THE LATE MRS. W. H. NOWLIN

Interment Took Place in the Baptist Cemetery in Digby.

(From the Truro Daily News)

Mrs. W. H. Nowlin passed away at her home Victoria Street, Truro, Saturday May 1st. She had been a great sufferer for over three years and her passing was "As fades a summer cloud away as sinks the gate when storms are o'er" for "He giveth His beloved sleep."

She leaves to mourn a husband who is a member of the Truro Publishing Co's staff, and two daughters, Miss Alice in Halifax, and Miss Ida at home, who tenderly cared for her mother all through her illness. Four sisters and a brother also survive her.

A service was conducted at the home on Sunday afternoon Rev. F. C. Hartley officiating assisted by the Rev. B. D. Knott. The choir of Emmanuel Church led the singing. The casket was covered with beautiful floral tributes expression of the sympathy of friends.

Mrs. Nowlin was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Silas Davison, of Gasperaux, where she was born. The remains were taken to Digby on the Midland last Monday morning to be interred along side of those of her son, Howard, who predeceased her ten years.

The family have the sincere sympathy of all their friends in their bereavement; and the News Staff especially extend sympathy to their fellow worker in the irreparable loss he has sustained.

(Mr. and Mrs. Nowlin, years ago, resided in Berwick. Later they moved to Middleton and afterwards to Digby where for more than five years Mr. Nowlin was foreman of the Courier before accepting his present position at Truro. In all the towns in which Mrs. Nowlin resided, she was highly respected by a large circle of acquaintances who will regret to learn of her death. The MONITOR extends its deepest sympathy to the bereaved ones.)

The seventy-sixth annual session of the National Division, Sons of Temperance, of North America, will be held with Moncton division in July. A public meeting will be held on the opening evening. On the programme will be a civic welcome, and welcome by the Lieutenant-governor of New Brunswick.

THE FARMERS ORGANIZED

"Isaac" is an Up-to-date Boatman But no Farmer

(Digby Courier)

At a meeting of the farmers held on the Digby County Branch of the United Farmers of Canada, it was decided to organize a Digby branch of the Farmers of Nova Scotia and the organization was put through with the following officers:

President—W. W. DeLong, Annapolis. Vice-Pres. Almon J. Cornwall, Smith's Cove. Secy. Treas.—D. C. MacKay, of Annapolis. Directors: Israel Banks, Rossway; Goudey Nichols, Annapolis; W. W. Hayden, Digby; John Oliver, Plympton.

We understand that Isaac Pills, of Culloden, who was made a director at the meeting, positively declines to get and does not want his name to appear in that capacity.

Some men whose gasoline bills run $50 a month expect 50 cents worth of religion to run them a week.

FAREWELL TO POPULAR PASTOR

Rev. W. J. W. Swetnam Highly Esteemed in Granville.

Our Belleisle correspondent writes: With much regret the congregation of the Granville Methodist Church tendered a farewell to their much esteemed pastor and wife, Rev. and Mrs. W. J. W. Swetnam in Granville Hall Monday evening, May 3rd. A splendid programme, consisting of readings, speeches and music, under the direction of Mr. Richard Ray, choir master, was very much appreciated by all present. Mr. John W. Bent, one of our Mount Allison students, was present and gave some very interesting remarks. One of the most interesting features of the programme was a paper given by Mr. Harry G. Parker, steward of the church, in which he ably stated the regret expressed by this part of the circuit at the departure of our pastor and his wife and wished him God speed in their new field of labor. The hall was beautifully trimmed with hunting and cut flowers, conspicuous among the decorations being many lovely bouquets of mayflowers picked and donated by little Miss Evelyn Hubby.

We were highly favored by having present at the meeting our former and much esteemed pastor, Rev. Dr. Jost, and Mrs. Jost of Bridgetown, who are always very welcome in this part of the circuit. The Doctor, who well along in years, is remarkably well preserved and his splendid prayer will long be remembered by all. At the end of this part of the programme the ladies served ice cream and cake to the large number assembled. At a late hour the evening's entertainment closed by singing "God Will Take Care of You."

