TORONTO. CANADA. Feb. 12, 1902 TORONTO. CANADA. Feb. 12, 1902. THE Octavius Newcombe Co. are operating their extensive factories in this city to full capacity, endeavoring to keep pace with orders for their popular Newcombe planos. The Newcombe planos have been extremely popular throughout the Dominion of Canada for a number of years, and the company have been obliged to increase their manufacturing facilities from time to time in order to keep pace with their constantly growing business. While these planos have always met with a great deal of favor among the musical critics of the country, they have increased in popularity to a great extent since they received a gold medal at the Paris Exposition in 1900. The Newcombe plano is a strictly high-grade instrument, and possesses excellent tene quality, and has received the ment, and possesses excellent tene quality, and has received the endorsement of many of the leading musicians and artists in Canda; they have also been highly recommended by visiting artists, who have used these planes for concert and recital work in this city and in other parts of the country. They make a specialty of their case designs and their planes are always finished in the highest possible manner; they are made throughout of carefully selected material by the most competent mechanics which it is possible to secure—N. #### CHICAGO'S PERIL.

The Sky-Scrapers Likely to Corrode and Fall.

CHICAGO, March 15.—"The steel frame work in many of the big buildings in the business district of Cricago is corroding, making them very sangerous. It is only a question of a few years when these buildings will fall to the ground."

This statement was made by General William S. Smith, at the Thirty-Fifth annual dinner of the Chicago real estate board. He added: "That the steel frame work of some of the skyscrapers is nothing short of a public outrage."

skyscrapers is nothing short of a public outrage."

The speaker explained that his statements were based on personal observations and investigations.

"The steel frame work imbedded in concrete will last 2,000 years," he said, "But the steel frame work in many of the big buildings is left free to the action of the air and gases which circulate through the space about the steel. The owners of these structures have the steel painted with oil, this oil will withstand the corroding process about three years. Then begins the corroding of the steel, and within a few years our skyscrapers will fall."

The speaker said that the elevated road structure would not withstand the corrosion. He asserted that within ten years out of service. The corrosion of one-fifth of the thickness of the steel frame works of the structures, he said, will render them incapable of bearing their own weight.

VERY SWELL CLUB

For the Benefit of Americans Who Visit London.

Visit London.

London, March 15.—The report that Americans will shortly have a Landon club equal in exclusiveness and prominence to any of the leading clubs in the United States is confirmed. An influential Anglo-American committee was formed this week for the purpose of arranging all the details and getting the organization prior to the coronation of King Edward. Among the committeemen are Lords Kintore, Suffield, Craven and Marcus Beresford, Major General Sir Reginald Pole Carew. Anthony Drexel and Reginal Ward. Other prominent men, both British and American, are expected to join the organization in the near future. The club's name will be the Columbla, and its quarters will be in a large building now occupied by the Evondale hotel, Plecadilly, near St. James street. The object is to afford Americans, who are now barred by their nationality from several leading London clubs, a social headquarters in the British capital such as they have at home. Ladies will be allowed the privilege of admission to certain rooms, including the reading room, which will be catered in a style similar to London's best known restaurants. When started, this will be the most expensive club in England, the, entrance fee, 250, being more than the fee asked by any English club.

IRISH ANTIQUITY.

IRISH ANTIQUITY.

LONDON, March 15.—A remarkable discovery has been made in County Mayo, Ireland, where a wooden boat, believed to be nearly 2,000 years old, has been dug up by some laborers, They struck something hard with their spades and at first thought it was a coffin. Later a boat, beautifully carved from the trunk of an oak tree, was revealed. It was 16 feet long and showed absolutely no plans of decay. The wood was so hard that the hatchets made scarcely any impression on it. The boat will shortly be taken to the Dublin museum.

A BLOODY BATTLE

Gen. Castro Forced to Retreat From Agua Dulce.

Over 700 Killed or Wounded-A Hard Seventeen Days March.

COLON. Colombia, March 14 -The following report was obtained from the government troops which arrived here yesterday from Bocas Del Toro:

Upon finding the revolutionary attack upon Agua Dulco, Feb, 23, to be irresistable owing to the enemy's superior numbers, General Gastro decided to retreat to David and Chiriqui, which towns were known to be hard pressed by the revolutionists under Quintero and Berez. This is a long and tiresome march of over 200 miles by way of Santiago, Las Palmas, Remedios and Horconcitos. Shortly after leaving Horconcitos a small body of government troops was met. These hen reported that Col. Luque had been killed in battle Feb. 2, and that the revolutionists were in possession of David. General Castro, therefore, decided to try and effect the difficult march. The march occupied seventeen days. wing report was obtained from cheet to try and effect the march of the march occupied seventeen days.

