself and his admirers may recall that his ability in that direction served him well on one occasion when Dr. Edwards, the athletic member for Frontenac, was in waiting near the main portal. Mr. Carvell is booked to face an interesting situation in Carleton-Victoria when the next federal appeal is made, and it may just be that he is not unwilling to take advantage of the opportunity tonight may bring.

The dominant factor in tonight's proceedings, however, is likely to be the stand taken by the Acadian members of the opposition. To the Acadians more than any others in the opposition party belong the "spoils" and if they are well advised they will make claims while the claiming is good. They should not forget that they were shamefully misled and footed in the election campaign and now that the campaign has passed they should see to it that they are amply rewarded. They will never have another such opportunity to secure all they want, and if they do not avail themselves of it they stand to be fooled again.

Altogether tonight's caucus promises to be decidedly interesting.

A CENSUS OF LABOR NEEDS.

The Occupational Survey undertaken by the National Service Board is a very essential effort to get a thorough grasp of present and future needs of industries as respects labor. For instance, munition factories in Canada are employing between 300,000 and 400,000 men and women. At the end of the war, when these factories close, or revert to peace-time manufacturing, they may not need more than 50,000 employees. What is to be done with the others? What will be the opportunities of the hundreds of thousands of ex-soldiers who return unharmed? An estimate of labor requirements from the various industries, on a peace basis, may be difficult to get, but it is the only basis upon which there can be intelligent anticipation. Some branches of manufacturing will resemble activities, others will diminish in various degrees. As the Toronto Mail and Empire says: "If there is along with a grasp of the probable changes of the soldiers about to be discharged, a good deal of fitting in can be done from Government offices. Otherwise, there would have to be a general groping around until absorption by haphazard methods had succeeded in overcoming the unemployment problem. The man-power census by the National Service Board is a valuable inventory of the present labor resources of the country, but only a census of business views can supply the much-needed forecast of probable labor requirements."

FRENCH-CANADIAN RECRUITING.

The Standard has received from La Presse, of Montreal, a booklet containing an English summary of editorials which have appeared in that paper tending to prove that in the enlistment of her native born Quebec has done as well as Ontario. La Presse maintains that at least Quebec is as well represented in the infantry, the principal fighting branch of the service, as any province in Canada. We cannot see why there is a necessity for elaborate argument and much detailed analysis if the recruiting men of that province looked as large-

New Loan in Dominion and Critical Situation in United States Cause of Drop.

Special to The Standard.
 New York, March 5.—Foreign government issues showed a substantial decline. Dominion of Canada, five, of 1914 lost a point following an unofficial announcement of a new $150,000,000 internal loan in Canada to yield 5 3/8 per cent.

Japanese government issues lost from 1/2 point to 1 1/4 point. The Anglo-French 5 per cent loan gained 1/4, closing the week at 92 3/8, compared with a low record of 90 1/2 made two weeks ago.

It became known during the week that the Italian government is attempting to sell some of its new war loan bonds. Other foreign financing continues to be held in abeyance pending the clearing of the international situation.

PENMAN'S LIMITED UP TO EXPECTATIONS.

Special to The Standard.
 Montreal, March 5.—The annual statement of Penman's Limited, presented to the shareholders at the annual meeting today came fully up to expectations, the sales for 1916 having exceeded the previous banner year in the history of the company by upwards of a million dollars.

The percentage of earnings on the preferred stock rose from 59.82 in 1915 to 62 per cent. in 1916, and that on the common from 26.90 to 31.35 per cent. The total sales were $5,840,128, an increase of $1,097,214, and the net profits available to shareholders were $738,753, an increase of $95,005.

EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE.

The Evangelical Alliance was in session yesterday morning in the St. Andrew's church schoolroom.

The secretary, Rev. J. Charles B. Appel, reported on the meeting held in the Opera House on Feb. 25 for the purpose of organizing the Prohibition Enforcement League, of which Rev. W. R. Robinson was elected president. The committee in charge will call a meeting for the completion of the arrangements.

