CHAIRMAN STRICKEN WITH APPENDICITIS

Was Taken Ill After Sitting of Railway Board and Removed to St. Michael's Hospital—Condition Not Critical, and Uncertain Whether an Operation is Necessary.

Hon. J. P. Mabee, chairman of the Dominion Railway Board, is ill in St. Michael's Hospital with appendicitis. Mr. Mabee was taken ill after the sitting of the board yesterday, and his physician, Dr. J. E. Elliott, was summoned. He was immediately removed to the hospital and his physician reports that he will be unable to sit on the board for some time. It is understood that his condition is not critical, and it is uncertain as to whether an operation will be necessary.

A. M'GINNIS IS MISSING

Albert McGinnis, living with his father at 42 Symington-avenue, left his home at 7 o'clock Sunday night and had not returned or been heard of up till 2 o'clock this morning. McGinnis is 21 years of age, and is said to be a young man of steady habits. He had worked for a week for a laundry in River-street, with whom he had put up a deposit of $25, but had not turned up yesterday morning. He is about 5 feet 9 inches tall, dark and clean shaven. He wore a low black Christy hat, a black suit with a light-colored winter overcoat. His shoes were black patent leather, buttoned.

CROOKS BOSS OF PRESIDENT

PITTSFIELD, Mass., April 29.—(Can. Press.)—"If you vote for Mr. Taft you vote for these men," said Col. Roosevelt here to-night after referring to Senators Lorimer, Burrage, Gallagher and Guggenheim. He declared that the president had practically nothing in his pockets but the pockets of these men, and that their like and the kind of things they do, are the kind of things that stand behind these houses.

Col. Roosevelt devoted a large part of his speech to a reply to the things said here by the other side of the state. At intervals on his journey across the state the colonel received telegraphic reports of the president's speeches, and in the latter part of the day he entered upon a personal debate by referring to Mr. Taft's statements.

ADVERSE CLOUDS GATHER OVER GIBSON

Additional Evidence Given at Rosenthal Inquest by Which Prisoner is Positively Identified as the Man Who Had Sought Rosenthal During the Days Preceding the Murder.

The clouds of adverse evidence gathered even more closely over the head of Chas. Gibson, the young man charged with the murder of Joseph Rosenthal at the inquest, continued at the morgue last night. He was positively and dramatically identified as the man "Smith" who had so urgently sought the dead man during the days immediately preceding the murder. His stepmother and young brother flatly contradicted each other in their testimony as to a shirt which another witness swore was one left at his home by Gibson on the morning after the murder, and a witness again told of his arrival at home on the night of the murder with his boots and the bottom of his trouser leg covered with mud.

SAYS CHAIRMAN SOUGHT BRIBE OF $500

Serious Charges Brought Against Wm. Patterson and Inspector Asquith at License Investigation in Goderich by Michael Farr, Hotelman—Story of Alleged Negotiation.

GODERICH, April 29.—(Special.)—That William Patterson, chairman of the Centre Huron License Board, offered to guarantee, if given $500, that the license of the Union Hotel, conducted by Michael Farr, would not be cut off when the prescribed reduction of licenses was carried out, was the accusation made by Farr at to-day's opening sitting of the court of enquiry, presided over by Eudo Saunders.

L. E. Daney, counsel for Patterson, attempted to get an adjournment until tomorrow morning, as he had not seen the declaration made by Farr to the provincial license department, but the commissioner said that he intended proceeding.

NOT AN ANSWER FROM PREMIER

Document Sent to Trades and Labor Congress Was a Report Mailed by Mistake.

Asked if he had anything to say in regard to an Ottawa despatch in yesterday's newspapers purporting to give the reply of the government to the requests made some time ago by the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, Sir James Whitney made the following statement: "The document quoted as being my answer to the requests of the labor men was not an answer from me. It was a report on the different requests made at my request by an official of the government, and was sent by mistake to the secretary of the Trades and Labor Congress. It is not, perhaps, a matter of great importance, but as it has been noticed by the press, it is only fair that the matter be set right."

