O'BRIEN OF GANANOQUE

WINS WARD MARATHON

There Were 55 Starters and 49 Finished—Events on the Track—Prizes Presented.

The sixth annual Ward Marathon was held on Saturday in cold weather and over a heavy track. There were 55 starters, and all but seven of them finished.

Despite the raw afternoon over five thousand people sat in the grand stands all afternoon, and fully ten thousand more were around the horse ring looking at the events. Thousands were lined all along the road out to Loon's to see the sixty sturdy athletes run over the heavy roads. All the track races were keenly contested, and the automobile races were a decided hit.

A feature of the afternoon was the march of the three hundred Boy Scouts and the four hundred Girl Scouts, headed by the 48th Highlanders' Band. The band, led by Robert O'Brien of Gananoque, who took away the beautiful Ward Trophy and a gold watch, with a rich historical name, finished second, while two hundred and fifty of the Scouts and four hundred of the Girls followed. Dan Sheridan, the Vermont plodder, was fifth, and the 48th Highlanders' Band, led by Robert O'Brien of Gananoque,

World's Trotting

Record at Columbus

COLUMBUS, Sept. 30.—In the final afternoon of the Columbus Driving Association to-day, a new world's trotting record for four heats in a race was made in the 2:59 trotting stakes.

The first heat was won handily by Grace in 2:59. In the second and third heats Sopranos and the driver, out in front like a team and came down the stretch abreast, the mare beating the horse to the wire by a short lead in the second heat and stalling off a rush by Don Labor as the wire in the third.

The first heat Sopranos won by five lengths. The time for the race—2:59.24, 2:59.4 and 3:04—constitutes a new world's record for four trotting heats in a race, and the fourth heat was the fastest fourth heat ever trotted. The horse and driver collided in scoring in the 2:17 pass and both sulks were emptied. Bombardier, the driver of Sopranos, was thrown to the track, but escaped unhurt. Summary:

2:14 trot, three in five, purse $100: Sopranos, b.h. (Loomis) 2 3 2 2; Demosore, b.h. (Loomis) 3 4 2 2; Caedonede, b.h. (Chandler) 4 5 3 2; Dickie Craig, William L. Snyder, McKelvie, b.h. (Loomis) 5 6 4 2.

Time—2:17.4, 2:59.4, 2:59.4, 2:59.4. 2:08 trotting stakes, three in five, purse $100: Sopranos, ch.m., by Bellini (Andrews) 1 1 1 1; Fred S. (McDevitt) 2 2 2 2; Willy, b.h. (Pennoch) 3 3 2 2; Don Labor, hgr. (Kinlaid) 4 4 2 2.

All times—2:08.4, 2:59.4, 2:59.4, 2:59.4. All pace, five-hundred race, purse $100: White, b.h., by Aekwood (Parry) 1 1 1 1; Willy, b.h. (McDevitt) 2 2 2 2; Fred Patchen, h.g. (Adams) 3 3 1 1; Fred S. (McDevitt) 4 4 2 2.

W. G. McClelland and J. J. Clarke make a splendid team as clerks of course, and most Merck of the U. of Canada made a splendid referee.

Mayor Geary was on hand for the big race.

Tom Flanagan won six hats on O'Brien. He landed one on Controller Ward, which pleased him more than all the others.

Controller Church, Ald. Sweeney, Ald. McClelland, Ald. McClelland, Ald. May and Ald. Dunn, were on the grounds.

Rev. J. D. Morrow, the grand chaplain of the Marathon, took a couple of miles around the track on a motor-cycle.

Bob Falconer, president C. W. A., performed the starting with a toy cannon.

Harry Babb, the secretary, was the smoothest man on the grounds.

Murdoch Macdonald represented the old guard.

Captain Tom Ward, St. Armstrong, Walter Macdonald, Ald. McClelland, Ald. May and Ald. Dunn, were on the grounds.

The march past was an inspiring sight. All the athletes were examined before the race by Dr. Eadie, Eylesworth, McConnell and Smith.