The committee in relation to the city-wide mission reported through Rev. W. H. Barraclough and Rev. J. H. A. Anderson, relative to the meetings for prayer. On last Thursday one hundred homes took part in the prayers. Some of the churches are also holding these prayer meetings with the view of deepening the spiritual life of the people.

This will be done in preparation for the missionary services, Rev. Mr. Anderson reports, in the house to house visitation. The city will be divided into sections and each congregation will send a minister who will take the greetings of the church to each section for the purpose of awakening special attention to the meetings.

An effort will be put forward for the enrollment of soldiers.

SOLDIERS PREFER EAST TO THE WEST

Government Receives Communications Which Indicate That a Large Number of Returned Men Will Seek Farms in This Province.

The New Brunswick Government is in receipt of letters which indicate that returned soldiers are anxious to take up farms in this province. It has been stated that the returned heroes did not care to go back to the land, but apparently this is not the opinion of the Canadian Association of Returned Soldiers with headquarters at Ottawa. A letter from the treasurer of that association, J. R. Phillips, states that the members of the association are desirous of securing most complete information relative to the proposals of the New Brunswick Government for settlement of the returned men.

BOARD OF TRADE MONTHLY MEETING SLIMLY ATTENDED

Report of Assessment Committee to Be Dealt With by Full Board—No Action on Winnipeg Resolution.

The monthly meeting of the Board of Trade held last night was not very largely attended, there being only a quorum present. In the absence of the president J. B. Oudlip, vice-president, occupied the chair.

The minutes of the previous meeting and the summary of the council proceedings for the month were read. The minutes were adopted, but the section in the summary in regard to the report of the assessment committee was laid over, and on motion of W. F. Hatheway, seconded by F. W. Daniel, it was decided to have the report of this committee dealt with at a special meeting of the full board to be called by the chair some afternoon next week.

In moving the resolution Mr. Hatheway said he felt that a resolution of this nature should have been brought before the full board before it was sent to the common council, as there were sections in it which he was sure all the members were not in sympathy with. He had also heard it classed as destructive criticism only, and the assessment commission regarded it as a condemnation of their report. The motion was carried and a special meeting will be held at the call of the chair.

The resolution of the Winnipeg Board of Trade in regard to a National Government was read, but no action was taken in view of the small attendance, and also the fact that most of the questions touched on would be considered at the "Win-the-War" convention to be held this morning.

O. C. Bissell wanted to know what was the matter with the St. John Board of Trade, and if there was any way in which the members could be induced to attend the meetings and express their opinions on matters of general interest to the public. Capt. A. J. Mulcahy, speaking on the

ST. JOHN IN FIRST PLACE LAST WEEK

Of 91 Recruits Secured in the Province 32 Came From St. John City and County.

The same number of men enlisted in the province for the week ending Saturday, March 4th, as for the week previous, viz., ninety-one. For the last three weeks the returns show that this province goes steadily on, providing men to help fill the places of those who fall on the firing line. For the week ending Saturday, Feb. 17th, 90 men was the total. The subsequent week realized 91, while last week also reached a total of 91. This, however, is not as good as the same week last year. For this period 263 men were enrolled. St. John supplied 78 of the total last year. For the same week in 1916 there was no county but what contributed to the week's total. Last week six counties failed to send a man. The tabulated list follows:

How M. C. Lindo's Found a Cure in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

One of the Reasons Why Dodd's Kidney Pills Have Had a Phenomenal Growth of Popularity in the West. Ellacott, Alta., March 5th, (Special.)—The growth of popularity of Dodd's Pills in this section of the Great West has been phenomenal. They cure kidney disease. That much has been proved again and again. One of the latest proofs comes from M. C. Lindo, well known and highly respected here.

