CAILLAUX PRESSES FOR DEBT APPROVAL

PLUNGING TO LOW MARK BY FRANC ALARMS

Finance Minister Says Accord Ratification Is Essential

MELLON LETTER

Opposition to Washington Agreement Still Is Strong Among Deputies

PARIS, July 17.—Spurred by the plunging franc and with the full support of Premier Briand, Minister of Finance Caillaux will appeal to the Chamber as a whole today to reverse yesterday's decision of its finance committee against giving him extended powers to deal with the financial situation.

M. Caillaux regards the situation as being so critical that he wants an immediate decision, even if the Chamber has to sit Sunday.

The tendency of politics again to predominate over the financial problem as often has been the case before, has strengthened the government's determination and it has decided to press for ratification of both the British and United States debt settlements before Parliament recesses for the summer.

LESSENS SUPPORT.

Premier Briand's announcement to this effect undoubtedly has reduced the number of the government's partisans on the finance committee and will make its task harder in the Chamber, for opposition to the Washington agreement is strong there and shows no sign of weakening.

M. Caillaux maintains there can be no real ratification of French loans and no stabilization of the franc until these war debts have been settled. His statement to the finance committee that he expected a letter from the United States government which would remove most of the objections to the agreement seems to be a case of the wish being father to the thought, but it shows the extreme importance that he attaches to ratification as one of the cornerstones of his financial edifice.

MELLON'S LETTER.

Secretary Mellon's declaration that in effect the United States has cancelled the obligations of France for advances during the war, made in Washington yesterday, reached Paris after the Caillaux statement and too late to receive more than typographical prominence in the press without comment.

The Echo De Paris, however, remarks that Mr. Mellon, in his figures, does not take into account the $400,000,000 owed by France for war stocks, and adds that if all France's obligations to the United States were cancelled in the same way as her obligations to Great Britain had been, the Mellon figures would be correct and yet the Caillaux-Churchill agreement would be still slightly better than that concluded between Mr. Mellon and Mr. Hergeaux, French Ambassador to the United States, who handled the debt negotiations.

MAY HALT FIRE BY TIMBER SLIDE

If Blaze Passes This Guard The Fighters Must Fall Back Two Miles

CALGARY, July 17.—The Calgary Herald's staff reporter at the scene of the Kootenay fire, writing from Vermilion Crossing, says:

"The forces fighting the north fire awaited its assault on the big slide that runs from the timber line to the Vermilion River about four miles south of this camp. If the fire jumps this guard, as it has others, the fighters will fall back on a slide about two miles from here.

"On Friday morning the highway was clear and tourists were going through the mounted police patrol keeping a general supervision of the traffic.

"The heart of the fire lay shrouded in impenetrable smoke high up on the mountainside."

Linton was chairman of the meeting, and was re-elected trustee. Amador Anderson was re-elected as secretary-treasurer, and LeBaron Fleming as auditor.

Presbyterian Property Commission To Open Sitzings On September 7

Miners Show Confidence In Leaders By Re-Electing Herbert Smith and Cook

LONDON, July 17.—No further progress was made yesterday toward a settlement of the mining dispute. Although efforts are being put forth by religious bodies to compose the differences between the miners, who have been on strike for more than two months, and the mine owners, they are looked upon as hardly practicable, inasmuch as the plan suggested depends upon a renewal of the subsidy to the mining industry, which the government has announced it would not do.

The peace proposals suggested by the executive committee of the Miners' Federation, are understood to provide for a return to work for four months under the present conditions.

Chief significance of the religious efforts lies in the influence they might have upon public opinion, and thus upon the mine owners and the government in the direction of concession.

That the miners as a body still retain the confidence of their leaders was shown today when the result of the election for the miners' executive was announced. Herbert Smith and A. J. Cook were re-elected as president and secretary, respectively, of the Miners' Federation, and all the other officials likewise were re-elected.

PRaises BUDGET BY HON. J. A. ROBB

B. C. Editor Says Meighen Responsible For Untimely Dissolution of House

VANCOUVER, July 17.—An appeal to the country on the constitutional issue is not necessary in the opinion of B. C. Nichol, editor of the Victoria Times.

In an address before the Laurier Club here yesterday he maintained that the action of the Meighen government in "repealing the clause of important legislation before dissolution of Parliament."

Referring to the episode leading up to dissolution, Mr. Nichol declared: "Baron Byng is not an experienced politician and I believe that he acted with the utmost sincerity. I don't think the effects of his action will be disastrous or catastrophic as many seem to think, but Mr. Meighen must be held responsible for many of the disabilities resulting from the untimely dissolution."

The Robb Budget, the speaker contended, was one of the very first vital steps toward financial rehabilitation of Canada since the war.

Brave Mother Caught Baby In Fall From Third Storey

LONDON, July 17.—All Clerkenwell is talking about Baby Penn's marvelous escape from death and the presence of mind of his mother which saved his life.

Baby Penn fell from a third-storey window into a stone-paved yard, but was caught by his mother and saved from everything but cuts and bruises.

Mrs. Penn was in the yard, and the baby, aged three, was on the third floor. He apparently missed his mother and called out a warning. A neighbor saw him and called out a warning. "I think he decided in his baby mind to go down to his mummy in the yard," said a neighbor, "and he must have got a chair to climb to the window. He didn't lean out. He got out feet first. Mrs. Penn said 'I'll stay here and try to catch him.' I ran up

SHOOT 110 MILES OF RAPIDS IN B. C.

Supt. Could Not Wait For The Steamer and Used a Canoe For Trips

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 17.—Because he could not afford the delay of waiting for the regular steamer, Superintendent Walter Owen of the British Columbia provincial police, repaired a fourteen-foot canoe with bits of canvas, tin and paint and then paddled it through 110 miles of rapids and canyons on the swift Peace River. He was accompanied by Sgt. T. Van Dyk, provincial game law enforcement officer.

It was a hazardous journey and even the Indians of that district practiced in avoiding the treacherous boulders that line the route, warned the officers not to attempt it. The trip was made from Hudson Hope to Fort St. John between eight o'clock in the morning and six o'clock the same evening.

While admitting it was rather strenuous traveling, Owen declared "it was a great trip and I'd gladly make it over again. The only fault I'd ask to have omitted is the mosquitoes."

