The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Hamilton Public Library

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche sheet contains the symbol $\rightarrow$ (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagram illustrates the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Hamilton Public Library

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaît sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole $\rightarrow$ signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

St. Paul's Church

ST. PAUL'S is the oldest Presbyterian congregation in the city of Hamilton. About 1830 a few of the Scotch families in the Gore District, were moved to hold worship regularly on Sunday in one another's houses. When their numbers grew they held services in the old Court House. In 1833, Rev. Alex. Gale became their minister. The new congregation was called St. Andrew's. Soon after his settlement a frame church was built on the corner of James and Jackson streets, on a lot presented to the young congregation by the late Peter Hunter Hamilton. This building was once, if not twice, enlarged. In 1844 the disruption that had divided the Established Church in Scotland was felt in Canada. The minister of St. Andrew's, with a section of the congregation, went out and formed Knox congregation. In Autumn of 1854, during the ministry of Rev. Robert Burnett, the corner stone of the present Gothic structure was laid by the late John Young. Difficulties arose in 1870, whereby the Church was not only closed but actually sold to the James Street Baptist congregation. In 1873 the Church was bought back again, and by permission of Presbytery was named St. Paul's. John Young, John Riddell, Judge Logie, John Brown, Thos. C. Kerr, members of old St. Andrew's, became personally responsible for the heavy mortgage. In 1878 Matthew Leggat, James Hutchinson and William Black took over this mortgage on behalf of the congregation. From that day of sore distress the congregation has continued to prosper without any serious hindrances. For nearly fifty years continuous services have been held in this stately edifice. Every lover of Gothic architecture admires St. Paul's. Its pointed arches, suggesting the upward meeting of the boughs of the forest, its many floriated pendants and finials reminding us of opening and opened flower buds; its numerous quaterfoils symbolizing the fan-spread petals of a blossom—its half-hidden trefoils, fashioned after the clover-leaf—all unite in making it a poem in stone. May the congregation continue to have many loyal hearts and noble spirits who shall delight in preserving, and in enriching this fine Gothic structure.

The Work of the Congregation

DESPITE the crises through which St. Paul's has passed, there has been steady growth in every department of the Church's work. We have scant statistics prior to 1878. In that year the membership was 283, now it is 633. In 1878, the ordinary expenditure was $2,469, to-day it is $6,351. In 1878 missionary and benevolent offerings amounted to $200, last year $3,189 was contributed. For many years the congregation was hampered by a heavy debt. Since 1878 $44,391 has been paid for debt and interest. From same date $28,800 has been spent upon church improvements, Lecture Hall, Memorial Mission and Cottage. At the present time there is no debt on any of the church property. Although wrestling with a heavy debt since 1878, and although they required to raise $126,115 for ordinary expenses, yet they have been able to contribute $59,442 for missionary and benevolent purposes. To-day St. Paul's not only has a Bible woman at Laidlaw Memorial Mission, but also is supporting three missionaries in British Columbia, and a fourth in the Rainy River District. Our Board of Missions is aiming at the support of a Foreign Missionary. We were hoping that the Assembly's Foreign Mission Committee would have been able to have ordained our Foreign Missionary during the Jubilee Services. It has been impossible to secure the right man. The Session's desire is that these Jubilee Services may result in rich spiritual blessing to every member, and also in awakening a deeper missionary spirit in every heart. May God grant it!