"Thinking Dodd's Kidney Pills seems a small way of expressing my gratitude," M. C. Lindo states, "I suffered from headaches and dizziness and was unable to find anything that would do me any good. I tried several medicines that were advertised to cure my trouble, but they did not. Dodd's Kidney Pills were recommended to me by a friend and I sent for a box and gave them a trial. The result is that I am feeling fine now. I shall always keep a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills handy."

Dodd's Kidney Pills cured M. C. Lindo, because the trouble came from the kidneys. Lumbago, rheumatism, dropsy, heart disease, diabetes and Bright's Disease are other troubles that come from sick kidneys. To cure them cure the kidneys with Dodd's Kidney Pills.

NEWS AND COMMENT FROM THE FINANCIAL WORLD

WALL STREET WAS STRONG YESTERDAY

Morgan Specialty, U.S. Steel, Rises to 110 5/8 in Tremendous Rush to Buy—Foreign Exchange Weak.

New York, Mar. 5.—Except for the first half hour, when lower prices indicated disappointment at the failure of Congress to adopt the administration measures, steadily the market followed its upward movement of last Saturday. Trading was broad and active, the largest, in fact, of any session for several weeks, dealings slackening only during the noon hour, when attention was directed to the president's inaugural speech.

Steel and iron shares, Munitions and Equipments, Shippings and Coppers figured importantly in the day's operations, with Oils, Sugars, Motors, Central Leather and the usual miscellaneous issues which invariably follow the lead of the more prominent speculative favorites.

U. S. Steel Strong. United States Steel, which contributed no less than 20 per cent. to the day's business, registered an extreme gain of 2 1/2 points at 110 5/8. Bethlehem Steel issues made further recovery from last week's setback, the old shares rising 3/4 to 140, with 3/4 for the new issue at 116 1/4 and 6 1/4 for the subscription rights at 13 1/2.

Advances in these stocks were accompanied by circuitous rumors that large orders are soon to be placed by the home government. Metals which led the list as a group at gains of one to almost three points, were accelerated by another stiffening of quoted prices for the refined product and other war descriptions derived from their recent advance during the forenoon, representative stocks falling to follow the general trend until the final hour, when irregular rallies from lowest levels were noted.

Foreign Exchange. Further depreciation in Russian and Italian remittances, rates and lines, establishing new low records, attracted little interest and was without effect on sterling, francs or marks.

International bonds were comparatively quiet and unchanged, aside from Paris 6's, which repeated their recent minimum quotation. Total sales, par value, amounted to $1,785,000.

GOVERNMENT PROTECTING THE POTATO GROWERS

Leading Representatives of Farmers Go to Ottawa and Explain Why Prices are High - Cuban and United States Demand Cause in Part of Rise in Price - Railroad Embargo in States Also Factor.

Special to The Standard.
Ottawa, Mar. 5.—A strong delegation representing the potato industry of New Brunswick waited upon the government today to discuss two questions, the suggested embargo against the export of potatoes except to Great Britain and her Allies, and the threatened indictment of the New Brunswick potato exchange by W. F. O'Connor, K.C., the cost of living commissioner. The members of the delegation were: Hon. B. F. Smith, representing the New Brunswick government; Hon. W. P. Jones, representing the following shippers who were all present: Phillips & Estey, J. W. Bohan, C. E. Gallagher, G. C. Foster, M. T. McLean, M. T. Hayward, of Hartland, representing the Potato Growers Association and the United Agricultural Societies of New Brunswick; and A. M. Hison representing the Toronto end of the potato exchange.