AN UNAPPRECIATED WREATH

DR. MACDONALD: I'm sorry about that, Joseph. We particularly requested "No flowers."

FARMER SHOT AND KILLED ON ROAD

RIFLE THAT HE CARRIED IS MISSING

LINDSAY, April 29.—(Special.)—Discovery of the body of Louis Porter, lying concealed in dense bushes beside the road, six miles from Minden, about 22 miles from here, on Sunday morning, has brought to light clear evidence of a cold-blooded murder.

COMMENCEMENT AT TRINITY

Seventeen Men Go Out for Ordination This Year, One to the Foreign Field.

Trinity College held the annual commencement of the divinity class work in the library last night, the opening exercises being conducted by the vicar-provost.

THUNDEROUS APPLAUSE

No gentle reader, that loud rumbling sound which could be heard for blocks last night was not caused by distant thunder, but was simply the applause and laughter of the audience at the Princess Theatre, who enjoyed "Get Rich Quick Wallingford," as they had no other play in years. For three hours the matinee reigned supreme. The entertainment will remain here all week, with matinees to-morrow and Saturday.

TRAVELER ARRESTED

HARRY ROSS, a traveler, living at 171 Jarvis street, was arrested last night on a charge of false pretenses. The complainant was James J. Sisson, who alleged that Ross sold him some furs by misrepresenting their value.

MAJOR BROWN AND UPPER YONGE STREET

Editor World: I see that Mayor Brown of North Toronto wants double freight car tracks on Yonge-street. It's policy of further extending the Metropolitan on that street will mean that business will move over to Bathurst and Bayview, where the owners of the Metropolitan are buying large tracts of land for subdivision. The mayor and his friends will ruin Yonge-street with a double fare. Mark my words.

COMMITTED SUICIDE

By swallowing the contents of two bottles containing carbolic acid, Paul Bunting, a furrier, committed suicide last night. He was found dead in the lavatory of the Lederstrans, 23 West Richmond street, about 2.35 o'clock and the remains were removed to his home at 49 West Adelaide street. He was 49 years of age and unmarried.

ESSEN GUILTY OF MAN SLAUGHTER

PORT HURON, Mich., April 29.—(Can. Press.)—George Esason of Petro-beria, Ont., to-night was found guilty of manslaughter in connection with the death of Thomas Major, whose body was found under the steps of the First Baptist Church in this city last February. The jury was out less than four hours. Sentence was deferred. Judge Law instructed the jury to not consider a verdict of first degree murder, in view of the fact that Major may have died from exposure after being placed alive under the church steps.

RIDING FOR A FALL

To-morrow is the first of May. Four months are almost over and what has the city council done? The Teraulty-street extension still hangs fire. The improvement of Victoria-street met with a worse fate and has been abandoned. By their antagonistic policy the city council or the board of control have lost the services of the present system. No big questions have been settled, and the council do not seem disposed to deal definitively with anything. In spite of the fact that they have failed absolutely to do justice to the city's business under the present system of a meeting every two weeks, they obstinately refuse to hold weekly meetings. We have had no results from the city council thus far. Can we expect any from now till New Year's? Is the whole council riding for a fall?

LARGEST CLASS IN DIVINITY

Victoria Convocation Was Marked by Conference of Degrees on Prominent Methodist Ministers.

While some churches are deploring the falling off in the number of candidates for the ministry, we have the largest class in divinity in our history," said Chancellor Burwash at Victoria Convocation last night. Convocation Hall was thronged by graduates and their friends.

MUST THE MERGER BE ALLOWED?