$4 Saved Two Fingers

The fingers were those of Mr. J. W. Bennett, of 539 Craig St. E., Montreal. He says, "A falling beam badly smashed my hand. Two fingers were so severely crushed that the doctors said they would have to be amputated. Naturally I didn't want this, so decided to try Zam-Buk first. I applied Zam-Buk daily, and by the time I had used $4 worth, the injury was completely healed. My fingers were saved!"

Use another illustration of the healing power of Zam-Buk. Accidents will happen. It may be your knee, as for cuts, burns, bruises, and all drugstore and store-bought ointments, or $ for $1.25. Refuse substitutes.

TIMING THE SUN

A subscriber writes as follows: When living in Yorkshire and farming on the Wolds, I always had some Scotch and Irish men as extra help in harvests. One of these men was very proud of his watch, a fine "old turnip". One morning early, about five o'clock we were discussing the time, when this old chap pulled out his watch and said (referring to the sun's rise over the top of a plantation) "If she's not o'er (over) them trees in three minutes, she's late!"

ANOTHER SQUEEZE

The editor of the Register, published at Neepawa, Manitoba, apparently was not satisfied with a load of wood he recently purchased, and he printed the following in his next issue: "The next time we buy a load of wood for $10 or $12 we are going to pay the man in pennies, and then he'll have a bigger load going home than he had coming in."

Later they removed to Seattle, Wash., where she was attending the Seattle Pacific College and would have graduated from the Grammar Class in June but was stricken with Scarlet Fever on March 4th passing away, after three weeks' illness, mourned and beloved by all who knew her, for with her sunny disposition and lovable manner she made friends where ever she went. LAND INSPECTOR GAINS 20 POUNDS

Every Joint and Muscle Ached Before He Took Tanlac—Spry as Boy Now

"Well, sir, you can believe it or not but I have gained twenty pounds in the past six weeks," said R. D. Hales, Land Inspector, 312 Silver St., Sturgeon's Creek, Manitoba, in a conversation with a Tanlac representative a few days ago.

"For years and years before I commenced taking Tanlac I had been in bad health and hardly saw a day that was free from pain and suffering," continued Mr. Hales. "My stomach was all out of order and what I ate would sour and settle into a lump in my chest and burn like a ball of fire. I had lumbago of the worst sort and if I stooped over and tried to straighten up again, the pains were so severe I just seemed to be wrenching every muscle in my back. I had rheumatism all through my arms, legs and feet and every joint in my body ached. My feet would swell so that I could hardly get my shoes on and my legs pained me until it was all I could do to walk. My joints would stiffen and hurt so bad it was agony if I tried to bend my arms and legs. I was subject to awful headache spells, I lost weight, and strength and in fact, I was in misery all day long, I hardly knew what a night's rest was for I would lie wide awake for hours with every joint and muscle aching no matter what position I lay in.

"Several of my friends had recommended Tanlac to me so highly that I commenced taking it and I could just feel my troubles leaving me and the pains easing up. And now since I have taken four bottles of Tanlac my stomach is in fine condition and I can eat anything set before me without suffering the least bit afterwards. I haven't a trace of rheumatism in my body, my feet never swell and my joints don't stiffen any more. The lumbago has disappeared entirely and I am so active that I feel as spry as a boy. The headaches have also left me and when I go to bed I sleep like a log till time to get up. My lost weight and strength have come to me and I am feeling better in every way than I have in many years. All praise is due to Tanlac and as long as I live I can never say too much for such a remarkable medicine."

Tanlac is sold in Bridgetown by S. N. Wear and in Middleton by Clifford A. Mumford and in Bear River by L. V. Harris.

THE GOOD OLD DAYS

(From The Haverhill Gazette.)