Controller Ward said on Saturday night that over five hundred runners had taken part in the Marathon, and that the race had collapsed as a result of the long run.

Says Tom Flanagan, "O'Brien's 'White' was a good winner, as the case might be, but that they were good appetites."

Chairman James L. Higgins referred to the great stimulus to amateur athletics, and proposed the health of J. J. Ward, whom he said had been in the hospital for some time, to be the subject of a fund to be raised to help him.

Ward, President Merck of the C.A.A.U., said that the prizes awarded by J. J. Ward, were a fine example of the generosity of the people of Columbus.

Favorites Win Races on Closing Day

Note and Comment

The closing was indeed a gala day at Woodbine Park. Everything favored the sport. The government's party were joining their final visit to Toronto and the attendance of members was in consequence up to the limit. The weather was somewhat frigid, but with the suppleative car nothing could cool the ardor of the lovers of the horse.

The races were all, except the first mile or more, the firmest, especially in the two over the longest distance, the autumn meeting at Woodbine Park. The attendance was best of the seven days. The fields were smaller, ranging from four each in the steeplechase and the closing race to seven in the Durham Cup. Four of the seven events were stakes, and the distance in only one of the races was less than a mile. In the Durham Cup the field was asked to go a mile and three-quarters, in the Ontario Jockey Club Cup they went two miles and a quarter, and in the Hendrie Memorial Challenge Cup three miles.

Despite the muddy track, splendid contests were in order, and a majority of the finishes were close enough to arouse great enthusiasm. Four favorites two well-backed second choices and a third choice were the winners.

Mr. Chetland's Prince Hampton beat Bello out a neck in the Canadian bred cup chase, while Sotemia led to be hard-headed through the home stretch to win the two-mile-and-a-quarter race by a length and a half from My Gal.

The Valley Farm Stable sent three to the post in the Durham Cup, and the first made a runaway victory of it, beating the other two out in three lengths. Commonly the other one of the entries was only being a head for third place.

The Ontario Jockey Club Cup closed on Aug. 21, with 23 entries and of these only six elected to try the issue on Saturday and the track was busy the time was good and was not the slowest for the race by any means. The following is the record.

With the 5-0 defeat of Tecumseh by Vancouver, went practically all hopes of the Indians winning back the Mitre Cup. According to dispatches from the seat of the contest, the speed of the defender's riders was a factor in the victory, aided by a home that were at times ready and willing to bore in. The Vancouver defence did appear to have solved the manner in which the scoring ends of the Indians can be stopped. It is thought that they have the story of the game. They play again next Saturday.

The Rugby season opened on Saturday, with several exhibition games. In ideal football weather. That a good season's sport is ahead was evidenced by the line team displayed by the two big teams, Argonauts and Varsity. The Argonauts, especially in their kicking, running and line work, were in fine fettle, and were a nice score on Queens in Kingston, while Varsity, against the strong team of ex-students, were only beaten by a narrow margin. No one need be surprised to see Argos and Varsity play the final this year for the Canadian championship.

The Giants are almost elected for the world's baseball championship series by their victories in Chicago Saturday and Sunday. Great interest is centred in these struggles, annually, and New York's Philadelphia was no exception to the rule. Many will prefer for the Giants, but it is their performance a year ago, when they overwhelped Chicago, and the fact that they are stronger now, will make Connie Mack's men the favorites.

Olympic Club Bouts

Matt Wells, lightweight champion of England, who recently defeated Knockout Brown of New York at the Madison-square Garden, and who is to be the next opponent of Ad Wolgast for the lightweight championship of the world, left New York last week with his manager, Geo. McDonald, and will arrive in Toronto this morning at ten o'clock. It is his intention to do his training here, but with Fighting Bill Donovan of Passaic, N.J., before the Olympic Athletic Club members at the Agnes St. Theatre, next Thursday night. Manager Ryan of the O. A. C. is putting on three of the best preliminary ever seen in Toronto. All members and those wishing to become members may secure reserved seats at once, as the theatre is not large. The reserve plan will open on Tuesday morning at the office of the Toronto Bowling Club, 11 Temperance street, Phone Main 184.

