SICKNESS COSTS CITY OF LONDON OVER $1,000,000 YEARLY, SAYS DR. RAMSAY

Interesting Address Delivered Before Ministerial Association Outlines Objects of Academy of Medicine—The Loss in Wages Caused by Sickness Estimated To Be At Least $150,000 Annually.

The policy of the Western Ontario Academy of Medicine was outlined to the London Ministerial Association this morning at its monthly meeting in the Y. M. C. A. by Dr. George A. Ramsay, who declared the objectives of the academy to be an improvement of conditions such as will result in the better health for the individual, the community and the nation.

The cost of hospital care for one day for one patient in London is $3.30, said Dr. Ramsay. "As an estimate of the situation I am putting the number of hospital patients of earning age at 3,000 with an average "in" capacity of two weeks. This amounts to about $150,000, which is just about the objective of collections for the united welfare and charities of the city. Add to this the loss in wages another $150,000 and remember that you have not touched any estimate of sickness in the home probably three times as much as in the hospital. I think I am within the mark in saying that it costs the city of London a $1,000,000 a year to be sick and this exclusive of professional fees or sickroom supplies.

Health an Asset.

"The key note of national economy is production. Every individual is a national asset active or potential in the matter of production, hence in national prosperity is in direct ratio to individual productiveness which in turn is greatest when the individual enjoys perfect health. London is one-thousandth of the national population, I leave you to estimate the national loss due to ill health. The question is what are you going to do about it and each expects the answer from the other.

"What is everybody's business is nobody's business. Let us rather ask what are we going to do? My answer at once is that no matter how near the ideal we arrive we cannot keep everyone "fit"—prevent every ill and ache, or have people live forever. But it is always possible to do better than at the present and that possibility was accomplished in the army during the last year of the war. Army medicine advanced the science of applied medicine more in those five years than would otherwise have been accomplished in the next 25. Preventive medicine eliminated typhoid, controlled within narrow channels malaria and tetanus and other diseases that have scourged other armies in the field.

"If one safety first week eliminates traffic accidents it is reasonable to suppose that frequent hygienic reminders will tend to make more healthy people.

Doctor's Value $20,000.

LEAGUE COUNCIL TO CONSIDER DELETION OF COVENANT CLAUSE

The Amendment To Take Out Article Ten Was Moved by Hon. C. J. Doherty.

RELIEF FOR ARMENIA

Matters of Vital Importance Up For Decision At the Conference.

Paris, Feb. 21.—Questions of great importance to Allied and former enemy nations were laid before the council of the League of Nations, which met here today. These problems included the Allied attitude toward Danzig and Armenia, the proposed plebiscite in Lithuania and plans for the relief of Armenia.

In addition, a commission to study amendments to the covenant of the league, which was proposed at the meeting of the league assembly at Geneva was to be named. Three of these amendments were especially important. One, introduced at Geneva by Hon. C. J. Doherty, Canadian minister of justice, and one of the delegates representing Canada, proposed that Article X, about which storms of opposition have raged, should be eliminated from the covenant. Two others were sponsored by Honorario Predon, Argentine foreign minister. One would proclaim as members of the league all nations which have not announced their desire to remain outside, and the other would provide that all members of the league council should be elected by the assembly. It was forecast that the administrative commission for the Sarre Valley would be reappointed.

The council met at the Petit Luxembourg Palace, residence of Leon Bourgeois, president of the French Senate and former president of the council, Dr. Gastos Da Cunha, Brazilian ambassador to France, and president of the council, was in the chair. M. Bourgeois represented France; Arthur J. Balfour was the British delegate while Italy, Spain, Belgium, Japan and China were represented, respectively, by Marquis Imperiali, Di Francavilla, Count Quinones De Leon, Paul Hymans, Viscount Ishii and Dr. Wellington Koo. It was stated by officials charged with the organization of the work of the conference that it was hoped the discussion of the agenda would be completed by March 3.

Switzerland's refusal to allow league contingents to cross that country on their way to Lithuania would be discussed early during the meeting, it was declared. While announcements have stated that the calling of the meeting in this city instead of Geneva was not influenced by Switzerland's refusal, it is known that there has been considerable feeling in the council, one member having refused to go to Geneva. While it was not expected the council would act upon suggestions that the capital of the league be removed from Geneva, such action is being discussed in league circles. One feature of the question is the difficulty of securing adequate hotel accommodations in Geneva for the next meeting of the assembly, to be held in September, 1922.

THREE GREAT POWERS EXPECTED TO FAVOR TREATY REVISION

London, Feb. 21.—Agreement between Great Britain, France and Italy for alterations of the treaty of Sevres, favorable to the Turks, seemed probable here today, it was currently reported. Mr. Lloyd George called early this forenoon on Premier Briand, of France, going to the latter's hotel. They had a long conversation before proceeding to Downing Street for a conference with Foreign Minister Sforza of Italy. At this meeting the Italian representative formally presented to the British premier Italy's reasons for desiring a modification of the Sevres treaty.

It is known that a section of the British cabinet supports changes in the treaty which would favor the Turks.

ISSUES WARNING AGAINST NEW GERMAN PROPAGANDA

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 21.—American Legion posts throughout the United States were asked today by the Legion's national headquarters here to watch for a revival of German propaganda.

A bulletin sent out by the national headquarters said the object of the propaganda seemed intended to turn American sentiment against the Allies and to create "a powerful national political machine by the amalgamation of the disloyal elements in the population."

Mass meetings in New York, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Chicago, Milwaukee, Louisville, Omaha and Cleveland have been planned, the bulletin said, as "one of the first national manifestations" of the propaganda campaign.

PUBLIC WILL NOT BE EXCLUDED AT SPRACKLIN'S TRIAL; "FIGHTING PARSON" SEEMS TO BE OPTIMISTIC

Sir William Mulock Declines to Accept Reservations Made For Him at Detroit Hotel—Attorneys for the Defence Decline to Comment On Case — Spracklin in a Brief Address to Congregation Expresses Hope That He Will Be With Members of Church Next Sunday.

Windsor, Feb. 21.—Canadian Press.—The public will not be excluded from the courtroom in Sandwich during the Spracklin trial, which will commence tomorrow morning provided the grand jury returns a true bill this afternoon. Announcement to this effect was made this morning, following the arrival in Windsor of Sir William Mulock, chief justice of Ontario, who will preside at the spring assizes.

On Saturday, Sheriff C. N. Anderson was quoted as saying that the public would be barred during the hearing of the famous case. This morning Sheriff Anderson said a wrong construction had been placed upon his statement. What he wished to convey to the public mind was that, owing to the limited accommodation afforded by the courtroom at Sandwich, great care would have to be exercised to preserve seats for the jury, with lawyers and press representatives. The public will be admitted until the seats are filled, when the doors will be closed. No spectators will be allowed to stand.

Sir William Mulock, the judge who will preside at the sessions of the court, arrived on the 11:45 o'clock Grand Trunk Railway train last night. He was informed, upon his arrival, that reservation had been made for him at the Statler Hotel, Detroit. Sir William refused to avail himself of the accommodation offered by the American hostelry.

He stated that he would not, while administering His Majesty's law leave the Dominion and take up quarters in a foreign country. He asked that rooms be engaged at a Windsor Hotel. Sheriff Anderson procured accommodation for Sir William at the British-American Hotel.

Makes Brief Statement.

Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin did not preach at the Methodist Church, Sandwich, at either of the Sunday services. Rev. A. W. Barker of Howard Avenue Methodist Church occupied Mr. Spracklin's pulpit at night. At the close of the service, Mr. Spracklin made a brief reference to the case, which has been pending for so long.

He expressed the hope that he could be with his congregation again on the next Sabbath, but admitted that it would depend on the finding of the court. He referred to the numberless reports which had appeared in the press concerning him since the shooting, many of which presented him in an unfavorable light. He felt the misrepresentation which everyone must reckon with, and for that reason he had de-

REAL ESTATE OWNERS SEEK TO DISCREDIT HOUSING COMMISSION

CITY WILL NOT LOSE

Pine Lawn Location Admirable for Workingmen's Homes.

Every dwelling built by the housing commission will be sold by May 1, D. J. Tallant, vice-president of that body, predicted today. There is no ground for the criticism levelled at the commission by some of the aldermen at the last meeting of No. 1 committee, he declared. There is not the slightest possibility of the city losing $100,000, or even as much as $500 on all the work.

Providing Cheap Homes.

Real estate owners are anxious to discredit the commission because they are providing cheap homes for the people, he charged. He claimed that if the commission was to withdraw from the field that owners would advance from by to 75 per cent in the spring, when, he predicts, there will be a rush for houses because of the new factories opening.

He claimed that the Pine Lawn houses are ideally situated as homes for workmen at the new factories. They are within ten minutes' walk of the proposed London Motor Factory and twenty minutes' walk of the Ruggles Motor Company.

Expects a Rush.

"The work of the housing commission, except for making individual loans, is finished for a time. What the city really wants now is a renting commission," he declared. "I would like to see regulations amended so that we could rent some of these houses at a reasonable figure. A tenant, after living in the house for a year might decide to buy it, and the rent he had paid up to that time could be applied as a first payment. That would be one way of disposing of the houses. But even if this is not done, I am confident there will be no difficulty in selling every house that has been put up. There is not a great demand just now because no one is anxious to change quarters in midwinter, but as soon as the spring comes I think there will be a rush for houses, particularly in the area where industrial development is taking place."

Aldermen disclaim the charge that the city is responsible for delay in selling the houses because local improvements were not carried out at Pine Lawn.

"The houses were not completed until December," said Ald. Drake. "In spite of that we took men off other city jobs and had them grade streets at Pine Lawn so that the houses could be occupied. We were held up on the laying of sewers and water mains, because the London bill was defeated, and it was not until late in the summer that the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board authorized the work." He criticized the commission for building on a site so far from the centre of the city.

Ald. F. E. Harley did not believe there had been any unwarrantable interference from the council, as some of the commissioners complained. "There were certain phases of the housing work with which No. 1 committee had to deal," he pointed out. "It was paying the cost of employing a man to sell houses, and it was only right it should have power to say if this was to be continued. When a request for another Government loan for 1921 work had to come through the committee. It was only natural the committee would discuss it before deciding on it."

Some discussion in regard to the situation may occur at the council meeting tonight, although nothing regarding it appears in the reports of either No. 1 or No. 2 committees.

ALL OPPOSITION GROUPS IN HOUSE WILL VOTE SOLIDLY "NO CONFIDENCE" MOTION

Progressives, Led by Crerar, To Support King's Amendment —Government's Majority Is Dangerously Small—Many On Sick List Are "Unpaired"—The Death of Captain Tom Wallace of West York Further Weakens Meighen's Administration.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, Feb. 21.—From present indications the Opposition groups will be a unit behind the "no confidence" amendment of Hon. W. L. MacKenzie King. It is intimated this morning that Hon. T. A. Crerar, leader of the Progressives, who arrived last evening, takes the view that his party has no choice but to support the amendment. While the majority of his western followers are personally not in favor of a general election until after redistribution, they cannot see how, having voted 'no confidence' in the Borden Government last session, they can consistently vote confidence in the Meighen Government this session. Moreover, they are suspicious of the sort of redistribution which will be secured from the present administration.

Real Small Majority.

The Government's majority will be very small indeed. Misfortunes in the shape of illness and death among members have come, not singly, but in groups. By the death of Captain Tom Wallace of West York yesterday, the Government has lost one of its most loyal supporters. Hon. T. W. Crothers, former minister of labor, has suffered a second stroke, and is at the present time seriously ill. Of those who voted with the Government last year, Right Hon. A. L. Sifton, Col. Harry Macleod and David Marshall have since died. Messrs. Logie, Tremain, Harrold, Richardson, Allen, McGregor, are on the sick list, and unpaired. Burnham has lost his seat. Sir Thomas White is busy on the Grand Trunk board of arbitration. Sir Herbert Ames and Barney Hpeburn are overseas (also unpaired), Hon. A. K. MacLean, W. A. Buchanan and John Campbell have crossed the floor of the House.

Under the circumstances the Government will be able to command but a narrow majority. In the event of defeat it would be the duty of the premier and his cabinet to resign, and request the governor-general to select his successor. It would then devolve upon Mr. King to form a cabinet, and then appeal to the country.

WESTERN UNIONISTS' CAUCUS.

Ottawa, Feb. 21.—Canadian Press.—Following their custom of last year, the Western Unionists will caucus from time to time during the present session. The first caucus will be held tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock, when a full attendance of the Western Unionist members is promised.

W. D. Cowan, (Regina) chairman of last year's caucus, called the first meeting at which organization and program will be the two most important subjects dealt with.

PRUNING ESTIMATES.

Ottawa, Febz. 21.—Canadian Press.—Good progress is being made in the preparation of this year's estimates, but a couple of weeks will probably elapse before they are ready for presentation to the House. Wherever possible, it is said, the estimates will be severely pruned.

STREET CARS FOR WORKMEN ONLY ADVOCATED BY ALDERMAN DRAKE

Not Practicable, Say Manager King of Street Railway and Ald. F. E. Harley—Workman Would Not Mind Tired Damsel Sitting On His Lap, Says Ald. John Ashton.

Although there is a strong sentiment in favor of special cars for workmen during rush hours, it is doubtful if anything will be done to bring the plan into effect. Manager C. B. King declared today that every available car is being used at the present time. Every available bit of rolling stock is pressed into service during the evening rush hour.

No capital is available to buy new cars, but even if it were Mr. King does not think that cars "for workmen" only would be practicable. "If such a car were to come along with room for passengers available on it, there would be a rush for it, and the conductor wouldn't be able to single out the workmen from the others," he said. "It would be a continual source of trouble."

Ald. Harley said such a plan might be successful with motor buses, but that it would be impossible with a street car. "The conductor would have to be armed with a club to keep the people off the car," he said. "He would have an awful job trying to keep women off the car if they wanted to get on. Then I doubt if the traffic would really justify it. These special cars might be only half filled for most of the trip, as all the workmen would not go to the very end of the line. When all kinds of passengers are taken the traffic is fairly equally distributed over the whole route."

The alderman was somewhat evasive when questioned on the ethical ground as to whether men should give their seats to women when cars are crowded. "Every passenger who pays his fare should get a seat," he declared. "They ought to get a reduced rate when they have to stand. When there's standing room only at the theatres the price of admission is less than when you get a seat, so why shouldn't the same principle apply to street cars."

Ald. Harley was recently representing the city in Toronto at a town planning and housing conference, he was asked how this point of etiquette is observed in the Queen City. He replied that he had only ridden the cars twice, and that on both occasions there had been plenty of seats for everybody, so that he could not say whether Toronto males were more gallant than the Londoners, who insist on the "first-come, first-served" policy, in regard to seats.

Ald. John Ashton thought the problem could be settled by a little co-operation on the part of the passengers. Many tired workingmen and, in fact, men of all classes, would be more than willing to accommodate a charming woman passenger with a seat on their lap, he claims. In this way everybody would be made happy.

Ald. G. B. Drake believes that cars "for workmen only" would be feasible, and that they are necessary. He declares that women who have been enjoying themselves at theatres in the afternoon should be able to walk to their homes or to wait until the supper hour rush is over. He does not blame workingmen who have long distances to go for not giving up their seats to women.

TURK NATIONALISTS TO OPEN NEW OFFENSIVE AGAINST THE GREEKS

Lloyd George and Briand Agree to Revision of the Sevres Treaty—Turkey Would Secure Additional Territory in Thrace Now Occupied by Greeks—Frontier Line Would Be Moved Westward.

London, Feb. 21.—The opening of a new offensive by the Turkish Nationalists against the Greeks on the Smyrna front is expected, says a Constantinople dispatch to the Evening News today. The Nationalists are concentrating in great strength along the front, the dispatch adds.

AGREE TO REVISION.

London, Feb. 21.—Revision of the treaty of Sevres, seems to give Turkey additional territory in Thrace now occupied by the Greeks, was decided upon by Mr. Lloyd George and M. Briand today in consultations preceding the Near East conference here. This decision, before coming effective, however, required the approval of the Allied colleagues of the French premier and the British prime minister.

According to this Franco-British agreement the frontier line in Thrace will be moved westward extending from Enos on the Aegean to Midia on the Black Sea. This would take from Greece one fourth of the territory she now occupies there and add it to the Constantinople district. The Turks also under this agreement, are to be allowed representation on the international commission controlling Constantinople. The proposals thus formulated will be submitted to the conference as a whole.

It is understood that Mr. Lloyd George and M. Briand arrived at the pinion, as a result of their consultation, that the Greek question might be susceptible on a much speedier settlement than had been previously thought.

The British and French statesmen's impression was that the Greeks would be satisfied with the proposals to be made regarding the Smyrna district, but that settlement of the question of Thrace would be more difficult.

DELEGATION ARRIVES.

Paris, Feb. 21.—The Turkish Nationalist delegation to the Near Eastern conference arrived in Paris this afternoon from Rome and left shortly afterwards for London. Bekir Samy Bey, foreign minister of the Angora Government tsan had been previously thought. he hoped an honorable peace would be arranged.

"We know nothing about the Constantinople delegate," he added. "We shall meet its members in London only as compatriots.

Fails in Three Attempts To Murder Father, So Kills Self

St. Stephen, N. B., Feb. 21.—(Canadian Press).—After three unsuccessful attempts to kill his father, Otis Nixon, 60, of Waweeig, Charlotte County, Otis Nixon, aged 30, yesterday morning set fire to and destroyed his father's property, valued at $8,000; and then shot and killed himself close to the burning buildings.

Otis Nixon hid in a barn and early Sunday morning struck his father over the head with a heavy iron bar. The latter was able to get away, but his son followed him and struck him again on the head. Despite his wounds, his father was able to drag himself to a neighbor's house and get his wounds dressed.

The son then set fire to the buildings, and on his father's return fired at him twice, missing him. Then he shot himself.

Otis had had some disagreements with his father. He had served during the war, and was discharged as physically unfit. It is said he had brooded considerably and had been moody and strange at times.

At the coroner's inquest last night a verdict was returned that Otis Nixon had met death by his own hand.

NEW CIVIC OFFICES NOT LIKELY TO BE BUILT THIS YEAR

Majority of Council Are Not in Favor of Building At Present Time,

SAYS ALD. W. A. WILSON

Useless To Take Vote On the Question in Opinion of Ald. Drake.

Whether or not a referendum is to be taken on the city hall question will be decided by the city council tonight. Ald. W. A. Wilson will bring in a motion to the effect that no vote be taken on the matter this year. He believes that the time is inopportune for building, and that the question had better be laid over.

As nearly as he can determine the feeling of the council, most of the aldermen will support him in this stand. Ald. Drake declared today that he was in favor of this policy.

"I believe it would be useless to take a vote," he said. "It is evident that this is not a good time to build, and therefore the people would only vote against it. We had better give the money to some charitable institution than spend it on a vote when no good is to be gained by it."

VANCOUVER UNEMPLOYED HOLD BIG DEMONSTRATION

Vancouver, B. C., Feb. 21.—Condemning the city and province for "stalling" with the unemployment problem, a mass meeting of unemployed men yesterday passed a resolution advocating that the administration of relief be taken by the workers. Another resolution, voting upon which was postponed for a week, declared that no taxes or rent be paid until the unemployment situation is properly dealt with.

The meeting was preceded by a parade af 2,000 persons, which number swelled to 5,000 at the Cambie street grounds, where the gathering was held. Both the parade and meeting were conducted in an orderly manner.

GIANT AIRSHIP IS NEARING COMPLETION

Glasgow, Feb. 21.—Completion of the latest Clyde-built airship, the R-36, is rapidly approaching, and the craft may undergo a trial flight next month. She is a few feet longer than the R-34, recently wrecked, has greater oil-carrying capacity, and is likely to be speedier. It is expected she will be used to maintain a mail and passenger service between England and Cairo.

A prominent feature is a huge gondola suspended in the centre, with accommodation for 50 passengers. Beds will be provided on the railway sleeper principle, two in each cabin. During the day the beds can be folded up and stowed away in recesses, while tables and seats, suspended from the roof during the night, may be lowered, and the cabin converted into a spacious dining-room.

The oil tanks are so placed that in an emergency they can be tilted overboard without damaging the airship's envelopes.

ROBBERS BLOWN TO PIECES AT POWDER PLANT

Victims of Explosion of 200 Quarts Nitro-Glycerine.

Bradford, Pa., Feb. 21.—One man was blown to pieces, and another is thought to have suffered the same fate when a magazine containing 200 quarts of nitro-glycerine exploded at the plant of the Pringle Powder Company at Little Harrisburg run, near Derrick City, early today. Officials of the company believe the victims were robbers trying to force an entrance into the plant in order to steal powder.

Persons living at Derrick City were thrown from their beds by the force of the explosion and windows were smashed within a radius of several miles.

NINE LIVES LOST DUE TO BLIZZARD

Eastern States Swept by the Worst Storm of Season.

New York, Feb. 21.—New York's millions of workers, faced with impaired transportation facilities as a result of the 12½ inches of snow which winter loosed on Sunday, experienced difficulty in getting to places of employment today.

Commuter service from New Jersey and other outlying districts was hampered by snowdrifts two to ten feet high. In New York, Brooklyn and sections close to the heart o fthe business district, surface and elevated lines were impeded to a great extent. Subway traffic was hampered only slightly.

Thousands of men, with improved facilities for removing the snow, were at work in an effort to clear a way for traffic.

The storm, which began before 1 o'clock Sunday morning, continued unabated until shortly after 10 o'clock last night. At that hour the wind slightly increased in velocity, banking snow in great drifts. Nine persons lost their lives, either directly or indirectly, as a result of the storm, and hundreds were injured.

NO MARINE DISASTERS.

Washington, D.C., Feb. 21.—Although the blizzard which on Saturday night and yesterday swept the eastern states from Western Tennessee to New England had passed out to sea in a northeasterly direction, the big area it visited still was in the grip of the ice and snow it left behind. In many places, particularly in the vicinity of New York, where the storm was at its worst, and the mountainous regions of Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania, where the snow had piled in great drifts, the inhabitants had literally to dig themselves out, and first reports of blocked traffic and demoralized wire service were shown not to be exaggerated.

No serious marine disasters have been reported, despite the gale that swept the coast from Hatteras to Eastport, Me., and which attained a velocity of 68 miles an hour.

The snowfall measured from a few inches in the southern portion of the storm's path to more than a foot in the mountains of Virginia and in the northern states. Piled high by the wind, the snow almost completely blocked railway traffic, and those trains that got through were often hours late.

FIRE CAUSES $300,000 DAMAGES TO RAILWAY CAR SHEDS AT LEVIS

Blaze Spreads Rapidly When Firemen Make Run to Wrong Place.

Quebec, Feb. 21.—Damage estimated at $300,000 was caused in Levis by a fire which broke out this morning in the Levis County railway car sheds on Fraser street, destroying eight new cars recently bought by the company as well as sweepers and the buildings, which had been remodelled last year.

The fire originated in one of the new cars, and communicated itself to the wooden walls of the building. The Levis fire brigade was summoned a few minutes after the blaze had broken out, but due to some misunderstanding, instead of proceeding to the scene of the fire went to the Canadian National Railway station and lost much valuable time. Firemen and local residents prevented the fire from spreading to adjoining buildings. A number of horses belonging to the company were saved. The loss of the cars will mean unemployment for several days for employees of the company.

HEAVY DEMAND FOR FISH BY CANADIANS

Ottawa, Feb. 21.—From all quarters there comes word that the fish sales on national fish day exceeded by far those of the last national event in 1919. Furthermore, there are strong indications that the Lentem demand will be well beyond that of previous years. Retail fish prices have fallen considerably in recent weeks, and this, along with the fact that there is an abundant supply in stock, should stimulate the demand.

BOSTON CAR BARNS BURNED.