The delegation saw Sir George Foster and Hon. Martin Burrell, Minister of Agriculture, and presented strong views against the proposal which has been tabled in some quarters to place an embargo on potatoes. The ministers heard the views of Mr. Smith and the other members of the delegation and said they would receive every consideration if the question came before the government. Then the delegation visited Hon. W. F. O'Connor, Minister of Labor, and had a long interview with him and W. F. O'Connor, K.C., regarding the cost of living regulations and how these affected the potato industry in New Brunswick. It is understood that some of the members of the potato exchange have failed to reply to the questions asked by the cost of living commissioner and it was pointed out that the mere failure to do so constituted a criminal offence under the regulations. It may be added that considerable misunderstanding and suspicion at Ottawa.

However, after a thorough discussion of the whole matter and mutual explanations it was agreed that those who have not yet replied to the questions would do so at once. The whole field of operations of the exchange was gone into and it is understood that the authorities here are satisfied that in some respects at least the exchange has been successful in protecting as far as possible the interests of the public. In the matter of saving expense in selling and in protecting sales against unscrupulous purchasers there have been safeguards against loss in which individuals without the support that the exchange can give would be powerless. This is admitted by the authorities and the delegation today undertook to see that they would be satisfied similarly on all points in connection with their operations.

As a result although leave has been granted Mr. O'Connor by the Attorney General of New Brunswick to indict the members of the potato exchange collectively and individually it is unlikely that action will result. Meanwhile the Neutral Commission for Relief in Belgium, administered without pay by relief-hearted Americans, is saving the women and children from starvation. Here we CAN help promptly and effectively, by giving generously to the Belgian Relief Fund.

More contributions than ever are needed, because the higher prices of foodstuffs, particularly wheat, have seriously increased the cost of feeding these millions of dependent Belgians. How much can you spare the victims of one of the blackest, most cold-blooded crimes? transportation, and to the unprecedented demand for potatoes in Cuba. He said they would be glad if other portions of the Dominion would buy their surplus potatoes in New Brunswick. It may be mentioned that The Standard has been informed that the statement that an order-in-council would shortly be passed placing an embargo on potatoes was written by an irresponsible newspaper correspondent, who had no basis in fact for his assertion. How the statement came to be sent out also by the Canadian Press has not yet been explained. It is quite true that the question came up casually as hundreds of other questions do, but that was all. The Standard understands that an embargo is extremely unlikely.

Mr. Hayward, in discussing the embargo, said their claim was simply that it was unjust to the farmers on the ground that this was the first chance the farmers have actually had to make a profit on potatoes. They had been selling at a loss and should not be interfered with. It was doubtful if it would be of benefit to Canada as a whole. Whatever loss there was would fall entirely on one class, the farmers of New Brunswick, and to a certain extent Prince Edward Island as well.

Best Nerve Specialist in England Was Consulted

But Nervous System Failed to Respond to Treatment Prescribed.

Nervous disorders frequently result from injury to the nerves in accidents or because of the shock to the system. The writer of this letter was injured in a mix-up with some coils, rendered unconscious for three weeks, and in spite of continued treatment in hospital could not obtain restoration of the internal nerves which control the action of the digestive and other vital organs. He travelled to Europe and consulted England's greatest nerve specialist. Relief was only temporary, in spite of many treatments. His letter gives the facts briefly and tells how he was finally cured by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. Can you imagine any more severe test of this great nerve restorative? Mr. Henry F. Venn, Cefu Ranch, Malakwa, B. C., writes: "Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has restored my nervous system and given me new health. Having met with a severe accident seven years ago, from which I was unconscious and which left my nerves in a very sore plight, I was treated by doctors galore and consulted one of the greatest nerve specialists in England, but nothing seemed to do me much good. Hypnotism and, in fact, all and every kind of nerve treatment in almost every form was used, but never with more than temporary benefit. "But Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has acted very differently, for it has built up my nervous system until I feel like my old self again. If this medicine will do for others what it has done for me, I shall not regret having written this letter. I have recommended the Nerve Food personally to many, and shall always esteem its great restorative value."

DEPORTATION OF BELGIAN MEN LEAVES WOMEN AND CHILDREN MORE HELPLESS THAN EVER

Neutral protests do not prevent the Germans from continuing the deportation and enslavement of the able-bodied men who were left in unhappy Belgium—and we are powerless to stop it until we have won the war.