Favorites First GET-AWAY AT WOODBINE

Sotemia Beat My Gal For Ontario Jockey Club Cup by One and One-Half Lengths.

Never was a better day's racing given on any track than that on the closing program of the Ontario Jockey Club autumn meeting at Woodbine Park. The attendance was best of the seven days. The fields were smaller, ranging from four each in the steeplechase and the closing race to seven in the Durham Cup. Four of the seven events were stakes, and the distance in only one of the races was less than a mile. In the Durham Cup the field was asked to go a mile and three-quarters, in the Ontario Jockey Club Cup they went two miles and a quarter, and in the Hendrie Memorial Challenge Cup three miles.

Despite the muddy track, splendid contests were in order, and a majority of the finishes were close enough to arouse great enthusiasm. Four favorites two well-backed second choices and a third choice were the winners.

Mr. Chetland's Prince Hampton beat Bello out a neck in the Canadian bred cup chase, while Sotemia led to be hard-headed through the home stretch to win the two-mile-and-a-quarter race by a length and a half from My Gal.

The Valley Farm Stable sent three to the post in the Durham Cup, and the first made a runaway victory of it, beating the other two out in three lengths. Commonly the other one of the entries was only being a head for third place.

The Ontario Jockey Club Cup closed on Aug. 21, with 23 entries and of these only six elected to try the issue on Saturday and the track was busy the time was good and was not the slowest for the race by any means. The following is the record.

OTTAWA STICKS TO BIG FOUR

OTTAWA, Oct. 1.—Because of the disappearance of the friction that existed in the Ottawa Football Club between the team and the executive, the club has decided to stick to the four big teams, the Argonauts, Varsity, P. E. Hardy and the Ontario Jockey Club.

It is thought that the local fans will understand his recent actions rightly. Dr. Baird wishes it known that he acted purely in the interest of the club, and that he is not to be held responsible for the results of the season. He is not to be held responsible for the results of the season. He is not to be held responsible for the results of the season.

Dorothy Campbell to Quit Hamilton

OTTAWA, Oct. 1.—It is now said that Miss Dorothy Campbell, the most prominent lady golfer in the world, will leave Canada shortly and take up her residence in either Philadelphia or New York. She is a big fellow and it might be a good idea to let him try his hand at punting. First, the light in weight, nevertheless runs well, while little was seen of Ramsay, who was used mostly in the line.

MUST PROBE INTO G.T.P.

Bourassa and Lieutenants Say it is Borden's First Duty. MONTREAL, Oct. 1.—(Special.)—Mr. Bourassa and his group are calling loudly for an investigation into the construction of the Transcontinental Railway. It must be complete says Le Devor, adding: It is absolutely necessary, and this investigation is the most important which at the present time imposes itself on the government. If the Laurier government has declined during these days to make this investigation, the Borden administration must get to work at the start. The vote must be raised for behind the road with the public money. No one has the right to oppose this investigation, which must be carried on with the same precaution, yet investigation there must be, at the present, and future members of the commission are equally interested. The new government does not wish to be held responsible equally with the old regime, so let there be an enquiry.

Vancouver 5 Tecumseh 0

Indians Failed to Score, While Westerners Notched Five—Lalonde Featured.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 1.—Vancouver of the Tecumseh Saturday afternoon in the first game of the Mitre Cup series by a score of 5 to 0. It was an easy victory for the Vancouver team, who were again, when the cup was taken from Vancouver. The challenges were outplayed all along the line, and quite a few sets were made at half-time, with the score in Vancouver's favor, that Tecumseh would not score. The game was a comparison with the series with the Salmon Bellies, as their style of play and that of the Tecumseh were essentially different.