Boston, Feb. 21.—A spectacular two-hour fire, which caused damage estimated at $300,000, practically wiped out the big car barns of the Boston Elevated Railway Company at the Quincy-Boston line early today. At least 40 new passenger cars, with large quantities of stores and other equipment, were burned.

Spanish Hero's Body Removed to the Capital

Madrid, Feb. 21.—The body of The Cid has been disinterred at Burgos, and will be transferred to the cathedral there.

The Cid, also known as El Campeador, one of Spain's principal heroes, because of his exploits in the war with the Moors, died in the year 1099.

EXPECTS BRITISH TRADE WITH SOUTH AMERICA TO SOON IMPROVE

London, Feb. 21.—British trade with South America is likely to improve, declares the Daily Sketch, which prints an interview with an unnamed member of the Glasgow Chamber of Commerce relative to the trade situation. The newspaper is told by this informant that British exporters should profit from the fact that "Argentine importers disapprove of Yankee business methods."

MUST HAVE MIXED HIS BRANDS TO GET AN IDEA LIKE THIS

New York, Feb.21.—Another solution of the problem of liquidating the British war debt to the United States has come to light. Writing in the Tribune this morning at great length an anonymous citizen suggests the scale of Canada to the United States would be a "fair deal and that, diplomatically approached, it would not be unacceptable to Canadians," who would be gratified, and so on.

PREACHER SCORES COMMONS' MEMBERS

Says They Think More of Hockey and Euchre Than League of Nations.

Cornwall, Feb. 21.—In the course of yesterday's discourse in St. John's Presbyterian Church, Rev. Hugh Munroe, B.A., speaking on the subject, "The Joy of Serious Living," quoted an Ottawa correspondent to the effect that during the report given to the House of Commons on the League of Nations, the members were evidently more interested in the euchre league and hockey league in Room 16 than they were in the League of Nations. Rev. Dr. Munroe characterized this condition of the members as entirely unworthy of men who claimed to be worth $4,000 a year to the country. The young soldiers who went from Canada a few years ago might have preferred domestic issues, too, but their time, even their lives, were claimed by the Government. The country was now in a serious mood and would support any Government in eliminating the men who will not give intelligent service as members of Parliament.

FREIGHTER IS ASHORE.

San Francisco, Feb. 21.—The freighter Alaska, bound from New York to San Francisco, is ashore at Assuncion Island, on the Mexican coast, about 800 miles south of here, according to a message to the marine department of the chamber of commerce here early today.

BEATS UP MAN HE FINDS WITH WIFE

E. D. Hill Puts "Kayo" On Jack Prokos Saturday Night.

NEIGHBORS ALARMED

Prokos Unable to Appear in Court Today Owing to Injuries.

Cries of "Murder," followed by a general clamor caused neighbors to call the police to the home of Edward D. Hill, 155 Wharncliffe road north, at midnight Saturday. On arrival there, Sergt. Elmer Walsh and P. C. John Myers found Hill, his wife, and Jack Prokos, a Dundas street businessman. Prokos was much the worse for a mauling at the hands of Hill.

Both men were taken to the police station in the patrol, charged with being disorderly.

According to the police, Hill came home and found his house locked. He entered by way of a window and found Prokos in his wife's company. Immediately he proceeded to trounce the intruder, hurling a vase at him as well as injuring him with his bare hands. Several stitches were required to close a deep cut on the businessman's head. His arms and hands are badly cut, bruised and swollen; in fact, he received such a beating that he was unable to appear in court today.

Sunday morning Prokos was allowed out on $500 bail in order that he might undergo medical attention. The husband was refused bail until after he had appeared in court this morning. At first a charge of assault was contemplated, but when the nature of the case was learned, Hill was only charged with being disorderly and was allowed out on his own bail. The case was adjourned for one week.

Hill's wife did not appear at court today, but it is expected that she will be present as a witness next Monday.

ADVERTISER PUZZLE CONTEST CORNER

Important Questions Answered by Contest Manager and Matters of General Interest Discussed—Contestants Should Watch This Corner

Question—My subscription is paid quite a bit in advance, so I don't need to renew it. Can I send in new subscription for a friend and register a solution with it for myself?

Answer—Yes, provided your friend does not want to register a solution on the same subscription.

Question—I will send you my subscription and a new subscription from a friend as well. Can my friend send in a solution with his subscription?

Answer—Yes, but remember that only one solution can be registered with each subscription. You will get credit for having secured a new subscriber. See rules.

Question—After getting part way across my chart with my circles, can I go back to the left at all?

Question—How do you get your difference?

Answer—When you have finished filling in your circles on your chart, add up your odd numbers, then your even numbers, and subtract the one from the other, that will give you the greatest difference. See problem and illustration on your chart.

Question—In case of a tie on any of your first prizes, what is the method to be adopted in breaking them?

Answer—It is the purpose of The Advertiser in this contest to award the full amount of the prize to those winning them, without having to divide any one prize among two or more contestants. While the prizes will be awarded for solving this puzzle, if there are no ties, on the basis of the best solutions received, without regard to what the best possible solution may be, so, in case of ties, provision is made for a second puzzle to eliminate these ties, without having to divide any of the prizes into smaller amounts. Should a second puzzle be necessary, it will be of the same character as the present puzzle, and, if anything, more interesting. In the event of a second puzzle being necessary, about ten days will be allowed for solving it. This will prevent the contest finally being long drawn out. Should there be no ties on the present puzzle, of course, no second puzzle will be used. The best solution of the first puzzle, as well as of the second, should a second be necessary, will be reproduced in The Advertiser, so that all contestants can check up and compare their solutions with it.

London's Gas Problem

The Citizens' Research Institute of Canada is interested in all problems which affect the welfare of Canadian citizens. Believing that a fair solution of London's gas problem is of vital importance to its citizens, the institute presents the following material for discussion.

Could an equitable solution of the London gas problem be arrived at by the establishment of a co-operative arrangements between the citizens—represented by their city council—and the gas company, whereby the price of gas to the consumers would be arranged according to a sliding scale, based on the cost of production?

1. An agreement between the city and the gas company as to the capitalization of the company. (The amount to be arrived at by arbitration or otherwise).

2. The ownership of a portion of such capital stock by the city.

3. The city to have representation on the board of directors of the gas company. (It is usual for the mayor to hold this position by virtue of his officee).

4. The payment of a set dividend on the capital stock of the company.

5. Determination of the price to be charged per thousand cubic feet of gas, at the commencement of operation of the agreement, such price to be arrived at after expert inquiry, and to be based on the cost of production.

6. The establishment of a special surplus account, into which is placed any surplus of net profits after payment of (a) the fees to the president, vice-president and directors of the company; (b) the fixed stock dividend; (c) any rest or reserved fund provided in the agreement; (d) any plant and building or renewal fund.

7. The provision that when this special surplus fund reaches a stated amount, the price of gas will automatically be reduced.

8. The right on the part of the city to the fullest inquiry, by experts employed by the city, before any increase in the price of gas is allowed.

Such agreements are usual between public utilities, such as gas companies, in many cities in England and Canada. That, in practice, an agreement of this type operates fairly may be illustated by the changes in gas prices which have occurred since 1880 in Toronto, where the Consumers Gas Company has a co-operative arrangement with the city:

Year	Price per 1,000 cu. feet (net)
1880	$1.75
1885	1.50
1886	1.25
1890	1.12½
1893	1.05
1896	90
1903	80
1906	75
1911	70
1917 (April 1)	80
1918 (April 1)	90
1919 (Sept. 1)	1.00
1920 (June 15)	1.10
1920 (Dec. 9)	1.25

If the city council were to draft such a plan as an alternative to the increased fixed rate proposed by the City Gas Company, would the Legislature not prefer it as giving more adequate protection to the consumer?

ASKING PROBE INTO FINANCES OF L. & P. S. RY.

I. L. P. Passes Resolution Asking City Council To Take Action.

London branch of the Independent Labor party meeting Sunday afternoon, passed a unanimous resolution asking the city council to undertake an investigation into the finances of the London and Port Stanley Railway.

The resolution was suggested by a discussion as to whether the Independent Labor party should or should not oppose the clauses in the city of London bill relative to the Port Stanley Railway, in view of the fact that the opinion of the people had not been sought in the matter.

It was decided that while it was not necessary to have a vote on the railway clauses before bringing them before the Legislature, yet there was probably need for investigation into the general status, finances and whole situation of the road.

What stock does the city of London hold in the Port Stanley Railway?" and "Who really owns the road?" were questions that members of the Labor party said they would like to have clearly answered, and that they believed the citizens had a right to know. Accordingly a resolution calling on the city council to inaugurate an investigation was passed without any dissenting votes.

The local branch of the party also went on record Sunday as being opposed to the "service-at-cost" plan of operation for the London Street Railway, suggested in the newspapers, until some impartial body has decided what "cost" means, and whether it would be based on actual paid up stock c... on inflated stock values.

MAY ENLARGE SITE OF WESTERN FAIR

Executive Discusses Plans—Action Deferred Until Meeting of Board.

To discuss the advisability of enlarging the present site of the Western Fair grounds and establishing several new features, including an arena, a committee, consisting of Lieut.-Col. W. M. Gartshore, George McCormick, W. E. Robinson, A. T. Little, John Pringle and Mayor E. S. Little was appointed at a meeting of the executive of the association on Saturday afternoon. The committee will bring in a report at a meeting of the directors on Monday afternoon.

The questions received some discussion at the meeting of the executive, but as it was believed that they were matters for the board as a whole to decide upon, were left in the hands of the committee. Some action will be taken when the board of directors meet.

Twenty regular committees to carry on the business of the year were appointed by the executive. Every representative to the association was put on one or more committees. The directors were appointed chairmen.

The Pure Meat Products Company will open in a few days at 558 Richmond street, where Mr. Otto P. Rindelhardt, who for the past fifteen years has been master brewer and superintendent of the Carling Brewing and Malting Company, has built the most up-to-date store and factory to be found anywhere.

Mr. Rindelhardt has, through his kindly way and generous spirit, gained a host of friends, many of whom declare that he is just as good a meat-packer and sausage-maker as he is a brewer, and there is no doubt he will find a ready market for the product of his making.

It is Mr. Rindelhardt's intention to have purity and cleanliness his watchword, and every care will be taken in this particular asset. Nothing but the very best will be used in making the different varieties of sausages, all inspected meats of first quality and the purest spices. Meats smoked only with hard wood, which process will assure the public of a good, wholesome product—every pound of it will be meat.

The company will deliver wholesale orders only, but will sell at retail through a cash and carry system at the store and factory. b

MANY ENJOYING ADVERTISER'S PUZZLE

THE INTEREST MOUNTS STEADILY.

Each day brings more letters of praise on The Advertiser's new figure puzzle. Many people outside the territory to which the contest is limited are working on the puzzle for the diversion and pleasure it gives them.

A reader of The Advertiser in Iowa writes: "I have derived a great deal of pleasure so far in working your puzzle. It is diverting and takes one's mind off the hum-drum of everyday business life. I wonder if you could tell me of any paper in my part of the country that might be running a puzzle like yours. I'd like to be able to enter one for the profit as well as the pleasure. I rather fancy that I could get my name somewhere among the winners."

A contestant from Owen Sound says: "I started the puzzle from lack of anything else to do. Now I haven't time to do anything else. Send me some more charts, please."

Another in a small town away from the railways says: "Your puzzle has livened things up a bit in our home, for time has been long in passing some of these winter evenings. The whole family is working on the puzzle, and the funny part is that it is our youngest boy who has the best solution so far."

A stenographer from Kitchener writes: "Your puzzle has my full attention. I nearly lost my job by working on it during business hours. Anyway, I am staying right with it, and you'll see my solution in your mail soon. P.S.—I could use that $700 beautifully."

A traveling man, whose home is in London, writes in from a town that he makes: "I have become so interested in your puzzle that I have just realized that I'm selling your puzzle to my customers as well as my goods. What do I get for being so thoroughly sold on the puzzle idea?"

That the interest in the puzzle isn't confined to grown-ups is proven by the following letter: "I'm a little boy, and I sell your papers. I haven't any money to send with my puzzle, at least that much, so please just tell me if my answer is right."

These testimonials are only a few of the many already received on The Advertiser puzzle, but they show clearly the pleasure and diversion that may be enjoyed in working out a solution.

The contest department will be glad to furnish all the necessary puzzle charts prospective contestants require wor working out the problem. Address requests for charts to Contest Manager, The London Advertiser, 110 Dundas street. It will also appreciate requests that charts and rules be sent to any others who you believe would be interested in taking part in the competition. It is this year's chance to profit through this entertaining work. The best effort will win.

INDUSTRIAL UNION HOPE OF WORKERS

This View Advanced by Fred J. Appleton, Addressing Labor Forum.

Fred J. Appleton, speaking at the Labor Forum meeting Sunday night, briefly set forth the history of the trade union movement since 1700, stating that it had been a constant groping in darkness. Today, labor is strong; tomorrow, a puff of wind blows it backward. This was largely due to the fact that its leaders had not comprehended quickly enough the moves of its enemies. It was interesting to note that no official political action was taken by labor until 187...

"The workers realized in 1874," said Mr. Appleton, "that capital was using parliament for the defeat of their efforts, so they entered the arena. But it has taken labor from 1874-1920 to get to its present political status."

Hurled Severe Criticism.

Rather severe criticism was hurled by the speaker at the members representing labor in the Provincial Legislature. "These men," he asserted, "have not been standing on solid ground, they have not challenged capital's exploitation of the workers of Ontario. After making many promises, they have not dared to introduce a bill for an eight-hour day because they have seen it to be impracticable."

The main trouble with capitalistic production as it operates today is that the capitalist does not understand the requirements of market for any class of goods. All of a sudden, they become apprehensive and shut down, throwing men out of employment.

"I would say to the workers at the mercy of capitalism to organize industrially, and not as craftsmen. Then when the time comes, political action can be taken from the industrial standpoint. The political machine must pass into the hands of men who have had experience as workers with the industrial organism."

Laws Against Workers.

"Take the statute books in a lawyer's office and look them over. You will find that 90 per cent of the laws have been made in the interests of capitalism." This state of affairs can only be rectified by getting control of the political machine, and regulating the output for the general good of the people. All moral and social problems would be handled at the same time for the welfare of all.

"We are breeding an inhuman race these days, linked with the brute creation. The new race to be evolved will be one that lives to serve. Service should be the first demand on every man. Unfortunately the worker has not yet proven himself ready for any other system."

In conclusion, the speaker said labor had to unlearn many things. One of these was the law that supply and demand regulates wages; another is that the present plan of wealth production is scientific. Instead it must be realized that labor is the father of all wealth.

An animated discussion followed the address, in which opposition was taken to certain statements that had been made.

WESTERN UNIVERSITY THEORETICAL COURSE VICTORIA NURSES

Proposition Is Favorably Discussed by Deans.

GRADUATION DIPLOMA

At End of Five Years, Degree of Bachelor of Nursing.

The proposition of Miss Margaret E. Stanley, retiring superintendent of nurses of Victoria Hospital, that the Western University take over the theoretical work in the Victoria Hospital Training School for Nurses was favorably discussed by the committee of deans yesterday and will be presented for the approval of the university senate at its next meeting in March. Representatives of the hospital trust had already given approval before the proposition was presented. Col. Gartshore and James Gray were present and spoke in its favor at the conference with the deans.

The tentative plan involves the continuation of the practical training on its present basis, but with the direct supervision and teaching of the subjects of anatomy, physiology, chemistry, physics, biology, bio-chemistry, materia medica, medicine, surgery, public health, etc., by the university, which would set the standards, register the candidates and give the graduation diploma at the end of the usual three-year course. In addition to this, however, candidates of sufficient standing would be entitled to academic work extending the total period of training from three years, as at present, to five years, and leading to the degree of bachelor of nursing. The five-year-course graduates would be eligible to positions of supervisor, superintendent and similar leadership in industrial and public health fields.

The University of British Columbia is the only other university in Canada now offering these advanced courses on nursing. Western University is favorable to the proposal, and if the necessary authority can be obtained the details will be worked out with the hospital trust and the new lady superintendent, Miss Ross.

It is hoped that the whole plan can be put into effect at the opening of the next academic session in October, 1921.

PARADISE COMING SOON

E. V. Whelpton of Hamilton Speaks to Large Audience in Hyman Hall.

E. V. Whelpton of Hamilton spoke to a large audience at Hyman Hall Sunday on the subject, "Will Paradise Be Restored?"

He said in part: "In these days of distress and perplexity many are fearful lest this old order passes away entirely, because they fail to see in this a great blessing in disguise. When we get the Divine view point," he said, "Christ's millenial kingdom will be established right upon the ruins of the present kingdoms of earth, and within a few years will extend from Jerusalem until it controls all the nations."

"Adam," he said, "was placed in a small paradise at the beginning of human history. Christ died to restore that which was lost, and that was an earthly home for humanity. Jesus, at His second coming, will restore this paradise for the millions that will then be alive, and in due time will resurrect all of Adam's great family, to have the opportunity of enjoying the paradise of the future."

"Christ must reign until He hath put all enemies under His feet. Satan will then be bound and afterwards destroyed."

STEALS FUR COAT FROM SUNDAY SCHOOL ROOM

While a member of the choir was attending the morning service at the First Methodist Church Sunday, her black coat, valued at $400, was stolen from a locked classroom in Wesley Hall. She did not discover her loss until 1 o'clock, when she came to get it after participating in a rehearsal for the evening service.

Police were notified of the theft. They describe the coat as being of black seal, sable collar and cuffs, and blue flowered lining. The size is 36.

It is thought that the thief used a skeleton key to gain entrance to the room.

In 1917 the hall was entered and all the clothing ransacked. The thieves at that time did not take any of the apparel, but secured a sum of money.

HUSBAND OF LONDON LADY INTRODUCED 'PHONE IN HAMILTON

Interesting Address Listened to by Rotarians at Weekly Luncheon.

"It is absolutely necessary that a company like the Bell Telephone Company be able to give additional service, as required, and in order to do this it must have the necessary earning power," was the message which Kenneth J. Dunstan, vice-president of the Bell Telephone Company of Canada, delivered to the members of London Rotary Club at their weekly luncheon in the Tecumseh House today.

Mr. Dunstan did not think that a measured telephone service was necessary in a city like London, but the company had in contemplation the spending in this city in the near future of no less a sum than $150,000 in the improvement of the long distance service and in rendering the service generally more efficient.

"We have tried to fairly share the burden with the people," said Mr. Dunstan, "and we are now anxiously awaiting the verdict of the railway board as to the question of rates."

In tracing the early history and development of the telephone in Canada, Mr. Dunstan gave a most interesting account of the work of Alexander Graham Bell. The theory of the telephone was wrought out in Brantford, but it was in Boston where it was put into practical use.

Hamilton was the first city in Canada to take up the telephone, and in August, 1877, three lines were in use there. It was a Mr. Baker of Hamilton, who married a London lady, who was instrumental in bringing out the invention there, and the first exchange in Canada was opened in Hamilton in 1878."

Mr. Dunstan also made some interesting references to wirless telephony, predicting a great future for this form of sending messages.

There was a large attendance of Rotarians, visiting members being present from Kenora and Hamilton.

CANDY STORE AND THEATRE ENTERED

Thieves Gain Entrance by Cutting Hole in Glass Door.

Some time between midnight and 2:30 o'clock on Sunday morning unknown thieves gained entrance to the candy store of James Clark, at 231 Dundas street, and from there to the offices of the Majestic Theatre. Entrance was obtained by entering the vestibule of the theatre and cutting a diamond-shaped piece of glass out of a side door into the candy store. In this way the lock was opened from the inside.

From the candy store the thieves opened a back door into the theatre and ransacked the office. In the safe were the receipts for the week-end business. The safe, however, was not opened, and as far as can be learned nothing was taken from the office. The intruders made their way through the theatre and left by one of the fire exits at the side.

The police found the glass cut about 2:30, and at once commenced an investigation. The proprietor of the candy store last night, after checking up his stock, believed that nothing had been taken.

The police about 1 o'clock saw two men in the theatre, but thinking they were employees paid no special attention to them.

RICHMOND STREET NORTH RESIDENCE RANSACKED

Intruders Thoroughly Search the Home of G. H. Belton.

House-breakers ransacked the residence of G. H. Belton, lumber merchant, 834 Richmond street, on Friday night, in manner similar to that in which houses on Windsor avenue and Colborne street were gone through on Wednesday and Thursday nights in the absence of the occupants. The furniture had been moved and every drawer in bureaux, dressers and cupboards dragged out and contents scattered, apparently in a search for jewelry or money. Nothing of value was discovered missing.

OFF THE RAILS

Two first aid teams of five men each have been selected by the transportation department of the G. T. R. in this city to compete for the Chamberlain trophy, which represents the first aid championship of the G. T. R. system. If the teams obtain 75 per cent of the total possible marks in an examination March 7, they will be eligible to compete in the championship contest held in Montreal later in the year. A team consisting of the following, P. J. Gravell, D. H. Finlayson, E. Schaefer, F. Baxter and A. Lafontaine, will represent the station employees. The local sheds will be represented by the following: G. Bathgate, T. Clift, W. E. Evans, A. Goldie and A. F. Kreitzer. The team captains will be selected later.

GALT SENDING HOCKEY FANS.

Tonight, for the first time this year the C. P. R. will run a hockey special to and from this city. The Galt hockey fans have chartered a special train scheduled to leave there at 6:15 this evening. To save time the fans will leave the train at the Quebec street station. Although on the return trip the special will leave the C. P. R. city station, it will stop at Quebec street. It is expected that at least 200 Galt fans will take advantage of the train.

REDUCED NUMBER OF TRAINS.

With the increased hauling power of locomotives because of the mild weather of this winter, G. T. R. freight trains have been hauling almost 100 per cent of the average summer tonnage each. As a result of these records fewer trains have been required to handle the freight. It is estimated by local officials that only two-thirds of the usual number of trains required to carry the same amount of freight in previous winters have been operated during the past few months.

FELL OFF TRAIN.

Frank McCormick of Toronto, conductor on passenger trains number 80 and 83 running between Port Huron and Toronto via this city, was seriously injured at Sunnyside, about 8:30 o'clock Sunday morning when he fell from No. 14. Mr. McCormick suffered a broken wrist, two broken ribs, and several bad scalp wounds. As No. 80 does not run on Sundays, the injured man was returning to Toronto on No. 14.

C. P. R. TRAINS ON TIME.

Every effort is being made by the C. P. R. to keep its trains on scheduled time, according to Superintendent R. McKillop, of the local division. If in any way a train is delayed an attempt would be made to make up the lost time during the balance of the run, he said. In one instance a passenger train which recently was delayed 46 minutes, made up the lost time in a run of 117 miles. As the result of this campaign almost all trains have been running on scheduled time during the past two weeks.

WIFIE OBJECTED TO LIQUOR IN HER HOME, HUBBY TO PAY FINE

One Toronto Man Fined $200, Warrant Issued For Another.

Bottles caused the downfall of a number of citizens and visitors to London over the week-end.

A Toronto man got a prescription for two pint bottles, because he was subject to attacks of the heart. He drank one at a friend's house here, and started to the train with the other. He was apprehended and this morning fined $200 and costs. He said that it meant the loss of his position and a sojourn of three months in jail.

Another Toronto man who had been allowed out on bail, failed to appear. Judgment in his case had been reserved. Today Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon announced that he had found the man guilty and ordered a warrant be issued for his arrest.

One citizen had a keg of beer in a woodshed, which was not attached to his house. He said that his home was so small there was no room for it. Besides it was in his wife's way. He said that she would corroborate his statement. She entered the witness-box and said that she did not want liquor about the premises, and that he brought friends there to drink. She swore that since Christmas her husband and his friends had consumed 27 bottles of whiskey and three kegs of beer. Hubby must either contribute $200 and costs or spend three months in jail.