Vagrant Is Sent To Municipal Home

John Boyd, who was found by County Police Constable Shortliffe yesterday in a barn in Moosepath Park in a helpless condition, was before Magistrate Allingham this morning and sent to the Municipal Home for three months, with a recommendation that the man be sent to the General Public Hospital for treatment.

Dr. William Warwick, district health officer, who made an examination of Mr. Boyd found that he was suffering from a chronic ailment and lack of nourishment and needed hospital treatment.

Yesterday when the man was found he was taken in the patrol wagon to the jail and charged with vagrancy.

Farmette Is Eliminated By One Point

BISLEY CAMP, July 17.—The young farmette, Miss Blanche Babcock, the sole woman among the last 200 competing for the King's Prize in the Rifle Association meeting here, yesterday missed by a single point getting into the "King's hundred," who are entitled to shoot in today's final stage. She scored 139 out of a possible 150, while 140 would have qualified her. Despite her disappointment, she smiled when she received the announcement and said: "I think I shall do better next year."

She says Culver made her carry home the groceries alone while he used her auto to take other girls driving.

POLICE SILENT ON PAST INDICTMENT

Grand Jury Returns 4 Counts in Edith L. Greene Case in Boston

BOSTON, July 17.—The grand jury yesterday afternoon returned four indictments in the case of Edith L. Greene, 19-year-old state ward whose dismembered body was found in Mattapan on Tuesday. Dr. Thomas E. Walsh was indicted for abortion performed on the girl, his wife, Marian A. Walsh was indicted as accessory before the fact, and James V. Ford, sweetheart of the girl, as accessory. The fourth indictment was secret.

District Attorney O'Brien said that this action by the grand jury would have no effect on the warrants previously secured for the physician and his wife which charge murder.

WALSH SURRENDERS.

Dr. Thomas E. Walsh surrendered with his wife to the district attorney during the past year, and was held in the police headquarters. Ball for Dr. Walsh was set at $10,000 and for Mrs. Walsh, charged with accessory, at $2,000. They had not surrendered earlier because Mrs. Walsh feared to be locked up while her mother was dying.

Gazette Is Allowed Over Meat Embargo

LONDON, July 17.—The Westminster Gazette raises an alarm that the recent embargo placed on continental meats, ostensibly to exclude the possibility of foot and mouth disease infection, will play into the hands of the United States meat trust, while providing no proper safeguard against the foot and mouth disease, which might be brought in pig's bristles, the hair and skins of calves, and in vegetables.

CANADIAN GRAIN SHIPPED OUT FAST

C. P. R. Reports Crop Is Being Moved Rapidly From Western Elevators

WINNIPEG, July 17.—Last year's grain is fast disappearing from western elevators and storehouses. The Canadian Pacific reports that for the period from July 7 to 14 inclusive this year 481,146 bushels were marketed from the Manitoba district, as against 481,683 for last year. Saskatchewan, 380,220 this year, against 374,988 for last year. All of which shows that when the crop is garnered the Canadian Pacific will be in readiness to handle it with speed.

NEW MONTE CARLO PLANNED BY TURKS

Will be Established on Bosphorus in Former Ottoman Ruler's Palace

WASHINGTON, July 17.—A new palace of chance, to compete with Monte Carlo, is to be established on the Bosphorus, in Turkish territory, according to the National Geographic Society.

The Turkish government, endeavoring to put its surplus imperial palaces to some profit, has rented the Yildiz Kiosk Palace—the Pavilion of the Star—to Italian concessionaires who will convert the former Ottoman White House into a casino.

People familiar with Turkey believe the new palace of chance will be very lucky for it was created for Sultan Abd-ul-Hamid II, who reigned 38 years. They believe that any Sultan who could rule in Turkey for 38 years had to be lucky.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., JULY 17, 1926.

TAXES.

With but slight exaggeration it might be said that at present the sole topic of conversation in Saint John is civic taxation. Taxpayers all, men and women, discuss it from the Martello Tower to the Dry Dock, and if any one of them has a kind word to say on the subject we have yet to hear it.

Because there is a very general sentiment that the incidence of taxation is unfairly distributed and a suspicion that in some way this might be rectified. There is a widespread feeling that it might be possible to get better value for our money.

The city is a vast business corporation in which all taxpayers are shareholders and, therefore, interested. Other businesses protect shareholders, directors and management by periodical employment of independent experts to audit accounts and criticize methods of business.

Just Fun

A SECRET is what a man tells another man not to tell because he promised not to tell himself.

A primeval young woman named Eve caused old Father Adam to grope. When asked where she's been, she replied with a grin, "I've been absent without any leave."

PANTING FOR INFORMATION: "What have you in knickers?" tourist inquired at a store the other day. "My wife," replied the proprietor.

ISN'T it awful when you're trying to put across an idea and just can't think of the right slang?

MARRIED life is merely a habit. The scene is in a barber shop. The customer looks at the barber: "Your hands are dirty." "Oh, yes, of course," says the barber. "I haven't given a single shampoo yet this morning."

YOU have to make allowances for a son when he's at college.

POLES MUST SOW "FRATERNITY SEEDS" SAYS WAR LORD

By JOSEF PILBUDSKI First Marshal of Poland in a proclamation issued after recent coup d'etat.

SOLDIERS! This is not the first time you have heard my voice. Before, on the field of battle, when the young State was cutting its teeth like an infant child, I led you to combat, and the victories won under my command have covered your heroic banners with glory and splendor for centuries.

Today I am talking to you about other combat. When brothers love each other they are linked by a bond stronger than any other human tie. When brothers quarrel and the link is broken, their quarrel is also more bitter than any other.

But we see, alas, the prey of quarrels and eternal disputes, of the unbridled enjoyment of domination by some over others. And when the quarrels and jealousies of parties are raging all around us, when the air is shivering from hatred and regional enmities are burning into flames, it would be difficult for the soldier to remain calm.

Soldiers! Once again I am at your head as your chieftain. You know me. Hard on myself, I always shared your sorrows and your sufferings, your joys and your triumphs.

The Very Idea!