The purchase of the Traders Bank of Toronto by the Royal Bank of Montreal means that one of Toronto's, one of Ontario's, leading banks passes to Montreal with the control of fifty millions of assets! That doesn't look good for Ontario, where most of this money is now employed. A lot of it will be transferred elsewhere later on. Nor are the shareholders of the Traders quite willing to part with the deal. Their directors have sold their stock nominally they will have to get the shareholders' consent. And those who are selling out the bank are selling out an interest worth over a $100 share at about $180! The shareholders are not getting any fairer deal than Ontario or Toronto. And some of the men arranging the sell-out are making money! Is that discharging the solemn trust they assumed when they became directors? Nor is it fair to the officials and the staff of the bank who built it up. The government should not sanction the deal until an investigation has been made of all the circumstances attending the sell-out. If the Traders Bank is to be sold to Montreal, why not then our other banks? Is the Commerce to be taken over by the Montreal? What's to happen to the Imperial? Is the fate of these two to be in the hands of directors if they see fit to sell out? Is a money trust coming, and is it to be settled in one city like New York? What has the minister of finance to say? What the government, what the press?

MANY CHANGES IN NEW C.P.R. TIMETABLE

Direct Train Between Toronto and Ottawa Will Be Chief Feature, With a New Local Between Toronto and Havelock—C.N.R. Will Soon Have a Similar Service.

A direct train between Toronto and Ottawa will be the chief feature of the new timetable of the Canadian Pacific, effective the first week in June. This train will make few stops and is intended to give a fast service between the two cities, irrespective of connections at either end. It will be quite parliamentary.

But this is not the only change. There will be a new local train from Toronto to Havelock, a distance of about 100 miles, leaving the Union Station at 8.20 in the morning, and returning to Toronto at 7.20 in the evening. By reason of this new train, the two day express between Toronto and Havelock will be relieved of all the local traffic between Havelock and Toronto. These day expresses leave Toronto and arrive at Toronto at 9 a.m. and 7 p.m. respectively. At present they are overworked. The two accommodations up and down will remain about as they are.

The Ottawa train will probably leave Toronto as late as 11.30 at night and will be the first to come in in the morning. It will be to and from the Union Station, and will be a high-class train in every respect, and will, especially during the season, carry more passengers than any train going or coming into the city to the east. It will have high-class equipment.

And before Christmas the Canadian Northern hope to have a similar night service between the capitals. A direct train between Toronto and Ottawa will be the chief feature of the new timetable of the Canadian Pacific, effective the first week in June. This train will make few stops and is intended to give a fast service between the two cities, irrespective of connections at either end. It will be quite parliamentary.

AT THE THEATRES

At the Royal Alexandra.

"Everywoman." Last night's production of "Everywoman" at the Royal Alexandra met with marked appreciation. The all but capacity audience followed with evident sympathy this adaptation of the old morality play of the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries to modern conditions. Its immediate model was "Everyman" but it has nothing of its direction and quaint setting. In that old play the characters other than "Everyman" were mere abstractions, but in "Everywoman" the author essayed to convey his symbolism in living, concrete characters. In his own words it was his object to present an allegory, in the shape of a stage play, sufficiently dramatic and soul stirring in its story and action to form an attractive entertainment apart from its psychological significance.

Few allegories can be entirely perfect—indeed none unless conveyed in brief compass. Many faults have been found in Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress, but they have not in the least lessened the fascination of the wonderful prose poem. Even so, the play of "Everywoman" might be analyzed and its defects tabulated, but it would still remain a play that exerts a powerful influence on the spectator and auditor, notwithstanding its lack of humorous situations. This can only be attributed to its moral purpose, which is indeed sufficiently strong to dispense with extraneous support.

In the first canticle "Everywoman," attended with Youth, Beauty and Modesty, starts out in search of Love. Lured by Flattery she discards the call of Truth, and the allegory in this opening act is well sustained throughout. In her quest for the King of Love she looks for him on the stage, only to be disappointed. Wealth, too, fails and only when inexorable fate has stripped "Everywoman" of youth and beauty does she find in the form she had forsaken and to which she returns that Love is the son of Truth.

