

GEN. VON MOLTKE LOSES HIS CASE.

German Editor Acquitted and Moltke Has to Pay the Cost of the Trial.

Socialist Papers Mock at the Emperor's Companions and Councillors.

Berlin, Oct. 29.—Maximilian Harden, editor of Die Zukunft, was acquitted today in the suit brought against him for defamation of character by Gen. Count Kuno Von Moltke, formerly Military Governor of Berlin.

The trial is already having considerable political effect. One hundred and forty socialist daily newspapers are attacking the monarchial principle with studied fury.

LARGE IMPORTATIONS OF GOLD WILL RELIEVE THE STRINGENCY.

Banks to Resume Payment—Imperial Bank of Germany Raises Discount—To Take Holiday.

New York, Oct. 29.—Great assistance in relieving the financial stringency is expected to result from the large importations of gold for import made yesterday, and from the further large imports, which it is believed will be made within the next few weeks.

Depressing Effect. The rise in discount rate of the Imperial Bank of Germany had a depressing effect upon the markets here. Consols early in the day declined 7-16 for the account, 81 17-16, but recovered to 82 1-4 at noon.

No Gold From France. A careful inquiry made in banking circles here indicates that there is no immediate prospect of gold exports to New York from Paris.

To Shut Down. Portland, Ore., Oct. 29.—At the request of the Portland Clearing House Association, Governor Chamberlain last night declared the next five days in this State a legal holiday in order to prevent a money famine in this State.

A New Rule. Spokane, Wash., Oct. 29.—The associated banks of Spokane last night decided that hereafter balances between banks will be paid in clearing house certificates, and cheques by depositors will be paid in cheques on the clearing house association.

Irregular Changes. New York, Oct. 28.—Wall street—Opening prices of stocks showed irregular changes from last night's closing. Some sharp declines were mingled with fractional advances.

INFECTED PEARS. INSPECTOR SENT TO PREVENT SPREAD OF DISEASE.

Proposal to Boil the Pears—Deputation of Fruit-Growers Ask That Diseased Fruit Be Not Allowed Into Canning Factories.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 29.—(Special).—An inspector was selected by Hon. Mr. Monteith, the Minister of Agriculture, this afternoon to proceed to Grimby and take charge of the five cars of pears infected with the San Jose scale, seized on Saturday.

MR. CHARLES LENZ, Who was drowned in the Bay, at the Beach, yesterday.

WENT FOR FRESH AIR AND LOST HIS LIFE.

Charles Lenz, One of Hamiltons Successful Business Men, Drowned in the Bay.

A wild, piercing scream for help, followed by deep silence, broken only by the dashing of the turbulent waters on the shore, and a row boat, empty except for an overcoat, found on the rough waters of the bay, tell the story of the drowning, yesterday afternoon, of Mr. Charles Lenz, proprietor and manager of the Hamilton Whip Company.

Mr. Lenz had not been well of late. He was an indefatigable worker—one of the sort who took his pleasure out of his business, and who stuck to it closely. Only yesterday his wife had tried to show him that he was making a mistake sticking so closely to his office.

When Mr. Lenz first saw the boat it was about 300 yards from shore, nearly opposite the opening in Magill's Island. The water at that spot is from ten to fifteen feet deep, and the bottom is thickly overgrown with weeds. The point is opposite Station 9. The water yesterday was quite rough, so much so that experienced duck shooters did not venture out. Mr. Lenz was not an expert boatman by any means, and probably did not know the danger. The theory advanced is that, having rowed a short distance with his overcoat on, he became seasick, and, standing up, took the coat off and stooped over to lay it in the boat.

Mr. Harry Sharp, Grant avenue, this city, and a friend, were on the beach. They at once scoured a boat and went out. In the drifting boat they found

OBITUARY.

Funerals of Mrs. Wm. Addison and Wu, Hill.

The funeral of Mrs. William Addison took place from her late residence, 150 Wellington street south, yesterday afternoon at 2.30, and was very largely attended. The service at the house and grave was conducted by Rev. Beverley Ketchen and Rev. Dr. Fletcher. The pall-bearers were her three sons, Stanley, William and John Addison; her son-in-law, Dr. Groves, and two nephews, Mr. Charles Morrison and Mr. Geo. Gillespie. The floral tributes were many and beautiful, and consisted of the following:

Mr. and Mrs. O'Del land family, Miss Maude Steel, Mrs. Bard and family, MacNab Street choir, Mr. and Mrs. George Vallance, Mrs. Cruikshank, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelland, Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson, Lieut.-Col. E. E. Moore, Arthur Gayfer, 13th Sergeants' Mess, Mrs. and Maggie Duncan, Miss Webb and Beatrice McKenzie, Mr. Robert Wilson, Miss M. Murray, Mrs. Isaac Walsh, Mrs. O. G. Carscallen, Mr. Wm. Smyth, Mr. Ed. Schwartz.

Wreaths, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ferock, Mr. Geo. Irwin, Miss Ethel Modeland.

AFTER THE DOCTOR. Livyman Suing Nesbitt for Cab Hire, Etc.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 29.—(Special).—An action against Dr. W. Beattie Nesbitt, registrar of West Toronto, has been commenced by Mr. G. W. Verral, a Toronto liverman. Mr. Verral claims $919 of which $120 represents cab hire and the balance promissory notes and interest.

The Man In Overalls

Did you get a Tiger button? The Hamilton girls will be all Gibson girls if the Colonel wins Thursday's fight.

The hotel men are having a hard time of it. They miss Ross. Perhaps it's the Barton murderer who is doing all the purse-anatching on the mountain side.

Then again, what's the use of kicking against the decision of the umpire or referee in the limerick game? The Grafton Infirmary will be a standing monument to the philanthropy and generosity of the donor. Go and do likewise.

Poor Sir John has got to get out of the way at last. Don't swear, please. The Aldermen are getting more kicks than compliments these days.

Should Col. Gibson get the worst of it in the scrimmage he can fall back upon the Tiger scrimmage. What with the sham fight, the road race and the football match, there will be little time for any of us to go to church to give thanks. What is Thanksgiving Day for, anyway?

Borden and Boodle or Boodle and Borden. Either will do. There should be a round-up of the petty thieves. Too many of them in town.

Don't forget Saturday night. Leader MacKay at the Lib. Club. Head work seems to be as important as foot work in a football game.

"No surrender!" Thursday's password, and don't you forget it. Seeing that it is to be fought on Thanksgiving Day, they may call it a "Holy war."

Get your Christmas presents now before they are all sold. If Col. Gibson loses the day, I wonder if Col. Borden and his Dragoons will come and chase us the streets again.

Don't lose sight of the Myles mountain road. The best suggestion of the year. Speaking of New York's financial flurry, the only flurry we may expect here will be a flurry of snow.

A few of Prof. Hand's fireworks would add realism to the sham fight. When we see more than one business concern refusing to be held up by the Aldermen, may we conclude that they (the Aldermen) are the hold-up men who are robbing girls on the mountain?

On reading of the queer doings of some of the foreigners who come before the Police Magistrate, it is forced to the conclusion that they have something else to learn than the English language. The supersensitive who would just hate to see the city in the hands of the enemy on Thursday night spend the day in Buffalo.

SAVE THE GAME.

Hamilton Deputation Protests Against Foreign Invasion.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 29.—(Special).—A deputation representing the Hamilton branch of the Fish and Game Association waited on Hon. Dr. Reaume, the Minister of Public Works, this morning. It was composed of President Thomas Upton, Vice-President H. Barnard and Secretary Wm. Hendrie. These gentlemen called the attention of the Minister to the fact that game was destroyed both in season and out of season by foreigners in the province who carried firearms on Sundays as well as week days, and shot at all kinds of birds. They also protested against the shooting of game, particularly deer, by unlicensed hunters, especially along the line of the various railway lines. Those men sell deer, it is said, to unsuccessful license holders.

The delegation was told that the Attorney-General's Department was operating with the game and fisheries authorities to stop such breaches of the law.

FOUR MONTHS.

Hodyn and Marshall Sentenced for Theft.

