BILL.

An Act to facilitate the performance of the duties of Justices of the Peace, out of Sessions, in Upper Canada, with respect to persons charged with Indictable Offences.

WHEREAS it would conduce much to the improvement of the administration of Criminal Justice in Upper Canada, if the several Statutes and parts of Statutes relating to the duties of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace therein, with respect to persons charged with indictable offences, were consolidated, with such additions and alterations as may be deemed necessary, and that such duties should be clearly defined by positive enactment: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intitled, An Act to re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in all cases where a charge or complaint (A) is made before any one or more of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for any Territorial Division in Upper Canada, that any person has committed, or is suspected to have committed, any treason, felony or other indictable misdemeanor or offence within the limits of the jurisdiction of such Justice or Justices of the Peace, or that any person guilty or suspected to be guilty of having committed any such crime or offence elsewhere out of the jurisdiction of such Justice or Justices, is residing or being, or is suspected to reside or be within the limits of the jurisdiction of such Justice or Justices, then, and in every such case, if the person so charged or complained against shall not then be in custody, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices of the Peace to issue his or their Warrant (B) to apprehend such person, and to cause him to be brought before such Justice or Justices, or any other Justice or Justices for the same Territorial Division; to answer such charge or complaint and to be further dealt with according to law; Provided always, that in all cases it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices to whom such charge or complaint shall be preferred, if he or they shall so think fit, instead of issuing in the first instance his or their Warrant to apprehend the person so charged or complained against, to issue his or their Summons (C) directed to such person, requiring him to appear before the said Justice or Justices, at the time and place to be therein mentioned, or before such other Justice or Justices of the same Territorial Division as may then be there, and if, after being served with such Summons in manner hereinafter mentioned, he shall fail to appear at such time and place, in obedience to such Summons, then, and in every such case, the said Justice or Justices, or any other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same Territorial Division, may issue his or their Preamble.

For what offences a Justice of the Peace may grant a Warrant or Summons to cause the party charged therewith to be brought before him.

In what cases the party charged may be summoned instead of issuing a Warrant in the first instance.

If the Summons be not obeyed a Warrant may then be issued.

Proviso.

Warrant (D) to apprehend such person so charged or complained against, and cause such person to be brought before him or them, or before some other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same Territorial Division, to answer to the said charge or complaint, and to be further dealt with according to law; Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall prevent any Justice or Justices of the Peace from issuing the Warrant hereinafore first mentioned, at any time before or after the time mentioned in such Summons for the appearance of the said accused party. 5

As to Warrants to apprehend parties against whom indictments may be found.

If the party indicted be already in Gaol for some other offence, the Justice may order him to be detained until removed by Writ of Habeas Corpus or otherwise discharged.

Proviso.

II. And be it enacted, That when any indictment shall be found by the Grand Jury in any Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, or in any Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, against any person who shall then be at large, and whether such person shall be bound by any Recognizance to appear to answer to any such charge or not, the person who shall act as Marshall at such Court of Oyer and Terminer, or Gaol Delivery, or as Clerk of the Peace at such Sessions at which the said indictment shall be found, shall, at any time afterwards after the end of the Sessions of Oyer and Terminer, or Gaol Delivery, or Sessions of the Peace, at which such indictment shall have been found, upon application of the Prosecutor, or of any person on his behalf, and on payment of a fee of one shilling, if such person shall not have already appeared and pleaded to such indictment, grant unto such Prosecutor or person a Certificate (F) of such indictment having been found; and upon production of such Certificate to any Justice or Justices of the Peace for the District in which the offence shall in such indictment be alleged to have been committed, or in which the person indicted in and by such indictment shall reside or be, or be supposed or suspected to reside or be, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, and he or they are hereby required to issue his or their Warrant (G) to apprehend such person so indicted, and to cause him to be brought before such Justice or Justices or any other Justice or Justices for the same District, to be dealt with according to law; and afterwards if such person be thereupon apprehended and brought before any such Justice or Justices, such Justice or Justices, upon its being proved upon oath or affirmation before him or them that the person so apprehended is the same person who is charged and named in such indictment, shall, without further inquiry or examination, commit (H) him for trial or admit him to bail in manner hereinafter mentioned; or if such person so indicted shall be confined in any gaol or prison for any other offence than that charged in the said indictment at the time of such application and production of such Certificate to such Justice or Justices as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, and he or they are hereby required, upon its being proved before him or them upon oath or affirmation, that the person so indicted and the person so confined in prison are one and the same person, to issue his or their Warrant (I), directed to the Gaoler or Keeper of the gaol or prison in which the person so indicted shall then be confined as aforesaid, commanding him to detain such person in his custody, until, by Her Majesty's Writ of Habeas Corpus, he shall be removed therefrom for the purpose of being tried upon the said indictment, or until he shall be otherwise removed or discharged out of his custody by due course of law: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent or be construed to prevent the issuing or execution of Bench Warrants, whenever any Court of competent jurisdiction may think proper to order the issuing of any such Warrant. 50

III. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the Peace to grant or issue any Warrant as aforesaid, or any Search Warrant, on a Sunday as well as on any other day.

Justices may issue Search Warrants and others on Sunday.

IV. And be it enacted, That in all cases when a charge or complaint for any indictable offence shall be made before such Justice or Justices aforesaid, if it be intended to issue a Warrant in the first instance against such party or parties so charged, an information and complaint thereof (A) in writing, on the oath or affirmation of the informant, or of some witness or witnesses in that behalf, shall be laid before such Justice or Justices: 10 Provided always, that in all cases when it is intended to issue a Summons instead of a Warrant in the first instance, it shall not be necessary that such information and complaint shall be in writing, or be sworn to or affirmed in manner aforesaid; but in every such case such information and complaint may be by parol merely, and without any oath or affirmation whatsoever to support or substantiate the same: Provided also, that no objection shall be taken or allowed to any such information or complaint for any alleged defect therein in substance or in form, or for any variance between it and the evidence adduced on the part of the prosecution, before the Justice or Justices who shall take the examination of the witnesses on that 20 behalf as hereinafter mentioned; and if any credible Witness shall prove upon oath (E 1) before a Justice of the Peace, that there is reasonable cause to suspect that any property whatsoever, on or with respect to which any larceny or felony shall have been committed, is in any dwelling house, out-house, garden, yard, croft or other place or places, the Justice may 25 grant a Warrant (E 2) to search such dwelling house, garden, yard, croft or other place or places, for such property.

V. And be it enacted, That upon such information and complaint being so laid as aforesaid, the Justice or Justices receiving the same may, if he or they shall think fit, issue his or their Summons or Warrant respectively as 30 hereinbefore directed, to cause the person charged as aforesaid to be and appear before him or them, or any other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same Territorial Division, to be dealt with according to law: and every summons (C) shall be directed to the party so charged in and by such information, and shall state shortly the matter of such information, and 35 shall require the party to whom it is directed to be and appear at a certain time and place therein mentioned, before the Justice who shall issue such Summons, or before such other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same Territorial Division as may then be there, to answer to the said charge, and to be further dealt with according to law; and every such Summons 40 shall be served by a Constable or other Peace Officer upon the person to whom it is so directed, by delivering the same to the party personally, or, if he cannot conveniently be met with, then by leaving the same for him with some person at his last or most usual place of abode; and the Constable or other Peace Officer who shall have served the same in manner aforesaid, 45 shall attend at the time and place, and before the Justices in the said Summons mentioned, to depose, if necessary, to the service of such Summons; and if the person so served shall not be and appear before such Justice or Justices, at the time and place mentioned in such Summons, in obedience to the same, then it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, to issue his 50 or their Warrant (D) for apprehending the party so summoned, and bringing him before such Justice or Justices, or before some other Justice or Justices for the same Territorial Division, to answer the charge in the said