The Gold Dust Twins' Philosophy

If you have ever fumed and fussed, because of dirt and grime and rust, and said unto yourself, "Oh, dear! This household work will kill, I fear"—then it is time that you should find some other method far more kind.

Of all the woes a housewife bears, one always fills her day with care: The kitchen after-meal-time mess, is quite enough to make one fuss. What, with the pots and pans, the knives and forks and plates and cans, no task of man, however grim, the half as mean is handed him.

Two little willing workers aim to enter in this household game: their job, the lessening of work, a task that neither of them shrink. With active little hands and brains they grab the irksome household reins, till soon each kettle, pot or dish, is just as bright as you could wish. And not until the chores are done, from sink to silver, sun to sun, could anything inspire the two, to drop the tasks they have to do.

Therefore, if you have never known, assistance such as we have shown, your troubles end, where joy begins. Now, Mrs. Drudge, the Gold Dust Twins! Henceforth, as dishes congregate, when cutlery in sad array, awaits you at the close of day, "Cheer Up!" Forget the labor planned: You have two aids at your command.

THE GIRL ON THE LAND

(By Hilda M. Love, in an English paper.)

Five o'clock in the morning is an unearthly hour to turn out—when one is not used to it; and on that first morning it seemed ghastly to be dressing in the candle-light. The new garters cut the knees and did not seem to fit tight, the thick boots were like logs, and we felt like thieves stealing out of the sleeping cottage, while my seven-stone room mate looked like a twelve-year-old boy in her breeches.

The first two hours on the field were wonderful. "Don't see what they've got to complain about in this, do you?" said Don. My room mate had a French name of about six syllables which was curtailed to Don. But oh, the anguish of the second and third day! We crawled through stiles rather than climb them. We slunk home at dusk ate our fill, crawled upstairs, and crept into bed without a word.

There were doctors' daughters, school teachers, young clerics, wives of soldiers. Some were giving their whole time, others were putting their holiday vacation on the line. "John," so called because she wore out all her brothers' old clothes on the field, formerly ran a physical culture and dancing school in Munich. Don's husband was a Frenchman who fell at Solosson.

"Dingy," our lieutenant, deserves special mention. She was a khaki-clad, sturdy, stone of a girl, one of the few new women "bosses" that the war has brought forth—always on time, always an example, and always first in the worst disputes.

"I'm glad I'm up here, doing my bit," she said, following a letter man. The sun shone and the whole world sang on that eventful day when the first animal came into our midst. Cattle were not in our camp. Yet the over-seer picked my partner, Don, and me to harness the creature. He was a young, gentle, studious man—I don't think he had ever touched a horse before.

"I don't pretend to know the first thing about horses, but that brute must have been a record in height. He possessed a head that had to be looked up to, and however Don put that collar round his head I never quite perceived—it was a trick. But the first horse that got in"—was the dread detail worrying me throughout the operation. I saw Don faltering and fussing about with the rest of the harness, and I shrank back into the darkness of the barn.

The Bugler of Algiers. "Give us a name to stir the blood. With a warmer glow and a swifter flood At the touch of a courage that conquers fear— A name like the call of the trumpet clear."

I give you France." This picture is a war story without much war, "a rare story with a touching and wistful appeal." Sir Gilbert Parker said. I saw it some time ago at a private showing, and if you think my opinion is worth anything, it is a picture that I went to twice and have told all my friends to make a point of seeing.

The refusal of the two old soldiers to ride to Paris, but instead to march like any soldier, most assuredly showed true realism, and the obstinate determination of the brave Anatole to finish his march through a light on the characteristics of the nation. The village pictures, market places and the little human touches are beautifully directed.