A. Hodyn and Joseph Marshall were sentenced to spend four months in the Central Prison this morning, by Judge Snider, after they had pleaded guilty to stealing iron from the G. T. R. cars. A. M. Lewis, on behalf of Hodyn, asked that His Honor be lenient owing to his having lived a blameless life up to this time. It had been shown that Hodyn had been drinking rather heavily of late, and was not quite responsible for his action. M. J. O'Reilly for Marshall, also asked for leniency on the ground that the prisoner was a young man. He asked His Honor to let the man have a chance. Judge Snider said that the offence was too serious to be overlooked, no matter how good a man's character might be.

CHILD RUN OVER.

Clayton Renton, a little lad of three years, son of Mr. Renton, of 115 Forest avenue, was very severely, and probably fatally, injured this afternoon. The little lad was rolling a hoop near his home when an empty sand wagon passed. The boy was knocked down and one of the wheels passed over his stomach. Dr. Carr was hastily summoned and did all that was possible for the little sufferer.

Bishop DuMoulin confirmed a large class on St. James' Church, St. Catharines, on Sunday.

WHERE TO WITNESS THE GREAT BATTLE.

Mountain Brow West of Rifle Ranges Likely to be the Ideal Spot.

Main Attack Will be In Triangle Between Ancaster, Dundas and Ranges.

With bright, crisp, autumn weather the field day operations on Thanksgiving Day will doubtless attract big crowds to the battle, ground, west of the city. It will be the biggest thing in the way of mimic warfare seen in this district yet and the best evidence of the interest taken in it is the number of enquiries as to where is the best spot to see the fighting. Although no official orders from headquarters as to the disposition of the forces, or indicating where the chief fighting will take place, have been made public, it is pretty well understood that the Hamilton units will comprise the attacking party, probably reinforced by the Dufferin Rifles of Brantford and a section of artillery. With the opening of hostilities about 10 o'clock in the morning the opposing forces will begin closing in on each other. The early fighting as usual will be mostly skirmishing between the outposts. The chief fighting and main attack will doubtless take place within the triangle bounded by the Rifle Ranges, Dundas and Ancaster, with the latter the base of operations for the attacking force. If this scheme is carried into effect an ideal spot to view the fight and see the main forces clash will be along the mountain brow a mile or so west of the Rifle Ranges. When the battle is over the troops will all be marched to the Rifle Ranges where hot coffee will be served. It has not been settled yet whether the soldiers will be marched into the city or will entrain at the ranges for home. The troops composing the "Red" force will leave Toronto in the following order:— Second Company Field Engineers and 9th Field Battery, to-morrow at 4.50 p. m. by the C. P. R. Royal Canadian Dragoons, 9th Mississauga Horse and Second Company Field Engineers (unmounted), Thursday at 8.55 a. m., by C. P. R. Second Regiment Queen's Own Rifles (two battalions), Thursday at 8.20 a. m., by C. P. R. Royal Grenadiers, Nos. 10 and 11 Field Ambulances and St. Alban's Cadet Corps, Thursday, 8.30 a. m., by C. P. R. I Company, Royal Canadian Regiment, Thursday at 8.04 a. m., by C. P. R. Lieut.-Col. W. C. Macdonald, the commander of the "Red" force, has selected Major W. C. Vaux Chadwick, 9th Light Horse, as his chief-of-staff, and Lieut. Bertram Denison, R.C.R., as orderly officer. Forty officers of the Toronto regiments which are to take part in the battle will be guests at the Royal Hotel on Wednesday night. On Thursday evening there will be a banquet at the same hotel, with covers for 100.

RAILWAY COMMISSION WILL BE HERE TO-MORROW

To Take Up Guelph Junction and Several Other Important Matters

The Toronto, Hamilton & Buffalo Railway, instead of building the new spur in the east end direct to the Westinghouse Works, as it originally intended, will stop at Sherman avenue. The company had purchased a private right of way near Princess street, but the property owners, backed up by the city, raised such an objection that the Railway Board ordered another route to circle north near the Grand Trunk. The route was objectionable to the company and it decided to stop at Sherman avenue. It is expected that the Guelph Junction Railway which proposes using the switch will build its line from Queen and Barton streets to the T. H. & B. tracks at Sherman avenue. The latter company's application for permission to cross Avondale, Trolley, Agnes, Lottridge, Emily and Ruth streets comes up before the Dominion Railway Commission which sits here to-morrow. The city is going to protest against the use of soft coal by the company in the city limits. It is expected the T. H. & B. will make a vigorous objection to any such order.

Several other matters will be considered by the Commission. The city is applying for permission to construct the amex sewer under the T. H. & B. tracks on Trolley street and to open Trolley street through the Brantford & Hamilton Railway is asking the Commission to approve of the location of its line from the village of Chalmersville to Market street in Brantford and for an order approving of plans and profiles of the crossing of the Brantford & Hamilton stone road at Ancaster. An echo of the fight made by Main street residents against the Brantford & Hamilton Railway going down that street is the application of Eli Van Allen asking the Board to rescind its order and grant an interim order in the meantime restraining the company from doing work on the streets. This is an old matter that will simply be wiped off the slate. The Ferris street bridge matter is also on the programme but as the bridge is completed the subject will not come up.

Outside matters to be considered include the application of the Galt Board of Trade for an order directing inter-switching between C. P. R., G. T. R. and the Galt, Preston & Hespeler Street Railway, the inter-switching to include Berlin, Waterloo, Preston & Hespeler. The Niagara, St. Catharines & Toronto Railway is asking for an order sanctioning its plans and profiles for a proposed line in Brantford. The Guelph & Goderich Railway is asking for an order granting permission to use Grand Trunk property in Goderich to afford the Goderich, Elevator & Transit Company proper railway facilities.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 29.—A despatch from Belen, Mass., says: The body of Charles German, a negro, who it is charged criminally assaulted the young daughter of a white farmer, was found hanging to a tree about five miles from here early to-day, his body riddled with bullets.

Love and Crime

"Really, I shouldn't be justified in making any such assertion after more than twenty years, my dear!" the earl says, evasively, his lips curling sarcastically. "The women all admired him greatly. I remember, and he wasn't at all a bad fellow. A little brusque in his manner, but not at all ill-bred. I rather like what I saw of him."

"You're a bit faint, sir—that's what you are; and faith, that's no wonder!" the other man says, compassionately. "A drop of spirits'll give ye a bit of strength—so it will!"

"All right," the young man says, faintly. "Is there a bar anywhere about?" He looks helplessly around the bare, dimly lighted room, and out through the dark, rain-blurred windows which command a misty view of a long, muddy road, with the lights of St. Cray's twinkling in the dim distance.

"Poor fellow!" Lady Christabel whispers, under her breath. And with tender touches she gently slips her little, slim, white hand under the big, massive shoulders, and, exerting her utmost strength, lifts him up a little way, and puts the glass to his lips. He drinks thirstily, and, opening his eyes, looks up at his gentle nurse, with a long, earnest gaze, beneath which her own eyes drop suddenly, and her heart begins to flutter.

"I'll find one out somewhere, my dear, sir!" the Irishman says, with a grin of assurance. "More power to you, Pat," the wounded man says, essaying a faint laugh, as he puts some silver in his hand, and the man runs off on the errand.

"Sparrow, drive home to the abbey at once, and tell my father where I am, and that I am waiting to help some poor, suffering people, and that I beg he will not be uncharitable to me."

"I'll be back in a quarter of an hour, my lady!" declares Sparrow, briskly. "You will do nothing of the kind," his mistress says. "In an hour's time will be soon enough."

DICKENS NIGHT.

Delightful Entertainment Given By Caxton Chapter.