VI. And be it enacted, That every Warrant (B) hereafter to be issued by any Justice or Justices of the Peace to apprehend any person charged with any indictable offence, shall be under the Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, of the Justice or Justices issuing the same, and may be directed to all or any of the Constables or other Peace Officers of the District within which the same is to be executed, or to such Constable and all other Constables or Peace Officers in the Territorial Division within which the Justice or Justices issuing the same has or have jurisdiction, or generally to all the Constables or Peace Officers within such last mentioned Territorial Division; and it shall state shortly the offence on which it is founded, and shall name or otherwise describe the offender; and it shall order the person or persons to whom it is directed to apprehend the offender, and bring him before the Justice or Justices issuing such Warrant, or before some other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same Territorial Division, to answer to the charge contained in the said information, and to be further dealt with according to law; and it shall not be necessary to make such Warrant returnable at any particular time, but the same may remain in force until it shall be executed; and such Warrant may be executed by apprehending the offender at any place within the Territorial Division within which the Justice or Justices issuing the same shall have jurisdiction, or, in case of fresh pursuit, at any place in the next adjoining Territorial Division, and within seven miles of the border of such first mentioned Territorial Division, without having such Warrant backed, as hereinafter mentioned; and in all cases where such Warrant shall be directed to all Constables or other Peace Officers within the Territorial Division within which such Justice or Justices shall have jurisdiction, it shall be lawful for any Constable or other Peace Officer for any place within such District to execute the said Warrant at any place within the jurisdiction for which the said Justice or Justices shall have acted when he or they granted such Warrant, in like manner as if such Warrant were directed specially to such Constable by name, and notwithstanding the place within which such Warrant shall be executed shall not be within the place for which he shall be Constable or Peace Officer; Provided always, that no objection shall be taken or allowed to any such Warrant for any defect therein, in substance or in form, or for any variance between it and the evidence adduced on the part of the prosecution, before the Justice or Justices who shall take the examination of the witnesses in that behalf as hereinafter mentioned; but if any such variance shall appear to any such Justice or Justices to be such that the party charged has been thereby deceived or misled, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, at the request of the party so made on oath of the hand-writing of the Justice issuing the same, and without any security being given, to make an endorsement (K) on such rant within the jurisdiction of the Justice making such endorsement, and which endorsement shall be sufficient authority to the person bringing directed, and also to all Constables and other Peace Officers of the Terri-20 torial Division where such Warrant shall be so endorsed, to execute the same in such other Territorial Division, and to carry the person against whom such Warrant shall have issued, when apprehended, before the Justice or Justices of the Peace who first issued the said Warrant, or before some other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same Territorial Divi-25 sion, or before some Justice or Justices of the Territorial Division where the offence in the said Warrant mentioned appears therein to have been committed; Provided always, that if the Prosecutor or any of the Wit-

 Division where such person shall have been so apprehended, the Consta-30 ble, or other person or persons who shall have so apprehended such per-convey him before the Justice who shall have so backed the said War-before a Justice or Justices of the Peace, with an offence alleged to have been committed in another District than that in which such persons have been apprehended.

 person within the jurisdiction of such Justice is likely to give material evidence for the prosecution, and will not voluntarily appear for the purpose of being examined as a Witness at the time and place appointed for the examin-45 ation of the witnesses against the accused, such Justice may and is hereby required to issue his Summons (L 1) to such person under his Hand and of the Peace for the same Territorial Division as shall then be there, to

shall be offered for such neglect or refusal, then (after proof upon oath or affirmation of such Summons having been served upon such person, either personally or with some person for him at his last or most usual place of abode,) it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices before whom such person should have appeared, to issue a Warrant (L 2) under his or their Hands and Seals, to bring and have such person, at a time and place to be therein mentioned, before the Justice who issued the said Summons, or before such other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same Territorial Division as shall then be there, to testify as aforesaid, and which said Warrant may, if necessary, be backed as hereinbefore is mentioned, in order to its being executed out of the jurisdiction of the Justice who shall have issued the same; or if such Justice shall be satisfied by evidence upon oath or affirmation that it is probable that such person will not attend to give evidence unless compelled so to do, then, instead of issuing such Summons, it shall be lawful for him to issue his Warrant (L 3) in the first instance, and which, if necessary, may be backed as aforesaid; and if on the appearance of such person so summoned before the said last mentioned Justice or Justices, either in obedience to the said Summons or upon being brought before him or them by virtue of the said Warrant, such person shall refuse to be examined upon oath or affirmation concerning the premises, or shall refuse to take such oath or affirmation, or having taken such oath or affirmation shall refuse to answer such questions concerning the premises as shall then be put to him without giving any just excuse for such refusal, any Justice of the Peace then present and having there jurisdiction, may, by Warrant (L 4) under his Hand and Seal, commit the person so refusing to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for the Territorial Division where such person so refusing shall then be, there to remain and be imprisoned for any time not exceeding ten days, unless he shall in the meantime consent to be examined and to answer concerning the premises.

purports to have been taken, it shall be lawful to read such deposition as evidence in such prosecution without further proof thereof, unless it shall be proved that such deposition was not in fact signed by the Justice purporting to sign the same.