The play is very beautifully and appropriately staged and Miss Jane Oaker gave a splendid characterization to the role of "Everywoman," especially in those scenes and moments that called for tragic emotion. Her interpretation was full of feeling and power, and she was admirably supported by a very large and highly competent company. Misses Lottie Engel, Edna Munsey and Dorothy Phillips as Youth, Beauty and Modesty played in their parts, and Miss Marie Wainwright, as Truth spoke her lines with the emphasis. Miss Ruth Brown as Conscience was also good and sang with full acceptance.

Frederick Ward, who took the chorus part of "Nobody," showed marked elocutionary power and the many other male roles were all competently presented. Only their number prevents a discrimination which, unless in detail, would be unfair, but seldom indeed has a play requiring so many individual types been so admirably staged. The play appeals in peculiar measure to all classes of playgoers and enforces that close attention which is the best tribute to its power. It will be repeated during the week, with the usual Thursday and Saturday matinees.

At the Grand.

Wm. Hawtree in "Dear Old Billy." A remarkably clever farce comedy is "Dear Old Billy," which Mr. William Hawtree and his excellent company are presenting at the Grand this week. Theatregoers who love a good laugh-producing vehicle should not miss seeing this play. It is overflowing with the most wholesome comedy and moves so rapidly that there is not dull moment in the entire performance. The plot has to deal with the unsuspected husband who went to the seaside for rest and peace, only to be tossed ruthlessly into a veritable boiling pot of trouble. Harassed for 20 years by a doubting wife, the husband seeks relief in a legal separation, the terms of which stipulate that for a certain annual allowance she is not to annoy him, speak to him or even make known their relationship; but thru an oversight there is nothing in the articles of separation to prevent her being wherever he is, and her never-failing presence on the scene has the effect of all Billy being fussed over by nearly all the women in his vicinity, provoking numerous situations that are funny in the extreme.

The central character—Billy—impersonated by Mr. Hawtree, is a likable, easy-going old gentleman, careless and absent-minded. Mr. Hawtree's characterization of the character in a manner that gets the greatest amount of laughs out of it, and when it comes to handling the English language he is a funny fellow by himself. He has an excellent support, the individual work standing out prominently. Notwithstanding the fact that the play was presented for the first time at moderate prices, the audience last night thoroughly enjoyed the performance it seemed to run smoother than when presented in this city last fall. "Dear Old Billy" is a funny comedy, and, judging by the manner in which it was received last night, Mr. Hawtree and his company should play to big business all week and especially at the matinees on Wednesday and Saturday.

At the Princess

"Get Rich Quick Wallingford." J. Rufus Wallingford's stickiness as a get-rich-quick artist is surely beyond the dreams of all promoters and others. Wallingford showed his ingenuity as a smooth, shrewd town-builder and financier at the Princess last night, and George Randolph Chester's clever story more than exceeded the expectations of the first nighters. The play was unique, and proved decidedly that the press agent's imagination was not stretched in his flowery praise of the comedy. It was truly Colossus in its ginger, dash and go, and never a line was spoken without a laugh. Altho written by Chester, the story did not end in the Chester way; it had a prettier ending in which Wallingford made good his awfully showing a clean sheet for honesty, just what was looked for by the audience.

Wallingford, accompanied by his faithful pal, Blackie Daw, started a clean-up, cash-collecting campaign in the Town of Battersburg, Iowa, with the aim of $46. Imagine a man making a million in a few days with such a small bundle as a starter. Imagine Wallingford, he did it. He made it in the town by Blackie Daw Wallingford entered to the accompaniment of a brass band, a crowd of cheering hoops, in Wallingford's own words, and a stack of money awaiting his arrival. By clever false pretences, he created an unparalleled boom in the sleepy town, he reared in the process all the real estate worth while on a ninety day option when the boom began. He got 51 per cent. of the shares in a 600-000 cloth covered tank company (his own invention), which looked like nothing at the start, but ended in a whole heap. Such and much more was the marvelous machinations of this shrewd mind. But the play swayed from the swindle story of this genius which appeared in various magazines. Instead of Wallingford and his pal performing a fly-in-the-night act in a lower berth for parts unknown, accompanied by a bag of craps bills, they stuck with the ship, great millionaires of the middle west. A glorious ending.

