THE HEIR OF Lancewood

CHAPTER XXIX.

The next time that she sent out invitations for a dinner-party she received far more refusals than accepances. She railed against the prejudices of the English. She said that if her neighbors would not visit her she would send to France for her friends.

There were times when Vivien felt tempted to leave the Abbey. The only thing that kept her at her post was the memory of her father's words that he left the honor of his house in her hands; but for that she would long since have left the scene of so much misery and humiliation.

She must weather the storm alone. She must stand alone guarding the honor of her house. For evil days had dawned upon Lancewood—evil days for the beautiful home where heroes had lived and died, where pure and noble women had lived almost saintly lives—evil days for the grand old home wherein no shame had ever been sheltered.

There was perhaps nothing to be said against the morality of any one under its roof, but a cloud hung over the place—ladies gave a slight shudder when the place was mentioned.

The verdict of society did not affect the gayer there. The inmates had private theatricals, charades, dances. There were times when Vivien Nestle, listening to the loud laughter and conversation, thought she would lose her reason. The life led at the Abbey seemed to her now one round of orgies. She wondered that the very walls did not fall upon the revelers.

Single-handed and alone she tried to stop the current of folly, gaiety, and dissipation. She might as well have tried to stop the flowing of the tide; yet she did her best for the honor of the house.

"Vivien," said Lady Smeaton, on meeting her at a friend's house one day, "I insist upon your coming over to the Park; I expect some very nice visitors, and you will enjoy yourself."

"How can I leave Lancewood?" she asked, sadly. "The people will not set the house on fire—though it seems to me they have done everything else," said Lady Smeaton. "You look pale and ill; come for a change. You will be all the stronger for the combat when you return."

And Vivien allowed herself to be persuaded; the notion of rest, even if only for a few days, was very sweet to her—her life was so terribly full of misery. She went to the Park, and one of the first people she met there was Lord St. Just. He had just returned from Egypt, and was delighted to see her.

Days of Rheumatism Now Over! Wonderful Miracles Worked by "Nerviline"

Its Strange Power is the Marvel of Thousands it Has Cured. Rhenumatism is the greatest test Nerviline has to meet. It cures pains, big and little, but to rheumatism especially it is a great blessing, just as it is to those who suffer from neuralgia, sciatica, lumbago, stiffness or enlarged joints.

Remember this: There is nothing harmful in Nerviline. You can use it freely on your children for their aches and pains. It is dependable, reliable, safe. Nothing to equal good old Nerviline as a general family remedy.

Get the large 50 cent family bottle; it is far more economical than the 25 cent trial size. Sold by dealers everywhere. the banks of the Nile, under the shade of the mighty pyramids, under the shadow of giant palms, I have thought of you; and the first thing I did on reaching England was to come in search of you."

"How did you know my name?" she asked. "I did not tell it you." "No—you were cruelly reticent, but I soon learned it. All the English whom I was stopping knew of Miss Nestle, heiress of Lancewood."

A shadow fell over her face and deepened in her eyes. "I am no longer heiress of Lancewood," she said.

"So I understand—I have heard the story. I could not tell you how often I wondered what had caused your sorrow. It was neither sickness nor death, nor the loss of friends or of fortune. I have pondered it for hours; now I understand you were lamenting the loss of Lancewood."

"I have lived so much since then," she said; "yet I remember the pain of that morning better perhaps than aught else in my life."

"And I have wandered far and wide—I have seen some of the wonders of the world—but I have never forgotten that hour," he observed, gravely. She, whose experience of life had been so bitter, looked upon him in wonder.

"You have thought so much of our meeting?" she said, simply. "You will never know how much," he replied; and then a deep silence fell upon them. It was about the middle of August, and Vivien had been then some days at Smeaton Park. They had been very happy days, despite the trouble that lay so heavy at her heart.

But, Miss Nestle, pardon me, it is of yourself I want to talk—you will not be angry with me? When I look at you, it seems to me that you have suffered so much. You should not have that shadow of painful thought always in your eyes. Tell me, is it indeed for the loss of Lancewood you are in such despair?"

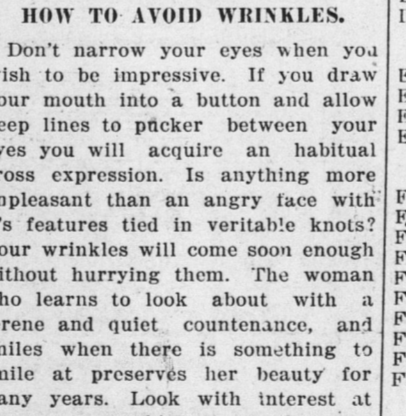

She raised her beautiful dark eyes and looked frankly at him. "I will tell you," she said, "because I think that you will understand me. I have said but little of my sorrow—people mistake it; they think it is the loss of wealth and position. It is not that. If I had lost Lancewood and won three times the value of its rent-roll, I should not have cared for it. I was so proud of my home; I loved it as other people loved living friends; it was everything to me. I had never thought of any other lot to me except taking care of Lancewood; I had trained and fitted myself for it—oh, believe me, Lord St. Just—if it had passed from me to one noble, good, just, loyal, one who would have loved it, I should have been pleased, it was not so much that I wanted Lancewood, as that I wished it to be in wise, loving, loyal keeping. You understand me?"