By H. M. Cochrane

DAD I KNOW of a fellow we sorta forget when we're handing our praises around. We all seem to take him for granted and yet, a finer sort never can be found.

Whenever in trouble, to him we can turn and he hands us a heap of advice. He knows of the things that we've still got to learn and he aids us, whatever the price.

He's been through the mill that we're going through now, and he hasn't forgotten your life's game. He knows that his kin's bound to pull through somehow, if he'll help, so to help is his price.

I wonder, sometimes, if a slap on the back, and a praise wouldn't help now and then. The debt that we owe we can never pay back, but at least we can try, now and then.

The world's full of things that we think of to do, and a lot of them make us feel glad. But, say, a real thrill's one way of saying "I won't be home till 3 o'clock in the morning!"

WAILS OF A WIFE: "I've been wearing the same hat for two years." "The gas man called but I didn't dare give him a check 'cause I didn't know how much we had in the bank." "I've called you five times; you're gonna be late for work."

One man on board knew how to pray. So all the rest put life belts on. The ship was just one short.

NOW, HONESTLY—Come on now, we all know you. You're just a business man. But you've got a home and a wife and some kiddies.

You're so busy yourself, that you forget all about the wife's side of business. You're peevish if she acts tired when you get home at night. Only YOU have any right to flop down on the couch. The Mrs. must be up and ready to go to work to amuse you.

That's lack of appreciation, man—lack of fairness to the person who brings all day the care of the home and the kiddies.

When you're seeking sympathy and amusement—try and give some in return.

Today my pity goes out to the man who promises to call up his wife, keeps the promise, and then gets bawled out for spending the nickel.

How 3,000 Exacting Tests Each Month Safeguard The Veedol "film of protection"

As your car breezes along the open road, how often do you give a thought to the Veedol that lubricates your motor? Perhaps you don't even remember that Veedol forms a "film of protection," thin as tissue, smooth as silk, tough as steel.

You don't think of these things, because you take them for granted. You have learned to trust Veedol implicitly.

Yet the Veedol "film of protection" doesn't just happen. It is the supreme result of the labor and skill and infinite care of a great organization.

And right in the heart of that plant is the chemical laboratory for testing lubricating oils. There a staff of trained technologists analyze and check the quality and uniformity of Veedol. Over 3,000 tests are made each month to safeguard the Veedol "film of protection," and make it worthy of your faith.

And that is the reason that hundreds of thousands of car owners trust Veedol as few other products are trusted.

Any dealer displaying the orange and black Veedol sign will gladly supply you with the correct Veedol oil for your car. Ask for Veedol by name.

The celebrated picnic held annually in the Maritime Provinces and other parts of the country by J. D. O'Connell, the "Picnic King," will be later than usual this year, it was learned yesterday. Is There Any Method for Muzzling a Nagging Mother?—Has a Widow of 49 With Six Children Any Hope of Remarrying?—How to Deal With a Morbid Wife.

DEAR MISS DIX—I have been married for nearly twenty years and am an unusually good cook and housekeeper and manager, if I do say so myself. My husband, my children and myself had a peaceful and happy life together until now.

Recently my mother has come to live with us, and she is running us distracted with her suggestions and criticisms. Nothing that we do pleases her. She finds fault with my cooking and the way I run my house and manage my children and treat my husband. If I correct the children she thinks they are being persecuted. If I fail to correct them she thinks we should stay at home, and if we stay at home, that we should go out. She had changed the whole atmosphere of our house from one of peace to one of strife. What can I do about it? MRS. R.

ANSWER: Absolutely nothing. There is no known way of muzzling old people and what failures they have made, they feel that the more they can do to muzzling up all your fortitude and bear the infliction as patiently as you can.

There is nothing else in the world so maddening as having some one else, even your own mother, meddling in all your affairs and not to be able to do a single, solitary thing without having to listen to a lot of frank and unwelcome criticism and to be told just exactly what you should do and think and say upon every occasion.

But that is what virtually every one who has a mother has to endure. Some come out of it purified as by fire and some land in the inferno with nervous breakdowns. Not long ago a famous alienist stated that three-fourths of the nervous wrecks he was called upon to treat were caused by the nagging of their families.

Perhaps if old people realized what pests they are with their eternal "Why don't you do this?" "What made you do that?" "Why don't you go there?" "Why didn't you go somewhere else?" "What made you buy this?" "Why didn't you buy that?" they would have mercy on their children and refrain. But the trouble is that they never do.

Age brings with it a great and consoling conceit, so that old people never for an instant doubt that they are fountains of wisdom. No matter how badly they have managed their own lives and what failures they have made, they feel that the more fact that they have lived sixty or seventy or eighty years turns them into oracles capable of directing and deciding every question for those with whom they come in contact.

Especially do parents feel that they always know more than their children and that their children should merely obey them. And, having nothing to do with their time and with few interests of their own, they have leisure to devote to poking their fingers in their children's pies. The fact that their children resent it and that it makes trouble for them doesn't stop their doing it for a minute.

There is no way on earth to keep mother from telling you how to raise your children. You are low to make a sponge cake and how low to doubt thirty years from now you will be handing out the same kind of advice to your children. DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR MISS DIX—Is there hope for a widow 46 years old with a family of six children to marry again. I am a handsome woman, unusually strong and mentally young, and don't look my age. I am of an affectionate disposition and miss the companionship of my husband, and am lonely for some one to love and be loved by. H. B. S.

ANSWER: It depends upon how much money you have. And I should say that you would have to offer a thick, large, juicy bank roll as a charm to your young ones to get a husband.

There are few men altruistic enough in this day to assume the support of a woman and her six children. Ready-made families are not popular in these times of high cost of living, when it is about all any man can do to take care of his own offspring.

So, no matter how charming and attractive you are personally, I fear you are too heavily handicapped to win out in the matrimonial race. That is for those who travel light and who have no excess baggage in the way of children.

But how any woman who has six children can lack for companionship or some one to love and be loved by passes comprehension. To me, she seems rich in human interests and affection. I can think of nothing so absorbing as watching and shaping the growth and development of a big family of girls and boys, and, having these, I cannot even see where there would be place in your heart for any strange man.