The plot is of two brothers in arms, Pierre (Rupert Julian) and Anatole (Kingsley Benedict). The latter has a sister Gabrielle (Ella Hall) whom Pierre loves. There are some very sweet scenes between these lovers, not too sentimental, as there is some humor in the picture. The call comes to arms and the comrades go to Algiers where, captured by the enemy, Anatole performs the heroic act of sounding the charge instead of the retreat, and the day is saved for his beloved France.

"The Purple Mask." "A Strange Discovery" is the name given to this week's number of the Universal serial—The Purple Mask. Just what the strange discovery was I was not able to figure out, for there were many discoveries. She is disguised in boy's clothes, but changes in a taxi on her way home. She has been working in a factory to learn the secret of her attempted theft. Kelly is working against her and getting a bit too inquisitive, he and "Bull" and "Pete" are caught red handed in the cellar of Patsy's home. Patsy has a meeting with her gang, but she does not know that they have left the three detectives in the torture chamber where they have the choice of being smothered by gas or drowned by water.

Mr. I. N. Petersen, Diaper, Mass., writes: "I am only too glad to be able to state that I derived wonderful benefit from Burdock Blood Bitters for two years. I was treated by several doctors, but received no benefit until by chance I heard of B.B.B., and I at once procured two bottles and for a short time I was completely cured. I am, and always will be, grateful for what Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. I am glad to recommend it to all who suffer from headaches."

B.B.B. is the oldest and best known blood medicine on the market today, having been manufactured for the past forty years by The T. S. Sibley Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

IMPERIAL.

"A Night Out." Even such a night as last night people went out into the night, braved the winds and drifts which swirled (that's a fine word!) across the square to get to the imperial to see May Robson as the ray old grandmother in "A Night Out." Spooky old lady as she was I don't believe even she would have ventured out of that cozy room into last night's storm, but her counterfeited presentment amused and entertained the imperial audience thoroughly.

The scene that lives in my memory among the many humorous ones in this Vitagraph production, is where they offer her such very hearty things to eat for her breakfast the morning after the night before. Since seeing Miss Robson personally I can realize how she must have enjoyed acting with these boys, for she has a son of her own. She herself has the true spirit of youth which will never grow aged and unsympathetic. She goes the pace quite thoroughly too, and does such a lot of hustling around. A good laugh does anyone a world of good and that I am sure you will have when you go to see "A Night Out." This is a return engagement by request.

Pathe British Gazette gave some nice pictures of the King and Queen of Spain with their children and views of the Serbian Army so thoroughly re-organized and equipped now.

A new feature at the imperial is the Canadian Ford Monthly, the introduction of which is very novel. This number showed a mother taking her two children through a soap factory explaining thoroughly how soap is made, and ending with a demonstration of its use—the two kiddies in the bath tub. I hope the mother was not serious about the tots for I was sure they would get right into a machine and come out as a cake stamped with "Rose and Glycerine" or words to that effect. Cutting the huge trees which grow on Vancouver Island was another good series. Besides all this we saw a Gaumont World Tour, an Eastern city in Paris, and in the Maritime Alps. The Bois de Boulogne views were simply beautiful.

Pickpocket Worked in Picture. So real was the State Fair which R. A. Walsh staged for "The Honor System," the Fox melodrama on the Lyric screen, that a pickpocket who obtained a job as an "extra" in the big scene got James A. Marcus's wallet and his $50. Later he got six months. ALICE FAIRWEATHER.

Willbert Hampton was charged with not giving satisfactory account of himself, mandated after some evidence taken. Two soldiers testified that Hampton a five dollar bill change a bottle of whiskey and not return with either the money. The defendant pleaded not guilty and was remanded. James McMillan left a $20 for his appearance in court on the charge of Michael Daley. Two boys were before the court on the charge of about the streets late at night and was remanded. A fine of $10 was allowed against a West End man for this team to stand on the way of the street. R. H. Collier was in court against a West End man. There is some trouble over a case went over until to