"Yes," he replied, "I understand perfectly. I love my own home, King's Rest, just in the same fashion. I would rather burn it to the ground than know that it was in unworthy hands."

She looked at him with quick, eager interest. "King's Rest," she said—"what a peculiar name!"

"It is an appropriate one," he replied. "You have heard of the Herwell Woods in Devonshire—a famous hunting-place of English kings? One of them built a magnificent house near to them, where with his court he used to reside for weeks at a time. It was called the 'King's Rest'; then, long years afterward it was purchased by the founder of our family, and we are known as the St. Justs of King's Rest. It is more like a palace than a house, and is, I think, one of the loveliest in England."

HOW TO AVOID WRINKLES. Don't narrow your eyes when you wish to be impressive. If you draw your mouth into a button and allow deep lines to pucker between your eyes you will acquire a habitual cross expression. Is anything more unpleasant than an angry face with its features tied in veritable knots? Your wrinkles will come soon enough without hurrying them. The woman who learns to look about with a serene and quiet countenance, and smiles when there is something to smile at preserves her beauty for many years. Look with interest at the person speaking to you, but preserve your own expression quite unchanged.

Learn to avoid the lip biting, eye-grooving raising and eye narrowing habits. If you have already been unfortunate enough to acquire wrinkles, massage them daily with cold cream and try to spirit them away. The following recipe is reliable and will not make the hair grow on your face. Have your druggist mix these ingredients: One ounce of white wax; one ounce of spermaceti; two ounces of lanolin; four ounces sweet almond oil; two ounces coconut oil; two ounces orange flower water; thirty drops of tincture of benzoin.

When you massage the wrinkled skin pinch it quite gently crosswise of the line of the wrinkle. Do not leave the cold cream on overnight, as it will make the facial muscles flabby. Plenty of cold cream will be absorbed by the pores during the massage. You must wipe the rest away with a soft cloth and then wash the face in cold water. This will remove any destructive accumulation of dust and close the pores afterwards. The effect on the skin is not one of overaction, but of stimulation. When your skin is soft once more do not spoil the whole value of your care by allowing the unpleasant thought wrinkles to mar its surface.

VESSELS SUNK.

LONDON, Aug. 14. The British steamer Cairo and the fishing smack Amethyst have been sunk by a submarine. Crew saved.

LONDON BUDGET.

LONDON, Aug. 15. Having recovered from the check inflicted on him early in the week by the Russians, General Von Buelow commanding a portion of the army of Field Marshal Von Hindenburg operating west of the River Dvinsk, has again taken the offensive and, according to an official report published by Berlin, today has beaten the Russians in a battle in the vicinity of Kubisko, and pushed them back on a northeasterly direction, taking over 200 prisoners.

South, before Kovno, the Russians according to the same source of information, made an unsuccessful sortie from Kovno, which the Germans are now approaching.

In the Polish section various German armies are slowly driving their line, advancing from the northwest south on Breslitovsk. While they continue to take comparatively small batches of prisoners, they make no claim to the capture of artillery or booty, which is considered by military observers as a fair indication that the Grand Duke Nicholas continues their orderly retreat, and that for a long time to come they will be able to prevent the Germans from detaching any part of their army for large ventures elsewhere.

The only evidence of activity outside of Poland and the Baltic provinces is on the Serbian frontier, where the bombardment of Belgrade by the Austrians, and the counter bombardment of Semlin and Panscova by the Serbians, have resumed. According to Nish, Austrian attempts to cross the Danube near the Serbian-Romanian borders have been repulsed, but it is believed by military experts here that this region will be the scene of the next Austro-German offensive.

There is some speculation in military circles as to whether Roumania as well as Serbia, will be attacked, because of Roumania's refusal to allow munitions of war to pass through Turkey, which is being pressed, both near Caucasus and Dardanelles fronts.

There is no late news from the Dardanelles, but information is hourly being received of movement of which the landings by allies last week were the preliminaries.

Artois, Forest of Argonne and Vosges Mountains, continue to be scenes of activity on the western front, but serious battles are in progress in any of these regions.

ALIEN ENEMIES IN INDIA.