The crowd of nine thousand people enjoyed the game as they might have watched a tennis match. The first ten minutes of play settled the result for in that time the champions took the visitors' measure. H. Cheyne of New Westminster did excellent work as referee. Play was clean; neither could it be described as brilliant, though. Members of both teams offended about equally. The first quarter was the hottest. In the last half the Tecumseh defence was very tight. From that point of view it was clever and scientific defence. In the second quarter the Vancouver team was away, and Lalonde sent in a shot from close range which was blocked. The Tecumseh defence attacked for the first time, but after following and fooling around outside the green shirt defence, which was in the ball. It travelled straight to the other end, where it was blocked. Vancouver scored, however, and the Vancouver home again attacked. Tecumseh's defence was very tight, and left the body almost entirely alone. The Vancouver defence was away again, but they were not so successful. Lalonde picked out a high pass over the net and started the Vancouver defenders on their way. The Tecumseh defence was very tight, and Lalonde took a pass in front and scored in 4:05.

Tecumseh secured the ball on the draw and dashed right in, but Clarke stopped it from Durkin and Pickering relieved. At the other end, however, and the Vancouver home again attacked. Tecumseh's defence was very tight, and left the body almost entirely alone. The Vancouver defence was away again, but they were not so successful. Lalonde picked out a high pass over the net and started the Vancouver defenders on their way. The Tecumseh defence was very tight, and Lalonde took a pass in front and scored in 4:05.

Tecumseh broke away, but their passing was bad. Clarke tried to long shoot which Godfrey stood away from. Pickering blocked. The Tecumseh defence was very tight, and left the body almost entirely alone. The Vancouver defence was away again, but they were not so successful. Dam Bursts, 300 Lives Are Lost Water and Fire Sweep Austin, Pa.

would-be-plunderers. In several cases the guardians had hand-to-hand conflicts with the marauders, in which the latter were worsted.

The survivors of the flood had not recovered from the horror of the scene this morning and for many hours more but strangers visited the ruins. As day progressed small knots of survivors met and visited the site of the ruined town. Many striking incidents of the flood and escapes were recounted.

Lena the Heroine. Credit for the quick spreading of the alarm was given to Lena Blakely, a telephone operator. Upon receiving the message from the Cliff House that the dam had broken, she pushed the alarm button connecting with the department and an engineer's office of the Goodyear Lumber Mill below the town.

The engineer tied his whistle down and fled in the town was sounded continuously. She then rushed to the street screaming the warning cry: "The dam has broken. Turn and run for your life. Turn and run for your life."

"From where I stood," she said to-day, "the wall of water seemed fifty feet high. Above it rose a great wall of fire in which houses seemed to spin, bumping against one another, splashing and turning as they fell like toys or were swept by the wind. The noise was appalling."

"When I fled from Main-street there were scores of people behind me, many of them children. I saw a woman and her child being swept away by the flood. The water was green with mud and the houses were buried under the water."

"Some turned into stores as if to make a casual purchase. While I was looking upon them, utterly helpless to give further warning, the flood hid them from my vision and I escaped the danger of being swept away."

"It is possible that the figure will cover the loss," he said, "and it is possible that there will not be more than 100 dead."

The burials and the Rev. P. W. O'Brien, pastor of St. Augustine's Roman Catholic Church at Austin for many years, who is familiar with business conditions and values, estimated that the loss to the town was $1,000,000.

Many Lost Were Children. One of the striking and pathetic features of the day's tragedy was the loss of many children. The Rev. P. W. O'Brien, pastor of St. Augustine's Roman Catholic Church at Austin for many years, who is familiar with business conditions and values, estimated that the loss to the town was $1,000,000.

O'Brien, pastor of St. Augustine's Roman Catholic Church at Austin for many years, who is familiar with business conditions and values, estimated that the loss to the town was $1,000,000.

In a driving rain which later changed to a storm of hail, hundreds of volunteers carried on the work of rescue to-day, while many hysterical from the fate that had overcome friends and relatives viewed the muddy corpses, anxious and fearful to know if any among them were loved ones. Fires were still burning briskly in some portions of the wreckage this afternoon, although they had been under control for several hours.

Made a Way to Rescue. The Buffalo and Susquehanna Railroad found a way into Austin over the Klatsop-Sammamish track which followed the hill. By this route they landed several fire companies from nearby towns. Not a merchant's business place is intact. A few cheaply constructed wooden houses occupied by foreigners and located on the hillside are all that remain of the residence portion. A fortunate exception to the general destruction is the fact that the little hotel on the hillside, The school building was also saved.