- 5 X. And be it enacted, That after the examinations of all the witnesses on the part of the prosecution as aforesaid shall have been completed, the Justice of the Peace or one of the Justices by or before whom such examination shall have been so completed as aforesaid, shall, without requiring the attendance of the witnesses, read or cause to be read to the
- 10 accused the depositions taken against him, and shall say to him these words, or words to the like effect: "Having heard the evidence, do you "wish to say any thing in answer to the charge? You are not obliged "to say any thing unless you desire to do so, but whatever you say "will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence against
- 15 "you upon your trial;" and whatever the prisoner shall then say in answer thereto shall be taken down in writing (N) and read over to him, and shall be signed by the said Justice or Justices, and kept with the depositions of the witnesses, and shall be transmitted with them as hereinafter mentioned; and afterwards, upon the trial of the said accused
- 20 person, the same may if necessary be given in evidence against him without further proof thereof, unless it shall be proved that the Justice or Justices purporting to sign the same did not in fact sign the same: Provided always, that the said Justice or Justices, before such accused person shall make any statement, shall state to him and give him clearly to understand
- 25 that he has nothing to hope from any promise of favor, and nothing to fear from any threat which may have been holden out to him to induce him to make any admission or confession of his guilt; but that whatever he shall then say may be given in evidence against him upon his trial, notwithstanding such promise or threat: Provided nevertheless, that
- 30 nothing herein contained or enacted shall prevent the prosecutor in any case from giving in evidence any admission or confession, or other statement of the person accused or charged, made at any time which by law would be admissible as evidence against such person.

When the examination of the witnesses is completed, their depositions to be read to the party accused, and any statement he may then wish to make to be taken down, he being first cautioned, &c.

- 40 Justices, if it appear to him or them that the ends of Justice will be best answered by so doing.

Place where the examination is taken not to be deemed an open Court.

- XII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any such Justice or Justices before whom any such witness shall be examined as aforesaid, to bind by Recognizance (O) the Prosecutor, and every such witness,
- 45 to appear at the next Court of competent Criminal Jurisdiction at which the accused is to be tried, then and there to prosecute or prosecute and give evidence, or to give evidence, as the case may be, against the party accused, which said Recognizance shall particularly specify the profession, art, mystery or trade of every such person entering into or acknowledging the same, together with his Christian and surname, and the Justices may bind over the prosecutor and witnesses to prosecute and give evidence.

City, Town or Borough, the Recognizance shall also particularly specify the name of the street and the number (if any) of the house in which he resides, and whether he is owner or tenant thereof, or lodger therein; and the said Recognizance, being duly acknowledged by the person so entering into the same, shall be subscribed by the Justice or Justices before whom the same shall be acknowledged, and a notice (O 2) thereof, signed by the said Justice or Justices, shall at the same time be given to the person bound thereby; and the several Recognizances so taken, together with the written information (if any), the depositions, the statement of the accused, and the Recognizance of Bail (if any) in every such case shall be delivered by the said Justice or Justices, or he or they shall cause the same to be delivered to the proper Officer of the Court in which the trial is to be had, before or at the opening of the said Court on the first day of the sitting thereof, or at such other time as the Judge, Justice or person who is to preside at such Court at the said trial shall order and appoint: Provided always, that if any such witness shall refuse to enter into or acknowledge such Recognizance as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices of the Peace by his or their Warrant (P 1) to commit him to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for the Territorial Division in which the accused party is to be tried, there to be imprisoned and safely kept until after the trial of such accused party, unless in the meantime such witness shall duly enter into such Recognizance as aforesaid before some one Justice of the Peace for the Territorial Division in which such Gaol or House of Correction shall be situate: Provided nevertheless, that if afterwards, for want of sufficient evidence in that behalf, or other cause, the Justice or Justices before whom such accused party shall have been brought shall not commit him or hold him to bail for the offence with which he is charged, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, or for any other Justice or Justices for the same Territorial Division, by his or their Order (P 2) in that behalf, to order and direct the Keeper of such Common Gaol or House of Correction where such witnesses shall be so in custody, to discharge him from the same, and such Keeper shall thereupon forthwith discharge him accordingly.

Recognizance, depositions, &c., to be transmitted to the proper officer of the Court in which the trial is to be had.

Witnesses refusing to enter into cognizances may be committed.

Proviso.

Sic.