LONDON, Aug. 15. A Reuter's Telegram Agency says that the Government of India, according to a special despatch from Simla, has been obliged to adopt more drastic measures for the treatment of alien enemies throughout the country. The despatch says: A statement describing in detail measures for internment, surveillance, and registration hitherto applied to alien enemies in India had been issued by the Government. It states that the prolongation of the war, and bitterness aroused by German savagery has now altered the position, besides adding a continued strain to the Government, and it accordingly has decided with the approval of the Secretary of State for India, to repatriate all women, children, and men of non-military age as soon as necessary arrangements can be carried out.

PLAN FOR ATTACK THWARTED. PARIS, Aug. 14. A plan for an attack on the Suez Canal is said by the Ministry of Marine to have been discovered and thwarted. The announcement was made in the following statement: On August 12th, after warning had been given to the Governor of Jaffa and time given for evacuation of the vicinity, a French cruiser bombarded and destroyed the principal buildings and shops of the German Wagner. Works which were making arms and munitions and constructing boats destined for an attack on the Suez Canal. The houses in the vicinity were not damaged.

FRENCH BOMB ST. MIHIEL.

PARIS, Aug. 15. After violent hand to hand fighting near Pulaemne region, between the Oise and Aisne Rivers, French troops yesterday succeeded in occupying an excavation caused by the explosion of a mine under a German trench, according to a statement issued this afternoon by the French War Department. Exceptionally violent artillery duels are reported in Artois, Champagne and Lorraine districts. Nineteen French aeroplanes dropped 198 bombs on German depots in the Valley of Spada near St. Mihiel.

UNOFFICIALLY REPORTED.

PETROGRAD, Aug. 14. According to latest unofficial accounts, the Russian Baltic Fleet inflicted heavy losses on the German Baltic squadron near Oesel Island yesterday. It is stated that a large German cruiser was destroyed, and several other warships severely damaged. Despite the heavy firing of the German ships the Russian vessels sustained no loss or serious injury. Russian seaplanes again rendered invaluable service in supporting the fleet. It is surmised that the enemy's purpose was to reconnoitre the waters of the Northern Baltic, and if possible bottle up the Russian fleet in the Gulf of Finland and Gulf of Bothnia.

NEW EASTERN FRONT.

PETROGRAD, Aug. 15. The new positions occupied by the Germans and Austrians were outlined with approximate accuracy on good authority to-day for the first time since the fall of Warsaw. The line starting from the vicinity of Ossowetz near the Prussian border opposite the Mazurian lakes region curves south and east running thro-

SERBIAN ACTIVITIES.

PARIS, Aug. 15. A Havas despatch from Nish, under date of August 12th, delayed in transmission, contains what is apparently a Serbian official statement issued on August 9th. The text follows: Five hundred Serbian troops destroyed by artillery and infantry fire on the night of the Save and Danube Rivers. During the night of the 9th our artillery opened fire occasionally on the supply train on the Bezerkerion Orsovo Road near the village of Silevets in the neighborhood of Silevets, the same night the enemy opened fire on Dagne beyond Tekla, killing a child. After opening vigorous artillery and infantry fire on the bank of the river, the Serbian artillery immediately reduced the enemy to silence on the morning of August 10th. Enemy soldiers took refuge on the Danube, near the ancient Turkish fortress of Gelabatz, beyond Dogne Milanovats, but were repulsed.

AGAIN BOMBARDED.

LONDON, Aug. 15. The bombardment of Belgrade has been resumed by the Austrians with large calibre howitzers, according to an official statement issued at Nish on Friday, and telegraphed here by Reuter's correspondent. There is said to have been no loss of life.

Serious Accident.

On Saturday afternoon or about an hour before the departure of Florizel for Halifax, Patrick Morrissey, a 45 year old laborer, while engaged discharging the ship's cargo, was the victim of a serious accident and he now lies at the General Hospital.

Morrissey was gangway man over the main hatch. A slung piece of wood out of the hold and was placed on the gangway before being transferred to the skids which leads from the side of the ship into one of the big sheds. A barrel of pork got loose and started to roll from the gangway. Morrissey tried to stop it, fearing it would go overboard. In doing so he tripped in the skid ropes and fell to the wharf below, a distance of about 15 feet, the barrel of pork coming after him. In his descent Morrissey turned over and managed to break his hand on the ground. The injured workman was picked up by fellow-workers in a semi-conscious condition and was examined by two doctors from Queen's Hospital. They were serious and ordered him to Hospital where he was at once taken in the ambulance. One of his legs is fractured and he is thought to be badly hurt in the abdomen. He is being operated on this afternoon.

Earl of Devon Back.

The S. S. Earl of Devon, Capt. A. Carter, arrived in port from the northward at 10 a.m. yesterday, and reports an improvement in the trap fishery from Quirpon to Whoooping Harbor. During the past ten days some good hauls have been secured and prospects for a good voyage are quite promising. From Whoooping Harbor south the fishery to date has been a complete failure in many places, and from that port to Pogo the total catch is not an average one. The ship brought a small freight and several passengers.

ANTI-GERMAN RIOT IN BOSTON.