A very delightful entertainment was held in the recital hall of the Conservatory of Music last night, when Caxton Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire gave an "Evening With Dickens." The hall was crowded to its utmost capacity, and the tableaux and readings were greatly enjoyed. Rev. E. J. Etherington, Miss Dempsey and Mrs. E. Korke, of Toronto, were the readers for the different selections from Dickens' favorite works. During the evening an attractive musical programme was given, the following taking part: Miss Victoria Stares, Miss Marie Macarrie, Miss Gertrude Stares, Miss Beatrice and Gladys Marshall, Mr. Seed and others. Those who took part in the different tableaux were: From Martin Chuzzlewit—Miss Ghent as Sairey Gamp, and Miss Bonnetta as Letsy Prigg. Christmas Carol—E. Glazier as Scrooge, and A. Lancelfield as the Ghost. Pickwick Papers—A. Miller as Sammy Weller, and D. Dumbrie as Tony Weller. David Copperfield—R. Britton as Mr. Murdstone, Walter Woolcott as Mrs. Murdstone, Grace Foster as David Copperfield, Miss Zealand as Miss Murdstone. Tale of Two Cities—A. Lancelfield as Carton, D. Dumbrie as Charles Darnley, Miss Zealand as Mrs. Darney, R. Britton, A. Miller and E. Glazier as soldiers. Nicholas Nickleby—A. Lancelfield as Nicholas Nickleby; A. Miller as Mr.

Squeers: R. Britton as Mrs. Squeers; Miss R. Ferguson as Miss Squeers, and twelve young children in the school scene. Old Curiosity Shop—Sylvia Marshall as Little Nell; D. Dumbrie as the grandfather; Lillian Secord and Jeanne Leeming as the angels. Dombey & Son—Davis Foster as the old man; Frank Jeffrey as Paul Dombey; Dorothy Henderson as Florence Dombey, and Miss Lillian Henderson as the nurse. Mrs. Dumbrie made an efficient stage manager. Mrs. R. G. Sutherland, the Report of the Chapter, deserves much praise for the manner in which the entertainment was presented.

TEMAGAMI

Celebrated Writer's Opinion of that Great District.

Mr. Herbert Quick, of Sioux City, Iowa, author of "Double Trouble," "Aladdin & Co." and several other well known books, who visited the Temagami district in Northern Ontario the past summer, writes to the Grand Trunk Railway in praise of the country. He says: "I can conceive of nothing more beautiful or wonderful than the Temagami district in summer and autumn. It is a wonderland of lake and forest and sport. And the best of it is that it is so large, and its waters and its shores so interminable that the summer of a lifetime might be spent in getting acquainted with them, and that they afford ample room for the increasing thousands who are sure to seek these wilds every year all through the future."

H. M. VETERANS.

Medal for Member; South Africa Bar for Another.

H. M. Army and Navy Veterans held their regular monthly meeting last night. Sergeant Geo. B. Sharp, late 13th Regiment, was initiated. The present presented Comrade Calvin E. Fisher, late 19th Battalion, with a Fenian Raid Medal, which the society had procured for him. The secretary informed the society that he had received a bar for South Africa, 1901, for Pte. W. J. Hollister, Royal Army Medical Corps, who served in the South African War. Pte. James Nolan, late 8th Regiment, has been recommended for an increase of Indian Mutiny pension by Sir Frederick Borden, Hon. Minister of Militia.

Port Stanley Celebrates.

St. Thomas, Oct. 28.—Port Stanley celebrated to-day, when the first car of the Southwestern Traction Company entered the village from St. Thomas. This completes the electric road from London to Port Stanley and gives these cities a new inlet to the port.

Sir John Ardagh, formerly director of military intelligence at the British War Office, died on the 1st inst. at Carnarvon.

AMUSEMENTS

There is a rattling good bill at Bennett's Theatre this week, and many of the "first nighters" last evening declared it to be the best that has been seen at the new vaudeville house. There are four acts on it that may truly be called headliners. They are: Harry Tate's English company in "Motoring"; Della Fox, the renowned operatic singer; Zeno, Jordan and Zeno, aerial artists, and George Wood, black face monologist. The sketch, "Motoring," is one that made a big hit in the English music halls last season, and is exceedingly clever, showing the troubles of a party touring in an auto car. There are five men in the company, and two or three of them are good comedians. Dainty Della Fox was given a warm reception—and a bunch of yellow chrysanthemums. She is just as vivacious as ever, and puts lots of life into her songs. She made up well as a youth, and in male attire she sang the song from "Wang," "A Pretty Girl, a Summer's Night"—the song that made her famous. Miss Fox's voice is not quite as fresh as it used to be, but otherwise the little soubrette is as charming as of yore. Zeno, Jordan and Zeno, "Titans of the Air," gave a sensational acrobatic turn. Their stunts in mid-air were truly wonderful, and elicited general applause. Miss Jordan has been seen here before, with the "Flying Jordans," and if anything, she has improved in her aerial work. The funny man of the bill, however, was George Wood, burnt cork artist. Wood has a style that is all his own, and a line of talk that would do credit to a Greek philosopher. He brought down the house, and was recalled. A pleasant feature about Wood is that he is not at all stinging with his good things—He held the stage longer than most monologists. The rest of the bill was made up with acts that were up to the standard of the Keith-Prospect circuit. Wesson, Walters and Wesson put on a very spicy sketch, "The Half-Way House," dealing with the troubles of a divorced man and wife. The Clary Sisters gave a pleasing song and dance turn, and an exhibition of blonde beauty. Bedina and his two dogs did a pleasing acrobatic stunt. The tumbling of the dogs was of a high order. Chris Bruno and Babel Kiesel appeared in a hodge-podge of comedy, music and dancing entitled "The Insurance Agent." The show closed with new moving pictures by the Benetograph. The bill should attract large audiences this week.

Thanksgiving Day Pictures. The big moving picture company—the Vitagraph—will be at Association Hall on the holiday for matinee and evening entertainments. The series shown on Saturday last were certainly good, and Mr. Cardinal promises the holiday programme to be even better. He is also arranging for a good voice, and will add a couple of illustrated songs if the right man can be secured. Musical Treasure Trove. Berlin, Germany, Oct. 28.—The Tageblatt says the manuscript of eleven unknown dances by Beethoven have been discovered at Leipzig. They will shortly be published. They were composed in 1802 for friends forming a musical society at Muehlen, a suburb of Vienna. The dances are orchestrated for several instruments. "Shadow Behind the Throne." Seats are now on sale for "The Shadow Behind the Throne," which will be at the Grand to-morrow afternoon and evening. The piece will appeal to all those who like sensational melodrama. It is brimful of excitement from start to finish and the story is unfolded in a way that leaves little to be desired. "Way Down East." That perennial success "Way Down East," comes to the Grand on Thanksgiving afternoon and evening. The visits of this delightful play of New England life have been altogether too infrequent to suit the theatregoers and patrons who are anxious to do justice to the play. There is no play on the stage at the present time that has any truer hold upon the affections of Hamilton theatregoers in general than this offering from the pen of Lottie Blair Parker, and it has gone through the country year after year winning new admirers, and retaining the admiration of those who have seen the play before. It is a fact that the best advertisements of "Way Down East" are the people who have seen the play once or twice. They invariably go many times and they do not hesitate to tell their neighbors to do likewise. The play will be given here with the same excellent cast that has been seen in it for a number of seasons and includes Phoebe Davis, Robert Fischer, Ella High Wood, Ulrie B. Collins, Mary Inverport, Frank Currier, Mabel Strickland, Frank Bell, Estelle Ward, John E. Brennan, Jeanne Millard, Jas. T. Galloway, Burt Flansburg and the famous "Village Choir." Seats are now on sale. Comedy at the Savoy. This is a fine line of clean comedy at the Savoy this week. The leader in this line are Joe Maxwell and his company of ten who present "A Night in a Police Station." This is a one-act comedy and the plot is based on the arrest of six chorus girls for exceeding the speed limit in an automobile. The stage shows the interior of a police station, and after ten minutes' bright dialogue and clever comedy the girls are marched in, accompanied by the police captain. They are prettily costumed, and best of all they can sing and act well. The girls sing solos and part songs most acceptably. Hal Merritt, in "The Poster Girl Monologue" introduced something new and novel in the monologue line. He sketched, sang and told stories, generally doing two things at once. He made a decided hit. The three Ernesto Sisters, European high wire performers, gave a sensational exhibition in mid air. Their work on the wire was different from anything seen here this season and they received rounds of merited applause. Reed and St. John presented a novelty musical act that pleased. They played a number of brass instruments in a most artistic manner and the first named did a clever trick musical act, playing five cornets at the one time. Mabel Berra, a dashing soubrette, with a charming soprano voice, sang three songs and established herself as one of this week's favorites. Dewar's Dog and Cat Circus was one of the best acts for the kind seen here this season. The dogs performed well and showed patient training. The act closed with a novel hurdle race, cats riding on the backs of large collie dogs, who went over the jumps like thoroughbreds. Haydon and Davis presented a clever little sketch, entitled "One Good Turn Deserves Another," and Johnny Jones, "The Boy From Dixie," handed out a lot of bright and funny stuff. Unusual interest was shown in the motion pictures, which brought the excellent bill to a close. The pictures were of the Olympic games at Athens, showing the immense amphitheatre and the crowds of spectators watching the athletes contesting for the honors of the world. One film showed Billy Sherring winning the Marathon race. This elicited loud applause. This week's bill is in every way up to the standard of the Savoy attractions, which is sufficient to draw large audiences during the week. "The Wizard of Oz." The big company of The Wizard of Oz, with all its pretty girls, clever comedians and dazzling stage effects, will be seen at the Grand next Friday and Saturday.