Another Londoner of the "Guilty, your worship," variety had the usual penalty imposed on him.

TENDERS FOR CLASSROOMS MUST BE IN BY TODAY

Tenders for the construction of four new class rooms, an auditorium and the provision of modern lavatories for Victoria school must be in by 4 o'clock this afternoon, according to the call made for tenders, and will probably be opened by No. 2 committee tomorrow. The plans prepared by Architect Carrothers are designed to permit the addition of ten more teaching rooms when the board of education shall decide to do away with the present school building which is far from modern.

The proposed new auditorium is very similar to that of the Ryerson school, but slightly smaller in size. The proposed boiler installation is adequate for the heating of a 14-roomed school and auditorium, and pending the time when the old school shall be displaced steam heat will be supplied to it from the plant in the new building by a big steam main connecting the two buildings.

A Baptist minister rushed downstairs after the doctor to claim the coat, and the hat proved to be that of Rev. W. R. McIntosh, a Presbyterian minister. The doctor returned to the room and claimed his own.

PUBLIC WILL NOT

cided not to comment on the matter at any length until the trial was over.

This morning "the fighting parson" had a conference with his attorney, R. L. Brackin, M.L.A., of Chatham, at the latter's room at the British-American Hotel.

Declines Comment.

W. L. Lamarsh, Mr. Brackin's partner, was present. Mr. Spracklin was accompanied by his brother, Rev. Arthur L. Spracklin, G. A. Jewell, one of his former officers, and by Rev. H. A. Graham of Lincoln Road Methodist Church.

He had nothing to say for publication and seemed to be in an optimistic mood. R. L. Brackin, when asked if he had any statement for the press, replied: "I am not an American lawyer and do not propose to discuss any features of the case for the benefit of the press until it is brought for trial. In the United States I believe it is the custom for the prosecuting attorney to issue a statement dealing with a case for publication. The attorney for the defence replies and the result is that the prisoner is tried and found innocent or guilty in the papers before he has a chance to appear before the bar of justice.

"When will Mr. Spracklin's bail expire?" Mr. Brackin was asked.

"I don't know," was the reply.

Spracklin will be represented by R. L. Brackin, W. C. Lamarsh, J. M. McEvoy of London. J. W. Curry, K.C. of Toronto will appear in an advisory capacity. A. Munro Greer of Toronto is the crown prosecutor. He will be assisted by the newly-appointed crown attorney, George Urquhart, W. H. Furlong of Windsor and M. J. O'Reilly of Hamilton will appear for Mrs. Beverly Trumble.

MURDER TRIAL AT BRANTFORD.

Brantford, Feb. 21.—The spring jury assizes, which opened today before Mr. Justice Rose, will be featured by the trial of two Russians, Boliuski and Cipeluk, on a charge of murder. The charge arises out of the death of George Popow, also a Russian, who was struck over the head with a chair during a card-party brawl at which the two charged were present. The defence is confident that the charge will be reduced to manslaughter, there being no evidence of premeditation. J. G. O'Donoghue of Toronto is acting as crown prosecutor.

New-Born Babe Brought to Life By Lung Motor

Kitchener, Feb. 21.—Another young life was saved last night by the civic lung motor. Twins, a boy and a girl, were born to Mr. and Mrs. A. Turskot, this city. The former was apparently lifeless, and the attending physician, Dr. J. E. Hett, used artificial respiration for half an hour without success. He finally called Fire Chief Guerin to bring the civic lung motor, and after twelve minutes' application the first spark of life was manifested. Additional applications for five minutes improved the infant's condition, and this morning he was doing as well as his young sister.

WANT SUPERANNUATION ALLOWANCES INCREASED

Local Teachers Interested in Request Put Before Minister of Education.

Local teachers who are on the retired list, or who are anticipating being on that list in the comparatively near future, are greatly interested in the action that may be taken by Hon. R. H. Grant, minister of education, in regard to the request placed before him on Saturday by a deputation that the superannuated allowances be increased.

At the present time the allowance made to teachers under the superannuation scheme, to which they each contribute, is 60 per cent of the average of their salaries over a ten-year period. This 60 per cent, however, is only payable for the number of years since the scheme became effective, the allowance for the period of years prior to that being only 30 per cent.

These figures were set in 1917, and it is claimed by the teachers that it is quite inadequate in view of the high cost of living which has prevailed since that year and which is still in the main prevalent. It is pointed out that in the case of the women teachers, while a few attain a superannuation of $500, the average is around $365 a year, or a dollar a day, an amount altogether inadequate by itself to allow a retired teacher to live in comfort.

The deputation which waited on Mr. Grant was as follows: S. Richardson, president, Toronto Public School Teachers' Association; Miss L. Rush, secretary, T. P. S. T. A.; Miss McAuley, president, Women Teacher's Association; Miss Arbuthnot, secretary, Canadian Teachers' Federation; C. G. Fraser, secretary, Ontario Educational Association; Mr. J. N. Moffat and Miss M. E. Cherry, and after hearing the statement of the case for the teachers he promised a reply within three weeks.

PELKY'S FUNERAL IS LARGELY ATTENDED

Remains of Canadian Boxer Interred in Ford City Cemetery.

Windsor, Feb. 21.—Ford City turned out en masse this morning to pay its last tribute to the late Arthur "Pelky" Peltier, internationally famous boxer, who died last Saturday after a six-weeks illness with sleeping sickness.

Crowds thronged the streets along the route from Pelky's late residence, 34 Hickory street, to Our Lady of the Lake Church, and the long procession, escorted by 30 uniformed policemen from the Border Cities, under command of Chief J. P. Smith, Walkerville, passed through long lanes of bare-headed citizens.

The high, terraced steps in front of the church were crowded and the grey bier was borne into the chancel through a double column of policemen at the salute. Representatives of the Windsor Council, Knights of Columbus and Ford City Court, Catholic Order of Forresters, of which Pelkey was a member, walked in the procession.

Members of Ford City Council and scores of representative citizens of the town were in attendance at the church during the funeral services.

Interment was made in Our Lady of the Lake Cemetery, Ford City.

SICKNESS COSTS

communal welfare, since it forms one out of every 180 adults of the community, and is awake to the mutual obligation. In solving the sickness of the state, harmonious co-operation of public legislations and professions is vital, but it is fair to expect that the chief dependence for the necessary ways and means to improve health and lengthen life must be assumed by the profession each member of which may be estimated at a capital stock of $20,000 in education with capabilities of producing a liberal dividend in national health, provided that that capital be kept working.

"To this end the Ontario Medical Association have an active committee known as the committee on the inter-relations of the public and the profession whose object is to educate and so to formulate such sound economic policy.

A discussion followed the paper, and Rev. D. C. MacGregor suggested that the association find a way in which it may co-operate to a greater extent with the medical profession. He said both ministers and doctors were workers for the betterment of the community. Dr. G. B. Sage was of the opinion that no city on the American continent was looked after better than the city of London from a general health viewpoint.

A communication was received from the Y. W. C. A. asking them to become more acquainted with the King street residence, and to feel at liberty to use their rooms for meetings as well as those of the Y. M. C. A. The executive was asked to arrange that one of the future meetings of the association be held at the King street residence.

A letter was read from G. W. Hofferd of the Religious Education Council, asking the various ministers to meet with the secretaries of the different religious organizations at a date yet to be set prior to the religious education council convention, which is to be held in the early part of March.

Rev. Frank Anderson, of Huron College, concluded the program by reading a short missionary paper.

GOES TO AGED PEOPLE'S HOME.

—Mrs. Anne Grant, the 94-year-old inmate of the county jail who was put in jail because it was the only place for her to go when she refused to live with her son, has consented to be transferred to the Roman Catholic Old People's Home. At first she wanted to be sent to the Protestant Aged People's Home. Her name appeared on the police court blotter this morning and it was recorded that she had been discharged on a charge of vagrancy.

NO JUSTIFICATION FOR IMPROPER USE ENGLISH LANGUAGE

Argument of Common Usage All Rot, Says Principal Mooney of Collegiate.

"The standard of English is deteriorating very rapidly if that is the opinion of the majority of teachers in the American schools," was the opinion expressed today by Public School Inspector V. K. Greer, M.A., when shown a dispatch from Chicago, in which Superintendent E. J. Tobin of the Cook County schools is reported to have said that the expressions: "It is me" and "He don't" are quite permissible for teachers and scholars in the county schools.

Mr. Tobin is said to have stated that the correct form, "It is I," sounds stilted and even egotistical, and that it does no good to teach children forms of expression "outlawed" by common usage and a sense of good form.

"Mr. Tobin's argument would appear to recognize common usage as a rule in the use of good English," remarked Mr. Greer, "but it appears to me that the uncommon usage is the best guide; that is to say that the form of English used by the best authors and speakers is the correct form rather than that which has become common through usage without reference to the rules of grammar. The rule in this case requires that the verb to be shall carry the same case after it as before it. If this is not done the whole nature and function of the verb is destroyed."

"All Rot," Says Principal.

"The argument that common usage, even if it extends to 99 per cent of the people, justifies the use of improper forms of English, is all rot," was the verdict of W. H. T. Mooney, M.A., principal of the Collegiate Institute, when asked his opinion of Mr. Tobin's claim.

"The acceptance of such a claim would tend to a continual lowering of the standard of the English language, while our aim should rather be to lift it to an even higher plane," added Mr. Mooney.

"If the expression, 'It is me,' is correct in French, as it is, why should it not be quite proper in English?" asked a well-known former teacher of English who requested that his name be not used in the discussion of the matter. "It is not the province of grammar to say how we shall talk. That is a matter in which usage must be a largely determining factor.

"In regard to the expression, 'He don't' instead of "He doesn't," the claim would appear to be quite justified on the grounds of uniformity. We say "I don't," "You don't," "We don't" and "They don't." Why, then, should we not say "He don't"? The acceptance of the expression as correct would appear to be rather an advantage than otherwise."

Frequenters of Cock Fight Are Heavily Fined

"Toronto, Feb. 21—"Were you at that cock fight?"

For over an hour Magistrate Denison this morning was shouting this question in the police court to the hundred odd frequenters of an elaborately staged cock fight held here Sunday. Every man was arrested, but only one pleaded guilty to aiding and abetting a game pit, and was fined $40 and costs or forty days. Each person accused went through a separate trial. As the police could not definitely fix any person with ownership of the birds no person was charged with being the keeper of a gaming pit.

The maximum fine for keeping a pit, however, is but $50 and costs, the same as for aiding and abetting.

One of the frequenters, Bert Stewart, was also convicted on a breach of the O. T. A., and fined $200 and costs on both charges. He kept a "refreshment" booth on the premises.

It was learned from an interested person that the cock fighting tournament which the police broke up was for the championship of Toronto and Hamilton. Some of the birds seized, he said, were the finest bred fighters in America, and would easily bring several hundred dollars each if put up for auction. One hundred and eight men paid their fines, a total of $4,428.

After court adjourned, a formal court order was made for the confiscation of the birds by the police.

1,000 LOST CHILDREN SAVED BY RED CROSS

Were Missing From Orphanage in Munkacs, in Hungary.

Paris, Feb. 20.—A thousand missing children from the Ruthenian orphanage in Munkacs in Hungary have been rounded up by the efforts of Miss Alma Payne of Nashville, Tenn., Miss Margaret Norwich of New York and Miss Johanna Ericson of Detroit, all public health nurses sent to Czecho-Slovakia by the Red Cross.

The splitting up of the Austro-Hungarian empire muddled the records of the orphanage. Before the war the orphans were farmed out by the state, which paid a small annual gratuity toward their upkeep, but when Ruthenia was claimed simultaneously by the Czechs, Hungarians and Russians many foster-parents crossed the borders of Hungary and transferred their wards to neighbors without legal documents. The Czechs found only ninety orphans left, all suffering from disease and neglect, which the three American women overcame.

Going about the countryside, the American women found nearly 1,000 former charges of the orphanage living the life of gypsies, some sleeping with cattle and pigs in sheds rudely constructed out of stolen fence boards and old rags. The three American nurses declare that more than 30,000 Ruthenian girls were taken to Hungary when the new border lines were decided upon, as the Hungarians refused to relinquish them.

ROYAL ARCH CHAPTER

London Masons Will Figure Prominently in Gathering Wednesday.

Londoners will likely figure in the election to take place when the Royal Arch Chapter of Masons holds its annual meeting here this week. Oliver Ellwood is a nominee for the position of Third Grand Principal which is one of the highest offices in the gift of the chapter. George W. Reed, another Londoner is prominently mentioned for the position of Grand Registrar.

Edwin Smith may again be elected to the Grand Executive while Ald. F. E. Harley is considered as a possible successor to Oliver Ellwood on that body. It is composed of twelve members, six of whom are elected and six appointed.

MYSTERY BLAZE BEING PROBED

Loss in Fire Near Woodstock May Reach $10,000.

WOODSTOCK, Feb. 20.—Fire of mysterious origin on the farm of the late Edwin Thornton, three miles from Woodstock, early today completely destroyed the barn with contents, including fifteen cows, five horses, calves, one thousand bushels of oats, machinery and other effects. The loss is estimated at $10,000, with insurance at $7,500. The occupants of the house were awakened by the glare to find the roof in flames, the fire apparently starting in the hay loft. Only four head of cattle were saved. It is stated that one of the members of the family had been out to the barn at 11 o'clock and again at 2 o'clock attending a sick cow, and saw no signs of fire then. The farm was to have been taken over next week by Norman Thornton on the occasion of his marriage. The fire is a complete mystery, and County Constable Hill, who visited the scene, is unable as yet to explain the cause of the blaze.

LARGELY ATTENDED.

ST. MARYS, Feb. 19.—The Funeral of Professor William Dale, held this afternoon to St. Marys Cemetery, was very largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. A. J. Langford and Rev. C. E. Evans, assisted by Rev. Hart. The town council, of which deceased was a member, attended in a body. The pall-bearers were Dr. Smith, F. Butcher, W. Harstone, W. Lowry, E. White and Dr. Robert Sutherland. Three representatives from Toronto University were present, W. S. Milner, Dr. G. Needler and A. De Lury. The floral offerings were very beautiful, and included a wreath from Toronto University and a pillow from the men's class of the Methodist Church.

THREATEN INJUNCTION OVER NEW SCHOOL

Windsor, Feb. 18.—Following one of the stormiest sessions in its history the council tonight, before a chamber packed to capacity, passed a bylaw authorizing the erection of a new 16-roomed school, to cost $475,000.

Following the meeting labor aldermen who gave the measure its stiffest opposition threatened to institute injunction proceedings.

As a result of the action of the council in yielding to pleas made by Chairman Harry Neal of the education board, and his colleagues, at tonight's special session, lamor members of the council threatened to force the school trustees to raise their own money separate from the regular city budget, because, they claim, the council has no control over the expenditures of the board, yet is blamed by the ratepayers for the high tax rate.

TORONTO STOCK EXCHANGE.

Toronto, Feb. 21.—All pulp and paper issues, as well as Canada Steamships, common and preferred, were singled out by the bears in heavy trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange this morning. The hammering down of these stocks had a weakening inuence on the market generally, but a few stocks displayeyd resiliency, advancing by fractions.

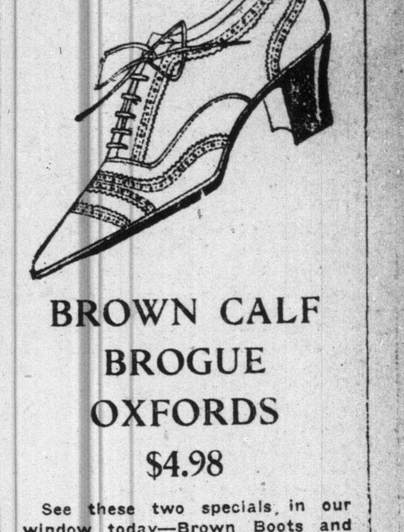

Steamships common droped 3 points in heavy selling, while the preferred stock lost one point at 67¼. Spanish River declined 2½ to 73½, the preferred stock losing 1½ at 86½. Abitibi, the next in line, was down 1¾ to 42, and Provicial Paper was extremely weak, opening at 101½ and declining 4 points before the noon close. Brompton lost 1½ at 45. Dome Mines, Brazilian and Cement were among the firmer issues.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE.

New York, Feb. 21—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m. — Further enforced liquidation among shippings and oils caused acute weakness at the opening of today's stock market. Atlantic-ulf and West Indies made a precipitate decline of 8 points to 42¼ in the first fifteen minutes, falling 2 points between sales. Royal Dutch and Mexican Petroleum lost 1½ and 2½ points respectively, American Sugar 2¼ and American Woolen 3½. Numerous other industrials, utilities and specialties were lower by large fractions to 2 points. Much of the selling was reported to be for account of a stock exchange firm whose suspension was announced at the opening of the session.

IMPROVED X-RAYS FOR CANCER WORK

Harvard Physicists To Use Deeply Penetrating Type in New Laboratory.

HOPE TO DISPLACE RADIUM

New Method, Devised by Dr. William Duane, Is Less Costly—Already Tried in Germany.

Cambridge, Mass., Feb. 20.—Discoveries made by Dr. William Duane, professor of Bio-Physics at Harvard, working in collaboration with research students of physics, have made it possible, according to Harvard physicists, to secure X-rays of more penetrating quality than have ever before been obtained in this country, and these new rays are now to be used for the first time in America for the alleviation of cancer.

While it is emphatically stated by Professor Duane that neither X-rays nor radium should be considered a permanent cure for all kinds of cancer, it has long been known that radium has a marked alleviative effect upon this disease, and the Harvard physicists have reason to believe that the effect of the new highly penetrating X-rays will be equally beneficial.

The Harvard Cancer Commission is erecting a building adjoining the Collis P. Huntington Hospital in Boston, where an X-ray plant will be installed as well as the commission's radium plant. In the belief that the life of cancer patients may be prolonged by the new treatment, life insurance companies of Boston have given more than $30,000 toward the new building.

Here the experiments will be performed which will test the value of the newly-discovered penetrating type of X-rays. How effective they will prove cannot be determined until they have been used for some time.

The advantage of X-rays over radium is that the latter is scarce and immensely expensive, costing at present over $100,000 a gram, and can therefore only be used in small quantities. If X-rays were used it would be possible to make the rays enormously more powerful than has been possible with the limited amount of radium available.

The trouble with the use of X-rays up to this time has been that they are not as penetrating as the so-called "gamma rays" of radium, and the problem of the Harvard physicians has been to secure this needed quality.

It was known that to secure penetration it was necessary to employ a high frequency of vibration. The Harvard physicians, after a great number of experiments, at length found that a physical law known as the "quantam law" applied to the X-ray spectrum and discovered that they could increase the frequency of the rays, and thus their penetration, by increasing the voltage of current used in the X-ray tube.

Professor Duane reports that the tube goes to pieces under a voltage of more than 150,000 volts, but that a sufficiently high voltage has been secured to make the X-rays very nearly as effective for certain medical purposes as the gamma rays of radium.

The Germans, it is said, have made great headway recently with the use of high-frequency X-rays in alleviating cancer, but these particular rays have not been used in America up to this time.

A vast amount of work has recently been done by Professor Duane in the detailed study of X-ray spectra. Some of this work may prove effective in increasing the medical value of X-rays, but much of it is being done simply with the scientific purpose of learning more about the mysterious rays and the laws which govern them.

Long-continued exposure to X-rays is so dangerous to the operator that the greatest pains have to be taken to protect him from them. In the Jefferson Physical Laboratory at Harvard, where Professor Duane makes his experiments, the X-ray plant is kept in a room by itself and the rays are sent out through a minute slit in the wall. The brick wall at this point is reinforced with lead, and a lead screen is placed across the door. Many experimenters in various places have been killed or seriously injured by the constant use of X-rays, although the exposure is so brief in the case of patients that there is no danger to them. In the new building of the Cancer Commission the X-ray plant will have a room to itself, and the rays will be sent out through slits to do their beneficent work.

Professor Duane was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in 1892 and from Harvard in 1893. He took his doctor's degree at Berlin in 1897, worked for many years in the Cruie Radium Laboratory in Paris, and came to Harvard in 1913 as assistant professor of physics and research fellow of the Cancer Commission. In 1917 he was promoted to a new full professorship of bio-physics.

The discovery of the application of the quantum law to the X-ray spectrum is thus described in detail:

The principal object was to secure X-rays of very penetrating quality. It was already known that the penetration increases as the cube of the frequency of vibration of the ray, and thus the problem became to increase the frequency.

The discovery of the application of the quantum law to the X-ray spectrum was then made, according to which the frequency, multiplied by a certain well-known constant in physics, known as h, equals the energy which the electron has in the X-ray tube when it strikes the target.

It was also known that the energy was equal to the charge which the electron had, multiplied by the voltage applied to the tube. Therefore, it became clear that high frequency, and thus penetration, would result from an increase in the voltage.

Headaches

Make Life Miserable

Headaches are one of the most aggravating troubles one can have, and it is hard to struggle along with a head that aches and pains all the time.

Headaches seem to be habitual with many people; some are seldom, if ever, free from them, suffering continually from the dull throbbings, the intense pains; sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then again over the whole head.

There is only one way to get relief from these persistent headaches, and that is by going direct to the seat of the trouble, for unless the cause is removed, the headaches will still continue to exist.

The fact that Burdock Blood Bitters keep the stomach, liver and bowels toned up is proof enough to show that it will eliminate the cause of the headaches.

Mrs. Harold Lanain, Owen Sound, Ont., writes: "My system was run down and my blood out of order. I suffered a great deal from severe pains in my head, which made me feel very miserable. After having tried other remedies I purchased a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and was very glad to notice a decided improvement in my health, so I took another, and am glad to say that it has done me an enormous amount of good. I have recommended it to my friends, who were in a similar condition, and they all say it is a wonderful remedy."

OXFORD PROFESSOR REVIVES QUESTION OF PROLONGING LIFE

Says Elixir of Life for Flatworms Has Been Discovered.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—Popular interest in the oft-discussed question whether it is possible to keep old age at bay indefinitely and correspondingly prolong the span of life, has been revived by Professor Julian Huxley of Oxford. Julian is a grandson of the great Huxley, and inherits no inconsiderable measure of his talent for painstaking scientific research.

"The common-sense view of the life-cycle, drawn from the observation of man and the familiar animals," said Professor Huxley, "is that it proceeds always and inevitably in a definite direction, with a definite plan. The normal life-cycle of man, for instance, is as follows: The individual starts as a minute single cell; then follows a period of rapid growth, accompanied by differentiation; then growth without differentiation; then senility, and finally death, which supervenes as a natural phenomenon, even if not through disease or accident."

Experiments had shown, however, that this process was not irreversible, and was not inevitably similar in all animals; that it was possible to modify the rate of growth and the length of the period of growth, and thus prolong life.

"It has been shown," Professor Huxley continued, "that by alternately starving and feeding planarian flatworms, they can be kept not only within certain definite limits of size, as was to be expected, but also within certain definite limits of age. One animal has thus been kept of the same age—that is, the same lively activity, the same form, the same type of behavior—for a time during which the rest of the brood have passed through nineteen generations, a period which, translated into human terms, would take us back to Chaucer. Thus, age does not merely depend on the lapse of time; it is the expression of internal processes.

"The elixir of life so long sought in the Middle Ages has at last been found—but, alas! only for flatworms."

As an illustration of reversal in mental life, Professor Huxley mentioned that in some shell-shock and neurasthenia cases the patients revert to an earlier stage of mental existence, having the minds of children in the bodies of adults. "The most striking case," he said, "was that of an Australian soldier, who reverted to the condition of an infant, unable to walk or talk, and incapable of taking any food but milk. This is known as mental regression."