General Castro's soldiers report that sold men on both sides were killed during the fighting at Agua Dulce. The revolutionists lost 500 and the government force 250 men. It is also said revolutionists lost 500 and the government force 250 men. It is also said that the Indian chief, Lorenzo, and his half-caste Indians participated in the attacks and killed mny of the government soldiers with machetes. The rifle fire during the Agua Dulce battle was deadly and persistent. The slaughter and massacre at this battle are described as something awful. The remainder of General Castro's command, which originally numbered one thousand men, have been killed, wounded, taken prisoners or have escaped.

The minister of war, General Fernandez, has issued a circular letter to the civil and military chiefs of the departments, in which he declares that the recent engagements between the government troops and the insurgents were allogether favorable to the government. The Norwegian steamer Simon Dumois, which arrived here yesterday (bringing Generals Castro and Ortiz and three hundred men and sixty officers), also had on board about forty government officials from Agua Dulce.
Among the officers who arrived here yesterday is Col. Alban, nephew of the late General Albap. The government is confident that the revolutionists are still unable to take either Colon or Panama. Informants will doubtless soon arrive here from the Interior.
PANAMA, March 14.—The government generals, Castro and Ortiz, arrived here this morning and received one of the most enthusiastic welcomes ever witnessed in Panama. The cheers for the generals were deafening.

Referring to the engagement at Agua Dulce, Feb. 23, General Castro told the representative of the Associated Press that the government troops, numbering eight hundred men, were attacked by three thousand revolutionists. On the third day of the fighting both drinking water and ammunition in Auga Dulce began to be scarce and General Castro ordered his troops to retreat. To do this the government forces had to break through the rebel lines.

M. McDADE'S VIEW.

M. McDADE'S VIEW.

In today's Freeman M. McDade sets forth reasons why there is great dissatisfaction among New Brunswick liberals. In summing up he says there are three principal causes, as follows:—
"The first is that Mr. Blair, in becoming the liberal leader at Ottawa, did not cut clear of his conservative friends with whom he was associated in the provincial field; the second is that Mr. Blair has enslaved himself in trying to master the details of his railway department instead of leaving that work to his officials, and taking charge of the patronage question himself; and the third is that the liberals themselves have not taken the grip with the authorities respecting the matter of patronage."

As a remedy Mr. McDade proposes that Hon. Mr. Emmeron be taken into the cabinet to look after the question of New Brunswick patronage, while Mr. Blair gives his time to his own department.

Mr. McDade also says that either Mr.

Mr. Blair gives his time to his own department,
Mr. McDade also says that either Mr. Billis, Mr. Gillmor, Judge Gregory or Senator McSweeney would have given better satisfaction to liberals as governor than Hon. Mr. Snowball; and that if the office had to go to a former conservative either John Costigan or Judge Landry would have been preferable.

FORMER BRITISH M. P.

Closeted With Boer Envoys at Chicago This Week.

CHICAGO, March 15.—The Inter-Ocean tells of a meeting between Dr. G. B. Clark, a former member of the British parliament and a strong peace party man, who is in Chicago, supposedly on business, and the Boer envoys, C. H. Wessels, A. D. W. Wolmarans and Montague White, at a small dinner given by Peter Van Vlissingen in a private room at the Chicago Athletic club.

Mashington yesterday. Dr. Clark reported here Thursday. Dr. Clark's visit and the motive therefore, according to the Inter-Ocean, is veiled in mystery and it also alleges that it was against his wishes that his presence in the city at this time became known to anyone outside of the officers of the Transvaal league.

at this time became known to anyone outside of the officers of the Transvaal league.

Dr. Clark is known to be one of the strongest opponents the English war party has today. Until two months ago he left no stone unturned in the house of commons in his efforts to have the war brought to a close. He is now one of the acknowledged leaders of the peace party in England. In his opinion the Boers should receive liberty, His mission to this country, it is said, has been kept a secret and none of the Boer envoys of Transvaal league officials will say much of it. The dinner was behind closed doors, and no one save the host and his five guests heard what was discussed. Those present were the three special envoys, Dr. Clark, S. A. Calhoun, a member of the Chicago Transvaal league, and Mr. Van. Vlissingen.