CAMERA CLUB

Opened New Quarters at 104 King Street West.

The opening of the new quarters of the Camera Club, at 104 King street west, took place last evening. A good crowd was present. The first part of the evening was spent at the old rooms, in the Library building, where Mr. A. M. Cunningham, photographer, gave a lecture on a number of slides that were thrown on a sheet. After that the members went to the new quarters, which were formally opened. Refreshments were served and a jolly time was spent. The club is still affiliated with the Hamilton Association, and will show all its slides in the old rooms, but decided that a separate room for photographic work, and a good dark room was better. The dark room is fitted out in the latest style and improvements will be made later as they are needed. All were highly satisfied with their new quarters, and expressed themselves very much in favor of it.

MR. AYLESWORTH ENCOURAGED.

Favorable Report from the New York Specialist on His Hearing. Ottawa, Oct. 28.—Hon. A. B. Aylesworth has returned to Ottawa from New York, where he consulted an ear specialist last week, and received an encouraging report as to the probability of recovery from his present temporary attack of deafness. The Minister of Justice is again hard at work in his department, but expects to leave next week for Clifton Springs, N. Y., where he will take a few weeks' well-earned rest. A committee of the Toronto City Council will decide whether charges against Park Commissioner Chambers' management of the parks should go to the County Judge.

EL REY WONDERS.

Perfection of Fancy Skating at Alexandra Rink.

The El Rey sisters, of New York city, gave an exhibition of fancy trick roller skating at the Alexandra Rink last night, and it was unanimously conceded by the spectators that the performance was the best they had ever witnessed. They displayed a number of wonderful feats on the rollers, and for their age, 7 and 10 years respectively, they are truly marvellous.

The two-step, waltz, heel and toe movements and many others were given in the most finished style, while their features, "The Tambourine Dance" and "The Instructor and the Beginner," evoked rounds of applause from the spectators.

The grace and vivacity in every movement appealed strongly to the spectators, who were unstinted in their applause. The exhibition lasted about fifteen minutes, commencing shortly after 9 o'clock, and that brief time was sufficient to demonstrate what can be done on roller skates when used by two clever artists. The management is to be congratulated upon its enterprise in securing such an attraction, which is undoubtedly the best that has ever been seen at this popular rink. They will be at the Alexandra all week, with special performances on Thursday and Saturday mornings.

Aldermen Cannot Get Information About Hydro Power.

As to When it Will Be Delivered or the Rates.

Council Decides Sandusker is to Be Repaired at Once.

The aldermen appear to be endeavoring to make up for the time they have wasted last year, the City Council adjourning last night after being in session less than an hour.

The maze in which the information Hamilton is seeking from the Hydro-Electric Power Commission is hidden was revealed when Chairman Dickson inquired about what was being done to get the much-talked-of electric pumps for the Beach pumping station.

The only matter that was discussed was the Fire and Water Committees' recommendation to have the sandusker repaired this year.

Boiler work, K. Quinn, $400; if the boiler is to be taken out and replaced on dredge, $510.

The Council also adopted the report recommending that the City Solicitor instruct the electric railways to put their lines in such condition that no further damage would be done to the water pipes in the city.

Mayor Stewart said he had received several inquiries as to when the new by-law regulating street traffic was to go into effect.

BETTER CIVIC RULE.

Now is the Time to Secure Good Aldermen for 1908.

Editor of the Times:

Sir:—Now is the time to turn our thoughts towards the personnel of next year's Civic Board of Representatives.

In our criticism of the men who have failed to measure up to the standard, let us not forget that they were chosen by ourselves and are our representatives.

The service rendered is without remuneration. This has made the electors careless in their selection, while on the contrary, we should be doubly guarded.

Nothing short of established ability and character should be considered as sufficient qualification for the office of Mayor or Councillor.

A large sum of money is paid in every year in the form of ordinary taxes, local improvement tax, sewer assessments and water rates.

cern upon a proper basis and hold our affairs in line.

The debt of the city is increasing. That debt is practically a blanket mortgage upon every store, dwelling and vacant lot within the boundary lines of the corporation.

The incompetent will present themselves in large numbers. The proper men may require to be solicited.

Let the people wake up and act. Let business men combine if need be, and protect our city from being further involved.

Let our highest conviction of duty move and govern us as citizens, and the result will exceed our fondest hopes.

SUCCESSFUL SCHOOL CONCERT.

The school concert which was held in the Town Hall, Stoney Creek, on Friday evening, Oct. 25, was an entire success.

The success of the school was evinced by the large number of certificates which were presented to the successful pupils by Rev. Dr. Clark.

The chair was ably filled by Dr. Thompson, who in a neat speech explained that the proceeds of the concert were to be used for purchasing an artificial limb for one of the pupils.

Toronto, Oct. 29.—Chief Justice Meredith yesterday afternoon, after hearing argument in the suit of the Buffalo Mines, Limited, of Cobalt, against the Cobalt Miners' Union, gave judgment extending until the trial of the action the interim injunction issued by Chief Justice Falconbridge on August 16th, where in Robert Roadhouse, with six others of the union, were restrained from interfering with the working of the Buffalo mines.

VICTORIA'S LETTERS.

CRITICISM OF VARIOUS CANADIAN GOVERNORS-GENERAL.

Lord Durham Was Censured and Sir Charles Bagot's Appointment Disapproved—Lord Metcalfe a Royal Favorite—Naming of British Columbia—The Canadian Insurrection.

For Canadians Queen Victoria's letters have an interest apart from their general bearing upon the character and disposition of the Queen, and their glimpses of the inner history of great political movements.

The Queen has received Sir E. Bulwer Lytton's letter. If the name of New Caledonia is objected to as being already borne by another colony or island claimed by the French, it may be better to give the name of the province of British Columbia, in honor of the Queen.

MOTHERS CRUELTY.

KEPT HER DAUGHTER IN CELLAR FOR THREE YEARS.

Only Brought the Child Up at Intervals to Beat Her—Fed the Little Girl on Mouldy Crusts and Left Her Among the Rats.

New York, Oct. 28.—A story of shocking cruelty on the part of a mother was told in the Flushing Police Court yesterday by the woman's husband, Peter Mohr, a well-to-do contractor, who came to America from Switzerland three years ago.

From the moment of their arrival the mother's aversion to her second daughter took violent form. She locked the child in the musty basement of the house as soon as the third baby came.

Italy and Germany. Canadian Government Will Try to Make Trade Treaties.

Ottawa, Oct. 28.—It is the intention of the Government to follow up the Franco-Canadian treaty of this summer by endeavoring to effect next year similar reciprocal preferential trade tariffs with Italy and Germany.