Professor Huxley held that numerous other examples showed that the apparent irreversibility of the life-cycle was only apparent, and that the ordinary type of life-cycle had been adopted as the most convenient but not as the only method of grappling with existence. In the case of mammals, the normal life rate has been prolonged by about 40 per cent.

"Observation of life process," said Professor Huxley in conclusion, "has given way to experiment as the chief method of research, and experiment is leading to control."

GIRL CRUSOE LIVES ON DESERT ISLAND

Emulates Selkirk's Hero When Washed Overboard.

Oakland, Cal., Feb. 20. — To Mrs. Charles R. Stone has fallen the experience of being a Mrs. Robinson Crusoe.

Recently during a 20-months' visit with her husband in the Philippines, she was washed overboard from a sailing vessel during a typhoon, and spent three days on an uninhabited island.

Her husband is an importer and exporter, Mrs. Stone said. His business took him to Iloilo in the Philippines. She went along. They traveled on a dinky little coasting steamer.

"When we were off of Bolino
A stormy wind began to blow.
Our boat did wobble-wobble so
That overboard I went"— paraphrases Mrs. Stone.

In reality it was such a stormy wind that it was rated as a typhoon, and the little craft bobbed like a cork battling it. As the storm began to subside, Mrs. Stone, life preserver on her arm, went on deck to get some air. She got more than air. She got so huge a wave in the back that she went overboard, and the folks on the boat could not rescue her.

While the distracted husband and the boat went on to Bolino, Mrs. Stone and her life preserver went on a regular Robinson Crusoe isle.

"I have an intimate knowledge now of how that man Alexander Selikrk felt when he was cast ashore on the deserted island. I knew that this island that I was on could not be vacant at all times, for I found the remnants of fishermen's camps. I just buckled up and ate fruit and waited. There was plenty of fruit on the island. The weather was good and outdoors was no hardship."

Three days later fishermen found her, and in their boat she went to Bolino and found a husband who mourned her for dead.

TRENTINO RESIDENTS WANT GERMAN TONGUE

ROME, Feb. 20.—The German municipalities in Trentino, which were taken from Austria by Italy as a result of the war, have refused to receive the laws of Italy when printed in Italian.

Copies of the laws sent to the German communities by the Italian Government have been returned, in some cases with the comment written on them, "We are Germans." Others wrote, "Please send us a translation. We don't know what all this is about."

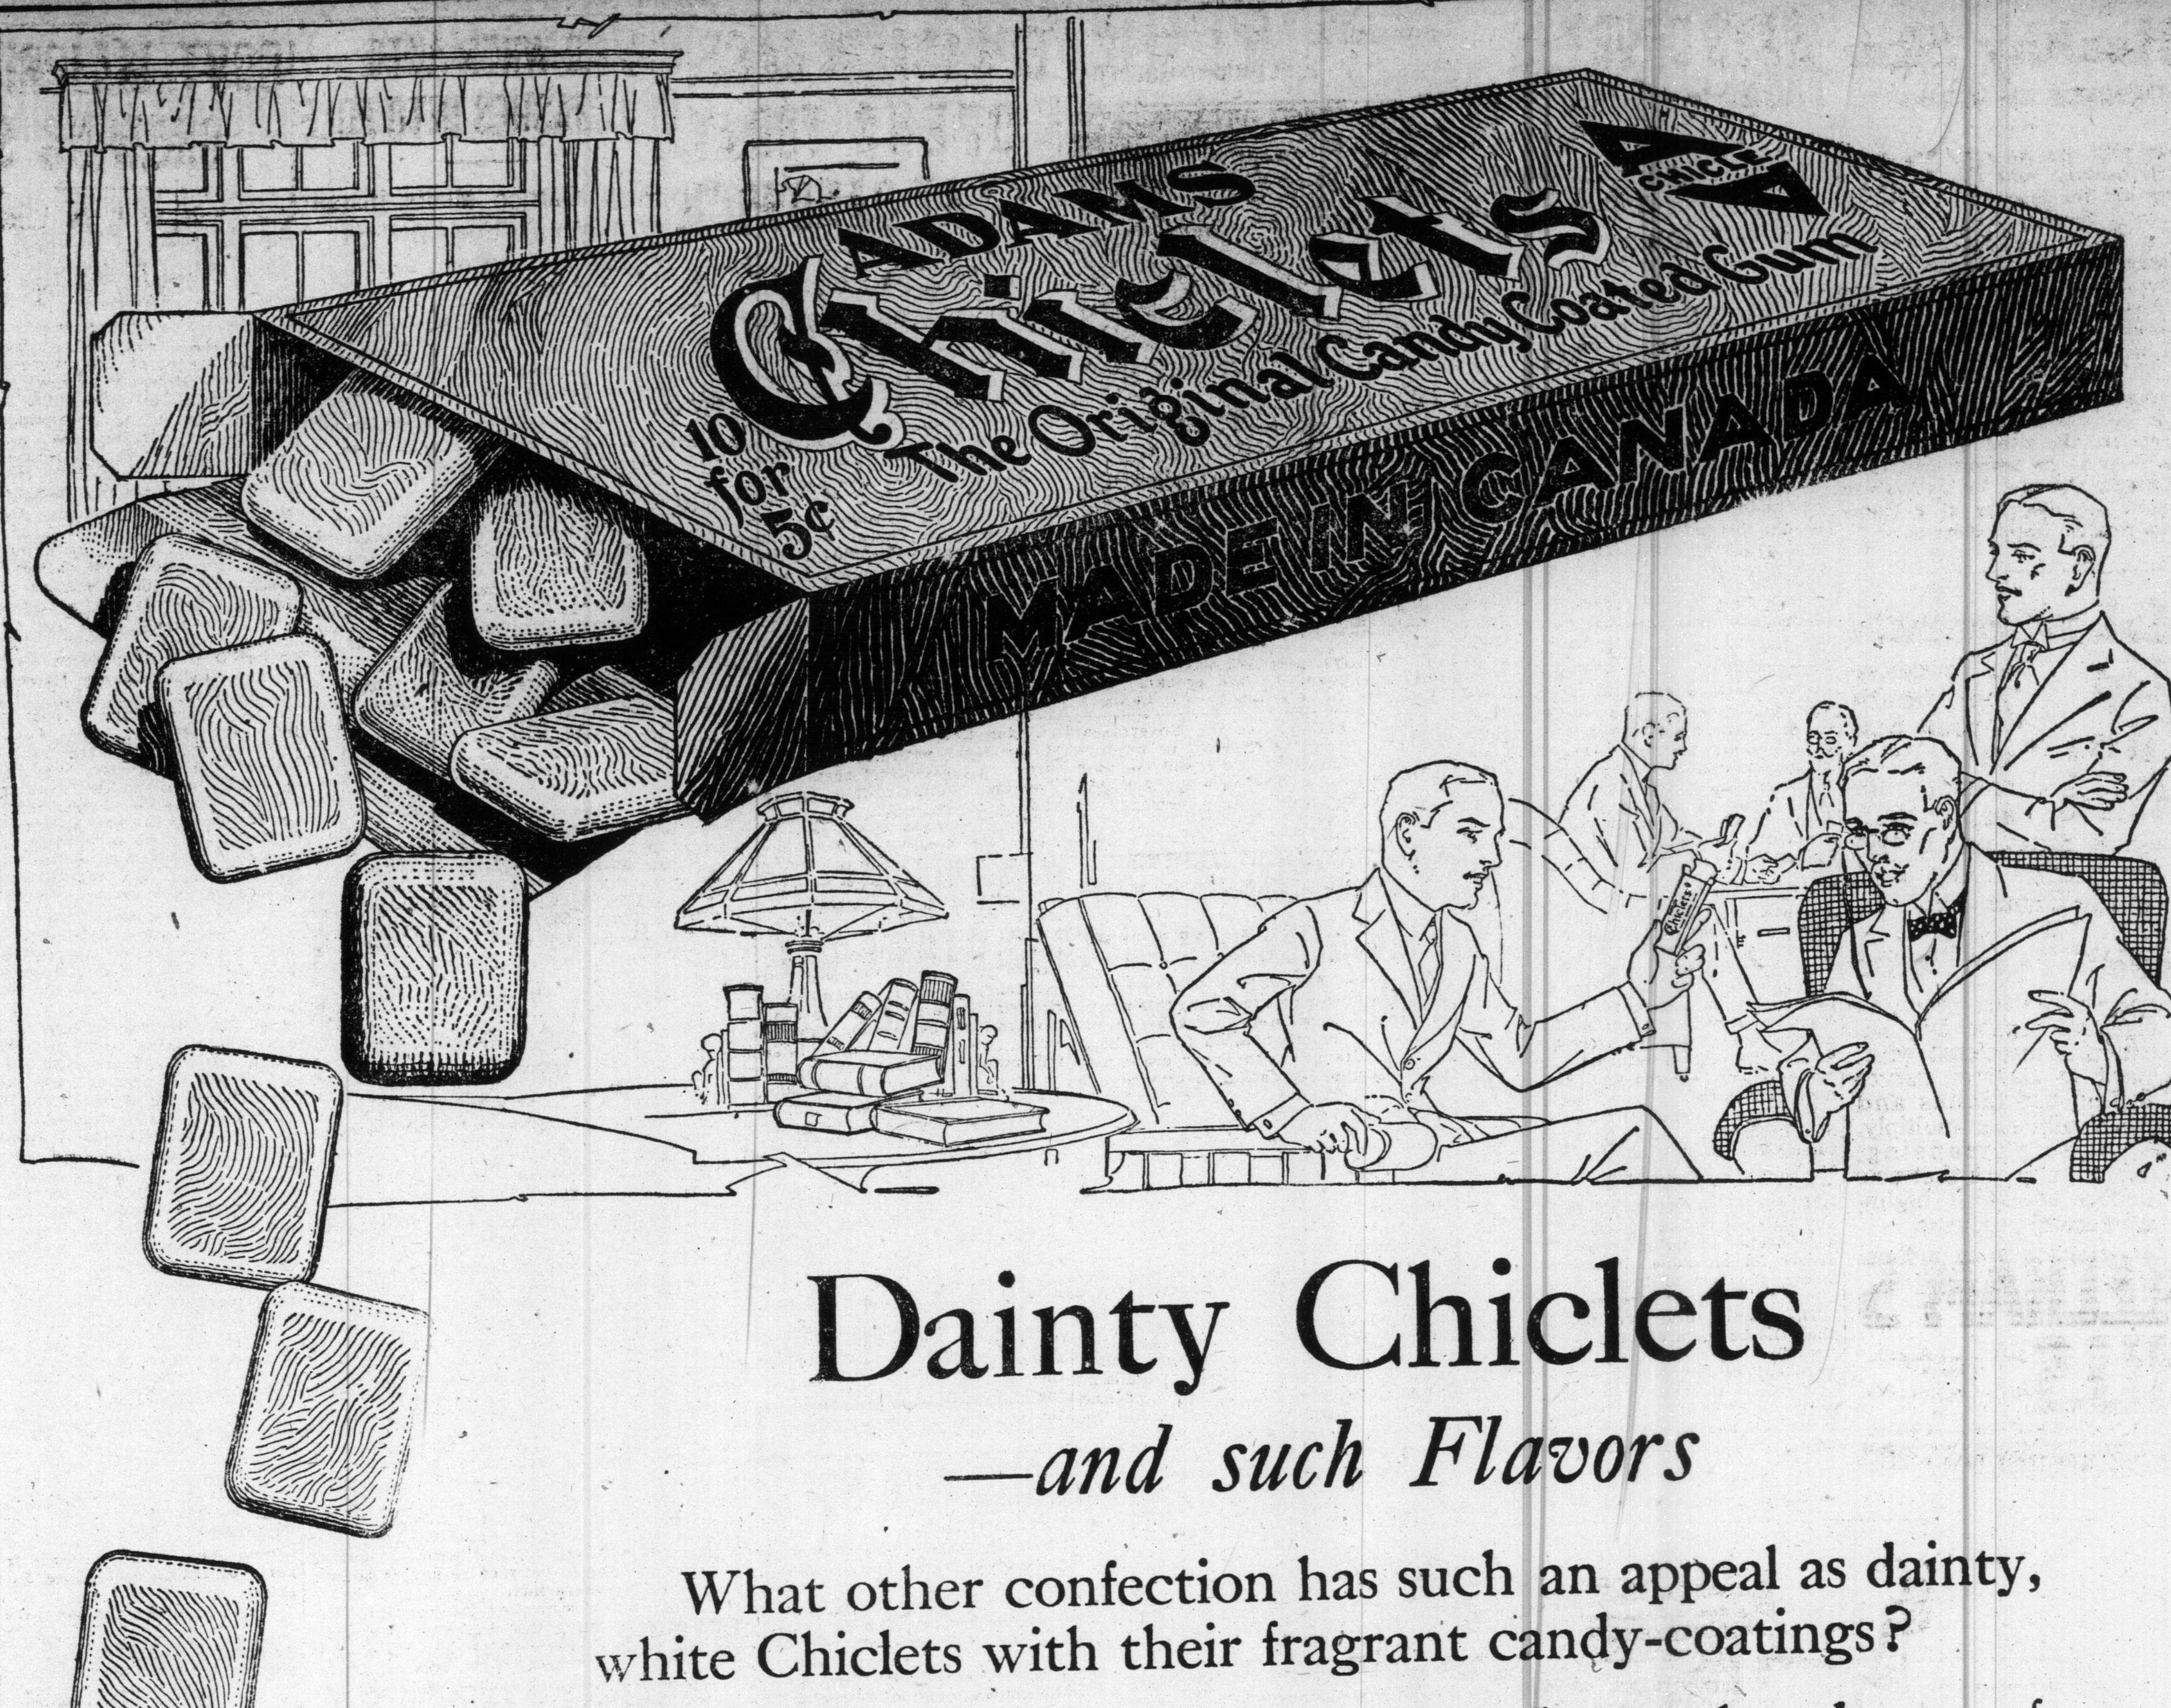

Newspapers in Rome urged the government to have the laws printed in German, pointing out that Switzerland publishes her laws in three languages.

AEROPLANE SEINES DUCKS OUT OF SKY

Acrobatic Flying Necessary to Capture Birds.

Chicago, Feb. 20. — Catching wild waterfowl alive by seining them out of the sky with nets carried through space by an aeroplane—this is the royal sport recently indulged by a trio of sportsmen above the rice fields of the Sacramento valley in California. They needed live wild ducks, geese, and brant, for use as decoys when the hunting season opened, so they rigged up an aeroplane with two halibut trammel nets, and proceeded to sein the wild fowl out of the skies.

With a crew of three men, the plane was flown from San Francisco to Willows, where the wild fowl are so numerous that they are a plague. Two large hoops were fastened between the wings of the aeroplane, and from these hoops two nets were strung. These nets are funnel-shaped, and in the small end of each a circular piece of canvas was placed.

When the aeroplane is on the ground the nets hang limply between the wings, but as soon as it gets into the air, the rush of air through the nets and against the piece of canvas at the small end holds them straight out their full length. The aeroplane was fitted with a heavy propeller strong enough not to break when flying through a flock of fowl.

In three days of flying, more than 500 ducks and geese were caught in this manner. From this number the sportsmen selected 50 of the kind they wanted—mallards, pintails, teal, and Canada geese. Only the young birds were retained, and the remainder were liberated.

For genuine thrills and sport, netting wild fowl in the air makes other outdoor sports pale into significance. The ducks cannot outfly, but can easily outmanoeuvre an aeroplane. In consequence, catching a desired bird in the nets called for acrobatic flying that has seldom been seen since the armistice for the birdmen to dash into a flock of retreating wild fowl, and then do a barrel roll in an effort to scoop a few more birds into the nets.

MOONSHINE POWDER NOW WORRYING REVENUERS

One Shot of "Bang" Does the Work Of a Good Drink.

St. Louis, Feb. 20. — Bang! Enter moonshine powder.

It's not explosive. But one shot of it is said to be enough to take the drinker on a pink elephant hunting expedition.

Moonshine powder is a new mixture from which corn whiskey can be distilled. It does away entirely with the risk of operating a still, and then, too, sufficient of it can be carried in the back of a watch for a wild night out. Sixty sacks of the powder were found by the police Wednesday night in a raid on a home. Each sack contained 100 pounds. City chemists say the mixture contains sugar, yeast and cornmeal, which has been separately

SAYS DRURY IS "ABE" LINCOLN OF ONTARIO

Has Absolute Confidence of the Govt., Declares Hon. Peter Smith.

[Special To The Advertiser.]

ST. MARYS, Feb. 19.—At the big gathering held here this afternoon in connection with the opening of the new U. F. O. club-rooms Robert Wray, the chairman, in introducing Hon. Peter Smith, the guest of honor for the occasion, asked him to speak on the Drury-Morrison controversy.

Hon. Peter Smith declared that the controversy was an unfortunate affair. Premier Drury, he said, has the absolute confidence of the Government. Mr. Smith characterized him as the Abraham Lincoln of Ontario. Mr. Morrison, he said, had been offered the premiership, but had refused. There has been much unpleasantness over the matter.

The speaker criticized the Farmers' Sun, declaring it was not the official organ of the Government. The Government, he declared, needs the vote of all the people, and not alone the U. F. O.

Will Be Appointed.

Concerning the Perth district agricultural representative, he stated that the appointment will be made and that the representative will be at work about July 1. There will be no change in the act as suggested by resolution from the Perth County Council. If the council is not satisfied after two years, it may by motion refuse to make the money grant required and the appointment will cease.

He spoke at some length regarding his own department, and justified expenditures. He pointed out that such items as the mothers' allowance, increased upkeep of public institutions, hydro extensions, support of a progressive educational policy and elections, he said necessitated spending money. The expenses for elections, he declared, were among the best of those made.

Rural Credits.

Discussing rural credits, he stated that the banks are going to co-operate heartily in the move, and thought that excellent results would be obtained.

If the embrago against Canadian cattle is lifted by the British Government, as seems likely, the credit, he said, will go to Hon. Manning Doherty for his efforts.

An important announcement in reference to good roads was made when he stated that the Government plans to expend $20,000,000 in improving the highways. This will be paid in ten years at the rate of $2,000,000 per annum from the licensing of motor vehicles.

TEACHERS FOR HIGHER SUPERANNUATION RATE

TORONTO, Feb. 19.—Representatives of the Ontario Public School Teachers' Association waited upon Hon. R. H. Grant, minister of education, this morning to ask that steps be taken to increase the superannuation for teachers. As an instance of the poor scale now existing, the deputation mentioned one school teacher, who, after 55 years' service, is only drawing superannuation at the rate of $402.35 per annum. The minister of education said that he was expecting a report from the superannuation commission within the next three weeks.

OUGHT TO PREPARE FOR WAR IN 1926

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The present United States fleet is "unorganized and unprepared for war even as a one-plane fleet," Rear Admiral Fullam, retired, former superintendent of the naval academy, said today before the Senate naval committee.

"If we are to have war in the Pacific in five years, we ought to prepare for it now. The new base at Alameda will not be completed then."

SPRACKLIN CASE OPENS TODAY AT SANDWICH

Public Will Be Excluded From Court—Many Lawyers For Defence.

WINDSOR, Feb. 20.—Announcement is made by Sheriff Anderson that, owing to restricted accommodation in the courtroom at the county buildings, Sandwich, officials have decided to exclude the public from the court when Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin is arraigned Monday on the charge of "killing and slaying" Beverly Trumble at the Chappell House on the morning of November 6.

Mindful of the packed gallery of spectators which crowded the narrow court to suffocaton on the night of the inquest, court officers have given the matter serious consideration, and have finally reluctantly decided on the exclusion order.

Under this latest dictume, members of the legal profession, court officials, jurors, witnesses and press representatives are the only people eligible for admission to the court.

Many Lawyers.

Rev. Mr. Spracklin will be represented by an array of legal talent said to be unprecedented in Border criminal trials. In addition to R. L. Brackin, who appeared for him at the coroner's inquest, he will have J. M. McEvoy of London, Ont., and two other lawyers, whose names are not disclosed. Barrister Clayton Lamarsh, member of the Brackin-Lamarsh firm, has been in Detroit for the past week, endeavoring to locate two men who can, it is said, give important testimony for the pastor.

Chief Justice Sir Wm. Mulock, who presides, will arrive Monday. As the case is the first on the docket, it is expected he will send the Spracklin indictment to the grand jury shortly after the court opens.

Crown Prosecutor.

A. Monro Grier, K.C., of Toronto, who is to be crown prosecutor at the trial, arrived here today for the opening of the assizes tomorrow. He is the guest of the Essex County Golf and Country Golf.

Probably no case has ever aroused so much interest in the border cities as has the coming Spracklin trial, and the chief topic of conversation about the streets today was conjecture as to the outcome of the case.

The announcement that the court-room would be closed to the public during the progress of the trial came as a surprise to the citizens and caused no little disappointment amongst many who had been planning to sit through the case, driven by the curiosity that invariably brings crowds to a trial of importance such as this.

Expect True Bill.

Among certain classes there is a belief that the case will not go to trial at all, the conjecture being that the grand jury will bring in "no bill," but the general opinion is that a "true bill" will be brought in and the pastor put on trial.

KILLED WHEN AUTO CRASHES INTO POLE

Elmer Gordon Meets Instant Death in Crash At Ford City.

WINDSOR, Feb. 20.—Driving westward over the new cement road a short distance east of Ford at midnight, an automobile with a party of four Detroit men became unmanageable and crashed into a power line pole. Elmer Gordon, aged 30, was instantly killed. The other three escaped serious injury and were held by the Ford police to await the outcome of an inquest which has been ordered for Monday by Coroner C. W. Hoare.

According to Frank Sprague, who was at the wheel of the auto, the car was going about 23 miles an hour when the steering gear parted. For a few feet the wheels remained on the pavement then veered and the collision followed. The accident is the third to occur in the same vicinity within a few weeks, there being fatalities in each instance.

2 DEAD, 28 HURT AS MAIN BURSTS

Thirteen Montreal Families Homeless When High-Pressure Pipe Breaks.

MONTREAL, Feb. 20.—(By Canadian Press.)—Two boys were drowned, damage estimated at over $100,000 done, thirteen families were rendered homeless and 28 persons were taken to the Montreal General Hospital as the result of a burst of a high pressure water main feeding the east end of the city which occurred at the corner of St. Urbain and Dorchester streets early this morning. Of the 28 taken to the general hospital, only two were seriously enough injured to be admitted to wards.

The dead are: Isaac Schachter, 8, of 215 St. Urbain street, and Abel Schachter, 2, same address.

S. Fortin, assistant director of public works, said tonight that the water main which burst was a bad piece of piping which had broken frequently in the last three or four years. It carried a pressure of between 80 and 85 pounds to the square inch.

The water worked its way into the houses, filling the cellars and rising to the next floor where it spouted upwards with such force that the tenements collapsed under the pressure. The Schachters have a family of seven children and saved all except the two boys, who were drowned while trying to reach the window.

GOVT. MAJORITY GROWING SLIM

Meighen Will Be Lucky To Pull Through Vote On Throne Speech.

OTAWA, Feb. 20. — Hon. T. A. Crerar, leader of the progressives, will be in the House tomorrow, having arrived from the West this afternoon. So far none of his followers has committed himself on the motion and amendment before the House. An informal caucus was held from which there emanated no statement, and to date no member of the party has spoken in the debate.

While Mr. Crerar gave out nothing to interviewers this afternoon it is stated that the consensus of opinion among his forces is in favor of voting for the amendment for lack of choice. A conference, however, will be held before a definite decision is reached.

Majority to Be Narrow.

The Government's majority is bound to be a narrow one. Today the hand of death removed Capt. Tom Wallace of West York, an ever loyal adherent of the administration, well beloved by members of all political leanings in the House. News comes also that Hon. T. W. Crothers, former minister of labor, is seriously ill, and will not be able to attend. On the budget debate last session the Government secured a majority of 26.

Will Not Vote.