Justices may remand the accused from time to time, for not exceeding eight days, by Warrant, or for not more than three days by verbal order.

Proviso.

XIII. And be it enacted, That if from the absence of witnesses, or from any other reasonable cause, it shall become necessary or advisable to defer the examination or further examination of the witnesses for any time, it shall be lawful to and for the Justice or Justices before whom the accused shall appear or be brought by his or their Warrant (Q 1) from time to time to remand the party accused for such time as by such Justice or Justices in their discretion shall be deemed reasonable, not exceeding eight clear days at any one time, to the Common Gaol or House of Correction or other Prison, Lock-up house, or place of security in the Territorial Division for which such Justice or Justices shall then be acting; or if the remand be for a time not exceeding three clear days, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices verbally to order the Constable, or other person in whose custody such party accused may then be, or any other Constable or person to be named by the said Justice or Justices in that behalf, to continue or keep such party accused in his custody, and to bring him before the same or such other Justice or Justices as shall be there acting at the time appointed for continuing such examination: Provided always, that any such Justice or Justices may order such accused party to be brought before him or them, or before any other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same Territorial Division, at any time before the expiration of the time for which such party shall be remanded, and the Gaoler or Officer in whose custody he shall then be shall duly obey such Order: Provided also, that instead of detaining the said accused party in custody during the period for which such accused party shall be so remanded, any one Justice of the Peace before whom such party shall so appear or be brought as aforesaid, may discharge him, upon his entering into a Recognizance (Q 2,3,) with or without a Surety or Sureties, at the discretion of such Justice, conditioned for his appearance at the time and place appointed for the continuance of such examination; and if such accused party shall not afterwards appear at the time and place mentioned in such Recognizance, then the said Justice or any other Justice of the Peace who may then and there be present, upon certifying (Q 4) upon the back of the Recognizances the non-appearance of such accused party, may transmit such Recognizance to the Clerk of the Peace for the Territorial Division within which such Recognizance shall have been taken, to be proceeded upon in like manner as other Recognizances, and such Certificate shall be deemed sufficient prima facie evidence of such non-appearance of the said accused party.

Proviso:
Party accused may, on the examination being adjourned, be admitted to bail to appear on the continuance thereof.

If the party does not so appear, recognizance to be transmitted to Clerk of the Peace.

XIV. And whereas it often happens that a person is charged before a Justice of the Peace with an offence alleged to have been committed in another Territorial Division than that in which such person has been apprehended, or in which such Justice has jurisdiction, and it is necessary to make provision as to the manner of taking the examinations of the witnesses, and of committing the party accused or admitting him to bail in such a case, Be it therefore enacted, That whenever a person shall appear or be brought before a Justice or Justices of the Peace in the Territorial Division wherein such Justice or Justices shall have jurisdiction, charged with an offence alleged to have been committed by him within any Territorial Division wherein such Justice or Justices shall not have jurisdiction, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, and he or they are hereby required to examine such witnesses, and receive such evidence in proof of the said charge as shall be produced before him or them within his or their jurisdiction; and if in his or their opinion such testimony and evidence shall be sufficient proof of the charge made against such accused party, such Justice or Justices shall thereupon commit him to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for the Territorial Division where the offence is alleged to have been committed, or shall admit him to bail as hereinafter mentioned, and shall bind over the prosecutor (if he have appeared before him or them) and the witnesses by Recognizance accordingly as herein before mentioned; but if such testimony and evidence shall not, in the opinion of such Justice or Justices be sufficient to put the accused party upon his trial for the offence with which he is so charged, then such Justice or Justices shall bind over such witness or witnesses as he shall have examined by Recognizance to give evidence as hereinbefore is mentioned; and such Justice or Justices shall, by Warrant (R 1) under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, order the said accused party to be taken before some Justice or Justices of the Peace in and for the Territorial Division where the offence is alleged to have been committed, and shall at the same time deliver up the information and complaint, and also the depositions and Recognizances so taken by him or them to the Constable who shall have the execution of such last mentioned Warrant, to be by him delivered to the Justice or Justices before whom he shall take the accused, in obedience to the said Warrant, and which said depositions and Recognizances shall be deemed to be taken in the case, and shall be treated to all intents and purposes as if they had been taken by or

If a party be apprehended in one Territorial Division on a charge of an offence committed in another, he may be examined and committed in the former.

And upon sufficient evidence may be committed to prison.