The Seat of Government. The letters are silent as to the selection of Ottawa as the capital of the Dominion, but fifteen years antecedent to that event there is a communication from the Queen to Lord Stanley approving of Montreal as the seat of government.

Discouraging Nerve Exhaustion. What is more discouraging and disheartening than trying to cure nervous exhaustion and prostration by means of ordinary treatments?

Three Men Sent to Jail Out of Twenty-two Arrested. Vancouver, Oct. 28.—Three only of the twenty-five men in the first instance arrested on the charge of rioting on September 7th in the Chinese and Japanese quarters have been sent to jail.

Dead Sick of Asthma? You couldn't be otherwise with such a distressing malady. Well, for one dollar spent on "Catharzone" you can be thoroughly cured.

Bounty on Rats. Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 28.—When the City Council approves of a recommendation of the Health Board to-day rats will be quoted on the local market at fifty cents a dozen, dead or alive.

Cheap Meat at Omaha. Omaha, Neb., Oct. 28.—Omaha packing houses to-day reduced the price of all kinds of meat 10 per cent., and expect a still further reduction.

GOOD WORK OF BOY'S HOME.

Thirty Seventh Annual Meeting Was Held Yesterday.

A Number of Improvements Made During the Year.

Officers Elected and a Pleasant Afternoon Spent.

The thirty-seventh year of work at the Boys' Home has been completed, and a proud record it is. Yesterday the annual meeting was held, and was well attended. The financial sheet showed that by starting with a balance of $350 in hand the receipts were $4,455.90, making a total of $4,806.17. After extensive works had been paid for out of this and a big year's bills paid, there is still $143.46 in the bank. The election of officers resulted in the following being selected to continue the work for the ensuing year: Mrs. Leggat, President

Mrs. Calder, Mrs. McLagan, Mrs. Cameron, Mrs. R. R. Waddell, Mrs. D. Moore and Mrs. F. W. Watkins, Vice-Presidents. Mrs. T. H. Pratt, Treasurer. Mrs. W. J. Fearman, Recording Secretary. Mrs. J. W. Nesbitt, Corresponding Secretary. The Committee of Management is as follows: Mrs. George Roach, Mrs. James Turnbull, Mrs. Gordon Henderson, Mrs. C. Armstrong, Mrs. Teetzel, Mrs. N. Humphrey, Mrs. Wm. Vallance, Mrs. J. R. Moodie, Mrs. G. C. Thomson, Mrs. C. W. Graham, Mrs. John Proctor, Mrs. E. VanAllen, Mrs. John Morton, Mrs. F. C. Fearman, Mrs. R. A. Robertson, Mrs. H. Brennen, Mrs. W. A. Stewart, Mrs. W. F. Montague, Mrs. H. Fearman, Mrs. A. T. Chapman, Mrs. A. Pain, Mrs. S. H. Brooks, Mrs. H. Witton, Mrs. F. MacKeenan, Mrs. R. O. MacKay, Mrs. Pringle, Mrs. Gow, Mrs. N. Jones, Mrs. A. C. Turnbull, Mrs. Drummond, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. T. Ramsay, Mrs. W. H. McLaren, Miss Leggat, Miss Routh, Miss Fuller, Miss Lyon, Miss Rennie. The annual report, in part, follows: "From a legacy left us some years ago we have been enabled to make some necessary repairs to the exterior of the building. New steps have replaced the old ones, and a platform erected, to enable us, at some future time, when our finances permit, to add a porch. A cement walk has been laid from the steps to the street. "The number of boys in the Home during the year was 86; 21 were taken out by parents or friends; 1 indentured; in residence at present, 64. "The boys have enjoyed remarkably good health, and our heartfelt thanks are due to Dr. Cummings, Dr. Wardell, Dr. MacLaughlin and Dr. Park for gratuitous services. "To Mrs. Shaw, our Matron, who in March last completed thirty years in the Home, and Mrs. Hodd, her assistant, the committee would give warm expression to its appreciation of their unabated, self-sacrificing services on behalf of the Home, their careful and economical supervision of the various departments greatly lessens the work of the committee. "Miss Orton has taught in the school-room for thirty-one years, and has proved a most efficient teacher, and we cannot speak too highly of her painstaking efforts in the work of educating the boys under her charge. Miss Marshall, junior teacher, assists faithfully and well. In February last a musicale was given at the residence of Col. and Mrs. J. R. Moodie, and the handsome sum of $135 was realized. In May an entertainment was held in Association Hall, and $50 was added to the funds of the home. We are pleased to state that the name of our esteemed President, Mrs. Leggat, has been added to the list of life members, making a total of five, and we hope that this number may be still further increased. In July a visit was paid to the home by one of the former boys in the person of Dr. Frank Barnes, one who has made a name for himself in educational circles in the United States, and although invited to visit friends in the city, he preferred to sleep and take his meals in the old home. Such attentions very much gladden the heart of Mrs. Shaw. The thanks of the committee are due and extended to the following for picnics and other pleasure outings: Mrs. Gordon Henderson, Mrs. Thomas W. Watkins, Mr. William Leggat, Mrs. Teetzel, St. Thomas' Church, H. G. & B. Railway, Hamilton Steamboat Co., Mrs. T. H. Pratt, Sheriff Middleton, Dr. Frank Barnes and the Army roller rink. Heartly thanks are due to many others, notably Mr. G. C. Thomson, for legal services; Mr. Angus Scordal, for many favors; Mr. Stewart McPhie, for supervision of repairs, Times, Spectator and Herald, for daily papers; the friends in the country and city who contribute so liberally to the Christmas bags and to all who in any way add to the pleasure or necessities of the inmates. It is with deep regret that this report records the death of Mrs. W. W. Waddell, who for many years took a deep interest in the home, and who was one of the first members of this committee. To her daughter, Mrs. Van Allen, our sympathy is extended. Refreshments were served after the meeting, and Messrs. J. M. Burns, J. G. Cloke and John Leggat spoke briefly. Mr. G. H. Bradbury has been nominated by the Selkirk Conservatives for the Commons.

ST. CECILIA

Will have a Benefit Evening at the Savoy.

The monthly meeting of St. Cecilia Chapter, Daughters of the Empire, was held yesterday afternoon in the Y. W. C. A. parlors, the Regent, Mrs. Burkholder presiding. There was a good attendance of the members. At the conclusion of the regular business, the ladies received a pleasant surprise, when Mrs. Burkholder announced that the managers of the Savoy Theatre had offered a performance at that theatre some evening in January for the benefit of the Chapter. The announcement met with hearty applause and a standing vote of thanks was passed to the management of the Savoy. The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

Estimated Loss to Growers on Tomatoes and Grapes.

Beamsville, Oct. 29.—(Special).—It is conceded on a rough estimate that the fruit-growers of Lincoln and Wentworth counties will lose from thirty to forty thousand dollars this fall on grapes and tomatoes. Both crops were the latest in ten years in coming to maturity. Hardly two-thirds of the tomatoes got that far, and the severe early frosts accounted for the remainder. There was no lack of baskets or facilities in getting off the grapes, but numbers of reliable shippers waited just a little too long in the hopes of sending out a fully ripened fruit. In this way they will have to suffer for their good intentions, while the other fellows are that much better off in picking their crop before it was in the best condition. The factories were very alert all through the district this year, and knowing the worst, would not accept tomatoes that were at all green. So it was just a case of wait, and general uneasiness up to a week and a half ago, and then the small deluge. The men with the big acreage of both these products are not saying much; a casual glance over the vineyards and blighted fields tells the story better. Call to Philadelphia Pastor. Peterboro, Ont., Oct. 28.—St. Paul's Presbyterian Church to-night by an unanimous vote decided to extend a call to Rev. Robert Pogue, associate pastor of Bethany Church, Philadelphia, of which congregation Hon. John Wana-maker is a member. The stipend was fixed at $2,500. Mr. Pogue is a Canadian, and it is understood will accept the position. The death rate in Ontario during September was 12.9 per 1,000.

ESTEEMED CITIZEN.

Death of Mr. Henry Nichol, of Dundas, Yesterday.