SURVIVED MOUNTAIN MEADOW.

LAGRANGE, Ind., March 15—Lewis J. Grant, of Kalamažoo, has just heard from his brother Alexander, whom he has not seen for fifty years, and who was supposed to have been nurdered by the Indians and Mormons in the Mountain Meadow massacre.

The family lived at Glengarry, Ontario, and Alexander went to California in search of gold. After a few years had elapsed and no tidings came from him, Lewis started in search of him. Then a third brother started in search of the two brothers, and he is still missing.

Alexander, now 70 years of age, is living at Bell Grade, Neb. He inserted an advertisement in a newspaper and thus his whereabouts became known. It develops that Lewis's children attended school where Alexander's daughter acted as teacher, but the identification never became known. Every effort is now being made to find a trace of the third brother.

On "nurday is Easter week, April and, the congresation of Trigity church will hold a conversation."

Trinity church, which was considerably damaged by the severe gales of last month, is undergoing extensive repairs, which will be completed in a few days.

This church on Sunday will introduce a novelty. For years a surpliced choir furnished the music Quite recently the musical people of the church decided that the music should be improved. The first step was to increase the choir accommodation from forty to sixty voices. The next move was to procure the voices, J. and J. D. Howe did an excellent job, and as a result there is choir room for sixty voices.

R. P. Strand, the organist and choirmaster of Trinity, has gathered together the best choir St. John has ever heard. The male surpliced choir was an excellent one, but Mr. Strand realized that it could be improved by the addition of female voices. Consequently the present scheme was instituted, and on Sunday the music in Trinity will be sung by fifty-eight voices.

The additional members of the choir will be ladies, who will wear the cassock and surplice, with a mortar board on their heads.

The members of the choir are as follows:

John Connor of the Consumers' Cordage Co. is said to be the advance guard of the binder twine delegation to wait on the government. United States legislation as now completed allows the free export of Manila fibre from the Philippines for use in the United States, but not for use in foreign countries. Binder twine and cordage manufacturers will have to pay seven dollars and a half per ton export duty on their raw material, while at the same time United States binder twine comes free into this country, and the present duty on cordage is said to be only sufficient to preserve the home industry. Mr. Connor states that the recent United States legislation will be a heavy if not fatal blow to Canadian industries.

Anyone Sick?

Then you need Vapo-Cresolene in the house. There is nothing equal to it for purifying the air and making it free from all germs of disease. It quickly and completely destroys disagreeable odors, and yet is perfectly safe. It matters not what the disease may be, typhoid fever, bilious fever, or any other fever, or disease of any kind, you should use Vapo-Cresolene in the sick-room.

You put some Cresolene in the vaporizer, light the lamp beneath, and let the purifying and germ-destroying vapor fill the room. You can prevent diphtheria, scarlet fever, whooping-cough, and other contagious diseases by using Vapo-Cresolene.

For asthma, bronchitis, sore throat and hard colds, it is the common sense cure; and for croup is a perfect specific.

Gentlemen:—I take great pleasure in recommending your Vapo-Cresolene. I have spoken of it to a great many of my friends and to hundreds of my fellow workers in the Salvation Army. Many of them have used it with excellent results, and I have, without hesitation, stated in our publications that I recommend that no family where there are young children should be without this Vaporice.

SATURDAY SERMONETTE.

(By a Cynic,)
"Be good, and you will be loneso.
Mark Twain.

"Be good, and you will be lonesome."

"Mark Twain.