So I advise you to get away from all your thoughts of marriage and devote yourself to your children. In them find your happiness. To them give your love and you will be far better repaid than you would be if you married, as so many widows do marry, any sort of a makeshift husband just to have a man about the house and in the vain hope of replacing the mates that they have lost. DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR MISS DIX—We have been happily married for twenty-five years and have five grown children. Unfortunately some time ago my wife's only brother died, and since his death my wife has continually mourned him, saying that she has lost her best friend, disregarding husband and children, and making things very miserable for us all. Before his death my wife and I went out together several times a week, but she will go nowhere with me now. Have you any suggestions to make? L. B.

ANSWER: Your wife has become morbid and needs something to take her out of herself and break up this unhealthy mental attitude. The best thing to do would be to take her away from home for a trip. Take her where everything will be new and strange and where she will be so interested in what she sees that she will forget herself.

As long as she stays at home she will cultivate her grief, because without knowing it she thinks it makes her seem romantic and interesting. I have known people who took great pride in the fact that they never "got over" a sorrow. They always were mourning, never allowed any gaiety in the house and sacrificed their families to their lugubrious vanity.

If you find it impossible to take your wife away from home get a friend to tell her that she is in danger of losing you by her mourning over her brother and if that won't go out with you that you will find another lady who will.

That will fetch her and make her wipe her eyes and cheer up. DOROTHY DIX.

Formal Clothes Needed Even In Frivolous Summer

Even in the midst of summer one must occasionally attend a more or less formal social affair. People will get married or entertain friends or do something that demands something more than sports tops in the way of clothes.

Three formal or semi-formal costumes are pictured above. At the left a Parisian ensemble for afternoon wear is a smart model. The full length coat is a navy taffeta trimmed with bands of self material. The charming dress in one-piece styling, is of bolle rose crepe georgette with insets and hem of rennaissance lace. The little hat matches the coat in color.

SEE-SAWING ON BROADWAY

EXPLORING for picturesque and atmospheric eating places in New York is a task requiring years of patience and experiment.

My own preference has been for places where the music weaves a spell of far away lands and peoples; where there is spontaneity, rather than manufactured fare. And those who venture forth must check their prejudices against locations and surroundings.

Generally speaking, those that lie in the heart of the city have been "made-to-order" and the real atmosphere is hidden in the "districts."

Metal embroidery, metal brocade fabrics, and metal lace contributed a brilliant note. The metal lace not only was used in combination with metal cloth, but also was combined with colored chiffon and in the latter instance it did not conform to the coloring of the frock, but rather retained its own metal character.

TODAY'S RECIPES Cream of Asparagus or Celery Soup—Here is an economical way of using up the tough ends of asparagus or celery, which are usually thrown away. Boil the ends in salted water about a half hour. To the liquor thus "brewed" add about twice as much milk, pieces of butter, and salt and pepper. Thicken slightly with a little corn starch, moistened with milk. Serve with saltines.

BEHIND THE SCENES

WHEN "Charlotte's Revue" played in Hollywood recently, Beatrice Linn, its sprightly English comedian, attracted the attention of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer executives, and negotiations were opened which led to the signing of a contract. As story is now being written for her by Marco Connelly, the author of "The Beggar On Horseback," Sam Taylor, recently associated with Harold Lloyd, will direct her.

Miss Linn is the second member of the revue to be placed under contract. After learning that Douglas Purser, also a comedian, wrote most of its clever Metro engaged him as a member of the scenario staff.

TITLE CHANGE "Love Magic," Florence Vidora's first starring picture for Paramount, will be released as "You Never Know Women." The story was written by Ernest Vidal, Olive Brook and Lowell Sherman are included in the cast.

TO PASTURES NEW N N N Jobyna Ralston has appeared in her latest "Lloyd" picture. She plans to try her fortune elsewhere. Pay Wray is no longer under contract to Universal. At present she is playing under the direction of Von Stroheim in "The Wedding March," and she will make another for him.

Hallam Cooley, co-star of the "Mardi Life of Helen and Warren" series, has severed his connections with Fox because of salary differences.

NOW THEY KNOW Helene Costello, who is climbing a bit to motion picture fame on her own ability, is evidently getting tired of being asked, "Oh, are you Dolores Costello's sister?"

Now, on the back of her chair at the Warner Bros. studio is emblazoned in large letters: "Helene Costello—Dolores' sister—Maurice's daughter."

10,000 MEN IN DASH TO STAKE FOR DIAMONDS

Police Lined Them Up Eight Deep Along Starting Line

JOHANNESBURG, July 17.—The world's record diamond rush took place recently when at the given moment over 10,000 diggers dashed forward to stake claims on the Elandsputte Farm at Lightenburgh.

A large force of mounted police herded some 20,000 diggers and spectators to the starting point, where the runners lined up eight deep along the starting line a mile and a half wide.

TERRIFIC SCRAMBLE There was a terrific scramble when the signal for going off was given, and the peggers rapidly became invisible in the huge cloud of dust sent up by the thousands of scurrying feet.

The owner of the farm, who until recently combined farming with the office of local postmaster, is now a wealthy man through the sale of some of his claims.

The usual type of mushroom town has sprung up in the neighborhood, and merry-go-rounds, Aunt Sallies, and prayer meetings are the chief occupations of the diggers after work.

In addition she asked that her funeral be conducted with the utmost simplicity and that no one follow her casket to the grave except a representative of her solicitors, whose duty it was to see that she had proper burial.

Strange Disappearances In Saint John Streets In Old Days Are Graphically Told

The following is an extract taken from an old Saint John newspaper and gives a somewhat exaggerated and humorous description of the state of the streets in the year 1825. It is taken from the office of the Dominion Archives, Princess street.

"Mr. Printer—Having been present yesterday when the four people fell into the pits or honey-pots on the Market wharves and square, allow me to send a description of the accidents, and to point out the spots, in order that persons from the country and our good neighbors of Nova Scotia—numbers of whom are at present here—may avoid places so likely to deprive their families of their guardians and protectors. I say that this account is sent for those parties, as the good people of Saint John have from their births been too much accustomed to those accidents to require being put on their guard.