BOSTON, Aug. 15. The gathering to-day of 1,300 Italian reservists, who were to sail on the steamer Canopic to meet their friends, was marked by demonstrations against the interned German steamships Amerika and Cincinnati, as a result of which several policemen were severely injured. The sailors of the German vessels were struck by flying stones and sticks. Revolver shots were exchanged between the crowd and the police, but it could not be learned that any tool effect.

AUSTRIAN NOTE ANSWERED. WASHINGTON, Aug. 15. The State Department to-night made public the reply to the United States rejecting the views set forth by the Austro-Hungarian Government in its recent note, contending that the exportation of war munitions from America to Austria's enemies was conducted on such a scale as to be "not in consonance with the condition of neutrality." Though in friendly language the tone of the note flatly denies the Austro-Hungarian contentions, and recalls that that country and Germany furnished munitions of war to Britain during the Boer War, when England's enemies could not import such supplies. It insists that the American Government is pursuing a strictly neutral course, adhering to the principle upon which it would depend for munitions in the markets of the world in case it should be attacked by a foreign power.

PAN-AMERICAN APPEAL. WASHINGTON, Aug. 15. The pan-American appeal to Mexico, now being delivered to the chiefs of the factions and governors of the states, was made public here last night. Without even an intimation of armed intervention, it calls upon the leaders to meet somewhere in Mexico on neutralized ground, in conference to address the first steps necessary for the constitutional reconstruction of the country issue, and to call for immediate elections. The service of the United States in any other pan-American conference, are offered as intermediaries.

Lessen Your Living Expenses!

"Be economical," is the cry in England, and this slogan has the same significance in Canada. We all must economize. There is more actual waste in our dress expenses than any other item. When a garment becomes soiled we throw it aside, when for a few cents it could be restored to original freshness and beauty by Dry Cleaning. A saving of at least 35 per cent. in the expense of dressing is possible by using the processes of Dry Cleaning and Dyeing.

WORTH KNOWING.

"When things ain't going right with you, and you can't make them gee; when business matters look real blue, and you fear bankruptcy; when cobwebs gather on your stock, and customers are rare; when all your assets are in dock, don't cuss and tear your hair. Just listen to this good advice, and take it if you're wise: give every article a price, and then go advertise. And advertise from morn to night, don't overlook a day; and soon you'll see the world go bright, and things will come your way. Invest in good publicity, and fortune you will greet; and in a little while you'll be 'way up on Easy Street."

"The merchant who doesn't advertise is the same fellow who never has what you want in stock because he never had any demand for it."

An Enjoyable Trip.

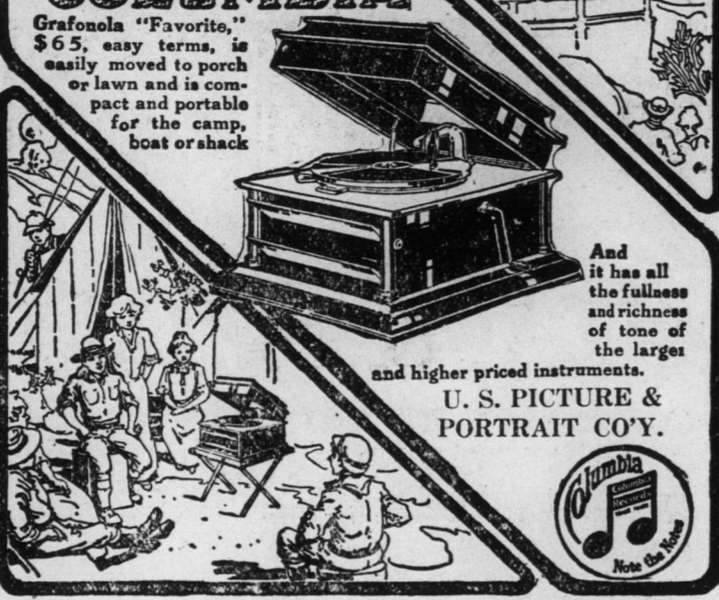

Editor Evening Telegram
Dear Sir,—The S. S. Earl of Devon left St. John's on Saturday, the 7th, at 6 p.m., and arrived at Griguet at 6.30 p.m. on Tuesday, the 10th, being only a little over seventy-two hours from St. John's. This, I believe, is the record trip for this year. We took passage at Exploits, and from the time that we left there until we arrived at Griguet every hour of the trip was thoroughly enjoyed. The weather was all that could be desired, and with a congenial company on board everything went well. I believe that the service is appreciated by the people living at those places where no other steamer calls. We were well looked after by Captain Carter and the members of his crew, who did everything possible to make the trip an enjoyable one. We, therefore, take this opportunity of expressing our appreciation, and thank Captain Carter and his crew for their efforts on our behalf.
Yours truly,
B. W.

Dr. Donnelly Joins Veterinary Corps.