Often a great truth is found in a small and seemingly flippant paragraph. Mark Twain has in this voiced one that was hoary headed with age when Cain rose up and smote Abel so that he died. The murdered man was good, and lonesome. And so it has been throughout time. The one touch of nature that makes the whole world kin is not the good and noble quality of the possessor. He who has such is admired, but not loved. The heart of hearts is opened for the one who has failings, and faults. The truly good is too far beyond us, but the recognition of our own pet sins in the lives of others is the open sesame to love. This truth is not an inducement to sin, but a simple statement of fact. The man who is inclined to sway from the paths of rectitude by the knowledge that elsewhere is companionship, has sinned already. Lonesomeness is not for him. Man naturally is a gregarious animal, and man naturally is sinful. The two appear to be synonymous. In this may be found the explanation of the hermit life. Solitary and alone man may be good; individually his tendencles may be in that direction, but solitude and loneliness do not appeal to him, and so he leaves the narrow pathway, scarce wide enough for one, and seeks the pleasanter thoroughfare where two or three may gather together, where the journey may be passed with pleasant companionship, with a feast of reason and a flow of soul. Some person said, but he had no personal knowledge, that the road to a certain final resting place was paved with good intentions. If the person who made the remark was credibly informed this pavement is probably formed by intentions to be good, which people let drop from the narrow pathway wherein they had first essayed to move. The knowledge that there was loneliness struck them too forcibly—and they left.

A great meeting in the interests of Independent Forestry was held at St. George last evening. The hall was so crowded that though chairs were placed in the alsles many persons had to be content with standing room. The meeting was held under the auspices of Court Mistletoe, I. O. F., and quite a number of members of other courts were present and had seats on the platform, J. Oscar Baldwin, chief ranger of Court Mistletoe, presided.

The speakers were E. R. Chapman, H. C. R.; Rev. A. H. Lavers, who was made an honorary member of the order, and Senator Gillmor, who had come down from Ottawa to attend the meeting.

An excellent musical programme was also carried out. There were solos by Mrs. J. Sutton Clark, R. T. Wetmore and Joseph Murray, and duets by Miss Hibbard and Miss O'Brien. The accompanists were Miss Hibbard and Mr. Sinclair.

Yesterday afternoon Archibald Cameron and Fred. H. Rose, for assaulting Conway, were fined twenty-five dollars each. The amount is being made up by the horsemen, and the prisoners will in all probability be released today. This morning Mrs. Ann O'Brien of Carleton appeared in the police court.

Carleton appeared in the police court to make information against her son, Thomas O'Brien, for assaulting her. A to make information against her son. Thomas O'Brien, for assaulting her. A warrant was issued at once, and almost before the ink was dry O'Brien was made a prisoner by Sergt. Baxter. He was brought before the police court and Magistrate Henderson read the charge to him. Mr. Henderson said that of all cases which had come up in the police court in his experience this was perhaps the most deplorable. A few days ago O'Brien, at the earnest request of his brother and sister, had been released from jail in order that he might hear a last few words from his dying father. Instead of going home he had at once got drunk, and when he did reach his father's house in Carleton it was to make a disturbance and demand money. For years he has ill-treated his parents, threatening his mother and demanding money from her, even asking ninety dollars to pay Liz. Whelan's fine. And now, while his father's no his dying hea he from her, even asking ninety dollars to pay Liz Whelan's fine. And now, while his father is on his dying bed, he uses vile and filthy language to his old mother and threatens to put her out of business. He was remanded for of business. He was remanded for three days.

O'Brien stated that if a word concerning him appeared in the Star he would break the reporter's neck at the earliest opportunity. The public may expect to hear of a calamity in the near future if O'Brien carries out his threat.

A PRO-BOER IN TOWN.

A PRO-BOER IN TOWN.

The Seamen's Mission has produced another character of more than ordinary interest in the person of one Richard Cooper, who, as a pro-Boer debater, promises to outrival his better known brethern throughout the country. Cooper is an Englishman by birth, but some years ago moved with his family to the Transvaal, where he obtained employment with one of the gold mining companies on the Rand. According to his story, when war was first declared he refused to take uparms although his sentiments were altogether in favor of the Boers, and he was given notice to leave the country. His family he sent to Australia, while he himself, on account of his known prejudice against his native land, was permitted to remain in the Transvaal and continued at his employment as watchman at the mines. He says he has never been on commando, although he was asked by a field corner named McKenzle, to join his force. Cooper left Africa in May of last year and has recently arrived in St. John. He speaks on behalf of the Boer cause with great warmth, upholds the justice of their claims and is confident that in the end they will be successful. He has not yet blossomed out into a public speaker, but talks at every opportunity to whoever will listen to him. At present he is pursuing the Sear line steamer David Weston and at dinner hour enlightens his fellow laborers as to why the Boers fired on the white flag. The David Weston is not being palnted red, for in spite of his belligerent conversation, Cooper is a remarkably harmless looking individual.