Dundas, Oct. 29.—A special meeting of the Town Council has been called for this evening to consider urgent business. The regular monthly meeting takes place on Monday evening next. After an illness of many months, Henry Nichol died yesterday afternoon. Deceased was a good citizen and had acquired a cozy comfortable home in the west end. He leaves one son and two daughters. The son is Lennard Nichol, plumber; Mrs. Wm. McDonald, of Dundas, is one of the daughters. Among people from a distance who were here yesterday attending the funeral of the late John Enright were John and Miss Shea, of Dublin, Ont.; John Maddigan, of Rochester, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Casey, of St. Catharines; Wm. J. Kerwin, of Toronto, and Daniel O'Neil, of Paris. The annual reception by the Y. M. C. A. will be held this evening in the parlors of the Association. Ample preparations have been made for the event and a pleasant and interesting evening is anticipated. In view of the stringency in the money market, Messrs. Mackenzie & Mann may not take immediate steps to carry through their proposition for a smelter at Asbridge Bay.

A HALLOW-E'EN COMEDY.

By Fergus Hume in Vancouver Saturday Sunset

The independence of human nature is vividly illustrated in this constantly recurring example. If man or maid is told to do anything, maid or man, at once, wishes to act to opposition; not because he or she dislikes the thing itself, but from an intuitive desire to disobey. On this account Eve ate the apple, and her daughters are particularly prone to follow this lead in the conduct of love affairs.

"I wish to marry for happiness," she confessed to Jean, her old nurse, as they sat over the fire on a raw October afternoon, "not to please my father, who never is pleased."

"You are too late," said the soldier, with a triumphant laugh. "I have had such a fright. I saw you last night."

"That's impossible," cried Robert Douglas, frowning. "It is true," said Effie, the color returning in waves of pink to her face. "I decided to marry Hector to-day, after—"

You Meet Two Men

One impresses you as favorably as the other, in manner and outward appearance, they are equal. "Good fellows" you call them, men to be trusted.

Same Way With Shoes

Different lines resemble each other—style features identical—the finishing touches are similar, but one line DOESN'T STAND TROUBLE, THE OTHER DOES.

AMERICAN SHOES. We buy thousands of dollars' worth of American SHOES, because the people want them. If they did not insist on having them, we would not buy so many of them—especially as we have the agency for the "Hagar Shoes" which are certainly the nicest fine shoes made in Canada.

RUBBERS. Have your shoes properly fitted with rubbers NOW. Do not wait until the last minute and then telephone for a pair, as the chances are you would not get a proper fit.

J. D. CLIMIE 30 and 32 King W.

"Allow me," said Hector politely, and stepped forward. Before Hammersley could avoid the contact, he was picked up and thrown by the indignant officer through the window and into the garden. As he limped away, with angry looks, and much bad language, Hector found his arm pinched by Effie's fingers.

"What is all this?" he demanded irritably. Effie explained as well as she could for hysterical laughter, and he gathered enough to guess what tricks the girl had been up to. His face grew stern.

"That a child of mine should believe like the witch of Endor!" he said severely, yet with a smile twinkling in his eyes. "You should be ashamed. What did you see in the glass, Euphemia?"

"Because I love you," murmured Effie, quickly. "But you do not explain, Mr. Douglas, how you came to know that I saw Hector's face. I told no one, not even Jean, and—"

Here the door opened suddenly, and Jean entered with her face a fiery red, and her bonnet all askew. After her came Hammersley, looking shamefaced. He started when he saw the chop-fallen Douglas, and shrugged his shoulders in a resigned manner. Once he tried to speak, but Jean interrupted. As soon as she could get her breath, she did most of the talking.

"My hair—my young lady," cried the old woman, who was evidently in a furious rage, "twas him; she pointed to Hammersley, "him, ye saw in the glass. The de'il took him, for a plotting player."

"You," echoed Effie, staring at the slim young man. "But Jean said that you were at the theatre, and I met you returning."

"He was not at the playhouse," cried Jean, shaking her umbrella in Hammersley's face. "He lurked in the garden till I thought he was awa, and then crept like a thief into his room behind the window, with his slippers, 'tae keep his feet fra' tellin' ye 'twas flesh an' blood ye saw, an' no ghaist, and—"

"I can explain," began Hammersley, but Douglas interrupted sharply. "That is my task," he said coldly, "and I am fair in love and war, and as I know that Effie—"

"Miss Grant," cried the lieutenant hotly. He was beginning to comprehend, and clutched Effie closer, as though he feared to lose her, when the explanation came. "Miss Grant, then," cried Douglas, sullenly. "Hammersley overheard the Hallow-E'en scheme, as he said, and wrote to me, telling me how Miss Grant intended to disapprove the superstition by marrying the man she did not gain my wife, so I came down secretly, and got Hammersley to impersonate you, Mr. McKenzie."

"But how could you," asked Mackenzie, looking at Hammersley, and apparently only served to make the latter more dreary. Anxious to get the uncanny business over as speedily as possible, Effie hastily stepped forward until her face was close to the speckled glass, and began to comb her hair, eating meat while a small bit of the apple. For half a minute she distinctly saw a man's face smiling over her shoulder; it was that of Hector, and glanced into the mirror only for a moment. Effie trembled with fear, for the fulfilment of the ceremony did frighten her. She tried to turn her head, so as to see what was behind her, but fear paralyzed her limbs, and she could only stare spellbound, with a white face and pale lips. As the face faded into the darkness, a faint sigh broke from her, and with an effort she staggered round to find that the room was empty of everyone save her own terrified self. When old Jean returned—and long before the expiration of the fifteen minutes—she found her young lady lying on the hearthrug in a dead faint.

"Ay, hinny, hinny," muttered the old dame, fearfully, glancing round, "ye'll have seen mair nor flesh an' blood, I'm thinking."

"But what Effie saw she would not tell. As soon as she recovered her senses, she huddled on her cloak and hat, and with still unbound hair, left the cottage.

How she reached home, or entered by the side door she had left open, she never could tell to her dying hour. But she felt very ill, and next day did not rise until the afternoon. Then she came down to see her father, having sent a messenger previously to Edinburgh with a letter.

"What is the matter, Euphemia?" "As for you," cried Miss Grant, turning towards Hammersley, "you—"

"You are too late," said the soldier, with a triumphant laugh. "I have had such a fright. I saw you last night."

A doctor cautioned against sewing it up, but it was had to put in nine stitches. The child's face will be disfigured for life in any case.

Who Will Take Simpson's Place in Tigers' Team?

Interesting Comment in Montreal Papers on Saturday's Game—Arrangements for the Big Game Here on the Holiday.

All the Tiger regulars, except Simpson and Martin, were at the grounds last evening. The former is in a good deal of pain, but expects to be able to be at the game on Thursday, and Charlie Martin's ankles are bothering him, but not enough to prevent him from getting around the house. The others turned out last night and had a little run and then went over to Dr. Kelly's Sanitarium, where they had Turkish and Russian baths, and a good stiff rub down and they left feeling a good deal improved. They will have a work-out to-night, more to keep in shape than anything, and, with a little running and passing practice to-morrow night will be in shape for the big game. Ottawa are an immensely improved team since they started the season, and the local team figure out that this will not be the easiest game of the season, by any means. The score they beat the Argos, 15-0, compared with the result of the team from the Capital, can do some travelling, too, when it comes to running up a score, and while they will find a different proposition to what they had last Saturday, they no doubt will make the Tigers work for every point they get. There will have to be a new fact on the team, in place of Simpson, and it is likely that either Burton or Harrison will catch the place. Either of these lads from the Intermediate team will be an acquisition, and it is fortunate for the seniors that they have such material to fall back on. The rest of the team will be the same as defeated Montreal, and as it means that they have to win everything before they can hope to have the honor of the first Inter-Provincial championship, they are prepared to play a desperate game. It will likely be the last time that Hamiltonians will ever see this scheduled home match, and even should they win with Montreal for the championship, the game would be played on neutral grounds.

The game will start at 2:45 sharp and those who leave the securing of their reserved seats until they get to the grounds will likely be disappointed.