John Webster was the Wallingford we have pictured, and W. H. Forestalle the Blackie Daw from every angle. These two shouldered the brunt of the story, with Rose Curry, the wise private confidential secretary, doing her share. The entire company was excellent in every particular, the very same that played in New York and elsewhere, filling the coffers of Geo. M. Chan to overflowing. The village characters along with the usual oddities, were admirably depicted. James W. Mann, George W. Battles, great grandson of the founder of the town, was splendid, as also was the rest of the directorate of the tank company, viz. Milton Fallock, James Matthews, G. Hammond, H. L. Barnes, J. C. Mack and Abner Symmons. Jay C. Yorke as the head clerk, Florence Dunlap, as the head waitress, and Louis Barnett acted very good. Charles H. Wilson, as the bulldog reporter of The Blade, was O. K., but naturally did look like a real reporter as newspaper men see him. Wallingford is the best in the land. Go and see him.

Wm. H. Forestalle, as Blackie Daw, in Geo. M. Cohan's famous comedy, Get Rich Quick Wallingford, at the Princess this week.

"The Trail of the Lonesome Pine." This has been dramatized by Eugene Walter, from the story of John Fox, Jr., will be seen here at the Princess Theatre, at next week, with matinee Wednesday and Saturday. The play, which revolves around the wild mountain life, is the pivotal character both of the book and the play, has been given an elaborate production by Klaw and Erlanger, with Charles Wray in the chief role. The company includes Austin Webb, Richard Sterling, George Greenwood, Lillian Dix, W. S. Hart, Willard Robertson, Vida Reed and Cyrus Wood.

At the Strand. Allegorical Plays. There is a strong allegorical play at the Strand this week, founded on the well known dramas "The Devil" and "The Servant in the House." The weekly series of important moving events is also popular and the right pieces together with a continuous show, make the theatre an ideal place for the women and children especially. Miss Kummerfeldt and Miss Menger have been retained for another week on special request, so that anyone who has not had an opportunity of hearing these artists, can do so all this week at the Strand Theatre on Yonge-st.

At the Star. Star Stock Company. Once again the Star Stock Company appeared behind the footlights at the Star last night and received an ovation from a delighted audience. The performance was all that the management has claimed it to be—a show called by none. Tony Kennedy is doing the stellar part with Beatrice Harlowe. The chorus is composed of the selection

TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 30, 1912

IRISH LOCAL GOVERNMENT.

Nothing is easier than for skillful lawyers like Sir Edward Carson and expert dialecticians like A. J. Balfour to pick holes in so elaborate a measure as that introduced by Mr. Asquith to amend the government of Ireland.

Considered broadly, can any good reason be advanced why England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales should not be allowed to manage their own internal concerns in their own way, without prejudice to their joint conduct of the affairs common to all?

LONDON PRESS BACKS TAFT

LONDON, April 29.—(Can. Press.)—The English press is keenly interested in the battle between President Taft and Theodore Roosevelt for the Republican presidential nomination.

IT'S EASY TO STUMBLE OVER SMALLER WORDS

No Uncertainty About Correct Spelling of Any Word When You Have a World Dictionary.

It is not always the words like "paraphrase," "phthisis" and "zytophone" which trip the average man and even make the more erudite elder tripper in the scholar, pause when he strikes them.

There is no better time than now for clipping that coupon in to-day's World. All you have to do is just to bring six coupons to this office with the small expense books, which covers only the cost of distributing the books.