Members who voted or were paired for the Government on that occasion, and who will not vote for it on this, include Messrs. Tremain of Hants, Logie of Northumberland, Harrold of Brant, Richardson of Springfield, Allen of South Winnipeg, Crothers, West Elgin (all of whom are absent because of illness), McLeod of York, Wallace of West York, and Rt. Hon. A. L. Sifton (who have passed away since last session), Burnham of West Peterboro (who was defeated in the by-election), Sir Thomas White (who is engaged on the Grand Trunk board of arbitration), Hon. A. K. MacLean (who has crossed the floor), and others. Sir Herbert Ames and Col. Hepburn of Prince Edward will not be present. Pairs, it may be noted, have been discouraged during the present session.

According to present indications the Government will be lucky to pull out with a majority of a dozen or so.

DR. McCRIMMON HAD LARGE FUNERAL

Kincardine, Feb. 18.—The funeral of Dr. McCrimmon held under Masonic auspices was the largest ever held in Kincardine. Local factories were closed, and mourners came from all parts of Huron and Kincardine Townships.

The funeral took place here also of Dr. Malcolm McLean who died in Chicago recently. At the time of his death Dr. McLean was professor in ophthalmology in the Illinois Post Graduate School of Medicine, and was a writer on ophthalmology for scientific journals. He was a member of the Illinois, Chicago and American Medical Associations and the Chicago Academy of Surgery. He was born in Kincardine in 1881 and went to Chicago in 1900 to study at the Hahnemann College. He was made assistant superintendent and clinical inspector in eye, ear, nose and throat diseases at Hahnemann Hospital in 1908.

Dr. McLean was unmarried. He is survived by three brothers and three sisters. Mrs. Maude Rose, Seattle; Mrs. A. D. Blakely, New York; Mrs. Cecil Kipp, Chicago; Neil McLean, Detroit; Albert, of Duluth, and John B. McLean, Chicago.

THOMAS G. WALLACE, M.P., IS DEAD AT TORONTO

TORONTO, Feb. 20.—Captain Thomas G. Wallace of Woodbridge, Ont., M. P. for West York, died this morning in St. Michael's Hospital, this city, where he was taken a week ago suffering from pneumonia. Hopes for his recovery were entertained by his relatives and friends until a short time before the end came. He was single and in his 42nd year.

20,000 PEOPLE ARE NOW TAKING DR. SMATHERS' ASPROLAX

New Scientific Discovery Is Rapidly Becoming Sensation of the Drug Trade Throughout Canada.

BREAKS UP A COLD BY REMOVING CAUSE

Thousands Using It With Gratifying Results—Great Superiority Over Ordinary Remedies Clearly Demonstrated.

Remarkable as it may seem, over 20,000 people in Toronto and vicinity are now taking Dr. Smathers' Asprolax, the new scientific treatment for colds, which is rapidly becoming the sensation of the drug trade throughout Canada.

The great superiority of Dr. Smathers' Asprolax over the ordinary remedies heretofore prescribed has been clearly demonstrated, and people everywhere have been quick to recognize it as a preparation of remarkable merit.

The Lyman Brothers' Drug Company, Limited, have just placed their third order for one hundred gross, or 14,400 bottles, to supply the drug trade in this immediate territory, and it is with difficulty that the manufacturers have been able to supply the large and rapidly growing in demand.

The phenomenal success of the preparation can be readily explained by the fact that it is a real specific and breaks up a cold by removing the cause, while the great majority of the present-day remedies relieve the symptoms only. Thousands of people who have used Dr. Smathers' Asprolax state that it is almost magical in its effect, and are recommending it to their friends.

Dr. Smathers' Asprolax is a combination treatment, and acts as an antipyretic, which reduces the fever; an expectorant, which loosens the phlegm, relieves the congestion and stops the cough; a laxative which opens the bowels, and an antiseptic which retards germ growth and prevents the spread of the infection.

It is delightful to take and produces no unpleasant after-effects whatever. Even children take it readily, and it acts on all, both old and young, with the same gratifying results.

If you are suffering from a cold, go to your nearest drug store and get a bottle of Dr. Smathers' Asprolax. Open it on the spot; take one teaspoonful, repeat the dose in one hour and again in two hours. If, by the time you have taken the third dose you are not surprised and delighted, take the bottle back and your money will be refunded without question.

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious complications, such as lung trouble and pneumonia. Only one bottle of Dr. Smathers' Asprolax is usually sufficient to break up the most obstinate cold.—Advt.

AIR WILL BE CHARTED IN ARCS FOR AVIATORS

Aim to Avoid Loss of Time on Earth's Curvature.

Paris, Feb. 20.—That a straight line is not always the shortest distance between two points has been realized by experts working on aviation maps, who have devised what are to be known as orthodromic arcs, representing arcs drawn to conform to the earth's surface while flying, just as navigators took their sailing directions from Mercator's projection chart rather than from flat drawn chartings.

These orthodromic arcs, according to a report by the mathematical division of the French Academy of Sciences, give a simpler and more rapid solution to the problems of direction than has hitherto been possible, although to the uninitiated they might seem impracticable. For instance, if an aviator leaves Paris for Shanghai, instead of passing over central Europe he will save time by going northeast toward Petrograd and traveling diagonally across China to his destination.

The system is to be extended to facilitate the computation of wireless wave directions, and if ships follow the same arc suggested for air pilots it will be possible to send wireless messages to ships with almost absolute certainty that they will be received and that no other ships will cut in, merely by pointing the newest sending apparatus in the known direction of the ship with which communication is desired.

STRATFORD CLUB INNOCENT VICTIMS OF CIRCUMSTANCES

STRATFORD, Feb. 20.—Local hockey officials apparently have been innocent victims om a combination of circumstances regarding the elegibility of some of their junior players. Today word was received from Secretary Hewitt announcing Seaforth's protest on the grounds of Cook and Kalbfleisch.

Cook was found over age, and was not used in the Seaforth games. It appears that Kalbfiesch had played one game for New Hamburg intermediates, though the local officials claim to have been entirely ignorant of the fact. The young man told the club officials that he had not played, though he had played against Kitchener. Kalbfleisch has taken an affidavit to the effect that he never made known to the local officials that he had played for New Hamburg, and that in accepting his services the local club acted in good faith. The situation now rests with the O. H. A. executive.

BRITISH SMOKING LESS

Price of Cigars Has Nearly Doubled Since the War.

London, Feb. 20.—There has been a marked reduction in the retail sale of champagne and cigars in England. Cigar merchants say that recently clearances from bond and importations from Cuba have practically been suspended. The public, it is stated, refuse to buy at the high prices necessitated by the heavy duty and the inflated cost of tobacco.

In 1914, a really good Havana cigar could be bought at $10 to $12 a hundred, but today the cost is more than £5 ($19) a hundred. Wine merchants are a little surprised at the decline in the sale of champagne, as prices have not been substantially increased.

THE CASE OF GAUTHIER.

The only person who seems to be particularly interested in either the attitude or the future of Gauthier, M. P., is Mr. Gauthier himself. The member for St. Hyacinthe apparently had visions of himself in a cabinet role, but when Premier Meighen gave him the "once over" he appears to have passed him by very quickly. The prime minister was shrewd enough to see that there was no Gauthier wing to Quebec Liberalism, that the gentleman from St. Hyacinthe represented nobody but himself and that to take him into the cabinet would be but to become the laughingstock of the country. So Mr. Gauthier has arrived nowhere. If he has actually left the Liberal party, then Liberalism is just as well off without him.

Half a dozen Gauthiers passing over to the Meighen forces would mean little as far as Quebec is concerned. Quebec is Liberal today, modifying its Liberalism no doubt, but modifying it on the line of the world's best standards of Liberalism. Younger men are coming to the front rapidly, young men like Mr. Rinfret of Montreal, for instance, who represent the alert, vigorous thought of the rising generation in Quebec. These young men are thoroughly versed in the history of their own and other countries, they have studied British politics, they know what the Liberalism of England has been. They are trained in the art of expressing themselves and they take the trouble to prepare their speeches properly, which is more than a good many of the members from other provinces do.

The younger mind of Quebec finds nothing to kindle the imagination or stir the heart in the Toryism of the Meighen cabinet. Nor is enthusiasm likely to be awakened toward a government that is steadily losing its hold, its majority decreasing, its popular support vanishing. What is there for a young man in this group who hark far back for their slogans and who are apparently about to resurrect the ghost of a past great leader to serve them in their present situation? Mr. Meighen has looked in vain for a real representative French-Canadian to enter his cabinet. He is still looking and he will likely have to continue looking.

WHO BLOCKED IT?

There promises to be a very sharp demand made upon the Meighen Government for fuller information with regard to the reason why the proposal to appoint a Canadian representative to Washington fell through. That something curious went on behind the scenes is fairly clear. The Borden Government made the proposal to Parliament and secured a grant of money for the distinct purpose of sending a Canadian to Washington. Indeed, rumor connected the name of Sir Robert Borden himself with the post, and as an alternative the name of Mr. Rowell was prominent in the press. Then, something happened, and it was announced that the making of an appointment had been indefinitely postponed.

Recently there appeared in the Government press, a veiled hint that the Washington appointment had been negatived by certain people who feared that if Canada were to have her own ambassador, then Australia and other self-governing dominions would also insist on having their representatives there, too. To which we would say, why not? Sir Auckland Geddes may be a very excellent British ambassador, but we submit that he cannot be very conversant with the questions of a country in which he does not live and in which he has not lived for a good many years. He will know still less about Australian or South African problems, but evidently there is a desire on the part of some interests that no business of any colony or Dominion should be transacted at Washington save through his hand. This, we submit, is not only absurd but intolerable.

The Toryism of a British government of seventy-five or a hundred years ago, with its firm conviction that self-government meant separation, might have acted in such a way, but one would expect another attitude in this day. Why should this country have to let all its business pass through the hands of Sir Auckland Geddes, with all due respect to his abilities. Evidently the Borden Government did not think it was the proper course or it would not have proposed to send a Canadian representative. Who are the people who blocked this move and what are their objections. The country ought to know all that went on behind this remarkable turnabout movement that the Government executed.

THE GAS PROBLEM.

In view of recent experiences of a number of other Ontario cities and towns in dealing with the problem of their gas supply, and the fact that London has arrived at the point where definite action must be taken to deal with a similar problem, the publication just issued by the Citizens' Research Institute of Canada on London's gas problem is very timely and of more than usual interest.

The report asks and answers a number of questions regarding the present situation, and while it cannot be said that the answers in all cases will commend themselves to all Londoners, they at least contain much food for thought.

For instance, in answer to the question: "Is an increase in the present rates justifiable?" (a question which has been answered in the negative in many quarters) the institute admits that it is not in a position to make an absolute reply owing to the fact that it has not made a study of the present cost of production. But it does show conclusively that London at the present time enjoys the lowest rate by far of practically any Canadian city not to mention American cities, who have no import duty to pay on the coal from which their artificial gas is manufactured.

The solution of the whole problem offered by the institute, namely, the adoption of a sliding scale of prices based on the cost of production, would seem to be a constructive suggestion. It has many points to commend it. It avoids the obvious injustice to the citizens of the inauguration at the present time of a fixed rate for gas, based on present cost of production, when it is recognized that commodity prices are steadily falling, and that the cost of production will materially decrease as a result. It also provides for direct control of the price of gas by the city. From the citizens' viewpoint, the arrangement would seem entirely satisfactory.

But would the gas company refuse it as being too binding upon shareholders as to the profits they are allowed when better times arrive? The only arrangement which will prove satisfactory will be one that is acceptable to both the company and the citizens. Whether the proposal of a sliding scale will be acceptable to the company remains to be seen, but the whole situation calls for immediate action by the city council, in view of the fact that the company already has a bill before the Ontario Legislature calling for an increase in the flat rate to be charged London consumers.

LETTERS

DEFENDS THE POLICE.

To The Editor of The Advertiser:

Dear Sir,—Regarding an article published on Monday, January 24, in a local newspaper of an alleged hold-up of five policemen by rum-runners whom they had gone to capture, I find after investigating and making inquiries that there was absolutely no truth in the statement made by the parties who claimed that they had witnessed the so-called holp-up.

Not only in the minds of the residents of our city does this statement place the members of the police force in an unenviable position, but the matter has spread broadcast over the country, and during a recent trip to a number of outside towns the matter was referred to in my presence in a manner very uncomplimentary, not only to our force, but to the municipality of London in general.

There may have been times when some members of the force were over-zealous in the discharge of their duties, but all the citizens whom I have heard discuss this matter believe as I do, recalling past experiences in which both our police and detective forces took part, that anything of this nature which would denote cowardice is simply out of the question.

In respect to the department as a whole, not only has its reputation for getting anyone whom they went after been well known locally, but the crooks throughout other parts of Canada, as well as the United States, have realized what they would be up against if after pulling off a job they headed this way. Consequently, they give London a wide berth.

Our city has about 136 miles of streets and covers about ten square miles, while the maximum number of policemen on duty is not over 20, so that in patrolling each man would have to cover one-half square mile.

Under these circumstances, with houses banked on all sides of streets, making it impossible for an officer to be at all points at one time, the wonder to me is that London has been as free as it has from hold-ups, compared with adjacent cities.

Believing that it is my duty as a citizen to speak in behalf of any city department that has not the opportunity to reply to statements or charges made against them, I am writing to publicly refute this statement, feeling as I do that we have not a man on the present force who would, when it comes to a real test, be found wanting in courage or initiative in using physical force or head work in the protection of our citizens. I remain, Yours truly,

J. McMURPHY,
33 Oak street, city.

The Advertiser, at the request of the London Policemen's Association, published a protest against the above mentioned report, in which the association offered to donate $100 to any charitable institution if the charge could be proven. —The Editor.

DREAM OF SUMMER.

[Nell Ruth Roffe.]

I dream of the dip of my paddle,
And I dream of my brown canoe;
I can seee the lake,
And the silvering wake
In the heart of the waters blue.

I see the sun's flash on my paddle,
A will-o'-the-wisp agleam,
As we drift along
Like a winged song,
Or trail of a swift-flown dream.

I hear my whispering paddle.
As it lips the waters deep,
Like a phantom thought,
Like a song untaught,
Or a love that awakes from sleep!

I feel the swing of my paddle
Guiding my lightsome craft,
As I dip and turn
In the swaying stern,
O'er the stream of the sunbeam's shaft.

And the winds caress my paddle,
And the blue sky smiles on high.
As we sail away
To the golden day,
My paddle, canoe, and I.

For still, may I take my paddle,
And ride in my swift canoe,
And still, in my dream,
In the sun's gold gleam,
I may stray o'er the waters blue.

KEPT IN PARIS.

[Detroit Free Press.]

Governor Channing Cox of Massachusetts, discussing the high cost of living in France, said the other day:

"In Paris, you know, a good pair of shoes fetches $50, and a good meal about as much.

"Well, a young lawyer started on a brief vacation trip to Paris in June, and he long overstayed his time. On his return in late September, a friend who knew he was none too flush, said to him:

"'Why did you remain so long in Paris, Jim?"

"'My friends kept me there,' Jim answered.

"'Your friends? Why, Jim, I didn't know you had any friends in Paris.'

"'I haven't. My friends are all in Oshkosh, and they refused to send me any money.'"

BACK ALONG THE OLD TRAIL.

[Henry Pitz in Boys' Life.]

Look back over the trail, Scout, the trail of your battling sires,
The trail that mounts from the centuries' depths to the peak of your own desires.
See how it climbs from the dusk of the Past, from the Age of Bronze and Stone,
Through the veil of years, with toil and tears, to the crest where you stand alone.

Look at the wealth they bring you, Scout, the heritage of the years;
The fire of the Norsemen rovers, the mind of the Keltic seers,
The strength of the Saxon bowmen, the courage of grim Tartar.
Men have fought and men have wrought to make you what you are.

Look that you keep the faith, Scout, true to the hopes they dared,
The visions and dreams they died for, the faiths they held and shared.
Like to your sires of old, Scout, be ye a pioneer too;
Keen-eyed and sure, clear-eyed and pure, that the trail may be cleared anew.

"D. LLOYD GEORGE."

Writing in the British Weekly, Mr. W. H. Griffith Thomas makes this interesting reference to Mr. Lloyd George: "I was in Hong Kong in October, and, on passing a house on the peak, a friend who was with me called my attention to the name of the owner on the gate, and told me this incident. Years ago the gentleman was motoring in Wales, and was stopped by the police for exceeding the speed limit. As he did not wish to be delayed by having to wait for the appearance in court, he inquired for and found a lawyer who arranged to represent him, and money was left for the fine and legal fee. A few days after, a letter came from the lawyer, stating the amount of cash and inclosing a postal order for the balance. The letter was signed 'D. Lloyd George.' The gentleman has often wished since then that he had kept that letter.

WHEN I REMEMBER.

[Sir Henry Newbolt.]

When I remember that the day will come
For this our love to quit his land of birth,
And bid farewell to all the ways of earth,
With lips that must for evermore be dumb,
Then crepe I silent from the stirring hum,
And shut away the music and the mirth,
And reckon up what may be left of worth
When hearts are cold and love's own body numb,
Something there must be that I know not here,
Or know too dimly through the symbol dear;
Some touch, some beauty, only guessed by this—
If He that made us loves, it shall replace,
Beloved, even the vision of thy face,
And deep communion of thine inmost kiss.

OTHERS' VIEWS

THE QUEST FOR HEALTH.

[London Daily Express.]

The strange thing, to the philosophic mind, is the readiness of modern humanity to believe in the elixir sought by the Middle Ages. Few believe confidently in a patent pill or potion which claims to cure every ill. Few fail to be thrilled when sour milk manipulation or an extracted essence or surgery suggest the conquest of pain and aches. Health is the boon we all seek. It would seem at times that if the excision of the heart were divulged as a cure for biliousness we should stand in a queue at the surgery door.

PROHIBITION ON TRIAL.

[Montreal Gazette.]

"Pussyfott" Johnson is reported as saying that, unless the United States makes good and inforces the law, the cause of prohibition throughout the world will be set back a century. This may not be putting the case too strongly. The passage of the prohibition amendement to the United States constitution was the greatest statutory achievement in the history of the dry movement. If it fails, the rebuff will be correspondingly serious.

"RAINMAKER'S" WAGES.

[Montreal Star.]

The United Agricultural Association of the Medicine Hat, Alberta, district, is reported to have signed a contract with a professional rainmaker. "Rainmaker" Hatfield is to operate over a territory of at least 100 miles radius, with Medicine Hat as the centre.

Farmers of the locality are said to be enthusiastic of the prospects. The showerman is to get $4,000 per inch, with a maximum of $8,000 for a four-inch rainfall. He says his main plant will be located at Chappice Lake, twenty miles from Medicine Hat, and his methods of operation are not disclosed.

Our great western country is nothing if not progressive. It embraces always the very latest doctrines, and it believes in paying well for what it wants. In the effete East we think it remarkable to have real estate selling at $50,000 per foot, but what would we think of water at $4,000 per inch?

POPE HAS SCHEME TO RECLAIM LAND

Italian Company Formed To Irrigate Barren Tract Near Rome.

London, Feb. 19.—Prince Orsini, a member of a famous Roman family which has provided two pontiffs, Benedict XIII. and Clement XII., and who is himself a chief lay functionary of the papal household, is in London on a double mission, one of which is diplomatic. While he refused to divulge this phase of his visit, it is reported here that it concerns the Vatican's problem in Ireland.

The other purpose is in connection with a scheme for the reclamation of the Agrum Romanum, an extensive barren tract lying between Rome and the Mediterranean. In this scheme he has the support of one American and two English banks.

Prince Orsini told the correspondent that the Vatican felt that, owing to the world's economic depression, all countries should do their utmost toward cultivating their territories which are now waste. He said the Vatican had induced some landed proprietors to form a company for the irrigation of this historic region between Rome and the Mediterranean, which was fertile at one time, but for hundreds of years has been a pestilential, malarial district, comprising 50,000 acres. It is estimated that the cost of the reclamation work will be $50,000,000, and that it will take six years to complete it. However, if it is done, he said, the land would be of inestimable value to Rome, and would make the city self-supporting, and bring back to the capital of the Caesars something of its old-time glory.

The chief town in the area is Ostia, which in B. C. 50 was one of the principal cities of Italy, but in the first century of the Christian era deposits from the Tiber gradually silted up the port and caused the ruin of the city at the river's mouth. Previous to the outbreak of the world war excavations at Ostia revealed enormous granaries, which proved the richness of the soil there.

It is now planned, the prince said, to build another city near Ostia, which is 25 kilometres southwest of Rome, to relieve the housing congestion in Rome itself, and to build a port there, which will make Rome a maritime city. The engineering charges are to be borne in connection with the reclamation work in the Pontine marshes.

The pope is interested in the scheme because it would carry out the plans of some of his predecessors, and do much toward the improvement of Rome itself.

MILLERAND'S WHIMSY BOON TO PARIS TAILORS

Orders Pour In For Copies of His Frock Coat.

PARIS, Feb. 19.—If President Millerand of France were out after votes he would have the unanimous support of the tailors. As the result of his declaration that he would wear the old-fashioned frock coat instead of the more modern morning coat, fashionable tailors are experiencing an unepected rush in order to dress diplomatists and politicians properly for the series of daytime receptions to be given in honor of President Pilsudski of Poland.

The frock coat seemed to have disappeared entirely since the war, owners bundling them into rag bags when the morning coat came into vogue. But they are now wishing they hadn't, as the frock coat outfit, properly made, adds not less than 1,000 francs to a man's winter clothing budget, with the possibility that President Millerand's love for unconventionality may again change the fashion if everybody apes his clothing.

FILMY STOCKINGS WIN IN PARIS POLICE COURT

Women Clerks Joyous When Rights Are Preserved.

Paris, Feb. 19.—In the busy offices of the Paris prefecture of police there is great rejoicing following the official announcement that women clerks there will be allowed to wear all the filmy silk stockings, low-necked dresses and diamond earrings and pins they want to.

News agencies gave out the information last week that Prefect Raux intended to force his employees to observe strictest economy, particularly in dress, as an example to the remainder of France. M. Raux now denies this, apparently convinced by the arguments of male workers in his department that France's interests will be just as well safeguarded by women who exhibit silk stockings as by those who wear the cheaper cotton hosiery.

WASHINGTON INN WILL SOON BE OUT

London Resort for American Army Officers in War To Be Removed.

London, Feb. 19.—Hundreds of American army officers who were stationed in or passed through London during the war will regret to hear that the Washington Inn, in the central area of St. James Square, has been closed and is to be torn down so as to restore the square to its original condition.

Washington Inn was a favorite hostelry for American officers because it offered them a touch of home due largely to the efforts of British and American girls who conducted the place and even waited at table. To many the time spent at Washington Inn left one of the most pleasant memories of the war.

Among the matrons who were patronesses of the inn were a number of American women who married men of the British nobility—Mrs. John Astor, now Lady Ribblesdale; Lady Deerhurst Alastair Innes-Ker and the Hon. Mrs. John Ward.

Since last June the Washington Inn has been used by the Officers' Association to accommodate ex-service officers who came to London looking for employment. For that reason and the limited housing facilities that exist in London it was urged that the inn be allowed to stand for a while yet, but the trustees, Lord Astor, Lord Strafford, Lord Kinnaird and the Bishop of London, representing the inhabitants of the square, despite the fact that many prominent persons supported the plea, decided that the inn must be torn down.

Last June, when the International Y. M. C. A. discontinued the use of the inn as a hotel for American officers, it turned the place over to the Officers' Association with the understanding that the place was to be vacated at the end of the year and the buildings removed. To this the trustees agreed, and they refuse to postpone longer the removal of the structure.

If you are subject to Headaches; often have attacks of Neuralgia; or take cold very easily; you will naturally welcome information of any remedy which has been tested in hundreds of cases just like yours and has given thoroughly satisfactory results.