The largest advance sale of tickets that the football club have ever had started today at Stanley Mills & Co., when the reserved seat and general admission tickets for the Thanksgiving Day game were placed on sale. That there will be an enormous crowd that will see a football game in this city is the expectation of the Tiger Executive.

Commenting on Saturday's game between Montreal and Hamilton, the Montreal Herald says:

It does not signify, by a long way, because Montreal was defeated by Hamilton Saturday afternoon, that the local team is out of the running for the championship.

Indeed, it now looks as if nothing can stop Montreal, if the boys will only pull together with the same determination that has characterized their work to date.

Of course, there is no denying the fact that the Montreal team has a great opportunity to clinch the championship in the encounter at the M. A. A. grounds the day before yesterday. But what's the use of crying over spilt milk? Looking on the matter philosophically, even the most biased rover must admit that from almost every standpoint the defeat of Montreal was a good thing. It certainly was grand for the league as a Montreal victory would have meant, practically, that the race was over. Now the fight is as keen as at the beginning of the season, for Montreal, Hamilton and Ottawa has each an excellent chance to land the coveted honors.

Of the three, from this angle, Montreal has still the finest opportunity. The team is a little the best of anything in the league, despite the result of Saturday's game. Montreal simply did not play up to the best that is in the boys. The team fell down in places and at times, while the champions played the game of their lives. They won and won on merit, but it is questionable if they could repeat the performance were the teams to meet again.

Then, too, Saturday's game was the cause of injuring two of Hamilton's best men. It is scarcely likely that either Simpson, the star half, or Tope the crack fullback, will be seen in harness again this season. It was reported after the game that the former was suffering from a broken thigh and the latter a broken collar bone.

This, then, brings it up to Ottawa and Montreal. Ottawa is playing a mighty fine brand of ball right now, and is likely to hang it on Hamilton Thanksgiving Day. At that time Montreal tackles the Argos on the Toronto grounds. On form Montreal should have no great difficulty in winning. In which case all that would be necessary to win the championship for Montreal would be a defeat of Ottawa on the M. A. A. grounds.

Not to benefit by experience is the rankest kind of folly, and the Montreal football team will indeed be foolish if they do not get some good out of Saturday's lesson.

The loss of Kelly from the line may have had something to do with it, but it is the opinion of those who saw the two games that Montreal showed much better form in Hamilton. Perhaps a trifle too much confidence may have been put in Kelly. Had the locals, in the final quarter, kicked for points instead of trying repeatedly for a touchdown, the result might have been different.

A defeat was never known to hurt a lines or dodged countless tacklers for long gains. No man could have done more.

Still, it was a costly victory for the champions, for during the melee two of Hamilton's most valuable players were put out of the game for the rest of the season. Ben Simpson, referred to above, was one of course. The other was Tope, the star fullback, whose collar bone was broken in a mix-up in the last quarter. Neither man will be able to appear in Tiger uniform again this season, and their loss will be a severe blow to the chances of Hamilton for ultimate victory at the end of the season.

WHAT THE GAZETTE SAID.

Says The Montreal Gazette of the Tiger-Montreal game:

"Apart from the scoring, Hamilton had the best of the play. The Tigers had possession of the ball more often and kept the pigskin in Montreal territory most of the time. Montreal were disappointing where they were thought to be strongest—in the forward line. Here the red and black did not show any superiority, except their speed in following the ball. The Hamilton forwards were unexpectedly strong, and, besides protecting their backs fairly well, they were impregnable against mass plays. Montreal wasted much time and effort trying to gain ground on plays through the centre, and to make matters worse, Gordon dropped the ball several times. Failure to protect Stinson when he was called on to punt led up to the first goal from the field for Hamilton.

"Southam was the most conspicuous player in the game, and also the most erratic back on either team. He had a slippery pair of hands and fumbled repeatedly but only one of his misses was costly. Four times he tried to drop a goal from the field. He was so close that the goal judge started to raise his hand. The second and third times he succeeded. On his fourth attempt he was in a good position, but as the ball was passed, Moison dashed past Iobister and knocked the oval from Southam's hands."

ONE PROTEST ALLOWED.

Toronto, Oct. 29.—At a meeting of the Intercollegiate Union last night the protest by McGill of the game with Queen's played in Kingston on the 19th instant was allowed, and the game was declared null and void.

The game was ordered to be replayed if it has any effect on the championship. If it has no effect, the expenses of the McGill team at Kingston the game will be played at Ottawa. The protest was based on the claim that Dr. Sheriff, who refereed, ignored the new rule, which is intended to do away with interference in the scrimmage and "scrapping" in the lines. The referee stated at the time that he had not been made aware of any changes in the rules, and compelled the teams to play the game according to the rule book.

FREE KICKS.

Kingston, Oct. 29.—There is a great probability that the Saturday football game here between Queen's and Ottawa will be protested. Queen's management have secured about 20 affidavits to the effect that the drop from the field did not go within three feet of the goal. Many newspaper men were behind the goal right on the spot, and all are ready to swear that the ball did not go over among them.

The Montreal Club has suggested Dr. A. E. Wright, or Frank D. Woodworth of Ottawa, or Frank D. Woodworth of New York as officials for their game with Argonauts, at Varsity field on Thursday afternoon.

Ken Williams, Queen's great half-back, has been ordered by his doctor to quit the game for the season. The injuries received on Saturday were serious, and it will take time for him to regain his health. Fears of concussion of the brain fortunately did not develop.

Ben Simpson has played his last game of Rugby. He has announced that the accident at Montreal put him out a little sooner than he had wished, as he intended to play out the season and retire from the gridiron for good. Simpson is one of the sort no team likes to lose—a true, clean sportsman. Always in form, always fair, always fearless, he brought to the Tigers only that which was the best in sport, and to his city much of the glory and honor of four consecutive championships, and the crowning championship of the Dominion. His place will be hard to fill, but his example will be for the lasting good of football.

News reaches me from Canada that Tom Longboat, the fleet-footed Indian from Caledonia, is to make a special try for the world's amateur record for twenty miles. The record for the distance is 1 hour 51 minutes 54 seconds, made by George Crossland at Stamford Bridge, London, in 1894. I know the Stamford Bridge track well, and it is one of the fastest in England. I have figured out Longboat's chances to lower this record, basing my predictions upon

HATCH WILL NOT RUN IN BIG RACE.

There Will be Plenty of Starters, However.

Gans Declines to Meet Nelson and Repeats That He Has Retired From the Ring—Big Offer Made for Gen. Watts.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 29.—The indifference of the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union to the runnings of the body in the United States, as concerns Canadian runners, brought to a climax this afternoon, and as a result the Herald race, which is to take place at Hamilton on Thursday, will be devoid of entries from this country. Sidney H. Hatch, a local runner, who was to have departed to-day for Hamilton, was yesterday compelled to call off his trip. This result was brought about by a telegram to President G. K. Herman, of the Central Association of the Amateur Athletic Union yesterday afternoon, which stated that the Hamilton authorities will allow Cooley, who is barred by the United States Union, to start, as the Canadian A. U. has made no change in its eligibility regulations. John Dixon, of the National A. A. U., sent a warning some time ago to club directors all over the United States that they must not permit their athletes to compete in Canadian races where Longboat or Cooley competed. It was generally supposed here that the anti-pathy between the two A. A. U. bodies would not be brought to a test, and that the Canadians would bar Longboat and Cooley rather than jeopardize the chances of the runners of this country. The telegram from Hamilton to President Herman reads: "Longboat not entered. Cooley cannot be barred. No C. A. A. U. charges against him."

A GOOD 'UN COMING.

Toronto, Oct. 29.—The Irish-Canadian team will receive another strong addition this fall. Tom Flanagan has received a letter from M. J. Creed, of Eton, Ireland, a scotchboy comrade of his, in which he says that he has determined to come to Toronto to live. He is now en route, and is expected here in time to make his appearance at the Garrison games, November 9th.