"The first who fell into the gulph in front of Messrs. Scovill and Walker's store—it was a female from the lower part of Devil's Back, in the Long Reach—who in order to avoid the rude jostle of half a dozen sailors that were coming up the wharf in single file, on the two-foot wide side path, most incautiously put her foot on what she supposed to be firm ground, but which, of course, gave way, and she sank over the head into the hasty, clean clothes for her party came immediately thrust down, must have been forever lost. She was, however, brought up without any material injury, and after being supplied with shoes, hat and temper except—her clean clothes soon recovered—her

"The next person was a farmer from Grandville, Nova Scotia, who was carrying a cheese in one hand and a tumbler containing a sample of cider in the other. He was attempting to cross the wharf from his vessel, but Deborah, of Digby, towards the store of Mr. Hendrichs, but being a long bodied man, had taken only one step when he disappeared. No sooner was he lost sight of than a Dutchman, who was going to York Point with a basket of dried clubs for a family where some of the children were sick. His disappearance was in Nelson street opposite to the store of Mr. Lake, and though no pains were spared to fish him up, the attempt was at length abandoned, and it was supposed he had fallen into the water, not then over five feet deep.

"Being completely washed and cleaned, it is not expected he will recover from his sickness, never having been washed before.

"The last person I saw in so sad a plight was a little boy, whose mother had sent him on an errand. It was fortunate for the unfortunite that he carried a spread umbrella, as being light, he did not sink any deeper than the umbrella, to the handle of which, after he was completely under, he held his hand and the dollar remain in all his hand deep. After crying a while, during which the people were trying to clean him, he recollected his money, and said he dare not go home in that state without the dollar—on which the people soon made it up and a quarter more to buy apples.

"Now, Mr. Printer, if I were disposed to say anything but matter of fact, and these, too, in any but moderate terms, I might like many murdering persons say many harsh things regarding our streets. But this is not the case. Nevertheless cannot refrain from remarking that $200 ($2,000) would be fully equal to cut down the rocks in all the principal streets and the wharves and that I have no doubt this sum could be raised in our day if the corporation would agree to pay the interest; or, if that body did not like to borrow money from individuals, the amount would by those persons be lent to the province, and by the province, I make no doubt, to the corporation; $200 a year or even $500 if necessary, is no such sum as ought to deter the body corporate of such a town from having passable streets, putting all consideration for elegance and health entirely aside.

"I am, etc. "A. B. "Saturday, Nov. 19, 1825."

MANY DANGERS

Crawford encountered innumerable dangers, but surmounted them all. When in England in 1912 he told of how he attached himself to a caravan to get to vast dominions of King Mushihi, a dusky monarch who took such a "violent fancy" to the missionary that he refused to let him depart, and insisted on his acting as his secretary.

WAS TRUSTED

Later Crawford lived with the natives for years, "thinking black." He made the acquaintance of numerous tribes and gained the confidence and respect of them all.

100,000-Mile Studebakers

THE thousands of miles of excess transportation built into every Studebaker are again publicly attested on July 18th in newspapers throughout the United States.

You may never desire to drive your own car so great a distance, but the qualities which make such long life possible, insure for you the most dependable performance and economy for any period of use.

To pay less than a Studebaker costs is false economy; to pay more is needless extravagance.

NEW GEAR FOR TRANSMISSION IS TRIED OUT

Invention of New Haven Man Based on Vacuum Is Tried Out

BOSTON, July 17.—A great deal has been said and written lately about the automobile of the future, about its motor, its body, its springs, its tires, and its fittings, but little has been made public about what has been done with that obviously crude part of the present day motor car—the gear shift. A device which may prove an answer to this question was given its first public showing in Boston on Thursday when George L. Sexton, of Larchmont, N. Y., introduced the vacuum gear shift to a few interested onlookers at Copley Square and started Fred C. Schwender on a drive from Boston to Atlantic City, N. J., at the wheel of a machine equipped with the new idea.

LEVER DONE AWAY WITH

The usual lever was absent from the car. Instead a small aluminum quadrant was affixed on the steering column, just below the wheel, and around this quadrant moved a little lever at the pressure of a finger, exactly like the throttle lever on an automobile of about 1910.

HOW DEVICE WORKS

The new device utilizes the suction from the motor intake manifold to "build up" a vacuum in two 3/4-inch cylinders attached to the top of the gearbox in place of the shifting lever. When the driver sets the little lever on the quadrant to start the car, the "fast speed" nothing happens, but the air valves are set ready so that the instant the driver presses down the clutch pedal the change is made.

WOMAN COULD HARDLY WALK

Mrs. Horn Tells how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Health

Hamilton, Ont.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and would not be without it now. I had a female trouble so badly I could hardly walk and I was all run down and could hardly get around to do my housework. I would be in bed three or four days at a time. I was told by a friend to try your Vegetable Compound. I did, and by the time I took two bottles I was beginning to get around again. I took ten bottles in all, and now I am all right again and doing my own work. I have six grown-ups to work for, so I have plenty to do. I also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I think it is good. But I owe my health to the Vegetable Compound, and I think if more of it was used women would be better off. I would not be without it if it cost much more."

Mrs. NELLIE HORN, 28 St. Matthews Avenue, Hamilton, Ontario.

Do you feel broken down, nervous and weak sometimes? Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is excellent to take at such a time. It always helps, and if taken regularly and persistently, will relieve this condition.

Before he sold Skippy to D. L. McCarthy, of the Toronto Polo Club, Major-General McEwen frequently used to ride him through four chukkers. Mr. McCarthy has played him regularly since he bought him.

Plan to Hold Fair Sept. 23 To Run Two Weeks

I was very much interested in reading the letter signed by "UNKNOWN FRIEND," published in the daily press a few days ago, re the financial support of the New Brunswick Protestant Orphanage, in which he complimented the fraternal societies for what they have done in the past and urged them to remember that the Orphanage can only be continued by the support of them and other generous-hearted citizens.

As a member of one of the fraternal societies, I wish to say that I am heartily in accord with the sentiments expressed by our "Unknown Friend." While I hold no brief to speak for any individual society, I feel it incumbent on me as Chairman of the Orphanage Fair Committee to inform him as well as the public at large, that the fraternal and other social organizations of the city have already taken this matter in hand. We have a large Committee composed of men and women representative of them all. We are planning to hold a Fair in the Andrews Rink beginning Sept. 23rd, and running two weeks.