Chief of Police Baker of Austin, one of the survivors, with a number of constables from nearby towns, maintained as good order as could be expected throughout the day. The state constabulary at 11 o'clock this morning there were eighty mounted men.

Wife and Children Drowned. One of the most pathetic in the long list of tragedies is the case of James Leeman, a night worker, who was asleep at his home and did not hear the alarm. When the rush of water swamped his little home he was tossed out on a pile of floating debris and a half below the village. Wounded and bruised, he made his way back, only to find that his wife and four children had perished in the water. Leeman went violently insane. His ravings were pitiful. Several men were required to hold him.

W. D. Robinson, another night worker, watchman at the Bayless Mills, was asleep on the third story of the Starkweather Building when aroused by the roar of the flood. He stepped out on a balcony commanding a view of the rushing waters.

"Houses were tossed about like corkers," he said, "I was transfixed with horror, unable to make a move to save myself. The water was rushing toward me and then collapsed. I fell two stories with the building and found myself protected by a bridge which had formed by the flood. I was able to get away and I am mighty glad to be here to tell about it. I have three little kiddies in Erie. Thank God they were not here. Robinson was badly injured."

Frank Robinson, a one-armed stenographer, was also on the third story of the Starkweather Building when the flood came. He said he heard the whistle, but paid no attention to it, and the first thing he knew was the whole building fairly lurched across the street. He was hurled thru a window and landed on top of some debris, on which he floated to safety.

Thomas Lawler, a bartender at the Commercial Hotel, says he owes his life to his attempt to save his baby. He held his story to-day as the legs broken. "I was playing with my eight-month-old daughter. My wife and little boy were downstairs. I was on the roof of the house and I was holding the baby in my arms. I was holding the baby in my arms. I was holding the baby in my arms."

Joseph McKinney, an employe of the Bayless Mill, struggled to get over the board fence topped with barbed wire, which proved a death-trap. He had his little child in his hands. Unable to get over it himself, McKinney threw his child over the fence to safety and met down in the water. A score of survivors who saw this act have pledged themselves to bring up the child.

Six persons are known to have been killed in the main building of the Bayless plant and surviving employes said that 25 other lives may have been saved by the rescue.

Two survivors were established during the afternoon, one in the high school building, and is for the reception of all bodies taken from the east side of the valley. The other is in the Klatsop-Sammamish building, which was taken from the wreckage on the west side of the town.

former Representative W. K. Sweetland of Coudersport as chairman. John F. Stone was given entire charge of distribution of provisions and clothing. The state officials soon found that the local authorities were entirely able to cope with the situation. After outlining the work they will return late to-night. The state will probably send 200 men to continue the recovery of bodies to-morrow.

Luther D. Stone, aided by the authorities, has begun a census of the living and dead, and is interviewing every man he can find. As many of the survivors are foreigners, he is having hard work to be understood. He hopes to complete his census by to-morrow.

He was hurled thru a window and landed on top of some debris, on which he floated to safety.

Thomas Lawler, a bartender at the Commercial Hotel, says he owes his life to his attempt to save his baby. He held his story to-day as the legs broken. "I was playing with my eight-month-old daughter. My wife and little boy were downstairs. I was on the roof of the house and I was holding the baby in my arms. I was holding the baby in my arms."

Joseph McKinney, an employe of the Bayless Mill, struggled to get over the board fence topped with barbed wire, which proved a death-trap. He had his little child in his hands. Unable to get over it himself, McKinney threw his child over the fence to safety and met down in the water. A score of survivors who saw this act have pledged themselves to bring up the child.