Hollinger Regains $1 1/2 Mark—Porcupine News and Reports

MINING MARKET ADOPTS SLIGHTLY FIRMER TENDENCY

Porcupine List Showed Some Improvement on Revival of Speculative Demand From Public—Hollinger Led the Upturn—Flurry in Smelters.

Under the leadership of Hollinger the Porcupine list generally improved to a certain extent to-day, and at the close in the main showed small net gains for the session. The same narrow trading movement was in evidence, but it was noticeable that the public participation in the dealings was on a more substantial basis, and this sufficed to turn sentiment into a more favorable attitude.

From a technical standpoint the market was in a strong position. The decline late last week served to induce further operations on the part of the bear, and resulted in the establishment of an upward trend. There was a disposition to some quarters to credit to-day's uplift to the incoming of a short covering movement, and while this may have been true to a certain extent, certain it is that there was no general buying of this nature under way.

At the close bids of $12.00 were put in for Hollinger, this representing a net gain of 35 points from Saturday. Speculative interest in the stock has dwindled away considerably from its recent activity, and to such an extent has this been evidenced that the incoming of even a small buying or selling order is apt to change the entire drift of the market. The highest price paid for the stock to-day was $12.

Buoyant Tone at Close.
In the cheaper list prices showed a disposition to sag in the session, but this entirely disappeared later on and toward the close a buoyant undertone developed. Dome Extension, which opened at 52 1/2, and then sold off to 51, reacted to 53 1/2. Crown Charter scored a further advance to 27, and closed strong with bids at that figure. Elsewhere, price changes were purely negligible.

In the Cobalt a bear raid on Timmins-Stamping and a consequent decline in the shares to 39 1/2, a loss of nearly four points, was the only feature. Traders have frequently "gamed" for Timmins-Stamping, and this has been a success in most instances. The price dropped rapidly to-day on the incoming of liquidation generally accorded to be manipulative.

Another upturn in Island Smelters, which advanced to 13, was brought about by rumors that another test had been made. The fact failed to hold, however, and the last sale took place at 11.

Still in Values At Three Nations

Porcupine, April 27.—(From Our Man Up North.)—The same continues to show in the cross-cut at the Three Nations property as the cross-cut is driven further to the south in the conglomerate and staves. Mine men figure that the "frozen" veins, where heavy coarse gold nuggets have gathered, are off-shoots to the main lead and subsidiary leads that cut thru the formation from east to west. The strike for 400 feet east and west is heavily mineralized. The main vein is a strike over three feet at the 100-foot level. The rich seams become harder some "sweeteners" to the quartz leads.

THIRD TESTING OF PORCUPINE LAKE BED

Diamond Drills Removed From Ice to Shore, But Operations Will Be Continued.

Porcupine, April 27.—(From Our Man Up North.)—Working up the very last minute that there is safety, the diamond drilling is being done from the lake bottom, on the Porcupine Gold Mining Company's property, will be removed to the land. Several drill holes have been made from the lake bottom and several more will be put down along the centre of the ledge. When sufficient testing has been done at depth to show the location of the mineralized zone in the shear, shafts will be sunk.

FLURRY IN SMELTERS

A small "boom" in Island Smelters in the mining "ket on Monday raised reports of another boring into the smelting plant. These were denied in the day, however, and the movement consequently subsided, the shares closing some two cents below the high record for the session. The real explanation for the flap seemed to be that some French capital had been interested. The buying was on account of Montreal interests.

Records at New York in Toronto—Another "Squeeze" in Reading

ROCKEFELLER HAS BIG PILE IN OIL STOCKS

Rio Establishes New High in Toronto Market—Canada Permanent is Strong—Traders Bank at 163

Speculative interest in the Toronto stock market on Monday shifted from Rio to the latter stock as a result of the recent statement of earnings, and the fact that the net increase in March amounted to upwards of $16,000, as cited in explanation of the fact. The top price reached 123, which constituted a new record, being upwards of 100 above the previous record, established two weeks ago.