Dr. Fergus Donnelly, so well and favorably known in St. John's, has joined the Imperial Veterinary Corps. Mr. Richard Colford, Duckworth Street, an old friend of the doctor, received the following letter from him by last mail: Bathurst, N. B., August 8th, 1915.
Dear Mr. Colford,—I received your letter and was more than glad to hear from you. You will certainly be surprised when I tell you that tomorrow I leave for Halifax, where I embark for England, having joined the Imperial Veterinary Corps. They have already sent 250 "Vets," and are now sending another 150, of which I am one of the items. I got the rank of Lieutenant and $5 a day with 100 field allowance, and after the war is over we are paid off with two months' pay, and transportation back to Canada. It will give me great experience and a good chance of being attached to a cavalry regiment. Remember me to all at home and tell them that they can bet I will do my duty. Hoping that you are well, with best regards and good-bye.
Yours sincerely,
J. FERGUS DONNELLY, V.S.

Decoration Day.

Yesterday was observed as decoration day for the brethren of the Sons of England Society in this city. A representative gathering of the body visited the General Protestant Cemetery and placed flowers on the graves of ten deceased members, also visiting the Salvation Army Cemetery where the graves of three departed brethren were decorated. In the meantime the members visited the Church of England Cemetery and floral offerings were placed on the graves of 27 deceased brethren. Service was conducted by Rev. Dr. Jones, who also preached an impressive and instructive sermon.

Case Withdrawn.

The case against Mr. John A. Potts, who was arrested for larceny on the arrival of the Sagoua from Labrador at the instance of Mr. E. C. Robinson, came up for hearing before Mr. F. J. Morris, K.C., this morning. At the outset, Mr. Hunt, solicitor for Mr. Robinson, intimated to the Court his client wished to withdraw the criminal charge made against Mr. Potts. Mr. Higgins, acting for Mr. Potts, moved that the accused be discharged from custody and stated that his client accepted the withdrawal as being evidence that Mr. Robinson had come to the conclusion that there were no grounds for the criminal action that had been taken. The Court thereupon ordered that the accused be discharged.

Overpaid Kelly Half a Million.

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 10.—Chief Justice Mathers to-day handed out a report on the new parliament building which had been specially prepared for the Royal Commission of which he is chairman, by John Woodman a well known Winnipeg architect. Woodman deals principally with general structural considerations. The architect finds that out of fifteen caissons tested only six were found resting on rock, although rock was easily obtained. Instead of there being 35,000 yards of concrete, in the caissons, he estimates the contents at 21,325 yards, this being based on two averages. Allowing $12.50 per cubic yard as a fair price for the construction of the caissons, he calculates their value at $266,625, and estimates Thomas Kelly and Sons were overpaid $577,350 on this item.

A "Queer" Woman.

By RUTH CAMERON.

"Yes," said the woman who sees everything. "I noticed a light in my guest room three nights running and I supposed she must have some guest; but I couldn't see anyone there daytimes. So finally I thought the conversation round to the subject, and my dear, what do you think?" "Their problems are our problems," says Emma McChesney of the girls in her shop. "They use garlic instead of onion, and they don't bathe as often as we do; but then perhaps we wouldn't if we hadn't tubs and showers so handy." I recommend that thought to the folks who deny the use of bathing facilities to their maids and then criticize them for lack of personal cleanliness. A maid once told me that when she started to bathe in her second situation (she was a nice, cleanly girl and had been freely permitted the use of the bath in her first situation, so she did not realize that she should ask permission) her employers, two prim maiden ladies, actually hurried themselves at the bathroom door, almost broke it down and frightened her into hysterics before she realized what the matter was. She was ordered to leave the house that night without a character. Yes, I know there are women whom one would not want to permit the use of the tub or the phone either. But are these the sort one would want handling one's food? Why not have a cleanly, decent helper and treat her humanely?

Exchange Problem is Very Important.

Special Cable by Francis W. Hirst,
Editor of the Economist to the Morning Star.

London, Aug. 9.—The speech of Chancellor of the Exchequer Reginald McKenna, at Preston, shows that he realizes the importance and difficulty of the exchange problem as represented by the depreciation of our pound sterling in dollar terms. Hence the Treasury's effort to withdraw gold from circulation for export, and if necessary stop the movements of Japanese gold to Canada or the United States probably is explained.

By the movements of Russian gold to Japan in payment for cloth, boots and munitions of war, Russia is indirectly assisting our exchanges with New York. The temporary flicker of improvement on the Italian Exchange, is, I find, ascribed in this city to rumors, probably baseless, of credits arranged in New York.

The ruble depreciation, naturally, has been accentuated by the fall of Warsaw and the campaign against the Baltic ports. Speculators, however, expect a recovery when the Dardanelles are won.

Our great question here now, is, how we are to pay for the increased food and munitions imports which we shall want to buy from America this autumn.