Six persons are known to have been killed in the main building of the Bayless plant and surviving employes said that 25 other lives may have been saved by the rescue.

lost there. Even as late as to-day two persons were rescued alive from the ruins of the mill. One is an infant, a few months old, which was cooling and crying alternately when rescuers came upon it, wrapped in blankets. The young son of Mrs. Thomas Reese was sitting on her doorstep on high ground when the flood came. His mother had just darted out to the door when she saw her boy swept into the water. The frantic mother plunged in to save him when a big Hungarian pulled her out on the bank. Infuriated with rage and fear and steeled with the hope that she might save her boy, she turned back to the flood and struggled so fiercely that both her arms broke before she could be restrained. Her boy was drowned.

Gave Life For Another. Mrs. May Gallup was helped over the barbed wire fence where a number of persons met death, by an unknown woman, who sacrificed her life that another might be saved. "You go," she said to Mrs. Gallup, "you have a baby in your arms."

A train of cars loaded with coal and weighing hundreds of tons was carried two hundred yards from the tracks. Two of the cars stood up-ended, forming an inverted T-shape, the top of which was about a ton of hay, high and dry.

The 500 men who had toiled all day in a heavy rainstorm carried their loads of provisions and clothing. Although they had moved mighty heaps of debris, fought fire and worked on the deep, less than a score had been found. A battalion of state police then surrounded the town and arrested the men who had been arrested.

E. F. Bicknell, a director of the National Red Cross Society, arrived today with $10,000 in cash for immediate relief in adding the victims. None of the eight persons in the hospital are fatally injured.

The opinion is general that the town will be rebuilt. Two, at least, of the large plants will not be reconstructed, and the business men of the city have been financially ruined, to which the loss of the town has added. The homeless have all found shelter on the outskirts of Austin in houses that were abandoned when the Goodyear mill was destroyed. Loads of provisions are arriving and there will be no suffering from hunger.

It seems almost certain that the reported destruction of the Turkish fleet is untrue. In fact, the only result of the first three days' hostilities which can be vouched for, is the destruction of the Turkish fleet. The Turkish council again appeal to the Government, and there is little to indicate that the attitude of the powers has undergone any change.

Out of a perfect maze of conflicting rumors and reports, it is utterly impossible at the present stage to sift the grains of truth concerning the opening days of the Turco-Italian war. It appears even doubtful whether there has been any actual occupation of Tripoli, and it is practically certain that there has been no bombardment by the Italian warships.

Turks Agree

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 1.—An official announcement is made that the Turkish squadron returned from Beirut without loss.

It is officially confirmed that the Italian squadron has bombarded Prevesa, but the landing of Italian forces there is denied. It is announced that the two Italian warships yesterday bombarded the port of Resandieh, and torpedoes were launched and landed its crew. The Italian ships entered the port and shelled the town, several houses being struck. After taking soundings they left and later entered Port Mousa, taking the entrance of the port and three bottom prisoners.

The forts have notified the powers of the occupation of the lighthouse services in the Red Sea, the Mediterranean, the Danubian, the Aegean and the Black. The Italian women in the government factories have been dismissed. The Italians employed on the construction of railways in Asia Minor are abandoning work and leaving the country.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 30.—It was officially announced late to-day that Italian warships in the construction of two Italian torpedo boats of the Port of Durazzo on the west coast of Albania.

British Interests. MALTA, Oct. 1.—The British battleships Dunedin, Cornwallis, Russell, Triumph and Swiftsure, and the cruisers Bacchante, Aboukir and Lancaster arrived here to-day.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—The British government has advised Admiral H. B. S. and six other officers serving with the Turkish fleet, but some anxiety in the Turkish fleet, and some anxiety in the Turkish fleet, and some anxiety in the Turkish fleet.

Albania Neutral. PARIS, Sept. 30.—Ismail Kemal, Albanian minister of foreign affairs, has issued a telegram to the Turkish government, in which he has declared that the Albanians have taken possession, and that the Italian fleet is in Tripoli. Most of the London papers have obtained copies of the telegram, but the Italian correspondents on the scene, while their own representatives are en route.

Italy's Peaceable. CHIASSO, Oct. 1.—In a circular note sent by the government to the Italian ambassador in Ottoman territory, instructions were given to urge Italian subjects to have no relations with a foreign power in connection with the war. Some of the consuls have answered that they only are making an admirable attitude, notwithstanding such incidents as have occurred at Saloniki and in Syria.