During the last Influenza epidemic, and the wet, slushy days of last spring, DOMINION C.B.Q. TABLETS were recommended to be taken at the first sign of cold; when one felt a Headache or Neuralgia coming on.

Those who wisely followed this advice found that one or two tablets relieved the pain, reduced the fever, and broke up the cold.

DOMINION C.B.Q. TABLETS are a combination of Cascara, Bromide and Quinine and are sold by all druggists. They were originated by the National Drug and Chemical Company of Canada, Limited, an assurance in itself of the purity and efficiency of the ingredients.

RUPTURE KILLS 7,000 ANNUALLY

Seven thousand persons each year are laid away—the burial certificate being marked "Rupture." Why? Because the unfortunate ones had neglected themselves or had been merely taking care of the sign (swelling) of the affliction and paying no attention to the cause. What are you doing? Are you neglecting yourself by wearing a truss, applia. ce, or whatever name you choose to call it? At best, the truss is only a makeshift—a false prop against a collapsing wall—and cannot be expected to act as more than a mere mechanical support. The binding pressure retards blood circulation, thus robbing the weakened muscles of that which they need most—nourishment.

But science has found a way, and every truss sufferer in the land is invited to make a FREE test right in the privacy of their own home. The PLAPAO method is unquestionably the most scientific, logical and successful self-treatment for rupture the world has ever known.

The PLAPAO PAD when adhering closely to the body cannot possibly slip or shift out of place, therefore, cannot chafe or pinch. Soft as velvet—easy to apply—inexpensive. To be used whilst you work and whilst you sleep. No straps, buckles or springs attached.

Learn how to close the hernial opening as nature intended so the rupture CAN'T come down. Send your name today to PLAPAO CO., Block 413, St Louis, Mo., for FREE trial Plapao and the information necessary.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Grey, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or grey. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this oldtime recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the grey hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

Attention, Mona!

Dear Miss Grey,—Mona from Arizona wants to know the cause of the scum on her clothes. The galvanized boiler is the fault. I had one and they are no good. I would like very much to have your sleeper pattern, Mona. I have a little girl three years old. I have some underwear I will try and make them out of. She is busy now helping me write this letter. Hoping the sleeper becomes as famous as the stocking-foot pattern.

FOR LOVE OF BETTY

[BY MAY CHRISTIE.]

(Copyright, 1920, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

XVIII.—Dinner for Two.

Her usually cheerful, energetic little hostess was lying amid a pile of cushions on the sofa, a handkerchief soaked in eau-de-cologne bound round her forehead, and a general air of woebegoneness novering over her. A painted screen shaded the light from her eyes.

"Bother this wretched head of mine!" she was murmuring. "To think that it started just when I was going to take you out to dinner, too! Oh, Betty, I'm so disappointed. You've never been out to dinner in a New York restaurant, have you? And you look so lovely in that new gown of yours! Wasting your sweetness on the desert air—and me! It's positively a crime!"

"Don't worry about me, dear Mrs. Carton," said Betty quickly. "I'm not in the least disappointed, I assure you. But I do think you should go straight to bed. I'll come up later and bathe your forehead, if you'll let me——"

"You're an unselfish little angel, Betty, but I won't allow it! To think that one of Mme. What's-Her-Name's gowns—Fleurette? —Juliette? —should blush unseen — it makes me cross! Brand new, too—bought only yesterday—" She gave another comical little groan.

"I'll run upstairs and slip it off," Betty bent over Mrs. Carton anxiously. "I really do think you should go to bed."

"And leave you all alone! No—let me think! This is where some of your many admirers would have come in useful."

The telephone on the stand beside the sofa gave an unexpected little tinkle, as though providing an answer to her thoughts.

"The oracle hath spoken!" Mrs. Carton, smiling stoically despite her racking headache, detached the receiver from its hook. "Hello, who's there?"

"Betty Gordon? You want to know if she can meet you tonight? For dinner? Where? Mrs. Carton, holding the telephone and listening, smiled mysteriously up at Betty.

"At the Restaurant Maurice? Good! She'll enjoy that. But, isn't it—well—a bit ultra? No? Oh, all right. Hold on a minute. How many are to be there? Four, did you say? Yes, I'll see that Betty's on time. I'll phone for a taxi for her, now. Thank you. All right. Good-bye."

"Quite providential, this invitation!" Mrs. Carton heaved a little sigh of relief. "You didn't mind my accepting at once, on your behalf, did you, Betty? You'll enjoy yourself all right."

"But who—who has asked me out to dine?"

"Your new friend, April Moore. Don't look so puzzled, Betty. The favor's going to be on your side, not on hers. She wants you to oblige her by forming a fourth at a little dinner in the Restaurant Meurice. The other girl in the party can't turn up, or something. Couldn't quite catch what April said—that cooing voice of hers is hopeless on the telephone."

For the young girl there was no alternative.

"Delighted to meet you again, Miss Gordon." He bowed ingratiatingly. "I think you remember me? My name is Davon."

"You are looking for Miss Moore, I see," he went on calmly. "She has been called away for a few minutes, but will soon be back. She asked me to start dinner without her. Our table is engaged for us—will you come with me this way?"

"Hadn't we—hadn't we better wait for her?" faltered Betty. She felt extraordinarily uncomfortable with this man.

He shrugged his shoulders.

"The dinner won't improve by waiting. Miss Moore particularly asked me not to wait."

Betty could demur no further, in common civility. She followed him down the crowded restaurant into a shaded corner.

He tried to recommend himself to the young girl by means of fulsome compliments.

"Why, look over there!" she cried. "Isn't that April sitting at the table with the pink candles? Don't you see her? She's got a man with her—look!"

Davon raised his head, smiling inscrutably to himself. At the same moment April's companion at the other table turned in his chair and subjected both Betty and Charlie Davon to one long, surprised glance.

Betty, with a sudden sick throbbing at her heart, realized that the man who was looking at her in such surprised disapproval was once again—Jack Trevor.

Tomorrow—Trevor's Look.

Y. W. C. A. WILL BE ESTABLISHED IN GALT

Provisional Directors Appointed At a Largely-Attended Meeting.

GALT, Feb. 19.—At a public meeting called by Mayor Charlton this afternoon and largely attended by businessmen, manufacturers, prominent women of the city and working girls, it was decided to establish a Young Women's Christian Association in Galt.

The need of this organization, where so much female help is employed, has been recognized for some time and at a past meeting, a committee appointed to investigate, reported that it could not secure a suitable building, and therefore resigned. An offer of the second floor of a new building down town for a Y. W. C. A. did not appeal to the meeting for several reasons.

Mrs. Gamble and Mrs. Crow, of Guelph, gave addresses explaining the work being done at Guelph, the former outlining the work of the Y. W. C. A. and the latter dealing with the financial program. Miss Ford, of Toronto, spoke on the need of a Y. W. C. A. and gave many reasons why Galt should have one.

Following a general discussion a resolution that a Y. W. C. A. be formed in Galt was unanimously passed and the following provisional board of directors appointed: Mesdames W. H. Lash, A. McPherson, R. M. Hamilton, R. R. Gardiner, J. N. MacRae, W. A. Dixon, J. Whetham, F. Turnbull, W. Barlow, E. J. Getty, Robt. Elliott and Misses Pearl Welland, K. F. Jaffray, Edith McGregor, Mary Oliver and Jean MacDonald.

The young men of St. George's Church, Thorndale, recently entertained the young women at a delightful progressive euchre. Mr. Ed. Palmer carried off the prize for the gentlemen. Miss Madeleine Walters won the prize for the women, while Mr. Ed. Gumb was the recipient of the booby prize.

DORCHESTER W. M. S.

The regular monthly meeting of the W. M. S. was held in the Methodist Church, Dorchester, recently. After the usual routine of business a very pleasant feature of the meeting was the presentation of a life membership certificate to Mrs. W. B. Lane, who has been president of the society for the last ten years, and under whose supervision the society has grown in interest and membership. An address was read by Mrs. Joseph Wilson, and the presentation made by Mrs. Melvin Smith. Mrs. Lane, though taken by surprise, fittingly replied, after which tea was served and a social half hour spent.

MAPLETON O. W. C. B.

A valentine social was held recently in Mapleton under the auspices of the O. W. C. B. M. of the Church of Christ. A splendid program was furnished, Miss White acting as chairman. Vocal solos were rendered by Miss Mamie Brown and Mr. Harper of Lyons and selections by the Hawaiian Orchestra of Belmont. Mr. Harry Cloeo of New Sarum gave several readings. Piano duets were played by Miss Myrtle Charlton and Mrs. Fred Brown and the pastor, Rev. H. Franks, gave a splendid address. Miss Mamie Brown and Mrs. F. Brown sang a duet, and several piano solos were rendered by Miss A. Young and Miss Myrtle Charlton, A. A. C. M., who also acted at accompanist.

WOMEN POETS ARE DISCUSSED AT THE 'U' WOMEN'S CLUB

London Poets Receive Special Mention in Paper by Mrs. Carr-Harris.

One of the most delightful meetings of the University Women's Club was held on Saturday evening at the Western "U" arts building, when the subject was "Contemporary Women Writers of Poetry," Miss Mary MacPherson opened the program with an excellent paper on "British Women Poets," mentioning Rose Macauley, the mystic poet; Margaret L. Woods, famous for her dramatic and lyric poetry; Eva Gore-Booth and the Hon. Emily Lawless, both Irish poets and pervaded with the atmosphere of that island country; Mary E. Coleridge, a distant relative of Samuel Coleridge, whose poetry is strange and obscure; Katharine Tynan and Alice Meynell.

Mrs. Gordon Tennant presented a second very delightful paper on American poets of the contemporary writers dealing only with Sara Teasdall, but mentioning earlier women poets such as Alice and Phoebe Carey, Margaret Fuller and dealing for a short time with the famous "Brook Farm" established in the United States—the benefit of all types of artists.

Canadian Poets.

The third paper, given by Mrs. Carr-Harris, was on "Canadian Poets," the speaker declaring that as yet Canadian poetry had not taken a hold on the people, but its reading was confined largely to certain literary circles. Among Canadian poets, she mentioned particularly Marjorie Pickthall and Isabel Valancy Crawford. Other poets referred to were Pauline Johnson; Jean Blewett, known as the bard of common things; Isabel Ecclestone Mackay, Beatrice Redpath, Katherine Hale, Nora Holland, Agnes Mall Machar. This speaker gave special mention to the London poets, referring to the work of Grace Blackburn, Beatrice Taylor, Betty Thornley anrd Amy Campbell.

In the absence of the president, Miss Winifred Balfour of "Queen's," occupied the chair. The club expressed itself in favor the Local Women's Council proposition, the establishment of a voters' association in the city and also the changing of voters' day from New Year's Day to the first Monday in December. At the close of the meeting tea was served in the women's room upstairs.

MASQUERADE AT THORNDALE.

The students and teachers of Thorndale Continuation School enjoyed a very pleasant masquerade, held in the school on Monday evening, February 14. The basement was very beautifully decorated with Chinese lanterns, and the T. C. S. colors. The costumes were beautiful and varied, as well as comic and unique. There were Red Cross nurses, ghosts with clanking chains, Indians with gleaming tomahawks, soldiers of the king, witches with their black cats and brooms, knights of red, gay Parisian maidens, and last but not least, the Queen of Hearts, and all the little hearts. The judges found it very hard to decide, but decided at last in favor of Miss Elma Belton as the winner of the ladies' prize, while Jim Henderson received the gentlemen's first prize. Mr. Arthur Mathews acted as chairman of a short program, which included solos by Miss B. M. Copeland and Miss Edythe McCutcheon; readings by Miss Dorcas Hobbs and Miss Rhoda Weston, and a selection by Jim Henderson. The school paper, "The Beacon," was then read by Miss Madeleine Walters, followed by games and contests, after which a dainty supper was served.

HYDE PARK W. I.

The February meeting of the Hyde Park Women's Institute will be held at the home of Miss Kate McLachlin on Wednesday, February 23, at 2:30 o'clock. Roll call will be answered by a "favorite sentiment," and Miss Emily Guest of Toronto will be the speaker. All the women of the neighborhood have been invited to be present.

Miss Guest is the representative of the board of agriculture, which will also conduct a meeting for the men in the hall the same afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. In the evening at 7:30 there will be a joint meeting held in the schoolhouse, when R. I. Finn, London, and Galvin Barbour of Crosshill will address the men, assisted by Miss Guest.

MELROSE VALENTINE SOCIAL.

The valentine social held recently under the auspices of the Melrose Ladies' Aid was a decided success. The hall was suitably decorated for the occasion with red and white streamers and hearts. The program was most entertaining. A wordless dialogue put on by the members of the Aid entitled "Sewing for the Heathen" caused much amusement. Several vocal numbers and readings addd to the enjoyment. A dainty supper, carrying out the valentine idea was served at the close.

MELROSE BRIDAL SHOWER.

The spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. John Mahon presented a very gay appearance recently, when about 65 young people of the neighborhood met to honor Miss Rose Wilson. The evening was spent in games and music, after which the charming bride-to-be was presented with a miscellaneous shower. Among the gifts, which were both beautiful and useful, was a lovely Boston fern from the members of her Sunday school class. After the serving of supper, the party broke up at a late hour.

CLANDEBOYE W. M. S.

The W. M. S. of Clandeboye Methodist Church is holding weekly meetings throughout February, the members sewing for charitable purposes. A new method for raising money, recently adopted by the society, is for each member to give, on her birthday, a sum of one cent for each year of her age. An amusing development of this plan, is that every member gives a full dollar, thus making the society one of centenarians. At their last official meeting the president read a very interesting letter from the recipients of the last bale sent from Clandeboye.

NEW MOTHER'S CLUB AT WINDSOR.

Women may take an active part in local politics next year through the newly organized Windsor Mothers' Club, which is planning to support a candidate for the board of education.

The new organization will discuss questions of education at meetings through the year. About forty mothers joined at the organization meeting in Cameron Avenue school.

Officers elected were: Mrs. H. Whorlow Bull, president; Mrs. R. W. Hemmings, vice-president; Mrs. F. Coleman, treasurer and Mrs. C. P. Kent, secretary.

To a Little Girl in Church

This charming poem by Amy Campbell was inspired by the lovely little daughter of a prominent local educationalist, who managed to steal a rose from her mother's corsage and play with it in church one day.)

Little soft hands that cup a rose,
A rose with petals that shade and curl,
Dimpled and white with the sweet repose
Of the dreaming heart of a little girl.

Pale your gown like the flush of a shell,
Touched with a bit of tender blue,
Someone who loves you passing well
Must have fashioned it just for you.

Eyes that reflect the gold of your hair,
Lit in a way no one may know
By two stray stars that wondered where
Your wise little heart would bid them go.

Softly you touch the rose to your cheek,
Draw it under your little chin,
Telling in silence too pure to speak
You know a secret that makes you kin.

—AMY CAMPBELL.

THE CURIOUS PUPPY.

Part Twenty-Five.

"Make sure your teeth are all sound and that they are well sharpened," he told them. "Something tells me that our old friend March Wind is going to help us get away to Little People's Land today."

And sure enough that very day March Wind blew an empty boat to Stray Kitten Land.

How delighted the cats were when they discovered the boat. Nibbles was delighted, too. As for the little mayor and the tiny citizen, they could hardly contain themselves, so overjoyed were they.

It was soon found that there was not room in the boat for more than twenty-five cat warriors, and as there were a great many more than that, the mayor of Stray Kitten Land chose the largest, strongest cats and the ones that had the longest and sharpest teeth.

When the warriors piled into the boat there was room left for Nibbles. Of course, the little mayor and the tiny citizen needed no room, for they were quite willing to travel in Nibbles' ear. Indeed they felt quite at home and much safer there than anywhere else.

All the other cats of Stray Kitten Land came down to the shore to bid their friends and relatives a speedy journey and a safe return. They took it for granted, you see, that all would be well, and that the boat would soon get a start.

March Wind saw to it that the boat did get a start, too. With the aid of his relative West Wind he had the waves wash up on the shore and carry the boat out into the sea. Then all the other winds aided West Wind, and the first thing the cats and Nibbles knew they were traveling at a terrific rate across the sea. On, on they went faster and faster.

Would they get to Little People's Land in time for dinner, they wondered, for they were indeed hungry. Yet, they were to meet with a terrible adventure, for the mice they were going out to destroy had been warned of their coming, and the mice had a friend who was a rover of the sea. At that very minute he was waiting for the little boat to pass him, and he was grinding his big teeth evily. Oh, why couldn't someone warn the brave warriors and Nibbles that Mr. Sea Shark was waiting to gobble them up! But perhaps someone will come to their aid—we'll soon find out.

Galt's One-Goal Lead As Inadequate as the Rink Accommodation, Say Fans

Keeping To "No Smoking" Ro ute Will Help Players, and Club Asks It As Court esy From Fans—Huge Demand F or Seats.

If they could play tonight's game by relays out at the Jubilee rink and pull in a new audience for every period, about two-thirds of the fans who want to see London and Galt battle, would see the game. However, as there's only one 60-minute game, it's going to be a jam, though the Alerts have tried everything, except building an arena for the game, to handle the situation.

One thing the fans are asked to do tonight is to leave their cigarettes and stogies at home. Tonight's game is likely to be an endurance contest, and every bit of pure air will help the players, and it will make visibility sure for the London sharpshooters. In Preston Friday night the "no-smoking" signs were working efficiently, and the result was that the both teams were able to play through to the end without using smoke goggles.

The fans are absolutely certain that Galt's one-goal margin is not wide enough. The fans who witnessed Friday night's game at Preston admit that Galt has a nifty, clever team, which plays good, clean, machine-like hockey with individual stars dangerous every minute, but they do not admit that Galt can stop the aggressive London attack, once it gets going with its full force. London lost the game the first fifteen minutes in Galt, due to Arthurs' bump in practice, which slowed the London star up for five or ten minutes after he finally came to, and to Hynds' nervousness.

Hynds is one of the best net-minders in the game, but the first few minutes is a regular going over-the-top feeling for him. Once he gets over that nobody worries. This doesn't affect him so much on home ice, so there'll be no chance of the Manchester City lads making it an uphill battle this time.

A lot of the fans claim that McKay's effectiveness was marred Friday by moving him to a wing. They claim that Arthurs, who is more at home on the boards, should be shoved over there when McKay is on the ice.

Many fans claim that Tackaberry was away off on decisions at Preston, but some of the London players claim that he didn't pull anything very raw. He will likely handle tonight's game, so the local fans can judge for themselves.

Lougheed apparently grows better with every game. Last year Lougheed's ruggedness and his ability to stay in the road of the biggest were his best assets. This year he rushes nicely and shoots wickedly. And nobody needs to go after the rebound.

Watch George in the corners tonight, or rather out of them. This boy doesn't like the boards or the corners, but is very much at home in the ope., whether he has the puck or it belongs to the enemy.

There is a slight suspicion that none of the Galt outfit care for the direct contact stuff. That idea may get a bump tonight.

The reserve seat ticket holders will be handled at the north-end door of the rink tonight.

And Lastly.

Forget tobacco. It's harmful.

GALT CONFIDENT.

GALT, Feb. 20.—While the Galt team has only a one-goal lead to go to London Monday night, local fans are confident Lesueur's boys will hold it, figuring Galt's chances as good as London, and a special train will be run to the Forest City, leaving here at 6:15 p.m. It is expected at least 200 fans will make the trip.

ROAD URGES BOARD TO ALLOW WAGE CUT

Atlanta, Birminghom and Atlantic Asks Reduction That It May Break Even.

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—With representatives of the railroad unions arguing before the railway labor wage board to retain the concessions obtained during the war under Federal administration, the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic Railway, through its president, B. L. Bugg, petitioned the board for authority to reduce wages "to a level that would enable the property to keep out of a receiver's hands."

Mr. Bugg declaroed the road was losing $100,000 a month, and added that his loss was "rock bottom," as the working force already had been trimmed to the bore. Mr. Bugg said that the road had granted wage increases amounting to $2,400,000 annually since 1914, and that the property was failing to "break even" by exactly one-half of that amount.

"We propose to reduce wages the amount necessary to enable us to break even," he said, "and we are compelled to ask the board to give us an early decision."

Chairman Barton of the railway board said that the case was pressing and intimated an early decision would be made. From sources closely in touch with the board it was said that the request of the railroad will be granted.

In Chicago railroad circles no official statement as to whether other railroads would follow the example of the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic was forthcoming. Informally, however, it was stated that a readjustment of wages would be asked by practically all of the railroads if present business conditions continue.

"We do not want to ask for a wage readjustment," a high official of one of the largest trunk lines said, "because a wage cut always brings a certain amount of dissatisfaction. But the falling off in business has cut our revenues so that they are less than they were before the freight increases were granted. The increases granted barely produced revenue to meet the increases in wages granted. We cannot continue to pay the present wages out of the gross income now received by the property. A readjustment that will at least enable us to make ends meet is absolutely necessary."

E. P. Curtis, vice-president of the Order of Railway Conductors, told the board that his organization would insist that the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic withdraw a reduction notice which it had posted until a decision was handed down by the board. He gave no indication of what the attitude of his organization would be in the event of a wage cut being authorized.

Earlier in the day representatives of the shop crafts had charged that the railroads were "farming out" work in order to lay men off. This is denied by the roads, and it was intimated that a former official of the federal administration may be called to support the contention of the roads.

HAS HAPPY DEATH.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Feb. 20.—The grace of a happy death was afforded the head of a well-known and picturesque family of this region who died recently. His last words were: "I die without regrets. Whiskey was selling at $22 a quart in Lexington today—the first time in my life that it has been quoted at a price commensurate with its value."

ST. MARYS MAKE PRESTON KIDS HUSTLE

Stone Town Boys Had Best of Play, But Most Hard Luck.

PRESTON, Feb. 20.—The St. Marys sextet went down to defeat before the fast local juniors here last night by a score of 5 to 2. The game was fast and clean, and Referee Mitchell of Toronto handled the bell in a splendid manner. Both teams played real hockey from the start, and the Preston fans admitted that the best team did not win, but that it was a streak of luck that brought them out on top. No sooner had the game started than D. Louch was away, and made a nice pass which barely missed the net. Preston recovered and went down through the St. Marys line-up. Newman manaed to get away, and going the length of the ice scored the first goal in eight minutes. Four minutes more and Rath evened up. Skelly and Scott scored two more on long shots and the first period ended 3 to 1 in favor of Preston.

Early in the second, W. Louch by some brilliant stickhandling scored, but Kress was lucky and put in two more. Shortly after this W. Louch again went down through the Preston defence and by a clever bit of work put a fast one in just below the top cross bar. It was done so quickly that the goal umpire did not realize what had happened. The referee had his back turned in the scramble, and it was not counted, though it was plainly visible. The last period was perhaps the most sensational period. Preston was hopelessly outclassed by the visitors, and only the good work of their goalkeeper saved them from defeat, as Preston did not pass centre ice. Rodgers was subject to a continuous bombardment from the St. Marys boys. All the goals scored by Preston were on long shots, as they found it impossible to pass the Saints' defence, while St. Marys earned theirs and found it an easy matter to penetrate their opponents' line-up. Kress showed up well for Preston, both in skating and stickhandling, while W. Louch for St. Marys was far superior to any other player on the ice. Preston has a good team and will take some beating. The line-up:

St. Marys.		Preston.
Langford	Goal	Rodgers
Newman	R. Defence	Clarke
Yates	L. Defence	Skelly
W. Louch	Centre	Scott
Hobbs	R. Wing	Kress
D. Louch	L. Wing	Rath

TORONTO, Feb. 20.—St. Patricks, by defeating Hamilton, 5 to 4, here Saturday night retained the lead in the National Hockey League. The locals did not play their best hockey, but showed brilliant flashes whenever the visitors were beginning to be close contenders for the verdict.