They will stand at abnormally high prices, and our exportable surplus of textiles and other manufactures will be much less than usual. It is probable we shall muddle through somehow by exporting gold and selling back to you more of your railroad securities. It seems a pity that our Government did not buy up American industrial stock before distributing its war orders.

The contraband and blockade policy of the Government is rather obscure, but Cabinet discussions may ease the situation before Parliament meets again.

The proceedings of the Russian Douma are being followed with great interest here, as indicating the possibility of sweeping reforms. Peace proposals from Germany are by no means impossible in the near future.

Placentia Notes.

The fishery to date from Cape St. Mary's, Placentia is not up to anticipations with but few exceptions. The traps in Golden Bay having done fairly well, but from the Cape to Placentia nothing of any account can be recorded.

Placentia in the last few days has been honored by a visit from His Grace Archbishop Roche and attendant clergy. Never before in the history of this town was there such a display of bunting, trees and evergreens. Every road throughout the town was lined with trees; it is not my intention to enlarge on this matter suffice it to say that Placentia thinks at all events that she has done honor to her illustrious son.

Dr. McDonald is kept busy lately, his is as the saying goes from post to pillar one day; to long the next, to the far eastern portions of the District, Branch and St. Bride's. His courtesy and competence is being noted with approval from one end of the District to the other. An operation performed to-day by Dr. McDonald was successful and clearly showed his ability as surgeon and physician.

Obituary.

MR. MOGUE POWER.

At noon yesterday the death occurred of Mr. Mogue Power, of Cochrane Street. Though he reached an advanced age, deceased was hale and hearty up to a fortnight ago when he was stricken with pleurisy of the lungs. The disease had gained such inroads that cure was impossible and the end came yesterday surrounded by the family circle. He was an ex-President of the Mechanics' Society with which he was identified for very many years. He is survived by a widow, one son, Dr. M. S. Power, and one daughter, Sister Mary Rose, of St. Clare's Home. To the bereaved family much sympathy is expressed.

MRS. E. F. SINNOTT.

After a brief illness there passed away yesterday afternoon Elizabeth, wife of Mr. Edward F. Sinnott. Besides a husband, five children are left to mourn, the eldest, William, being with the Newfoundland Regiment. The Telegram joins in the sincere sympathy offered.

Enlisted in Canada.

Mr. George Davis, of Witless Bay, is in receipt of a letter from his son Charles, who has recently enlisted with the 55th Battalion of the Canadian Overseas Expeditionary Force, and is now in training at Sussex Camp, N.E. Charlie enlisted with the 2nd Regiment in January last, but for some slight reason or other failed to satisfy the examining doctors and could not be accepted for foreign service. He returned to Bishop's Falls where he had been working and a few months later left for Canada, where he worked for two months at the paper mill at Bathurst, N. B. Though he had failed to pass the physical test here, he again offered this services to the Empire and the second time was accepted. At the time of writing he expected to be going in training at Yalcartier, the following week. In his letter he mentions Patrick O'Leary, of Fox Hr., P.B., who has also enlisted in the same regiment.

Annual Mass at Mount Carmel

The annual Requiem Mass was celebrated in the Mortuary Chapel, Mount Carmel, yesterday morning by Rev. Dr. M. J. Ryan, of St. Augustine's Seminary, Toronto, who also delivered the sermon. The weather was all that could be desired and the congregation was the largest ever seen within the grounds of Mount Carmel. At the conclusion of mass Rev. Dr. Ryan ascended the pulpit on the grounds and preached an eloquent sermon that will long be remembered by the vast gathering present. After referring to the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin, which feast is marked on the calendar by the Roman Catholic Churches throughout the world, he dealt with the object for which the congregation were then assembled. He spoke of the doctrine of the resurrection of the body, as one of the fundamental truths of Christianity. Referring to the loving care for the dead shown by all Christians in the decoration of the resting place of the dear departed, he pointed out the particular emphasis on the Roman Catholic doctrine of the Communion of Saints. In beautiful yet simple language, he expounded the doctrine by which the members of the Roman Catholic Church attend also to the needs of the souls of their departed friends by their prayers and good works offered for the atonement of the guilt of sin already forgiven, but for which they are detained in Purgatory to be purified before entering the kingdom of everlasting happiness. The discourse was eloquent and masterly one, and was one of the finest ever heard at Mount Carmel.

After mass, Rev. Dr. Ryan, the cemetery committee and the two altar boys from Mount Cashel, Industrial School, who were the servers at the mass, were entertained to lunch at Mrs. Kenne's.

We extend our heartfelt congratulations to Dr. Macpherson.

CHEERED HIS MEN ON AT YRES.—According to letters received from his comrades at the front, he was last seen with his left arm shattered by a piece of shrapnel, nevertheless he was "cheering his men on," says the Montreal Star of Sergeant F. F. Wells, of the 7th Battalion of the Canadian Expeditionary Force, who was wounded at Yres, and is now a prisoner in Germany. He is a native of Clow's Cove in the Belle Isle Straits. Newfoundland will hope that her son will return safely home.