It is not our intention that this Fair, or even to the members of the various societies represented on the committee. On the other hand we hope to secure the active cooperation of all our Protestant friends known and unknown. #### Doctor Says Heat and Glare of Sun Weaken and Injure the Eyes

Tells How to Strengthen the Eyes and Protect Them

Dr. Smith, a well-known eye specialist, says that exposure to heat, sunlight, smoke, dust, or wind often weakens the eyes and causes eyestrain and wrinkles due to squinting. He tells how to avoid this and strengthen the eyes. Many whose eyes were failing gratefully say that they have had their eyes restored by the simple process he advises. One man says: "I was almost blind; could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without my glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain me dreadfully now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used to say: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after fifteen days' use everything seemed clear. I can even read the print in the newspapers." Eye troubles of many kinds may be wonderfully benefited in the following simple manner: Go to any drug store and get a bottle of Non-Opto tablets. Dissolve one tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and use two to four times a day. Your eyes will clear up noticeably right from the start. Inflammation will quickly disappear, along with your tendency to squint. If your eyes are bothering you even a little, take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind men have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time.

TODAY—Canada has its first high-speed European-type Light Car

This New Car Offers:

- 35 miles on a gallon of gasoline
- 35 miles an hour—5 to 30 miles in 13 seconds
- 4-wheel brakes—stops in 2 car lengths from 25 miles an hour
- Turns in 34-foot circle—easiest car in Canada to park
- 5 feet 8 inches high—lower gravity centre—greater safety
- European-type body—more inside room than any other light car

HERE is a remarkable new-type car . . . different from anything you have ever known before . . . A car that combines the latest engineering practices of Europe with new, improved standards of Canadian performance.

This new car has a low, European-type body. With height and length in true symmetrical proportion.

It turns in a 34-foot circle . . . that's less than the width of an average city street. You can park it in 14 feet . . . which is much less than the space required for the ordinary car.

It has a high-torque, 31-horsepower motor of small bore and long stroke—the same engineering principle as used in the fastest racing cars of this continent and Europe.

4-wheel brakes are an integral part of this new car's chassis design . . . a luxury which light car owners have not heretofore enjoyed. Measured tests show that it will stop in 2 car lengths from a speed of 25 miles an hour.

Its centre of gravity is extremely low, with ample road clearance . . . thus giving a sense of security you have never found in any light car before.

Two engineering ideals combined

The Overland Whippet represents a combination of the most advanced European and American engineering thought.

It is a complete new car . . . designed and built as a unit . . . not an old-fashioned reconstructed chassis.

For over three years Willys-Overland engineers in Europe and America have been developing it. Over half a million miles of road tests proved the practical advantages of this car before it was released for production.

The distinctive body lines of the Overland Whippet frankly resemble the smartest automobiles of this continent and Continental Europe. Stand before this car and you can

R. K. Y. C. BOATS AWAY TODAY ON ANNUAL CRUISE

More Than 25 Yachts and Motor Boats to Participate in Event

There will be many happy hearts on the yachts of the Royal Kennebec Yacht Club when anchor is weighed this afternoon and the boats start from Millidgville on their annual cruise which will last for one week.

Headed by the saucy yacht "The Raven", flagship of the cruise, in command of Commodore James W. Barnes, the cruise will hoist anchor today at 8 o'clock at Millidgville. It is expected the yachts will anchor Saturday night at the Cedars. On Sunday they expect to spend the night at either Hampstead or Gagetown and the Narrows on Monday. Tuesday will be spent at the Narrows, an invitation having been received from Dr. A. B. Walters, of Cambridge, for the members of the cruise to use his residence for a dance while there. Needless to say the invitation has been very cordially accepted.

From the Washademoak the squadron will proceed to the main river and thence up the Belleisle and from there to Crystal Beach, arriving at the latter place on Saturday, July 24.

On Sunday, the 25th, the annual church service will be held at Crystal Beach when the fleet will be enlarged by practically every boat from the R. K. Y. C. and the Saint John Power Boat Club. The service will be conducted by Rev. Dr. J. A. Morrison, chaplain of the R. K. Y. C. Thus will end "happy days" for 1926.

ATHLETICS CLOSING IN ON YANKEES

New York Team Now Barely Five and One-half Games in Front

Canadian Press

NEW YORK, July 17.—The New York Yankees who paraded ten games ahead of the American League back a few weeks ago, today felt the hot breath of a desperate sprint by Connie Mack's Athletics to close the diminishing gap between the two clubs.

The margin was shortened to five and one-half games yesterday with a double barreled victory by Philadelphia over St. Louis while the Huggens were barely escaping another defeat at the hands of the Tigers. Third inning batting rallies accounted for both Mack's Athletics to close the diminishing gap between the two clubs.

The Athletics now have won 12 of their last fourteen games as against 5 out of thirteen for the Yankees.

Ruth led the Yankees' successful ninth-inning rally against the Cobblers, which started a three-run rally to turn the tide in favor of New York 4 to 3. The only other American League meles, Levens outpitched Walter Johnson to blank the Senators, 9 to 0. Fifteen singles exorcised from the Indians club, Jamieson leading the bombardment with four safe blows.

Slugging bees developed in two National League conflicts, with the Robins hammering five St. Louis pitchers for an 8 to 7 victory and the Pirates outslugged the Braves 7 to 2.

EMPORIA, Kans., July 17.—"The aristocracy is the gasoline aristocracy. And as a sign of Emporia's social grandeur she is going to have one of those blamed garages."

To which the editor adds today: "How quickly times have changed. Twenty years ago at the garage business was an experiment. Today almost as many men are engaged in the care and feeding of the automobile as are engaged in the care and feeding of home sapiens. It costs almost as much to keep the wheels going under our cars as to keep the wheels going in our heads."

"As it is, the revolution has come quietly and only wise people know how deeply it has affected economics, politics and the American society from top to bottom."

CIVIC TAXES

The Editor Times-Star:

Sir:—The widespread dissatisfaction expressed by the rate payers, since re-issuance of their tax bills, tends to be gathering strength as the day approaches when it is the bounden duty of every citizen to pay the same. The editor's office and contribute his proportion of the levy imposed on him for the maintenance of the services which the city provides for his benefit and enjoyment.

