T. Sandilands, Esq., President, in the Chair.

Meeting opened by singing, prayer, and reading the Scriptures. J. Hough, Esq., Secretary, read a report which stated that 104 Bibles, and 108 Testaments, had been sold during the year; the cash sales amounting to £18 15 —

The Report was adopted, and the following resolutions were subsequently passed, being severally introduced and supported in appropriate addresses.

Moved by the Rev. B. Torrance, seconded by the Rev. W. Clarke, Agent of the French Missionary Society, that the report now read be adopted, and printed under the direction of the Committee; and the following persons be office bearers for the current year:—

Moved by the Rev. T. Adams, seconded by the Rev. George Kennedy, Agent for the Society, and

Resolved, That this meeting would acknowledge with devout gratitude to God, the Father of Mercies, the measure of success with which he has favored the British and Foreign Bible Society, and would hope and earnestly pray that greater spiritual blessings may be communicated, and more good effected during the next year than has been accomplished in the past.

Moved by the Rev. H. Melville, seconded by the Rev. J. Douse, and

Resolved, That recent events in Italy, and the revivals of religion in this and other countries; opening up new fields for the dissemination of divine truth, present a strong call to all true Christians to engage more energetically than ever in the diffusion of the sacred Scriptures, and this meeting pledges itself to renewed and persevering efforts for the accomplishment of this object.

Moved by the Rev. W. F. Clarke, and seconded by Mr. Tisdell, and

Resolved, That since the Scriptures can produce no saving result till the Holy Spirit open the eyes of the understanding, and influence the heart so as to receive the truths which they contain: this meeting recognizes the necessity of praying for the more abundant out-pouring of the Spirit in connection with the diffusion of the written word.

£40 was appropriated to the Upper Canada Bible Society, and $20 to the British and Foreign Bible Society, as free contributions:

The Twenty-fifth Annual Report

Of the Guelph Branch of the Upper Canada Bible Society.

Your Committee, in presenting their Annual Report, would call attention to the fact, that the Society whose affairs they have been called to manage during the past year, has now been in existence for a quarter of a century. What wonderful changes have taken place during this period, and how marked the contrast in the aspect of the world as a field for Bible circulation, twenty-five years ago, and now. No intelligent Christian can survey the varied points in this marked contrast, without discerning abundant cause for thankfulness to Almighty God, whose providence has so mightily wrought with his people in their efforts to spread Divine truth through the earth. Events tread so closely on each other's heels in this age, that to give even a bird's eye view of the chief occurrences of the past quarter century, in their bearing on Bible Society operations, would make a respectable volume. But, as it is often easier to see, after an interval, that a plant or tree has grown, than it is to satisfy one's-self that it is growing—so it often helps a just appreciation of a holy enterprise, to view it at two points or periods of its history, and note the progress made through intervening years. Such a contemplation of the Bible cause as a whole, would be a good spiritual prescription for those hypochondriac Christians, who for want of observing the wondrous works of God in the Earth, are evermore taking despondent and gloomy views of things, in their bearing on the kingdom of Jesus Christ.

The past year has been inferior to no preceding one in signs of promise and tokens of encouragement. Indeed, the year 1860 will ever be memorable, if for no other event, for this, the opening up of Italy for the circulation of the Word of God. That interesting country, where until recently, priestly tyranny punished the cravings of souls hungry for the bread of life, with torture and imprisonment, is now free, and Christian sympathy can minister unimpeded to its moral needs. Nowhere had the Bible been more rigidly interdicted than in Naples, but no sooner was the dictatorship of Garibaldi established, than the interdict was done away, and men might be seen standing behind their stalls holding up the Book of Books, and exclaiming, "Who will buy the Bible?" In Tuscany and Florence, where, a few short months ago, parties were imprisoned for having a copy of the Scriptures in their possession, persecution has ceased. In the language of an earnest laborer in that field, "the priest has been removed from the Custom-House—boxes of Bibles and Evangelical books daily cross the frontier, depots have been established, and colporteurs, under the sanction of the law, are vending the Bible from caife to caife in all the large towns, as well as from hamlet to hamlet, in the agricultural districts. Instead of an outburst of infidel sentiment attending the present political crisis, its leading characteristic has been the desire everywhere manifested to obtain a copy of the Bible, and hear the Gospel preached." In view of such facts, your committee cannot repress the exclamation, "It is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes."

The cheering appearance of things, on the European continent generally, is somewhat marred by the persecuting attitude still assumed by the Spanish Government; which has recently treated two men most barbarously, simply for the crime of reading the Word of God. It is to be hoped that an effectual remonstrance against this outrage has already been sent by the British Government to that miserable and decrepid power, as an earnest and influential appeal for that purpose has been made to the Foreign Secretary, by a large deputation representing the allied Protestantism of England.

The noble parent Society of Great Britain shows no symptoms of weakness or decay, but on the contrary seems renewing its youth, and girding itself for its gloriously expanding work. Its last report contains these charming passages: "The prominent characteristic by which the Society has been distinguished during this fifty-fifth year of its history, is enlargement. The receipts amounting to the noble sum of £160,062 tell of enlargement. The issues reaching to more than 1,625,000 copies, tell of enlargement. In fields of labor already occupied, there are enlarged demands for the Scriptures. There is enlargement, too, in the opening of countries, where hitherto, little or nothing has been accomplished for the dissemination of the Bible."

An interesting movement has lately commenced in the British metropolis, designed to provide "Bibles for the Million." Its objects are "the reading aloud of the Word of God in the squares, lanes, courts, roads, &c., of the City of London and its suburbs,—together with the sale of Bibles at cost price, and the giving away printed papers containing small portions of the Word of God only.

It is hoped and believed, that the attention of many careless ones will be arrested, and much good done by this novel agency.

The Upper Canada Bible Society is also pursuing its work vigorously. Its receipts for the year prior to its last Annual Meeting, show a very considerable advance on the preceding year, while the Report supplies many cheering facts in reference to Bible work in this land.

The signs of the times, and the aspect of the cause in which we are engaged, justify a cheerful courage and a large faith, while they call on God's people to redouble their efforts and prayers that the Word of the Lord may have free course and be glorified, until it shall become a household book, and a heart treasure all over the world.