"OURS" IN THE WEST END.

A capital programme has been arranged at Rossley's West End Theatre, new pictures, songs and costumes, a first class performance. The West End Theatre is clean, cool and comfortable and up to date all the time.

ROSSLEY'S GRAND RE-OPENING TO-NIGHT.

Patrons will be delighted to know that Jack Rossley, the popular lessee of the Rossley Theatre, will open up this place of amusement once more to the public; he has secured artists that we feel sure will please as they come here from the best places in London, England, after a long tour with a first class company known as the Peerless Penderltons, all over the world, and are known as the Australian Merry Makers. Those classy vaudeville artists have lots of good songs and sketches; they also have the most wonderful trained dog in the world, named Don, a cute little Fox Terrier, who assists Jack Russell in one of his singing acts, made up like Charlie Chaplin. The first sketch produced by the Russells is entitled: "Robbing a Burglar," a great comedy act with many dramatic incidents. Jack Russell has composed many of his own songs, one great patriotic song in particular: "Canada's Reply to the World." Mr. Jack Russell served in the Boer War and is able to deliver patriotic songs in great style. Olive Russell has a phenomenal voice, a double voiced singer and the only lady baritone in the business to-day. For the children's matinees they have a Royal Punch and Judy Show and other novelties. Mr. Rossley will also have some great pictures, he will go back to his first policy and give two shows each night. General admission being ten cents; for reserved opera chairs, twenty cents.

BACK TO THE FARM.

All over the country the bush leagues are busting, the magistrates who back them must view with alarm; the retrospect of the bad and the outlook disgusting, and umpires and captains go back to the farm. No more on the bleachers the crowd are applauding the left-handed pitcher who wound up his arm; that hero, with grief in his bosom, is plodding along the bleak highway that leads to the farm. The diamond is pasturing horses and cattle, the gate is nailed up to protect it from harm; no more do we hear the wild clamor of battle, the catchers in the end fields have gone to the farm. Oh, what is the matter? Is baseball decaying? The game of our dads—is it losing its charms? Oh, what must we think when the players quit playing, and hit the long road that leads back to the farm? The present is dark and the fans are despairing, the future extends no comfort or harm; promoters are sick and the sport writers swearing, and most of the players are back on the farm. The smock is endearing itself more and more to the woman who wants attractive country clothes.

Tommy of the Antipodes,
IS NO CLOTHES LOVER.

London, Aug. 8.—Ashmead Bartlett, in the course of a despatch to the Daily Chronicle and other London papers, dated "Eastern Mediterranean, July 16th," and dealing with the role played by the Australians and New Zealanders in the Gallipoli Peninsula, says:

"A peculiarity of the colonial soldiers which distinguishes them in a marked degree from our men is their dislike of clothes. I suppose since the Dervishes made their last charge at Omdurman no such naked army has ever been seen in the field. The British Tommy likes to move and work and fight with the majority of his worldly goods hanging around him. No matter what the state of the temperature, the men in our front trenches sit with their packs on, sweating in the broiling sun, and will dig trenches without removing a garment; but to find the Australians now wearing anything except a pair of 'shorts' is extremely rare, whether he be in the trenches, in a rest camp, or on fatigue."

"One by one they have thrown aside their various articles of clothing. First coats and then shirts, then underclothes. Now a very large number have swept aside their boots and puttees, and only a lingering of decency still kept alive by memories of the mixed bathing season at Sydney preserves the 'shorts,' which, starting a few months ago as full length trousers, have now arrived half way up the thigh. In this primitive costume the Australians and New Zealanders live and work and fight. Their huge frames and gaunt limbs are now bared by the sun to a dull brick red."

"Some one remarked very truly the other day that this campaign at the Dardanelles has only been rendered tolerable by the excellent bathing. I do not suppose any other factor has counted so much in keeping the troops healthy and clean and restoring their spirits after days and nights in the stuffy, dirty, smelling trenches. Especially as the Australians and New Zealanders love their periodical dip. To them the sea and sun bath are as the breath of life. From earliest childhood they have been accustomed to live in the water. The bathing at Sydney, where as many as fifty thousand men, women and children take the water at the same time, is world famous. Now straight from the trenches, this endless procession of naked warriors, covered with sand and dirt, never ceases from sunrise to sunset. No sooner is the colonial released from duty than he makes for Police Court.

(Before Mr. Hutchings, K.C.)

A laborer given in charge for being drunk in his own house was let go on payment of cash bails.

A drunk was fined $1 or 3 days.

A domestic who had no home, was returned.

A loose and disorderly woman was sent down for 30 days.

An assault case was dismissed.

Reids' Boats.

The Argyll sails from Placentia for the westward this afternoon.