OTTAWAS NEVER DANGEROUS.

MONTREAL, Feb. 20. — In a game that lacked interest after the first period, Canadiens won over Ottawa in a scheduled National Hockey League fixture at Mount Royal arena Saturday night by a score of 8 to 1. Never at any stage of the play was there any doubt as to the outcome. Canadiens by carrying the play to the Senators in the opening few minutes played them into submission and then scored an easy victory. While the Canadiens excelled in their play the Ottawa players showed a lack of the dash and snap that has carried them to victory in previous fixtures this season. They showed marked signs of staleness from too much hockey.

GLENCOE SIX BEAT TEAM FROM DETROIT 8 TO 3

PASTOR IN GAS MASK SAVES FLAGS IN FIRE

War Veteran Braves Death by Entering Blazing Town Hall.

Shrewsbury, Mass., Feb. 20. — After making two daring but unsuccessful attempts to enter, at great risk, the corridors of the town hall, which was filled with suffocating smoke and sparks from flames that were being fought in the cellar by firemen, the Rev. F. W. Smith, pastor of the Methodist Church and an overseas veteran who served as chaplain with the Canadian Black Watch, rushed to his home near by, obtained a gas mask, again entered the building, and rescued two large silk American flags that recently had been presented Ray Stone Post, American Legion.

Before entering the building he made one end of a long string fast to the back door and tied the other end to his left thumb, so he might safely make his exit.

To save the flags he was compelled to crawl the length of the building over a floor through the cracks of which flames, smoke and sparks were pouring.

After a hard battle the firemen confined the flames to the lower part of the building. The loss was less than $1,000.

BOARD DID NOT EXCEED POWERS

Compulsory Vaccination Order Is Indorsed by Provincial Authorities.

ST. THOMAS, Feb. 20.—The inspector of the board of health, W. J. Shaw, has been advised by the department that the action of the health authorities, in connection with compulsory vaccination of the children attending school, and the instruction from the board to the teachers not to permit the pupils to enter the building, unless they produce a doctor's certificate, was well in accordance with the section, and the procedure taken to reach that end was perfectly proper.

Objection had been made by several families that the board of health was exceeding its powers, when the members took upon themselves the right to interfere with the attendance of children at the public schools. And that the functioning of the board was ended when it directed that the children be vaccinated.

Thousands Vaccinated.

During the past couple of days over 2,000 vaccine points were used by the doctors in the treatment of children and some adults. There has been a general response by the parents to the order of the board of health. There are some who question its efficiency or the right of the authorities to enforce the order of the board.

Alma College Takes No Risk.

The authorities of Alma College have directed that resident girls will not be allowed to visit in city nor attend theatres and will follow the action taken by the city schools regarding full term pupils to be vaccinated.

Assurance has been given in the replies that the Rondeau Government Park will for the present at least remain under the control of the Hon. Mr. Bowman, minister of forests. This is quite satisfactory to those who so strongly protested.

When the submission of the evidence had been concluded the defendant Banding was discharged and Zink sent up for trial.

ST. THOMAS, Feb. 20.—Helping himself to the contents of the cash register today, following his luncheon at the Dominion Cafe, Talbot street, Donald Snell, a well-known young man about town, was caught in the act and handed over to Sergeant Ketchabaw, who rarived on a phone call. The owner of the restaurant came upon Snell, but he bolted and made for a nearby hotel. Hearing of the robbery the proprietor there nabbed Snell and brought him back to the cafe. The owner claims that Snell took $11 from the register; Snell makes the amount stolen as a little over $5. He comes up tomorow morning.

Was Car Responsible?

A couple of local young men were removed from a street car Saturday evening by Constable McCully in a state far from being sober.

The pair boarded the car, expecting that a few trips in the one-man coach would help to knock the edge of several jorums of Scotch; but after the second round and round of the belt line the young men got so dizzy that the conductor-motorman was compelled to call the police, and they were locked up.

THIRTEEN DEAD IN ENGAGEMENT NEAR MIDLETON

Cork, Feb. 20.—Thirteen civilians were killed and eight captured, of whom three were wounded, and two soldiers were wounded in an engagement this afternoon in the district between Lisgoold and Midleton, County Cork, according to a general headquarters report. This is believed to have been the largest number of casualties among the members of the "Irish Republican army" in a single encounter.

A detachment of the Hampshire Regiment surprised a party of civilians in a house on the outskirts of Midleton. The civilian forces split up, some of them remaining in the house, while the others took up a position in the garden. In the brisk fighting, one soldier was slightly wounded, and the civilians were dispersed and pursued. A search of the house revealed quantities of buried arms and ammunition.

DIED IN HOSPITAL.

London, Feb. 20.—On the arrival of the Fishguard train at Paddington station today, George Tilson of Black Rock, County Cork, was found in the lavatory compartment with his throat cut. A paper attached to his clothes was inscribed: "Shadowed from Ireland." The man was still conscious, but incoherent. He was removed to a hospital, where he died.

ATTACKS GOVERNMENT POLICY.

London, Feb. 20.—H. H. Asquith, former prime minister, in a speech at London yesterday, severely attacked the Irish policy of the Government and its failure to publish the Strickland report. He declared that "the hideous succession of blunders and crimes committed during the last six months" were the blackest in the annals of British relations with Ireland, and never, in the lifetime of the oldest amongst them had Great Britain sunk so low in the moral scale of nations.

Mr. Asquith described the Paris agreement on reparations as impossible of fulfillment, and, he added, it was an extraordinary paradox which would be comic if it were not so serious, that the people who were proposing the anti-dumping bill to exclude German goods from the British markets were in the same breath asking Germany to pay an indemnity in goods.

CANADA LEADS IN AERIAL REGULATIONS

New York Newspaper Says This Nation Is Ahead of U. S.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—(By Canadian Press).—Canada is ahead of the United States in having laws to govern aerial navigation, declares the New York Tribune in an article which calls attention to the fact that every leading country in the world, with the exception of the United States, has ratified the aerial convention in which is embodied the international code of laws governing aerial navigation which was devised by a conference of the world's aeronautical experts two years ago. This convention was signed by the United States ambassador in Paris, "with reservations," which meant that it would not be ratified by the United States until the United States Senate had passed upon it. And the Senate has not yet taken any action upon it.

"The landing of the three naval balloonists in Northern Canada has again brought this important fact forcibly before the public," the Tribune continues. "Canada, having ratified the convention, consequently had the machinery at hand necessary to meet the technical situation that followed when representatives of the armed forces of a foreign power landed within prescribed regions of her territory. Fortunately, the feeling of the surprised host was friendly.

"The laws that must govern aerial navigation are of necessity based upon admiralty laws. They must perforce cover movements of traffic in three dimensions. Moreover, they must meet new customs situations, with attendant smuggling possibilities.

"But it is not merely to regulate flying in any form that aerial laws are most needed. The present situation in the United States is highly prejudicial to the natural development of our aeronautical industry, a key industry in national defence. Until such laws are enacted by Congress none of the proposed commercial ventures in the air can well be undertaken."

"RETREAT SPECIALIST" OF GERMANY DEAD

Berlin, Feb. 20.—The death is announced of two German war chiefs, General Hans von Boehn and General von Pleck.

General von Boehn during the recent war was known as the German "retreat specialist." As commander of the German Eighth Army, he withstood the brunt of the Allied pressure in the Marne salient, and in August, 1918, was appointed to the supreme command on the Somme front.

When, in December, 1918, a plot was discovered in Berlin to restore imperialism and secure the return of former Emperor William to the throne, General von Boehn, together with Field Marshal von Mackensen and General Count Sixt von Arnim, was described as among the chief men behind the movement.

General von Boehn was born in 1853 and entered the army in 1871.

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

GRIEF LEADS TO SUICIDE.

New York, Feb. 21.—Despondency over the death of his wife a year ago was believed to have caused the suicide yesterday of John C. Loges of 262 Berkeley avenue, Bloomfield, a partner in the Loges-Wiener Printing Company of Newark. He hanged himself from a steampipe in the factory. Loges' body was found by his partner, Leo Wiener of 1,121 Broad street. He was 37 years old.

Loges' two children, Harold, 11, and Helen, 9, were heard crying last night by John Fitzsimmons, who lives in the apartment above. Fitzsimmons went downstairs and Harold told him: "Daddy hasn't come home yet." Fitzsimmons called Wiener on the phone. The latter summoned a policeman and they went to the factory.

DEFERS PHTHISIS CURE TEST.

London, Feb 21.—Dr. Addison, the minister of health, denied today that his ministry was sending a representative to Geneva to investigate the Spahlinger "cure" for tuberculosis. He said:

"I have already made careful inquiries respecting this alleged cure. When supplies of the serum are available I shall gladly facilitate and co-operate in an exhaustive examination of its efficacy under the supervision of experts."

AWAIT BLOOD TEST.

Paris, Feb. 21.—French scientists are eager to see and test for themselves the famous oscillospore of Dr. Abrams of Stanford University, and until they have seen and tested it they reserve the right of being skeptical as to its worth.

They do not deny that some blood test may be found which will give proof ofconsanguinity, but they remain doubtful as to its exactness. The discovery which Dr. Abrams says he has made certainly goes very far beyond anything which has so far been certified to.

SIXTUS FOUND IN PARIS.

Rome, Feb. 21.—Signor di Saluzzo, undersecretary for foreign affairs, officially announced in the Senate today the decision of the Government to expel Prince Sixtus of Bourbon and Parma, brother of former Empress Zita of Austria, because of his book entitled "Austria's Offer of a Separate Peace."

Senator Ruffini expressed satisfaction at the Government's determination. Prince Sixtus has disappeared, and all efforts of the police to find him have failed.

FOR KING OF HUNGARY.

Budapest, Hungary, Feb. 21.—Count Andrassy, former foreign minister, is reported to be ready to waive in the name of former Emperor Charles the latter's title to the throne if the claim of Prince Otto, who was heir-apparent, is recognized by all the royalist factions.

Otto, who now is 10 years old, will attain his majority at 16 years under the rules of the Hapsburg dynasty.

WANT UKRAINE REPUBLIC.

London, Feb. 21.—A dispatch from Warsaw dated yesterday received at the London offices of the American Relief Association, European children's fund, says Petlura's Government representatives made a statement to the press in Tarnow to the effect that they desire the creation of an independent democratic Ukrainian Republic, recognition of the western frontiers of Ukraine only as far as the Zbrucz, and alliance with Poland as the basis for creating a great independent Ukraine.

HARDING THANKS WILSON.

Washington, Feb. 21.—President-Elect Harding, in a letter received today by President Wilson, requests that a luncheon be prepared at the White House on March 4 for him and his immediate family. The president and Mrs. Wilson will not be present, as Mr. Wilson plans to go direct from the capitol after the inauguration to his new home on S street.

ALCOHOL MAKERS PROTEST.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Manufacturers of industrial alcohol, headed by Henry A. Kaltenbach of the Fleischmann Company, filed with Internal Revenue Commissioner Williams a protest against the bureau's interpretation of Attorney General Palmer's opinion regarding the extent to which the treasury department may lawfully go into limiting the distribution and sale of alcohol for use exclusively as a legitimate chemical raw material.

The manufacturers hold that regulations proposed would restrict the sale of industrial alcohol to manufacturers and wholesale druggists, and work a hardship on the industry which was not foreseen when the law was passed.

BLOW AT FRENCH FEMINISM.

Paris, Feb. 17.—Once more the greybeards of the French senate who are obstacles to woman suffrage in France have dealt a blow at feminist claims to equality. One of their number, Louis Martin, recently introduced a bill in the senate for the amendment of Article 213 of the Civil Code, relating to marriage. The clause as it stands reads somewhat peremptorily:

"The husband owes protection to his wife. The wife owes obedience to her husband."

PROGRESS IN FAMINE RELIEF.

Pekin, Feb. 21.—Famine relief work in Western Chihli has proceeded so well that each local branch rarely has to serve a greater radius than fifteen miles, the Rev. J. D. Hayes, traveling secretary of the Pekin United International Famine Relief Committee, reports.

The distribution of supplies has been well organized, and a commendable spirit of co-operation is shown by the local Chinese. In every subprefecture, officials are called upon for information and advice, and have been most useful in supplying lists of their countrymen who are most destitute and in need of immediate relief.

ITALY'S POSITION BETTER.

Rome, Feb. 21.—Signor Alessio, minister of industry, speaking in the senate today on the economic situation, said there already were symptoms of a better economic future with the prospect that prices would fall as soon as Italy had solved the wheat problem. This, he declared, would better the financial standing of the country, improve the exchange situation and bring about a general lowering of prices.

"America, perhaps, will free England of her debts," he said, "in which case England would let France and Italy off theirs, greatly improving the general economic situation."

RHEIMS SEEKS A LOAN.

Paris, Feb. 21.—The city of Rheims has decided to ask the French Government's permission to float a loan of 500,000,000 francs to aid the work of reconstruction. This decision was taken at a meeting of the city council and in accordance with the advice of M. Loucheur, minister for the devastated regions, who recently visited Rheims.

The scheme proposed by M. Loucheur, of which the city is seeking to take advantage, provides that, while the money is raised to enable rapid reconstruction, the state accept responsibility for the loan and pay the interest. Actually what Rheims will be doing is capitalizing the amount due for its reconstruction from the German indemnity. The city will itself have control of the expenditure of the money and will thus escape the delays and dangers of any state scheme.

SPAIN DEMANDS FRANCE PAY.

Madrid, Feb. 21.—Another tariff war between Spain and France is foreseen in Spanish political circles as a result of this government's insistence upon a partial payment of credits advanced to France by Spanish bankers.

Announcement is made that payment of an installment amounting to 35,000,000 pesetas will be made on Saturday. It is widely reported that France, owing to her inability to reach an agreement regarding a postponement of this payment, intends to adopt in reprisal a virtually prohibitive duty on Spanish wines.

WILL CLAIM PONZI PROFITS.

Boston, Feb. 21.—The million that Charles Ponzi paid to investors to get-rich-quick scheme are to be reclaimed by his trustees in bankruptcy. They announced today that they intended to go to the courts to compel restitution by every person who received money from Ponzi, whether in payment of matured notes for principal and interest at 50 per cent, or on refunds on investments.

The assets now in hand, the money thus regained and other sums will be pooled under the trustees' plan and out of the combined funds those who had dealings with Ponzi will obtain their proportionate share on the basis of original deposits. The trustees said that Ponzi paid out $5,000,000 in refunds in a week or ten days' prior to his failure last August.

FRENCH USE ENGLISH TWISTS TO SPEECH

Many Pronounce Language With Alien Accent.

Paris, Feb. 19.—There are many young Frenchmen and very many young Frenchwomen who deliberately cultivate an English accent when speaking their own language. To hear a charming young French girl pronouncing French words, not as nature intended her to pronounce them, but as any English or American girl come to Paris to learn French might do, is a startling experience.

This particular affectation is, of course, one that is only for those who have a good knowledge of English, and it is therefore a mode for the few. When he wants to be gay of an evening the Parisian dandy puts on his "smoking," which he pronounces variously "smokang" or "smokange"—the dinner jacket that has been made for him by his "high" life tailor (pronounced "higlif")—and goes to a "dancing" (pronounced "dancang" or "dancange"). "Faire un petit footing" (pronounced "footang") is how his father, if the old gentleman is really smart, describes his after-lunch constitutional, while his mother goes on a shopping expedition which she describes as "Un petit schoppinet." His sister probably says "All right" very frequently, and her more dashing friend she declares to be "charming" (not pronounced "charmang").2 She may even, though the "correctness" of these terms is rather doubtful, describe them as "tres snob" or "tres swell."

But it is chiefly in the world of sport that English words are "the thing." "Le recordman" is always gaining new laurels, boxing champions are always being "knockout" or suffering the "knockdown," and goal "keppers" get beaten by a good "shoot."

Sometimes the use of English words results in a jumble difficult for one of either race to understand. The Figaro jokingly asks: Would it not be better in speaking French to use French words? The paper cites a pamphlet circulating on the Riviera from which it culls a gem, declaring the "le rowing" is going to be revived, and that the races will be held between crews "formees par les rowingmen and women hivernants."

CHARGED 540 FRANCS FOR MEAGRE MEAL

Three Victims of Paris Restaurant Lead to Raid.

Paris, Feb. 20.—When it comes to real profiteering, certain Paris restaurant keepers, especially those catering to the night life crowd, could give lessons to pretty nearly everybody in the world. But the management of the restaurant known as Pere Tranquille, near the Halles, overstepped the limit a bit too far when a party of three was charged 540 francs (or about $40) for onion soup, a plate of cold ham, a bottle of wine and some coffee.

To be charged so tremendously in a place which ostensibly was intended as an eating place for fishmongers and 'longshoremen so surprised the three victims that they protested vigorously. But three rough-looking men in the place soon convinced them that it was wiser to pay, so they did. Even so, however, the three cheated diners were viciously assaulated as they left the place. The victims complained to the police, with the result that the place was raided and sixty arrests were made.

GIRL OF 12 DEFIES BAND OF MURDERERS

They Had Slain Her Father and Mortally Hurt Mother.

London, Feb. 20. — The remarkable heroism of a 12-year-old girl, who, single-handed, tried to drive away a band of murderers who had killed her father and mortally injured her mother, is described in a letter from India, received here from a friend of the unfortunate family.

The little girl is the daughter of Lieut.-Col. T. H. Foulkes, assistant director of medical services at Kohat, on the northwest frontier of India. One night recently his bungalow was raided by Pathans, fierce-looking men armed with rifles and knives, and wearing large gold rings in their ears.

The child, awakened by the mother's scream as she was struck down, rushed into the room, and although she saw her father and mother lying on the floor, she rushed straight at the murderers and hitting them with all her strength, cried: "Go away! Don't do it!" until her mother, who was still conscious, called to her to go and hide. The girl then crawled under a bed on the veranda. Later, when the Pathans came back and carried away the things they wanted, they did not see her.

As soon as the murderers had gone the girl rushed down to the servants' quarters. But the servants had locked themselves in, and were too much frightened to respond. Next she ran to the nearest bungalow, only to find it empty. So she set out to find the watchman, which she finally succeeded in doing. Leading the watchman into the house, the girl lit the lamp in the hall and then proceeded to look after her mother, while the watchman searched the place. When the watchman sought the girl a little later he found her in the bathroom, into which she had dragged her mother, and was trying to wash and bind up her wounds.

WOULD APPOINT WOMEN TO MANDATE COMMISSION

London, Feb. 21.—Urging appointment of women on the mandate commission of the League of Nations, the women's advisory committee of the League of Nations Union has addressed a letter to Earl Curzon of Kedleston, asking that the matter be considered at the session of the council of the league to be held in Paris today.

Besides, houses with seaboard connections were buyers. The tariff situation and the crop outlook tended also to stimulate demand. Opening prices, which ranged from ⅜c to 2¼c higher, were followed by a material further advance and then something of a moderate reaction.

Corn advanced as a result of general buying and owing to lightness of offerings. After opening ⅜c to 1⅜c higher, wheat, starting unchanged to ½c higher, and then scoring gains all around.

ABLE TO DO HER WORK

After Long Suffering Mrs. Peasey Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Toronto, Ont.—"I suffered with irregular menstruation, was weak and run down, could not eat and had headaches. The worst symptoms were dragging down pains, so bad I sometimes thought I would go crazy and I seemed to be smothering. I was in this condition for two or three years and could not seem to work. I tried all kinds of medicines and had been treated by physicians but received no benefit. I found one of your booklets and felt inclined to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I received the best results from it and now I keep house and go out to work and am like a new woman. I have recommended your Vegetable Compound to my friends and if these facts will help some poor woman use them as you please."—Mrs. J. F. Peasey, 387 King St., Toronto, Ontario.

If you are one of these women do not suffer for four or five years as Mrs. Peasey did, but profit by her experience and be restored to health.

PROMINENT NEW YORK MAN PRAISES TANLAC

JOHN F. HYATT,
227 Parl St., Albany, N. Y.

"I am now seventy-two years old and am just getting rid of fifteen-year case of rheumatism that had me so crippled up I could not walk," said John F. Hyatt, 227 Pearl St., Albany, N. Y., in relating his remarkable experience with Tanlac, recently. Mr. Hyatt was chairman of the committee in charge of building the Albany County Courthouse and was four times elected a member of the County Board of Supervisors. At present Mr. Hyatt is Assistant Superintendent of the Albany County Courthouse, with offices in the building.

"I don't believe," he continued, "anybody could have rheumatism any worse than I did, and my case was of such long standing I didn't expect to ever get over it. I was unable to walk except for a short distance, supported with a cane, and even then the pains struck me every time I took a step. My legs, hips and ankles hurt something awful and my joints were stiff and achey. I couldn't cross my leg without having to lift it up with my hands, and to turn over in bed, why, the pains nearly killed me.

"My appetite was gone and the sight of food nauseated me. My stomach was out of order, and I had a sluggish, heavy feeling all the time. I was weak, off in weight and discouraged so that it looked like I might as well quit trying to ever get well.

"I had no idea Tanlac would relieve my rheumatism when I began taking it last Spring. I took it because I saw where it would give a fellow an appetite. Well, sir, I was the most surprised I ever was in my life when the rheumatism pains began to ease up. I took seven bottles in all, and, it's a fact, I didn't have an ache about me, was eating fine and simply felt like I had been made over again.

"I have been in the best of health ever since, with only a slight twinge of rheumatism at intervals. I do not need my cane now, but as I had been unable to walk without it for several years, I got into the habit of carrying it and so still take it along. I am enjoying life and health once more and can conscientiously recommend Tanlac as the greatest medicine I have ever run across in all my experience."

Tanlac is sold in London by Standard Drugs, Ltd., and by an established agency in every town.

Living Trusts---

IT is frequently considered advisable by prudent businessmen to create during their lifetime trusts for the benefit of those persons or institutions whom they wish to share in their estate. By so doing they enjoy the satisfaction of seeing the good accomplished through their efforts and sacrifice.

In the administration of such a trust the services of a Corporate Trustee are most desirable.

Should you have in contemplation the creation of such trust, we shall be pleased to consult with you.

1. To authorize and carry into effect certain changes in the civic government of the City of London, in the following particulars:

(1) After the 31st day of December, A.D., 1921, the provisions of sections 1 to 8, inclusive of this act, shall apply to the Municipal Corporation of the City of London, and in so far as the provisions of this act shall alter, vary or change the provisions of the Municipal Act, the Public Parks Act, the Public Libraries Act, 1920, the London Waterworks Act, and amending Acts, the City of London Acts, or any of them, or any other Act in respect of the civic government within the City of London, the provisions of this Act shall prevail.

(2) For the year 1922, and thereafter, the Council of the Corporation of the City of London shall be composed of a mayor and eight commissioners, and the said commissioners shall be elected by a general vote of the municipal electors of the said city. Of the said eight commissioners, the four commissioners who shall obtain the highest number of votes at the election held for the year 1922 shall hold office for a term of two years, and the four commissioners who shall obtain the next highest number of votes shall hold office for a term of one year; and in each year thereafter four of the said eight commissioners shall be elected by a general vote of the said electors, and shall hold office for a term of two years; provided, that in the event of the election by acclamation of all the commissioners for the year 1922, the four commissioners having the highest assessment in the City of London, according to the last revised assessment roll, shall hold office for a term of two years, and each of the four commissioners having the next highest assessment as aforesaid, shall hold office for a term of one year.

(3) The mayor shall be elected by a general vote of the said electors for the term of two years.

(4) In the event of the death, resignation or removal from office for any cause under the provisions of the Municipal Act of any commissioner, during his term of office, the candidate at the last preceding election having the next highest number of votes shall be declared elected a commissioner of the council for the unexpired term of the person so dying, resigning or being removed from office; provided, that in case of the candidates at the last preceding election having been elected by acclamation, or there was a tie vote, the vacancy so created shall be filled by the election of another commissioner by the council for the unexpired term of office of the said commissioner so dying, resigning or being removed from office.