In the early dealings Sao Paulo showed a disposition to rise and the opening quotations were not depressed at any time. The range for the day was 119 7/8 to 120, and at the close, 120 1/2. The market was active under Saturday. Profit-taking on the bulge was accepted and responsible for the movement.

A measure of investment buying, which was noticeable in the banks and trust and loan securities, was a feature of the session. Canada Permanent was particularly strong, selling up to a new high record at 191, an advance of 1/2 point. A few scattered lots of bonds changed hands, but here prices were comparatively unchanged. Black Lake bonds sold at 100 1/2, duplicating the recent low level established. The bondholders meet next month to submit reorganization plans and their opinion on this regard is responsible for the extent depression in the security.

For the time being the market has not all semblance of the depression in the Toronto-Royal Bank merger, the securities of the institutions concerned dropping back to their former level yesterday. Traders Bank at 168 and 169 1/2, and closed at the former figure. Less than a hundred shares changed hands during the session.

C. P. R. AND ITS RECORD EARNINGS

The recent action of C. P. R. in the stock markets and the many record-breaking stunts which have been done by the share, calls attention to the remarkable number of rumors which have been circulated of late. These have been put out in New York and have given prominence to the idea that Wall Street requires a new explanation for every advance in the stock, just as it does for a move in any of the American "ralls."

The street has been flooded with rumors regarding the splitting of the stock, the formation of a "land company," an impending stock increase, etc. The general opinion is that the advance is in reality due more to the excellent statement of earnings than to anything else. At the present rate of going, C.P.R.'s gross output is close to breaking a record this month. For the first three weeks the earnings were $1,635,000 above last year, and with weekly increases ranging between $75,000 and $98,000, the last nine days of the month should easily top the $2,000,000 mark. With a showing of this kind in this prospect, there would seem to be ground for the present hilarious feeling in relation to the stock.

Montreal Market Showed Buoyant Tone Throughout

MONTREAL, April 29.—A new high record for the market on a fairly active day was provided on the Montreal Stock Exchange. Sao Paulo was also in fair demand with the price only small fluctuations off the new high record of 210 made on Saturday. Interest in Dominion Steel, which was the leader in the trading on the latter part of last week, fell away, and only a few hundred shares changed hands. The price, however, held steady around Saturday's close, ranging between 81 and 82, and at 80 1/2 in the last sale before the net gain of 1/2 for the day. Nova Scotia Steel's activity last week was in better demand and made a gain of 1/2 point, and Shawinigan Power were somewhat more active in the afternoon and displayed a better tone. Montreal Power moved up to 94, a net gain of 1/2, and was bid at the close. Shawinigan made a 1/2 gain to 126. The tone was decidedly buoyant for the market and the impression of marking time until the outlook in New York clears up a little.

MARCONI BOOM ENGLISH, NOT AMERICAN

The "wireless bubble" which sent New York crazy a week or so ago was not participated in to any appreciable extent either in the United States or Canada, according to reports handed out by curb brokers who were in the thick of the movement. The buying came nearly altogether from England, and probably represented a reflection of this crazy boom in Marconi stock in the London market.

There was, of course, a good deal of American Marconi owned by small investors on the border, but these got out during the early part of the rise, brokers stating that speculators in the Wall-street district and in the larger office cities on the continent were afraid to buy the stock at the inflated price, and consequently missed any profits which they might have picked up. Approximately 80 per cent. of the business in American Marconi on the New York curb came from the old country, and the rest of the remaining 20 per cent. represented trading by brokers who scalped the market on every possible opportunity. One house is reported to have cleared up a full half million dollars in a couple of weeks ago.

PULP ON UPRADE

Another sharp advance in Ontario Pulp, which sold up a full 1/2 a share on trading in a little over a hundred shares, was the feature of the curb market on Monday. There was quite a consistent demand for the stock all day, with very little offering for sale at 11 1/2, despite the fact that it attained a new high record, Pulp being a share above its valuation a couple of weeks ago.