There has been an increase in the rates for a number of years back, and while there have been complaints because of this, it is a fact that the citizen in the end paid up, confidently trusting and believing that the next year would bring him relief of his burdens. Those who looked forward, with hope and encouragement, to an improvement in the city's financial position have had their hopes shattered and are now indignantly protesting and clamoring for a more equitable and economic administration of our civic affairs, than at present obtains.

As is well known the rate this year is $3.90 on every hundred dollars. In 1911, the last year of the old Aldermanic regime, it was $1.96. What it will be next year cannot of course be determined just now, I feel, however, I am justified in assuming that in December next or early in the ensuing year when the warrants are passed over by the Common Council to the Board of Assessors these officials will be asked for an increased levy over the present one in order to meet the city's requirements.

We cannot afford much longer to continue doing business in this manner. For years our debt has been increasing and will continue to increase unless the citizens take a more active interest in the management of our affairs. There is much discontent among our people, that many are leaving us and going to foreign shores to make a livelihood, that the load of taxation is a staggering one and must soon become unbearable, are facts well known to every citizen and therefore, need not further be enlarged upon at this time.

What we need now is a revival of interest in our civic affairs. Let us consider the way and means to provide such an administration of our city as to enable us to pay our taxes and enjoy a government of our own by the people. And when we are thus favored out city must grow and prosper and our people will again enjoy peace and contentment, which is the only basis for a happy life.

Yours truly,
JOHN B. JONES.
Saint John, N. B., July 16, 1926.

TAXES AND THE HOSPITAL

To the Editor of The Saint John Times-Star:

Sir:—The question of taxes in this city seems to be the vital question of the hour and I notice the assessment rate for the General Public Hospital is 20 and that the hospital went behind last year to the extent of fifteen or twenty thousand dollars.

I understand that the doctor in charge of the X-ray machine receives in addition to his regular salary, which I believe is $5,000, one-half the profits on the machine, which increases his salary probably 100 per cent, and my information from other cities would indicate that this salary is out of all proportion to the work done.

I also believe that it is not in the interest of the public to let the doctor

NOVEL COAL POCKET OWNED BY COAL CO.

Believed To Be Only Brick Pocket in Existence—Will Hold 2,000 Tons Coal

Coal pockets are usually built of wood, but Eastern Coal Docks are to have one of brick and a very stable and substantial one at that.

Prior to the purchase of the Lawton's wharf and the large four-story building thereon, by the Eastern Coal Docks, it was thought that this large building would have to be torn down to make room for a building designed solely for the storage of coal. However, upon careful examination of the building it is found to have a foundation like a fort—evidently when old-timers built, they built to last. The walls are several feet thick and built on heavy granite masonry to the ground level. Through the middle of the building run two rows of granite piers about ten feet apart. By simply taking out the ground floor, and replacing it with heavy timbers and plankings, supported by these granite walls and granite piers, ancient strength is secured to hold tremendous weights of coal. F. Roberts, of Roberts, Roberts & Sons, wharf builders, is now engaged in making this alteration and the completed Eastern Coal Docks, Limited, will have storage in the lower portion of this brick building for a most two thousand tons of coal and still have two floors above available for any useful purpose to which they might be put. The brick, of course, is not only permanent but has the additional advantage of being fire-proof. So far as known it is the only brick coal pocket in existence.

Because of the thinner clothing worn, thousands of watches go wrong during the summer months.

FRENCH CANADIAN BATTLER, IN SLASHING FINISH, WINS TITLE

MAGNIFICENT FINISH BY DELANEY TOPPLES BERLENBACH'S CROWN

Sorel, Que., Boy Gains Light Heavyweight Honors in Marvellous Display of Courage Against Odds Last Night
EX-CHAMP HAD 12-POUND MARGIN

Considered Wonderful Triumph Over Tremendous Weight Advantage; Challenger, in Addition, Fractured Bone of Hand; Big Crowd Present

NEW YORK, July 17.—The world's light heavyweight ring crown, jolted from championship heads five times in the last six years, found a new resting place today atop the handsome countenance of Jack Delaney of Sorel, Quebec.

A sensational victory under the unanimous decision of the judges brought the roving Canadian to the Canadian boxer last night—a triumph before a capacity throng of 45,000, which paid $20,000 to see the rivals of two years' standing grapple at Ebbets' Field for the third time.

The verdict for Delaney, who only seven months before had failed to lift the championship from his rugged rival, was as popular as such a victory could be for a ring warrior who had gathered him proximity the greatest following of any challenger since the days of Knockout Brown.

Delaney's impressive exhibition of ring craft, punching power and stamina was a conquest of more than a stout hearted, iron armed gladiator of the old pugilistic school. It was a triumph over a tremendous weight advantage, unmercifully dealt the scales at 151, six pounds over his class limit, while the challenger's mark was put at 139.

Delaney's margin on points was decisive in the estimation of critics at the ring. In the first two rounds, however, there was little to choose between them, with the big advantage of the fight in the early rounds fading before the dog's determined attack of the champion in the seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth.

Delaney scored repeatedly in the last five rounds with his famous right and once in the fourth it appeared as if the leading champion would crumple. But Berlenbach who was knocked out two years ago in four rounds by Delaney and who was floored in their second battle last winter, weathered the storm of punches without going down.

HOW TO SWIM

EVERYONE should know how to swim, and anyone can learn by mastering a few principles and then practicing.

Lillian Cannon, one of the finest swimmers in the world, who is now training for her attempt to swim the English Channel, has written a series of 36 swimming lessons. She writes simply and understandingly. Each lesson is illustrated with a photograph. If you read the lessons and then practice them, you will be able to swim almost before you realize it.

Miss Cannon begins at the beginning, spending considerable time on the principles of keeping afloat. Then, by degrees, she advances to the stage of speed swimming and fancy diving.

There are swimming days, and if you aren't at home in the water you're missing a lot of fun.

No other person is better qualified to teach swimming than Lillian Cannon, who has been a star since her early childhood and who owns record after record.

The series starts on Monday in The Evening Times-Star.