Ten Thousand From Canada. MONTREAL, Sept. 30.—C. Marconi, acting general consul in Montreal for Italy, stated this afternoon that if the war situation in Italy should become serious, at least 10,000 Italians in Canada would be ready to fight the Turks. There are also in the Dominion, and in his opinion the ablest men would all stand and help Italy in the fight for Tripoli.

ROME, Oct. 1.—A semi-official note announces that the statement by the Italian forces landed at Prevesa is absolutely false. The nature of the rumor, says the note, is obvious from the address addressed on Sept. 28 to the Balkan states, which declared that the territorial status quo and consolidation of European Turkey, remained the basis of Italian policy. Consequently all reports of the landing of Italians in Europe that may be circulated are self-evidently untrue. Previous to this note, it is however, a base of operations for Turkish torpedo boats against the coasts and commerce of Italy.

Market Ignores the War News And Wheat Values Decline Highly Important

Outbreak of Hostilities in the Mediterranean Overworked as Bull Factor—Market Sags Under Profit-Taking.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—Despite firmer cables from abroad and the stimulating effect of the outbreak of hostilities between Italy and Turkey, prices for wheat gradually sagged to-day under a profit-taking movement, and closed lower than last night, losses ranging from 1/4c to 3/4c.

The early market was comparatively firm, and at one period quotations showed a small advance over the previous day's close, but the strength soon waned and during most of the session the market lagged, with prices about steady, with yesterday. It was changed to the bearish factor that actual weakness developed, but this, when it came, brought values down in short order.

The profit-taking in the international market on the part of the international market in the Mediterranean would be of short duration, and also that it would have but little effect on the international market situation. It is, of course, remotely possible that other countries may be involved, but this contingency is not being taken into account at this time, despite somewhat alarming cables from abroad.

Traders voiced the opinion that there was little likelihood of the Dardanelles being closed as a result of a blockade, and consequently little danger of the Black Sea shipments being held back. It was also pointed out that Italy has a great deal more wheat than she needs, and that Turkey exports but a small quantity. It was pointed out that the wheat market was overworked, and that the market was overworked, and that the market was overworked.

The Sept. option opened unchanged at 95 1/2, and later advanced to 96 1/2, with the close at that figure. Dec. which dropped half a point from last night, at 95 1/2, and May, which was about a like extent. Corn showed a better trend than wheat, and the distant futures scored a further advance on predictions of unfavorable weather, and reports of a stronger demand. Oats were 1/2c to 3/4c lower, provisions, with exception of lard, were about lower under profit-taking.

Northwest Receipts. Receipts of wheat in cars at primary centers were as follows: Week Year Chicago 48,249 210,419 Duluth 24,810 210,210 Minneapolis 82,445 881,718

European Grain Markets. Liverpool market closed 1/4c to 1/2c higher on wheat and 1/4c higher on corn. Antwerp closed 1/2c to 3/4c higher on wheat and 1/4c higher on corn. Paris 1/4c to 1/2c higher.

Winnipeg Inspection. Receipts of wheat to-day graded as follows: No. 3 northern, 17,770; No. 4 northern, 20,100; No. 2 northern, 17,770; No. 1 northern, 17,770; No. 1 Oats, 17,770; No. 2 Oats, 17,770.

Primaries. Wheat—No. 3, 1,100,000; No. 4, 1,100,000; No. 2, 1,100,000; No. 1, 1,100,000. Shipments—No. 3, 1,100,000; No. 4, 1,100,000; No. 2, 1,100,000; No. 1, 1,100,000.

Oklahoma Corn Conditions. Oklahoma October corn prospect compared to fall crop is 25 per cent. better condition, 20 per cent. last October, 62 per cent. Condition of fall planting fair.

Men's Overcoats and Raincoats

Nearly every morning we wake up to a cooler day than yesterday, and although it is hardly time for a fire in the furnace, it is quite time for that new Fall Overcoat.