Today it is a poor egg that doesn't bring a nickel, and butter is worth 70 cents the pound. The old lumber looks back over the years. He sighs for the good old times. Eggs were 10 cents a dozen and butter 20 cents a pound.

But does he really want "the good times"? Let's see: In those days people had parlors and didn't use 'em. Now they have living rooms and wear 'em almost out. They lighted their homes with kerosene "hanging" lamps. Fellows took their girls out "buggy riding" and knew nothing about the joy of a fleet motor car. Men were paid a dollar a day on the section, and the other day laborers just a little above him, were paid ten dollars a week.

When a person had weak lungs they began to select a nice green spot in "marble orchard" for him, and if your appendix got tangled up they said you had inflammation of the bowels and they buried you deep. And women wore bustles and long gummy skirts and had limbs instead of legs. Houses were heated by stoves of one kind or another. And bath tubs and other toilet facilities there were none. Remember those cold winter nights with the ordinary lot 220 feet long.

Yes, those were NOT the good old days. Let 'em keep their ten cent eggs and their twenty cent butter. Living in 1920 is worth more than it did. THE COW ALSO EXPIRED (From The Lowell, Mass. Courier-Citizen)

Agent Francis J. O'Hare of the local board of health, has told me rather a humorous story concerning a man of this county who was notified that his license to keep a cow had expired. The official who informed him of the fact received the following letter a few days later: "Monsieur Bord of Helt—I just got your notice that my license to keep my cow has expired. I wish to inform you, Monsieur Bord of Helt, that my cow she beat you to it—she expire tree weeks ago. Much oblige. Yours with respect. "PETE"

WEDDING BELLS

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of George E. Banks, of Lansdowne, Tuesday morning, when their daughter Alberta, was united in marriage to Oscar Roberts, of Sea Brook, Digby Co. Rev. F. H. Bone, of Bear River, performed the ceremony. At the appointed hour the bride, dressed in a dainty gown of white entered the parlor on the arm of her father to the strain of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mrs. W. E. Miller, and took her place by the side of the groom under an arch of evergreen, mayflowers, and daffodils. A very dainty luncheon was served to upwards of fifty guests, after which the happy couple amid showers of confetti, were driven to Digby by auto where they took the east bound train for Halifax. Truss and other points along the line. The bride received many pretty and useful gifts including cut glass, silverware, linen and money. The organist was presented with a very pretty brooch. On their return they will reside at Sea Brook. Their many friends wish them a long and happy wedded life.

WORLD ASCENDANCY

Brandram's BB WHITE LEAD

THEY used it for the stage-coach of olden days in England—we use it in Canada today. Compare it with any other white lead or white paint, and you will decide that your house—or anything you wish to have truly white and remain white—must be painted with this brand which has survived as the leading white lead for nearly two centuries.

Thinned with linseed oil and turpentine, it makes a perfect white paint. Combined with coloring matter, it makes the satisfactory tinted paint of any shade. It is the basis for that finest of ready-mixed paint, B-H "English" Paint.

Made in a modern Canadian factory, and by the same process as was employed for its manufacture by its inventor in England, it is today the only survivor of all the patented white lead processes of that earlier generation. It has survived because it results in a white lead of exceptional fineness, whiteness and durability.

OUR PEOPLE AND THE AMERICANS

The Latter Love to Paint Their Buildings

(Maritime Merchant)

A gentleman connected with a well known educational institution in the Maritime Provinces, and who had formerly been a teacher in an American college, was recently asked what he thought was the main difference between our people and the Americans. The questioner was amazed at the answer he received. He had thought of fifteen or twenty things that it might be, but the one he got surprised him. "The American people love to paint their houses; the Canadian people apparently do not," this educationist said. And then he went on to say that in the small town in which he lived across the border for some five or six years, the average householder apparently thought quite as much about spending money for paint as he thought about spending money for clothes for himself and his family. "And I am prepared to say," said he, "that he gets as much comfort out of his paint money as he does of his clothes money; he takes just as much pride in seeing that his house, verandah and garden fence (if he has a fence) looked spic and span as he would get in seeing himself in a new spring overcoat and hat to match.