Games Today

The Saint Johns and the Trojans will play this afternoon on the East End grounds in a City League fixture. The Trojans are out to trim "Tommy" Campbell and his boys, but the latter have been going very strong and will put up a good battle. In the evening the Saint Johns look up with the St. Roses in a postponed game on the North End grounds.

Two good games are expected on the South End grounds when the Maitelles play the Nationals in the afternoon, and the St. John Baptists meet the Crescents in the evening.

Many fans will attend the games at St. Peter's Park to see the fast Calais, Me., team in action. Calais always does well here and two good games should be seen when they play St. Peter's next afternoon and the Alerts in the evening.

MANY UNITED STATES ENTRIES ARE EXPECTED

Event Will Bring Out Stars of the Game at Montreal, August 5

MONTREAL, Que., July 17.—With Ross Hemmerville safely cocooned atop the Canadian amateur golf world, the attention of leading golfers, both amateur and professional, is turned to the Canadian Open Golf Championship which will be decided over the new course of the Royal Montreal Golf Club on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, August 5, 6 and 7.

The title and possession of the Rivermead Cup, will be determined by 72 holes of medal play, one round of 18 holes on each of the first two days, and two 18-hole rounds on Saturday for all those who are within 20 strokes of the leader at the end of the first 36 holes.

The usual large entry of United States players to battle the Canadian stars is again expected. THE PRIZE LIST
Prizes this year will total $1,220, including a donation of $200 from the Royal Montreal Club, and the list is as follows: Championship, gold medal and $400 to the winner; the Rivermead Cup, to be held by the club from which the winner is entered; second, $280; third, $200; fourth, $150; fifth, $100; sixth, $75; seventh, $50; eighth, $40; ninth, $30, and tenth, $25. If any of the first 10 places are won by amateurs they will receive the equivalent of the prize money in plate, and the leading amateur will receive a gold medal from the Royal Canadian Golf Association. In addition, there are special prizes for professionals holding positions with clubs belonging to the R. C. G. A., the Royal Montreal Club and the "Canadian Golfer" presenting prizes of $88 and $18 each for the first and second Canadian pros in the event.

Entries for the championship close on August 2 with B. L. Anderson, Toronto, secretary of the R. C. G. A.

FATE OF THE CITY LEAGUE HINGES ON MEETING

FINNAMORE ROW MAY DISRUPT CITY CIRCUIT

Trojans and St. Roses Ask for Showdown—May Withdraw

WHAT promises to be a momentous meeting of the Saint John Senior Amateur Baseball League, when the circumstances surrounding the recent dismissal of Arthur Finnamore from his position as an umpire will be thoroughly threshed out, has been called for this evening and the result will be awaited with much interest by the fans.

Finnamore had been having more or less friction with players, those on the team of the Water Department in particular, and, as the result of his banishment from a recent game of a player of that organization, a league meeting was called and his resignation asked.

The fate of the league will hinge on the meeting this evening and has been called, according to one official, to find out whether the players on one team manage the league or the league officials have control. It was learned of excellent authority by The Times-Star that unless Finnamore is reinstated or good and valid reasons given for his dismissal, the St. Roses and Trojans teams will withdraw from the organization.

Magnificent Finish By Delaney Wins Title

PUNCHING HARD AT BELL

PRELIMINARY BOUTS

Bantamweights held the opening place of the spot light in the preliminaries to the Berlenbach-Delaney bout with Tommy Lorenzo, of New York, gaining a four-round decision over Billy Reynolds, of Jersey City. Lorenzo weighed 125½ pounds and Reynolds 120 pounds.

Monte Munn, Nebraska's "Larving" Legislator, pounded his way to a decisive victory over Gordon Muncie, New York heavy weight, in four rounds. Munn floored Muncie with a right, weighing 208 pounds and Muncie 196½ pounds.

ROYALS TURN BACK THE NATIONALS

on the South End diamond last evening in a good ball game, the final score being 9 to 1. The Royals collected five hits off Leary, doing mound duty for the Nationals, while the latter bumped Paul for seven safe ones. Paul had 11 strikeouts to his credit while his opponent had five.

The game produced some snappy fielding. Paul pitched one of his best games. Although out of the Royals and got them when needed, Roberts and Mowry, for the losers, and Austin, for the winners, did some exceptionally good fielding. Austin and Wittrien, each had good nights with the willow.

Sleepy Child Vies With Band For Honors at Evening Concert

A young woman with a toddling babe and another in carriage divided interest with the band concert on King Square last evening, to the disconcerting of a large number of people. The child by the hand was tired and sleepy and cried for its rest, but from early in the evening until 10.15 it was kept awake by claps and jerks, and caused quite an uproar. Several residents admonished the young mother to take her child home, and one indignant lady called from a window threatening to call the police if the woman maltreated her youngster any more. All the while the woman gazed with a friend on the sidewalk. A police officer consulted, said there was plenty of law for such cases if it were invoked.

SEE THE FALLS

At high tide the water of the Bay of Fundy reaches a higher level than the water of the Saint John River and flows down river through the gorges of the Falls, creating a "Falls" at low tide.

At low tide the water in the Bay and River are about equal, the Falls disappears entirely, and the water of the Falls becomes smooth as the surface of a lake.

To fully appreciate this wonder of the world it should be seen at all times.

The best time to view this phenomenon is:

Franklin Carter, son of Edward H. Carter, United States vice-consul here, who has been attending High School in Milwaukee, is visiting his father for the summer holidays. He will return to Milwaukee about September first to enter his last year's studies.

Mr. Carter, during his spare hours and holidays, has been working with the Associated Press and is keenly interested in newspaper work. He also is an ardent amateur radio fan and owns and operates station 9UJ, which he built himself. He says that there are now about 20,000 amateur stations active in the United States and Canada, with 30 or 40 in Milwaukee alone. As these amateur stations work on short wave lengths there is very little interference with the commercial stations, and any infractions of the law are closely checked up and the licenses of the offending amateurs cancelled.

Principal Rex Cormier has four boys in the 800 class and over and several very close to 800. Last year Donald Jones, of this building, was the leading boy, afterwards being the High School leader and valedictorian. According to the marks appearing on page 3 of this issue, this showing of the South End school is one of the brilliant high spots of the list.