$15.00 is not a big sum to expend on an overcoat, but our coat at that price cannot be found fault with by the most careful dresser. Every detail in designing and making has been watched, and the result is THE BEST COAT TO BE BOUGHT FOR THE MONEY. Materials are superior English tweed and black and grey chevots. Sizes 34 to 44. Tuesday... 15.00

Waterproofs, made from a fawn double texture English paramatta; some have raglan shoulders, single breasted and button to neck; every garment guaranteed waterproof, sizes 36 to 46. Tuesday... 10.50

The cooler weather calls for a heavier weight suit, and this is the very one to fill the bill. It is the newest thing for a boy's fall suit, made of heavy imported Scotch tweed, shade is medium brown, with black and tan stripe; pants are bloomer style; tailoring and trimmings are everything that could be desired. A suit of all-round good qualities. Sizes 26 to 32. Tuesday... 8.50

Warm Winter Underwear for Men, 89c

Natural Wool Underwear, guaranteed unshrinkable, double breasts fasten on shoulder, close fitting cuffs and ankles. All sizes. Tuesday, a garment... 89c

English Flannelette Night Robes, large in the body and extra long. Also some heavy twill cotton ones. Sizes 17 to 19. Reg. 75c and $1.00. Tuesday... 59c

Women's and Boys' English Wool Worsted Stockings, heavy weight elastic rib, double in responsible parts, 6 to 10. Regularly priced at 25c a pair. Tuesday 3 pairs for... 69c

Men's Fancy Socks, all wool cashmere, fall weight, in the newest effects. 50c on most occasions. Tuesday, pair... 29c

TO-DAY'S Great Buying Opportunities

$20.00 Paris Corsets for $2.50. Woman's New Fall Coat, worth $14.75, for $9.95. For Men—Blue Worsted Suit, worth $13.50, for $8.90. Colored Dress Silks. Regularly 75c for 59c per yard. A Big Graniteware Sale in the Basement. $3.75 Satin Damask Tablecloths for $2.47. Silver-Mounted Salt and Pepper Castors, 49c per pair.

Would You Brush a Skirt for 55c?

There has been a railway accident, but no lives lost. A case of petticoats travelled under a case of powdered gold dust paint, and some of the dust worked down among the petticoats. You may brush this out and get well paid for so doing. Fifty-five cents is not bad money for brushing a petticoat—that is what you save.

There are seventy-five Knit Top Petticoats, in black only, elastic waist band, 12-inch knife-pleated flounce of light weight "Egyptine," trimmed with rows of stitching, strapping and narrow dust frill; lengths 36 to 42. Regular $1.50. Tuesday, on account of the dust... 95c

Long Kimono Gowns, of fine cotton crepe, plain colors, navy, cardinal, grey, Copenhagen and black; empire back, roll collar and turned-back cuffs of fine mesaline silk; sizes 36 to 44. Regular $3.00. Tuesday... 1.95

Fashionable Velvet Coats and Dresses

Velvet is most fashionable this year, and what could be handsomer?

Nothing can convey the comfortable feeling that comes to the well dressed, more easily and entirely, than a good velvet gown. Its rich appearance and wonderful wearing capacity ensure satisfaction to the owner, and the prices at which the wonderful coats and gowns are selling in the department of women's ready-to-wear clothes at the Simpson store should enhance the pleasure to the wearer of velvet this season.

One very handsome coat is made of a superior quality of mantle plush on rather close fitting lines. The semi-fitted back, with vents on the side, is very striking, and a large square collar ornamented with small braid buttons, and the satin lining, gives it a very rich and dressy appearance. It is a wonderful coat for... 19.75

A very stylish dress of soft imported chiffon velvet in black only, is beautifully trimmed with fringe and cord; the dainty yoke of fine black silk net is very chic, and altogether it's a very smart dress at... 29.50

Another attractive dress of fine soft velvet, which conveys the impression of quiet elegance, is daintily trimmed with black satin. The slender shoulder is accentuated by the kimono sleeve, which is made on good lines and cut to prevent that objectionable drag so often experienced in this style of sleeve. White lace on cuffs and neck give a nice effect to the whole dress. Price... 22.00