"But," said the questioner, "do you think all the residents were that way? Do you think that all the men in the place in which you lived who painted their houses were really bent on seeing them made attractive?" "Well, no," he replied, "perhaps it might be too much to say that, but perhaps it might also be too much to say that all men and women who buy new clothes buy them because they enjoy being well dressed. Sometimes they do so purely for the purpose of 'keeping up with the Joneses.' The man in the college town in which I lived, who would not paint his property, made himself conspicuous by his neglected appearance, and it was not long until he had the feeling that people were talking about him—saying, perhaps, that he was not a nice man to have on their street. At any rate, whatever the cause, all the people painted and as a result their town was a delight to the eye—a beautiful place in which to live.

The psychological effect of a place that is pleasing to the eye is to inspire a man with increased interest in the local affairs of his town and in a general way to make him a better citizen. Failure to admit is an expensive article. These days but it would need to be twice as dear before a town that wants to be all that town should be, could afford to ignore its use. Each citizen has an obligation to his own community in this connection.

WHY THE SWING OF THE PENDULUM

The New York Independent gives some striking pictorial representations of earnings in different occupations. It shows a bricklayer, who needs very little education, earning $60 a week, while a school teacher, after eight years of training, gets $20. It pictures a longshoreman, whose only qualification may be muscular, pulling down $80 weekly, while a fireman, who must pass a civil service examination and whose life is frequently in danger, receives $30. A waiter, where tips are plentiful may handle $65 to $100 in a week, but a chemist, after years of study as a prelude to a license, seldom gets over $40. A tailor, aided by a needle and a "union" has a weekly wage of $65 to $125 while a bank clerk with large responsibilities, is lucky who finds $30 in his weekly pay envelope. The comparison, of course, are all based on American standards of pay, but the difference between American and Canadian conditions in this respect is not great. Several lessons might be drawn from the facts given. But one very obvious lesson is this: There has been an almost universal desire to get into "genteel" occupations where hands need not be soiled nor backs bent, and the result is that these occupations are overcrowded, while laborious occupations are undermanned with the further result that the balance of financial rewards is swinging toward the latter.

THE OLD TIMES

An old resident of Antigonish recalls the fact that in 1878 he marketed a lamb in the town of Antigonish that weighed one hundred and five pounds. The price he secured was one dollar. In the following year he sold a five year old steer in the same town for fourteen dollars. A month ago his son sold a turkey in the local market for sixteen dollars—or two dollars more than his father obtained for the steer.

J. P. LANDRY.

WILL THIS SOLVE HOUSING PROBLEM

A new kind of brick so easily made that housebuilding may become almost a child's pastime, will be manufactured in England in large numbers after April.

These bricks, or blocks, are rectangular in shape and are nearly as large as five ordinary bricks, but in comparison with their size are much lighter and are easily handled. They are hollowed into two or three air layers.

The hollowing is to reduce the difference in temperature between the air and the wall, thus diminishing the danger of condensation and consequently damp in houses. "These blocks could be made in unlimited quantities in England," said Baron Ernest Barnekon, representing Messrs Lean & Co., of Stockholm, originators of the Lean System in which these bricks are employed.

Slag, clinkers, sand and brick dust, mixed with cement, make excellent material. We have portable blockmaking machines weighing 600 to 800 pounds, and they would enable three men, if they worked in three shifts, to build a small house in one day.

A bricklayer expert with the machine can build a Lean wall of 450 bricks, equal to 2000 bricks, in eight hours. The manufacture of the blocks is simple, and an unskilled man can soon learn. Our process is being used in the devastated areas of France. One block would be cheaper than five ordinary bricks.—London Daily News.

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep.