(5) Upon the organization of the Council, the Public Library Board, the Public Utilities Commission of the City of London, the Board of Health and the Hospital Trust shall be dissolved, and the said several boards shall have no further authority or powers in respect of the utilities, works and commissions, powers or duties heretofore under their charge, respectively, under any Act of the Province of Ontario, but any officer or employee employed by any of the said boards in or about the construction or management of the said utilities shall be continued in office until removed by the council, unless his engagement sooner terminates.

PROTESTS NUMEROUS BECAUSE CASTELNAU WAS NOT PROMOTED

French Deputy To Ask Why Popular General Was Overlooked.

Paris, Feb. 21.—The promotion of Generals Fayolle, D'Esperey and Lyautey to be marshals of France has been generally well received by the newspapers of all shades of political opinion. They are virtually unanimous in declaring that the valiant soldiers were deserving of the honor, but the Catholic organs bitterly deplore the fact that Gen. Castelnau was not included in the honors. The Echo de Paris says this was "a shameful act."

In the moving picture theatres on the boulevards today pictures of the new marshals were thrown on the screen. The spectators drowned out the applause for the honored men with cries of "Castelnau."

At the time of the victory parade of July, 1919, Gen. Castelnau was greeted on all sides with cries of "Marshal!" He is one of the most popular generals in the French army as far as the public is concerned, owing to his victory at Nancy, where Gen. Fayolle was under his orders, and also by reason of the fact that three of his sons were killed in the war.

Deputy Ambroise Rendu has notified the Government that he will interpellate the Chamber this week as to the reason for the failure to include Gen. Castelnau among those promoted.

The moderate Socialist paper today arraign the Government for not having selected Gen. Sarrail for a marshalship. Justin Godart will interpellate the Government on his behalf.

ALL DELEGATES REACH LONDON

Difference of Opinion On Anatolia May Cause Postponement.

London, Feb. 20.—With the exception of the representatives from Angora, who did not leave Rome until Saturday night, the delegations of all the powers to the Near East conference which will begin Tuesday, have arrived in London. The French and Italian representatives came in this evening.

While the conference is due to open Tuesday morning, there is a possibility of a postponement as a difference in opinion prevails between the British, the Italians and the French as to the best means for ending the war in Anatolia. The salient questions in this respect are whether there shall be a modification of the treaty of Sevres or insistence on the fulfillment of that pact, and these differences must be composed before the conference proper opens.

Wish of the Allies.

Also, it is the wish of the Allies that the official Turkish delegation and the representatives from Angora come to some agreement and act as a joint delegation. A settlement of this matter will be impossible until Monday night at the earliest when The Angora delegation, invited to London by the British prime minister at the request of Count Sforza, the Italian foreign minister, reaches London.

Hope Is Expressed.

The hope is expressed that the Greeks and the Turks will hold a round-table conference before the opening of the general sessions in an effort to smooth out their differences, a task which everyone realizes is most difficult. The Greeks, who have the support of their former prime minister, M. Venizelos, who has come to London to aid the delegation, have their proposals ready for submission to the conference.

They will assure the powers that if their request for enforcement of the Sevres treaty is granted and sufficient money is provided they are prepared and will be able to carry out their part of the treaty, including a campaign against the forces of Mustapha Kemal Pasha, the Turkish Nationalist leader. The chief of staff of the Greek army on the Smyrna front has come to London with a delegation provided with facts and figures to show that this is possible.

"It Is Me" and "He Don't" Right

Chicago, Feb. 19.—The expressions "It is me" and "eH don't," are permissible for both school teachers and pupils in Cook County public schools, under an opinion issued today by Edward J. Tobin, superintendent of the county schools.

Superintendent Tobin said the correct form, "It is I," sounds stilted and even egotistical, and that it does no good to teach children forms of expression "outlawed by common usage and a sense of good form."

Challenges Harding To Golf Game With His Job as a Stake

Greenville, N. C., Postmaster's "Sporting Inclinations" Liked by President-Elect.

Augustine, Fla., Feb. 19.—Another projected classic of the world of sport went by the board today when President-elect Harding declined a challenge from the post master at Greenville, S. C., to match skill with him on the golf links with a reappointment to the postmastership at stake.

To the challenger's manager, Mr. Harding wrote: "I regard myself as only a miserable player, and am unwilling to have the administration weakened by basing its attitude on my incapacity at golf."

But he added that he liked the postmaster's "sporty inclination" and if the conditions of the challenge were removed he was willing to accept a match whenever opportunity offered.

FIX STOMACH RIGHT UP

"Pape's Diapepsin" at once ends Indigestion, Gases, Sourness, Acidity

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs.

When your meals don't fit and you feel uncomfortable, when you belch gases, acids or raise sour, undigested food. When you feel lumps of indigestion pain, heartburn or headache, from acidity, just eat a tablet of Pape's Diapepsin and the stomach distress is gone.

Millions of people know the magic of Pape's Diapepsin as an antacid. They know that indigestion and disordered stomach are so needless. The relief comes quickly, no disappointment, and they cost so little, too.

CLEAR DECKS FOR RURAL CREDITS BILL

Legislature Will Give It Preference To Let Doherty Go.

Toronto, Feb. 20.—Entering upon the fifth week of the present session of the Ontario Legislature, the chief items on the program for the next few days are the budget debate, continued from last week, and the rural credits bill, fathered by Hon. Manning Doherty, minister of agriculture for Ontario. It is probable that the debate on the budget will be concluded this week.

The discussion of the rural credits bill will be given preference over other items of business in order to clear the way for the minister of agriculture to leave for England on his mission in connection with the movement to have the British embargo against the importation of Canadian cattle lifted.

LABOR DEMANDS BEFORE MEIGHEN

Ottawa, Ont., Feb. 20.—By Canadian Press.—No statement was forthcoming following the meeting of the cabinet council which took place on Saturday afternoon. It is understood that the legislative program set forth by Labor was under riscussion. Some of the requests of the Labor delegation which interviewed a committee of the cabinet on Saturday morning included enactment of legislation to bring about the eight-hour day, unemployment insurance, measures for decreasing unemployment in Canada and repeal of the section of the criminal code providing for deportation of British subjects.

The cabinet is also understood to have considered suggested amendments to the oil lease regulations.

UNITED FARMERS PUT CANDIDATE IN FIELD

Fredericton, N. B., Feb. 20.—Former Warden Ernest W. Stairs was nominated here yesterday afternoon as a candidate by the United Farmers in the by-election for York-Sunbury, the federal representation of which was made vacant by the death of Col. H. H. McLeod several weeks ago. The United Farmer candidate is a farmer by occupation. R. B. Hanson, K. C., is the Conservative candidate.

ELLEN TERRY'S VOICE STRONG

ted Actress Displays Dramatic Power in Reading.

London, Feb. 20.—That despite her age Miss Ellen Terry's wonderful voice has lost none of its power and beauty was proved recently when the great English actress broke her well-earned retirement to read the prologue of an old English nativity play at Everyman's Theatre in Hampstead.

Although the actress was assisted to the stage, and used a stick for support, she read for more than a quarter of an hour with all the fire and dramatic power of the old days, using vigorous gestures to supplement her words. She received an enthusiastic welcome by the audience, not only on this occasion, but on the three succeeding nights when she repeated her part in the performance.

SUNDAY SERMONS IN CITY CHURCHES

Following is the gist of a number of sermons preached in the churches of the city on Sunday. The Advertiser has not attempted to give the sermons in detail, but prints a few of the salient points:

TEN COMMANDMENTS TO YOUTH.

Rev. T. S. Roy of Talbot Street Baptist Church preached the third of his "Commandment Services" on Sunday evening. The subject of his sermon was "Ten Commandments to the Young Men." He urged strongly upon the minds of the young men that they were the coming generation which would govern the country, and a fitting training must be given them while they were young.

"When the boy is young, there comes to him the thought of what he is going to make of himself when he goes out in the world," said Rev. Mr. Roy. "It gives a boy great pleasure in thinking over this. He knows he has resources untapped that will probably bring wonderful results. The failure of the world depends on what the young men of today choose."

The commandments Rev. Mr. Roy said the young men should follow are:

"Thou shalt not consider thy life as thine own."

"Thou shalt have a definite objective in life."

"Thou shalt not be satisfied with what comes to thee in life."

"Thou shalt think well of thyself."

"Thou shalt keep the body clean and strong."

"Thou shalt fear only moral failure."

"Thy shalt perform the duties to thy country."

"Thou shalt see it thy supreme duty to do the will of God."

RUSSIA WANTS BIBLES.

Speaking at the Centennial Methodist Church on Sunday morning, Rev. H. T. Ferguson chose as the subject of his sermon, Hebrews, xiii., 8: "Jesus Christ, the Same Yesterday, and Today, and Forever." He said the national and religious times must change to a different pathway than what they were following now.

"One stable factor," said the pastor, "is, that Jesus Christ will never change. This does not mean that he will never become adoptable. He will always be acceptable to every race of people, no matter on what corner of the earth they are. The teaching of Jesus will always remain the same. It has in every period been the saving force of civilization and humanity. He was the power which brought light in the first century and it was through him that that light was rekindled in Martin Luther's time, and which saved England and the Allies in the past war. There is a country calling on him now to save it, and that is Russia. One of Russia's most prominent men has sent a call for Bibles far and wide, saying that they only will save the people and the country."

WALKERVILLE PASTOR HERE.

Rev. H. A. Graham, B.A., pastor of the Lincoln Road Methodist Church, Walkerville, was the preacher at anniversary services in the Wellington Street Methodist Church. He is a former pastor. Special offerings were taken during the day. Douglas Fetherston, violinist, played solos at each service.

In his morning sermon, Rev. Mr. Graham dealt with "The Genius of Methodism." "The most striking thing about Methodism was that from its inception it had ministered to persons who were not being reached by other Christian organizations. It was true that it had not brought a new revelation, but it had brought a new emphasis to old truths: the love of God for all men, and salvation for all; and that all men are the children of God. The progress for the days to come depended on a loyalty to this emphasis which characterked the earlier generations, he declared.

AT FIRST METHODIST CHURCH.

Both sermons at the First Methodist Church were delivered by the Rev. George A. King, B.A., of the First Church, St. Thomas. He based his morning address on John v., 13: "But he that was healed wist not who it was (that healed him)." He outlined the story of the crippled man who had lain by the Pool of Bethesda for years in the hope of being cured. Jesus came and healed him. When the Jews asked the man who had performed the miracle he could not tell them.

The incident was typical, he declared. Many people had been healed by Christ without knowing who had healed them. Many beneficent movements throughout the world which had been inspired by his influence have failed to acknowledge him. In China and India today many movements are going forward, apart from Christianity, which in reality are inspired by the Christian gospel.

Democracy in Greece.

The establishment of democracy, the education of the masses, the erection of hospitals were never known until the introduction of Christianity. It was true there was a so-called democracy in the days of ancient Greece. It was not real, because a large proportion of the people were slaves, and the principles of democracy that did operate only affected the oligarchy. Confucius was a great teacher, but his system did not produce schools. Mohammed as a great teacher, but his system left his followers wallowing in ignorance. He pointed out that the beginning of most of the great universities in the British Empire had been in the Christian Church. Applying the text he pointed out that nations which had risen from darkness and illiteracy had often failed to acknowledge the hand that healed them.

"There was never a time when the need of Christ and his distinctive gospel was so intensely needed as today," he said.

THOUGHTS HAVE EFFECT.

Rev. G. Q. Warner at Cronyn Memorial Church, in his morning sermon, referred to the collect of the day, in which protection is asked against the assault of evil thoughts. Religion, he pointed out, was many centuries ahead of science in realizing the power which good or bad thoughts could exercise, as indicated by this collect from the Middle Ages. The power of thought was the same as exercised by God in the creation of the world. It had a powerful effect not only on the mind and body of the person concerned, but on the whole community. It could become ungoverned or trained in the wrong way, and because of that it was easy to get many people to think for hours on debasing things, and so difficult to get them to think on elevating things. It was easy to get crowds for vulgar amusements, but difficult to get them for the better ones.

He declared that an addition could be made to the prayer, so that as well as asking for protection against evil thoughts, power might be asked to think great, odly thoughts with which to assault our own souls and others for good.

AT FIRST CONGREGATIONAL.

At First Congregational Church on Sunday morning, the pastor, Rev. M. Kelly, took as his text Deuteronomy xii., 9: "Ye have not as yet come to the rest and to the inheritance which the Lord your God giveth you."

Rev. Mr. Kelly pointed out that the Hebrews, like most people, wanted to escape from the present. Sometimes he would look backward to Egypt, and in spite of its cruelty and bondage, when viewed in retrospect, he even conceived it as a desirable life.

"We remember," they said, "the fish which we did eat freely in Egypt; the cucumbers and the melons, and the leeks and the onions and the garlic; but now our souls are dried away."

"It is ever thus. The 'now' is a thorn in our flesh, from which we would be delivered. How can we be delivered?" he asked.

Lure of the Future.

"The Hebrew sought relief in the future. To him just ahead on the pathway of life there lay in the wide horizon the land of the calm. Like a dream it would gleam before him, and he would hear God say, 'Ye have dwelt long enough in this mount.' Surely there can be no hard ways there; no difficult paths as here. It seems to smile at us from the distance. It beckons us to follow, and then, when we are about to make it our own, it recedes into the farther haze. Hopes, disappointments, joy and sadness alternate, ebbing and flowing in our hearts.

"We idealize the past. The untried future is apt to be full of glory, but the present, only the present, is full of pain.

"May God help us to face it courageously, for the enduring satisfaction of the life depends on the courage with which we meet the hard experiences we must necessarily face," he said in conclusion.

MODERATOR PREACHES.

Rev. Dr. D. L. McCrae, acting as moderator of the session until a successor to the late W. J. Knox is called, preached in the First Presbyterian Church to large congregations morning and evening. He read the intimation of the Presbytery, declaring the charge vacant on account of the deeply lamented death of the Rev. W. J. Knox, M. A., and calling upon the people to proceed with all convenient speed and according to the laws and practices of the church, to call a minister to fill the vacancy. This document was signed by Rev. W. M. Martin, clerk of Presbytery. A large and representative committee of the church has the matter already in hand, and a number of names are before them. There will be no canvassing, but the committee hopes in a short time to present a name to the congregation who will be a worthy successor to the greatly and universally-loved pastor whom death has taken from them. The venerable moderator, Dr. McCrae, preached two strong and very earnest sermons, which were profound and beautiful expositions of divine truth, and which were greatly appreciated. The morning subject was "A vision of God" and in the evening the Rev. Dr. McCrae spoke on "A Great and Wonderful Revelation." The large choir rendered a fine and worshipful service of praise.

ST. PAUL'S CATHEDRAL.

Choosing a subject that was in keeping with the Lenten season, Dean L. N. Tucker of St. Paul's Cathedral preached on "Temptation." Sunday evening. Christ's temptation while in the wilderness was the basis of the sermon.

Temptations, he said, were meant to be tests of characters. Everyone, everywhere, regardless of his rank, was put to the test, so he said the subject was universal. Great temptations lay within, he continued. In the heart there was the temptation of selfishness and self-indulgence which in themselves were great vices against the Lord.

Satan Tempts All Men.

The inward temptations, he claimed, were dove-tailed with the allrements of the world, the pleasures and riches which would not satisfy. These temptations were made ten-fold stronger with the working of the evil spirit of Satan who possessed the power to tempt all men. The only remedy lay in eternal vigilance.

There must be no swerving from the spirit of the Bible, the Dean said. He warned all to avoid temptation. Especially did he advise young men to keep from evil companions, and from reading evil literature. He urged his hearers to trust always in Christ who was tempted and who remained strong.

PREACHER SCARED A KING.

"A Preacher Who Scared a King," was the subject of a powerful sermon delivered Sunday evening in the Dundas Street Centre Church by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Pescott. He based his sermon on Herod's fear of John the Baptist.

In accounting for John's power over the evil king whose word was all-powerful throughout the world, Mr. Pescott said that because John believed that he had a mission from God and that God was on his side he feared nothing. He criticized Herod and took him to task as no other man dared. Adapting the lesson to the present day the speaker said that any man who felt that he had a mission or who believed that he had a strong backing could dare to do great things.

Need For Men Today.

That there was a great need for men who were inspired with this power was evidenced by the present state of the world. It took, he said, 1,500 years before England dared dictate to her king as John dared talk to Herod. There was need, he said, of a generation of men possessed with the spirit of John to clean the world of its sins.

John the Baptist, Mr. Pescott continued, was possessed with his wonderful power also because of his holiness. It was not, he said, a type of a sickly holiness which often passed today, but he was possessed with an incorruptible holiness that was right and true to the core.

CHURCH OVERCROWDED.

Adelaide Street Baptist Church experienced another overflow congregation last night. Every available sitting was occupied long before time for service, and many were turned away.

In developing his subject, "Stuck in Shallow Water," which was taken from Luke, v., 4, Rev. C. A. Leichliter said: "The great Master of all men was here starting out upon a campaign to conquer the world. He was selecting his staff officers. Down he went among the fishing smacks lying in shallow water at the shore of Galilee. There was a reason. He could have found many a delicate student with high forehead, white hands, refined tastes and dyspeptic disposition without ever having left Jerusalem. He might have called into apostleship twelve men of books and rhetoric and aesthetic temperament, but did not do it that way. These men never had made a speech or taken a lesson in belles-letters; they had never been sick enough to make them look delicate; they had never seen that modern invention called a manicurist; their hands were broad, clumsy and hard knuckled. It does not take a dainty hand to pull a net or climb a ratline."

Picked Fearless Men.

"Jesus did choose these men because they feared not the hardest job that ever faced them. Men who would stand at the helm of a fishing shooner, and shove her prow into the flashing eye of a Galilee storm were the right sort upon whom to depend for the launching of the gigantic enterprises of his kingdom upon earth."

Applying this thought Mr. Leichliter said: "The word of Christ Jesus has lost none of its appropriateness and tonight, every soul in this presence should leap at the command of the Lord. We have been paddling along the shores of experience. The sea is beyond! We have been fearful of launching out for God and Christ. We are stuck in shallow water. We have feared the vessel would not weather the storm or that the Polar Star would prove faulty. Cowardice has made us poor sailors and worse fishermen. We have feared the old associations and dissolute habits, but tonight we hear a voice from an old, reliable Book, and it assures us that "He will keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee because he trusteth in thee." Run up your main sail and let the booking-office in the Eternal City take note that a new vessel sails the high seas of experience, bound from earth to heaven and under full sail."

SERMON ON BAPTISM.

"Baptism" was the subject taken for the morning sermon in the King Street Presbyterian Church by Rev. W. R. McIntosh. He said the Jews looked upon baptism as a matter of repentance. The Quakers would have nothing to do with a ritual baptism, but were firm believers in the spiritual baptism. Roman Catholics, he said, believe that without baptism a person cannot be saved, and the Baptists follow the version of baptism that St. Paul had.

Mr. McIntosh said that the modern view of baptism should embrace all these, and make it an ordination to be celebrated by all. Every person is a child of God, and in recognizing baptism acknowledges this.

A NEW DAY DAWNING.

"The Dayspring From on High" was the text taken by Rev. James Mackay from the first chapter of St. Luke. Mr. Mackay likened the songs of the angels, the songs of Simeon and Anna, and that of Zacharias to the warbling of birds greeting the rising sun. Zacharias, when singing his song after the birth of his son, John the Baptist, knew that the clouds were to to pass away and a new day dawn, and he sang: "Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he hath visited and redeemed his people, and hath raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David." Mr. Mackay pointed out that the story of Zacharias was so true to life that it is well worth studying.

Millions in Darkness.

"The World Without Christ" was his second heading, and he brought before the congregation the vision of the millions sitting in a cloud of darkness and in a state or torpor, waiting for the cloud to rise and the dawning of the day when they will know Christ. "Individuals that are not to be numbered with those that wait in Africa, India and China as as much in the dark," the speaker said, "as those who have not received the light of Christ. If God's messengers had gone east instead of west, the darkness in which they sit would have been our portion. Unless we make use of the light now ours we may be given the portion of darkness, and the blessing of light given to those now in the dark.

Blessings of Light.

"The blessings of light are many, light on our sufferings and the providences that are so mysterious to us. These sufferings are like a scaffold built about us, and when the structure is complete it is taken away. Hence the picture given us in Revelations by St. John of heaven, where there is no more suffering, sorrow or tears." Mr. Mackay challenged those that are blessed with the light to help those that sit in darkness.

REBELLION AGAINST GOD.

"What is Sin?" was the subject taken by Rev. D. C. MacGregor in St. Andrew's Church on Sunday evening, when he dealt with several of the theories of sin held today. The speaker termed sin as imperfection, also the failure to attain an ideal, or in other words, to miss the mark. "Sin is the result of rebellion against God, himself and his neighbor, and the only way a man can redeem himself from sin is by getting into the right relationship with God," said Mr. MacGregor. The speaker went into detail regarding the causes of sin.

PRESENTS WESTERN UNIVERSITY WITH VALUABLE COLLECTION

Herbarium of J. A. Morton, Wingham, Removed to London by Motor Truck.

Now that the question of the electrification of the London, Huron and Bruce is being discussed, a story has come to light which shows how the motor truck is beginning to compete with the railways leading out of London.

J. A. Morton, magistrate of Wingham, and botanical collector of national repute, decided to present his very valuable herbarium to the Western University. How would the collection be brought the seventy-five miles from Wingham to London? This problem engaged the mind of Professor A. D. Robertson of the department of botany and biology, who was anxious to get the collection to London as safely and quickly as possible. Professor Robertson had visions of loading and unloading, and slow travel by rail.

The upshot was that the professor bethought himself of a plan whereby the whole transaction would be accomplished in a single day. Setting out with a motor truck at daybreak, he was driven to Wingham by the Lucan road and arrived there long before noon. The middle of the day was occupied in packing up the herbarium and storing it on the truck. By 8 o'clock in the evening the professor and his cargo, worth thousands of dollars, had reached the university buildings on George street. In a few minutes, the collection was safely under lock and key.

Professor Robertson acknowledges that he had a harder day than is his wont among the students on the hill, but he says that nothing can beat the fresh ozone he drank in on the old Lucan turnpike.

L. S. R. CO. RELAYS DEFECTIVE RAILS

New Track Constructed Over Dundas Street Bridge On Sunday.

The London Street Railway Company took advantage of the Sunday slackness of traffic to lay new rails on the Dundas street bridge yesterday. The work was completed by 5:30 p.m., and the transfer system, which had been in operation during the day was discontinued. While the rails were being laid, a car was operated backward and forward from Oxford street to the west end of the bridge, where the passengers were transferred to another car at the east end of the bridge.

This bridge was the scene of considerable alarm to a number of Londoners about two weeks ago, when a car coming east jumped the tracks on the bridge, fortunately without any serious result. At the time the company claimed that the accident was due to a spread rail, but people on the car asserted that the trouble was the result of bad wheels on the rear truck of the car. The fact that spread rails are not weather troubles, and not common in winter, was pointed out by those who did not agree with the company's excuse.

DREW RECORD CROWDS.

HARRISTON, Feb. 19.—The second annual Dollar Day held here today, proved a magnet which attracted the whole countryside, and resulted in local merchants having the largest turnover that they have ever had in one day. Ideal weather brought the buyers in in crowds, many coming from considerable distances by auto and by train. The merchants plan to hold another Dollar Day sale next year and will put forth even greater efforts.

FIRE AT GODERICH.

GODERICH, Feb. 20.—Fire, which started from a spark from a chimney at noon today, resulted in considerable damage being done to the roof and attic at the home of Public School Inspector Dr. Field. Prompt action by the fire department prevented more serious loss.