The Clyde left Lewisport at 8.45 a.m. to-day for south.

The Dundee left Port Blandford at 3.30 a.m. to-day.

The Ethel left Clarendville at 9.10 a.m. to-day.

The Glencoe left Port aux Basques at 8 a.m. to-day.

The Home is at North Sydney.

The Kyle arrived at Port aux Basques at 7 a.m. yesterday.

The Metlegle is due at Flower's Cove from north.

The Sagona left Twillingate at 9.15 a.m. Saturday, going north.

Organ & Vocal Recital.

Last night at the Church of England Cathedral, Madame Olive Timmons and Mr. Alfred Allan gave a recital of vocal and instrumental selections which were much appreciated by the large congregation present. Madame Timmons is a real artist and always uses her magnificent voice with beautiful effect, but last night's performance with the added advantage of the fine organ accompaniment by Mr. Allen was most impressive.

Beothic Returns.

The S.S. Beothic, Capt. Faulk, arrived in port this morning, after a five days' passage from New York. For the last two months the ship was engaged bringing copper ore cargoes from Tilt Cove to New York. From the American port she brought a cargo of anthracite coal which she is now discharging at Morey & Co's South Side premises. The future movements of the Beothic are not yet definitely decided.

Druggery.

By the adoption of modern gas appliances you may abolish druggery from your home.

GAS COOKERS eliminate the druggery of lighting fires, the handling of coal and ashes, and enable you to prepare meals in half the time required with old-fashioned appliances.

GAS WATER HEATERS are indispensable in every well-regulated household.

GAS LIGHTING is best for the eyes and the pocket.

THE PERFECTION GAS IRON is a recent addition to labour, time, and money saving appliances. This nickel-plated Gas Iron may be had complete with stand and a length of metallic tubing for the small sum of $3.00, and should be in every household.

With the "PERFECTION GAS IRON" a whole day's ironing may be done at a cost of five cents, give better results, and do more work in half the time. It is always hot and ready, clean and smooth. Send post card, or phone 97, and the Gas Company will send a man to give practical demonstration of any, or all, up-to-date household appliances.

NOTE.—It is important that Gas Cookers and other appliances be kept perfectly clean and free from grease. Use "SO-KLEAN" enamel cleaner. It will quickly remove all stains and grease from metal or enamel. 25 cents per packet.—jy23.f

Items of Interest.

Born blind, and after living in darkness for 25 years, Miss Tomsyna Carlyle, a University of California student living in Pasadena, Cal., gazed for the first time upon her mother's face on day recently. Science triumphed over nature when Dr. Vard H. Hulén, of San Francisco, performed a two-minute operation which brought sight to her left eye. Miss Carlyle has previously undergone five unsuccessful operations and her case was pronounced hopeless.

A foreman in charge of part of the construction of the new metropolitan boulevard in Quincy, Mass., got a big surprise when he opened his laundry box and found on top of his collars and shirts $85 in clean, crisp bills. The laundry people found the money in the box which contained the man's laundry. The bills were dirty and out of shape from being rolled up, and the laundry officials concluded that he had sent the bills to be cleaned. The bills were nicely laundered and the happy owner was glad to pay the 15 cents which the laundry had charged for cleaning the $85.

Waxed thread can be made at home by immersing the spools in hot paraffin wax where they are allowed to stay for half an hour. Then rub the spools to get rid of the superfluous wax.

THE TIGER

is one of the most destructive of animals, and is a source of much danger to life.

Sunlight Soap

preserves and lengthens the life of your clothes, but it is a source of destruction to all dirt and uncleanness. The amount of destruction wrought by a tiger in a single night, cannot be compared to the amount of destruction wrought by inferior soap in a single wash-day. SUNLIGHT SOAP is an absolutely pure Soap, that saves your clothes, time, money, and labour.

TRY IT.

When You Spend Good Money You Ought Get Good Coal!

I have a schooner to arrive within a few days with North Sydney Coal. Coal taken away as it is landed is usually better than Coal out of store. You see it gets more "broken up" when put in store and shovelled out again.

The Eastern Trust Company.

A few reasons why an estate can be better administered by the Eastern Trust Company than by a personal executor or administrator:—

1. The Company affords the estate absolute security; it has a paid-up capital of $331,000.00, and a reserve fund of $229,300.00.
2. It has a long experience in the work of administering estates; it is incorporated for this business of acting as a trustee, and, unlike many other trust companies, it does no other.
3. Its existence is perpetual. Your estate, in the event of the death of a personal executor or administrator, must look around for a substitute, and the work of administration is impeded during that time, and the new executor is unfamiliar with the policy of his predecessor, and confusion results. This company's existence is perpetual, and there is a continuity of policy in its administration that the death of its officers does not break.
4. It possesses the confidence of governments, universities and prominent charities and administers their funds.
5. A number of other advantages which will appear in due course.