College is a little fellow, only 26 1/2 inches tall and, though only 26 years of age, has already won over 700 prizes. His specialty is jumping, but he is a good hurdler and a fair sprinter. Creed had jumps 23 feet 4 inches, high jumps 6 foot 2 inches, and holds the world's hop, step and jump record of 48 feet 4 inches.

LONGBOAT'S LONG TRIP.

Sharp at noon to-morrow Tom Longboat will start from the Waldorf Hotel on his run of over forty miles to Toronto. He is expected to finish at the corner of Queen and Yonge streets about 6 o'clock.

"Longboat is in superb condition," says Manager Tom Flanagan, of the Irish-Canadians, "and anxious to get on the road for his trying journey. He will be accompanied by his handlers and trainers, and all the conditions of the trial will be carefully raised so that there can be no question as to the legality of the performance or the time he makes. We expect that he will do the distance in about five and one-half hours."

No detail of the arrangements for the trip has been neglected. Longboat says he will make the journey without a stop, but the opinion is expressed in some quarters that a short stop about half way down for a brisk rub and suitable refreshments would tend toward faster time. The arrangement at the Hamilton end have been looked after by Mr. Charles L. Bailey. The route will be over the Plains road to Burlington Junction, south to Burlington village, and into Toronto over the Lake Shore road. The finish will be along Queen street.

CRIBBAGE NIGHT.

Another very enjoyable evening was spent by the cribbage players at the club's quarters, checker room, Arcade building, last evening. Five double tables were drawn by number, odd or even, and a pleasant game resulted, the evening winning by the following score:

Odd	Even
James	Jarvis
Vaughan	Alan
Wesley	Stevens
Arnold	Stephen
Jinzel	Elsie
Spencer	Paul
Warwick	Jameson
Brown	Hill
Stewart	Marshfield
	19

To-night the Checker Club will hold its regular game, when a large attendance is expected.

There will also be a meeting of those interested in cards to-night to talk over the formation of a series of card games.

KILLED BY A COW'S TAIL.

Binghamton, N. Y.—Wm. A. Wells, of Neward Valley, was milking, when a cow swished her tail, striking him on the forehead with the fleshy part of the appendage. Shortly afterwards Mr. Wells returned to the house, complaining of a pain in the head, which rapidly grew worse. Physicians pronounced it apoplexy, brought on by the blow from the cow's tail. Mr. Wells died the same night.

Apoplexy is the result of poisoned blood. Bowels become constipated, kidneys become weakened, skin action becomes poor, and the blood is loaded with impurities, which produces weakness in the blood vessels.

Wherever there is headache, back-ache, neuralgia, rheumatism—it means blood poisoning. "Fruit-a-tives" are a certain cure for all these troubles. "Fruit-a-tives" are made of fruit juices and tonics. 50c. a box. At all dealers.

GANS REFUSES.

To Meet Battling Nelson and Says He Has Quit Ring.

Baltimore, Oct. 29.—Joe Gans, colored lightweight champion of the world, has received a letter from Jim Crawford, manager of the Colima Athletic Club, offering him a match with Battling Nelson, but as Crawford did not name any guarantee, Gans passed the proposition up.

The negro still sticks to the statement that he will retire from the game. He says he is getting old, and does not like the idea of training hard for a mill. He is comfortably fixed, says he has $35,000, owns several houses, and expects his new hotel, which opens Tuesday, will be a paying venture.

Versailles, Oct. 29.—Henry Huntington, son of the late Major Henry Alex. Huntington, an American who lived for many years in Paris, has been pronounced by medical experts to be totally irresponsible. He will be sent to an asylum.

In the latter part of last July Henry Huntington shot and wounded his two brothers and two sisters at the bedside of his dying father in this city. He was at once arrested and detained for trial. It was declared at the time that he was insane.

LOST HIS SEAT.

Narrow Escape of Steeplejack 125 Feet in Air.

London, Ont., Oct. 28.—A steeplejack, named Reynolds, had a narrow escape from death this morning while engaged in painting the steel stack at the London Rolling Mills. He was up 125 feet in the air working with his brush when, as he leaned over the seat, the strong wind blew from him. Quick as a flash he grasped the rope by which his assistant sends up supplies and down this he slid with great speed. The coat sleeve was torn off and his arm badly burned by the friction against the rope. Had he not been able to grasp the rope he would have fallen to the roof, 65 feet below.

ONTARIO'S HEALTH.

Reports From 680 Divisions for Month of September.

Toronto, Oct. 29.—The report of the Provincial Health Department for September shows that 680 divisions representing a population of 1,920,000 made returns. They gave a total of 2,669 deaths from all causes for the month, a rate of 12.9 per 1,000 compared with 2,351 deaths in a reporting population of 2,076,600 in September last year. The returns show slight increases in small-pox, scarlet fever and diphtheria, and a marked decrease in typhoid fever. Consumption claimed 129 victims, compared with 115 in September, 1906.

PLOW MAN DEAD.

ROBBER PERRY.

HOW THIS CONVICT SEEKS HIS LIBERTY FROM PENITENTIARY.

Blinds Himself, Eats No Food, Wears No Clothes—The Great Train Robber a Remarkable Prisoner.

New York, Oct. 29.—Efforts which are being made by a few of his steadfast friends to have the sentence of Oliver Curtis Perry commuted have revealed the fact that for four years the daring criminal who in 1892 startled the entire country with the boldness of his exploits has not eaten a particle of food or worn a stitch of outer clothing. They have also disclosed the fact that Perry is regarded as the most remarkable patient ever confined in the State Hospital for the Criminal Insane.

Once Perry was on the verge of starvation, but he absolutely refused to take a bite or drink anything, and the physicians, satisfied that he would die rather than yield, fed him through a tube. Since November 19, 1903, he has received nourishment through a tube, not because it is necessary, but simply because he was determined to die rather than eat the regular prison fare. Perry declares he will never take a bite of food so long as he is in Danmore Hospital, and Drs. North, Townsend and McDonald, his physicians, believe him.

Perhaps the most notable feature of the case, which has nothing even approaching a parallel in the prison records of the State, is that Perry now weighs more than he ever did and is in perfect physical condition.

Perry's behavior since his incarceration in Danmore—in fact, ever since his arrest following his sensational train robbery—has been as remarkable as his original exploits were daring. He has defied the authorities; he has dared them to kill him; he has regarded his life as a mere plaything. As he explained, seated on the bed in his room, with a white bandage over his blinded eyes, he has never had any hope of being free, and it has been a matter of complete indifference to him whatever became of him.

Perry blinded himself while in prison. He dragged himself with opium and used a needle and steel dust to blind himself. He regrets it now. His methods of train robbing were exceptionally daring, he lowering himself by a rope from the roof of express trains, kicking in windows and holding up the train crews.

He was sentenced, in 1892, to forty-five years. He is yearning for his freedom.

Simmons, presented the report of the society, which showed a very prosperous year's work, $214.55 having been raised, $107.95 expended on the parsonage furnishings and $81 contributed to the trust funds of the church. It was pointed out that this year the Ladies' Aid of the church, under the leadership of President, Mrs. Wm. Kirkpatrick, for the able way she had filled the position, and for the flourishing condition of the society. During the year Mrs. M. A. Bailey, who for 26 years has been a faithful worker in the church, and twelve years the efficient secretary of the Ladies' Aid, had been called to rest, and the loss had been deeply felt by the society.

The following are the officers for the ensuing year:

First Vice-President—Mrs. T. Bard.
Second Vice-President—Mrs. Ed. Forten.

LOST HIS SEAT.

Narrow Escape of Steeplejack 125 Feet in Air.

London, Ont., Oct. 28.—A steeplejack, named Reynolds, had a narrow escape from death this morning while engaged in painting the steel stack at the London Rolling Mills. He was up 125 feet in the air working with his brush when, as he leaned over the seat, the strong wind blew from him. Quick as a flash he grasped the rope by which his assistant sends up supplies and down this he slid with great speed. The coat sleeve was torn off and his arm badly burned by the friction against the rope. Had he not been able to grasp the rope he would have fallen to the roof, 65 feet below.
